THE INSIDE STORY

Recording star, Charlie McGee will be guest star. Charlie can be heard from Radio Eireann every Saturday & indeed his records have found their way into Radio Luxembourg which is a sure indication of his popularity. Speaking to him last night, I learned that when he made an appearance in Limerick on Tuesday night last (way up in the Northern part of our Land) some 2,000 people turned up to hear him sing. Charlie is quite a wonderful personality - a star who has remained quite an ordinary fellow - who is still fighting for a rightful place in our entertainment world. Make no mistake about it - his visit to Goatenbridge is an opportunity to all in this side of the country to enjoy another big night's entertainment on the stages of the Knockmealdowns.

Kilmacthomas, Kilrossanty and Stradbally Notes

Kilrossanty Football Club Comoragh Valley Club Band will be rendering the music at the eagerly looked forward to Ceili, under the aegis and in aid of the above popular G.A.A. Club, coming off at the Rainbow Hall, Kilmacthomas, on Sunday 20th inst. Full essential preliminary particulars will be duly advertised in this paper.

Ordnained Priest on May 24th last at Sacred Heart Cathedral, Pueblo, Colorado, U.S.A., was the Rev. William Vincent Power, who since then has been visiting his nearest and dearest in his natal Deise country and who on Thursday of last week again left for the Great Western Republic to take up his priestly labour at the centre of his appointment in the Lord's American Vineyard. Fr. Power is son of well and popularly known Mr. and Mrs. Pat Power, Mahon Bridge Stores, Kilmacthomas; he is brother of Very Rev. Thomas Power, P.P., Guernsey, and nephew of Very Rev. James Halley, P.P., Modeligo.

The mid-Summer Dance under the auspices of Kilmacthomas Comhairle Camair, Fianna Fail, held in the Rainbow Ballroom, Kilmacthomas, on Sunday night last, was favoured by a big crowd and gaily was the commencement to close (3 a.m.) the music being delightfully discoursed by Bride-side Serenaders Dance Band, Talrow (Dave Doyle Leader) and the catering by Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Casey, of the local Grand Central Shop, all that could reasonably have been desired. The all-round success of the affair speaks the very best tribute to clubbable Mr. William Lenthall, his colleagues, and the livewire committee in charge. Fianna Fail - Ballyloneen Cumann voted sympathy to the husband, family and brother of the late Mrs. P. Walsh (nee Doody) Mahonbridge, Kilmacthomas, and to the family and brother and sister of the late Mrs. E. Rockett (nee Fitzgerald) Ballybrack, do., respectively.

Late Mr. J. A. Lynch

The death took place under rather tragic circumstances in Holland early last week of Mr. James A. Lynch, 20-year-old twin son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Lynch, Mitchelstown. Only two days previously the dead boy had arrived in Holland to gain experience at the Bataaf Petroleum Maatschappij Works in Valaardingen near Rotterdam. He had a heart attack while swimming in an open air pool at Valaardingen, and succumbed shortly afterwards. Deceased's father is general manager of Mitchelstown Creameries and is well-known locally, being a native of Ballyloneen, and brother of Mr. T. F. Lynch and Miss A. Lynch, do., Mrs. J. F. Morley, Cork, and the late Jack Lynch, South Tees. The deceased was educated at Mount St. Joseph's, Roscrea, and at U.C.D. where he was a brilliant student. The remains arrived in Mitchelstown last Friday evening and following Requiem High Mass on Saturday morning interment was made in the adjoining cemetery. E. Kiely and Sons, Shanondun, Dungarvan, had charge of the funeral arrangements.

LIFE BEFORE THE GREAT SWEEPSTAKES

A ROAD STEAMER. Now that the amusement of discovery has died away it is becoming possible to appreciate better the merit of 19th century endeavour. Few things have changed the outlook and the daily life of the people so completely, and in so short a time, as has the development of transport, and while this development has culminated in our own time, its roots go back to the great Victorian engineers who, with adventurous conception and generosity of design, so ably set a course for their successors.

Appreciate the past but look forward to the future. There have been many sweepstakes before our own time but Irish Hospitals' Trust has dwarfed them all. LITA ROZA COMING DOWN OUR WAY

Here is a bit of big news for dancing fans all over this district. I have succeeded in getting the direction of the memorial on Heilick to commemorate the landing of 'The Erin's Hope' to be forgotten or being neglected. I visit the open-air dancing hall on a date that work is going ahead behind the scenes and I hope to have the monument erected and unveiled before the end of August.

ANOTHER BIG NIGHT IN GOATENBRIDGE

I note from our advertising columns this week that Tuesday night next will be another very special night in Goatenbridge. Jack Ruane and his orchestra from Mayo will be providing the music for a special gala at which the radio and

THEY WERE GOOD

What a night it turned out to be at the Gaelic Field, Dungarvan last Tuesday night when the married men of Abbeyside met and defeated the senior hurlers of the progressive little town (I can no longer call it a village). Even the Boy Scouts' Pipe Band turned out to play the teams out the field and the sunny weather favoured the occasion. I can best describe it by stating that it was a far more exciting and enjoyable affair than that witnessed in that shocking Munster Final of last year. But more about that later.

WEDDING BELLS

MacSweeney - O'Reilly At the Church of the Holy Cross, Tramore, the marriage was solemnised with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing, between Mr. Brian N. MacSweeney B.E., fourth son of the late Mr. M. The reception was held in the Grand Hotel, Tramore. The honeymoon is being spent in the Channel Islands.

THE LATE MR. E. CUNNINGHAM

The sad news of the death of Mr. E. Cunningham, which took place in England, reached his relatives here on Saturday. Eddie, as he was familiarly known, was the eldest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. Cunningham and was brother of the late Paddy Cunningham whose tragic death occurred only a few months ago. To his brothers, sisters and other relatives deep sympathy is extended on this their second bereavement within a short space of time.

THEY BOUGHT A HOUSE WITH THEIR WINNINGS

A young couple in Wales have just won enough money to buy a house, and so they say it is conclusive proof of the Legend of the 300 year old Wishing Cork Tree. Another couple had a piece of Lucky Cork sent them by a relative and got an empty house two days afterwards. A lady in Doncaster sent for a piece and won £300 on a penny pool. A wife gave her doubting husband a piece of Lucky Cork for his Birthday and two weeks after he won £1500. A mother sent each of her sons a piece and one of them won £4003 in a sweepstake. If you would like further particulars, send stamped addressed envelope to Wishing Cork Tree, Combe-in-Teignhead, Devon.

Late Mrs. Bridget Flynn RING

The announcement of the death which occurred at her residence on Saturday last of Mrs. Bridget Flynn, occasioned deep and widespread regret throughout the district over the week end. The deceased lady, who was formerly of Rev. Flynn, O.S.A. was a highly esteemed figure. Of a quiet and retiring disposition, she was deservedly popular with all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. The remains were removed to the St. Mary's Parish Church, Dungarvan, on Sunday evening in the presence of a large attendance of mourners and sympathisers, and were received by Rev. Fr. M. Flynn, O.S.A. (son); Fr. Power, C.C. Ring; Very Rev. P. Browne, Prior, O.S.A.; and Fr. Butler, do. On the following morning Requiem Office and High Mass was offered for the repose of her soul, subsequent to which interment took place in the family burial plot at Stradhally. Chief mourners—Rev. Fr. JUNIORS DAY OUT

Resumption of internal competitions on Sunday next

THE struggle for the junior championships, which have fallen into arrears in recent weeks, will be resumed with a resumption of the competitions on Sunday next.

Abbeyside, whose first round victory over the Blues was achieved with effortless ease, and Emmets, the big ball arm of Colligan Rovers, open the Fraher Field hill at 2.15.

The villagers great performance in the Phelan Cup, in which they seriously challenged Seaside Rovers and Brickey Rangers, have caused many shrewd judges to list them as a definite championship fancy.

It will be recalled that Abbeyside originally entered a team in the senior championship. The man who moulded the scheme, however, had several thoughts and it was subsequently decided to concentrate on the lower grade.

Certainly the book of form enhances the championship prospects of a side that is powered by Donal Whelan, probably the most accomplished defender in the grade.

Donal Whelan, probably the most accomplished defender in the grade, Austin Flynn, the Hogan, Dom Enright, Mick Navin, Maurice Phelan, Anthony Hayes and Mick Keating. The Emmets who made a rather disappointing exit from last year's championship, have displayed fairly good form in the interim.

On that form there should not be a great deal in the difference one way or the other. Colligan, who will be largely dependant on Roger McCarthy, Curran, Condon and Allen, may have what little advantage there is likely to be.

Feature of the day's fixtures will in all probability be the

Footballers Stiff Task

NEW ground will be broken on Sunday next when, for the first time since the resumption of the competition, the white and blue of Waterford will appear in a Munster minor football final. And a formidable assignment it is for the Decies standard-bearers, for between them and the Munster crown stands storied Kerry.

Cork is the scene of combat, and subsequent to the minor battle the men from the Leaside county, seeking their third successive championship, and Kerry will again do battle for the senior title.

The Decies teenagers won many admirers when ousting Tipperary a fortnight ago. In spirit and the will to win this Waterford side measures up to the highest standards, but it remains to be seen if even such admirable qualities will stand the test against what is reputed to be the finest minor combination to come out of the Kingdom in years.

The occasion demands a supreme effort from every boy honoured with a Waterford jersey. Kerry have, by all accounts strung together a vintage bunch, and it would appear that nothing short of sixty minutes non-stop endeavour will keep even this useful Decies side in the hunt.

Our fate will, I feel, be largely dependant on the ability of goalkeeper Reid, a star in the making, the Powers, Traynor, Hartry, O'Brien, Connolly and the Walshes to reproduce their Tipperary form.

Waterford: E. Reid (De la Salle); S. Power (Mount Sion); M. Power (Ring); C. McGinn (Ferrybank); A. Traynor (De la Salle); T. Walsh (Mount Sion); T. Nolan (Stradbally); M. Connolly (Ring); and T. Walsh (Ring); M. Curran (Dungarvan); P. Hartry (Ring); S. Sheehy (Tramore); E. Flynn (Gaultier); S. Hubbard (Newtown); F. O'Brien (Mount Sion).

Subs: P. Kiely (Newtown); E. Barrett (De la Salle); S. Power (Tramore); J. Byrne (Mount Sion); T. Moloney (Kilrossanty); Kerry: L. Nolan; A. Conway; J. Whelan; L. Hanrahan; P. Kerins; P. Dowling; A. McMahon; J. D. O'Connor and S. Dunne; O. Kerins; D. Geaney; O. Driscoll; M. Walsh; S. Stack; B. O'Rourke; Subst: H. Burke; M. O'Leary; E. O'Connor; J. Ashe; T. O'Shea.

St. Garvan's more consistent hurling over the past couple of years entitles them to the vote, though I personally feel that this is a game which could go either way.

The meeting of Valley Rovers, a great championship fancy as a result of their impressive victory over Tourin in round one, and Cappoquin could prove the highlight of the entire football campaign. Certain it is that this is a game that will draw a huge gathering to Lismore's Castle Farm.

The Rovers looked a side of great accomplishment when they routed Tourin last April. Strong in defence and at mid-field and positively rampant up front, they displayed all the qualities of potential champions during an hour of seemingly effortless endeavour. A repeat performance should suffice to send them to the next round.

Cappoquin, though, are no mean opponents. They battled their way to the divisional final in successive years and with the majority of the side which troubled Stradbally in last year's decider still available it would appear that the Derrinlarin men will have to put an hour of all out endeavour to prevail.

But win they should. It was stated by Mr. G. Clarke instructed by Messrs Farrell and Morrissey, Solrs, Dungarvan for the defendants that the plaintiffs had waited over 12 months to bring this action into Court and were now trying to rush it through.

Mr. Clarke stated that this would be a big case which would be a great deal of preparations all of which would take some time. It could be regarded as a High Court action involving £1,800 (each of the plaintiffs claiming £600 damages) and senior Counsel would be engaged on it.

Mr. Morris instructed by M/S E.A. Ryan and Co., Dungarvan for the plaintiffs stated that his clients were anxious to get on with the case without any delay because it was their intention to stage another musical festival in Dungarvan before the next sitting of the Circuit Court in November.

Judge Fawcitt adjourned the case to Kilkenny Circuit Court on the application of the defendants.

No Compensation

The story of the tenants who spent considerable sums of money on the improvement of the council house at Abbeyside was told at a meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council this week when it was announced by the acting Town Clerk, Mr. O'Leary that the county Manager had rejected her claim for compensation.

It was pointed out by the Borough Engineer, Mr. P. Walsh B.E. that the additional work on the improvement of the New Line, Abbeyside, was set up to the recognised standard. When a member stated that compensation had been paid to tenants in the past in respect of such improvement work, the Chairman, Ald. Tom Kyrle T.D. said he was well aware of the fact but they had to consider that their engineer had stated the work was not up to the recognised standard.

Mr. Tom Lee said that some of those who had received compensation had carried out work that was not up to the recognised standard but there had been no question about it. The work was passed by the engineer and that was the end of the matter. The woman, stated Mr. Lee, had spent a considerable amount of money in the improvement of her council house and now by the action of the engineer, no money could well be regarded as lost money. This was most unfair.

The Chairman agreed and decided that he felt she should be paid compensation. People should be treated alike, he added. The answer given in the past was simply that the work done was sub-standard. He suggested, however, that they should send a copy of the engineer's report to Mrs. Byrne for her consideration.

No Wall

An application for the erection of a wall made by Mr. P. Burke, Wolfe Tone Road, Dungarvan which was passed to the Council last June who agreed to put up the rest of the wall on condition that Mr. Burke would pay it at 2/6 extra on the wall was turned down by the County Manager.
