Ballinamult Man on U.S. Mission to Japan

Michael J. Parker, Vice President of the Dietrich Hide Corporation, Chicago, Illinois, son of Mr. Parker of Cahernaleague and the late Thos. Parker has received a distinct honor in being selected as one of three men to serve on an important Government-sponsored mission from the United States to Japan.

This is not the first recognition that has been paid Mr. Parker, one of the outstanding authorities on hides and skins in America. Previously he served as President of the National Hide Association, the recognised association representing the (hides and skins) trade. The forthcoming mission to Japan, scheduled to leave U.S. by air sometime in September, is sponsored by the Foreign Agricultural Service of the U.S. Department of Agriculture, with four representatives cooperating, namely: National Hide Association, Western States Meat Packers Association, National Independent Meat Packers Association, and the National Cattlemen's Association. This mission will visit meat plants and hide tanneries in the Orient and perhaps some tanneries.

Mr. Parker is a native of Cahernaleague, having spent his youth in that community. Leaving home he went first to England, then travelled throughout much of the world, including Egypt, India, Australia, New Zealand, China, Japan, Africa and most of Europe. He will be returning to Japan, which he visited twenty-one years ago.

This leading authority in the hides and skins industry began his career with one of the so-called Big Four packers in the United States. Wilson & Co. being stationed in the company's Chicago plant. He advanced through various stages to executive status with the United States Leather Company, then one of the largest tanners in the world, eventually becoming the Hide Buyer in charge of the procurement of rawstock for that large corporation. Seven years ago, he was named Hide Buyer for Dietrich Hide Corporation, and since has been named Vice President of that company.

Parking Bye-Laws Again Under Consideration

Dungarvan Urban Council is to consider adopting parking bye-laws. This was decided following a complaint by Colr. Donal Moloney against the "deplorable parking arrangements on Grattan Square."

Colr. Moloney said that parking arrangements generally were deplorable in Dungarvan but where the Square was concerned the position was exceptionally bad. "If you park your car there for 10 minutes you are jammed in with cars carelessly parked all round you."

"Also, I cannot see why the wall at the sewage disposal unit near Abbeyside Church cannot be knocked. This would provide an ideal car park for motorists attending Mass and Devotions. In both areas we could appoint some old soldier to keep an eye on the cars, he should collect ten to twenty sixpences at least on a good day."

The Chairman Aid, Tom Kyne T.D., said he was all in favour of what Mr. Moloney had stated but he felt they should put the matter on the agenda and look up their records on previous proposals to bring in traffic bye-laws.

It was agreed to put the matter on the agenda for consideration.

On the proposal of Mr. F. Quailly it was agreed to request the County Council to erect a 'Stop' sign at Youghal Road

Telephone Kiosk for Youghal Road

Dungarvan is to have a new telephone kiosk which will be situated at the corner of the Youghal Road and Mitchell Street. This was announced at a meeting of the Urban Council when the Town Clerk Mr. Keane informed the members that the kiosk had been selected by the Dept. of Posts and Telegraphs.

D. Moloney - You don't look for a horse in the mouth! The council approved the selection.

"To Knock or not to Knock" that is the U.D.C.'s Question! THE WEIGH-HOUSE CRUX

"TO knock or not to knock" - that is the problem that is causing much controversy among members of Dungarvan Urban Council and it concerns the future of the town's ancient Weigh-house on Grattan Square.

The story had its beginning three years ago when Colr. Donal Moloney moved a resolution calling for the demolition of the old building on the grounds that it no longer served a useful purpose. He held that the Square would be the finest in Ireland if the weigh-house was removed. The matter lasted for quite some time and eventually Colr. Moloney's resolution was passed. The future of the old landmark appeared to be sealed.

But it was only last week that the weigh-house was removed - and with it went the last hope that the weigh-house would be allowed stand - or so it appeared until Chairman of the Council, Aid. Kyne, stepped into the picture at the last meeting to suggest that it would serve a very useful purpose if it would be converted into a public convenience - something which is urgently needed in the town. The job would not cost more than £400, he said, and the suggestion was well worth examining.

But such a suggestion which was like holding a red rag up to a bull. He protested strongly and loudly. He held the building was a "monstrosity" as it was but the Chairman would cause even greater harm. "It would cause the greatest harm that could be caused to our beautiful Square," he said.

Colr. Tom Lee supported the Chairman's view and went on to state that every town in Ireland had a public convenience and that was a public disgrace that there was not one in theirs.

Mr. Lee went on to point out that he was not at all convinced that the council had the right to knock the weigh-house building and the Square on which it stood was handed over to the Duke of Devonshire for the benefit of the townspeople. Such a point created some doubt in his mind and he felt it was something that should be examined.

At this stage of the meeting Mr. J. McCarthy proposed that the suggestion of the chairman should be put on the agenda for their consideration at the next meeting. He was seconded by Mr. P. Quailly.

Mr. McCarthy's question is to knock or not to knock.

Mr. Moloney - It is knocked on paper therefore what you are doing is in fact illegal and certainly irregular and out of order. I strongly dissent from it anyway. I will propose that we instruct the engineer to knock the building forthwith. Chairman - We will take a vote on it then.

Mr. Lannen - You cannot take a vote on the proposal you have accepted because it is not a possibility. Mr. Lannen - But your amendment is an impossibility also. Finally, the matter went to a vote and the decision favoured putting the matter on the agenda for the next meeting when the council will decide whether the weigh-house is to be or not to be KNOCKED.

Late Mr. J. Slattery, C.B.E.

Mr. John Slattery C.B.E. whose death took place unexpectedly at Hampton Park, Hereford at the age of 72 was the son of Mr. Denis P. Slattery, solicitor, Dungarvan and was a former Chief Minister of the Chamba State, Punjab, India.

He was educated at Rockwell College and Blackrock College, and later became Deputy Inspector-General of the Indian (Imperial) Police in the Punjab. He was chairman of the Punjab Public Services Committee before becoming Chief Minister of the Chamba State.

He is survived by his wife, son and two daughters.

ERIN'S HOPE MEMORIAL
The work of erecting the Erin's Hope Fenian Monument at Helvick Head, commemorating the Irish American Fenians who landed at Ring off the Brigantine "Erin's Hope" to take part in the Fenian Rising in 1867, commenced on Friday last. It is expected that it will be completed within three weeks.

The monument which is of moulded synthetic stone will be 24 feet high. Its design is a symbolic one; the 32 stones which constitute the main section of the monument typify the 32 Irish-American Fenians who were landed ashore, as also the 32 Counties of Ireland. The main feature of its design has been to seek to represent the massive rugged strength of the Fenian Movement, which came into being 11 years after the famine of 1847, exactly a century ago this year. It was the original idea of the Committee in charge to have the monument consist of a huge roughly-hewn column of limestone, and this latter was specially quarried but its use had to be abandoned owing to technical defects in the stone. Liam O Miodheain, of Ring, then submitted the design which is now embodied in the present monument.

THE TESTING OF CATTLE FOR TUBERCULOSIS

An Order which has been made by the Minister for Agriculture under the Diseases of Animals Acts, and which comes into force on September 1st, sets out conditions governing the testing for tuberculosis of cattle which are to be sold as 'once-tested' or '14-day tested' animals. The Order is called the Bovine Tuberculosis (14-day Test) Order, 1958.

The term '14-day tested' is defined in the Order as meaning in relation to an animal, that the animal has been tested in accordance with the terms of the Order not more than 14 days before the time at which the term is used as a description of the animal.

The type of tuberculin test to be used on such animals is also laid down in the Order.

Anybody who wishes to sell cattle as '14-day tested' animals must have the specified test applied to the cattle by a registered veterinary surgeon. The veterinary surgeon, to comply with the Order, sends a notification to the Department of Agriculture on the day he starts the test. He also clips the animal's hair off over an area not less than an inch in diameter on the site of the injection and inserts a tag of an approved type in the animal's ear before starting the test. Each ear tag bears the shamrock symbol, the veterinary surgeon's identification number and a number which identifies the animal concerned.

The result of the test is determined by the veterinary surgeon after 72 hours, and he then issues certificates for the animals that have passed.

The Order lays it down that the test must be carried through by the veterinary surgeon who starts it and that the cattle must be sold first.

Further requirements regarding sales and sales premises will be applied under the Order according to the circumstances in individual cases. Requirements regarding the disinfection of premises and transport, separate entrances and so on will be notified to the owners of the various premises.

On the question of describing the animals offered for sale the order states that cattle which have passed the 14-day test and are offered for sale within the 14 days should be described as '14-day tested' or 'once-tested'. Where a group of cattle has been 14-day tested, kept in isolation for 60 days and re-tested, those of them which pass the second test may be offered for sale as 'twice-tested' cattle.

Local Postal Services Criticised

Strong criticism of Dungarvan Postal services was made at a meeting of the Urban Council by Colr. Donal Moloney who stated that the last time for a 'waiting' of the outgoing mail was 'absolutely ridiculous' at 3.25.

Mr. T. Lannen - "The way with them that they go by the County Council office hours. They don't take the business people's problems into account at all."

Mr. Moloney stated that he could not understand why Dungarvan's mails had to go out so early in the evening and he was satisfied that a better service could be arranged. In Waterford City the last time for posting to catch the outgoing mail was around 9 p.m.; in Thurles it was midnight and in Carrick-on-Suir it was 9.30 p.m. Yet in Dungarvan they were expected to be satisfied with 2.25 p.m. A much better service would not be very difficult.

The Chairman Aid, Tom Kyne, T.D. stated that in his area in Abbeyside the delivery service

URGENT HOUSING NEEDS

Two Dungarvan men in urgent need of a house came before a meeting of the Urban Council in the Town Hall to voice their objection at the manner in which they had been treated by officials in the allocation of houses. There were Mr. Liam Moohan, 100 St. Mary's Street and Mr. Thomas Deo, Friary St.
Having outlined the seriousness of his case Mr. Moohan received an assurance that it would be specially investigated without further delay.
In the case of Mr. Deo, he stated that he had been waiting for a house for the past 7 1/2 years and in that time he had never been offered a house by any official of the council. He wanted to know how it was possible for single men to gain a higher place on the priority list than a married man.
Members agreed that there was something in what Mr. Deo was conveying because a single man or woman might very well get such a house before the married man. A number of children would get a three or four roomed house to suit his needs.
At this stage Mr. Deo offered Mr. Deo an assurance that if a house owned by Mrs. Shine to him stating that when they showed their interest in it, they were told by Mr. P. Walsh, Sanitary Officer, that the roof would have to be raised and certain other work would have to be done before it could be taken off the condemned list. Mr. Deo went on to say that Mr. Moloney went behind his back and the house was given to a Mr. Pat McGrath who did not have to carry out the specified repairs.
Mr. Tom Lee pointed out that there was no point in mentioning such a matter because the house was not then or now the property of the council.
Mr. Moloney stated that he was flattered to find that this man believed he had the power to give out houses. This, of course, was not the case. He was endeavouring to do a good turn for the Deo family at the time and no more.
Mr. Deo who had been sitting at the conference table stood up with his cap on his head and walking away stated, 'I think it is only a waste of time talking here.'

Chairman - Why?

Mr. Deo, I don't know.
Mr. Lannes stated that what ever else might be said there was no doubt in the world that Mr. Deo had a bad case of hardship. At the same time this man should realise that the house had been referred to as privately owned and there was nothing the council or any member could do for him.
Chairman That is so. The council had no hand, act or part in the matter and there is no good in accusing us of it.
Mr. J. McCarthy said that Mr. Deo was living in one room with his wife and children. This man had never approached a member of the council seeking a house and it was, in fact, a neighbour who told the speaker of the man's plight. It was exceptionally difficult for the man and his wife and particularly when it was considered that they had a sick child to care. He suggested that they send a special recommendation that Mr. Deo be given a house soon to the Manager.
Mr. Deo. It makes no difference what kind of a house I get whether it might be a condemned house or a five roomed one. I will be very glad to take it.
On the proposal of the chairman, seconded by Mr. Lee it was

DIFFERENCE OF £200 IN VALUATION OF HOUSE
Reference was made to a Manager's Order by Mr. Tom Lannes when he stated that there was a gap of £200 in the valuation of a house in the findings of their own engineer and those of the Commissioner of Valuation.
The order dealt with the findings of the Commissioner of Valuation in respect of the market value of premises at No. 2 Coolesh Road, Abbeyside and fixed their valuation at £2,025. The previous valuation had been £1,800.
The Chairman agreed with Mr. Lannes stating:—Yes, on the part of our engineer.
Mr. Lannes said he was dissatisfied with the whole matter and would call for a sworn inquiry at the next meeting.
The Chairman said that it certainly seemed there was a difference between the man in Dublin and the local man and if Mr. Lannes called for an inquiry he would be glad to second him.
Mr. Lannes further stated that he would ask that the inquiry be held into other matters as well such as the manner in which the council houses were being let, the reasons why demolition orders were not enforced and other matters too.
The Chairman pointed out that the Manager's order referred to by Mr. Lannes dealt with one house only. It set out the valuation of it and as far as the council was concerned that was the end of the matter.
This ended the discussion.

THE SYSTEM IS WRONG

From our back page readers will see what happened at the recent inquiry into allegations concerning the letting of council houses. It is a report well worth close attention. We appreciate the trouble Chairman and Mr. P. Quinn went to to investigate the case. The system is all wrong in fact. It is a bad system which permits the consideration of applicants for transfer from a good house to another where there are hundreds of people without their own homes. Dungarvan, Surely the homes deserve priority and surely it is not too much to expect the proper method of dealing with applicants for transfer to put them on a separate list altogether - with priority being awarded to those in need of transfer because of ill health or because of health reasons. But it seems ridiculous that a person in a good house should be transferred to another good home because he or she does like the present house while young families are forced to live with their parents in one or two rooms. Admittedly when a person is transferred from a council house to another, a home exists.

FOR CAPPOQUIN

I understand that Cappoquin Gull of the I.C.A. will be giving their prizewinning production of T.C. Murray's SPRING in Cappoquin on the 24th of the month. This gained them the Elmor Gobbon trophy in the National Final of the Inter-Guild Drama Festival of the I.C.A. It is worth mentioning that on the occasion of the Rides' visit down this side of the country, she spent a day in Dungarvan during which I met her on a tour of the area. Her radio, recording and TV had had this to say about the matter: 'It amazes me to learn that the cameramen have not been making travelogue footage. Waterford has the most beautiful scenery I have seen and much more. It is certainly so ridiculous that your tourist authorities are keeping it hidden from the public eye. The world should know about it. I think that the scenery is

KILROSSANTY AND BRICKEYS DRAW AGAIN

BRICKEYS RANGERS 1-7; KILROSSANTY 1-7.

Before a very large attendance at the Frabher Field, Dungarvan on last Sunday evening, Brickeys Rangers and Kilrossanty again failed to reach a decision in their senior football tie.

It was a dour struggle with no quarter given nor asked for and the heavy going reduced the football standard to the mediocre category.

Early superiority of the Brickeys was a marked feature of the game but poor finishing kept them labouring in the first half. Kilrossanty on the other hand with the few opportunities they got knocked off some well seen long-range points. A big blow to the champions was the loss of their skipper Billy Kirwan early in this half through a knee injury.

At half-time the scores were level at 0-3 each.

On the resumption the Brickeys showed marked improvement. Nicholas McGrath moved to the forward line, things began to hum for the challengers. Two magnificent points from far-out freers gave the Brickeys new life. A good Kilrossanty move reduced the lead to a point and two more Brickey points from frees by McGrath put the Brickeys well in front. Kilrossanty fought back for another point but when the Brickeys had a 5-point lead it looked as if the writing was on the wall for the Comeragh men. With seven minutes to go they were five points in arrears.

But then they took over control and in five hectic minutes had registered a goal and two points to level the scoring at 1-7 each. Exchanges of stirring minutes were hectic but no scoring resulted.

Dr. Tom Barry lined out for the Brickeys after making the trip from England and had an outstanding first half. Patsy Donnelly had all more sub-100 yard punts than usual and never really got going. P. Crotty at right full-back was the Brickeys' chief defender.

Field Baker was excellent in spasm. The Spratt brothers were always dangerous in attack and Tom's goal was a realisation of a long-held dream. Spratt's goal was a realisation of a long-held dream. Spratt's goal was a realisation of a long-held dream.

ON Sunday evening next at 7.15 p.m. the Brickeys and Kilrossanty renew their marathon struggle in their senior football tie and a record attendance should witness the encounter.

The champions will be without injury-stricken skipper Billy Kirwan while his loss will be offset on the Brickey side by Britain-domiciled Dr. Tom Barry who, we learn, will be unable to make the journey. Minor injuries to Cooney, Kilgrew and Ryan make them doubtful starters. Nicholas McGrath who was also on the injured list, is fit and well again.

Kilrossanty are keeping their fingers crossed that C. Cunningham and B. Pender will be able to make the journey. Minor injuries to Cooney, Kilgrew and Ryan make them doubtful starters. Nicholas McGrath who was also on the injured list, is fit and well again.

It still can be any side's game, and the possibility also remains of another draw, so even are the teams.

The Brickeys, for three-quarters of last Sunday's game showed marked superiority, but the champions worked back so significantly for the equalising scores that they are yet a force to be reckoned with and striking early form could run up an unassailable score.

Sunday's first-half Brickeys created the greatest upset of the season in the Western junior football championship when they defeated the much fancied Ring side. With a goal between them in the closing stages inter-county man O'Faolain drove a penalty wide.

Outstanding for Emmets were C. Power, M. Walsh, T. Burns, E. Britt and D. Tobin. Ring's best were O. Faolain, R. Curran, Connolly, Kennelly and Power.

Emmets—M. Dalton, P. Tobin, S. Hennessy, J. Killy, P. Kirwan, J. Dwyer, C. Dower, E. Britt, T. Burns, D. Tobin, N. Quill, M. Walsh, E. Condon, C. Power, J. Tobin.

In a rather scrappy game Kilgobinet beat Stradbally's second string by 2-2 to 1-3. Kilgobinet had the edge all through and were just able to keep in front to the end.

Best for the winners were Roger McCarthy, A. Deasy, Allen and Burke while Nolan, Frendergast and Flynn played well for the losers.

On Thursday evening of last week at the Gaelic Field, the Brickeys Rangers won their third successive county championship, defeating Kibrien by one goal. It was a well-contested game. Brickeys—Mauna Buckley (capt.); Mary Mooney, Bridie Walsh, Joan Whelan, Addie Gee; Rose Lonergan, Nellie McGrath, Joan Cooney, Nellie McGrath, Margt. McGrath, Ellis Browne, Nora Killy.

Kilbrien—Breda Walsh (capt.), Vera Hickey, Sheila Howell, Vera Desmond, Carmel Curran, Biddy Dunford; Breda Power, Mary Wall, Ann Power, Maurine O'Grady, Mrs. Biddy McGrath, Margt. Howell.

FIANNA FAIL MEETINGS

Mr. Sean Ormonde Minister for Posts and Telegraphs attended a meeting of Modelgo Cumann Fianna Fail on Saturday night 26/7/58 held in Walsh's Hall, Millstreet. He got an enthusiastic welcome from the Cumann members, who all expressed delight at his return to duty in the Government. Mr. Ormonde expressed himself as delighted with the arrangements for the meeting and complimented the members and the Cumann officers, John Farrell Chairman, Miss Kathleen McGrath, Secretary, Pat Hickey Vice-chairman and treasurer John Hickey and D. Baldwin. Mr. Ormonde dealt in detail with many local problems and gave a review of the present economic outlook of the country. He was more than pleased to know that the Cumann now has over 40 active members and is one of the most efficient branches of the organisations in the country. Mr. Robert Keane M.C.C. answered many queries of local interest and interest, stating that she was paying £50 compensation was completely untrue. At no time had she said so to anyone or had she in fact paid or been asked to pay any compensation. The first she knew about getting the transfer was when Mr. Walsh called on her to sign the tenancy agreement.

The Chairman asked Mrs. Boyle what she had to say, having heard Mrs. Hayes' statement. Mrs. Boyle repeated her point of view, to what Mr. Walsh had carried out. He simply carried out his duties as instructed. He agreed with the Chairman that if a house in St. Monica's Terrace was notified as vacant, it was not to be allocated to an applicant in the early December, 1957, and the key not handed in until the middle of January, 1958 it would be the property of the Council. Mr. Walsh said he was not aware that a different procedure was adopted by Mr. O'Meara, Rent Collector, to what Mr. Walsh had carried out. He simply carried out his duties as instructed. He agreed with the Chairman that if a house in St. Monica's Terrace was notified as vacant, it was not to be allocated to an applicant in the early December, 1957, and the key not handed in until the middle of January, 1958 it would be the property of the Council.

Mr. Hayes was invited to comment on this report and stated she wished to make it perfectly clear that the portion of Mrs. Hayes' statement that she (Mrs. Hayes) was going around stating that she was paying £50 compensation was completely untrue. Investigation into Urban House Letting Complaint

Allegations concerning the letting of a Council house at Abbeyside, which were made at a previous meeting of the Urban Council, had a sequel last week-end when the findings of the special committee appointed to investigate the case were issued by the Chairman, Ald. T. Kyne.

The report on the inquiry was considered at the two meetings of the Council, one on Friday night and another on Saturday, and following a good deal of discussion it was accepted.

The report which was made by the Chairman and Colr. J. Quailly, was as follows: Present at the inquiry held on 6th August at 11 a.m. in the Town Hall were: Members—Messrs. T. A. Kyne and P. Quailly; Officials: Mr. S. Keating, Acting Town Clerk; Miss E. Hayes, Typist; Messrs. P. Walsh, rent collector, and M. O'Flynn, acting do; Mrs. F. Boyle and Mrs. H. Hayes.

Chairman T. A. Kyne was informed by the Acting Town Clerk that Mr. Moloney, the other member of the Committee had been notified in writing of the date and time of meeting.

Opening the inquiry, the Chairman said it was held with the consent of the County Manager. Its object was to enable the members to get all the facts available in connection with the letting of No. 2 St. Monica's Terrace and the letters prior to or about the 25th of August, 1957, necessary to do so, that a full and true report could be made to the next meeting of the U.D.C. When the U.D.C. had made a recommendation to the County Manager, it would be a matter for the County Manager to deal with the matter.

The Chairman read out a report of the complaint to the U.D.C. on the 25th of August, 1957, by Mrs. Boyle. Mrs. Boyle confirmed that same was correct and that she did not desire to add to or take from that report at that time.

Mrs. Hayes was invited to comment on this report and stated she wished to make it perfectly clear that the portion of Mrs. Hayes' statement that she (Mrs. Hayes) was going around stating that she was paying £50 compensation was completely untrue. The Chairman asked Mrs. Boyle what she had to say, having heard Mrs. Hayes' statement. Mrs. Boyle repeated her point of view, to what Mr. Walsh had carried out. He simply carried out his duties as instructed. He agreed with the Chairman that if a house in St. Monica's Terrace was notified as vacant, it was not to be allocated to an applicant in the early December, 1957, and the key not handed in until the middle of January, 1958 it would be the property of the Council.

Mr. Hayes was invited to comment on this report and stated she wished to make it perfectly clear that the portion of Mrs. Hayes' statement that she (Mrs. Hayes) was going around stating that she was paying £50 compensation was completely untrue. At no time had she said so to anyone or had she in fact paid or been asked to pay any compensation. The first she knew about getting the transfer was when Mr. Walsh called on her to sign the tenancy agreement.

CRICKET

Lismore XI on home to a Cork County XI on Sunday last and a very close finish was seen to a game in which bowlers were always on top. The Cork XI won the toss and put the home team into bat. The batsmen were always in trouble on a drying pitch and it was the end batting which gave the visitors most difficulty. M. Crowley had a bright innings of 22, R. Dawson 19 and M. Gough 14 not out. The score eventually reached 84. Cork batting was never on top and Enderson had them guessing with flighted deliveries. J. Feeney too was difficult to play. B. Glasse scored 22 runs and Lismore had nine wickets down for 61. Then in an amazing and exciting finish the Cork last wicket pair in which E. Flynn was the dominant partner availed of a few mistakes and got up to win by one run. Flynn scored 33 not out. Lismore Cricketers selected on Munster XI.

Two members of the Lismore team were honoured by being selected to represent the Province against Leinster in the Junior Inter-provincial to be played at Cork on Friday next 15th August. They are Mr. Pat Feeney and Mr. John Crotty. Both have rendered sterling services to their club and can be relied upon to give a good account of themselves even in this exalted company. We offer them our hearty congratulations.

All Ireland Junior Cup Semi-Final. The semi-final of the All Ireland Junior Cup is being played at Lismore on Sunday next. This is a game that has set the County alight with interest. Galway will oppose the home side. Having won out in Connaught this year and being in the final twice in the past three years they must be favourites, nevertheless Lismore have proved themselves great cup-fighters this season and with the home venue in their favour I believe they will bring further honours to County Waterford and go into the final for the first time.

This Mrs. Boyle was influenced against her better judgement and should not be penalised by being put to the bottom of the list.

(4) That we recommend that a special report be made by Mrs. Boyle's housing committee from the medical side should be got and that if this is in her favour she should be appointed to the house vacated by Mrs. Hayes at Cathal Brugha Place.

(5) That at the Rent Collectors should be instructed that houses be considered vacant as from the date the key is handed in to the Council.

We wish to place on record our appreciation of the help given by the officials during the inquiry and of the action of the County Manager during the whole of the events leading to and during the inquiry and his granting of same.

Discussing the report, Colr. J. Quailly stated that he was very glad the inquiry had been held. There had been a good deal of adverse criticism of the councillors going on throughout the town and a lot of allegations had been made. The findings of the inquiry would clear the air. He proposed that the report be accepted by the Council in full.

Colr. Lee stated that he was not in favour of giving the house to Mrs. Hayes simply because she was living in a good Council house while there were far too many without any home at all and in very urgent need of one. He considered such a system most unfair and expressed the opinion that it was time the Council did something to change the system.

This lady told me coming out of Mass the other Sunday, he added, that she would get the house in spite of it and right enough she is getting it. She must have someone behind her in this to say she was so sure of herself and it must have been one of the officials. I think it is a downright shame that it should be given to her when there is a woman in a falling down house with two of her children in Ardenk Chest Hospital unable to come home until they are certain of having a good home to come to.

Mr. Tom Lannon said he did not think it was fair to make allegations that could not be proved.

Mr. Lee stated that it was no secret that Mrs. Hayes knew well in advance that she was getting the house in Abbeyside and he wanted to know how this came about.

The Chairman pointed that she was given the house because causing the priority list and the method in which it was dealt with, she was fully entitled to the house.

Mr. D. Moloney said there was a moral in this case. It was simply that they should not be so hasty at making allegations. They were far too inclined to believe the first thing they heard, he said.

The Chairman replied that whatever else may be said he was satisfied that the inquiry had served a very good purpose.

SCOUT NOTES

4th Waterford Abbesside C.B.S.I. HOME "SWEET" HOME

We are all together again here, we're here. Once again we are back again in the Village after spending two and a half weeks under canvas in 'Beauty' Home. Everything went on smoothly breaking camp on Wednesday morning. The tractor and trailer which was to carry our luggage to the Station arrived before time as also did the 'bone-shaker'. We left the campsite at about 3 p.m. We had nothing to eat since late breakfast so on the journey milk and bread was served to the first year campers and to some of the younger fellows. It was surprising how many fellows forgot they had been in camp before Mickey did a good job as leader. We had a half-hour stop at Malloy to tuck in some grub. The lads didn't like the feeling which the sides of the stomach rubbed together. The hit-songs were sung over and over again on the journey. The band was there to greet us at Shannon and after a little tugging up we paraded through the town to the Dun. We were in a hurry. The band seemed to be playing thirds and fourths coming across the Causeway of course those Flag-bearers would put you off. The luggage arrived on Saturday morning and few hands made light work of the wash-up on that evening and night. There was no fear of too many cooks spoiling the broth. If Martin's advice had been taken on Saturday night I'm afraid we would not have had much camp equipment for next year.

Cracks from Kilarney. All the following information was kindly given by the three most popular chaps in the campsite - James, John and Patsy. 'Break Camp' began very early on Wednesday morning when the Wolves and Eagles lent him the dust. Now don't look at the Wolfhounds. Some fellows do sleep soundly even without canvas over them. Well Gummy, how did you like it looking at the stars through one eye? One night the pole of the Seniors Bell Tent was missing. Later it was found near the Seniors tent - nothing suspicious. Oily was very disappointed to find that people don't sleep with their glasses on. One morning the Seniors were sleeping in after Revaille, were out of bed from a day of hard work when a group of kind-hearted chaps, seeing that the seniors tents were in bad shape, gently took them down and pitched them perfectly again without waking the sleepers. Well, wasn't that nice of the little chaps and it shows how much they appreciated the help given to them. Another morning at least three chaps including Burkie had to wash the mud off themselves as a result of a fellow who was found near the Seniors in a bucket of water. One of B. Morrissey's snaps tells the whole story. And talking about snaps we see that many of the seniors taken in Camp did not come out of the inquiry having anything can happen with those cheap old-fashioned cameras. The paper chase layed by Lippy and Oily, using flake metal instead of paper went off all right but there were too many winners. A dressing and undressing race was held for those under 14 years and for the over fourteens. Hank and Brian M. were first place in the over thirteen, while in the other class Tommy Killy piped Keyey Cashin at the post. M. Cliffe, F. Foley, A. Duggan and M. Clancy were in very urgent need of a slip-up, or should I say slip-down during the race. On the last day of camp we had a race, I mean a hike to Ross Castle. The troop split into three groups to make the contest fair to everyone. As most of the lads wanted to buy presents we went straight into town from Ross Castle and marching race developed as a result of the three groups. However before the winners reached town it was clearly proved that long legs can take longer strides than short legs. Herb Elliott look out - some of our boys have got better than a Delaney Kick. Each sent went back to the campsite when he was finished his own shopping. It was noticed from the amount of presents bought by some scouts that they must have very sisters. Just in case you didn't hear - Anthony Cash has a big brother. The road leading to the campsite was lined with Scouts 'limping' and 'staggering' along in the hope that some car would stop and give them a lift. At least 2 small fellows were very mad when O'Sheas car loaded out, passed them on the road. Making had to be taken home part of the way on a jaunting car. (Camp news contd. next week).

COMPETITION TEAMS. The Melvin Trophy Competition will be held on 29th, 30th and 31st August and the Farrell Cup Competition on 2nd Sunday in September. Our teams are now busy in preparation for the events and they have the all-year to win both competitions remembering 'we did it before, we can do it again' 'Sus leis na rus-ic'.
