A Quarter of a Century of Progress and Success

Although we have been engaged in the wholesale drink trade, beers, wines and spirits, for almost fifty years now, we have a particular reason to feel a deep sense of satisfaction in this present year, 1959. It marks the Silver Jubilee of the establishment of our Mineral Water Factory in our premises at St. Augustine Street, Dungarvan.

Reviewing these past twenty-five years since our first Mineral Water Plant was set in motion on 27th March, 1934, we are in the happy position to find that in every year without exception we have gradually and surely increased the sales of the various kinds of Mineral Waters which we manufacture.

We are confident that this outstanding achievement is due to the fact that from the very beginning we have made it a first principle to use only the most pure and highest quality ingredients in the manufacture of each kind of Mineral Water. In particular, we use ONLY first quality PURE FRUIT JUICES, and all our syrups are made from PURE IRISH SUGAR.

We have NEVER at any time used saccharine or any other artificial sweetening agent.

We believe that this is the reason why after twenty-five years we are still the most popular and best-selling brand of Mineral Water in the County and City of Waterford. We feel justifiably proud of this service to the drinking public, as well as to the drink traders of the area, and it will be our constant endeavour to continue to manufacture Mineral Waters (O.K. Orange, Lemonade, etc.) of the highest purity and quality.

We take this opportunity of expressing to all our customers our appreciation of their support during the past twenty-five years.

OFFICE RATE COLLECTION

Council approves first move

A proposal to approve the appointment of an officer of the Council to perform the statutory functions of Water Collector for two vacant rate collection districts under the Office Collection arrangements gave rise to a protracted discussion at the quarterly meeting of the Co. Council on Monday last.

The Co. Manager recommended that Mr. Seamus Keating, a staff officer in the Council's employment, should be appointed to the position, which will be connected with the local side of the collection duties.

Col. J. Butler was told by the Chairman, Mr. Michael Morrissey, that it was obligatory on the Council under the Department of Local Government regulations.

Col. Lannon: Why about the way this should have got his job done? I propose him as Mr. Keating.

Col. Curran: I suggest we should have a rate collector for the County Manager. Col. Lannon: I suggest we should have a rate collector for the County Manager.

Col. Lannon: I suggest we should have a rate collector for the County Manager. Col. Curran: I suggest we should have a rate collector for the County Manager.

MEETING BREAKS UP AFTER UPROAR

All set for Sunday's Procession

COL. TOM LANNON

THANKS in the Town's Annual Corpus Christi Procession on Sunday next will be formed in six instead of the usual four abreast.

This is an important departure from previous custom and those taking part in the Procession are specially requested to get into ranks at their respective assembly places during the Procession through the streets of the town they are to remain in ranks of six, and to walk in close formation.

We have been specially requested to publish the following rates for the guidance of processionists:

NO Liturgical function is so difficult in practice as a Procession. When it is well carried out it is most impressive when it is badly ordered, it is very unedifying. The following are really practical:

(1) Those taking part in a Procession should walk abreast and close to those beside them, not straggling.

(2) They should keep a fixed distance all the time from those immediately in front of them, the space which would be required to fit in a third party between any person and the one immediately in front of him.

(3) Keeping this fixed distance from the person immediately in front is the whole secret of good Procession. If this rule is strictly observed, the procession must be well ordered.

(4) If it goes fast, it will not become broken; if it goes slowly or stops, the ranks will not close up, when it ceases to be a procession. The maintenance of this fixed distance is of the utmost importance and should be rigidly adhered to.

THE pace of a Procession is naturally fixed by the leader—usually the Chief Marshal or the Cross-bearer. The principal M.C. who will move around freely ordering the movement of the Procession, must direct the leader in reference to pace, in order to prevent a break or a stop. Persons wishing to go at unexpected angles, thus causing the Procession to curve and be diverted from its proper course.

NO CURVES, BREAKS OR STRUGGLING. The Marshals must immediately straighten out such curves and must be very active in endeavouring to get those taking part to observe the rules of walking abreast, and at a fixed distance from those immediately before them.

NO MORE BODIES FROM CO. HOME. An allegation by Deputy Kynne that the bodies of inmates with no immediate relatives were secretly removed from the County Home, Dungarvan, was the subject of a special committee meeting of the Board of Assistance in the Courthouse on Monday last.

Deputy Kynne's allegation was made at the usual monthly meeting of the Board during the previous week.

Following the committee on Monday last a statement was issued to the Press Representatives which stated that the members had unanimously adopted a resolution to the effect that no bodies be sent from the Board's Institutions for any purpose.

COLLECTOR'S RATE AREA INCREASED

THE inclusion of the electoral divisions of Seckinane and Knockanbranda in the rate collection duties of Mr. P. Purcell was adopted by thirteen votes to two at Monday's meeting of Waterford Co. Council.

At the outset Mr. Michael Morrissey, chairman, pointed out that the Council had already agreed to increase Mr. Purcell's areas so as to bring him to line with the other collectors and it was now only a matter of approving the inclusion of the districts specified.

Col. Lannon: How can you do that in view of a previous resolution that rates should be collected through the offices?

Chairman: No, the previous resolution was that no further rate collectors be appointed.

Col. Lannon: I don't want to be unfair to anyone but I want to know the exact position, I believe that we agreed to collect through the offices.

Col. Lannon went on to say that as a representative of the ratepayers he would have to oppose the resolution. He was against the proposal because he believed the rates could be collected through the offices at a considerable saving.

Col. Fahy: In fairness to Mr. Purcell I must say it is much more convenient for the people in the areas concerned to pay in Clonmel, because it is their town and Purcell has his office there.

Col. Willie Dower said he supported Mr. Lannon's views on principal and held that they had already agreed to collect through the offices.

At this stage Col. Dower proposed an amendment to the proposal to have the electoral areas of Seckinane and Knockanbranda included in Mr. Purcell's collection.

The original resolution was proposed by Col. Fahy and on a vote it was supported by the Chairman, who seconded the proposal, and Colrs. Curran, Harly, Fahy, Roche, O'Ryan, Heskin, Monaghan, Quirke, Flynn, Kenneally and Lynch.

Three members abstained from voting and Colrs. Dower and Lannon supported their amendment.

Waterford County Council deferred consideration of a request to take over six horses at Lisimore so as to afford the local Town Commissioners an opportunity of selling them to the tenants.

When a communique from the Town Commissioners came before Monday's meeting of the Council, it was agreed to suggest to them that the disposal of the horses individually to the present tenants.

Pending same, it was agreed to defer the matter.

A prepared statement read by Colr. Tom Lannon led to a very heated flare-up and eventually resulted in Monday's meeting of Waterford County Council breaking up in disorder for the luncheon recess.

For fully ten minutes a state of pandemonium reigned as Colrs. Lannon and Jim Quirke hurled abuse as each other from opposite sides of the Courthouse despite repeated appeals for order from the acting chairman, Ald. William Kenneally, T.D., and other members of the Council.

The uproar arose when Colr. Lannon, referring to the minutes of the previous meeting, said that the Council had voted a lot of money for the Committee of Agriculture and went on to say:

"Recently at a Council meeting where an appointment was made, Quirke stated why he favoured the appointment of a particular applicant. He did not say he had previously promised to vote for another applicant before coming to the meeting. He explained afterwards to the one to whom he had given the promise, or perhaps it would be fair to Mr. Quirke to say he is alleged to have said: 'I could not vote for you because Tom Lannon was present and you are my first cousin.'"

"What a pulling up of socks for there was a time when Mr. Quirke did not mind voting for his own son."

At the outset Colr. Quirke objected to the statement, holding that the matter was not recorded in the minutes at all.

Before the resultant cross-fire reached a crescendo Colr. Quirke was heard to say: "Mr. Lannon can mind his own business and I'll mind mine. I don't want any of your dirt..."

Colr. Lannon: You have not the word of a man who would not make a statement like that.

"Sing in a Crazy World" Opening of Modern Mart at Dungarvan says Adjudicator

"As long as you keep singing you are doing good work and you are setting a good example in this present crazy world of ours" stated Mr. Michael O'Callaghan, B.Mus., Cork Adjudicator, at the championships in the Eleanor Gibbon trophy competition for choirs from Waterford branches Association. The finals were held at the Friary Hall, Dungarvan, on Friday night last before a full audience of music lovers. "Sing, sing sing... and keep on singing" advised Mr. O'Callaghan the competitors, praising the wonderful example shown by the ladies of the I.C.A. in organising local choirs. "Singing puts one in a class apart and by singing we are engaging in a useful occupation," he said. It did not matter that one group won while others did not, achieve the prize, the important was that all took part in singing. They should not feel downcast at not being victors, as they all deserved great credit for their participation in the competitions. It was a tribute to many small parishes and districts that they were able to muster the minimum number of ten to form a choir.

COUNTY CHOIRS

Five choirs of ladies from Banntracht na Tuaithe Guilds throughout County Waterford were on the stage to sing the set test pieces in the choir competition Represented were: Waterford City Town Association, Tallow Guild I.C.A., Clashmore Guild I.C.A., and the Kilmaethomas-Portlaoise Combined I.C.A. Guild choir.

Mrs. M. V. Morrissey, A.L.C.M., South Terrace, Dungarvan, was conductor of the Dungarvan Choir and the Choir Accompanist was Miss Breeda Wolfe, A.L.C.M., Abbey-side.

DUNGARVAN CHAMPIONS

To the sound of continuous applause and great enthusiasm County Federation President Miss M. Quinn Ardmore, presented the Cork County Banntracht na Tuaithe Trophy to the Dungarvan Town Association I.C.A. Choir who were declared county champions at the Choirs Competition held on Friday night last.

Under the capable baton of their conductor, Mrs. M. V. Morrissey, the local choir were awarded a total of 138 marks and declared county winners. Runners-up were the Tallow I.C.A. choir which was under the conductorship of Mr. Brendan Ryan, B.A., Cappoquin, and which scored a total of 131 marks.

Members of the winning choir were: Miss K. Brennan, Miss N. Murray, Mrs. J. J. Grayville, Mrs. P. Butler, Miss E. McManus, Miss M. Clineb, Miss R. Foley, Miss P. O'Brien, Miss M. Foley, Mrs. M. Brennan, Miss N. Begley, Mrs. T. Casey, Mrs. D. Power, Miss E. Noble, Miss M. Tierney, Miss Breeda Wolfe, A.L.C.M., accompanist.

BOUQUET

A bouquet for the ladies of the Dungarvan Guild who under their President Mrs. O'Toole were responsible for the arrangements for the holding of the competition, came from the adjudicator who complimented them on the beautiful arrangement and lay-out of the stage, including splendid choice of floral sprays and greenery, and the brightly coloured and attractive stage-flats and backdrop which were very pleasing to the eye from a comfortable seat in the auditorium.

BISHOP'S NEPHEW ORDAINED

Among the students who were ordained on Sunday last for the Cork diocese in the Church of the Resurrection, Spangle Hill, Cork, was Rev. Donald Linehan, Ballinahin, White's Cross, who is a nephew of Most Rev. Dr. J. Cahalan, Bishop of Waterford and Lismore Diocese.

GETTING RID OF REACTOR COWS

The ideal course for a farmer who finds reactors among his cattle, on having them tuberculin tested, is to get rid of all reactors immediately, to disinfect his premises thoroughly and buy in only clean stock. Not many farmers are in a position to do this, however, and the removal of reactors must be planned to suit any particular man's circumstances.

The question to be decided is: which are the most dangerous to retain? The veterinary surgeon who has done the test will discuss the question with the farmer and will tell him that the older reactors can usually be suspected of spreading tubercles in one way or another. So the answer is: get rid of the older ones first. And among these older ones those in the poorest condition will be the most likely sources of further infection, to these should be marked down for quick removal.

The rate at which he should remove the reactors from his herd is a very important matter for the farmer. It should be remembered that as long as there are reactors on a farm there is danger of infecting the cattle which have shown up clear in the first test. The aim, therefore, should be to remove the reactors as soon as possible—all of them—and to buy in only clean stock from the beginning of removal.

Because it is sometimes difficult for farmers to find clean replacement cows or heifers, many of them are concentrating on rearing their own replacements from their non-reactor cows and heifers. Normally on Irish farms heifers are three years or near that before they have their first calves, but if a heifer is done well from birth she can be mated at about 18 months old and have her first calf at 2 years and 3 months. This practice is being adopted by many farmers with the result that they are getting clean replacements from their own herds several months earlier than was customary.

There are many farmers with tubercle-free cows who do not rear their calves, and these calves are available for purchase as replacements. The Department of Agriculture has suggested that farmers' organisations could help their members by preparing some sort of register or list of such farmers. This would make it possible for those seeking replacements to see them at the earliest possible date without the trouble of attending fairs and sales, possibly over a wide area.

DUNGARVAN BATALION

SHOOTING TEAM
All who were notified will attend Youghal Range on Thursday evening. Transport will leave Battalion Headquarters at 7.45, sharp. The Command Competition is getting close now and the Team selected plus subs will be published in these notes next week.

PLATOON TRAINING

Platoon Training started in the Quarry on Tuesday last, the 19th May. The attendance was very poor and it is hoped that all last year's platoon members will make an attempt to attend from now on.

POTENTIAL NCOS

A small number have been notified to attend preliminary training for Potential NCOS. Preliminary training is essential for this type of course and all those notified should attend each Tuesday night at the Quarry.

APPOINTED MANAGER

Not for some time has an appointment been held with such joy in Tallow and district, as that of Mr. Michael O'Hea, as Manager of the local branch of the Munster and Leinster Bank. Mr. O'Hea succeeds the late Mr. O'Neill and has been cashier at the Tallow branch for a number of years. One of nature's gentlemen, in the truest sense, he is deservedly popular with all classes. He is a native of West Cork. Now that he has reached the peak of his profession, we on behalf of the residents of Tallow and district, offer him our heartiest congratulations.

WIN IN MIL POOLS

We wish to congratulate Miss Mona Barry, Lisnakin, Tallow, on winning a prize in the Mater Hospital Pools last week. Tallow seems to be exceptionally lucky in these pools as this is over the twentieth win locally. Mrs. J. Lynch, West Street, is collector.

TERESA DUFFY AT THE ARCH

The first guest artist appearance in Ireland of Teresa Duffy, drew a big crowd to the Arch Ballroom, Tallow, on Saturday night. Miss Duffy, who made eight records for the Decca company is certainly going to go a long way in the entertainment world. Her beautiful voice coupled with a grand stage presence and a pleasing personality made her one of the best artists that have come this way for quite awhile. On all sides there was nothing but praise for her performance. She sang "The Blue Ace Showband" which Teresa Duffy supplied the music for a very enjoyable dance. They play good music and play it well. Whoever is doing the arrangements for this outfit knows his stuff, the number of years of Teresa Duffy are interesting. They are a pleasure to dance to.

ON RESERVE TRAINING

Three local young men completed a two weeks Reserve Training Course on Saturday. These officers are: P. J. O'Connell, Cpl. M. Flanagan, Kiltwater, New Street, Tallow, and George Grosche, Kiltwater, New Street, Tallow. At the Battalion sports, held during the latter week of the course, Claude Fitzgerald brought off the 100 yards event. He was also in the Battalion tug-war team.

DEATH OF MR. PAUL KINGSTON

The death occurred at Youghal Cottage Hospital last week of Mr. Paul Kingston, Foxhall, Youghal. Deceased was a native of Tallow and farmed at Knockmuck for a number of years. A very popular member of the community, his death at an early age is deeply regretted. To his bereaved widow, brothers, sisters and relatives we tender our sympathy. The interment was made in the cemetery attached to St. Mary's Collegiate Church, Youghal.

Kilmacthomas, Stradbally and Kilrossanty News

With The Death, after a period of failing health, of Mrs. Margaret Shanahan, Stradbally, Kilmacthomas, another link in a family chain of influential association with the life of mid-Waterford—indeed, with Waterford County itself—has passed to her eternal reward, and her demise has occasioned deep regret amongst a large circle of relatives and friends.

MAKE SILAGE NOW

You can't afford to be without it next Winter
Silage making is simple if you watch the following points:-
1. Leafy grass and clover make the best silage; cut in early flowering stage for good quality.
2. Shake out each forkful—loads dumped in the silo cause mouldy patches.
3. Fill the silo to a depth of 3 to 4 feet the day you begin.
4. Let a day or two pass for this filling to heat up to body heat (98°F).
5. Now fill in and trample well day after day until the silo is filled.
6. Fill the silo slowly if you are dealing with rich young grass in wet weather; molasses will help under these conditions. Fill quickly and pack hard if the grass is starchy or the weather is warm and dry and temperature rises above 98°F.
7. Finish the silo by sealing off and covering to keep off the rain.

Scout Notes

4th Waterford Abbeyside TROOP MEETING
The meeting was held after Devotions on Saturday night and as well as a few chaps who couldn't be there, there were a few chaps who could and weren't. Some of them were Johns and some were not and there was at least one James. P. O'Brien was the only Wolf at the door and he did a bit of useful work with a post-hole, ropes and a whipping twine. While the open windows two rows of scouts were subjected to surprise tests in knotting, signifying etc. and at this time M. B. arrived and scattered the spectators with a jug in his hand which might have been full of water. Continuing polishing up our drill we almost proved that we could (if we wanted to) do the movements like clockwork. During the course of the small pack operators were asked to get a move on with certain tests and at this time A. M. P. Burke carried out inspection which must have been the reason why old Cattie never managed to have roll call some of the questions on uniforms in the boys' scout handbook for the Corps Christi Whitte lanyards and a Boret per skull on the Parade. For the benefit of the Deacons' Committee members were asked to get a move on with certain tests and at this time A. M. P. Burke carried out inspection which must have been the reason why old Cattie never managed to have roll call some of the questions on uniforms in the boys' scout handbook for the Corps Christi Whitte lanyards and a Boret per skull on the Parade.

LIBRARIES COMMITTEE MEET

The monthly meeting of the County Waterford Libraries Committee was held in the Court House, Dungarvan, on Tuesday, 26th May. The Minutes of the previous meeting were read and duly signed as correct.

DUNGARVAN BRANCH LIBRARY

The County Librarian stated that he had originally provided an amount in last year's estimate for either improving the premises or seeking alternative accommodation. The Committee considered any action in this matter impossible. The Librarian members were asked to get a move on with certain tests and at this time A. M. P. Burke carried out inspection which must have been the reason why old Cattie never managed to have roll call some of the questions on uniforms in the boys' scout handbook for the Corps Christi Whitte lanyards and a Boret per skull on the Parade.

TAKE A CHAIR

Twenty years ago or there the Den was fully well furnished with chairs each having four legs and a back, but the passage of time, the borrowing and lending by those who had to those who had not has brought us almost to the stage of being among those who have not. We have some benches of course but then it is a bit awkward to ask a visitor to "take a bench" especially if it is about fifteen feet long and stowed away on the stage. Sitting in a row on a big bench does not make chatty gatherings round a table or a fire possible because if No. 3 wants to say something to No. 9 Nos. 4 to 8 must lean forward or backward. If we were in Japan we could each bring a cushion and sit on the floor but this place or thirty or forty chairs would make life dangerous even for Scoutmasters. The solution to the problem is to permit every registered member of the troop to have his own chair in the Den on which he can have his family cushions or just his name on a CHAIR.
