IMPRESSIVE EUCHARISTIC PROCESSION

Dungarvan pays homage to Christ the King

The annual Eucharistic Procession through the streets of Dungarvan on Sunday last was a most solemn and impressive ceremony, when thousands of townspeople turned out and provided a most inspiring manifestation of adoration and homage.

A record number participated in the Procession, which sailed six abreast in very orderly manner through the principal streets, which were only belted and decorated with flowers, shrubs, wayside stars and little household shrines.

At the tolling of the Parish Church bell promptly at 10 a.m. the huge Procession which was drawn up in position, moved off on the usual processional route from the assembly points around the Parish Church via Mitchell Street, Wolfe Tone Road and O'Connell Street to the Square where the Blessed Sacrament was escorted and a Royal Salute by buglers of Dungarvan Brass and Reed Band.

Leaving the Square after Benediction, the procession moved down Main Street, Church Street, and Convent Road, through Emmet Street to St. Mary's Parish Church where the final Benediction was imparted from the small outdoor altar erected before the Church gates.

Headed by a Cross-bearer and Acolytes the Procession was composed of Presentation Convent School children, Mercy Convent School Children, Christian Brothers Schools pupils, St. Augustine's College students, Priests of the Augustinian Order, Children of Mary of Benediction at the Square and Church Gates. He was assisted by Very Rev. Fr. D. Power, P.P., Kilgobnet, and Fr. M.L. Walsh, C.C., Abbeyside.

Gardai, under Supt. P. Flanagan, formed a guard of honour. Members of the St. Vincent de Paul Society were the Catechumens. In full force were scouts of St. Joseph's Troop, Abbeyside, under the command of Scoutmaster Mr. Liam F. Langan. They rendered invaluable service in marshalling duties at cross-roads and bottle-necks on the procession route. The large staff of Procession Marshals who volunteered for duty on the route and with the various sections in the procession, all were under the direction of the Chief Procession Marshal, Rev. P. Farrell, C.C. Procession hymns were rendered by Dungarvan Brass and Reed Band which was conducted by Michael A. Hennebery.

Local Happenings

GRADED AS BRIDGE MASTERS

Rated as Club Masters under the Contract Bridge Players' rating scheme are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Christopher, Ballyduff, Dungarvan, both leading members of Dungarvan Bridge Club.

Under the Master Points scheme introduced by the Contract Bridge Association of Ireland in September, 1958, ratings are awarded for Regional Masters, Local Masters and Club Masters. Twenty-five master points are required in the case of Regionals, ten master points for Locals and at least two Master points to rank as Club Masters.

DANCED AT LOCAL CONCERT

On stage at the Friary Hall during the concert items run after the L.C.A. Choirs competition were a number of the lively young dancers of Mrs. Hallahan's Dancing School, Dungarvan, whose exhibition of Irish step-dancing and attractive costumes drew applause. Those taking part were: Mary Whelan, Sean Lewis, Maura Flynn, Helen Barry, Helen Blake, Marilyn Houlihan, Elizabeth Coleman, Christina White, William White, Seamus Lynch, Thomas Flynn, Mary Hayes, Breda Power, Monnie Hallahan.

PROGRESS OF DUNGARVAN I.C.A.

In her address to the first birthday party of the Dungarvan Town Association of Bannuacht na Tuaithe which was celebrated recently, the Guild President, Mrs. W. O'Toole paid tribute to the members for the satisfactory pace at which the branch had advanced in its first year of existence. She thanked the officers and members of the committee for their loyal support and hard work.

ENGAGED

The engagement has been announced between Mr. Patrick N. O'Mahoney, Doneraile, son of Mr. and Mrs. Seamus O'Mahoney, Sliabh gCros, Upper Strand, Youghal, and Miss Teresa (Tess) Dwane, daughter of Mrs. M. Dunne and the late Michael Dwane, P.C., Ballyshera House, Doneraile, Co. Cork.

CLAIM AT CORK CIRCUIT COURT

LOCAL SOLICITOR GETS DECREE FOR £75

A fall on the stairs of a law office led to an action for damages being brought by one solicitor against another in the Cork Circuit Court before his Lordship Judge Nealon S.C. during the week.

The plaintiff was Martin J. Lavan, solicitor, now residing in Dungarvan, and he sued Francis P. Galvin, solicitor, 36, South Mall, by whom he was formerly employed as an assistant.

Mr. Lavan said that in June 1957, when he had been in Mr. Galvin's employment for four years his toe slipped on the brass casing of a stair, causing him to hit the step above it, causing injury to his knee. The brass on the stairs was worn in the centre. He agreed he was familiar with the stairs and their condition, estimating he had used them 25 times a day. His leg was still painful at times.

Prof. P. K. Kely told of his treatment to the plaintiff's injury and of observing disparity in muscle tone between the plaintiff's legs.

The defendant said he did not remember the plaintiff's fall, but accepted that it did happen, without hesitation. He had not regarded the stairs as dangerous.

Sergeant John P. Kely, gave evidence similar to Prof. Kely's.

His Lordship found that the brass casing on the stairs was worn and constituted a danger and that Mr. Galvin was aware of the existence of the danger because a person had previously slipped on the stairs. He gave a decree for £75 and costs.

HANDBALLY COMPETITION

Dungarvan handballers M. Kelly and H. McCarthy, representing Waterford, beat M. Ennis and J. Walsh, Cork, in the minor softball doubles competition at the Munster Handball competition played in Cork. The score was 21-15, 21-13.

In the junior softball singles, R. McGrath, Cork, beat A. Donnelly, Waterford. The scores were 21-15, 14-21, 17-21, 21-15, 21-11.

SUPPORTING PROGRAMME

Participating in the supporting programme at the Friary Hall during the choir competition last week were step-dancer Jim Mountain, Square, Mr. T. T. McCarthy, Abbeyside, who sang, Mrs. Cahman, Anmore, songs; Mrs. T. Llewellyn, Clashmore, verse-speaking; M.C. for the night was Mrs. M. Quin, Ardmore.

NO BUILDING FOR REFERENCE ROOMS

When the question of the need for a central reference library came up for discussion by the delegates at the Annual Conference of the Library Association of Ireland in Limerick, Co. Donegal, last week-end, the President, Mr. Fergus Mac Murchadha, B.A., Waterford County Librarian, said that in the past twenty-three years a great amount of material, both national and local had been collected in Waterford County. Unfortunately, they had no building in which they could provide adequate reference rooms where all the material could be used with benefit.

FARM MANAGEMENT

Waterford County Organizer for Maera na Feirme, Mr. Thos. Llewellyn, Ardsallagh, Kinsalebeg, who is a member of the National Executive Committee, has been selected at a recent meeting of the National Executive, to act as Chairman of the sub-committee dealing with Farm Management.

COSTLY SHELTER

A safe anchorage for boats all Youghal would cost about £20,000, it is estimated. The Commissioners are to prepare and submit sketch plans to the Department in connection with the proposal.

L.C.A. TRAINS OFFICERS

Among the number of ladies who have completed a recent Officers Training Course for members of Einntracht na Tuaithe, held at L.C.A. headquarters, St. Crispian, Fermoy, Co. Louth, was Mrs. V. Curry, Moneyvros, Cappoquin, who is secretary of the very good Ballinacorney Guild of the Irish Countrywomen's Association.

MERCY PUPILS WIN ELOCUTION AWARDS

Three examiners from the London Academy of Music and Dramatic Art attended at the Mercy Convent, Dungarvan, on Saturday last, for the Annual Elocution examinations. Two of the senior pupils of Coláiste Mairé, Dungarvan, obtained the Silver Medal with outstanding marks.

LOUGH BERRIG—Seats available in car travelling to Lough Derg.

Fenian landing is remembered

The ninety-second anniversary of the landing of the Irish-American Fenians from the brigantine "Erin's Hope" near Helvick Head was commemorated by a simple but impressive ceremony on last Sunday evening.

A wreath was laid at the foot of the memorial, an oration delivered and a decade of the Rosary recited in honour of the brave band of nearly a century ago.

On June 1st, 1867, ninety-two years ago, the brigantine "Erin's Hope" anchored off Helvick Head at the mouth of Dungarvan Bay. She had crossed the Atlantic ocean from North America with five thousand rifles, five millions rounds of ammunition, three batteries of artillery and a complement of Irish-American military personnel to land in hand in the Fenian Rising.

The thirty-two men who were landed off the Erin's Hope at Helvick were all officers of the American Army. Their ranks ranged from General to Lieutenant. Twenty-seven of them were destined to spend several years of penal servitude in the notorious Van Diemen's Land off Southern Australia.

On Sunday evening their daring exploits were remembered when Mr. Nicholas Whittle, Treasurer, the Chairman of the Erin's Hope Fenian Memorial Committee, laid a wreath on the memorial erected in honour of the Fenians at a point overlooking Helvick harbour.

A large crowd attended the ceremony, despite the cold winds and steady drizzle which fell in the early evening.

Mr. M. V. O'Donoghue, B.A., Limerick, a Secondary Schools' teacher, and former President of the Gaelic Athletic Association, delivered a fine oration in Irish. He outlined the Fenian Movement from its foundation by Sean O'Maolua in 1848, to its collapse around the year 1867.

"Although from a military point of view it was a failure," he said, "yet the Fenian rising had its repercussions and served as an inspiration. But for the Fenian rising we would, in all probability, have not had the glorious Easter Week of 1916." They were assembled that evening to do honour to the brave small band who had crossed the ocean a gallant attempt to aid the Motherland in her hour of need.

At the conclusion of the oration, Mr. Whittle, on behalf of the Erin's Hope Memorial Committee placed a wreath on the pedestal of the monument.

An An Fear Mor (Seamus O'Riordan, L.L.D., Principal, Ring Irish College, thanked the people who had turned up in such fine numbers to pay tribute to the Fenians. He congratulated Mr. O'Donoghue on a very fine oration. An An Fear Mor then led the attendance in offering up a decade of the Rosary for the souls of the Fenians who had landed close by where they now knelt.

As the impressively mournful notes of the Last Post sounded over the silent group on the hillside, a seaman's tribute was paid by the Lifeboat service who launched a lone rocket into the darkening late evening skies. Mr. Michael Terry, Abbeyside, was the bugler.

Electrical Engineer Tadgh Moloney, Dungarvan, with his tape recorder made recording of a great many items. He was loud in praise of the very high standard which prevailed.

A Quarter of a Century of Progress and Success

Although we have been engaged in the wholesale drink trade, beers, wines and spirits, for almost fifty years now, we have a particular reason to feel a deep sense of satisfaction in this present year, 1959. It marks the Silver Jubilee of the establishment of our Mineral Water Factory in our premises at St. Augustine Street, Dungarvan.

Reviewing these past twenty-five years since our first Mineral Waters Plant was set in motion on 27th March, 1934, we are in the happy position to find that in every year without exception we have gradually and surely increased the sales of the various kinds of Mineral Waters which we manufacture.

We are confident that this outstanding achievement is due to the fact that, from the very beginning we have made it a first principle to use only the most pure and highest quality ingredients in the manufacture of each kind of Mineral Water. In particular, we export ONLY first quality PURE FRUIT JUICES, and all our syrups are made from PURE IRISH SUGAR.

We have NEVER at any time used saccharine or any other artificial sweetening agent.

We believe that this is the reason why after twenty-five years so many people now throughout the County and City of Waterford ask specially for KEANE'S MINERAL WATERS and will not have any other. We feel justifiably proud of this service to the drinking public, as well as to the drink traders of the area, and it will be our earnest endeavour to continue to manufacture Mineral Waters (O.K. Orange, Lemonade, etc.) of the highest purity and quality.

We take this opportunity of expressing to all our customers our appreciation of their support during the past twenty five years.

F.C.A. NOTES

DUNGARVAN BATTALION SHOOTING TEAM

The shooting team completed its training on Youghal Range on Sunday last. Those selected to fire in Command Shoot will be notified by post. Travelling arrangements will also be included in the notification. The prospects of doing well in the competition are extremely bright. All are in good form and with the necessary luck that is always needed Dungarvan Battalion may be celebrating by this time next week. The Battalion as a whole wishes the best of luck to Capt. R. Keating and the rest of his team.

PLATOON TRAINING

This training is continuing in the Quarry every Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock with the minimum of support, particularly by the older members of the Platoon. Those attending at present are nearly all young recruits and by the looks of things at present this year's platoon will make up in youthfulness and enthusiasm what it lacks in experience. The platoon has to rely on a group of persons this year as in former years and many may find themselves not included in the Platoon unless they show more loyalty and begin attending their Platoon training parades now.

COAST TO COMERAGH CHIPS

Fully Recovered from the effects of his recent heavy indisposition, Rev. Fr. Michael Duggan (son of Mrs. Annie Duggan, Whitestown, Kilmacthomas and the late Mr. James Duggan, do.) returned during the week from the homeland to the scene of his missionary labours in Africa and his reverent hopes to revisit the Emerald Isle two years hence. God bless the lovable young priest.

Educational Excursion—Pupils of the Convent of Mercy School, Stradbally, the Boys' National School, do. and St. Anne's N.S., Seafield, had an enjoyable educational tour on Tuesday of this week when they travelled by bus to Dublin where they visited the Museum, the Zoo, Leinster House and other places of interest.

CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION

A record number took part in the Annual Corpus Christi Procession held on Sunday. The streets through which the Procession passed were lavishly decorated for the great occasion. The Sacred Host was carried by Very Rev. J. Kenneally, P.P. who was assisted by Very Rev. S. Brennan, P.P. of the Australian Mission and Rev. M. O'Meara, C.C. The canopy was flanked by a guard of honour of the local Garda Siochana. Solemn Benediction was imparted from a temporary altar on the Square and also on the Convent Terrace. The Procession then returned to the Parish Church where the ceremonies concluded with Benediction. With the Brass and Reed Band playing the accompaniments, hymns were sung and in the processionists led by the Parish Choir.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to two local young ladies, the Misses Rose Lomenan and May Nugent, who figured prominently on the Waterford team which defeated Clare in the first round of the Munster Camogie Championship played on Sunday.

MATCH ABANDONED

With scores level at 2-1, a quarter of an hour after the start the match between Cappoquin hurlers and a Western junior selection had to be abandoned owing to very heavy rain. Mr. Donal Whelan was referee.

NEXT TUESDAY'S GAME

At the local Sportsfield on Tuesday evening at 7.30 the 60rd annual meeting of the Sargent Cup game.

EXEMPTION ORDER

At the District Court an Exemption Order was granted by District Justice Cahill for next Sunday (Regatta Day) when licensed houses will remain open until 10.30 p.m.

MACRA NA FEIRME

At the monthly meeting of Macra na Feirme it was decided to hold the annual stockjuggling competitions at the Fives' farm, Seafield, on 24th June beginning at 7.30 p.m. As is customary, a social will follow. This will be held in the Boathouse and details will be given in advertising columns in later issues. To mark the occasion of his recent marriage a presentation was made to the branch Chairman, Mr. P. A. Fives.

CAPPOQUIN REGATTA RECORD ENTRY FOR 1959

Sunday next will be a day to remember in Cappoquin when the 1959 Regatta, which has attracted an all-time record entry of sixty crews, commences at 5 p.m. Spectators are assured of an excellent evening's sport with a top-class entry of Dublin (City and University), Cork, Limerick, Carlow, Fermoy, Clonmel, Cappoquin and Waterford crews. The senior events, naturally, will be the outstanding attraction and newcomers to Cappoquin here are Garda and D.U.B.C. who will be opposed by Limerick in senior eights and St. Michael's will also compete in second senior four event. D.U.B.C. will hold a strange hand in both junior events while in the maiden grades forecasting is impossible at this early stage of the season. Interesting newcomers to Cappoquin in the maiden grade are North Monastery of Cork. Coverage of the course will be made as usual by walk-talkie apparatus and it is hoped to have an improved public address system in operation. During the evening's entertainment a collection will be made along the enclosure to help defray the very heavy expenses involved in the running of this fixture. The committee appeal earnestly for a generous measure of support for the financial problems involved are many and difficult. TRAFFIC ARRANGEMENTS Motorists are requested to avoid if at all possible parking on the road on either side of the Railway Bridge so as to leave this area free for the movement of boat-carrying lorries. Parking facilities will be available along the enclosure beyond the Judge's stand but motorists are recommended to park where possible in the town as this should prove most convenient.

COMMITTEE MEETING

A meeting of all officials and stewards will be held in the Boathouse on Friday night at 9 p.m. Any offers of assistance towards the stewarding of the fixture will be gratefully received by the committee and any who are so interested are cordially invited to attend the meeting. DANCE As per our advertising columns in this issue the annual regatta dance will take place in the Boathouse on Sunday night, featuring the Flying Aces Showband, Drogheda, Adm. 6/-. Bar Visiting crews will attend. Presentation of trophies.

SALMON FISHING

At the close of last week and in the beginning of the present week salmon catches were said to be only fair in Youghal and upriver. On the whole catches have, it is agreed, been much better than last year, and some four or perhaps five boats have killed within the region of 300 each for the first seventeen weeks of the season. Other boats have not been so lucky but the peale season now commencing makes up for any losses in the salmon returns. In Ardmore fishermen are very much hampered in their operations by the presence in the bay of many basking sharks which have already destroyed many traps of nets. So far no heavy fish have been taken in the district the average weight being from 9 to 10 lbs.

YOUGHAL PAYS HOMAGE TO CHRIST THE KING

On Sunday last under ideal weather conditions Youghal held its 60rd annual Procession of the Blessed Sacrament. The first public Procession in Ireland was held in Youghal in 1898 and the preparations for this wonderful annual profession of faith were manifold and lengthy. Business houses and private houses, not alone en route but all over the town were decked with panels and banners and altars and shrines were erected; colourful streamers were strung across the streets in honour of Christ the King. Long before the time appointed to move off crowds gathered to line the principal routes. At three o'clock the Procession moved off from the Parish Church in all its solemnity and colour and it wended its way through the street via De Valera Street, North Main Street, the Rosary, the town and the Pipe Band and the Christian Brothers Eglar Band. The Blessed Sacrament was borne by the Parish Priest Very Rev. C. Cavanagh, P.P., assisted by Rev. Wm. Power, S.M.A., and Rev. P. Hennessy, C.C. In relays the canopy was borne by members of the St. Vincent de Paul Society, C.Y.M.S., Fishermen's Assoc., Youghal Branch I.T. & G.W.U. F.C.A. Guard of Honour moved at both sides of the canopy under the leadership of Rev. P. Hennessy, C.C. On arrival at the 98 Memorial Park Solemn Benediction was imparted and again on the return journey to the Parish Church. The Procession was both at the Park and the Church. The Procession was brought to a close after Benediction when the entire congregation joined in the singing of "Faith of Our Fathers."

LATE MRS. MARY WALSH

Deep regret was occasioned on Sunday last at the announcement of the death of Mrs. Mary Walsh who took place in the residence South Abbey Cottage, Youghal. The deceased was a well-known personality in the town of her adoption being widow of the late Redmond Walsh and mother of Rev. Mice Walsh, S.M.A. Her passing is deeply regretted by all and sincere sympathy is extended to the bereaved family. The remains were removed to St. Mary's Parish Church where Solemn Requiem Mass was offered for the repose of her soul on Tuesday morning after which the funeral which was both large and representative took place to North Abbey Cemetery. A full report will appear in next week's issue.

TOURANEENA NOTES

VISITORS FROM THE U.S.

Enjoying a well-earned holiday at the old homestead, as guests of their brother, Mr. Martin O'Grady, and his wife and family, Tinaltra, Ballinamut, are his two sisters, Mrs. Hannah Lynn and Mrs. Alice Rattunda who recently arrived from sunny California—their first visit since they left the 'old country' many years ago. Mrs. Lynn has been domiciled in the U.S. for the past 32 years and her sister Mrs. Rattunda for 35 years. Much water has flowed down the nearby Finisk river since they bade farewell to their parents on that morning of long ago and the very many changes that have taken place since must have been strikingly apparent to them on their return, after such a long lapse of time. They were also accompanied by their only son, Margaret Buckley (nee Brown) who is a native of Touraneena and sister of Mrs. Ann Tobin, Touraneena and Mr. Martin Brown, Knockenpower. What impressed them most on their arrival was the many beautiful plantations and hedges that had grown up all over the countryside, the greenness of the view and above all the healthy and invigorating native air and the general feel of peace and serenity. We wish them a happy and enjoyable holiday.

DEATH OF NONAGENARIAN

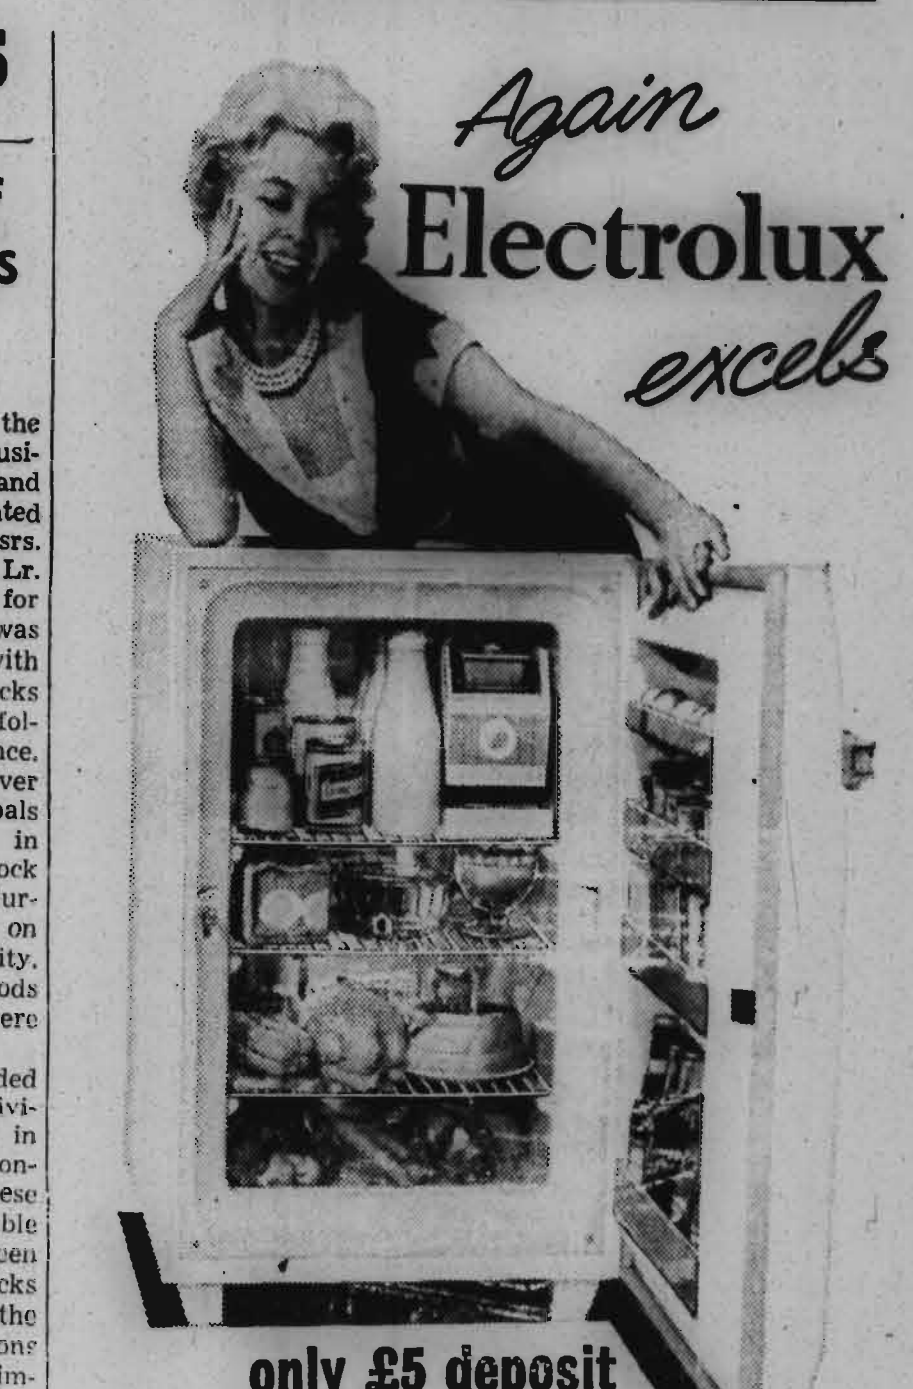

Mrs. Ellen O'Farrell who died on Saturday week, was one of the oldest and best known residents in Sliahacua. Relict of Terence O'Farrell, deceased who had reached her 95th year O'Farrell was a woman, an exemplary Catholic, a good neighbour and a devoted mother and her passing has removed yet another link with the old stock of the present century. She is survived by her two sons, Messrs. Michael and Thomas and her daughters, Mrs. Bridget Pettigrew and Misses Mary and Josie O'Farrell. There was a large attendance at the removal of the remains to St. Mary's Church, Touraneena, on Sunday evening and following Masses for the repose of her soul on Monday morning interment was made in the cemetery adjoining—R.I.P. To her family and other relatives we tender our sincere sympathy.

WINDING UP OF FUEL IMPORTERS (EIRE) LTD.

It has been decided by the Government to wind up the business of the above Company and the Shareholders have appointed Mr. Sandys, F.C.A., of Messrs. Griffin Lynch and Co., 26, Le. Baggot Street, as Liquidator for this purpose. The Company was incorporated in July, 1940, with the object of purchasing stocks of fuel in the emergency following the occupation of France. During 1940 and 1941 over 100,000 tons of British coals were imported and stocked in Dublin and Cork. This stock provided an "iron ration" during the war years and drawn on mainly by the Public Utility, Transport, Gas, etc. in periods when their own supplies were exhausted. In May, 1941, it was decided to expand the Company's activities to turf and timber and in what was known as the "non-turf area" supplies of these fuels were made available through the Company. Between 1941 and 1950 when the stocks were finally disposed of the Company handled 3,600,000 tons of turf and 430,000 tons of timber. In the early months of 1947 in common with other European countries, Ireland, as a result of severe weather, suffered a fuel crisis. On the instructions of the Government a million tons of American and Canadian coals were imported by the Company. The bulk of these coals were made available to the Utility Companies. At the end of 1950 the stocks of coal, turf and timber were exhausted and in March, 1951, as a result of the Korean War the Company was instructed to purchase further American coals. Imports of 620,000 tons of coal were then made, of which 280,000 tons were retained in stock. These stocks were drawn on periodically between 1951 and 1957 when the world fuel situation having improved substantially, it was decided to clear the remaining balance of 100,000 tons to the fuel merchants. During the Company's period of operation substantial employment was given at the dumps in various parts of Ireland. In peak periods this amounted to over 6,000 men employed. The total wages paid out amounted to £2,850,000. The total financial turnover of the business from the date of incorporation to the end of 1958 was close on £53,000,000. None of the directors received any remuneration for their services to the Company, nor were they reimbursed for any expenses incurred within Ireland. The directors of the Company at the date of the liquidation were: Mr. J. P. Cahill (Teddington, Dublin); Mr. J. J. O'Connell (Chairman); Mr. V. A. Carroll (Thomas Heiton & Co. Ltd.); Mr. P. J. Collins (Sutton & Co. Ltd., Cork); Mr. R. A. Morris (Samuel Morris Ltd., Waterford); Mr. M. J. Murphy (Joseph Murphy (Ballina) Ltd.); Mr. J. O'Keefe (Limerick Steamship Co. Ltd.); Mr. J. P. Meadows (late Supt., Great Southern Railways).

VACCINE TO SAVE MORE CALVES

Contagious abortion still causes considerable losses to farmers in this country every year, losses which can be easily avoided. The vaccine, Strain 19, or "S 19" gives almost 100 per cent protection against the disease, and farmers are advised to have their cows and heifers injected with it and so reduce the possibility of infection. When a cow aborts from this cause she usually is immune to the disease from that time onwards but her immunity is bought at the price of the calf, whereas the cost of an injection with S 19 is only a small fraction of the calf's value. The best time to inject the heifers is when they are 4 to 8 months old, and all heifers which are intended for breeding ought to be injected as a routine precaution. If a heifer is likely to be sold for breeding elsewhere it is a good idea to inject her before she is sent to sale. It has been treated with a point in her favour at the time of sale. If a farmer has any reason to fear an outbreak of contagious abortion he can inject cows that are in calf three or four months or those that have just calved. It is a mistake to wait for signs of the disease before giving the injections, as it may be too late by that time to save the calves.

Kilmacthomas, Kilrossanty and Stradbally Notes

An Bord Failte has its own code, and a very commendable one, judging from the success which has accompanied its crusade in many directions. It is interesting all the same to read of other countries working for the same purpose. The Japanese Board of Tourist Industry has just issued a little booklet entitled "How to behave before foreigners," which prescribes the etiquette to be followed by Japanese women and girl students.

Among other things the booklet says: Do not whisper among yourselves or litter in the presence of strangers. Don't imitate fancy gestures learned at the cinema. Don't ask a lady's age unless it is absolutely necessary. Light pranks add zest to your service, but don't pull people's ears. Don't suck your fingers or form a circle with your thumb and forefinger. Don't go into the bathroom when it is being used to inquire if the temperature is all right. There is nothing out of the ordinary in these Japanese injunctions. They could be followed anywhere with advantage.

VICTIM OF WORLD WAR II. Under the supervision of a German Legation Officer and a delegate from the German War Graves Federation, the remains of Karl Erhnen was exhumed at Bonmahon on Thursday week (Fest of Corpus Christi). A German war correspondent, he lost his life when the plane in which he was travelling was shot down over the sea. His body was washed ashore near the mouth of the Mahon and was interred in the Protestant necropolis there.

The exhumation took place in accordance with a decision of the German War Graves Federation to have the remains of their country's victims of the first and second world wars who are buried in cemeteries throughout Ireland, re-interred in a Garden of Remembrance at Glencree, near Enniskerry, Co. Wicklow. The remains of Karl Erhnen were taken there on Thursday evening week.

Also present at the exhumation at Bonmahon were Dr. M. O'Farrell, Co. M.O.H., Dungarvan; Mr. G. McCabe, Health Inspector, Waterford and the Rev. J. E. Dunne, The Rectory, Stradbally. Passing of a Most Amiable Neighbour. Mrs. Ellen (Nell) O'Brien (nee Foley), Garrahallish, Kilmacthomas, died at her home, on Thursday, 28th ult., following an illness of some months duration and at the advanced span, and the sad event was learned with deep regret and great sense of loss by all and sundry of these parts who found her all they could wish for in a neighbour and friend and they will mournfully miss her cheerful goodness and the happy atmosphere she brought with her at all times.

Relict of Mr. James O'Brien, Carrahallish, she is survived by a family of three sons (Eddie, Sean and Patsy) and two daughters (Mrs. O'Donoghue, London, and Mrs. Curran, Garrahallish), and a number of grandchildren with all of whom and the other relatives deepest sympathy is felt in their tribulation. Her funeral, which took place last Saturday evening to the cemetery adjoining Faha Chapel was one of the largest and most representative seen locally for a long time. Rev. Fr. Callanan, C.C., Stradbally, officiated at the graveside.

Numerous beautiful floral wreaths were placed on the grave and many Mass cards and messages of condolence were received. (Irish-American papers will please copy). Fine Successes - Anent the examination which Miss Dixon, I.S.M., conducted recently at the convent of Mercy School, Kilmacthomas, results just to hand show that all of the pupils presented passed in their respective grades, the majority with honours. This certainly speaks a fine tribute to their painstaking teachers.

Irish Hospitals' Trusts Sweepstakes on Derby - This has been a week of realisation and unrealised hopes. A minority are rich beyond the dreams of avarice. The majority are disappointed, but the present writer would not like to prophesy that they have finished with the sweeps for the rest of their lives and for this reason. After the race for the Grand National at Aintree, Liverpool, in March last, a neighbour of my acquaintance who is both shrewd and frugal, declared in my hearing and in the hearing of others: "I have been a mug too long. The Hospitals' Trust drum will never accommodate another counterfoil of mine. I'm finished with gambling," and he was one of the first to secure not one but two tickets for the Derby draw. Again he has been unsuccessful. What form his anathemas and resolutions will take on this occasion I do not know, but I would not be surprised to hear that he is contemplating another one, judging from the success which has accompanied its crusade in many directions. WEST WATERFORD NEWS

CLASHMORE F.C.A. Ten new recruits were secured for the Clashmore Platoon F.C.A. recently and more new members are expected. The Platoon is in charge of Mr. Michael Baker. CLASHMORE DRAMATIC SOCIETY SOCIAL The annual social of the above was held in the Green Park Hotel, Youghal. The big gathering of members and guests had a most enjoyable night. Music was supplied by Messrs. Ned Lombard and Rex North.

CATTLE INSPECTION The annual inspection of cattle, the property of Clashmore-Aglish C.T.A. will take place on Monday next, 8th June. Cattle will be inspected at four centres by an officer of the Department of Agriculture. SUCCESSFUL DANCE AT REDBARN Close on 500 people attended the annual dance of the Clashmore-Aglish C.T.A. at Redbarn on Sunday night and the function proved a great success from every point of view. Sparkling music was provided by the Gearys, who proved very popular with the big crowd. The promoters desire to sincerely thank all who by their patronage made the function such a success.

TO-NIGHT AT REDBARN Redbarn, which is proving very popular with West Waterford dancers, will provide a stupendous attraction on to-night (Friday) when the sensational Joe Loss in the course a five-day tour, will present his star singers Rose Brennan, Ross McManus, Larry Gretton with Des Fretwell and his orchestra. This all-star show is sure to attract a record attendance. CONFIRMATION AT CLASHMORE On Tuesday last, His Lordship, Most Rev. Dr. D. Cohalan, D.D., Bishop of Waterford and Lismore, paid his biennial Episcopal Visitation to the combined parishes of Clashmore and Plintown and in the Parish Church of Our Lady of Good Council, Clashmore, administered the Sacrament to thirty-one children from the schools of the parish. His Lordship, who was accompanied by his secretary, Rev. R. Keane, complimented the parents and teachers on the manner in which the children had been prepared for Confirmation. Rev. Keane also addressed the very large congregation. Mass was celebrated by Rev. M. Power, B.A., C.C. and Very Rev. D. Power, P.P., officiated at the altar in the choir in charge of Mrs. J. Lincoln, N.T.

SIX COUNTIES RESTRICT CATTLE MOVEMENT The Order of the Six County Government prohibiting untested store cattle from entering County Antrim or County Derry came into force on June 1st. Exceptions from this restriction are fat cattle which are to be slaughtered immediately after entry and cattle going to Derry port for immediate shipment. The restriction has been imposed as part of the preparation for making Derry and Antrim compulsory clearance areas under the Six Counties bovine tuberculosis eradication scheme from September next. As far as cattle from the Twenty Six Counties are concerned the effect of the Order is that all cattle which are going into, or through, County Derry or County Antrim now have to be accompanied by licences issued by the Six County veterinary authorities at the border posts through which the animals pass on their way north. In the case of animals going for immediate slaughter or for immediate export from the port of Derry the licence issued at the border post is sufficient. In all other cases licences will be granted only in respect of cattle for which certificates can be produced showing that they have passed tuberculin test within the preceding 14 days, or that they are accredited or attested stock. The person in charge of the cattle for which a licence is issued or of cattle for transport, may be required to give his name and address, and those of the owner of the animals, to the officer at the border post. He will also be required to deliver the licence to the person who receives the animals from him. The licences must be retained by the person to whose premises the cattle are finally taken, and he may be asked to produce it within 12 months after receiving the cattle. junior championship, are in the process of being finalised at the time of writing.

TALLOW NOTES

CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION The annual Procession in honour of the Most Blessed Sacrament was held in Tallow on Sunday last. The Procession moved off from the Carmelite convent at 3 p.m. and passed through the principal streets of the town to the Holy Year Grotto where Benediction was imparted then returning to the Church of the Immaculate Conception for Benediction again. The Sacred Host was carried by Very Rev. W. Canon Flynn, P.P., assisted by Rev. Fr. M. Condon, C.C. Mr. Frank Ryan, regret to record the death of Mr. M. Leahy, Glanatore, Conna, which occurred at his residence on Monday May 28th. A widely esteemed member of the farming community, he was held in the highest esteem and his death which occurred suddenly is deeply regretted. There was a large and representative cortege at the removal of the remains to Conna Church and at the funeral to Mogeely Cemetery.

TALLOW FAIR Cattle prices showed a marked fall at Tallow monthly fair on Friday, May 29th. A decline of up to 45 per cent was noted in some classes. Sheep and pig prices were steady at around recent rates. Only a small number of cattle were on offer. There was a big attendance of buyers. DEATH OF MR. JAMES PRENDERGAST It is with deep regret we record the death of Mr. James Prendergast, Coolbeggan, Knockanore, which occurred at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan, on Saturday, May 30th. Deceased was a highly respected member of the community and in his youth was a noted horseman. The remains were removed to the Church of the Sacred Heart, Knockanore on Sunday evening, May 30th and the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery. The chief mourners were: Mrs. P. Hourigan, Coolbeggan; Miss M. Prendergast, Cahir (daughters); McGrath family, Tallow (relatives).

ARCH ATTRACTION Big double attraction at the Arch on Sunday, 14th June will be the visit of Johnny Flecker, Ireland's new king of cell and his cell band, whose name resounds through the length and breadth of the land as Ireland's No. 1 Cell band. A special attraction will be a display of figure dancing by the Shamrock Gaelic Club, Cork, in their picturesque traditional costumes. Two buses will bring eighty members to the Arch on that night. See advt in this issue. SYMPATHY Sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Power, Conna, on the death of their two year old child who died in Fermoy hospital and was interred in Tallow on Monday.

CO. WATERFORD ITEMS FROM LONDON By ABBEYSIDE His many friends from Abbeyside and throughout the county will be pleased to learn of the splendid progress being made by Mr. M. Cowman, who recently underwent a serious operation at a London hospital. The committee of the Co. Waterford Social Club continues to take a keen interest in his general welfare. A sign of relief was heaved recently when a large unexploded bomb found on the Shell site was towed out to sea for destruction. It was notified by the crane driver during the night shift. Quite a number of Co. Waterford men are employed on the site. The bomb was dropped during the war and remained undiscovered until now. The many friends of Mrs. N. Noonan, wife of former Waterford hurling star, Nick Noonan, will be pleased to know she is making a good recovery from a recent operation at a London hospital. Much sympathy is extended to the relatives of the late Miss E. Lynch, from Lyrratin, Ballinamully, who died here recently. St. Declan's G.F.C. have won the first round of the London intermediate championship and head their group in the league. Jim Timmons, former Kilrossanty player, expects to assist them later in the season. The Dungarvan Observer can be obtained at Marble Arch any Sunday evening. So buy it and maintain your link with the gentle county. Wimbledon dog track kennels a few County Waterford dogs including Abbeyside Mike who recently made a promising debut; Abbeyside Nan, also a winner here. Waterford Lough is another recent arrival. All Waterford Gaels here hope for a Decies win against Galway in their Munster hurling championship tie. We hope Donal and co. jump this hurdle.

VOCATIONAL COMMITTEE MEETING

At the monthly meeting of Co. Waterford Vocational Committee held in Dungarvan Technical School, the C.E.O., Mr. D. Cullinane, told the members that an examination would be held at the School on Saturday next June 6th, in connection with Irish Scholarships. Candidates from the Irish classes throughout the county would be in competition for the scholarships which were valued at £15 each. Ten scholarships would be awarded in the current session on the results of the examination tenable at Ring College for the month of August, which had been approved by the Department.

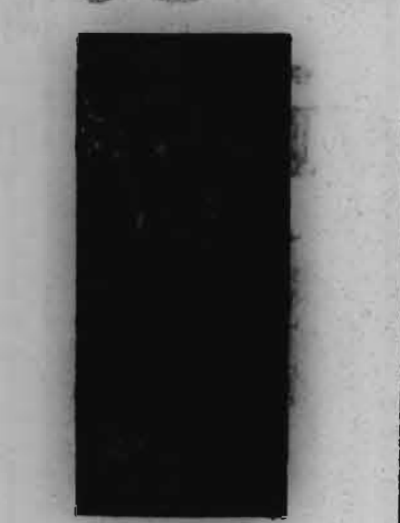

Muiris de Buidéir was appointed examiner. To date the number of entries was thirty. A redundant employee of C.I.E., or of the G.N.R. who takes a job with a public body won't get paid twice.

At the County Vocational Committee's meeting the C.E.O. read a circular letter from the Local Government Department directed to public bodies which said that under the Transport Act, 1958, and the Great Northern Railway Act 1958, redundant employees of C.I.E. and the G.N.R. Board transferred to C.I.E. who had more than 5 years service were entitled to compensation in the form of an annual sum for life.

Compensation would, however be abated where the redundant employee took up employment with a Government Department or Local Authority, so that the total of his annual income by way of redundancy compensation and his remuneration from his new employment would not exceed the remuneration he had been in receipt of prior to the termination of his employment by C.I.E.

As the cost of the redundancy compensation felt to the Exchequer, the Minister for Industry and Commerce was concerned that no abuses arise in connection with it. Public bodies were asked to notify the Department whenever a former employee of C.I.E. was either taken on their staff or dismissed by the public body or State-sponsored body.

LATE MR. JACK DUNPHY

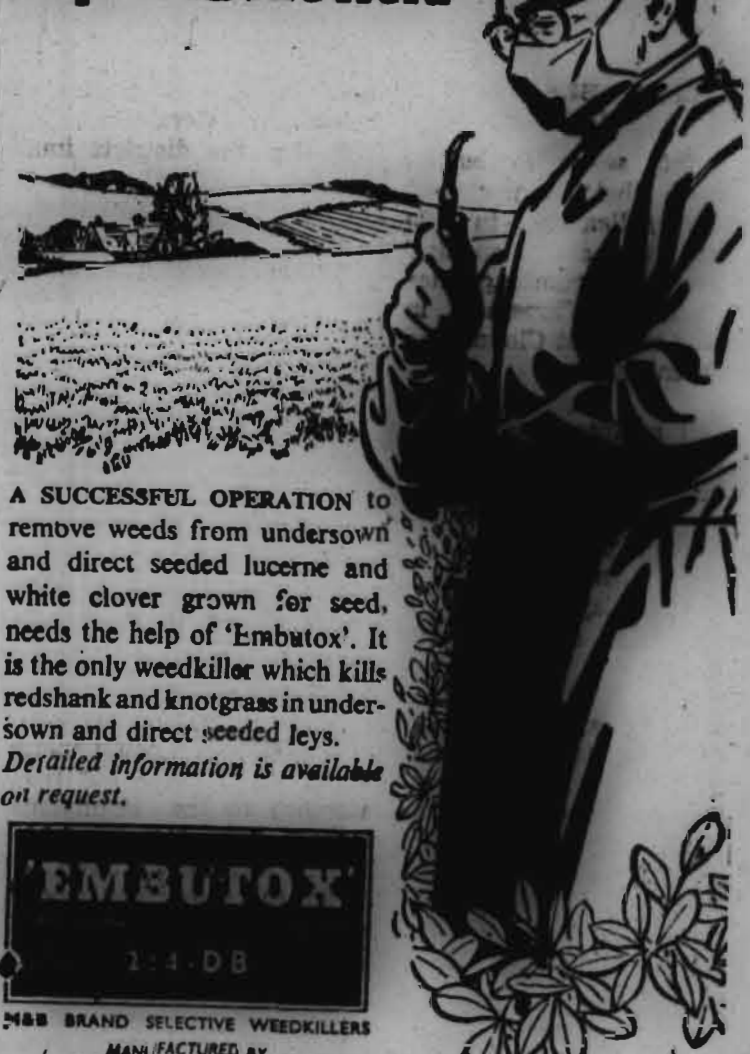

The death occurred of Mr. Jack Dunphy, Killosera, at the residence of his nephew, at 34 Dr. Caseyville on Monday last. Deceased who had been in failing health for some time was descended from one of the oldest and most respected families in the district and was of a kind and jovial disposition. He was at one time an extensive farmer. He was nephew of the late Canon Dunphy, Stradbally and Canon M. Dunphy, Dunhill. Cousin of the late Canon Dunphy, Abbeyside, Fr. Rennie Casey, Dr. Casey and Pierce Casey R.I.P., also Monsignor Casey, of Skerries.

The remains were removed to St. Mary's Parish Church on Monday evening. The interment took place in the adjoining cemetery after Office and High Mass on Tuesday. Chief mourners were: Ellen Dunphy (step-sister); John Bird, Michael, Eddie and Bernard Dunphy (nephews); Mrs. M. McCarthy, Mrs. M. P. Howe, Mrs. K. Martin, Miss E. Dunphy, M. Dunphy (nieces), M. Dunphy and Breda (nieces-in-law).

Messrs. J. Kiely and Sons had charge of arrangements.

KilmacThomas and Dungarvan Fire Brigades were summoned last week-end to Comeragh House, Leamybrien (residence of Major and Mrs. Grey) where they quickly quenched an outbreak of fire. Happily the damage wrought by the conflagration was not extensive.

Expert in the field

A SUCCESSFUL OPERATION to remove weeds from undersown and direct seeded lucerne and white clover grown for seed, needs the help of 'Embutox'. It is the only weedkiller which kills redshank and knotgrass in undersown and direct seeded leys. Detailed information is available on request.

FOOTBALLERS BEATEN

The county senior footballers have joined their junior and minor colleagues in the ranks of the championships...

But their performance, though defeat was again their lot, was not without its bright spots. On the contrary, a depleted and to all intents and purposes make-shift fifteen turned in a highly creditable display against a Tipperary side of no mean potential.

Our men, as expected, had to field without inter-provincial half-back Tom Cunningham, whose injured limb is still in plaster, and they were hit further by the withdrawal of full-backs Smith and Roche, and one of the big hopes of the side, O'Connell, the mid-fielder. Their performance in such circumstances was very creditable.

With the exit of our big representatives in all three grades, it rests with the hurling challenges—the seniors and juniors—to salvage at least a portion of the county's dwindling prestige.

Right now the senior fifteen would appear the better proposition of the two. Not that they can afford to take anything for granted, though, for Galway, their opponents at Limerick on Sunday three weeks, have played consistently workmanlike hurling since their defeat in last year's All-Ireland final.

But the juniors will almost certainly find the going tougher when they make their appearance at Lismore on Sunday week. Opponent Kerry can again put their first fifteen on the field for this encounter and, remembering the close call the seniors experienced when they visited Kenmare twelve months ago, it seems safe to assume that they will prove a real tough nut to crack.

The selection to do duty of strength between Eastern and against the Kingdom, was, it is understood, named after the test of strength between Eastern and Western sides at Waterford last night. At the time of writing it is hoped to complete arrangements for a further outing early next week.

already caused the postponement of the game. The failure of the appointed referee to turn up—a happening that has already caused the postponement of several fixtures this season—resulted in the first round meeting of Tourin and Ballinacorney junior footballers, which was to have taken place at Lismore the other Sunday, falling through. In the absence of the Board's nominee the teams failed to agree on a substitute. This is a problem which has already caused divisional officials an amount of embarrassment and was discussed at length at the last meeting of the Board. As I see, the position cries out for the establishment of a new school of enthusiastic young officials.

OVERSIGHT

Due to an oversight, we inadvertently omitted to refer to a statement by Chairman Jamie Moloney in covering the last meeting of the Western Board. Mr. Moloney's statement was to the effect that his Board would not accept the "gate" taken up on the occasion of the postponed Dungarvan-Colligan Rockies fixture. It will be recalled that both teams were on the field at Ballymacorney when the postponement was announced after efforts to appoint a substitute in the absence of the appointed referee had ended in failure. Chairman Moloney intimates that the question of reimbursing spectators was a matter for the home club.

LOCAL DERBY

There should be a great hosting at Cappoquin on Sunday evening for the long-awaited clash of Brickey Rangers and their neighbouring rivals, the Aglish-based Geraldines. Certain it is that the districts immediately concerned, where the game has been the major topic of discussion for weeks back, and the traditional football strongholds will be represented in force when Con Crowley, the former County player, sets the game in motion at 8 p.m. The survivors go on to the final of the Phelan Cup. It is, incidentally, quite a long time now since Cappoquin staged a major senior football test.

FOR THE RECORD

Pressure of space, that seemingly perpetual enemy of the provincial newspaperman, caused us to make but passing reference to the championship clash of Abbeyside and Mount Sion in last week's issue. Although the champions scored a decisive victory and Abbeyside's eclipse was in many ways disappointing, there were several features worthy of detail even at this late stage.

For one thing, Village supporters had reason to hail the hard-hitting display of Mick Kieley, the county minor. At full-back, Kieley turned in a great performance, mastering the opposition and clearing his lines in a manner that bore the stamp of class. Moved out to centre half, Austin Flynn once again proved that he is an impeccable hurler. His, too, was a heart-warming performance.

Mid-fielder Anthony Hayes played great stuff in patches but Donal Whelan alone among the forwards appeared capable of besting the well-knit Sion defence. Minor Danny Barry was another Abbeyside man to catch the eye.

Mick Finnell, in the unusual position of wing back, was probably the winners' outstanding performer. The former inter-county man was instrumental in undermining a lot of the losers' useful approach.

Phelan Cup victory

Although Cappoquin were by no stretch of imagination the powerful combination they can be when accounting for Ferrybank, Cornerstone mentors are, in fact, still confident that they will furnish the titleholders with their stiffest challenge of the competition. It can be taken for granted that they will certainly have left their first round form behind them when they take on old rivals Geraldines on their next outing.

HURLERS PREPARE

Arrangements have been made for the county senior hurlers to play a series of challenge games before the championship fixture with galway on June 28th. On Thursday next, the 11th inst. Kilkenny will be in opposition and a week later their Leinster rivals Wexford will provide a test of strength. Our men should be capable of coming on apace as a result. The men in charge met in Waterford last night to name the side to do duty against the Ossory men.

DUNHILL FINAL

Dunhill will be en fête tonight for the final game of their gigantic hurling tournament which brings Mount Sion and Glen Rovers into opposition. From the very outset the competition has been an unqualified success, both financially and from the point of power-packed hurling. It but remains for tonight's star-studded final to set the seal on a great fortnight's stickwork.

SUNDAY'S GAMES

Sunday next will see the first round of the senior hurling championship completed. That is, of course, providing Glean na nDeise and Dunhill reach a decision when they clash at Newtown. Also down for reckoning is the first test of the big competition between group selections, St. Brendan's and St. Vincent's. This clash is set for Dunhill, a venue that continues to gain in popularity with every game.

Geraldines or Brickeys

Phelan Cup clash is wide open

The background to Sunday's Phelan Cup semi-final between the Aglish Geraldines and Brickey Rangers has provided such excellent material for discussion for argument and for speculation, that one feels Cappoquin's Sportsfield will be packed to capacity when the long-awaited "showdown" finally gets under way at 8.00 p.m.

For several years—in fact ever since Geraldines battled their way out of junior ranks—these neighbouring rivals have fairly thirsted for an opportunity to get to grips. It is scarcely surprising in the circumstances that their meeting, with a ticket to the final of the competition hanging on the outcome for good measure, should be regarded as a crowd-puller extraordinary.

For the men immediately concerned, their mentors' and supporters, it is an event of much importance—an occasion to settle on the field of combat the questions that have provoked endless controversies over the years. Neutral folk will turn up in the expectations of a battle royal. And it is unlikely that they will be disappointed, for the fixture has all the trimmings of a great football "war."

The eagerness with which the rivals have prepared for action and the number of challenge outings in which they have figured reflect very clearly their determined approach to the game. Geraldines have punctuated their training campaign with a couple of victories over Kilkenny, a fair test of strength at any time. Before their own supporters the yscored a decisive 2-8 to 0-4 victory and they again prevailed in a return bout.

The game indicated very conclusively that the Monastery men have their sights trained on the blue riband once again. Mick Finnell, in the unusual position of wing back, was probably the winners' outstanding performer. The former inter-county man was instrumental in undermining a lot of the losers' useful approach.

After their tremendous showing against Kilkenny, who went on to win the title in the '57 campaign, the Aglish men prove one of the big disappointments of last year's championship, unexpectedly failing to a little-fancied Dunhill side in the opening round. Followers hold that their form on that occasion was all wrong and they look to Sunday's engagement as an opportunity to prove their content to the hilt.

There is, of course, no necessity to stress the utter difference of a challenge outing and the nerve-racking tension of a vital competitive engagement. Hence the tendency to attach but passing significance to the training bouts when it comes to finally casting one's vote one way or the other.

P. KENNEALLY (Geraldines)

at Leamybrien the other Sunday. Apart altogether from the psychological value, these outings must have provided Geraldines with an amount of invaluable information about their most effective formation.

Incidentally, it speaks volumes for the amount of talent at their disposal that in the two qualifying games they have utilised no fewer than twenty-five players all told.

The Rangers have a brace of victories over Ardmore to their credit, which they achieved without the service of a couple of regulars but they took a rather heavy tumble at the hands of De La Salle in Waterford on Tuesday night. Again, however, they were under-strength.

In a series of challenge tests played in preparation for last year's championship Geraldines scored convincingly, recording three successive victories and the Rangers prevailed in a further encounter towards the close of the year.

There is, of course, no necessity to stress the utter difference of a challenge outing and the nerve-racking tension of a vital competitive engagement. Hence the tendency to attach but passing significance to the training bouts when it comes to finally casting one's vote one way or the other.

In the same frame of mind, trained to the proverbial ounce and determined to give off their very all, the Hallahans, Patsy Kenneally, Tom O'Connell, Johnny Kieley, Stylo Riordan, Larry Lee, Bunny Ronayne and the evergreen Bobo Scanlon will take the field.

Brickeys, likewise, have no doubts about their ability to stay a gruelling hour. Pat Spratt and Frankie Ryan have been big men in the county's recent league and championship engagements, Patsy Donnell is said to be playing as well as ever, and Tom, Bill and Justin Spratt Paul Donoghue, Richie Whelan, Tom Foley, Nicholas McGrath and the evergreen Bobo Scanlon will take the field.

Both sides will be endeavouring to earn a final ticket for the first time since the inception of the competition in 1956. Two years ago Geraldines failed narrowly to Kilrossanty at the semi-final stage, going down by 1-7 to 0-6 and twelve months previously Rangers were on the receiving end of a drubbing from Mount Sion at the same stage of the competition.

It all adds up to a tremendous battle for supremacy and the prospects of these being as little as a kick of the ball in the difference one way or the other at the long whistle are decidedly forcible.

Win who will, it is earnestly hoped that the game will be played in a spirit of sportsmanly worth of two of the county's oldest football strongholds.

The whistle will be in charge of Con Crowley, who is scheduled to set the game in motion sharp at 8 p.m.

EASY FOR CAPPOQUIN

Inexperienced and clearly out of their depth, Lismore offered but token resistance to a well-balanced Cappoquin side when they clashed in the opening round of the junior football championship at the Castle Farm on Friday evening. The much more accomplished Cornerstone side dominated the exchanges throughout an hour that provided little of any real note.

CHAMPIONSHIP GAMES ON SUNDAY

Dunhill, with county players Billy Dunphy and Mick Whyte on the side and powered by great club spirit, should be capable of accounting for Glean na nDeise, a Colligan St. Patrick's selection, when they clash in the opening round of the senior hurling championship on Sunday evening. This game goes on at Newtown and is timed to commence at 8.00.

Ground advantage may well prove the decisive factor in the opening game of the senior football championship which is scheduled for Dunhill on Sunday afternoon. St. Brendan's who hail from nearby Tramore, Fenner and St. John's and St. Vincent's, Cappoquin-Valley Rovers combination provide the opposition and the odds are on a victory for the Eastern selection.

Kilrossanty entertain Kill in a senior football challenge on Sunday afternoon at Leamybrien. With championship time approaching fast the outing should prove of considerable benefit to two sides in the process of regrouping their forces. The game is set for 3.00.

Footballers fall to Tipperary

The failure of the county's football men to make the most of a first half gale they were only on level terms at the change of ends—probably cost them a ticket forward to the Munster championship semi-final when they clashed with Tipperary at Clonmel on Sunday evening.

Tipperary set the pace and were well clear almost before the depleted Decies side had found its feet. From the outset the home team played clever, purposeful football but their finishing was never on par with their excellent approach work. Largely as a result, Waterford were in a position to battle back and level up with a spate of well-taken points during the second quarter.

There was an exciting exchange of points immediately on the turn over. Then Tipperary notched three minors in a row and the game appeared as good as over. Or so we thought, for the losers proceeded to rally in great style only to have their fight back foiled by ag rand Tipperary rearguard.

Tipperary were obviously the better side and were full value for their victory, narrow though the margin was. On the other hand, Waterford's performance was incomparably superior to the effort they produced on their last appearance at the same venue. There were several fine individual displays and a couple of the scores resulted from movements that belied the fact that they were without an outing together since the failure to Kerry in the league last March.

Waterford lined out without full-backs Willie Smith and Sean Roche and mid-fielder Bro O'Connell, in addition the selectors had to make do without Tom Cunningham. To fill the vacancies, they called in Mick Prendergast, of Kilrossanty, who proceeded to play a whale of a game, Kill's Tom Whelan and Albie Richard of Mount Sion. Pender, playing at full-back, was probably the outstanding man in the side that was also exceptionally well served by Tom McGrath, Frankie Ryan and Jimmoneen Power when he was moved back to defence. On the winning Tipperary side Tom Walsh, Patsy Myles, Liam Boland, Gus Donagher, John Keating and Johnny Ryan who played havoc with our defence, were always in the picture.

Young men engaged in the building trade in County Waterford are far too busy working at the present time to take time out for a special Apprentice Refresher course in practical building. At the monthly meeting of the Vocational Committee, the C.E.O. stated that there had been a small response to the advertisement issued recently by the Committee in connection with the award of scholarships to the Practical Building Course organised by the City of Cork Vocational Educational Committee. This course for apprentices to the building trade will take place from June 16th at the Crawford Municipal Technical Institute, Cork. There had been two applications received from boys in the County Waterford—one from Ardmore and one from Abbeyside. Applicants for admission to the course should be apprentices of at least three years standing and should have attained a sufficiently high standard of proficiency in the theory and practice of their trade to enable them to derive maximum benefit from the course. A maintenance allowance of £4 per week will be paid by the Department of Education. Fee for the course was £10 which the Committee had proposed to pay by way of scholarship to the selected candidate from Waterford county. Proficiency tests would be conducted by inspectors before the admission of any applicants to the course. The Committee decided to award a £10 scholarship if one candidate should be selected, or to grant two scholarships of £5 each in the event of two applicants qualifying at the Inspector's examination for selection. County Waterford Vocational Education Committee decided at their meeting in Dungarvan to issue an advertisement for the filling of the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Miss Pauline Sheehan, Domestic Economy Instructor. Appointment to be made in July.
