LATE MR. JOHN HEALY

Sincere regret was occasioned at the tragic death of Mr. John Healy (Morrissey), Draper of North Main Street, Youghal, which sad event took place at the Bon Secour Home, Cork, last week. Mr. Healy was a well known figure in the business circles of the town, being proprietor of the old and established 'Morrissey's Drapery'. Due to falling off a step ladder a few days ago, Mr. Healy was removed to Cork Hospital where he died rather unexpectedly. At an inquest at the Bon Secour Hospital, before Coroner J. J. Horgan, Solr., evidence was given by Mr. Healy's wife, Miss Catherine Higgins, that Mr. Healy fell eight or ten feet from a ladder at the rear of his house on October 27th. After medical evidence by Doctors Whelan and Maguire, a verdict of accidental death from pulmonary embolism, following fracture of the right femur, was returned. Sympathy was extended to the bereaved family.

The remains were removed to St. Mary's Parish Church, Youghal, where Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated for the repose of his soul, and the funeral was held at 10.30 a.m. on Saturday. The funeral was representative took place to North Abbey cemetery.

LATE MRS. MARTHA AHERN

We regret to record the death at the early age of 34 years of Mrs. Martha Aherne (neé Schroth of Germany), which took place last week after a prolonged period of illness at her residence Marienburgh, Nuns Walk, Pouladuff, Cork. The deceased was wife of Mr. Jerry Aherne, formerly of New Catherine St., Youghal, whose mother had passed.

AN EYE TO THE PAST

LISMORE CASTLE

If anybody who lived in 1750 saw the present castle of Lismore, he would hardly recognise it. For one thing no bridge led to the water's edge and the old building itself was half in ruins. Two wings of it were in some kind of repair, but the rest stood roofless and bare.

In course of time all this was to change. The Earls of Cork (mentioned last week) and their heirs the Earls of Burlington, took little interest in the historic building, but the place came into the hands of a wife of Devonshire at the end of the 18th century.

The Duke of Devonshire built the Blackwater and in 1812 he began to restore the ruined-down castle. In the course of the work an old door-way was found which had been blocked up, and, to their amazement, they discovered hidden there an ancient manuscript and a beautiful Bishop's crosier. They had found the Book of Lismore—a collection of old Irish literature and a crosier of exquisite workmanship which enclosed a wooden staff which may have been the original crosier of St. Carthage, the founder of Lismore.

The restored castle, which we see to-day is a fine and imposing edifice, but it is too ornamental a structure to withstand the sieges and forays that the original fortress withstood.

Among the interesting people who lived in Lismore castle, one is Robert Boyle, the famous scientist whose name is associated with the discovery of an important law in Physics. He was son of the great Earl of Cork, and brother of the man who defended the castle so gallantly in 1641.

That then is some of the story of Lismore Castle. Its tall turrets and graceful lines, set in a setting of sylvan beauty, help to make the Blackwater the "Irish Rhine," as it is sometimes called.

Kilmacthomas, Stradbally and Kilrossanty News

Gentle Local Lady's Demise

Following an illness of some months' duration and at a comparatively early age, Miss Agnes Phelan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Phelan, Furraltagh, Kilmacthomas, died at her home on Wednesday last week, 11th inst. (Feast of St. Martin, B. C.), the sad event leaving but a memory of a worthy, well-liked member of a front-rank Deise Catholic family stock—a memory that will remain with those who had the privilege of knowing her until their turn comes to follow her into the hereafter.

The late Miss Phelan possessed a genuinely grand character. She had always a helping hand for those in need, sometimes encouragement, at other times forbearance, but always her strongest aid prayers which always seemed to be answered. Her energy was boundless and her cheerful disposition helped many to weather storms with more patience than they would normally have.

She was sister of Very Rev. Fr. James Phelan, P.P., Edinburgh, Scotland; Mr. Robert Phelan, Coonen, Kilmacthomas and Messrs. Joseph and Kevin Phelan, Furraltagh, do. With the bereaved ones whole-hearted sympathy is widespread.

An immense cortege accompanied the removal of the remains from the residence to St. Anne's Church, Feys, where, on arrival, the coffin was received and blessed by the Rev. P. Beecher, C.C., Kilmacthomas. Requiem Mass in the sacred edifice at 10 o'clock on Friday morning preceded the burial, which took place in the adjoining cemetery in the presence of many mourners and sympathers. Very Rev. J. McCarthy, P.P., Kilrossanty, gave the closing absolution at the graveside.

A number of beautiful floral wreaths were placed on the grave, and sheaves of straw and bouquets and messages of condolence were received.

Peace to the gentle soul departed.

Messrs. Quayly & Co., auctioneers and valuers, Dungarvan, conducted a very successful auction on Thursday week, 12th inst., at Curraha, Kilmacthomas, where they sold the residential farm of 64 acres or thereabouts, by instruction of the next of kin of the late lamented Mr. John Power. There was a big crowd present and brisk bidding was the keynote of the sale. Highest price offered was £2,750, which with the customary fees made for the purchaser of the compact holding, 600 that person was a well and popularly known neighbour—namely, Mr. John (Jack) Flynn, farmer, Fahn, Kilmacthomas.

Belonging by Birth to the Cove Village of Stradbally is likeable Mr. Edmund (Eddie) Flynn, who has just gone from there and taken up residence with an uncle of his (Mr. John Power) in District.

The Great Call was answered on Friday last week, 13th inst. (Feast of St. Elizabeth), in Waterford City, of a member of one of the most highly esteemed and best connected families in the parish of Clonsa and Rathgarnack. He was Mr. Thomas Power, Killergallo, Clonsa, who for the greater part of his career, was positioned in the capacity of salesman and book-keeper at the establishment of Mr. Joseph Knox, hardware merchant, Barronstrand Street, Waterford.

Deceased was all one could wish for in a son and the expansive circle of firm friends he enjoyed will sadly miss his cheerful goodness and the happy atmosphere he brought with him at all times while the example of his unflinching loyalty, courtesy and kindness will not be lost upon them. Being the good soul that he was, he looked after everybody else's needs, but rarely considered himself. An zealous and devout Catholic and a staunch supporter of the native cause, his passing occasioned deep regret over a wide area.

Succumbing here, Sr. David Convent of the Community of the Sacred Heart Order, Lanchashire and the Misses Britte, Molly and Nano Power, Killergallo (sisters); Mr. Patrick Power, Clonsa; Mr. David Power, Kilmacthomas; Mr. Edmund Power, Silvekeale Bn., Waterford; and Mr. John A. Power (brothers), to whom, as well as to his niece and nephews including Very Rev. Fr. Ailbe O.F.M., Prior, Mullinahone, sympathy in full measure is extended.

The funeral took place on Sunday evening from the Cathedral, Waterford, to the cemetery adjoining the Parish Church, Clonsa and its size and representative nature was a magnificent tribute of public respect for the memory of a departed worth. Clergy in attendance included the Venerable Archbishop David Power, P.P.

V.F. Dungarvan (cousin of the deceased).

Shoals of spiritual bouquets and telegrams and letters conveying expressions of condolence were received.

At an anam, a loss Dills, dean trocraic.

Felicitations are most cordially offered to Mr. Dermot Hayes, Bishopscourt, Waterford and Miss Eileen, Whelan (only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Whelan, Bonmahon) on their marriage, which (with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing) was solemnised in the Church of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, Kill, recently, by Very Rev. H. Synnott, B.A., P.P., Newtown, Miss Mary Beatty, St. Anne's Terrace, Kilmacthomas, was bridesmaid and Mr. Thomas Hayes (brother of the groom) acted as best man.

Late Mrs. M. Walsh.—The death of Mrs. Mary Walsh, wife of Mr. Patrick Walsh, Kilmacthomas, which happened at her home on Saturday, 14th inst. (Feast of St. Laurence O'Toole, B.C.), came as a profound shock to all who had the pleasure of knowing her. Of genial, friendly and generous disposition, she endeared herself to all with whom she came in contact, and the most difficult thought for those who knew her is to realise that her easy-going and good-natured presence can no longer be enjoyed, and they sincerely sympathise with her grief-stricken husband and family.

The attendance at the removal of her remains to the Parish Church, Clonsa, was ample evidence of the high regard in which she was held.

Subsequent to the celebration of Requiem Mass at 10 o'clock on Monday morning, burial took place in the adjoining necropolis, and Very Rev. Fr. McGrath, P.P., Clonsa and Rathgarnack, officiated at the graveside. At dusk he so raihb a banner.

Yester-Week-End's Savage Storms caused no small amount of damage locally, in the way of dislodging slates off roofs, uprooting trees, etc.

At Waterford Gaelic Sportsfield to-morrow (Sunday) Kilrossanty senior football team will have a big following to cheer and encourage them to emerge triumphant from the mix with Mount Sion, a County Championship penultimate.

NEWS FROM AGLISH

LATE THOMAS ALBERT

Widespread regret was occasioned throughout the district last week at the announcement of the death of Mr. Thomas Albert, which occurred at his residence, Kersna, after a fairly protracted illness. The late Mr. Albert, who had attained an advanced age, was a member of the farming community. He was highly popular with all sections, a fact that was reflected at the attendance at the removal of the remains to Aglish Parish Church and again at the interment in the adjoining cemetery subsequent to the celebration of Requiem Office and High Mass. Dearest sympathy is extended to the deceased's family, relatives, etc.

Dearest sympathy is extended to the deceased's family, relatives, etc.

Violent gale which swept this area on Thursday night and Friday morning, left a trail of damage in its wake—trees blown down, slates rapped off roofs, ricks of hay and straw blown over, etc. Some roads were closed to traffic for some hours due to fallen trees. The gale continued in the night, until Saturday evening.

INCREASED RATE FOR EDUCATION

County Waterford Vocational Education Committee unanimously adopted a rate of 8.4d. in the £ as their demand on the County Council for the services of the financial year commencing 1st of April next.

At the monthly meeting, the C.E.O. submitted for the committee the Estimates for the coming year which showed an increase of 0.9d. in the £ over last year. As a result of the Government's recent award to teachers, following arbitration, he said that an increase in the rate was necessary to cover the amount of the award and it would also make provision for an extra teacher from next September.

Members considered a comparative table showing the rates in force in other counties. Mr. Keane: "At 7.5d. in the £ we are the lowest in the whole of Ireland, and will still be the lowest even at the proposed rate of 8.4d."

The C.E.O. said that they had neither loan nor overdraft accommodation as a burden on them. Instead of expending money on the erection of schools as had been done elsewhere, they had provided portable schools to serve various areas of the county. They had hired buildings for classes in other districts, and had been very conservative in regard to buildings.

Mr. Keane: "We have 7.5d. at the moment and are asking the Council for 8.4d. As we must pay the increase to our teachers, and as we have a demand for a woodwork teacher for the east of the county I propose that we adopt 8.4d. in the £." This was seconded by Aid. T. Kye, A.D.

Mr. C. Curran said that he did not like to make cuts in educational services, but they would have to consider substantial increases in other services.

Mr. Keane: "Education is a most essential service in the county and especially in this county, where, in addition to the other classes, you have special night classes for farmers, which help to improve their education."

Mr. O'Hara: "We have a good school—no loans and no overdraft."

Mr. J. P. Faolin said that they had built no new schools and it might be said that things were being done. The increase asked for was small and the Committee had not been a big burden on the rates.

Mr. Keane: "If we do have to get an overdraft we will be in debt like the County Council, and that seems to be the only way to get your rights."

A rate of 8.4d. in the £ was adopted. It is understood that this was later reduced to a rate of 8.2d. by the County Council members of the Vocational Committee, who met at a special estimates sub-committee meeting.

GAWN PERMANENT APPOINTMENT

Mr. Donagh O'Connell, Ballymaddy, teacher, applied to the Committee for his permanent status as provision from his existing temporary appointment.

Mr. Harv said that this teacher had given every satisfaction in his service, and the granting of his permanent status was only a formality.

Mr. O'Connell said that Mr. O'Connell had attended a special course in the summer and had obtained additional qualifications. He had been very successful in securing the Dr. Ryan Festival in Ballymaddy last year when the whole of the organisational work devolved on him. The festival had been a great success. He said that Mr. O'Connell had merited the proposition.

It was decided to appoint Mr. O'Connell permanent.

Re-arrangement of Macra Debates

Of the five debates scheduled for the first round of the Macra na Feirme Debating Competition for the current season, organised by Waterford County Executive Committee, only one took place.

Criticism of the clubs concerned was voiced at the meeting of the County Executive in Dungarvan on Thursday, the fault being laid on the individual clubs which had failed to send timely notifications.

Chairman Mr. R. Cunningham said that the County Executive had made arrangements in this matter last October, but some of the clubs did not act on it.

DEFAULTERS CRITICISED

County Organiser Mr. T. V. Llewellyn strongly criticised the tendency to postponement by teams scheduled to participate in debates. It was stated that Dungarvan, Kinsalebeg and Kilmacthomas had their teams ready for the appointed dates. Dunhill claimed that they had insufficient notice in regard to their debate with Dungarvan, Lisimore, Tallow and Cappoquin clubs which kept their appointments with their opponents Kilmacthomas, Ballinacree and Kinsalebeg.

On the proposal of Mr. M. Dromey, seconded by Mr. T. Maher it was decided to make new arrangements regarding this competition.

Chairman: "It is most unfair when there are teams ready that the others do not turn up."

ORGANISATION SHOULD COME FIRST

Mr. Baldwin, Co. Secretary: "The good of the Macra na Feirme Organisation should come first before any club considerations."

The Chairman said that they could not weaken the ruling powers of the County Executive. They made the competition rules and the clubs would have to carry them out or be penalised.

Mr. J. McGrath suggested that the competition be cancelled.

Mr. Llewellyn: "Unless we hold to the rules we make, we might as well fold up. Defaulting clubs should be big enough to take their medicine."

It was decided to arrange a new set of dates for the completion of the postponed first round of the competition, which must now be completed before 21st November. Any club which does not compete will be eliminated.

The subject for the first round of the debating competition is "That the Irish farmer would benefit from Free Trade."

DRAW FOR SECOND ROUND

Kinsalebeg will meet Cappoquin in the second round of the competition to debate the motion: "That farming is an easy life." Kinsalebeg will propose this motion, which will be opposed by the Cappoquin team.

The winners will meet the winners of the Kilmacthomas v. Lisimore debate.

It was decided that the second round be completed before 10th December and that the winning teams in the first and second rounds should notify the County Secretary immediately a result was available.

CO-ORGANISER RE-APPOINTED

Mr. Thomas Llewellyn, Ard-sallagh, Kinsalebeg, was unanimously re-appointed Waterford County Organiser for Macra na Feirme for the coming year.

Mr. Dromey: "A County Organiser is essential to keep the organisation running. Mr. Llewellyn, as a representative on the National Council, is the obvious choice."

Mr. Llewellyn said that he would like to see somebody else doing the job for a while, but was prepared to accept re-appointment as a temporary measure. He would be glad to hand over at any time to any successor the County Executive would have prepared for the job. There was, he said, at the moment a possibility of bringing into existence three or four new clubs in the county, and he had been working on this matter up to the summer recess.

TRAVEL CLAIMS

It was decided that claims for travelling expenses of delegates to the Co. Executive from affiliated clubs be sent to the County treasurer Mr. John O'Brien, Kilmacthomas.

ATTENDANCE

The attendance at the meeting included: Mr. R. Cunningham, Chairman, Kinsalebeg; Messrs. J. McGrath, Ballinacree; M. J. Dromey, T. F. Maher, Thomas Byrne, Dungarvan; Margaret O'Keefe, Dunhill and Fenor; Thomas Llewellyn, J. O'Brien, Kinsalebeg; J. Baldwin, R. Henneby, Kilmacthomas; Denis Meaney, Cappoquin; E. Beresford, William Flynn, Dunhill and Fenor; John Maher, J. Cusack, Gaultier; Liam Ryan, Ballysaggart.

BALLYDUFF NEWS

CARNIVAL DANCE

The Carnival Dance held in St. Michael's Hall, on Wednesday, November 11th, was a great success. Frank Prendergast and his orchestra supplied excellent music and closing-down time came all too quickly. During the interval prizes were presented to the winners of the Carnival field-events.

VICTORY CEILL

Our local G.A.A. club, as a gesture of goodwill and friendship, have invited the Araglen hurling team, Novice Champions of North Cork, to join them in running a victory ceill in St. Michael's Hall, on Wednesday, December 2nd. The new champions will carry the Cup and their usual large number of supporters with them, and the people of Ballyduff will give them a rousing reception. The Emerald Isle Ceill Band, with Frank Prendergast as leader, has been engaged for the ceill, so a gala night can be expected. Lookout for further announcements.

REFUGEE YEAR

Since 1945 some 40 million people have become refugees and about 15 million of them were still without a permanent home. This year the United Nations are endeavouring to focus world attention on this great problem and Ireland, as promised to play her part. The target set for the Irish contribution to the Refugee Fund is £200,000, or 2% per head of the population. The National Collection sponsored by the Irish Government will take place on Sunday next with the Red Cross Society in charge.

His Lordship the Bishop of Waterford and Lisimore, by whose kind permission the collection is being made in this diocese, has urged the faithful to be generous in their contributions. If the camps are to be reduced, the refugees must be redistributed somewhere and money must be provided in order to redistribute them.

ON THE WAY TO RECOVERY

His many friends will be delighted to know that Mr. T. Feeney (Glenbeg), who received very serious hand-injuries in a Young's factory last week, is well on the way to recovery. We hear that he is making great progress and we hope that he will be out amongst us as cheerful as ever, in the near future.

FOREIGN MISSIONS

The proud position Ireland holds among the Catholic Missionary natives can be seen from the following news item. As figures now stand among the 14,000 priests in the missions from 30 nations, 3,069 are French, 2,630 Belgians, 2,119 Dutch, 1,403 Irish and 1,400 Italians. Next comes the United States with 757 Missionary Priests.

BOWLING NEWS

Already the bowling fever has spread and certain groups who thought the official tournament to be too far off, have organised their own private matches. On Sunday last Mocollop challenged and beat Tournageeha. E. Fennessy was overcome by P. Flynn; P. Quirke mastered T. J. Scanlon, and J. Kearney just got home from T. O'Neill in a photo-finish. All the matches were played on Mocollop's home ground. But Jerry Hekey and Larry Byrne tell me that Tournageeha will gain sweet revenge when Mocollop must travel to the losers' area for the return contest.

TALLOW COURT

Mr. Sean Riordan, rate collector for Cork County Council, had the following farmers summoned for non-payment of rates on their holdings: Mr. M. Hurley, Rosebow, Carriglass, £102-6-9; Mr. J. O'Donoghue, Mount Prospect, £41-17s.; Mr. M. O'Riordan, Clashaganna, Conna, £112-14-0; Mr. A. O'Sullivan, £127-8-1; Mr. W. Dineen, Ballynoe, £87-16-9; Mr. P. O'Keefe, £176-19-1; Mr. M. Leahy, Conna, £111-17-0. Decreases were granted in all cases with 10/- costs in each case.

Transfer of Licence.—Miss B. M. Prendergast applied for confirmation of Transfer of a Publican Licence in respect of her premises at West Street, lately held by her deceased father. Letters of administration not being completed the matter was adjourned to the December Court.

Petrol Licence.—Mrs. O'Keefe, Ballynoe and Mr. W. Con. Curraglass, were granted a renewal of their petrol licence.

NEW SUB-AGENT

Mr. C. Allison, on transfer from Waterford branch of the Bank of Ireland, has taken up duty in Dungarvan as sub-agent in place of Mr. I. N. Barton.

CAPPOQUIN NEWS

C.Y.M.S.

Very Rev. J. Keneally, P.P., presided at the annual general meeting of the C.Y.M.S., held on Friday night. There was a large attendance. In a comprehensive report the Hon. Secretary, Mr. J. Olden, said that the period under review had been very successful and much progress had been made. Considerable improvements had been made to the premises and at much cost; the two billiard tables had been renovated and were now as good as new. In connection with this he expressed the thanks of the members to Father Keneally for generous financial assistance. A pleasant feature of the year was the society's participation in the Diocesan Billiards competition. Through this they met and exchanged views with the members of other societies. He thanked the group of ladies who catered so well for the members of the visiting teams. Mr. Olden closed by expressing his appreciation of the members in which the members cooperated with him and paid a tribute to Mr. E. Lalor, their caretaker, for the efficient discharge of his duties. Mr. Austin Walsh, Hon. Treasurer, submitted the financial report, which showed a credit balance. Both reports were unanimously adopted and the thanks of the members returned to Messrs. Olden and Walsh. The Very Rev. Chairman in a brief address congratulated the members on the progress of the Society. An institution such as this was a great asset to the parish and he hoped to see an increase in membership. It was open to all over sixteen years of age and there were many facilities for recreation. He understood that it was planned to increase these facilities. Father Keneally joined in the tribute paid to Messrs. Olden, Walsh and Lalor. The Spiritual Director, Rev. M. O'Meara, also addressed the meeting and expressed his pleasure at the fine spirit which existed and the progress being made. Officers elected: Patron, Very Rev. J. Keneally, P.P.; President, Mr. J. O'Brien, M. O'Meara, C.C.; President, Mr. M. J. Sargent, (Senr.); vice-do., Mr. P. McCarthy; Hon. Secretary, Mr. J. Olden; Hon. Treasurer, Mr. A. Walsh. Committee: Mr. J. Green, P. Crotty, F. X. O'Leary, M. Kelleher and R. O'Shea. Billiards Committee: Messrs. R. O'Shea, E. Lalor, J. O'Gorman.

BOWLING

The first score in the Ryan Cup Tournament was thrown on Sunday. It was won by J. Fitzgerald, Barrack St. (plus 4); 2nd J. McGrath (plus 6); 3rd P. Glenville (plus 3). Johnny McGrath, who was beaten in the last throw, created a very favourable impression. He is only fourteen years old and judging by his performance on Sunday will become a bowler of much merit.

POSTPONED

Because of the death of Right Rev. Dom Celsus, the presentation of "The Able Dealer" by the Mellary Drama Group did not take place. It will be staged on Sunday, 29th inst.

GAELIC LEAGUE

We learn that the Annual Ceill Mor of the local branch of the Gaelic League will be held on Sunday, 6th December in the Boat House. For the occasion the Cu Chulainn Ceill Band, Cork, has been engaged. Full particulars will be given in our advertising columns in later issues.

SAILING

Speaking on this subject some days since said: "There are few things in the world so fascinating, so rewarding or so productive of the good in man as the act of sailing." The foregoing could be given as the reason why a number of local sailing enthusiasts met at Lawlor's Hotel recently to discuss the possibility of reviving the sailing club in Dungarvan. During a lengthy discussion it was pointed out that Dungarvan Bay offered wonderful facilities for sailing and boating and in view of the increasing interest in this pastime in the Dungarvan area it was agreed that now was an opportune time to re-organise the club. Among the many advantages of having such a club would be that beginners who have no boats of their own would get the opportunity of learning the art of boating and sailing in craft provided by the club. It is with this end in view that a public meeting will be held at the Courthouse on Saturday night next (21st inst.), at 8.15 p.m., and all who are interested are cordially invited to attend.

CARRICK NEWS

DAVIN PARK

The local G.A.A. pitch in Carrick-on-Suir, named after the Carrick athlete, Michael Davin, is to be fully renovated. Last June a committee for the purpose met under the chairmanship of Jerry Shelly, a survivor of "Bloody Sunday." The Park was built in the thirties with high hopes for the future; hopes which were never fulfilled and the Park was allowed to become a derelict commonage. As a first step towards raising funds a match was played between the old rivals, the Swans and Davins last June. Then a tournament for sunlittens followed which was won by Holy Cross.

The latest news is that the Munster Council is to help the good work and soon, Carrick should have a worthy venue for Gaelic games.

LOCAL FACTORIES

About half a dozen young workers in Carrick-on-Suir on the 14th November. They were mainly temporary employees taken on last June and were kept on even longer than was first expected. The rest of the staff is at present on short time.

The chocolate crumb factory, Miloko, which had its own difficulties in the late summer, is now secure as far as next year is concerned. Enough orders have come to hand to tide the factory over the coming milk season and to provide employment on the scale usual in the spring and summer.

AN UNUSUAL OCCURRENCE

An unusual occurrence took place at Carrick Urban Council's last meeting when the Chairman, Mr. Davin, proposed a vote of sympathy to the relatives of the late District Justice McCabe and no one present seconded it. The matter was dropped after a short exchange between the Chairman and some of the members.

THE STORM

The storm which swept the countryside last week-end made it a very busy time for the local E.S.B. Staff, especially in the rural area of Carrick. But the breakdown gear worked so quickly that the effects of the storm were much minimised. In the Mainstown area three trees knocked down main lines on Friday, November 13th and as late as Monday evening another tree in the Carrickbeg area brought out the E.S.B. men again.

RUGBY

Clawhill Rugby team inflicted a defeat on Carrick last Sunday and the score was 15 points to nil. Carrick were without their best player, Tom Cleary, who had not come back a time. They were also without many other useful players such as Foley, a local Bank official who is being transferred elsewhere. He is playing with a Limerick club from now on.

CURRY'S AMUSEMENTS

Curry's Amusements which have been on the Fair Ground for two months now, have been retained for another week. This time they are being run for the local athletic club—the Carrick Wheelers. This is the latest date that this kind of amusements have been in operation in Carrick-on-Suir or perhaps anywhere else. They are being well patronised.

G.A.A.

The Carrickbeg minors who drew with Mount Sion lately are hard at it in preparation for their replay. On Sunday last they played a selected fifteen from Carrick-on-Suir. FOOTBALL

A successful ceill was run in the Town Hall last Sunday night for the Windgap G.A.A. Club. These Sunday night ceills are proving quite popular. The ceill held some weeks ago for Stin Fein funds had a record attendance.

Committee to Study Christmas Turkey Market

The Minister for Agriculture recently discussed the Report on the Export of Turkeys submitted to him by the Advisory Committee on the Marketing of Agricultural Produce with the Chairman of the Committee and the members of the Committee's sub-committee on Poultry and Eggs. After further consultation with the Chairman of the Committee and the Chairman of the sub-committee, the Minister has now appointed a small ad hoc committee comprising exporters, producers, officers of his Department and an independent Chairman, which will study this year's Christmas turkey export market in the light of the recommendations made in the Advisory Committee's Report and which will present their views to the Minister at end of the season.

The members of the ad hoc committee are Mr. J. C. P. Anderson (Dublin), chairman; Mr. J. L. Kiley (Dublin); Mr. D. Ward (Kantober Co-Op.); Mrs. C. Sheehy (Thurles); Mr. J. Nixon (Monaghan); Mr. D. J. Buckley and Mr. J. N. D'Arcy (Department of Agriculture).

F.C.A. NOTES

On Tuesday week last, the 10th November, Dungarvan Centre had a visit from the new O.C. of the 1st Brigade, Colonel H. Byrne. There was a very good attendance of all ranks to honour the occasion and Col. Byrne expressed himself as being very impressed not only at the turnout but at the standard of instruction of the F.C.A. NCOs who were instructing the various classes and in particular those instructing in the new weapons which only came to the Company recently.

The Brigade O.C. arrived at the Parade during a short ceremony in which Lt. Glanville acting Company Commander was presenting Corporals stripes to some new NCOs who had passed the required course during the summer Training last July. Col. Byrne was very pleased at the ceremony and also at the excellent drill and turn out of the newly promoted NCOs.

The new NCOs were under the command of Coy/Sergt. J. Dunford during the parade and Lt. Glanville was assisted by Cpl. Paddy Delaney. The newly promoted are: Cpls. Bill Sheehan; Mike Morrison (senior), Michael O'Dwyer, John Daly, Thomas Crotty, Joe Kelly, Liam Hickey and Gerald Kely. The extended to them. Col. Byrne also visited Clashmore Centre where he met Lt. Charles Curran and Sgt. Martin Grant who were in charge of the Centre.

NEW CENTRES

On Monday night last the Company opened a New Centre in Old Parish. Eight new members were signed on and it is hoped to add a few more to that number during the coming weeks. Old Parish has the makings of a very good Centre and its members are heartily welcome into the ranks of this Company of the Country's Defence Forces. Following a meeting in Ballymacbray on Friday night last it is hoped that a Centre will be opened in this locality very soon. A Recruiting meeting has been arranged for Ballymacbray on Thursday night the 26th November, at 8.30 p.m. and it is hoped that all young men interested will

THE "WALKING GALLOWES"

Amongst the brutal soldiery who held sway in Ireland during the rebellion of 1798 was a notorious officer—Lieutenant Heppenstall—who aptly acquired the epithet of the "walking gallowes." A remarkably tall man with herculean strength, this ruffianly soldier took a demonic delight in strangling rebels by dexterously twisting his own cravat round their necks, then throwing it over his brawny shoulders, and swinging around until the unfortunate victim was dead.

Lieutenant Heppenstall is buried in Great George's Street Liverpool, on his tomb are the words: "Here lies the body of Heppenstall—Judge, Jury, Gallowes, Rope and All."

WORDS

Be careful what you say. For words sometimes convey. More than is meant; And things said—half in fun—attend this meeting. The thanks of the Training Staff are due to Tom Walsh and John Grant of Ballymacbray who are responsible in no small way for getting Ballymacbray interested in opening an F.C.A. Centre. Lt. Tom McGrath, of Ballinacree and Sgt. M. Grant of Dungarvan also played a big part.

Waterford Exiles in London

Mr. E. W. Flynn, a native of Tallow, has been elected Chairman of the Waterfordmen's Association in London. His re-appointment was confirmed at the annual general meeting of the Association recently, which also re-elected Mr. Barron of Dungarvan as Vice-Chairman.

His Lordship the Bishop of Waterford and Lisimore, Most Rev. Dr. D. Cohanlan, as Patron of the Association, has taken a personal interest in its welfare since its foundation, and is, it is understood, receiving regular reports of its activities.

RECORDED ATTENDANCE FOR RECORDED SESSION

Despite the fierce storm raging at the time there was a full attendance of members of the Ballinacree Branch Macra na Tuath on Friday night last. The big draw for the youngsters was a recorded version of the broadcast of the All-Ireland senior hurling final which was played back at their meeting.

THEY BOUGHT A HOUSE WITH THEIR WINNINGS

A young couple in Wales have just won enough money to buy a house, and so they say it is conclusive proof of the Legend of the 300 years old Wishing Cork Tree. Another couple had a piece of Lucky Cork sent them by a relative and got an empty house two days afterwards. A lady in Doncaster sent for a piece and won £3,000 on a penny potato pool. A wife gave her doubting husband a piece of Lucky Cork for his birthday and two weeks after he won £1,500. A mother sent each of her sons a piece and one of them won £4,003 in a sweep-stake. DEATH OF FAMOUS ABBOT OF MOUNT MELLERAY

We regret to record the death of Right Rev. Dom Celsus O'Connell, O.S.A., Abbot Emeritus and for 24 years, until his retirement in 1957, Lord Abbot of Mount Melleray Abbey, Cappoquin. He was 77 at the time of his death on Friday last. When Lord Abbot of Mount Melleray, the late Dom Celsus was responsible for the present great Cistercian Church on the slopes of the Knockmealdown Mountains. At the Abbey centenary in August 1933, Cardinal McRory laid the foundation stone of the Abbey Church. Dom Celsus also saw the return of the monks to Mellifont, Co. Louth, and was present as Abbot in retirement at the laying of the foundation stone for their new church at Collon, in July 1957, by Cardinal D'Alton.

The late Dom Celsus played an impressive part in the development of Mount Melleray to its present eminence, and during his time as Lord Abbot he established three new foundations, two in Ireland and one in New Zealand. It was in Mount Melleray that he began his religious life when he joined the Cistercian Order as a novice in 1901. He was on the teaching staff of Melleray for a long period, and also served for a time as Prior. He has seven relatives in religion.

The remains were removed on Friday evening from Cork to Mount Melleray, and following Requiem Office and High Mass on Monday, interment took place in the Monks Cemetery at Melleray.

"WORK WHILE YOU TALK" - MOTTO OF BALLINAMEELA I.C.A.

Help for the refugees of the world, the jubilee year of the Irish Countrywomen's Association for which the theme is the beautification of Ireland, and the fact that the Maera na Tuaithe is a growing organisation which urgently needs the help and interest of the I.C.A. and Maera na Feirme, were the main thinking points which the six Ballinameela Banntracht na Tuaithe delegates brought away with them from the I.C.A. Council meeting held recently in Waterford.

At the November branch meeting Mrs. Cullon won the night's prize, which she had herself donated. So she handed it back again and this time the draw went in favour of Mrs. Flanagan.

International month did not pass un-noticed and the members of the Guild held a roll-call and the subject was what country they would most like to visit, and why. America and France (for the celebrated Grotto at Lourdes) were popular choices with the ladies, but others expressed a desire to visit Vancouver Island, the Isles of Greece and Germany (for the Passion Play at Oberammergau). One wise member decided she would most of all like to tour Ireland before venturing abroad.

With Christmas just around the corner, the Guild members are thinking in terms of wrapping up and sending presents, and at next month's meeting a competition will be held for the best-wrapped Christmas present. The judging in this competition will be from the string, paper and address, down to the gift-label.

Following the success of the Whist Drive held this month another has been arranged to take place in December, with the proceeds going in aid of the Irish Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Children and the C. I. F. to the Remedial Clinic. A word of thanks goes from the Guild to the ever generous providers of cakes for the various social events organised at Ballinameela.

The Guild Secretary, Mrs. V. Curry, reminded members that on Tuesday nights, except the Tuesdays before the monthly meeting, the branch meets at Ballinameela Technical School to do handwork together. Some members sew, some knit or mend, and the idea is that all will work on some piece of handwork that has not, perhaps seen the light of day for quite a long time. It is also arranged to put in a little work towards the making of a rug for the benefit of the guild. The sewing circle starts about 8 o'clock and finishes up around 10 p.m., and their motto is: "Work while you talk and you'll be surprised how jobs get done."

Next month the members will get down to the setting-up of Christmas decorations and the icing of a Christmas cake. GREETED BY OLD FRIENDS IN THE "OLD SMOKE" On his recent brief visit to England, where he was the guest of honour at a dinner given to celebrate Waterford's All-Ireland final victory, and which was held by the County Waterford Social Club in London, Mr. Donal Whelan, Abbeyside, one of the stars of the great victory, met many old friends and acquaintances. During his week-end visit he stayed with Mr. and Mrs.

Paddy Shanahan, Paddy, formerly of Sarsfield Street, Abbeyside, was a close friend of Donal's from way back in school-and-boy-scout days. The Shanahans are now managing the Harp Public House Church Street, St. John's Wood London. Others from the Old Bore and round about who greeted Donal Whelan were Nickey Noonan, Dungarvan, who is Treasurer of the County Waterfordmen's Association in London; Frank Rice, Lismore; Ned Power of the Briceys; Jim Regan, Cappoquin; Miss Mulaney, Clashmore.

Mr. Whelan told the "Observer" that he was given a fine welcome by the exiles who have a very strong Social Club in London, and who are planning at the moment to hold a large-scale function for Christmas.

NOVENA OF MASSES FOR DECEASED

A special Novena of Masses for the repose of the souls of those whose names have been inscribed in the November List of the Dead will begin at 10.30 a.m., on Sunday next at St. Mary's Parish Church, Dungarvan, and will continue, with a Novena Mass at 10.00 a.m., daily, until the end of this month.

POPULAR BANK OFFICIAL'S TRANSFER

Left Dungarvan at the weekend was Mr. I. N. (Billy) Barton, a popular sub-agent at the Dungarvan branch of the Bank of Ireland. Mr. Barton took up duty as Agent of the Youghal Branch of the Bank of Ireland on Monday. His promotion and transfer had originally been from Dungarvan to the Fermoy branch, but when the Youghal vacancy occurred Mr. Barton chose the latter town for his new appointment.

A popular member of the Dungarvan Harrier Hunt, to which he was Secretary, Mr. Barton was given a presentation and a send off at a ceremony held in Egan's hotel by members of the Hunt on Saturday night last.

Upheld Objection

Brickey Rangers' objection to Colligan Rockies was upheld by the Western Board at a special meeting in Dungarvan on Friday night last.

The objection, which was considered by the Board's objection committee under the chairmanship of Mr. Moss Pollard, was a sequel to the recent championship encounter won by Colligan.

The Brickeys' objection alleged that the winner's Nick Quilly's declaration of residence made last February was invalid, as, they maintained, he was in fact a student at the time, and made application for reinstatement at the same time.

Their past meetings have been of such character as to earn for this, their first clash in some two years, the most exciting background imaginable.

Since the Monastery men more or less seriously turned their attention to the big ball code in the early years of a decade punctuated by a string of Kilrossanty championships, they could be said to have been rated as the Comeragh club's most consistent number one challengers.

In fact, Kilrossanty, the winners of five titles, and Mount Sion, with two successes, have had the championship scene pretty well rolled up between them over the past ten years or so.

Throw in for good measure the trend of five or six championship and tournament battles in that time and one will realise just how well the root cause of the hullabaloo Sunday's clash is causing in the football world.

That Kilrossanty, though they are regarded as favourites to take the title yet again, are alive to the calibre of the city men's challenge, is indicated by their decision to fly Jim Timmons back from Britain for the game.

When they learned that midfielder Timmons, who travelled home by boat to star against Brickeys and Kill in the earlier rounds, was experiencing some difficulty in getting time out from his employment on this occasion, the Comeragh mentors immediately made arrangements to have him flown back. He will as a result travel direct from Collinstown to Waterford for the game and return in time to catch a plane back on Sunday night.

With Timmons a certain starter, the ex-champions expect to be able to put the most formidable fifteen together on the field. And remember that these men who, accounted for Brickeys without such pillars as Jimmy Power and Billy Kirwan, and Kill with the minimum of preparation, have put in three weeks of the most intensive training.

From the writer's 'sounding' of Kilrossanty folk, it would appear that goalkeeper Sean Ormond will be covered off by Jimmy Maher, Mick Prendergast and Tony Baldwin. Pete Gaugh is expected to stand at centre half-back with Denis Begley and Michael Kirwan on the flanks. Veteran Jimmy Power and Jim Timmons are most likely to team up at midfield and the attack will be named from Colm Cunningham, Tom Dolan, Noel and Tommy Kirwan, skipper Jimmy Whyte, Ben Prendergast and Rógy Connors.

These men, fit though they are, will need to be on their toes throughout if they are to contain a Monastery side that will find the heavy going one must expect at this time of the year very much in its favour.

Mount Sion, too, are in deadly serious mood. These Monastery men would like another big ball title and to achieve that goal they have indulged in a full scale bout of preparation.

The city men were anything but impressive when accounting for Seaside Rovers in the opening round last May. But, true to tradition, they were a vastly improved combination when they put paid to Gaultier on their last appearance, a side in fact whose ball play and fighting spirit bore a pronounced championship-like look. One regards it as only reasonable to anticipate an even more formidable fifteen being put on the field now that they are again within sight of the blue riband.

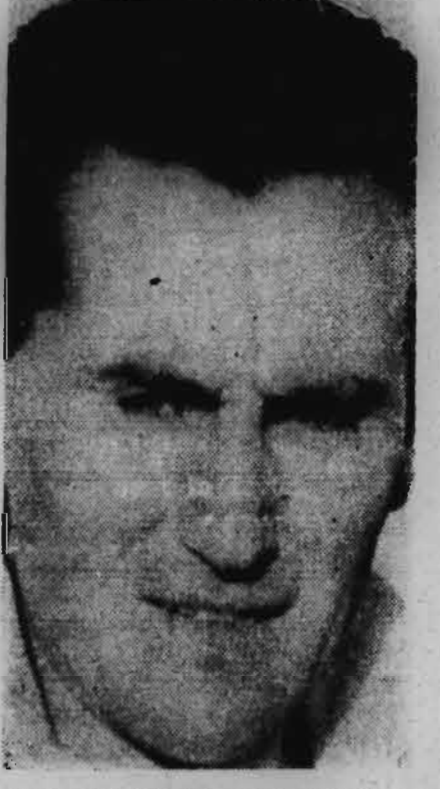

Although there is no gainsaying the fact that Seamus Power

Mick Flannelly, Pat Sweeney, Larry Guinan, Frankie Walsh, and Freddie O'Brien are footballers of the first water, it is to their tremendous fighting heart and team spirit that Mount Sion men will look to place them on the high road to victory. Allied to their unenviable brand of football, these most commendable qualities have hallmarked every notable Monastery victory of recent years. They could do so again.

But then, Kilrossanty's determination to regain the championship is also very apparent. And the green and gold jerseyed combination has made light of such seemingly crippling obstacles en route to the penultimate that one feels that they will not be caught napping now. Their basic football superiority is taken to help them to a place in the final line up.

Billy Kirwan, incidentally, who is a definite non-starter, has been forced to retire again with a recurrence of his old knee troubles.

The big ball game will be preceded by the eastern divisional junior hurling decider in which Tom Cheasty's Lower Ballyduff men are pitted against Gael Og at 1.30.

LUCKY ERINS OWN

Erin's Own 3-3; Dunhill, 3-1

Ten minutes from the end of last Sunday's semi-final at the City Sportsfield everything pointed to the sensation of the hurling year. The outcome appeared a foregone conclusion.

Little-lanced Dunhill were out in front of Erin's Own, full value for every one of their imposing seven points advantage, and seemingly destined for a dramatic entry into their first ever semi-final.

Erin's Own were badly rattled, shocked out of their stride by the unexpected ferocity of Dunhill's effort. For fifty minutes they had played second fiddle to the hard-hitting country men and as time slipped by their prospects of a county final appearance looked to be growing increasingly dimmer.

And then Dunhill faltered. Jackie Condon heralded the city men's comeback by battling upfield for a point. Tony Walsh followed with a goal; Harry Russell slashed the arrears still further with another and minutes later Charlie Ware turned seemingly inevitable defeat into a sensational victory with yet another. The finish itself was pulsating.

Only two minutes of the hour remained when Ware turned in the goal that saved the day and paved the way for an Erin's Own-Mount Sion decider for the first time since 1954. On the day and in the circumstances, the were decidedly fortunate. Gaultier, Dunhill, on the other hand, had to contend with all the bad breaks that were going, yet stayed in front for all but minutes of the hard-fought hour.

The winners—and they will have to step up to the mark on this performance if they are to give Mount Sion a game next time out—owed much to Billy Kelly, who had a great game, Jackie Condon, Harry Russell, Ted O'Donnell and Tony Walsh. Dunhill had in Mick Whyte, the outstanding man of the thirty. His was a great performance. Others who power the country men's great hearted effort were veteran Jimmy Allen, who turned out in goal, Billy Dunley, Dodo Power and Monty Gully. Dunhill, too, suffered a body blow with the loss of Billy Dunphy who retired injured in the early stages.

Erin's Own—A. McBriffe, P. Hannigan, T. O'Donnell, W. Kelly, J. Burke, Jackie Condon, J. Cooney, M. Murphy, J. Condon, T. Walsh, H. Russell, J. Kearney, P. Walsh, T. Kennedy, C. Ware, Subs.—J. Conaghan, P. Nolan, W. Condon.

Dunhill—J. Allen, W. Daniels, P. Power, N. Power, W. Power, T. Allen, R. Power, W. Dunphy, M. Whyte, M. Gully, P. Power, P. Halley, M. McNamara, G. Curran, J. Barry.

Double Defeat for Mount Sion

Mount Sion footballers suffered a double defeat at the hands of Ballyduff and Tramore respectively when they clashed in the semi-finals of the Eastern championships at Dunhill on Sunday last.

Ballyduff, inspired by county hurler Tom Cheasty, just about deserved to pull through by the narrow margin in the junior encounter, while Tramore left no room for doubt in their minor replay winning by 1-4 to 0-2.

The junior strings provided a tough rugged battle in which no quarter was asked or expected. The pace was fast and the exchanges in general of a very even character. Ballyduff, though, did just about enough to merit a ticket to the divisional final in which they will encounter Windgap on Sunday week.

The winners, who turned over after using a 1st-half breeze in possession of a five-points lead, were splendidly served by Power, Burke and Tom Cheasty in defence, mid-fielders Oates and O'Donnell and M. D. Power in attack. Former senior players Jim Hurley and Tommy Keane were to the fore on a Mount Sion fifteen in which Maurice Walsh, Willie Gallagher and Willie Hennessy were also prominent.

Leading by six points at the half-way stage, challenging Tramore turned over to thwart a great Mount Sion fightback in the second period and ended up very worthy winners of a replay that was every bit as exciting as the drawn game a fortnight ago.

The winners, who take on Rathgormack in the divisional decider, looked a side of distinct promise.

SWEEP RESULT

The result of the Sweepstake run by above club on the Manchester November Handicap is as follows: 1st Horse, Operatic Society, Miss K. Lenihan, Ballyvolhane, Kill, 2nd Horse, Ross Sea, Mr. Declan Coleman, Cappoquin, 3rd Horse, Sunrise, Mr. E. Dowd, Rathgormack, Kilmacthomas.

Rovers are still champions

VALLEY ROVERS 3-3; ARDMORE 0-4

THE fact that they were the defending titleholders was apparent about every move that hallmarked Valley Rovers game at the Sportsfield, Cappoquin on last Sunday.

Valley Rovers 3-3; Ardmore 0-4. Rovers played with the confidence and authority of a seasoned combination. They set the pace with a spate of early scores, then withstood an attempted Ardmore recovery and had at the end the convincing margin of eight points on their side.

The Derrinlaun men, who led by 1-3 to 0-2 at the interval, finished an hour that had lost all interest after the three-quarters mark in complete command.

Ardmore, though, had chances aplenty, particularly in the early stages of both halves, but failed utterly in the all-important matter of reaping a measure of reward in keeping with the stranglehold they exercised on the exchanges at times.

As divisional finals go, the standard of performance was no more than moderate. But the pace was remarkable considering the unfavourable conditions that prevailed and the hour itself, was hallmarked by some individual performances.

The seiders, who had come to be regarded as favourites to take the county crown on the basis of previous performances, failed to live up to the promise of their early season games.

That in itself is, of course, a tribute to the winners, who, thanks to a couple of crucial scores in the early stages, succeeded in more or less dictating the exchanges. But Rovers also adapted themselves much better to the prevailing conditions, gearing their game to counter the heavy going underfoot and imposing on the losers a type of football to which they did not at all take kindly. In the over-head exchanges, too, the holders reigned supreme.

Although their rather unexpected defeat was a big disappointment, Ardmore followers were among the first to concede that on the day's play the better side prevailed.

Their comparatively inexperienced side, one of the youngest ever to contest a divisional decider, will have learned much from this outing. One feels their turn will come—and soon at that.

The unexpected victory of the Rovers—and they were completely transformed from the side which laboured through the previous Sunday's engagement with Ballyduff—was hallmarked by great performances from John Joe Nugent, Paddy Hallinan, Jimmy Hewitt, Kieran Ryan.

These were the key men in a side that was also helped along the way of victory by evergreen Johnny Walsh, Bobby John Joe and Billy Hewitt, Oliver Nugent and Noel Wall.

But the man of the match was Ardmore's Tommy Power, who turned in a majestic display of mid-field football. Power was all over the show, ranging from defence to attack in turn and inspiring his colleagues with a full-blooded exhibition of non-stop football. His display deserved a better fate.

Others to catch the eye for the losers were Kevin Gallagher who gave a great display at full back, Donald O'Brien, Frank Farrell, John Joe Carlton, Mossy Hallahan and Eddie Mooney.

The winners, who led by 1-3 to 0-2 at the interval, scored per P. Hallahan (1-2), E. Walsh (1-0), N. Wall (1-0), E. Hewitt (0-1).

Ardmore's replies came from J. Cullen (0-2), F. Farrell (0-1), M. Hallahan (0-1).

Valley Rovers—J. Cleary, J. J. Hewitt, J. Walsh, L. Walsh, W. K. O'Ryan, Bobby Hewitt, J. Hewitt and J. J. Nugent; S. Boland, O. Nugent, P. Hallinan; N. Wall, L. Walsh, E. Hewitt, Sub. B. Grant.

Ardmore—M. Colbert; J. Mulcahy, K. Gallagher, M. Carlton, D. O'Brien, E. Mooney, P. Keeney; T. Power and D. Lenane; J. Cullen, M. Hallahan, T. Hallahan; M. Mulcahy; F. Farrell; J. J. Carlton, Sub. M. Barry. Moss Pollard, of Lismore, handled the whistle in a most satisfactory manner.

The circumstances surrounding the death of A. Dooney, Ballybucknathomas, and the recent observations made by the Minister for Health, the County Surgeon, and the subjects of a statement made by Col. Lannan at a meeting of the Board of Public Assistance, Dungarvan on Monday...

Colr Lannan, who said he felt that there was a sworn inquiry into the circumstances of the death. It is fairly evident from observations in the letter that there was a discrepancy in the handling of the case.

To me it seems very odd at a doctor would take the trouble of phoning a hospital immediately after receiving a patient and note that the patient was approximately 8 p.m. did not consider the case at all.

Furthermore, one of the staff at the hospital is trying to do some soul Dr. Broderick's call after midnight. It is to the fact that there is a finite urgency in the case passed on by Dr. Broderick to the hospital.

Colr Lannan continues perhaps medical attention rendered in time, it had saved Mrs. Dooney but the unsatisfactory handling of her case is to leave her family with an ordinary doubt. It is surprising that such a case of affairs could be understood in this way.
