Decision on Kilmac' Tech. School Adjourned

KLIMACHTOMAS'S fight for a new Technical School goes on. At last Monday's annual Estimates meeting following the meeting of the Council in Dungarvan, a deputation consisting of Rev. Fr. Wall, C.C., Mr. Sean Ormond, T.D., Sean Baldwin and P. Barron, pleaded their case for the building and equipping of the school. The overall cost of building and equipping the school would be £25,000 and would have an impact of 11d. in the rates.

Rev. Fr. Wall, addressing the Council, said he was speaking on behalf of the Kilmacnash Technical School Association whose aim was to invite and help extra industry in the area. A local technical school, he said, would be an invaluable asset to the community. Fifty boys and girls were going to Dungarvan Technical School daily, thus causing overcrowding at Dungarvan. There was only one school in the area, the Dungarvan School, or build a new one at Kilmacnash. The latter, said Fr. Wall, would be the better choice.

The Vocational Educational Committee were subsidising the transport, but it was still a heavy burden on the working class people to send their children. If the school was built in Kilmacnash, it would be saved and more children would avail of technical education.

Continuing, Fr. Wall said the number of children attending school in mid-Waterford is 880 and this would provide a steady number for a technical school. Kilmacnash is the ideal place for a school. It is central and covers a large area, and we have already acquired a site. The extra cost of the Kilmacnash site would be 7d. in the £ over 35 years. I feel sure the ratepayers are not objecting to a slight increase in their rates. The new school would also be a central place for night classes that would be availed of particularly by the farming community. I hope the Council will give us a favourable consideration.

Mr. Sean Ormond, T.D., a former member of the County Council, was welcomed by the acting Chairman, Mr. M. Hartly. Supporting the case for a new school at Kilmacnash, Mr. Ormond said that besides the 80 or 90 children attending at Dungarvan, there were 20 or 30 others who, through lack of accommodation and circumstances were precluded from getting technical education. The travelling to Dungarvan was being subsidised to the tune of £6 per head a year. A technical school in Kilmacnash would save this subsidy and it would be more beneficial to the community by extending the Dungarvan School.

Concluding, Mr. Ormond said the Council should not be deterred by the addition to the rates. The parents of the children concerned were also ratepayers and he felt they were entitled to the best consideration from the Council.

Mr. Sean Baldwin said there was a large number in the Kilmacnash area being deprived of technical education. It would be more beneficial to have a new school in Kilmacnash rather than extending the Dungarvan one. A large rural community generally went into industry and it was vital that they get technical education. These were points he said that justified the attention of the Council.

Colr. Milo Galgey said they were in the glorious position of being between the devil and the deep blue sea. The health act he said was the thing that was crippling them and he hoped to-day to put the first spoke in the wheel to cripple the health act that was crippling them.

Colr. T. Lannon said everyone wanted their children educated but there was a just and fair way of going about it. Colr. J. Quirk then proposed that the matter be adjourned for a month to enable members to consider it. Rushing into things in the past had been the cause of the increase in the rates, he said.

Colr. J. Drohan: The Deputy C.E.O. made a good case. If we adjourn it today it could go on for months, and maybe years.

Colr. D. Wren: I think we should adjourn it. I would also like to see the case from the C.E.O. that we will save £200 a year on transport costs.

Mr. Denis Callinane C.E.O. said it would be impossible to say if £200 would be saved or not. The point was an increase or decrease in the numbers, but, taking the pattern over the past five years any great drop in the present number was most unlikely.

Colr. Wm. Foran: When Kilmacnash is still without a technical school we can say

TALLOW NEWS

The Starlight Players opened a six nights stay at the Regal Cinema on Tuesday. There is a complete change of show each night. This is a first class show of drama and variety.

BARTHELEMY DRAMA GROUP

The Barthelmy Drama Group staged the three-act Comedy "A Will and a Woman" at the Regal on Sunday night. There was a fairly large attendance.

POINT-TO-POINT RACES

Big fields and close finishes were a feature of Tallow point-to-point races, held on Wednesday, February 22nd, at Springfield. The best race seen at any fixture this year was witnessed by a fairly large attendance.

Mr. Joe Mulcahy, the well known amateur jockey from Conna had a good double when he won the Open Light Weight Race on Mr. P. O'Keefe's "What is" and the Kilmore Plate on "The Duke".

"Late for School" Mr. R. McCarthy, Knocknasack, Tallow won the confined Hunt Race on Mr. J. McCarthy's "Kusu Rock".

Mr. P. Henley, Tallow, won second place in the Confined Maiden on Mr. T. Walsh's "San Mario", which was won by Mr. T. P. Hutchinson's "Sunorah".

The Springfield Plate was won by Mr. P. Kirwan's "Queen of the Kingdom" ridden by Mr. J. F. Kiely.

DEATH OF MR. J. BEECHER

The death took place at his residence, Ballyanthony, Tallow, on Wednesday, February 15th, of Mr. James Beecher. An old and highly respected member of the farming community, he had reached an advanced age.

There was a large and representative cortege at the removal of the remains, and at the funeral to Ballynoe Cemetery on Friday, February 17th.

RETURNED TO THE U.S.

Mr. Michael O'Connor, a native of Ballyduff district, returned to the United States after spending a two months holiday at the home of his niece Mrs. C. Daly, 112, Healey House, Tallow. Mr. O'Connor has been in America for 37 years, and in his young days a member of the Volunteer Movement in the Ballyduff district.

He has a great love for Ireland and it is his hope that on his retirement he will return to Ireland to spend his declining years here. A number of his friends and relatives travelled to Cork on Sunday evening to wish him "Bon Voyage".

OLD GRAVEYARD

Cleaned - County Council workmen, under Mr. P. Ryan, County Council Overseer, Tallow, recently cleaned the old graveyard at Kilwatermy.

This graveyard dates back to the time of the Reformation, and the ruins of the old pre-Reformation church can still be seen in the northern end of the burial ground.

This church gave Kilwatermy its name - Cillíochter-moy. The church on the Upper Plain, called Kilwatermy, there is also a pre-Reformation church, leading from the Church. Some years ago an attempt was made to replace the pews, but some three hundred stones collapsed and the attempt was abandoned. The late Rev. Prof. Power, B.Litt., University College Cork, carried out some excavations there many years ago.

LATE MISS TERESA POWER

ARDFINNAN AND KNOCKAUN, DUNGARVAN

The death occurred at the Richmond Hospital, Dublin, on Wednesday, February 15th, of Miss Teresa (Terry) Power, at a comparatively young age, and of an illness of some short duration. She was a daughter of the late Dr. Power and Mrs. Power, Knockaun, Dungarvan. She was a most likeable person and a kind lover of her religion and a member of Third Order of St. Francis.

The remains were removed from Dublin on Thursday evening to St. Mary's Parish Church, Dungarvan, followed by a cortege of very large dimensions, and were received and buried by Rev. Fr. P. Farrell, C.C.

Requiem Office and High Mass was celebrated on Friday morning for the happy repose of her soul, and the interment took place in the adjoining burying ground. Another very large concourse were present to pay their final respects. Fr. J. Murphy, C.C., Carrickbeg, was celebrant; Fr. M. Farrell, C.C., Ballybricken, deacon; Fr. J. Mulcahy, C.C., Ballybricken subdeacon; Ven. Archdeacon D. Power, P.P., V.F., Dungarvan, presided; Fr. P. Farrell, C.C., Dungarvan, acted as M.C. on the Altar. In the choir were Rev. D. Byrne, C.C., Dungarvan; Rev. J. Murphy, C.C., do; Very Rev. J. Roche, P.P., Abbeystead; Rev. M. Walsh, C.C., do; Rev. Fr. V. de Paor, C.C., do; Very Rev. Fr. Hackett, P.P., Ballinacorney; Very Rev. S. Ryan, P.P., St. Patrick's, Waterford; Rev. J. Boyle, Chaplain, Carrickbeg; Rev. Fr. O'Shaughnessy, O.S.A.; Rev. Fr. J. Murphy, C.C., Carrickbeg, assisted by all the choir. The chief mourners: Dr. Norman Power, England; Thomas Power, The Burgery, Dungarvan (brothers); Mrs. C. Sage, Waterford; Nurse Grace Power, Richmond Hospital, Dublin (sister).

Funeral arrangements were by James Kiely and Sons, Waterford, Dungarvan.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

DEATH OF MR. P. MURRAY

Through the death of Mr. Patrick Murray, River House, which occurred on Saturday, 18th inst., Cappoquin has lost its most respected and well known resident. The late Mr. Murray, who was a native of Knockmore, was a very popular and much esteemed personality, whose passing has caused general regret.

The remains were on Sunday evening removed to St. Mary's Church, where they were received by Very Rev. J. Kennedy, P.P., and Rev. M. O'Meara, C.C. On Monday, Requiem Masses the usual took place in Knockmore. The attendance on both occasions was of huge proportions and in addition to the great number from the locality many came from the neighbouring counties to pay their last tribute. The prayers at the graveside were said by Very Rev. M. Power, P.P., Knockmore and also present were Rev. M. O'Meara, C.C., Rev. T. Nugent, C.C., and Rev. C. McGrath, C.C., Moylagh, Co. Tipperary.

The chief mourners included: Mr. John Murray, N.P., Killeale (son); Misses Winifred and Mary (daughters); Sister M. Philomena, Mrs. Frank (sister); Sonny, Sean, Dan and Patrick (nephews); Mrs. E. Murray (sister-in-law); Misses B. and M. Finn, Mr. Thomas and Mrs. Roche, Mr. T. Roche, Mr. William Hunt; members of the Finn and Murray families, Glendalough.

(Funeral arrangements by A. Walsh and Sons, Cappoquin) WINTER FARM SCHOOL

Following a Two Years Course in Woodstock, Farm Engineering, Rural Science, Horticulture, Veterinary Science, Farm Economics and Sociology, the Winter Farm School was brought to a formal close on Saturday, 18th inst. in addition to the principal and members of the school staff, Mr. P. Callinan, C.E.O., and Mr. P. Conroy, C.A.O., were in attendance. In addresses to the students, Messrs. Callinan and Conroy expressed their gratification at the regular attendance and obvious interest in the work shown by the students. They felt sure that as a result of the course, farming methods would be considerably improved.

The students took an active part in a discussion which followed and made suggestions regarding matters which could be included in future courses. Certificates to the students will be issued at a later date.

Extren lectures during the course were: Mr. P. Conroy, C.A.O., Mr. J. O'Brien, Mr. P. O'Shea, and Dr. L. Gleeson. The Concert, sponsored by the Rowing Club, and held on Sunday night, was generously patronised.

Contributors to the programme were: Mr. W. O'Hara (Irish ballads); members of the Hallahan School of Dancing; Mr. M. Hogan (violinist); Messrs. P. Feeney and B. Williams (accordionists); Mr. C. Burke (whistler); Messrs. J. Duggan and C. Burke (vocal duets); the Gondeamus Singers (the Misses K. and D. Murray, Miss P. Finnegan, Messrs. B. Breen, R. J. Mason, S. Jeffries, N. Mason, F. Walsh). The accompanists were Mrs. McCarthy and Mr. J. Duggan. Interval music was supplied by the Southern Provincial Ceili Band.

JUMBLE SALE

Next Sunday afternoon a Monster Jumble Sale in aid of the Rowing Club will be held in the Boat House. Large quantities of various household goods will be on sale. For details see advertisement in this issue.

AFFANE G.A.A. CLUB

The finals of the "45" Drive will be run off on next Sunday night at Affane School. Details are given in our advertising columns.

On Sunday night, 18th March, the Club's Drama Group will present "The Money Doesn't Matter," by Louis Dalton. Our advertising columns in next week's issue will give further information.

CAPOQUIN MACRA NA FEIRME

At a recent meeting of the above Club, at which Mr. M. Power presided, congratulations were extended to Mr. T. Yeale and Mr. Sean Sheehan on securing 3rd and 4th places respectively in the Dairy Section of the Co. Stocking competition; and to Messrs. Finbar Power and Sean Casey on securing 2nd and 3rd places respectively in the Beef Section.

Congratulations were also extended to Miss Biddy McGrath on being selected to represent Waterford in the National Poultry Competition; to Miss M. Purcell on winning the cup for the best lady at Lismore Question Time competition; to the Debating Team of the school, who were being narrowly beaten by Gaultier in the 2nd round of the Debating Competition; and to the Gaelic Club speaking team on being placed 3rd in the County Final.

NEWS N.F.A.

SIGNAL HONOUR FOR NFA PRESIDENT

After the last Great War, the American State Department initiated a scheme, under which outstanding leaders in different countries, are invited each year to America. There they are given opportunities to carry out intensive study and investigation in their own particular fields.

Recently, an invitation from Washington, was received, through the American Embassy in Ireland, inviting Dr. Greene to avail of the Leader Grant this year. Fr. Dr. Greene and his family in general, this is a signal honour.

He left for the United States last Friday and we know that his thousands of friends and acquaintances, wish him well on his mission of observation and consultation.

ONLY COUND BASIS FOR GAME

As a result of a meeting held last week, it is expected that a deputation will meet the Minister for Lands very soon, in order to discuss very proposed game preservation and conservation. The principal rural organisations were represented at the meeting: National Farmers' Association, Irish Countrymen's Association, Macra Na Feirme, Munster and Tipperary and St. Hubert Club of Ireland.

The meeting pledged full support to the National Game Commission in all its activities. All participants were unanimous in the only sound basis for controlled and orderly development of the game resources in Ireland was that every farmer should own the game rights of his land.

The amount of activity at branch and county level, where game is concerned, is increasing rapidly. Farmers are beginning to realise the value attached to a well thought out game policy. More and more, they are becoming conscious of the fact that the game is the lifeblood of the rural economy. Now they are anxious to work with any responsible movement that will help them "cash in" on game. In not a few places farmers are actually talking of game in much the same way as one might talk about a crop. This is good, because in order to get the most from any crop, one must plan beforehand. In the case of game, the planning and effort that such planning entails, could very easily mean an annual rich harvest for Irish farmers.

It is intended to press for immediate implementation of the provisions of the Land Act, whereby the Land Commission has the power to vest game rights to farmers who have been deprived of them, up to the present. Proposals were discussed for the setting up of a State Game Board, which the meeting felt was necessary, but which could function satisfactorily only if game rights were vested in the tenant occupiers.

AN BORD BAINNE

Representatives of the Central Organisation in Dairy Districts met in Mallow recently and selected a candidate to represent them on the proposed committee of the new Milk Board. Areas represented were Kerry, Clare, Cork, Tipperary and Limerick.

Mr. Kevin Leahy was selected. He has close connections with three Southern Counties, being a Cork man by birth, a creamery manager in Don, Co. Kerry, and at the same time a 12 month in his own right. Mr. Leahy's wife is a North Kerry girl and they have three children.

Mr. Leahy is a rather happy choice, because he is a milk supplier himself and at the same time, has the technical knowledge so desirable for any candidate in this post. This latter point should not be overlooked, because the more knowledge a person has of the workings of the milk industry, the greater is the part he is likely to play in shaping it to the advantage of all.

As we have stated on more than one occasion, it is the primary duty of producers to look to the boards, men of outstanding technical ability, capable at all times of sound independent judgment. The producer must feel that he himself is directly participating in the business of his boards. He must be constantly applying his own knowledge in all the 24-hour activities of his business. The producer must show such confidence in his representative that he is prepared to allow that representative to exercise his own discretion in promoting sound policy.

We welcome Mr. Leahy's selection and wish him every success.

LOCKING MONEY IN SOIL

The recent spell of fine weather, has given farmers a chance to catch up on the huge backlog of work left as a result of the dreadful weather during the past months. The demand for lime and fertilisers has been exceptionally poor. This is due in part, to the weather and in still greater measure to the fact that farm income has been falling steadily. The great fear is that many

West Waterford News

WINS AGAIN

For the second time in two months Miss Muriel Lacken, Clashmore, has won the prize for best letter in an Irish Sunday paper. The letter, entitled "Matted Out," is as follows:—

"The young woman of today has her whole life mapped out for her. She is told how to catch her man, how to snatch him from another woman, how to get him to propose and eventually how the wedding should be conducted.

"The most intimate details of a woman's life are talked about in magazines. Marriage guidance counsellors help her out if her husband's affections wander or if her marriage is going on the rocks for other reasons. "Are women better, wiser and no more for all this advice bestowed so freely on them?"

Miss Russell is Hon. Secretary and former President of Clashmore ICA Guild.

INSPECTION OF MARES

The annual inspection of mares for the purpose of awarding nominations, was held at Clashmore recently. The inspection was carried out by Mr. J. Murphy, the well-known Co. Wexford horsebreeder, assisted by Mr. J. Byrne, V.S. All arrangements were in charge of Mr. E. Conroy, B.A.R.S.C., C.A.O. The quality of the animals presented compared favourably with that of previous years but the numbers showed some decrease.

ARMORE'S VICTORY

The winning of the Co. Waterford Junior football championship by Ardmore was an historic and meritorious achievement and caused much satisfaction throughout West Waterford. The success is the reward for perseverance, determination and the fact that the team trained assiduously for the competition and were prepared to surmount all obstacles to secure the county crown.

It is of interest to recall that Ardmore is one of the greatest GAA strongholds in the county.

In 1948 the Ardmore contribution to the fund for training Waterford teams for all-ireland senior and minor hurling finals, was the biggest in county or city. The sponsor was Mr. John Keane, now Chairman of Ardmore GAA Club.

HUNTING

The West Waterford meet at Clashmore on Saturday last. Some excellent runs were secured in the surrounding country.

CLASHMORE G.A.A.

Clashmore Club have entered two teams in the current years championship and have secured a holiday and course centre as at last being recognised. During the next few years schemes costing about £100,000 will be carried out by Waterford County Council.

The establishment of a Local Development Association in Ardmore is an urgent necessity. Only by the establishment of

APDRE ROUND TOWER

A well known Ardmore citizen recently drew the attention of the Co. Council to the condition of Ardmore Round Tower. As such matters are not the concern of the Co. Council it is understood that the problem has been referred to the Commissioners of Public Works for attention.

QUERY RE HOTEL

A local member of the Co. Council had an inquiry recently about the possibility of building a modern hotel at Ardmore. Surely this is a matter for a Local Development Association and should focus attention on the importance of establishing such a body without further delay. It is understood that if the suggestion is not welcomed in the Ardmore hotel may be erected in the Monastrea district.

ANGLING

For the Ardmore Angling Club there is a very busy season ahead. It is proposed to hold a number of confined and open competitions.

INDISPOSED

Mr. C. Curran, M.C.C., regrets that due to illness, he has been unable to attend to his public duties for the past few weeks. All correspondence received during that period will be dealt with in course of a few days.

HUNTING

The Clashmore-Kinsalebeg Harriers met at Plover on Sunday last and had some first class runs which resulted in two kills. On Sunday next, the pack meet at Ballyvane.

The West Waterford had a good day's sport at Clashmore on Saturday last.

SEA WALL REPAIRED

The retaining wall at Ferry-point is to be repaired in the near future. The wall was damaged by recent heavy gales and the work is very necessary. It is understood that the wall near Youghal Bridge is also to be repaired.

YOUGHAL BRIDGE

Considerable progress has been made on the Ardillaigh (Clashmore) side. Pavers are laying a keen interest in the operations.

LAST OF LINE

When Miss Gwendolyn Boyne, Ardillaigh House, Clashmore, died recently, the Youghal town bell tolled only that up to the 19th's, the practice dates from 1890 when the Youghal Corporation ordered that the bell should toll on the passing of any member of the Boyne family. This was in appreciation of the wonderful service rendered to the town of Youghal by Nicholas Boyne, who was the first Mayor since the so-called reformation. Miss Boyne was the last of the family. Mr. J. M. McKenna, Solicitor, is however, a direct descendant of the Boyne family.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

The salmon fishing continues to be slack. Ploughing operations are now in full swing. The flu epidemic is now on its wane. A number of road workers were recently dismissed in this area.

Work on extension of the Clashmore Water Supply is expected to start soon. It is to be done by direct labour.

AFTER A FIVE-HOUR LONG DEBATE, WATERFORD COUNTY COUNCIL STRUCK A RATE OF 44/9 IN THE £ FOR THE COMING YEAR ('61-62) AT THE ANNUAL ESTIMATES MEETING IN DUNGARVAN ON MONDAY. THIS FIGURE SHOWS AN INCREASE OF 2/4 OVER THE CURRENT RATE AND A DECREASE OF 8½d. ON THE ESTIMATE PRESENTED BY COUNTY MANAGER MR. S. J. MOYNIHAN.

Mr. Moynihan, in his report, said the Estimate of Expenditures for the financial year 1961-62 provided for expenditure from revenue of £1,098,649. To maintain the County Services it would be necessary to strike a rate of 45/5.23 in the £. This would mean an increase of 3/0.23 over the present rate, made out as follows: Roads, 1/3.52; Health (Statutory) 11.56d.; Sanitary, 9.48d.; Housing, 9.4d. — less 5.9d. off last year's Public Assistance Account and .68 off the General Purposes Account.

Before the commencement of the meeting a deputation from the Rate Committee of the Waterford County Executive N.F.A. was received. The deputation consisted of Messrs. D. J. Coughlan (leader), John Barry, Eddie Cunningham and Brian Pease.

Mr. Coughlan, addressing the Council said they (deputation) were present to protest against the way the rates were going up. He would like to stress that the farmers would be the last people to protest against paying rates. They were always willing to pay taxation and when the farmers of the Twenty-Six Counties were protesting, something must be radically wrong. They (farmers) he said, were being asked to pay more in taxation than they could now afford. The Health Act was bearing heavily on the rates and he wished to stress the present inequality in rates. Mr. Coughlan went on: "The Waterford farmers are paying much more in rates than the Tipperary farmers, although they (Waterford) land is not so good. That should prove that the man with good land is getting off light while the man with poor land is bearing the burden. You people are here to implement local schemes, but each year you have to cut subsidies. The schemes all because of this. Bring it to bear on the Government to take over what should be Central Government charges."

Mr. E. Cunningham said that up to the 19th's, the rates and agricultural income bore a fair relationship. The real discrepancy came when the Health Act came into force. The relationship was now so unfair that the level of agricultural income was dropping considerably. The farmer was now only a second class citizen and was being taxed in an immoral way. Taxes were being increased by a system that had got the better of the Council members.

Mr. Cunningham went on to point out that the non-agricultural wage in 1950 was 100% and was now 27%. The average farm income in 1953 was 95% and was now lower than the statutory agricultural minimum wage. In an area in West Waterford, one instructor had just completed a tour of 7 farms (excluding one whose income had dropped by 50%) and it was found that the income of these farmers had dropped by one-eight from 1950 to 1960.

Mr. Cunningham continued: "You are our taxation authority and you propose to increase the rates further now. It's only part of a continuing trend since the 50's. Ground limestone is the first step in improving the land, yet the stipulations for ground limestone is under 400,000 tons whilst in order to maintain the status of the soil over one million tons is now. The best of the farmers is now so depressed they are not bothering to maintain their soil. Bank Managers will admit that no farmer has ever before any now (sincerely) I ask you that to cut the rates drastically. It is your duty to do so."

BETTER TURKEYS

The 1960 turkey marketing season proved the broad-breasted varieties are now the first choice of the consumer. For this reason the Department of Agriculture urges producers who still rear the old narrow-breasted turkey to turn over to the large broad-breasted birds which are in demand and command the better prices.

The best method of obtaining the new improved types is to purchase day-old poults from the nearest turkey hatcheries, which deal exclusively in this work.

For producers, however, who wish to continue to breed from their own hens a good alternative method is to avail of the turkey cock stocks which are being mated there with approved broad-breasted cocks at these stations.

Producers who have not been accustomed to breeding their own stock from improved strains are advised to take advantage of the facilities offered by the licensed hatcheries or the turkey cock stations.

The local Poultry Inspector will be able to guide you as to the facilities available.

private concern could possibly afford it.

Mr. Hally—No one is getting paid for nothing. In fairness to everyone there is no redundant staff in the County Council. Neither is there any favouritism going on.

Colr. Lannon—There are a half-dozen doing a job in the yard, now that one man was being before. If the whole staff of the County Council was known, it would be near a million pounds.

Mr. O'Leary—It's over a million.

Colr. Kennedy—If you want a reduction all we can do is to cut out the new road works.

Colr. Ryan—We're trying to effect savings, by leaving out the rate but we won't cut salaries. I think it's essential to give a man with £2,000 a year an increase. We have got many people in the county who are not getting it.

At this point Colr. Roche contradicted Colr. Ryan's statement and said in one area at least the engineer was over-worked.

Mr. Hally—Would you suggest a figure of 1/- for the roads, leaving in as much as possible of the council's proposals. We can take it out of the special works.

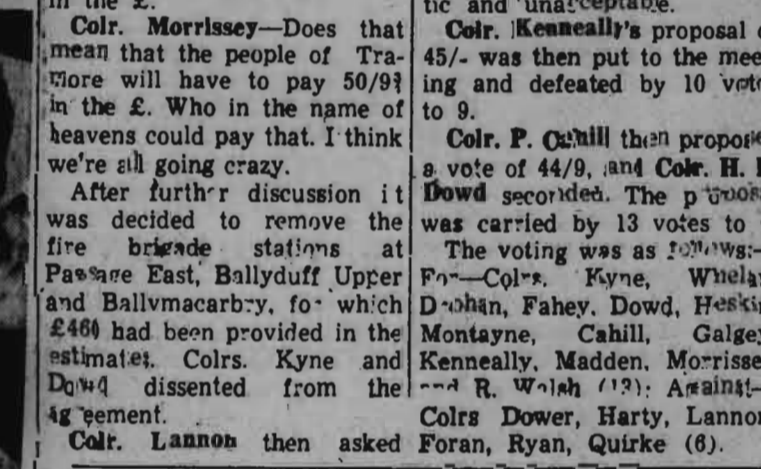

This was agreed to.

In the 9.48d. increase in the Sanitary Scheme, Colr. Kennedy suggested cutting off the 48 and he then proposed that the rate be increased by 2/8 in the £.

Colr. Morrissey—Does that mean that the people of Tralee will have to pay 50/61 in the £. Who in the name of heavens could pay that. I think we're all going crazy.

After further discussion it was decided to remove the rate from the stations at Passave East, Ballyduff Upper and Ballymacarby, for which £464 had been provided in the estimate. Colrs. Ryan and Dowd dissented from the agreement.

Colr. Lannon then asked

D. J. COUGHLAN, leader of the deputation.

NEW POST OFFICE

Preparations are currently being made for the erection of a new public building in Dungarvan, and engineers and officials of the Board of Works had been busy surveying and measuring the site at the corner of Old Chapel Lane and O'Connell Street, where it is proposed to erect a new three-story building which will house a new post office, Land reclamation offices and other officers dealing with public administration.

NEW FLEET SECRETARY

Mr. Eamon Peckan, Friar's Walk, Abbeville, has been elected secretary of this year's Fleet Chess and Draughts Club which will be held in Dungarvan in the early summer, under the auspices of Comhaltas Ceoltóirí Éireann.

Born Free

Born Free is the astonishing and fascinating international best-seller about Elan, an African lioness that became a family pet. From the day she came to love the game warden and his wife, who adopted her, in a way that was totally at variance with a lion's nature, she became so tame that she:

- ate raw meat from the hands of her mistress;
- wandered around the house, coming and going into the jungle as she pleased, but always came back;
- travelled everywhere with her master and mistress on the roof of their car;
- acted as retriever on their hunting expeditions;
- played with her foster parents on the beach and even bathed with them in the sea;
- after mating with a wild lion, returned to lay her cubs proudly at the feet of the human friends she never forgot.

By 12 votes to 7 it was decided to increase the grant to the Irish Tourist Board Centre at Tralee from £350 to £416.

Colr. Wm. Kennedy then proposed that the rate be 45/9 and Colr. J. Drohan assented.

Colr. Lannon: I propose a rate of 43/2, which will cover the increases we have to road workers over the past 12 months. This rate is also defying the Civil Defence. I also propose that no increases be given in salaries during the next 12 months.

Mr. J. G. Dowling (Co. Secretary): I will have to object to Mr. Lannon's proposed rate as it will not provide for the services in the estimates.

Colr. Quirk: If we pass Colr. Lannon's proposal it will not be accepted by the Manager, as he has the final say. Where do we come in?

Mr. Dowling (Secretary): Mr. Lannon's proposal calls for an increase of only 9d. There is a statutory demand by the Health Authority for 11½d. His demand is unrealistic and unacceptable.

Colr. Kennedy's proposal of 45/- was then put to the meeting and defeated by 10 votes to 9.

Friary Go Under to City Rivals

ST. AUGUSTINE'S COLLEGE, Dungarvan, bade farewell to their hopes of capturing the Munster Junior Football championship, last held two years ago, when they went under to old rivals De La Salle in the second round at Dungarvan on Saturday last.

The game was one of the poorest between these rival colleges today and the standard of football was never above mediocre.

Whilst the Waterford City team were only losing winners, their eight-point winning margin is something to be proud of. For three quarters of the game the issue was in doubt, and it was only in the closing stages that the potentially dangerous De La Salle attack, which had been in the air since the start of the game, was able to score.

Whilst it would have been a gross miscarriage of justice had De La Salle been beaten, there is no denying the fact that the Friary were presented with ample scoring opportunities. But an insipid attack that with the exception of Joe O'Keefe, hardly passed a forward worthy of note, frittered away precious opportunities of scores.

LEVEL AT THE INTERVAL

This was particularly so in the opening half when except for a few brief moments at the start they enjoyed a marked outfield dominance. Yet for all this superiority they had to be content with being on level terms, 1-2 each at the interval.

Backed by the breeze on the assumption De La Salle struck quickly with a soft goal. But the Friary remained unperturbed and for the next fifteen minutes again enjoyed matters territorially. Built on a forward finish which they had many scores. Gradually, however, the winners regained the ascendancy and there was no doubting their superiority at the close of the hour.

DISASTROUS OPENING

The Friary's troubles started at an early stage and they conceded four points in as many minutes, and this disastrous opening proved very costly in the final analysis. Had the homesters enjoyed an interval lead (as they should have), the issue would, it is felt, have been much closer.

However, there can be no detracting from the merits of De La Salle's victory. They were a better all-round balanced side and their success was achieved on merit alone.

De La Salle got off to a flying start with a point from Monaghan after three minutes, and a minute later Moroney added a goal, giving by these reverses the Friary swarmed to the attack and incessant pressure had its reward in the 15th minute. Joe O'Keefe grabbed a centre from J. C. O'Brien to crash the ball to the net. Cummins and O'Keefe exchanged points before "Blackie" O'Sullivan equalised with a Friary point in the 25th minute, leaving the sides level at 1-2 each at the interval.

Direct from the restart De La Salle attacked and full forward Daly went through for an easy goal. Moroney and Cummins added points in the 18th and 25th minutes and struck on full time mid-fielder Creagh closed the scoring with another De La Salle goal.

The winners had outstanding players in Donoghue, Callaghan and Hartly in defence, mid-fielders Nolan and Creagh, and Cummins, Moroney and Daly in attack.

What of St. Augustine's? Admittedly the date, withdrawal of Junior Cummins was a severe blow, yet this side in general showed distinguished performance at the close of the hour.

OOKEEFE OUTSTANDING

As so oft in the past Joe O'Keefe was again their outstanding performer and it was only through sheer exhaustion from lack of proper support that the Cork lad faded in the closing minutes.

J. C. (Jesse) O'Brien can also be exonerated from all blame. He gave a superlative performance all through and was easily the outstanding mid-fielder on view. Of the remainder, however, only Fergus Power, Paddy Carlson and Paddy O'Sullivan could be said to have had satisfactory games.

De La Salle: J. McCann; M. Richardson; P. Donoghue; B. Muller; M. O'Shea; V. O'Callaghan; J. Hartly; C. Nolan; J. Creagh; J. J. Cummins; T. Monaghan; and D. Colfer; E. Donoghue; B. Daly; J. Moroney.

St. Augustine's: P. Sullivan; M. McCarthy; P. Carlson; E. Power; J. Crowley; F. Power; D. Buckley; J. G. O'Brien; and D. Brennan; B. O'Keefe; M. Heffernan; J. O'Keefe (capt.); D. Lenihan; P. O'Sullivan; M. O'Reilly.

Three Hours Packed Show

was the key-note of the wonderful show which literally packed to capacity the spacious St. Laurence's Parish Hall at Ballinacorney on Sunday night last. And it was gusts of happy laughter which stopped the show several times as the delighted audience rocked at the funny situations in the three-act comedy "Swan Song" by Noel Marrian. The performance by the Ballinacorney Players drew a round of applause.

STAR OF SHOW

Mr. Tommy Keating, Dungarvan, was the star of the evening and he handled the big part in this rather long play with ease and mastery. Delighted as the audience had his lines several times from an audience which was quickly perceptive and very appreciative. Producer Mr. Tommy Morrissey is to be congratulated on this fine production by a group which braved the icy cold and snow present Tu during the winter to rehearse their parts in an unheated hall.

PLAYERS

Old favourites who appeared in the cast and who gave good accounts of themselves in their parts were: Miss Nora Kiley, Miss Kathleen Lander, Messrs. Michael Heffernan, Sean O'Brien. A first-class performance was given by newcomer to the stage, Miss Vera Walsh, New Line, Abbeville. Her very natural style of acting drew favourable comment and she showed excellent promise.

CONCERT

Under the capable stage management of Mr. Richie Walsh, Abbeville, the whole show moved with no break in continuity.

Concert items and music followed the play which was preceded by musical selections from the local Accordions Trio. Miss Nellie Morrissey, Messrs. Tommy Morrissey and J. Fitzgerald.

Mrs. Hallahan's well-known Dancing Troupe provided an excellent selection of Irish step-dancing and performers in this section included Mr. Monnie Hallahan and the Brett sisters.

Local talent in song solo drew great applause from the audience and the young performers gave off their best. They were: Paul Conroy, Gail Eustace, Vera, O'Brien and Mary Keating.

NEWCOMERS DID WELL

At the conclusion Rev. Fr. M. Walsh, C.C., Abbeville, President of the Parish Hall Committee, thanked the performers and performers in this section included Mr. Monnie Hallahan and the Brett sisters.

Local talent in song solo drew great applause from the audience and the young performers gave off their best. They were: Paul Conroy, Gail Eustace, Vera, O'Brien and Mary Keating.

Three Hours of Laughter-Packed Show a Sell-Out

L-O-U-L-E-R-Laughter was the keynote of the wonderful show which literally packed to capacity the spacious Ballroom of the Parish Hall at Ballinacorney on Sunday night last. And it was a show of happy laughter which stopped the show several times as the delighted audience roared at the funny situations in the three-act comedy "Swan Song" by Noel Mariani. The performance by the Ballinacorney Players drew round of applause.

STAR OF SHOW
Mr. Tommy Keating, Burgo, was the star of the show, and he handled the big part in this rather long play with ease and mastery. Delighted applause hailed his lines several times from an audience which was quickly perceptive and very appreciative. Producer Mr. Tommy Morrissey is to be congratulated on this fine production by a group which braved the icy cold and ever-present flu during the winter to rehearse their parts in an unheated hall.

OLD FAVOURITES
Old favourites who appeared in the cast and who gave good accounts of themselves in their parts were: Miss Nora Kieley, Miss Kathleen Landers, Messrs. Michael Hogan, Sean O'Brien. A first-class performance was given by a newcomer to the stage, Miss Vera Walsh, New Line, Abbeyside. Her very natural style of acting drew favourable comment and she shows excellent promise.

CONCERT
Under the capable stage management of Mr. Richie Walsh, Abbeyside, the whole show moved with no break in continuity.
Concert items and music followed the play which was preceded by musical selections from the local Accordion Trio, Miss Nellie Morrissey, Messrs. Tommy Morrissey and J. Fitzgerald.

Mrs. Hallahan's well-known Dancing Troupe provided exhibitions of Irish step-dancing and performers in this section included Mr. Monnie Hallahan and the Bret sisters, Michael Talbot in song solos drew great applause from the audience and the young performers gave of their best. They were: Paul Conroy, Gal Ennis, Vera, O'Brien and Mary Hogan.

NEWCOMERS DID WELL
At the conclusion Rev. Fr. E. Walsh, C.C., Abbeyside, President of the Parish Hall Committee, Ballinacorney, paid tribute to the performers in drama and variety for their splendid performances. The aid stages had acquitted themselves excellently, they were familiar to the audience and they seemed to improve with each performance they gave. He made special mention of the newcomers, Miss Vera Walsh, who he said, showed great promise as an actress. This had been her first stage appearance and she had played well, but it was now her first appearance at Ballinacorney Hall as she played with the cell band there for their highly successful weekly cell band prior to Lent. The solo performers, who were all young, had acquitted themselves to their double credit of a stage appearance and the first encounter with the formidable microphones.

HE RETURNED SPECIAL THANKS
to Mrs. Hallahan and her group of dancers. To Tommy Morrissey the producer, the promoters who had an easy evening and to the band for their lively music.

INVOLVES SACRIFICE
"This all looks very easy," said Fr. Walsh, "when we see the finished performance on the stage, but there is a great deal of hard work involved in the preparation."
It was he said, at great personal sacrifice that the members of the cast ensured that their performance would be the first class show. It was and this unselfish attitude was an excellent training for all concerned.

He paid tribute to the efficiency of the members of the Hall committee and to the capable work of the ladies committee. A special word of praise was due to their announcer, Mr. Richie Walsh for the manner in which he kept the show moving at top speed from start to finish. "I will conclude," he said, "by thanking you, the audience, for your support. Some of your own kids and kin were giving their first performances this evening and they acquitted themselves well. You were an appreciative audience—you laughed in the right places and clapped in the right places too."

FAR AND WIDE
In addition to the local attendance there were groups from Gange, Dunasavan, Kilmachomas, Abbeyside. Ritesantry included among the capacity audience.

BIG EXPANSION PLANS FOR RING GAELTACHT

Land division, the provision of a recreation hall, residential chalets and the question of a suitable playing pitch for games were some of the important subjects discussed at the meeting of the Gaeltacht Development Association, at a meeting held on Wednesday week last.

LAND REVISION
It was decided to write to the Department of Lands in connection with the question of the revision of the lands at Ballinacorney. Members of the committee expressed their disappointment at the great delay on the part of the Department in making some move in this important matter.

AUTUMN SHOW
A detailed report on the successful Teasbantas Fair, the Autumn show, held last year, was studied by the committee and plans were made for the holding of a similar function this year. It was decided that the show should be held early in the year and a provisional date of August 27th was fixed.

SEEKING GERMAN AID
A letter was read from the West Wexford Development Association stating that it was proposed by them to insert advertisements in newspapers in Germany inviting interested German firms to consider the setting up of industries in this county. They requested the participation of the Ring Association, and it was agreed to co-operate in the scheme with a view to the setting up of a factory in Ring.

It was also decided to approach Gaeltarra Eireann in this connection with a proposal for the establishing of a factory for processing timber and its by-products in the Gaeltacht area of Ring.

MALTING BARLEY
It was stated that in the coming season that Messrs. Guinness & Company, would be prepared to accept up to six hundred barrels of malting barley from the Gaeltacht area.

PLAYING PITCH
Members discussed the question of a playing field for outdoor games, and it was decided that steps should be taken to secure and develop a suitable pitch for games.

PROVISION FOR CHALETES
Dealing with the question of overcrowding in the district specially during the summer months, the committee were of opinion that the provision of specially constructed chalet-type bungalows would provide a solution. It was decided to approach the Clonmel group which was operating such a scheme to request them to sponsor this plan for Ring, where the timber chalets would be erected in the area to provide sufficient accommodation for the great influx of visitors in the summer.

ATTENDANCE
Rev. Fr. V. de Paor, C.C., president at the meeting, all which was also present: Mr. Sean Howlett, Town Clerk; Mr. Padraig Conroy, C.A.O.; Mr. Nicholas Mac-Mraith, Manager, Ring Secondary School; Mr. Sean O'Siochain, Mr. Conmhall O'Cloughlin; Mr. Liam O'Connell; Mr. Seamus O'Leary, Mr. Tomas Breathnach; Mr. Michael Griffin; Mrs. Miriam Breathnach.

MUSICAL SESSIONS
It has been decided that the musical sessions, which proved so popular last year, will commence in Dungarvan shortly, and will be held at Egan's Hotel. It was also decided that these sessions will be confined solely to members of an Comhaltas.

PLANNING CONCERTS
The Concerts Committee met early in February to finalise arrangements for Comhaltas concerts to be held at Ballinacorney on March 5th and for the annual concert in Dungarvan on March 12th.

It was decided that in addition to the artists of the Gael Linn Cabaret, that other top-notch performers from Munster and Leinster would be engaged to take part in the programme, which has been timed for a two-and-a-half hours run.

OLD FAVORITES
Among the most beautiful traditional tunes and airs which will be heard on the concert programme will be: "The Munster Flanagan", "The Old-Old", "The Mhair", "The Marston's Apron", and many other old favourites.

Wonderful Recovery from World War II

When the war ended in 1945 the world and especially Europe, found itself six years behind the times, for the horrors of combat had crippled many flourishing industries while financial matters also suffered gravely. Since then, however, it has made a truly remarkable recovery, so much so that many find it difficult to stay abreast of the rapid growth of engineering, agriculture, business and even day-to-day life. Everyone appears to have more to do now-a-days and less time to do it, and this speed would be the result of the emphasis on greater productivity. Even here in Ireland, where folk are reputed to amble along with a carefree air putting off as much as possible till tomorrow, we are quickening our pace with an urge to get a little more done each day.

Television and radio make our leisure hours in the home a great while sporting facilities are improving, and the housewife is also happier at her chores with all the various electrical appliances available so easily. Travel is also seeing an upward trend with jet planes bringing the five great continents so much closer and faster than ever.

AGRI-BUSINESS COMES TO IRELAND
A unique form of arm-brim pig farming known as Agri-Business—introduced successfully in England two years ago—is now coming to Ireland. And Castle McGarret in County Mayo, the rambling 17th Century family seat of Lord Oramore and Browne, is to become Ireland's first pig hatchery!

Agri-Business has created a revolution in British agriculture and given it a financial shot in the arm from a hitherto unprepared source—the man in the street. It was introduced to Britain by dynamic 31-year-old Norman Mascall, whose Livestock group of companies now operates through more than 60 farms in England and Scotland. Explaining Agri-Business, he says: "The public buy breeding sows from our company and rears the benefit as the sows' piglets are sold."

"During a period of just over four years we guarantee the investor 56 piglets per sow. This means that at current market prices the public can make about 12 per cent profit per annum on their original outlay."

Irish Livestock Producers Ltd.—as the new venture is to be called—will draw its investors from Ireland and America. Adds Mr. Mascall: "We have learned in England that Agri-Business appeals particularly to housewives—who are attracted by the chance of having a stake in the land. I feel sure that many Americans will support this important Irish agricultural development."

In March Mr. Mascall will be visiting New York and touring the Eastern seaboard promoting Agri-Business. Castle McGarret will eventually house more than 2,000 Mr. Liam Breathnach; Mr. Seamus O'Leary; Mr. Tomas Breathnach; Mr. Michael Griffin; Mrs. Miriam Breathnach.

LOCAL BOXERS IMPRESSIVE DISPLAY

Feature of the Tournament in Jimrick, in aid of the Polio Children Fund, was the display of the four Dungarvan boxers taking part as all four won their contests. Best win of the night was Tommy Sheehan, who beat S. Appell of Killybeg on points, over four rounds. Sheehan, who was unlucky against J. Lee recently, was even better against Appell and won an unanimous decision. Freddie North, who was beaten last year by C. Kenneally of Killybeg, reversed the decision this time, when the referee stopped the fight in his favour in the second round. Kenneally went down for a count and was still dazed after getting up and was unable to continue. J. Egan (5 st.) easily won his bout with J. Campbell of Limerick and won all three rounds. P. Geaghan (6 st. 7 lbs.) had a good bout with over J. Reegan of Limerick.

T. Sheehan, F. North will box in Killybeg on Sunday next. Sheehan, North and J. Buell have entered for the Munster Seniors. Also entered is John ("Shackinnee") Wajds, who is making a comeback. He is a former Munster Junior Champion and hopes to add the senior title to his. He could possibly do it as he is very fit and is training hard.

As can be seen from the advertisements and posters, entries for the championships on Sunday, March 5th, is a good one, and some great contests should be witnessed.

F.C.A. NEWS

COMPANY, ST. CATHALAN'S COISTHE, DUNGARVAN
FIELD DAY—SUNDAY 14th FEBRUARY

A Field Day for the purpose of exercising members of Dungarvan Centre on the rifle range, was held at Killybeg last Sunday. The attendance of Officers and NCOs was good, but there was a post-hurt out from the ranks of the team. There is not a lot of time available this year for rifle range practices, owing to the many weapons competitions and other training that has to be carried out. Consequently, it is up to each F.C.A. man to turn out for Annual Range practices as soon as possible.

Our next field day will be held on Sunday week on Youghal Range. Youghal is always an enjoyable place to do a day's rifle shooting, so remember all who are notified to attend, please try and do so.

WEEKLY TRAINING
The above parades continue to get a little better each week. Among the number of recruits attested lately were four new members signed up in King's Cross and this is indeed a welcome bit of news as Ring is one of Dungarvan's oldest centres and it would be a great pity if it were allowed to fade away. In most of the other centres attendances are well up to average and this is indeed a good indication of the enthusiasm of the F.C.A. men for their weekly training parade.

The remains were removed to St. Mary's Parish Church, Dungarvan, on Monday evening and were received and blessed by Rev. Fr. D. Byrne, C.C.

Requiem Masses were celebrated on Tuesday morning for the happy repose of her gentle soul and the funeral left the church later in the afternoon for Colligan Church, where they rested overnight. Requiem Masses were celebrated on Wednesday morning, after which the interment took place in the adjoining family plot. A very large concourse of mourners and sympathisers were present to pay their final respects. Fr. T. Power, P.P., assisted by Fr. Lacey, C.C., officiated at the graveside. Undertaking was by James Kieley and sons, Dungarvan.

DOGS (Protection of Livestock) ACT, 1960

It is desired to direct the attention of dog owners and of owners of livestock to the above Act. The Act provides that where a dog worries livestock on agricultural land:

- (1) fines may be imposed on the owner or person in charge of the dog. (It is a good defence to prove that reasonable care was taken to prevent the worrying).
- (2) if there is to be no person in charge of the dog it may be seized, detained by the Garda and destroyed if not claimed within seven days.
- (3) it shall be a good defence to an action for damages for shooting a dog if it is proved that the dog when shot was worrying livestock lawfully on the land, that the shooting was done by the owner of the land or livestock, by a member of his family or by an employee and that the Garda were notified of the shooting within forty-eight hours.

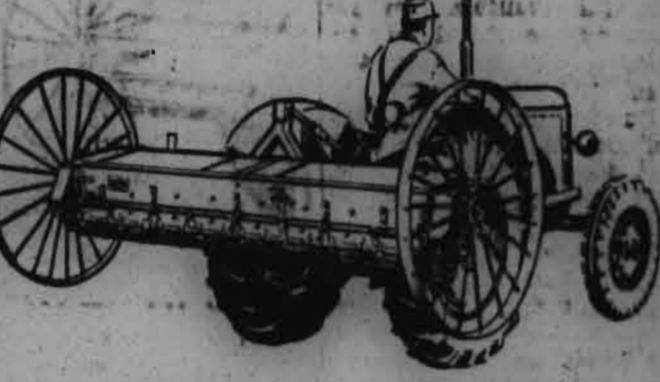

Copies of the Act may be obtained from the Government Publications Sale Office, G.P.O. Arcade, Henry Street, Dublin. (Price: Ninepence, postage twopenny) or through any bookseller. The Act does not interfere with the existing rights of livestock owners to sue the owner of a dog for loss arising from damage to livestock (Dogs Act, 1906). County Councils and most County Borough Councils have regulations in force which make it illegal for a dog to be allowed outside its premises, between the hours of sunset and sunrise except if it is under control.

LAST SUNDAY'S GAME

Waterford's footballers kept on the winning trail on Sunday last when they defeated a fancied and much-vaunted Clare side by 5 points—1-10 to 1-3. This was easily Waterford's best display in the current league and players and supporters alike are justifiably optimistic about the future. If Clare defeat Tipperary in their next outing then it is almost certain that the three counties will figure in a play-off. Waterford's resurgence has certainly livened up a group race that up to Sunday last seemed to be a foregone conclusion between Clare and Tipperary.

The present league positions are now as follows—

Club	P	W	L	Pts
Tipperary	2	2	0	4
Waterford	3	2	1	4
Clare	3	2	1	4
Limerick	2	1	1	2

This is certainly an intriguing and exciting position and providing Clare can do the needful against Tipperary, I fancy Waterford to capture group honours for the second time in three years.

CITY RIVALS MEET IN PHELAN CUP

Those great footballing rivals Mount Sion and De La Salle try conclusions for the third time on Sunday next, to decide who progresses in the now belated Phelan Cup. Twice already these sides have met and on each occasion they have ended in stalemate, after thrilling games. Is it any wonder then that the City Sportsfield should house a record attendance on Sunday for a competition of this nature. De La Salle have fallen from grace since their 1959 championship triumph and made an early exit to Kill in last year's title race. But victory over Mt. Sion on Sunday would raise unflinching hopes, and, with men like Denis Corcoran, Sean Roche, Billy Smith, John Barron and Noel Dalton, to mention but a few, still available, they are supremely confident of accounting for the Monastery men.

But, irrespective of the competition, Mt. Sion are a difficult side to beat at any time. And Sunday should prove no exception.

Both sides invariably bring out the best in each other, thus ensuring a thrilling struggle. For this third meeting 'Sion will field their strongest possible side which includes outstanding footballers in Paddy Sweeney, Seamus Power, Larry Guinan, Albie Richards and Martin O'Gorman.

Forecasting the result is indeed a difficult task. Little or nothing seems to separate the sides in football ability. 'Sion however, are almost certain to line-out the fitter team, and an advantage such as that at this time of year is a decided asset. On that count alone the Monastery are entitled to the vote—precarious though it may be.

WATERFORD PLAYERS DISTINGUISHED THEMSELVES

All three Waterford players: Martin O'Gorman, Frankie Walsh and Seamus Power, played outstanding parts in Munster's facile victory over Ulster at Casement Park, Belfast, on Sunday last. The fourth Waterford man, John Barron, had to cry off owing to flu and his place was taken by Tipperary's Kieran Carey. Morrissey, Walsh and Barron have also been chosen on the "Rest of Ireland" team to play Wexford in the annual charity game at New Ross, on March 19th.

TOM POWER TRAVELS TO TUAM ON SUNDAY

On Sunday next, the Munster footballers make the long journey to Tuam to play Connaught in the Railway Cup semi-final. Included amongst the substitutes is Ardmore's Tommy Power.

TOMMY POWER (Munster)

With the news of the withdrawal of Mick O'Connell, Power could yet make his inter-provincial debut. The daily papers have all been clamouring for the inclusion of Eugene McCarthy and Joe O'Sullivan. Yet they are overlooking the fact that Tommy is listed as first sub. Surely that entitles the Waterford man to the vacant berth.

Incidentally, Kilrossanty's Mick Pender has now been added to the substitutes.

CLARE MINUS TWO. Clare, although naturally dependent on this unexpected reverse played well—well enough to have beaten any other side in their group. Clare supporters will quickly point out that they had to field without two of their most prominent players in Quessly and Sean Liddy. Admittedly, the loss of this pair was a severe blow, yet so clear-cut was Waterford's superiority on the general run of play it is most unlikely that their presence would have altered the final result.

Yet, when the Banner men opened in brilliant fashion,

DECIES NOW IN LINE FOR PLAY-OFF

CLARE LOSE UNBEATEN RECORD

WATERFORD'S FOOTBALLING PRESTIGE RECEIVED A REAL MORALE-BOOSTING UPLIFT AT THE FRAHER FIELD, DUNGARVAN, ON SUNDAY WHEN THE DECIES SCORED A SOMEWHAT SURPRISING BUT FULLY MERITORIOUS 1-10 TO 1-5 VICTORY OVER UNBEATEN CLARE IN THE NATIONAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE.

This latest Waterford victory—achieved in most convincing fashion, must now leave the County with high hopes of yet figuring in a play-off to decide the destination of group honours. Their remaining game is away to Limerick and this game should provide them with little or no difficulty. Clare, on the other hand, have a home game with Tipp. who as yet are unbeaten. Providing the Banner County overcome this obstacle and such is a distinct possibility then Waterford, Clare and Tipp. would figure in a triple tie.

EXCELLED THEMSELVES

Sunday's game, played in ideal weather conditions and before a good-sized attendance, was productive of some excellent passages of football. In victory Waterford really excelled themselves and the standard of football served up by them, particularly in the second half was of an unusually high standard.

Is it any wonder then that these oft-times criticised footballers are now being generally acclaimed throughout the County? The present team may not be a "Kerry class" side but is nevertheless one capable of doing the county justice in more important engagements.

On Sunday the Waterford men were at a distinct physical disadvantage, but overcame this by sheer football superiority. Both attack and defence were shown up in splendid fashion, and the side in general was without any apparent weak links.

CLARE MINUS TWO

Clare, although naturally dependent on this unexpected reverse played well—well enough to have beaten any other side in their group. Clare supporters will quickly point out that they had to field without two of their most prominent players in Quessly and Sean Liddy. Admittedly, the loss of this pair was a severe blow, yet so clear-cut was Waterford's superiority on the general run of play it is most unlikely that their presence would have altered the final result.

Yet, when the Banner men opened in brilliant fashion, his over-all handling of the game was not up to its usual efficiency. Coming down to the individual performance, one finds it impossible to single out any member of the Waterford side for special mention.

Sean Ormonde experienced a few anxious moments early on, but as the game progressed became his old reliable self again. Mick Pender without ever displaying his usual brilliance was a reliable full-back, as was left full-back, Mick Kirwan of Dunhill.

DINGLEY OUTSTANDING

Star of this line, however, was unquestionably Mark Dingley, of Gaultier. His fielding and kicking were impeccable and his all-round display was flawless.

The half-line of Tommy Power, Mick Conolly and Tom Cunningham was one of the strongest sectors of the side. Conolly gave another outstanding display as pivot of the defence, whilst Power and Cunningham were always at their best. Need more be said of them?

HEWITT SHONE AT MID-FIELD

At mid-field the recalled Jimmy Hewitt was Waterford's star. After a poor opening the Valley Rovers man soon settled down and mastered Clare's Noone and O'Mahony after a spell at midfield and attack was replaced by Mick Whyte whose advent on the scene infused greater enthusiasm in the side. Then Jimmy Hewitt whose approach to the goal was superb, scored against Kilkenny was on top of its form and rarely wasted a reasonable scoring opportunity. The half-line of Justin Spratt, Paddy Sweeney and Monty Guilty despite being opposed to a strong and resolute Clare half-back line all distinguished themselves. Spratt in particular was a constant menace to the Clare defence and his pinpoint accuracy brought him three points from play.

KIRWAN NOTCHED 1-2

Tommy Kirwan at top of the right, was Waterford's top scorer with a personal tally of 1-2. His goal from a brilliantly executed move was a superb piece of opportunism that gave further proof of the Kilrossanty man's value to the inter-county side. His brother Michael, in the other corner had a comparatively quiet game, while Tom McGrath, although figuring amongst the scorers, seemed too far out-field to be effective.

KENNEDY THE OUTSTANDING INDIVIDUAL

In Frank Kennedy at centre-back, Clare had the outstanding individual of the game. This Munster sub. bore the brunt of class all through and he cannot be faulted in any way for his side's defeat. Others to shine in the Clare defence were Mangan, Killeen and Frank Meaney, whilst Cyril Jones was a safe and reliable goal-keeper.

Both O'Mahoney and Noon had their moments at mid-field, whilst in attack Jimmy O'Neill, Mick Guilty and Tommy Murphy were always dangerous.

THE SCORES

The game was only second old when Justin Spratt had a Waterford point. Jimmy O'Neill balanced matters with a point from a free in the fourth minute. Mick Guilty availed of a defensive mix-up to put Clare into a three-point lead, with an opportunist goal. They stretched this lead further with points by O'Neill (2) from free and Noon by the end of the opening quarter.

But then came Waterford's revival. Michael Kirwan started it with a point in the 18th minute and Tom McGrath added another from a free. Mick Whyte had a superb
