WASTE PAPER FOR THE MISSIONS
A grand effort is being made to do good with what has always been waste. The large quantities of waste paper in Dunganvan and Abbeyside, when made into a central collection, could help in a very considerable way the Augustinian African Missions. A central depot is being set up near the Friary, Main Street, which will be open for receiving waste paper on Saturdays from 9.30 a.m. until 12 noon. Waste paper should not be delivered loose. Sacks can be procured by request. Waste paper will be welcome from private houses, schools, shops, offices, business firms, factories. Enquiries so far are most encouraging and one feels certain that Dunganvan, which has won for itself the name of "The Most Mission-Minded in Ireland" will rise to this new opportunity of helping the Augustinian Fathers, working in the Nigerian harvest of souls.

Enquiries should be made to Rev. Fr. R. O'Shaughnessy, O.S.A., Director of Augustinian Missions, the Friary, Dunganvan.

GUILD HEARS STORY OF THE HOPS
Miss Anne Chavasse, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Chavasse, Cappagh House, Cappagh, was the guest speaker at the February meeting of Banntrach na Tuatha I.C.A.

Guild, Ballinameela, which attracted a large attendance of members.

Miss Chavasse, who has spent the last four years engaged in research work on the extensive hop farm of Messrs. Guinness and Co., in Kent, England, gave a highly interesting talk on the history, planting, cultivation and harvesting of hops. A keen photographer, she illustrated her talk with excellent coloured slides. At the conclusion of the talk a unanimous vote of thanks was passed to Miss Chavasse.

Guild President, Miss Ann Roche, Cappagh, welcomed and introduced several new members.

Principal item for discussion was the annual dinner and social which it was decided to hold in the Devonshire Arms Hotel, Dunganvan.

Guild dancing teams for the Eleanor Gibbon trophy commenced rehearsals under the direction of Mrs. Hallinan, the well-known local Irish dancing instructor.

The usual tea party concluded the meeting.

WATERFORD COUNTY EXECUTIVE N.F.A.
There was an exceptionally good attendance of delegates at the Sixth Annual General Meeting, held recently at Lawlor's Hotel, Dunganvan. The Chairman, Mr. D. J. Coghlan, reported on N.F.A. activities in the county during 1960 and the County Representatives, Mr. John Barry, reviewed developments within the Association at national level during the year. The Hon. Treasurer, Mr. B. Pearce, reported on the financial position and said Co. Waterford was now third highest in the county in affiliation fees. Headquarters, being exceeded only by Cork and Kildare.

The following officers were elected for 1961: Chairman—Mr. D. J. Coghlan (Kilmacshannon); Vice-Chairman—Mr. E. Cheasty (Kilmeaden); Hon. Treasurer—Mr. B. Pearce (Tallow).

FRIARY PATRICK'S DAY SHOW WITH SOMETHING FOR EVERYBODY
There will be something for everybody in the attractive programme laid out for the forthcoming St. Patrick's Day Concert, to be held in the Friary Hall, with matinee and evening performances. The show is the annual concert arranged by the Friary Pupil's Union, which has in the past been one of the star attractions in the town on the Festival of the National Apostle.

This year the active Committee of the P.F.U. have arranged for the attendance of prominent Cork artists, including James Healy, star of stage, radio and T.V., and currently appearing in the "Student Prince" in Cork; David McInerney of Cork, who plays the part of the Prince in this opera; and condienne Siobhan O'Brien is no stranger to Dunganvan audiences and will also appear in the Friary St. Patrick's day concert bill, which will also include Cork artist tenor Donal Kenneally and pianist Michael Casey.

Local artists, including performers from the Presentation Convent, Dunganvan, Mercy Convent, Dunganvan, and pupils of the Friary College, have prepared attractive pieces for the delight of the audiences and with a first-class show including operetta, Irish music and songs, dances, musical performances and comedy, all with a strong Irish flavour an excellent concert is assured to the many patrons who will crowd the Friary Hall for the big St. Patrick's Day show.

BANNTRACH NA TUATHA—DUNGARVAN T.A.
There was a good attendance of members at the Third Annual Meeting, held in the C.Y.M.S. Rooms, on 14th February. The outgoing President, Miss K. O'Brien, reported on the year's activities, which included the annual dance, drama, and film shows, jumble sales, garden and window-box competitions to celebrate the I.C.A. Golden Jubilee Year, an Annual Dinner to the Waterford International Festival of Light Opera and the Second Birthdays Party held in May.

During the year the T.A. organised a visit of the Irish Theatre Ballet to Dunganvan, organised Federation functions—the Eleanor Gibbon Choral Competition, a Foras Eireann Music Lecture by Mr. J. Grocock, and the first meeting of the series of lectures and demonstrations given by Miss M. Crowley (Home Economics Adviser) in the county last June.

Members attended four Courses at An Grianan during the year—Mrs. T. Maher attended the Country Markets Weeks; Mrs. Bowman did a course in Fruit Preserving and Bottling; Mrs. Riordan was delegate to the Autumn Meitheal and Council Meeting, and recently Mrs. Bowman represented the Federation at the Fish Cookery Course, sponsored by Bord Iascaigh Mhara.

The T.A. took part in Inter-Guild, Federation and National Competitions during the year and was represented at all Federation and Council Meetings. On the good works sides, a most successful Flag day was organised in aid of the Central Remedial Clinic, members helped with the County Home Party at Christmas and a Work Party Group made layettes for needy families in the town. Despite the expenditure on the year's many activities.

The Hon. Treasurer, Mrs. E. Connerly, reported that the T.A. was in a sound financial position at the end of the year.

The following officers were elected for 1961: President—Mrs. M. Riordan; Vice-President—Mrs. M. Bowman; Hon. Treasurer—Mrs. E. Connerly; Joint Hon. Secretaries—Mrs. M. O'Farrell and Miss N. Morrissey; Griannon Representatives—Mrs. N. Quailly, Committee: Mrs. W. Fitzgerald, Mrs. T. Dolan, Mrs. H. Cusack, Mrs. M. Keely, Mrs. R. Foley, Mrs. M. Keegan, Mrs. V. Morley, Mrs. D. Power, Mrs. M. Brennock, Mrs. R. Whelan and Miss K. O'Brien.

The next meeting will be held at Lawlor's Hotel, on Tuesday, 21st March, when Miss L. O'Connor (Waterford T.A.) will give a craft demonstration. A committee setting

LOCAL CONVENTS' IMPRESSIVE PERFORMANCES

SCHOOLS FROM DUNGARVAN PROVIDED SOME OF THE MOST IMPRESSIVE AND EXCELLENT PERFORMANCES IN THE FEILE NA SGOL, THE FESTIVAL FOR SCHOOL CHILDREN, WHICH ATTRACTED OVER SIX THOUSAND ENTRIES AT THIS THE THIRD ANNUAL NON-COMPETITIVE FEILE HELD LAST WEEK IN WATERFORD.

Presentation Shone in Mercy Brought Ballet Operetta and Dance

Wednesday was the big day for the Mercy Convent, Dungarvan, with two pieces specially designed by Miss Celine Penny. The evocation of the Vienna Woods was extremely picturesque with a well-sung accompaniment by the school choir. The "Swan of Erin" ballet was most sympathetically based on Yeats' "Swan of Coole" which was beautifully spoken by the girls. The dancers are extremely promising with free-arm movement and really neat point-work. The Vienna Woods was danced to the background of the senior choir singing a vocal version of John Strauss's immortal waltz. The haunting melody of the "Coolin" made a fitting background for the lovely dance in the "Swan Song of Erin" ballet.

work for children than at these school festivals.

FAIRYLAND DEFECT The young artistes in the operetta, in their rose-and-green frocks and almost transparent wings, with lavish silver decorations looked as if they had just strayed from Fairyland to enjoy a midnight revel on earth. Any merely human child would gladly have accepted their invitation to join in their song and dance. The little dancers, arrayed in dainty white, gold and scarlet striped frocks and holding pretty striped and fringed umbrellas, tripped gaily "on the light fantastic toe" to the entrancing accompaniment of "Les Patineurs" on piano and violin.

Ballet came to the festival from the Mercy Convent, Dungarvan, with two pieces specially designed by Miss Celine Penny. The evocation of the Vienna Woods was extremely picturesque with a well-sung accompaniment by the school choir. The "Swan of Erin" ballet was most sympathetically based on Yeats' "Swan of Coole" which was beautifully spoken by the girls. The dancers are extremely promising with free-arm movement and really neat point-work. The Vienna Woods was danced to the background of the senior choir singing a vocal version of John Strauss's immortal waltz. The haunting melody of the "Coolin" made a fitting background for the lovely dance in the "Swan Song of Erin" ballet.

UMBRELLA DANCE Members of the umbrella dance, troupe were: Misses Catherine Delaney, A. Flynn, Ann Kelly, Mary M. Butler, Ann Naile, Breda Keane, A. Curran, Kathleen Whelan, Callie White, Ann McAllister, Jacqueline Walsh, Marie Sanford, Mary O'Brien, Marian Kelly, Eileen Burke, Veronica Casey, Faty Queen, Helen Barry, Nora, Esther Tobin.

THE CHOIR The choir was composed of: Misses Rena Casey, Rena Kiely, Phyllis Peter, Helen Cullinan, Miriam Barron, Joan Power, Anne O'Regan, Joan Coleman, Valerie Comerford, Kathleen Flynn, Aida Lynch, Eithne O'Keefe, Colleen Cullen, Helen Flanagan, Mary Walsh, Monica Butler, Margaret Coffey, Deirdre Murphy, Maeva Lavan, Bernadette Ryan, Nuala Ryan, Mary Moore, Maureen McDonnell, Mr. Prionnias O'Sullivan, Mr. Mr. Prionnias O'Sullivan, the organising inspector of music of the Department of Education, and director of the festival.

Both items were loudly applauded by a highly appreciative audience. "SONG OF A KING" BROUGHT OVATION On Thursday night the Presentation Convent was again represented at the Festival of the school's senior pupils received a great ovation when they narrated in expressive verse-speaking, the touching ballad entitled "The Son of King for Me." Esther Tobin gave a highly polished impersonation of the haughty and beautiful chieftainess, Fianna Browne played the part of the rejected suitor in a way which won the sympathy of all, while CHARMING CHOIR The senior choir of this school had the privilege of opening the performance on Tuesday night and gave a fine rendering of three very pleasing pieces: "The Invitation to the Waltz" by Weber, "A Shepherd's Dance" from "Henry VIII" by Edward German. The choir was conducted by Kathleen Flynn, Mary F. Walsh, Alice Corbett, Mary Daly, Marie Dalton, Catherine Hourigan, Kathleen Landers, Bigid Morrissey, Terry Keating, Eileen Kelleher, Eileen Harkin, Mary Murphy, Mary Foley, Joan Walsh, Mary Tobin, Carrie Kelleher, Mary Power, Noreen Gough, Teresa Ryan.

"To Return or Not To Return..." That Is the Question! ON the proposal of Alderman William Gallagher, Waterford Health Authority, unanimously agreed "to urge the Co. Manager, Mr. S. J. Moynihan to give back the Fever Hospital to the County and City Infirmary which is necessary for its existence and that his decision be ready for the next meeting of the Board. When the matter came up for discussion at last Monday's meeting in Dungarvan, Mr. John Griffin said the Co. and City Infirmary required the Fever Hospital to carry on as a training school. A difficulty was now arising for what was at first thought to be a cut and dried affair. On the basis of pure economics it would be better to hand it over. Mr. Griffin went on: "whatever our charity towards mental patients is we must admit they are patients in a peculiar category and it would be foolish to send them to a place with no proper facilities for reception." Mr. J. Power-If we give back the Fever Hospital to the Infirmary, we'll only be giving them back their own. Ald. Gallagher-If the Fever Hospital is not handed over the Infirmary will not be recognised as a training centre. I propose we hand it back. Mr. J. Power seconded. Mr. Wm. Collins said it would be good from a business point of view to hand it back. Mr. Griffin-Big words and figures are being advanced to bolster up the will of the officials to take over everything. The whole thing looks to me as if there is a prejudiced opinion that belongs to the official mind and that every kind of big word and figure is used to support it, and it certainly doesn't look well in the eyes of the people. The Manager should this time regard himself as a democrat and should try and meet the united voices of the people of the City and County. Mr. Griffin-All we can do is send a recommendation to the Manager and let him make a recommendation to the present body is useless. Mr. N. Walsh-It seems as if the Manager is not going to agree with us. We challenge him before over non-municipal houses and best him and we can do so again now. The sooner we get the Manager's decision the sooner we can go ahead and bring the point to a head. Mr. Gallagher's proposal was then put to the members and carried unanimously. Mr. Griffin said it would be very bad if they had to force the Manager. It would be more desirable if he would peacefully accede. SYMPATHY At the conclusion of the meeting, a vote of sympathy was passed with the relatives of the late Mr. Pergus Murphy, County Librarian. Proposing the vote, Mr. Norman Walsh said the late Mr. Murphy lived for his duties. Mr. Madden, who seconded the proposal, said Mr. Murphy was an exceptionally able man and his passing was a great loss to the county. Mr. J. A. Hynea, Acting Secretary of the Health Authority, was associated with the expressions of sympathy on behalf of the staff and himself.

BIG STAGE SHOW FOR DUNGARVAN

On Wednesday night next, March 8th, the Dublin City Players will present the stage adaptation in five series of "The Nun's Story" at the Friary Hall, Dungarvan.

LATE MR. F. MacMURCHADHA Co. Librarian

Mr. Fergus MacMurchadha who died at a Cork Hospital on Saturday last was Co. Librarian in Waterford since 1930.

He had a distinguished national record and took part in the War of Independence. He was interned during the civil war. In recent years he took a keen interest in translations from French to English.

He was a member of the Libraries Association of Ireland and a few days before his death was appointed to the executive board of the Association.

His recent lecture "Two Friendly Enemies" published in this paper was of wide interest.

TRIBUTE TO FIRE BRIGADE

Had it not been for the prompt action of Dungarvan Fire Brigade on Monday night last, the Comeragh House, Dungarvan, owned by Mrs. Bridie Fitzgerald could now be a burned ruin.

Whilst a mattress was airing near an electric fire on the third floor between 7.30 and 8 p.m. it suddenly caught fire and the room quickly became a sea of smoke.

Mrs. Fitzgerald immediately rang the fire brigade who had assembled for fire drill whilst the three residents in the house, Michael Lawlor, Sean Butler and Michael Shalloo courageously braved into the dense smoke to pull out the electric fire.

Within seconds of her phone call, the fire brigade arrived on the scene. At this stage the fire was spreading to a room containing valuable articles. Protected by Gas Masks the fire fighters entered the blazing room and by 8.15 p.m. had everything under control.

Interviewed later by reporter, Mrs. Fitzgerald had this to say: "I just cannot find words to thank the members of Dungarvan Fire Brigade for the manner in which they worked in fighting the fire. They were simply wonderful and had it not been for their promptness the whole place would have been destroyed. I don't think the men are half paid for the splendid work they are doing."

Mrs. Fitzgerald also paid glowing tributes to Messrs Lawlor, Butler and Shalloo, for their assistance in averting what could have been a real disaster.

Footballers Can Master Limerick

WATERFORD FOOTBALLERS, FRESH AND RESURGENT AFTER THEIR THEIR FIVE-POINT VICTORY OVER CLARE, MAKE THE LONG TRIP TO KILMALLOCK ON SUNDAY NEXT TO PLAY LIMERICK IN THEIR FINAL NATIONALE LEAGUE GAME.

Viewing the performances of both in recent months, the result seems but a foregone conclusion. Yet, complacency has had disastrous results before and the Decies men would be well advised to treat this Limerick challenge with respect.

TOMMY KIRWAN

Tom McGrath leading the attack. As yet I have no information on the Limerick line-out, but hurler-cum-footballer, T. McGarry and Declan Moylan are certain starters. Their big danger man in attack is well-known referee Paddy Silke, but reports indicate that he will be an absentee on Sunday. Limerick, enthusiastic and determined as they may be to achieve what would be a noteworthy achievement, cannot, however, be given the vote. The D'Arcy side is a well-balanced one and seems to possess far too much craft and football experience for the Shannonsiders.

Two Games at Ballymac' on Sunday

The Mill Field, Ballymacarbury, houses a very attractive double feature programme on Sunday next when Fuarmlithe will play Kilkobnet in a junior hurling challenge, preceded by the Nire and Kilkobnet clash in minor football. The hurling tie should prove a very interesting affair. Both sides will field at full strength and with both anxious to start the new year on a winning note the game could well prove to be a thriller. The Ballymac side will, of course be fancied to succeed but against a Kilkobnet fifteen whose eyes are firmly set on this year's Western Championship they can expect nothing soft. All in all, it should be a game well worth seeing. The minor tie between Kilkobnet and the Nire should also be a keen and closely fought affair.

Gaelic Jottings

LAST SUNDAY

Only one game was down for decision on Sunday last — Mount Sion v. De La Salle Phelan Cup tie and what a hectic encounter it turned out to be. These City rivals were meeting for the third time in the competition, having ended in stalemate on the two previous occasions. On this occasion there was no doubting Sion's superiority and were fully deserving of their 3-11 to 0-5 victory.

The game, however, shed no lustre on the sportsmanship of either of the sides. From the outset the tendency to play the man rather than the ball was in evidence and the needle that kept into the game from an early stage, became stronger as the hour wore on. Fisticuffs began to fly with rare abandon and referee Liam Crotty whose job was a difficult one, saw fit to "book" players from both sides. Inter-county hurlers John Barron and Frankie Walsh very nearly received marching orders and both can be considered most fortunate not to be amongst the spectators for Sunday week's vital League clash at Cork at the Athletic Grounds.

HURLERS PREPARE

Already the Waterford-Cork National Hurling League game on March 12th is the chief topic of conversation amongst Gaelic followers throughout the county. The Leesiders are also dead-in-line for a League Final tilt, and if they master the Decies will almost certainly figure in a play-off. With a background such as this to the game, it goes almost without saying that these great rivals will serve up a hurling feast. Trains will run from Dungarvan and Waterford to the men in blue and white will not be without vocal support.

In next week's issue I will give a full preview to the game, weighing up the pros and cons of the clash and will try to forecast the outcome of this intriguing tie.

NO CHANGES IN TEAM TO PLAY CORK

Contrary to expectations, the Waterford selectors have passed a vote of confidence in the team that beat Dublin with the forthcoming clash with Cork. Admittedly that 2-3 victory over Dublin was achieved in most convincing fashion, yet it would be foolhardy to overlook the fact that the side was not without its weaknesses.

The defence and midfield (although I would prefer Tom Cheasty in attack) should cause no worries. There must have grave doubts about the full-line of attack. With the exception of Guinan, this sector was unimpressive against the Metropolitans and it is difficult to visualise an improvement against a Cork full-back line rated the best in hurling.

However, the selectors may yet have the last laugh in their decision to retain the side on bloc is successful.

WATERFORD MEN BY-PASSED BY PROVINCIAL SELECTORS

Despite the fact that Ardmore's Tommy Power was listed as first sub on the Munster team that drew with Connacht at Tuam on Sunday, he was by-passed when it came to naming a replacement for Mick O'Connell. If the selectors had no intention of calling on Tommy, then it was senseless naming him as FIRST sub. It's just another case of Kerry monopoly.

SYMPATHY

The Kilkobnet Hurling and Football Clubs passed a vote of sympathy to the O'Shaughnessy on their recent bereavement.

To-date the Shannonsiders have played two games. They were beaten at home by Clare but successfully "bearded" the Kilkenny lion in its own den. As matters stand they hold only a remote chance of taking group honours. As, besides Sunday's formidable test, they also face an away game with Tipperary.

Waterford's position is however much more favourable. They have already beaten Kilkenny and Clare but dropped two valuable points to Tipp in their last game.

That Decies mentors were obviously pleased with the side's performance against Clare can be seen from the fact that no less than fourteen of the men chosen on the original side are again included and the fifteenth man is Mick Whyte of Dunhill who replaces John Hubbard during the course of that game.

Sean O'mahony has proved his ability between the posts on numerous occasions and is evidently a skilful skipper of the side, whilst he is flanked by an eminently sound full line in Dingley, Pender and Mick Wintern (Dunhill).

Mick Connolly has been performing splendidly at centre-back and with Power and Cunningham, both inter-county footballers flanking him, constitute a half-line that will take a deal of beating.

Only personal change on the side is the exclusion of Hubbard from midfield. Monty Guiry is drafted from attack to partner Jimmy Hewitt, and this youthful and high-flying pair should ensure a plentiful supply of the ball to the attack.

In their last two outings the forwards have been really hitting the high spots and each of the sextet chosen for Sunday's encounter is a prolific scorer if given the opportunity. Paddy Sweeney is again on the 40' with Michael Kiwan switching for m the full line to right-half forward. Justin Spratt, the Bickies only representative is again at left-half. After his brilliant display when introduced against Clare the retention of Mick Whyte was automatic. That goal-scoring opportunist Tommy Kirwan is in the left corner with

Limerick, on the other hand, are regarded as the Cinderella side of Munster football. They have been in the football wilderness for years past and along with Kilkenny are the only counties not participating in the All-Ireland senior championship. The present standard

HAD NARROW ESCAPE

JOHN BARRON (above) and FRANKIE WALSH who were fortunate not to have received marching orders in last Sunday's Phelan Cup game at Waterford.

Sion Best in Robust Game

Mount Sion 3-11; De La Salle 0-5

MOUNT SION qualified for a semi-final tilt at Co. Champions Kilrassany in the Phelan Cup, when they scored a facile 3-11 to 0-5 victory over De La Salle in a second replay at the Walsh Memorial Park, Waterford, on Sunday last.

This game, which was confidently expected to provide a football feast fell far below expectations. The conditions were not exactly ideal for football, yet this is but a flimsy excuse for the ineptitude of the displays of both. Whatever good football there was, was served up by Mount Sion but throughout the hour the emphasis was unfortunately to play the man and the game was marred by several untidy incidents. Whilst appreciating the difficulty of referee Liam Crotty's task, he was in the circumstances far too lenient with players who seemed intent on "playing on their respective halves".

Whilst Sion were deserving of their victory, it is doubtful if they would have had such a clear-cut margin had they not committed the cardinal error of playing the man rather than the ball in the opening half after winning the toss.

It was they trailed by 0-0 at the interval and were surprised to show a vast improvement in the second half, their position was to all intents and purposes a futile one. The losers did enjoy a territorial advantage during the remaining thirty minutes but against a resolute Mount Sion defence they could only register five points. In marked contrast the Mountsiders capitalised on their few chances in this half and added a further 1-3 to their tally.

During this over robust second half during which temper became frayed on several occasions, referee Crotty ordered several inter-county hurlers John Barron and Frank Walsh to the line. But after both sides had pleaded with him, he allowed the players to continue but cautioned them severely. This was just one of the many incidents of a game in which club rivalry again took a disastrous hand.

Mount Sion were best served by Paddy Sweeney, Sean O'Power, Frankie Walsh, Tommy Hennessy and Larry Gilman.

On a disappointing and unclassical De La Salle side only Denis Cooran, Steve Roch, Billy Smith and Pat Ferris enhanced their reputations.
