LATE MR. JOHN FITZGERALD

SEAFIELD, BOMMAHON The death occurred at Ardkeen Hospital, Waterford, of the inexpressible grief of his immediate family and countless friends, of John Fitzgerald, Seafield, Bommahon, on Wednesday, March 15th.

The late Mr. Fitzgerald, who was one of the most popular figures in the Seafield area, was a comparatively young man and his death at the age of 55 is a tragic loss, not only to his bereaved relatives, but to the general community.

A labourer by trade, he leaves a wife and six children. He has also four brothers and three sisters, one of whom is Mrs. Kathie Walsh, Fitzgerald's wife, Dungarvan.

The remains were removed to Ballylunan on St. Patrick's Day, and were followed by a large and representative cortege. The burial took place in the adjoining cemetery on the following morning. Another large concourse testifying to the high esteem in which he was held, was present.

Keeping up its reputation of "Only the Best", the Arch presents on Sunday, 23rd April, "The Band of the Year" - The Famous Captain Showband, who have an average age of twenty two. Led by Des Kelly, whose motto is "A Happy Friendly Atmosphere", the Capt. are noted for their wide variety of speciality vocal groups, dance music and pops. This band broke the late attendance record at the Ardkeen, Cork. The Clippers say "they are wonderful" and are proud to welcome back this great band."

"I Know where I'm Going" It is good news for readers to know that the Southern Theatre Group will be visiting us again at the Friary Hall, this time with a comedy which has packed the Walter Matthews Hall, Cork, with laughing audiences for a whole month. It is Mr. John McCann's "I Know Where I'm Going" and is the story of an old man's conversion into a guest house in Cork city which which there are a variety of most amusing guests, the principal of these being an amusing old busybody of a Scout Master called Mortimer whose interest in the doings of his fellow guests is enduring and profound. In this part Mr. James N. Healy has an ideal vehicle for his comedy talent and gives an uproarious performance which audiences will delight to see.

There is also a splendid complementary performance of an impoverished old bluffer, the genial O'Donovan whose curiosity also leads to trouble in the house.

There are two pairs of love birds in the middle aged George (whose trouble is the drink), who has an infatuation of many years standing, for another of the guests, and the mysterious English man who lives with the daughter of the house; the two male characters in this instance are taken by old favourites in the company in the persons of Mr. P. Dullea and Michael Twomey; the girls are taken by comparative but very talented newcomers in Lisa Malone and Olive Callen. Miss Callen will also be remembered for her appearance on T.V. and Radio, singing to her own harp accompaniment, which is also used as incidental music in this play.

Tom Vosey and Kay Healy are the worried father and mother of the house in which all these doings are going on. The cast is completed by small parts played by Charles Glanane and Seamus Moynihan.

This play by a Dublin writer who has had several tremendous successes at the Abbey with this play as well as with "Red Rose for Me" and "Twenty Years A Wooing", shows Mr. McCann's great capacity for writing comedy and understanding people and with the light hearted amusement, which this play provides, shows the great versatility of this company when compared with the highly dramatic performance of "Sue" and "Baron's Grave" and the sentiment of "The Country Boy". The company has done a great deal for the Munster professional theatre but even more in bringing them such a high standard of acting can not be but an encouragement, as it is intended, to local aspirants of the art.

SALMON NET FIRING At the close of last week and the opening of this week there was a very slight improvement in the catches of salmon by nets in Yougal. From reports to hand the drift nets in the Villierstown area have done exceptionally well, but drift nets lower down are still having a very lean season which is now in its half stage. The two weir nets are experiencing somewhat similar to that of the drift nets. In the Ardmore area and Ballycotton may boats have packed up. The scarcity of salmon is indeed a problem this season and it is hard to understand in view of the fact that drag net men so far have had a better season this year than last to the end of March. This week the price of salmon is a fall to 7/6 per lb., to fishermen.

YOUGHAL U.D.C. EVICTION NOTICES At a recent meeting of the Urban Council, a deputation from the U.D.C. Tenants Association appeared before the meeting, presided over by the Vice-Chairman, Mr. E. P. Lynch and the Chairman of the Association, Mr. P. Ring who acted as spokesman. He came in connection with the notices to quit which were served on two tenants of Sarfield's, who had been in occupation for 25 years. The notices were served, he said, because the tenants refused to pay an additional 5d. per week to cover the cost of insurance and because of their refusal to comply with the Manager's order, they were to be evicted.

Following the withdrawal of the deputation, Mr. Hickey, the Manager, did not give these people the option of taking down their T.V. aerials, he thought they were entitled to this alternative. After further discussion it was decided that a deputation from the Council, to include the chairman, vice-chairman, Mr. Daly and Mr. Hennessy, would meet the Manager and discuss the possibility of an amicable settlement of the matter. The tenants concerned had erected T.V. aerials on their chimneys and for the purpose of insurance the Manager sought an additional 5d. per week from each.

EXTENSION OF SEWERAGE At a meeting of the Southern Committee of the Co. Council, Mr. Sean Brogan, B.L., sought an assurance in regard to the Yougal/Ballyvergan water supply and sewerage scheme. He requested that the scheme be extended to the houses in the area other than the Council houses. He said it would be the height of folly to embark on this scheme involving approximately 26,000 without extending the supply to the entire area for an additional cost of about 2,500. The Assistant County Manager said he would look into the matter further.

YOUGHAL DISTRICT COURT At Yougal District Court, before Mr. Justice L. Skinner, Michael Dempsey of Yougal was charged with receiving one bicycle in 1960, value £17 and two valued at £15 in 1960. Mr. P. Ring, for the defendant, pleaded guilty to receiving. The Supt. said that Sgt. McCarthy entered the defendant's house where he found three machines and parts of stolen

The death took place on 3rd inst. at her residence Melmore Farm of Mrs. Catherine B. Roche. She was relict of Mr. Thomas Roche, and (nee Barron) a member of an old and widely connected West Waterford family. The passing of this much-esteemed lady has caused widespread regret. In her early days when a member of the Civil Service in Dublin she became associated with the national movement and was a member of Cumann na mBan and numbered among her friends many of the leading figures in the fight for independence. DEATH OF MISS E. MANSFIELD

We record with regret the death of Miss Esther Mansfield which took place in a Cork Nursing home in the early hours of Sunday morning, 9th inst. She was daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mansfield. The late Miss Mansfield, who was well known in Dublin business circles, was a lady of much piety and her charity and consideration for others endeared her to all who had the privilege of knowing her.

The remains, followed by a long cortege, reached Cappoquin on Sunday evening and were received at the Parish Church by Very Rev. J. Keenan, P.P., Very Rev. J. M. O'Meara, C.C., and Rev. E. McSweeney, C.S.Sp. The funeral to St. Declan's Cemetery on Monday was of very large proportions and reflected public sympathy on the passing of this estimable lady. The chief mourners included Mr. E. Mansfield, B.L., Cork; Mr. John Mansfield, Cobh; Mr. Charles Mansfield, Dublin (brothers); the Misses Kathleen and Agnes Mansfield, Cappoquin; Mrs. A. O'Connor, Dublin (sisters); Mrs. E. Touraneena News

REGRETTED DEATH

Rarely has a death evoked such poignant sorrow and regret, as that of Mrs. Mary Bridget McCarthy, Woodhouse, near the bridge, who died in the District Hospital, Dungarvan, on Sunday morning last, following a brief illness.

The deceased, who was only in her early thirties, was a kind neighbour, a sincere friend, and a devoted wife and mother, and her passing in the prime of life is deeply regretted and to her grief-stricken husband and three children of tender years, her loss is irreparable. We join with their many friends and the bereaved husband and family, her father Mr. Thomas Condon, and other relatives our very sincere sympathy.

The remains were removed to St. Mary's Church on Sunday evening accompanied by a vast cortege of relatives, friends and the general public. Requiem Mass for the repose of her soul was celebrated on Monday morning by Very Rev. Fr. Walsh, P.P., and Rev. Fr. Fennell, C.C. There was a very large attendance again present on Tuesday when interment was made in the adjoining cemetery following Requiem Mass celebrated by Rev. Fr. Fennell, C.C., who also officiated at the graveside. (Undertaking by Phelan's, Grattan Square, Dungarvan.)

SYMPATHY

Sympathy is extended to the widow, son, daughter-in-law, and other relatives of the late Mr. Richard Kiely, Scart, Ballinamull, whose unexpected death took place on Easter Sunday night.

LATE MR. JOHN BOYLE

The news of the death of Mr. John Boyle, Knockmeal, Ballinamull, which took place on Tuesday, April 4th, at Cabell Hospital, was learned with regret in Touraneena and district especially by the older generation.

The late John Boyle, who had reached the ripe old age of eighty-seven years, was a general favourite amongst all in the locality.

He was employed in the Knockmeal Co-Op. Company for close on fifty years, and his retirement was regarded with the highest regard by the Committee of Management and his work mates alike. In his early years he was very active in the sporting circles of his native parish and took a keen interest in games and sport of all kinds. The remains were removed to St. Mary's Church, Touraneena, on Wednesday evening and on Thursday, following Requiem Mass, the funeral took place to Knockboy Cemetery, where interment was made in

Knockrour, Stradbally

Deeply regretted by her grief-stricken husband, sons, daughters, sister and friends in the passing of Mrs. Bridget O'Brien (nee Butler, native of Rathmeaden, Kilmacthomas), beloved wife of Mr. William O'Brien, Knockrour, Stradbally, who breathed her last on Sunday, 9th inst. (Feast of St. Mary of Egypt), following a comparatively short period of falling health and at the allotted span.

A truly kindly and charitable woman and an ideal neighbour, the late Mrs. O'Brien was most congenial company; she was a warm favourite with all who had the pleasure of knowing her and her exceedingly expensive one. She was aunt of the late lamented Rev. Fr. John Vincent Butler, O.S.A. With her nearest and dearest wholeheartedly sympathetic is widespread in their tribulation.

Sympathisers were present in large and representative numbers when the remains were removed on Monday evening from the residence to the Parish Church, Stradbally, where they were received by Rev. Fr. Denis Power, P.P., and Rev. Fr. G. Power, C.C.

Interment was made in the family burial ground in the adjoining cemetery on Tuesday (after Office and High Mass), the clergy in attendance at the obsequies again officiating at the grave side amidst every manifestation of profound sorrow.

Late Mr. Maurice Hickey

KEATING ST., DUNGARVAN

The death took place on Saturday, April 8th, at his residence Keating Street, Dungarvan, of Maurice (Monnie) Hickey, at a comparatively young age, but after an illness of some duration. He was a great favourite and kind friend to everybody. He possessed a very quiet and gentle disposition. He was a member of the O.S.I.A. (Stradbally Area) from whence he was a native. Much sympathy is greatly expressed to his wife and son and also to his relatives.

The remains were removed to St. Mary's Church, Stradbally, on Sunday evening, followed by a very large cortege of friends and neighbours and were received by Rev. Fr. J. Murphy, C.C.

Requiem Mass was celebrated on Monday morning for the repose of his gentle soul and the interment took place later in the adjoining family plot. Another very large cortege was present to pay their final respects to Mr. Murphy, C.C., imparted absolution at the graveside. (Undertaking by James Kiely and Sons, Dungarvan.)

N.F.A. NEWS

SHEEP ALWAYS NEAR MIND

"Sheep are great. They are always near the money." How often do we hear that expression and how true it is! Sheep husbandry could be one of the most remunerative of all small farm activities. When properly managed, and when markets are properly organised, it can leave a reasonably good profit. Numbers are steadily increasing. Wool production is also increasing.

There is a great potential in better sheep and wool, as a source of income and a lever towards a higher standard of living. To get the best out of this side of our industry, we must produce efficiently and market effectively. A considerably big step forward has been made in recent years, through the N.F.A. Wool Scheme.

Arrangements have at last been finalised for the 1961 Wool Marketing Scheme. All Branch and County Secretaries will be notified. The contractors will be Messrs. Irish Woollens, Ltd., Messrs. C. E. Macaulay & Co. Ltd., and Messrs. R. Barrett & Co. (Dublin) Ltd. Some slight alterations have been made in last year's arrangements. In the past all grades were purchased, in relation to a "basic" or "general marketing" price on a plus or minus basis. This year we have a market and super selected will be bought on that basis, but all other grades will now be quoted separately and in relation to the value of each grade on the world market. A grade of centres will be drawn up where sales will take place between the 29th May and 17th June. A minimum amount of 9,000 lbs. of wool is necessary for a market and the team grazer, clerk and two assistants will be available on the particular days, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m., and from 2 p.m. until 6 p.m.

Producers who wish to participate in the scheme, must have paid their affiliation fees to their local branch. Some slight alterations have been made in the proportion of fees to Headquarters before the 31st March 1961, having of course affiliated to the Co-operative Wool Producers' Association in their own interest, to submit applications on the official forms only to Headquarters. This is important.

Members participating will be asked to submit a signed declaration to the buyer immediately before his wool is opened, stating that it is free from tar, daggings and sundries. Once more, we would remind sheep men that whereas in past years, our main offence was the use of pitch and tar for branding, a major source of discontent at the moment is the practice of adding oils to

CLASHMORE CONCERT

A very successful variety concert, in aid of Paucial Funds, was held at Clashmore on Sunday night last, and was a very large and appreciative audience. The programme, which was of a high artistic standard, consisted of sketches, step-dancing exhibitions, vocal and instrumental items presented by the pupils of the local schools and other local artists. All were trained by Miss Phyllis Morrissey, who is to be complimented in the success of her efforts.

DEED IN ENGLAND

The death has occurred in England of Mrs. Reeves (nee Fitzgerald), a native of Kilmaloe, Kinsaleigh. Deceased was a member of a well known local family.

LATE MISS A. FRIENDENGAEST

The death occurred recently of Miss Agnes Friendenegaest of Ardmore. Deceased was very popular and her demise has occasioned deep regret. The funeral to St. Declan's Cemetery was of large and representative proportions. Very Rev. W. Cahill, P.P., and Rev. P. Flavin, C.C., officiated.

NEW SCHOOL COMPLETED

The new school at Kinsaleigh has been completed. The structure, which is of an imposing design, is a credit to all concerned and fulfils a long-cherished wish in the area.

TOTAL PURSE

Work on the new bridge is proceeding rapidly and most of the huge castings, which will hold the bridge supports have now been sunk in the river bed. It is of interest to note that work is well ahead of schedule—a fact which reflects great credit on the contractors and their staff.

proprietary branding fluids thereby making the wool unwashable. It we are to produce and market our wool to the best advantage this practice must stop.

We have the material, if only we handle it in the proper way and put it on the market as we should. If the following points are kept in mind when shearing they should be no difficulty in producing clean wool, thus commanding the highest price.

- (1) All daggings and deleterious matter to be removed prior to shearing.
(2) Past sheep for two hours before shearing.
(3) Make sure the fleece is absolutely dry.
(4) The site for shearing should be a dry one a wooden platform, a clean concrete floor, or a tarpaulin. A handy platform is a hay bogey let into the groundy digging a hole for the wheels to bring it to ground level. A door placed across the shafts can act as a table for dressing and wrapping the fleece.
(5) Remove all foreign matter including any dags that may have formed since washing.
(6) Roll and the fleeces securely and do not use twine or cord of any description. Remember that a fleece has to be handled at least six times before it reaches the Manufacturer.
(7) Keep all loose or broken wool clean. Pack it separately from the fleece wool. This will be purchased separately.
Let us, this year, make an all out effort to produce clean, well tied, fleeces, that will give our Irish sheepmen a name on the world market, as producers of the highest grade wool—a name which they have lost.

IRISH MARKETING BOARD

The Advisory Committee on the Marketing of Agricultural Produce, under the chairmanship of the President of the N.F.A., Dr. Sean Greene, issued its recommendations to the Government, about 18 months ago. Priority of place in the recommendations was given to the necessity for the establishment of marketing boards.

The first such Board to be established, under the direction of the Government, will be the Board for the Marketing of the Highest Grade Wool—name which they have lost.

Members participating will be asked to submit a signed declaration to the buyer immediately before his wool is opened, stating that it is free from tar, daggings and sundries. Once more, we would remind sheep men that whereas in past years, our main offence was the use of pitch and tar for branding, a major source of discontent at the moment is the practice of adding oils to

SOMETHING AT LAST

The record of the Agricultural Credit Corporation of Ireland has not been an enviable one. To put it bluntly, it has let the Irish farmer down. Its terms of reference might have been narrow. Even its handling of farmers' problems was still more narrowly brought before the Government. The N.F.A. has persistent and public eye; the critical problem of credit, where agriculture was concerned, it has made a thorough study of credit facilities in Ireland and as a result, has made recommendations to the Minister concerned. Now the text of a new Credit Bill has been issued.

The N.F.A. Oireachtas Committee has begun a detailed study of its contents. Their findings will be made public in the near future. Meanwhile, it would appear from a preliminary examination of the Bill, that many of the points recommended by the Committee have been accepted by the Minister for Finance and Agriculture and senior officials of these Departments.

This is something at last. We have recommended a completely new credit institution should be substituted for the existing Agricultural Credit Corporation Limited, if only because of the antipathy which farmers feel towards the present body.

This antipathy has resulted from the lack of vision and initiative shown by the Corporation in the past. Indeed, it seemed a time to be impossible of grasping the importance of simple, but frequently experience. There is a constant cry for greater agricultural development. It is sad that there has not been a correspondingly loud cry for capital, the lack of which has hampered development more than anything else with.

The new Bill offers great scope to the Corporation. It also implies that many of the irksome regulations that are presently attached to the setting of loans, will be done away with.

The Gilmore report envisaged a gradual transformation of the Corporation from ministerial to farmer control. Only thus will its maximum value be realised. The N.F.A. will continue to press the Minister for Finance, in the hope that this might soon be brought about.

on the N.F.A. National Dairy Committee

With his knowledge of the business, from both practical experience and theoretical knowledge, Mr. Leahy deserves the support of Milk Producers who supply milk to the Dairy Disposal Board creameries.

MAKE THE MOST OF THAT GRASS

The N.F.A. National Live-stock Committee would like to remind farmers, that in the period April to November, an animal can put on three to four cwt. on grass alone. Each cwt. from grass will cost about 22. where as cwt. gain due to winter feeding, will cost around £8.

A recent survey claims that unless you intend reaching a stocking rate of at least 1.8 heads per acre, no extra advantage is gained by putting on a higher application of fertilizer. On the other hand experiments have shown conclusively, that it definitely pays to use high fertilizer rates, when the stocking rate is high also.

ANOTHER STEP BACKWARDS

Country after country seems to be marching forward. This applies particularly to European countries. Things have never been as good for them, as they are now. Their economies are buoyant and in the search for greater prosperity, they continue to join together.

Ireland alone seems content to lag behind, or so it would appear, at least at Government level.

Finland has now joined the Outer Seven and Greece has taken the first step towards membership of the Common Market, by an agreement signed in Brussels last week. She has obtained valuable concessions for her principle agricultural exports, leaf tobacco and currants.

Under the agreement, new Greek industries will be protected over a 22 year period, from Common Market competition. Greek exporters will immediately benefit, because their goods will now be entering Common Market, at 40% below the basic rates. It is extraordinary that the agreement has not been written up more in Irish papers. Greece has been able to obtain very favourable terms. Indeed, she is being given longer to adjust her industry than the Irish Government requested in the Free Trade Area negotiations. There is a moral in this for us.

Big Kerry Contract for Vocational Committee

The prominent local firm of ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING SERVICES, Main St., Dungarvan, owned by Mr. Tadg Moloney, has secured a very big contract job in County Kerry.

SPECIALISTS SELECTED

Even though their tender was not the lowest of the seven received, Electrical Engineering Services, Dungarvan, was selected to carry out the complete electrical installation work on a new milk pasteurising and highly modern cheese processing plant which is currently being erected in Killarney. They were chosen for this big job due to the fact that they are specialists in the electrical installation work connected with large firms, and creameries, and conduct an enormous business in the field of industrial electrical installation.

"WE WANT RELIABILITY"

When approached by the management of the new Kerry factory, Mr. Tadg Moloney, already handling a very full work programme on maintenance contracts in County Waterford and surrounding counties, quoted a high figure thinking thereby to by-pass the job. He was told "we want reliability and want your firm to undertake the job." So he engaged extra technicians and got to work.

ANY JOB—BIG OR SMALL

Mr. Moloney told the "Observer" that his firm is fully geared to handle any job in the electrical line, either big or small. His staff are all fully-trained men in the various branches of the electrical trade and he employs all trade union labour.

Mr. Moloney said that the firm is fully equipped to handle any job in the electrical line, either big or small. His staff are all fully-trained men in the various branches of the electrical trade and he employs all trade union labour.

WELL AHEAD IN T.V.

It is obvious from the volume and variety of business being conducted by this enterprising Dungarvan firm that their claim of service and satisfaction is fully justified. They are well ahead in the television field and without waiting for the advent of Irish T.V., many customers throughout the county have had Tadg Moloney's T.V. experts install their sets and reports on satisfactory viewing have been received by the firm.

Still looking ahead, this progressive firm has purchased more spacious premises in town for workshops.

Mr. Tadg Moloney holds certificates for specialised courses in electrical and radio engineering at Crawford Technical Institute, Co. Wick Street, Dublin. He has also been trained in electric motor design at Brook Motors Ltd., Huddersfield and holds a Diploma in General Electrical Engineering. With his vast experience, no doubt, his many customers are assured of satisfaction and correct advice on electrical matters.

IMPORTATION OF FLOWERS, PLANTS SHRUBS, ETC.

Prospective importers of flowers, plants, vegetables, shrubs etc., are reminded that, before arranging for importation, they should apply to the Secretary, Department of Agriculture (Section 21), Dublin, for a licence required for this purpose under the Colorado Beetle Order, 1945, and the Foot and Mouth Disease (Importation of Plants) Order, 1952. Consignments imported without a licence or otherwise than in strict accordance with the conditions of a licence will be destroyed or returned to the sender.

The possibility of the accidental introduction of Colorado beetle in this country is greatest from April to September, when this very serious pest of the potato crop is active in several other countries. The danger lies in the fact that live beetles may be imported in plant material of any sort and the Department of Agriculture urges everybody who imports anything of this nature to examine it carefully immediately on its arrival. If any insect suspected of being a Colorado beetle is found, it should be sent in a safe container to the Department of Agriculture in Dublin.

The Colorado beetle is about two-fifths of an inch long, with a distinct black stripe on its back. The country on which the beetle grows is rather longer, has a humped back and is of a yellow or reddish yellow colour with no rows of black dots along its side. This insect in both the grub and adult stages is a dangerous parasite of the potato plant and it would become a serious menace if it managed to establish itself here.

The foregoing statement has been issued by the Government Information Bureau on behalf of the Department of Agriculture.

NEWS FROM WATERFORMENS ASSOCIATION IN LONDON

On the 22nd March at the well-known Seaview Hall, over 1,000 Waterford Boys and Girls and their friends really went to town to the music of The Royal Showband.

A stirring tribute was paid to this excellent band who were scheduled to appear at 9.30 p.m. and at 9.25 p.m. "Barrs" wet and dry were empty, all present were waiting on the floor when the band was introduced by Willie Barron, Vice-Chairman of the Association...

On the band's first appearance in the Gresham Rooms, London, all attendance records were broken, over 2,000 people from all parts of Ireland and London really enjoyed themselves. The Chairman, Hon. Secretary and Hon. Treasurer of the Association attended and renewed friendships with Eddie O'Sullivan and his colleagues together with their very efficient Manager, T. J. Byrne.

It is with regret we note that the visit of the Showband, which gave such pleasure and brief happiness to our exiles, should be marred by the bastardly and unwarranted attack on their property in which all equipment and personal effects were lost, and has been condemned by every decent Irishman and Irishwoman in London. The Association received many messages from prominent people in London condemning the outrage.

During the Blue Aces Showband tour of London, the Officers of the Association met and were welcomed by the Manager of the band—Billy Mulcahy. The band had a great reception in every London dance hall.

Rev. Fr. Michael Ryan, President of the Association, officiated as "sub-deacon" at the Midnight Mass on Easter Sunday. The Mass was televised by the B.B.C. from Our Lady of Willesden, N.W. 10. It was estimated that 20 million people watched the Mass. Plans for the annual dinner this year are now well in hand.

Mr. Ormonde is brother of Sean Ormonde, T.D., KilmacThomas, Jerry Ormonde, B.E. Chief Assistant Co. Engineer, Dungarvan, and Dick Ormonde, Co. Council Official, Lismore.

WEDDING BELLS

The marriage was solemnized at Ballyduff Parish Church recently between Mr. Vincent Byrne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Byrne, Ballinabranna, Co. Carlow, and Miss Mary Quessy, daughter of Mr. P. Quessy, Suncoff, Abbeyside, Dungarvan and the late Mrs. Quessy. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Fr. P. Roche, P.P., Abbeyside, assisted by Rev. J. Foley, O.S.A.

The bride, who was given away by her father, Mr. P. Quessy, was attended by Miss Dolores Quessy (sister), and the best man was Mr. Thomas McDonald. The reception was held at the Grand Hotel, Tralee, and the honeymoon is being spent in London.

SOCCER DIFFICULT TASKS FOR LOCAL CLUBS ON SUNDAY

Both Dungarvan Celtic and Abbeyside United are away from home in the Junior Soccer League on Sunday next, travelling to Carrick and KilmacThomas respectively.

The game at Carrick is a dress rehearsal for the Marconi Cup final which will be in Waterford in the near future. Celtic have yet to defeat Rovers on the Carrick pitch, and whilst the team itself is confident of victory, it will take of their very best to do so.

The Dungarvan XI will not be chosen until to-night (Friday), but so disappointing was the side in general on their last outing that a few changes are expected. However, a great boost to their morale is the return of Pat Walsh from England. This six-footer was the mainstay of the full-time previous to his emigration last year, and his presence on Sunday should strengthen the back-line greatly.

At KilmacThomas the home-club Cup final which will be in Waterford in the near future, who have already dropped valuable points to Dungarvan, and cannot afford to lose many more.

On home ground, however, Kilmac are a most difficult side to master and hard though United may try, their journey will, it feel, prove fruitless.

Presentation to Dungarvan Man

In view of his forthcoming transfer on promotion to Dublin, Mr. Wm. O'Toole, was presented with a set of Waterford cut sherry glasses and a tray by the Dungarvan Harbour Sailing Club of which Mr. O'Toole was the popular secretary. The presentation was made by Mr. B. Mulcahy who paid glowing tributes to the fine work done by Mr. O'Toole. Other speakers were Messrs. A. R. Farrell, Gerard Walsh and P. T. McCarthy. Mr. O'Toole suitably replied.

LAST SUNDAY'S

Championship Games The now almost customary first round championship shocks came fast and heavy on Sunday last when no less than three of the four fancied clubs bade adieu to their hopes of glory for the current year.

THE CHAMPIONS CRASH

Shock No. 1—The holders are out. Yes, Western and county minor hurling champions, Ballinacorney, relinquished both titles to rampant and surprisingly good Lismore side. This victory, surprising though it was, was fully merited and although the champions are now bemoaning their many first-half misses, there is no denying the fact that the Caherline town side were deserving winners in the general run of play.

The winners, whilst somewhat fortunate to have led by a goal at the interval, nevertheless gave the champions a lesson in how to take scoring chances. During those opening 30 minutes, Ballinacorney, with a territorial advantage had countless opportunities of scores but almost ungratefully wasted them. Lismore, however, with far less chances utilised every one of them to telling effect.

The second-half was undeniably Lismore's except for the closing minutes when Ballinacorney vainly tried to wipe out a six-point lead which the winners held right to the end.

To single out any individual on the Lismore team would be a gross injustice to the remainder of the side. This was a team effort—and a magnificent one at that. Now with the scalp of the champions tucked safely beneath their belts, they will take a deal of beating. To say Ballinacorney disappointed their supporters is an understatement. True, this year's side was hardly on a par with those of the last two years, but their exit without a worthwhile fight was totally unexpected.

On Sunday one factor of the side must absolutely be the major share of the blame—the attack. They had their share of chances but with the possible exception of Tobin, none of the remainder had a clue.

The defence was reasonably sound, with Linnane, Downing and Landers defending stoutly whilst Monie (Elite) made many five saves in goal. At midfield Jim Killy played a storming first-half but faded as the second half wore on. His partner, Jim Maher, tried valiantly throughout and was one of the stars of the game.

CAPOQUIN SURPRISE DUNGARVAN

Shock No. 2 was undoubtedly Dungarvan's eighth round defeat by Capouquin at Lismore. In my preview to the 14 I predicted a tough and closely fought struggle but truthfully expected Dungarvan to triumph. Furthermore, I considered the Old Boys side as having an outstanding chance of taking the Divisional title.

But on Sunday they had to bow before a Capouquin side that proved far superior in practically all departments. The game was won and lost in the opening half when the Cornerside side capitalised on every chance to turn over with a nine-point lead at the interval.

Whatever chance Dungarvan had at this stage (and believe me it was a slim one) of pulling the game out of this first all hope vanished shortly after the commencement with the retreat of John Moloney onto a narrow, one-injury. The Mass dig campaign to reduce the deficit by a point and did merit a certain degree of respect, but yet they were really looked capable of beating the opposition.

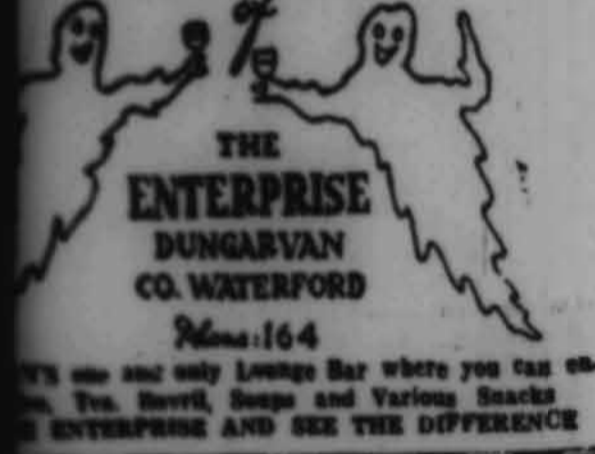

Several factors led a direct bearing on the final result, but the real one was unquestionably Capouquin's successful mission in keeping Dungarvan's "big guns" in check. Flavour the Bushed Linnane, Jim Walsh, Jim Dalton and Ray Linnane—usually the back-bone of the side were completely out of it and the policing of these players was undoubtedly the root of Dungarvan's troubles. Capouquin, on the other hand, struck a purple hour and every sector of the side rose to the occasion in splendid style. I'm sure I'll be forgiven if I single out P. T. Abner for special mention. This tall strapping young man wreaked havoc in the Dungarvan defence and accounted for the greater part of his side's 5-2. The Capouquin defence was rock solid and as a unit had little difficulty in subduing a

LAST SUNDAY'S Championship Games... The now almost customary first round championship shocks came fast and heavy on Sunday last when no less than three of the four fancied clubs bade adieu to their hopes of glory for the current year.

THE CHAMPIONS CRASH Shock No. 1.—The holders are out. Yes, Western and county minor hurling champions, Ballinacorney, relinquished both titles to rampant and surprisingly good Lismore side.

BALLYDUFF MARCH ON With only the first rounds played as yet, Ballyduff are already being hailed as the new Divisional minor hurling champions after their brilliant display when beating St. Laurence's (Mountmellick) by 6-2 to 1-0 at Lismore on Sunday.

They literally steam-rolled their way to victory on Sunday combining strength with no mean hurling skill. Leading 3-1 to 0-4 at the interval, they eased up on the resumption and yet were good enough to add a further 3-1 to their tally.

It was Tallow boys Shamie Flynn and Eddie Cunningham who really dominated this game. Right through the hour they reigned supreme and despite the numerous unavailing switches by St. Laurence's. Best for the losers were McCarthy at full-back, Benny Walsh and Brazil in goal.

On Sunday one sector of the side must shoulder the major share of the blame—the attack. They had their share of chances but with the possible exception of Flynn, none of the remainder "had a clue."

At the same venue, Abbey-side had a surprisingly easy 6-8 to 0-1 victory over Kilsobinet. From the outset the visitors were completely on top and after leading by 3-4 to 0-0 at the interval, coasted to a clear-cut victory. Outstanding for the winners were, Mick Bennock, at centre-back, Liam Enright and Tony McCarthy.

As expected, Tipperary qualified to meet Waterford in the quarter-final on May 7th, with a comfortable 6-0 to 1-7 victory over Limerick at the "Mill Road" on Sunday last. Few reports Tipperary seemed to turn in a really power-packed display, and the final will surely provide spectators with a memorable game.

Incidentally, I cannot agree with the comments of another sports-writer (in Waterford paper) when he says Tipperary people consider the league final as a mere formality. Nothing could be further from the truth. I know, as I've intermingled with them recently. To be sure they are confident, but not cocky. They realize the task confronting them, and respect this Waterford challenge. Only fools would consider a game with the present Waterford side "a mere formality."

As a result of another "Antrim" hurling representative from the North, made the long journey to Waterford for last Sunday's league tie, but they went under by 7-12 to 2-1. As always, however, they fought to the last and the crowd's carolous appreciation of their efforts judging by the huge ovation they received at the close.

This was a useful try-out for Waterford and regulars and newcomers all shined splendidly.

Remand in Murder Charge Twenty-two years old farm labourer, Michael Langford, of Church Street, Lismore, who is charged with the murder of 64-year-old farmer, Sean O'Farrell, Ashbourne House, Lismore, made a brief appearance at District Court on Tuesday last.

He was remanded in custody to Tipperary Court on April 18. Supt. Costello, Dungarvan, said he would probably there be in a position to announce a date for the taking of depositions.

Several factors had a direct bearing on the final result, but the real one was unquestionably Capponquin's successful mission in keeping Dungarvan's "big guns" in check. Players like Michael Lewis, Jim Walsh, Jim Dalton and Ben Long—usually the back-bone of the side—were completely out of it and the policing of these players was undoubtedly the most of Dungarvan's troubles.

On the other hand, struck a purple hour and every sector of the side rose to the occasion in splendid style. I'm sure I'll be forgiven if I xiairle out Peter Abvare for straggling counter-attack, wrecked havoc in the Dungarvan defence, and accounted for the greater part of his side's 5-3.

The Capponquin defence was neck solid and at a unit had little difficulty in subduing a

Good Racing At Killosera

DUNGARVAN Harriers' Point-to-point fixture on Monday last, postponed from early in the season, was a very successful event and justified the committee's wisdom in seeking a later date.

Arrangements were in ample order, thanks to the efficiency of secretary Messrs. A. V. Maher and D. Spratt and a hard working committee. A very heavy shower just before racing and a couple during the afternoon spoiled what would otherwise have been a splendid outing.

The changes made at the venue kept the runners in easy view of racegoers throughout while the run itself was perfectly railed off.

Feature of the day was a double for the well-known Co. Wicklow amateur rider, John Francis Flood who took the two opening races on Cahill Fever and Mother Courage.

Mr. Flood's first winner was Cahill Fever, in the Open Farmers' race, which won readily by ten lengths from War Heroine. Mr. McLernon's mount made most of the running but after a couple of miles, Mr. Flood sent the favourite to the front for a good win.

Mr. Flood completed a quick double when he won the following race, the Open Maiden for the Jack Lynch Memorial Cup, on Mr. Con Tynan's Mother Courage, which was left in front when the favourite Shill Rottelo, fell after two miles. Mr. McLernon's mount also made the running here but the winner was always handy and after the favourite's mishap went on to win easily from Caitlin Rusch by twenty lengths.

The Dungarvan Harriers' (Confined) race provided an exciting finish when Mr. M. Lenihan drove his own four-year-old mare, Etie II, up for a length win over the hard ridden Angler's hill, owned and ridden by Mr. M. Ronayne. Sheleen II made the running but over two miles when he was challenged by the winner and second, Etie II took the lead only over the last and raced on gamely to foil the efforts of Mr. Ronayne on Angler's Hill.

Most popular win of the day and perhaps the luckiest was Mr. John E. Kiely's, on his mother's horse, Tinnevoan, in the Open Heavyweight event. Sandow was made favourite here and when he raced, into the lead a few furlongs out and came to the last clear of Tinnevoan, the result looked a foregone conclusion. The favourite fell here, however, and then Tinnevoan went on to win by twenty lengths from Ill Chancet, which had made all the running for over two miles.

Mr. M. Sheehan's Castle Turret, twice a winner already this season, won the Open Lightweight race in a fine finish with Mr. J. Wade's Sweet Rock. The third runner, Barretstown II, made the running for a mile when it refused and caused Castle Turret to refuse also. Sweet Rock then going on. The other pair made up the difference in the next half mile and then Barretstown went on again. Castle Turret was always close behind and the favourite raced into the lead with two furlongs to jump. Sweet Rock then made her effort and in a time race to the post Mr. McLernon got the better of it on the favourite to win by three quarters of a length. Barretstown fell at the last.

Well-known Performers VISIT CLASHMORE Clashmore people will have an outstanding attraction on next Friday night (21st), for this will be the night of the long-awaited visit of the Old Parish Players to Clashmore. It is a long common knowledge that these Old Parish actors, together with their producer, Rev. V. de Paor, C.C., have, during the past few years distinguished themselves as the outstanding group in the county and one of the finest in the South of Ireland.

Of all their successes, this year's has been their outstanding achievement, acclaimed everywhere the show has been presented. So, we can count ourselves lucky to have the opportunity of seeing "While the Iron is Hot" (last comedy) and the uproariously funny "Preview of Live TV."

As the season is now drawing to a close, I have been informed that this may be the last appearance of the season of the Old Parish Players, so we can certainly look forward to something special in this performance. It is also worth noting that Padraig O'Mahony, who won all the acting awards during the past week at Ring Drama Festival, takes a leading part in this same play.

"While the Iron is Hot" gained merit marks at the Ring Festival, and was nominated to appear at the All-Ireland Drama Festival at Thurles.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir, May I draw attention to an error which appeared in my letter published in your issue of 1st April re rural water supplies.

A paragraph read: "... perhaps only half the rural population of this country could be linked up with such a supply (County Council Regional Schemes), though the cost to the country would be in the region of more than £2,000,000 over fifteen years."

In both cases the word "country" should have read "county" in Waterford. Of course, the cost for the country has been put at £2 million. I might add that Waterford County Engineers has mentioned an increase of between 4/10 to 6/10 on the rates if the Regional Schemes are adopted, while at present the Water Rate in Co. Waterford is 4/10 on the rateable valuation of buildings plus a charge for outside taps, roads etc.

Yours faithfully, BRIAN PEARCE, Hon. Treas. Waterford Co. Executive N.F.A.

BOXING NOTES

Tommy Sheehan's opponent did not turn up and he would have had no bout but Paddy Walsh of British Railways, who very sportingly took him on and quite a nice contest was the outcome which thoroughly satisfied the crowd.

Walsh boxed well in all three rounds but could not match Sheehan's harder punching and was beaten on points. Walsh was very fast and kept out of trouble mainly by clever defensive boxing and tried to rally in the final round, but Sheehan continued to press home his advantage and won against a very fractious opponent. J. Egan boxed very well to gain a well deserved decision over P. McDonnell of Gian, Cork.

KILROSSANTY'S CUP?

Waterford Completely on Top

Waterford hurlers, already assured of a place in the May League final, kept their 100 per cent record in the competition when they scored an easy 7-12 to 2-1 victory over Antrim in the concluding game at Walsh Park, Waterford, on Sunday last.

This victory was as easy as the final score suggested and had not Waterford visibly slackened off in their efforts in the second half, the North team would probably have suffered an even heavier defeat.

Only once during the hour did Antrim take the lead—1-0 to 0-3 (which incidentally raised one of the biggest cheers of the day) but this was only short-lived and the Waterford attack without over-exerting themselves scored freely.

For this game Waterford included non-regulars Mick Kelly, Freddie O'Brien, Mick Murphy, Mick Lacey and Mickey Murphy. Dempsey and Lacey formed a very effective half-forward partnership and Lacey in particular seems to be right back to his best form.

In the Waterford defence, Ned Power kept a safe goal, and Kelly, Flynn, Barron and Condon were all prominent.

Daniell Walsh with four goals took the main scoring honours in attack but Battle Foley, Deo and Frankie Walsh were also dangerous.

In 17-year-old goalkeeper, Russell McDonnell, however, Antrim produced the real star of this game. The youth came to the club with a big reputation and trained the home

AN AIR OF CONFIDENCE

I have spoken to many Brickey men — players and mentors alike during the past week and whilst they seemed to have a never-ending list of crowd to one of the finest displays of goalkeeping ever seen at the venue. Some of his saves bordered on the miraculous and he well deserved the huge ovation he received at the finish.

Orders to play well for the Glenmen were issued by McDonnell, the two Mullighans and Mullholland.

worries—injuries and otherwise, there can be no doubting the air of optimism and confidence presently shrouding their training camp. During the past fortnight, Bushy Park has been a hive of activity, testifying further to the seriousness with which they are approaching this tie. Revenge is uppermost in the minds of all concerned with the club, and they mean to exact it full measure.

But determined as these Brickey men may be, Kilrossanty are just as anxious to confirm their superiority over and Kilrossanty in a decider are as different as chalk and cheese.

WILL DONNELLY PLAY? But to give an outright forecast on Sunday's tie is a difficult problem. Rarely can I recall a game between these sides having such a wide open appearance. Scribes have little or nothing to go on. Adding to the frustration of it all is the fact that neither camp has yet spoken regarding the line outs.

The Brickey boys wonder whether or not Patsy Donnelly will play. Donnelly who served the club so brilliantly for well over a decade decided to call it a day after last year's county final. Now Club mentors have delayed their team selection in the hope that Patsy will reconsider his decision.

If Donnelly plays the Brickeys must have a real chance but without him the suspense of the defence will surely be one of the worries of John McKenna and his co-selectors. Kilrossanty, too, have their

AFTER WEEKS OF COMPARATIVE QUIETNESS IN WATERFORD FOOTBALLING CIRCLES, THE GAELIC SIGNPOSTS IN THE COUNTY UNMISTAKEABLY POINT TOWARDS DUNGARVAN'S FRAHER FIELD ON SUNDAY NEXT. FOR ON THE GREEN SWARD OF THE OLD BORO PITCH ANOTHER EPISODE IN THE KILROSSANTY-BRICKEY SAGA WILL TAKE PLACE. ON THIS OCCASION THE COVETED CHAMPIONSHIP IS NOT AT STAKE BUT THE VERY FACT THAT THE PHELAN CUP IS THE GLITTERING PRIZE FOR THE VICTORS, IS AN ALMOST CERTAIN ENSURTY THAT GENERAL INTEREST IN THE TIE WILL NOT DIMINISH.

To recall the last time these great rivals clashed is a simple task. November 13th, 1960, was the date — the day Kilrossanty blew sky-high the Brickeys' hopes of creating football history by winning their first-ever championship crown. The Comeragh men won by the narrowest of margins (1-3 to 0-5) and in my after-match report on the game, this is how I described it: "The phenomenal championship feats of Kilrossanty took a step further as they captured their ninth title. But to do so they had to draw on all their resources, for the Brickey challenge was one not easily disposed of, and even the most partisan of Kilrossanty supporters will freely admit that the wearers of the green and gold were somewhat fortunate to have prevailed."

Ever since that bleak November day the Brickey Club has thrived for the chance of revenge. Now on Sunday they are given their long awaited opportunity of reversing that championship result. And they aim to grasp it with both hands. Admittedly victory on Sunday will not be quite the same as a championship success, yet it will give some measure of compensation for their November defeat and add further to the contention of many that the better side were beaten in that epic decider.

JOHN WOODS... in the Brickey half-forward line.

their great rivals. They have an arduous training session behind them since their seminal victory over Mount Sion and should match the Rangers in the important aspect of fitness.

If one was to base an opinion on the probability of outcome on Kilrossanty's semi-final performance then few could hold out much hope of a Comeragh victory. On that occasion one found it almost impossible to credit that a Kilrossanty side could be so utterly inept.

Yet poor as that performance was, a series of circumstances tend to exaggerate it. Firstly, the side was having its initial outing since taking its ninth county title, and was obviously in dire need of match play.

The side was also something of a disjointed one which helped in no small way to drag it to the depths it descended to.

Can Kilrossanty have improved sufficiently in the interim to add this belated Phelan Cup to their collection? All along the Mahon-veined territory the answer to that is an emphatic yes. Personally (and being ever-mindful of how deplorably poor they were against Sion), Kilrossanty in a preliminary round majority of Sunday's side has played together regularly and their general approach and teamwork has been one of the main factors for many of their successes.

A LOT DEPENDS ON FENNER Sean Ormonde will be fronted by Tony Baldwin, Jimmy Maher and Tom Moloney. Much will depend however, on the performance of Mick Fenner at centre-back. In last year's county final Fenner gave a speculative display and he above anyone else was responsible for the Brickeys downfall. But the recent outing against Mount Sion showed the Kilrossanty man in a different light and such was his display that many immediately raised the query "was he finished?"

I, for one, would not subscribe to such a view — indeed he still remains one of the Comeragh sides big hopes, but he will have to show a vast improvement if he hopes to dominate the game to the same extent as in the November final.

In the Brickey attack Tom Foley may be placed at centre-half forward with Justin Spratt (if Donnelly is included) and J. Woods the probable wingers. If Liam O'Donnell plays he will occupy the full forward spot, whilst Pat Curran and Tom Spratt may flank him.

The probable outcome? General opinion seems to favour a Brickey victory. Yet, Kilrossanty, steeped in tradition, are a team so apt in a final, and so wise to the occasion, that it is a game in which I find it difficult to side with either team. But if I must, I'll give a hesitant vote to Kilrossanty. But a Brickey victory will come as no surprise for they have the ability to triumph. And finally who can rule out the possibilities of a draw.

BILL SPRATT... a solid Brickey Defender.

Completing the Kilrossanty defence will be "the young and the old"—the youthful Tom Walsh and near veteran but ever-green Jimineen Power.

Although troubled by a recurring leg injury, Pete Gough is expectedly sure of a mid-field berth and Michael Kirwan who played a blinder against Mount Sion is most likely to complete the partnership. With Billy Kirwan still "out of bounds," the attack is unlikely to show any radical changes. However, one must doubt the wisdom of playing Noel Kirwan on the "40". This lightly built forward could exploit his real potential far more effectively on the wings than in the rather confined centre-forward position. If mentors do switch Kirwan to left-half, then Denis B'gley could be moved to the centre with Colum Cunningham at right half.

Although not as mobile as of yore, veteran Jimmy Whyte will nevertheless need careful watching from the Brickey defenders, as will the opportunistic Kirwan and Rogie Connors.

With no news at all from the Brickey camp, one can only hazard a guess as to the probable line-out.

RELIABLE KEEPER Jack Donoghue is an experienced and reliable goalkeeper and will hardly let the side down. The usual full line of Bill Spratt, Mick MacCrae and Pat Walsh is expected to remain intact. The constitution of the half-line is the real problem. If Donnelly plays, John "Wick" Walsh may move to mid-field beside Patsy Murphy with Justin Spratt going to right-half forward instead of Mick Baker, now playing with Cashmore. That would leave room for Paul Kilgrew to fill Walsh's place at left-half. Needless to say, Pat Spratt is an automatic choice at right-half back.

KILROSSANTY — THE 1960 CHAMPIONS

and Kilrossanty in a decider are as different as chalk and cheese.

WILL DONNELLY PLAY? But to give an outright forecast on Sunday's tie is a difficult problem. Rarely can I recall a game between these sides having such a wide open appearance. Scribes have little or nothing to go on. Adding to the frustration of it all is the fact that neither camp has yet spoken regarding the line outs.

The Brickey boys wonder whether or not Patsy Donnelly will play. Donnelly who served the club so brilliantly for well over a decade decided to call it a day after last year's county final. Now Club mentors have delayed their team selection in the hope that Patsy will reconsider his decision.

If Donnelly plays the Brickeys must have a real chance but without him the suspense of the defence will surely be one of the worries of John McKenna and his co-selectors. Kilrossanty, too, have their
