Kilmacthomas News

Widespread Regret was occasioned on the death, which took place at the residence of her son, Mr. Roy Buckley, Bonmahon, following a period of falling health and at an advanced age of Mrs. Blanche Buckley, widow of the late Mr. T. R. Buckley, do.

Deceased lady, who was a member of a highly esteemed business family, was sister of the late Mr. Richard Watts, Bonmahon; she was a shining type, and her life was the outward expression of a beautiful mind and soul. No words could add to the lustre of her name, which will be remembered in all the homes of the once famous copper mining village.

Her remains were removed to the Protestant Church, Stradbally, and rested therein overnight. On the evening of Thursday, 11th inst. (Feast of the Ascension of Our Lord), the funeral took place to Knockmahon Cemetery, where Rev. Mr. Dunne, The Rectory, Stradbally, read the burial service.

The accompanying corteges on both occasions offered impressive tribute of the community's respect and sympathy. Universally Esteemed Mr. Michael Murphy, farmer, Ballyneale, Clones-Power, was highest bidder and declarer and purchaser of the fine residential holding known as "Tay Lodge" and situate midway between Leamybrien and the village of Kilrossanty, which was sold by public auction at the place on Thursday last week.

Top bid was £7,500 (plus the usual fees), which capped by £50 the par-ultimate one (voiced by Mr. Tom Murphy, cattle dealer and farmer, Graighthosen, Kilmacthomas).

Back From Hanover, Germany, are Messrs. E. Hill and P. Keating, who, as members of the Kilmacthomas Development Association had gone there to negotiate for a new industry for the Mahon-straddling town, and it is learned that their journey was worthwhile.

Indisposed and undergoing treatment at Ardkeen General Hospital, Waterford, is amiable Mr. Nicholas (Nicky) Flynn, vicar and professor, merchant, Main Street, Kilmacthomas, and his troops and legions of friends will fervently pray that he soon will be discharged fully fit and well, returning to his estimable wife and family and resuming at his flourishing business.

First Prize in the piano accordion test competed in at the latest Fleadh Ceol na Daise was won by a charmingly mannered Mahonside pupil of Colaiste Mhuire, Convent of Mercy, Dungarvan, in the person of Miss Monica Barron, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Monnie Barron (shopkeeper), Main St., Kilmacthomas.

By Instructions From Mr. and Mrs. Pat Flynn, a Certificate-on-Sale auctioneer will offer for sale by public auction on the premises on this day (Saturday) week, 27th inst., their interest and business goodwill as a going concern in their ideally situated business residential premises in Main St., Kilmacthomas, where at present and for a number of years past they have and are conducting a profitable remunerative drapery trade. Please see advertisement for full particulars.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

DEATH OF MRS. F. X. O'LEARY

The death took place, after a long illness, in the early hours of Friday, 18th inst., at her residence, Church Street, Cappoquin, of Mrs. F. X. O'Leary, nee Dunphy, she was a native of Tramore and a member of the teaching profession from which she retired three years ago. She began her teaching career at Castletown N.S. and subsequently held appointments at Camphire and Cappoquin and completed her service as Principal at Mount Mellary National School. A devoted language enthusiast, she was prominent in Gaelic League circles in her youth in Waterford city and for many years spent her vacations in Ring and Ardmore. In the latter centre she acted as bean-a-ti at Colaiste Deaglain during the courses for teachers.

At the Solemn Office and a Requiem Mass on Saturday morning the celebrant was Very Rev. J. Kennelly, P.P., Cappoquin, Rev. C. Daly, C.C., sub-deacon was Rev. T. Nugent, C.C., Ballinacree. In the choir were: Very Rev. J. Canon Murphy, P.P., V.F., Lismore; Very Rev. M. Hackett, J. Hally, P.P., Modelligo; Very Rev. T. Dunphy, P.P., Ballyduff Upper; Rev. D. Slattery, C.C., Lismore; Rev. M. O'Meara, C.C., Cappoquin; Rev. McSweeney, C.C., Sp.

The burial took place in St. Declan's Cemetery on Saturday afternoon, when clergy in attendance were: Very Rev. J. Kennelly, P.P.; Rev. M. O'Leary, C.C.; Rev. G. Power, C.C., Stradbally; Rev. C. Daly, C.C., Modelligo; Rev. R. Arthur, C.C., Ballybricken.

The immediate relatives include: F. X. O'Leary (husband); Rev. C. O'Leary, Arcata, California; Dermot O'Leary (son); Nicholas O'Leary (brother); Mrs. J. Leishmann, London; Mrs. Bertram, Australia (sister); David Leishmann (nephew). (Funeral arrangements by A. Walsh and Sons, Cappoquin.)

DEATH OF MR. H. BRIDGES

We announce with regret the death of Mr. Harry Bridges which took place in the Hospital, Lismore, on Saturday, 13th inst. The deceased, who was a native of Devon, first came to Cappoquin, when as a British soldier the unit in which he was serving was taking part in manoeuvres in this district in 1908. He liked the area so much that, when discharged from the army at the end of World War One, in which he was severely wounded, he settled here. Harry was a most popular figure and his passing has caused general sorrow. He was a great follower of coursing and an authority on all breeds of dogs. As a young man he was a prominent amateur boxer and his interest in the sport was so great that he thought nothing of crossing to Ireland to see big fights.

Many old friends were present when the interment took place in Old Affine on Saturday. The Very Rev. Dean Slattery of Lismore read the burial service. (Undertaking by A. Walsh and Sons, Cappoquin.)

SIX-MAN COMMITTEE FORMED

At Monday's meeting of the Co. Council in Dungarvan, the following six man committee was appointed to examine and report upon the application of the Vocational Education Committee for a grant of £25,000 for the provision of a new Technical School at Kilmacthomas: Cols. J. Drohan, W. Dower, N. Walsh, E. Walsh, J. Lannon, W. Forna.

HOLIDAY ENDS

Members of the Rowing Club will make a house-to-house collection on Saturday night, 20th inst., towards the Regatta Fund.

On Sunday last, His Lordship the Bishop, Most Rev. Dr. D. Cohan, D.D., administered the Sacrament of Confirmation to the children from the following schools: Convent and Boys N.S., Cappoquin; Tourin; Camphire and Mount Mellary. The sponsors were: Mr. J. Dennis, Mrs. McSweeney, Mrs. O'Gorman, Miss Dennis and Miss M. E. Morrissey. There was a very large congregation.

The annual May I.R.A. Memorial (Ceapach Chluin) Cell was held in the Boat House, on Sunday night, May 14th, and despite numerous counter attractions, drew a record attendance. The music by the Tramore Cell Showband kept the dancers in full swing from start to finish. Mr. T. Lincoln, Hon. Secretary, thanked those present for their constant support of all their functions.

The annual Requiem High Mass for Liam Lynch and his comrades was sung in Mount Mellary Abbey on Sunday, 14th inst., at 11 a.m. Veterans of the War of Independence from all over Ireland were present. The Celebrant of the Mass was Rev. Fr. Celestine; Rev. Fr. Gabriel, deacon; and Rev. Fr. Hilary, sub-deacon.

After the Mass those present were entertained to breakfast by the community. In the absence of the Lord Abbot, Dom Pinbar, Rev. Fr. Conath welcomed those present and gave a very inspiring address in Irish and English. In his address he spoke of the "Downfall of the Irish as Kinsale" and of the various revolutionary movements to 1916. He quoted extensively from writing of Joseph Mary Plunkett and reminded those who can inflict most but those who can endure most will finally conquer." In his concluding words he said he was glad to be addressing a privileged body of men who brought our country to its present proud position which it holds in the world today.

In the absence of Mr. Pax Whelan who had to leave immediately after the Mass, Mr. T. Lincoln, Hon. Sec. of the Memorial Committee thanked the Lord Abbot and Community of Mt. Mellary for the wonderful privilege they had given their year after year to have the Mass celebrated in Mount Mellary on the slopes of the Knockmealdown Mountains, where Liam Lynch fell mortally wounded 38 years ago. Mr. Lincoln referred to the public campaign which is being carried on at present to bring us back to the "British Commonwealth" and was loudly applauded when he said that while the spirit of those who suffered and endured in the War of Independence was alive in the country there was no danger of going back "heads up" into the Commonwealth. In reply Mr. Lincoln thanked Fr. Celestine for his assurance that those attending would always have a "five falter" so Mt. Mellary.

Mr. T. Lincoln, Hon. Treasurer, speaking among his old comrades in the grounds afterwards thanked them for their wonderful support which makes the re-union so successful. His short holiday over, Mr. Joe O'Donnell left Shannon on Friday.

GUERRILLA DAYS IN IRELAND
by Comdt. General Tom Barry...
For excitement, tension and action-filled episode, "Guerrilla Days in Ireland" must rank among the greatest first-hand stories of men and deeds anywhere in the world. Crossbarry, Touraneena, Kilmac' - the names mean action, highlights in the action-filled days of the men of the column.
It is the quiet, factual, fantastic account given by the guerrilla leader himself. Although modest and self-effacing in his narrative, Barry's brilliance as a guerrilla leader shines through this outline story. Resisting to his twelfth, he pitted his wife and initiative against a vastly superior and heavily equipped enemy - and won. Tom Barry's book, one of the most thrilling books in Irish history...

SALMON FISHING
The salmon net season, now in its 16th week, can well be described as being as good as living memory. Week after week only a few odd salmon are being taken by nets and we're, and, in fact, there are some boats that have not taken a single fish for the past three weeks. This is indeed a great hardship for the many net fishermen and their families, who have to depend on fishing for a livelihood. According to reports, the scarcity of salmon this year is universal and many fishermen have given it up as a bad job and procured work ashore. So far the peale have not made their appearance in Youghal and its surrounding districts and it is hoped that they will be vast improvement on the salmon, so that fishermen may be compensated in some small way for their arduous work during the season.

SEA ANGLING COMPETITION
Local sea anglers are busy for the past week getting their crabs and gear ready for the first of five sea angling competitions to be held on Sunday next, sponsored by the Youghal Sea Anglers Association who selected an outstanding programme for this year's competitions. The anglers will leave the Market Dock on Sunday at 3 p.m., returning at 7.30 p.m., the prizes being: Trophy for the heaviest individual catch (presented by Mrs. C. Ledingham Gowan); prize for the heaviest single fish (presented by Mr. P. J. Dennehy); prize for the second heaviest catch (presented by Mr. James Doyle); and Club prize for the greatest number of bass and pollock. As obtained last year, the Blackwater Hatchery Committee is presenting a valuable cup for the greatest number of bass taken by any one angler for the months of May and June. The second competition will take place during the season on dates to be announced later.

DEATH OF WELL KNOWN PERSONALITY
It is with deep regret that we announce the sad death of a well known member of the community in the person of Mr. Daniel McCarthy, which took place at his residence 27 North Main Street, Youghal, after a prolonged period of illness. A member of an old established Youghal family, the deceased was a universal favourite in the town and surrounding districts, where he conducted a progressive liquor business area, where he had the reputation of a kind and gentle neighbour. To his widow, son, brother and two sisters (Sister Mary Theresa of Birmingham and Sister Mary Angela, of Exeter), sincere sympathy is extended. The remains were removed to St. Mary's Parish Church from where the funeral, which was both large and representative took place to North Abbey Cemetery after Solemn Requiem Mass.

DANCE HALL ROW - SENTENCE
At Youghal District Court, two brothers, T. P. Ring and James Ring of Youghal were charged with common assault at a dance hall, and as a result a man named Michael Foley of Killeagh was struck with a drinking glass. Supt. Flanagan prosecuted and Mr. E. P. Finn, Solicitor, defended. After evidence being heard, Thomas P. Ring was convicted and ordered to be imprisoned for three months, not to be enforced if he kept the peace and be of good behaviour for 12 months and his brother was bound to keep the peace for twelve months, and ordered to enter into a personal bond of £20 to be of good behaviour.

YOUGHAL HOUSING NEEDS
The Youghal Urban District Council decided to hold a special meeting in Youghal, to which T.D.'s and local factory managers were to be invited to discuss the housing needs of the town. It was disclosed at the meeting that the Council can now erect 24 new houses at Dunne's Park and 12 at Tallool Street.

PROTEST AGAINST EXTENSION COBK CITY BOUNDARY
At a meeting of the Youghal Fianna Fail Cumann, presided over by Mr. S. Brogan, B.L.M.C.C., a resolution was passed unanimously on the proposition of Mr. S. Forrest, seconded by Mr. P. Cooney, protesting against the proposed extension of the Cork City boundary, which would impose much hardship to all sections of the community, particularly those of marginal incomes.

NEW WATER AND SEWERAGE SCHEMES
The Minister for Local Government has sanctioned the raising of a loan of £45,000 for a new water supply extension including a water level recorder for Youghal. At a recent meeting of the Council the deed of mortgage for the loan was executed, and tenders for the work were submitted to the Consultant Engineer. The cost of the new sewerage, costing £20,000 has already started under a Dublin contractor, who, in order to expedite the work, is using latest trench cutting machinery, and laying long lengths of pipe. Thus he open trenches will be deep and laying long lengths of pipe, ensuring there will be no hold up in the summer traffic, and will obviate the necessity for diversion of traffic.

To be stopped at gunpoint and searched without ceremony was an everyday experience for civilians in the 1916-23 period. For a man to have his hands in his pockets was an invitation to be fired on without warning. These were Guerrilla days when Tom Barry and his men were hitting the enemy hard and keeping their nerves stretched to breaking point in West Cork. The story of Tom Barry's Guerrilla Days, which ranks among the greatest first-hand stories of men and deeds, will be serialised in THE SUNDAY PRESS, starting next Sunday.

The fortnightly meeting of the above club was held on Monday week last, at the Vocational School Cappoquin. The President, Mr. Paddy Fives, presided. Again the main item on the agenda was the youths project schemes which met with many inquiries. Following a lively discussion several boys and girls entered for various competitions as listed - calf rearing, pig rearing arts and crafts and gardening. The closing date, with the exception of the arts and crafts, is May 15th. Teams were selected to represent the club at Dungourney and Tallow field days.

£4,000 To Be Spent on Courthouse

Mr. J. D. Hally, Co. Engineer, asked members of Waterford Co. Council at their meeting in Dungarvan on Monday last to consider the borrowing of a loan of four or five thousand pounds to renovate the Courthouse.

Mr. Hally said £200 was provided for the re-roofing of the Courthouse in the estimate. When the roof was taken off, however, it was in a worse condition than thought at first and this would give them the opportunity of doing a right job on the building. To do a proper job he thought £4,000 or £5,000 was needed.

Colr. Faly: Do we get anything from the Department of Justice for its upkeep?

Mr. J. G. Dowling (County Secretary): No. The local Authority will have to look after it.

Mr. Hally said £400 or £500 extra was needed this year to complete the roof.

Colr. N. Walsh said he'd hesitate before agreeing to spend so much money on the building.

Deputy Kynoe said it was pointless doing half the job.

Mr. Hally said if they accepted the suggestion, one or two members could come along and make any other suggestions they thought fit.

Colr. Carras: I'm sure we'll all agree the place is very bad.

Mr. Hally: I won't spend any more than I have to.

Colr. F. Roche said it would be money well spent to provide a proper place for the Council to meet.

A resolution that they approve in principle of the spending of £4,000 on the Courthouse and the borrowing of that sum was proposed.

Colr. N. Walsh proposed a direct amendment.

Deputy Kynoe: You're fine fellows. Before you were all waving your hands about the roof, you were all waving your hands about the roof.

Colr. Galley said he once had a dollar building what they gave money to schools, hospitals etc. They should wave of it for their own comfort.

A vote was taken and the motion was passed in principle by 19 votes to 5. Colr. Quirke abstained from voting.

PLAYERS' FILM IN COLOUR

Players receive so many enquiries on how their cigarettes are made, and made so good, that it was decided to entrust to Rex Roberts Studio, Ltd. Dublin, the making of a film enabling many of these questions to be answered. It being possible only for a small proportion of those people who are interested to visit the Factory, particularly those living in country districts.

Mr. Rex Roberts and his highly skilled technicians have made a film, which in every way can bear comparison with similar films produced elsewhere. The commentator is Mr. Denis Bannan well known to Radio Eireann listeners.

The film sets out to show why Player's taste better.

Player's always in forefront of technical development illustrate in this thirty minute colour film just how Player's are made in their up-to-date Factory at Glasnevin, Dublin.

The history of the Player's cigarette is traced from the time the seed bed is prepared in North America, through the stages of growth and cultivation of the leaf, and shipment direct to Dublin in an Irish Ship.

The excellent facilities provided by the Dublin Port and Docks Board for storage of the tobacco in Bond until required by the Factory are given special mention, with illustrations, and the leaf is then followed through all the careful and up-to-date process of manufacture in the various Departments of the Factory.

The pure Virginia tobacco emerges eventually in the form of Player's cigarettes, millions upon millions of them finding their way to many thousands of shops all over the country.

The film ends with typical views of Irish life, in which the smoking of Player's cigarettes forms part of the normal picture.

The intention is to organize film shows in many parts of the country, to which the public will be invited. The Player's film will form part of the performance.

Copies of the film are available on loan for showing publicly or privately by organisations and bodies or groups. The film is in 16 mm size and will not be shown in Cinemas.

Delay in Water Scheme Criticised

I WANT it put on record that I am not to be blamed. I don't want unsigned letters to the Press. People should know their gladly answer them. This was stated by Colr. N. Walsh, at last Monday's County Council meeting in Dungarvan when members discussed the delay in the Affane-Tourin Water scheme.

Colr. H. R. Dowd first asked the reason for the appalling delay and what steps had been taken to speed it up.

Colr. Engineer (Mr. J. D. Hally) said they were waiting for the plans from the consulting Engineer.

Colr. N. Walsh: It that the only cause of the delay.

Mr. Hally: Yes.

Colr. Walsh: I hope the local representatives are being blamed.

Colr. Carras (Chairman): Unjust remarks have been passed against the local representatives. I assure you they have done all they can.

Colr. Walsh: I don't mind being blamed in the wrong, but we have done everything we can to speed up this scheme.

Mr. J. D. Hally said they had also tried to get the plans but it was difficult to "get hold" of the Consultant Engineer.

Colr. J. Quirke: Could we get rid of him?

Mr. Hally: "I have told him if he doesn't submit the plans by a specific date, the agreement will be terminated."

Colr. H. R. Dowd said the delay was not the fault of any public representative or the Co. Engineer, but it was the fault of the Consultant Engineer. He suggested that if necessary to dispense with the consulting engineer and start off the work for which he was not required.

In reply, Mr. Hally said the majority of the preliminary work was done.

Colr. N. Walsh: There are a few doubting Thomases up my way. This letter writing to the press is not right.

(We would like to point out here that no letters relating to this water scheme were published in the paper.)

Colr. Dowd: The need for this scheme is so great that there's bound to be exaggeration over the delay. I don't wonder at all that this situation has arisen.

Colr. Carras: The statements made are untrue, and are doing more harm than good.

Colr. Hally: I agree wholeheartedly. We tried to have this scheme included with the major one and the Department refused. I think the responsibility lies entirely with the Department.

Colr. Quirke: If we could do away with consultants it would be a good thing for the ratepayers.

Colr. Madder: What pressure has been brought to bear on the consulting engineer?

Colr. W. Foran asked why there was so much confusion between the Council's men and the consulting engineer.

In reply, Colr. N. Walsh, Mr. Hally (Co. Engineer) said the main scheme was proved successful during the summer of 1959 and a guarantee was given that the extension would go ahead almost immediately.

Colr. Walsh went on to say that in 1959/60 the Minister for Local Government Mr. T. Blaney, introduced a scheme for the extension of Water Supplies to all rural areas and asked all local authorities to have a survey made in rural areas in all counties. The Co. Engineer took a view to dovetail the Affane-Tourin extension into the general survey he was making. Local members felt that this would delay the Affane Scheme and that they were entitled to go ahead with it. They forced the Co. Engineer's hand and beat him on the matter. They got the necessary permission from the Minister to go ahead with the Scheme and the Co. Engineer accepted it.

After further discussion the following resolution was passed: "That we, the members of Waterford Co. Council recommend to the County Manager that Mr. McNamara (Consulting Engineer) appear before the next meeting of the Council to explain the delay in the submitting of plans for the Affane-Tourin Water Scheme."

Minor Football Narrow Victory

Waterford 3-2 Tipperary

The County's minor footballers helped to lighten the play of the gloom which shrouded Dungarvan on Sunday last when, in the opening tie of the two-game programme, they scored a narrow 3-2 to 0-2 victory over Tipperary in the first round of the Munster Championships.

Though naturally elated at a Decies victory, Burke's half-forward contingent could not have been completely satisfied at the side's display, in fact neither side looked impressive and only the thrilling climax helped to raise the game from the mediocrity in which it languished for most of the hour.

All through the standard of football was disappointing and the closeness of the scoring kept interest so intensified in the proceedings.

Tipperary mentors will, I imagine, forever berate the many chances squandered in the closing quarter, when they literally encamped in the Waterford half. Minutes from time full-forward Burke had a goal disallowed, but apart from this, the losers had many chances to save the game.

SAFE KEEPING

Goalkeeper Peter C'otty gave a top-class display and kept his goal intact throughout. Eddie Halpin was the outstanding figure in the out-back line, whilst John O'Brien and a lesser extent Wally O'Connor were others in class in defence.

The mid-field duels broke about even. Bernie Power was an inspiring captain but Jim Byrne's had one of his poorest ever games and was replaced early in the second half.

Up front, main honours must go to J. Martin, whose brace of goals in the first half proved the turning point of the game. Eddie Quinn was a constant danger to the Tipperary defence and Tom Walsh, particularly when moved o' mid-field, and Brendan Davy were others to impress. Mick Byrne, who replaced Eddie Byrne as second striker, was well worth watching in the attack.

What of Tipperary? Although unlucky not to have got another hit at the cherry, they have no one but themselves to blame for defeat.

Mick McCormick, Tom Delany and Billy Nolan were best in defence, and both mid-fielders, Delaney and Moran had their moments of prominence.

CHAMPIONS DEFEND

ON SUNDAY the Gaelic football championship was defended by the champions of the previous year, the Dungarvan team, who were defeated by the Ballygunner team in the opening round.

The game had a "cut and dried" appearance from the start, the Ballygunner team being the favourites to win. In every sector they were better balanced than the Gall Tír in the opening round.

In recent weeks they have been engaged in Phelan and Gordon Cup finals and the benefit derived from these games should stand to them on Sunday.

Their camp is also fortunate enough in being completely injury free. Not so with Gall Tír. Inter-county man Marcus Donaghy, who was the hope of the Eastern Club, has been a victim of mumps and although expected to play can hardly be as effective as usual.

Nevertheless the side has trained seriously for Sunday's test and are determined (and confident) of upsetting the odds.

Any side containing footballers of the ability of Mick Pender, Michael, Tommy and Noel Kirwan, Sean O'Riordan, Jimmy Maher, Tom Walsh, Pius Power and Peter Gough must be a powerful one and it gives the champions a confident vote to account for this Gall Tír challenge.

At the same venue, De La Salle and Glenties also meet in the first round of the senior championship and although De La Salle are not the power of three years ago, they should be good enough to master this practically unknown group side.

MINOR HURLERS TRAVEL TO MEET LIMERICK. The County's minor hurlers will be endeavouring to emulate the first round winning feat of their football counterparts on Sunday next at the Bunn Road, Limerick, when they play the Shamrocks in the first round of the Munster Championships.

In past years Limerick has been hailed for the quality of its minor hurling sides and should be well up to the standard of former years. If so, the County's task is a difficult one, personally I feel more hopeful than confident about the outcome.

Affairs in the County are being handled by the selectors finally decided on the side which they will give the County a chance to win in the grade.

Three years now, Waterford has made progress in minor hurling and a first round defeat has almost become an annual affair.

Hope for the present side is based on a result of an eight-point victory over Kilkenny on Wednesday last and although the selectors were below full strength the Waterford boys showed up very well.

The defence has a solid appearance, but Liam Enright, who is placed at left-half back would be far more advantageous to the side at midfield.

The midfield pairing of Eddie Cunningham and Joe Long is rated one of the best vectors of the team but one must have doubts regarding the ability of the forwards to notch match-winning scores.

The Waterford line-up is: F. Walsh (Dungarvan); M. Cummins (Abbeyside); S. Walsh (De La Salle); M. O'Grath (Mount Sion); L. Enright (Abbeyside); P. O'Regan (Ballygunner); J. Cunningham (Ballyduff-Portlaur); V. Connors (Ballygunner); M. Foley (De La Salle); J. Kelly (Ballinacorney); J. Norris, C. Casey, The Square, Dungarvan.

SHAMROCKS ON TOP At the same venue last year's defeated Western finalists, Tourin, went under to Shamrocks by seven points.

The return of Tommy Geary was the deciding factor as his former Waterford players led the Tourin defence a merry dance. On this showing the Tallow side will take a deal of beating. Tourin, as always, fought gamely but were always fighting a losing battle.

Apart from Geary, the Shamrocks were best served by Frankie Corcoran, Sean Murphy (who is still a minor) and Tobin.

Best for Tourin were Wally and D. Dooney, Johnny Goodman and Neill Colender.

Billy McGrath was an able referee.

BALLYNAMEELA HAD EASY VICTORY. Ballinacorney score an easy 3-4 to 0-2 victory over a disappointing Cappoquin side in the minor football championship at Dungarvan last Wednesday week.

There was never any doubt as to the result and long before the end the only question to be solved was Ballinacorney's winning margin.

LAST SUNDAY'S GAMES Football followers who thronged Dungarvan on Sunday last must have been disappointed at the least display of the senior footballers. This display was inevitably poor and it must have been the heaviest defeat ever sustained at the hands of Tipp.

Some compensation was reaped by the success of the minors over the same county and these under eighteen have now qualified for the Munster semi-final.

There were no surprises at Waterford on Sunday and Abbeyside and Ballygunner duly advanced in the senior hurling championship. The Villagers were rarely in danger of defeat but the Rockies confounded everyone by their display against Ballygunner. Indeed had lady luck smiled on them then we could have been celebrating a Western double.

AT CAPPOQUIN. The replayed Geraldines-Affane junior hurling game provided a thrilling hour's hurling and the Geraldines deservedly prevailed by a four-point margin.

As in the drawn tie, the Aglish men made more of the early running but on this occasion had enough in reserve to hold on to their slender lead.

The big attendance which no doubt was swelled because of the prospect of a repeat of the drawn tie, made up another hectic hour. Both sides had improved immeasurably since their last meeting and if the winners always looked the superior side, none could rule out the possibility of an Affane victory.

The hurling may not have been classical but the toughness of the exchanges made up for the lack of quality. At times both sides threatened to get out of hand but after referee Billy McGrath saw fit to send Bunny Ronayne (Geraldines) and Dinny McGrath (Affane) to the line, the players were less anxious to "mix it".

The winners had outstanding performers in 'Daggy' Ronayne, unquestionably the man of the match, Jim Joe Landers, Mickey Downey, the Hallahans, Billy Crofty and Paddy Kennelly.

Abbeyside Advance - Rockies Make Unlucky Exit

WESTERN Clubs met with mixed fortune at Walsh Memorial Park, Waterford, on Sunday last when Abbeyside and Colligan Rockies set out in quest of this year's senior hurling championship crown. The Villagers scored a resounding 5-5 to 2-7 victory over Meaghers but the Rockies somewhat unluckily went under by 4-9 to 3-4 to Ballygunner.

Of the two, the Ballygunner-Colligan game was by far the best. The hurling was of a very high standard all through and if the 'Gunners were the more polished side, the Rockies made no small contribution to making this an enjoyable spectacle. Although defeat was their lot they can feel eminently pleased with their performance which proved that their rightful place is in senior ranks.

When one realises the fact that Colligan were 3-1 in arrears after ten minutes despite playing with the breeze one can fully appreciate the magnitude of the display of the Western side. The magnitude of their task at that stage seemed well beyond them and although that disastrous opening eventually proved that undoing their more than they held their own for the remainder of the game. Two of those early goals were absolute gifts from goalkeeper Paddy Fitzgerald and although he subsequently made many fine saves, must shoulder a certain share of the blame for defeat.

Under these circumstances the Rockies display was a creditable one and had not several second-half efforts been only narrowly off target the issue would have been much closer.

When the 'Gunners led by 4-3 to 1-4 at the interval after having faced the breeze in the opening half they were expected to coast to an easy victory.

But Colligan had other ideas and for long periods, were also in the lead. Their goalkeeping was a revelation. Dooney Flynn and Dick Whelan, flanking goalkeeper were always gangster.

John McGrath and Dan Barry formed a very successful midfield partnership and although they were not able to build up a nine-point lead and had sufficient in reserve to withstand Colligan's spirited second half rally.

Jim Phelan, 'Letter' Troy, Mick O'Keefe and John Warren were outstanding for Abbeyside and Mickey Walsh, Pat Tobin, Tom Byrnes and Garry Quinlan were best for the Rockies.

BALLYNAMEELA—S. Lee, P. Kennedy, F. O'Sullivan, J. Phelan, M. O'Keefe, P. Casey, J. Cummins, S. Curran, J. Cummins, J. Phelan, S. Phelan, P. Troy, J. Warren, M. Phelan, M. Troy, Colligan Rockies—F. Fitzgerald, J. Kelly, C. Power, C. Downey, P. Tobin, M. Walsh, M. Flynn.

Colligan Bow Before Mighty Brickey's

Brickey Rangers 5-4; Colligan Rockies 0-8

IRREFUTABLE proof that intent dedication to a task is an unqualified asset to a side was given at the Fraher Field, Dungarvan, on Thursday last, when Brickey Rangers, imbued with a rare determination to succeed almost unbelievably routed Colligan Rockies in the second round of the Sargent Cup by 5/4 to 0-8.

This result was a real turn-up for the books—a result that had Colligan men in a state of disbelief for some time. Yet surprise though the outcome was, there can be no denying the fact that on the hour the Brickeys were undoubtedly the superior side and richly deserved victory.

That this competition is secondary to the championship is a generally acknowledged fact, yet it is Brickey's side ever approached a championship contest in so serious a vein as they did for this clash with the Rockies.

For the Rangers this was the hour of reckoning, when memories of the disputatious championship game between the clubs in '59 could be quelled. And how splendidly they accepted this long awaited opportunity. From the moment referee Billy McGrath blew the whistle the winners did not seem to enjoy the game in motion the Brickeys set about their task.

After a quarter of an hour during which they firmly and convincingly dictated the trend of the game, they led by 2-2 to nil. At the interval the score stood at 2-2 to 0-4 and when the sides in hurling ability at that stage that not even the most partisan of Colligan supporters could feel too optimistic in the early half the Rockies tried gamely to save the game but against a Brickey defence that was without a weakness, their efforts failed.

The game, however, apart from the one-sided appearance of the score-board was an exciting one, brimful of good hurling. Over-enthusiasm led to early minor flares up and a 2nd half incident leading to an encroachment on the pitch was threatened to mar the game. Fortunately however, tempers subsided and the tie ended without any further untoward incidents.

The Brickeys adopted totally new tactics for this game. Last round hurling, which clearly upset the opposition. Each player had a mission—the of subduing an opponent and that they were successful in the final score.

The Rockies real trouble started at mid-field where Willie Terry and Justin Spratt were complete masters of the game. With their failure to exert their expected superiority in this vital sector the losers became a disorganised side and never moved with their usual precision and smoothness.

Colligan supporters may well ask what the result would have been had the usually reliable Paddy Fitzgerald hit his normal form. This could be verified for at least two of the Brickey goals. Yet not even these could have altered the final result.

SHEDS AND PATCHES The defence was one of sheds and patches and Mickey Walsh and Jack Kiely were the only ones to impress. Tom Byrnes and Paddy Kirwan were always fighting a losing battle at mid-field, whilst Jim Flynn and Garry Quinlan were the only ones to shine in attack.
