Waterford, the deceased was mother of Mr. M. J. O'Mahony, County Secretary to the Cork Co. Council. The late Mrs. O'Mahony was a member of a highly esteemed family and had many admirable qualities. His passing is deeply mourned over a wide area and deeper sympathy is extended to her two sons and two daughters. The funeral, which was both large and representative took place to Clashmore cemetery.

PLEASANT SURPRISE FOR YOUGHAL PRIEST

Two weeks ago when Rev. John A. Keogh of Youghal, while on a visit to his relatives in the U.S. arrived at St. Francis Xavier Church, to celebrate Holy Mass, he found that no altar boy was available. A member of the congregation volunteered to serve the Mass after which the "altar boy" introduced himself to Fr. Keogh as Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy, a brother of the U.S. President. Father Keogh who is for the English Missions, stated afterwards that "he felt honoured."

LATE MRS. NORA O'MAHONY

Deep regret was felt at the announcement of the sad and unexpected death of a well-known member of the community in the person of Mrs. Nora O'Mahony which took place at her residence Grattan Street, Youghal. Formerly of Dromore, Co. Waterford, she deceased was mother of Mr. M. J. O'Mahony, County Secretary to the Cork Co. Council. The late Mrs. O'Mahony was a member of a highly esteemed family and had many admirable qualities. His passing is deeply mourned over a wide area and deeper sympathy is extended to her two sons and two daughters. The funeral, which was both large and representative took place to Clashmore cemetery.

I.R.A. MEMORIAL CEILI

The annual holiday, cell in aid of the I.R.A. Memorial (Caspach Chulainn) was held in the Boathouse on Sunday night last and proved to be one of the largest and most enjoyable cellthe yet held under the auspices of the Memorial Committee. Patrons attended from South Tipperary, East Cork and West Waterford and the question on everybody's lips was "when are they holding the next cell?" Incidentally the next cell will be the "All Hallows' one" and the committee hope to introduce some novelty items appropriate to the season. The success of the cellthe and dance held in the Boathouse in recent years can be attributed to the functions sponsored by the I.R.A. Memorial Committee which brought back to the Boathouse the name it had some years ago of being one of the premier dance halls in the South of Ireland.

WEST WATERFORD NEWS

CLASHMORE DISAPPOINTMENT
To the great disappointment of their supporters, Clashmore failed to defeat Kilgobnet in the third round of the junior football championship on Sunday last. At no stage did the team reproduce the form shown in earlier games and many scoring chances were missed.

CO. CONGL OFFICIAL BEREAVED

The funeral took place to Clashmore cemetery of Mrs. N. Mahony, Grattan Street, Youghal. Deceased was mother of Mr. M. J. O'Mahony, Secretary, Cork Co. Council and was a native of Aghish. The attendance included members and officials of Cork and Waterford County Councils.

LATE MR. J. CONNERY, KINSALEBEG

The death took place at an advanced age of Mr. John Connery, Rath, Kinsalebeg. The funeral to Piltown Church was of large and representative proportions. Very Rev. D. Power, P.P., and Rev. M. J. Russell, C.C. officiated.

NEXT SUNDAY

A fancy dress parade and competition will be held at Clashmore on Sunday next under the auspices of the local Dramatic Class. The competitors will parade through the Village to the local G.S. where judging will take place.

ARDMORE SPORTS

N.A.C.A. Sports were held on Sunday last and the fixture was a great success from every point of view. There was a big number of competitors for each event, competition was very keen and there was a large attendance. The organisers are to be complimented on the success of their efforts.

LATE CATHERINE SCANLON

Main Street, Dungarvan
The death took place on Friday, August 11th at the District Hospital, Dungarvan, of Catherine Scanlon, after an illness of some duration. She was in the employment of Ring College for thirty three years where she acted as cook. She was well known in all parts of Ireland through her employment. Great sorrow is extended to her brother Edmond and to her sister Bridget, who resided at Kildangan Dungarvan and who are members of a very old Dungarvan family.

LATE MR. JOHN QUEALLY

Kilgobnet, Dungarvan
The death occurred on Friday, August 11th at his residence, Kilgobnet, of Mr. John Queally, after a rather short illness and at a comparatively early age. He was a general favourite in the district; being of a quiet and gentle disposition and a most industrious farmer.

The remains were removed on Saturday evening to Kilgobnet Parish Church followed by C.C. assisted by Very Rev. T. Power, P.P. Requiem Mass was offered for the repose of his gentle soul on Sunday morning and the interment took place immediately afterwards in the adjoining cemetery. Rev. Fr. Lacey, C.C., imparted the final absolution at the graveside, were present to pay their final respects and sympathies with his nearest and dearest. (Jas. Kiely & Sons, Shandon, had charge of funeral arrangements).

TALLOW NEWS

KNOCKANORE BREEDER TO THE FORE AT R.D.S.
Mr. Gaiway-Greer's War Galae, bred by Mr. John O'Neill, Knockanore, was reserve medium weight champion at Dublin Horse Show on Wednesday of last week. War Galae is by War Hero owned by Mr. W. Henley, Bridge St., Tallow.

PURCHASED A HORSE AT THE SHOW

Major E. P. Maxwell, Moorehill House, Tallow, purchased a bay gelding by Casador from Mr. Martin Cullinane at the Royal Dublin Society's Horse Show, for 410 gns.

ON HOLIDAYS

Spending a holiday in his native Tallow during the past week, was Mr. Patrick Hart, formerly of Old Road. He was accompanied by his wife and family. He is employed as chef at Shannon Airport. He served in the Defence Forces during the emergency. Possessed of a very fine voice, he was much sought after at concerts and get-togethers. He had the pleasure of hearing him sing one of his favourites during his holiday.

LEFT FOR ENGLAND

Mr. John Allen, Chapel St. left to take up employment in England on Thursday of last week. John was employed as assistant at Mr. D. Delany's Grocery Shop, Main Street. A most popular young man, we join in wishing him the best of luck across Channel.

YOUGHAL WEDDING

The wedding took place at St. Mary's Parish Church, Youghal, on Tuesday of last week. Mr. Noel Kennedy, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kennedy, Cork Hill, Youghal, and Miss Joan Cunningham, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Cunningham, Gortree, Youghal. The ceremony with Nuptial Mass and Pupal Blessing, was performed by Very Rev. Canon Sheehan, P.P., Youghal. The best man was Mr. Joseph Slattery, Church Street, and Miss Kathleen Hennessy, Creamore, was bridesmaid. The reception was held at the bride's home after which Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy left on their honeymoon, which was spent on a tour of Cork and Kerry.

TALLOW MAN WINS AT BOOLA SPORTS

Mr. Michael Prendergast, West Street, who is on holiday from the United States, won two events at Boola (Mellery) Sports recently. Due to a slight indisposition he was unable to compete at Youghal Sports on August Monday. Michael has competed at many track events in the United States.

THE SPIRE IS MISSED

Former Tallow residents now living in England miss the tall spire which surmounted the Parish Church The Spire, a local landmark, had to be removed this year owing to the fact that it had tilted badly and was in danger of collapsing onto the Church roof.

VISITORS GALORE

A considerable number of tourists are in this locality at present as well as a number of locals now domiciled in England.

THE HARVEST

Harvesting of the barley crop has started in this area and from reports to hand the yield is well above the average. The potato crop is one of the best ever both in quantity and quality.

BEST WILL

Mr. Michael O'Gorman, "Blida," Youghal, who died last January left estate in England and the Republic valued at £33,569 (duty paid £8,974). Gross value of the estate in the Republic £4,531. Probate has been granted to John Noel Ronayne Macnamara, Solr., Youghal, sole executor.

CLIFFORD LANDERS

A very pretty wedding with Nuptial Mass and Pupal Blessing was solemnised at St. Michael's Church, Glendine, recently by Rev. Fr. Leahy, L.S.S., S.T.L., Maynooth, assisted by Rev. Fr. Sean Nugent, C.C., Glendine, and Rev. Fr. Dwyer, C.C., Youghal, of John Finbar Clifford, only son of Mrs. and the late Stephen Clifford, Mountbell, Killeagh, and Ann Josephine Landers, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M.L. Landers, Cherrymount, Youghal. The bride who was given away by her father, wore a white ballerina frock of Wilch, craft lace and satin with head-dress of lily of the Valley and carried a bouquet of mixed roses. She was attended by her sister, Eileen, who wore a nylon frock and headress to match and carried a bouquet of mixed sweet pea. The reception was held at Lisnore Hotel where upwards of 50 guests attended. The honeymoon was spent on a tour of the South of Ireland.

GONE TO ENGLAND

Noel Allen, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. P. Allen, Ballymote, Tallow, left for England on Monday where he will take up employment. An extremely popular young man, we wish him the best of luck.

Unimpressive Abbeyside Qualify For Semi-Final

Abbeyside 2-14; Sarsfields 2-4

BY defeating Sarsfields by a ten-point margin at Dungarvan on Sunday last, Abbeyside qualified for a Sept. 10th meeting with county champions Mount Sion in the championship semi-final. But if their form of Sunday is any criterion then they cannot entertain high hopes of even extending the champions not to mention wresting their title from them.

Abbeyside defeat Sarsfields...

Sunday's game was one of the tamest it has been my displeasure to witness for many a long day. Neither side seemed to care a whit about the outcome and the youngsters on the embankment could be forgiven for starting the slow hand-clap—a form of disapproval which must be unique at the Dungarvan venue.

The standard of hurling was far from senior quality despite the favourable conditions. The pitch was in perfect order for spectators looked forward with confidence to a tip-top hour. But after the opening quarter it was all too obvious that the expected thrills would never materialise and not even the closeness of the scoring at that stage could stir the crowd from the silence into which they had been lulled.

Indeed never have I witnessed a game of such importance played with such little enthusiasm and the big attendance seemed to procure greater pleasure from the blazing sunshine than from the game itself. That Abbeyside were deserving winners is beyond dispute. They seemed far from safe at the interval when leading by a solitary point but left no doubt as to who were masters in a one-sided second half.

UNDERSTATEMENT

To say Sarsfields disappointed would be a gross understatement. For half the game they were within striking distance of the Villagers but when most was expected from them they faded into oblivion. They never produced the brand of hurling which ended Cappoquin's hopes and had they been opposed by a Village side of the 'mid fifties' would have suffered a humiliating defeat.

Despite the listlessness of the opening half, the interval position held out promise for an exciting finish. Abbeyside, backed by the breeze, only held a point advantage at the break (1-6 to 2-2) and this slender lead seemed totally insignificant in the circumstances. Sarsfields, however, failed miserably to capitalise on this interval position. Contrary to expectations, the side seemed obsessed with the idea that victory was beyond them and with a few exceptions literally accepted defeat from an early stage in the half.

IMPROVED

In the closing quarter, Abbeyside did improve considerably. Their attack notched points were rare fluency, yet by this stage the group side had accepted the inevitable and the winners' task was made all the easier.

Abbeyside took the lead within seconds of the start with a Johnny Hogan point. Whelan (free) and Pakie Hogan had like scores before Liam O'Dea pointed the first of his seventies after ten minutes. A period of sustained Sarsfields pressure was rewarded when Kelleher goaled and Paddy Kennedy levelled matters for the first time in the game with a point from a free in the 18th minute. Five minutes later the same player added a like score but O'Dea quickly negated it with his second pointed seventy. Three minutes from the interval the losers jumped into a goal lead through Jim Hallahan but Abbeyside with a point from a free by Barry and a goal by Mansfield led 1-6 to 2-2 at the break.

The winners almost completely monopolised the second half exchanges. Landers, Keohan and Whelan had points within five minutes before Kennedy and Whelan exchanged points. Whelan (2) and Mansfield tacked on further points and when Liam Enright goaled four minutes from the end the issue was put beyond doubt. Whelan pointed a free in the 28th minutes before Kelleher closed the scoring with Sarsfield point a minute later.

EMINENTLY SOUND

Thomas Hogan was never seriously tested in the Abbeyside goal but dealt capably with a few good scoring efforts during the game. Not Moore was eminently sound at left full-back but Austin Flynn often found the bustling Johnny Logan difficult to subdue.

Liam O'Dea was the shining light of an unimpressive half line, but neither Mick Kiely nor Noelle McGovern ever hit top form. Danny Ezzy played a lone hand at midfield as his partner John McGrath (except for the last quarter) was overshadowed by Paddy Kennedy. The original formation of the attack with Mansfield on the 'forty' and Donal Whelan top of the right was far from successful. Shortly before the interval they swapped berths and thereafter performed with far greater effectiveness. John Hogan was the real danger man to the Sarsfields' defence, however and proved an elusive handful for Mike Hallahan. A second-half switch saw him revert to defence where he also figured prominently.

NONE PLAYED BETTER

THAN CROTTY For Sarsfields Crotty played better than Billy Crotty in goal. Time and again he foiled the Abbeyside attack of goals and the two shots that passed him would have beaten most goalkeepers in the country.

Larry Curran never put a foot wrong at centre-back and he received greatest assistance from Bunny Ronayne and Stylo Riordan in defence. As always, Paddy Kennedy took the midfield honours, but only Michael Kelleher, Johnny Grady and Logan impressed in attack.

Scorers for Abbeyside were: D. Whelan (9-6); T. Mansfield (1-1); L. Enright (1-0); L. O'Dea (3-2); P. Hogan, D. Barry and M. Keenan (0-1); T. Landers (0-1); L. Hogan (0-1); M. Kelleher (1-1); J. Hallahan (1-0) and P. Kennedy (0-2) replied for the losers.

Abbeyside—T. Hogan; E. Moore; A. Flynn; J. Browne; N. McGovern; M. Kiely; L. O'Dea; J. McGrath; D. Barry; P. Hogan; T. Mansfield; T. Landers; J. Hogan; M. Keenan; D. Whelan. Sub—L. Enright for P. Hogan.

Sarsfields: B. Crotty (Goalkeeper); P. McCarthy (Ballinacree); B. Ronayne (C.); M. Hallahan (G.); Stylo Riordan (G.); L. Curran (B.); T. Meynolds (B.); B. Kallahan (G.); J. Grady (G.); P. Eiley (G.); M. Kelleher (B.); J. Hallahan (G.); J. Logan (G.); T. Browne (B.).

Kilgobinet Just Pip Clashmore

Kilgobinet 1-5; Clashmore 1-4

KILGOBINET, minus six regulars, created a major upset in the junior football championship at Dungarvan on Sunday last when defeating a fancied Clashmore side 1-5 to 1-4 after an exciting and closely fought game.

Prior to the game, Kilgobinet were in the state of near panic, so limited was the material at their disposal. But despite the many misfortunes which shrouded them they overcame what seemed unsurmountable odds to record a victory that was as merited as it was unexpected.

LOOKED ANYTHING BUT BRAGGIT

But for a time the prospects of victory for these green and white clad gladiators seemed anything but bright. Aided by the breeze in the first half, the attack had flippant use of their territorial advantage and trailed 1-1 to 0-3 at the interval. Their position at this stage was completely against the run of play and a six or seven point advantage would not have flattered them. Just how severe a loss Ned Hanley's was, was forcibly driven home as an attacker of his calibre would, I feel have greatly altered the complexion of that half-time score.

The losers seemed to hold all the advantages at this stage and when they raced into a three point lead within four minutes of the restart, one didn't give much for Kilgobinet's chances. Defiantly, however, Clashmore were rocked back by continuous Kilgobinet onslaughts. Gaining strength in adversity they played their best football of the hour and when Mick Keating scored a glorious goal at the three-quarter stage they then had their feet planted firmly on the victory path.

NOTE OF DRAMA

But this game which never flagged was destined to end on a note of drama. Seconds from time with Kilgobinet grimly holding on to a one point lead, the losers were awarded a 21-kick free from an acute angle. Referee Billy McGrath's word to Mick Baker obviously told him he must score direct but the kick, which was of paramount importance, sailed inches wide of the Kilgobinet posts.

Clashmore supporters will undoubtedly point to that whistle the losers only goal, yet, gallantly though they played, there can be no denying the justice of the result.

Kilgobinet, too had many misses from close-in free while the losers only goal came as a result of a blunder by goalkeeper Curran.

Both teams, however, must be complimented for serving up such an enjoyable game. At any stage they seemed reluctant to accept defeat and the fluctuating fortunes only added to the enjoyment of the game.

The winner were brilliantly govt by defence by Stephen Kelleher, Jim Hurley and Christy Dunford. James Walsh after a slow start improved considerably as the game wore on and was master of Mick

'Boro Make It A Minor Double

Dungarvan 0-3; Ardmore 0-2

DUNGARVAN minors added the Divisional football crown to their already won hurling title when at Cappoquin on Thursday last they defeated Ardmore by the minimum of margins in a tense and thrilling decider.

When one considers the appalling conditions under which the game was played, the performance of both sides can be greatly appreciated. Intense pre-match rain had turned the pitch into a veritable quagmire, ruling out the possibilities of top-class football. Yet, both victors and vanquished overcame the conditions sufficiently to serve up an hour of incident-packed football that had the big attendance on tender-hooks for the entire game.

To Dungarvan go the laurels and credit for such an epic encounter must be shared equally between the participants. At all times both contrived to rely on their ability to see them through and if Dungarvan were well worth their hard won victory, few would have quibbled had the seiders gained a second bite at the cherry.

EVENLY MATCHED

In almost every sector of the field the sides were evenly matched. Midfield supremacy alternated many times during the hour and if defences on both sides enjoyed definite advantages, there were goal-mouth thrills and near misses aplenty.

During an opening half of

continuous thrills both attacks missed all-angled chances of scores and fittingly enough turned over on level terms 0-2 each.

Exciting though that first half was however, it was surpassed by that drama filled second moiety. As the minutes ticked by and defences remained supreme, it became obvious that the side to snatch the first score would annex the trophy. Seven minutes from time Paddy Ryan broke through for a Dungarvan point—the score which assured the title of a twelve months stay at least in the Old Boro town.

LEVEL

Liam O'Rourke missed a close-range Ardmore free after three minutes before full-forward Rooney availed of a poor kick-out to open the scoring with a point. Dungarvan stormed to the offensive and quickly equalised with a point by Junior Cummins. After sixteen minutes Ardmore again availed of a weak-kick-out and Leahy regained the lead with a point. Six minutes later the sides were again level when Paddy Ryan pointed and despite numerous "might have been" in the closing minutes both failed to penetrate the opposing defences further.

DECISIVE SCORE

Right from the restart the game developed into a sea-saw

Besides Curran, John Moylan, Michael Lewis and Con Driscoll played themselves to a standard in defence whilst goalkeeper Frank Delany stood between his side and defeat with a vital save in the dying minutes. Both midfielders, Byrne and Cummins had their moments of supremacy.

The attack as a unit had to concede best to a resolute Ardmore defence. Paddy Ryan, though well below his best was nevertheless the most dangerous of the line and had the honour of scoring the winning point. Of the remainder, Raymond Lannon and Tony Mountain were best.

For Ardmore Paddy Carlton played a captain's part at centre back and Pat O'Rourke did a splendid job on Dungarvan's danger man Ryan. The O'Reillys at midfield never gave up trying whilst Rooney, Leahy and of course Liam O'Rourke were ever-dangerous in attack.

Dungarvan—F. Delany, M. Cummins, J. Dalton, C. Driscoll, J. Moylan, M. Lewis, C. Curran, J. Cummins, J. Byrne, P. Ryan, R. Lannon, T. Mountain, L. Curmins, P. Curran, T. Cummins.

Ardmore—F. Colbert, J. Power, M. Colbert, D. McGrath, M. Power, P. Carlton, P. O'Rourke, M. O'Reilly, H. O'Reilly, S. O'Rourke, P. Presdergast, V. O'Connor, T. Leahy, J. Rooney, F. Mansfield.
