HIGH TIDES
Over last week-end from Friday until Monday the spring tides were tabled as the highest for the year. Luckily the wind blew from the west so that it stemmed the tide somewhat. Residents in the sea front took precautions to keep out the flood in the event of the wind changing to the south east. Even with the westerly wind the tides reached the level of the quays. The next high spring tides are tabled for October 23rd, 24th and 25th.

WEDDING BELLS
Sheehan-Doyle—With Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing the marriage took place recently at St. Mary's Parish Church, the contracting parties being Patrick R. Sheehan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dominic Sheehan, of Sarfield's Terrace, Youghal and Miss Teresa M. Doyle, daughter of Mr and Mrs. Patrick Doyle, De Valera Street, Youghal. The ceremony was performed by Very Rev. Canon Sheehan P.P. The best man was Michael Sheehan, brother of the groom and the bridesmaids were Miss Ann Sheehan, sister of the groom, Miss P. Sheehan and Miss P. McLoughlin.

SEA ANGLING
At the moment, despite unsuitable weather there is a great run of fish in the Youghal Bay, pollock, bass and mackerel. The latter have already made up harbour as far as the Green Park Corner where local and visiting anglers have great sport at high water each evening. There is little or no demand for this species of fish but it would be a great boon to the local fishermen if the sprats made their appearance in the locality.

THIS CENSUS
It is gratifying to know that Youghal increased its population while all other towns in the county showed a decrease. This was revealed in the provisional result of the census taken on April 9th last. Youghal increased its population by 5.3% to 5,136. Other figures for the county are : Clonakilty 2,417 (-100); Cogh. 3,300 (-300); Fermoy 3,241 (-180); Kinsale 1,885 (-28); Matroom 2,619 (-17); Mallow 5,520 (-209); Midleton 2,770 (-14); Skibberen 2,015 (-187); and Youghal 5,136 (plus 295).

NEWS FROM U.S.A.
The Rev. Mother, Presentation Convent, Youghal, received news of the safe arrival of four members of the Community in America in the persons of Sr. Mary Francis, Sr. Mary Plus, Sr. Mary Angela, and Sr. Mary Monica, who recently flew from Shannon to establish the foundation of the Order in Bonaki, Mississippi. When they left Youghal on the first leg of their journey they were seen off at the Presentation Convent by a large section of the Community headed by Canon Sheehan, P.P. and the local clergy.

VISITORS
Although the holiday season is drawing to a close there is still in Youghal a good influx of visitors mostly from Cross Channel. There was a fair scattering of day trippers on Sunday last when the promenade was not very inviting due to a strong westerly wind and rough seas. Those who did take to the beach had to take shelter from the wind on the lee side of the breakwaters.

PROMOTION OF BANKERS
Although he has been in Youghal as accountant to the Bank of Ireland for the short period of two years, yet Mr. N. Egar made himself most popular with all classes of the community. He is now being transferred on promotion as sub-agent of the Bridge Street Branch of the bank in Cork and is being replaced by Mr. E. L. Walsh of the New Ross branch.

YOUGHAL HOUSING
At a recent meeting of the Youghal U.D.C. under the Chairmanship of Mr. S. P. Daly, B.E., the Manager stated that so far the 24 house scheme had not been sanctioned by the Minister and that they were off on a good start by purchasing a further 12 houses. The subsidy would be

LATE MR. ML. QUARRY
Kilmacthomas, Dungarvan
In connection with the death of the late Mr. Michael Quarry, Kilmacthomas, Dungarvan, the following sent Mass cards:—
His brother Robert and family, Kilmacthomas; his brother John and family, Ballyneety; his sister Mary and Noel and family, Lacken; Galt and the O'Neill family, Kilmacthomas (2 Masses); Mrs. Hanna Dunford, Kilmacthomas; Tom Fitzgerald, do.; Johnny and Bridie Lynch and family, Kilmacthomas; Tom and Bridie Fahey, do.; Jim and Nora White, do.; Mrs. Kathleen Foyes and family, 12 Fitzwilliam Terrace, Dungarvan; Paddy and Mary Ellen McGrath, May St.; Mrs. Casey and Maureen, do.; Willie and Mrs. Talion, do.; Ned Mulcahy, Coligan; White family, Moonrue; Terence and Bridie and family; John and Stasia Dunford and family, 4 Bridge's Terrace; Kevin Dalton and family, Vaseville; Ms. Foley and Paddy Walsh Squares; John Molloy and family, Mile House; Fynn family, King St.; Abbeyside; John and Mary, Fitzgerald's Terrace; Jimmy Kleiv and family; Shannon; Michael Burke, Ballyneety; Coullan family, Kilmacthomas; Hart family, do.; John and Jamie Whelan, Kilmacthomas; Flynn family, Scart Upper, Ballinamult.

Kilmacthomas News

Miss Elizabeth O'Gorman, Dunabatin, Annesstown.—This worthy well-loved lady's death happened at her home on Thursday, 24th ult. (Feast of St. Bartholomew, Ap.), after a period of falling health and in the fulness of her years. She had many qualities which endeared her to all who knew her, and the large concourse of mourning friends and relatives that followed the remains on funeral to the Church of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, Kill, and again attended at the interment, which was made in the adjoining cemetery after the 11 o'clock Mass on Sunday, were ample testimony to the great respect and esteem in which she was held.
Rev. L. Walsh, C.C., Kill, officiated at the graveside.
Many Mass cards and messages of condolence were received.
Ar dheis De go raibh a-bhanam.

Feelings of Regret amongst a wide circle of friends and acquaintances were evoked by the death of Mr. Thomas (Tom) Walsh, farmer, The Burgery, Dungarvan, which sad event occurred at the Meath Hospital, Dublin, on Saturday, 26th ult. (Our Lady's Saturday), at a moderately advanced age.
Son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Walsh, Barnakill, Leamysbrien, and brother of the Misses and Messrs. Walsh, do., he had unreservedly progressive ideas on farming, and was a thorough success of his job, and was a most exemplary Catholic spouse and neighbour.
Of a quiet and amiable disposition, he was a general favorite and the sincere sympathy of the entire district goes out to his estimable wife and sisters and brothers in their great loss.
The sense of regret caused by his passing was shown by the removal of the remains on Sunday evening to St. Brigid's Parish Church, Kilmacthomas, all sections of the community being conspicuous by their presence.

THE HARVEST
Harvesting operations are now in full swing in this area. Most of the work is done by combines. Yield and quality are stated to be very satisfactory.

O.A.P. MEETING
A meeting of Youghal No. 2 (Rural) Old Age Pensioners Committee was held at Clashmore recently. Nine applications were considered and seven were awarded full pension, one 15/6 and one 10/6.

REUNION AFTER 57 YEARS
A brother and two sisters were recently reunited in Cork following a period of 57 years. They are Mr. James Prendergast, Cork, Mrs. McLoughlin, do., and Mrs. Mary Kane, who is home from Akron, Ohio, U.S.A. Mrs. Kane emigrated to the States in 1904 and this was her first visit to her homeland. They are natives of Clashmore and paid a visit there last week. Mrs. Kane commented on the wonderful progress made in Ireland and the signs of prosperity evident on all sides.

RETURNED TO U.S.A.
Following a holiday in his native Clashmore, Rev. Fr. William Hynes returned to his mission in the U.S.A. last week end. He was seen off at Shannon by relatives and friends. Fr. Hynes is nephew of Right Rev. Mr. P. Hynes, Clashmore and formerly of the Australian Mission.

Wife of the late Mr. Michael Quarry
The news of the death of Mr. Michael Quarry, formerly of Northland, which occurred in Keighley, Yorkshire on 20th inst., was learned with much regret in the town and district. The deceased, who with his wife and family, left here ten years ago, was a well known and popular figure. The interment took place in Keighley, Yorkshire.

PROFESSION OF RELIGIOUS
Miss Kathleen Prendergast (in religion Sister Mary Edith), third daughter of Mrs. and the late Mr. R. Prendergast, Dromore East, made her first profession as a member of the Irish Sisters of Charity at the Convent of the Order, St. Anne's, Milltown, Dublin. Sr. Mary Edith received her early education at Affane U.S., and later at the Presentation Convent, Lismore.
Her mother, sisters and brothers (including Rev. Bro. Albert of the Presentation Order, home on vacation from Canada) were present for the happy occasion.
We wish the newly-professed many happy and fruitful years in her sacred calling.

TRADITIONAL MUSIC
A very successful meeting of the local branch of Ceolais Ceoltóirí was held in Walsh's Hotel on Thursday night, the attendance including several holiday-makers who are interested in traditional music. A most entertaining programme, instrumental and vocal, was presented. A formal meeting followed the impromptu concert and it was decided to hold a public entertainment in the near future, details to be arranged at next meeting.

FAMILY LEAVES
Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Moore and their children left town on last Wednesday to take up residence in Nottingham. The business premises in Main St. which they used to occupy, had been taken over by Mr. Robert Troy.

HOLIDAYS OVER
After a long vacation, Rev. J. O'Brien of Bewley left on Monday for Oregon, and Rev. Bro. Albert Prendergast for Montreal. On Saturday, Mr. Michael Cahill returned to New York.

LATE MR. M. CROWLEY
The news of the death of Mr. Michael Crowley, formerly of Northland, which occurred in Keighley, Yorkshire on 20th inst., was learned with much regret in the town and district. The deceased, who with his wife and family, left here ten

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

ROWING SUCCESS
Our oarsmen closed the season at Fermoy Club's "At Home" on Sunday by winning the "Club Four", eight crews competed and in the qualifying heats, Cappoquin defeated Fermoy "B" and Carlow. Their opponents in the final were the Fermoy "A" crew.

LEFT FOR ENGLAND
On Saturday, W. McLoughlin and P. Foley left town to take up employment in London. Both were prominent in sporting circles and are members of this season's Junior Eight crew.

LATE DAVID BOOKE
In connection with the death of the late Mr. David Booke, Ballinaparka, Aglish, additional Mass cards were received from: Eddie and Eileen Walsh; Paddy Russell, Aglish; Markley family, Clogheen, Ballynacorney; Walter and Mrs. Terry, Aglish.

THE TURPIN CARVER
Thirty years ago the Turpin Carver, as he was called—he also carved potatoes—was a familiar sight on the side walks of Dublin. In early spring, when the first leaves were making their appearance, he was to be seen, his feet encased by portulac heads of well known people, carved from the holly leaves.
On wet days he would retreat to the shelter which joins Henry Street with Princes Street, the passer-by with deft strokes of his pen turning to a possible likeness of some celebrity tinted with dyes in an effort to make the

FARLEY THROUGH THE STAGES OF INFANT FEEDING

If you do not feed your baby yourself, think of the Farley reputation in infant feeding and buy a packet of Farley's Milk Food today, and watch your baby grow into healthy, happy childhood.

FARLEY'S RUSKS

When your baby weighs 13-14 lbs. you should start to feed Farley's Rusks as a first easily digested solid food. Farley's is a cereal food fortified with minerals and vitamins and made in the form of a rusk. Farley's is so easy to prepare—full directions on every packet.

LATE MR. P. DWANE

Kilmalton, Dungarvan

The death bell tolled once again announcing the sad news of the death of Mr. Patrick Dwan, Kilmalton, which occurred on Monday night last, August 28th, rather suddenly and at an early age. He was one of nature's gentlemen, a practical, industrious and methodical farmer, a wonderful neighbour and a true friend to those in need of assistance. He was a committee member of the Dungarvan Show, Dungarvan Point-to-Point Committee, Dungarvan Harriers and was attached to Dungarvan Courting Club. He was a member of the advisory body of Comhluath Sluice Eitrem.

He was also a member of the I.R.A. and played a prominent part in the struggle for freedom.

Greatest public sympathy is extended to his wife, Mrs. B. Dwan, and to his sons, Patrick Joseph and Kevin, and his daughter Mrs. B. Looby, Slesky, and also to his brother, Jack, who is the well-known Best Superintendent attached to the Dungarvan area, and to his other relatives.

The remains were removed on Tuesday evening to Bellinacorney Church, the coffin being draped in the Tricolour and a guard of honour consisting of members of the Old I.R.A. accompanied the hearse, followed by an immense cortege.

Following the celebration of Requiem Masses on Wednesday the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery. The Last Rites were said by Mr. M. Terry, Abbeyside.

Another large number of mourners friends and sympathisers was present. (J. Kiley & Sons had charge of funeral arrangements.)

Dungarvan Show Society, at a meeting on 30th August, passed a resolution of sympathy with the wife and family of the late Mr. Patrick Dwan, Kilmalton, Dungarvan Show Committee for many years.

FANCY DRESS PARADE AT CLASHMORE

It was a gala day in Clashmore on Sunday, August 20th when the first ever outdoor fancy dress parade was held. Organised by the local Dramatic Class it was the biggest and most successful function ever held in the district. From an early hour it was evident that a record crowd would attend. Long before the appointed hour the village presented an animated sight with the competitors in their vivid and multi-coloured costumes added to by the huge throng of people who lined the route taken by the parade was from the end of the village to the school. At 3 p.m. the parade commenced to move off headed by the local band who played their music from a tractor-drawn trailer specially bedecked for the occasion. The number of competitors far exceeded all expectations and the hard task of deciding the winners fell to Mrs. J. Prendergast, Grange and Mrs. O'Callaghan, Dundalk, who adjudicated so well and to whom the members of the Dramatic Class are deeply indebted.

Heretofore is the list of prizewinners:— Groups 1st prize, "The International Folk Dancers in Clashmore"; B. Cunningham, Sheila Hallahan, Francis Hogan, Brenda Foley, Ann Foley, Thos. Conner, P. J. Conner and Ellis Conner; 2nd, "First and Last Aid"; Gerard and Norma Murray, Noeen Burke and Eileen Harnes; 3rd, "The Return of the Arkard"; Sean Foley, M. Del.

Dr.—1st, "Cajob of the Season"; Mary Healy and Mary Gregh; 2nd, "Two Little Girls in Blue"; Dee and Foley; 3, "A Couple of Swallows"; Ahern. Individual Prizes—"New Year's Eve"; Kathleen Curran; "Little Old Lady Passing by"; Ellis Conner; "Pretty Flower Girl"; Marian Gray; "The Avenger of Sean South"; (Gerard Barry); "Clean Milk" (Vera Dowell); "When we call a spade a spade" (John O'Rourke; "Never buy a pig in a bag" (Redmond Foley).

Draw tickets—1, 22, Daniel Dwyer; 2, 21, M. J. O'Halloran; 3, 20, M. J. O'Halloran; 4, 19, Miss Josie Ryan, Clashmore.

At the conclusion Miss Nell McGrath returned thanks to all those who were responsible for making it such a success and especially Miss Phyllis Morrissey who was the chief organizer of the evening. She also thanked the adjudicators for their splendid handling of a difficult job and to the band for the excellent music which they provided.

The band members were:—Merris T. Bagge, J. Forest, M. Foyers, M. Rosary, and E. Lombard.

The playing of Amhrán na bhFiann brought a happy ending to a memorable day.

IN MEMORIAM WHELAN (Jack Croxey)—2nd Anniversary—in loving memory of Margaret, Wexford, who died 30th Aug. 1959. Masses offered (2-3)

Deputy Kyne in the Dail

(held over for the past few weeks owing to a possible space)

I should like to bring to the Minister's attention a number of grievances which have arisen in my constituency in the last year. I should like to see his advice and assistance in relation to an unusual position which has developed relative to the erection of labourers' cottages in County Waterford. Within this, past week, through questions asked at Waterford County Council, I was made aware of a case concerning a painter engaged in a hospital in Waterford City, who occupied the tenancy of an excellent Corporation house built within the past three or four years. He was transferred from that Corporation house to a labourer's cottage situated in the City bounds notwithstanding the fact that agricultural workers with larger families and lower wages were seeking the tenancy of that cottage.

As the quid pro quo there was an arrangement—no body indicated who was financially responsible for the cottage. In County Waterford was transferred to a vacant Corporation house. That may seem a desirable process—moving one from the Corporation house to another from the county back to the city—if it were the wish of both parties and if the housing authorities concerned felt it was a genuine case. In this case, however, the individual who was to be transferred to the Corporation house could not possibly afford to pay the rent being charged. He pointed out to me that the cottage was in a very poor state of repair and that the rent was in winter would be something less than 26 a week and he would be required to pay 26/2 a week rent and rates to the Corporation whereas he was legally entitled to the tenancy of the cottage. The rent would not exceed 8/- a week. I suggested to the Minister that he should investigate this case and see if the Corporation could be persuaded to let the cottage to a labourer who was unable to pay the rent being charged.

I was delighted to hear the Minister say in his speech that there was now no need to be provided for those in need of them. If that is so why is here a hold up in the proposed scheme of labourers' cottages in County Waterford? The Minister said that since 1951 we have been endeavouring to provide cottages for those in need of them. We have built and we have one in 1959. But we have not erected any cottages with the exception of a portion of a scheme of four and one trial cottage.

It is no fault of the county council. We have submitted for contract with the Minister's sanction a housing scheme on a number of occasions. The Minister has not been able to secure contractors within the figure he has stipulated and, as a result, the scheme has been refused. The present position is that we are unable to take it over and we are unable to build by direct labour within the limit fixed. We endeavoured to erect by direct labour 200 cottages at a cost of £200,000 but we were £200,000 over the price the Minister indicated he would sanction.

Whether or not the Minister has the authority to take over the scheme, I would honestly say that the type of cottage proposed to be erected in Waterford is of a higher standard than those in the adjoining county of South Tipperary. County Council have not found any difficulty in securing contractors at a price approximate to that of the Minister's scheme. But the fact remains that in Waterford we are in urgent need of cottages. People living in overcrowded and unsanitary conditions because of the high rent which we are unable to get contractors to build by direct labour. As has been said by the county council, the Minister should invite a delegation representative of the county managers, officials and members to come with the problem in this respect. If it degrades to bring this in, situation in which there is an urgent need for houses and in which the Minister's scheme is being refused, it is a disgrace. Let me refer to a specific case I am sure I am not alone in referring to a case which is in my mind in the sense that it was dealt with by the Labour Court on Tuesday last. I will make no further comment beyond saying that a decision was made by the County Managers' Association to bring forward one representative only to argue the case from the manager's side in connection with the value of direct labour versus contracts. While

"KBT PIGS IN A BETTER HOUSE"

—Colr. Lee

"It's a terror to have her put into that house at 7/6 a week. I kept pigs in better house." This was stated by Colr. Tom Lee Co. Managers' meeting when Colr. R. Walsh asked if there was any further information regarding money due to Mrs. Johanna Dwyer, a former Boracosta tenant.

Mr. E. White (Acting Town Clerk) said the Co. Manager had proposed a 5/- a week increase in her home assistance money to help pay her rent. It was then pointed out that the Home Assistance Officer had refused her the increase and told her to take in a lodger instead.

Colr. R. Walsh—That's outside his domain altogether, telling her what to do. After Colr. Lee made the above quoted remark, it was unanimously agreed to accept the Manager's proposal of the 5/- increase.

10/6 WAGE INCREASE GRANTED

On the proposal of Colr. J. Butler, it was agreed to grant an increase of 10/6 per week to certain Council employees. Mr. T. A. Egan (Chairman) said the full demand was 15/- but the employees union and the Co. Managers were willing to accept 10/6. This would bring their wage to £7.30 per week and the men concerned were also willing to accept 10/6. It would also have to be sent to the Dept. for final sanction.

Colr. T. Lee said that the men in the stores had not a 12/6 increase and he proposed a similar increase. Colr. R. Walsh said it was a bad precedent to have wage increases left to Council members. There was a Union there for that and any effort by a council member to settle the matter was only a means of popularity. "We saw an example of that in the County Council" concluded Colr. Walsh.

Colr. Butler then proposed a 10/- increase and Colr. Walsh seconded.

Colr. Lee proposed 12/6. Colr. Walsh—That proposal would do more harm than good.

Colr. Lee—An official will get a rise whether or not it is carried.

Colr. Butler's proposal was then carried.

HOUSING SCHEME WILL START ON 1st SEPT.

Mr. R. Walsh (Acting Town Clerk) told members that the new housing scheme at Boracosta would start on 1st Sept. Colr. T. Lee said it was a nice time to start it. Four families left for England the night before while there was work to be done at home.

Mr. Walsh said it would be a difference which he started as the scheme would have to be completed within an eight-month period.

This year Dungarvan will be given a grant of £1500 for employment and an emergency scheme, subject to a local contribution of £185.

Mr. White told the Council members this figure was an increase of £170 on last year and would enable them to complete the house which was purchased. If it would it would be a direct encouragement to better citizenship if a number of workers in a town were so attracted by a scheme that they would become owners of their own houses. Not only would it give a sense of responsibility to care for the house in the future but it would also take the shoulders of ratepayers in a town that burden of carrying out repairs that are very often rendered necessary by the carelessness of the tenants.

The Minister should give thought to the improvement of the conditions under which a council can provide a scheme. It is a difficult task but as I understand it, there are limits set by the Department to the type of scheme that can be provided by a local authority. Admittedly these limits have not secured the approval of the people necessary to make the scheme a success that in the towns of the local authorities.

In the hearing of a certain law case now concluded, reference was made to a direct labour scheme and the value of direct labour versus contracts. It was made by the County Managers' Association to bring forward one representative only to argue the case from the manager's side in connection with the value of direct labour versus contracts. While that might be indicated from the evidence given at that period, in that council in that same city, a direct labour scheme second to none in Ireland was carried out by the officials of that same corporation with excellent results. It would be a very odd day for Waterford Corporation or indeed for any other corporation or local authority that they should allow themselves to be misled by the remarks made or influenced by them in any way.
