FOR ALL YOUR WELDING REQUIREMENTS Always striving to give you better value we have pleasure in presenting the next OXFORD WELDER at the amazing low price of £27 unbeatable value

THE OXFORD ARC WELDER

Designed to meet the demands of the "Do-it-yourself" enthusiast and light engineer, OXFORD ET 110 is also a "must" for the industrial user working with light and medium gauge materials. Whilst incorporating proved design and reliability it brings the tremendous advantages of arc welding to the home and part-time welder by virtue of its compactness and ability to work from a normal domestic mains supply. Being oil cooled, it guarantees complete freedom from unstable conditions, experienced with light air cooled sets and also will provide the user with a lifetime of trouble-free service. This OXFORD will cope with all normal iron and steel welding, and can be used in conjunction with a carbon torch for brazing etc. Its performance is continuous and the set can be used on full production industrially with every confidence. No special wiring is necessary and the ET 110 will work off a 3-pin 15-amp socket on a normal domestic main. Both electrode and work terminals are fully insulated, as are the quick release terminal nuts. The G.P.O. has officially approved that the Oxford Welders do not cause interference to the reception of radio and television programmes.

Gala WASHES CLEANEST BECAUSE IT CANNOT TANGLE CLOTHES

The Gala Plus 6 Countess - with these 6 pluses no other machine can match.

- + Cleanest wash ever! Because the exclusive "no-tangle" washing action washes every single garment through and through with far less wear and tear.
- + The only small washing machine with an electric wringer which stands high enough to wring clothes straight into the sink.
- + The electric wringer swings at a touch to wring clothes straight from the sink on to the draining board.
- + Sturdy see-at-a-glance switches operate head, motor and pump. No bending is needed with the switches conveniently placed at the right height.
- + A handsome convenient table top. The wringer removes to give a big working surface or to allow the machine to lock away under the draining board.
- + Sleek contemporary look. The new Gala Plus 6 Countess has handsome modern lines that will harmonize with your kitchen planning.

Obituary Column

ACKNOWLEDGMENT
CAHILL—The son, daughter, son-in-law, grandsons and relatives of the late Alice Cahill, Farnane, Modeligo, desire to return very sincere thanks to all those who sympathized with them in their recent bereavement; to those who sent Mass cards, telegrams, letters of sympathy and floral tributes; to those who attended the removal of remains, Masses and interment. A special word of thanks to the parochial clergy and to the kind neighbours and friends who helped in any way. Trusting this will be accepted by all in grateful acknowledgment. As a token of appreciation the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass will be offered for their intentions.
BAGGS (7th Anniversary)—In loving memory of Mrs. Mollie Baggs, of Knockaneris, Clashmore, who died on Sept. 15th, 1954. Sacred Heart of Jesus have mercy on her. Masses offered.
 —Inscribed by her husband and family.

DAIL EIREANN GENERAL ELECTION, 1961

Constituency of South Tipperary—West Waterford TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN
 TAKE NOTICE that I, Edmund Brennan of Pike St., Kilmacolea, in the County of Tipperary, having been appointed Electoral Agent for Aid. Sean Treacy, M.C.C. a candidate at the above Election, hereby give notice that in view of the provisions of the Prevention of Electoral Abuses Act of 1923, and all other Statutes and Orders therein made and provided, the said candidate will not be answerable or accountable for any payments for goods supplied, services rendered, or expenses incurred by any person acting or claiming to act on his behalf, unless such purchase, services or expenses has been previously authorised in writing under my hand, or incurred by a duly appointed sub-agent acting within the limits of his authority.
 Dated this 13th September, 1961.
 Signed,
EDMOND BRENNAN,
 Election Agent for Aid. Sean Treacy, M.C.C.

Kilmacomas News

The Annual Walking Race from Waterford City to Dunmore East—a distance of 12 miles—held in glorious sunshine on the first day of last week was eyed and enjoyed by a large crowd of onlookers. The fixture, which by the way, is brought off in conjunction with the Waterford International Festival of Light Opera is certainly a popularly established one. In the men's section a trio of competitors beat the tape almost together, but they were directed by the judges ruled that they had run. The eventual winner was N. O'Keefe, of Thomastown, Co. Kilkenny whose time was 1 hour 40 minutes.

Second was D. Johnson of Dublin (1 hr. 46 mins. 38 sec.) and third, D. Daniels, of Allphorran Road, Waterford (1 hr. 47 mins.). There was a fairly tight finish in the ladies' section, but little lying between the first three home, viz. Miss B. Power, Carrigmorra, Leamybrien (1 hour 3 mins. 30 sec.); Miss E. Wall, Carrick-on-Suir (2-10-18); Miss A. McKiernan, Rockingham, Waterford (2-10-49).

The event was sponsored by Messrs. Snowcream Ltd., Waterford, and the prizes were presented by Colr. J. Griffin, Mayor of Waterford.

Incidentally, the lovely-looking, lively Leamybrien-side young lady aforementioned, who has quite a large array of trophies to her credit from sports meetings up and down the county she competed at during the past few years, is a daughter of Mr. William Power, Carrigmorra (a former player on a formidable Kilmacomas senior football team of his earlier years), and Mrs. Mary Power (nee O'Reilly) do. He is a well-known figure in the neighbourhood, known to all and sundry in her native parish and to not a few beyond its confines as "The Kilmacomas Postman".

The Deapest and Most Heartfelt sympathy will be extended to well and popularly known Mr. Patrick (Paddy) Galvin, of Ballylynch, Kilmacomas, on the death of his wife, Mrs. Eileen Galvin (nee Keane, nee O'Connell), who died on Wednesday, 20th inst. (21st inst. Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross).

Of a charming and charitable disposition, the late Mrs. Galvin was a woman who had won many friends from her walks of life, and by her success in the people of Ballylynch (where she and her husband had resided from their marriage until quite recently) and Strathbane have left a general and sincere friend, who harboured a true affection and for the virtue of charity, and for this reason only those who benefited by her good deeds and her many good deeds on behalf of those less fortunate than herself. She is also survived by her sister, Mrs. O'Callaghan, widow of James, Falls, Kilmacomas, and a number of nieces and nephews.

A huge cortege turned out to meet the remains when they were conveyed to the Friary Church Strathbane, where the coffin was rested on a catafalque before the high altar.

Subsequent to the celebration of Solemn Requiem in High Mass, officiated by the O.C. for the dead on Friday week, the burial took place in the adjoining cemetery in the presence of another vast assembly, clearly testifying to the high regard in which she and her husband were held and desired are held. All of the priests present at the obsequies were officiated at the graveside. Many Mass cards were received.

Troisier Da at a home (American paper's please copy).

A Neighbour of Charming Character answered the Great Call at her home in Wednesday, 20th inst. (the day after that of the Feast of the Holy Name of Mary), following a brief illness and after a short period of suffering. She was the wife of the late Mr. Thomas (Tom) Coffey, father, Currier, Leamybrien, a staunch Nationalist who, for many years was valued member of the Waterford County Council and of the old Kilmacomas Board of Guardians and Rural District Council, and at whose ancestral home the late Mr. Coffey, and his family, were hospitably treated for some time the while he was on the road. Belonging by birth to Woodstown, Annetstown, in the parish of Dunhill and Feneston, Mr. Coffey's interests were centred in her family of seven sons (Maureen) and four daughters. She was a devoted and loving mother, and by nobody will her passing be more keenly felt than by those who were nearest and dearest to her. She was one of the happiest families in the Decies, each member of which reciprocated to the fullest the lavish care which she bestowed upon them. The solitude with which she

TALLOW YOUGHAL NEWS

THIS STORM
A severe storm, with gale gusts over eighty miles per hour, hit Tallow and District on Saturday, leaving a trail of uprooted trees, and disrupting the water supply. A large tree fell across the E.S.B. line supplying light and power to Kilmacomas and Knocknacree area. As a consequence the area was without power until temporary repairs were carried out late in the evening. The telephone line to Ballyhenry and Kilmacomas was also broken. Owing to power failure at 1.45 local farmers had to bring their milk to Conna Branch Creamery. The position was reversed on Sunday, when owing to a breakdown in the area farmers from there had to bring their milk to Tallow.

In the course of Saturday's storm, a tree fell just as the roof of the school was being repaired. The roof suffered heavily as well as ancient walls which received a bad battering. E.S.B. engineers and post office linemen were working all Saturday night to repair the damage.

HELPED BLACKROCK TO VICTORY
Roger Ryan, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. Ryan, New St. played at midfield for Blackrock on Sunday when they defeated Avonduck in the final of the Cork county hurling championship. Roger played minor and junior hurling with Tallow and was on the Waterford county junior selection a few years ago. It is worthy of note that Roger is nephew of Matty Johnny and the late Tommy Ryan who were stalwarts of the famed Kilmacomas "football" team about forty years ago. His father, Mr. Roger Ryan is a popular Co. Council Overseer in the Brideside town and was himself a noted footballer in his youth. We congratulate Roger on being selected to play with a famous team as the "Reckles".

BOWLING
An interesting bowling match will be played on the Galloway, Tallow, on Sunday, commencing at 3.30 p.m. Billy Flynn, captain of the Ballyhenry team, will be opposed by John Foley, Cook, and John P. Kennedy, Dunlop. The match will be a substantial wager.

BALLYHENRY MAN'S DEATH
We regret to record the death of Mr. James Becher, Ballyhenry, which occurred on Sunday, 24th inst. A member of a widely esteemed family, he was held in the highest regard by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance. He was father of Mr. Joseph Becher, who captained the Ballyhenry hurling team for many years and to whom, as well as the other family members, there was a large and extended family. He was a member of the local G.A. club.

LABOUR CANYONS
Mr. Joseph Becher, Ballyhenry, candidate in the General Election, carried out a door-to-door canvass in Tallow on Saturday. He was very well received and was very popular with the result.

GENERAL MEETING
The Sinn Fein party addressed an election meeting at the Galloway, Tallow, on Sunday evening. Mr. Joseph Becher, Ballyhenry, was the principal speaker. The candidate also spoke.

RETURNED TO ENGLAND
Mr. and Mrs. P. Ryan returned to England on Saturday after a holiday here. Mr. J. Ryan, Pa. Kildale, also returned to England last week.

THE (Mr. Maurice) Phelan, is a member of the prolific household, who resides at 11, Ballyhenry, Tallow. He is a member of the local G.A. club and is a member of the local G.A. club.

GALE DAMAGE

On Friday night and Saturday morning last the town was lashed by a strong South West Gale. Locally, boat owners had sufficient notice over the radio so that a good many boats were hauled up early on Friday. Slates were blown from many houses in the town and strand and the upper and lower bay windows of one house on the western side were blown down. The quay wall at the Market Rock was badly damaged with a large barge from the Strand, which was pulled the mooring bollard on the quayside. There was intermittent electric black out up to 11 p.m. when the current failed entirely and was not restored until 6.45 on Saturday morning. Outside the town on both sides of the river uprooted trees made transport very difficult. Two old ladies, one in town and one on the strand, were knocked down by the wind and received facial injuries.

DOWN OR OFFALY?

Not in living memory can I recall a game to have caught the imagination of all Gaeldom to such an alarming degree as last Sunday's All-Ireland football final between Down and Offaly.

The only certainty regarding this most talked of decider is that a new attendance record will be established for a sporting event in this country. Never has there been such a fanatical search for tickets. Fabulous prices have been offered for these precious stand seats, but despite the attractive £.s.d. available to anyone willing to part "with the goods," I doubt if there will be many money takers.

When discussing the game, memories of last year's drawn and replayed semi-finals between these same sides will immediately spring to mind. To this day Offaly supporters will argue that they were deprived of victory by the now famous penalty. Dungarvan's own Tom Cunningham was the man in charge on that occasion and whilst there's no point in delving into the past, "Cunn's" decision was an absolutely correct one.

Now, thirteen months later, these counties are again in opposition. This time the men from the Mournes will be jealously guarding the Sam Maguire Cup won for the first time last September.

For the midlanders Sunday is the day. Tullamore, Edenderry, Dangan, etc., has waited for 74 years. Last year's semi-final defeat has only strengthened their determination, and as the dawn nears I am firmly convinced we shall witness a game worthy of this momentous Gaelic occasion.

Both teams have, I think, improved since last year. Against Kerry in this year's semi-final Down looked a team of all talents and I immediately made them my choice for the '61 title.

When I saw Offaly beat Dublin in the Leinster final in Portlaoise last July they also impressed as a competent and workmanlike side. Defence is undoubtedly their strong point with footballers like Greg Hughes, Paddy McCormack, Charlie Wren and Phil O'Reilly, backed by a brilliant goalkeeper in Willie Nolan, making a score getting a nightmare task for any forward division.

But whether or not their attack can make any noticeable impression against a Down defence that must be rated one of the best in the game is another and vital question. In the provincial final, Donie O'Hanlon and Mick Casey were the only ones to shine.

As I see it their half-forward line of Tommy Cullen, Peter Daly and Tommy Greene is highly suspect, and the responsibility of getting most of the scores may rest with the inner trio of forwards.

But then again a glance at Down's attack instantly reveals their strength. McCarten, Deherby, Morgan, Hadden, O'Neill, McElroy, any one of whom can notch scores when least expected.

Yes, the champions look the better all round side. But Offaly, bidding for their first title, will make a tremendous bid for the trophy. Either County will be acclaimed worthy champions, but somehow I feel the Sam Maguire Cup will make its second sojourn into the "sundered six."

LAST SUNDAY'S GAMES

Hopes of an all Western senior football final went by the board on Sunday last, when Mount Sion ended the run of junior champions Ardmore in the most decisive manner possible at Dungarvan. The Seaside's opened in fine style and had the upperhand for the opening fifteen minutes. But once Sion got moving in customary fashion, there was only one team in it. And now to that Stradbally-Mt. Sion final. Already most people regard it as a cake walk for the city men, but how such a prediction is arrived at is beyond me. Stradbally have already beaten the champions and now they intend to complete the job. They cannot at this stage be ruled out as possible champions.

The Emmetts - Ring junior football replay proved one of the biggest flops of the championship. Little good football was seen during an hour in which there were frequent outbursts of temper. Stern action by Liam Crotty, however, whose refereeing of the game was excellent, helped to keep things in order to the finish. As in the Stradbally - Kilrossinty game the previous Sunday, four players were sent off. Recently our games have been greatly marred by bad sportsmanship and the sooner these players responsible realize they are only doing the game irreparable harm, the better for everyone. Emmetts now meet Valley Rovers in the Western final at Dungarvan in October.

At Cappoquin: As expected Kilgobinet ousted Ballinacorney in the semi-final of the Grade B Junior hurling championship at Cappoquin. The visitors put up a great fight for three-quarters of an hour, but Kilgobinet's greater experience and superb fitness told in the end. They now meet Colligan Rovers in the final on Sunday at Dungarvan. And what a game that promises to be.

Abbeyside Fall: De La Salle won their second county hurling title of the year when they trounced Abbeyside in the juvenile final at Waterford.

The 5-9 to 0-1 score tells the story of this final. De La Salle physically stronger and with no less than eight of their minor hurling team on duty carried to many big guns for the opening five minutes there was only one team in it.

Abbeyside, however, to their credit, never gave up trying. They also produced the man of the match in young Pat Enright whose display from the half-back line made him the talk of the city on Sunday evening.

But, unfortunately, Abbeyside hadn't fifteen Enright's and they had to give best to an exceptionally good team.

FOURMILEWATER

Ballymacarbery. The Nire, and every little nook or cranny near the parish of Fourmilewater is hurling mad these days. And little wonder, for on Sunday week their junior hurlers will be contesting the County final against Tom Cheasty and his men from Ballyduff Lower.

Out in Ballymac' the Mill Field has been a hive of activity these past few weeks as preparations are being made for the big day. At training sessions they have had enthusiastic audiences of young and old and when October 1st comes Ballymacarbery will, in the words of the poet be like "The Deserted Village." In next week's issue I will give a detailed preview of the final.

ABBEYSIDE HAVE BIG PLANS

The sight has been procured and now ways and means of getting money to develop it are being planned. This is the happy report from the Abbeyside hurling and football clubs in their efforts to get a playing pitch of their own.

This is certainly a step in the right direction by the village club and its go-ahead and energetic committee. They have now decided to hold a non-stop draw to raise funds and I appeal to every Gael to lend their support. It's certainly the least they deserve.

'SION NOW IN LINE FOR DOUBLE

ARDMORE FAIL TO FULFIL EARLY PROMISE

MOUNT SION 0-7 ARDMORE 0-2

MOUNT SION advanced a step further towards carrying off the "big double" when they qualified for a football final meeting with Stradbally by eliminating junior champions Ardmore by 0-7 to 0-2 in the second semi-final on Sunday last.

Ironically, Ardmore reserved their worst form for the big occasion and Mount Sion noted for their ability to turn half-chances into goals.

Right through the opening quarter they continued to dominate. Pat Harty was unbeatable at midfield and Sion had to be satisfied with a few sporadic raids.

IMPROVEMENT

Despite Mount Sion's undoubted superiority, however, the game as a whole was an improvement on several other games played at the venue this year. The game played in ideal conditions attracted yet another huge attendance and during the hour was productive of many passages of top-class play.

FLATTERED TO DECEIVE

Thereafter, however, their early superiority only flattered to deceive. As the hour progressed it became crystal clear that the Seaside's had run themselves into the ground in those opening fifteen minutes. Gradually they lost their early grip and trailed by four points at the interval.

BEST FORGOTTEN

For most of the Ardmore men this is a game best forgotten. It's a rarity when in the aftermath the losers are without a worthwhile excuse but such is Ardmore's present position. However, their exemplary sportsmanship was again in evidence and they accepted defeat in a fitting manner.

WOULD HAVE BEEN HEAVIER

The greatest tribute I can pay to Eddie Mooney and Tommy Power is to say but for their defensive brilliance their defeat would have been all the heavier. Mooney stood head and shoulders over his colleagues in the full-back line and afforded John Colbert ample protection.

LOOKED GOOD

In comparison Sion looked good on Sunday. Their attack—the willian of the piece against Geraldine, had improved out of all recognition and all six were foraging menacingly for the hour.

GAINED SOME SOLACE

Ardmore men commiserating amongst themselves after the game gained some solace from the belief that their men could never play as poorly again, but to my mind this is a conclusion hastened only by their eagerness to establish any case that might help to lessen the disappointment of defeat.

WASN'T OVERLOOKED

Dick Culliton wasn't overlooked in goal, yet his every move had the stamp of complete assurance. The massive figure of Mike Healy was as unbreakable as it was impassable at full-back and Tommy Morrissey and Billy Mulcahy who flanked him both gave little away.

GREATEST CONDEMNATION

That they failed to register a single score from play is the greatest condemnation of all. Their two points—one in each half—came from frees by Jim Cullen, and had the game been extended a further sixty minutes I honestly doubt if they would still have succeeded in breaking their duck.

When the Seaside's opened in devastating fashion it looked as if their speed and enthusiasm would more than counteract any big-match experience they might be lacking. They

FOUND THEIR FEET

Fred O'Brien and Mick Gallagher had to play second best to the Ardmore pair early on but gradually found their feet and were undisturbed monarchs after the opening quarter.

BY JOHN A. MURPHY

It must have been a welcome relief to Sion followers to see their attack performing with such effectiveness. The return of "Doc" Walsh was invaluable asset and he led his forwards brilliantly from the fort. Martin Morrissey had the distinction of scoring the points that eventually quelled Ardmore's challenge whilst Flannely and Grimes also contributed greatly to victory.

ALL SION

The second quarter was all Mount Sion. Grimes pointed in the 18th minute and after Flannely had a free saved "Doc" Walsh added another minor. After 27 minutes Grimes again pointed and Morrissey closed the first-half scoring with a point in the 29th minute.

COULDN'T GET GOALS

Four minutes after the restart Jim Cullen pointed a forty yard free but six minutes later Martin Og Morrissey negated this score when placed by Con Crowley. In the 17th minute Morrissey had what proved to be the final score of the game when his drive was deflected over by Colbert.

FIRST GUILD MEETING OF THE SEASON AT BALLINAMEELA
Ballinacorney Branch Bann-tracht on Tuahle held their first Guild meeting following the summer recess on Monday evening last, when the main item for discussion was the catering arrangements for the Federation meeting which will be held in Ballinacorney on Saturday, 30th September.

The joint annual social between the I.C.A. and Macra na Tuathra at Ballinacorney was discussed and the date for holding this event was fixed for Wednesday, 11th October.

The Guild's annual outing which this year was to the Waterford Festival of Light Opera was a distinct success. Special tribute was paid to Waterford Town Association members for their co-operation in catering and providing an excellent and most enjoyable treat.

Next Guild meeting is scheduled for the third Wednesday of the month, 18th October.

CASEY SCORES AGAIN - The Winning PINT - Nick Casey, The Square, Dungarvan

COMPLAINED IN PRACTICALLY EVERY CHAMPIONSHIP GAME TO DATE.

Pat Harty looked like being the man of the match in the opening half but his splendour was dimmed on the change-over when only Finbar Hallahan and Jim Cullen deserve mention in attack. Incidentally I was more than surprised the selectors had faith in J. J. Carleton to the end as he was clearly outplayed by Larry Guinan from the start.

DID EARLY ATTACKING

Ardmore did all the early attacking and after Healy, Power and Guinan came to Sion's rescue with timely saves the Westerners took the lead for the first and only time with a point from a free by Jim Cullen in the seventh minute. Cullen was narrowly wide from a similar position a minute later before "Doc" Walsh equalised with a point. Culliton made a great save from a Finbar Hallahan drive in the 12th minute and Colbert was seen to good effect seconds later at the other end.

COULDN'T GET GOALS

Four minutes after the restart Jim Cullen pointed a forty yard free but six minutes later Martin Og Morrissey negated this score when placed by Con Crowley. In the 17th minute Morrissey had what proved to be the final score of the game when his drive was deflected over by Colbert.
