Attention All Farmers & Ratepayers

WATERFORD COUNTY EXECUTIVE N.F.A. As already stated last week, the N.F.A. are organising a MONSTER PROTEST MEETING in Dungarvan on MONDAY NEXT, 11th DECEMBER. The purpose of this meeting is two-fold: 1. To show our County Councillors who will be in session that day that farmers do not want the Regional Water Scheme. 2. To protest against the ever-increasing burden of rates which farmers are expected to pay out of a dwindling income. We are informed that there is to be a substantial increase in the rates again this year and we want to make our protest now before they are passed. We want our Councillors to do something now before it is too late and we ask every farmer to make it his business to come to Dungarvan that day and show that we mean what we say.

You are asked to assemble at the Dungarvan Co-Operative Livestock Mart at 2.30 p.m. on MONDAY, 11th DECEMBER and march from there to the Town Hall where Speakers will address you. Ratepayers other than farmers are welcome to join our protest. If you want high rates and the Regional Water Scheme... stay at home! If not, then come in your thousands!

TOWN HALL DANCE The Town Hall, Dungarvan, stages a big dancing attraction to-night (Friday) with the popular Brideside Serenaders providing the music for a 9-2 dance. There will be a fully licensed bar as well as the usual mineral bar. Admission is only 5/-.

GUN CLUB NEWS Reports coming to hand indicate that most members have met with satisfactory cutting up to date. Needless to observe, the first week or ten days took a heavy toll off the stock and now the remaining birds seem to play nature's tricks. We like to see this happen and hope that a fair spattering of our stock survive the short balance of the season.

Incidentally, the Chairman, Mr. J. P. Cushman, at the last meeting stressed the importance of all members playing the game, most important of all, not to go out with the intention of burning out any place. Now that pheasant is practically the only native game stock of any importance, it is up to all members and well-wishers to do what they can to conserve a stock-in-trade. Again any members who have not to date paid their subscriptions are asked to do so without delay. Next meeting on Saturday night, 9th inst. at the Park House at 8 p.m.

DUNGARVAN NEW MINIBUS SERVICE Why pay more... Travel at ease at rates that really please... Ten passengers to Waterford by 10.15 per head... ten to Cork at 10.15 per head or ten to Dublin at £1 per head... and all return journeys.

Special rates available to school groups, social groups and all groups. Family groups can save at specially reduced rates. We will be glad to travel anywhere and at any time - at the right price. And there is no charge for waiting. Plan your outing now and see next week's edition for details of unbeatable Christmas attractions in the Ballroom where the motto is - 'only the best.'

Don't forget the date of the following who gave gifts: Mrs. Nolan, Main St.; Miss Mary Foley, do; Mrs. C. McCarthy, N.T., Abbeyside; Mrs. Fraher, Abbeyside. Any more gifts will be more than welcome.

THE ARCH MAKES FRONT PAGE NEWS Making a return visit to The Arch Ballroom, Tallow, on next Sunday are 'The Big Four,' who made the best ever impression on their first visit on Wednesday 8th November last. Paul Jones in the 'Evening Press' (of Saturday, 25th November) had the following to say: 'The Big Four,' bigger than any eight, so it really looks as if the big four are poised for one of the most successful runs ever in Irish band business.'

Don't miss this last (and greatest) dance before Christmas in the famous Arch, 'The Big Four,' only one month on the road, are already booked for Clonca, also for Ardeer, Clonca, and Enfield, Clonca, on 10th inst. They are four of the greatest Irishmen and dancers in the British Isles, and use twelve instruments, appearing with the big four - the popular Brideside Serenaders.

See next week's edition for details of unbeatable Christmas attractions in the Ballroom where the motto is - 'only the best.'

YOUGHAL FARMER'S TRAGIC DEATH

Sincere regret was felt over the weekend at the announcement of the death, under very tragic circumstances, of Mr.
William Smiddy, Beanfield, Youghal. On Sunday afternoon the deceased, while travelling in his car, accompanied by his wife and son, died suddenly following a collision with another car midway between Dungourney and Ballynora at Moley's Cross. None of the other people were injured, and it is believed that Mr.
Smiddy died from shock as a result of the impact. The deceased was a well known progressive farmer and was widely known throughout East Cork.
Highly esteemed, the late Bill Smiddy was a man of estimable qualities and his tragic death is deeply regretted.
He is survived by his widow,
two sons and three daughters, to whom sincere sympathy is extended in their sorrow.
The remains were removed to Youghal Cottage Hospital and later to St. Mary's Parish Church, where, after Solemn Requiem Mass at 10 o'clock on Tuesday, the funeral, which was attended by a large and representative cortege, took place immediately afterwards to North Abbey Cemetery.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE MR.
DANIEL GEARY

The funeral of the late Mr.
Daniel Geary of Lower Cork Hill, Youghal, whose death was reported in last week's issue, took place in North Abbey Cemetery, followed by a large gathering. Rev. J. O'Connell, C.C., officiated, assisted by Rev. E. O'Callaghan, C.C.,
Rev. D. P. Noonan, U.S. Missions, and Rev. Fr. Williams,
C.C., Ballymacoda.

The chief mourners were:
Mrs. N. O'Brien and Miss Helen Geary (daughters); Messrs. Thomas Maurice and John Geary (sons); Mr. Maurice Geary (brother); Mrs. E.
Meehan (sister); Mrs. Maurice Geary and Mrs. and Mrs. M.
Geary (sisters-in-law); Rev. T.
P. Geary, C.C.; Mr. and Mrs.
James Troy and family; Mr.
and Mrs. J. O'Connor and family; Mr. and Mrs. J. Meehan; Miss Nora Glavin, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Whelan, Mr. and Mrs. W. Glavin, Mr. and Mrs.
D. Cotter and family, Miss Kiely, Whelan family, Kiely family, Mr. and Mrs. M. Colter, Mr. and Mrs. J. Cotter (relatives).

YOUGHAL SHOPPING
SCHEME

Shortly Youghal will assume a festive appearance with Christmas Trees and shop fronts coloured lighting in addition to the annual shopping scheme to operate from December 8th to 23rd. The scheme is confined to members of the Youghal Traders Association exhibiting the Green Star and for every 5/- worth purchased a ticket will be issued. The total prize money will be £110 and will consist of 1st prize £30; five prizes of 10 each, and six prizes of £5 each. Also lucky dip prizes at Christmas Hamper.

FARMYARD FIRE

On Wednesday of last week the Youghal Fire Brigade were summoned to a fire in the farmyard of Mr. John Geary, off of Cleary Road, about four miles from the town when a large rick of hay caught fire.
There was an ample supply of water from a nearby stream and the Youghal brigade were ably assisted by the Middleton brigade. The fire was got under control, but not before some 30 tons of hay was destroyed. Both Brigades returned to their stations at 8 p.m. after spending eight hours at the scene of the outbreak.

GASTROE FLOODING

As a result of the steps taken by the recently formed Gastroe Committee to cope with the recent flooding of land at Fimore some four miles from Youghal, due to a breach by heavy seas on the defence bank, the Land Commission have sent men and machinery to the area for the purpose of reinstating the banks. It would appear that due to the absence of solid foundation it is not possible to erect shoring as was the intention of the members of the Committee. The residents of the affected area are grateful to the local T.D.'s and County Council members for their cooperation in the matter.

SHAMROCKS BEAT
TOURIN IN UNFINISHED
GAME

In the first round of the Shield played at a Ballinaha Gaelic Field on Sunday, Shamrocks were leading Tourin 8-2 to 2-0 when in the 56th minute ugly scenes developed which ended when some of the Tourin players left the field.

TALLOW GREYHOUNDS
SUCCESS

"Bride Beauty", owned by Mr. John Henley, West Street, Tallow, has had two wins at Youghal Track and two at Cork Track recently and was second in the Breeders Stake at Blarney. This bitch is a very consistent tracker and has won all her races in very good time.

LATE VERY REV. FR.
VERLING P.P.

The late Very Rev. Fr. Ver-ling, P.P., who died last week at a Clonakilty convent was a native of Castlelyons and spent almost his entire ministry of the English Mission. The interment took place at Castlelyons on Friday, Dec. 1st following Solemn Office and Requiem Mass. Fr. Verling has some relatives in Tallow area to whom sympathy is extended.

FORMER CURATE'S VISIT

A visitor to Kilwatermoy area on Sunday was Rev. P.
Morrisey, Chaplain to the Forces, Clonmel. Fr. Morrisey was curate at Glendine about six years ago. He was with the Irish Battalion in the Congo as a chaplain and expects to go out again with another Battalion in the not too distant future.

HOME ON HOLIDAYS

Misses Teresa and Mary Foley, daughter of Mrs. Hannah Foley and the late Richd.
Foley, Coolbeggan, Tallow, spent a brief holiday at the ancestral home recently. Both are engaged in the nursing profession in England. Another sister, Miss Josephine Foley, is a teacher Across-Channell.

STRIKE HITS BEET
GROWERS

The Cork rail strike has seriously affected beet growers in this area. The growers have to provide their own transport for beet to Mallow Beet Factory. Postal deliveries are also days late in many instances.

ARCH CEILL

There was a big attendance of cell dancers at the Arch Ballroom on Sunday night where the late Mrs. Fitzgerald Cell Band supplied a grand programme of cell music.

IN HOSPITAL

We are glad to report that
Mr. Jerry Foley, Killeagh, Tallow, who has been in Ard-keen Hospital, is well on the road to recovery and will be discharged in the near future.

Country Facing Revolution
— Says COLR. CURRAN

(Held over from last week's issue)

THE almost continuous increases in the rates would only stop when the people take action. But at last they had decided to represent them and we would be very lucky if there was not a revolution in the country soon. This was stated by Mr. Charles Curran at the monthly meeting of Waterford Health Authority on Monday week last, when members discussed proposed increases for certain hospital staffs involving a total of £17,500.

It was decided by nine votes to eight to grant the increases retrospective to April 1st. At the outset, Mr. A. Hamilton said they couldn't do much about fighting individual items. They could only reject them all or grant them en bloc. The increases, if granted, would involve nearly £2,000 on the rates for the city and county and this would be a very bitter pill for the ratepayers to swallow.

"It's the constant increase in the rates," said Mr. Hamilton, "that worries me. It seems to be getting completely out of hand. Next year there will be an increase of 9/- or 7/- on the city rate payers. We will have to try and lighten the burden somehow. I think we should get all the councils together and ask the Minister to take the health charges out of the rates, or they would become so bad that the people wouldn't be in a position to pay the rate demand. We should convene a special meeting and ask the Minister to see if he can do anything about it. Soon the small farmers and small shopkeepers would not be able to pay their rates."

Mr. D. F. Madden said they would have a complete breakdown next year if the demands. In 1959 the total county rate was 10/9; in 1961 it had risen to £1-11, and today stood at £2-4-9.

Mr. J. Griffin (Mayor of Waterford) said they were all aware of the burden the people were bearing, particularly the agricultural section of the community. He felt it would be reasonable to make a representation to the Minister asking him to freeze a last year's level the contribution per £1. Instead of waiting for big bodies to arrive, the united voices of other councils might make the Minister act.

Mr. J. A. Hynes (Secretary) in reply to Mr. Norman Walsh said the increases involved £17,500, which would have an impact of £8,000 on the rates. £8,000 of which the county ratepayers would be liable for. This would represent an increase of 1d in the £.

Mr. Walsh said unless they themselves cried a halt nobody else would.

Mr. E. Curran, after making his remarks quoted at the outset of this report, said: "The people at the top that are to blame. I will issue a warning. The people are in an angry mood because they can't see the light. The politicians, the actors don't give a hoot about the misfortunate people down here. It's immoral and a disgrace. It would be a disgrace if it was not so."

man who would neglect his home and family to keep others in comfort.

Mr. Milo Galgey said if the people flashed the sword this time, they would flash it to the hilt.

Mr. Hamilton said the unfortunate people who were paying for these increases hadn't got any increase themselves in the past ten years.

Mr. N. Walsh said from now on they would all shed crocodile tears, but this very authority could stop it by voting against these increases now. They could have said no before but they didn't.

Mr. Curran: There was a stampede to give well off people increases here before. The small farmers are in a precarious position.

Mr. N. Walsh: Our demand on the county council will be the principal demand. The majority of us around this table have given these increases.

Mr. W. Collins: What we're bringing up is only a bottle of smoke. We either vote for these increases or we don't.

Mr. Curran: It's only a waste of time. They'll be granted anyway.

Mr. D. F. Madden: Well, we can all go to the poorhouse together.

Mr. J. Quirk: We have no say. We're only a rubber stamp.

Mr. W. Collins then proposed that all the increases be given. Mr. D. F. Madden seconded.

Deputy Ormonde in the Dail

Mr. Sead Ormonde, P.D., asked the Minister for Transport & Power if he is aware that a number of Coras Iompair Eireann pensioners are in receipt of pensions, in some cases, as low as 8/- per week; and if he will take steps, if necessary, by the introduction of legislation to increase their pensions in keeping with the increased cost of living and the changed circumstances since they opted for a pension at the time of retirement of 37/8 per week for five years rather than £1 per week for life.

The Minister's reply: C.I.E. Superannuation Schemes may be amended under existing legislation on the initiative of C.I.E. The extent to which C.I.E. would, however, be prepared to add to their already substantial commitments for pension purposes is a matter falling entirely within the discretion of the Board. Pension rates are related to the contributions previously made to the fund by the pensioners concerned and by C.I.E. The full cost of any increase in pensions to existing C.I.E. pensioners would fall to be met by C.I.E. in the form of increased payments.

I should like to remind the members that C.I.E. wage grade pensioners are eligible for contributory old age pensions under the Social Welfare (Amendment) Act, 1960.

Council Told of Deplorable Housing in Portlaw and Tallow

THE serious plight of tenants in certain County Council houses in Portlaw and Tallow was highlighted by Colrs. Roche and Fahy at Monday's Special County Council meeting in Dungarvan. The meeting was held to discuss the County's present housing position.

Colr. F. Roche said that at a recent meeting in Portlaw regarding houses, 14 young people attended. All these were "rooming" in Council houses and were merely ledgers "in a terrible state of affairs," he said "to have people trying to bring up a family in a house, because someone wants to try and make more money. We should make no delay in advertising for houses. I hope this matter will not be shelved."

Deputy T. A. Ryan said he agreed entirely with Colr. Roche. During the election campaign, he found 10 or 14 families in Portlaw living in rooms and also found the Council houses in a deplorable condition.

Colr. Roche—The back door provided in Council houses in Portlaw ten years ago are now so bad that dogs and cats can walk in or out of these houses. As a Council we either let down on the job as regards money or inspection. The rent collectors only want to collect their money but they don't care about the people living in the house.

Mr. N. Walsh (Acting Chairman)—This is a very serious complaint.

Colr. J. Fahy said the people in New Street, Tallow, had the same complaints as regards the doors which were in a deplorable condition.

The Chairman said Colr. Roche's case was one that needed immediate attention and should be put on the agenda for the next meeting.

Colr. Roche—The people go on waiting for someone to come and inspect the houses in Portlaw that the Engineer came eventually they all clamoured around him. Anyone using foreign timber for these jobs just because it was a little cheaper should have their heads examined. Is it the policy to leave non-municipal houses go until they nearly tumble down.

Mr. J. D. Hall, County Engineer—It is the Council's policy to repair the houses.

Colr. Fahy—The houses in Tallow are in immediate need of repair.

Mr. Hall—The position is that you agreed to provide a certain amount of money for non-municipal houses. Basically this is a question of money. Over a period of two years, £16,804 has been provided but we are not making sufficient progress to meet the demands of the situation.

It was finally decided to place the entire matter on the agenda for the Council's next meeting.

It was decided on the proposal of Deputy Kone, seconded by Colr. M. Morrissey to advertise for the purpose of ascertaining whether the needs of the County for both rural and non-municipal houses.

Grave on Which no Grass Grows

Recently Mr. H. Ronicle, Cardiff, was in Youghal, which he had been visiting for many years, and he tells a story which was told him by his father, who was born in Youghal. The story is that of a grave on which grass will not grow.

The grave is in the Churchyard of St. Mary's Collegiate Church, and the person buried in the grave was a doctor who was alleged to have often said "If I had a like my blade of grass ever grow on my grave."

No blade of grass has ever been seen on the grave.

Mr. Ronicle has often visited the grave while holidaying in Youghal, and has also questioned life-long residents of the town, and is satisfied that the legend is true.

Council Purchase Cappoquin Site

On the proposal of Colr. M. Morrissey, seconded by Colr. D. F. Madden, Waterford Co. Council, at a special meeting in Dungarvan, on Monday last, it was unanimously agreed to purchase and clear of a site at Barrack Street, Cappoquin, at a total cost of £274-13-0.

Mr. N. Walsh (Acting Chairman) said the site was the property of the Convent of Mercy, Cappoquin, who were acceptable to the Council's offer of £200. The cost of clearing the site would be £74-13-0.

Mr. Walsh said the site was in the road to Mount Maloney and there were 18 houses in all. They were a real eye-sore and the people of Barrack Street were anxious to have them demolished.

Rent Collector Denies Allegations

Allegations against a rent collector in the Kilmacthomas area made at a previous meeting by a councillor were emphatically denied by the collector in question in his course of a letter to Monday's County Council meeting in Dungarvan.

Replying to the allegation he Rent Collector said he admitted the rents were collected through his office in Kilmacthomas but it was untrue to say he never visited the cottages in his area. There was a total of 900 houses to be visited, he said, and he often made up to 300 calls a week. It was called to every house at least once every half-year.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

THE BOAT COMPANY OF DUNGARVAN

A new company has recently come into being in the town. It is called the "Dungarvan Boat Company," which has issued £5 shares to its members. The company was formed by the former boat-building class with the assistance of the Dungarvan Development Association, the Harbour Sailing Club and the Sea Angling Club for the purpose of purchasing boats which will be rented out to visitors and tourists to the town during the summer season.

The group has already purchased two boats and will buy more which will be held in readiness for the commencement of the season.

Ferrybank 3; Abbeyside 2.

ABBEYSIDE went down 2-3 to Ferrybank at Rockshire Park on Sunday last. Although defeat was their lot, Abbeyside showed a big improvement on recent displays, as this was their sturdiest task to date.

THE PLAY

The forwards played well at times but missed some easy scoring chances.

Promising Goals

As a spectacle the game was interesting enough. The wonder of it all was that the game was played at all, but both sides bravely took the field and offered up a host of honest to goodness, if not stylish football, and for that alone, the surprisingly big attendance should be grateful.

IRISH SWEEPS DERBY, 1962

The 1961 English and Irish Flat Racing Season came to a close this month. Taking the occasion to sum-up on the general outlines of the season, the well-known English racing journalist Peter Willett wrote that "with the running of the Dewhurst Stakes at Newmarket (October 28th), the 1961 series of important two-year-old races is complete. One of the heartening conclusions that may be drawn is that more of these animals that have distinguished themselves in these races than for many years past are bred to stay a mile and a half as three-year-olds."

CAPPOQUIN MACRA ACTIVITIES

The Club's annual question-time was held at the Boat-house on Nov. 29th and proved an outstanding success. Clubs from South Tipperary, East Cork and Waterford participated. The standard set was very high and eventually Ballylooby emerged winners.

PLEASING ASPECT

Undoubtedly, from a Kilrossanty point of view, the most pleasing aspect of all was the promising displays given by the newcomers to the side. Replacements for the Kiwans, Rogie Connors and Pete Gough aren't easy to come by, but such was the performance given by Noel Walsh, Noel Casey and Donie O'Rourke that it is not a great prophecy to say they will be a success in senior ranks.

Kilrossanty Qualify for Phelan Cup Semi-Final

Kilrossanty 2-5; Dungarvan 0-3

TO whom it may concern. Any clubs having ideas of a 'soft touch' in the present Kilrossanty team, can scotch them immediately. That is the fair and unbiased warning I humbly issue to all senior teams in this fair county of Waterford.

Having watched the Comersagh men qualify for the semi-final of the Phelan Cup at the expense of Dungarvan on Sunday last at the Old Boro venue, I am completely satisfied that unification or non-unification, the present green and gold brigade will prove fit and stern opposition for the strongest sides in the county.

HOLY DISPUTED GOAL

But in a breakaway Kilrossanty got a goal that was hotly disputed by the losers' defenders. The umpires ruled that the ball was over the goal-line but the Dungarvan defence (and a Kilrossanty forward with whom I spoke after the game) were adamant that it was not.

NO FAILURE

Running the rule over the winning fifteen no one could be termed a failure. Sean Ormonde—still remained as captain—wasn't extra busy in goal, but brought off one great second-half save.

NO PUSH-OVER

For, make no mistake about it, Dungarvan proved no push-over on Sunday. Admittedly they found difficulty in fielding a team, but at least the selected fifteen gave of their very best and but for a strange second-half decision that gave Kilrossanty their second goal, the issue would have been much closer at the end.

COMMINS WAS OLD BOYS STAR

Dungarvan's star performer was midfielder Junior Commins. Though just only a minor strapping youth seems to have all the qualifications for a first-class footballer and his display on Sunday against such a renowned opponent as Tom Walsh was nothing short of brilliant.

PLEASED BY PERFORMANCE

Without achieving a great deal of success the losers at least nevertheless never gave up trying Johnny Mahoney took his two stores in fine style and Michael "Heathly" Woods and Ned Power also shone.

Dungarvan, likewise can look to '62 with renewed hope. Some many regulars they nevertheless put up a good display and for long periods looked capable of causing an upset.

With the strong breeze behind them Kilrossanty attacked incessantly from the start, but ten minutes passed before Jimineen Power pierced the Blues defence for a point. "Bucko" Timmons made no mistake with a point from a close-in free, but in one of their few attacks of the half, Dungarvan reduced the arrears with a good point by Johnny Mahoney.

PLEASED BY PERFORMANCE

The remainder of the half saw the winners completely on top and a goal by Whyte and points by Timmons gave them a 1-4 to 0-3 lead at the interval.

PLEASED BY PERFORMANCE

On the resumption, Dungarvan took up the running and when Mahoney and Murphy landed points within five minutes Kilrossanty's lead looked a highly precarious one.

That score coming when it did knocked all the gloss off Dungarvan's early second-half fight back. Kilrossanty reasonably certain of victory turned on the steam in the closing stages and another pointed free by "Bucko" Timmons left them the clearest of winners.

MY THANKS TO YOU

The Australian Sale of Work for our Missions has been an extraordinary success. I feel that no other city or town in Ireland could compete with our glorious effort. But it is you good people I must thank for all that has been accomplished. My efforts would be in vain without your generous and willing help. On behalf of our Very Rev. Fr. Provincial, on behalf of our Augustinian priests labouring in Africa and our own Friary Community here in Dungarvan, I thank you. Our gratitude extends to every soul who helped in any way—to our large staff of shop holders and mission workers, to the men who built our stalls, to the hawkers and ticket sellers, to those who did so much for the sick and to all the people in town and country who donated gifts and worked so hard and so all the good people who came to the Sale of Work, literally in their thousands.
As a prayerful gesture of our deep gratitude, the 16 o'clock Mass on next Sunday will be offered for your intentions. Believe me the fruits of all your work and generosity will accomplish new wonders for our systems in the furthestmost corner of Northern Nigeria.
May God bless you.
RAPHAEL O'SHAUGHNESSY, O.S.A.
Mission Director.

NEXT SUNDAY'S JUNIOR GAMES

The last series of games before Christmas in the new junior competitions will be played on Sunday next when a total of four games are down for decision.

Of the football games, the meeting of Clashmore and Ring promises to be the main attraction. Already both sides have dropped valuable points and any further lapses by either almost certainly would end their interest in the league.

Now both sides have a great opportunity of returning to the winning trail. Clashmore, with ground advantage, are expected to step up on previous form, but nevertheless Ring must get the vote to collect their first brace of points.

AT CAPPOQUIN

Unbated, Ballinacourty make the short trip to Cappoquin to take on the home team in the same competition. Whereas Ballinacourty chalked up an impressive 1-8 to 0-3 victory against Clashmore, the Cappoquin men have yet to make their debut.

Ballinacourty expect to field a strong side for this encounter and a victory over the Cappoquin men would place them at the top of their section with maximum points.

Cappoquin will, of course, be anxious to make a winning start to this campaign. In view of the benefits Ballinacourty will have received from the Clashmore game, I fancy them to account for the home side.

AT DUNGARVAN

The postponed Eire Oge (Dungarvan)-Geraldines junior hurling game is fixed for the Old Boro on Sunday next.

In my review of this game a few weeks ago I commented that the benefits Ballinacourty would receive from the Clashmore game, I fancy them to account for the home side.

AT STRADBALLY

Stradbally and Ballinacourty meet in the remaining game of the day at the Cove venue, and this could well prove the most entertaining encounter of the four.

Both these sides were "late entrants" in this competition and the board unanimously decided to pair the two of them.

It is something of a coincidence that both these sides failed to Kligeibnet in the Grade B championship—by the same margin of eight points. Neither club has been actively engaged in the hurling code since, so one can only use their meetings with Kligeibnet as a guide to forecasting the result.

Summing up, it's a game that should be closely contested. But Stradbally in their "own back yard" may produce that little extra and they get a hesitant vote to win.

ABRUPT ENDING TO SHAMROCKS-TOURIN GAME

As can be seen from a regular reviewer in this issue by Liamare colleague, there was a premature ending to the Shamrocks-Tourin game at Ballinaha on Sunday last.

With Shamrocks leading by 3-5 to 0-4 eight minutes from time, players and spectators traded blows in a fierce skirmish. Prior to this incident there had been minor outbreaks of temper but "long reasoning comes at last" the promoter says and so it was in this case. When matters had subsided somewhat the Tourin players marched straight off the field leaving the game unfinished.

This now of course becomes a matter for the Western Board. Tourin's action may or may not land them in serious trouble, but whatever the outcome of it all will be we can expect fireworks at the next District Board meeting.

Following so quickly after the Ballinaha La. incident, this certainly is not good for the game in the county.

Who the culprits were in this case I don't know, but it's hard to find justification for only Donal Brennock strove manfully, the Dungarvan side were buried back into desperate defence. The fleet-footed De La Salle attacked became rampant and added 2-4 to their interval tally. The Friary attacked only sporadically in this period but only managed two points, both scored by their sole markman during the hour, Joe O'Keefe.

What of St. Augustine's? De La Salle's victory was, if St. Augustine's had taken their chances the issue could have been much closer. When Joe O'Keefe won the toss and elected to play with the gale-force breeze, they seemed to hold all the vital aces.

WATERFORD (NEW IRELAND) I have been informed by a very reliable source that the Waterford team in New York are planning to come to Ireland in 1962, and play a series of games here in their native county. No details of this proposed trip are available yet, but my information is I believe correct.

And what an attraction these Deise men, now domiciled in Yankee land, would be in this county. Men like Johnny Querry, Al Flynn, Michael Mason, to mention but a few, would all be included in this side and home clubs would, I'm sure, be very anxious to throw down the gauntlet to them.

In future issues I hope to have more information on the whole matter, and I'm sure our friends on the other side of the Atlantic are as anxious to make the trip, as we are to play hosts to them.

Friary Make Exit from Senior Championship

De La Salle 3-5 St. Augustine's 0-3

THE 1961/62 football season looks like having ideas of a "soft touch" in the of St. Augustine's, Dungarvan. Having Already bade adieu to their hopes of Freuden Cup honours when they were humiliated by De La Salle, they succumbed before the football might of the same College in the quarter-final of the senior football championship at Dungarvan on Thursday last.

The scoreline, brief as it is, adequately sums up this dull and unexciting game. For the past five years the Friary have been foiled by their great City rivals in this championship and truthfully speaking never looked capable of ending that losing sequence in this latest encounter.

De La Salle enjoying a marked physical advantage utilised it to telling effect. They revelled in the heavy and derfoot conditions and literally hounded their way to victory. The lighter Friary boys planned their own downfall by persistently trying to walk the ball to the net. Instead of playing first-time football, they opted for the close-passing game, that could not but fail against an opposition that stood on no ceremony.

And yet merited and clear-cut as 'Salle's victory was, if St. Augustine's had taken their chances the issue could have been much closer. When Joe O'Keefe won the toss and elected to play with the gale-force breeze, they seemed to hold all the vital aces.

COST THEM DEARLY But their slowness to settle down cost them dearly and a goal and a point inside the opening ten minutes put De La Salle on the high road to victory. Thereafter, however, the Friary took control and for the remainder of the half peppered the winners goal. But their persistency in rebuking straight-forward approaches to goal certainly had detrimental results. Chances galore went begging and their total number of wides in this half went into double figures.

Almost unbelievably De La Salle turned over at the interval two points to the good—1-1 to 0-2 and with the advantage of the second-half election the issue had resolved into a case of what 'Salle's winning margin would be.

HURLED INTO DEFENCE And so it turned out. Outclassed at mid-field, where only Donal Brennock strove manfully, the Dungarvan side were buried back into desperate defence. The fleet-footed De La Salle became rampant and added 2-4 to their interval tally. The Friary attacked only sporadically in this period but only managed two points, both scored by their sole markman during the hour, Joe O'Keefe.

What of St. Augustine's? De La Salle's victory was, if St. Augustine's had taken their chances the issue could have been much closer. When Joe O'Keefe won the toss and elected to play with the gale-force breeze, they seemed to hold all the vital aces.

Friary Best in Local Derby

St. Augustine's 6-1 Dungarvan C.B.S 2-5

FOR almost fifteen years now hurling has been the poor relation of Gaelic games at St. Augustine's College, Dungarvan. But no longer can the caman game be treated as the cinderella sport in this recognised football stronghold and last Tuesday's eight-point victory over the local C.B.S. in the Dr. Kinnane Cup, really signalled their triumphant return to the hurling code.

But do not be misled by that final 6-1 to 2-5 scoreline. For if one was to accept that result on its face value, then the tense and a thrilling struggle that was part and parcel of this game, would be concealed.

This local derby—in fact the first meeting between these rival schools for longer than one cares to remember, provided an epic encounter for the ages. The hurling may not have been all that great, but in view of the icy-cold afternoon that must have made it a painful experience to even young performers succeeded in making it a game well worth braving the arctic-like conditions to see. And if the spoils rest with the Friary, I would have no hesitation in declaring the honours of the hour even.

Where then was this game won and lost? Partially from the sideline where Friary mentors made master switches.

But more so by the greater physique of the winning fifteen.

LUCKY ESCAPES The lighter C.B.S. boys despite facing wind and sun played wonderfully spirited hurling in the first half and if they had some lucky escapes in that period one could only highly acclaim their feat in leading by 0-2 to 0-0 at the interval.

During those opening thirty minutes the respective defences played superbly and the two points scored came from frees by Austin Cashin.

This unexpected trend must have had something of a frustrating effect on the winners. Panic signals were obviously raised and personal and positional changes were made during the interval recess.

NEVER LOOKED BACK But once they took the lead with a goal five minutes after the change-over they never looked back. Gradually they were down a gallant but visibly tiring opposition, and thanks to some great goals by substitute Brendan O'Keefe, they led 5-1 to 0-3 ten minutes from time.

However, with a disastrous dribbling starting them in the face, the C.B.S. staged a glorious come-back that deserved a kinder fate. Coleman started the revival with a point in the 23rd minute and a succession of scores made it 5-1 to 2-5 two minutes from time.

UNCERTAIN The game which for so long looked wide open but then unexpectedly turned to a tight affair was again thrown into the category of uncertain.

The losers' super-human effort, however, was now ended and the Friary in a quick break-away sealed victory with a goal shortly before the final whistle.

Playing with a strong breeze, St. Augustine's enjoyed an early monopoly of the play but the C.B.S. defence proved unbreakable. Then in the 16th and 18th minutes Austin Cashin pointed two frees to give the losers a lead the held up to the interval.

RESTARTED SENSATIONALLY. The winners restarted in sensational fashion and after Norris had saved splendidly from O'Sullivan the ball was forced to the net from a melee. But back came the C.B.S. fighting harder than ever before and Austin Cashin fired over a glorious equalising point from 75 yards in the seventh minute.

Again the Friary nosed in front with a point from a free by Paddy Feeney after 11 minutes and almost immediately they scored yet another goal from a melee. Sensing defeat the C.B.S. made radical changes. Austin Cashin went to midfield. Jim Spratt reverted to the "40" and Tony Kelleher replaced Bill Cashman in attack.

But to little or no avail. The winners remained unsubdued and goals by Brendan O'Keefe (2) and Tom Sullivan gave them a clear 5-1 to 0-3 lead.

As the minutes ticked by and the winners still held their commanding lead the game looked cut and dried. But then came the C.B.S. revival. Coleman flashed over a point in the 23rd minute and two minutes later Dolan doubled on a great "70" and sent the ball "spitting" to the net. Cashin quickly pointed a free and a 28th minute goal scored by God knows who from a goal-mouth scrimmage cut the Friary's lead to five points.

The winners, however, had the goal set when Brendan O'Keefe raced half the length of the field before parting to John Crowley for the latter to score the clinching goal.

No doubt, the winners supporters will hail all the team heroes, and whilst every man tried his heart out some stood out for special mention.

MAGNIFICENT SAVES Goalkeeper Michael Dunford of Bohadon, brought off some magnificent saves during the hour and Frank Colbert, Donal Brennock and Phillip Ward were the outstanding men in a strong defence.

Though opposed by the losers, outstanding forward, Austin Cashin, Brennock gave as good as he got and when Brendan O'Keefe raced half the length of the field before parting to John Crowley for the latter to score the clinching goal.

Many people were glad that it did finish then, because they felt if it continued it would turn into a battle-field and not a hurling pitch. It was a pity that a game, which, up to then, apart from a few nasty incidents, had kept the crowd on their toes, should have had such an unhappy ending, and those involved in it certainly did them no credit and we sincerely hope that when the matter comes before the board, they will take strong action, and put a stop to this business which is ruining our national games.

From the start, Shamrocks were quickly into attack and a good goal by Seamus Murphy gave them a lead which they never lost. Five minutes later Benzo Tobin, soloing in from midfield, increased their lead to two goals with a well taken score, and it really looked bad for Tourin when the fast-striking John J. Murphy sent over a minor. Slung by these reverses, Tourin fought back and after a series of raids were rewarded with a goal by Jim Collender. Just on half-time John J. Murphy had another point for Shamrocks, to leave the half-time score: Shamrocks, 2-2; Tourin, 1 goal.

On the change-over play swung from end to end and some great bouts of hurling was witnessed and in the third quarter Wally Dooney had a great goal for Tourin to leave only two points between them. At this stage tempers became really frayed and it was quite plain to be seen that it was only a matter of time before the "pot spill" over. Just before it did, however, John Nicholson had a goal for Shamrocks, to leave five points in it again.

Who would have won the game if it had been concluded? Undoubtedly Shamrocks were in a good position, but Tourin were pressing hard at the time and anything could have happened.

Shamrocks were best served by the Tobins, Allens, J. Gallagher, S. Murphy, and F. Corcoran, while Tourin were best served by Dick Dooney (easily the man of the match), Wally Dooney, Gormans, O'Donnells and T. Regan.

Shamrocks: B. Gaary, M. Keane, T. O'Callaghan, J. Nicholson; B. O'Keefe, B. Tobin, J. Allen, E. Allen, M. Tobin, J. Foley, J. Nicholson, F. Corcoran, S. Murphy, J. J. Murphy, T. Williams.

Tourin: J. O'Donnell, J. O'Gorman, L. Sullivan, T. O'Keefe, J. O'Gorman, D. Dooney, J. O'Donnell, W. Dooney, T. Regan, T. Barry, B. McGrath, J. J. Scallan, N. Collender, J. Collender, O. Wilkinson.

The Acting Chairman, Mr. N. Walsh, seconding Col. Morrissey, said Mr. Lannon was always outspoken from the ratemyers point of view and he hoped his recovery would be a speedy one.

ABRUPT ENDING TO TOURIN-SHAMROCKS GAME

(By our Lismore Correspondent)

THE Western Junior Hurling Shield game between Tourin and Shamrocks played at Ballinaha Gaelic Field on Sunday last, came to an unexpected and abrupt ending, when, with Shamrocks leading on the score, 2-2 to 2 goals, and with about eight minutes of play remaining, a "free-for-all" broke out between spectators and players which resulted in the Tourin team leaving the field and falling to finish the game.

Many people were glad that it did finish then, because they felt if it continued it would turn into a battle-field and not a hurling pitch. It was a pity that a game, which, up to then, apart from a few nasty incidents, had kept the crowd on their toes, should have had such an unhappy ending, and those involved in it certainly did them no credit and we sincerely hope that when the matter comes before the board, they will take strong action, and put a stop to this business which is ruining our national games.

Murphy sent over a minor. Slung by these reverses, Tourin fought back and after a series of raids were rewarded with a goal by Jim Collender. Just on half-time John J. Murphy had another point for Shamrocks, to leave the half-time score: Shamrocks, 2-2; Tourin, 1 goal.

On the change-over play swung from end to end and some great bouts of hurling was witnessed and in the third quarter Wally Dooney had a great goal for Tourin to leave only two points between them. At this stage tempers became really frayed and it was quite plain to be seen that it was only a matter of time before the "pot spill" over. Just before it did, however, John Nicholson had a goal for Shamrocks, to leave five points in it again.

Who would have won the game if it had been concluded? Undoubtedly Shamrocks were in a good position, but Tourin were pressing hard at the time and anything could have happened.

Shamrocks were best served by the Tobins, Allens, J. Gallagher, S. Murphy, and F. Corcoran, while Tourin were best served by Dick Dooney (easily the man of the match), Wally Dooney, Gormans, O'Donnells and T. Regan.

Shamrocks: B. Gaary, M. Keane, T. O'Callaghan, J. Nicholson; B. O'Keefe, B. Tobin, J. Allen, E. Allen, M. Tobin, J. Foley, J. Nicholson, F. Corcoran, S. Murphy, J. J. Murphy, T. Williams.

Tourin: J. O'Donnell, J. O'Gorman, L. Sullivan, T. O'Keefe, J. O'Gorman, D. Dooney, J. O'Donnell, W. Dooney, T. Regan, T. Barry, B. McGrath, J. J. Scallan, N. Collender, J. Collender, O. Wilkinson.

The Acting Chairman, Mr. N. Walsh, seconding Col. Morrissey, said Mr. Lannon was always outspoken from the ratemyers point of view and he hoped his recovery would be a speedy one.
