A. Moloney & Sons Ltd. DUNGARVAN

FOR fifteen women and nineteen men from various parts of Co. Waterford on that day they will receive their diplomas at a special conferring ceremony to be held in University College, Cork.

For these two groups it will be a fitting climax to their recent two hard years of study in special evening classes held at Clashmore and in Dungarvan. They will receive, from the President of University College, Cork, during the full-scale ceremonial of the conferring of their Diplomas in Social & Rural Science and Diplomas in Social & Home Science.

FIFTEEN WOMEN

The fifteen ladies were members of the Clashmore extra rural university course who studied sociology, household affairs, homestead management and domestic science under the lectures: Rev. Fr. Conor Daly, B.A., B.C., C.C. Modelgo; Miss Claire Verne, D.S.L., Cappanaha; and Mr. Dermot O'Farrell, Cappanaha, Rural Science Instructor.

REV. FR. DALY, C.C.

The class members passed two stiff examinations, held at the conclusion of their first and second years of study, to qualify.

CLASHMORE GROUP

The members of the Clashmore group, who will be conferred on Sunday afternoon next are: Mrs. Anna Borefo...

FEDERATION DELEGATES WILL MEET

In charge of the local arrangements for the meeting of women which will take place in Dungarvan next week is Mrs. Mary O'Farrell, Assumpta, Ballinacree.

MRS. O'FARRELL

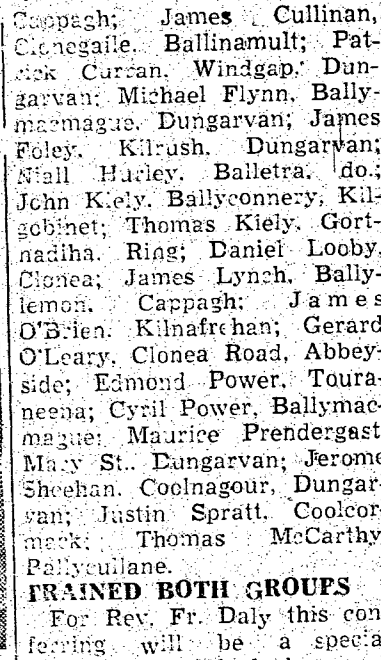

As secretary of the Dungarvan Guild of the Irish Countrywomen's Association she is busy making final arrangements for the meeting of the Waterford County Federation of Bantracht na Tuath. Representatives from every guild in the Association in the county will attend and resolutions to be submitted to the national executive will be dealt with.

Mrs. O'Farrell, who with other I.C.A. members, is currently attending a special two days' extension of the course of University College, Cork, leading to the diploma in Social and Home Science, is wife of County Medical Officer, Dr. Michael O'Farrell.

MR. DONAL LYNCH

Mr. Lynch, Ballycompane, Kinsale, is the lecturer in Social & Home Science at University College, Cork. He is currently engaged in teaching a new ladies' group in Dungarvan, who have recently commenced their two years of study for the coveted university diploma.

WEDDING BELLS

O'FLYNN-FLEMING

The marriage took place, with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing at the Church of the Most Precious Blood, Clongheen, Cork, on Wednesday last, of Mr. and Mrs. J. O'Flynn, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. O'Flynn, Kilbarry House, Cork, and Miss Catherine (Kay) Fleming, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Fleming, Monang, Dungarvan.

The best man was Mr. Jas. O'Flynn and the groomsmen were Mr. John O'Flynn.

The bride wore a full-length bell-shaped gown of taupe de soie and full-length tulle veil. She carried a bouquet of red carnations.

The bridesmaids wore lemon-gold satin dresses and carried bouquets of pink and gold tulips.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Imperial Hotel, Cork. The honeymoon is being spent in Austria.

Was Stationed in Town

Garda Supt. P. Flanagan, who formerly served in Dungarvan, has been transferred from Middleton to Ennis. He was recently married in Cork to Miss Elizabeth Hegarty of Cloyne.

Medical Cards Again Under Fire

MEDICAL Cards and their method of distribution have continuously been the centre-piece of adverse comments at meetings of Waterford Health Authority.

At Monday's meeting this vitally important matter again spotlighted itself when Mr. John Fahy, Lyre-naearla, said he was dissatisfied at the manner in which representations made by him had been handled.

Mr. Fahy said he made representations for Medical Cards for two people. He got an acknowledgment and was eventually told that they were not entitled to them, due to the general standard of their families. "I find," he said, "that people outside this Board are having their representations acknowledged faster than Board members."

Mr. Fahy went on—I made representation for one man in particular who was unemployed for over 12 months, but he did not get a medical card. One of his children, however, was given one. When another person made a representation for him he went around saying he was going to get a Card without the help of any Board members. I laughed at him but I wasn't laughing for long when I was told he was the holder of a Medical Card. Now since being absent a medical card which has improved his condition has improved his health.

Mr. W. Kenneally, Chairman, said the substance of the complaint is that a member of Dail Eireann who is a non-member of this Board got him a card when Mr. Fahy couldn't. Mr. Fahy—That is the position.

Mr. N. Walsh—Does it not occur that a Dail Deputy got a medical card for this man?

Mr. Manager (Mr. S. J. Moylan)—That is the allegation.

Mr. N. Walsh—Representations of members of the Authority should be given priority to any other representations.

Mr. Galgey—I think people shouldn't use officials of this body to promote their voting capacity to get into the Dail.

The County Manager said the facts of the case would be thrashed out at the next meeting. He personally would not be influenced by any member of the Board or outsiders in the issuing of medical cards. The percentage of medical cards issued in this county was very high compared to other counties, he said.

'Leading to Communism' Big Hobby

— Says Member

By 9 votes to 7, an application from the R.M.S. at St. Otteran's Hospital, Waterford, for an increase of £171 per annum was turned down. His present salary is £1625.

Mr. D. P. Maugha seconded that the increase be granted.

Proposing a direct negative, Mr. C. Curran said he couldn't possibly agree to give a man with over £30 a week a further increase. It was outrageous and was only leading to Communism.

SCHEME FOR BLIND

On the proposal of Mr. T. Gallagher, it was unanimously agreed to increase the annual subscription to the scheme for the welfare of the blind from £40 to £60.

Gardening is Mrs. Waide's Big Hobby

An expert in horticulture, who specialises in floral arrangements, is Mrs. R. W. Waide, wife of Major Ronald Waide, Mill House, Ballyloneen, Kilmacshom, Co. Waterford.

For this year's annual party for patients and staff at the St. Joseph's County Hospital, Dungarvan, she was invited to take charge of the flower arrangements in the old peoples' wards. Her exquisite artistry brought a glow of pleasure to the aged and infirm who feast their eyes on her handiwork from their hospital beds.

This quietly-spoken and quick-moving lady has been winning awards with her flower arrangements all over the country.

Shows at which she has won several awards. She won the championship of the south of this year's Munster Show held in Cork, and has many trophies from similar flower shows in Limerick, Dublin, Birr and Tralee.

Mrs. Waide, who is a member of all kinds and is very anxious to encourage youngsters to take a greater interest in flower cultivation and in a pleasing arrangement of the blooms. They cannot, she feels, start too young to appreciate the beauty of nature's handiwork as portrayed by flowers.

As an encouragement to the young people of rural Waterford she is presenting a special trophy to the Dungarvan Agricultural Show Committee, of which she is a member, to be awarded in the Horticultural Section, at this year's summer show, for the best juvenile floral arrangement.

Both she and her ex-army officer husband run an extensive market garden which supplies choice vegetable and select flowers for home and export markets.

The Waides are also well-known in another field, shows and exhibitions throughout the country—that of Poultry Breeding where their prize Khaki Campbell ducks have been winning many awards.

Gardening is Mrs. Waide's big hobby, and recently she has taken to the study of Pottery from native clays.

"And," she added, with a smile, "I also put in a lot of jolly hard housework as well."

Clashmore I.C.A.

On Thursday, 11th January last, Miss Eilish McCurtain of the Public Relations Dept. of Bord Fáilte, gave us a most enlightening and interesting talk. Her subject was, of course, tourism, which, in recent years, has come to be regarded as a vital asset in our national economy. The lecturer traced the origin of the "Bord" and said there were many ways in which tourism could help the individual as well as the country in general. She declared the county Waterford countryside to be very attractive and many visitors who desired a quiet holiday would be delighted with it. "Anglers in particular," said Miss McCurtain, "have very simple tastes were accommodation is concerned and the farmers very could make them very comfortable and give them simple, homely food and make some very welcome money into the bargain."

The lecturer was averse to the many boardings defacing the countryside in general and she doubted that they had any commercial value. She said ancient monuments were always an attraction to the visitors as were well kept hedges, grass verges, etc., and here the individual could help enormously.

Illustrating her talk with slides, Miss McCurtain pointed out what good effect could be got by the judicious use of colour harmony. She showed the prize winning towns and villages in the "Tidy Towns" competitions, and said that the I.C.A. had been an untiring help and support to Bord Fáilte in its efforts to spread the knowledge of the Irish countryside as a holiday potential.

On Friday, 19th inst., we held our annual general meeting and were very pleased that Miss Anne Roche, our Area Organiser, was able to be present. The following officers were elected: President—Miss M. J. Russell; Hon. Sec. and Press Correspondent—Miss Mary White; Treasurer—Mrs. Power.

The outgoing Secretary read the annual report and Miss Roche expressed herself very satisfied with our activities during 1961.

After an enjoyable tea the meeting closed.

Tallow Notes

WEDDING BELLS: MORRISON-HOGAN

The wedding took place recently at St. Patrick's Church, Cork, with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing by Rev. Fr. Thomas Nugent, C.C., Ballinacree, of Mr. James Morrison, eldest son of Mrs. Ellen Morrison and the late Edmond Morrison, Kilwatermoy, Tallow, and Miss Biddy Hogan, youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. M. Hogan, Ballinaha, Tallow. The bride, who was given away by Mr. A. W. Smith, South Lincs., England, friend of the bride, wore a French blue two piece suit with hat of ostrich feathers to match. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. P. Murphy, Kilmore, Tallow. The best man was Mr. Patrick Goulding, friend of the groom.

The reception was held at the Metropole Hotel, Cork, a large number of relatives of both bride and groom attending.

The honeymoon was spent on a tour of the South. Both were the recipients of many costly and serviceable wedding gifts to mark the happy occasion.

We join with their many friends in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Morrison the best of good luck and happiness in their married life.

TALLOW MACRA WIN CO. FINAL

Tallow won the Co. Final of the Public Speaking Competition for the third successive year, when they beat Gaultier in the Eastern Championship on January 13th. Tallow, who had won the Western final at Ballinamerla, when they spoke on the "Common Market," this time spoke on "Ireland's greatest need"—The Stemming of Emigration.

Tallow now go forward to represent the county and will meet Cork at the end of this month.

President of CAPPOQUIN NEWS

Lismore I.C.A.

A London-born lady who has taken to the quiet rural life of West Waterford is Mrs. Brian Pearce, Montrim, Lismore.

Early this month she was elected President of the Lismore Guild of the Irish Countrywomen's Association, branch which she helped to found just two years ago, and of which she was the first secretary.

This very pleasant and softly-spoken lady manages her husband's large prize pedigree dairy herd on their extensive farm, in addition to running the home.

Her husband, Mr. Brian Pearce, who is treasurer to the Waterford County Executive Committee of the National

MRS. PEARCE

Farmers' Association, is also a member of the N.F.A. Commerce and Transport National Committee.

They have two children—a girl of twenty-one and a boy of nine years.

Mrs. Pearce (she studied Art in England), loves sketching, and with the dark beauty of the forest and the lovely old buildings along the banks of the "Irish Rhine," the Blackwater River, which flows past nearby, she has ample material for filling her sketch-book.

DEATH OF MR. T. LINCOLN

The most regretted death of Mr. Thomas Lincoln took place on Monday morning. A full obituary will appear in our next issue.

G.A.A.

The annual general meeting of the G.A.A. Club will be held in the C.Y.M.S. Hall, on next Saturday night, 27th inst., at 8 p.m. All members are requested to attend and intending members will be welcomed.

A.G.M. OF I.C.A.

There was a full attendance of members when the local branch of the I.C.A. held its annual general meeting in the Vocational School on Wednesday night, Miss Rita Morrissey Vice-President, presided. Reports from the Secretary and Treasurer were read and approved.

Election of officers for the coming year resulted as follows: President—Mrs. M. Conway; Vice-go, Miss R. Morrissey; Hon. Secretary and Federation Delegate—Mrs. J. McGrath; Hon. Treasurer—Miss B. Keating; Representative to A.N. Grainan—Mrs. P. O'Shea; Committee: Mrs. J. Jeffers and Miss E. Mullins.

It was decided to send representatives from the Guild to the Council Meeting in Malw on the 24th inst., and to the Federation meeting in Dungarvan on the 27th inst. It was announced that in February a demonstration in the making of artificial flowers would be given and at the March meeting there would be a talk on Home Nursing.

The thanks of the Guild for his co-operation, was returned to Mr. S. Baston.

The next meeting was fixed for February 7th, when in addition to routine business, arrangements for the holding of a Jumble Sale would be discussed.

There was a very large attendance at the annual general meeting of Clashmore G.A.A. Club.

Election of officers resulted as follows: President—Vice-Rev. D. Power, P.P.; Vice-President—Rev. M. J. Russell, C.C.; Chairman—Mr. Joseph O'Keefe; Vice-Chairman—Mr. Richard Dee; Treasurer—Mr. Thomas Ormonde; Asst. do.—Mr. Frank Kennedy; Hon. Secretary—Mr. Redmond McGrath; Selection Committee—Messrs. J. O'Keefe, P. O'Rourke, P. Ormonde, J. O'Rourke, J. Lenane; Captain—Mr. Thomas McGrath; Vice-Capt.—Mr. Michael Baker; Delegates to Board—Messrs. J. Roche and C. Curran.

FISHING

The salmon fishing season in this area opens on 1st February. Crews are already busily engaged making the necessary arrangements.

LATE MRS. M. MOYNIHAN

The death took place recently of Mrs. Mary Moynihan (nee O'Halloran). Upper Strand, Youghal, and formerly of Rath, Kinsalebeg. Deceased was a member of a well known and popular family and sympathy is extended to her relatives. The funeral to Clashmore Cemetery was of large and representative proportions. Very Rev. M. J. Russell, C.C., officiated.

SYMPATHY

Kinsalebeg-Clashmore Harriers extended sympathy to Mr. Martin Walsh on the occasion of his recent bereavement. DEATH OF MR. M. FLAVIN Mr. Michael Flavin, P.C., Coolaha House, Youghal, who died recently was well known in this area. His wife (nee McGrath) is a native of Clashmore and sister of Rev. D. McGrath, C.C., Cahir. To these and the other relatives of deceased sympathy is extended. free.

Future of National Health Services

Contrasting views on the future of the National Health Services by Mr. Sean McEntee, Tanaiste and Minister for Health, and Mr. T. F. O'Higgins, T.D., former Minister for Health, appear in the January issue of 'Hibernia'.

Mr. McEntee dismisses the Fine Gael comprehensive insurance proposals as ill conceived, relating only to fringe benefits and concerned with a limited range of services, ignoring the most expensive of all, viz: the hospital service. He rejects the whole concept of a "cradle to the grave" health service which he asserts is "repugnant to the philosophy of most of the responsible elements in the State."

Mr. T. F. O'Higgins, Fine Gael "shadow" Minister for Health, introduces the new Opposition health programme. He maintains that there are serious defects in the present Act and insists that "the solution lies in a comprehensive insurance scheme... which will apply to 85% of the population."

This issue also contains articles and comment on the crying need for thought and discussion on Irish economic, State Companies and their Reports, the role of the Industrial Credit Co., political mythologies, a review of the recent Supreme Court's decision affecting Trade Unions, and a controversial article on U.N. and the Congo by Senator Prof. F. M. Quinlan, with a reply by the Editor.

Festival Messages

St. Patrick's Day and Easter are two festivals never forgotten by people of Irish birth, and even to those who have never seen the homeland but whose parents or grandparents were Irish, the National Festival of Ireland and Easter are days of rejoicing and happy memories.

To all these, wherever they may be in the world, a greeting card that in design and verse speaks truly and intimately of the old land is a joy and a treasure beyond price.

The cards for St. Patrick's Day and Easter, published by Brian O'Higgins, cannot be excelled as messages of love and friendship to our Missionaries and lay people in exile the world over. If they are not in local shops, assorted packs at 5/-, 7/6, 10/- and upwards can be had by post from Brian O'Higgins, 56, Parnell Square, Dublin. Descriptive Lists post

Particulars to FARRELL & MORRISSEY Solicitors, Dungarvan

Late Mrs. Mary Beresford

KILADANGAN, DUNGARVAN The death occurred on Saturday, January 20th, at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan, of Mrs. Mary Beresford, after an illness of rather long duration, but at the fulness of years and fortified by the Rites of Holy Church. She was relict of the late John Beresford, one-time chairman of the Dungarvan Creameries and a member of a well-known mid-Waterford family. Much public sympathy is extended to her daughters and to all nephews, nieces and grandchildren.

The remains were removed to St. Mary's Parish Church on Sunday afternoon and were blessed and received by Rev. Fr. Lacey, C.C., Kilgobinet, assisted by Rev. Fr. J. Morrissey, C.C. (nephew), Rev. Fr. J. Murphy, C.C., and Fr. Butler, O.S.A. Requiem Office and High Mass was celebrated on Monday morning for the eternal repose of her soul and the interment took place in the adjoining family plot, Rev. Fr. Lacey, C.C., imparted the final absolution and recited the prayers for the dead, assisted by the choir of clergy. Another large and most impressive concourse were present consisting of all sections of the community.

Late Mr. Michael Roche

BALLYVOILE, STRADBALLY Widespread regret was occasioned at the death of Michael Roche, which occurred at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan, on Sunday, 21st inst., after an illness of rather lengthy duration, but at an advanced age. He was a well-known figure in the Stradbally area and a general favourite with young and old. He has served a long term in the British Army during the first world war.

The remains were removed to the Parish Church, Dungarvan, on Sunday evening and were received by Rev. Fr. J. Murphy, C.C. Requiem Mass was offered on Monday morning for the happy repose of his soul. The interment took place later in the adjoining cemetery, Rev. Fr. J. Murphy, C.C., officiated at the graveside. Chief mourners were the Hogan family, Ballyvoile.

(Funeral arrangements by J. Kiely and Sons, Shandon, Dungarvan.)

Late Sr. Mary Agnes Hourigan

CONVENT OF MERCY, DUNGARVAN

The death bell tolled once again at the Convent of Mercy, Dungarvan, on Sunday evening, January 21st, announcing the death of Sister Mary Agnes Hourigan, at the prime of her religious life, but after a duration of illness. She was the possessor of a most charming manner and she held a saintly disposition, which made her a general favourite with her Sisters in religion. She was a member of a very well-known Old Parish family. The greatest of true sorrow is expressed to the Rev. Mother and her Community and also to her beloved mother, brothers and sisters.

The remains were removed on Monday evening to the Community Chapel, and were blessed by Ven. Archdeacon D. Power, P.P., V.F., Dungarvan.

Requiem Office and High Mass was celebrated on Tuesday morning and the interment took place immediately afterwards in the community cemetery, Rev. Fr. J. Murphy, C.C., assisted by the large choir of clergy present, imparted the final absolution at the graveside and offered the prayers for the dead. A very large concourse of relatives and friends were present to pay their final respects for their departed one.

The chief mourners were: Mrs. Mary Hourigan (mother); John, Patrick and James (brothers); Mrs. Nellie Collier (sister); Mrs. Kathleen Ryan, Kilmadden (sisters). (Funeral arrangements by J. Kiely and Sons, Shandon, Dungarvan.)

Kilmacthomas News

There Was An Overflow Congregation at the Parish Church of All Saints, Newtown, at the obsequies for the late Very Rev. Fr. Henry Synott, B.A., P.P., Newtown, Kilmacthomas and Kill.

Celebrant of the Solemn Requiem Mass was Very Rev. J. J. Canon Kiely, P.P., Ballyduff and Portlaw; Deacon, Rev. M. Wall, C.C., Kilmacthomas; sub-deacon; Very Rev. J. Hally, P.P., Modeligo and Affane; Master of Ceremonies, Rev. D. Quinlan, C.C., Portlaw, Ven. Archdeacon David Power, P.P., V.F., Dungarvan, presided, and there were more than eighty priests in the choir.

Mr. James Condon (Chairman) presided at the meeting of Ballylaneen Cumann, Fianna Fail, held on Saturday night of last week, at which a resolution was passed requesting the County Council to provide, in the interests of road safety, two electric lights—one at Kiely's Cross, Carrigcastle, Kilmacthomas; one at the Old Cemetery Cross, Ballylaneen, do., as both of these places are at present extremely dangerous by night for motorists, cyclists and pedestrians.

Eldest Son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Power, Carrigeen Upper, Kilmacthomas, is Mr. Michael Power, who is now home from the Congo, where, serving with the 35th Battalion, he saw much active service. All and sundry locally are delighted he is back safe and in radiant health and spirits.

The Troops and Legions of Friends of Miss Bridget (Beezie) Roche, Ballydwan, Bonmahon, will have heard with deep regret of her demise, which occurred at Ardkeen General Hospital, Waterford, following a comparatively short indisposition and at an advanced age. A neighbour of high character and cultured tastes, but of unassuming disposition, she endeared herself to all by her singular qualities of mind and heart, and with her nieces and nephews whole-hearted sympathy is widespread in their affliction.

By the way, one of her nephews is much-esteemed Mr. Richard (Dick) Roche, Ballinahila, Kilmacthomas, Joint Hon. Treasurer of the Ballylaneen Cumann, Fianna Fail.

Many mourners and sympathisers accompanied the removal of the remains to the Parish Church, Stradbally, where the coffin was received and blessed by the Rev. M. Doherty, C.C., Stradbally.

Subsequent to the celebration of Requiem Masses on Wednesday morning of last week, interment was made in the adjoining cemetery amid every manifestation of sorrow. Very Rev. D. Power, P.P., Stradbally, assisted by Fr. Doherty, C.C., officiated at the graveside. A number of beautiful wreaths were laid on the grave, and a very large number of Mass cards and messages of condolence were received. May she rest in peace.

Very Sincerely Regretted, not only by her loving brothers, sisters, nieces and nephews, but by all who had the pleasure of knowing her, is the death of Mother M. Germaine (Hickey), St. Mary's Convent, Portside Manor, Suxwell, England, a truly well-beloved religious whose inward life shone through her and her courage and devotion were unflinching to the close of her honour-crowned career.

Belonging by birth to Cahirbarragh, Rathmore, Co. Kerry, she will best be remembered by her confers of the Community of St. Mary's Convent and the clergy and laity of Portside for her humanity and kindness—unspectacular qualities to which, unostentatiously, she never ceased to give expression.

Subsequent to the celebration of Solemn Requiem High Mass (preceded by the Office for the Dead) was celebrated in the Convent Chapel at 10.30 a.m. on Friday of last week, 19th inst., and the funeral took place immediately afterwards at the Convent Cemetery, where all of the priests present at the obsequies again officiated at the graveside.

Relatives of the late Mother M. Germaine in attendance from the homeland included Mrs. and Mr. Sean Ormonde, T.D., Kilmacthomas (sister and brother-in-law, respectively).

Reviews in part. A staunch supporter of the native grower and producer is the late Mr. Michael J. Conroy, N.T. (Principal), Ballyduff National School, Kilmacthomas, whose hosts of friends and well-wishers up and down the Desires will be right well pleased to learn that he has been awarded the Gold Medal Blake Premium for the school year 1960-61. The award has been made by the Primary Branch of the Department of Education on the Divisional Inspector's recommendation in recognition of the most effi-

SALMON FISHING SEASON

Fishermen are putting the final touches to the preparations for the opening of the salmon net season on Thursday next, February 1st, and it is hoped that the catches will be a vast improvement of those for the past three seasons. Lismore Bstale licences will be issued on Friday, January 26th, and the Conservators on the following Monday at the Fishery Office, 11 The Mall, Youghal.

It is reported that many spring salmon have been observed upriver of late; in fact two were trapped as far up as Banteer. This is deemed to be signs of a good season. It is thought that there will be a slight reduction in the number of drift licences this year due to the fact that the normal crews are employed at the building of the new Bridge at Ardsallagh.

LATE MR. PAT CROWLEY

Deep regret was felt at the announcement of the unexpected death of a well known member of the community in the person of Mr. Patrick Crowley, which took place recently at his residence, Friar Street, Youghal.

Formerly of Kerry, the late Mr. Crowley was a member of the R.I.C. and held the rank of sergeant for some years up to the time of the disbandment of that force, when he and his esteemed family came to reside in Youghal. The deceased was a familiar and popular figure in the town and was held in very high esteem by a large circle of friends who mourn his passing, and extend sincere sympathy to his two sons and two daughters. During the emergency he took an active part in the local L.S.F.

The remains were removed to St. Mary's Parish Church, from where the funeral, which was large and representative, took place on Sunday to North Abbey Cemetery. Very Rev. Canon Sheehan, P.P., officiated at the graveside assisted by Rev. P. DeBarra, P.P., Clondohilly, Rev. E. G. O'Dwyer, C.C., Rev. D. O'Connell, C.C., Rev. E. O'Callaghan, C.C., Rev. J. Fitzgerald, C.C., St. Raphael's, Rev. D. P. Noonan, C.C., and Rev. M. O'Brien, C.C., Whitegate. Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated at the Parish Church on Monday morning for the repose of his soul.

LATE MR. JOHN O'BRIEN

We regret to announce the death of Mr. John O'Brien of Kent Street, Youghal, which took place over the weekend at Youghal Cottage Hospital. Formerly of Ballymacoda the deceased served with distinction in World War I with the Munster Fusiliers at the Battle of Mons. He is survived by his brother and sisters to whom sympathy is extended.

The remains were removed to St. Mary's Parish Church and the funeral took place on Monday last, to Ballymacoda Cemetery. Rev. E. O'Callaghan, C.C., officiated at the graveside. DRINK AT DANCE HALLS At the recent Fianna Fail and Fheis in Dublin, a motion on the licensing laws, which stated: "That the Act should be changed to stop drinking in lawee halls, which was a source of anxiety to parents who demanded a stop to what they knew to be immoral and unwholy practice." was passed, having been moved by Mr. Patrick Ring, a member of the Youghal Fianna Fail Cumann.

REPAIRS TO CLOCK TOWER

At a recent U.D. Council meeting it was reported that any scheme to carry out repairs to the Clock Tower would depend on the amount contributed by the Government. The complete repairs would cost £3,000 of which £400 would be spent in the erection of outside scaffolding. It was decided that a full report on the work to be carried out be sent to the Department and request payment of a substantial grant. At the Council meeting a discussion took place on the public lighting in the town, and a Committee of the Council is to make an inspection and report back to the next meeting.

MISUSE OF PELLET GUNS

For some time past boys with pellet guns are damaging public lighting bulbs in addition to shooting at cats and dogs in the town. The matter was discussed at a Council meeting when a member stated he saw a pedigree terrier being shot by a pellet gun and a young lad received a pellet in the forehead. It was decided to refer the matter to the Department of Justice to take drastic action.

UNSUCCESSFUL CLAIM FOR DAMAGES

A bus driver who was "knocked down" by a motor-cooter at a Youghal Strand in August last was plaintiff in a personal injuries claim at a recent sitting of the High Court in Cork. The plaintiff was John Loda of Bohobue, and the defendant Jeremiah Kelly, C.I.E. porter of Youghal. In evidence, plaintiff stated that as a result of being knocked down he was 6 days at Youghal hospital, had lost the sight of one eye, and consequently as a bus driver he lost his £11 a week job, lost his driving licence and failed to get any work. Having heard the evidence of the defendant and witnesses of the accident, the jury found in favour of the defendant and accordingly judgment was entered for him with costs.

BOARD OF FISHERY CONSERVATORS

Realising the anxiety felt by both net and rod fishermen at the deterioration in salmon fishing for the past two seasons the Lismore Board of Conservators is about to consider the publishing of a detailed report of its activities and problems in addition to the work of artificial propagation of salmon and trout by the Hatchery Committee of the Blackwater. It is intended that copies of this report should be made available to net and rod fishermen so that they can see what the Board is doing and inviting interested parties to submit any helpful ideas to the Office at Youghal when they will be duly considered by the Board at the first opportunity. Final arrangements for publishing of this report will be made at the February Board meeting at Mallow.

Sweeps Derby Will Carry On Proud Tradition

In June this year when the runners come up to the starting gate for the Irish Sweeps Derby, there will be a great gathering of ghosts to watch the racing—kings, princes, saints, soldiers and at least one hundred generations of sporting men; riders, hunters, punters, coursers and chariot-ers. From the Bronze Age the Curragh has been devoted to the horse and indeed, its name means the Racecourse. No plough has desecrated its five thousand acres of gently rolling plain; the hard drudgeries of man's estate; digging, ploughing, labouring for his bread; have no jurisdiction here. This is a place for the brave side of man's life and nature . . . for the drumming of hooves and the shouting of the backers . . . for the lines of soldiers sweeping across the plain on manoeuvres . . . a place for the heroic ideals of manhood. And yet, with Irish paradox, legends grant the Curragh twice over to women.

AN ROINN TALMHAIOCHTA IMPORTATION OF UNBARKED CONIFEROUS TIMBER (PROHIBITION) ORDER, 1962

The Minister for Agriculture has made an Order under the Destructive Insects and Pests (Consolidation) Act, 1958, entitled as above which comes into effect on the 1st February, 1962. The Order prohibits, except under licence, the importation of timber in the round from trees of any of the coniferous species, with some or all of the bark still present, brought from any of the following countries—Belgium, Denmark, the Federal Republic of Germany and the Netherlands. The purpose of the Order is to prevent the introduction into the State of insects, fungi and other pests destructive to forest trees.

Copies of the Order may be purchased from the Government Publications Sales Office G.P.O. Arcade, Dublin 1, or through any bookseller (price 1d., postage 2d. extra).

J. C. NAGLE, Secretary.

Things were different after this

The wheel is generally thought to have been invented some 5,500 years ago in the East. Rough but sturdy in its earliest form it consisted of a circular disc either cut out of a solid piece of wood, or made up of separate planks of wood fastened together and then cut into a circular shape, and such wheels have persisted in use among certain people up to the present day. Both loose-running and fixed wheels on a revolving axle seem to have been used from very early times. From these simple beginnings the wheel has now become indispensable. It is the symbol of mobility, and life in a world without wheels is impossible to imagine.

Your luck may take a turn for the better. Buy a £1 ticket in the Grand National Sweepstake and give yourself a chance to win £50,000.

Ministers Statement Questioned

N.F.A. QUESTIONS MINISTERS STATEMENT AT ARD FHEIS

The Minister for Agriculture is reported as saying to the Fianna Fail Ard Fheis that farm income in 1961 was seven million pounds net higher than in 1960.

Even were this figure true the N.F.A. would have to think that the Minister or anybody else would be satisfied with it, because seven million pounds would merely mean an increase in farmers' estimated income of less than 7% since 1953.

Mr. Smith's statement that 75% of the farmers' produce is supported by the Government is also open to question. Does this figure include produce consumed on the farm, which amounts to approximately 15% of farm output and which obviously is not supported?

No one can deny that the farmers' position is deteriorating, if it continues, the apparent prosperity of the rest of the community will be undermined.

The N.F.A. expects our Minister for Agriculture to strongly back that industry—his charge—which, despite having the lowest prices in Europe, was responsible for a great increase in exports last year.

GREAT PITY SAYS MINISTER

Multiplicity weakens every organisation said the Minister for Agriculture when proposing the toast "The N.F.A." at the recent National Convention Dinner.

"With your permission," he said, "I should like to mention something which perhaps in a way is none of my business but which is so important that I think I am justified in introducing the subject. Those of you who attended a few years ago in Naas a function organised by the rural Associations of County Kildare will remember my talking on the same topic then, and the topic is the excessive number of rural organisations in the country. I believe there are too many separate organisations, and that this is prejudicial to the farmers' interests.

There is nobody in a better position to see the tragedy of all this than the Minister for Agriculture. Think of the number of deputations he must receive on the same subjects. Think of the difficulty in trying to set a reasonable limit to the number of persons on the committees we have set up to consider various aspects of agriculture in the Common Market.

As things are at present, if a committee or council of any kind is being established by the Department or by the Government, we have to make out a list of all the organisations which might be concerned, and we have to put a lot of posters to ourselves as to which of them should be represented on the committee or council.

LATE MR. T. BESTON

Widespread and deep regret has been caused through the death of Mr. Thomas Beston, which took place at his home Shanakill, Aglish, on Friday, 19th inst. He was in his 47th year and farmed extensively.

The attendance at the obsequies was the largest seen in the district for many years. The remains were received at Aglish Church on Saturday evening by Rev. E. Tobin, C.C., Rev. P. Osborne, C.C., and Rev. D. Slattery, C.C., Lismore.

body so cumbersome that it will be able to achieve very little. But one thing is certain: no matter how many you put on the committee or council, there will always be some organisation which will complain because it was not invited.

I had a perfect example of this problem in 1958 when the Agricultural Institute was being set up. Agricultural organisations are entitled to have five representatives on the Council of this body.

National Convention Calls for Justice

Inactivity by successive Governments in apportioning to Agriculture its fair share of the National Income has activated grave but just unrest among the farming community, which could lead to action in the near future.

This Convention now directs Council, since justice to the farming community on the basis of the N.F.A. document on the declining share of the National Income apportioned to farmers does not appear to be immediately forthcoming, to take more aggressive action to achieve justice and its just share of the National Income for Agriculture.

The N.F.A. must take immediate concrete, and within a short period (if necessary) aggressive action (on the basis of our French, Swiss, Danish and other counterparts) particularly on the question of reducing the rates burden (in accordance with the N.F.A. Farm Income (€38m.) document) by making Health and Road charges a central charge.

We demand that restrictions on the use of farmers' transport be removed as they are a hindrance to efficient production and marketing. We also demand that the burden of tractor taxation be removed.

We demand the establishment of producer controlled marketing boards. We demand that existing producer boards be allowed to exercise their full rights to deal with all sections of that community with which they deal.

We demand adequate and timely compensation for our farmers engaged in the eradication of Bovine T.B., which is an asset to the nation more than to the individual farmer.

point a Returning Officer, arrange for a postal ballot, and go to extreme lengths of red tape to find five representatives of the farming community.

Maybe I'm talking too much about this matter, but, if I am, it is only because I think the farmer is the loser under this undue proliferation of organisations. I know that it has been suggested that Governments cunningly connive at this situation on the principle of "divide and conquer."

vote to agriculture in 1961 was the highest ever recorded and we are not unappreciative of the effort that has been expended by the Department of Agriculture in reaching this record figure for the Agricultural Vote.

"However, the ultimate result has got to be measured in terms of the adequacy of all forms of income to the agricultural sector in meeting the fair claims of that sector in its just demands for an equitable standard of living with that of the rest of the community."

Further Increases Granted

"ONLY SHEDDING CROCODILE TEARS"

On the casting vote of the Chairman, Mr. W. Kenneally, it was decided at Monday's meeting of Waterford Health Authority to grant increases to a certain section of the Mental Hospital Staff.

Mr. T. Gallagher said since the last meeting of the Authority, representatives of the Workers Union discussed the matter with the Co. Manager and were now willing to accept a certain increase.

Mr. P. Browne said they have to be fair to themselves and they couldn't possibly carry on granting increases after increases. He would not oppose this particular increase but they would have to stop it sometime.

Mr. N. Walsh said the important question was when would they stop it. But it was in their own powers to do so.

Mr. A. Hamilton said the fighting of increases should have begun at the start.

Mr. J. Griffin—All I can say is one employee under this proposed increase would have a wage of £9-18-0 a week if granted. If this Christian country denies a man that weekly wage then we should look again at the basis of our philosophy.

Mr. T. Gallagher—We are voting for the lowest grade of employees we have.

Mr. N. Walsh said they were shedding crocodile tears about the rates. But he would make it known how members voted here at the coming Estimates meeting.

Mr. W. Collins said he had great pleasure in proposing the increases, as they had been paid "like skivvies."

LIVING IN NUCLEAR AGE

That they were living in a nuclear age and with the big powers situated as they were anything could happen, was stated by Mr. Norman Walsh, at Saturday's meeting of Waterford Committee of Agriculture. The members were discussing a request from the County Secretary, Mr. J. G. Dowling, for the release of a number of the Committee's officers for appointment as Civil Defence instructors following periods of training in a Civil Defence School in Dublin.

In his letter, Mr. Dowling said that the Agricultural Instructors would be ideal Civil Defence officers and all expenses incurred by the training period in Dublin would be borne by the County Council.

Mr. Norman Walsh said they should give their unqualified support. It was their duty to give all the help they could, he added.

The Chairman, Mr. John Fahy, said it was only right and proper that their officers be trained in the art of Civil Defence. They could have an emergency at any time without a shot being fired.

MEMBER COMPLIMENTED ON SON'S SUCCESS

Off to the U.S. next May on a six months agricultural educational tour is 20-year old Alex Heskin, Aglish, Glessaigh, the son of Mr. Norman Walsh, at Saturday's meeting of Waterford Committee of Agriculture. The members were discussing a request from the County Secretary, Mr. J. G. Dowling, for the release of a number of the Committee's officers for appointment as Civil Defence instructors following periods of training in a Civil Defence School in Dublin.

Mr. Norman Walsh said they should give their unqualified support. It was their duty to give all the help they could, he added.

Mr. Norman Walsh said he was being a great honour to the Heskin family. It was also a great honour for West Waterford and they were all proud of his achievement.

Mr. George Heskin in reply thanked the members for their congratulations. It was a great honour to his son and himself and something that few achieved. He hoped the world would come back and tell of his experiences in the States. He would be in different parts of America and in view of the Common Market every bit of knowledge they could get from outside sources would be very helpful.

Modern Heating and Lighting for Offices

It was also decided to install modern fluorescent lighting and a storage heater in two of the Committee's offices in Dungarvan at a total cost of £24-11-6.

The C.A.O. said the work was very essential and the maintenance cost wouldn't be anything extra.

FIRST ALL-CAELTACHT FESTIVAL FOR RING

News received in Ring last week brings great pleasure to the Gaeltacht people and indeed to all lovers of our native language and culture throughout the Deise—our own Co. Waterford Gaeltacht has been chosen to stage the first all-Gaeltacht Feile, when contingents from all other Gaeltacht areas will flock thither and display the very best of their great heritage in music, story and song. This decision was taken at a meeting held in Galway on Sunday, January 21st, when representatives came together from the Gaeltacht areas of Counties Donegal, Mayo, Galway, Kerry, Cork, Waterford and Meath.

A signal honour too for the Deise was the election of Nioclás Mac Craith as Cathaoirleach of the Ard-Chomhairle. Nioclás is well known in G.A.A. and cultural circles for many years and in his new office we wish him saol fada agus laethanna grala. He has also

Authority Give £200 Grant

The magnificent work being done for mentally handicapped children in Waterford City and the fruitful results of this work was told to members of Waterford Health Authority at Monday's meeting by Ald. T. Gallagher.

Mr. Gallagher asking that the Authority give a grant of £200 towards the fund said it would pay for a physiotherapist for four hours a week for a year.

Mr. Gallagher said the work being done for these children would be well worth the consideration of the Authority. Their only means of income was by flag days. At present sixteen children were being treated and each day voluntary helpers brought them to the institution in their cars. Prior to being treated some of them were unable to walk but had been trained to do so.

Mr. Gallagher went on to say that a convent was then established in Lady Lade, Waterford, for backward children and again great progress was being made. A spastic masseur was going to be brought and in view of the fact that so many children were waiting to go to homes for treatment he thought a regional hospital should be built in Waterford. That was the aim of the voluntary workers in the City.

On the proposal of Mr. J. Power seconded by Mr. J. Fahy, it was unanimously decided to give the £200.

Late Mr. John Lynch

MONEA, ARDMORE

The death took place at Dungarvan Hospital on 17th Jan. of Mr. John Lynch after a brief illness and in the fullness of years. Deceased was the last surviving member of many generations of Lynchs in Monea. The funeral to Ard-Parish Church was large and representatives and following Requiem Mass the following day the interment took place in St. Declan's Cemetery. Rev. Fr. Flavin officiated at the graveside. Deepest sympathy is extended to his relatives. (J. Phelan, Square, Dungarvan, had charge of funeral arrangements).

BROOKLYN LADY WAS PLEASED

From the pages of the "Dungarvan Observer" to the columns of a New York newspaper "The Advocate" went a little post-Christmas story which caught the fancy of the American editor—and which brought back memories of the "Old Boro" to a lady residing in Brooklyn.

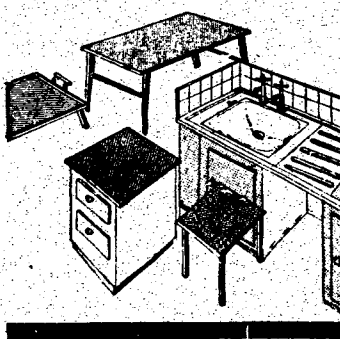

Mrs. Mary Teresa Driscoll (formerly O'Brien from Ballygurry) writing from New York says that she was surprised and delighted to read the story of the eleven girls who had two Christmas dinners—one of them in school—under the guidance of their instructress, Miss Ethne Beresford, Coolnagour, whose parents were neighbours of the O'Brien.

Mrs. Driscoll, who last visited her birthplace in 1933, says that she is always on the look out for any bits of news from dear old Dungarvan.

CHORAL AND ORCHESTRA GROUP PLAN NEW CONCERT

Do you sing tenor—or play the violin? If you do and would like to put your talent to work in pleasant company there is a place for you with the Dungarvan Choral and Orchestral Society.

This fine local amateur group is currently getting down to the serious business of preliminary rehearsals for a successor to their recently-held highly successful concert. The next concert will be held at Eastertime.

At the general meeting of the group held last week it was decided to arrange for the holding of another concert, with full choir, orchestra and soloists, on similar lines to the inaugural performance held prior to Christmas. Many new members have joined the ranks in the interim and the Society welcomes any singers or musicians who may wish to join.

Choir rehearsals, in sections are being held Mondays and Thursdays at the Friary Hall, while the Orchestra members meet on Tuesdays at the same venue. Society President, Mr. Jim Patterson, Mountain Villas, Dungarvan, is usually on hand to receive new members and encourage the established ones.

Mrs. M. V. Morrissey, South Terrace, is in charge of the choir, while the orchestra is directed by Mr. M. A. Hennebery, Park Terrace.

Second-Half Goals Made Victory Secure

Ballinacourty Champions Of

New League

Ballinacourty 2-6; Ring 0-1

DESPITE the gloom that may haunt a club, defeat, unlike the babbling brook cannot go on forever. That axiom was made as clear as day to fifteen junior footballers from Ballinacourty on Sunday last, when at rain-swept Fraher Field they became the first champions of the newly-established league by beating Ring 2-6 to 0-1.

True this competition in comparison to the championship is only of a secondary nature. Yet to suggest that the participating clubs didn't take the competition seriously would be nothing short of a flimsy and unfounded excuse to cover up for their own defeats. All were intent on finishing on top and it is in this manner that one should judge this up-and-coming Ballinacourty side.

Like the winners Ring had everything to gain on Sunday. Victory would have brought them right back into the running and given them another crack at Emmetts to whom they narrowly failed in a preceding game. But it was not to be. Ballinacourty made it plain for all to see that as junior sides go to-day they have few peers.

When winning the toss and electing to play with the strong breeze, Ballinacourty encamped in Ring's half of the field. The few balls that did pass the halfway line were driven back by an unbeatable Mick Kiely and so we stood and watched a battle royal in the Gaeltacht danger zone.

And yet the real zip and scoring power that has become a vital cog in Ballinacourty's wheel just didn't seem to function properly in this half.

Twice in the first seven minutes Ring's cross-bar proved a timely intervention against goal-scoring efforts and at the short-whistle their 0-5 to 0-0 lead looked as insecure as a cork in the ocean.

Certainly Ring's position seemed a definite criterion to a hum-dinger of a second-half. With their backs to the breeze it became reasonable to assume that they would have a territorial advantage. Thus we pondered and wondered how the winners much vaunted defence would stand the strain.

But in actual fact they were never really called upon to do so. Thanks to a golden sixty seconds spell that brought them two goals, Ballinacourty's grip on the game became an unbreakable one, and we sat out the remainder of the game watching the winners serve up a brand of football that can only mean success in the championship that lies ahead.

In passing, however, it must be stated that their first goal looked suspiciously illegal, as Ring's goalkeeper Nick Graves looked to have been fouled in possession. But there could have been no doubting the legality of their second goal which came within seconds of the first. Diminutive Johnny Hogan as elusive as an eel, placed a perfect centre at the feet of "Duck" Whelan and the burly full-forward made no mistake with a crashing drive.

Whilst it would be folly to suggest that the winners' first goal was the game's turning point, I am inclined to agree with the contention that had it been disallowed, Ring's defeat might not have been so heavy. The real difference between the sides, however, lay in the respective forward divisions. Whereas Ballinacourty made reasonably good use of scoring chances their counter-parts looked utterly incapable of scoring and their solitary score came nine minutes from time when the winners were obviously resting on their oars.

THE SCORES
Ballinacourty with the first-half wind advantage, took up the running from the start and twice certain goals were denied them by the cross-bar early on. In the 8th minute, however, "Duck" Whelan placed Fat McGovern for the opening point and six minutes later Denis Flynn added a second. The Hogan brothers, Johnny and Pakie go amongst the scorers in the 16th and 19th minutes and Tony Mansfield made it 0-5 to 0-0 when the pointed a close-in free before the interval.

As in the opening half, Ballinacourty dictated terms early after the break and when Johnny Hogan was fouled Mansfield duly obliged, with a point from the resultant free. In a twinkling, however, Thomas Hogan was in action at the other end in saving twice from Ring's Crotty and Curran. Then in the 9th minute came the first of the winners' goals and before the excitement had died down, Graves was again picking the ball from the net from a "Duck" Whelan special.

From then on, one could have written Ring's obituary. Admittedly, they tried gallantly to put a respectable appearance on the scoreboard but only managed a single point by Liam Meagher in the 21st minute.

TEAM EFFORT
If some surpassed others in this Ballinacourty victory, I am loathe to describe it as other than a successful team effort. For truly all fifteen played their parts well.

Thomas Hogan made several good saves in the second-half and it is surely worth mentioning that he was never once beaten during the four-match campaign.

Fronting him was a full-back line that most goalies yearn for these days. Full-back Mick Kiely was unassailable throughout and looked every inch the complete defender as he off-fielded all comers. Jim Hayes and Peadar Wall were a hardy in the Kiely class, yet both fitted the required bill perfectly.

All three half-backs—Tony Mansfield, John McGrath and Danny Barry held a firm grip on their respective opponents and I find it impossible to single out one above the other so effectively did they perform.

Nicholas Power and Pakie Hogan hadn't exactly a "joy-ride" at midfield due largely to the exuberant Tommy Joe Harty, yet both turned in sterling displays.

Under such trying conditions the forwards did well to notch 2-6. Early on their accuracy wasn't all it should have been, but once they found their target, the likelihood of further scores was great.

On this occasion half-forwards Jack Elstead, Peter Power and Pat McGovern did the spade work, whilst the full line of Johnny Hogan, Duck Whelan and Denis Flynn did the greatest share of the scoring. Hogan, in particular, seemed to be in his element, and his deft touches were utilised to profitable advantage.

No blame can be attached to the Ring defence for defeat, and Sylvester Murray, Sean Kiely and Messie Keane were always to the fore. Tommy Joe Harty turned in yet another great hour at midfield and it has come as no surprise that he has been chosen as a sub. for the vital league game against Limerick on Sunday week.

As in most outings recently the attack was the Achilles heel of the Ring side. They seldom moved with a definite purpose and of the six only Liam Meagher and Eddie Crotty deserve mention.

Ballinacourty: T. Hogan; J. Hayes, M. Kiely, P. Wall, T. Mansfield, J. McGrath, D. Barry, N. Power, P. Hogan, J. Elstead, P. Power, P. McGovern, J. Hogan, D. Whelan, D. Flynn.

Fourmilewater Score Unimpressive Victory

Fourmilewater justified their title of favourites on Sunday last when they accounted for Affane in the semi-final of the winter junior hurling competition at Ballymacarby.

The game, however, despite the closeness of the scoring had little to commend it in the way of good hurling. The elements—so typical of the bleakness of a January afternoon, played havoc with the ball and made it an uncomfortable hour for players and spectators.

SCOREABLE RESULT
On the general run of play the result was an equitable one. Fourmilewater had to overcome many anxious moments before they were ensured of a place in the decider. Playing with a strong breeze in the first half the winners liberally "owned" the expanse. But for all their good work outfield there was very little reflection of it on the scoreboard at the interval and the home team must have been anything but satisfied with their 1-2 to 0-0 lead.

The title of champions, however, isn't very easily attained and are real champions ever anxious to crash unexpectedly. And so it was with Fourmilewater. Facing ever-increasing second-half odds that made their dilemma look at one stage beyond the powers of recovery they made their stand. Whilst their defence remained majestically unperturbed, their attack scraped through for match-winning scores.

CONTRIVERSIAL INCIDENT

And yet, despite their grand stand the Ballymac men had lacy luck on their side. Midway through the second-half, with the issue in the balance Liam McCarthy saved on the goal-line and in the ensuing foul-mouth scuffle the ball at first appeared to have crossed the line before harassed defenders eventually scrambled it to safety. Had that score been allowed anything might have happened. Instead, the winners—obviously shocked by their near misfortune—took up the running and held the initiative to the end.

In the aftermath that controversial incident took precedence over all else. Affane left no doubt as to the effect it had on the outcome, yet somehow, the winners seemed to have that little extra in reserve.

The home team may also offer the absence of the Walshs—Benny and Martin (due to a family bereavement) as an excuse for their none too impressive display. Both were sadly missed from their customary berths, and their return can hardly be soon enough for team mentors.

Goalkeeper Liam McCarthy turned in yet another fine display, and when his defence was fighting with its back to the Wall he stood between Affane and at least two goals.

SOLID DEFENCE

The very fact that Affane could register only two scores speaks highly for the solidity of the winners defence. All six turned in workmanlike displays, with Mick Connolly, Liam Ryan (full-back) and Jim Ahearns being particularly prominent.

Thanks to the ceaseless work of Kieran Ryan and Tom Walsh, Fourmilewater held the upper-hand at mid-field for most of the game, but in an attack that found an Affane defence exceedingly difficult to penetrate, only Billy Grant and Jimmy Hewitt enjoyed any measure of success.

For Affane who came close to upsetting predictions that expected, none played better than Sean Buckley, Jimmy Cahill and the McGraths.

Fourmilewater: L. McCarthy; J. Kiely, L. Ryan, J. Grant; L. Ryan, M. Connolly, J. Ahearns; T. Walsh, K. O'Ryan; A. Barron, B. Grant; J. Hewitt; P. J. Moore, P. Phelan, D. Kennedy.

Abbeyside Make it Four-in-a-Row

ABBEYSIDE UTD. 2; GLENVILLE 1.

ABBEYSIDE had another good win on Sunday last, and have now brought their victories to four in a row, when at New Lane Park, they defeated Glenville 2-1. Goal-kick rain fell throughout most of the game and it is to the credit of both teams the way they overcame the conditions, and managed to keep the large crowd on their toes to the very end.

The game started off in a welter of excitement as play swung from end to end with some thrilling goal-mouth tussles. But, defences remained on top and at the half way stage neither side had registered a score.

The fast pace continued in the second half but the home side were beginning to get on top and within seven minutes with as nice a goal as has been seen at this venue, to give his side victory.

Best for Abbeyside were Paddy Whelan, Michael Keohan and Jerry Flynn in the backline, while up front Michael Singleton, Danny Connors and Billy Mulvihill were most impressive.

Abbeyside: J. McGrath, J. Flynn, B. Organ, M. Keohan, P. Whelan (capt.), J. O'Brien, D. McGovern, A. McGovern, M. Singleton, D. Connors, B. Mulvihill.
SUNDAY'S GAME
Abbeyside face their toughest test to-date on Sunday next when they face top-of-the-table Marian, at Poleberry Park, Waterford. The City team must be regarded as favourites to win this tie, but somehow I fancy the village boys may cause a shock and take at least a division of the points.

DANNY O'CONNOR

Michael Singleton had sent them into the lead. Abbeyside continued to dominate the exchanges and but for some faulty finishing up front must have increased their lead.

With eight minutes left for play Glenville made one of their very rare attacks in this half and from a mix-up in the area their centre-forward sent to the net to give them what seemed a certain division of the points.

But this only served to sting United back into action and an all-out onslaught was staged on the visitors goal and with time running out, centre-forward Singleton again found the net.

ANNUAL G.A.A. CONVENTION County Secretary Reviews the Past Year

IN his detailed report to Sunday's County Convention in Dungarvan, outgoing Secretary, Dec. Goode, says the year just ended was a most successful one from every aspect, and financially and in things material, their advance on the Gaelic front was considerable.

The all-round standard of our competitions, he said, was above the average whilst conduct on the playing fields left little to be desired. He also warns that in future county championships must take priority to all other competitions.

Gaelic History

Referring to the visit of the county's senior hurlers to Dundalk to play Kilkenny last

MR. DEUGLAN GUID

April, he says that trip made Gaelic history in the Deise. The distant past almost unknown was joined to their living present—it was not just a game but was part of the fellowship, the "main-tearair" of the people of Ireland, both past and present.

Referring to the May league final against Tipperary, Secretary Goode says: "Waterford,

GAME OF THE YEAR

Dealing with the senior hurling championship, he said, the meeting of old rivals, Erin's Own and Mount Sion was the game of the year and a draw was a fitting result. The replay, however, didn't quite live up to expectations and a much improved Mount Sion retained the title. Likewise Sion vanquished every opposition in football and thus recorded the big senior double.

Splendid Report

These are just a few of the extracts of this splendid report—a report so characteristic of the man that wrote it. It's every word bears some significance. Criticism is voiced rightly in parts while he is not under generous in lavishing praise where it is due. Yes, it is a report that could hardly be improved on. But then again could the county possibly hope for a more efficient or conscientious Secretary? I do not think so.

Wedding Bells: Kenneally-Gough

The marriage took place on St. Stephen's Day, at St. Mary's Parish Church, Dungarvan, between Mr. Patrick Joseph Kenneally, son of Mr. Patrick Kenneally, Convent Road and the late Mrs. Kenneally, and Miss Mary Esther Gough, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Gough, Michel St.

The ceremony, with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing, was performed by the Rev. Fr. J. Gough, O.S.A., brother of the bride, assisted by Rev. Fr. Murphy, C.C.

The best man was Mr. Francis Kenneally (brother of the groom) and the bridesmaid was Miss Maria Gough (niece of the bride). The reception was held at Lismore Hotel. The honeymoon was spent in Cork.

We join with the couple's many friends in wishing them every happiness in the married state.
