CHAIRMAN WILL PROTECT COUNTY RATEPAYERS

Youghal Bridge - What Now?

NOW that work on Youghal Bridge is well advanced it would appear that this troublesome and expensive project has at last been settled satisfactorily. But if there is foundation to the serious allegations made by County Council Chairman, Mr. C. Curran, at Monday's quarterly meeting then we can expect explosive happening that could have drastic consequences.

Just before the end of Monday's meeting Mr. Curran said the new Youghal Bridge would be completed in a few months, but they would be then saddled with the bill for it. "I however," said Mr. Curran, "intend asking the Minister for an investigation into the way the survey was carried out before the specifications were submitted to the contractor. I want to protect the rate-payers of Waterford. There was negligence in the plans and the specifications were not correct. This will be a serious matter for the rate-payers of both Waterford and Cork."

Colr. Curran went on: "We (Waterford County Council) asked for a meeting with representatives of Cork County Council but they refused to meet us. I will not let them get away with it and will prepare a statement at the appropriate time. I know the views of our own Co. Manager on it and my statement will be presented to the Minister.

Mr. Norman Walsh asked if there was any loophole to it. They were paying for the project on a respective valuation basis.

Mr. Curran—I'm making this statement as a warning to Cork County Council.

Colr. N. Walsh—Can you save the Waterford ratepayers by this statement.

Colr. Curran—I'll try.

Colr. Walsh—I hope you can succeed.

Colr. J. Quirke said it wasn't the fault of Waterford County Council. They tried but failed to get any facts from their Cork counter-parts.

Colr. N. Walsh—When will you move on it Mr. Chairman. You are being very vague about the whole thing.

Colr. Curran—Cork County Council refused to meet us. I'm legally advised on this matter but I won't make a public statement until the time is appropriate.

The discussion then ended.

Ballinacourty Residents Without Water

"A CRYING SHAME"

THAT it was a crying shame to leave residents of Ballinard, Ballinacourty, without water, was stated by Deputy Kyne at Monday's County Council meeting.

Deputy Kyne said that despite the fact that the scheme had been paid for a long time the residents weren't receiving a satisfactory supply. The County Engineer had said the pipes were all right and there was plenty of water but he (Deputy Kyne) himself visited the area and there was no water.

A local plumber, he said, suggested that if any pipes were saved from the Dungarvan scheme the County Council might acquire them for this scheme.

The people in Ballinacourty, continued Deputy Kyne, went in for market gardening and it was very wrong to leave them without water.

WON CASH PRIZE

Winner of a £40 prize in a national Gaelic pools competition this week was Mrs M. Phillips. Tax Office, Dungarvan.

DOLLS, DANCING AND COMPOSING

ALL the girls in the Convent of Mercy Schools, Dungarvan, know and like Miss Celine Penny, who travels a journey of one hundred and forty miles each week from Limerick City and back to give them instruction in the art of the ballet and to teach them dancing and physical culture.

Flower, St. Therese) in France during a Lourdes pilgrimage.

Colleen and Ballerina

Among her collection also is a Spanish Lady doll which a friend brought her from Barcelona and she picked up a pretty Manx Doll during holidays in the Isle of Man. From Donegal she obtained an attractive Colleen doll, while one of her prize possession is the tiny Russian Ballerina figurine which she received as a presentation from one of her groups of ballet class students.

One from Dungarvan

Voodoo Dancers, Basque Peasants, Macki Dolls and a Dutch hedgehog car-mascot are representative of the fourteen countries in her collection to date.

Dungarvan, too, helped to add to her collection, and Miss Penny was delighted with a small wood hand-carved set of two African dancers complete with drums and spears which she discovered while making some purchases in a shop in town.

Prize-Winning Creations

This busy dancing teacher spends her week-ends house-keeping for seven brothers and two sisters, whose parents died some time ago.

In addition to ballet she also teaches Irish step-dancing, and her original dance creations, "Tara Brooch," "Gaelic Coffee," "Cros Brighide," "Mise Eire," "Claddagh Ring" and "Cross Roads" all won prizes at Feile Luimnigh.

Dance, Girls, Dance!

Miss Penny feels that learning dancing of all types is an important addition to the education of young girls. She thinks that all girls should have some training especially in Irish step-dancing which is a great aid to posture and rhythm training.

She paid tribute to the Sisters of Mercy at Dungarvan for the great interest which they take in the physical culture training of their pupils through dancing lessons and P.T. exercises.

Miss Penny is currently working on two new dance creations and a ballet adaption which will be based on ancient legends.

Lens View

The dolls are carefully grouped and housed in glass cases and some of them were only removed for a short while to allow an "Observer" photographer to take a picture of them.

Dolls and More Dolls

Miss Penny has a Bavarian "Happy Wanderer" which was sent to her by German friends, a Red Indian girl complete with feather head-dress from North America, Scottish Pipers and Dancers which she purchased while attending the Edinburgh Festival, and a tiny Breton Maid obtained in the town of Lisieux (of the Little

GUN CLUB

A big programme is on the agenda for Saturday night meeting and it is hoped that as many members as possible will be in attendance.

No Decision on Road Expenditure

WATERFORD County Council at its monthly meeting in Dungarvan on Monday last unanimously decided to defer until the Estimates meeting the question of borrowing £15,000 for the carrying out of repairs on proposed new public roads.

Mr. Gerry Ormonde, B.E., the Acting County Engineer, said the total amount of roads to be repaired was approximately 18 or 19 miles.

Deputy Tom Kyne said most of the roads listed on the present road scheme were worthy of consideration and they should either take them all over on bloc or none at all.

Colr. George Heskin said some roads got grants, but when the grant expired and they hadn't been taken over by the County Council and went into disrepair. It was money down the drain, he said.

Colr. N. Walsh said he'd like to know where the special employment scheme grant fitted into this proposal. "We are only fooling the people," he said, "by telling them we are going to take over roads when we honestly know there's not a hope of doing so."

The Chairman said he didn't think the matter would be a recurring problem and if it was, it would only be in a minor way.

Colr. J. Fahy said they should first consider the plight of the people living on these roads and everything possible should be done to relieve their hardships.

"IGNORE IT" A circular letter from the Department of Local Government of the present Polling Schemes drew outbursts of protest from members.

The Chairman (Colr. Curran) said they should ignore the letter as a gesture of protest as no county had been treated as shabby as Waterford.

Colr. George Heskin said the Dept. should forget about polling booths and give them back their county. Up in West Waterford we're not interested in the Government any more, he added.

Mr. Curran said it was scandalous that in part of West Waterford they had to depend on Tipperary deputies for aid.

Colr. Heskin—We want our county back first. Then we can talk about polling booths.

"REASONABLE REQUEST" A motion proposed by Colr. P. Cahill and seconded by Colr. G. Heskin "that owing to the difficulty rate collectors find for qualifying, that the qualifying dates for rate payments be changed as follows: 1st qualifying date from Sept. 30th to Oct. 31st; 2nd qualifying date from 31st Oct. to 30th Nov.; 3rd qualifying date from 31st Dec. to 31st Jan. 1963, was passed unanimously. The motion will not be put in the form of a recommendation to the County Manager.

Colr. G. Heskin said it was a very reasonable request. Colr. Norman Walsh said it was a motion asking for leniency. At present one moiety was on top of another and was proving a great burden to the ratepayers.

ELECTION TO PENSIONS SUB-COMMITTEE The following were elected to fill the vacancies on the Council No. 2 Old Age Pensions Committee: Mr. Jim Moloney, N.T., The Nire; Paddy Ryan, Ballymacarby; John Coffey, Croughateskin, Ballymac. Mr. Joseph Gilman, Barrack St., Ballymacarby; Ml. Desmond, Creamery, do.

CHANG OF DATE FOR ESTIMATES MEETING Owing to the inability of several members to attend the Estimates meeting, originally fixed for Tuesday, Feb. 27th, the date has now been changed to Monday, March 5th.

TRAINING IN TRADITIONAL MUSIC FOR YOUNGSTERS

Dungarvan branch Comhaltas Ceoltóirí Éireann are breaking new ground as part of the plan to spread out into the different parishes in the county. On to-morrow (Friday) night they are staging a full scale concert to bring a night of music and song to Leamybrien where arrangements are in hand for the formation of a new branch.

The popular music sessions have recommenced in Dungarvan and have attracted a number of new members to the branch, including a number of youths. It is now proposed to give instruction in traditional music to juveniles, and branch secretary Mr. E. Feehan, Abbeyside will deal with any queries from prospective new members.

Arrangements for Feidhlim Ceoil na nDéise to be held in Dungarvan on Easter Sunday and Monday are now well in hand. The local committee has secured the services of the famous Kincora Celli Trio of Dublin for the Ceilí Mór, while a feature of the big concert will be the music of the McPeck Family Trio of Belfast of radio and television fame.

Kilmacthomas Notes

At Oratt's Dog Show in London, last week, Mrs. Wende, Leamybrien, won third and fourth prizes with a 3-year-old whippet.

A Very Esteemed Member of the Farming Fraternity, in the person of Mr. John (Jack) Galvin, Stradbally (late of Foxes-castle, Kilmacthomas), died at Ardkeen Hospital, last Sunday, 11th inst. (Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes). In failing health since his good wife (nee Whelan) passed away a few months ago, he had many qualities which endeared him to all who knew him, and the large concourse of mourning friends and relatives that followed the remains on removal to the Parish Church, Stradbally, on Monday evening, and that attended at the interment which took place in the adjoining cemetery on Tuesday (after Requiem Mass) bore ample testimony to the great respect and high regard in which he was held. Very Rev. D. Power, P.P., Stradbally, assisted by Rev. M. O'Doherty, C.C., officiated at the graveside. Numerous spiritual bouquets and messages of condolence were received. R.I.P.

Gaelic Garnerings — The death (result of an accident) of Ballinafina (Rathgormack) born Mr. Michael Walsh, Manager, Rathgormack Co-op. Agricultural Society, Ltd., Carrickbeg, Carrick-on-Suir, removed another Barony of Upper Third man who was a brilliant exponent of the big ball code in his heyday.

At a specially convened meeting of the surviving members of the old Rathgormack Football Club, it was recalled that the late Mr. Walsh was a most enthusiastic and active member and player of considerable merit and was full in the flush of his manhood's early prime during Rathgormack's halcyon span as Waterford County Champions—1910 to 1915. And then a vote of condolence was passed in respectful silence with his sorrowing widow and family in heavy tribulation, and it was also resolved to have a Novena of Masses offered for the repose of his soul.

By the way, mise bocht fein recollects right well distinct Day for the old Rathgormack Football Club and the Gaels of the Decies generally, viz., the last Sunday of the eighth month of the year immediately preceding the annum in which "The Dungarvan Observer" was founded half a century ago (by the present Proprietor-Editor's father—the late Mr. J. A. Lynch, of worthily honoured memory—who, besides being its proprietor, also edited the paper up to his all-too-early demise).

Yes, dear reader, on Sunday August 27th, 1911, for the first time in the annals of the G.A.A., a Kerry senior football team succumbed in championship competition to a Waterford combination comprised of eleven players from Rathgormack; two from Lismore; one from Cappoquin, and three from Waterford City. This large cortege of mourners and triumph over the Kingdom, which was in the initial round of the Munster Championship competition of aforesaid annum, was annexed at Malinow Sportsfield and the full notches of the keenly-keen hour of action read: Waterford, 1-2; Kerry 1-0.

The Dulse representation on that historic occasion was: P. Lynch (capt.), M. Lynch, J. Lynch, P. Daly, M. Curry, M. Norris, Mee, Morris, M. Coughlan, M. Walsh, E. Power, J. Power (Rathgormack), F. Doyle, J. Moore, J. Phelan (Waterford City), M. Landers, J. Ryan (Lismore) and Moss Hackett (Cappoquin).

Truly thrilled through and through with joy-fraught excitement were the Waterford supporters in attendance at a match when the long whistle sounded; as, prior to the major-grade mix, they had witnessed the enactment of the first round of the Munster Junior Football Championship — from which the Portlaine string also emerged victorious over their rivals, 7 points to 1 goal.

Chiefly responsible for the success of the old Rathgormack Club was the Rev. D. Power (now the Venerable Archdeacon David Power, P.P., V.F. Dungarvan), who, in his college days was a playing member and outstanding among the team were: Michael Curry, who had previously won two All-Ireland medals with Dublin Kickhams, and Percy Kirwan, the world-famous athlete who distinguished himself at the athletic contests at the Pappal International Celebration at Rome about that time against world champions. Hale and hearty to-day, thank God, is universally esteemed Archdeacon Power. Of the great Rathgormack team referred to, still to the good are: Michael Curry, Percy Kirwan, Martin Coughlan, John Power and Paddy Daly.

LATE MR. DANIEL DONOVAN

Callan Brigitte M., Dungarvan

The sad event of the death of Mr. Daniel Donovan took place at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan, on Tuesday, February 6th, at a rather advanced age and fortified by the Rites of Holy Church. He was a member of a very old Dungarvan family and was of a quite and gentle disposition, which made him a life long friend of young and old alike. Much sympathy is extended to his wife and family on this sad occasion.

The remains were removed on Wednesday evening to St. Mary's Parish Church followed by a very large and impressive cortege and were received by Rev. Fr. J. Murphy, C.C.

Requiem Mass was celebrated on Thursday morning for the happy repose of his soul and the interment took place later in the Old Church Cemetery. Fr. J. Murphy, C.C., officiated at the graveside. Another large concourse were present offering their sympathy to his nearest and dearest.

The chief mourners were: Annie Donovan (widow); Dan, Johnny, Pado, Jimmy, Michael (sons); Mrs. Marks, Mrs. Moyle, Mrs. Power, Mrs. Boyer, Mrs. Walsh (daughters); Mr. and Mrs. G. Fleming (grand-daughter and husband); sons-in-law, daughters-in-law and other relatives.

(Funeral arrangements by James Kiely and Sons, Dungarvan.)

LATE MR. MICHL. POWER

Murphy Place, Abbeyside

The death took place at Ardkeen General Hospital on Tuesday, 6th February, after an illness of rather short duration. He was a general favourite in a very large area and the possessor of an outstanding personality which won for him the admiration of young and old. He was always in happy and jovial spirits. He was a fond lover of the native games and was always in attendance at the matches. He spent most of his life in the employment of K. Williams & Co. and later with the firm of A. Moloney & Sons, and was a native of Ballinknock.

The greatest of sympathy is extended to his wife and young family and also to his brothers and sisters.

The remains were removed from Ardkeen Mortuary after the prayers were recited by Rev. Fr. Grace, Chaplain to the Hospital, to Abbeyside Church, followed by a huge cortege of mourners and friends and were received by Rev. Fr. M. Walsh, C.C., assisted by Very Rev. Fr. J. Roche, P.P.

Requiem Mass was offered for the happy and eternal repose of his young soul after which the funeral left the Church for Kilrossanty Cemetery where the interment was made in the family plot. Very Rev. Fr. T. Hartly, P.P., Kilrossanty, assisted by Very Rev. Fr. J. Roche, P.P., Abbeyside and Rev. Fr. J. Lacey, C.C., Kilgobbin, imparted the final absolution and recited the prayers for the dead amid manifestation of very great sorrow from the very large concourse present. Very large sheaves of spiritual tributes were received by his loving family.

Dungarvan Man Evades Jail Sentences

WILLIAM TERRY, 23½ year-old farm labourer, of Cathal Brugha Place, Dungarvan, successfully appealed against the District Court convictions involving a total of three months imprisonment with hard labour at the quarterly sessions of Dungarvan Circuit Court on Tuesday.

The case which first came before District Justice Skinner in September last arose out of a midnight brawl in Dungarvan on July 16th last in which 20 to 50 people were implicated. Terry was then convicted of (1) assaulting John Nugent, Kilnafrehan, Dungarvan, on July 16th, (2) assaulting Liam Fitzgerald, also of Kilnafrehan, on the same night and (3) being drunk and disorderly. He was sentenced to three months hard labour on each of the assault charges and one month on the drunk and disorderly charge, the sentences to run concurrently.

Following character references by Supt. Costello and Mr. John Brett, Colligan, defendant's employer, Judge S. Mac D. Fawcitt dismissed the assault charge against Fitzgerald, imposed a suspensory sentence of one month and a fine of £10 for assaulting Nugent and fined him 1/- for being drunk and disorderly. He was also bound to the peace for two years on his own recognisances of £20.

"NOW IS YOUR TIME"
 John Nugent (23), Kilnafrehan, said on the night of July 16th last he was in Dungarvan with Liam Fitzgerald. Before midnight they went to Ryan's Cafe in Main Street for chips. On leaving the chip shop a man now known to him as Michael Wright came over and said "now is your time". Fitzgerald and himself went down Main Street but Wright followed them. They turned back and he (Wright) drew a few swipes at Fitzgerald and knocked him to the ground. He got up and ran towards the Square where Sergt. Browne and Guard Griffin were standing. They (Guards) grabbed Wright and took him to the barracks. Shortly afterwards he (witness) heard Fitzgerald shouting for help on the Square. He ran up and saw Fitzgerald on the ground and a crowd around him. Terry was one of the crowd. He witness asked them to leave Fitzgerald alone but they turned on him and gave him a beating. Terry was again one of the crowd. He was cut over the eye and had bruises on his arms.

Mr. D. P. Sheridan, B.L. de- pending—Do you know who hit you?
 Witness—No.
KNOCKED TO THE GROUND
 Mr. Liam Fitzgerald (29), Kilnafrehan, Land Drainage worker, corroborated Nugent's evidence about the incident with Wright. Continuing he said: "After Wright was arrested I went over to the Square where Nugent remained at Morrissey's corner. I then heard a crowd after me and was knocked to the ground and kicked. I didn't see Terry at all that night."
 Sergeant J. Browne said he was on duty on the night of July 16th with Garda John Griffin. They were on the Square when Nugent and Fitzgerald ran up to them. Michael Wright was following them and he made swipes to hit both men. They arrested Wright who was acting like a mad-man. They took him to the station, but he resisted.
 They were then surrounded by 20 or 30 men, said witness, who demanded that we let Wright go. The defendant Terry appeared to be the leader and he said—if we don't let Wright go we'll get these other two. When bringing Wright to the barracks we heard shouting and when returning from the Garda's a man we saw Fitzgerald who was badly hurt. There was a crowd of 40 or 50 in disorderly behaviour and a bottle was thrown at us. We arrested three men—one of them was defendant and took them to the barracks. Defendant was also one of the men that I caught at Nugent and Fitzgerald's.

Mr. Sheridan, B.L. (for Terry) said he did not deny that he was drunk but he did not deny that he was not drunk at the time.
 Sergt. Browne—Guard Begley did.

Mr. Sheridan—I suggest that when Terry was brought to the station that night he was not charged but was released and summoned subsequently.
 Sergt. Browne—That is so.
 Mr. Sheridan—Why did you not charge him there and then if he was the ring-leader.
 Sergt. Browne—Because he could not appreciate the charge at the time.

Mr. Sheridan—I put it to you Terry wasn't disorderly at all.
 Sergt. Browne—He demanded the release of Wright.
 In reply to further cross-examination witness said he couldn't be sure if he struck Terry that night. Four people in all were charged.

MISTAKE
 Mr. Sheridan said he was fearful lest Sergt. Browne might be making a mistake. His client was adamant he hadn't taken part in any of the trouble.
 Garda Daniel Begley said he was on duty in the early hours of Sunday morning, 16th July last. At approximately 12.30 he heard shouting in O'Connell St. and when he approached nearer he saw four men spread across the footpath. They were Michael Dugan, Thomas O'Neill, James Walsh and the defendant Terry. They were jostling each other and Terry was drunk. They were shouting at the people passing.

To Mr. Sheridan he (Garda Begley) said he thought Terry was drunk but took no tests.
NO EVIDENCE
 Addressing Judge Fawcitt, Mr. Sheridan asked to have all three charges against Terry dismissed. On the assault charge against Nugent there was no evidence—proved, he added, out of the mouth of the very witness. Likewise there was no evidence of Terry assaulting Fitzgerald. On the drunk and disorderly charge, all Sergeant Browne could say was that the defendant had some drink taken. It was an essential ingredient that the prosecuting Counsel prove he was drunk but Sergt. Browne's evidence was not sufficient proof.

"This being a criminal charge" said Mr. Sheridan, "it must be proved that the defendant committed the assaults. But in these cases there is no evidence at all of Terry striking either of them."
NEVER HIT ANYONE
 The defendant, Mr. William Terry, said he never struck Nugent or Fitzgerald that night. He had been in a local public-house and later went down the street to get chips. He was standing outside the Bank of Ireland talking to a friend when he saw two chaps running up the street and being followed by Wright. A crowd gathered around and he saw the Garda taking Wright to the barracks. A crowd then gathered on the Square and he went over with others. He never hit anyone.

Continuing Mr. Terry said defendant Browne hit me with his baton and referred to me as Walsh. I later went towards home but Garda Begley arrested me in O'Connell Street and took me to the barracks. I asked him what I was being charged for but he didn't answer me.
NO ANIMOSITY
 Referring to his own Counsel he said he had no animosity against either Nugent or Fitzgerald. He had drink taken but was not disorderly. The barrister was all excellent but he was a swear on his oath that he took no part in the assaults of the two men.

To Dr. Counahan, solr., for the prosecution, defendant said he had four or five large stouts that night. As far as he was concerned Sergeant's Browne's evidence was wrong.
 Mr. Sheridan said there was a reasonable doubt that Terry was implicated in these assaults on Nugent and Fitzgerald. On the drunken charge, Sergt. Browne said he (Terry) had drink taken, but "having drink taken" and "being drunk" were two different things. Unless the State could prove definitely that Terry was drunk he was entitled to the benefit of the doubt.
 Dr. Counahan, State Solr., said there was one previous conviction against the defendant.

GOOD WORKER

Supt. Maurice Costello said Terry was convicted of assaulting Sergt. J. Browne in 1957, but apart from these two occasions he had never given the Guards any trouble. He was a good worker and was supporting his widowed mother and sister. His lapses were due to drink.
 Mr. Sheridan to him—If given a chance in this case do you think it would be worthwhile.
 Witness—I think it would.
 Mr. John Brett, Colligan, Dungarvan, said he was Terry's employer and had always found him a good and honest worker.

CONFLICTING MEDICAL EVIDENCE IN WORKMAN'S COMPENSATION CLAIM

AN application by Mr. Wm. Barrett, Stradbally, to have present partial incapacity treated as total, failed before Judge Fawcitt at Wednesday's sitting of the Circuit Court in Dungarvan. In the case which produced conflicting medical evidence the Justice said he was satisfied Barrett's incapacity was very slight and adjourned until next sessions his decision on compensation to be paid.

Mr. Barrett said he was working in a quarry for the County Council on January 31, 1959, when a heavy stone fell on his right ankle. He was in hospital for 11 weeks and the foot was cased in plaster for 30 weeks. He was paid full compensation of £4.5.0 a week up to February, 1960.

On February 23rd '60, he went back to work for the County Council but was only put on light work. He was laid off again on January 11th 1961. He tried to get work on the Rural Electrification Scheme with the E.S.B. but was turned down on account of his accident. Since January 11, 1961 he worked as an auxiliary postman for about 45 days. If he now stood on rough ground he would get a swelling in the foot.
 Dr. R. Counahan, State Solr., appeared for the Attorney General, and Mr. D. P. Sheridan, instructed by J. F. Williams & Son was for defendant.

INFLUENCED BY SUPT'S EVIDENCE

"Consider what the consequences of these incidents that night might have been. Sergt. Browne and Guard Griffin behaved with great bravery and fortitude. As this case went along I said this was one in which I would have to make an example of the defendant. I have, however, been greatly influenced by the evidence of Supt. Costello but I will not let him go unpunished."
 He then imposed the already mentioned fines together with one month suspensory sentence. He allowed the defendant two months to pay the fines.

DIED AFTER MOTOR CYCLE ACCIDENT

Dr. J. C. Walsh, Coroner for East Waterford, adjourned sine die an inquest on Patrick Houlihan (20), a farm labourer of Monadiha, Rathgormack, Co. Waterford, who was fatally injured when he was involved in a motor cycling accident at Leamybrien, on Wednesday week last. The rider of the motor cycle, Maurice Kennedy of Clondonnell, Rathgormack, is being detained at Arkeen General Hospital, where his condition is said to be "comfortable."
 John Houlihan, Kilmartomas, gave evidence of identification.

DOCTOR'S EVIDENCE

Dr. John Ballot said that when the 22-year-old was admitted to Arkeen General Hospital at 2 a.m. on Wednesday he was semi-conscious. He described the deceased's injuries, and added that it was probable that the deceased had a fracture of the base of his skull which did not show in the X-ray. At 8 a.m. his condition began to deteriorate and he died.

Sequel to Mercedes-Tractor Collision on Bye-Road

AN accident between a tractor and a Mercedes Benz car on a bye-road linking Ballinakill to the main Dungarvan-Clonmel road on April 11th, 1961, had a sequel at Dungarvan Circuit Court on Tuesday when Hospital Trusts Ltd., owners of the car were given a decree for £49-11-9 together with costs and expenses against Patrick Ryan and his sons, James and William, Kilbrien.

In evidence Mrs. Mary Nicholson, Monang, Dungarvan, said she was driving the Mercedes Benz on the date in question. She was coming from Ballinakill to the main road and had three other passengers in the car. Coming towards a dip on the road she saw a tractor coming towards her and it appeared to be on its incorrect side of the road. She hooted the car horn and kept as close to the fence as possible. The tractor swerved across the road and the wheel of the attached trailer hit the right near side of her car which was parked at the time.

WILL ACCEPT RESPONSIBILITY
Witness went on to say she got out of the car and had a conversation with the driver of the tractor, Wm. Ryan, and asked him why he had not looked where he was going. Word was sent to her husband in Dungarvan and when he arrived she heard Wm. Ryan say to him that he would accept all responsibility for damages.

Cross examined by Mr. F. Morris, B.L., for defendants, witness said she had 13 yrs driving experience and was fully familiar with the Mercedes car. The tractor appeared to her to be completely on its incorrect side.

Mr. John Dunford, senior, said he was sitting in the front with Mrs. Nicholson on the occasion of the accident. Suddenly the tractor appeared to be coming right for them and Mrs. Nicholson pulled into the ditch and stopped the car. The tractor swerved away and the back of the trailer hit the rear of their car. They were so close to the fence that he had to get out by the driver's door. The driver of the tractor was looking to the left and failed to keep his attention on the road. Mr. Alfred Nicholson, Monang, said he was an employee of Hospitals Trusts Ltd and they were the owners of the car. He used it for business purposes and his wife was also entitled to use it. He had certain Counties in Munster to look after and consequently had to use the car practically every day. When he was brought to the scene of the accident he met one of the defendants, William Ryan and discussed the accident in general with him. From the discussion he (witness) had with his wife, it looked as though the Ryans were at fault. When he questioned Ryan at first he said nothing but eventually agreed to accept responsibility for the accident. Later he met William Ryan's father and told him what had happened and he agreed to accept responsibility for the repair. The car was brought to Cappoquin and Mr. M. J. Sargent, Garage Prop., made out an estimate of £34-11-9 for repairs.

Mr. William Ryan (19) said he was driving the tractor from the creamery on the day of the accident. His brother was in the trailer at the back keeping a watch on milk churns. He was only travelling at 3 or 10 miles an hour. He was travelling on his correct side of the road. "Just before Mrs. Nicholson sounded the horn I saw the car," continued Mr. Ryan. "I pulled over more to my correct side but can remember no impact. She (Mrs. Nicholson) accused me of looking to my left whilst driving and Mr. Dunford who also got out of the car accused me of looking down at the ground. I denied both accusations. About an hour later Mr. Nicholson arrived but I never admitted responsibility to him at any time."

James Ryan, brother of the last witness said he was in the trailer with his back to the tractor. The first time he noticed that something was wrong was when the tractor went on to the fence. As he saw it both vehicles were moving at the time of the accident. The car kept moving until it went to the third stake on its left side of the road. Their tractor was on the left side of the road and there was no question of their being on their incorrect side. He heard his brother deny that he was looking to his left. He also heard his brother being asked by Mr. Nicholson to admit responsibility for the accident. Mr. Patrick Ryan, senior, said he was in a pub-house on April 11th, 1961, when he was called out. He met Mr. Nicholson and they sat in his (Nicholson's) car, whilst he told him his sons had been in a collision with the Mercedes. On the strength of what Nicholson told him he offered to have the car repaired. When he got the estimate he considered it to be too high and offered to pay half of it. Mr. Morris, B.L., defending said as regards damages there was no evidence of the exact cost of repairs to the car. There was a conflict of evidence and to decide one way or another unless there was some outside evidence. ACCEPTED EVIDENCE IN ITS ENTIRETY Judge S. Mac D. Fawcitt said Mrs. Nicholson's evidence was strongly supported by Mr. Dunford who as a witness had greatly impressed him. The very fact that the defendants whipped the tractor to the left side seemed to be the action of a person taken by surprise. He accepted Mrs. Nicholson's evidence in its entirety and felt the Hospitals Trusts Company were entitled to succeed. He then gave a decree for £34-11-9 plus for car hire and also allowed costs and expenses. Mr. D. P. Sheridan, B.L., (instructed by J. F. Williams & Son) was for Hospitals Trusts, and Mr. F. Morris, B.L. (instructed by Farrell & Morrissey, solrs.) was for defendants.

Flavin, Youghal, Mr. Ted Sweeney, Cherrymount, do, and Mr. Harry Willis, Janerville, Tallow. The Club wish to thank all who participated in making the Tournament a success. This year's Tournament will start in the near future and intending competitors are asked to have their names in to the Secretary by March 25th.

DEATH OF MISS MINA ARNOLD We regret to record the death of Miss Mina Arnold, which occurred at her Main St. residence on February 2nd, after a long illness and at an advanced age. Deceased was for a number of years Postmistress at Cappoquin. A member of one of the town's oldest families, she was held in high esteem by all, and her death is deeply regretted. The interment took place following Service in St. Catherine's Church on Friday, February 9th. Rev. Mr. Foster, Rector Tallow, officiated. To her bereaved sister much sympathy is extended.

NO PLOTS THIS YEAR The news that there would be no plots for potatoes allotted in Tallow this year was received in the town with feelings of the deepest resentment. As far as we are aware no concrete reason is given for this decision by the Co. Council and we are at a loss to know why or how the decision was arrived at. An early statement on the matter is desirable. WEDDING BELLS: McMAHON-McGRATH The wedding took place recently at St. Mary's Church, Youghal, of Mr. Sean McMahon (son of Mr. P. McMahon and the late Mrs. McMahon, Ballyvergan, Youghal) and Miss Catherine McGrath (fourth daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McGrath, Dunmoon, Tallow). The ceremony was performed by Very Rev. Canon Sheehan, P.P., Youghal. The bridesmaid was Miss Margaret McGrath (best man of the bride) and the groom was Mr. Sean Collins (friend of the groom). The reception was held at the Green Park Hotel, Youghal where upwards of forty guests attended. Both bride and groom are very popular members of the community in their respective districts and we join in wishing them the best of luck and happiness in their married life. NEW FORESTER Mr. Padraig O'Flaherty, a native of the Aran Islands, has been appointed head forester at Tallow Forestry Centre in succession to Mr. Brian O'Sullivan who has been transferred to Clonmel. Tallow Forestry Centre is the second largest in the Republic. Previous to coming to Tallow Mr. O'Flaherty served in Co. Clare. On behalf of the residents of Tallow and district we welcome Mr. and Mrs. O'Flaherty to the Brideside town and hope their stay will be a long and happy one. TALLOW ANGLERS' A.G.M. The annual general meeting of the Tallow Anglers Association was held in the Temperance Hall recently and was presided over by Mr. P. F. Walsh (President). The Hon. Secretary, Mr. John Forde, reported that the past year had been a very successful one for the Association. Two competitions had been held and drew large entries. Club members had competed at various competitions in the South. Mr. J. Coady (Hon. Treas.) in his report showed the finances of the Club to be in good condition. All members and intending members are earnestly requested to pay their annual subscription immediately to enable the Association to meet their heavy commitments of re-stocking, etc. To augment funds, a sweepstake on the Grand National will be held, tickets for which are now on sale. LATE MR. JOHN DRISCOLL

O'Connell St., Dungarvan Widespread regret and sorrow was occasioned at the sad news of the announcement of the death of Mr. John Driscoll, which occurred on Friday, 9th February, at the District Hospital, Dungarvan, after an illness of long duration, but borne with true Christian patience and fortified by the Rites of Holy Mother Church. He was one of the town's oldest inhabitants and a most generous favourite for his most extensive qualities. He was employed in his young days at St. Bridget's Well Brewery, where he was liked by one and all. His passing breaks yet another link with the past history of Dungarvan. Deepest sympathy is extended to his wife, Mrs. Mary Driscoll, O'Connell St., and to his daughters, Mrs. M. Power, O'Connell St., and Mrs. A. Morrissey, London, and to all his relations. The remains were removed on Saturday evening to St. Mary's Parish Church, followed by a very large and impressive cortege consisting of all sections of the community, and were blessed and received by Rev. Fr. J. Murphy, C.C. Last Mass on Sunday morning was offered for the happy and eternal repose of his good soul and the interment was made in the adjoining cemetery. Another huge concourse of relations and friends were present to recite the final prayers and sympathise with his nearest and dearest on this sad occasion. Rev. Fr. P. Farrell, C.C. imparted the final absolution at the graveside. Large sheaves of spiritual tributes were received by his family. (Funeral arrangements by James Kiely and Sons, Dungarvan.)

The lecture will be followed by a discussion during which a panel will air their different views on the subjects raised. The Club proposes to hold a social and supper on Wednesday, 28th February, members, their friends, and intending members who may wish to attend should contact the Hon. Country Must Realise Farmers' Plight

Farmers First Round of Wage Increases

From all over the country we hear reports of farmers preparing to march to their county capitals to protest against their falling incomes and their high taxation. They are angry, as all of you must be who have worked harder and spent more and got nothing extra for it all. But perhaps you may wonder what is the reason for marching. What is the point of these demonstrations? Doesn't everybody know that the farmers are getting the short end of the stick? Unfortunately that is not true. There are a great many people in the country who think that farming is a lovely life and that farmers make plenty of money without effort. They believe that every big car that arrives in a town or turns up at a football match has been bought out of the sweat of farming. They look at their bills for bread and potatoes and meat and green grocers and they say that with feed prices so high the farmers must be making a fortune. They do not know unless they are told that all increases in food prices for many years have gone to pay for the increasing cost of distribution and processing. Why would they know unless there is someone to tell them and it is not our business to tell them and show them by leaving our farms for a day and marching through their streets so that they can see for themselves that the farmers are serious and are getting desperate as they find themselves working for nothing?

Protests have already made themselves felt and in the past week we saw a statement from the Governor of the Bank of Ireland that it was a matter of public concern that the earnings of agriculture should be lagging behind those of the rest of the community and that farmers should have had no increases in eight years. We want to have similar statements coming from her prominent people. We want the whole country to realise that the present position of farming is their peril as much as ours, and that if farming is held back any longer it will go to the wall and with it will go the major part of the country's production, much of which is built on a very unsound basis. On Saturday we had a boast from a trade union leader that the last round of wage increases was a real triumph for the trade union movement because it was not opposed by any increase in the cost of living but by the increased necessity of industry which allowed a higher standard of living for the workers. That was a boast which tasted very bitter to us farmers knowing that the increased prosperity and the high standard of living of industry and distributive work has largely come out of our pockets and that our standard of living is falling and that without drastic changes there will be no increased prosperity for us.

It is no use saying these things to ourselves and to our friends. We know all about the head times. We must let the rest of the country know too and that is why it is essential that every farmer in the country should take part in these protest marches.

Unstatic Butter instead of Statig Currency

At the N.F.A. National Convention it was firmly established that "Traditional and existing trade agreements must be strengthened, but as the need arises or is apparent (as present in certain commodities, e.g., butter), bilateral systems of barter trade, commodity by commodity must be vigorously pursued."

The N.F.A. has repeatedly urged on the Government to take a stronger line in negotiations with countries with which there is an imbalance of trade affecting this country. This imbalance is very evident in our trading with the Soviet Bloc. Agricultural produce is not to be considered a static material assisting the Communists in their desire to conquer the world but we have in fact given to the Soviet Bloc during the first nine months of 1961, £31m. in currency and currency is considered as a very static material because it can be used to buy anything or to finance any sort of material subversive activity. The N.F.A. therefore wishes to impress on the Government, the absolute necessity of taking a very strong line on any negotiations which may be in progress regarding bilateral trade on butter. Because of the imbalance of trade, it is possible, by this barter deal, to obtain, by taking a strong line, a very economic price for Irish butter.

N.F.A. NEWS

G.A.T.T. Fails Again

It is proposed that the negotiations in G.A.T.T. ended in complete stalemate. As a result, it is anticipated that direct negotiations between Ireland and Britain on the butter question will be reopened very shortly and that Britain will give more justice to Ireland, as a traditional supplier and one of her biggest consumers of industrial products.

Minister Backs NFA Demand

Speaking in Dublin during the past week, the Minister for Industry & Commerce Mr. Jack Lynch, referring to agriculture in the Common Market stated: "With regard to agriculture, the proposals of the Commission of the E.E.C. as well as the principles laid down in the Treaty of Rome offer the prospect of fair and reasonable conditions of competition throughout the area covered by the community. This would mean that eventually a country's agricultural position in the Community would depend mainly on the ability of its farmers and the efficiency of its marketing arrangements."

This would be a distinct improvement on the present position where international trade in agricultural products is made extremely difficult by the highly protectionist policies followed nowadays by most countries. As well as providing fair and equal conditions of competition the policy of the community also envisages a fair standard of living for the agricultural population and the maintenance of a reasonable relationship between their income and that of other sectors of the economy.

These agricultural aims correspond very well with our own ideas. We will in fact be facing an exhilarating challenge and I have no doubt that our agriculture is fully capable of meeting it. It is most interesting for farmers to note that the Minister for Industry & Commerce agrees wholeheartedly with the N.F.A. in their demands for a reasonable relationship between their income and that of other sectors of the economy.

Vive Pisani!

French farm papers are full of congratulations for Monsieur Pisani, the French Minister for Agriculture, on his remarkable achievement in representing the interests of French farmers in Brussels during the recent negotiations. Though France is not primarily an Agricultural country, her Minister for Agriculture has been in the forefront in establishing the right of exporters of agricultural products to benefit under the Rome Treaty. This is our battle as exporters of food.

Not many months ago, the French farmers had road blocks and protest marches to force their Minister and Government to recognise the difficult position of farmers. Now that Monsieur Pisani has gone to Brussels and done a good job for French farmers, they can recognise and acclaim their champion.

Personal Advantages

Membership cards for 1962 were distributed to Branch Secretaries some weeks ago and judging by the number of requests for further supplies which reach us everyday, membership of the Association will exceed all expectations this year.

Several new members have been seeking information on the services and facilities introduced by the N.F.A. for the benefit of members. These schemes are described briefly here and you are invited to contact the N.F.A. General Secretary, at N.F.A. House, 27 Earlsfort Terrace, Dublin 2, for further details. It should be noted that your current N.F.A. membership card is the key to these schemes—they are for members only. Hence the desirability of paying your subscription promptly. Insurance.—The N.F.A. General Insurance Scheme includes practically all types of insurance required on the farm such as Workmen's Compensation, Personal Accident, Public Liability, Motor, Tractor and Fire insurance. Members are allowed a 5% discount on premiums and the National Employers Mutual which operates this scheme for the N.F.A. has an excellent reputation throughout the insurance business.

An arrangement also exists with the Voluntary Health Insurance Board whereby the N.F.A. has a Group Scheme and by joining through this Scheme, members can save approximately 10% on the annual premium.

Discount.—Approximately three years ago a discount scheme was introduced under which some hundreds of business firms throughout the country agreed to allow discount on a wide range of commodities to N.F.A. members on production of their membership cards. Since then the scheme has been expanded by branches and Co. Executives and your Branch Secretary should be in a position to give you the name of firms participating in the scheme in your area.

Bulk Buying.—Many branches have substantially reduced members' costs by making arrangements for bulk buying of seeds, feeding stuffs, fertilisers, etc.

Wool Scheme.—By making arrangements for the purchase of wool on a graded basis at local centres, the N.F.A. has created a situation in which members can benefit financially from their efforts in improving the quality and presentation of their wool.

Individual Problems.—The N.F.A. provides a service for investigating difficulties encountered by members in their dealings with Government Departments, Semi-State bodies and Commercial firms. In the vast majority of cases the members concerned have had reason to be very pleased with the result of their Association's intervention on their behalf.

FORESTRY ENTHUSIASTS MEET

The Annual General Meeting and Annual Dinner of the Trees for Ireland Association will be held in the Hodson Bay Hotel, Athlone, on Saturday, 24th February—Meeting at 7 p.m. and dinner at 8.15 p.m.

During the past year the N.F.A. has been represented on the Committee of Trees for Ireland by the Chairman of the National Forestry Committee and Trees for Ireland has also been represented at a number of meetings convened by the N.F.A. with a view to promoting the planting of trees by farmers.

We have been assured that N.F.A. members will be very welcome at both Meeting and Dinner. Subscriptions to the Dinner will be 22/6d. and bookings can be made at the Hotel or with the Secretary, Trees for Ireland, 30 Westmoreland Street, Dublin 2.

Potato Suppliers' Problems

The announcement early in the year by Ceimici Teoranta that supplies to be accepted at the various starch and alcohol factories were to be confined to selected contractors, came as a shock to many growers in both Donegal and Mayo. Representations were made on behalf of growers by the National Potato Committee, and have at last borne fruit. Supplies outside of those contracted for will now be accepted.

In the areas mentioned, the potato crop and the price obtained has a very considerable bearing on the economy of the farms. The weather for handling the Potato Crop has been exceptionally severe this winter, but it is confidently expected that sufficient good quality seed will be available. Some varieties may be scarce and it is advisable to order early.

Farmers' Interest in Game

Speaking at the official opening of the Game Seminar, held under the auspices of the National Game Council at 'An Griannan', Teemoneckin, Co. Louth, the President of the N.F.A., Mr. Rickard Deasy, made it quite clear that game on a farm is a crop produced by the farmer and that the farmer is entitled to compensation when that crop is reaped. Speaking to those present at the opening, he said: "As you know, we as farmers must assist your developments with more than mere goodwill. We must co-operate in the destruction of vermin and the building up and preservation of proper stocks of game and they must be fed from our land and while we should not perhaps exaggerate the amount they eat or the damage they do, still this has some value. I think we all recognise that the occupier of the land is entitled to some compensation from those who enjoy the sport it produces."

We believe that morally the game produced on any farm is a crop, just the same as any other crop tended and protected by the farmer. We also believe that until this is recognised, you will not have a sound basis on which we can jointly develop the game crop. It is for this reason that we in N.F.A. are particularly happy to note the fight you: Council is making to establish the principle that farmers must own their game rights.

In this fight you have our full support and the assurance that anything we can do to achieve this end we will do willingly. Furthermore, everybody must understand that the farmers of Ireland over the years have fought a successful fight to win ownership of their own land, and we are not going to sit back and allow these rights to be given to a new set of absentee landlords. Any move in this direction will be met by the solid resistance of organised farmers throughout Ireland.

I would like to say how much we welcome the establishment of the National Game Council, how much we welcome the way in which it is going about its work, and how much we expect that it will now be universally recognised as the supreme game authority in Ireland.

Farmers to March

In recent weeks local newspapers throughout the country have carried front page headlines reading: "Farmers to March in..." "Soft Talk is over: Action is needed now." "Farmers support N.F.A. Demands." "Boiling Point in Rates has been reached" and many others, in similar vein. It is many years since such an "action" atmosphere permeated rural areas.

The successful demonstrations in Kilkenny, Dungarvan, Wexford and Clonmel have impressed many people even outside farming. These orderly parades have been noteworthy in the excellence of their organisation and behaviour and great credit is indeed due to those unselfish farmers who spared no effort to ensure their success.

£1775 for Widow and Three Children

MRS. MARGARET MULLINS, Connolly Row, Dungarvan, was awarded £900 in Dungarvan Circuit Court on Tuesday last by Judge S. Mac D. Fawsitt for the loss of her husband, James Mullins, who was killed whilst in the employment of Edmond Fleming, The Square, on Sept. 27th 1961. Three children who, it was stated, were dependent on deceased at the time of his death received £875 between them. Mr. John Humble (72) Wolfe Tone Road, Dungarvan, said at the time of the accident, he was employed by Mr. Fleming. Deceased and himself were dismantling the scaffolding which they had erected to repair shoots when the accident occurred.

Mrs. Margaret Mullins, widow of the deceased said her children, Timothy James, Daniel Thomas and David Marian and herself were dependent on her husband at the time of his death. After her husband's death, Mr. Fleming gave her wages that were due. Mr. Edmond Fleming said he employed the deceased to repair storm damage, in relation to which he had an insurance policy. He (witness) employed the deceased on a daily basis of pay.

In reply to Judge Fawsitt witness said as far as he was concerned he had employed Mr. Mullins as a daily workman and not as a contractor. Mr. M. Feehan, B.L., said there was no evidence that the employer (Mr. Fleming) directed in any way as to how the work should be done. The element of control was missing and as a result there could not be a contract of service.

Judge Fawsitt—According to Mr. Fleming he was employing a workman. Mr. Feehan—Mr. Fleming exercised no control and I cannot see how he was the master. Mr. D. P. Sheridan, B.L. (for Mrs. Mullins) said in actual fact there was evidence of control. Mr. Mullins was confined to certain working hours and that was compelling evidence in favour of the workman. Judge Fawsitt said the only issue to determine was whether a relationship of master and workman existed. He was very impressed by Mr. Fleming's evidence, in which he stated that he employed the deceased as a workman. He had now come to the conclusion that deceased was a workman in this case and not a contractor and accordingly the dependants were entitled to compensation. He awarded the widow £900 and the juveniles lump sum of £875 will be divided as follows—Timothy James, £90; Daniel Thomas, £200; David Marian, £585.

Mr. D. P. Sheridan (instructed by J. F. Williams & Son) was for Mrs. Mullins and Mr. M. Fraher, B.L. (instructed by Farrell & Morrissey, Solrs.) were for Mr. Fleming.

Rathlead, Old Parish

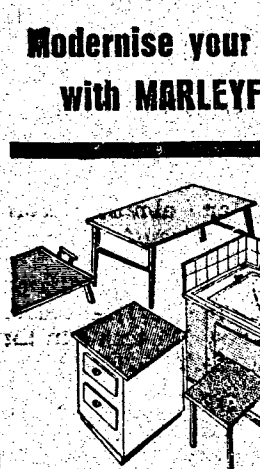

The death at the very early age of 28 years, of Miss Ellen Ryan occurred at her parental home Rathlead, Old Parish, on Tuesday, February 6th, after an illness of some short duration, but fortified by Rites of Holy Church.
