'Fiddling' and Behind-the-scene Allegations 'No Influence' says Secretary

ALLEGATIONS that there was "fiddling" and behind the scene happenings in the issuing of certain medical cards were made at Monday's meeting. As a result the Secretary, Mr. J. A. Hynes said he could assure everyone that there was no influence, political or otherwise in such matters. Every case was dealt with on its merits and the determining factor was the information furnished by the applicants.

The matter was first raised at a previous meeting by Mr. John Foley who complained that as a member of the Health Authority, he had got no reply to representations made on behalf of certain persons for a medical card, whilst another individual, now a T.D., outside the Health Authority, made a similar representation for the same person and was successful. He now wanted a statement from the County Manager on it.

The Manager, Mr. S. J. Moynihan, in a statement, said the application in question was dealt with properly and on its merits. Mr. Fahy's remarks about the representation made by a T.D. were incorrect.

Mr. Fahy said he found it hard to accept the Manager's statement. He was fighting for a medical card for this applicant for 14 or 15 months without success and it was very strange that on polling day at the last election he was able to say a candidate for Dail Eireann—and now a T.D.—

would get him a card. He failed to get him a card although he was signing on at Clonmel Labour Exchange, yet an outsider got him one when he was in better circumstances. Mr. Fahy said an old age pensioner in the Ballymacarbry area and a farm labourer in Lismore were also refused medical cards. He wrote for the reasons as to why they were refused but got no reply. It was obvious representations made by him to the Health Authority were not receiving the attention they should and the whole thing looked very suspicious.

Mr. P. Cahill said he was in Clonmel during election time and he was told this certain individual could get medical cards for people.

Mr. J. Quirk—There should be an inquiry into this.

Mr. N. Walsh—Did anyone outside this Authority make representation for this man.

Mr. Hynes, Secretary—Yes, two people.

Mr. Walsh—Did a Dail Deputy at any time make a representation for him.

Mr. R. Doyle, Chief Assistance Officer said representation was made early in 1960 by a man who was now a Dail Deputy. He wasn't a member of Dail Eireann at that time and the representation was refused.

Mr. Fahy said that having heard the reports he was more satisfied than ever that something behind the scenes went on in this case. It was fairly obvious this man was told after being first refused, "fill a fresh application form and you'll get a medical card."

And that was exactly what happened, he said.

Mr. P. Browne said there was a lot of fiddling going on behind the various D departments and it wasn't the Health alone. Things were not right in Dublin and he was sure everything Mr. Fahy said was correct. Without casting reflection on the officials of the Waterford Health Authority he would say there was something wrong somewhere.

Mr. R. Doyle said the man in question was most untruthful and concealed several facts from them until they eventually dug them out of him.

In reply to Mr. N. Walsh, the Secretary (Mr. Hynes) said the County Manager had the final say in issuing of medical cards, acting on the advice of himself, the chief assistant officer and assistant officers.

Mr. Walsh—in effect then the man who has the greatest say is the Assistance Officer.

Mr. W. Foran said it would be a horrible thing to bring political pressure into the issuing of cards. When they were dealing with medical cards they were dealing with the poorer people. He did not think, however, that politics had entered into this particular case which was a "very complicated one."

Mr. Hynes—I want to assure everyone there is no influence in any way in such matters. Every case is dealt with on its merits and the applicants' information is the determining factor.

Mr. W. Collins—I have explicit faith in the officials. The discussion then ended.

Waterford Farmers Received Big Prices

at Show and Sales
Popular local veterinary surgeon, Mr. Nicholas Connors, M.R.C.V.S., had considerable success in the Hereford class at the Royal Dublin Society Bull Show and Sales in Dublin at the weekend.

His hereford bull, Brackford Champion, won the first prize in its class and at the sales later was sold to Mr. J. Clarke, Cement Ltd., Castleknock for seven hundred and twenty-five guineas.

Another Hereford bull, Springmount Valiant, owned by Mr. Connors, secured third place in its class and was purchased for seven hundred and fifty guineas by the Department of Agriculture. Cappoquin farmers Mr. Thos. D. Fives, did well in the Pig's section of the Show securing a first stand second prize for Landrace boars with his Kylefarm Eros Nine and Kylefarm Eros Fifteen, as well as winning in the Sows class with his Kylefarm Bodil Sixteen.

It was this champion sow, owned by the well-known Tourin breeder and exhibitor which attracted the interest of the Sale Bidding for her topped at two hundred and sixty guineas, the highest price ever offered for a Landrace pig in Ireland, before she was brought out outside. It is understood that Mr. Fives had a £400 reserve on his sow.

Mr. Fives' champion boar made eighty-five guineas and was bought by Messrs. M. Glynn & Sons, Kilrush, County Clare.

Lorry Mounted Footpath Three Times

THE story of how a lorry driven by Michael Healy, 37 Caseyville, Dungarvan, mounted a footpath at three different points in O'Connell Street, on June 29th last, was told to Justice Skinner at the local District Court on Wednesday. Healy was fined £5 for dangerous driving, whilst a drunken driving charge was dismissed.

Garda J. Griffin said he was on duty on June 29th. At 11.30 p.m. he received a phone call from a lady named Mrs. H. Hallissey to the Pike. On returning they saw a lorry being driven on its incorrect side through Bridge Street. It was then driven on its incorrect side through O'Connell Street and stopped for a short while. It then pulled out without giving any indication and forced a car into the footpath. The lorry travelled on its correct side through Bridge St. I then swerved across the road and mounted the footpath. Twice afterwards it mounted the footpath again.

Witness went on to say that the lorry stopped at Caseyville. He approached the driver—Michael Healy and got the smell of drink off him. He told him he was charging him with drunken driving. When he (Healy) got out of the lorry he had one shoe off. He staggered a bit and started looking for his shoe. In his opinion the defendant was drunk and not capable of having proper control over a lorry. They took him to the station and he was rambled a bit. He admitted having drink taken but denied being drunk.

To Mr. Farrell, Solr. (for defendant), witness said O'Connell Street was cut up on the right side for the waterworks but the trenches had been filled in at that time. Garda Hallissey corroborated Garda Griffin's evidence about the lorry mounting the footpath three times. Defendant was drowsy looking and appeared to be drunk. When he got out of the lorry he had only one shoe on and leaned against the wall to put the other one on. He didn't want to go to the station and was passing remarks about witness' driving. He wanted to know said Garda Hallissey, why I didn't stop at the station in Mary Street although it wasn't even against me. Dr. P. O'Connell said he examined the defendant at 12.50 p.m. He put him through a number of tests and he performed them very well. He was of the opinion that the defendant was capable of controlling a vehicle.

The Defendant, Michael Healy, said he arrived in Dungarvan at 12.20 a.m. on the date in question. He came across the centre of the Square, and went up O'Connell Street on his

Midnight Incidents In Dungarvan Recalled

ONCE again, the now well-known midnight incidents in Dungarvan on 16th July last were recalled at the District Court on Wednesday when Michael Wright, of Cathal Brugha Place, Dungarvan, whom a Garda described as a "Ring-leader" was sentenced to a total of two months imprisonment.

The defendant was charged with (1) disorderly behaviour at Grattan Square on July 2nd (2) assaulting John Nugent and Liam Fitzgerald, both of Kilmaheran on July 16th, at Main Street.

Supt. J. Browne said he was on duty at 12.15 a.m. on July 2nd. He saw the defendant in Main Street. He was drunk and disorderly and had his coat off. He had friends with him and they said they'd see him home.

At 12.30 a.m. he again saw Wright fighting with a man named McCarthy in O'Connell St. There was a crowd of about 50 around. Wright's face was bloody. He took him to the Station and charged him.

On July 16th he was again on duty and he saw defendant chasing two boys and throwing swipes at them. The boys sheltered behind Garda Griffin and himself. They took Wright, who was acting like a mad-man to the Station. The town was in great disorder at the time and Wright appeared to be the ring-leader.

Supt. Costello said the defendant went to England after this and they served the summonses when he came back.

Garda J. Griffin said he was with Supt. Browne on the second occasion. Wright was drunk and disorderly and he saw him attempting to strike two men.

John Nugent, Kilmaheran said after getting chips in a cafe in Main Street on July 16th, Wright said to his friend Liam Fitzgerald and himself "Now is your time." He then followed him and attacked him. He gave him no reason for attacking him.

Michael Wright said on the night of July 2nd he went to Sheehan-Ryans for chips. When he was coming out, seven men surrounded him and closed the door. He was struck and knocked to the ground and was one of those that struck him. They then went to the Square and he followed them and started fighting them.

On July 16th he again went to Ryans for chips and Fitzgerald was there. He remembered July 2nd, so he attacked Fitzgerald. He (witness) had a lot of drink taken. If given a chance he would give an undertaking to keep away from drink and would not be involved in any more rowdy conduct.

Witness told Supt. Costello that only for the Guards taking him to the Station he would have been kicked to death by the seven men.

Supt. Costello—Do you think you can go on like a bucking bronco in town and get away with it?

Witness—No.

Judge Skinner imposed a one-month imprisonment sentence for being drunk and disorderly and two months for assaulting Nugent and Fitzgerald, the sentences to run concurrently.

Dungarvan Boys Get 12 Months

ALLEGED ASSAULT ON WITNESS AFTER CASE

PATRICK COSTIGAN (20), 15 Cathal Place, Dungarvan, was sentenced to 12 months imprisonment for assaulting and attempted robbery on James (Rocky) Roche a 70-year-old fish jolter in the early hours of October 14th last, by Judge L. B. Skinner at Dungarvan District Court on Wednesday. A sixteen year-old youth also of Cathal Brugha Place was convicted on similar charges and sentenced to twelve months in St Patrick's Reformatory School. Both defendants pleaded not guilty to the charges.

When the sentences were imposed and the Court had adjourned for a short recess, John Havens, a witness for the prosecution in the case alleged he was assaulted by Costigan's father in the precincts of the Courthouse. An "on the spot" assault charge was filed against Costigan senior, but was eventually adjourned for two weeks.

Dr. Patrick O'Connell said on October 14th at 4 a.m. he examined James Roche at 26 Congress Villas. He was in great distress, and had lacerations over the left eye, and fractured ribs on the right side. He was removed to hospital but was suffering from serious bodily injury. The injuries were consistent with being beaten and kicked or a bad fall.

Dr. Brendan McCarthy said he examined Roche at the hospital on October 14th. He had a cut over his left eye, abrasions on his face and knuckles and severe pain in his chest. His ribs were also fractured. He was discharged in November, and was in a critical condition for the first five days after being admitted to hospital.

James (Rocky) Roche, 70-year-old age pensioner and fish jolter of Cathal Brugha Pl. said he remembered the night of October 13th last. He had a few drinks taken but was well able to look after himself. Around 9.45 p.m. he went to a Carnival at Boreenatra and stayed there until near midnight. He walked as far as Fair Lane with friends and went from there on his own. Just near the ball alley he saw an object on the road. He said good-night but got no answer. Further on he saw another object which turned out to be Costigan. He (Costigan) came across and asked him where he was going. Witness replied: "where do you think I'm going."

Continuing, Mr. Roche said: "Costigan tripped me and I felt a bit dazed. I got up and Costigan was over me searching my pockets. I said—let me up or is it trying to kill me or rob you are. He didn't answer. I then grabbed his pants to try and get up but he drew on me with his boot into the ribs and then gave me another. After that I remembered no more. I spent six weeks in hospital and was very ill for a period. The youth never touched me that night.

Cross-examined by Mr. A. R. Farrell, Solr., defending, witness said he was a fish jolter by occupation. He believed they attacked him that night with a view to robbing him.

John Havens said he was at the Carnival on the night of October 13th with his wife. He left sometime after midnight and walked home by Mitchell St. Approaching Cathal Brugha Pl. he recognised Roche's voice. He crossed the road and asked Costigan, who was standing there, what was wrong. An O'Brien chap who was also present then shone a flash lamp and he saw Roche lying on the ground and his face spattered with blood. He asked who did it but got no reply. Witness said he'd take him home, but Costigan said he had him first. He (Costigan) then hit Roche and kicked him twice on the ground, and knocked him out. Witness struck Costigan who ran towards the ball-alley and fired stones at him. He used abusive language and called witness a T.B.

Mrs. Mary Havens, wife of the previous witness, said as she approached the ball-alley with her husband she saw Costigan hit and kick Roche. Her husband took Roche home on his back.

Sargent J. Liddane said he arrested the defendants on October 14th and charged them with assaulting Mr. Roche, and causing him grievous bodily harm. After caution, Costigan, in a statement said, the youth and himself were coming from the Carnival on the night in question. They came upon Roche and he was lying on the ground, and they helped him up. Farther on they saw him run at the wall and knock himself out. When Havens arrived on the scene he struck him (Costigan).

Sgt. Liddane said after caution both denied robbing

Roche. Two or three weeks after the assault charge however, they were further charged with attempted robbery.

Sgt. J. Browne said he interviewed Roche in hospital and he was in danger of death at the time. He also cautioned Costigan who made a statement. Garda J. Griffin said he interviewed the 16-year-old youth, who, in a statement, corroborated Costigan's evidence about finding Roche on the ground and later hitting his head off the wall. Costigan struck Roche, but he was not sure if he kicked him.

The defendant Patrick Costigan said he left the Carnival grounds at 12.10 a.m. (approx.) with the second defendant. They met Roche on the way home and he was lying on the road. He appeared to be very drunk, and he (witness) picked him up and put him standing against the wall. Havens then arrived and tried to say he had kicked him. He admitted throwing stones at Havens, but denied either kicking or robbing Roche.

To Supt. Costello witness said Roche deliberately ran at the wall three times.

Supt. Costello: Do you expect the Court to believe that? Do you swear that what you say is true?

Witness: Yes, send you to jail unless you do.

Supt. Costello: Did you try to rob him or search him?

Witness: No.

The youth in evidence said he never hit, kicked or attempted to rob Roche that night. Neither did Costigan. They had only tried to bring him home.

Supt. Costello said there were previous convictions against both defendants. On two dates in 1958 Costigan was convicted of larceny and house-breaking, and in 1959 was again convicted on assault charges. He would ask the justice to impose very heavy punishment on the defendants.

Justice Skinner then imposed the 12-month sentences. All the charges were taken into consideration in the sentence.

When the Court resumed after a quarter-hour adjournment John Havens brought a charge of assault against James Costigan, a father of one of the defendants.

Havens said as he left the Courthouse, Costigan senior struck him with his fist, and said it was he who robbed Mr. Roche and not his son.

Judge Skinner: It is a very serious thing to assault a witness after a case.

Mr. Havens: I want Court protection for my wife.

Judge Skinner: We'll see to it that it is given.

Mr. J. Costigan, Senr.—You have all the protection, you want. I have only myself in this town.

Judge Skinner: I intend to send you to jail unless you make a very strong plea.

He then adjourned the case for two weeks.

Lenten Pastoral

Very Rev and Rev. Fathers and dear Brethren,
OUR CATHOLIC FAITH

The holy season of Lent is approaching once more. And the Catholic Church exhorts us to prepare by thought, prayer and penance for a worthy commemoration of the Passion, Death and Resurrection of Our Lord at Easter.

As faithful members of the Church, therefore, let us hearken once again to her Lenten summons to prepare for a new year's advance in the campaign of life. The life of the Catholic, though assured of success at the end of it, is not easy-going thing. There is sin in the world and in each one of us; we are all children of Adam and have evil tendencies in us, and unless we look carefully to ourselves, that evil will spring up. We cannot conquer sin without the grace of God and our own energetic co-operation.

Whatever be our sins and our difficulties, let us never fear to be rejected by our crucified Saviour. It is not without a deep meaning that Our Redeemer appears before us on the Cross with arms outstretched and with His side pierced with a lance. He wishes by this gesture of stretching out His arms to embrace all of us in them and to gather us into His Sacred Heart. To all souls He offers Himself; He offers the outstretched arms of His mercy. Are we in sin? It is at the foot of the Cross that we shall receive grace of conversion and repentance, which will open the eyes of our soul to see the gravity of our condition and soften our hearts to weep for our sins.

Kind friends will put the Crucifix into your hands when we are about to die; but the Crucifix will mean more to us then, if we have trained ourselves during life, to make it a subject of thought, prayer and love.

OUR LORD'S LEGACY TO THE MEN OF ALL TIMES
 Our Lord left the earth on Ascension Day, forty days after His Resurrection from the dead and ascended into heaven. The Good Shepherd left this world before men in general believed in Him. He had hardly made Himself known to His disciples before He went back to heaven.

We read in Chapter 10 of the Acts of the Apostles the following words of St. Peter: "But on the third day after His death God raised Jesus up again, and granted him the clear sign of Him, not to the people at large, but to us, the witnesses whom God appointed beforehand; we ate and drank in His company after His rising from the dead. He gave us a commission to preach to the people and to bear witness that He, and none other, had been chosen by God to judge the living and the dead."

Our Lord's legacy to the men of all times and to the world of to-day is the Catholic Church, which He invested with authority to teach His doctrine to all nations, to sanctify them by the administration of His Sacraments and to govern them in His name until the end of time.

Centuries of the many blessings that are ours through our membership of the Catholic Church and our consequent co-operation with our Divine Lord, each one of us ought to be concerned and interested in the success of the General Council of the Catholic Church secondary and vocational due to be held in Rome on the 11th October, 1962.

Our Holy Father, the Pope, has revealed his hopes for the success of the Council when he said: "We expect great results. I know that by word from this Council, the laymen and exalted our teachers and the faithful, will be able to place to the foundation of their lives and of their character, the principles of the Christian life. We want that they do what in them lies to bring the affirmations to ensure that the Catholic of those principles of Christian men and women of the future order which inspire and guide may be a credit to our schools, the development of civil, economic and social life, the development of civil, economic and social life. The main purpose of this General Council will be to strengthen and the communication of the Holy Spirit to the Church and to the world."

Members of the Council are: Mrs. O'Rielly was elected President at the annual general meeting of the Kilmacthomas Guild Irish Countrywomen's Association.

Late Miss Mary Keogh

Youghal Bridge, Youghal
 The death occurred at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan, on Tuesday, February 20th, after an illness of long duration and at the fullness of years. She was very well known in the Youghal district for her friendly manner and gentle disposition, which won for her legions of friends.

Her remains were removed on Wednesday evening followed by a cortege of great dimensions to Clashmore Church, where the coffin was blessed and received by Rev. Fr. Russell, C.C.

Requiem Mass was celebrated on Thursday morning for the eternal repose of her gentle soul, after which the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery. Rev. Fr. Russell, C.C., officiated at the graveside.

(Undertaking by James Kieley and Sons, Dungarvan.)

Late Miss Bridget Flynn

GRAIGUE, MODELIGO

The unexpected death took place at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan, of Miss Bridget Flynn, on Wednesday, 21st February. She was one outstanding personality for her very fine qualities and her charity, especially for her readiness to help those in need of her assistance. Much sympathy is extended to her nephews in Inchindrisla and Aghlish.

The remains were removed on Thursday evening to Modeligo Church, followed by a most representative cortege and were received and blessed by Very Rev. Fr. Hally, P.P. Masses were offered on Friday morning for her happy and eternal rest, and the interment was made in the adjoining cemetery. Very Rev. Fr. Hally, P.P., assisted by Rev. Fr. Daly, C.C., imparted the final absolution at the graveside. Another requiem of very great dimensions was present.

(Undertaking by James Kieley and Sons, Dungarvan.)

Late Mr. John Heaney

Ballymacmaeue, Dungarvan

Widespread regret was expressed at the announcement of the death of Mr. John Heaney which took place at his residence, after a very short illness, on Wednesday, 21st February. He had reached a very ripe old age but was most active up to the time of his death. In fact he had attended Holy Mass on the previous Sunday. He was a very great lover of his religion and the duties attached, and a life-long member of the Sacred Heart Sodality and was always to be seen heading the men's section in the annual procession around the town. He was a very great favourite, not only in the district of Dungarvan, but over a very wide area and his passing leaves a gap which will be very hard to fill.

The remains were removed on Thursday evening to St. Mary Parish Church, Dungarvan, followed by a very great and most representative cortege, consisting of all sections of the community, and were blessed and received by Rev. Fr. Byrne, C.C.

Requiem Mass was offered for the eternal repose of his soul, and the funeral left the Church later for Kilgobnet Cemetery, where the interment took place. Very Rev. Fr. T. Power, P.P., assisted by Rev. Fr. Farrell, C.C., officiated and recited the final prayers at the graveside.

The chief mourners were: Mrs. Bridget Heaney, Ballymacmaeue (widow); John and Patrick (England); Philip Knockaun, Cappagh (sons); Sr. M. Jerome, England; Sr. M. Claude, Australia; Mrs. U.S. Nellie, England; Mrs. A. Flynn, Ballymacmaeue (daughters); Michael Heaney, Currahaha, Dungarvan (brother).

(Undertaking by James Kieley and Sons, Dungarvan.)

New Officers of Kilmac' I.C.A.

Mrs. O'Rielly was elected President at the annual general meeting of the Kilmacthomas Guild Irish Countrywomen's Association.

Other officers for the coming year are: Vice-President, Mrs. O'Neill; Secretary, Miss N. L. L. O'S.; Asst. do., Miss M. Foley; Treasurer, Miss P. O'S.; Honorary Secretary, Mrs. J. O'S.; Honorary Treasurer, Mrs. J. O'S.

Members of the committee are: Mrs. O'Rielly, Mrs. Burke, Mrs. Barron, Mrs. K. Mulcahy, Ann Kieley, Sheila Whelan.

GOT BENEFIT OF P.O.A.

Thomas Cowling senior, New Line, Abbeyside, was given the P.O.A. at the local District Court on Wednesday when he was charged with the larceny of a lorry cover, the property of A. Moloney & Sons Ltd., Dungarvan, on July 12th, 1961.

Sergt. Liddane said after the lorry cover was reported missing he searched the defendant's house and found the cover on a pigeon house in his residence.

Garda J. Griffin said he took a statement from the defendant who said he was asked by a passing motorist to keep the cover whilst he was going into town.

In evidence Mr. Cowling said last July he was outside his house when a car pulled up beside him. The driver asked if he could leave the cover at his house until such a time as he would be returning from town. He (witness) took it from him. A few days later he went to England to his brother and the next he heard of it was from a letter from his wife. He never saw any name on the cover as it was rolled up.

Judge Skinner said he would convict the defendant of receiving the cover but would apply the P.O.A.

SON ALSO GOT P.O.A.

Thomas Cowling, junior, son of previous defendant, also got the P.O.A. when charged with the larceny of a packet of fibre glass.

Sergt. J. Liddane said he searched the defendant's house and found a packet of fibre glass. He asked defendant to account for its presence there and he said he found it on the road morning after the Guards dance (Oct. 31st).

The name Graves & Co. Waterford, was on the packet but they could not say who they had supplied it to.

Thomas Cowling, junior, said after the Guards dance he found the packet on the road near his house. He told Jas. Cooney, an employee of M. Moloney & Co. Bridge Street, if anyone was looking for the glass they could get it at his house.

Mr. Cooney corroborated this part of defendant's evidence. Judge Skinner said he would again have to convict on the charge of receiving but would give the defendant the benefit of the P.O.A.

SENT TO A REFORMATORY

Two Dungarvan youths who committed further larcenies one day after having the P.O.A. applied on house-breaking and larceny charges, were each sent to industrial schools for 6 years, by Judge Skinner, at Dungarvan District Court, on Wednesday last.

One of the boys was sent to St. Joseph's Industrial School, Clonmel, and the second one to Ferryhouse, Clonmel, with a promise of being let out after six months if he is of good behaviour.

Late Mr. James HACKETT

BALLYLEMON, CAPPAGH

The death took place of a very old inhabitant of the Ballylemon district in the person of Mr. James Hackett, which sad event occurred at the District Hospital, Dungarvan, on Thursday, 22nd February, after an illness of some duration and fortified by the Rites of Holy Church. He was a general favourite in the Dungarvan district for his charming manner and his most jovial disposition. Much sympathy is extended to his brother Patrick and to his sister Miss Ellie Hackett, who also reside in Ballylemon.

The remains were removed on Friday afternoon to St. Mary's Church, Dungarvan, followed by a very large and sympathetic cortege and were blessed and received by Rev. Fr. T. Nugent, C.C. Ballylemon, assisted by Rev. Fr. E. Tobin, C.C. Aghish and Rev. Fr. D. Byrne, C.C. Dungarvan.

Requiem Mass was celebrated by Very Fr. M. Heckett, P.P. Aghish and Ballylemon, on Saturday morning, after which the funeral left the Church for Ballylemon Cemetery, where the interment took place in the family plot. Rev. Fr. E. Tobin, C.C., imparted the final absolution and recited the Requiem Prayers and manifestations of very great sorrow from the large concourse present.

LATE MISS M. A. WALLSH

PAROCHIAL HOUSE, TOURANEENA

On Wednesday of last week the death took place at St Joseph's Hospital, Dunganvan, of Miss M. A. (Tollie) Walsh, at an advanced age, after a short illness. The deceased lady was a member of an old and highly respected family, who in days gone by, carried on a high class business in O'Connell Street, Dunganvan. The older generation of the town will remember in particular her high musical talents which were ever so readily available and added so much to the cultural activities of Dunganvan when it first made its name in musical circles throughout Munster. She was an accomplished pianist and a lady in every respect, a devoted client of Our Lady (E. de M.) and a staunch and charitable friend. Her passing does yet another chapter in the history of Dunganvan in the early days of the century.

To her brother, Very Rev. P. Walsh, H.P., Touraneena, and to her sister Mrs. E. Cullinane, Mitchel St., Dunganvan, much sympathy is extended in their bereavement.

The remains were removed to the Parish Church, Dunganvan, on Thursday night accompanied by a large and representative gathering of mourners from Dunganvan and Touraneena.

The remains were received by Rev. D. Eyma, C.C., Dunganvan, who was accompanied by the Ven. Archdeacon D. Power, P.P., V.F., Dunganvan; Very Rev. P. F. Walsh, P.P., Touraneena; Very Rev. Fr. FALSE INTERPRETATION OF DEMONSTRATIONS

N.F.A. NEWS

REPORTS continued to reach us to the effect that false interpretations are being placed on the fundamental policy underlying the reasons for the countrywide demonstrations. These demonstrations have been described as "destructive in character," and "politically inspired". Nothing could be further from the truth.

They are not destructive in character. For seven years the organised farmers of this country have put forward constructive suggestions and recommendations to successive governments. It was anticipated in light of the expressed views of such governments, that a just case on behalf of the agricultural industry would ensure a just treatment—a just case based on reliable facts and figures, and presented in a co-operative spirit in a tradition of reciprocal operation. The results are obvious.

However, demand and force have been shown to achieve success after success for other sections of the economy and the consequences of these demands has been cushioned on farming.

The then President of the N.F.A., Dr. J. N. Greene, made the following pertinent remarks to the National Convention in January: "Anyway it is clear at the moment that the present trends against agriculture no longer add up to reason, and the danger point has been reached. It will, in my opinion, be a tragedy of the highest order if the present restive mood of the countryside is not placated by administering to our vital agricultural industry a measure of reasoned justice. Let me hasten to add that there is no political inference in these comments and that our Association rejects in the strongest possible manner suggestions that have been published in our newspapers, which would that in our demand for comparable standards with other sections, these demands are politically inspired. Such proposals are a veiled attempt to divert your attention away from the real organisation, and were they to be successful, would be left without any voice at all, which is what a lot of people in this country would like to see."

The policy still holds. The demonstrations reflect the mood of the farmers, and that mood is justified. Irrespective of party political affiliations, irrespective of size of holding, the farmers by force of numbers shown that in an effort to obtain justice, they can do so irrespective of false allegations. Mater et Magistra is their mandate and in a Christian country one expects more than lip service to Christian social principles.

Spontaneous Expansion

The policy which emanated from the National Council, resistant on the deliberations of the National Convention, has caught the imagination and commanded the full approval of every member of the farming community. The result is evident in the influx of members, not in their hundreds but in the thousands, and the fact that they are throwing their weight behind the organisation every week.

Now more than ever, farmers are appreciating the value of a National Farmers' Association, representative of every farmer and devoid of party politics. They realise that the success of their brethren in Denmark, Holland, Belgium, France, Italy and Switzerland in improving their allocation of their national income, was due to unity of membership and unity of purpose.

Ten thousand farmers in the county of Tipperary is a fact to be reckoned with. Two hundred thousand farmers banded together in their own organisation could achieve what, under circumstances of disorganisation could be termed miracles. A farmer who is not a member import duty, applied to basic slag. We must insist that, if any such move does materialise it will get the short shrift which it deserves from the Minister and Department of Agriculture.

A Farm Writes . . .

I wonder does the Minister for Agriculture understand the long term results of his two most recent moves. These moves can be taken as a complete reversal of policy by the government and a beginning of a serious cut down on grain growing.

The cut in the wheat is not very big but when you work out what it means in terms of shillings per barrel to the growers, wheat growing is becoming an uneconomic proposition. I know that there can be a profit made on wheat at this price in a good year or even in a reasonable year, but that return is not nearly great enough for the capital invested and for the risk incurred.

It was a sore enough blow to the grain grower to be told when his plans for cropping are already made that he is going to get a cut in wheat prices, but in the very same week the only other door open to him was narrowed to a very small gap. The announcement of the new grading regulations which will cut the prices of a big proportion of the pigs of the country, is bound to affect the total pig population and price of barley will become very snaky. We know that a price for barley has been fixed, but so far as we have seen, there is no guarantee that you will get a buyer for your barley at the fixed price and no machinery for taking up of barley by the Government has ever been set up. If barley becomes too plentiful and there is a big surplus of wheat, the position will become very sticky indeed and we know only too well that when the Government becomes embarrassed by over supply or price support difficulties their price to the farmer.

What are we to do then? The grain we will have on hands could be fed to pigs, if pigs would pay, but we can't get pigs that will grade well enough, because although millions can be poured down a mine in Wicklow, you can't get a few hundred thousand to set up a decent number of progeny testing stations to make a real bid to get us out of our present bacon troubles. Instead of that we have a set up of one station which might be sufficient for one province if it had been working for ten years.

These two moves against farmers in one week just when they are already marching in protest, would almost make you wonder if the Government is trying to drive the farmers to revolt.

Cut Your Insurance Costs

The success which has attended the National Farmers' Insurance Scheme in certain areas since the Scheme was inaugurated over two years ago, has brought happy smiles to the faces of those who were responsible for inaugurating the scheme. This was particularly evident at a recent National Meeting when members scanned the figures for the year ended 31st December 1961. The figures are all the more heartening when one considers the little apparent time and effort devoted to the Scheme.

In the beginning it was agreed on all sides that it would be advisable to move slowly in this new sphere of activity. We have moved carefully and we have not pushed the scheme to any great extent. Those who had been dubious of this new venture must now be convinced beyond any doubt that the Scheme deserves their support. To those who have worked quietly but effectively to build up the Scheme our National Council is grateful.

National Council members County Officers and Branch Secretaries should lose no opportunity of furthering the scheme in their own areas. The National Employers' Mutual is prepared to co-operate in every way in ensuring that there will be no scarcity of information in regard to the benefits deriving from the Scheme.

One of the advantages of the Scheme are—
1. The N.F.A. is a full agent and allows each member, who insures under the Scheme, a discount of 5% on his premium.
2. When a member insures under the Scheme, he is making a valuable contribution to the interests of the N.F.A.
3. The Insurance Company has a first class reputation throughout the insurance market for generous claims settlements. This is a very important aspect of the Scheme from a farmer's point of view.

The benefits of the Scheme are confined to N.F.A. members only and those who have joined under the Scheme are very satisfied with the terms and treatment received. Every member would be well advised to make enquiries about the Scheme to N.F.A. Headquarters, Insurance Section, N.F.A. Hse., Dublin 2. The scheme includes provision for motor and tractor insurance, fire, buildings, workmen's compensation, public liability, personal accident and in fact all types of insurance in which the farmer is interested, apart from life.

Briefs from Abroad

Speaking at a press conference in Brussels, Mr. Soames, Britain's Minister for Agriculture, has this to say—

"The British Government understands that it will have to accept the Common Market as a whole, including Agriculture, but we must protect the living standards of our farmers." This is only what one would expect from a dedicated Minister for Agriculture.

PIG PROBLEMS FOR THE DANES

The Danish pig population is 15% higher than last year, standing now at 7 1/2 million.

A refund of slaughter tax for pork exports has resulted in the domestic pork price being higher than the export price (what no dumping!). The Danish Government is now considering pork exports on credit, and stockpiling of canned pork.

IRELAND BRITAIN'S BEST CUSTOMER

The Agricultural Engineers' Association of Britain had another record year of overseas sales in 1961. £134m. worth of tackle was sold overseas and the best customers were: Ireland, Finland, South Africa, Australia and France. What about our butter quota?

N.F.U. WANTS ACTION NOT TALKING

The N.F.U. now feels that sufficient talk on the necessity for testing machinery has been made. They want an independent testing station of national status. They hold that the N.I.A.E. is a research rather than a testing station and that the farmer is the guinea pig of manufacturers selling in a market where demand was heavy. Speaking for the Union, Mr. Frank Appleyard said at Harrogate: "Buying the right machine is like picking the winner of the Grand National. We cannot afford to live in this fools' paradise. The main source of finance must be a Government grant." Shades of N.F.A. policy!

HIGHER WHEAT PRICES FOR THE DUTCH

Dutch farmers will get more money for their wheat and barley in 1962. His price will go up by 2% from 75/7d. a barrel to 76/11d. a barrel. Barley and oat prices are also going up by an equivalent percentage. Government supports have made the increase possible.

GOVERNMENT BOOSTS BRAZILIAN FARMERS' INCOME

For the second time in recent months, the Brazilian Government has boosted minimum price guarantees to farmers. Boosts range from 50% to 30% increases.

ITALY TO EXPORT PORK

Italy is to import 5.6 million lb. of pork this spring, 3.2 million lb. will come from Common Market countries and the remainder from other countries.

PUBLICITY AND SALESMANSHIP

From Australia comes a trade ship to Southwest Asia to boost Australian sales of meat, wool and other products. A previous experiment showed good results for low costs in serving as floating exhibition and display rooms. An Australian trade mission will precede the ship to make contacts and arrangements.

IRELAND NEEDS A SALES WINDOW IN LONDON

Switzerland during the first nine months of 1961—a 3% increase over the previous year. Italy bought 19 million pounds, France, the United States and Germany also bought large quantities. Ten million lb. of canned milk went to the Philippines. Irish cheese is excellent. Vigorous export marketing is all that is needed.

Late Mrs Mary J. Power

Widespread regret was manifested at the news of the death of Mrs. Christy Power (nee Veale), of 10 Connolly Park, Carrick-on-Suir, which sad event occurred on February 11th (Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes), at St. Brigid's Hospital, Carrick-on-Suir, after an illness bravely borne.

The deceased was extremely popular in both Dungarvan and Carrick-on-Suir. Sincere sympathy is expressed to her bereaved husband and children, her parents, brothers and sisters, uncles and aunts and other relatives.

The funeral from the Hospital was followed by a very large cortege including a big contingent from Dungarvan. DEBATE
Touraneena Schoolhouse was packed to capacity on Friday night of last week. When members of the Dungarvan Macra na Feirme Club and Touraneena N.F.A. and Macra na Tuaithe (combined) debated on the subject—proposed by the Dungarvan team: "That late marriages in Ireland are due to economic rather than social reasons."

After a most interesting and entertaining debate, Dungarvan emerged the winners with a total of 75 marks to Touraneena's 66 1/2 marks.
The night's enjoyable function concluded with a short dance and walking competition. The latter was won by Mr. Maurice Dalton and his partner Miss Nellie Ryan.

The Secretary, Mr. Liam O'Brien read his report for the year and stated the past year was the most successful season ever, winning a major share of the only events in the county. LABOUR COURT RECOMMENDATION TURNED DOWN

A recommendation by the Labour Court that the senior nursing staff at St. Otteran's Hospital, Waterford, be granted a 15% salary increase was also defeated by nine votes to six. £755-2-8 was the total amount involved. The voting in this instance was: Against, Messrs. Curran, Dower, Foley, Fahy, Foran, F. Roche, Quirke, N. Walsh, Galgey, Hamilton (9); For—Messrs. Cahill, Power, Kenneally, Gallagher, Griffin, Collins (6).

Rumour has Lismore People Perturbed

A rumour presently circulating that Lismore Hospital was going to close was discussed by members of Waterford Health Authority on Monday last when all West Waterford representatives resolved to oppose any such ideas in the strongest possible manner. Mr. J. Quirke said as a result of the rumour, the people of Lismore were up in arms. A lot of money had been spent on Lismore hospital and it would be unjust to close it down. All the hospitals were going to Waterford City. Replying to Mr. N. Walsh, Mr. J. A. Hynes said he couldn't say with certainty if there was foundation to the rumour. But as there was only 16 beds in the District Hospital, consideration might be given to having them transferred to the Co. Home. Mr. J. Fahy said he was in Lismore recently and the townspeople were very perturbed over the rumour. Mr. N. Walsh—We can assure you, all West Waterford representatives will oppose it strongly. In fact there should be more room for extra beds in Lismore.

Kilgobinet Drama a "Noble Production"

The Kilgobinet Drama groups presentation of the play "The Country Boy" produced by Rev. J. Lacey, C.C., was "a noble and sincere production" stated Mr. Stanley Illsley, the adjudicator, at the Cork Drama Festival at the week-end. Having discussed the general points regarding dramatic production, the adjudicator said that stage grouping was very important and entrances must be fully made. He also stressed the necessity for changes of note, tone and inflection in any long speech. Referring to the Kilgobinet entry he said that this was a noble and sincere production and the labour of the cast and producer was certainly not in vain. He praised Sean Walsh's characterisation of Tom Maher very highly and said that Larry Byrne as Curley Maher had a good natural approach. He also complimented Mrs. Mary Walsh in her part as Mary Kate Maher. Miss Margo Power, as Eileen Tierney and Miss Madge O'Brien as Julia,

MOTION WITHDRAWN

A motion in the name of Mr. P. F. Cahill "that all members of the Health Authority be furnished with full conditions of whom is entitled to medical cards, wages or salary for a man, his wife and each child," was ruled out of order by the Chairman, Mr. W. Kenneally, at Monday's meeting.

Mr. J. A. Hynes, Secretary, said it was a Managerial function. There was no set scale as each case was treated separately. Everything was above board and there was no need to worry about "fiddling" as had been suggested. Mr. Hynes told Mr. N. Walsh that a married man living with his father-in-law could make a separate application for a medical card. He also said 49.9% of the Dungarvan Dispensary District were receiving medical assistance. Mr. C. Curran said it was impossible to put the motion into effect. It was his theory that every case was treated sympathetically and he would ask Mr. Cahill to withdraw his motion. Refusing to do so the Chairman ruled it out of order. A second part to the motion—"That it be made known the number that had been refused medical cards since September 1961 and the reason for refusal," was withdrawn for want of a seconder.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

The engagement has been announced between Mr. Ion Peter Christopher Foy, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. P. I. Power, Land's End, Dungarvan and Miss Yvonne Bernadette Hennessy, eldest daughter of the late Dr. Patrick J. Hennessy and Mrs. Lillian Hennessy, John Street, Cashel.

From the Same Hospital

Depleted Waterford go under to Kilkenny

Kilkenny 3-10; Waterford 4-4

THAT now irksome Indian sign that Kilkenny have had over Waterford all too frequently during the past decade or so, flouted almost insolently its irritating head on Sunday last, this time over the Deisemense of Walsh Park, when the Noreiders mastered the Waterford men by 3-10 to 4-4 in an exciting Kinane Cup semi-final.

Played in article-like conditions that made the participants task a hazardous one, the game was in the circumstances all ways interesting, the standard of hurling being in the better-class category. Despite the unfavourable conditions a sizeable crowd left their warm fires to brave the elements and were well rewarded for doing so with a game that continuously produced excitement, augmented by a pulsating closing quarter.

And if it was only by a belated and somewhat desperate rally that Kilkenny rescued themselves from the jaws of defeat, they were on the run

At fault
For once Dickie Roche was not inclined to be his confident self in goal and was badly at fault for Kilkenny's first goal. Tom Cunningham and Austin Flynn played well in the full-line but John Barron doesn't seem to have found his 'best' form yet.

Martin O'Gorman was easily the most conspicuous of the half backs, but Mick Flannery caught a real tartar in the Kilkenny new find, Willie Murphy and appeared incapable of half Kilkenny rave signs of able of doing anything right. Joe Condon once again stood out as Waterford's man of the match, and was instrumental in instigating their last minute rally that almost gave them another chance.

MORALEBOOSTING GOAL
Within minutes of the restart Kilkenny struck with a moraleboosting goal by Ryan—a score that Roche should definitely have prevented. For Kilkenny, that goal was just what the doctor ordered. They swarmed to the attack and a succession of well-taken points by Cogan and Brophy twice left only two points (3-3 to 1-8) separating the sides.

Then after sixteen minutes it happened. Willie Murphy grabbed a clearance by Seamus Cleere and beat the entire Waterford defence for a great goal. Once in front Kilkenny had their tails up and a goal by John Barron and points by Keher and Brophy gave them a decisive lead.

O'Connell and W. Murphy (1-2) each; E. Keher (0-4); Ciochessy (1-0); Brophy (0-2). Seamus Power (2-1), Frankie Walsh (1-1), Billy Dunphy (1-0) and Martin Morrissey and John Meaney (0-1) each repiled for Waterford.

Kilkenny—R. Dunphy, T. Walsh, J. Walsh, L. O'Keefe, S. Cleere, T. Carroll, J. McGovern, M. Cogan, M. Brophy, E. Keher, M. Carroll, W. Murphy, S. Ciochessy, J. Ryan, T. O'Connell, Sub.—M. Walsh for O'Keefe, J. O'Shea for M. Walsh.

Waterford—R. Roche, T. Cunningham, A. Flynn, J. Barron, M. Fannelly, M. O'Gorman, J. Irish, J. Condon, W. Dunphy, M. Dempsey, F. Walsh, S. Power, T. Doon Walsh, M. Keily.

Late Mr. John O'Mahoney
The death occurred rather suddenly on Feb. 14th at Waterford Hospital of Mr. John O'Mahoney, Ballygown, Villierstown. Deceased was in his 62nd year. The remains were removed from Waterford to Ardmore on Thursday where they were received and blessed by Rev. Fr. Flavin, C.C., Ardmore. The Mass for the repose of his soul was offered up on Friday morning and burial took place in the afternoon. Rev. Fr. Flavin, C.C. again officiated.

Crusaders Best
Kilmacothomas 1; Crusaders 3
Kilmac' were always labouring against the sick City eleven. Crusaders in the Cooke Cup final at Kilmacothomas on Sunday last. The blizzard-like conditions were all against good football and the City team had a few anxious minutes in the last quarter when against the run of play, J. Kiersey snatched a goal to put the home team on level terms. Crusaders having taken the lead in the 40th minute when the home defence conceded an O.G. Crusaders very quickly restored their lead and added a third in the dying moments of the game. The winners were well served in all positions. Goalkeeper P. J. Maher, T. Barry and J. Kiersey were best for Kilmac'.

remain a football force. And if the Brickeys are my choice, don't be surprised if a titanic struggle is waged.

IMPORTANT LEAGUE DATES
At the request of readers here are the dates and venues of Waterford's remaining games in the hurling league: v. Wexford at Gorey on March 11th; v. Cork at Dungarvan on April 1st.

WINTER LEAGUE HURLING FINAL ON SUNDAY
The postponed winter hurling league final between Fourmilewater and Ardmore acts as a curtain raiser to the Brickeys-Kilrossanty game at Dungarvan on Sunday, so patrons would be well advised to go to the Old Boro venue early. The game is timed to start at 2 p.m.

Both sides have been thoroughly impressive in their marches to the final and should both simultaneously hit top form on Sunday, an absorbing encounter should be the outcome.

Whereas Fourmilewater have been strongly favoured from the start, Ardmore have unquestionably proved themselves the giant-killers of the league. Teams of repute like Geraldines and Shamrocks have had to concede best to the outsiders—victories that certainly speak for their capabilities.

Fourmilewater, in comparison, had an easier route to the decider, yet accomplished all that was asked of them against Kilgobnet and Affane.

Being fully aware of Ardmore's strength it is a precarious voice I give to the Western champions. The hurling craft of Connolly, Kieran and Liam Ryan, the Walshs Benney and Martin and Austin Brron has won many games in the past and may be the deciding factor again on Sunday. But should Ardmore prove me wrong, don't say you weren't forewarned.

CAPPOQUIN CHALLENGE GAMES
Cappoquin meet Abbeyside in senior and minor hurling in the Sportsfield, Cappoquin, on Sunday next. Both games should be of a high standard. The minor game commences at 2 p.m. and the senior at 3 p.m.

ABBEYSIDE BEAT ST. JOHN'S
Abbeyside 4; St. John's 1.

In the bitterly cold weather which prevailed at New Line Park on Sunday last Abbeyside again got back on the winning trail in beating Waterford city team St. John's. The first half was fairly even, St. John's looking as if they were going to put up a good fight, and in fact were on level terms at the interval.

They failed to last the pace, however, and Abbeyside, taking control, strolled to an effortless victory.

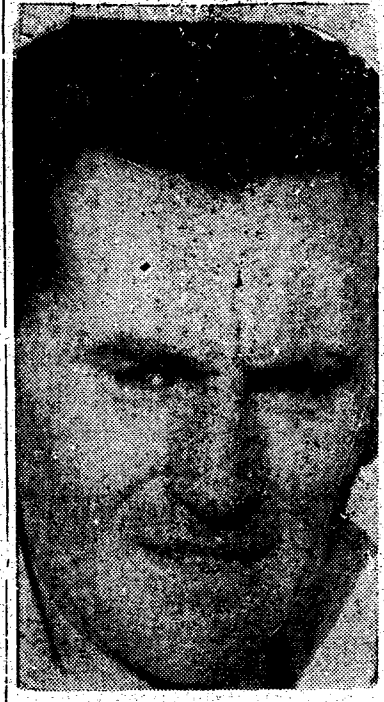

The only real feature of the game was the scoring of all 4 village goals by centre-forward

MICHAEL SINGLETON got all four goals on Sunday

Michael Singleton. Others to catch the eye in the home team were Danny and Ambie McGovern, Jerry Flynn and Danny O'Connor. However, overall, this was a rather lifeless display and Abbeyside can consider themselves rather lucky that the opposition was so poor.

NEXT SUNDAY'S GAME
Abbeyside again have a home fixture on Sunday next, when they take on Bohemians. Bohs are undoubtedly one of the are undoubtedly one of the glamour teams of the league, and Abbeyside will have to be right in top form to overcome them. The villagers are quietly confident, however, and with the return of centre-half Paddy Whelan, could at least take a point from the city team. Kickoff is at 3.30 p.m.

CASEY SCORES AGAIN — The Winning PINT — Nick Casey, The Square, Dungarvan

SEAMUS POWER in brilliant form on Sunday

of play worthy winners. Not that Waterford hadn't their opportunities to have clinched the game long before the Noreiders made their match-saving recovery. In fact when they literally cruised nonchalantly into a comfortable first-half lead, it looked all over for Kilkenny. But to accept defeat easily is a grievous offence in this hurling kingdom and Waterford fell victims to their all-out second half efforts.

HARSH FATE
Yet meritorious as Kilkenny's victory was, defeat was rather a harsh fate to befall the homesteaders. Whether or not they were caught napping towards the close is something only the players themselves can say, but no one could have begrudged them achieving such.
