REHABILITATION MEETING AT ARDMORE

There was a very large attendance at a public meeting held in St. Declan's Hall, Ardmore, in connection with the campaign to raise funds for the Rehabilitation Institution.

Mr. J. Cahill, Dublin, explained the purpose and aims of the Institution, Rev. Fr. O'Farrell, C.C., Dungarvan, explained that this was the Disabled Persons Year and that it was intended to hold a public collection in each parish for the Institution.

A vote of thanks to the speakers was proposed by Mr. M. Harty, M.C.C. and seconded by Miss C. Quinn, B.A. Mr. C. Curran, M.C.C., also spoke and the attendance included: Very Rev. Fr. O'Donnell, P.P., Ring and Old Parish; Dr. McNamara, M.O., Ardmore; Mr. J. Cashman, N.T., do.; Mr. J. Cullen, N.T., Grange; Mr. M. Moroney, N.T., Clashmore; Mr. F. Nugent, Mr. K. Coughlan, P.C.; Mr. J. Cass; etc.

STORM DAMAGE

The recent storm did considerable damage along the West Waterford Coast. Most damage to property occurred at Ardmore where the seawall was breached and some of the footpath and promenade was swept.

LATE MR. M. MULLINS

The death occurred recently of Mr. Martin Mullins, Ardallagh, Clashmore. Deceased was a general favourite and his demise has occasioned deep regret.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY

The Feast of the National Apostle was observed in traditional style in this area. Large congregations attended Mass and received Holy Communion.

DEATH OF MRS. M. WALSH

The death occurred, under tragic circumstances, of Mrs. Martha Walsh, Ardmore and Cappoquin. Relict of the late Mr. Patrick Walsh, who was one of Cappoquin's leading citizens, deceased was a popular and respected figure, noted for her amiable disposition and charitable characteristics.

THE E.S.B. CANVASS

The canvass of all householders in the Drum area is well advanced and the number of acceptors so far recorded does not justify development. An all out effort is being made this week to convince the people of the many advantages of electricity which is the cheapest and best form of light, heat and power and, above all, eliminates drudgery on the farm and in the home.

CLOMEL PIG MARKET

There was a good market and steady demand for all classes at Clomel Pig Market (conducted by Stokes & Quirk Ltd.) and held at Davis Road, on Tuesday week last. 1,300 pigs were on offer. A complete clearance was effected. Bacon pigs were in much better demand and all sold readily at increased prices. The exceptional number of Porkers and Store Pigs did not depress prices in any way and trade continued good throughout the entire sale. Sows-in-Young were also in good demand. Sows & Litters however proved most difficult to clear. Ruling prices were: Bacon Pigs, £13-10s. to £16-17-6; Fat Sows, £17 to £22; Porkers, £10-5-6 to £12-7-6; Strong Sows, £7-17-6 to £9-8s.; Medium Sows, £6-2-6 to £7-2-6; Bonhams, £3-12-6 to £5-2-6; Sows-in-Young, £19-10s. to £24; Sows & Litters, £31 to £35. The next market will be held on Tuesday next, 27th March.

Late Mrs. Johanna Fraher

ABBESIDE, DUNGARVAN

The unexpected death of Mrs. Johanna Fraher occurred on Wednesday, March 14th, at Ardeen General Hospital, after an illness of rather short duration, but fortified by the Rites of Holy Church. She was a general favourite in the Abbeyside district since she came to reside there. She was relict of John Fraher, Kibbiken.

The remains were removed from Ardeen Mortuary when Rev. Fr. Grace, Chaplain, had recited the Requiem Prayers on Thursday evening, followed by a very large cortege to St. Mary's Parish Church, Dungarvan, and were received by Rev. Fr. J. Murphy, C.C.

Requiem Mass was offered on Friday morning for the eternal repose of her gentle soul and the interment took place later in the adjoining cemetery. Another large concourse were present to pay their final respects. Fr. J. Murphy, C.C., imparted the final absolution at the graveside.

The chief mourners were: Maurice, Abbeyside, John and Thomas, England (sons); Mrs. Mary Dunne, Ballyhanrahan, Dungarvan (daughter).

Mass cards were received from: her fond son, Maurice; her loving daughter, Mary, Paddy and family; Tom, Nancy and family, Grantham, Lincolnshire; Bernadette, John, David and Anthony, John and family, Redding; Tom and Nancy, Tom and Minnie Dunne and Paddy Foley, Mapstown; James and Mrs. Power, Ballinamuck; Elsie, Anglin; Nellie Hague; Mrs. J. LATE MR. THOS CONDON

KILCOONEY, BALLINAMULT

The death took place at his residence, Kilcooney, on Monday, March 12th, of Thomas Condon, after an illness of some duration, but at an advanced age. He was a most industrious member of the farming community. He was a great favourite and most popular man for his outstanding qualities. He was a kind and gentle neighbour and a true friend.

His remains were removed on Tuesday evening to Touraneena Church, followed by a huge cortege, and were blessed and received by Very Rev. P. Walsh, P.P. Requiem Masses were celebrated on Wednesday morning, after which the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery as a manifestation of great sorrow from the very large concourse present. Rev. Fr. M. Fennell, C.C., officiated at the graveside.

The greatest of sympathy is extended to his son, Thomas, Kilcooney, and to his daughter, Mrs. O'Grady, The Nire, who reside locally, and also to his daughters who are domiciled in England. (Undertaking by James Kiely and Sons, Dungarvan.)

London Wedding of Local Interest

The marriage was solemnised on March 17th, at St. Agnes Catholic Church, Cricklewood, London, N.W. 2, between Mr. Pierce J. Fitzpatrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Fitzpatrick, Timahoe, Portlaoighis, Co. Leix, and Miss Alice Teresa Prendergast, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. Prendergast, 14 Congress Villas, Dungarvan. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Fr. McKerin.

The bride was given away by her uncle Mr. Nicholas Noonan. The bridesmaid, Miss Mary Boyle, Castlecomer, Co. Kilkenny, Mr. Frank Fitzpatrick, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Mrs. P. Prendergast, mother of the bride, travelled specially from Dungarvan for the wedding.

The reception was held at the Midland Restaurant Cricklewood and was attended by forty guests. Mr. and Mrs. Fitzpatrick were the recipients of many telegrams of congratulation. The honeymoon is being spent in the south of England.

RE-STOCKING PROGRAMME BY E.S.B.

As part of its overall salmon development scheme the E.S.B. will this year put into operation a long-term re-stocking programme for the River Liffey. In the first year of the programme 250,000 eggs will be used.

The eggs will probably be imported as, due to limited production in this country, the demand exceeds the supply. They will be hatched out at the Board's central hatchery and rearing station at Parteen Weir, near Limerick. The young fish will later be planted in selected stretches of the Liffey which will be suitably prepared.

The 50,000 salmon eggs brought from Scotland earlier this month are now hatching out at Parteen. The operation was successful and there were no losses.

The rearing station at Parteen on the River Shannon has facilities for bringing salmon fry to the smolt stage when they become silvery and commence their migration to the sea. The rearing tanks have now been in successful operation for over a year and a workshop, offices, laboratory for the Board's fisheries biologist and a staff house are at present being built at the station.

Two thousand one-year-old brown trout are now almost ready for experimental planting in Pollaphuca Reservoir and they will be released in the next few weeks.

SALMON FISHING

With almost two months of the open salmon season gone there is still a scarcity of fish. With a few boats last week there was an improvement for one day only which was not maintained towards the close of the week. One boat had its first salmon in three weeks on Friday last and many others, especially upriver had been without a fish for a considerable time. On the opening day this week only four odd salmon were taken by the boats in Youghal and there was little or no improvement on the Tuesday.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY AT YOUGHAL

The National Festival was celebrated in the usual befitting way in Youghal with the customary parade organised by Conrath na Gaelige from the Market Square to the Parish Church where a sermon on the life of the Apostle was delivered by Rev. Fr. Kelleher, C.C. The parade of large dimensions was most colourful and was led by the Cork Hill Pipers Band followed by a contingent of the F.C.A. under B.Q.M. Patrick Power, local Civil Defence, Chairman and Members of the Urban District Council, I.C.A., Church of Ireland Group, children from the schools and the Christian Brothers' Flag-waving Band of 80 strong in colourful uniforms under their director Rev. Brother Cordial, children from local dancing schools, Catholic Boy Scouts, Pigeon Club and

HAY BURNED

A quantity of hay on the farm of Mr. Thomas Neville, Ballyroe, Knockanore, was destroyed by fire on Wednesday last week. The Youghal Fire Brigade were promptly on the scene and succeeded in preventing the fire from spreading to adjacent buildings.

DEATH OF MRS. B. NEVELLE

We regret to record the death of Mrs. Bridget Nevelle, Carriganarra, Inch, which sad event occurred at her residence last week. Deceased was a kind and charitable lady and was highly esteemed, as was evidenced by the large and representative cortege that accompanied the remains to the local Church, and at the funeral to Killeagh Cemetery.

Much sympathy is extended to her daughter, brother and relatives.

YOUGHAL DEFEAT SHAMROCK MINORS

In a challenge minor hurling game, played at Glendine on Sunday, Youghal hurling team defeated Shamrocks 6-6 to 4-3. The Youghal lads, who were faster on the ball, seemed to edge the edge of the Shamrocks side early on, and were worthy winners.

LATE MR. PETER HENLEY

The following is a list of the chief mourners at the obsequies of the late Mr. Peter Henley, whose regretted death occurred last week: Messrs. Sonny, Michael, Matthew, Peter, John, Cornelius, William, Patrick and Daniel Henley (sons); Misses Sheila, and Ann Henley (brothers); Mr. P. Curley, West St. (uncle); Nelson, William, John and Patrick Henley (brothers); Mrs. M. Pratt, New St., Anne Henley, do., Mrs. Theresa Newman and Mrs. M. Treacy (sisters); etc.

Deputy Ormond in the Dail

Mr. Sean Ormond, T.D., asked the Minister for Industry & Commerce if in view of the fact that the cost of medicines in the Waterford health authority area appears to be increasing rather rapidly he will carry out an inquiry into the prices which the public must pay for medicines at the present time in order to allay public unrest in this matter.

The Minister's reply: I am not aware that the cost of medicines has been increasing in the Waterford Health Authority area. For the reasons stated in reply to a recent question, I do not consider an enquiry into the prices of medicines is necessary. If, however, the Deputy will furnish me with information regarding increases in the prices of medicines in the Waterford health area, I will have the matter examined.

PASSAGE EAST DEVELOPMENT

Deputy Ormond asked the Minister for Lands if it is intended to proceed with the proposed port development scheme at Passage East, Co. Waterford; and, if so, when it is expected that a start will be made on the project.

The Minister replied: I understand the Commissioners of Public Works that their investigations of the conditions at Passage East have disclosed unexpected velocities and turbulence of waves and tidal currents. In the light of this information, it is necessary for the existing proposals to be re-examined from a technical point of view, and this examination is now being carried out.

Late Mrs. M. O'Farrell

COOLDELANE, LISMORE

The death took place at Lismore Hospital on Saturday, 17th inst., of Mrs. Mary O'Farrell, Cooldeane, Lismore. She was wife of Mr. Patrick O'Farrell and, nee Cody, was a native of Monalour. A member of a well-known and widely connected West Waterford family, the death of this much esteemed lady has occasioned deep regret.

The remains were removed to St. Carthage's Lismore on Saturday evening, where they were received by Very Rev. J. Kenneally, P.P.

The interment took place in the parochial cemetery on Monday after solemn Office and Requiem High Mass. Very Rev. J. Kenneally and Rev. M. O'Meara officiated at the graveside. Public sympathy on the passing of this popular lady was shown by the very large attendance at the obsequies.

BALLINROAD OPEN SEASON WITH WINNER

The Ballinroad Players opened the season at the St. Declan's Hall, Ardmore, on Sunday night last with a first-class performance, played to a capacity audience, of Kevin Walsh's three-act comedy "The Big-Hearted Man."

This talented group has proved once again what a versatile group of actors they are and have gone from success to success in their productions since they staged the first one some five years ago in their own St. Laurence's Hall at Ballinroad.

Veteran Tommy Keating gave a first-class show as Sean Rafferty, an elderly farmer. Bernie Power of Kilgobinet is new on the stage with the Ballinroad players, but is well known in the Hall, where he is a member of the band which weekly provides music for the highly popular Tuesday night ceilidhe. He took the part of the private secretary in the play.

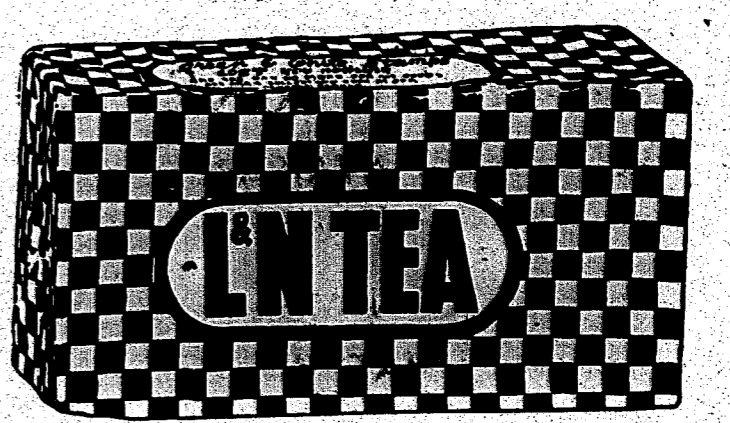

Kathleen Landers, one of the original play-group, acted with confidence and ability in the part of Mary Rafferty the farmer's daughter. Vera Walsh performed excellently in the part of the old woman with a reputation for witchcraft, and is deserving of great credit for her performance, since she filled the part at very short notice, and with only a bare ten days for rehearsal.

This is Christy Dunford's second season playing with the Ballinroad Group, and he acquitted himself very well as Desmond, the young farmer, next-door. Sean O'Brien gave a slick and polished performance as an artist. He has been acting with the St. Laurence's players from the start. Nora Kiely played her part to perfection. Like Kathleen Landers she has been with the group from the beginning and is one of the veterans of the stage. She took the part of the garrulous old widow, Jim Sheehan acted well in his part as Paddy Grogan.

Dancers who entertained the patrons during the interval were: Marcella Walsh, Betty Morrissey, Ahn Tyrell, Brother and sister, Vera and Sean O'Brien, were popular with their selection of songs, while Bernie Power's comic songs drew an encore.

Efficient stage manager and master of ceremonies for the variety performance was Mr. Richie Walsh, Abbeyside.

At the conclusion, Rev. Fr. Michael Walsh, C.C., Abbeyside, President of the Ballinroad Parish Hall Committee, thanked the patrons for their support. It was always a pleasure for them to come to Ardmore, he said, as they were always well received by a helpful and appreciative audience. He thanked all who helped in any way to make their entertainment a success and expressed their gratitude to Very Rev. Fr. W. Cahill, P.P., for his kindness in making the hall available for the performance.

Kilmacthomas Notes

Have it that the Drama Competition under the auspices of Waterford County Executive, Macra na Feirme, which took place in the Rainbow Hall, Kilmacthomas, on Thursday night of last week was won by the Gaultier Guild's group of performers, who are to be congratulated on their triumph.

"Seagulls" Score Sparkling Success.—That the Bonmahon Amateur Historical Class dubbed "The Seagulls" have built up a big reputation since the foundation of the group some years since was clearly evidenced by the cheery crowded audience to whom they presented a varied and thoroughly enjoyable concert, augmented by the popularly established comedy sketches titled "Cure for Nerves," "Cough Water," and "The Doctor's Dilemma" in the commodious local Spring Valley Hall. The piece-de-resistance of the entire entertainment was provided by two groups of pupils (one of instrumentalists, one of step-dancers) drawn from Knockmahon National School, and a group of pupils (musicians) of St. Anne's N.S., Seafield, the talented trio of groups richly meriting the unstinted plaudits their respective performances gained them.

Mr. Dick Fleming filled the chief role in each of the sketches to the proverbial veins of nicely, and his confutes in each sketch were very effective too. The respective pieces were well received and the pleasure of the audience was quite obvious.

Artists who contributed vocal numbers were given a big hand in every instance. Miss Marian Walsh presided at the piano with conspicuous ability and clubbable Mr. John Keane was the masterly M.C.

With the singing of the National Anthem in Irish Seagulls befittingly wound up their delightful entertainment.

All Prosperity and Happiness to amiable Mr. Peter Queally, Grenan, Kilmacthomas, and estimable Miss Angela Galgey daughter of Colr. Milo Galgey Killalton, Dummore East, whose marriage has just taken place in Killea Church, Dummore East. The newly-wedded couple worthily enjoy an exceedingly expansive friendship circle. Good luck to both.

Great Work is being done these days by County Council roadmenders, with bulldozer and other equipment, in widening the approach to Bover's Hill, Bonmahon, on the Ballylonegan side of the Tramore-Dungarvan coast road thereat, and hard by St. Anne's National School, Seafield, also. Genial Mr. Monnie Landers is the overseer in charge of the Garrahalish. Kilmacthomas, is the overseer in charge of the workers carrying out this job of improvement.

The Customary Lenten Stations in the parish of Stradbally, Faha and Ballylaneen, were concluded this (Saturday) morning.

Of a Verily every mother's son and daughter on both sides of the Mahon sported a spray of "the green immortal shamrock" in La Feile Padraig. The vast majority of the large congregations at both the early and late Masses approached the altar rails and received Holy Communion in honour of St. Patrick, Kilmacthomas. Band marched through the town discoursing delightfully a series of musical numbers appropriate for the Feast of the National Apostle. The day was dry but very cold, the Comeragh Mountains being nival-clad since the preceding Thursday night. TV and Radio Eireann fans were well catered for.

The Drawing of Prizes in aid of the Faha Football Club was held on Sunday night last at the premises of Mr. Gerald Troy, shopkeeper, Faha, and resulted as follows: 1st prize, (£3) won by Miss B'igid Walsh, Fivecross Roads, Portlaw; 2nd prize (£2) Mrs. Ellen Kiely, Durrow, Stradbally, and 3rd prize (£1) Mrs. G. Troy, Faha.

Mr. James Mahon, Faha-feela, drew the tickets and the seller of the first prize-winning ticket was Mr. Joe Fitzmaurice, c/o Mr. Nicholas Flynn, victualler, Main Street, Kilmacthomas.

Kilmac's Convincing Win

Kilmacthomas 3;
St. Joseph's 1.

The above scoreline does not even flatter the home team in their Division 11 League game at Kilmac on Sunday last. Played before a good crowd for a 12 o'clock fixture, and in cold blustery conditions, the locals were on top in all sectors. They fielded without regular defender Sonny Power, who is injured, and his place at right-half was taken by minor D. Flynn.

Kilmac took the lead after seven minutes, when outside-right D. Casey raced through the St. Joseph's defence and scored from 12 yards.

Roy Battye got Kilmac's second goal after a good movement in which J. Kiersey, J. O'Byrne and S. Prendergast took part. Ten minutes after the re-start the city team reduced the arrears, when, after a mix-up in the home defence, they scored from close range.

Fifteen minutes from the end, left-half John Whelan, after beating off an attack, took the ball to the half-way line before passing to Battye, who carried it right through the entire St. Joseph's defence and flashed a beautifully shot to the net. S. O'Reilly and J. Prendergast had shots saved in the closing stages and at the end Kilmac were still piling on the pressure.

On this form Kilmac will certainly be a force in forthcoming cup competitions and are now unbeaten in the league since before Christmas.

Kilmacthomas: M. Carey, P. Walsh, J. Whelan, D. Flynn, M. Connolly, J. Kiersey, D. Casey, S. O'Reilly, R. Battye, J. O'Byrne, S. Prendergast. Referee: Mr. T. Walsh (Tramore).

LISMORE NOTES

Lismore Badminton Club held a tournament on Thursday night last when they played a Fermoy selection. Lismore played the same team that beat Mitchelstown the week before but on this occasion they were held to a draw by a fast moving experienced side. The following are the details—

Men's doubles—John Crotty and Trevor Andersen beat Paddy Kiernan and Jerry Ryan, 2-0; Paddy Burke and Michael O'Shea were defeated by Phil Bartley and M.L. Melligan, 0-2. Ladies' doubles—Monica Noonan and Geraldine McGrath beat Emer Quann and Heather Callaghan 2-0; G. McGrath and Joan Nugent beat Catherine Horgan and Evelyn Fitzgerald 2-0. Of the mixed doubles Lismore won one and Fermoy three, to leave the score four sets each. Following the games an excellent tea was served by the very active ladies committee. On Tuesday Lismore played Cappoquin, full details of this tournament will appear next week.

SOCCER

On Sunday last at the Castle Farm ground, Lismore Athletic beat Youghal 2 goals to 1 in a hard fast moving game that lacked nothing in thrills and spills.

Youghal tipped off but were put quickly on the defensive by a fast-moving Lismore front line in which Tom Sullivan and Tommy Whelan starred. After ten minutes a hard shot by Dan Shanahan was handled in the goal mouth and Tom Sullivan made no mistake from the resulting penalty. Within minutes of this goal a good shot was deflected by one of the Youghal full-backs past his own goalkeeper. The Lismore goal had many narrow shaves in the following minutes but with a fullback line in which Noel Keating and Paddy Scanlon never put a foot wrong, the forwards were confined to long range shooting. Youghal were in hard luck just before half-time when a fierce drive from right-half White was tipped over the bar by keeper Andersen. After half-time, Youghal had a lack of attack spoken up by Lismore's centre half Billy Hogan who headed out many dangerous crosses. Just before full-time Youghal attacked up the right wing and a through pass by the winger put the inside right through. In attempting to save goalkeeper T. Andersen received a badly gashed head which necessitated immediate attention but luckily the full-time whistle just went.

WARNING SYSTEM APPLE SCAB

Apple scab is one of the most serious diseases causing very severe loss and it presents serious difficulties in control.

At the Pomology Research Station of An Foras Talúnais at Ballyvaughan, Dúngharvan, plans are under way for the provision of an apple scab warning system whereby growers can be warned in advance of the release of spores which cause the disease. On receipt of this warning fruit trees can be given a protective spray. This is the first time that such a warning system will be used on a large scale in this country.

The warning system will be operated at Ballyvaughan where information coming from the other three centres at the U.C.D. Experimental Farm, Dublin; Fermoy, Co. Cork; and Moonea, Co. Wick, and Adrianman, Co. Tipperary, will be collected and processed. The system is recording the duration of leaf wetness, temperature and other factors affecting spore release are being set up at each Centre. They are already in operation. From the information received each morning from these recording centres it will be possible to determine whether conditions are conducive to infection taking place and, if necessary, a warning will be issued to Advisory Officers and growers concerned.

A pilot warning system was operated from the Dúngharvan centre last year and preparations for the coming season are under way. Since early February the orchards of over-wintering buds of the apple scab fungus from last year are being observed, a close watch being kept on the opening of the buds and the development of the ascospores within them.

The leaves are kept in a wire cage out of doors and as soon as ascospores are found on the scabbed leaves, wet weather forecasts are submitted to a wind tunnel test, in which the spores, if any are collected on a slide. If ascospores are found on the slide then it is assumed that the next period of rain will bring about a natural release of spores in the orchards and a preliminary warning that spore release is imminent, can be given. However, if conditions of leaf wetness and temperature are not suitable the spores will not germinate and infection will not take place.

Similar warning systems are in operation in Holland, Germany and Britain and have proved of great benefit to orchard owners.

The study in relation of a more comprehensive system of investigation of a number of diseases and pests of orchards, in which information will be forthcoming in due course.

Co-Operation Necessary for Progress in Macra na Feirme

The ninth annual social of the Carpospina Macra na Feirme was held at the Galtee Hotel, Caher, on February 20. Attended by over 200 guests, it proved the most outstanding in the club's history. All patrons enjoyed a first-class dinner and tremendously enjoyed the social which followed.

Mr. Tom Fives who travelled from Dublin Show for the evening, welcomed the guests and members.

Mr. John Murphy, in his toast to Ireland spoke on our country's aspects for the future and the progress we must make. We are said Mr. Murphy, on the eve of the E.F.C. Let us ask ourselves the question, are we in a position to compete with other countries. Will our standards compare with that of the E.F.C. We must take a preview on the situation and progress the question "quo vadis" we must take into consideration our political and economic situation with regard to the other countries and strive to bring our standards in a line with them.

Rev. F. Daly, C.C. in his toast to Macra which he introduced in Irish, spoke of the social and cultural standing among the community. At the present time he said, Macra na Feirme is the leading organisation in the country. Its survival and progress is due to the co-operation and loyalty of its members. Co-operation is necessary, he emphasised for its advancement. Giving an example from everyday life he pointed to the co-operation on the farm where the father's experience is combined with the sons' modern ideas. Ideas are not enough. Young people must advance and be given a sense of responsibility. They must not have educational opportunities in view of our advent to E.E.C. Hard work will not be sufficient for our existence, until we acquire a sense of co-operation of techniques and management.

In his reply to the toast of Macra na Feirme, Domnall O'Faolain emphasised that the participation of the youth in all activities of modern advancement, Ireland's social status, he said, has progressed immensely in the years. It is the obligation of the youth of the country not to let it decline. All aspects of Irish culture must be preserved and this can be done only by co-operation.

Mr. J. J. Collins in his toast to our guests said, this is indeed an honour and privilege conferred on me here to-night, to be called on to propose the toast of our guests. When I see before me so many pleasant and happy faces, exuding good-will and enjoyment I can hardly bring myself to speak to you in a serious vein. We have with us to-night, people from every walk of life and we are so warmly embracing every section of the community. This night, my friends, is another example of the social face-life which Macra na Feirme has given the youth of this country—a badly-needed face-lift. Our parents had the opportunity of meeting their friends and neighbours, not to speak of people from other counties in the grand no-cash-harvest atmosphere of a macra social, which is the ideal place for exchanging views and ideas and outlook on life generally. Mr. Collins went on to say "We may not have as many people with us to-night as we would like to have. Accordingly he read letters of apologies from people who were unavoidably absent. During the year, he continued, it would not be possible to run off our many and varied competitions with out the assistance of some people outside the circle of the club. On each occasion in which we approached these people we always found their faces open to us, I wish to thank them one and all.

In his reply to the "toast of our guests" Rev. Fr. O'Meara, C.C., spoke on the obligation of forming a progressive and spirited outlook among the members of Macra na Feirme. One example, he said, was the achievements of the chairman Mr. T. Fives, who the previous day had won three first prizes at the Dublin Show with his renowned herd of Landrace pigs. Successes like these are an example to all of what can be achieved by the application of the proper methods and systems, of modern farming.

In conclusion, Mr. Tom Fives thanked the Manager and staff of the Galtee Hotel for the par excellence meal which they served. He then presented the magnificent trophy which was presented by the Galtee Cattle Breeding Station to Mr. Pat Prendergast who was the winner of the 1961 farm project competition.

The social which followed, to the music of Billy Kenrick and his orchestra, was contributed to by songs from the many artists present which drew rounds of applause from all.

LONDON NEWS

ST. PATRICK'S DAY PARADE

March 11th, this year was a day here in the big city. The day when the Irish honour St. Patrick, the Patron Apostle of Ireland. This year's parade must have been one of the largest and most successful to date. The parade as usual, formed up at Horse Guards Parade and what a sight it was to see all the London Irish Pipe Bands and all the little girls in their National costumes. Every Irish organisation in London was represented and it certainly was a source of joy for the writer to see the Blue and White Banner of the Waterfordmen's Association proudly flutter in the sharp Thames breeze. Carrying the banner was Owen Goode and Maddy Fitzgerald followed by the greatest contingent of Waterford exiles seen on a St. Patrick's Day Parade. All corners of the city and county were represented and that is the reason I do not give some names in case I omit some. However, I will venture to mention a few. P. D. Flynn, Chairman, from Talbot; Tom and Mrs. Cahill from Tramore; Jim Griffin, Hon. Sec. from Waterford; Willie Barron, Vice Chairman, Dúngharvan, with his family; Willie Corrigan, Waterford; John Duce; Tony Whelan, Kilmeehan; M. Commins, Strabally; An old friend and a great Gael I met was Joe Mason of Cappoquin who is looking in the best of health. Ballinamult, Ballymacbriv, Touraneena, Kilmeehan, Ardmore, Tourin, Kneekarr, Melleray and other parts were all represented. What a size the parade would be if these Irish on the sidewalks joined in and marched. When the thousands reached Westminster Cathedral, 4,000 to 5,000 went in to recite the Rosary in Irish. Then to a sermon in Irish on St. Patrick and finish up with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. It was indeed a very pleasant outing for exiles and their families.

The remains were brought to St. Mary's Church on Thursday evening and were received by Very Rev. J. Kenneally, P.P., and Rev. M. O'Meara, C.C. who also officiated at the interment in Kildorgan cemetery on Friday afternoon. Public regret was shown by the very large attendance at the obsequies. BALLINACOURTY'S CHANCE OF GLORY

Down the years Ballinacourty had produced man ya good side. Yet somehow, or for some unknown reason they could never break through the barrier of real success. Always some bulwark crossed their path and killed what appeared to be certain success. Now on Sunday next the junior footballers of "the potato parish" journey to Waterford to lay down the gauntlet to Erin's Own in the County final of the Winter League.

This decider is as intriguing as it is unexpected. Who, honestly speaking, could have foretold at the commencement of the league that either of Sunday's finalists would win through in their respective divisions? But both succeeded in confounding most and as worthy finalists should provide a game that will be well in keeping with the importance of the occasion.

Reports to hand about Erin's Own are convincing but if they are to halt Ballinacourty's advance they will have to be good in fact, very good.

The form of the Western men in their successful Divisional march suggests they are a side above average. In their final outing against Clashmore they found little difficulty in chalking up a 1-9 to 0-5 victory and then in an avalanche of scoring submerged Carroquin 5-10 to 0-0.

Their greatest achievement was yet to come, however, and when they faced the newly-crowned junior football champions, were considered rank outsiders. But with a scientific display of polished and scientific football they overpowered the Carroquin men with a consummate ease that left everyone dumb-founded and in awe of their prowess.

As a member to a great campaign they met and beat Ring again without difficulty and into the bargain confirmed once again the brilliance of their early performances.

This then is the Ballinacourty that travels to the City on Sunday. Solidly served in defence where M. O'Kiely, Thomas Heenan, John McGrath and Danny Barry form the backbone of a resolute set-up, they are no less well served in front. Here Johnny Horan, Tony Mansfield, Donal Whelan and Pat McConnel can both as a unit and individually piece the tightest-knit defences.

On top of this comes the hardening news that Austin Flynn is staging a comeback to the code and if he decides to play on Sunday it will only be to County's advantage.

Erin's Own, playing in the more accustomed surroundings of Walsh Park will have an advantage in this respect. But after that I expect these advantages to be few and far between. Their superb fitness will also be an asset but should they prevent the Westerners from taking a first county title I will be greatly surprised.

JOE CONDON SPORTS STAR OF THE WEEK

After a week-end that was crisscrossed with representative games having the cream of the county's talent on view at various venues, Joe Condon, in Waterford eyes at any rate emerged from the galaxy of sports stars of the week. The wonderful achievements of Des Feley and Jimmy B'ghar have been related in detail in the National Press but any Waterford man in title of Sunday must have felt a degree of pride watching Joe Condon expound all the artistry that he possesses in his "right-built" frame—and to think that Joe was only a late arrival for the recent Des O'Garra, Mick Murphy and Tom Ryan all took a turn at trying to cram the Erin's Own man's hole but they may as well have been attempting an Atlantic crossing in a dingy so unsuccessful were they.

And what an eye-opener Joe's display was for the Munster selectors that blushing sat on the side-line. For if any man could have kept a reasonable check on Des Feley in the St. Patrick's Day Railway Cup final it was Condon. However the five wise men thought otherwise.

Waterford's other representatives on the Rest, Austin Flynn and Seamus Power also distinguished themselves. Flynn held Billy Moloughney scoreless and Power had better of his duel with a disappointing Tony Wall.

FOOTBALLERS TAKE ON CARLOW

Sunday next is a great day for Waterford football. The County side, for long in the doldrums are just one hour away from a meeting with All-Ireland champions Down. On Sunday next they take on Carlow in the National League (quarter final) and the Ulster champions await the winners in the semi-final.

As on most occasions Waterford will be unfancied in most quarters. But that will not perturb the Deise men greatly. They are fit and most of all determined. The odds have been upset before. Ask Cork or Kerry. A re-occurrence is not impossible on Sunday.

MUNSTER'S DEFEAT

The failure of the Munster hurlers to retain their inter-provincial crown on St. Patrick's Day came as a shock to Southern hurlers. Yet, no one can begrudge Leinster their success which on the day was fully deserved.

At hour they came within an ace of defeat, Leinster's final winning margin of two points (1-11 to 1-9) should have been far greater. But poor marksmanship plus the tenacity of Brohan, Maher and Carey in Munster's last line of defence kept the score down.

The Waterford men on the Munster side alternated between good and fair. Seamus Power was always conspicuous in attack but Martin O'Gorman's display was not up to the mark.

FRANKIE WALSH... came on as a sub in the closing stages of the Railway Cup final on St. Patrick's Day.

Walsh was often caught on the wrong foot by Christy O'Brien. Frankie Walsh was called into the game towards the close but in his brief span, looked the most dangerous of the forwards.

LAST SUNDAY'S PHELAN CUP FINAL

Brickey Rangers experienced the difficulty in retaining the Phelan Cup at Dungarvan on Sunday last when they beat a very deserving KIL side 2-6 to 0-1 at half-time. Not even a second-half territorial advantage could save them however, as they had the better of the forwards no matter how they were out.

Kil's defence were poorer than anyone could have envisaged. Completely outplayed in the first half, they trailed by 2-6 to 0-1 at half-time. Not even a second-half territorial advantage could save them however, as they had the better of the forwards no matter how they were out.

WATERFORD'S TEAM TO MEET CORK

Pigest surprise on the county team to meet Cork on Sunday week's vital League game at Dungarvan is the absence of John Barron at full-forward.

Not since the peerless John Kelly called it a day has this position been satisfactorily filled and Barron's latest new comer to the post can only be taken on trust.

To my knowledge this will be Barron's first time playing in this position either for club or county. Yet his elusiveness even as a defender was a feature of his play and if he can employ his body swerves in his new role he could be the answer to the selectors' prayers.

The absence of Jackie Condon, Tom Cheesly and Larry Guinan is anything but a help and Jim Irish, John Meany and Mick Dempsey continue to deputise.

The team is: P. Roche, T. Cunningham, A. Flynn, J. Byrne, M. Flannally, M. O'Gorman, J. Walsh, J. Condon, M. Dempsey, J. Meany, P. Grimes, F. Walsh, S. Power, J. Barron, M. Murphy.

KILL DISAPPOINT IN POOR GAME Brickies Retain Phelan Cup

Brickey Rangers 2-6; Kill 1-3

BRICKEY RANGERS, by their tendency to alternate between brilliant and rock-bottom on successive Sundays have proved themselves something of an unfathomable combination even to their most ardent supporters. And on Sunday last at Dungarvan, following two listless displays against Kilrossanty they improved out of all recognition and in the retention of the Phelan Cup, trounced Kill by a clear six points.

Unpredictable is surely the only description that can be given of the Rangers. General opinion was that a repetition of their form when beating Kilrossanty in the semi-final would not have been nearly sufficient to overcome the fancied Kill men. Brickies too, must have realised this to the hilt and accepted it as a challenge to their reputations. And that final 2-6 to 1-3 scoreline is proof enough that they were more than equal to it.

Not that Kill were the team that earlier displays made them out to be. In fact this must have been their most unimpressive performance ever at the Old Boro venue and it is difficult to visualise how they so completely outclassed all Eastern opposition in their path to the final.

During the hour many individuals turned in well-nigh perfect displays but unfortunately the game as a whole fell flat. Each preceding round only brought disappointing fare and this decider of which so much was expected was probably the greatest disappointment of all.

Other aspects also helped to ruin the game as a spectacle. The strong breeze that swept the pitch ensured a marked advantage for whatever side that played with it, giving the respective defences a "resting period" during the hour. Nor did the necessity of both sides to indulge in petty foul play to raise the standard. So angry enough the opening minutes really gave promise of a rip-roaring game as both sides swung the ball about in delightful fashion. But quicker than it takes to relate the game took a retrograde step and disintegrated into a series of fouls—the majority of which were needless in the extreme. With referee Mick Whyte's refusal to let the slightest infringement pass there was little continuity of play and as the game progressed players became agitated resulting in a series of "unofficial bouts".

From this criticism of the play, however, it is only fair that Brickeys be exonerated from the greatest share of the blame. All through they endeavoured to play constructive football, even when facing the second half elements and they met with far greater success than at any time I've seen them this year.

They laid the foundations for victory in the first half, when, thanks to a midfield masterstroke by Andy Hallissey and Mick Walsh, their forwards availed of every opportunity to smash 2-6 by the interval, while Kill's reply was a solitary point from a free by Tom McGrath in the 29th minute.

That Brickeys well deserved that 11-point interval lead goes without saying, yet both their goals were of the lucky variety. The first, after eleven minutes, came from a penalty by Justin Spratt that was stupidly conceded by the Kill defenders when little or no danger seemed apparent. Exactly four minutes later a 30-yard free by Pat Spratt sailed directly to the Kill net without a player touching it.

And so Kill re-stated with the wind in their backs but an 11-point deficit defiantly staring them in the face. The first-half slaughter had clearly been taken to heart by the losers and the altered disposition of their forces after the break made it a near impossibility to trace accurately their re-organised line-out.

Defenders Tom Moorey and Martin Kennedy were switched to attack in a despairing effort to find a way past the Brickey defence. Full-forward Tom McGrath was brought out to McGrath and Noel Power operated between mid-field and centre-back. But all in vain. Twenty-four minutes had elapsed and for all the pressure they exerted, could only show two points for their labour. Then, in a goal-mouth melee, they secured their only goal, that helped in small measure to take the bare appearance off the score-board. And whilst I'm convinced Kill simply hadn't it in them to master the Rangers on Sunday, they helped greatly towards their own defeat by crowding the Brickey goal-mouth, and consequently making their task of scoring all the more difficult.

Backed by the strong breeze Brickeys attacked from the start and Pat (free) and Justin Spratt had points inside five minutes. Three minutes later Justin had a magnificent point from far out and in the 11th minute his high centre was well placed but the Kill defenders hid on the ball inside the square, and from the resultant penalty Spratt himself left goalkeeper Queally helpless with a great drive.

Within another minute Spratt was again on the mark with another point, and when his brother Pat's 30 yard free went untouched to the net Kill found themselves 2-4 in arrears after quarter of an hour. In the 26th minute Tom Donoghue tacked on another minor, and shortly before the break Pat Spratt and Tom McGrath exchanged points from frees.

Kill re-stated with a complete eye-hauled line-out. Bar's had been transformed into attack—indeed, so rearranged was their side that by my reckoning, only five of the team finished the game in the same positions as they had started.

s sufficient to say they were poorer than I thought it possible. One could say of them—the spirit was willing but the ability was weak."

Their one real star was county mid-fielder Monty Gurry, but, almost single-handed, his efforts were insufficient against the combined forces of Walsh and Hallissey. In defence only Achill Lannen and Michael Kiwan showed up to any effect, but the attack, with the possible exception of Noel Power and Duggan, worked without guile or imagination.

Scorers for the Brickies were: J. Spratt (1-3), P. Spratt (1-2), T. Donoghue (0-1), T. McGrath, M. Gurry and T. Moorey (0-1 each) replied to Kill. Their goal was scored from a melee.

Brickey Rangers: R. Whelan; B. Spratt, N. McGrath, P. Feencombe; P. Kilgrew, P. Donnelly, P. Spratt, M. Walsh, A. Hallissey; W. Terry, P. Curran, J. Spratt, P. Crowley, T. Donoghue, P. Murray. Kill: P. Quirally, M. Kennedy, T. Kirwan, T. Moorey; M. Kiwan, M. Kennedy, A. Lannen, M. Regan, M. Gurry; P. Duggan, N. Power, P. Finneane; J. Tibbs, T. McGrath, M. Flynn. Referee: Sgt. M. Whyte.

UNIQUE LEAGUE PAIRING AT 'ROSS

Waterford Could Upset the Odds

UNBELIEVABLE as it may seem, Waterford, the cinderella county of Munster football are only 60 minutes away from a meeting with the all-conquering champions from the North, Down, Carlow alone bar their path to a place in the semi-final of the National League where the Ulster men confidently no doubt, await the winners of Sunday's quarter final at New Ross.

Not so long ago, the very thought of the possible proximity of such a meeting would be scoffed at, but the tremendous strides the County has made in recent months, makes them well worthy of this opportunity of crossing the path of the All-Ireland champions.

Without running away with the idea that we can be getting out the "Coke Park here we come" signs, however, reality must first be faced and pondered on the stupendous task that has yet to be successfully bypassed. Carlow, if judged by the Gaelic roll of honour down the years would hardly qualify for the higher bracket. But their absence from the honours list does grant justice to their real standing as a football force.

And to-day although they have precious little to show in the matter of trophies, who can deny them the right to be included amongst the "big guns" in the country? A flash-back to the Leinster championship for the past two years will show that on each occasion they put O'Clay to the pin of their dollars to prevail, and O'Clay's subsequent achievements speak for them selves.

Under the circumstances, it is easy to see why Carlow are readily accepted in most quarters as warm favourites. In fact, outside the confines of the Deise County there are few who would give Waterford a chance of success. But, behind the latent determination of Waterford's chosen fifteen lies a quiet confidence in their own ability to create a surprise. In the past it has been generally accepted that the only certainty about Waterford football is its great uncertainty. When least expected they do the "impossible" and the Leinster men would do well to remember the fate that befell both Kerry and Cork in championship games in recent years.

Ritchie Whelan had an easy outing in goal, but the little he had to do was done with customary confidence. Nicholas McGrath, whose prodigious kicking always brought welcome relief, was the essence of soundness at full-back, while Bill Spratt and Peter Feencombe always had the measure of their opponents.

With halves Pat Spratt and Paul Kilgrew formed a perfect link between defence and attack, and between them stood Patsy Donnelly—the faithful servant—who again emphasised his great defensive powers.

Michael Walsh and Andy Hallissey, although paired together for the first time in mid-field, were on top for most of the game against a Kill mid-field that solely relied on the brilliance of Monty Gurry for supremacy.

In attack, Justin Spratt did most to thwart Kill's aspirations of taking the trophy. For once the Brickey man adopted a direct approach and was an unqualified success. Pat Curran had one of his best outings for a long time on the "40" and Twenty-four minutes had elapsed and for all the pressure they exerted, could only show two points for their labour. Then, in a goal-mouth melee, they secured their only goal, to lose their places to Pat Power and Tom McGrath and the latter's particularly disappointing display on Sunday last must have come as something of a setback to the selectors who announced the team early last week. These changes apart, the side runs along the expected lines. However, it can be taken as definite that Tom Cunningham who has been included amongst the substitutes will not travel.

Sean Comrade is amongst the leading goalkeepers in the country and Tom Moorey and Eddie Moorey are playing exceptionally well in the full-back line. Only newcomer is Pat Power of Strabally but I can't form any view as to whether he will prove an immediate success.
