Kilmacthomas Notes

The Strength of the Faith of the people on both sides of the Mahon has once again been evidenced. The immense congregations that assisted at the morning, afternoon and night ceremonies in the churches, throughout Holy Week were just a further indication of the zeal and devotion of the people (children and adults alike) in a modern world threatened by materialism. Record numbers of the faithful approached the altar rails and received the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper during the Masses on the nights of Holy Thursday and Holy Saturday.

For the first time this year in this area the cuckoo was seen and heard, and swallows and butterflies were observed flying about on Spy Wednesday since then there is much growth of grass, the buds in the trees and bushes are progressing apace towards opening stages, and the flower beds and the bulbs are responding appreciably to the sway of spring.

On Easter Sunday churches were again crowded for the Masses and the number of Communicants in each sacred edifice was extremely large. The Easter Commemoration for all who gave their lives for Ireland was held at Kilrossant at 3 o'clock. The parade fell in at the local school and marched to the Republican Plot, where the Rosary was recited and an oration delivered.

Several of the many Mid-Waterfordians positioned across Channel returned last weekend to spend the Easter-tide at their respective homes in the area and the year having a nice time.

The Regret of a host of friends was aroused when the death took place in St. Declan's Unit of Ardkeen General Hospital Waterford of Miss Catherine (Katie) Power, Ballynabogue Kilmacthomas. Worth member of a widely known and highly respected family, she had attained to the octogenarian span and for the past two years was a patient in her hospital, where she was affectionately hailed 'Queen of Ardkeen by the staffs thereof. A lady of many charming traits of character, she was in her earlier years a valued member of the choir attached to St. Anne's Church, Ballyaneer.

With her likeable nature and nephew's sympathy is general. A big concert accompanied the removal of the remains to St. Anne's Church, where the coffin was received and blessed by the Rev. Fr. Pat Power, C.C. Subsequent to the celebration of Requiem Mass on Wednesday 18th inst burial took place in the adjoining cemetery. Fr. Power officiated at the graveside. Many Mass cards were received. Ar dheis De go raibh a-nam. (Irish-American newspapers will kindly copy).

Recent Pontana Pool Winners included Mr. P. Lawlor, 12 Sean Walsh Place, Kilmacthomas. Mr. E. Kiersey, 9, do., and Mr. E. Power, Sleevan, Kill, £3.6.8. each. The promoter who was Mr. John Gough, Kilmacthomas has secured a sellers prize of £1.

Mr. T. R. (Roy) Buckley, Bonmahon, has sold his old established premises in the village and the purchaser is the prominent and popular Bonmahon farmer and breeder of top grade greyhounds general Mr. Thomas Hayes to whom and his estimable life partner their troops and legions of friends warmly wish good luck and every success with their new concern.

To the great regret of all who had pleasure of knowing him and who appreciated him so highly for his many appealing qualities of head and heart, the death of Mr. William O'Brien retired farmer, Knockfour, Stradbally took place at his son's residence Rathskill on his Holy Saturday, following a comparatively short indisposition and in the fullness of his years. The late Mr. O'Brien who was predeceased not so very long since by his good wife (nee Butler) native of Rathmeadan, Kilmacthomas was a neighbour noted for his genial and cheerful happy humoured disposition. He had a pleasant smile and a friendly word for everyone, young and old. A model Catholic, a staunch Nationalist and a faithful friend, his departure hence has evoked whole hearted sympathy for his universally esteemed sons, daughters, grandchildren and relatives. There was an exceedingly large and representative attendance at the removal of the remains on: Easter Sunday evening to the Parish Church, Stradbally where the coffin was received and blessed by Very Rev. D. Power, P.P., assisted by Rev. M. O'Doherty, C.C.

Interment was made in the adjoining necropolis on Easter Monday after Requiem Masses amidst every manifestation of sorrow. Fr. O'Doherty gave the closing absolution at the graveside. Sheaves of spiritual bouquets and messages of condolence were received. Mrs. Lucretia Jones who died on a recent date and whose remains were interred at Wall-sley Cemetery Liverpool was relict of the late Mr. Emerson Jones and is survived by her family of two sons, Messrs. William and Thomas Jones and by her brother Mr. George Brown retired Postmaster. Kilmacthomas to whom sympathy in full measure is extended.

From Melbourne, Australia, where he has been positioned for some time clubbable Mr. Edmund Barry eldest son of Mr. James Barry, Farmer, Garrahalish, Kilmacthomas, is now home and he is looking very fit and well.

Messrs. Richard Butler and William Deady have arrived safely back at the respective homes of their adoption in the Great Western Republic of the U.S.A. following a prolonged holiday spent in their native Carrigeen, Kilmacthomas. They returned to Uncle Sam's clime by liner from Cobb.

Undergoing Treatment in a Waterford City Hospital are Mr. John Power farmer of Ballydurr, Kilmacthomas and Mrs. M. Walsh wife of Mr. James Walsh, farmer upper Carrigeen do. and their many friends will be delighted to hear that both are doing fine and will soon be discharged fit and well.

The Fourteenth Annual Dance under the auspices of Kilmacthomas Branch Macra na Feirme takes place in the Rainbow Hall, Kilmacthomas tomorrow (Sunday) night it is an 8.1 a.m. affair and the music will be supplied by the Davitt Brothers Orchestra and Show-band.

Both the Matinee and night showings of the film titled The Great O'Carraige at the Rainbow Cinema proved most pleasing to exceptionally large attendances on Easter Sunday. Have it that the pupils of every school in the section of the Diocese are now vaccinated against smallpox.

The Late Mr. Wm. O'Brien, Knockrour, was father of Miss Kathleen O'Brien, Dungarvan, President of Waterford Federation Irish Countrywomen's Association and of Mr. Sean O'Brien, N.T. Principal Goresbridge National School Co. Kilkenny.

LATE MR. PATRICK FARRELL

Skeheens, Ballymacarthy Sincere sympathy is extended to the nephews, nieces and relatives of the late Mr. Patrick (Paddy) Farrell, whose death took place at his nephews residence, Skeheens, Ballymacarthy, on Tuesday morning, April 24th.

The late Patrick Farrell, who was in his early eighties, was a warm favourite with all who knew him. A gifted musician, a fluent Gaelic speaker and an authority on local history, he contributed much to the collection of folklore.

The remains were removed on Tuesday evening to Touraneena Church followed by a cortege of very great dimensions and were received by Very Rev. Fr. P. Walsh, P.P.

Requiem Masses were celebrated on Wednesday morning, after which the interment took place in the adjoining family plot. Rev. Fr. M. Fennell, C.C., imparted the final absolution at the graveside.

Relatives at funeral: Michael Farrell (nephew); Josephine Farrell, Mary Farrell, Mrs. William Hallinan, Mrs. Sheila O'Sullivan (nieces). (Undertaking by James Kiely and Sons, Dungarvan.)

HOLY WEEK CEREMONIES Overflow congregations marked the solemn Holy Week ceremonies at St. Mary's Church, Touraneena.

On Wednesday night the Stations of the Cross were conducted by Very Rev. Fr. Walsh, P.P., who also was celebrant of the Mass on Holy Thursday night when large numbers received Holy Communion.

On Good Friday night the Stations of the Cross were conducted by Very Rev. Fr. Walsh, P.P., and on Holy Saturday night the week's ceremonies came to a close, when Rev. Fr. Fennell, C.C., performed the lighting of the Pascal Fire and the blessing of the Baptismal Water.

TALLOW NEWS

BASTER IN THE CHURCHES

The Holy Season of Easter was observed in Tallow and surrounding parishes with all due solemnity. During Holy Week scenes of fervour and devotion marked the one week's Mission preached by a member of the Church of the Immaculate Conception. The spacious Church held capacity congregations for the morning and evening devotions and lectures. The Mission was brought to a close on Easter Sunday evening when the Rev. preacher exhorted all to keep good resolutions of the Mission. He thanked the clergy and parishioners for their co-operation during the week. He concluded by reading a letter of thanks from the Ven. Parish Priest, Very Rev. Canon Flynn, P.P., who through illness, was unable to be present during the week.

Large numbers of the faithful attended Holy Week devotions at Knockanore Church of the Sacred Heart. The devotions were conducted by Very Rev. Fr. M. Power, P.P. Holy Thursday Mass was celebrated at Kilmawernoy Church by a member of the Cistercian Community, Mount Mellary. An overflow congregation attended Midnight Mass in St. Catherine's Church, Conna on Easter Saturday night.

YOUTH'S NARROW ESCAPE Seamus Murphy, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Murphy, Fountain Tallow, had a narrow escape from injury, on Monday, when the tractor he was driving overturned at Parkdota Cross, about one mile from Tallow. He escaped with minor cuts and bruises, but the tractor was extensively damaged.

DEATH OF MISS MARY RYAN

The death occurred at her residence Boola, Glendine, on April 17th, of Miss Mary Ryan. A member of a highly esteemed family, she was held in high regard by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance, and her death is deeply regretted.

The remains were removed to Glendine Church accompanied by a large cortege, and the funeral took place to the North Abbey Cemetery on the 19th inst. To her bereaved brother, nieces and nephew much sympathy is extended.

TALLOW MINORS BEATEN

Tallow minor hurling team were defeated by Ballyduff at the latter's venue on Sunday. The Tallow junior team were also beaten by Ballyduff at the same venue on Sunday.

SHAMROCKS LOSE TO YOUGHAL

Youghal had a goal and two points victory over Shamrocks at Coperally Grounds, Youghal, on Sunday, in a challenge game.

BRING BACK NED POWER!

The recent try out of the two goalies in the Waterford county team do not seem to have the desired effect. There is a strong case for bringing back the man who guarded the net in Waterford's victorious year of 1959, as it now seems apparent there is no one capable of replacing him.

WEDDING BELLS

NICHOLSON - CRONIN The wedding took place at St. Joseph's Church, Rathmore, Co. Kerry, on Easter Monday, of Patrick Nicholson, eldest son of Mr. Thomas Nicholson and the late Mrs. Nicholson, Tircullen, Tallow, and Elizabeth Mary Cronin, S.R.N., youngest daughter of Mrs. E. Cronin and the late Michael Cronin, Rathmore. The ceremony, with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing, was performed by Very Rev. Canon O'Neill, P.P., Rathmore. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. James Cronin, wore a dress of white lace over taffeta.

Miss Bridget Cronin, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore blue brocade and carried a bouquet of maiden hair fern. The best man was Mr. Charles Daly, brother-in-law of the groom.

The reception was held in the Imperial Hotel, Kilmarney. Sixty guests attended the reception.

The honeymoon is being spent on a tour of Ireland. Both bride and bridegroom were the recipients of many wedding gifts to mark the happy occasion. We join with their many friends in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Nicholson the best of luck and happiness in their married life.

downlands will be immediately faced with the problems which are associated with mining particularly under the open-pit system. However, it does mean that the efforts of the N.F.A. to solve these problems by means of proper regulation and compensation...

labour for the job would be available. We seem to be constantly running up against the problem of uncertainty as to where we are going. Occasionally we have the position such as we mentioned earlier, that a market unexpectedly opens to us and before we realise it we are faced with a shortage on the home market.

increase of so much per gallon, as this would aggravate the dumping charges, but instead they granted £4 annually per cow for all cows in Denmark. The cow population in Denmark is, incidentally, 1 1/2 million. In addition to this there was a very substantial reduction in rates and other charges were also granted to dairy farmers.

The N.F.A. pointed out clearly to the Government that the dairy farmer has earned an increase in price for his milk. We have asked that this increase be given in the form of a headline bonus per cow and that the Government if they have the welfare of the dairy farmer at heart, should find it possible to find some way to grant an increase. The pitting forward of the "dumping charges" is not honest and it deceives nobody.

One of the main disappointments of the budget is the complete absence of any encouragement to the dairy farmer. Much has been said in the past about the importance of the dairy industry when we join the Common Market, but no help has been done to improve our competitive position when we do join the Market.

There is no use in the Irish Government knowing that the dairy industry is in a mess and resigning itself to doing nothing about it and tossing the dairy farmer "naked" into Europe and hoping that somehow he will miraculously survive. If the dairy industry is to prosper the farmers will have to be encouraged to improve production. Processing and marketing will have to be over-hauled and modernised.

We in the N.F.A. believe that given leadership, goodwill and co-operation between producers and Departments of State that it is possible for us to take our place in Europe and to increase the prosperity of the farmers engaged in the dairy industry. TRACTOR PRICE REDUCTION? It was announced recently that farmers in Scotland and Northern Ireland would save between £25 and £30 on purchases of new Fordson tractors because of the introduction of a new pricing policy by the tractor makers.

Under the new arrangement, tractors will be quoted at "delivered" prices rather than "ex-works" prices in Scotland and Northern Ireland. We are not aware of any similar arrangements in regard to the prices in the twenty-six counties and the N.F.A. Industrial & Transport Committee has taken up the matter.

The people of the townland of Clonilla were not the only ones to benefit from the water supply scheme. The water pump installed in the townland had a bad reputation for not working. 35 ft a supply of 650 gallons per hour sufficient for the scheme was located. Next job was opening trenches to contain the plastic pipe radiating from the electric pump to the 13 houses. It was here the Shedy brothers generously entered on the scene. They also loaned workmen and pneumatic drills for the big large rocks found here and there, especially in front of O'Connell's shop and for the 6 main road crossings which were necessary. This was a tricky job as the road - the Forgas aviation spirit depot in Shannon Airport - link could not be closed. It was while laying the piping that the product of a local industry - Southern Chemicals Ltd. Askeaton, came to their aid. At one point the piping had to cross a 20 ft

Mt. Sion may take Gordon Cup

THE FRAHER FIELD, Dungarvan, should be thronged on Sunday night next when Kilrossanty and Mount Sion meet in the final of this year's Gordon Cup, a trophy presented for annual competition by Mr. P. J. Gordon, Tarr's Bridge.

A Mount Sion-Kilrossanty clash is a spicy pairing at any time, but when valuable trophies such as Sunday's are at stake one is not being over-optimistic in anticipating a vibrant tussle.

Whereas Kilrossanty by tradition always rely on the catch and kick game, which incidentally has served them so well to-date, Mount Sion have basically at any rate, modelled their play on a St. Vincent's like brand of play, with a distinct preference for keeping the ball out of the clouds if not on the sod altogether.

More often than not, this style has baffled the opposition, but somehow or for some unknown reason Kilrossanty have not felt prey to this style, and have consistently proved themselves the masters of it.

THRILLS APLENTY
What then does Sunday's game hold in store? Kilrossanty, despite the big split prove equal to the occasion once again, or will Sion, presently in serious championship preparation, prove that as Co. Champions, they are still a mighty force? One way or another there should be thrills aplenty, with the contrasting styles of the teams only adding to the attractiveness of the pairing.

Having seen the Comeragh men in action on three occasions since their dispute that has divided the parish in two, my immediate reaction was that the side, with a few adjustments, and alterations would still be capable of going places.

ATTACK THE BIG PROBLEM
As I see it, their attack presents their one major problem. So far Jimmy Whyte, Denis Begley and Colum Cunningham have lauded to hit it off and "Bucko" Timmons has been left to plough a lone furrow. Already this weakness has cost them the Phelan Cup, and it

STAND AT SPRING SHOW
One of the most attractive stands at the Spring Show this year will be that of Mr. Michael Moloney, the popular and enterprising Ballinaculla manufacturer and business man. His various products will be on display on the stand and will, no doubt, attract nationwide attention. Mr. Moloney, who turns out top quality products and gives big employment, is to be complimented on his initiative.

EASTER
The Church ceremonies during Holy Week in this area were attended by large and devout congregations, and big numbers received Holy Communion.

Easter Sunday and Monday passed off quietly but there was heavy traffic on all roads. Many people in employment away from home spent the Easter holidays with their families.

ON THE LAND
The recent dry spell enabled farmers to bring sowings up to date and all crops are doing well. There is a big increase in the acreage devoted to tillage this year.

SCHOOL FOR CLASHMORE
The decision of the Vocational Committee to transfer the mobile school to Clashmore will be welcomed by the people of the area. Thanks are due to the members of the Committee and to the C.E.O., Mr. D. Cullinan, for so kindly making the school available.

ARDMORE SEWERAGE SCHEME
This scheme is rapidly nearing completion. When completed it will add considerably to the amenities of this popular seaside resort.

SALMON FISHING
Following a fairly good spell, fish are again scarce. It is stated that in this area salmon fishing is an industry is a "thing of the past".

MOTOR CYCLIST INJURED
While returning from Youghal one evening last week-end, a young Grange motor cyclist crashed but escaped with minor injuries. He was removed to Ardkeen hospital for treatment and is progressing favourably.

KINSALEBFG MAN HONoured
Mr. Sean O'Connor, N.T., Principal, Piltown N.S., who has been elected to the I.N.T.O. Chief Executive Committee, is a native of this area. He is a former well known athlete and Gaelic footballer and has been the recipient of many congratulations on the honour conferred on him.

LAST SUNDAY'S GAMES

Now what odds on Kilkenny wresting this year's All-Ireland hurling crown from Tipp. No for many seasons has Nore-side hurling had it as good as a present and last Sunday's 5-7 to 2-6 victory over Waterford at New Ross vindicated the immense faith their county has in the present side. Were one to establish an ante-post book of the championship "The Cats" would definitely lead the field at very short odds.

Sunday's victory was as brilliantly executed as it was decisive. These present Nore-side really know their business and the more I see of them the more firm is my belief that they will retain the Leinster crown after a loss of three years.

Waterford, minus Jackie Condon, Tom Cheasty, Larry Guinan and Frankie Walsh played reasonably well in the circumstances. But in this instance reasonably well was completely inadequate against such cultured cannon craft as Kilkenny demonstrated.

They paved the way for their own defeat in the first thirty minutes, when after playing with a strong breeze they could not manage a 15 to 12 interval. Condon had looked after his own advantage and on the field of play it proved to be exactly that.

It took Kilkenny only a matter of minutes to draw level and after that there was no holding them as they swept majestically to victory.

For Waterford the result was not, however, the most disheartening aspect of it all. Instead it was a second half incident which resulted in Mick Murphy being carried off with a broken leg that caused greatest disappointment amongst Deise followers. Mick was in collision with the Kilkenny goalkeeper who sent a Waterford's goal. His own goal, though, and in fact his own goal, was the ground he gave. A high ball came that the goalkeeper mistook for a punt and he kicked it into the net. The result was a 1-10 to 1-7 victory for the Deise. The goalkeeper's error was a great disappointment to Deise players and supporters. It was a great pity that the goalkeeper should have been so careless. It was a great pity that the goalkeeper should have been so careless.

It is a pity that the goalkeeper should have been so careless. It is a pity that the goalkeeper should have been so careless. It is a pity that the goalkeeper should have been so careless.

ON THE HOME FRONT

Waterford championships got underway on Sunday and as usual we were not left without an interesting and shrewd report.

Greater than any of the day's matches was the 1962 Leinster hurling final between Carlow and Tipperary. The match was a classic and was watched by a large number of spectators. Carlow won the match by a score of 1-10 to 1-7.

Yest, at the time their prospects of victory didn't look to be very bright. They needed by 2-4 to 1-4 and so, impressed were they that the hosts were even at this stage looked home and died.

But words of wisdom from the "Gaelic Observer" were not to be taken lightly. The "Gaelic Observer" was right. The "Gaelic Observer" was right. The "Gaelic Observer" was right.

As they went the right way about achieving that when they scored a nine point victory over the former champions, Ballinacorney. At times they played copy-book hurling and those that witnessed them perform his demolition of Ballinacorney has been thoroughly impressed.

The losers, as is their tradition, fought gallantly even when all hope of victory had vanished. Their selectors, however, erred in playing county minor Jim Kiely in goal in the first half, as he would have been employed to far greater benefit in an outfield berth. Their cause wasn't helped either by the fact that they played for practically the entire second half with only fourteen men—Sean Fitzgerald having received marching orders within minutes of the resumption.

Carlow were best served by Vinny O'Connor, John O'Brien, John Fitzgerald, John Healy, Stanleton, and Meskill, while Ballinacorney's stars were Monnie Cliffe, "Roundy" Landers, Jim Kiely, Dick Burke and Sean Fitzgerald, up to his enforced retirement.

AFFANE CAUSE MILD SURPRISE

Affane junior footballers created a mild surprise by scoring a five point victory over The Nire in the primary competition at the M.I. Field, Ballinacorney.

The football never reached a high standard but Affane produced the only worthwhile passages of good play and were fully deserving of their win.

GORDON CUP FINAL ON SUNDAY EVENING

Despite junior and minor championship games on Sunday the meeting of Mount Sion and Killybeggs senior footballers in the Gordon Cup final at Duncannon is undoubtedly the plum game of the day.

Both are busy preparations for the championship and will field their strongest possible sides. Elsewhere in this page I will give a more detailed preview to the two.

MINOR HURLING TRIALS

The first of the minor hurling trials was held at Dungarvan on Monday last. The final between Eastern and Western selection will be held at Dungarvan on Friday night (tomorrow) following which the team to play Clon in the opening round of the championship will be announced.

The following is the Western Selection for tonight's trial: M. Curran, J. Moran, M. Curran (Dungarvan); J. Healy, T. Crowley, J. O'Brien, V. O'Connor (Carlow); D. O'Neill, G. Power, J. Cannon (Ballinacorney); P. Carlton, J. Rooney (Ardara); B. Daly, P. Farrell, S. Brady (Lismore); T. McCarthy, M. Cronin (Tallow); J. McCarthy (Farrinham); A. Cashin (Abbeyside); J. Kiely (Ballinacorney); M. Byrne (Shamecks).

PLACE YOUR BETS!

At the time their prospects of victory didn't look to be very bright. They needed by 2-4 to 1-4 and so, impressed were they that the hosts were even at this stage looked home and died.

Kerry Double Likely BUT DEISE SIDES ARE CONFIDENT

WATERFORD'S championship interest commences on the inter-county fields on Sunday next when the Intermediate hurlers and junior footballers make the long journey to Castleisland to play Kerry in both codes. It is unquestionably something of a tall order to tackle the Kingdom inside the confines of their own domain, yet the Deise sides are not without a hope of at least sharing the spoils with their renowned hosts.

It is something of a rarity in this modern age to have Kerry starting as favourites in a hurling championship against Waterford. But when the Intermediate representatives of the rival counties line-out on Sunday, the Kingdom will be the warmest of favourites to win.

For they can call upon the

and are today rightly regarded as one of the glamour teams of the County. Twice county champions Mount Sion have been before them while Erin's Ova have also found out to their cost how hard they really are.

The side contains many big guns, notably Mark Barry in goal, Billy Daphy, Mick White, Monty Garry and Billy Garry.

Of late, Abbeyside haven't been over-imaginative and their narrow victory over Collihan Brides by the Sargent Cup last night boosts their chances.

DEUGLAN GUID, Co. Secretary, who presented the trophy

when least expected. They fully realise the difficulty of Sunday's test but are supremely confident of proving more than equal to it. Amongst their ranks one won't find any big names such as Erin's Own can call on, but instead they have a team comprising of fifteen great club-men all practically equal in merit and all imbued with the avowed intention of keeping the Sargent Cup trophy in the West.

Quite frankly, however, I just cannot oppose the City men. Naturally I would favour a Bracky victory but when attempting to forecast the outcome one cannot let the mind be ruled by sentiment. As is being suggested however, one can't forget about a "soft" thing for Erin's Own. They should get there in the end but not without going through a rigorous and troublesome hour, services of no less than twelve of the men that gave the county its first junior title last year, and not alone are they confident of overcoming Waterford's challenge, but are optimistic about winning the championship outright.

AUSPICUOUS DEBUT
Waterford made an auspicious debut in this grade last year and only failed narrowly on Tipperary—the ultimate champions. Sunday's side has been well received generally, and with all players reporting fit and well, are not in the least over-awed by the magnitude of their assignment.

If one is to judge the ability of the selected players by the fact that Bally Foley is only listed as first substitute, then the county must be in the game with a fighting chance. Foley may not have been the shrewdest hoped for when promoted to the senior team, yet I would have regarded him a certainty for Sunday's team. Yet he is only on the panel by the back-door, "entirely" but somehow I have grave doubts about the wisdom of the decision to omit him from the side.

Especially, on the 1st year there are the few clubs in the Deise, individuals as well as a few, and I trust clubmen worthy of selection.

PARTICULAR INTEREST
The display of Paddy Fitzgerald in goal will be watched with particular interest. With the goal-keeping berth proving a sticky problem with the seniors at present Fitzgerald has been named as a likely going in the forward line.

NICKY CULL
Glancing through the personnel of the Kerry team there can be no denying the strength of the side. One name on the line-out immediately springs to mind—that of Nicky Quill, the Collihan-born man who has given so much to Kerry hurling. A member of the gardai, Nicky has since his transfer to Kerry been a permanent fixture of the county's hurling teams, and will be a big bulwark to the Deise attack.

Should the Deise half-back trio of Walsh, Butler and Lacey gain undisputed mastery over their immediate rivals, I would not be surprised at a Waterford victory. Yet somehow I feel this rejuvenated Kingdom side before their own supporters will hold the balance of power, and who on what may be a very tight coin.

A FOOTBALL TRIILER?

If there's a greater task in football than beating Kerry on their own ground, then I am not aware of it. Yet, despite the belief of many that it is a near impossibility to venture successfully into Kingdom territory for a championship tie, Waterford will travel to the Kerry venue on Sunday with far greater confidence than one would normally expect.

The Kerry men will have to field an entirely new team from last year's one which annexed provincial honours, but so rich is the county in reserve talent that it will not pose many problems for them to field another competent side this year.

Luckily for them they can

Eddie Brett and Bernie Power will give little away. All-round in fact it is a resolute and compact defence that will not be penetrated easily.

The mid-field pairing of Tom Walsh and Tommy Joe Hanly is an inter-county regular partnership, yet good though both may be, I consider Ned "Cheasty" Lorcain a son what unlikely not to command one of the berths.

The half-line of attack is an all-western one and contains plenty of scoring power. Dick Tobin (Emmets) is on the 40' with clubmate Vincent Byrne and Finbar Hallahan—two elusive stylists, beside him. They however, are pitted against the stars of the Kerry side—their half-back trio and will be doing exceedingly well to break even with them.

The full-line in direct contrast to the outer line is an all-Eastern one. Don Walsh leads the attack with Mick Regan and Mick White comprising the inner berths. Walsh can expect very little leeway from Alan Conaway and it may be left to his backsters to do the heavy lifting on the line-out.

As already stated this is a close game of almost impossible odds. Had any other county been involved in the competition I would have had a hard time convincing myself that a Kerry victory was a possibility. But the Kingdom's championship side, as a result of the Deise's victory, is a team of almost impossible odds. It is a team of almost impossible odds. It is a team of almost impossible odds.

LAST SUNDAY'S GAMES

Now what odds on Kilkenny wrestling this year's All-Ireland hurling crown from Tipp. No for many seasons has Nore side hurling had it as good as a present and last Sunday's 5-7 to 2-6 victory over Waterford at New Ross vindicated the immense faith their county has in the present side. Were one to establish an ante-post "book" of the championship "The Cats" would definitely lead the field at very short odds.

Sunday's victory was as brilliantly executed as it was decisive. These present Noreiders really know their business and the more I see of them the more firm is my belief that they will reach the Leinster crown after a lapse of three years.

Waterford, minus Mackie Condon, Tom Cheasty, Larry Guinan and Frankie Walsh played reasonably well in the circumstances. But in this instance reasonably well was completely inadequate against such cultured canan craft as Kilkenny demonstrated.

They paved the way for their own defeat in the first thirty minutes, when after playing with a strong breeze they could only manage a 1-5 to 1-2 interval. On paper it looked an insignificant advantage and on the field of play it proved to be exactly that.

For Waterford the result was not, however, the most discouraging aspect of it all. Instead it was a second half incident which resulted in Mick Murphy being carried off with a broken leg that caused greatest despair and concern amongst Deise followers. Mick was a pillar of support with the Kilkenny goalkeeper when scoring Waterford's (and his own second goal) and immediately fell to the ground in agony. A hospital report that the leg was broken made it a tragic affair for the Erin Own man and the county in general and it will be very surprising if we see him on the field of play again this year.

His loss will indeed be a great one and a suitable replacement will be a major problem. It would of course be most unfair not to say that this topic has been a regular subject of discussion for which O'Leary would not be held responsible.

ON THE HOME FRONT Western championships got under way on Sunday and as usual we were not left without an almost inevitable shock result.

Greatest blunders of the day must go to Eddie Fitzgerald's mis-throw from Cathal Brugha who by beating St. Laurence's (Ballinacorney) in Ballinacorney by 6-4 to 3-4, scored their first victory in the grade for a long time.

Yet, at half-time their prospects of victory didn't look to be very bright. They trailed by 2-4 to 0-1 and so outclassed were they that the home side even at this stage looked hard and dried.

But words of wisdom by "12" at the break transformed the side from an outclassed and defeated one into a confident and impressive one. Holding with tremendous enthusiasm and skill they were able to bring them out to a 6-3 while the Deise rely on a goal from a mile.

The victory will give great encouragement to the Dungarvan Club and with training facilities so readily available for them they could shake the best before this championship is very old.

CAPPOQUIN ON TOP Ask any Cappoquin man who will win this year's Western minor hurling championship and you will be told the Cappoquin boys themselves will take the title.

The side contains many big guns, notably Mick Barry in goal, Billy Dunphy, Mick Whyte, Monty Gully and Billy Daniels.

Of late, Abbeyside haven't been over-impressive and their narrow victory over Coligan Rocks in the Sargent Cup doesn't boost their chances.

But not for many years has Waterford been in a position to field such a powerful junior side, that is back-honed by many of the stars that carried the county so far in the national league.

John Colbert has consistently proved himself a top-class goalkeeper, and it is not often a junior side can boast of such a solid full-back as Eamonn "Eddie" Mooney and Mickey Carlton. All three have "ear" proved their worth at senior club level, and it is hardly asking too much of them now to hold their own in Sunday's company.

POWERFUL SIDE The half-line is also an experienced one and Pete Gough fall back on ex-seniors Alan Conway, Jer D. O'Connor, Sean Og Sheehy, Pa Kerins and Mick Walsh and this quintet will be the main hopes for yet another home victory.

EXPERIENCED The half-line is also an experienced one and Pete Gough candidate, and a good display on Sunday could give him his big chance.

Fitzgerald's sub-mate Cyril Packer is fronting him at full-back, flanked by reliable defenders in Mick Connolly and Phil Anderson.

HALF-LINE HOPES Great hopes will be pinned on the half-back line of Walsh, Jim Butler and Mick Lacey. The latter has had vast experience in the highest grade, being the holder of Munster and All-Ireland senior medals. Butler is one of the most accomplished juniors playing the game and Walsh likewise is a highly dependable defender. Should all three manage to snuff out Kerry's dangerous half-line of attack, then a surprise result could well be on the cards.

The county is also well served at mid-field where Kieran Ryan can hold his own in the best of company, and Vinny Connors, Tommy Geary and Paddy Kennally will step up any day to a chance that when least expected. They fully realise the difficulty of Sunday's test but are supremely confident of proving more than equal to it. Amongst their ranks one won't find any big names such as Erin's Own can call on, but instead they have a team comprising of fifteen great club-men all practically equal in merit and all imbued with the avowed intention of keeping the Sargent Cup trophy in the West.

Yet he is only on the panel by "a back-door entrance," but somehow I have grave doubts about the wisdom of the decision to omit him from the side.

Elsewhere on the line-out can be few cubs at the chosen individuals as all are tried and trusted club-men and worthy of selection.

PARTICULAR INTEREST The display of Paddy Fitzgerald in goal will be watched with particular interest. With the goal-keeping berth proving a sticky problem with the seniors at present Fitzgerald has been named as a likely candidate, and a good display on Sunday could give him his big chance. Fitzgerald's sub-mate Cyril Packer is fronting him at full-back, flanked by reliable defenders in Mick Connolly and Phil Anderson.

As already stated this is a Deise side of distinct possibilities. Had any other county been awarded the position I would be very hesitant in opposing Waterford. But the Kingdom in the championship irrespective of the grade is a different kettle of fish. On Sunday they are fortunate in having ground advantage which in a tie of this nature is a decisive asset and somehow I feel they may be good enough to get there.

WOULDN'T BE A SENSATION But the Waterford team looks good. No matter how there are to be reluctant personnel and they could give the Kerry men a jolting that would be long remembered. In fact I would go so far as to say a Waterford victory wouldn't exactly be a sensation.

greatly. However, they will be very anxious to regain lost prestige and inspired by the influence of Austin Flynn and Packer will strive manfully to upset the odds.

Nevertheless, Dunhill are the form team, and though the villagers as always will prove worthy opposition, they may not be good enough to halt this onward march of the Easteners.

ERIN'S OWN STILL THE CHOICE The postponed final of the 1961 Sargent Cup has been, refixed for Cappoquin on Sunday next when Erin's Own and Brickey Rangers meet in a novel East-West decider.

Prior to the postponed final I stated that Erin's Own were the favourites and my choice to take the trophy. And though Mick Murphy will be an absentee on this occasion, they still remain the popular fancy to prevail.

Not that it would be advisable to under-estimate the Brickey Rangers for down through the years they have gained for themselves a reputation for causing surprises and a good display on Sunday could give him his big chance.

Fitzgerald's sub-mate Cyril Packer is fronting him at full-back, flanked by reliable defenders in Mick Connolly and Phil Anderson.

HALF-LINE HOPES Great hopes will be pinned on the half-back line of Walsh, Jim Butler and Mick Lacey. The latter has had vast experience in the highest grade, being the holder of Munster and All-Ireland senior medals. Butler is one of the most accomplished juniors playing the game and Walsh likewise is a highly dependable defender. Should all three manage to snuff out Kerry's dangerous half-line of attack, then a surprise result could well be on the cards.

The county is also well served at mid-field where Kieran Ryan can hold his own in the best of company, and Vinny Connors, Tommy Geary and Paddy Kennally will step up any day to a chance that AFFANE CAUSE MILD SURPRISE Affane junior footballers reared a mild surprise by scoring a five point victory over The Nire in the primary competition at the Mill Field, Ballinacorney.

The football never reached a high standard but Affane produced the only worthwhile messages of good play and were fully deserving of their win.

GORDON CUP FINAL ON SUNDAY EVENING Despite junior and minor championship games on Sunday the meeting of Mount Sion and Killybegs senior footballers in the Gordon Cup final at Dungarvan is undoubtedly the plum game of the day.

Both are busy preparing for the championship and will find their strongest possible sides. Elsewhere in this issue I will give a more detailed preview to the tie.

MINOR HURLING TRIALS The first of the minor hurling trials was held at Dungarvan on Monday last. The final clash between Eastern and Western selection will be held at Dungarvan on Friday night (to night) following which the team to play Clare in the opening round of the championship will be announced.

The following is the Western Selection for to-night's trial: M. Cummins, J. Moylan, M. Cugan (Dungarvan); J. Healy, T. Crowley, J. O'Brien, V. O'Connor (Cappoquin); D. O'Neill, G. Power, J. Canning (Ballyduff); P. Carlton, J. Rooney (Ardmore); B. Daly, P. Farrell, S. Brady (Lismore); T. Mulvey, M. Conin (Tallow); L. McCarthy (Fourmilewater); A. Cashin (Abbeyside); J. Kiely (Ballinacorney); M. Byrnes (Shamrocks).

PLACE YOUR BETS! Any reader thinking of having a minor (or major) flutter on this year's All-Ireland Hurling championship? No, I am not advising you to gamble in any way, but here are the following bets as called by a well-known bookie recently: Temporary 6/4, Cappoquin and Cork 2/1; Wexford 5/2; Waterford and Dublin 4/1. Any tips, all others? Now readers, any particular fancy?

DEC GOODE FINAL ON TUESDAY NIGHT The much drawn-out replayed final of the Declan Goode Cup (presented by the County Secretary) and medals will be decided at Dungarvan on Tuesday night next (7.30 p.m.) when Abbe
