Increases for C.E.O. Top Ten In Gaeltacht and Clerks Scholarship Awards

CAPPAGH GIRL'S WIN

Among the lucky ones who shared a £100 prize offered in competition by an Irish Sunday newspaper this week was Miss B. Barron, Cappagh, who won £9.

£40 DECREE FOR FARMER

Justice Leo Skinner gave a decree for £40 with £4.4.0 expenses at Lisore Civil Bill Court yesterday in a claim brought by John Sheehan, of Knockgarron, Cappagh, Co. Waterford, a farmer, against a neighbour Patrick O'Keefe for £50 damages for trespass of animals, the property of the defendant, on his lands.

John Sheehan said he had 60 acres of land, and defendant who lived beside him farmed about 150 acres. Their farms bordered each other, and there was a quarter mile of fencing on the border.

Since 1959 defendant's animals were continually trespassing on his land. He kept a list of the dates and animals which trespassed. He took a very serious view of two cows trespassing on his farm in January 1960, because they rooted up half an acre of a field in which he intended to grow a meadow. As a result he could not sow the meadow that year.

Sheehan said that the trespassing had been going on for the past 25 years, and if it had not been for his wife and daughter he would have prosecuted long ago. They wanted peace and so did he.

O'Keefe said it was untrue that his cattle were trespassing. Only on one occasion could he remember the cattle going in on Sheehan's land.

INCREASES amounting to £320 a year for the County's C.E.O. and £90 a year for male clerks were unanimously granted at last Tuesday's meeting of Waterford Vocational Education Committee in Dungarvan.

In a Departmental letter the Minister for Education said in view of recommendations made he authorised to increase the salary scales in the various categories.

Dep. T. A. Kyne said that unless they paid their staff the scales agreed by the Minister, all their good teachers would move elsewhere to better their position. Then they would get the best of what was left. He personally would like to keep only the top teachers. The Minister had given great consideration to it, and he proposed they accept his recommendation.

Seconding Dep. Kyne's proposal, the Chairman (Ven. Archdeacon D. Power, P.P.), said if their teachers were not happy, they would move elsewhere.

Dep. Kyne's proposal was then put to the meeting and passed unanimously.

Mr. Charles Curran said that while these increases were deserved, he was compelled to draw attention to the standard of living of the small farmer and the public dissatisfaction at the continuous granting of salary increases. There was tragedy staring them in the face, as the country's small farmers were on the way out. It was the most grave national problem in the country to-day, he said.

Stole £55 Worth of Clothing : Case Adjourned to October

A young Dungarvan girl who was charged and found guilty of stealing clothes valued £41 from the house of her employer at the local District Court last April appeared before Justice Skinner again on Wednesday on a similar larceny charge from the same employer. The amount involved on this occasion was £14. She pleaded guilty to the charge.

Prosecuting, Supt. Costello said the larcenies for which she was now charged took place before the previous ones and there was now £14 added to the £41. She had £7 of the £41 paid back.

Kilmac' School Gets 'Go-Ahead' Signal

By deciding on the type of fuel to be used at the proposed new Technical School at Kilmacomas, Waterford Vocational Education Committee at its monthly meeting on Tuesday gave the go-ahead signal for the work and sketch plans will now be proceeded with.

MR. NOEL FLEMING

The Committee also turned down the appointment of a Clerk of Works for the school at an approximate cost of £1000.

The Architect, Mr. Morrissey Clonmel in a letter stated that the site acquired was suitable and there was adequate space for extra extensions if required. A clerk of works would cost £1000 and he would not recommend this expenditure.

His office premises were quite close to the site and this work could be carried out efficiently by himself and his senior assistant at an additional cost of not more than £150.

Mr. C. Curran proposed they accept the recommendation of the Architect.

Very Rev. Arch-Deacon D. Power P.P. said he would be very strongly in favour of a clerk of works, but then again they had to consider the extra cost.

Mr. J. Fahey said the appointment of a clerk of works could be money well spent.

Mr. Curran's proposal was carried unanimously.

ADVISERS TO STUDY DUTCH FRUIT PRODUCTION

One of the factors which have contributed to better organisation and production in the fruit-growing areas has been the knowledge gained by horticultural advisers on visits to other countries. These visits are organised by the Department and on Wednesday last another party left Dublin Airport for Holland. It is made up of one adviser from each of ten counties and two horticultural inspectors from the Department. This will bring to 59 the total number of horticultural advisers who have made study tours outside the country in recent years. Previous parties have visited Britain and France.

On tour the advisers will see the working of the horticultural experimental station at Naaldwijk, study the Dutch field advisory service at work with local growers, see a number of farms where fruit, vegetables, mushrooms and flowers are produced and sit in at auctions of horticultural produce.

The committee unanimously agreed to Deputy Kyne's suggestion Mr. Curran then thanked the C.E.O. Mr. Cullinan for his work for the Rehabilitation Campaign recently. It was completely outside his duties he said, but yet gave much of his time to it. He also thanked Rev. Fr. Farrell, C.C. Dungarvan, who with Mr. Cullinan was responsible for its success in this county, and in thanking both he was expressing public appreciation.

Newly-Ordained for Diocese

Among the eighteen seminarians who were ordained to the priesthood on Sunday last in the Cathedral of the Assumption, Thurles, by His Grace, the Archbishop of Cashel and Emly, Most Rev. Dr. Morris, was Rev. Fr. Michael Kennedy Garda Barracks, Portlaoise, for the Diocese of Waterford and Lismore.

CAN YOU STAND UNMOVED?

Visiting preacher in the pulpit of St. Mary's Parish Church, Dungarvan, on Sunday, was Rev. Fr. Hannigan, of the St. Patrick's Missionaries, Kiltegan, Co. Wicklow, who made an eloquent appeal for support through prayers and financially, to aid their priests in Africa to cater adequately for the spiritual and temporal welfare of the thousands of souls who must be fed with the knowledge and grace of God and at the same time be supplied with food and clothing.

"You cannot imagine yourself standing by unmoved while someone starved to death," he said, "Pagans are deprived of the knowledge and the grace of God. They are the hungriest people on God's earth. One thousand million immortal souls—struggling in the waters of unbelief, starving for food that you could give them."

Details of St. Patrick's Missionary Circle in which the members agree to say daily prayers for the Missions, and share in the spiritual benefits, are available from the Rev. Director, St. Patrick's, Kiltegan, Co. Wicklow, who will gladly send a copy of their magazine, "Africa" to those who would like to have one.

Will Support Rehabilitation

It was a wonderful thing to give physically handicapped people a new outlook in life and they should help in every way they could, so stated Dep. T. A. Kyne at Tuesday's monthly meeting of the Waterford Vocational Education Committee, when a circular regarding the Re-Habilitation training course in Galway was read by the C.E.O. Mr. D. Cullinan.

The circular requested the co-operation of the committee in connection with a training course in Galway for these handicapped children of which part of the expense would have to be borne by the committee.

Dep. Kyne said two people in Dungarvan already benefited by it, and even if they had no one going for the course they should agree in principle to it. Then should the occasion arise they could send someone and contribute to it.

The committee unanimously agreed to Deputy Kyne's suggestion Mr. Curran then thanked the C.E.O. Mr. Cullinan for his work for the Rehabilitation Campaign recently. It was completely outside his duties he said, but yet gave much of his time to it. He also thanked Rev. Fr. Farrell, C.C. Dungarvan, who with Mr. Cullinan was responsible for its success in this county, and in thanking both he was expressing public appreciation.

License Suspended for Twelve Months

William Harney, Rathgormac Carrick-on-Suir, was fined £5 and had his license suspended for 12 months when convicted of driving a motor-cycle while drunk, on May 26th last, by District Justice Skinner, at Dungarvan Court, on Wednesday. The Defendant pleaded guilty to the charge.

County Councillor is Golf Champion

Mr. John Fahy, Lyrenea, a member of Waterford Vocational Education Committee won the specially organised Golf Competition for members and officers of Vocational Committees at the Annual Vocational Congress in Athlone recently. Mr. Fahy who is a member of the Clonmel Club also won the competition in Bandon a few years ago.

At Tuesday's Vocational meeting in Dungarvan he was congratulated on his win by Mr. Charles Curran. He won a cup miniature trophy and cash prize said Mr. Curran and he swept the decks up there.

Mr. Fahy thanked the Committee for sending him to the Congress by doing so they had given him the opportunity of doing so well.

USED UNLIGHTED CYCLE

Patrick Fraher, Ballyduff, Dungarvan, was fined 5/- for using an unlighted cycle at O'Connell St., on 22nd April.

O'iver O'Donnell, Murphy Pl., Abbeyside, was given the P.O.A. on a charge of causing obstruction with a lorry by leaving it parked in a public place.

The defendant said he was discharging a load when he was prosecuted.

Garda Wm. Mortell prosecuted in both cases.

Tributes to Retiring Garda Officers

Tributes were paid to Sergt. J. Liddane and Garda L. Farrell both of Dungarvan who are retiring from the Force this week after many years of service, by District Justice Skinner at the local court on Wednesday.

Judge Skinner said he was very sorry to see Sergt. Liddane, he was an efficient officer and law and order in Dungarvan owed a lot to him. He was also sorry to lose Garda L. Farrell who was an equally excellent officer.

Mr. M. J. Lavan legal profession said he wished to endorse the remarks of the Justice. Both officers were highly efficient and at all times helpful to the members of his profession. He wished them both a very pleasant and lengthy retirement.

On behalf of Sgt. Liddane and Garda Farrell, Supt. M. Costello thanked the Justice and Mr. Lavan for their kind remarks.

Kilmacthomas Notes

Nice To Note that the progressive farmers and plot-holders of these parts are constantly consulting Kill Agricultural Services (Spraying Contractors, Kill and Kilrossanty), and are having high volume and low volume spraying frequently applied to their potato and corn crops, procuring in Kill and in Kilrossanty a special quotation for large acreage. (Please peruse advertisement elsewhere in this copy).

Gaiety was the keynote of the largely-patronised Annual Stock-Judging Dance (9.2) sponsored by Kilmacthomas Branch, Macra na Feirme and held in the local Rainbow Hall on Thursday night of this week patrons being pronounced well-pleased with the music provided by The Davitt Bros. Orchestra and Showband.

Good Luck And Continuing Increasing Success is most cordially offered to well and popularly known Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Flynn, Main Street, Kilmacthomas, in the pursuit of their newly-opened drapery business concern in O'Connell Street, Dungarvan - The Modern Clothing Store. The progressive pair and their estimable young family deserve to do well through the medium of this undertaking in the Old Borough of Dungarvan.

Have It that the flourishing Kilmacthomas Branch of Comhairte Ceoil na hEireann was represented in the 12th annual Fleadh Ceoil na hEireann, which received a record entry for the 3-day festival of music and song opened officially in the North-Wexford town of Gorey on Saturday of last week.

It is learned that already this year an immense amount of turf has been cut and saved in the peat bogs on both sides of the Mahon.

A Grand Old Catholic Irishwoman Of Her Generation, in the person of Mrs. Mary Doocey (nee Foley), Ballyboy, Kilmacthomas, has died at her residence and the sad event has evoked many expressions of sincere regret with her daughters, sons, nieces, nephews, sister (Mrs. J. Power, Ballyva-liona, Kilmacthomas) and intimate friends. Widow of the late Mr. Michael Doocey, Ballyboy, the deceased had attained to the octogenarian span and was worthily held in the highest regard by all and sundry locally.

A huge crowd of mourners and sympathisers accompanied the removal of the remains to St. Anne's Church, Fews, where the coffin was received and blessed by the Rev. M. Barron, C.C., Kilrossanty. Subsequent to the celebration of Requiem Masses at 8 and 10.30 a.m., respectively, on Thursday of last week, burial took place in the adjoining cemetery, and Very Rev. J. Hart, P.P., Kilrossanty, assisted by Fr. Barron, C.C., do., officiated at the graveside.

Following a comparatively short illness, and at the moderately advanced age of 65 years, very well known and liked Mr. Michael Sullivan, Boss, Kilmacthomas, has passed hence to the acute grief of his loving wife and family (including Mrs. E. Flynn, Curraghaha, Kilmacthomas) to whom sympathy in full measure is wholeheartedly extended in their sad bereavement and loss. There was a larger and representative attendance at the removal of the remains to the Church of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, Kill, where they were received by the Rev. L. Walsh, C.C., do. Interment was made in the adjoining cemetery during the week (after Requiem Mass), and Fr. Walsh gave the closing absolution at the graveside, amidst every manifestation of profound sorrow.

CRICKET

Lismore travelled to Cork to play Cork County at the Mardyke on Sunday last. Winning the toss, Lismore captain Paddy out the home team in to bat. In just under three hours Cork County hit 184 all out. T. Ender- sen. Lismore's opening bowler took 5 wickets for 59 runs. Jack Feecey took 3 for 49, and Paddy Feecey 2 for 42.

Lismore had a unfortunate start to their innings when openers John Crotty and P. Harris were both run out for the second and third balls of the over. The fourth ball got Paddy Scanlon l.b.w., while the fifth bowled P. Feecey. Matt Gough coming in safely played the last ball of the over, and then commenced a partnership with Trevor Ender- sen which was to last for over an hour and a half. Then, with just under an hour left for play, Gough was given out caught. Tom Sullivan then joined Ender- sen and they remained together for over half-an-hour before the latter was bowled. With the exception of Dan Savage, the remaining batsmen were easily dismissed to leave Cork winners with just ten minutes left for play. T. Ender- sen had the highest score with 37, while Dan Savage hit up 10 runs.

Lismore Cricket Club are at home to Glenstal Abbey on Sunday next.

SALMON FISHING

We are pleased to report that there is an all-round increase in the catches of salmon and grise by nets both in Youghal and up river where catches are improving. All fishing is now done in the bay where the weeds are hampering operations. During last week there were a few unwelcome visitors to the harbour namely, basking sharks and they have shown up again this week. One craft of nets was completely destroyed last week when two sharks got tangled and the owner was obliged to cut the nets adrift and thus lost two-thirds of his craft which is indeed a hardship.

LATE MR. TIMOTHY MURPHY

Deep regret was occasioned on Saturday last when Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Murphy, of Kent Street, Youghal, were notified that their son Timothy (Ted) aged 19 years, had died. It would appear that the deceased was landed from his ship at Dunkirk on Friday last for an immediate operation after which he died within a short time. His passing in the prime of life is indeed a tragedy, he and the members of his family being held in very high esteem in his native town and deepest sympathy is extended to them in their great sorrow. The remains were flown from Normandy to Shannon on Thursday and brought to Youghal for burial. A full report will appear in next week's issue.

THE LATE MISS NORA GLAVIN

We regret to record the death of Miss Nora Glavin which took place at her residence, The Mall, Youghal, over the week end after a prolonged period of illness. A member of an old Youghal family, the late Miss Glavin was held in high esteem and respect in the town and her passing in her seventies is regretted. The remains were removed to St. Mary's Parish Church, Youghal, from where the funeral which was both large and representative took place to North Abbey Cemetery. The chief mourners were: Mrs. J. Troy, Mrs. M. Geary, Mrs. J. Twomey (sisters); Messrs. Jas. Troy and M. Geary (brother-in-law), Mrs. Frahill, Mrs. P. Brierly, Miss E. Troy, Mrs. J. O'Connor, Mrs. T. Donovon, Mrs. D. Cotter, Miss E. Twomey Mrs. Halton, Mrs. N. Buttiner (nieces), Rev. T. P. Geary, Rev. B. Cotter, Messrs. Michael and James Cotter, Jack Cotter, Jack and Michael Twomey, Messrs. E. Frahill, T. Brierly, J. O'Connor, D. Cotter, P. Buttiner (relatives), Rev. E. G. O'Dwyer, C.C. officiated.

ANGLING COMPETITION

On Sunday next commencing at 2.30 from the Market Dock, the Youghal Sea Anglers Club will hold their second competition of the season. The main trophy will be for the Island Cup and the Blackwater Hatchery Cup which will go to the person taking the greatest number of bass for both the May and June competitions. This Cup is given each year by the Blackwater Hatchery Committee with the view to eradicating bass which are responsible for destruction of a great number of salmon smolts when they descend to the tidal area. There will also be a shore competition on Sunday next which should attract a great number of shore anglers.

VISITORS TO YOUGHAL

Over the Whit week-end when the sun shone only for brief periods and there was a heavy downpour of rain on Monday afternoon, there were a great number of visitors by train and a conservative estimate of the number who arrived by all forms of transport made it at least 10,000. Despite a stiff breeze, a great number took their dip at the Clayside strand and Diving Rocks.

MOTOR ACCIDENT

After midnight on Friday as a result of a collision between two motor cars at Summerfield Cross, two persons, Mr. A. and Mrs. Hennessey, of Turner's Cross, Cork, were admitted to Youghal Hospital. Both suffered head injuries and leg injuries and spiritual and medical aid was rendered by Rev. E. G. Dwyer, C.C. and Dr. J. B. Foley. Their condition is stated not to be serious.

TALLOW NEWS

DEATH OF MR. JOHN MCCARTHY

The death occurred at the Bon Secours Hospital, Cork, on Tuesday, 5th June, of Mr. John McCarthy, Knocknamuck, Tallow. Deceased was an extensive agriculturalist and horse breeder. He had been ill for some time. He was a member of one of the most respected families in the district and was father of Mr. R. McCarthy, the well known amateur jockey, to whom, as well as to his widow and other family members we extend our deepest sympathy.

The remains, accompanied by a huge cortege, were removed from the hospital to the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Tallow, on Tuesday evening. Requiem High Mass was celebrated on Thursday morning for the repose of the soul of the deceased and interment took place immediately afterwards in the adjoining cemetery.

SYMPATHY

We extend our deepest sympathy to Mrs. D. Doyle "Convent View", Tallow, on the recent lamented death of her brother, Mr. Michael Conway, Abbeyside, Dungarvan.

TALLOW-BORN TEACHER RETIRES

Mr. James F. Hurley, who retired recently from the teaching staff of St. Patrick's College, Drumcondra, Dublin, was born in Tallow in 1894. He was educated at the local National School and at Mount Sion College and spent four years at the Albert Agricultural College, Dublin, where one of his teachers was Prof. Baldwin, a native of Killarney, Knockmore, a noted authority on agriculture. From 1914 to 1918 he was advisor to Dublin Corporation Land Cultivation Committee. And in 1917 he was appointed to teach rural science in St. Patrick's College on the introduction of that subject there. From 1916 onwards he taught rural science under the City of Dublin Vocational Education Committee. Some 5,000 students passed through the college during his term as teacher. He served under seven principals. Last week, to mark his retirement, Mr. Hurley received presentations from the college, his students and colleagues. The Secretary of the Dept., Dr. O'Riordan, complimented him publicly on behalf of the Minister for Education, at the college in an end of the year ceremony. We join in wishing Mr. Hurley many happy years of well earned rest from his arduous labour.

IN ENGLAND TO ATTEND WEDDING

Mrs. W. O'Brien, Chaple St., is at present in England, where she has come to attend the wedding of her niece.

ARCH DANCE

On Whit Sunday night the Arch Ballroom catered for a big crowd of dancers. The "Big Four," the well and popularly known musical combination supplied the music.

LATE MRS. J. MANGAN

The late Mrs. J. Mangan, Bridane, Lismore, who died last week, was mother of Mr. T. Mangan, West Street, Tallow, to whom as well as to the other family members much sympathy is extended.

COMING FROM U.S.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Murphy and child will arrive in Ireland in the next few days to spend a holiday here. Michael is son of Mr. and Mrs. P. Murphy, Ballyshamlet, Tallow. His brother David, accompanied by his wife, arrived from the United States two weeks ago.

A GREAT DAY FOR THE ANGLERS

Two Dungarvan girls who have been dealing with a considerable quantity of paper-work for some time past, in connection with the Bord Fáilte Shere Angling competitions organised by Dungarvan Sea Anglers Club for Sunday next, are: Miss Kathleen O'Dea, Abbeyside, who is the Records Secretary, and Miss Carmel Morrissey, Main Street, the Correspondence Secretary of the Club.

Kathleen is the courteous and efficient cashier at the E.S.B. salesrooms, while Carmel is a member of the clerical staff of the Waterford Health Authority.

Entries are high for the competition and it is expected that the rods will be out in force for a gala day's sport on Sunday next.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

DEATH OF MR. LEO O'DONNELL

The death of Mr. Leo O'Donnell, Killahalla, Cappoquin, which took place suddenly on Monday, 4th inst., has removed one of the best known personalities in West Waterford. The news of his passing was learned with deep regret. The late Mr. O'Donnell was in his 59th year and a member of one of the oldest families in the district. He farmed extensively and was a recognised authority on matters pertaining to agriculture. A great follower of sport he was a generous patron of clubs in the area. Sympathy is extended to his wife, sons and daughters in their great loss. Very large numbers were present on Tuesday evening when the remains were removed to St. Mary's Church where they were received by Very Rev. J. Kenneally, P.P. and Rev. W. Madden, Lismore. Following Requiem High Mass on Wednesday morning, the burial took place in Old Affane. The ceremony officiated by the attendance was of very large proportions and representative of all classes. The chief mourners were: Mrs. E. Donnell (wife), Der. and John (sons); Mrs. H. Chapman Canada, Gertrude, London; Ursula, Epsom (daughters); John and James O'Donnell, New York (brothers); Sr. M. Carthage, Windsor; Sr. M. Dominick, Johannesburg; Mrs. N. O'Mahony, New York; Mrs. Kidney, Jo., (sisters).

RECEPTION FOR CARDINAL BROWN

Very Rev. Fr. Kenneally, P.P. presided at a meeting of the Cardinal Brown Reception Committee held on Sunday. In the unavoidable absence of Fr. O'Meara, C.C., Mr. N. Walsh, M.C.C., acted as secretary. The Very Rev. Chairman said that he had written to announce the date of His Eminence's visitation at the next meeting. The draft of the address of welcome was read and approved. The form of the reception and the engagement of a band for the occasion was also discussed. It was decided to hold a Church Gate collection at the Masses on Sunday, 24th June at Cappoquin and Mount Mellera, the money raised to go to a presentation to His Eminence.

IN LUCK'S WAY

On Wednesday morning, Mr. John Fraher, Secretary of the G.A.A. Club received notification that he had won £50 in a prize draw promoted by the Rockwell College authorities to raise funds for the erection of a building there. He purchased the lucky ticket from his cousin, a student in the College, Kevin, in turn received £5 as seller of the largest number of tickets. Quite a lucky turn up for two members of the Fraher clan. Congratulations to both.

JUVENILE FOOTBALLERS WIN

Our juvenile footballers had a convincing win against Lis more in the game played here on Friday evening when the final score was Cappoquin 2-5, Lismore 0-1. Scorers for the home side were: W. Cunningham 1-1; B. Scanlon 1-0; M. Arrigan, 0-2. R. Ormonde scored for Lismore.

SYMPATHY

Sympathy goes to the members of the Mangan family on the death of their mother, Mrs. Brigid Mangan which took place on the 6th inst. The burial took place in Lismore on Saturday.

GORSE FIRE

The members of the fire brigade left town at midnight on Friday for Gorse where they assisted the Dungarvan Brigade in quenching an extensive gorse fire.

NOTABLE ROWING WIN

For the first time in the Club's history, Cappoquin sent a senior eight crew to Trinity Regatta and they recorded a meritorious win in the "Ball" Cup for non-university crews. On Friday in the first heat for the event the Dark Blues in a thrilling finish defeated the much-fancied Lady Elizabeth crew. Outsiders against Garda in the final on Saturday the boys led all the way and won by a length and a quarter. The handsome Cup leaves the Metropolis for the first time, as on all previous occasions it was won by Dublin crews. The crew, A. O'Keefe, M. Murray, P. Lynam, M. Cahill, W. McLoughlin (skip) was coxed by N. Gellat in the unavoidable absence of the regular cox, J. Lacey. To the captain and the crew we extend congratulations on this outstanding success. Let us hope that this first victory in the "C. O. Stanley" will be followed by many others.

WEST WATERFORD NEWS

THE WEEK-END

The Whit week-end in this area was fine except for some light rain on Monday afternoon. On Sunday big numbers flocked to the seaside and there was heavy traffic on all main roads. Record crowds visited the site of Youghal Bridge, which is now nearing completion.

PRETTY CLASHMORE WEDDING

The Church of Our Lady of Good Counsel, Clashmore, was the scene of a pretty wedding ceremony recently, the contracting parties being Mr. Thomas O'Halloran, Ardsallagh Clashmore and Miss Phyllis Morrissey, Ballysheeny, do. The ceremony, with Nuptial Mass was performed by Very Rev. David Power, P.P., assisted by Rev. M. J. Russell, C.C. The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Thomas Morrissey, Mr. J. O'Halloran (brother of the groom) was best man, and Miss K. Power was bridesmaid. There was a large congregation present. Both bride and groom are popular members of well known local families, the former being particularly well known as a teacher of Irish stepdancing, singing and drama. The wedding reception, attended by about fifty guests, was held in Green Park Hotel, Youghal, and the honeymoon was spent in the West of Ireland. The happy couple were the recipients of numerous costly wedding presents.

On Monday night last, Mr. and Mrs. O'Halloran were entertained by the parents of the area. Full report next week.

VILLIERSTOWN SCHEMES

About three years ago, new water and sewerage schemes were approved for Villierstown. The people of the area are, however, concerned that, so far, there is no sign of work commencing on either project.

ROADS PROTEST

Further protests have been made about the condition of some roads in the Clashmore-Pilown area. The question of sending a deputation to a Co. Council meeting is being considered.

G.A.A.

In challenge games played recently, Clashmore football team defeated Youghal and Term. Both matches were well contested.

RUNNING WATER ON TAP MAKES MONEY

If you haven't running water in your home and farmyard, how much time is wasted in carrying it? How much less profit do you make from your cattle, your pigs and your poultry? If you haven't running water you are throwing money away and neither your home nor your farm are as comfortable nor as profitable as they should be.

If you haven't running water in your home — investigate, an installation now. Thanks to government and local grants, you may only have to pay one-third of the total cost and many Irish farmers have been able to install running water for as little as £20 to £30. Ask your local E.S.B. representative for free advice without obligation. He'll be glad to help.

The extra profits such an installation can bring, together with the comfort, cleanliness and convenience, far outweigh the cost involved. And the installation can pay for itself within one year. Can you afford to be without this amenity any longer?

THE FARMERS WIFE
A tribute to farmers wives in general was paid by Mrs. Juan Greene when she was presented with a portrait of herself and chose to accept it in recognition of the important part which is played by farmers' wives rather than as a personal gift to herself alone.

MINERALS AND THE FARMER
Much interest continues to centre around the mineral-prospecting activities which are now in progress in many counties. Farmers whose primary interest is in the wealth that lies in the first few inches of soil, are now finding it necessary to consider the possibility of valuable mineral deposits lying under their land.

Mr. Rickard Deasy, President of N.F.A., referred to his predecessors' many material achievements including the creation of N.F.A.; the acquisition of N.F.A. House; the recognition he had won for Irish Agriculture throughout the world and the plan for Irish unity. "However, even more important was the gift of character and tradition with which Dr. Greene had permanently marked the corporate character of the Association. It was on account of Dr. Greene the N.F.A. is now an organisation with independence, integrity, leadership and a sense of purpose."

STRANGE PIG DISEASE
Reports of a strange pig disease in different parts of the country are being received at N.F.A. Headquarters. So far the disease has resulted in the death of a number of pigs. One of the symptoms is that pigs go off their feed for a few days and then die. Sometimes the animals linger on but consume only milk and these eventually die.

LAST CHANCE OF OBTAINING ELECTRICITY
The N.F.A. Industrial Committee wishes to remind farmers who have not yet installed electricity that the recent announcement by the Government puts a limit of five years on the availability of the extended rural electrification scheme. In their own interest therefore, those farmers should make application to the E.S.B. without delay. The new scheme makes it possible for many more people to have electricity installed without payment of any special service charges.

SOFT FRUIT PRICES
A price of 86/4 per cwt., an increase of 4d per lb. on last year's has been offered by the Irish Jam Manufacturers for strawberries during the coming season. They met the Fruit Committee of the N.F.A. and the Irish National Fruitgrowers Association in Dublin on June 5th, and the only price agreed between them so far is 168/- per cwt. for blackcurrants. This price is the same as last year. The jam manufacturers were not prepared to offer more than last year's price of 112/- for raspberries at the moment, but they are ready to reconsider the price at the end of the month, when a clearer assessment of the crop and the market at home and abroad can be made. The fruitgrowers are looking for an increase of 2d per lb. for raspberries on account of the very poor prospect for the home crop this year. Growers have had to accept reduced prices for raspberries during

WALT EXPORT TRADE
Irish Malt Exports, the consortium of malsters which is developing the export trade in Irish malt had a good year in 1961 with 25% increase in sales. They managed to capture a substantial slice of the malt trade; they are supplying Guinness' requirements for their Nigerian brewery. The first of this is going out in August. They have received a request from Pakistan for a sample of peat flavoured malt. This is the second request that they have had.

N.F.A. PILGRIMAGE TO LOURDES
It has been definitely decided to go ahead with the N.F.A. pilgrimage to Lourdes coupled with a visit to French farms. Full details will be given next week but in the meantime we would remind interested members that the overall cost will be less than £47.0.0. The party will fly to Lourdes by Aer Lingus plane and will go from there to Paris from where the farm visits will take place by coach. The pilgrimage will take place either in the last week of September or the first week in October. However, bookings will be taken in order of receipt and early application is therefore very advisable in order to avoid disappointment.

When thirty-six young farmers from North Tipperary spend a fortnight in the Connemara Gaeltacht, on the special training, starting at the end of this month, they will be under the guidance of a Dunganarvan man, Mr. Domhnall O Faolain. St. Eunan's, Dunganarvan, has been appointed director of the special Pilot Scheme planned by Comhdháil Naisiunta na Gaeltige in conjunction with the National Executive of Macra na Tuaithe.

The idea is to give the youngsters a course in their ordinary agricultural project work—but with the difference that it will be held in a completely Gaelic atmosphere where all the instruction, lectures, fieldwork and recreation will be through the Irish language only. Dialect differences will present no problems as Mr. O Faolain is familiar with both the Munster and the Connacht versions. Rural Science Instructor at Cappoquin Vocational School he is a prominent organiser for Macra na Tuaithe in the county and has been awarded a proficiency certificate in acknowledgment of his work for the promotion of rural youth groups. He is a former Waterford County senior All-Ireland Hurling star.

VALABLE TREES
Sycamore and Oak trees which are clean in the butt for 6'6" or more of their length, of reasonable girth, free from wire and growing on dry land, can be quite valuable timber and command a very good price. Farmers who are interested in selling such trees are invited to contact N.F.A. House, Earlsfort Terrace, Dublin, for further information.

MUNSTER FINAL REHEARSAL?

WHAT could we'll prove to be a grand rehearsal for the Munster final takes place at Waterford on Sunday next when Waterford and Tipperary meet in a game run in conjunction with the Mor Dhail Gael Convention at Ring.

Both Counties are still together should have a tussle with Tipperary's tough defence. These rival counties can always be relied upon to "produce the goods" whenever they meet, and with neither anxious to suffer defeat just now will be in no give away mood. Without a knowledge of the exact Deise line-out, it would be folly to attempt forecasting the probable result. However, the strength of the Tipperary side is there for all to see and nothing short of an all-out effort for the hour will suffice to give Waterford victory. The Tipperary line-out is: D. O'Brien, M. Hynes (Eire Og Nenagh), M. Maher, M. McGinnis (Thurles Sarsfields), M. Burns, A. Wall, J. Doyle, T. English, L. Devaney, J. Doyle, D. Nealon, G. McCarthy (Kilruane), J. McKenna, J. McGrath (Eire Og, Nenagh), T. Moloughney.

Dungarvan Impress in Clear-cut Victory

MOTORIST FINED FOLLOWING COLLISION

A charge of dangerous driving was reduced to one of careless driving and a fine of 10/- imposed on Dermot Breen, Woodley Park, Cork, when he appeared at Dungarvan District Court on Wednesday. He was given the benefit of the P.O.A. for failing to stop at a sign on the same date.

The case arose out of an accident between a car driven by the defendant and another car at the junction of Mary Street and O'Connell Street, Dungarvan recently. Mr. Lardner Solr, defending said his client was driving from Cork and was not aware of the stop sign at the foot of Mary Street. He drove on and there was a collision with another car. Not knowing the sign was there it would be reasonable to assume he could go through said Mr. Lardner. Supt Costello said the stop sign was in the best place and they could not improve on it.

Dungarvan 7-8 Cappoquin 0-4

DUNGARVAN, as unpredictable as an Irish summer, turned in a performance long-awaited by mentors and followers alike on their own pitch on Sunday last and in doing so crushed the supposedly strong challenge of a Cappoquin side in the opening round of the senior hurling championship.

Prior to the game opinion was sharply divided on the likely result and yet, if anything, the Cornerstone side were considered slight favourites. But Dungarvan whom they had defeated in a recent Sargent Cup game scaped the heights in no uncertain fashion and literally ran riot against tissue-paper opposition. Following unimpressive displays against Ballydurn in recent challenge games, when defeat was their lot on both occasions, Dungarvan's outlook on the game wasn't a very optimistic one but scarcely had the game commenced when it became obvious that there was little comparison between that present side and the one fielded in the challenge games.

From the word go the Blues served up sparkling hurling and as the hour ebbed to its entirely the entire attendance first-hand power were at least on the road to recovery.

Cappoquin, of course, cut a pathetic sight against the confident homesters. They scored first with an early point but thereafter were never in the hunt. Their forwards crumbled before a steady Dungarvan defence while their own rear-guard was over-run by the Blues attack ably marshalled by energetic veteran John Kely. But depleted though Cappoquin may have been (they lacked the services of the Leesys, Mick and Jimmy) one cannot discredit Dungarvan's victory in the least as a result. True, problems still confront selectors but at any rate the turn in the road to decline appears to have been reached. And for Dungarvan men that in itself is a progressive stride.

After Cappoquin took an early lead, Dungarvan settled down to the task on hands and once Johnny Moylan slipped over the equaliser they never looked back. John Kely quickly eled his way through for a goal and hurling with supreme confidence they quickly ran up a commanding lead. A succession of glorious long range points by Geddie McCarthy and goals by Mutt Whelan and Pat Curran clearly reflected their over-all superiority and not flatteringly led 3-4 to 0-3 at half-time.

Whatever hopes Cappoquin may have were dashed within minutes of the restart when Dungarvan added a succession of scores without reply. Whelan, Mahony, Kiely and Woods all delivered shattering blows to the Cappoquin resistance with well-worked goals, to which the losers could offer only a solitary point.

Yes, that is the story of an hour's annihilation. For once the O.J. Boro combination carried the mantle of dictators. Written all over every individual were the benefits of a fortnight's hard training and it is hardly going outside the confines of expectancy to predict further improvement in the second round. ONE-HUNDRED PER CENT CAPABLE

The defence on Sunday though not over-worked looked one hundred per cent capable. Lorry and goal brought off a few superb saves and broke the heart in the losers attack. Not for a long time has he inspired such confidence and looked the complete custodian whenever danger threatened.

The inclusion of full-back Mick Fitzgerald has given the defence a far more powerful appearance. "Fitz" never once left his goal-keeper unprotected and also showed hurling skill in abundance when the occasion demanded it. The stylish Jimmy Walsh and the tough and uncompromising Donal Whelan lent adequate support in the corners and always had the measure of their opponents.

PILLARS IN DEFENCE The half-back line of Johnny Moylan, Tom Cunningham and Ray Lannon were, however, the pillars of this Dungarvan defence. Cunningham, with all the ease and grace of a county star was, of course, the main-spring of the line. But the displays of his youthful flankers Moylan and Lannon left nothing to be desired and both are anything but out of their depth in senior ranks.

Good though all six defenders played, there can be no arguments regarding the choice of mid-fielder Geddie McCarthy as the winners outstanding player. Gallantly though the several Cappoquin men pitted against him tried the Dublin-based Garda continued to give a masterly exhibition and his first-half points, all from at least 70 yards were the blueprints of a faultless display.

Another excellent partner, Tony Mount, excellently partnered McCarthy and helped greatly in giving his side an undisputed superiority in the area. With so plentiful a service the attack could hardly have failed to register a sizeable tally. The understanding of John Kiely and Michael "Mutt" Whelan had a shaky defence at sixes and sevens and between them accounted for 4-2 of the total. The remaining forwards, Johnny Mahony, "Healthy" Woods, Tommy Sheehan and Pat Curran played well and all four shared in the scoring.

Without over-doing the criticism it must be stated that Cappoquin were unbelievably poor. Early on they gave promise of making a fight of it. But once the Blues sailed into the lead they became mere chipping blocks for a vastly superior opposition. They were best served by Liam Dooney (until his retirement), Mickey O'Connor and Charlie Cullen in defence. Ed. Geraghty at midfield and Eddie Fraher and John O'Brien were the only ones to impress in attack.

A collision at Knockaun, Dungarvan in which a number of cattle were killed had a sequel at Wednesday's district Court in Dungarvan when Patrick O'Sullivan, Ruckey Creek, Malin Road, Cork was fined £3 with £250. expenses. Supt. Costello said Timothy Buckley was driving a lorry owned by O'Sullivan on the day of the accident. He had 12 tons of fertilizer on the lorry and 7 tons on the trailer behind. Coming down an incline towards Dungarvan the brakes of the lorry failed and crashed into a bunch of cattle on the road. A number of the cattle were killed. There were no brakes at all on the trailer. Sergt McCafferty said he visited the scene of the accident and examined the vehicle. It was in a new condition but the brakes were not sufficient to bring this excessive load. There were no brakes on the trailer. Mr. E. P. King Solr defending said that after the accident the manufacturers examined the lorry and found the brakes to be perfect, new one had since been fitted to the trailer. The defendant Patrick O'Sullivan said he was the owner of the lorry and trailer, after the accident he took the lorry to the manufacturers in Dungarvan to have it repaired. He was told it was capable of pulling up with a full load, and that the brakes were okay. He had fitted brakes to the trailer since the accident. Judge Skinner find him £3. for having no brakes on the trailer, gave him the P.O.A. for having defective brakes on the lorry and ordered him to pay a total of £250. expenses.

TOM CHEASTY (Waterford)

Waterford aren't first choices as defenders yet neither is a danger to the blue and gold line. The half-back line, on paper at least looks little short of unbreakable. Tony Wall remains in his best position at right half and has as wing-back Mick Burns and the lion-hearted John Dwyer.

DSS-TIFIED
Dungarvan's dissatisfaction with the way the midfield pairings have been operating of late, has again moved stylish Liam Dwyer out to partner Tom Cheasty and this pair will undoubtedly be any partner Waterford mentors have made on.

Dungarvan takes over the reins on the 30' with Jimmy Doyle and Gerry McCann promoting the line. Dungarvan's already known to Deise followers who the writer has no hesitation in nominating McCarthy as the best choice on this championship side.

Even after the retirement of Mick Maher, Tipp have managed adequately fill the forward berth. Several names have been tried and found wanting and on Sunday morning the back again on Nenagh's M. Grath, "Mackey" McKeown and Mick Murphy.

WHY BE PICKED TO-NIGHT?
Waterford selectors sit down on Thursday to select the team to make Phil Grimes, Mick Murphy and Mick Murphy absentees while one or two may also be unavailable.

Top of the table at the moment are Cappoquin, the home of champions. Led by young goalscorer Anselm Hayes, they play in the style of all the Caseyville teams and refuse to accept defeat over in the face of overwhelming odds. They have a grand set of hurlers in lads like David Dwyer, Edmond, and all the enthusiasm in the world seems to bring the no change of fortune. What a pity it is for lads like Michael Earley (capt), Killian Keves, Billy O'Keefe, Pat Barron and Liam Curran give of their best on every occasion. Lately however they have increased a great deal and in their latest game in particular only some 2000 came between them and victory. They still have time to get moving and what a competitor it would be with a strong Seandun team.

For those interested in the Rice Cup, there is a very important match billed for this (Thurs) evening at the C.B.S. Grounds, Here, at 7.15 pm. Sharp, the semi-final takes place between Mount Sion and Lismore. The Dungarvan lads are due to meet this evening's victors and will be out in force to get a preview of their opponents in the final. This evening's game seems to have all the ingredients of a thriller. Form favours the city boys but I have a suspicion that the lads from Lismore will be the least worried by form.

Champions Go Out

BRICKEYS WERE DESERVING WINNERS

Gaelic Jottings

LAST SUNDAY'S GAMES

As forecast in last week's issue, Brickey Rangers jumped back into the limelight again when they dethroned the football champions, Mount Sion, at Dungarvan on Sunday last.

Although producing occasional bouts of good play, the game in general fell far below expectations. There was too much dedication towards playing the man and consequently the standard suffered greatly as a result.

However disappointing though the game may have been, the result, which now sends the Brickeys into the last eight, was an equitable one. They played the more orthodox type of play, utilised their chances better than the opposition—and for those two very good reasons are to-day a step nearer realising a life-long ambition.

An extraordinary feature of the game was the failure of both sides to register a second-half score. Brickeys ended the half as they started it, leading 2-4 to 2-1, despite dominating the exchanges to a considerable extent.

Now all Bushy Park is asking "can we go the distance." Mount Sion have long proved a bogey side for the Rangers but now that they are limed hopes have soared amongst Brickey folk that a championship success is about to become a reality.

There is, of course, a long road to go yet, and mindful of the foolishness of counting one's chickens before they are hatched, they will hardly be afflicted by over-confidence. And should they make '62 their year, who, no matter where his allegiance may lie, could begrudge them their hour of glory. Long ago they should have enjoyed it.

DUNGARVAN ON THE WAY BACK?

Not since the club last appeared in a senior hurling final almost a decade ago have Dungarvan supporters had such cause for rejoicing as on Sunday last when they swept aside Cappoquin by 7-8 to 0-4 in the opening round of the championship.

Following a succession of inspired displays in recent months Dungarvan's sparkling performance came as a welcome surprise to Old Boro mentors who have so patiently awaited resurgence day.

And without losing sight of the fact that Cappoquin fielded one of their poorest ever sides, one cannot discredit Dungarvan's victory.

The return of John Kiely to the attack has worked wonders with the sector, while new full-back Mick Fitzgerald adds to the solidity of the rear-guard.

Elsewhere on the line-out the sparkling of youth takes its cue from the older hands, and over-all the future looks rosier than was ever envisaged at the start of the year.

What the effects of this trouncing will be on Cappoquin are as yet unknown, but presently the outlook for the future doesn't look very promising. Sunday's side was the weakest ever to don the red and black jerseys and even the presence of the Lacey brothers, Mick and Jimmy, doesn't adequately — or anything near it, account for their display. Many of their old stars seem to have shed much of their former lustre while the newcomers have yet to mature a lot before being properly equipped for senior ranks.

MITCHEL'S WIN AGAIN

The winning sequence of Kilrossanty's new club, John Mitchell's, continues. At D'Inchill on Sunday they made their championship debut as winners when beating The Oge (Newtown, Ballyduff and Parkgormack) by 0-6 to 0-3 — the decisive score by which they beat Kilrossanty the previous Sunday.

Again it was the superb fitness of the Mitchells that proved the decisive factor. On this occasion they were less impressive than when beating Kilrossanty, but their ability to be first to every ball eventually swung the game in their favour.

Mitchels took control again and added the points that made their victory secure.

TIPP, VISIT WATERFORD

Attractive visitors to Waterford on Sunday next are All-Ireland champions Tipperary who meet the homesters in a senior hurling challenge.

The game was originally fixed for Dungarvan, but owing to a rental dispute with the proprietors the game has now been switched to the City venue.

With Tipp's stock having slumped in recent weeks, they will be anxious to regain prestige, and are sending their strongest side for this challenge which could yet prove a dress rehearsal for the Provincial final.

RONAN'S AND STRADBALLY FANCIED

On to-night (Friday) and on Sunday, four teams will be endeavouring to advance a stage further in quest of senior honours.

To-night's game at Dungarvan is an all-group meeting between St. Ronan's and Fag a

They are my confident fancy to record a reasonably comfortable victory.

CHAMPIONS WIN AGAIN

Divisional junior champions, Fourmilewater, advanced a stage further in defence of their hurling crown when de-

BRICKEY RANGERS 2-4 MOUNT SION 2-1

MOUNT SION severed all direct interest in the destination of this year's football championship when they relinquished their crown at their first defence against old rivals Brickey Rangers at Dungarvan on Sunday. 'Sion never played in a manner befitting county champions and a superior footballing Brickeys deservedly broke that Monastery hoodoo.

For a game from which so much was expected, the exchanges could not but have wrought disappointment to the fair-sized attendance. Neither side seemed willing to open up the play, each waiting more or less to turn their opponents' mistakes into the best possible advantage.

This reluctance to fend for themselves altogether mitigated against good football and completely spoilt the game from a spectators' viewpoint.

The result itself, however, was a just one. The Rangers, their side greatly bolstered by the inclusion of Frankie Ryan and particularly Mick Farrell, always had the edge on the opposition and though their superiority wasn't translated into scores, one could at all times see that the writing was on the wall for the holders.

They looked a wearisome side on Sunday, hardly recognisable in fact from the Mount Sion teams of recent years. For once they even failed to produce their oft times amazing belated rally and towards the close accepted defeat as though it was inevitable.

NO EXCUSE

Nor can the fact that they had to play the last quarter with only fourteen men excuse their palatably poor exit. Midway through the half, Albie Richards earned the displeasure of referee Liam Crotty and not unjustly made an enforced departure from the scene. Prior to Richards' dismissal, however, the Rangers also ruled the roost and his departure hardly effected the final outcome.

An unusual feature of the game was that all the scoring was done in the opening half. Brickeys after being twice a goal in arrears hit the front ten minutes from the interval and the break led 2-4 to 2-1.

But few could have envisaged such an unimaginative second half hour of football. It was as featureless as it was scoreless, with Brickeys continuing to hold the upper hand. Their forwards however failed to find the scoring range while their inability to profit on close-in frees kept their score at a stabilized 2-4.

Only once in the dying minutes did Sion mount a threatening attack that ever looked dangerous enough to save the game. And even then had Brickey forwards been more alert it could have ended in complete disaster for the champions. A 'Doc' Walsh - Freddie O'Brien move was nipped in the bud by the timely intervention of a Brickey defender whose clearance reached Patsy Murray standing just inside the Mount Sion half. Murray started a toe-to-hand run that carried him within shooting range of the feeling Geraldine decisively by 2-12 to 3-0. This was yet another vintage display by the champions, whose crisp striking carried them unscathed through the hour. They led from the opening minutes and never once relinquished it during the hour.

In contrast this was not Geraldine's day. Nothing went right for them against opponents that by Junior standards were highly skilled and only two goals shortly before the end took the bare look off the scoreboard.

With the Aglishers now gone it would appear that Fourmilewater are a reasonably safe bet to retain their title. Tourin, Ballyduff and more so Shamrocks are all dangers to this prediction but yet even at this early stage they are the choice to carry off the title again this year.

Casey Scores Again — The Winning PINT — Nick Casey, The Square, Dungarvan champions goal, but instead he elected to walk the ball through and was hauled down by two despairing defenders.

DECISIVE FACTOR

Undoubtedly the most decisive factor in this Brickey victory was the clear-cut superiority Andy Hallissey and Mick Farrell gave them at mid-field. Farrell's football splendour coupled with Hallissey's effective wholeheartedness made them a powerful partnership that Mount Sion, despite a variety of pairings failed to master or ever break even with at any stage over the hour. Even the presence of a brilliant Mick Flannelly failed to break the Brickey stranglehold in the sector and the remainder of the side laboured under this marked disadvantage.

Doubtless thoughts of a first championship success will now be uppermost in the minds of the Brickey mentors and supporters. The Mount Sion challenge was generally regarded as their severest and now that it has been successfully bypassed, a new wave of optimism is assured to sweep the parish.

SION DREW FIRST BLOOD

Mount Sion drew first blood with a goal by Martin Og Morrissey but Brickeys trailed only for a matter of minutes when Justin Spratt crashed home a great equaliser. Again Sion regained their goal lead but Freddie O'Brien before the Brickeys levelled for the second time with a goal by Tom Foley from a melee.

There it was, two goals each after fifteen minutes — certainly an explosive start to the game. But unfortunately the promise of that first quarter only flattered to deceive and the remainder of the game was a tame and scrappy affair. Brickeys took the lead for the first time with a brace of points, before a point by Mick Flannelly cut the champions' deficit to the minimum.

The Brickeys however, playing better than at any other stage during the hour asserted a distinctive role of dominance and were rewarded by two points that gave them a 2-4 to 2-1 interval lead.

The second half was devoid of all the essentialities of good play and the failure of both sides to add to their half-time tally made it even more frustrating half hour. The Brickeys should have increased their three-point advantage if only from placed balls alone.

but despite this shortcoming never looked likely to lose the game.

SIGNIFICANT FEATURE

Most significant feature of the Brickey defence was the absence of regular full-back Noelias MacCraith, who was demoted to the subs, for the game. MacCraith's place was filled by drafting Bill Spratt from right full to the fringe of the square flanked by Wick Walsh and Peter Ferncombe. The re-arranged line playing together for the first time as a full-back line did exceptionally well and gave a confident Richie Whelan ample scope to guard his net.

LATE MISS MARY M. O'MEARA

CHURCH ST., DUNGARVAN

Widespread regret was occasioned at the announcement of the death of Miss Mary M. O'Meara, which occurred on Wednesday, 6th June, at St. Vincent's Hospital, Dungarvan, after a rather short illness. She was a member of a very old Dungarvan family and had spent a great part of her life in the U.S.A. before she returned to her native town to reside with her sister at Church St. She was a great favourite and a most gentle lady and a fond lover of her religion. She was an aunt of Rev. Fr. M. O'Meara C.C., Cappoquin. Her remains were removed on Thursday evening to St. Mary's Parish Church, Dungarvan, followed by a cortege of very great dimensions and were received by Rev. Fr. Farrell, C.C., assisted by Rev. Fr. D. Byrne, C.C., Rev. V. de Paor, C.C., Ring and Rev. Fr. Butler, O.S.A.

Requiem Mass was offered on Friday morning for the happy repose of her soul and the interment took place later in the adjoining family plot. Rev. Fr. Farrell, C.C., assisted by Rev. Fr. Byrne, C.C., recited the final prayers at the graveside. Another very large concourse were present to pay the final respects and sympathise with her nearest and dearest. Very large sheaves of Mass cards were received by her relatives.

The chief mourners were: Miss Agnes O'Meara, Church Street (sister), and a very large circle of nephews and nieces. (Funeral arrangements by J. Kiely and Sons, Dungarvan.)

Donnelly turned in one of those displays that he so repeatedly reserves for the big occasion and Pat Spratt and Paul Kilgrew likewise hit top form.

Reference has already been made of the part played by mid-fielders Farrell and Hallissey. Farrell's display was a sheer revelation and into the bargain scored two fine points. Hallissey was also in his element and like Farrell figured in the scoring returns.

RYAN'S PART

It attracts greatest interest was focussed on the English-based Frankie Ryan. Playing his first game for the club in almost two years he nevertheless proved a menace to the champions defence but gave the impression that he might be better employed in the half-line. Of the remainder Justin Spratt and Shackaneen Woods were best.

For once Mount Sion failed to prove equal to the acid test and rarely moved with customary precision. Their outstanding performer was versatile Mick Flannelly, while fault could not be found with the displays of Frankie Walsh, 'Doc' Walsh, Seamas Power and Freddie O'Brien.

KILMAC' DEFEATED IN INFIRMARY CUP FINAL

MARIAN 3, KILMAC 1

Superior team work helped Marian to defeat Kilmac in one of the best ever Infirmary Cup finals at Ozier Park, Waterford, last Sunday evening. Marian took the lead after 30 minutes from a goal by centre-forward Martin. The second half saw P. J. Maher give a penalty kick and almost immediately Kilmac got on level terms when R. Batty scored from close range. For the next ten minutes it was touch and go, with the team getting the next score the likely winners and it came to Marian when a Kilmac defender deflected a shot into his own net, as Maher was about to gather the ball. The best goal of the game was scored by Marian forward, Kirby, five minutes from the end. Due to injuries received in the semi-final, Kilmac did not produce their best form last Sunday. Will no regrets. Congratulations to winners and gallant losers, in a sporting and tough battle for supremacy.

Requiem Mass was offered on Friday morning for the happy repose of her soul and the interment took place later in the adjoining family plot. Rev. Fr. Farrell, C.C., assisted by Rev. Fr. Byrne, C.C., Rev. V. de Paor, C.C., Ring and Rev. Fr. Butler, O.S.A.
