Hard luck story of the day was when veteran Kent fisherman and visitor to Dungarvan, Mr. J. Murray, ten minutes before the competition closed at 6 p.m., rested his rod and turned to tidy his gear which took only a few seconds. On turning round he was shocked to see his rod flying like a rocket to sea. Without a doubt Mr. Murray's rod was being whipped away by a top end wind. Mr. Murray's cherished hope of winning the competition. Luckily he retrieved his rod from rocks nearby later.

SALMON NET FISHING

We are again pleased to report that the all-round increase in catches of salmon and grise by nets in Youghal and district is still continuing. At the close of last week good catches were reported and there was a decided improvement on Monday this week when 80 grise (peale) were taken by four boats in addition to the peale, which are averaging around the 4½ lb mark, there is a good scattering of salmon as well. Should this continue for the remaining five weeks of the net season, it is possible that the majority, if not all boats, will have had a good season. The peale so far are definitely making up for the poorest salmon season in living memory.

YOUGHAL'S 65th ANNUAL PROCESSION

On Sunday next, Youghal will hold its 65th annual procession of the Blessed Sacrament. During the past week or so residents are busy decorating their houses and business premises for the occasion. The first public procession of the Blessed Sacrament was held in Youghal in 1898 and since then only three had to be cancelled due to unfavourable weather on the appointed Sunday. The time (3 p.m.), route and order of the Procession will be as in former years with Solemn Benediction at the Green Park and on the return of the Procession to the Parish Church. The final arrangements for Sunday's public profession of faith were made on Thursday at a meeting of orderlies presided over by Very Rev. Canon Sheehan, P.P.

FUNERAL OF LATE MR. T. MURPHY

The remains of the late Mr. Timothy (Ted) Murphy of Kent Street, Youghal, whose death was reported in last week's issue, were flown from Dunkirk on Thursday of last week and later removed to the Parish Church, Youghal, from where the funeral took place to North Abbey Cemetery on Friday, followed by a large and very representative cortege. The deceased, a merchant sailor, was eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Murphy, and his passing at the early age of 19 years, is deeply regretted.

The chief mourners were: Mr. and Mrs. T. Murphy (parents); Miss Jean Murphy (sister); Messrs. Thomas, Brendan and Billy Murphy (brothers); Messrs. James W., Alex. Joseph, James and Bertie Murphy (uncles); Mrs. S. Murphy (grandmother); Mrs. Jas. Murphy, Mrs. Joe Murphy, Mrs. Alex. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. O'Shea (relatives). Very Rev. Canon Sheehan, P.P., officiated assisted by Rev. E. G. Dwyer, C.C.

PRETTY WEDDING AT FOURMILEWATER

St. Laurence's Church, Fourmilewater, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Tuesday, 12th inst. The contracting parties were Mr. Sean Walsh, son of the late Thomas Walsh and of Mrs. Kathleen Walsh, Reanadampau, Ballymacarbury and Miss Julia Condon, daughter of Mr. Edmund Condon, and the late Mrs. K. Condon, Graignagour, Ballymacarbury.

The ceremony, with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing, was performed by Rev. Fr. Bracken, C.C., Fourmilewater, assisted by Very Rev. Fr. Walsh, P.P., Touraneena.

Miss Bridget Phelan, friend of the bride, was bridesmaid. The best man was Mr. John Walsh, cousin of the groom. The reception was held in the Slievenamon Hotel, Clonmel, after which the happy pair left on a tour of the South. We join with their legion of friends in wishing this very popular couple many years of health, happiness and prosperity.

LATE MRS. MARY COYNE

Moyné, Grange, Youghal

The unexpected death of Mrs. Mary Coyne occurred at her residence Moyné, on Saturday night, June 16th, after a rather short duration of illness, but fortified by the Rites of Holy Church. The remains were removed on Sunday evening to Grange Church followed by a huge and impressive cortege and were blessed and received by Rev. Fr. P. Flavin, C.C.

Another very large concourse were present to pay their final respects to their departed one. Rev. Fr. P. Flavin officiated at the graveside.

The chief mourners were: Patrick (husband); Patrick, Michael and David (sons); Mrs. Lenane, Clashmore and Miss Mary Coyne, Carrick-on-Suir (daughters).

TALLOW NEWS

WEDDING BELLS: ALLEN-TOBIN

The wedding took place at Ballinameela Church recently, with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing, celebrated by Rev. Fr. Thomas Nugent, C.C., Ballinameela, of Mr. Eugene Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Allen, Ballymore, Tallow, and Miss Jane Olive (Dennie) Tobin, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Tobin, Janeville, Tallow. The bride wore a pink frock with headress to match, and carried a bouquet of lilies and maiden hair fern. She was attended by her sister Miss Mary Tobin, who wore a lemon coloured dress with matching headress, and carried a bouquet of white carnations. Mr. Michael Allen, brother of the groom, was best man. The reception was held at Conway's Hotel, Cappoquin, after which the happy couple left on their honeymoon, which was spent on a tour of the south and Kilkenny. Going away, the bride wore a blue two piece dress with white accessories. Both bride and groom were the recipients of many wedding gifts and congratulatory messages to mark the happy occasion. Very popular members of the community, we join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Allen the best of luck and happiness in their married life.

CELEBRATED IN FIRST MASS

Rev. Fr. Michael Slattery, son of Mrs. Slattery and the late Mr. John Slattery, Main Street, Tallow, who was ordained at Waterford on Sunday, celebrated his first Mass at the Carmelite Convent, Tallow, on Monday morning, 15th June. Many friends and relatives were present to whom Fr. Slattery later gave his blessing.

DEATH OF MRS JANE OLIVE TOBIN

It is with deep regret we record the death of Mrs. Jane Olive Tobin, Tirucullen, Tallow, which occurred at her residence on Thursday, 14th June. PRESIDENT IN RING

The President, Mr. de Valera, speaking in Ring College, on Saturday last, said if the country lost the Irish language it would be the end of the nation. The Danes and Dutch and other countries had their own languages but that did not prevent them from having French, German or English or any language that they required. In Ireland the people could have both Irish and English.

MISSIONARY PRIEST CELEBRATES MASS AT KILWATERMOY

Eleven o'clock Mass on Sunday last at Kilwatermoy, was celebrated by a priest from St. Patrick's Mission, Kiltegan, Co. Wicklow. In the course of an eloquent lecture he appealed for funds for the Mission whose field of labour is in Africa.

ESSENTIAL

The Minister for the Gaeltacht Mr. O'Morain, said the people who taught at the festival were to be highly congratulated. It had become an Oireachtas for the Gaeltacht areas and it was very essential in so far as it focussed attention on the national past-tensions and culture.

Daly, C.C., the young priest celebrated his first Mass in Affane Church on Monday morning in the presence of a large congregation to whom he subsequently imparted his blessing. LONDON NEWS

— By COLLIGAN —

A meeting of the Waterford Men's Association was held on Saturday night at Paddy Whittly's, Vauxhall Bridge Road. Col. Ted Flynn was in the Chair. Also present were: Willie Barron (Dungarvan) Vice Chairman; Jim Griffin (Waterford) Secretary, and Mrs. Griffin; Tim Walsh, Treasurer, Willie Corcoran (Waterford); Tom and Mrs. Cahill (Tramore); Teddy and Mrs. Acheson (Waterford); Owen Goode, Cathal O'Donoherty and J. O'Meara (Dungarvan).

A vote of sympathy was passed to Mrs. Willie Flynn on the death of her brother. Willie is a very valuable member of the Committee who gives a great deal of his time to the business of the Association.

The Secretary, Jim Griffin, gave a full report on the Association's Draw of Prizes which will take place on Saturday, 14th July at the Irish Centre, Camden Town, at 9 p.m. The Association wishes to thank Messrs. Clover Meats Ltd. for their gift which will be added to list already printed; this prize is a Clover Ham.

The Association would also like to thank Messrs. Sports Shop, The Quay, Export Centre, Regent St., and Rev. Fr. Thomas Fitzgerald, Bursar, St. John's College, for their help. The Committee extended a warm welcome to Ned Browne of Waterford, Ned who is a prominent member of Waterford Branch of the Council of Irish Unions, certainly answered a number of questions about home and expressed his appreciation of the work of the Association was doing and can do for Waterford people in London. Through these notes I will again appeal to those contemplating emigrating to London, especially young girls, to please contact Jim Griffin, Secretary, 156 Blythe Road, London, W.14. Parents requiring information about conditions are asked to do likewise. Those seeking employment are asked not to be lead astray by Agency advertisements; there are many pitfalls here for the "innocents." Remember, the Waterford Men's Association are here to guide and help you.

The London Association are delighted to hear that the Waterford Exiles have formed in Birmingham. We wish them every success and hope to visit them at a later date. I ask Mr. Michael O'Mahoney to please contact our Hon. Secretary who are old school mates and played hurling and football together.

The Christian Brothers Past Pupils have formed a Committee here in London to celebrate the Bi-Centenary of the Birth of the Founder, Bro. Edmund Ignatius Rice, The Chairman is Rev. Fr. J. O'Donoghue, O.S.A., St. Augustine's, Hammersmith; Secretary—Mr. Pat Ahern, and Vice-Chairman—Rev. Paul Delaney, O.S.A. All three mentioned are natives of Dungarvan. The following arrangements are to be made—

7th September—Lecture on Bro. Rice by Pat Ahern, and concert afterwards, 8th September (Feast of the Nativity of the B.V.M.)—12 noon—March from Tyburn to St. George's Cathedral, 3 p.m.—Solemn High Mass and Sermon in Cathedral, 8 p.m.—Dinner and Final of Quiz, 9 Sept.—G.A.A. matches, to be arranged.

The Hon. Secretary of the Waterford Men's Association has been asked to act as Co-Sec. and the Waterford Men's Association request all former pupils of the Christian Brothers in Waterford City and County to please contact him, or Willie Barron, 66 Kingswood Road, Penge, S.E. 20, when they will know of final arrangements.

Kilmacthomas Notes

Domiciled in the Great Western Republic's "City of Sky-scrapers"—New York—is Mrs. Helen O'Sullivan, only daughter of highly respected Mrs. Hannah Foley, Ballylinch, Kilmacthomas, and the late Mr. Thomas Foley, do., and she is at present revisiting her aged mother whom she previously visited two years ago. Mrs. O'Sullivan is in radiant health and spirits; she is enjoying every moment of her stay, and will be returning to New York on the eight day of next month. Incidentally, her husband is a native of Co. Kerry.

In The Pontana Pools (Mr. John Gough, Blacknock, Kilmacthomas, local promoter), a prize of £25 has just been won by Mr. Roy Battye, Currabaha, Kilmacthomas, a most popular young sportsman, who is to be congratulated on his good luck.

All And Sundry locally were glad to glean by last week's "Dungarvan Observer" that Waterford Vocational Education Committee at its monthly meeting gave to the architect, Mr. Morrissey, of Clonmel, the go-ahead signal for the erection of a new Technical School in Kilmacthomas.

Rev. Fr. Patrick Nicholas Magee, O.S.A., who, following an illness of somewhat protracted duration and at the all too early age of 52 years, has died at the Bon Secour Hospital, Dublin, was a prominent member of the Augustinian Community in Grantstown, Co. Wexford. He first saw the light at Biggin, New Ross; was educated at Good Counsel College, New Ross, and entered the Augustinian Novitiate in 1928. Having graduated in arts and philosophy at U.C.C., he pursued his theological studies at the Gregorian University, Rome, and received his ordination in the Eternal City in 1936. His early years as an ecclesiastic were spent in colleges of the Order at New Ross and Dungarvan, where he was afterwards Rector for a period prior and up to his appointment as Superior of the Augustinian students of philosophy in the Metropolis. In 1954 the late Fr. Magee was appointed Prior of Grantstown. During his years of membership in the Augustinian Community in Dungarvan the dear departed priest was as well known and liked in the Dalli-gan, Tay and Mahon-kissed parishes—all of which he had then periodically visited—as he undoubtedly was in the Old Borough. His reverence was an expert about the care and management of bees and not a few of these parts are among the many deeply indebted to him for the valuable advice he so readily and freely gave them in this important matter.

After Solemn Requiem High Mass (preceded by the Office for the Dead) on Tuesday of last week, in Augustinian Church, Thomas Street, Dublin, his funeral took place to Glasnevin Cemetery, do.

LATE MR. BARTHOLOMEW (BATTY) KIELY

EMMET ST., DUNGARVAN

Widespread regret was felt at the announcement of the death of Bartholomew Kiely, which occurred rather unexpectedly, and after a very short illness, at the District Hospital, Dungarvan, on Sunday morning, June 17th. He was a well-known personality, not only in his native town, but also over a very wide area. He was a very keen Gaelic footballer in his early days and was founder member of the Dungarvan Blues. He was also a fond lover of greyhounds and he was always to be seen at the very many coursing meetings all over the country. He was a life long member of the Commercial Club. The greatest sympathy is extended to his wife Mrs. Mary E. Kiely, and also to his sons Maurice and Peter, on their very great loss.

The remains were removed from the Hospital Mortuary Chapel, after prayers were recited by Very Rev. Canon W. F. Finn, P.P., Tallow, on Sunday evening, to St. Mary's Parish Church, Dungarvan, followed by a very great cortege, and were received by Rev. Fr. P. Farrell, C.C.

Requiem Masses were offered on Monday and Tuesday mornings for the happy repose of his soul and the interment took place on Tuesday in the adjoining family plot, Rev. Fr. P. Farrell, C.C., imparted the final absolution and recited the prayers for the dead, at the graveside.

Large sheaves of spiritual tributes were received by his family. (Undertaking by Jam's Kiely and Sons, Dungarvan.)

DINNER TO MARK PROMOTION

At a Dinner, held in The Grand Hotel, Tramore, on Tuesday evening, 5th inst., Mr. William O'Mahony, District Inspector of Irish Life Assurance Company Ltd., Dungarvan, was the recipient of a handsome presentation made, on behalf of the staff of the Waterford District, to him on his departure on promotion as Ordinary Branch Inspector to Dublin.

In making the presentation, Mr. J. J. Lenehan, District Manager, Waterford, spoke very highly of the good work done by Mr. O'Mahony in the Waterford - Dungarvan area during his seven years resident there and pointed out that his promotion was a direct result of his constant and untiring application to duty.

Mr. Lenehan concluded by wishing Mr. and Mrs. O'Mahony and family, on his own behalf and on behalf of the Staff, many years of happiness and prosperity and assured them that they carried the best wishes of every member of the Waterford Staff on their departure from the District.

LATE MR. THOMAS HACKETT

BALLYLEMON, CAPPAGH

The death took place on Wednesday morning, 13th June at his residence Ballylennon, of Thomas Hackett, after a rather lengthy illness. He was a member of the farming community and a great favourite, especially in the Ballylennon and Ballynemeela districts, where he was better known. The greatest sympathy is extended to his wife Margaret and to his daughter Breda, and also to his sister Bridget.

The remains were removed on Wednesday evening to Ballynemeela Church followed by a cortege representing all sections of the community, and were received by Rev. Fr. T. Nugent, C.C. Requiem Masses were celebrated on Thursday morning, after which the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery. Another very large cortege were present. Very Rev. Fr. M. Hackett, P.P., officiated assisted by Rev. Fr. T. Nugent, C.C., at the graveside. (Undertaking by Jam's Kiely and Sons, Dungarvan.)

AFTER THE EPSOM DERBY

Not since the disqualification of Craganour, has a Derby aroused such heated arguments as this year's Epsom race, an event that will go down in the record books as the "Calamity Classic."

With seven fallers in a field of twenty six, the race seemed more like the Grand National than the Derby and it has been pointed out that there were only nine fallers at Aintree this year when a field of thirty two came under Starter's Orders. Long after the "winner all right" signal had been hoisted, the punters were arguing the toss over what might have been.

Will Larkspur go down in history as the luckiest Derby winner ever or will subsequent events show that he was the best horse in the field? That was a question nobody could answer with conviction in the subsequent post mortem, but equally so nobody could dispute the authority with which he wrested the advantage from River Chatter at the two furlong marker and they sprinted up the hill to beat back the late challenging French colt Arcor by two lengths with Le Cantilien a half length away third.

Some lengths farther back came Escort (4th), Sebring (5th), Prince D'Amour (6th) and Triborough (7th). The first seven past the post all hold the Irish Sweeps Derby engagement at the Curragh on June 30th as do two of the fallers Hethersett and Romulus. Hethersett, who started a clearcut favourite at 9/2, appeared to be particularly unlucky, for, when falling at the halfway mark, he was lying in close touch to the leaders and just in front of Larkspur whom he almost brought down, Preliminary inspection revealed that Hethersett had escaped with superficial cuts and bruises and provided that he is nonetheless for the experience. He will get an opportunity of confirming his ill luck at the Curragh at the end of the month.

An encounter between Larkspur, a definite starter, and Hethersett would surely provide one of the most significant races of the decade and despatch the Irish Sweeps Derby to a flying start.

Despite the probable absence of the Italian Derby winner Antelami, the Irish Sweeps Derby cannot be regarded as a two horse race. Immediately after the Epsom Derby, Marcel Boussac confirmed that Arcor would be in the Curragh lineup and his rider Roger Poincelot is adamant that he will reverse the placings.

Slowly into his stride at Epsom, he made up many lengths in the straight and will probably be better suited by the galloping Curragh track. Incidentally, his dam Corejada supplied Marcel Boussac with his last Irish Classic success when scoring in the 1950 Irish Oaks. Sebring, who started a short-price favourite, is another definite starter. With three furlongs to go he was vying for second but when the pressure came on he stayed without quickening. Both his successes this Spring were achieved on soft ground and should the going change by Derby Day he might well shake up Larkspur.

Prince D'Amour, who was bought in France by Canadian Max Bell a couple of weeks ago to represent in both Derbies, ran a courageous race for he was severely kicked at the start and for a few moments his participation was in doubt. London bookmakers reported that he was all the rage with women punters who just could not resist the fascination of the name and, doubtless had happy memories of the victory of My Love.

Triborough is likewise a certain starter at the Curragh and he hails from the Newmarket Stable of Humphrey Cottrell who supplied last year's shock Irish Derby winner, Your Highness.

Of those unrepresented at Epsom, the Irish trainer John Oxx could derive much satisfaction from the forward showing of Sebring, for in the Irish 2,000 Guineas his colt Arctic Storm finished just as far in front of him as did Larkspur at Epsom.

Other news of stable intentions gleaned during the week was that both the French-trained Zokkoff and White Lie 11 are expected to make the journey over.

Since the last Acceptance stage, on April 25th, 1962, and up to 11 a.m., on Friday, June 8th, the following entries have been scratched: Adamastor, Antee 11, Artic Vale, Arling Ski, Birdsall Brow, Blazing Stars, Bobbest, Eton, Fontainebleau 11, Fortunella, Gall Greine, Grand Signeur 11, Hurrayon, Kerry Laughter, Khan Hal, King Pelous, Live Love & Laugh, Marignan, Nardus, Phileo 11, Portulac, Propriano, Rabenco, Rapanni, Resquilleur, Ril 11, Rolling Time, Rosador, Royal Levee, Sibon Royale, Sir Ribot, Solon's Rainbow, Sunshine Alley, Tang, The Leefe Robinson, Tremolo, Very Foolish, Vivat, Winter King, York Arms, Young Foolishness, York Lucky Pink, Zuchet, c. Difficulties in Marketing Dairy Produce

MARKETING DAIRY PRODUCE

While wanted 1,500 tons of butter. She declared tenders open. A certain dairy's current order at £180 per ton. The same country's home market, unsubsidised, for such butter is £264 10-0 per ton. When one remembers that Irish butter costs £246 0-0 per ton to produce one realises that the subsidies required to secure an order would be prohibitive. This is the published opinion of An Bord Baine, is stated by its Chief Officer, Mr. Tony O'Reilly. The normal principles of cost and profit are made meaningless by the very diversity of national agricultural policies. Mr. O'Reilly stated.

To summarise the difficulties in marketing agricultural produce, especially dairy produce, one must take into consideration this colossal problem of subsidising and support, both direct and indirect, as practised by different countries. There is intense competition to be overcome. There is the rising production which is outstripping effective demand all over the world, while on the other hand, the Freedom from Hunger Campaign must be initiated to help feed a few of the hungry millions. Tariffs and quota too must be faced.

The United Kingdom is one of the main culprits because she is the only free import market of any consequence in the world. She has a major say because as Mr. O'Reilly mentioned, in 1959, of 595,600 tons of butter imported by all importing countries in the world, over 400,000 tons were imported by Great Britain alone. He gives simply an answer to the question often asked, why it is necessary for us to run at a loss? It takes 21 gals of milk to yield 1 lb. of butter. With the British market paying 2/7 1/2 per lb. and production costs at 4/3 per lb. this would leave 2/3d. return for milk or 1/- per gallon. We cannot but agree with him when he says that, at his price no sane farmer would contemplate milk production as an economic proposition.

Mr. O'Reilly said that within the Board there are marketing 6.20—Announcements. 6.25—Here's the Doc. 6.30—News. 6.45—Laughing for a Living. 7.00—Ranch House Revels. 7.30—Sallymark. 8.00—News Headlines. 8.01—'Melody Rendezvous.' 8.30—Between Ourselves. 9.00—News Headlines. 9.01—Obair Idir Lamha. 9.15—Glor na Mumhan. 9.30—Mozart. 10.00—Nuacht. 10.15—News. 10.30—Today in the Dail. 10.45—The Sabc Light Music Orchestra. 11.00—Singer's Choice. 11.15—South Sea Island Music. 11.30—News Headlines, Late Sports Results, Weather Forecast, and Close Down.

and sales teams. Initially there will be four marketing and marketing research teams, one for Continental Europe, one for Africa, one for the Middle and Far East, and one for the United Kingdom and Ireland. It is expected that in the Autumn of this year there will be introduced into the United Kingdom the first ever national branded packet butter from Ireland. This is something we have long waited for. The N.F.A. has consistently asked for this. While the emphasis should be and will always be on dairy, cognisance should be taken from the very beginning of such important factors as packaging. We agree with Mr. O'Reilly that "dramatic and original techniques can capture large portions of the market." Can we read into this sentence that Mr. O'Reilly has something up his sleeve. Of this he can be assured—Irish farmers will back him up to the hilt with any worthwhile projects aimed at a major break through where their dairy produce is concerned. Attention to the potential markets in the emerging nations for milk products, and to research into the treatment of such products for preservation of quality in warm climates has always been the policy of the N.F.A. National Dairy Committee. It is to be hoped that with its statutory powers An Bord Baine will see the N.F.A. objective achieved.

NEW FACTORY IN KILLESANDRA

Local N.F.A. branches have promised their fullest support for the new factory which has been opened by MacCormac Products Ltd., Killesandra. It is expected that surplus milk from County Caran will be utilised to produce ice cream powder, milk powder and other products. Initially, employment will be given to about 50 people, but it is expected that within a couple of years this number will rise to 100 people. The firm concerned intends preserving eggs whenever their supply becomes surplus to requirements, in order to help stabilise the market.

IRELAND AND TANGANYIKA

The Irish Government announced recently that it would devote its entire effort under the F.A.O. Freedom from Hunger Campaign to aiding Tanganyika. This campaign will continue until the end of 1962. Funds raised will be used for projects in the field of agricultural advisory work, with the aim of increasing agricultural productivity. While the N.F.A. promises (and has promised at International level) full and unqualified support to this campaign, it still wishes to emphasise the fact that the project can be considered only as an interim measure, and also that its implementation must in no way interfere with the pursuance of a World Food and Farm Programme, as adopted by the I.F.A.P. to which N.F.A. is affiliated.

N.F.A. further states that every effort must be made by Ireland to subscribe to the production rather than through a monetary contribution. QUALITY OF WOOLLEN GOODS While all attention seems to be focussed on our possible membership of E.E.C. and the advantages for and against, we wonder if sufficient attention is given to imports to this country of articles that can be manufactured here or alternatively that create unfair competition to those manufactured from home produced goods.

We are especially interested in woollen goods and the statement of Mr. J. E. Hackett, President of the Association of Woollen Manufacturers given recently, should give plenty of food for thought. If, as stated, blankets of 100% artificial fibre are being imported and are being sold as genuine wool, certainly an enquiry is necessary. Surely it is not so much to ask that the composition of the article should be shown on the label. The efforts of the N.F.A. Wool Committee in sponsoring sales on a graded basis has achieved remarkable success and has undoubtedly been responsible for improving the reputation of our export market of raw wool. We are not satisfied however, that sufficient co-operation with the scheme is forthcoming from sections of the trade who should in fact have sufficient foresight to see that the whole future of the industry will depend on co-operation in ensuring a better product marketed. The agricultural institute are busily engaged in studying sheep breeding policy, with wool production also in mind and experimenting with various crosses to eliminate faults. Undoubtedly this is a step in the right direction. Something more is needed however, on the marketing side and we should not in the process overlook the home market and the obvious outlet for manufactured woollen goods. To encourage expansion, dumping of artificial fibre goods on our market by countries which buy very little in return from us should be watched very closely.

One time cannot be far distant when a round table conference of all sections interested in wool should be held and should provide the basis for a definite policy with very positive benefits to the national economy resulting.

PODGREES POULTRY BREEDERS MEETING

The recently reformed Pedigree Breeders Association, under the auspices of the N.F.A., met officials of the Department of Agriculture on Wednesday, 20th June. Development in poultry breeding has been very rapid in the last few years, both in providing improved laying strains and in meeting consumer demand for table chickens at a moderate price.

The tendency has been to encourage production only in very large units, but many fears have been expressed that in doing so no room remains for the small or medium sized unit. In fact the farmer without capital has not a chance at all though almost traditionally, egg and poultry production has been confined to these units and often provided a much needed income. A planned programme for future development as far as it is possible is our only obvious hope, but to do this all sections, production, marketing and advisory services must work closely together. This was the main theme of the recent meeting and considerable progress was made.

GERMANS SUPPORT US

The West German Social Democrat party are reported as calling for an all-out effort to accept Ireland into the Common Market as soon as possible. This was one of the resolutions adopted at the end of the Party's four day congress in Cologne. In recent weeks considerable progress has been made in overcoming the problems facing Britain's entry. It is reported that substantial agreement has already been reached on Britain's adaptation to the 'Six's' common rules for carrels, free right of establishment, rules regarding quantitative restrictions, movement of labour and capital, wages policy, and social security.

On the other hand the West German Chancellor, Dr. Adenauer, is reported to have said in Dortmund, that Britain's application to join the E.E.C. was really a very difficult one because "We can hardly digest this enormously big Commonwealth in the Common Market." Dr. Adenauer said that he had always made it clear that he welcomed Britain's entry into the 'Six' but the Market's existing achievements must not be endangered. He continued "It must be said and seen to it that these very difficult negotiations which concern the entry of Britain and four other countries into the Common Market, are conducted in a clever, cautious manner if possible not in a public forum. Behind that is the question of the political union of Europe."

A further new development has taken place in that, General de Gaulle, who previously represented French antagonism to Britain's entry into the Common Market is reported as saying recently that he was delighted with his conversations with Mr. Macmillan. "Everything is taking place," he (General de Gaulle) said, "as if England were becoming European." The British attitude towards the ideal of a United Europe, given to him by Mr. Macmillan, came, he said, as a "revolution."

COURSES IN HORTICULTURE

With the advent of A.F.D. and the many opportunities which our probable entry to the Common Market with its (then) 300,000 people will bring, it is more than likely that Horticulture will play an ever increasing role in Irish Agriculture. Small-holders in particular will of necessity have to turn their eyes to this branch of farming in the coming years. In the next decade Horticulture will probably come into its own in Ireland and it is worth noting therefore, for those who can, that a two year course of training for a limited number of young men, aged between 17 and 25 years will commence in October, 1962, at the National Botanic Gardens, Glasnevin, Dublin 9.

Copies of the relevant prospectus may be obtained from the Secretary, Department of Agriculture, (Section 24), Dublin 2, with whom completed forms of application for admission to the course must be lodged by the 29th June, 1962. N.F.A. DENIES INCREASE IN PRICE OF MILK The statement by the Minister for Finance, Dr. Ryan, in the Dail recently that he proposed to introduce a further tax on cigarettes in order to give what he terms "an increase in the price of milk to farmers" has come as an unpleasant shock to the N.F.A. National Dairy Committee, as it must to all right minded Irishmen. In the interests of facts we must categorically refute a very suggestion that dairy farmers have got an increase in the price of milk. An Bord Baine, which is a Government controlled body where matters of price are concerned, has been statutorily compelled by the Government to introduce a levy of 1d. per gallon on milk as from May 14th, 1962. This N.F.A. protested vigorously against this further reduction in the dairy farmer's income. We were glad to note a fortnight later that the Government had recognised the case put forward to the Taoiseach and Minister for Agriculture, when they received an N.F.A. deputation consisting of its President and Vice-Presidents to discuss the position of the dairy farmer's income.

Class Warfare.—The N.F.A. particularly deplores the Minister's efforts to create in the minds of the non-farming community the idea that they must be taxed in order to placate the farmers. Is the Minister deliberately trying to foster class warfare?

WOOD-PIGEONS EAT CLOVER Wood-pigeons have extended their voracious appetite from bassica crops, kale and peas and have now begun to ravage clover pastures. It is now commonly believed that improved grassland management has helped to discourage winter migration of pigeons and has contributed to a substantial increase in their numbers. The National Farmers' Union, in England, has received reports from the midlands and eastern counties stating that it is no longer economic for people in these areas to grow peas and the entire rotation of farms has had to be altered in consequence. The N.F.U. said recently that the destruction to farm crops by wood pigeons appears to have reached proportions greater even than the damage wrought by rabbits in pre-myxomatosis days. Despite elaborate efforts made in many different ways to curtail the damage by eliminating wood-pigeons the loss continues to be enormous and the Union is now urging the Government to speed up its investigations into the production of a suitable narcotic bait.

The Minister did not mention that the farming community, as consumers of cigarettes, would be contributing approximately one-third of the new tax. Are we also to assume that the 2d increase imposed on cigarettes in the recent budget was intended to go towards paying approximately one-third of the salary increase to Government employees. Neither did the Minister explain, as we feel he should have, to the House and to the country that the Irish dairy farmer is getting the lowest price for his milk in Europe, which is 91d. per gallon below the average European price. Neither did he inform the Dail that last year the exports of dairy products earned us approximately £22 million and that this extra £12 million enabled us to import the raw materials which we require to keep our industries functioning and our workers in employment, and that 100,000 farm families were engaged in the Dairy Industry.

Lack of Leadership.—Now that we are on the brink of entry into Europe, surely it is not too much to expect that at least we can experience an era of efficient long-term planning by the Government and An Bord Baine in partnership with the industry itself. We must reiterate what the N.F.A. has already put plainly before the Government—that we expect that the Dairy Industry be recognised so that it can compete successfully in the new Europe, and that the price received by the dairy farmer be related more realistically to that prevailing in Europe. The N.F.A. has confidence in the future of the Dairy Industry. We realise that the competition will become keener, but that with intelligence, enthusiasm independent research and efficient long-term planning we can build a bigger and more prosperous Dairy Industry.

NORTHERN IRELAND AND THE E.E.C.

Problems arising out of the economic provision of the Treaty of Rome were discussed in Brussels recently by four leading Northern Ireland Officials. The delegation was led by Sir Douglas Harkness, Economic Adviser to the Northern Ireland Government. The delegation considered how, in the event of Britain joining the Common Market, Social security and national health regulations could be brought into line. Also under discussion was the right to set up industries and businesses within the Community and the implications of movement of capital and labour as provided for in the Treaty itself.

Mr. Milo Galgey said they should pass a resolution criticising the statement strongly. Bord Baine put on a levy of 1d. and to be represented on that Bord one had to be a good rugby player, as it was a case of the "old college tie." It was only giving a sale for margarine, and bolstering it up against butter. The whole thing should be overhauled, he added. Mr. Michael Harty said the resolution was deserving of their support. They were entirely an agricultural country and the farms had to work all the year round when both wet and fine. It was clear to any sensible man that the farmers livelihood was maintained by borrowing during the winter and spring and expecting the milk to pay off that loan. He couldn't see how the farmers could be expected to maintain their position in view of the attitude adopted by the Ministers for Finance and Agriculture. A 1d. on the cigarettes was absurd and was deplorable and regrettable that it had happened.

Mr. O. Curran said they should move very carefully on the matter as there was more to it than met the eye. The Bord Baine levy covered only one-third and the other two-thirds came out of taxation. It was a decision of their rather than the Government to impose the levy. Mr. J. Quirke.—The sooner we get into the Common Market the better. The resolution was then passed.

1d. on Cigarettes "Shabbiest Statement Ever Made"

That the statement by the Minister for Finance that he had to put 1d. on the cigarettes to offset the 1d. on the milk was the shabbiest ever made, was stated by Mr. Wm. Dower, at last Saturday's meeting of Waterford Committee of Agriculture.

When increases were given to Civil Servants said Mr. Dower, the Minister didn't say where it would come from. The 1d. increase given on the milk was no increase in actual fact, as it was only paying for the milk levy imposed by Bord Baine. If the farmers were being paid for their work they would be getting at least 2/- a gallon for milk and not 1/7 as at present. It was a very face-saving statement coming from such a responsible man.

Mr. Michael Harty said the resolution was deserving of their support. They were entirely an agricultural country and the farms had to work all the year round when both wet and fine. It was clear to any sensible man that the farmers livelihood was maintained by borrowing during the winter and spring and expecting the milk to pay off that loan. # Form points to a 'Kingdom' double

KERRY, proud possessors of nineteen All-Ireland titles play hosts to Waterford - comparative minnows in comparison, at Listowel on Sunday next in a game that entitles the victors to challenge Cork at a later date in the provincial decider.

The words Kerry and football championship game between the two counties are synonymous, particularly when the championship is at stake. In fact, the Kingdom, football is a household word where they are ever zealous to guard their reputation.

Thus with the greatest of anticipation do they await the arrival of the Deise men on Sunday. They above anyone else have reason to regret the underestimating of Waterford when they were shocked beyond belief in the championship of 1957. But with the maxim of "once bitten, twice shy" as their pre-emptive motto, it is a grave mistake to think that they will be complacent again.

But it is surely positive proof of the progress in Waterford football when the County's seniors can justify their "trespass" on Kerry territory and offer a serious challenge to the homesteaders. Not for many years has such a position existed but that is the exalted status of the County at present in the code.

In recent months they have won a series of victories, all achieved with a marked ease. As a result the opposition has been anything but Kerry class and that cannot take form in their achievements. Despite the magnitude of their task, they are quietly confident of causing a major upheaval in calculations and forecasts and at any rate are determined to uphold the present good reputation of the County.

Since their first-round defeat of Tipperary, the entire panel has undergone special training at Leamybrien. Every evening trainer Paul Lannon has had practically one hundred per cent response to his commands and he assures me that he is more determined than ever to represent the county.

Undoubtedly an unexpected severe blow to their confidence is the unavailability of Monty Guiry. Absent against Tipp, owing to injury, his return was eagerly awaited, but now he finds himself "out of bounds" as a result of an incident in last Sunday's outplaying any footballer on his day. It is Hallissey's unenviable lot to master him or even break even with him, and while it may be asking too much of the Dungarvan-based Garda to do this, he could if properly supported by O'Brien earn an even share of the exchanges in the sector. And that against O'Connell and a promising newcomer in Jim Lucey would be half the battle.

As always, defence will be Kerry's strong point and the Deise attack must play to a set plan if they hope to meet with any success. The half-line of Tommy Joe Hart, Ben Coughlan and Justin Spratt is good enough for any company but it is essential they keep the ball low when kicking towards goal from far out. For the full-line of Jimmy Hewitt, "Doc" Walsh and Tommy Kirwan, good footballers though they are, can hardly be expected to outfield Kevin Koffey, Niall Sheehy or Tim Lyons.

Kerry may not be as formidable as other years, yet there was never a BAD team to represent the County in the championship. Men like O'Connell, Long, the Sheehys, Coffey, Lyons and Dave Geaney are football purists and with big things expected of their newcomers, the side is anything but substandard.

SENIOR AND MINOR FOOTBALLERS IN ACTION ON SUNDAY

Through an extraordinary decision of the Munster Council, Waterford will play home and away championship fixtures against Kerry on Sunday next.

While the senior footballers journey to Listowel, where they meet Kerry in the Munster semi-final, the County minors are at home to the Kingdom in Lismore - also in the provincial semi-final.

The more one thinks of this ridiculous arrangement, the more exasperating it all becomes. Surely it would have been far more feasible and sensible to have made it a double fixture, be the venue Listowel or Lismore. But instead the ruling body of Munster's G.A.A. affairs saw fit to make such laughable arrangements. To even contemplate it not to mention "going the whole hog", would be sufficient to lay on the critics.

Of the games themselves, Waterford will, of course, start outsiders in both. The seniors, despite all their promise, must face a Kerry side presently running into peak form and on their own doorstep at that. Waterford mentors are also faced with a major problem - to find a replacement for Killis Monty Guiry. Guiry received marching orders against De La Salle in the championship on Sunday last and is now temporarily out of bound.

Nevertheless, after a strenuous period of training, the team is superbly geared for this great test. It is an enormous obstacle - some might call it an impossible one, but ask any one of the fifteen blue and white shirted Deise men that will be on duty if their chances are as slim as is suggested and your answer will be very much in the negative, ative.

MINORS IN ACTION AT LISMORE

The same Counties meet also in the Munster semi-final at Lismore on Sunday. Waterford must unfortunately field without star full-back Christy Nolan but yet the team has distinct possibilities. When beating Tipp, in the opening round, they weren't over-impresive but after a series of trials are expected to show a big improvement. Kerry are this year reputed to have an exceptionally fine minor side and come to the Deise venue in confident mood.

But Waterford have it in them to cause a shock and should Nolan be replaced adequately do not be surprised at a home victory.

HURLERS SHATTERING DEFEAT

Tipperary fielding what can only be described as a junior team inflicted a mobile-sapping defeat on a men's full-strength Waterford side at Walsh Park on Sunday last.

Tipperary had to field without ten regulars and the best of them in the bargain while Phil Grimes, Joe Condon, Jim Irish and Larry Guinan. The effects of this defeat could yet be far-reaching. The players seemed burnt out or absolutely fed up with hurling and the sooner mentors stamp out these never-ending tournaments in which most of the players are participating, the better.

On Sunday, their relish for the game was almost non-existent and supporters left Walsh Park in a very discontented mood. But now is the time to act. Forget about tournaments, challenges and other un-necessaries. These men have nothing to burn and it doesn't need challenge games to prove it. So drop these so-called trials of strength and get on with the vital training schedules under the capable Jack Frazer.

FAUGHS AND BEST STRABALLY

The fare served up in last week-end's senior championship was at best no more than average. On Friday night Faughs scored a five-point victory over St. Ronan's, who could do no better than field 13 players in the hurling championship.

Then on Sunday night, Strabally's footballers scored a facile victory over yet another "thirteenmen" side, St. Vincent's.

The sooner the County Board takes action and scrap these group sides the more beneficial it will be for the game. The two lies in which both group sides couldn't field full teams is an example of their handiwork and it is hoped that '62 will see the end of all "combo" teams.

DEATH OF OLD DUNGARVAN GAEL

Batty Kiely whose unexpected death occurred on Sunday morning last was in his young days, a prominent harrier and footballer. He was a founder member of the "Dungarvan Blues" and his sterling displays gave the club several county championships.

In later years he continued to have a keen interest in the progress of his native Dungarvan and Waterford on the playing fields. His passing certainly removes a great Gael from our midst. Ar dheis De go raib a anam.

Waeferd 'Shocked' By Under-Strength Tipperary

Tipperary 3-12 Waterford 5-5

ALTHOUGH the result was inconsequential in the matter of trophies won and lost, it must be many a long day since Waterford suffered as prestige-shattering a defeat as a shadow Tipperary team inflicted on them in the Mor. Dhail Gael tourney at Walsh Park, Waterford on Sunday last. The 3-12 to 5-5 scoreline may suggest a closely fought and exciting game but apart from a lively closing quarter, the encounter was a thrill-less and life-less one.

The result has of course, come in the form of a major bomb-shell for Waterford supporters everywhere. With the exception of Joe Condon, L. Guinan, Phil Grimes, and Jim Irish they were a full championship strength, but played for the most part like incompetent novices. Coming as it did at a time when their championship clash with Cork is just around the corner, mentors must be in a perplexed and disheartened plight just now.

Tipperary on the other hand fielded a side composed in the main of inter-county juniors. Absent were no less than ten established regulars and in fact only Tony Wall was a first choice in their complete defensive set-up.

DEJECTED SIDE
This then surely undermines to the fullest possible extent the palpably poor showing of Waterford before their own supporters. To me they looked a dejected side, fed up to the teeth with hurling and as so many others have put it - "burnt out from the game."

To try and find excuses for the defeat would be utterly ridiculous and would serve no useful purpose. The plain truth of the matter is the team played in a spiritless and unskillful manner, a repetition of which would only mean complete disaster against such accomplished foes as Cork. True, their last quarter rally helped to raise some of the gloom that had descended during the course of the previous forty-five minutes, yet they can consider themselves lucky not to have been beaten more decisively. For good though substitute Tony Tierney played when he replaced Donie O'Brien after fifteen minutes, he was beaten by two shots that the latter would surely have saved.

DRUBBING
For the entire first half the pattern of the game remained unchanged with Tipperary handing out a hurling drubbing to the Deise men. Tom Moughaney opened their account with a third minute goal and steadily through their direct, methodical game increased their tally. After a quarter of an hour they led 1-4 to 0-2. Five minutes later it was 2-7 to 0-2 and minutes before half time it was 2-9 to 0-2. Outplayed, outthured and out-scored, Waterford cut a sorry dash, and only a goal seconds from the short whistle by John Kiely put some semblance of respectability on the score-board.

Despite facing the breeze, Tipp, restarted in similar first-half fashion and increased their lead with yet another 3rd minute goal. They continued to mope their own and entering the last quarter enjoyed the benefits of an unassailable 8-10 to 2-3 lead.

SHOOK OFF LETHARGY
Only then, however, did Waterford shake off the lethargy that hampered their game. Seamus Power was brought from attack to a repair-needing mid-field and seconds later B. Dunphy was given the "bush telegraph" to operate in the same area.

Almost at once Tipperary's stranglehold was loosened if not altogether broken, the forwards began to find their range and rapidly a commanding lead was dwindling towards the danger zone. Two minutes from time a Mick Flannelly goal left only a point in it and gave Waterford their first worthwhile opportunity of victory. During that short period they peppered the Tipp goal in quest of a game-saving point or match-winning goal but doggedly the Premier County held on and the final whistle left them very worthy winners.

CAUSE FOR ALARM
Where do Waterford turn to from here? A colleague in a City paper in his after-match account, says nothing has been lost, but could anything be further from the truth. Here we have a make-shift Tipperary team entering into Waterford's domain and beating a strong Deise selection. If that isn't cause for alarm I don't know what is. Without ridiculing players or mentors, it would certainly be advisable and in the interests of the team were all club and tournament

OUT OF THE BOOK
During his brief stay in goal keeper Donie O'Brien showed he only such a high reputation, two of his saves in particular being out of the book.

Tony Wall, though not the defender of a few years ago, was still a tower of strength at centre-half while Mick Murphy and Christy Hartigan - the former in particular, must come into the reckoning when the senior team to play Limerick is being selected.

YET UNKNOWN
Whether or not young Michael Foley is the answer to Waterford's goal-keeping problem is as yet unknown. On Sunday he could not be faulted for the shots that beat him, yet his inexperience was shown up on a few occasions.

The defence has seldom played as raggedly. The full-line of Cunningham, Flynn and Coady were often unsure in their advances and for once completely flopped. Martin Og Morrissey and Jimmy Byrne were far from prominent in the half line where only Mick Flannelly emerged with reputation unimpaired.

ALWAYS TOLLING
The Mount Sion, mid-field pairing of Mick Dempsey and Freddie O'Brien were always toiling against English and Ryan and it came as no surprise when both were removed from the sector.

For three quarters of an hour the attack floundered on a rock-like Tipperary defence and only towards the close did they succeed in penetrating for scores.

Tom Cheasty on the "forty" put in some delightful runs but an exasperating inaccuracy spoiled much of his good work. Seamus Power was always in the picture both in attack and at mid-field but Billy Dunphy never struck his customary club form.

KIELY BEST
But to the grey-haired John Kiel again go, the forward honours of the day. He fed his colleagues at every opportunity with judicious passes and for good measure slammed home two great goals. John Barron, though guilty of two bad misses, played well generally but Frankie Walsh failed to make any worthwhile impression.

Scorers for Tipperary were: Philly Hennessy (2-0), Donie Nealon (0-5), Gerry McCarthy (0-3), Tom Moughaney (1-0), Willie O'Grady (0-2), Tom Ryan and Theo English (0-1) each.

Waterford had their scores from John Kiely (2-0), John Barron, Frankie Walsh and Mick Flannelly (1-0) each; Tom Cheasty and Seamus Power (0-2) each; Mick Dempsey (0-1).

Tipperary - D. O'Brien, T. Larkin, M. McGarry, M. Murphy, R. Slevin, A. Wall, C. Hartigan, T. English, T. Ryan, W. O'Grady, D. Nealon, G. McCarthy, L. Connolly, T. Moughaney, P. Hennessy, Tub. T. Tierney for O'Brien.

Waterford - M. Foley, T. Cunningham, A. Flynn, J. Coady, M. Flannelly, M. Og Morrissey, J. Byrne, M. Dempsey, F. O'Brien, S. Power, T. Cheasty, W. Dunphy, F. Walsh, J. Kiely, J. Barron.

Instructor Declines Kilmac Post

FOR eighteen months Kilmacthomas has been without a permanent agricultural instructor. But with the appointment of Mr. Maurice Tierney at the May meeting of the Committee of Agriculture this undesirable position seemed to have been overcome. However a letter from Mr. Tierney declining the post was read by the C.A.O. at last Saturday's meeting in Dungarvan and now the position must be re-advertised again.

Mr. C. Curran said last year the Minister came down and lacerated them over the vacant post but they had made three efforts to appoint a man permanently in the area. It was a terrible indictment to the present system, The Minister and the system were wrong and the whole thing was a laughing stock.

Mr. Milo Galgey asked if they themselves were also wrong. A man had refused this post because he could get better terms in a private business. They were not giving the wages and therefore they were wrong.

Mr. C. Curran said as far as the people of Kilmacthomas were concerned the matter was a disgrace. The C.A.O. (Mr. Conroy) said Mr. Tierney had turned down the post in preference for his own job with Clover Meats Ltd. Their (Clover Meats) Committee decided he was worth more and gave him a substantial salary increase plus a free car and free house.

Mr. G. Heskin said he was very sorry they did not get Mr. Tierney. He had brains to burn and they would have been very well off with him. Mr. Curran said he was told some time ago by a member of a certain Board that Mr. Tierney had no intention of taking the job and used this as a means of improving his own position with Clover Meats.

Mr. N. Walsh - Re-advertise it again.
Mr. J. Quirk said they were told the temporary instructors would simply go away elsewhere but now it was a permanent one that was going off.
Mr. K. O'Ryan - The temporary men are more satisfactory altogether.
Mr. Curran - Mr. Tierney used this as a lever to improve his own position.
The C.A.O. Mr. Conroy said the post was vacant for approximately 14 years and they should appoint a temporary instructor until it was filled on a permanent basis.
Mr. G. Heskin said they were here criticising increases for instructors. They represented the farmers and yet they have a farmers body offering him £600 or £700 more.
Mr. N. Walsh said they could not have offered him more attractive terms.

BALLINAMEELA FANCIED AT LISMORE

Although main interest at the Lismore venue on Sunday centres on the inter-county minor game, the meeting of Ballinameela and Ballyduff Upper in primary hurling should provide early comers with a feast of good hurling. Going on last year's form, Ballinameela must be among the most fancied ones to win out the Western division. They then battled their way to the semi-final and for threequarters of an hour they meted out a drubbing to the ultimate winners, Kilgobinet.

Now for the current campaign they can call upon practically all the same personnel. The outstanding exception will be star defender Larry Curran who is now domiciled in the U.S. but even without him their defence is still the essence of soundness.

Pakie McCarthy, Paddy O'Keefe, John O'Donnell and Tommy Reynolds are all cool and solid defenders and backed by a fine goalkeeper in Jim Maher will make the afternoon a trying one for the Ballyduff forwards.

Up front they are equally well equipped, Tom and John Browne, Jim Kelleher and Jim Kiey need only the slightest opportunities to score and on the shoulders of this quartet will undoubtedly rest the main hopes of victory.

Owing to the fact that they have already fielded a team in the junior championship, Ballyduff will have to rely for the most part on their second string. But such is the club's hurling strength that they are not deprived of fielding a second formidable side. And in Mikey Quirke they possesses a scoring ace unequalled by the opposition, who could win this game through his own endeavour.

However, Ballinameela look to be the better all-round balanced side. Should they successfully exploit the scoring potential of their attack they can run up a winning tally—despite the presence of the ever dangerous Quirke.

ATTRACTIVE CHALLENGE AT NEWTOWN

A very attractive challenge game has been arranged for Newtown on Tuesday night next when Western champions Fourmilewater meet Ballyduff—current favourites to take this year's eastern title.

Kilgobinet, Grade B Junior hurling champions, set out on the road to higher honours (Grade A) on Sunday next when they travel to Lismore to meet Affane in the second round of the championship.

Local C.B.S. Boys Should Take Rice Cup

SOMETIME around 9 p.m. to-morrow (Friday) evening the new resting place of the Rice Cup will be known. For some twenty eager schoolboys it will be a time of joy and celebration, the culmination of months of earnest practice and the crowning of their youthful ambition.

The Rice Cup is to the schoolboys of Waterford what the Harty Cup is to the colleges of Munster, indeed what the McCarthy Cup is to the hurlers of Ireland. Possession of it is the end of all their boyish longing, with painstaking training the means to this end. And so the lads of Dungarvan C.B.S. and Mount Sion will step out on the Brothers' Field and will give of their level best for the honour of their schools.

Twice to date, these teams have clashed and on each occasion the laurels rested with the Dungarvan lads. But this is the final, when the slate will be wiped clean and past victories will mean absolutely nothing if this match be lost. And lest it can be, for Mount Sion are quite confident that they can turn the tables on their more fancied rivals. Anyone who saw them dispose of Lismore's challenge will readily admit that this is a strong combination. Tradition dies slowly and tradition and Mount Sion go hand in hand. Their lads are big in stature and like all Sion teams they are capable of producing some wonderful classy hurling. In a final they are a law unto themselves. They will travel in strength and their ambition is to bring home the coveted trophy. Not once have they won the Rice Cup but on the other hand they have appeared in every single final since the inception of the competition. They are long overdue a change of fortune and are fairly confident that next Friday will make up for past defeats.

Dungarvan, on the other hand, are convinced that this is their year. They are taking nothing for granted and have trained tremendously hard. There isn't the slightest doubt but that they will be capable of setting a fast pace and holding it to the finish line, and with the support of what is expected to be a record following, may just deserve to win.

Pen-pictures of the Dungarvan boys:—

Goalie: Michael Donnelly.—“Doc” has been the regular school goalie for four years—a wonderful record. Extremely cool, he is brilliant under pressure.

Right Full Back: Ian Moloney.—Very quiet, but extremely effective. Ian has often saved the situation when all seemed lost.

CASEY SCORES AGAIN—The Winning PINT—Nick Casey, The Square, Dungarvan

Full-Back: Brian O'Connor.—Brian is as big and strong as they come. His strong point is the short ‘slop’ clip to the wing. A real obstacle for any full-forward.

Left Full-Back: Connie Murphy.—Just half-way through his eleventh year, Connie has all the makings of a great hurler. Has a tough assignment to-morrow, for he marks the Sion sharpshooter, but Connie has mastered him before.

Right Half-Back: John Clancy.—Another of the under twelves, John is a very close hurler and never allows his opponent any scope. A fearless tackler, he can always be relied upon to pull his weight.

Centre-Forward: Michael Norris.—A real glutton for work, Michael always plays his heart out. Watch him pick off those points and snap up half a chance.

Centre Back: Sean Murphy.—The “skipper” of the team, who always sets a very high standard. Wonderfully adept at sealing off gaps, he is a beautiful ball-player. Had a tremendous game in the first match with Sion.

Left Half-Back: Larry Cliffe.—One of the two Abbeysiders on the team (Ian Moloney is the other) Larry likes it best when it is toughest. His long clearances down the wing are the strong feature of his game.

Centre-Field: John Tutty.—On his day, few can match him. Has a very fine burst of speed and race determination. If he gets rid of the ball quickly Sion will be in trouble for its no secret that they regard him as no. 1 danger man.

Centre-Field: Kevin Fleming.—Kevin has improved in leaps and bounds. Strongly built, he makes the sliotar travel with every strike. Dungarvan have the edge at midfield with Kevin around.

Right Half Forward: Sean Franklin.—A strong, bustling lad who is never beaten. Has a grand kick off the ground and is always in the thick of things.

Centre-Forward: Michael Norris.—A real glutton for work, Michael always plays his heart out. Watch him pick off those points and snap up half a chance.

Left Half Forward: Diarmuid Flynn.—Has a keen sense of position and prefers to make scores rather than take them. Seldom misses when he “doubles” on the ball.

Right Full Forward: Gerry Crowley.—Cork's loss was Dungarvan's gain, for Gerry comes from Cogh. A knacky hurler, he gets the ball across in fine style.

Full-Forward: Michael Keyes.—The smallest lad on the team, Michael has proved more than a handful for opponents twice his size. A real “stoker,” he has courage to burn and knows where the goal is.

Left Full Forward: Jimmy Maguire.—Completes the line in grand style, Jimmy blazes away on every opportunity. Combines beautifully with the other s in the line.

Sean Flynn.—A “sub” worth having, for he is a real “pay anywhere” type of lad. Uses the ball very intelligently.

Centre Field: Liam Revelles.—This boy with the blonde hair has been highly praised by both friend and foe as an outstanding hurler.

STRADBALLY AND FAUGHS SCORE CHAMPIONSHIP VICTORIES

Stradbally ... 3-12; St. Vincent's ... 1-1.

Stradbally qualified for the second round of the senior football championship, when they readily defeated group team St. Vincent's (Cappoquin/Ballyduff) at Dungarvan on Sunday last. The Reds were complete masters throughout and never experienced a moment of anxiety in their one-sided victory.

Their task was, however, made easier by the inability of Vincents to field a full side and they could muster together only 13 players for the occasion. The absence of county star Brendan Coughlan was also a blow, and these factors left them easy prey for a polished Stradbally side.

Leading 2-6 to 0-0 at half-time, the winners had by that time ensured themselves of victory. During that half they attacked incessantly, and without undue exertion their forwards ran up a commanding tally.

Nor did the second-half bring any reprieve for the losers. Stradbally kept up an almost non-stop barrage and added 1-6 to the total. The losers lifted the siege only in sporadic raids, from which they scored their 1-1.

Although the weakness of the opposition made this a simple task for the Reds, there can be no denying their all-round strength. They are a well-balanced side, strong and resolute in defence and have quick-silver and alert forwards in attack.

On Sunday Pete Power, Tom Foley and Dick Gough were outstanding in defence, and the brilliance of Tom Walsh gave them a decided advantage at mid-field. The score line speaks for the scoring-power of the forward line. Most of their scores were engineered brilliantly, and Mossie and Eugene Casey, Ken Murphy and Terry Guiry had “field days.”

Little can be said of Vincents. With a full team and Coughlan they wouldn't have “reversed” the result—nor anything near it, and all they had to offer was enthusiasm aplenty.

FAUGHS WIN

Faugh's advanced to the second round of the hurling championship at the same venue on Friday night, when scoring a hard earned five-point victory (2-8 to 1-6) over St. Ronan's.

Ronan's played for the entire game with only 13 men, but despite this tremendous handicap were always in the game with a chance. In fact at one stage in the second-half they looked like causing a major upset, but eventually ran “out of gas” and so failed to achieve the impossible.

Faugh's sadly disappointed in this game, and would hardly have overcome a full-strength Ronan's side. They were sluggish in their movements, and will have to show a vast improvement if they hope to advance any further in the championship.

Following with giant strides in his dad's footsteps. Just watch him!

The following are the Mount stalwarts:—

Goalie: John Miller.—Sure of eye and fleet of foot, he has brought Mt. Sion out of many tight corners.

Left Full Back: Philip Murphy.—Though comparatively new to this position, he can be relied on to play his part in curbing his opponent.

Full Back: Jimmy O'Brien.—The sheet-anchor of the full-back line.

Left Half Back: Joe Power.—Though a native of Donegal, he can hurl the best of forwards out of the game.

Centre Back: Jimmy Greene.—A boy with the courage of a lion and the tyle of a Pat Stakelum.

Right Half Back: Walter Croke.—Walter has given sterling service in previous games and may be relied on to play his part in next Friday's game.
