UNIQUE FAMILY RE-UNION

Half-century Span Bridged

A unique reunion took place in the Waterford Decies this week when eleven members of the same family were reunited for the first time in over half a century.

They were the members of the Dunford family Knockane, Kilgobnet, Dungarvan, who sat down together in the old home to the first family dinner they had shared in fifty years.

The return, on holidays from the United States, of five Dunford sisters made possible this happy get-together with the six remaining members of the family who resides in Ireland.

The original family of the late Mr. and Mrs. P. Dunford of Knockane numbered fourteen children of whom eleven, eight daughters and three sons, ranging in age from seventy-two to sixty-one years, remained living at home, in and near the old place, are the three brothers Messrs. Patey, Dunford, Currahaha, Maurice, Knockane, and Thomas, Currahaha, and the three sisters Mrs. Ellen Sweeney, Kilgobnet, with the twins Mrs. Nora Duggan, Coolnasmeary and Miss Alice Dunford, Knockane.

all met at Shannon and travelled together to the old family home at Knockane, where they greeted brothers and sisters whom they had not seen in almost six decades.

The visitors were: Mrs. Catherine Kelly (76) Brewster New York; Mrs. Bridget Kelly (71) Brooklyn; Mrs. Mary Kelly (69) Poughkeepsie, N.Y.; Mrs. Hannah Grady (67) White Plains and Mrs. Margaret Kelly (63) Bronx, New York.

Mr. Tom Dunford, a nephew, told our representative that the old family group will be broken up again at the end of this week when members of the visiting United States party leave for Spain, Rome, England and France on vacation en route to their homes in New York State.

Kilmacthomas Notes

Nuptials—In our issue of 7th July, we carried a report of the wedding at the Oratory, Hagley Road, Birmingham, between Miss Ann Kneet, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Kent, Main St., Kilmacthomas, and Mr. Philip Baker, of Birmingham. Unfortunately the name of the bride was erroneously given as Miss Una Kent, who was the bridesmaid on the occasion. We offer our sincere apologies to Miss Kent for any annoyance or embarrassment caused her through the unfortunate error.

Every Activity within the beautiful Convent of the Ursuline Order in Swansea, Wales has in St. Patricia Mary, of the Community thereof, an energetic, efficient and enthusiastic helper. This well-beloved nun has just revisited her natal home at the Stradbally side of and quite close to Bonmahon, where she was the guest of her well and popularly known brother and his estimable life's partner (Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Hurley, Ballinard, Kilmacthomas). Looking very fit and well, the amiable religious radiated happiness and her relatives and friends were delighted to have her in their midst. She is also sister of Mrs. Mary Donovan, Ballinard and cousin of the McKee family, of Ballydwan, Kilmacthomas.

Likable Mr. James Kiely, of Ballylane Upper, Kilmacthomas, has been the recipient of many expressions of sincere sympathy in his bereavement occasioned by the death of his highly respected uncle, the late Mr. Roger Kiely, Ballymacarbery, which sad event was chronicled in an earlier issue of this paper (of which the deceased was a regular reader since its foundation in 1912.—R.F.P.)

At The Wedding, which took place at the Star of the Sea Church, Sandymount, Dublin, of Mr. George Lovell, Jackson Heights, Long Island, New York, U.S.A. (son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Lovell, Ballymahon, Co. Longford), and Miss Noreen Jackson (daughter of Mrs. Josephine Jackson, 3, Kerry Park Tee, Waterford City, and the late Mr. Richard Jackson, do.), the marriage ceremony was performed (with Nuptial Mass and Pupal Blessing) by Rev. Fr. Virgil Power, Long Island, a lovable priest who first saw light in this part of the fair and fertile Deise country. His reverence is son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Power, Carrigrohane House, Stradbally (and Faha), Co. Wick, and brother of Mr. David Power, Carrigrohane House, Stradbally; Mrs. M. Power (widow), Glen, do.; Mr. Thomas Power, Faha, do.; Mr. Kilmacthomas; Mr. Billy Power, Kealfun, do. and of two other sisters, each of whom is a religious serving God in the Franciscan Order. And Fr. Power is a nephew of the late Right Reverend Monsignor Peter Queally, P.P., Queally Place (a street officially so named in his honour), Rockville, Rockville Centre, New York, and of the late Very

Rev. Fr. Patrick Queally, P.P., Petone, New Zealand. His Many Friend And Well-Wishers in Kilmac. Newtown, Kilmossanty, Stradbally, Bonmahon and Kill are with the others whole-heartedly sympathising with universally esteemed Mr. Nicholas A. Kelly, U.D.C., Devonshire Arms Hotel, Dungarvan, in his recent sad bereavement and loss, occasioned by the all-too-early demise of his estimable wife.

Thursday of next week, 26th inst., will be the Feast of St. Anne, patroness of the Ballylaneen side of the Stradbally-Faha-Ballylaneen parish, and, as usual, the local officials who attend to burials in the cemetery adjoining St. Anne's Church there—Messrs. Dave Kiely and Pauda Carey—have the graves and paths neatly cleaned and tidied up for the occasion.

GEORGIE

The kind, soft, gentle, mellow, bright Beginning beams of daytime light. Evoke not 'neath the quick'ning play Of spring and early summer sways. Sweet sways. Within the fair isle shamrock-crown'd A more sincerely welcome sound Than that of song, song without words— The choral outflow from the -birds. Giving pure gratitude with love To God the Good, enthroned above. —(J. C. K.)

X-Ray Campaign Gets Under Way

A Chara. The Mass Miniature Radiography Unit will be visiting the County from the 23rd July to the 10th August, 1962.

The object of such a visit is two-fold; firstly the protection of the individual and secondly the protection of the public. To achieve the former we hope to X-ray every person over the age of 14 years, in order to find those with an early lesion of tuberculosis, and so enable them to obtain treatment when the disease is minimal. To achieve the latter, we hope that by providing treatment for people with a more advanced disease we shall render their sputum negative, and consequently they will no longer be a danger to their families and neighbours.

It is a well-known fact that people who know they have tuberculosis and who have been advised as to disposal of their sputum are very much less dangerous as a carrier of infection than the undiagnosed case who unaware of the fact, may be infecting others because of a positive sputum.

As you will know in the fight against tuberculosis the Authorities are powerless without the whole-hearted help and co-operation of the public. The prognosis of the individual case affected with tuberculosis has improved immensely during the past few years due mainly to increased number of beds, better surgical facilities and the new drugs available; on the other hand, though we continue to find approximately 60 new cases of tuberculosis yearly in Co. Waterford it is disheartening to have to relate that a large number of the contacts of these new cases refuse to co-operate in the prevention of this infectious disease.

This they do in many ways such as a refusal to have a chest X-ray or to have their children Tuberculin tested, and if suitable given the protection of BCG. They refuse to co-operate in spite of the fact that their relatives are given free treatment in Ardkeen Chest Hospital, irrespective of income; and in certain cases cash allowances, food vouchers, clothes, bed and bedding are given free by the Local Authority.

I feel that refusal to co-operate in the prevention of this infectious disease is mainly due to thoughtlessness on the part of the people concerned and, that as they gradually become aware of the preventive measures provided free of charge by the Local Authority they will gradually make more use of them and so help to keep themselves, their families and their neighbours free from tuberculosis.

The two services which play a major role in the prevention of Tuberculosis are Mass-Miniature Radiography and BCG. Prior to 1956 and 1957 we have had a certain amount of apathy by the public towards Tuberculosis and the services provided by the Local Authorities in combating this disease. It is gratifying to report that since 1957 the num-

CLONMEL LIVESTOCK MARKET

On Thursday last, 12th inst., at Clonmel Livestock Mart, Davis Road, Messrs. Stokes & Quirke, Ltd., M.I.A.A., held their first of these Sheep Sales. This proved very satisfactory in regard to the number of animals presented, and prices which were substantially better than last year. A number of mature lambs were better retained until their time later in the season and these occasioned little demand. All the better class animals were quickly disposed of to Waterford and Cork buyers as well as local victuallers, the prices varying from £6-10-0 to £5-5-0.

The next sale will be held on Thursday, 9th August.

TALLOW NEWS

WEDDING BELLS: TOBIN-CUMMINS

The wedding took place at Terrath Church, Campie, Co. Wexford, with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing, by Rev. Fr. A. Kavanagh, C.C., of Mr. Michael Tobin, eldest son Mrs. Margaret Tobin and of the late Michael Tobin, Ballymahon, Tallow and Miss Sarah Cummins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Cummins, Ballykelly, Campie, Co. Wexford. The bride who was given away by her brother, Mr. Laurence Cummins, wore white lace net and taffeta with shoulder-length veil and accessories to match and carried a bouquet of red roses and maiden hair fern. The bridesmaid was Miss Breda Cummins (sister of the bride). She wore pink lace over satin and carried a bouquet of carnations and maiden hair fern. Miss Geraldine Cummins (sister of the bride) was flower girl. She was attired in a pink dress with accessories to match.

The reception was held at Dooley's Hotel, Waterford, 47 guests attending, and following which Mr. and Mrs. Tobin went on their honeymoon which was spent on a tour of the midlands and Dublin. Going away the bride wore a navy and white two-piece dress.

Both bride and groom were the recipients of many wedding gifts to mark the happy occasion. We join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Tobin the best of good luck and happiness in their married life.

DOUBLE WEDDING

A pretty double wedding took place at the Church of the Holy Cross, Kilwatermoy, when couples from two well-known local families were married. The contracting parties were the Misses Nora and Margaret Keane, daughters of Mr. Patrick Keane and Mrs. Ellen Keane, Ballymote, Tallow, and Messrs. John and Frank Donoghue, sons of Mrs. Kathleen Donoghue and the late James Donoghue, Glencain, Ballymote.

Touraneena News

DISTINGUISHED VISITOR

A distinguished visitor from across-channel to the district last week was Rt. Rev. Monsignor Joseph Henderson, who was accorded a warm welcome by his relatives and many friends in Touraneena, where from his childhood days he spent many happy vacations. He was accompanied by his mother, Mrs. C. Henderson, Waterford, and his aunt Mrs. M. Clancy—both natives of Touraneena.

Monsignor Henderson was ordained in his native city at Waterford Cathedral in 1948, and early in 1960 was appointed Priory Chamberlain to his Holiness Pope John XXIII, an honour seldom bestowed on a clergyman at the early age of 35 years.

Deepest sympathy is extended to the husband, son, sister (Sister Xavier, Portlaoise), nephews, nieces and other relatives of the late Mrs. Mary O'Brien, whose death took place recently at her home, Millstreet, Co. Car, R.I.P.

OUTWARD BOUND
 Miss Nellie O'Grady, Tine-lira, Ballinacott, left Shannon Airport on Sunday last en route for America where she will join her uncle and aunts residing in Philadelphia.

TOURANEENA OPEN-AIR STADIUM

Next Sunday night, July 22nd, Jimmy McCarthy's (modern music) band will provide the music at the Touraneena Open-Air Stadium.

WEDDING BELLS

The marriage was solemnised in St. Laurence's Church, Fourmilewater, on Wednesday, 11th July, of Mr. James Prendergast, Chancellors Clerk in the Curia, Clonmel, to Miss Norah Butler, eldest daughter of Mrs. Ellen Butler and the late Mr. Michael Butler, Croughateskin, Ballymacarby. The ceremony, with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing, was performed by Rt. Rev. Monsignor Byrne (uncle of the groom) who is home on holidays from the U.S., assisted by Very Rev. Fr. Walsh, P.P., Clonmel, Rev. Fr. J. Walsh, C.C., Fourmilewater, Rev. Fr. Bracken, C.C., do., Rev. Fr. Condon, Ballymacarby (cousin of the bride) home on holidays from the U.S., and Rev. Fr. Morrissey, Newcastle.

The bride, who was given away by her brother Daniel, chose a blue brocade frock with headpiece to tone and carried a white missal. She was attended by her sister, Miss Nan Butler, who wore a pink brocade frock with matching accessories and carried a bouquet of carnations. Mr. Pat Ryan, cousin of the groom, was best man.

Following a reception held at Ocean View Hotel, Clonmel, where upwards of eighty guests were entertained, the newlyweds left on their honeymoon which is being spent touring the west of Ireland. We wish the happy pair every success for their future happiness and well being.

WHAT WERE HIS THOUGHTS?

"Royal Tara," the famous Grand National winner, now living out his retirement at Lismore, grazed peacefully at Lismore Gaelic field on Sunday during the Ardmore v. Shanrock hurling game. Perhaps as he heard the shouts of the followers of the team his mind travelled back to another day at Aintree when he was the centre of the acclamation of the crowds who cheered his wonderful victory.

DEATH OF MRS. E. MILLS

Knocknatralane Ballymacarby

The death took place on Wednesday, July 11th, at the District Hospital, Dungarvan, of William Ducey, late of Knocknatralane, Ballymacarby, after a very short illness. He was a general favourite in the district for the cheerful disposition. Much sympathy is extended to his only surviving relation in that of his sister, Mrs. Mary Coffey, Castlequater, Ballymacarby, on her great loss.

The remains were removed on Wednesday evening from the hospital mortuary followed by a cortege of great dimensions to Fourmilewater Church and were blessed and received by Rev. Fr. Bracken, C.C.

LOOK THROUGH IRELAND

Sprays of true three-leaved shamrock star
 The island famed far and away
 Where many the sweet uses are
 Of an inviting outdoor-day.

For country charms that smooth the brow
 And turn the trend of anxious thought,
 Through Ireland look and you'll allow
 That this loved land is finely fraught.

Knockmealdown mountain-range is veined
 By a lone highway called "The Veer"
 From elbow of which is obtained
 A sublime inland sight to see.

A panorama wondrous fair
 Of holdings, homes, hedges and trees.
 All in the part outspread from here
 Of Tipperary, sure to please!

ACCIDENT NEAR MAHONBRIDGE

When a Tractor-Propelled Trailer overturned on Old Road, Currahaha East, Kilmacthomas, on Tuesday afternoon, the driver of the vehicle and his helper—Messrs. Whelan and Walsh respectively, of the Mahonbridge district—were injured and after being spiritually and medically attended to, both were conveyed to Ardkeen General Hospital, Waterford, by ambulance.

LATE MR. PATK. QUINN

Following a period of failing health at an advanced age, Mr. Patrick (Pat) Quinn, Mahonbridge, Kilmacthomas, passed peacefully and resignedly away at his residence on Monday last and is deeply regretted by his sisters, brothers, nieces and nephews. Son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Quinn, Furraleigh, Kilmacthomas, he was an assistant teacher at Killorossan National School and a contributor of local news to a Waterford City paper for some time prior and up to his being appointed porter of the old Kilmacthomas Union, which post he held until the Union closed under the Amalgamation of Unions' Act, when he was retired in receipt of full pension. An accomplished neighbour, he was held in the highest esteem amongst all sections on both sides of the Mahon river, so dear to his patriotic heart. Throughout his long and honourable career his amiable and unostentatious disposition won him the affection and regard of a large circle of friends while to the poor he was a kind and generous benefactor. He was Chairman of Mahonbridge Cumanán Fianna Fail, from its inception some years ago. His passing has evoked feelings of deep sorrow from the coast to the Comeraghs.

A large and representative cortege accompanied the removal of the remains to the Parish Church, Killorossan, where the coffin was received and blessed by Very Rev. J. Hartly, P.P.

Interment was made in the adjoining cemetery on Wednesday (after Requiem Mass) and Very Rev. F. Hartly gave the final absolution at the graveside in the presence of many mourners and sympathisers.

The Weaver Bird is found mostly in India and Africa and is closely related to the Finch family. It is friendly and intelligent and can be trained to perform tricks. In this capacity of performer they often tour the villages of India, the main support of their itinerant owners. When nesting time begins their marvellous skill becomes apparent—they will suspend their nests from the eaves of a village house as readily as from a tree branch. It is made from strips of fibre, leaves, grasses, mosses and little mud, all woven together with the opening at the bottom and a separate inner chamber for the eggs. It is as substantial as it is weatherproof, and will resist the heaviest rain and the strongest winds.

Rural Electrification Scheme Nears Completion

By the end of 1962 the Rural Electrification programme, carried out by the E.S.B., will be completed to the extent envisaged in the original plan. This is an achievement of which the country can be very proud.

The recent E.S.B. Annual Report revealed that up to March, 1961 754 rural areas, that was 95% of the original plan, had been completed. (The areas covered 21,937 sq. miles and that 75% of the dwellings in the completed area were connected. It also revealed the very significant fact that the total value of the scheme to the end of March was over £20 million, of which less than £6 million had been given by way of State grant. This means that the E.S.B. has carried out the scheme to date without heavy subsidisation.

The Report also revealed another important feature, that out of £885,000, which was spent on materials used in the scheme during 1961/62, £724,700 or 82% was bought from home manufacturers in Ireland.

frated lamp used for rearing chicks and bohams. According to the survey, 40,830 lamps are in use on Irish farms, that is 288 per 1,000, and once again Cork has the largest number, with Waterford second and Sligo at the bottom of the list.

The survey revealed that the electric iron was the most popular amongst the domestic appliances and 76% of rural homes have one. The next item in popularity is the electric kettle which is used in 45% of rural homes.

Other popular domestic appliances are electric cookers which are used by 1 in 5 rural consumers; washing machines used by 1 in 7; and vacuum cleaners by 1 in 10. Only 1 in 20 has a refrigerator, and the same number have electric water heaters.

Apart from solid fuel, including the traditional open hearth, the survey shows that electricity is the most popular method of cooking in rural homes.

One of the problems in rural electrification everywhere is that of low consumption. The high charges on the tremendous capital investment in the construction of the networks, plus the cost of producing the electricity, which is so high, is far in excess of the return which many rural consumers give.

The E.S.B. Report also reveals that during the past year on the electricity rural revenue account there is a loss of almost £700,000 for the year. This is a situation which can only improve when rural consumers use more electricity.

A similar survey carried out by the E.S.B. recently shows that running water is supplied from domestic taps, the most popular use for electricity, and 114 out of every 1,000 farms have electric lighting installed. This is a sharp increase since only two years earlier the survey had shown that the figure was 236 per 1,000. It is interesting to note that the E.S.B. district which has the largest number of installations is Cork with Limerick a close second. Ely, a district with the lowest number of pumping installations.

The next most popular electrical appliance is the mangle machine. The survey showed that there are now 10,520 of these installed in Irish farms. Here again Cork has the largest number and Limerick is a close second. The smallest numbers are in the Galway and Athlone districts.

The use of grain grinders has also shown an increase and once again Cork has the greatest number in use, with Waterford district second.

Grain drying installations have increased by 40% during the last two years.

The number of welders installed has increased by over 50% and the number of milk coolers by 70%.

The most popular of the small appliances is, of course, the increase the subsidy in the form of uneconomic areas is welcome, as if these areas had to be developed from the normal finances of the E.S.B., it would have meant increased rates for rural and other consumers to meet these very high capital charges.

Under the proposed Government scheme, an additional subsidy of up to £75 per house will be granted in certain areas to enable rural dwellers in these localities to have electricity.

Taken in all, the Rural Electrification Scheme has been a resounding success. So successful in fact that experts from many European countries have come here to investigate how the E.S.B. has executed the scheme. Their comments have been more than complimentary and are on the construction of the network, but also on the methods used to promote the use of electricity to achieve higher living standards on our Irish farms.

Nonetheless, it is important not only from the E.S.B.'s point of view, but also in the interests of our national economy, that rural dwellers, and particularly farmers, should make a better use of electricity to achieve greater productivity in what is our most important industry.

WATERFORD SUPPLY NEWS

VILLIERSTOWN WATER SUPPLY

The following letter was recently forwarded by The Secretary, Waterford Co. Council, to Mr. C. Curran, M.C.C., in reply to a request that the Villierstown Water Supply Scheme be expedited:
"On 8th January last the Council approved of the Water Supply Scheme for Villierstown in accordance with Mr. Pett's Report, which had previously been adopted by the Council on 1st April, 1960.
"Such Report was duly sent to the Department of Local Government, but I understand that consideration of it by the Dept. was deferred pending the formation by the Council of a Water Supply Policy.
"The Department have now been informed of last Monday's decision of the Council as to policy and it is therefore to be expected that Dept. will now consider the Report."
N.B.—Council decided at meeting on 9-7-62 to proceed with Villierstown Scheme.

ON HOLIDAYS

Rev. Fr. Denis McGrath, C.C. Cahir, is at present on holidays in his native Cashmore.
DANGEROUS LEND
A number of near escapes have occurred recently at the blind bend at Tinnisart Cross on the back Aglish-Cashmore road. It is hoped that the Co. Council will rectify the matter and thus prevent serious accidents, as this road is now extensively used by motorists.

SALMON FISHING STILL GOOD

The catches of grise with odd salmon still continue to be good over last week end here though there was a slight falling off in the numbers taken in the opening days of this week. The great run of fish for the past five or six weeks is very much discussed in all quarters. It is deemed not to be a great run of grise but a late run of salmon, as men were on the 7 and 8th mark. Last week's price of 2/- was further reduced on Monday of this week to 1/9 there still being little or no demand in the fish markets and the greater bulk of the fish are in cold storage. So far due to low water conditions the rod anglers upriver are having a very lean time, but it is hoped that with the heavy rain, fall this weekend the grise will make their way to the upper reaches of the Blackwater. The net men at Ardmore are still hampered in fishing by the presence of basking sharks and these are being badly damaged by these monsters.

YOUGHAL MEN LANDED BY GERMAN TRAWLER

On Sunday last, three more Youghal men, Christie Hennessy and the two brothers, Eddie and Steve Motherway, were landed in Cogh from the German motor trawler Norddahn of Bremen, having returned from cod fishing off the Greenland Coast. Her super structure and deck gear were damaged by the stormy weather encountered on the voyage of several weeks. Altogether the trip lasted 65 days, they had conserved 400 tons of cod, 2,600 sacks of fish meal and 76,000 bottles of livers which will be disposed of in Portlaoine. The three Youghal men said it was a great experience for them and a very successful fishing trip. They experienced very cold and stormy weather with plenty of snow.

YOUGHAL WATERWORKS SCHEME NEARING COMPLETION

The Youghal U.D.C. was informed that the waterworks scheme at Boola is progressing satisfactorily and the work is well ahead of schedule. The settling tank and the filtering tank are now complete. The main walls of the filter house

CLASHMORE MAN'S DEATH IN U.S.A.

Mr. Patrick Conahan, who has died in the U.S.A., was a native of Knockbrack, Clashmore and a member of a well known family. A popular figure, his passing is much regretted, and deep sympathy is extended to his bereaved brothers and sisters.

FISH PLENTIFUL

During the past fortnight huge hauls of peal have been taken in this area, i.e. on lower reaches of the Blackwater and along the coast from Ferryport to Ardmore. Some boats took as many as fifty on one tide and experienced fisherman state it is the heaviest run of fish in living memory.

DUMP NEEDED

A public refuse dump is urgently needed in the Clashmore area. At the moment local residents have no suitable place to dump waste.

WEDDING BELLS

The marriage took place at Modeligo Church, between Mr. James Collender, elder son of Mr. James and the late Mrs. Collender, Tourin, and Miss Angela Prendergast, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Prendergast, Boggaogh, Cappoquin. The ceremony, with Nuptial Mass, was performed by Very Rev. J. Kenneally, P.P., Cappoquin.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a long full-skirted dress of white, embossed nylon over white taffeta with headress of white roses and long tulle veil. She carried a bouquet of red roses and maiden-hair fern. The bridesmaids were Miss Sally Keys, cousin of the bride, who wore a pale green nylon dress with matching headress and carried a basket of roses and carnations and Miss Joan Kievy who wore a lavender taffeta dress with matching headress and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. The bride's sister, Maizie, was matron of honour, and wore a gown of lavender taffeta with matching headress. The best man was Mr. Nial Collender, brother of the groom. Mr. Tom Barry was witnessman. Miss E. Mullins, A.L.C.M., presided at the organ.

Forty guests attended the reception held at Park House, Dungarvan. The honeymoon is being spent in the West of Ireland. Going away the bride was dressed in a suit of mink jersey with yellow and brown accessories.

WHO WILL BE AREA FESTIVAL QUEEN?

This is the question being asked on all sides. It will be answered at the dance in the Boat House on next Sunday night when the three judges

REPAIRS OF SEA WALLS

For the repairs of the sea walls damaged by the storm on March 7th last, the Youghal U.D.C. is to raise a loan of £4,000 and will expect a Government grant of at least £3,000. The estimate cost of repairs is £7,000 and the damaged sea walls were recently examined by an Inspector from the Department. Time is slipping away and it is essential that this work be completed without delay in view of the high tides early in September.

The present condition of the steps at the Lighthouse Hill leading to the beach was discussed by the Council recently. This passageway is very much used by the public and is in a very dangerous state. It was decided to have the underpinning of the steps carried out without delay.

CLOSING YOUGHAL RAILWAY LINE

The Youghal U.D.C. recently discussed the proposed closing of the Railway Line from Cogh Junction to Youghal and it has been decided to hold a public meeting at the Town Hall, Youghal, in the very near future at which all persons and bodies interested should be invited to attend. When all arrangements are made and various bodies contacted the public will get notification of the meeting by poster. The following are to be invited in addition to the members of the Local Council, Traders Association and Workers Council, Cork Corporation Ald. Sean Casey, T.D., Lord Mayor, Midleton and Cogh Urban Councils, Dail Deputies Corry, Barry, McAuliffe, Moher, Sen. Liam Aherne and Irish Sugar Plant Growers Association.

Abbeyside's Rugged Passage To Second Round

Abbeyside 3-6 Brickey Rangers 1-6

JUST what is the limit of endurance of the human frame? No doubt that question must have ran through the minds of the majority of the big attendance at Dungarvan's Fraher Field on Sunday night last when Abbeyside scored a deserving 3-6 to 1-6 victory over Brickey Rangers in the senior hurling championship.

The game produced excellent passages of play and was also a turning-point for some of the players. The rugged savagery never seen on a Gaelic field was to cause destruction rather than play the game.

By JOHN A. MURPHY

Without prejudice or bias, I have no hesitation in naming Brickeys as the chief for this district. From the members of their ranks, it would have been more appropriate to regard the performance of the opposition.

ten minutes they had edged into a two point lead and playing as though they had abandoned their unsavoury policy were shaping like winners.

A golden five minute spell between the 13th and 18th minutes which yielded 2-1 undoubtedly clinched the issue in the Vikings favour.

Without this criticism will be for the writer much admiration in certain quarters but so uncalculated for was it that it could not possibly be mentioned.

One could hardly describe Abbeyside as lucky on Sunday. They looked the better hurling side and never allowed rancour to creep into their play but yet they were not as good as Village teams of former years.

It was Abbeyside who were an impressive side. Defections that disrupted the out didn't help but a lack of fitness could have been their ruin.

EARLY LEAD The winners got off to a great start when Pat McGovern crashed an unsavable shot to the net in the third minute after Paul Donoghue had saved a scorching drive from John Hogan.

It was Abbeyside who were an impressive side. Defections that disrupted the out didn't help but a lack of fitness could have been their ruin.

leashed a drive that gave the goalkeeper no chance. Almost immediately Denis Flynn replied with a point but Billy Monaghan again levelled matters when he pointed a free in the 19th minute.

Then came the Abbeyside fight back. Denis Flynn flashed over a point from far out in the 13th minute, followed a minute later by a goal by Donal Whelan.

Defence was undoubtedly the winners' strong point, and their goal-keeper and all six defenders can justifiably recall the game with pride.

Hogan in goal was soundness personified and was blameless for the lone goal that beat him. Full-back Austin Flynn, without revealing his intercounty best, gave little scope to Patsy Donnelly.

THE special under 21 inter-county football championship gets under way on Sunday next when Waterford travel to the Cork Athletic Grounds to play the Leesiders in the opening round.

Cork and Tipp Fancied at Athletic Grounds

The Waterford team, which was selected on Sunday evening is comprised in the main of former county minors, but only includes Christy Nolan and Paddy Ryan of this year's under eighteens.

Like Waterford Cork contains the bulk of the players who brought the County to two successive All-Ireland finals ('60 and '61).

While Waterford will be fielding the best available side, it is unlikely that they will be good enough to master a Cork side playing on its own ground.

Gaelic Jottings

Last Sunday's Games

As expected Kill and Abbeyside advanced a step further in their respective championship efforts on Sunday last when they disposed of Dungarvan and Brickey Rangers respectively. Abbeyside always had the edge on the Rangers in their hurling encounter, but Kill footballers were extended to the full before mastering a youthful and promising Old Boro side by five points.

For fifty minutes or more, Dungarvan looked quite capable of causing an upset. Their side, which included six of last year's successful minor team, and with an average age of 22, had up to then pulled out all the stops, as they handed out a footballing lesson to their more fancied opponents. But the inexperience of their youngsters cost them many scores, and entering the final minutes Kill the shrewder side by far, led somewhat flatteringly by a one point margin.

But in those crucial last moments, Dungarvan's stamina gave out. Their obvious lack of fitness proved their undoing, and as they rapidly ran out of steam, Kill gratefully accepted the advantage presented them, and put the issue beyond doubt with a goal and a point.

Had Dungarvan been fully trained for this game, it is quite on the cards that they would now be awaiting a semi-final engagement with Kilrossanty or Emmetts. But they paid dearly for their inadequate preparation and must sit now brooding over the many "might have beens."

Kill, to their credit, made a light of their task of score-getting. They turned into account most of their opportunities, and unlike Dungarvan were "bored" to stay the hour.

VILLAGERS ON TOP
Abbeyside withstood a fierce Brickey challenge at the Fraher field in the senior hurling championship and qualified to meet Colman Rovers in the second round at the same venue.

To their credit, a rugged and hard fought game would be lacking one's real duties. It was a tie that did little but secure the good name of hurling—something for which the Brickey's must accept full blame. Never at any stage did they even try to hurl fairly, and certain Abbeysiders retaliated on occasions, their actions in such trying circumstances were understandable.

Of the game itself, there was plenty of excitement. During the first-half both sides failed to avail of good chances and the 13 to 12 interval score was a true reflection of the trend of the game.

On the turn over Brickey's gained the upper-hand, and when they shot into a two-point lead, looked likely to out the favourites. But Abbeyside, thanks to the opposition of Donal Whegan quickly regained the ascendancy and eventually ran out deserving winners.

CHAMPIONS ADVANCE
As a curtain-raiser to the K.I.L. Dungarvan game, reigning champions Fourmilewater had little difficulty in beating Kilrossanty 8-8 to 2-4 in the second round of the junior hurling championship.

AT LISMORE
The game of the day, however, was undoubtedly staged at the picturesque Lismore venue, when after a thrilling neck and neck struggle Ardmore halted the junior hurling championship march of Shamrocks.

At the end of an exciting game as the venue has witnessed for many a day, the Seaside's had but three points to spare.

But narrow though their winning margin was, Ardmore were deserving victors. Not as stylish a combination as Shamrocks, they relied on fit-time pulling throughout, and unsettled the losers who repeatedly attempted to over-ride the ball.

In centre-back Paddy Carlton the winners had a delightful defender, while John Collett in goal, Eddie Mooney, Tommy Power, Finbar Hallahan and John Joe Callon, who scored the winning goal, also shone.

Biggest disappointments in the losers side were Frankie Crotchan and Tommy Geary. Crotchan never revealed his usual form, while Geary could never cope with Paddy Carlton.

Out Derrinlour way there is however, an air of confidence about the result. There are no greater championship specialists than the Rovers, and when outstaring firm favourites Balinacorney in round one proved conclusively that they are far from being a spent force, Jimmy Hewitt is, if goes of all recognition in the second half and coasted to a facile 5-3 to 1-7 victory over Ballyduff (Upper) in the Primary hurling championship.

For the opening thirty minutes, the little fancied Ballyduff side confounded everyone as their spirited hurling proved equal to everything Balinacorney had to offer. Splendidly led by their ever green veteran Mick Feeney who accounted for all but one point of their total, they hurled with tremendous gusto, and at the break a surprise result was in the offing.

But few could have been prepared for the radical transformation in the game on the change-over. The winners literally came out of their shells, and producing the brand of hurling that invariably wins championships, submerged the gallant efforts of Feeney and company.

Outsanding for Balinacorney were their half-back trio of Monnie Cliffe, Tommy Reynolds and P. J. Kilgrew, and John and Tom Brownie and Patsy Cashman were most conspicuous in attack.

Feeney was of course Ballyduff's man of the match, while it was another veteran—Mick Beecher—who stole the limelight in defence.

KILGOBINET BEST
Kilgoabinet's primary hurlers surmounted their first hurdle when they beat Geraldines 3-3 to 2-0 in an evening game, also at the same venue.

Kilgoabinet were never led at any stage during the hour, and hard though the Aglishers tried there was never any real doubt about the final outcome.

Stars of the winning side were Johnny Hanly—always a danger in attack, Sean Callaghan, Joe Power and Willie Buckley. Geraldines were best served by Michael Landers, Mickey Downey, Percy Hallahan, Michael Tobin and George Hennessey.

Next Sunday's Games

VALLEYS-KILGOBINET TIE WIDE OPEN

What promises to be the game of the entire campaign so far takes place at Dungarvan on Sunday next when Valley Rovers and Kilgoabinet meet in the semi-final of the junior football championship.

Without dissenting in any way, the remaining championship aspirants. It is common knowledge that many if not most, followers regard this game as a near certainty to produce the ultimate divisional champions.

When these sides met at a similar stage in last year's championship the Valleys ran out clear and deserving winners. But that game was played without saving the key figure fancied to prevail but an injury received by inter-county star Tommy Joe Hartly in a hurling game on Sunday last has Gaelic followers worried, and it is not yet certain whether or not he will be fit to play.

Harty apart however the side is afflicted by no injury problems. Tommy McGrath is back after a few weeks absence, while Mossy Keane who also received a knock in a recent game has fully recovered and will line-out in his customary right-half back berth.

Ballyduff had to overcome Cappoquin in a replay before qualifying for the semi-final but should benefit considerably as a result. They are reported to have blended together a highly competent side, and if Brendan Coughlan rules the roost to the same extent as against Cappoquin, then it could be curtains for Ring.

Nevertheless despite Coughlan's brilliance, Ring look the better all-round side, and are taken to qualify for the western final.

INTRIGUING MINOR CLASH

Bride Valley Rovers (Tallow) fresh from their unexpected but merited victory over Cappoquin meet Abbeyside in an intriguing minor hurling clash at Cappoquin.

To master the Cappoquin side, the Rovers must be an exceptionally good team, and certain it is that whatever the outcome a hard-fought hour is in store for the Cornerstone venue.

CLASHMORE GIVEN THE VOTE

Shamrocks whose junior hurling hopes ended at Lismore on Sunday last travel in quest of compensation to Cappoquin where they play Clashmore in the primary football championship.

Clashmore have however made quite an impact on this championship, and should follow up their first round victory over Kilgoabinet with yet another win over the Knockanore side.

POSTPONED

S.H.C.—Dungarvan v. Ballyduff at Lismore.
S.H.C.—Finn's Own v. Faughs at Waterford, fixed for Sunday next, July 22nd, unavoidably postponed.

Kill 1-9 Dungarvan 1-4

THUS far every effort of Kill footballers to land a coveted senior championship crown has failed. But their quest towards achieving that goal was advanced a stage further on Sunday last when as a result of a hard-earned 1-9 to 1-4 victory over Dungarvan at the Fraher Field, they qualified for a semi-final tilt with Kilrossanty or Emmetts.

It was a game that could hardly be described as a classic, but the closeness of the scoring coupled with many speculative individual performances made it a satisfying hour for the big attendance. Kill on the run of play just about deserved their success, although hardly by as convincing a margin as five points.

Their greater craft and experience, gained through years of championship competition was their most beneficial weapon against youthful opponents who, however, made a far better fight of it than most had predicted.

In fact while few could begrudge the winners the fruits of their success, the Blues could with any luck at all have reversed the result. Terrifically they more than held their own, but over elaboration amongst the forwards was responsible for many scores being frittered away.

BAFFLING DECISIONS

Be that as it may, the losers' greatest quib for years to come will be the manner in which referee Sergt. Mick Whyte (Fourmilewater) handled the game. A referee's lot is never an enviable one, but some of his decisions on Sunday were to say the least of it baffling.

And coincidentally or otherwise, Dungarvan were always the victims of these decisions—to such an extent that sections of the crowd continuously gave vent to their feelings towards his handling of the game.

In the early stages the winners playing delightfully open methodical football threatened to swamp the holders. Their attack profusely serviced by a practically unbeatable midfield pairing of Martin Kennedy and Noel Power inter-passed the ball with deadly precision.

After five minutes they were three points to the good and were shaping in a manner that had no good for Dungarvan's chances.

ACHIEVED UNITY

But then the Blues—up to that team of shreds and patches, began to achieve unity in their ranks. Individualism, one of the greatest possible afflictions, became extinct as the side began to shape and play as a team.

A succession of the latter from a free when a Dungarvan forward was fouled with a yawning goal confronting him levelled matters by the 22nd minute. Right up to the interval they continued to dominate the exchanges and at the break were not at all flattered by their 1-3 to 0-4 lead.

Throughout most of the second-half in which Dungarvan lost, regained and lost again their interval lead, the issue remained perilously in the balance.

FOLDED UP

But then when the losers effort should have reached its zenith—in the closing quarter, they folded up completely. With youth so very much on their side it was they who were expected to last the pace the better of the two, but a glaring lack of fitness left the majority of the side with bellows to mend, and Kill as though by an act of jarceny notched the scores that resolved the game.

What might have happened had Dungarvan not run out of steam will forever remain a matter for conjecture, but in the circumstances it is reasonable to assume that it was for this reason alone that Kill exercised such superiority in the final minutes.

Nor did the handicap of playing with a badly beaten mid-field help their cause. They started with the McCarthy's, Eamon and Gerard, in the sector, and during the hour tried out a variety of different pairings, but to no avail.

Kill's Power and Kennedy reigned supreme against everything the Blues could pit against them and more than anyone were responsible for victory.

NOT A TWO MAN SIDE

This was not however a two man side by any stretch of imagination. Their defence in which Michael and Tom Kirwan and Achil Lannen were outstanding seldom allowed the Dungarvan forwards any scope to utilise their speed and opportunism.

Star of their attack was unquestionably right-half forward Paddy Duggan. On numerous

CHAMPIONS COASTED TO EASY VICTORY

Fourmilewater 8-8
Kilrossanty 2-4

Western champions Fourmilewater qualified for the Divisional J.H. semi-final on Sunday with consummate ease when outclassing a gallant but standard Kilrossanty team, and weren't extended to score their twenty two point victory.

The holders who feuded without such established regulars as Mick Connolly, Tom Walsh and Jimmy Hewitt, may not have been as impressive as in other games, yet one was given the impression they could have played indefinitely better had they been called on to do so.

CUNNINGHAM BEAT FOOTBALLER ON VIEW

Beyond year or near their most brilliant performer—the best on view in fact—was centre-back hurler-cum-footballer Tom Cunningham. His faultless display was highlighted by an impeccable exhibition of fielding to which his immediate opponent Mick Regan or any others were powerless to counter-act.

Others to do well in defence for the losers were Con Driscoll and Jimmy Walsh, while goalkeeper Lucky Coward made many fine saves during the hour.

The midfielders Eamon and Gerard McCarthy never hit usual form and were outplayed by Kennedy and Power. Both however showed improvement when switched to attack and made valiant efforts to save the game in the dying minutes.

O'DONNELL WAS DANGEROUS IN ATTACK

Full-forward Liam O'Donnell was the danger man up front. He shrewdly fed his colleagues at every opportunity and was himself out of luck with a couple of great scoring efforts. Paddy Ryan utilised his speed to the limit, while Jim Byrne was also prominent throughout.

THE SCORING

Within a minute of the start Paddy Duggan gave Kill the lead with a point. Two minutes later Tibbs added a second and Mick Regan made it 0-3 to nil when he scored a first point in the 6th minute.

Points in the 14th, 18th and 22nd minutes—the first and last from frees, by Paddy Ryan put Dungarvan on level terms, and four minutes later Gerard McCarthy beat Quellan in the Kill goal all ends up with a great drive. Almost immediately Kill replied with a point leaving Dungarvan ahead 1-3 to 0-4 at half-time.

The Blues were unlucky not to have a second goal straight from the restart when Liam O'Donnell was only inches wide with a scorching shot. Kennedy pointed a free in the 4th minute and a like score by Pinnacane made it "all square" again a minute later. Ryan and Duggan exchanged points from frees before Pinnacane put Kill ahead again when his shot hit an upright before going over. In the closing stages the winners got completely on top and a goal by Flynn in the 25th minute and a point by Kennedy just on full-time made their winning margin a decisive one.

Referee: Mossie McGrath (Dungarvan).
