MINISTER ACCUSED OF DICTATORSHIP

BY ten votes to five, a suggestion by the Minister for Health that a revised salary scale of £1725 x £65 to £1920 a year be granted to the R.M.S., Arckeen Hospital, Waterford, was adopted at Monday's meeting of Waterford Health Authority in Dungarvan.

This application was rejected at a previous meeting of the Authority and the R.M.S. subsequently appealed to the Minister.

Mr. J. Griffin said they should make virtue of necessity and he would propose they adopt the Minister's suggestion.

Mr. J. Power seconded.

Mr. M. Galgey said they now had to make a ratepayer through the dictatorship of the Minister.

At this stage Mr. P. Cahill said the R.M.S. told a woman to clear away from Arckeen Hospital and never come back again. It is that fair to the people of Waterford, he said.

On the suggestion of the Secretary (Mr. J. A. Hynes), Mr. Cahill gave the name of the person in question to him and the matter will be investigated.

Mr. Charles Curran said there was strong resistance in rural communities at these increases. He could not agree in this direction from the Minister and he proposed they ac-

DECISION ON DISPENSARY RESIDENCE DEFERRED

A decision on whether or not to build a dispensary residence in Clashmore was deferred to the August meeting at last Monday's Health Authority meeting.

Mr. Charles Curran said the present house was no longer habitable. Three or four years ago they decided to build a new house but it fell through when the contractor withdrew. The matter had gone too far already and for the sake of the doctor, his wife and family, they should decide to-day. A contractor was available but if it went on much longer, he might fall out also.

After further discussion, the decision to defer it was unanimous, although Mr. Curran intimated his preference to have the matter decided immediately.

Mr. P. Browne — We are all ratepayers but if we all adopted the attitude some members would like us to, we would not have a doctor or a Nurse in the County. We would only get the leavings of other counties.

Mr. C. Curran said what was needed was a levelling up in salaries. £40 a week was a good living wage and it was a shame for a man with such a salary to look for an increase. While the Minister for Local Government had moved cautiously in similar circumstances that was not so with the Minister for Health.

The voting resulted as follows—For: Messrs. Fahy, Ca-

Dungarvan Man Appointed Instructor

LAURENCE P. CURRAN, Ballinamuck, Dungarvan, was appointed to the temporary post of Agricultural Instructor, at the annual meeting of the County Committee of Agriculture, on Saturday last. There were two other applicants for the post: Nicholas Canning, Waterpark, Fermoy, Co. Cork, and William Murphy, Tuam, Co. Galway. Mr. Curran received eleven votes as against three for Mr. Canning, but Mr. Murphy failed to receive a proposer or seconder.

Senator J. Butler, proposing Mr. Curran, said he lived only 1 1/2 miles from Dungarvan, was very well qualified for the position and was a County Council Scholarship holder. He had great pleasure in proposing him. Mr. M. Harty seconded.

Mr. George Heskin, who proposed Canning, said he was living just over the Waterford border in Co. Cork. He had very good qualifications and was conversant with everything from a practical viewpoint as he was farming at his home where 500 to 1,000 pigs were kept at a time.

Mr. J. Quirke, seconding Mr. Heskin's proposal, said Mr. Canning was a Ballyduff man, and living in the diocese of Waterford and Lismore. He (Mr. Quirke) was surprised that the address was not listed as Ballyduff.

The following was the voting for the candidates: Mr. Curran—Messrs. Butler, C. Curran, Dower, Harty, Whelan, Drohan, Foran, O'Ryan, Dowd, N. Walsh, Galgey (11); for Mr. Canning—Messrs. Fahy, Heskin and Quirke (3).

Mr. Fahy (Chairman) said he had great pleasure in welcoming Mr. Curran back into his native county.

The C.A.O. (Mr. P. Conroy) said he followed Mr. Curran's career going to school and they were getting a very good young man into their services.

Mr. G. Heskin said as proposer of Mr. Canning he would like to congratulate the successful applicant, but he would ask if Canning applied for a post in the county again that he be strongly considered.

Coarse Fishing Championships

The 1962 All-Ireland Coarse Fishing Championship will be held on August Monday (6th August) on the E.S.B.'s waters in Drumshanbo. The E.S.B. is co-operating with the Organising Council in presenting the Championship.

In addition to the trophies for the winners, there will be a first cash prize of £100 and a second prize of £10. As in previous years, it is expected that the Championship will attract many overseas competitors.

PATTERN DAY IN ARDMORE

Many visitors from other parts of the county, as well as tourists, gathered in Ardmore on Sunday for the celebration of the age-old traditional festival of Ardmore's patron saint Declan.

The actual feast of St. Declan was on Tuesday last, and on Monday at midnight pilgrims from far and near assembled on the holy ground to make their pattern, rounds and drink of the healing waters of the adjacent holy well of St. Declan.

On this (Thursday) morning the devotions in honour of the saint began with the celebration of special Masses in his honour.

Increase Granted to 12 Officers of Health Authority

INCREASES totalling £1157, which would mean an impact of £250 a year on the Health Authority, were granted to twelve officers employed at St. Otteran's Hospital, Waterford, at the Authority's Annual meeting on Monday last.

Mr. J. Griffin, who proposed the increases, said it was an effort to do for those who so far were the only ones who had not benefitted by the up-grading in salaries. They would only be belatedly tidying up their position.

Mr. T. Gallagher said he had great pleasure in seconding the proposal. Up to now these people who were among the most important in the mental hospital were badly treated.

Mr. J. Quirke said they didn't know where they were. At every meeting there were applications for increases. They should have them all coming up at one meeting a year. The present position was not good business at all. If they turned down this it would be up again in a month's time.

"These applications for rises all the year round should be stopped," continued Mr. Quirke. "They should only be considered before the Estimates meeting each year."

Health Authority Chairman Re-Elected

On the proposal of Mr. W. Collins, seconded by Mr. J. Griffin, the outgoing Chairman, Mr. W. Kenneally was unanimously re-elected at last Monday's annual meeting of Waterford Health Authority.

Mr. Griffin said to re-elect him unanimously would be the nicest way of showing their sincerity in wishing him well in his lengthy indisposal.

The Acting Chairman (Mr. Norman Walsh) congratulated Mr. Kenneally on his re-election and would only be too delighted when he came back, which he hoped would be in the very near future.

Mr. C. Curran ten proposed and Mr. J. Fahy seconded that Mr. Walsh (outgoing) be re-elected Chairman.

The proposal was carried unanimously.

Replying Mr. Walsh thanked the members and his proposer and seconder for reelecting him unanimously, and he would continue to do his best while in the chair.

The Co. Manager (Mr. S. J. Moynihan) congratulated Mr. Kenneally and Mr. Walsh on their elections.

Milk is one of our most valuable and complete foods. It contains fats, proteins, vitamins and minerals in addition to carbohydrates. But RAW or unpasteurised milk can also be a great food for any bacteria (germs) that get into it and they multiply very rapidly in time and so it may be the means of spreading disease.

It is proved beyond doubt that Bovine T.B. is transmissible to humans and the most common carrier is RAW MILK.

It is equally proved beyond doubt that milk may be freed from the bacteria which are dangerous to health, especially the germs causing TUBERCULOSIS, TYPHOID and DIPHTHERIA, by means of PASTEURISATION.

YOU WILL CLOSE THIS DOOR to infection by using only bottled pasteurised milk and the best bottled pasteurised milk is produced and sold by CENTRAL DAIRIES LTD. All our milk is subject to laboratory control by a qualified bacteriologist.

FETE IN AID OF SCHOOL. OUTSTANDING SUCCESS

An outstanding success both socially and financially is the only way to describe the Fete held in the Convent Grounds on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday in aid of the School Building fund. From the commencement at 2.00 p.m. on Sunday the convent grounds were packed to capacity, all the stalls and various sideshows and amusements doing a brisk trade. Some very valuable bargains and prizes were to be had and won at the various sideshows.

The fancy dress parades, both juvenile and adult proved great successes, each one being led by the C.B.S. Boys' Band. Sunday evening saw a capacity attendance at pongo and dancing. Teas, teas and minerals were on sale throughout and did a roaring trade. The Reverend Mother and Community would like to publicly thank everyone for their

WEST WATERFORD NEWS

ARDMORE "PATTERN"

Ardmore "Pattern" in honour of St. Declan, patron of the area, commenced on Sunday last and will continue until Sunday next. During the week devotees of the saint were to be seen performing the "Rounds" in the grounds of the old cathedral, which is situated on high ground overlooking the sea at the south east of the historic village. In Ardmore and the surrounding areas the name of St. Declan is highly venerated and it is generally believed that the saint introduced the Christian Faith to these parts before the advent of St. Patrick. In support of this view historians point out that St. Patrick did not in fact ever visit West Waterford and advances the theory that that was because the people of the area had already been connected by St. Declan.

DEATH OF MR. WILLIAM HOGAN, CLASHMORE

We regret to announce the death which occurred at an advanced age, of Mr. William Hogan, Ardallagh, Clashmore. A popular and respected member of the community deceased was a member of a well known family and his demise has occasioned much regret while deep sympathy is extended to his bereaved wife and family. The funeral to Clashmore cemetery was of large and representative proportions. Very Rev. D. Power, P.P., and Rev. M. J. Russell, C.C., officiated.

MATCH ENDS ABRUPTLY

Clashmore and Shamrocks met at Cappoquin on Sunday last in the Primary Football Championship and at the end of 56 tension laden minutes the former led by 1-7 to 1-1. When a Clashmore forward went down injured a flare up occurred, the pitch was invaded and scenes of violence followed. Further play was impossible and the Clashmore team, one of whom had been severely injured by a blow on the head from a stick wielding spectator left the field. The refereeing of the game was most unsatisfactory. Unless the G.A.A. authorities make a determined effort to stamp out rough and dangerous play the future of the games in the west will be in jeopardy.

LATE LIEUT.-COL. J. DUNDAN

Lieut.-Col. Joseph Dundan, who has died at an early age, was well known in West Waterford, especially amongst members of the F.C.A. and former L.D.F. During the Emergency, he served in Youghal as O/C of the 21st Battalion. One of the Army's crack marksmen his hobbies included photography and motor cycle racing. R.I.P.

THE WEATHER

The bad weather has delayed farming operations and adversely affected the tourist season. Local resorts report that holiday bookings are below that of previous years.

wonderful support. All who attended each evening and especially the energetic committee and helpers who made it such a great success. We add our congratulations to the committee and helpers as they really did an excellent job, leaving no stone unturned in their efforts to make the Fete the wonderful success it was.

CRICKET

Lismore C.C. played Wanderers of Cork in the Mardyke on Sunday last in the Munster semi-final and were beaten by the Cork club.

On Sunday next the local club travel to Tramore to play the home club.

ROUND HILL BOWLING TOURNAMENT

The following are the winners of the second round scores in the Round-Hill Bowling Tournament:

Bill Griffin (1) bt. E. O'Sullivan (3) and John J. Scanlon (2); P. Herr (2) bt. P. Foley (2) and J. Colender (1); J. Kenefick (1) bt. T. Scanlon (2) and P. J. Kiely (1); F. Crowley (scr.) bt. D. Murray (2) and D. Shanahan (4); J. Foley (scr.) bt. J. Lineen (2) and C. Murray (2); J. Fitzgerald (scr.) and J. J. Power (2); J. McGrath (1) bt. J. Fitzgerald (2) and J. Whelan (4); T. O'Donovan (scr.) bt. E. Barry (scr.) and M. Nugent (1); B. Conway (scr.) bt. D. Long (2); P. Griffin (1) bt. L. Sullivan (scr.).

Feature of the second score was undoubtedly the bowling served up by the brilliant young bowler John McGrath of Melleray. He gave an exhibition of bowling never seen on this course before. Not alone had he a comfortable passage to the semi-final, but also set up what may be an all-time record number of bowls in the figure of 19 throws.

The Committee have now made the semi-final draws which are as follows: Bill Griffin (1) v. John McGrath (1) v. Plunkett Herr (2); Tadhg O'Donovan (scr.) v. Jim Fitzgerald (scr.) v. Billy Conway (scr.); Frank Crowley (scr.) v. John Foley (scr.) v. John Kenefick (1) v. Pa' Griffin (1).

The semi final scores will be thrown on Friday, July 27th Saturday 28th and Monday 30th at 8 p.m., and are expected to attract a large crowd.

The final of the tournament which so far is proving an outstanding success, will be held on Friday, August 10th. A dance will be held in the Town Hall, Lismore, on the same night, at which the prizes will be presented. Music will be supplied by the Royal Aces, specially augmented for the occasion, which promises to be a night to remember.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

FESTIVAL AREA QUEEN

Miss Irene Dunne of Lismore, who was adjudged "Area Festival Queen" last year, won the title again on Sunday night at the dance in the Boat House. The very large attendance watched with much interest the proceedings. From twenty candidates chosen at the outset fourteen were eliminated and the three finalists were selected. There was much applause when the judges announced the name of the winner. To the runners-up, both from Newcastle, prizes were presented. Miss Dunne, now resident in New York, arrived home recently on vacation. She is sister of Mrs. S. Mason and Mrs. M. Fraher.

RIVER BANK REPAIRED

During the week the work of filling the breach in the river bank on the western boundary of the Gaelic field was completed. This ensures that no longer is there a danger of grounds becoming flooded. The work was done under the supervision of Mr. M. O'Sullivan and has given general satisfaction.

VISIT OF FORMER OARSMAN

Now on a holiday here after an absence of many years is Mr. Martin Daly. His presence in his native town recalled many rowing successes of years ago when he acted as stroker to a crew which won many races.

LOCAL ANGLER'S WIN

Following on successes at other centres, Mr. M. J. Sargent, Junior, won the "P. I. Power" Cup at Dungarvan on Sunday for the heaviest catch of the day. He also had the heaviest fish of the day, a tope, weighing thirty pounds.

NEXT SUNDAY'S MATCH

Ardmore and Ballyduff will meet here in a junior hurling championship game on Sunday.

Late Miss Catherine O'Sullivan

Abbeyside and Bantry

Widespread sorrow was expressed at the news of the death of Miss Catherine (Carrie) O'Sullivan which occurred on Wednesday morning, 18th July, at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan. She was a native of Bantry, but had resided with her sister Mrs. James McGowan, at Abbeyside, for a long number of years. She was a most popular lady and a general favourite in the Abbeyside area where she was better known.

The greatest of public sympathy is extended to her sister Mrs. James McGowan and her brother-in-law, ex-Garda James McGowan, and her niece Mrs. Maureen Kenneally, New Line, Abbeyside, wife of Mr. Jackie Kenneally, U.D.C.

Her remains were removed on Thursday evening to Abbeyside Church, followed by a very large cortege and were received by Very Rev. Fr. Roche, P.P. Requiem Mass was offered on Thursday morning for the happy and eternal repose of her gentle soul and the funeral proceeded later in the day to Ballinroad Cemetery, where the interment took place amidst manifestation of great sorrow from the very large concourse present.

Very Rev. Fr. J. Roche, P.P., officiated at the graveside. Large sheaves of spiritual tributes were received by her relatives. (Undertaking by James Kiely and Sons, Dungarvan.)

LATE MR. PATRICK FRAHER

MAPSTOWN, DUNGARVAN

The death took place on Thursday afternoon, 19th July, at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan, of Mr. Patrick Fraher at an advanced age, but after a short duration of illness. He was a member of a very old Mapstown family and was held with the greatest of regard for his quiet and gentle disposition. He was a friend to young and old. His passing will be greatly felt by his sisters, Mrs. K. Flynn, Ballincoush and Miss B. Fraher, Kincoora, Abbeyside and by a very large number of nephews and nieces and a wide circle of friends.

His remains were removed on Friday evening to St. Mary's Parish Church, Dungarvan, followed by a large cortege of friends and neighbours, and were received by Rev. Fr. W. Power, C.C.

Requiem Mass was celebrated on Saturday morning for the happy repose of his soul and the interment took place later in the day, in the adjoining family plot. Rev. Fr. W. Power, C.C., also officiated and imparted the final absolution; and recited the prayers of requiem at the graveside, where another large concourse were present to pay their final respects. (Funeral arrangements by James Kiely and Sons, Dungarvan.)

Kilmacthomas Notes

With Their Master, Captain R. E. Wallace, the Hawkston Otter Hounds (a well-known English pack) are in Ireland since Friday of last week. Next day the meet was at Grove, Fethard, Co. Tipperary; on Sunday, at Stoneyford, Co. Kilkenny; Tuesday, Two Fords Bridge, Co. Tipperary; Thursday, Curraghmore (by kind permission of the Marquis of Waterford); three later meets are set for Co. Limerick centres, and the final one of this visit—on Thursday, 2nd prox—which is not yet decided upon, will probably be somewhere in Co. Tipperary.

Rev. M. Fennell, C.C., Stradbally, has been the recipient of many expressions of sincere sympathy on the death of his highly respected and esteemed father, the late Mr. Maurice Fennell, 85 O'Connell Street, Dungarvan, which sad event was chronicled in last week's issue of this paper.

DUNGARVAN SHOW

Preparations for Dungarvan Show, to be held on Thursday next, 2nd August, are now well under way and the energetic Committee under the Presidency of Mr. P. I. Power and the Chairmanship of Mr. Con Dempsey, is confident that this year's Show will be one of the most successful ever.

Entries to date are very satisfactory in all sections. Horses, always an outstanding feature of this Show, are well up to last year's high standard and all classes are well filled, with the usual big entry in the Royal Dublin Society and the National Stud's Premium classes. The children's pony classes (which will be judged by Miss Iris Kelleff) have also attracted a big entry and competition will be keen for the "Riding" awards for the best notice Pony at the Show. Cattle entries also show an increase in competition for the Edmond Maher Memorial Trophy for the supreme champion of the cattle section, is sure to be keen. A new Cup, presented by Mrs. Douglas McKensie Gordon will be awarded in the Friesian section and this year for the first time there will be a class for the best calf of any breed, led by a child of 12 years old and under. The Poultry Section will be well up to the exceptionally high standard of last year's Show while the Home Industries Section will present the usual colourful and decorative display. This very popular section of the Show has expanded considerably in recent years and now attracts entries from all over the country. The capable ladies committee, under the presidency of Mrs. Chavasse, have introduced new classes and ideas which will add considerable interest to this section. The sheep classes revived at last year's Show, after a lapse of some years, are again well filled and the Sheep Dog Trials have attracted competitors from far afield so that competition for the Comeragh and Sexton Cups will be keener than ever. The colourful lay-out of the jumping enclosure which is a feature of Dungarvan Show, has been planned by the President, and Capt. T. Morgan and includes several new jumps, while the parade of the Dungarvan Harriers Hunt Club will be led by the Joint Masters, Mr. Liam Morrissey and Mr. M. J. McGrath, V.S. There will be a further and very exceptional attraction at this year's Show, the parade of two rare and unusual animals, never before seen in Co. Waterford.

As usual, catering for the public will be in the hands of a capable Committee, under the Chairmanship of Mrs. J. Riordan, while Mrs. E. M. Hockin will be in charge of the judges' catering.

Granted fine weather, this year's Show promises to be an outstanding success and the hard-working committee have left nothing undone to maintain the tradition of efficient organisation and smooth running which has made this Show one of the most popular of Irish provincial shows.

The Show dance will be held in the Town Hall on Show night. Music by Dick Cushman and his dance band.

Home Economics' Expert's Lecture

An interesting course for Poultry Instructors is being held at the Irish Country Women's College, Termonfeckin Co. Louth, from July 23rd to 28th. They are studying Deep Freeze methods of Food Preservation, Cheese & Egg Cooking, and Public Speaking. Frau Gertrud Kuchler, Head of Rural Home Economics Service, Bavarian Ministry of Food, Agriculture & Forestry, will lecture on Home Economics on Thursday and Friday.

Youghal Show's Floral Queen

In connection with the Youghal horticultural show to be held in the town hall, next month, a competition will be held for the selection of the floral queen. All Youghal girls under eighteen years will be eligible to compete.

County Council Chairman Opens X-Ray Campaign

In the presence of a large attendance, County Council Chairman, Mr. Charles Curran, officially opened the Mass X-Ray Campaign in Dungarvan, on Monday last.

Mr. Curran appealed to both sexes to avail of the service. Their aim was 100%, and although this was a bit optimistic, he sincerely hoped the very important service would be utilised.

Mr. J. Griffin (Mayor of Waterford) said the service has been availed of in Waterford city, but not to the extent hoped for. Some did not yet seem to realise it was one of the most up to date units and a really fool proof instrument of diagnosis. Some may have been x-rayed and pronounced alright, but they would be making doubly sure by availing of it now.

The Lord Mayor continued: It is important that intelligent mothers bring their children along and act as good Samaritans to coax others who may not realise its importance. It is also vitally important that little kids be diagnosed. This is an opportunity to have the best possible service availed of, and it is available to all.

There was, he said, a very special obligation on the enlightened community to bring along others who were not so enlightened. By this service nobody was trying to sell a gold brick, and he appealed to all to make the best use of the services available.

Dr. J. J. Magnier, Director Mass Radiography, thanked Mr. Curran and the Lord Mayor for addressing the people. Dungarvan was associated with Mass X-ray for 12 years and was considered a model community. The Government spent £12 million on Bovine Tuberculosis, and now it was essential that they got rid of human tuberculosis. The people who came forward would be showing good example, and in general it was a test of the community.

Mr. Curran then asked the clergy and the Press to encourage the people in their own interests to avail of the service.

Dr. Michael O'Farrell, C.M.O.H., thanked Mr. Curran for introducing himself in an effort to control an infectious disease. It was good to have the co-operation of public officials and he hoped the public would give them the same co-operation.

FOR SAFER MILK

The following is an excerpt from a leading article in the "Irish Independent".

Some people may be surprised to learn that loose milk is still being sold in Dublin. True, it forms a comparatively small part of the total sales in the city, amounting to 4,000 gallons. Yet even that small proportion being easily susceptible of contamination, carries a grave threat to the health of the citizens and so long as its distribution is permitted it amounts to a needless and dangerous risk, largely annulling the expensive schemes which exist to protect the well-being of the public and particularly of the children.

There will, therefore, be a warm welcome for the Corporation's decision to request the Minister for Health to prohibit the sale of loose milk in the Metropolis. The justification for the request is that two mild outbreaks of tuberculosis in the city and county in recent years have been traced to tuberculosis infected milk. Everybody is aware that before the national campaign for the eradication of tuberculosis which fortunately has been largely successful the careless handling of milk was a potent factor in the spread of the disease. To allow the advances so dearly won to be endangered would be foolish and perhaps disastrous. If the regulations suggested are made they need not mean that the roundsmen concerned will be put out of business but that before offering the product for sale they will be required to have it pasteurised.

The Bower Bird

The Bower bird, a native of Australia, is the artist of the bird family and the odd bird out of the feathered tribe because it does not build a nest. It builds, instead, a bower which it decorates in an elaborate fashion. The bird chooses a piece of ground in an open space and makes a small mound of pebbles and shells, the brighter the better. Then small branches and twigs are collected and set into the mound in such a way as to form a small avenue of branches overlapping at the top. When the bower is finished, the work of decoration begins, both birds collecting any bright object which they can pick up, pieces of foil, coloured feathers and papers, bleached bones and shells, even spoons, rings and pieces of jewellery.

Outgoing Chairman and Vice-Chairman
Re-Elected

Mr. John Fahy (F.F.) Lyremerla, Clonmel (outgoing) was re-elected Chairman of Waterford Committee of Agriculture at the annual meeting on Saturday last. He defeated Mr.
Michael Hartly (who was unanimously re-elected Vice-Chairman) by 8 to 6.

Mr. J. Quirk proposed and Mr. C. Curran seconded Mr.
Fahy, while Mr. Hartly was proposed and seconded by Mr.
W. Dower and Mr. G. Heskin, respectively.

Mr. W. Foran said that regardless of party politics they should not be selfish where the chairmanship was concerned. The position should alternate between the Chairman and the Vice Chairman. This would show co-operation for the head, some thing that was headed more than ever now. If they could just confine it to every year between the two it would be a magnificent gesture. It would set a headline and might prove a great step forward.

Mr. Charles Curran said he had the highest regard for Mr.
Hartly, but felt they should go ahead with Mr. Fahy for another year. The position of Chairman should rotate he added, but they would be expressing the views of the people of County Waterford if he was Chairman again for the coming year at least.

Mr. Fahy said he only wanted to fall in with the wishes of the people.

The voting was as follows:
For Mr. Fahy—Messrs. Fahy
Curran, Whelan, Drohan, Dowd
O'Ryan, Quirk, Galgey (8);
For Mr. Hartly—Messrs. Hartly,
Butler, Dower, Foran, Heskin,
N. Walsh (6).

Mr. Fahy then thanked the members for re-electing him and with the co-operation he had received during the last two years as Chairman, his task was an easy and pleasant one.
He was sure he would get the same co-operation in the coming year.

Mr. W. Dower said as proposer of Mr. Hartly he wished to congratulate the Chairman on his re-election. It was not out of any animosity towards

PRESSING FOR PROHIBITION OF RAW MILK

Dublin City Council is pressing for prohibition of raw milk sales and a resolution to that effect went out this week to the Minister for Health.
The proposal came from Dr.
O'Regan M.O. and it was pointed out that two mild outbreaks of T.B. in addition to isolated cases had been traced to infected milk.

The Council's meeting was told that of 70,000 gallons of milk consumed in Dublin daily, 63,000 gallons was pas-teurised, 3,000 gallons was highest grade and 4,000 gallons or 6 per cent. was raw.

him, that he voted for Mr.
Hartly.

Mr. Hartly said he wished the Chairman every success, and would assure him of his own co-operation as he had always given him in the past. There was no ill-feeling on his part.

On the proposal of Mr. Curran, seconded by Mr. Quirk, Mr. Hartly was unanimously re-elected Vice-Chairman.

Mr. Hartly thanked his proposer and seconder, and the other members for returning him unopposed.

Good Catches in Sunday's Angling

Mr. M. Sargent, Cappoquin, won the Power Cup on Sunday with the heaviest individual catch, totalling fifty-three pounds, at the open in-shore competition organised by the Dungarvan Sea Anglers Club.

The club president Captain
A. Nicholson, Abbeyside, won the Bowman Cup for the heaviest fish caught, a seventeen pound tope; while the Casey Cup for the greatest number of fish was won by Mr.
Sev. Baumann, Kilrush, who caught fourteen fish.

Mrs. M. Shine, Abbeyside, had the heaviest catch, twenty-four pounds, to make her the winner of the Ladies' competition; while the heaviest fish in this section was caught by Mrs.
T. Fennell, Dungarvan, who hooked a two-and-a-quarter-pounds dogfish.

All participants reported good catches and the entries were large for the event.

Complaints Made Against Butter Used
in Ardkeen

Complaints that the butter used in Ardkeen and St. Patrick's Hospitals, Waterford, was not supplied locally were made by Mr. P. Cahill, at Monday's meeting of Waterford Health Authority.

Mr. Cahill said they were making the finest butter in the country in Co. Waterford, yet, they were not supporting their own milk producers.

Mr. C. Curran then proposed also like to see the milk producers getting a fair deal.

The butter used in Ardkeen and St. Patrick's was not produced in the County, while there were complaints from the patients that it was not up to the mark.

The Secretary (Mr. Hynes)
said the butter was accepted after tenders had been submitted.

The County Manager said
they would look into the matter and find out the reason for not using Waterford-produced butter.

Kilgobinet Fail in Dour Semi-Final

Valley Rovers 1-8 Kilgobinet 1-3

THE old, old maxim that outfield dominance is worthless unless turned into profitable account, was again blatantly borne out on Sunday last when Valley Rovers qualified for yet another Divisional junior football final by beating Kilgobinet
1-8 to 1-3.

The game if reviewed on the basis of football alone could be termed as something of a flop.
But so dedicated were the sides towards achieving their stipulated objective that, excitement ran high for most of the hour.
Unfortunately, this dedication went beyond the limits of the rule book on a few occasions and a number of players were fortunate not to have made a premature exit.

During the game both sides
had their monopolising periods of play, but was the Valleys who made best use of their advantages, and for that reason, more than anything else they are now in the decider against Ring.

FLOUNDERS
While the Derrinlaure stragglers adopted the straightforward methods near goal, their Kilgobinet counter-parts
with the exception of Ned Hanly and Billy Fitzgerald continuously tried to overrule the ball and floundered at all times in the face of a hard-hitting Rovers defence.

From the losses point of view the game was won and lost in the opening half. In that period Kilgobinet aided by the breeze literally encamped in the Valleys half. Their defence moved up-field, while mid-fielders Dec and Maurice Phelan (until his retirement) acted as additional forwards.

But as the minutes ticked by and their attack failed to makthe slightest impression, supporters must have abandoned
all hope of them ever scoring.
Shots that should normally have sailed over for valuable points were way off target, and the odd commendable goalkeeping efforts were brilliantly handled by the winners goalkeeper Jimmy Cleary.

INADEQUATE
Thus at the break, Kilgobinet for all that first-half superiority only led 0-3 to 0-1. In the face of the prevailing circumstances, it looked a totally inadequate lead, and one could not help thinking that they would have to pay the price for the sundermania. And as the second-half proved, those scoring lapses were paid for at the costliest price of all.

Twelve minutes after the resumption they not alone had the rebounded their two-point lead but they found themselves a point in arrears.
But then their fighting spirit took precedence over all else.
Again they regained the ascendancy and entering the final quarter were two points to the good.

CUT SHORT
However their superiority was cut short when their defence conceded a goal that should never have been, and thereafter the Valleys rapidly gaining in confidence dictated the trend of the game. Their forwards repeatedly outwitted a hesitant Kilgobinet rearguard, and a succession of belated points only emphasised the disparity between the sides
in these final minutes.

On the hour, however, the Valleys were the more purposeful side, and deserved their success. Against the breeze they put all their eggs in one basket as it were by defending stoutly, and on the change-over exploited the wind advantage to the best of their ability.

Kilgobinet, whose preparations for the game were intense just never seemed to click into top gear. The forwards must shoulder the responsibility of numerous first-half misses, while in the second-half their defence, so slack was it in marking that the winners appeared to possess an extra forward at times.

THE SCORING
Valleys took the lead after two minutes when Bobby Hewitt pointed, but Peter Power equalised three minutes later. From then to the interval the winners goal took a severe pounding and on occasions had miraculous escapes. But he accuracy of Kilgobinet's forwards made a mockery of their territorial advantage, and it was only points in the 28th and 29th minutes by Tomas Cummins and Power that enabled them to turn over leading 0-3
to 0-1.

Seven minutes after the restart Austin Barron reduced Kilgobinet's lead with a point, and Eddie Hewitt duly equalised from a free in the 9th minute. Completely on top at this stage the Valleys took the lead three minutes later with another point by Liam Bradshaw.
Then came the Kilgobinet

SALMON FISHING
The exceptionally good run of pease on grise was maintained in all areas last week and netmen had very good catches. Should this continue for the remaining few days of the open season, due to close on 31st July, the season, as far as grise are concerned, will, without doubt, be a record one. Statistics show that for June, when grise were not at their peak, there were 30 tons of fish taken in the Lismore area, being approximately eight and a half thousand grise and one and a half half thousand salmon. The returns for July will certainly exceed those for June. Netmen at Ardmore are still having a 'lean' time having to deal with large numbers of basking sharks in the bay.

YOUGHAL MEN LANDED FROM GERMAN TRAWLER

The German Trawler Saarbrücken (900 tons gross) arrived over the weekend at Cobh from the fishing grounds off Greenland, and after paying off the Irish members of the crew, departed for Portugal, where the catch of 300 tons of cod as well as fish meal and liver oil will be discharged. The four men landed were: Michael Barry, James Mulligan and Michael P. Murphy of Youghal and D. Flanagan of Sligo. They stated that they had to work very hard for 18 hours out of the 24, they had encountered many icebergs and a great deal of fog. The sun only shone one hour each day while they were in the Greenland area. They are still three more Youghal men to return from this fishing trip and they are expected in a few days time.

CYCLING

A successful cycling league was held recently in Youghal by the local Athletic & Cycling Club to help in training cyclists for track events. The league consisted of ten road races, handicapped, and the best four securing prizes. The prizewinners were: 1st—Martin Maher; 2nd—Pierce Hennessy; 3rd—G. Coleman; and 4th—Joe Butler. All gave a very good account of themselves and if the interest is maintained the Youghal Club will be one of the leading clubs in Munster.

YOUGHAL TOO STRONG FOR OWENACURRA

In the East Cork Junior hurling championship (Grade A), at Castlemartyr, Youghal beat Owenacurra Rovers by 6-9 to 3-3. The Rivers had the best of the first half but the more experienced Youghal team put the pressure on after the resumption, and were serving winners at the final whistle.

YOUGHAL RAIL CLOSURE

The local U.D.C. are now making final arrangements for the holding of a meeting at the Town Hall, Youghal, for the purpose of making a strong protest to C.I.E. and the Government against the proposed closure of the Cork/Youghal railway line. In addition to members of the Dail and Seanad of East Cork, representatives will attend the protest meeting from Youghal Traders Association, Strand Development Association, Youghal, Cobh and Middleton U.D. Councils, Cork Corporation, Cork Co. Council and Cork Council of Trade Unions.

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING OF COURSING CLUB

There was a large attendance at the annual general meeting of the Youghal Coursing Club which was held at the League Hall, Youghal, when Mr. P. Kelleher, Vice-Chairman, presided. The Hon. Treasurer, Mr. James O'Connor, presented his statement of accounts for the past twelve months, which was unanimously adopted. The Joint Hon. Secretaries, Messrs. J. Cronin and R. Power, reported on the activities of the Club and said that they should congratulate themselves on having a most successful season from every point of view. The annual coursing meeting in December was second to none when coursing was seen at its best and there was a good supply of staunch hares. In other fields members brought off great achievements and thus put Youghal Club in the limelight. Messrs. M. O'Mahony and F. Leahy brought off the Game Protection Cup at Millstreet; Mr. William Revins took the Sweeney Trophy Challenge between Youghal and Churchtown; South, and Mr. Thomas Kelleher was successful in the Sunday Dogs open Coursing. The financial as well as the social side was well catered for during the week when there was an outstanding 45 Drive at the Town Hall; 40 dances, a successful sweep on the Irish Cup and an enjoyable social at which there was a record attendance.

They paid tribute to members as a whole for their untiring support and co-operation during the year, with special thanks to Messrs. John Power, Philip Roche, P. Driscoll, P. Mackey and John Farrell for their help in connection with the annual coursing meeting. There was a good attendance at all committee meetings during the year, and at Sunday coursing. They exhorted members to continue the good work in the interests of the Club for the coming season.

The presiding Chairman said that the success of the Club was in the main due to the efforts of its officers: the Joint Hon. Secs. and Treasurer, and he paid tribute to the late Chairman, Mr. Joe Power. Messrs. Cronin and Power were re-elected Secretaries; Mr. J. O'Connor was re-elected Treasurer; the outgoing Committee were re-elected; and Mr. P. Kelleher was elected Chairman, and Mr. K. Power, Vice-Chairman.

NEW GOLF PAVILION FOR YOUGHAL

A new golf pavilion Youghal has been completed at a cost of several thousand pounds. At 10.30 a.m., on Sunday next the pavilion will be blessed by the Parish Priest Very Rev. Canon Sheehan, P.P. and the official opening by the Club's President Rev. D. O'Connell, C.C., will take place at 8.30 p.m. Following the official opening a social will be held in the new building with buffet refreshments.

CENTRAL WHEAT LABORATORY

The National Farmers' Association has accepted an invitation from the Irish Flour Millers' Association to share in the direction of the Central Wheat Laboratory which is being set up by the Millers to test doubtful samples of wheat for milling. In accepting the invitation to share in the direction of the Laboratory the National Farmers' Association wishes to make it clear that it does not accept the Millers' right to set standards for wheat for milling. The flour millers, except this position while reiterating their own view that they must be free to set the standards they require for their raw material.

The Laboratory will be in operation for the coming harvest. Growers whose wheat has been rejected on the grounds that it fails to meet the Millers' standards for wheat, will be able to send samples to the laboratory for testing, on payment of a small fee. In the case of wheat which has been wrongly rejected, the full milling price will be paid to the grower.

Conferences are now being arranged for wheat growers with a view to: (1) Explaining procedure at wheat intake points for the coming harvest; (2) Arranging demonstration of technical apparatus to be used at intake points during the coming harvest; (3) Explaining the procedure for having misjudged wheat samples tested. A separate notice has been forwarded to each N.F.A. Co. Secretary and County Representative asking them to arrange to nominate Representatives to attend the Conference for their County, which will be held during the forthcoming weeks. Any wheat grower who is especially interested in attending the Conference for his County should get in touch with the appropriate N.F.A. County Secretary or County Representative. It is of the utmost importance that these Conferences should be well attended.

A special invitation has been issued to the Chief Agricultural Officers for the Counties mentioned above inviting them and the Agricultural Inspectors for those Counties to attend. It is proposed to hold similar type Conferences to suit every County prior to the harvest.

Touraneena News

RETURNED TO THE U.S.
Following holidays spent at the parental home Touraneena, Mr. Laurence Tobin, together with his wife and children, left Shannon Airport on Tuesday last on return journey to America.

LUCKY WINNERS
In the drawing of prizes held recently in aid of the Ballymacarby Camogie Club the lucky winners were: 1st prize, Miss Ambrose Moore, Deerpark, Ballymacarby; 2nd prize, Mr. Michael Comerford, Glenanore, Nire Valley; 3rd prize, Mr. Bill Ryan, Knockalishem, Nire Valley.

TOURANEENA STADIUM
Favoured with fine weather a large crowd of dancers attended the Open-Air Stadium at Touraneena on Sunday night last where a first class programme of music was supplied by Jimmy McCarthy and his Orchestra.

On Sunday night, 5th August, the Jackie Hearst Cell Band will provide the music at the above Stadium.

WEDDING BELLS
The marriage took place in St. Mary's Church, Touraneena on Tuesday of last week, of Mr. James Power, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Power, Glenanore, Ballinacorney, and Miss Theresa Sheehan, S.R.N., youngest daughter of Mr. Thomas Sheehan and the late Mrs. Sheehan, Killeany, Ballymacarby.

The ceremony was performed by Very Rev. David Power P.P., Clashmore (uncle of the groom) who also celebrated the Nuptial Mass and imparted the Papal Blessing. He was assisted by Very Rev. P. Walsh, P.P., Touraneena and Rev. P. Hallinan (cousin of the groom) who is home on holidays from New Guinea.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was attractively attired in a ballet-length gown of white lace, over blue satin, with a shoulder-length veil, held in place with a coronet of pink carnations. The groom wore a tuxedo with a boutonniere of pink carnations. The bride carried a bouquet of white carnations.

The child attendants were Miss Eileen Clifford (niece of the groom) who wore a pink tulle frock with a headpiece to match and carried pink and white carnations, and Master Tomas Sheehan (nephew of the bride).

Mr. Richard Power, who travelled from the U.S. for the occasion, was best man. Upwards of sixty guests attended the reception held at Killoon Lodge, Cahir, after which the happy pair left on their honeymoon, which was spent touring the south of Ireland.

Going away the bride wore a pale blue suit with white accessories.

We join with their many friends in extending to them best wishes for their future success and happiness.

KILGOBINET CONFIDENT OF DETHRONING CHAMPIONS

Western junior hurling champions, Fourmilewater, face what is undoubtedly their sternest test to date when they meet Kilgobinet in the Divisional semi-final at Lismore on Sunday.

No matter how one views or assesses the game it can be justly billed as champions versus champions, for Kilgobinet be it remembered are also divisional title-holders, having won the Grade B championship twelve months ago. Therefore, under such electrifying and enticing circumstances is it any wonder that this semi-final is arousing such wide-spread interest.

SIMON HANLEY (Kilgobinet)

That Fourmilewater are favourites is a fact accepted even by the most partisan Kilgobinet supporters. But that in effect means little or nothing to these self-same supporters whose confidence in their side is based not on club allegiance alone. They have watched with immense satisfaction the rapid progress of the side in recent months, training has been stepped up considerably as D-day approaches and over-all the general trend of matters in the camp makes their confidence justifiable.

The defeat of the footballers on Sunday last has only goaded on the hurlers. The many casualties of that game have the exception of Maurice [unclear] needed fit and exuberant confidence will be [unclear] in their approach.

The team has not yet been selected, no startling changes expected from last year's successful combination. Gaelic Simon Hanley has been selected, his best form of late. The experienced Drummy and [unclear] from a solid back-line.

It seems reasonably certain to occupy a mid-field position, most likely by Bernie Lonergan. The potential of the back-line need any build-up, long ago such as Bobbie Buckley, [unclear] and Roger McCarthy. [unclear] Hayes have given [unclear] sense of direction, near goal and the Ballymae defence will have its work cut out to cope with this quartet.

As yet, the holders, have had little opposition to overcome and in their last outing outclassed Kilrossanty.

Mick Connolly, Tom Walsh and Jimmy Hewitt, all absentees against the Comeragh men will be on duty on Sunday and with Kieran Ryan, Liam Ryan, Martin and Benny Walsh will spearhead their effort towards the retention of their crown.

The more one sizes up the pros and cons, the ifs and buts, and merits and demerits of the

what is certain to be an exciting challenge.

BALLYDUFF-ARDMORE TIE WIDE OPEN

While Fourmilewater and Kilgobinet are settling their differences of opinion regarding the better hurling sides a Lismore, no less an intriguing battle will be waged just four short miles away at Cappoquin where Ballyduff and Ardmore meet for the right to contest the Western final against the Lismore winners.

Again it is a distinct likelihood that patrons will witness a thrilling struggle and mindful that discretion is the better part of valour, one should if a all possible sidestep the task of arriving at an out-right decision or, the outcome.

In their roads to this semi-final both teams have with the utmost confidence disposed of all opposition.

In their quarter final engagement against a strongly fancied Shamrocks side, Ardmore brilliantly rose to the occasion and after a dour and unrelenting encounter had three points to spare at the end.

At a similar junction in Ballyduff's victory march, they looked an impressive side and live championship prospects when decisively beating Tourin.

Thus, on their latest performances it is almost an impossibility to row in with any side with a degree of assurance.

Ballyduff, will, however, be greatly handicapped by the loss to Mikey Quirke, who received marching orders on Sunday last against Ring in the junior football championship. Had Quirke been available, the scales would surely be tilted slightly in their favour, but without him their prospects will automatically deteriorate.

As a result, Ballyduff must look elsewhere for their leadership but in Shamie Flynn, Mickey Feeney, Joe Daly, Davy Barry and Mick Bercher they have players well capable of instigating victory.

Ardmore, will in all probability, field the side that beat Shamrocks. But to master as hard-hitting a side as there is in the County—and that is not slurring in any way Ballyduff, they will have their work cut out for them.

As I stated, it is a game that could very well go either way. Ballyduff, with Quirke, would be my fancy, but now the scales may just about get there.

TIPP, MAKE SURE AT SECOND ATTEMPT

The proximity with which Tipperary came to defeat in their draw with Limerick proved "just what the doctor ordered" for the replay on Sunday last, when the All-Ireland champions on this occasion, not obsessed with the evils of over-confidence, swept aside the challenge of the Shannonsiders and qualified for the Munster final against Waterford on Sunday week.

There was in fact no comparison between the Tipperary sides of the drawn game and the team that carried out its act of annihilation on Sunday. For one thing, they were 100% fit and matched Limerick's much vaunted speedsters in the run to every ball.

It was to put it mildly a complete anti-climax, as Limerick never reached the heights of the drawn game. The question uppermost in the minds of the followers now is — are Tipperary as good as they looked on Sunday? Limerick, it is true, were unbelievably poor, but yet to overlook an attempt to qualify Tipp's undoubted strength would be the height of folly.

Whatever way one views this Tipperary Waterford decision, there can only be one conclusion — that it will produce a feast of

'BLOODY SUNDAY' Dungarvan, Cappoquin, Lismore Resembled Battlefields

DUNGARVAN . CAPPOQUIN . LISMORE

Gaelic venues that have for many years echoed and re-echoed to the unsurpassable thrills of championship encounters had the public spotlight focussed on them again on Sunday last. But unfortunately these history steeped

Take first Dungarvan's Fraher Field. Of the three games listed at these venues the Old Boro' meeting of Valley Rovers and Kilgobinet in the Junior football championship was the least revolting. But yet there were numerous bouts of fisticuffs that at one stage involved club officials and substitutes. After the game at least two Kilgobinet players had to receive medical attention, but whether as a result of accidents or not, I cannot say. Nor do I know if any Valley Rovers players had to be similarly treated.

True there have been far worse games played, yet there were several incidents that should NOT have occurred.

AT CAPPOQUIN
By all accounts the scenes during and after the Primary football game between Clashmore and Shamrocks at Cappoquin did no credit to the clubs concerned.

Throughout, good sportsmanship was never considered and to spectators it came as no surprise when the game was abandoned four minutes from time. Clashmore were at that stage leading by six points and appeared to have the game well in hand.

But right through the preceding fifty-six minutes, play was so rough as to be a danger to the participants. Some it is true, played the ball at all times but they were in the minority where flying fists and lunging legs seemed to be the order of the day. Then towards the close came the most savage incident of all. Another flare-up involving players and spectators took place and one individual who belatedly joined in the ruck broke a timber flag he possessed off the head of a Clashmore player. Without going further it would only be right to mention that this person it is believed is a member of the Association. To quote one observer at the game, whose opinion is highly regarded at all times, it was "a frightening exhibition of violence."

AT LISMORE
Finally the junior football championship semi-final between Ring and Ballyduff at Lismore. Here again it looked more like a test of physical strength and fistic prowess than an important championship engagement. Outbursts of temper were painfully frequent, players seemed to wait for opponents to make a false move

'homes' of the Gaelic Athletic Association were not the centres of customary thrills, but of degrading skirmishes that made each pitch in turn look something like a battlefield and earned for July 22 the title of, without exaggeration, "Bloody Sunday."

and whom—the fight was on, they bore the end another fight resulted in a Ballyduff player being sent to the line. Then at the final whistle the player—disgruntled at being ordered off rushed at referee Mick Whyte and struck him several blows.

These then are the sickening stories from Dungarvan, Cappoquin and Lismore. Thankfully they are not everyday occurrences, but of late they are happening all too frequently. Few if any players purport to be field angels, but certainly the carry on of some on Sunday last impaired badly the name of good sportsmanship.

Let it be stressed here and now that the referees concerned and any Board Officials who witnessed these happenings will be falling in their duties if they do not present full details at the next Divisional Board meeting. To the referees in particular, I say: Conceal no facts. Bring in the culprits to as great an extent as possible. To the Western Board I say: Take your cue from there. Make the best use of any official information you receive. This must be stamped out before it becomes uncontrollable. And NOW is the time to act.

Never again do we want a repeat of Sunday last. Up and coming minors on whom the future is dependent, will only be discouraged by such happenings. For if the youth are gone the game is gone.

Kilrossanty and Stradbally Likely Winners

ALTHOUGH the forthcoming Munster hurling final against Tipperary is understandably occupying pride of place in the minds of followers just now, there can be no concealing the interest in next Sunday's senior football championship games at Dungarvan and Waterford. At the Old Boro venue Kilrossanty meet unpredictable Emmetts, while Galltier and last year's defeated finalists Stradbally clash in the City Sportsfield.

The Kilrossanty Emmetts game is a novel one in the extreme. Sunday could well be described as debutants' day for while Emmetts will be making their first appearance in the higher grade, it will also be Kilrossanty's initial championship outing since the now famous split.

DISASTROUS RESULTS
Right now, everyone is eager to find out whether Kilrossanty, their ranks broken as a result of a parish controversy can still challenge strongly for highest honours. That Phelan Cup defeat by the "second half" of the parish—John Mitchell's, a white back seems to have had disastrous results and in recent challenge game the side has moved with a sluggishness that must give cause for anxiety amongst followers. Sunday may answer all.

Further disheartening news is that goalkeeper S. Ormonde and full-back Matty Lonergan are both on the injured list and as yet have not declared fully fit. Ormonde has a nasty foot injury while "Matteen" is suffering from a swollen back. "Neddy" Lonergan is a definite non-starter, being a victim of appendicitis.

Not lacking the material.

Not are they lacking in the material to accomplish it. Led by Vincent Byrne, Dick Tobin, Jack Kiely, Sean Condon and Gerry Dwyer, they have the individuals that are ever so capable of doing just that. It should be a close and exciting tussle all the way. Emmetts cannot be ruled out as possible winners, but Kilrossanty, experienced championship campaigners that they are must be regarded as favourites and are given the vote to advance.

AT WATERFORD
Stradbally, having suffered the ill-luck of being beaten in last year's final by Mt. Sion, have their high season's set on "going the hogg" this year. And on Sunday next they will attempt to shorten that difficult road to glory when they encounter Gal Tir in Waterford.

WATERFORD'S PREPARATIONS CONTINUE

Quietly but thoroughly and effectively Waterford's Munster final preparations continue.

At Walsh Park, Waterford, trainer Jack Frazer is putting the players through the mill, ensuring that all will be ready for the big occasion. So far, there has been an almost one-hundred per cent response and the players have seldom approached any former sessions with such enthusiasm.

On Friday the selectors added two former All-Ireland stars to the panel and although not officially disclosed, it is believed that 'Duck' Whelan and Joe Harney are the ones.

News of the injured stars, Frankie Walsh and Tom Cheasty is that both are progressing satisfactorily but will not be available for August 5.

Ring Qualify for Western Final

RING 2-8 BALLYDUFF UPPER 0-9

AFTER one of the toughest games staged at the Lismore venue in many years, Ring junior footballers vindicated their pre-match favouritism by scoring a five-point victory over Ballyduff on Sunday last and qualified for a Western final tilt with Valley Rovers.

Toughness in a game is one thing, but when the exchanges are marred by acts of sheer rowdiness it is high time action was taken by the controlling authorities. Ans here is an occasion that is crying out for drastic action.

Throughout the game there was agitation and when not by both sides, although again it must be stated that Ballyduff were far bigger culprits than Ring. For referee Mick Whyte it was a night-marish experience trying to control the game and under such trying conditions he did an exceedingly good job. However, the after-match assault on him by a Ballyduff player was completely unwarranted.

Ring paved the way for victory in the opening half when after playing with the advantage of a strong breeze they led 2-4 to 0-1 at the interval.

During those first thirty minutes they were almost continuously on the attack and were in no way flattered by their nine-point lead.

RADICAL CHANGES

During the interval recess, Ballyduff made radical changes but although the switches made for considerable improvement, they failed to whittle down their half-time deficit.

LOSERS OPENED SCORING

Ballyduff opened the scoring with a third minute point from a free by Enright. But the winners, within a minute took the lead they never subsequently relinquished when Tommy McGrath's close-in free went untouched to the net.

McGrath's close-in free went untouched to the net. McGrath (free) and Pat Harty tacked on further points before John Leahy displayed an expert piece of opportunism when scoring his side's second goal.

Before the interval, Tommy Joe Harty and McGrath, free, stretched Ring's lead further with a brace of minors.

Within minutes of the restart Harty was again on the mark from a free. Then came

On the credit side is the first appearance of mid-fielder Pat Flynn in competitive football. Flynn, will, I have no doubt, be a tremendous acquisition and partnered in all probability by his brother Tom, can give Kilrossanty the advantage in this vital sector.

"AS YOU WERE" Elsewhere on the line-out it is expected to be a case of "as you were." Maher, Moloney, "Matteen" if fit, Baldwin, Noel and Tom Walsh fill key positions in defence and will present a stupendous barrier for the Colligan attack.

But if the Comeragh defence and midfield appear splendidly equipped, the same cannot be said of the attack. Pender, Whyte and Cunningham have, as yet this year, to reproduce their brilliance of two or three years ago and doubtless Kilrossanty supporters will be hoping for better things on Sunday.

Emmetts will be eager to make their introduction into senior ranks a winning one and urged on by the first-round victory of their senior hurlers (alias Colligan Rockies) over Dunhill, can be relied upon to strive might and main to complete a first round double—a feat which would be

Stradbally, having suffered the ill-luck of being beaten in last year's decider by Mt. Sion, have their sighs firmly set on "going the hogg" this year. And on Sunday next they will attempt to shorten that difficult road to glory when they encounter Gal Tir in Waterford.

The Reds cannot however feel as optimistic as would be normally expected. For not alone are Gall Tir generally regarded as a rising football power, but they cannot altogether overlook their own disappointing form against Ardmore in a Phean Cup tie on Friday night last.

On that occasion they looked anything but strong championship contenders and will have to produce infinitely better form if they hope to advance on Sunday.

WITHIN THEIR CAPABILITIES

It is, I believe, something well within their capabilities. The side is composed in the main, of last year's fifteen which could and in fact should have annexed county honours. Every member of the side is well schooled in the game, somewhat that applies in particular to such exponents of the code as Paddy Power, Tom Foley, Ken Murphy, Terry and Jimmy Guiry and John Fennell.

Gall Tir of course remain unperturbed by Stradbally's reputation. Their side is young and enthusiastic, but above all highly skilful. Never have they felt so confident of success.

Like the Dungarvan game, there should belittle in it at the end. But the Reds, by far the more experienced footballers, may find themselves on the right side of a "too-close-for-comfort" final scoreline.

and whom—the fight was on, they bore the end another fight resulted in a Ballyduff player being sent to the line. Then at the final whistle the player—disgruntled at being ordered off rushed at referee Mick Whyte and struck him several blows.

These then are the sickening stories from Dungarvan, Cappoquin and Lismore. Thankfully they are not everyday occurrences, but of late they are happening all too frequently. Few if any players purport to be field angels, but certainly the carry on of some on Sunday last impaired badly the name of good sportsmanship.

Let it be stressed here and now that the referees concerned and any Board Officials who witnessed these happenings will be falling in their duties if they do not present full details at the next Divisional Board meeting.

To be referees in particular, I say: 'Concave to face's. Blunt the culprits to as great an extent as possible.

To the West's Board I say: 'Take your cue from there. Make the best use of any official information you receive. This must be stamped out before it becomes uncontrollable. AND NOW is the time to act.
