Minister Upholds Engineers Appeal

Heated Exchanges At Council Meeting

THE total impact on the rates from the Engineering Section would be £800, but they were saving the ratepayers far more than that by doing hours of overtime at their own free will. They were still doing it regardless of the harsh treatment they had received from the Council.

So said Mr. Jerry Ormond, Chief Assistant Co. Engineer, at last Tuesday's meeting of Waterford County Council, when Co. Secretary Mr. J. G. Dowling read a letter from the Minister for Local Government directing that revised salary scales be paid to the Chief Assistant and Assistant Engineers, retrospective to April 1st, 1961.

The Chairman (Col. Charles Curran) said the engineers were refused an increase by the Council and they then appealed to the Minister, Mr. O'Connell.

Mr. J. Ormond said £800 of that was the result of the Engineers' increase but they were saving more than that for the ratepayers during the year by going hours of overtime of their own free will on the far programme for the county. It had to be completed by December and they worked late and early on it over-time every year without any obligation to do so. They were still doing it regardless of the harsh treatment they had received by the Council.

of it, continued Mr. Ormond. Every attack on the Engineers is magnified as a heinous crime but the other side of the story is never brought out.

Colr. Lannon said the Engineers were not giving the services they should. As it was they were getting too much for what they had to do. They wanted to be the bosses and the people the slaves.

Mr. Ormond—Colr. Lannon is talking through viciousness as he always does. If we're not entitled to defend ourselves I don't know what to say.

Chairman, but I still retain my opinion. The Engineers are doing overtime morning and evening of their own free will. If they did not do it, it would cost the ratepayers a lot more than £800.

Colr. W. Foran said they were reaching a stage when they would have to chop down or resign and hand everything, lock, stock and barrel, over to the Minister. They were reaching a dangerous position in the country to-day and the sooner they realised it the better.

Colr. J. Quirk said all these increases should be dealt with at one meeting a year.

WEDDING BELLS

FOLEY-O'CONNELL

The wedding took place, with Nuptial Mass and Papal blessing at the Church of Our Lady of Good Counsel, Clashmore, between Mr. Thomas Foley, son of Mrs. Ellen Foley and of the late Mr. Patrick Foley, Moonamean, Ring, and Miss Mary O'Connell, daughter of the late Thomas and Mary O'Connell, Lackmore, Clashmore.

Very Rev. Fr. D. Power, P.P. Clashmore, officiated and celebrated the Nuptial Mass and imparted the Apostolic Benediction, assisted by Rev. Fr. V. Power, C.C. Ring.

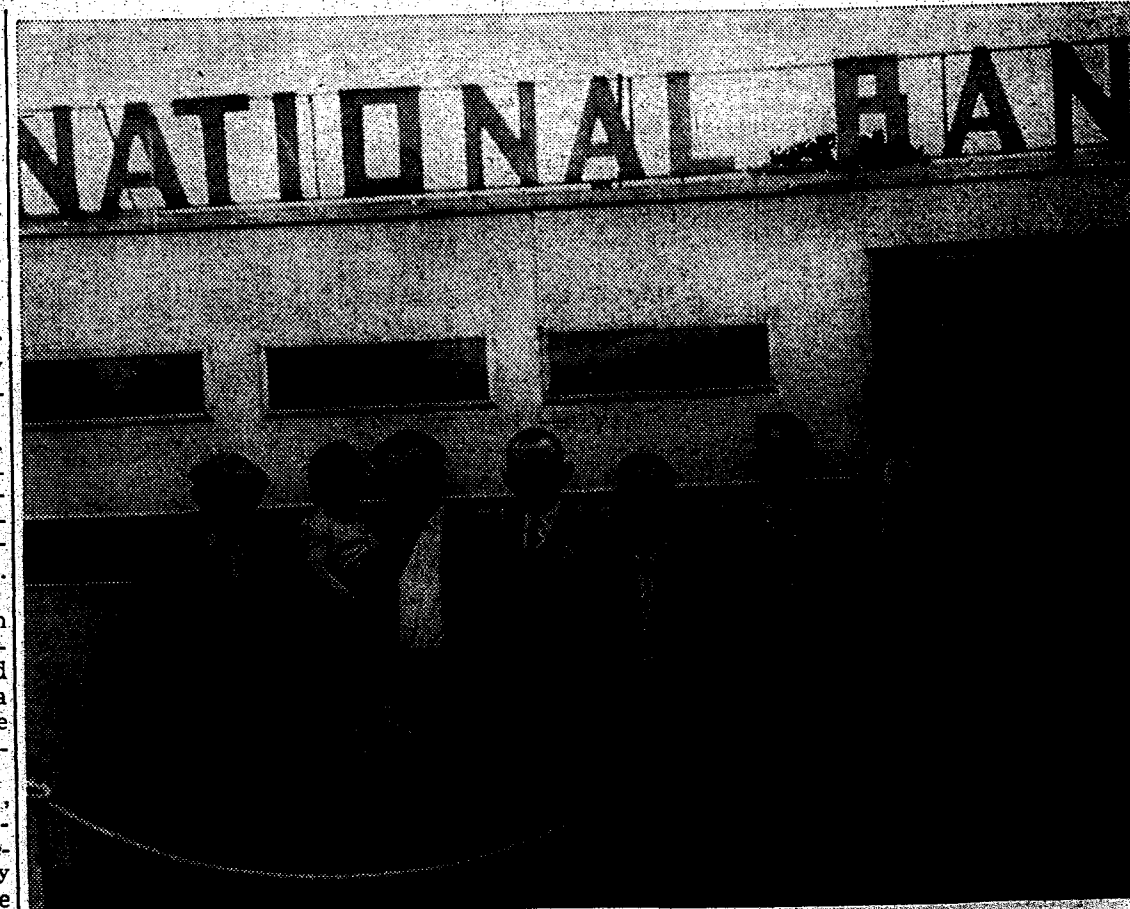

The bride who was given away by her brother Mr. Cornelius O'Connell, was attended by her cousin Miss Rita O'Connell as bridesmaid. The bride wore a petrol blue two-piece costume and carried a Bridal Missal.

The best man was Mr. Declan Foley, brother of the bridegroom. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Park House Dungarvan after which the happy couple left on their honeymoon on a motoring tour of the West of Ireland.

'LOOSE' MILK BAN NEXT YEAR

As from January 1st, 1963, the sale of "loose" milk in the County Borough of Dublin will be prohibited as the result of an Order issued by the Minister for Health.

The order prohibits the sale of milk in the Borough except under a special designation within the meaning of the Milk and Dairies Act, 1935.

FOLK SCHOOL MEET IN RING

The Minister for Social Welfare Mr. Gerald Boland, will attend for the official opening of the week-long Munster Folk School to be held this year at Ring College. Among the prominent speakers who will participate in the all-through-the-medium of Irish discussions lasting from Thursday, August 23rd, to Thursday August 30th, will be leading educationalists, business men and technicians.

The local Appointments Commissioners have recommended the appointment of Miss O'Connell, B.D.S., as dental surgeon under Waterford Health Authority.

LOCAL DOCTOR BEREAVED

Bereaved by the death of his brother, Mr. William O'Connell, B.E., which occurred in Cork on Saturday, is popular local physician Dr. C. P. O'Connell, Grattan Square, Dungarvan.

MORE FROM GERMANY

Mr. Tomas O'Meara serving with the American forces in Frankfurt Germany is now enjoying a well earned holiday in his native Tournesee. He is son of Capt. Jack O'Meara and Mrs. O'Meara, Knockboy, Ballinacult.

MUSHROOM TIME IS HERE

Mushrooms are up in fairly plentiful quantities in the Kinshabeg Youghal district at present.

MAS X-RAY SESSION

Following its session this morning (Thursday) at Mahon Bridge creamery and an afternoon spent at Straebally, the mobile X-Ray unit of the National Mass Radiography will operate in Ballinacult, at the creamery yard and in Tournesee Village this evening up to 9.30 p.m.

BIG SHARK CATCHES IN THE BAY

The sharks are having a pretty tough time of it these days off the Black Rock, as more and more home and visiting anglers set out with rods baited to catch the killers and they are catching them in large numbers.

Last week members of Dungarvan Sea Anglers' Club had a fine catch of five sharks which they caught in Dungarvan Bay in the course of one afternoon's fishing. The heaviest shark in the catch weighed seventy-one pounds.

Prominent among the local shark-fishermen are Messrs. John Casey, Owen Shine, Alfred Nicholson and Joe Riordan.

Salary Increase Rejected

BY twelve votes to seven an application for a revision of his salary scale by the Co. Engineer, Mr. J. D. Hally, was rejected at last Tuesday's meeting of Waterford County Council.

Mr. J. G. Dowling said the present salary scale for the Co. Engineer was £1880x£60 to £2140 and the revised scale would be £2115 x £72-10 to £2405.

Deputy T. A. Kyne said their Engineers was as good as any and were entitled to the increases. There was a national scale and he felt he (Co. Engineer) should get it.

Colr. T. Lannon said last year Mr. Hally got £400 travelling expenses, but with all the holiday and days off he had, he couldn't see how it amounted to that. His present salary was £41.10.0 a week and now they wanted to give him another £4.10.0. In a country such as theirs, the whole thing needed a shaking up.

Colr. M. Morrissey said all the men under the Co. Engineer had got it, and they were only going to cause affliction between the top and bottom by refusing it.

Colrs. Curran, Dower, Harty, Lannon, Drohan, Fahy, Foran, O'Ryari, Heskin, Montayne, Galgey (12); For—Colrs. Butler, Kyne, Roche, Kenneally, Madden, Morrissey, R. Walsh (7).

Colr. Lannon—No one in his sane sense could give an extra £4.10.0 a week to a man who has already £41-10-0 a week.

Colr. Morrissey—The Minister will eventually grant it and then the ratepayers will get a bill over their heads for back money.

MUNSTER FINAL FOR SWIMMERS

Following the conclusion of the Water Safety week which is being conducted by the Irish Red Cross Society at the Swimming Pool in Dungarvan the Munster FINALS OF THE Swimming and lifesaving competitions for the President's Trophy will be held in Dungarvan on Sunday next.

MANAGER SEEKS RECOVERY OF SITE

A Manager's Order instructing the Urban Council's solicitor to take proceedings against the owner of the premises known as The Red Garage at The Quay, Dungarvan, for recovery of the site in view of the commencement of the new public toilet, came in for criticism at the Council's monthly meeting on Friday.

One member said all the owner wanted was alternate accommodation and no proceedings should be taken against him. The Engineer was to see if he could provide a site for him at "The Shambles".

Colr. R. Walsh who in the absence of Deputy Kyne, presided, said the new building was up and the "Red Garage" did not seem to effect it at all.

A member said it was up to the Council to try and get him alternate accommodation and not take proceedings against him.

Colr. T. Lannon said proceedings should be dropped until they got a report from the Engineer, Mr. P. Walsh.

This was agreed to.

PROPOSED RAIL CLOSURE

Council To Meet Taoiseach

County Secretary (Mr. J. G. Dowling) told members of Waterford County Council at their monthly meeting on Tuesday, that Cork County Council, Cork Corporation and Waterford Corporation were willing to join in a deputation with them to the Taoiseach and Dr. C. S. Andrews, Chairman CIE regarding the proposed closure of the Waterford-Mallow Railway line.

The Chairman (Colr. Charles Curran) said he was invited to a meeting of Youghal U.D.C. at which members of the Cork County Council and Corporation and the Chairman of Middleton U.D.C. were present. He was very impressed by statements made by the T.D.s. present and they made very sound arguments for not closing the line. But if their approach was to be one of attacking people there was no hope of making progress, Cork Co. Council took the initiative in calling the meeting he added.

Colr. G. Heskin said he travelled to Dublin by road during the rail strike and it was an absolute nightmare. If the railway closed, now that the new Youghal Bridge was opening, he wondered what would

SYMPATHY

At last Tuesday's County Council meeting in Dungarvan sympathy was extended to Mr. Nicholas A. Kelly, U.D.C. and a former member of the Co. Council, on the death of his wife. Sympathy was also extended to the relatives of the late Michael Doocey, Drogheda, Aglish, Mr. Doocey was a prominent Gaelic footballer in his young days and played senior for Waterford many times.

SALMON NET SEASON.

Ever though the netting season ended on July 31st, the catches of grills or peals for the closing six weeks is still being discussed and various reasons are given for the very heavy run of fish in the tidal area. So far the upper reaches of the Blackwater is without salmon due to the fact that they can't get there as the water is exceedingly low. The returns for July are not yet to hand but considering that there was a record catch of 31 tons of fish for June it is estimated that for July it should reach the 40/45 ton mark.

YOUGHAL HAS GAY LOOK.

Prior to the August weekend the Strand Improvement Committee under the Chairmanship of Mr. William Perks completed the wiring and erection of coloured lights both on the upper and lower strand. Following the switch on by Very Rev. Canon Sheehan P.P. assisted by Rev. O.A. Peare, M.A. Rector there was a lavish fireworks display watched by many local people and visitors.

Canon Sheehan thanks the Committee for their efforts in the interests of the town, and also the E.S.B. for their co-operation. The multi coloured illuminations will remain until the end of the season.

WEST WATERFORD NEWS

T.V. UNIT VISITS CLASHMORE
A T.E. film unit visited Clashmore area on Saturday last to take pictures of the well known tokiary garden at Kilmaloo. This attractive garden, property of Mrs. K. Joyce, attracted numerous visitors and was featured on R.E. last year.

GARDA PROMOTION
Garda Michael Mulcaire, who was recently promoted to rank of Sergeant, served for a period at Clashmore. His many friends join in wishing him congratulations.

NEW LICENSING LAWS
As in other parts of the county the new Licensing Laws came into effect in this area on Sunday last. Most people feel the period of 7 1/2 hours is far too long for drinking on Sundays and that it will have an adverse effect on family life.

The new act has created the impression that drinking is the chief occupation of the Irish people. The general opinion appears to be that 8 to 10 would be the most satisfactory hours for Sunday evening drinking.

HOME FROM U.S.
Enjoying a holiday in her native Coolbagh, Clashmore, at present is Mrs. J. Casey (nee Ronayne), Mass., U.S.A. Her numerous friends are pleased to see her in excellent health. Mrs. Casey's last visit home was eight years ago.

AGLISH MAN'S SAD DEATH
The tragic death of Mr. M. Doocey, Dromore, Aglish, came as a great shock to the people of the area and cast a gloom over the entire neighbourhood. A popular and respected figure deceased was a well-known farmer and outstanding all-round sportsman. To his bereaved brothers and sisters deep sympathy is extended — R.I.P.

LOCAL PROJECTS
The following replies have been received by Mr. C. Curran M.C.C. from the Co. Engineer's office:

1. Concrete mixer at Ardmore—has been removed from outside Parish Church to another position.

2. Layrattin-Dyrick Road—in good condition—is on Five-Year Plan and will probably be included in 1963 Road Works Scheme.

3. Tinnock-Tinnock road recently repaired and in good condition; first section of Ballinamertina road on programme for improvement in current year and will continue for future years.

4. Proposed warning sign at Tinnockart Cross—matter having attention.

5. Road Curranroche to Dromana—proposal to finish to Dromana gate being examined and will advise further in due course.

6. Roads, Clashmore area—condition being examined and report later.

7. Roadworkers—matter being examined, will submit report.

were met by a reception Committee comprised of the Chairman of the U.D.C. Mr. Sean P. Daly, B.E. Mr. T. Hickey, U.D.C. and Mr. F. Mooney, Town Clerk. The organiser of the 'Operation Eire' consisting of 46 caravans was Mr. F.C. Dain who made reference to the old bridge across the Blackwater saying 'Perhaps there is a prize for negotiating the jig-saw bridge'. The convoy later departed for Garretstown for the Caravan Clubs (Munster centre) three days rally. Composed of English and Scottish visitors the convoy has been travelling to the South since they crossed at Larne over a week ago.

MILITARY BALL AT YOUGHAL.
On August 1st last a Grand Dress Ball was held at Red-barn Holiday Camp when over 500 patrons attended which was organised by the Military Camp, and the proceeds from the event went to the Army Benevolent Fund. In the gala decorated ballroom military shields were most prominent. The music was supplied by the Band of the Southern Command under Captain Kealy, B.Mus. The Barney Ceili Band and the Michael O'Callaghan Band. The organising Committee was under the Chairmanship of Lt. Col. Wills, assisted by Captains P. Kelly, S.T. Kelly, J. Siye, E. Flynn, D. Madden and G. Fitzgibbon.

CORKMAN'S BODY RECOVERED.
At about 12.30 on Sunday last the body of Robert Hogan of Clovne who recently fell off the Youghal Bridge, was located at the mouth of the harbour at Moll Goggin's Corner. A local young photographer named Pesto entered the water and brought the body to the strand. It was later removed to the Market House. An inquest will be held later. Later the remains were removed to the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Tallow and the funeral took place to Aglish Cemetery on Monday last followed by a large gathering.

BANK HOLIDAY RUSH.
Over the weekend there was a great influx of visitors to Youghal in addition to the buses and private cars the trains brought 4,600 on Sunday and over 2,000 on Monday. The weather was anything but kind as on both days there were very heavy showers with bright sunshine between. The traffic problem which was heavier than usual was capably handled by the local Garda with outside assistance.

YOUGHAL DISTRICT COURT
At Youghal District Court before Mr. L. Skinner, D.J. John Higgins of Mount Cotton, Ballymacoda was charged with driving a pony and cart at Youghal while drunk and in a manner dangerous to the public. He was fined £8 with £36.0 expenses. At the same court Robert Buckley, Cathedral Road, Cork, was fined £2 for disorderly behaviour at Perks Amusements on the Strand while under the influence of drink.

LATE MRS. HELEN G. FRAHER COOLNASMEAR
To the great regret of all who had the pleasure of knowing her and who appreciated her so highly for her many appealing qualities of head and heart, the death of Mrs. Helen Fraher, Coolnasmear, Dungarvan, took place at her residence, on August 2nd. The late Mrs. Fraher was a neighbour noted for her genial and cheerful, happy humoured disposition. She had a pleasant smile and a friendly word for everyone, young and old. A model Catholic, a faithful friend, her departure hence has evoked whole-hearted sympathy for her universally esteemed husband, daughters, brother, sisters, grandchildren and relatives.

There was an exceedingly large and representative attendance at the removal of the remains on Friday evening to the Parish Church, Touraneena, where the coffin was received and blessed by Rev. M. O'Farrell, C.C., Kilgobinet, assisted by Rev. Fr. Mulcahy, C.C., Touraneena. Following Requiem Office and High Mass on Saturday morning, the interment took place in the adjoining family plot. Sheaves of spiritual bouquets and messages of condolence were received.

The celebrant of the Requiem High Mass was Very Rev. T. A. Power, P.P., Kilgobinet; deacon Rev. W. J. Dee, Bristol, England; sub-deacon, Rev. K. Mulcahy, C.C., Touraneena; in the choir were: Very Rev. P. Walsh, P.P., Touraneena; Very Rev. J. Roche, P.P., Abbeyside; Rev. W. Power, C.C., Dungarvan; Rev. M. Farrell, C.C., Kilgobinet; Rev. Fr. Sheridan, Dungarvan (on holidays from Peru, South America).

(Funeral arrangements were by James Kiely & Sons, Dungarvan).

LATE JOHN MCCARTHY

Ballynamuck, Dungarvan

Dungarvan and district were shocked at the news of the death of John McCarthy which occurred at the Richmond Hospital, Dublin, after a rather short duration of illness and at the very early age of forty-eight years. He was a well-known figure and a most likeable person and he was always in a cheerful disposition.

The great public sorrow and sympathy is extended to his wife, Julia, and to his large young family and also to his brother Patrick, New Ross, and to his sister, Mrs. James Butler, Caseyville, Dungarvan. His remains were removed from the Hospital Mortuary on Thursday evening to St. Mary's Parish Church and were met at the outskirts of the town by a very large cortege of mourners and friends and were blessed and received at the Church Gates by Rev. Fr. W. Power, C.C.

Requiem Masses were offered on Friday morning for the happy repose of his soul and the interment took place later in the day in the adjoining family plot. Another large cortege were present. Rev. Fr. Power, C.C., officiated at the graveside.

(J. Kiely & Sons had charge of funeral arrangements).

15/- INCREASE FOR CO. COUNCIL YARD STAFF

An increase of 15/- a week to machine operators, drivers, and machinery yard labourers was granted unanimously at Tuesday's meeting of Waterford County Council.

Mr. J. G. Dowling (County Secretary) said the Co. Manager had negotiated with the Unions concerned and the 15/- had been agreed on. Dungarvan U.D.C. had also given a 15/- increase to their outdoor staff.

Deputy Kyne said he proposed the increase in view of the acceptance by the Council roadworkers of an 11/- increase. The 15/- is in proportion to that increase.

Colr. M. Morrissey seconded. Replying to Colr. K. O'Ryan Deputy Kyne said they last received an increase in October, 1961.

SCHEME WILL COMMENCE
On the proposal of Deputy Kyne seconded by Colr. J. Fahy the Council decided to borrow £22,500 to finance extension to the Affane-Tourin Water Scheme. The loan will be repayable over 30 years.

Mr. Dowling, County Secretary, said the Department had sanctioned a tender for the scheme and the work could commence as soon as the borrowing of the money was agreed to.

EXTENSION OF LISMORE SEWERAGE
The Council unanimously agreed to extend the public sewer in Lismore to the site of the proposed new school in the town at a cost of £250.

The County Secretary read a letter from Rev. Fr. Quailly, Lismore, asking the Council to extend the sewer. The length of the extension would be 100 yards.

The Secretary said that the Co. Engineer and the County Medical Officer of Health also recommended the extension.

Colr. Curran (Chairman) said the work was very necessary.

Colrs. J. Quirk and J. Fahy proposed and seconded respectively that the work be carried out.

ENGAGEMENTS ANNOUNCED

The engagement has been announced between Mr. Louis Martin, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Brian Martin, Chelsea, London and Miss Netta Kelliher, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Kelliher, Dungarvan.

The engagement has been announced between Mr. John A. Holden son of Mr. and Mrs. P.J. Holden, Hillview House, Clonroche, Co. Wexford and Miss M.B. (Baby) Power, daughter of Mrs. Mai Power and of the late Mr. Thomas Power, Adamstown, Kilmeeaden.

SWEEPS DERBY A GREAT TRIUMPH

The Reed Warbler

Of the large family of Warblers the Reed Warbler builds by far the most interesting home for its young. It is a tiny bird — one of the smallest and very shy, but its nest is a masterpiece of construction and camouflage. The mother bird chooses three or four strong reeds grouped together and uses them as a frame on which she proceeds to weave a basket-like nest, using material old reeds and grasses. When the weaving is finished the nest is lined with the soft dead flowers of last year's reeds. This cosy nest, standing on stilts above the water and tending with the background, moves with every wind but is deep enough to prevent the eggs from spilling out in the strongest gale and to conceal the hatching hen.

THE 'OBSERVER'

always ahead with News and Pictures

The Stewards of the Irish Turf Club, Members of the Irish Racing Board and the Co-ordinating Committee thanks Breeders, Owners, Trainers, Bloodstock Agents and all those who witnessed the Irish Sweeps Derby 1962 for their support. Thanks are also extended to the Press for their lively interest and complimentary references.

It is notable that the estimated value of the Race, i.e., £60,000 was exceeded in that the total distributed to Owners and Breeders was actually £67,200.

The result of the King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Stakes at Ascot on 21st July provided racecourse evidence for the Derby held belief that the Derby that took the most winning this year was the inaugural running of the Irish Sweeps Derby at the Curragh on 30th June.

In this event Tambourine 11 short-headed Arctic Storm with the Epsom Derby winner Larkspur only 4th.

Many experts rated the fast finishing Arctic Storm a shade unlucky and this Arctic Star colt went on to Ascot where he did best of the three-year-old competitors taking third place just a length off the four-year-old Match 111. Amongst those behind was the French Derby winner Val de Loir and the result prompted Tambourine's trainer Etienne Pollet to claim that he had the best three-year-old in Europe.

The fact that the form had worked out so well is most gratifying and it remains for us to analyse the future of the event. What are the chances of it developing into the European three-year-old championship?

First its value. The race this year was worth £50,277.10.0. to the winning owner Mrs. Howell Jackson and this part is ahead of both the English and French equivalent events which were worth £34,788 and £60,755 respectively. There is an added saving in racing that quality follows the prize and such may well prove to be the case in this instance.

Another important factor is timing. Whereas the English and French Derbys are normally run within a few days of each other and thereby clash, the date for the Irish Sweeps Derby has been judiciously fixed approximately four weeks later and thus provided that the two winners have been entered in the Irish Sweeps Derby, the Curragh provides the venue for a championship decider over a distance ideal for both.

With the foundation of the Irish Sweeps Derby, the idea of the 'Double Derby' winner is born. The true value of this phenomenon will be somewhere in the region of half a million pounds. This year Larkspur bravely tried and failed but one can rest assured that in years to come others will try to scale this Everest of racing.

The Irish Sweeps Derby also creates a new fashion in sporting entertainment for it marks the culmination of the greatest fortnight's racing of the season including Royal Ascot and the Grand Prix de Paris meeting at Longchamp.

Assuredly no better venue could be found in the World than this track, described by the American Racing Manual as a 'Turfman's Paradise'.

The Curragh is a wide course capable of handling twice the number of starters that actually went to the post for this year's Irish Sweeps Derby 24 with easy bends, a gentle downhill run as the field makes for the entrance to the straight and a stiff uphill, against the collar, finish that calls for the best qualities of courage and determination in a thoroughbred.

£25,000 ON DUNGARVAN-YOUGHALL ROAD

Expenditure totalling £25,000 for improvements to the Main Dungarvan to Youghall Road, was also agreed to by the Council. £15,000 of this amount is a State Grant and the remaining £10,000 will be taken from the Main Road Improvement Grant.

INCREASE FOR CIVIL DEFENCE OFFICER

A 20% increase was granted to Civil Defence Officer, Mr. T. O'Donoghue, B.E., Dungarvan. Mr. O'Donoghue's present income from Civil Defence was £150 per annum. The net increase is £30—of which £9 will be met by the ratepayers. The remainder (£21) is a State Grant.

NEW CEILI BAND

A time when Twis and all Modern Dances are the rage a group of local Musicians has taken the plunge and formed a Ceili Band, known as the 'Pringmout Ceili Band'. Its members are all reputed Ceili Musicians and their enterprise in such a venture deserves to meet with success. They make their debut tonight (Friday) August 10th, at the Boathouse, Cappoquin, while many attractive forthcoming engagements are planned.

We feel sure that once they have established themselves, they will prove a major attraction throughout the County and far outside it.

The following is the make up of the band, P. Lannon, Mick Dalton, Sean Fitzgerald (Accordeons), Barney Dunne (W. Morrissey (Fiddles), R. Donovan (Piano), June Whelan whose voice has been recorded (Vocals), P. Prendergast and Monnie Coward (Drummers), Mick Whelan is the Manager.

FIREWORKS
On Thursday night next 16th August, the Joint Dungarvan Sailing and Sea Angling Clubs will hold what is expected to be a memorable display in the bay. The boats (power and Sailing) will leave the Quay at 7.30, after taking members on board at 7 p.m. they will sail inside the Cunnigar and up the Western Bay.

A band rec'd by the local Brass and Reed Band will be given in the Park while a fitting climax to the evening will be spectacular fireworks display on the Cunnigar at 9 o'clock. Following the display a Social will be held for the members. This fête will undoubtedly prove a big attraction for the public and rightly so. The members of these local clubs are not sparing themselves in an effort to make the occasion a success, and we feel certain their endeavours will be well rewarded.

PROMOTION FOR ABBEYSIDE GARDA
Transferred on promotion to Cappoquin is Garda Jack O'Dea Dungarvan. He replaces Sgt. Cavanagh in charge of the Cappoquin Station.

During his 26 years in the Old Boro he has earned for himself the esteem and respect of every citizen. His efficient and courteous manner in doing things was a noted feature of his character, and he will be missed greatly in the district. We join with his many friends in Dungarvan in congratulating him on his well deserved promotion.

POTATO PRODUCTION FOR THE SMALLER FARMER
The National Potato Committee meet on Wednesday 22nd August with a lengthy agenda but perhaps the item listed for discussion of the greatest importance will be the future of the potato industry. The problems facing the committee in examining this question and endeavouring to find a solution should not be unimportant but will require the closest co-operation between growers and those responsible for marketing, principally of the export trade.

It is generally recognised that potato production is ideally suited to the smaller size farm with a fair percentage of family labour available for handling. The real value of family labour is the fact that it is readily available. This, of course, does not mean that when costing the output that a fair value should not be placed on family labour. In fact it is the tendency to overlook the factor that helps to create more unwilling emigrants.

Certified seed export is our greatest single outlet and export is controlled by the Potato Marketing Company. Producer confidence is of the greatest importance if our volume of exports is to increase and consequently the demands of producers for at least 50% representation on the board of the marketing Company are reasonable. The moment growers have but one representative and it is difficult to understand why the demand of growers for further representation cannot be met.

For expansion purposes amongst growers we feel that each County should have its complete organisation working the National Association in conjunction with representatives from all Counties. Complete lists of all growers are available and the acreage and type grown by each. This is certainly the basis for close organisation and by arranging periodic meetings, particularly in intensive growing districts all problems could be dealt with as soon as they had arisen and could be immediately channelled through the organisation for immediate attention.

Although in this country flax production in recent times has been on the decline with a consequent fall in linen manufacture the time might now be ripe for a reappraisal of the position.

This suggestion would be welcome in Monaghan particularly.

DO YOU KNOW
1. That less flaxseed is being grown than formerly. Actually last season total world production was down 6%, the lowest since 1954, sharp falls in Canada and U.S.A. were principally responsible.
2. Although in this country flax production in recent times has been on the decline with a consequent fall in linen manufacture the time might now be ripe for a reappraisal of the position.
3. This suggestion would be welcome in Monaghan particularly.
4. Britain continues to import more lard. In the first four months of this year 13% more had come in than a year ago. This is probably the result of the general tendency and celerity of 1962-63 to increase imports of produce leaner animals.
5. The Australian Government and Cattle producers have contributed jointly to a new beef research fund.
6. It is the first time a large scale programme of this nature has been established in the country.
7. Australia has made the largest single export sale of beef cattle for breeding purposes to Japan. One hundred head of Angus heifers and one Angus bull have been shipped. Japan are obviously changing agricultural policy.
8. Huge irrigation and flood control schemes have been started in South Africa. This will include harnessing the Orange river for hydroelectric power and including a 50 mile water diversion tunnel for irrigation.
9. Over a million acres of winter grain crops were ploughed up this past spring in West Germany. This included about 35% of the winter barley and 25% of wheat.
10. The winter was the most severe in recent years.
11. Australia is increasing exports of butter and cheese. Butter shipments last year were 170 million pounds as against a total of 143 million the previous year.
12. Cheese exports were up by 7%.
13. Condensed milk exports also increased by about 16%.
14. Our balance of payments problem with Germany demands examination and certainly with our present supply position together with indications of future expansion but should be ideal barter. In 1961 our Domestic imports from Germany totalled £14,393,867, and our domestic export in the same period totalled £5,479,236.
15. It is interesting to note as

EARLY POTATO PRODUCTION
The past season has been a comparatively successful one for growers of early potatoes and the quantity exported was much greater than in past years. The advantage gained should be an inspiration to growers for coming seasons. By establishing close organisation and co-operative societies wherever possible for marketing purposes the grower could be assured of a maximum return. The day of the individual grower marketing successfully in competition with organised sections is drawing to a close. In the E.E.C. and to meet the conditions and competition within the overall group all unnecessary high costs must be eliminated from the industry.

CONTRACT GROWING
Although contract growing of potatoes may be on a somewhat limited scale, yet we feel considerable expansion is possible and this should be our objective to produce quantity and quality to supply the demand of manufacturing concerns whether it be for starch, alcohol, potato crisps, or potato flakes. The quality of the Irish potato for those various purposes is well recognised but we should also not lose sight of the fact that there is a special need for propagating new varieties and keep a step in advance if at all possible of all competitor countries.

EXPORT PROBLEMS
Although when we examine our rate of development in exporting with countries such as Denmark and Holland we seem to have made little progress, however, we do feel that with a co-ordination of effort of all interested sections whether far-

WELL THAT IN THE FIRST QUARTER OF 1962 GERMANY PRODUCED AND CONSUMED 230,000 TONS OF BUTTER AS AGAINST 222,000 TONS DURING THE CORRESPONDING PERIOD OF 1961—AN INCREASE OF APPROXIMATELY 4%. THIS FIGURE DOES NOT INCLUDE BUTTER PRODUCED ON THE FARMS OR CONSUMPTION BY THE FARMERS THEMSELVES.
These figures indicate a rising demand and we should not be slow to investigate our prospects.

CHEESE IMPORTS TO SOVIET UNION
It is with interest that we note that a Contract for 1,000 tons of Danish cheese has been signed between Soviet officials and Danish exporters.

APPLE GROWERS ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING
The principal apple growers throughout the country were represented at the annual general meeting of the Apple Growers' Association held at NFA House on Tuesday, 31st July last. Mr. J. V. A. Spence was unanimously elected as Chairman for the coming year and Mr. George G. Robinson, Cahill, as Vice Chairman.

Indications from the various growers report the possibility of an average or slightly above average crop this season for both dessert and cooking apples. After a very lean time experienced last year by growers that is very welcome news indeed, and consumers can expect an abundant supply of home grown fruit on the market.

It was agreed that a monthly questionnaire should be sent from September onwards to all growers to be returned completed to Headquarters indicating the quantity of each variety in stock. This information would be very welcome and reliable figures would be available for whatever purpose it is required.

In preparation for entry into E.E.C. the Economic Advisor of the NFA has been invited to prepare a short summary of the recommendations required by the E.E.C. countries on both standards and grading of the fruit and packaging. It was generally agreed that with the high standards and efficiency of home-producers the task of co-ordinating those concerned would be comparatively easy and if alterations are necessary in the present system the industry is readily adaptable to whatever changes that maybe required.

It is hoped to arrange a meeting with officials of the Department of Agriculture early in November to discuss the position of supplies and stocks and general matters of interest to growers.

GROUND LIMESTONE VERSUS BURNT LIME
Although ground limestone is now used practically everywhere in preference to burnt lime for agricultural purposes, yet we notice considerable controversy in the six nor-easterly counties on the relative values and the danger of having to close numerous kilns due to the price reductions.

The Northern Lime Association and the British Ministry are the parties involved in the dispute. The Association have made the point that if the proposed price changes are forced on Kiln owners at least 20 kilns employing over 200 persons will have to close.

Ground limestone is much cheaper to farmers and an estimate of burnt lime used on farms was given at 5% of the total.

FRENCH CHARROLAIS CATTLE AGAIN IN THE NEWS
The latest move on French Charrolais cattle comes from the Argentine where six bulls and twenty cows were due to be presented at the 21st International cattle show held in Buenos Ayres.

It is difficult to assess the relative values of this breed for production in this country without worthwhile trials but we wonder how long we must wait for these tests and comparisons.

The National Livestock Committee have as far back as 1960 intimated that "no objection would be forthcoming to the introduction of the breed here provided that the Department of Agriculture was certain that there entry here would not give rise to the introduction of disease either directly or indirectly." It was further agreed that "any trials should be rigidly controlled by the Department."

N.F.A. NEWS
The Future Of The Potato Industry

HATCHERY SUPPLIERS ASSOCIATION ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING
The annual general meeting of the above was held at NFA House on Thursday, 9th August. It was generally considered that a complete reorganisation of the industry might be necessary and the necessity of small hatchery supply farm owners joining the Association in their own interest was emphasised.

A QUESTION FOR AN BORD BAINNE
Germany are importing 10,000 tons of butter during the July-August period, not necessarily from Common Market Countries and we would be interested to know what percentage of this sizeable quota comes our way.

In fact we feel no effort should be spared to ensure that we get a fair proportion, which would help in no small way to offset recent problems of disposal and as well establish our brand and reputation for future exportation.

WOOD PIGEON MENACE
Lates' news of damage to green crops from wood pigeon comes in a report from the Co. Tyrone Agricultural Committee where at a recent meeting the suggestion came up that farmers should be allowed free cartridges for shooting.

In England the NPU have organised an appeal to landowners and others to cooperate in a pigeon nest destruction programme.

This mass assault has the backing of the Ministry of Agriculture and it is hoped by organising parties to destroy pigeon nests in the last week of July and the second week of September to greatly reduce the pigeon population.

Ballyduff Man Gets 12 Months

Mr. N. McGrath, Chairman, presided at last week's meeting of the Western Board held at the C.Y.M.S., Dungarvan.

PLAYERS SUSPENDED

Arising out of the referee's report of the junior football match between Ballyduff and Ring which was played at Lisimore on 22nd July last, Michael Quirke, Ballyduff, who was reported for having threatened and attempted to strike the referee, was suspended for twelve months. Having spoken on the seriousness of this matter, the Chairman proposed a suspension of two years and this was seconded by Tomas O' Cadhla. L. Ryan proposed that the minimum suspension of twelve months be imposed and this was seconded by W. Grant. On a vote, the amendment that the suspension should be twelve months was carried by a big majority.

ONE MONTH

M. Tobin, Shamrocks Hurling Club who was ordered off the field for rough play in the J.H. game, Shamrocks v. Ardmore, was suspended for the minimum period of one month.

Ring also condemned the report of the game and said that he was not in accordance with the facts.

SUSPENDED PLAYERS

Arising out of a complaint that a suspended player had recently gained admission to the sideline at Dungarvan, the Chairman said that, under no circumstances will suspended players in future be allowed to enter the sideline at any venue.

Following a discussion it was decided to stand by a previous decision to allow only five selectors into the sideline.

Arrangements for the trip to Dublin for the opening of the 10th Home Exhibition on September 4th, were discussed at the meeting of the local Guild held on Friday night. The Secretary said that an invitation to inspect their factory had been received from Messrs Jacob and as this is fixed for 11 o'clock it was decided that the time of departure be 6.30 a.m. Some seats on the coach are still vacant and booking for these must be made before August 15th. The bus leaves Dublin on the home-ward journey at 7.30.

SENSATIONAL REPORTS

At the conclusion of the referee's reports, the Chairman condemned recent newspaper reports of games played in the West. "The sportsmanship in many of our games may be a little less than the standard required," he said, but this did not justify the sensational terminology that was used to describe incidents that occurred during some games. Some of these reports, he said, were made by people whose affiliations were doubtful and being designed to show the bad side of things they were not for the good of the Association. We are quite capable of conducting our own affairs without the advice or help of those who indulge in such sensationalism.

Housing Position Criticised

"BUILD OR RESIGN"

No progress was being made and if houses were not built within twelve months they should resign, as it was all a humbug. This was stated by Colr. Milo Galgey at last Tuesday's monthly meeting of Waterford County Council, when members discussed the delay in the erection of cottages in the County.

Colr. Frank Roche said he wished to refer to the housing survey, for which applications had to be submitted by March 31st last. He would like to know when the result of that survey would be made known. This delay is a damn shame, said Colr. Roche. Some families are living in one room and it is time, we, as a County Council, had some say with the Co. Medical Officer, because I feel he is responsible for holding it up. I am not surprised that no houses have been built with this thing going on.

Colr. Roche said they were completely ignored by the officials in respect of getting houses built. All the time Council members were being blamed but how could they build them in such circumstances. Somebody was lying down on the job and he would like to see the result of the housing survey for the next meeting.

Colr. Galgey then made the remarks quoted at the outset of this report and added that these surveys had been going on for years, yet no houses were built.

MR. JOHN CORBETT, KNOCKALARA.

The death took place at the Ardeken Hospital on Friday 3rd August of Mr. John Corbett, Knockalara. The news of his passing was learned by the general public with deep regret. A prominent farmer and member of an old West Waterford family he was held in high regard and esteem. Public sympathy was shown by the very large attendance at the obsequies. The remains were on Saturday evening removed to Ballinacree church where they were received by Rev. T. Nugent, C.C. and on Sunday the interment took place in Kiltobinet cemetery, Formilwater. Rev. E. Tobin, C.C. and Rev. T. Condon officiated.

The chief mourners included Mrs. Mary Corbett (wife), Owen Corbett (brother), Mrs. B. Hearne, Kiltobinet, Dungarvan, Miss Margaret Corbett, Abbeyside (sisters).

(Funeral arrangements by A. Walsh and Sons, Cappoquin).

FIRE CALL

A call to a fire in the farm-ward of Mr. G. Roche, Brown-Bawmore, was received by the Fire Brigade on Monday. The outbreak originated in a pile of straw and spread to a hay barn. Assisted by the members of the Dungarvan and Lisimore units the line of hose was laid to a stream some distance away and after some hours the outbreak was subdued. A considerable quantity of hay was destroyed.

A FINAL THAT'S BEST FORGOTTEN

August 5th, 1962, will forever remain a day of remembrance for Tipperary's hurling-minded followers. But for Waterford men everywhere, it is a day best forgotten—a day when their hurling prestige was gravely grounded to the earth by a rampant and title-defending Tipp. side.

When accepted in the proper manner, defeat, no matter how heavy, is never a disgrace but there Waterford consolations must be abruptly ended. They encountered opponents that were vastly superior in all phases of the game and had no answer to the power of the All-Ireland champions, who in this decider were seen at their brilliant best.

The game had in fact been drained of most of its interest by half-time when Tipp, after playing against a strong breeze led 2-3 to 1-3. It was a score-line completely against the run of play, however, as Waterford could and should have had a few scores in hand.

But while Tipp's forwards made splendid use of their lesser chances, their Deise counter-parts fiddled and fumbled their way to defeat. Instead of relying on first-time tries they opted for fills and fancy work, which cut little or no ice against Tipp's uncompromising defenders.

The second half was as expected. Backed by the breeze the holders displayed all that makes the game what it undoubtedly is, and piled on the glory in almost effortless fashion.

What was the basic reason for Waterford's ruinous collapse? Straight away let it be said that Tipperary played as champions should but their task was made all the easier by Waterford's failure to repeat the form of their semi-final victory over Cork.

Their dreams shattered for yet another year, the County now look ahead to the National League. Sunday's debacle was the bleakest hour in Deise hurling circles for many years but not, as this defeat was, this need not be the end. The road to the summit is a hazardous one but the County still possess the means to reach it.

Next Sunday's Games. Deise will be the mecca for football enthusiasts on Sunday next when the most attractive two-game programme arranged for the venue for many a long day is down for decision.

In the opening game, Geraldine—to date the surprise packet of the championship take on a group side, Taobh a Gleanna, while the second game between Brickey Rangers and John Mitchels would in itself be sufficient to lure a sizeable crowd to the Fraher Field.

The Brickey-Mitchels game has all the ingredients of a first-class thriller. The form of both has been as impressive as one could wish for and many believe that the game will produce the ultimate county champions. That is of course a debatable subject, but certain it is that Sunday's victory will be vitally concerned in the final shake-up for highest honors. Brickets despite their every effort to land this coveted title, have been repeatedly thwarted from doing so. At times only the strongest twists of fate has barred them from a place in the sun, which they so richly deserve, but sooner or later their day of glory must come.

Fervent Brickey men believe this will be their year of years. Already in the first round they have laid that Mount Sion hoodoo and relieved the Monastery men of their hard-won crown. That hurdle safely surmounted, Bushy Park and its surrounds are rightly alight at the prospects of championship success. The team has geared itself for a great effort against the classy Mitchels, and although fully alive to the difficulty of their task, are supremely confident of advancing further. The loss of Mick Farrell who played so vital a role in the de-thronement of Mount Sion will be felt but with the Spratts, Bill, Pat and Justin, Shackaneen Woods, Andy Hallissy, Patsy Murray and Peter Ferncombe all playing top-class football the reason for their confidence is easily detected.

What of John Mitchels? As is known the County over, they are an offspring of the "Old" Kilrossary. But what an offspring! Since breaking away from the green and gold, they have met with outstanding success. Emmetts were their first victims, then Kilrossary fell prey to their prowess while the highly fancied group side, Fire Oge also went the way of the other two.

Thus with an unbeaten record in competitive football do they enter the fray on Sunday. Led by the Kirwans, Billy, Jack Tommy, Michael, Noel and Tony, plus Regie and Wally Connors, Pete Gough, Seamus Kenny and Charlie Crowley, they have a well equipped side. Like Brickets they are bubbling with confidence.

It promises to be a regal battle for supremacy. Little or no high separates the teams in ability and it is my belief that what ever side enjoys the lucky breaks, will march on in their quest of glory. GERALDINES FANCIED. Although the Geraldines—Taobh a Gleanna have not the appeal of the second game, patrons should again witness quite an interesting game before the victors are known. Taobh a Gleanna, drawn from the Ring and Ballinacourty clubs, are the only remaining county team in the championship but having seen them defeat Dunhill, I am convinced that only an all-out Geraldines effort will be good enough to beat them. In that victory over Dunhill they looked very live championship candidates. Their team work and general understanding was unbelievably good and a reputation of that form on Sunday could carry them through. For this clash with the Aglishes they will be strengthened further by the return of Tommy McGrath, a tackle McGrath missed the Dunhill game with a finger injury but will resume at right-half forward on Sunday completing an all Ring half line with Tommy Joe Hartly and Donal Musgrave. Elsewhere the side is also more than adequately served. Pat Hartly and Liam Meagher are high-flying midfielders, while Mick Kieley, Sylvester Murray, Thomas Hogan and Mossie Keane are solid and dependable defenders. But if the group team's form has been impressive, the same is applicable to Geraldine. Unfancied in most quarters against Ardmore in round one though fully alive to the difficulty of their task, are supremely confident of advancing further.

WATERFORD NO MATCH FOR TIPP. Munster Final Was Anti-Clinax

TIPPERARY 5-14, WATERFORD 2-3

IGNOMINIOUS as were their defeats of 1958 and '60 at the hands of Tipperary, none could rival Waterford's complete obliteration by the Premier County in last Sunday's Munster final at sun-drenched Limerick. The All-Ireland champions,

To fathom the cause of this Deise catastrophe is something beyond the limitations of human powers. Likewise to attempt to expound a variety of reasons for their utter annihilation would, while serving no useful purpose, be an equally difficult assignment. For bitter though it may be, the truth of it all is that they were overpowered by a side that on occasions looked as near to invincibility as is humanly possible.

What can one really say, or where can one turn to in an effort to relate this galling story from the Etna Road? To survey the game—if one could call it such, realistically, would be to magnify the sheer splendour of Tipperary's hurling and simultaneously pin-point Waterford weaknesses that were as obvious as an illuminated picture.

It was, in brief, the greatest anti-climax of the year, or the decade for that matter. The backdrop to the game suggested a hurling hurricane had would strike even the thrill-hungriest followers, but the vehement and unexpected intrusion of inequality in the relative merits of the sides—again concealed in the pre-match turmoil, sent disillusioned followers scurrying towards the exits long before the game had run its six-minute course.

To think or even suggest that Waterford are as poor as they looked on Sunday would be an insulting and scurrilous impression of men who have upheld the County's hurling name for so long. But even at their best which would be good enough to vanquish most opposition, they would not have succeeded in reversing that result.

INSPIRED SIDE. For Tipp were an inspired side. Obsessed no doubt by their proximity to Cork in the —By— JOHN A. MURPHY exalted role of honour—they have but one All-Ireland less, their dedication to the game was as marked as their over-enthusiasm. Yet one cannot but believe that Waterford helped to plot their own humiliation. It has long been a generally accepted axiom that to beat Tipperary you must play them at their own game—as Cork have always done. None were more conscious of that prior to the game than the Deise men themselves but instead of altering plans to suit the occasion, they so successfully did against the Leesiders in the semi-final, they opted to play a game modelled on fancy lines and if possible walk the ball to the net.

It was as if, in fact had he been doomed to failure. The champions' defence stood on no ceremony. As always their maxim was (legitimately) "You shall not pass," and the adoption of frilly and roundabout tactics by the Waterford forwards only made their task an easier one.

In the customary post-mortem — and there are many — followers may well ask with justification why the side failed so dismally to even make it a game worthy of the importance of the occasion. Well as already stated they failed to exploit the cold hard facts of their semi-final tilt with Cork, while their inability to utilise first half opportunities made the second-half the mere formality that it proved to be.

When Larry Guinan won the toss and elected to play with the strong breeze, it was clear that the Tipp rear-guard would have to be pierced soon and often. Not a task to be relished at any time, it was, however, the decisive duty of the Deise men.

CHARMED LIFE. Within seconds of the start they swarmed to the attack. Morrissey was wide from a 70 and after Tipp had taken a point lead their citadel bore a charmed life when at least three goal-worthy efforts were saved by Donal O'Brien.

Thanks to the skillful Mick Dempsey at midfield, partnered by an industrious Seamus Power, Waterford continued to enjoy a territorial advantage. But the fumbling and foistering of shot-shy forwards made a complete mockery of this out-field advantage. True it was that Tipp's defence was as solid as the Rock of Cashel, and proved itself a stupendous barrier but some of the misses of the Deise attack were totally inexplicable.

DANGER SIGNS. As the half wore on, signs of imminent danger were on the horizon for Waterford. No worthwhile impression was being made up front and much of their good work was going for naught. No so with Tipperary. Their attack though not serviced to the same degree as their counter parts, picked off vital scores in snipe-like fashion and just on half-time a hitherto subdued Jimmy Doyle burst on the scene with disastrous results for Waterford, when he scored an opportunistic goal that gave his side a 2-3 to 1-3 interval lead. It was to put it mildly a lead obtained completely against the run of play. But such was the squandermania of one attack and the contrasting opportunism of their opponents, that it wasn't an altogether unaccountable score-line.

UP AGAINST IT. During that half-time recess it was difficult to visualise other than a Tipperary victory. True Waterford faced and over-came adversity before but in this instance it was painfully visible that "they were up against it." And so it materialised.

HALF-HOUR OF BOZEDOM. The change over was a half-hour of boredom—the game's life not salvaged only by Tipp's brilliance. Their attack given then by a switch that sent Liam Devaney to the full line in place of Donie Nealon, who took over from Devaney at midfield, literally ran riot as their every attack almost resulted in a score.

Waterford's solitary reply to this avalanche was a fifth minute goal by Kieley which was of little benefit so executed was it in a torrent of Tipp scores.

Waterford, as always, stuck manfully to their onerous task. They continued to hurl without the slightest trace of rancour creeping into their play and if their efforts were futile they, nevertheless, hurred with admirable spirit to the end.
