Must now be 'Suspicious' of Officials

It was exceedingly low and discourteous of the officials to have gone ahead with the work without first bringing it to the notice of the members, said Mr. J. Griffin at Monday's Health Authority when the question of raising a loan of £11,500 in respect of reconstruction at Ardkeen came up for approval.

It is our duty to agree to the loan now, he said, but we should warn the officials that if they do not have the money and until some time ago the officials should not anticipate a loan.

Mr. Lannon asked what the loan was for. It just went to show the money was not to be used for anything and until some time ago the officials should not anticipate a loan.

Mr. J. A. Hynes (Secretary) said the money was for adapting Ardkeen into a general hospital.

Mr. Lannon—I propose we form a visiting committee and let them see what the money is being spent on. Then they can report back to us.

Ald. T. Gallagher—I second that.

When Mr. Griffin pointed out that the work was already done, Mr. Lannon said they had now become suspicious of officials. There was nothing wrong with them. They should have been told that the money now appearing on the agenda was already spent. This should make us wary of officials, he added.

Mr. Hynes said the work began at the approval of the former Board of Assistance. Ardkeen was adopted into a general hospital. The work which was done, was within the Manager's powers to do so.

Mr. Lannon—We should be made aware of all things purchased by the Health Authority. Between staff, money and wages the country will be broken.

Mr. J. Griffin said if the officials listened to all the remarks of their staff it could be dangerous. The officials were to work in having operating theatres built in the hospital without first having the matter decided before them.

Finally it was decided to pass the loan, with Mr. Lannon dissenting.

CAPPAGH MAN CLEARED OF DANGEROUS DRIVING

SEQUEL TO FATAL ACCIDENT AT O'CONNELL STREET

JUSTICE L. B. SKINNER refused informations at Dungarvan District Court on Wednesday, when John Browne, Kilklogher, Cappagh, was charged with dangerous driving at O'Connell Street, Dungarvan, on August 24th, thereby causing the death of 16-year-old Liam Walsh, Fitzgerald Tce.

After the three-hour depositions had been taken, the Justice reduced the charge to one of careless driving on which the defendant was convicted. He was fined £3 with £25.0 witnesses' expenses. Recognisances were fixed in the event of an appeal.

The case was a sequel to an accident in which a card riven by the defendant, was in collision with a bicycle at the junction of O'Connell St. and St. Brigid's Tce., on August 24th. Liam Walsh, the cyclist, received injuries from which he later died in Dungarvan District Hospital.

First to give evidence in the taking of depositions was Dr. M. K. Cusack, Medical Practitioner, Dungarvan, who said on August 25th last he performed a post mortem examination on Liam Walsh at Dungarvan District Hospital. It was the body of a well-nourished and well developed youth. He had injuries to the right side of the body, right side of the shoulder, right knee and right ankle. Further examination showed that the swelling to the right side of the head was due to a sub-periosteal haematoma.

Underneath the haematoma was a fracture of the skull involving two bones on the right side of the skull. In his opinion death was due to damage to the brain caused by haemorrhage within the skull, which in turn was caused by a fracture of the skull. These injuries, he said, would be consistent with the deceased being involved in a collision with a motor vehicle.

Mr. Christopher Moylan, ambulance driver attached to Dungarvan District Hospital, said that on August 24th last, at about 8 p.m. he went with the ambulance to St. Brigid's Tce., where he found a body lying on the footpath there. It was the body of Liam Walsh. He was unconscious at the time. He took him in the ambulance and handed him over to John McCarthy, a male attendant at the hospital.

Replying to Mr. E. P. King, Solr., defending, he said he could not swear if there were any vehicles parked there.

Mr. John McCarthy, male attendant, at Dungarvan District Hospital, said on August 24th last a youth was brought from the ambulance into the hospital at about 8.15 p.m. The youth was Liam Walsh. He was alive at the time. On the following morning he saw him again and he was then dead. He identified the body later that day to Dr. Cusack for the purpose of having a post mortem examination carried out.

Mr. Patrick Hally, a C.I.E. lorry driver, said on Friday, August 24th last, at about 8 p.m. he drove a C.I.E. lorry up O'Connell Street and stopped outside Dolan's shop.

When I arrived there, he said, two cars and a van were parked there. I parked my lorry outside one of the cars, AKI 707. My lorry was approximately parked 25 to 30 feet from the junction of St. Brigid's Tce. On the following day I showed Sergt. Hayes the position of my lorry the previous evening.

When I parked it I went into Dolan's shop with goods. When inside I heard a bang on the street. After sometime I went outside to investigate. I saw a body lying on the footpath.

Cross-examined by Mr. King, Solr., witness said there was no car nearer to the junction of St. Brigid's Tce. than AKI 707. His lorry was the second nearest vehicle to the junction. He had three biscuit containers on the lorry which were about 10 feet high from the ground. He removed the lorry sometime before 8.30 p.m. The lorry was within a few inches of the praked car inside it. He noticed that the road leading to St. Brigid's Tce. was closed to traffic. There were barrels there and a sign.

WEDDING BELLS

O'BYRNE WHITE

The marriage took place at Kilgobinet Parish Church on Wednesday, 17th October, between Thomas, only son of Laurence and Mrs. O'Byrne, Modeligo, Cappagh, and Stella White, S.R.N., daughter of Mrs. White and the late John White, Moonarud, Dungarvan.

The ceremony, with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing, was performed by Very Rev. Fr. White, O.S.A., Galway (uncle of the bride) assisted by Very Rev. Fr. J. Hally, P.P., Modeligo; Very Rev. Fr. T. Power, P.P., Kilgobinet; Rev. Fr. Daly, C.C., Modeligo, and Rev. Fr. O'Farrell, C.C., Kilgobinet.

The bestman was Mr. Thos. O'Byrne (cousin of the groom) and Miss Pearl White (sister of the bride) was bridesmaid.

Member hits out at Salary Increases

WHEN the first of a lengthy list of applications for salary increases came up for consideration at last Monday's meeting of Waterford Health Authority, Mr Tom Lannon said it was time the members got a bit of sense and and threw out the applications.

An application from the part-time pharmacist's employed by the Authority for a revised salary scale was rejected on the failure to get a proposer.

Mr. J. A. Hynes (Secretary) said their present rate was 7/- per hour for the first six hours; 5/- an hour for the second six hours and 4/- per hour for all hours in excess of 12. They were now seeking a rate of 14/-, 10/- and 9/- respectively. If approved the additional cost would be £840 a year. Three pharmacists were involved.

Mr. Lannon—I'm not joking when I told a man out foreign about the wages here, he asked me what country was it?

APPROVED
Increased expenditure under the disabled persons (maintenance allowances) Regulations and the Infectious Diseases (Maintenance) Regulations was approved unanimously.

Mr. Hynes said that an order by the Minister for Health suggested an increase from 22/6 to 25/- a week for the former and an all-round increase of 5/- a week for the latter. The total cost per annum for both would be £1640, subject to a 50% contribution.

The increase were approved by Mr. Lannon.

By nine votes to eight an application for a revised salary scale for the Assistant R.M.S. Ardkeen, was defeated.

Proposing the increase Mr. Michael Morrissey said if anyone deserved it, the doctor in question did. Mr. P. Cahill seconded.

Mr. Hynes (secretary) said Dr. Conroy's (Asst. R.M.S. Ardkeen) present maximum was £1,500. It was proposed to give him an increase of £135 a year.

Mr. Lannon—Some people have not even £135 a year to live on. We're only creating aristocracy and like Kathleen Mavourneen, we're flogging it to death.

When the proposal was declared lost, Mr. Lannon remarked "Thank God."

GRANTED
On the proposal of Mr. J. Griffin, seconded by Mr. M. Morrissey, an increase of 2/6 per child was granted to the Authority's Ophthalmic Surgeon (School Medical Services).

His present rate is 7/6 and is now increased to 10/- (per child). He also gets £4 per 3-hour session. A total of £80 is involved in the increase.

Mr. Lannon said if something wasn't done they would have a revolution.

The increase was granted by 9 votes to 7.

Increased grants to the District Nursing Associations in Waterford, Tamore, Kilmadigan and Lismore were unanimously passed. The total cost of the grants will be £650.

Following a letter from the Co. Engineer, Mr. J. D. Hally, in which he stated that the sanitary fittings at the County Home, Dungarvan, were unsightly, and that he would recommend the necessary sanitary accommodation at an approximate cost of £1,800, it was decided to carry out the work.

Mr. Norman Walsh said there was also no fire escape at the home and if anything happened, a lot of the patients on the top floor could not help themselves.

"HAS NERVE TO ASK FOR INCREASE"
"Any man with that salary has a nerve to ask for an increase," said Mr. Lannon when members considered a request from the R.M.S. Ardkeen, for a revised salary scale.

Mr. J. A. Hynes said his present salary was £1,886 and it was now proposed to give him up to £2,340.

Surely, said Mr. Lannon, there ought to be some little sense left in the people and let this be rejected. What sane man could propose a salary of £2340. This would be an increase of £29 or £10 a week and some poor people have to live on home assistance. Somebody would want to clean up this administration.

Mr. D. F. Madden said it was inevitable that the Minister would have to give a direction one way or another.

Mr. Lannon—Let the Minister grant it but don't have the public representatives giving it.

A proposal that the increase be granted was then put to the meeting and rejected by 11 votes to 5.

Kilmacthomas News

Late Miss B. Wall, nee Leamybrien. Her family and affectionate disposition, coupled with charming and courteous personality, won for her the goodwill of all with whom she came into contact, and the sincere regard and affection of a very wide circle of friends (including the present writer). A Croi-Ro-Naofa Iosa, dean trocaire ar a h-anam. Right Well and popularly known in the agricultural and sporting life of historic Kilmacthomas parish is amiable Mr. Christy Bergin, farmer, Mournekenedy House, Curraghmore, Leamybrien. Belonging by birth to the neighbouring Co. Tipperary, he is a nephew of the late Mr. Stephen Bergin, do., and a brother of Lt.-Col. William Bergin, of Mayfield, Swords Road, Whitehall, Dublin, who attended the annual meeting of the Rockwell College Past Pupils' Union in the Dolphin's Hotel, Dublin, the other day.

Lt.-Col. Bergin is Chairman of the Centenary Year Committee of the Union and has been a member of the Governing Body for several years. He joined the Defence Forces in 1934 and was commissioned a year later. He is married and has five children.

Following the Co. J.H. championship final at Walsh Park, Waterford, last Sunday week, a pleasant function under the auspices of the Ballydurn and Newtown C.A. Clubs was held in the Adelphi Hotel, Waterford, at which the attendance included the following invited guests: Very Rev. Fr. Raphael Power, P.P. Newtown; Rev. Fr. Michael Wall, C.C. Kilmacthomas; Mr. Sean Ormond, T.D., do., and Mrs. Ormond; Mr. Patrick Sullivan, do., and Mr. Monnie Walsh, N.T. (Principals), Newtown National School, and Mrs. Walsh.

Proposing a toast to the triumphant team, the Parish Priest said Joe Harney and his fellow-players had made it a proud day for Ballydurn-hurling and tradition; they proved themselves an eager, fit and sporting team, and every one of the fifteen players surely shared the honours that game did provide to treasure down the years.

Seconding, Fr. Wall complimented the champions on their consistency throughout the competition, and he said their fine final success should do much to foster and sustain local interest in the doings of the side.

Deputy Ormond said it was by good sportsmanship, patience and perseverance, with every man pulling his weight, that Ballydurn emerged best from their every bout this season.

Mr. William Lenihan, Hon. Secretary, on behalf of the Ballydurn team, thanked the speakers for their tributes, and said that the winners had every good wish for the Four-milewater combination, whose display in the match was solid and clean from start to finish.

Mr. Walsh, N.T., said he felt justly proud of the fact that twelve of the fifteen that took the coveted title to Ballydurn that day were former pupils of his in Newtown School.

Some members of the party contributed songs, and the function was enjoyed by all.

Bonfires blazed in Newtown on Monday night week, when the Ballydurn team was given

Late Mrs Hannah Walsh

The death occurred on Friday morning, 19th October, at St. Vincent's Hospital, Dungarvan, of Mrs. Hannah Walsh, after an illness of some duration. She was a well-liked personality for her quite and gentle disposition, a true friend and a kind neighbour. Much sympathy is extended to her husband Mr. Jack Walsh, Tinalira, and also to her sister Miss Glanville and her brother Mr. Jack Glanville, on this sad occasion.

The removal of the remains took place on Saturday afternoon to Modelgo Church, followed by a very large and most representative cortege, and were blessed and received by Very Rev. Fr. Hally, P.P., assisted by Rev. Fr. Daly, C.C. Requiem Masses were offered on Sunday morning and interment took place after last Mass to the adjoining family plot. Very Rev. Fr. Hally, P.P., assisted by Rev. Fr. Daly, C.C., imparted the final blessing and absolution at the graveside, and recited the prayers of Requiem. Another large concourse were present, consisting of all sections of the community. Large sheaves of Mass cards, telegrams and letters of sympathy were received by her relatives.

(Undertaking was by James Kiely and Sons, Dungarvan.)

a rousing reception by a very large assembly of enthusiasts. The County Cup was filled, in turn, by Mr. Paddy Nugent, licensed vintner and farmer, Newtown, and the Newtown Football Club.

Voicing thanks to the people of the village and surroundings for the warm welcome accorded the Co. Champions, Mr. Wm. Lenihan paid a glowing tribute to Mr. Jack Fraser, gymnastic, Tallow, who had the team perfectly fit for the final—in which the side showed no lack of stamina, he said.

The veteran Newtown Gael, Mr. Frank Drohan, P.C., who is Hon. President of the local club, was among the vast get-together.

Advertised in another part of this copy are the full preliminary particulars of the gala Newtown-Ballydurn sponsored dance taking place in the Rainbow Hall, Kilmacthomas, on Thursday night of next week, November 1st, with Patrick McNamara's Orchestra—a capital Cahir combination of instrumentalists—supplying the musical accompaniments. Devotees of the "light fantastic" will please peruse the advertisement and decide on patronising the pleasurable affair with their pairs.

Much-esteemed Mrs. Annie Duggan, of Whitestown, Kilmacthomas (widow of the late Mr. James Duggan, do.), has travelled by plane to the U.S., where she is visiting New York, Connecticut, and Philadelphia, and seeing her daughters, Mrs. McDonald and Mrs. Prendergast; sons, Messrs. Patrick, James and John Duggan, and a number of other relatives in Uncle Sam's clime.

In radiant health and spirits, Mrs. Duggan, who is more than 70 years of age, is accompanied on her trip by another daughter, estimable Miss Anne Duggan.

Felicitations are most cordially extended to likeable Miss Helen T. O'Reilly (third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. O'Reilly, Currahaha, Kilmacthomas), and Mr. Patrick Joseph O'Sullivan (youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. O'Sullivan, "Sunrise", Tramore), on their marriage, which was solemnised in Carballi Church with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing by Rev. F. Lucey, C.C., Tallow, assisted by Rev. M. Power, C.C., Tramore, and Rev. M. O'Donnell, C.C., do.

The bride, who was given away by her father, looked radiant in a kingfisher blue, with eau-de-lil picture hat and spray of orchids.

The bridesmaid, Miss Anna O'Reilly, sister of the bride, was prettily attired in a grey suit, with lemon hat. Mr. John Thompson, Waterford, was best man.

During the Mass, appropriate sacred music was played on the organ by Miss Mai Cummins, Waterford.

The reception, attended by 53 guests, was held in the Hotel Majestic, Tramore, and the honeymoon is being spent in the South of Spain.

In addition to the aforementioned priests, other clergy present at the reception included Very Rev. Fr. James Harty, P.P., Kilmacthomas, and Rev. Fr. Pat Power, C.C., Ballylaneen.

The bridegroom is a director of Messrs. M. O'Sullivan and Sons, Ltd., mineral water manufacturers and wholesale bottlers, Waterford, and of the Hotel de Luxe, Tramore. He is also actively interested in the progress of Tramore as a holiday resort and is Hon. Treas. of the Tramore Development Association. The bride, before her marriage, was a member of the clerical staff of Mr. Richard Power, turf commission agent, Tramore.

With a plentiful supply of cock pheasants in the hilly parts of this section of the Decies, prospects are bright for fowling over the pheasant shooting season now nearing. The birds are to be seen in numbers in stubble fields where wheat and barley was shelled.

Here's Warmly Wishing good length of years of matrimonial bliss to Mr. Michael McCarthy, second son of Mr. and Mrs. M. McCarthy, Ardramone, Leamybrien, and Miss Josephine (Josie) Morrissey, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Morrissey, Newcastle, Co. Tipperary, who were joined in wedlock at St. Brigid's Parish Church, Kilmacthomas, by Very Rev. J. Harty, P.P., do. The bride, who looked charming, was attended by her intimate friend, Miss A. Lynch, as bridesmaid, and Mr. Thomas McCarthy, brother of the groom, acted as best man.

A reception was held in the home of the bridegroom's parents—from where the popular pair went to the Premier County on their honeymoon. The best of luck to both.

Before a good attendance, and in ideal playing conditions, Shamrocks junior hurling team went down before Ardmore in the opening round of the Shamrocks hurling tournament, played at Boola, Glendine, on Sunday. The game was nothing to enthuse over and was of a dull nature. Shamrocks held a one-point lead at the interval, but on the turn-over Ardmore were in the ascendancy, and ran out winners on the score: Ardmore, 4-5; Shamrocks, 1-8. Mr. Tom McCarthy, Tallow hurling club, proved a very capable referee.

The privilege of having Stations in the home is given only to Ireland and is handed down from the Penal Days, when the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass was offered in the hills and glens of our country. We, today, who have freedom of worship, should think of all our forefathers suffered to keep the Faith of St. Patrick alive by attending the Stations.

New Watering System For The Curragh

In order to ensure perfect going at all times the Stewards of the Irish Turf Club have decided to install a watering system at the Curragh to serve, when necessary, both the Racecourse and some of the Gallops.

Known as Artificial Rain, the system approximates natural rainfall, is used on several racecourses in England and France and is considered the most effective available.

Water is pumped up from bore-holes to Storage Reservoirs of which there will be at least three adjacent to the Racecourse. From the Reservoirs, water will be distributed under pressure by means of movable equipment.

The capacity of the installation is 4-million gallons per day. It is expected to be in operation for the Irish Sweepstakes, 1963, to be run on 29th June.

costly and they do not all win. Training fees are expensive too but if you are lucky enough to have a good one, the rising stakes in England, France and Ireland are attractive. Naturally Owners and Trainers look towards the Race Tracks where they can run their horses with a prospect of "good going," so that the racing programme for an individual horse should not be interrupted by his getting "jarred"—in other words Race Tracks which are watered.

go to the Derby starting post. Owners and Trainers are not prepared to take the risk of a valuable horse "jarred" for the remainder of the season by "hard going."

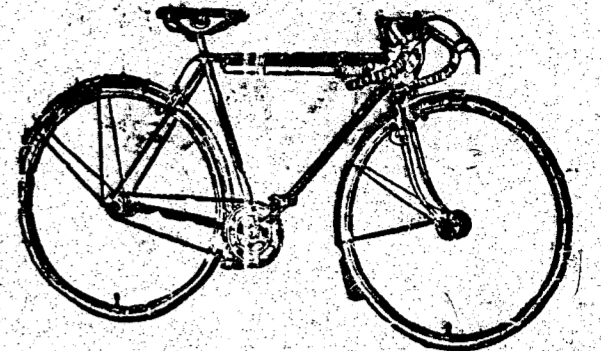

This danger would be eliminated by having a "watering system" at the Curragh.

The system would be based on the "Artificial Rain" Engineering System, used exclusively in France and the more modern installations in England and Scotland.

"Artificial Rain" approaches natural rainfall as closely as possible and gives an even distribution of water throughout the course.

Some people fear a watering system because of the danger of "soggy going" and "soft patches" in hollows or depressions on the track.

Cleared of Dangerous Driving

Gerard O'Doherty, B.E. He braked as fast as he could, but the distance was too short. He swerved, but the cyclist kept coming. He did all in his power to avoid the accident, and would have rolled over him if he had not swerved.

Sgt. John Cafferty, Public Service Vehicle Inspector, said on August 25th, he examined the defendant's car. It was an 8 h.p. Morris Minor. Brakes were not effective on first application of brake pedal. On the third application of the brake pedal, when pressure had been built up by pumping the pedal, there was an improvement in the braking efficiency. This brake could not be termed an efficient one in an emergency. The hand brake was in poor condition due to lack of adjustment.

He also examined a bicycle which was pointed out to him by Garda Mortell as being belonging to the deceased. It was a gent's Humber 3-speed, and the brakes were operating and effective. The bike was in good general condition.

To Mr. King, defending, Sgt. Cafferty said that with 70% braking efficiency, which was considered very good, a car travelling at 30 miles an hour could be stopped in 43 feet, and at 35 miles an hour, 53 feet.

Mrs. Josephine Browne, mother of the defendant said on August 24 she was travelling with her son in their Morris minor car. She was seated in the front passenger seat. Approaching Dolan's shop she saw a lorry parked. Then a cyclist dashed out from in front of the lorry. Her son braked immediately and swerved to the right. She was stunned but thought she heard a sound. Her son did not sound a horn.

Mrs. Anna Nagle, O'Connell Street, Dungarvan, said on the date of the accident she was looking out her sitting-room window on to O'Connell Street. She noticed a boy coming down Brigid's Terrace, on a bicycle slowly. There were 2 or 3 barrels across the junction to O'Connell Street. He was about to turn when she lost sight of him as she turned away. She heard a crash and went out on to the street and saw somebody lifting the boy.

Asking the Justice to refuse informations, Mr. King said the evidence of the guards was that they found glass outside O'Meara's door, and therefore the point of impact must have been opposite Dolan's corner. Also as St. Brigid's Terrace, was closed to traffic one could not expect to meet any. The evidence of Mrs. Nagle was that the deceased was about to turn right, thus giving the driver no chance.

Justice Skinner said he did not think there was sufficient evidence to return the defendant for trial before a jury, and would have to refuse informations and reduced the charges one of careless driving.

Charged with careless driving, the defendant Mr. Browne said he left Dungarvan for Cappagh at 8 p.m. on the night in question. Approaching the scene he was travelling at about 30 miles an hour. A lorry was parked on the road near Dolan's and suddenly a cyclist shot out. He braked, but could not avoid him.

Mr. M. Halley (for the Attorney General): If the same facts happen again there is no future for the cycling public.

Witness: No brakes in the world would have saved him. I do not agree with Sgt. Cafferty that my brakes were in extremely bad order.

Judge Skinner, imposing the fine said the defendant's brakes were bad, and he was somewhat negligent. He was, however, of the opinion that the cyclist came out too suddenly.

Mr. M. Halley was for the Attorney General, Mr. E. P. King, Solicitor, defended, and Mr. L. F. Leary, Solicitor, kept a watching brief for the next of kin of the deceased.

N.F.A. NEWS

Farmers Behind Milk Price Drive

ALL FARMERS BEHIND MILK PRICE DRIVE

The future of the dairy industry is problematical unless there is an immediate substantial increase in the price of milk. This was the opinion of the N.F.A. National Council, which met in Dublin last week, and pledged the full support, on this issue, of all farmers, whether engaged in the production of milk or not.

1953 the price of milk to the Lish farmers was 1/6 1/2. It was increased by 1.5 pence per gallon in 1960. The price is so low that "dairy-farmers" initial comes remain depressingly far behind those of the rest of the community.

Unlike other sectors now allowance has been made for the continual rise in the costs of production. Our farmers receive the lowest price in Europe for milk. This will be changed on our entry into the European Economic Community but we cannot afford to wait until then. Unless there is an immediate increase at home, our dairy industry will be less competitive (through being weaker) and less resilient when it enters the Community. Our cattle stocks will be much lower than they could be if an economic price were given to producers now.

Our beef exports alone, in 1961, earned £70m. of foreign currency which in turn enabled us to import goods that are necessary to our economy. These imports include tea, tobacco, crude oil, coal, machinery, etc., from all parts of the world. Few people realise that without our exports of beef we could not maintain our present standard of living.

Ireland has a natural advantage over most other countries in that we are better situated to produce fit-quality grass over a longer grazing season. The big problem at the moment is that of increasing our stock numbers or more simply still, increasing the number of calves produced each year. The answer lies in the price of milk to producers.

A more realistic price must be given to dairy-farmers if only to give them an incentive to increase calf production at a rate at which our natural advantages can be exploited to the full. By not doing so Ireland is going to miss a great opportunity, not just where farmers themselves are concerned, but also where industries are involved, many of which are dependent on the importation of raw materials and equipment.

Of the countries in the Common Market and of those which have applied for membership, we have the lowest price per gallon for milk. Something must now be done to re-vitalise this important section of our economy. If, and when Ireland becomes a full member of the Common Market the price of milk will then become 2/7 1/2, per gallon.

We should now aim at that target and meanwhile reap the benefits which will automatically accrue to our economy from our increased exports.

Most important of all, an increase in milk price now, would have the desired psychological effect of stimulating enthusiasm, research and long term planning in dairying which is the basis of our livestock industry and our country's prosperity.

Our President reported to the National Council that he had initiated arrangements to meet the Taoiseach and Minister for Agriculture to discuss this question.

WORLD CITIZENSHIP: JUAN GREENE

The concept of the brotherhood of mankind which transcends national boundaries beginning to receive some recognition in fact in Europe. Our acceptance of a broader concept of citizenship in a European sense must eventually lead to the next and ultimate desirable acceptance of the broadest of all citizenships, that of world citizenship. In this modern world nothing less than this is in the least sensible. These sentiments were expressed by Dr. Juan Greene, Past-President of the N.F.A., when addressing a large audience in Dublin last week. "To my mind," he said, "European integration is merely a step in this direction and is not, nor cannot be, an end in itself."

but which is rejected as unmillable would be well advised to instruct the miller in question to forward a sample of his wheat to the Central Wheat Laboratory, Jones' Road, Dublin for testing.

The grower must pay 1/- per barrel with a minimum of £1 and a maximum of £2.10.00 in respect of the test. If the Central Wheat Laboratory decides that the wheat is in fact millable this deposit will be refunded to the grower and he will also be paid full milling price for wheat.

SAVING PAYS MEMBERSHIP FEE

Did you hear of it? There are still a number of farmers participating in the Voluntary Health Insurance Scheme as individual subscribers who will be interested to know that lower subscription rates are available through the N.F.A. Group Scheme. Quite a number have realised this within recent weeks and have accordingly made arrangements to transfer to the N.F.A. Group.

We are anxious to ensure that all our members who are in the Voluntary Health Scheme will get the benefit of the reduction in premiums to which they are entitled. If this applies to you, all you need to do is notify N.F.A. Headquarters that you wish to transfer to the N.F.A. Scheme.

Incidentally, non-members often discover that the saving on Voluntary Health Insurance through the N.F.A. Group will more than cover their N.F.A. membership fee.

MOISTURE RETESTING SERVICE FOR WHEAT

The moisture retesting service for wheat is still in operation. Any farmer who is dissatisfied with the moisture return for his wheat, may apply within 14 days to have a sample of his wheat forwarded to the Seed Testing Station for a retest. The grower is required to lodge 11/- with the request for the retest but if the miller is found to be incorrect the sum of 11/- will be refunded to the grower and an appropriate adjustment made in the price.

A number of farmers who applied for a retest under this scheme have complained that the result was not supplied to them direct as agreed. Flour Millers agreed to forward the full name and address of the growers in all cases.

ONE-THIRD LOSS OF WORLD AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTION

The estimated world use of crop protection chemicals is in the region of £200m. or approximately one-fifth of the total value of world consumption of fertilisers, said Dr. E. C. Jones when speaking at a conference last week on Crop Protection. He also quoted the F.A.O. figures which indicated an annual loss of 30% of world production due to pests and diseases in crops. These facts show how vitally important it is to make the maximum use of the resources which are available to combat these pests and diseases.

The N.F.A. was represented at the conference and its President, Mr. Rickard Deasy, presided over one session.

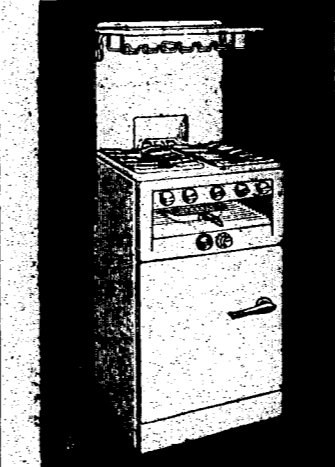

Another speaker, Dr. M. Neenan, Agricultural Institute Crop Husbandry Department, mentioned that there are 180 agricultural chemicals available in this country. This figure alone is sufficient indication of the need for adequate information being available to farmer and agricultural advisors on the proper choice and the best use of the one for any particular purpose. Many of the lecturers pointed out that farmers are often accused of disturbing the balance of nature through indiscriminate use of chemicals on the farm. On the basis of scientific information available, however, such allegations have no real foundation in fact. Certain isolated examples too often receive a disproportionate share of attention and publicity with the result that their significance is highly exaggerated.

Dr. T. Walsh, Director of the Institute, pointed out that the crops which are referred to as horticultural crops are now assuming such an increasingly important part in Irish Agriculture that it is no longer accurate to describe them as horticultural crops in the strict sense of the word.

It is expected that the lectures will be made available from the Agricultural Institute in a bound volume at a later date.

FIRST OIREAGHTAS TITLE FOR WATERFORD Champions Crash To Classy Decies

● Gaelic Jottings

● CHAMPIONS FANCIED TO RETAIN TITLE

Waterford's miniature All-Ireland is scheduled for Walsh Park on Sunday next, when champions Mt. Sion and challengers Erin's Own meet in the county senior hurling final.

The appetite of hurling followers whetted by last Sunday's glorious Oireachtas victory over Tipperary, this decider how takes on an even greater appeal than could possibly have been imagined a week or two ago.

Ever before a ball was struck in this campaign, a final showdown between these—the county's greatest rivals—was imminent. And now that expectation has blossomed into reality, a record attendance is expected for what should be an exhilarating clash.

Sunday's game marks the fourth successive final between the clubs, victory on each previous occasion going to the reigning Monastery men. But twice the title all but changed hands, as only the hurling strategy of Sion and Erin's Own's misfortune over the hour prevented a championship dethronement.

But those with close connections with the Poleyberry side feel that Sunday will mark their return to the undisputed no. 1 berth in Deise hurling. Since defeating Abbeyside in the semi-final, they have undergone a special training course that only ends on Thursday night. Consequently, one can confidently expect a vastly improved side from the quite unimpressive one that dashed the hopes of the villagers.

This year the inclusion of Carlow stars Peter McGovern and Willie Walsh in attack, has greatly strengthened what was hitherto undoubtedly the Achilles heel of the side. McGovern can make and take scores in a manner that makes the act look a relatively easy one, and his duels with a bang-in-form Martin Og Morrissey should be intriguing.

Further back the challengers are powerfully equipped, John Meaney, injured against Abbeyside, has fully recovered, and his mid-field partnership with Joe Condon will test whatever the champions may have to offer in the sector.

A glance at the personnel in defence speaks sufficiently for the major task confronting the Sion attack.

Percy Flynn is presently enjoying a new lease of life in goal, while Jackie Condon rapidly regaining his best form. Teal O'Donnell—Clare's no. 1 full-back and Joe Coady—form a front line phalanx that will take a deal of penetrating.

At centre-half, the challengers have a new recruit in Tom Walsh, who proved his class against Abbeyside, while Jim Lynch and Billy Kelly, in form could curtail considerably, the activities of any wing forwards.

As against this array of Poleyberry talent, Mt. Sion's line-out glitters, even more brightly with big names.

Eight of last Sunday's county side that humbled Tipperary will be on duty—Jimmy Byrne, Larry Guinan, Martin Og Morrissey, Mick Dempsey, Mick Flannelly, Frankie Walsh, Phil Grimes and Seamus Power. Coupled with these the names of Dickie Roche, James Phelan, 'Doc' Walsh, Michael Gallagher and Tommy Hennessey and the real strength of the champions will be readily appreciated.

While few could begrudge Erin's Own the title, such have been their efforts over the past three years, it is difficult to desert the champions at this stage. They can—and no doubt will be—prepared for a mighty challenge to their long-standing, but nonetheless, feel they will weather what looks like being a hurling hurricane, and hold on to their crown for another twelve months at least.

● CHAMPIONS CRASH BEFORE RAMFANT DECIES

Giving perhaps the greatest display from a county side for many years, wonderful Waterford captured the Oireachtas hurling trophy for the first time on Sunday last, when brilliantly blasting All-Ireland champions Tipperary to a six-point defeat—4-12 to 3-9.

It is doubtful if any victory can have given such complete satisfaction to followers as his triumph over their Munster final conquerors.

Tipperary can have absolutely no alibi for defeat. They were mastered by a far superior side on the day, and in fact a six point defeat was a light 'let-off' for the holders.

Thus, the question marks of Munster final day of August last have been removed completely. Waterford hurling has again been vindicated and the future can be faced with supreme confidence. Devastatingly they devoured the open spaces of Croke Park, and their classical stick-work had the 20,000 attendance spell-bound with admiration.

It would be an injustice to Waterford's display to say Tipperary played poorly. On the contrary, the All-Ireland title-holders suffered no disgrace, and helped to make this decider amongst the greatest to date. But, without option, they had to concede best to a Waterford side that none would have beaten on Sunday's scintillating display.

● FOOTBALLERS MAKE IT A DOUBLE

Back into the race for league honours came the county's footballers on Sunday when their one-point victory over Tipperary at Fethard made it a notable double over the Premier County.

When trailing by six points mid-way through the second-half, Waterford's hopes seemed disastrously slim. But then their fighting qualities came to their rescue, and in a golden last-quarter spell, swept to a sensational victory.

Late Rally Gives Waterford Victory

Waterford 2-8 Tipperary 1-11

WHILE Waterford's hurlers were creating history at Croke Park on Sunday last, the County's footballers were in the process of making it a grand double at Fethard, where they defeated the home county after a lively and thoroughly satisfying hour.

This one-point victory re-veives Deise hopes of retaining sectional honours.

Only undefeated sides in the group are Clare and Kilkenny and should Waterford account for the Banner County when they meet in the campaign, ultimate success will not be as remote as it seemed a week or so ago.

While many will contend that Tipperary were somewhat unfortunate to lose on Sunday, Waterford must earn full credit for their truly amazing last quarter rally.

At half-time the Premier County were well worthy of their three-point lead. They fielded and kicked better and looked a far more purposeful combination.

On the change over they continued to set the pace and with teenager Mick 'Babs' Keating proving a real will to the wisp, Waterford's position gradually worsened. Entering the closing quarter the result seemed cut and dried as the Tipperary men held a 1-10 to 1-4 lead.

Their league hopes rapidly slipping, Waterford made their effort in the presence of a silenced attendance they tore the Premier County defence to shreds, and minutes before the end gained a level footing. Nor were their belated efforts yet at an end, in a last despairing

WATERFORD - 4-12

WHENEVER the pages of the record book on the hurling highlights of 1962 are unfolded in recollection, surely the Oireachtas final of Sunday last—in which

Being ever-mindful of that epic and drama-charged All-Ireland final of nigh on two months ago, it was surpassed by the quality and sheer splendour of the hurling produced in Sunday's decider, that in the memories of 20,108 fortunate spectators—amongst which there could not possibly have been a neutral, so enthralling was the struggle, will for ever hold a cherished spot.

And then, as the long whistle signalled 'finito' to a spell-binding encounter, good Waterford—supreme, conquerors of their championship masters, and proud and worthy holders of Corn Thomas Aise for the first time in the County's history.

No longer can the debacle at Limerick in the Provincial final be used as a smear weapon to condone the side and their present status in the hurling world. Sunday furnished complete and absolute proof that the happenings of that August Sunday were misleading in the extreme, while simultaneously all and sundry were given very conclusive proof that Deise hurling can match—or should one say out-match—the best in the land.

FINEST

This was undisputedly one of the finest displays ever given by a Waterford side at National headquarters. For them it was their real hour of trial and what more stern a 'jury' could they be asked to face than Tipperary. The champions had yet another record staring them in the face—that of three Oireachtas titles in a row but their hopes of the establishment of a hitherto unequalled

Within minutes Frankie Walsh had the ball in the net and for the ensuing twenty minutes precision Deise movements carved openings in a defence of even Tipperary's calibre. Soon the holders were fully alive to the predicament they were in and the scoreboard not unflatteringly read 1-4 to 0-2 in Waterford's favour by the 20th minute.

STEEL MET STEEL

But for the remainder of the half, the power-packed hurling that has made the champions a trophy-laden side, was again forthcoming from them. Relentlessly they bore down on the Deise posts, where steel met steel in gripping clashes. There wasn't the slightest trace of 'give' in that Waterford defence but the snipe-like ability of Tipp to snatch scores left them trailing by a solitary point—1-5 to 1-4 at the interval.

SUPERLATIVE HALF

It had been a superlative half hour's hurling. Waterford were surpassing the expectations of most, periodically scaling heights that one could only marvel at, while Tipp, were what everyone anticipated, the same minded ever-dangerous title-holders.

Anxiously the second-half was awaited. It was now clearly obvious that Waterford could stand up to the challenge. The game was as yet very much in the melting pot and speculation was thrillingly rife as to the result.

SWEPT TO ATTACK

As in the first-half, Tipperary were swept to the attack from the restart. Twice in as many minutes scoring chances were squandered but when Mackey McKenna equalised and Jimmy Doyle from a free again nosed them in front, a re-assessment of Tipperary superiority seemed imminent.

But not alone did Waterford maintain their first-half superiority but for good measure revealed form that even outshone what had come before.

Quickly Barron made it 'all aboard', and instantly Joe Condon's unerring accuracy from frees restored their slender interval lead. But more was to follow. They had the champions on the run and with the experience gained over years of top-class campaigning, had

TIPPERARY - 3-9

Waterford regained for the county the glories of the not too distant past, will stand apart as the caman classic of a memorable year.

VITAL GOALS

Condon again had a classical point and then came the scores that finally put paid to the issue. Grimes was the architect, Barron the finisher, and there was goal-keeper Mounsey bending to take the shot from the net. Scarcely had the Deise rejoicing subsided to normal when again Barron and Grimes engineered goal number three, this time Grimes carrying out the act of completion.

Stunned beyond belief, Tipperary to their credit refused to accept defeat. They re-organised their forces to such an extent that one found difficulty to trace their players. They cut their deficit to four points by the 22nd minute, but succumbed again before Waterford's grand-stand finish.

As already stated, it was a decider that will be recalled when many other games of far greater significance are well forgotten.

UNEXPECTED

For Tipp defeat was unexpected. But consolation can be had from the knowledge that they failed to a really masterful side on Sunday and in a manner that shed lustre on a great reputation. They played well enough to have beaten most opposition and will I feel sure, not even attempt to create excuses for their defeat.

VINDICATED

Unpredictable Waterford have well and truly vindicated themselves through the medium of this Oireachtas tournament. En route to capturing the trophy they have beaten both All-Ireland finalists and a repetition of Sunday's form in which all fifteen distinguished themselves, would avert defeat for quite some time to come.

In goal a confident Ned Power dealt with everything in a manner that must have inspired the man in front of him.

CLEARED HIS LINES

Tom Cunningham without fuss repeatedly cleared his lines and gave Sean McLoughlin a profitless afternoon. Full-back Austin Flynn dealt likewise with Tom Moloughney.

PORTLAIRGE ABU

The month is October, the year '62. It has been quite eventful for the white and the blue. We suffered defeat in Old Limerick town. But gained sweet revenge with the Oireachtas crown.

HAD MANY STARS

Even in defeat Tipp had many stars. Goalkeeper Roger Mounsey is an outstanding under-study to Donal O'Brien, while Tony Wall, Kieran Carey and newcomer Christy Hartigan were wonderful in defence. Theo English, tried wholeheartedly throughout at mid-field where Donie Nealon and later in attack also had his moments.

Their inside trio in attack, McLoughlin, Moloughney and DeValney were completely shut out of the game and it was left to Jimmy Doyle, Mackey McKenna and Tom Ryan to carry the side's hopes near goal.

Waterford's marksmen were John Barron (2-2), Phil Grimes (1-3), Frankie Walsh (1-1), Joe Condon (0-4), Tom Cheasty and Mick Flannelly (0-1) each.

Tipperary replied per Donie Nealon (2-1), Mackey McKenna (1-3), Jimmy Doyle (0-4), Tony Wall (0-1).

Waterford—E. Power, T. Cunningham, A. Flynn, J. Byrne, L. Guinan (capt.), M. Og Morrissey, J. Irish, J. Condon, M. Dempsey, M. Flannelly, T. Cheasty, F. Walsh, S. Power, J. Barron, P. Grimes.

Tipperary—R. Mounsey, M. Hassett, M. Maher, K. Carey, M. Burns, T. Wall, C. Hartigan, T. English, D. Nealon; J. Doyle, J. McKenna, T. Ryan; L. DeValney, T. Moloughney, S. McLoughlin. Sub.—M. McElgunn for Burns.

Waterford regained for the county the glories of the not too distant past, will stand apart as the caman classic of a memorable year.

MORRISSEY'S DISPLAY

But it was the unsurpassable hurling of Martin Og Morrissey at centre-back that really captivated the onlookers. Never since his advent to the side has he performed with such dignity while a succession of different opponents failed to find an answer to the defensive make-up of Jimmy Byrne.

STYLISH CONDON

At midfield the stylish Joe Condon lorded it over friend and foe. Tipp had no answer to the Erin's Own man, who besides his general display had an added contribution of four valuable points. Mick Dempsey, though not on a par with Condon, did much to gain an overall advantage in the sector.

TO SCORE 4-12 AGAINST AS HIGHLY RATED DEFENCE AT TIPPERARY'S, MUST EARN FOR DEISE ATTACK UNSTATED PRAISE.

John Barron, an outstanding success on the fringe of the square, Phil Grimes and Frankie Walsh were the scorers-in-chief, but Tom Cheasty (though running up against a bang-in-form Tony Wall), Mick Flannelly and an industrious Seamus Power, must also earn plaudits.
