Allegations Against Chief Assistant Engineer 'Forty Years of Faithful Service'

— Councillor Jack Butler

WHILE Colr. Tom Lannon alone made allegations regarding the time at which Chief Assistant County Engineer, Mr. Jerry Ormonde goes to and returns from work, at Monday's County Council meeting, lavish praise and glowing tributes were paid to him (Mr Ormonde) by several other Council members.

Colr. Lannon said Mr. Ormonde goes to work at 10 and 10.30 a.m. and goes to his home at 12.30 p.m. Yet at the last meeting he was talking about the overtime he officials were doing.

Colr. Curran (Chairman) — Do you realise that you are making a very serious charge? Colr. Lannon — If I had any doubt in my mind I would not be those statements.

Colr. Curran — This is the most painful episode in the life of the County Council. It is a very serious charge that cannot be overlooked.

Mr. S. Deegan, Acting County Manager, said Mr. Ormonde was an outdoor officer of Waterford County Council and in all his associations with him, found him a most conscientious and efficient officer.

Mr. Ormonde — Can I reply to these charges Mr. Chairman. The charges made are so serious and reflecting on my integrity as an official that I would be better for Mr. Ormonde not to reply. I cannot deprive him the right to speak but in the circumstances I think it would be inadvisable.

Colr. Lannon — I'll state nothing but facts. Colr. Curran — I think you should not pursue this any further.

Colr. Lannon — A man getting the best part of £40 a week should be giving service.

Colr. Curran — We are dealing with possibly the most delicate situation yet. Colr. Lannon — I'm not afraid

GIVEN GREATEST PERIOD OF SERVICE

Colr. Jack Butler said that lest the public might come to the conclusion that he was in agreement with the allegations, he wished to state that he had the greatest confidence in the world in Mr. Ormonde. He himself has been in the County Council over 40 years, and Mr. Ormonde has been an official for 30 to 40 years. He knows that Mr. Ormonde has given one of the greatest periods of service to the Council and he wanted it made known to the public that he was not in agreement with this attack on an excellent official.

Colr. Lannon — You have two sons in the Council, one of them under Mr. Ormonde. Deputy Kyne said he had no sons in the County Council and he unhesitatingly endorsed every remark made by Colr. Butler about Mr. Ormonde.

Colr. Paddy Cahill said he saw Mr. Ormonde on duty on Tramore Strand at 6 p.m. last February and March. You can therefore imagine what time it was when he arrived home he added.

Mr. Ormonde said he was appointed to the County Council 38 years last June. During those 38 years he worked as Assistant Chief Assistant and for two periods Acting County Engineer.

NEVER CRITICISED

Continuing Mr. Ormonde said: During all that time I have never had criticism from any member of the County Council, Local Government, Department, County Manager, or anyone else in authority until now. And I think it is significant that Colr. Lannon has only brought up this since I antagonised him two months ago. Then I became a black sheep with him. If Colr. Lannon was out over the years at 8 a.m. he would have often seen me going to work and returning from work at 6, 7, 8 and 9 p.m. On many occasions I do not go to work until 10 a.m. but I have many

Committed to Good Shepherd Convent

A 14 year old Dungarvan girl, from Cahal Brugha Pl., was committed to the Good Shepherd Convent, Limerick, for two years by Justice Skinner, at the local Court on Wednesday last. She pleaded guilty to several charges of larceny and breaking and entering premises.

Her 12½ years old brother who aided and abetted her on several of the charges was given the benefit of the P.O.A. The Justice added that he would consider recommending her release after six months if she was of good behaviour.

Apathy Over Rail Closures Criticised

THE apathy of the people of County Waterford concerning the proposed closure of certain railway lines, was strongly criticised by County Council Chairman, Mr. Charles Curran, at last Monday's meeting in Dungarvan.

Mr. Curran expressing his disappointment, said in Cork an all-out effort had been made by public representatives, both deputies and councillors. The people of Co. Waterford should not depend too much on the Cork people in this matter, he said, as they would not fight their battles.

Colr. T. Lannon said if they closed the Waterford-Cork line, it would be a scandalous piece of work.

Colr. Curran said he personally would be in touch with Dr. Andrews, Chairman C.I.E. in case any adverse decision would be taken before he received a deputation from the Council. He was appalled at the attitude of the people of the County. If the line was closed (Waterford-Cork) it would mean mass unemployment but despite that, he said, no one with the exception of Deputies Ormonde and Kyne and the Councilors had made the slightest move. "It is an appalling attitude," he said. The discussion then ended.

LIFE-BOAT ALERTED

At 3 a.m. on Monday morning, Mr. B. Hickey, Coxswain of the Youghal Life Boat, received a phone call from the Proprietor of the Redbarn Ballroom that had seen at least three flares bursting out to sea in a direction between Redbarn and Ardmore Head. After consultation with the Hon. Secretary, Commander Arbuthnot, who was quickly on the scene, the boat was launched and despite the fact that she patrolled the entire area from the Island to Ardmore and far out to sea, returned to her base at 7.30 without making contact with any craft in distress.

LATE MRS. M. COLL-WALSH

The death took place, at an advanced age, of Mrs. Mary Coll-Walsh, at her residence, Avonmore House, South Abbey, Youghal, where she took up residence some 20 years after the death of her husband, the late Dr. Coll-Walsh, of Lewisham, Kent.

The remains were removed to St. Mary's Parish Church, where Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated, on Monday morning at 10.30, after which the funeral took place to North Abbey Cemetery, followed by a large cortege.

LATE MR. JAMES DELANEY

Deep regret was occasioned in his native town, at the announcement over the week-end of the death of a member of an old Youghal sea-faring family, in the person of Mr. James Delaney, and which took place in London, after a short period of illness. In his late fifties, he deceased was a member of the crew of the Liner "Queen Elizabeth" for over twenty years, and his many friends in the U.S.A. mourn his passing in the prime of life. He is survived by his widow Mrs. Mary M. Delaney of London and Greens Quay, Youghal, and his sister Miss Elizabeth Delaney also of London.

YOUGHAL FOR EAST COCK FINAL

Youghal qualified for the final of B. Division of East Cock junior hurling final, when they defeated Cloyne on Sunday last, at Castlemary. The success was well deserved for Youghal had territorial advantage for the greater part of the game. Though Cloyne fought hard, they failed to get on level terms at any stage of the game. From the start, Youghal got going and opened the scoring, kept in the lead to the half-time whistle, when they led by 2-9 to 2-1. The second half was more closely contested with Cloyne opening up to better advantage, but though they fought hard, they failed to get on top.

YOUGHAL BRIDGE TESTED WITH TRAFFIC

Watched by a large number of spectators, cars and heavily laden lorries crossed the new bridge across the river at Ardara last week. County officials, consulting engineers and representatives of the Contractors were present for the occasion. At 4.15 the first convoy of six lorries, each with 10 or 12 tons, moved across the bridge to the Waterford shore. The driver of the first lorry was Mr. Pat Spillane, who was accompanied by Mr. P. Hegarty, Transport Manager of Messrs. W. Ellis & Sons and Mr. John Foye, Supervisor, the same firm. It is now planned to have the bridge opened by Mr. Blaney, Minister for Local Government, on Wednesday, January 23rd, and public transport will not be permitted until then.

The work on the approach roads is progressing satisfactorily under the guidance of Mr. Jeremiah O'Regan, B.E., Asst. Co. Engineer, at Youghal. The advance party of the convoy included: Mr. M. N. 12 MONTHS FOR HELVICK MAN
DECLAN SHANAHAN, Helvick, was convicted and sentenced to a total of 12 months imprisonment at Dungarvan District Court on Wednesday, on two charges of maliciously damaging the property of Mrs. Mary Murray, also of Helvick, on dates in 1960 and 1962.

Shanahan pleaded guilty to the following charges: (1) maliciously getting fire to five tons of first crop hay valued at £75 on Sept. 3rd 1960, and (2) also maliciously setting fire to three stacks of hay valued £40 on Sept. 27th last.

Supt. M. Costello, prosecuting for the Attorney General said that early in the morning of Sept. 27th last, three stacks of hay on the property of Mrs. Murray were found on fire by a neighbour. The hay was totally destroyed.

In 1960 a quantity of hay was also burned in the same haggard. Mrs. Murray had no insurance on the property at that time and she claimed no malicious injury. After the second burning the Gardaí investigated it and it transpired that the defendant and Mrs. Murray were not seeing eye to eye. Mrs. Murray was the owner of a public house and she had put her premises out of bounds for the defendant.

On the night of the burning some of his friends asked Mrs. Murray to allow Shanahan in for a drink but she refused adamantly. A drink was brought outside to him and he drank it on the roadway.

NOT UNCOMMON

He subsequently went drinking elsewhere, continued Supt. Costello and probably got loaded and then went and set fire to the hay. In a statement he admitted burning the hay and also pleaded guilty to doing so in 1960. The defendant did co-operate with the Gardaí but I must point out the seriousness of the crime which is not an uncommon one in West Waterford. They appear to be indisposed people who when they have a grudge against a person, use this as their method of getting their own back.

It was a terrifying type of crime, he said, and apart from the shock to the people concerned, the whole locality was scarred by the crime. Unfortunately also there was a repetition of the case.

Mr. L. F. Lanigan, Solr., for the defendant, said he did not intend to minimise the seriousness of the crime. His client was a man of fifty, whose wife was dead and he was living alone. He also served in the Army for a period.

He resides, he said, next door to Mrs. Murray's public house and it was a great cause of resentment not to be allowed into her premises. On the last occasion a relative of his was home from England, and it humiliated him not to be able to bring him in for a drink. It was in anger that he set the hay on fire.

His client, said Mr. Lanigan, regretted what had happened and he facilitated the Gardaí in every way. He sent his sister to apologise to Mrs. Murray. He would recompense but had no way of doing so.

He (Mr. Lanigan) would ask for leniency and suggested that the justice impose a suspensory sentence.

Judge Skinner said the charges were very serious ones. He imposed a six months prison sentence in each charge—the sentences to run consecutively. He also fixed recognisances at £20 on the defendant's own behalf and two independent sureties of £10 each in the event of an appeal.

GUN CLUB NOTES

Saturday night's meeting was well attended, yet the absence of some members left a vacuum unfulfilled in so far as full results of the shooting on opening date was concerned. General deduction from the members present indicated that they were well satisfied. The state of the weather on the Holiday was favourable for shooting.

An important factor in the life of the Club was dealt with by the Chairman, this showed that on the occasion of our annual general meeting a fortnight ago, we were unable to confirm the terms of our negotiations with the Minister for Lands concerning the acquisition of game rights over large tracts of State Lands. However, the Secretary now reported that on the 2nd inst., he had concluded a ten year lease with the Minister on behalf of the Club, covering some six thousand odd acres of land at a fixed annual rental. This achievement speaks well for the future progress of the club, particularly so, where advance planning is concerned.

The formation of a county federation of gun clubs, can now be looked upon as a most desirable step and in addition, the establishment of a Game Farm in Dungarvan is a must so that we may keep pace with the modern trend of events. Other counts have obtained State Grants as a result of working in the right direction. We cannot hope to qualify unless we too do our own part in co-operation and good will. This can be done. There are still a number of membership cards to be collected and those are available from the Secretary on payment of subscription. If we may offer a further word of warning and advice to members, let it be known that the club is resolved to see that the law takes its course.

THE MESSAGE OF FATIMA

The Sisters of the Presentation Convent, Dungarvan, are at present busily engaged in training their talented pupils for the production of "The Message of Fatima" at the School Auditorium for 28th, 29th, 30th Nov. and 2nd Dec. December (4 night and one matinee performances). Full particulars as to booking of seats etc. are given in our advertising columns of this issue.
This is a beautiful pageant Play in 4 colourful acts which tell of the exquisite and spectacular detail the story of the wondrous appearances of Our Lady of Fatima in 1917 and the Message she then gave to the world. As nothing has been spared in scenery, lighting, costume and training to bring out to the stage the authentic atmosphere of Fatima, the Sisters should be assured of a full house for each performance.

BORD NA gCON

1962 RACING SEASON

The 1962 greyhound racing season will conclude at provincial tracks on Saturday, 1st December, 1962, and on the Dublin tracks on Saturday, 15th December, 1962.

Benefit meeting in aid of coursing clubs may be held at any time before these dates. The Board has decided that it will contribute the usual prize money grants in respect of such meetings.

As already announced, the question of the duration of the racing season in future years has been referred to arbitration.

BORD NA gCON

Runners in Hurdle Races to be Increased

Bord na gCon has decided to permit the number of runners in hurdle races to be increased to five at tracks where safety type hurdles are installed. Under the old rules, four runners were permitted. From the commencement of the 1963 racing season, hurdle races or hurdle trials may only be held by tracks where the approved type of hurdles are installed.

The height of hurdles at all tracks will be standardised at 2' 8". The colour and length of brush has also been settled following inspections by officials of the Board of specimen sets installed by Irish manufacturers earlier this year, at Limerick and Thurles tracks.

Grants will be made available by the Board towards the cost of installation of new hurdles at all tracks.

The new hurdles will afford the maximum protection from injury. Each flight will comprise of a number of 12" sections heavily protected by foam rubber. Should a greyhound collide with the hurdle, that particular section will fall away and then automatically spring back.

In Britain, six runners are permitted in hurdle races, in America eight. The decision to allow an increased number of runners to compete in hurdle races in Ireland should, accordingly, help to make it easier for Irish hurdlers to compete in Britain.

Indeed, the congregation is growing so fast that provision has had to be made for them in the heart of St. David's itself by the purchase of the former town hall and its conversion into a great little church. Even local non-conformist preachers have congratulated Fr. Francis on his new church, and indeed almost all the people of St. David's are proud of the new Catholic church in their midst.

But, of course, it's the usual story where a Parish Priest seeks to extend Christ's Kingdom on earth: Fr. Francis is faced with a debt of £5,000. On a previous occasion, when establishing a new Mass centre, he appealed through the Press to the Irish people, and met with a wonderful response. He knows that once more he will be assisted in the spreading of the Faith by the generous donations of the people of this county, some of whose children labour by his side for the conversion of Wales.

Fr. Francis, then, asks for the prayers and the alms of the Irish people. Every donation will be gratefully acknowledged; and benefactors' intentions will be prayed for every day by the Pass on St. Community at St. David's. Address: Fr. Francis, C.P., St. Non's, St. David's, Pembrokeshire.

IRISH PASSIONIST BUILDS CHURCH IN WALES

Much sympathetic interest has been aroused amongst the local non-conformists in St. David's, South Wales, by the activities of a former Irish architect. He is the Very Rev. Fr. Francis McCaffrey, C.P., now Superior of the Passionist Monastery of Our Lady and St. Non, St. David's Pembrokeshire; and he is at present engaged in building the first Catholic church to be established in this smallest city in Britain, since the Reformation.

Fr. Francis—formerly known as John G. McCaffrey—was born and spent most of his earliest years in Ballymacarrett, Belfast. His father's shop was wrecked and he himself often went in danger of his life during 'The Riots' of the early twenties. Educated by the Irish Christian Brothers, he later trained as an architect and then entered into partnership with Mr. J. D. Gordon, B.Sc., A.R.I.B.A. In 1932 he went to Derry to work in association with Mr. W. J. Doherty, M.R.I.A.I. Amongst a variety of works carried out by him were the Newforge Factory, Belfast, the Marist Brothers' Monastery, Sligo, and the Sacred Heart Church, near Stranbane. He was prominent in many parochial activities, being for years a member of the Leg on of Mary and the St. Vincent de Paul Society. He organised the first diocesan pilgrimage from Derry to Knock.

Fr. Francis left Derry to join the Passionist Order in 1937, and was ordained Priest in 1943. He was among the first Community of Passionists to settle near St. David's, when they met with a very hostile reception from the local non-conformists. There were then a mere dozen known Catholics scattered over a parish of fifty square miles. These attended Mass in the little oratory of the Passionists built on the edge of the cliffs a mile away from St. David's.

In the twenty odd years that have intervened, however, the local Welsh people—a purely Celtic race like the Irish Catholics living amongst them—have got to know the black-robed Passionists and have taken their hearts to every day. Fr. Francis walks miles every day and thus contacts many non-Catholics; and, owing to the number of converts and the growth of Irish families, the original dozen Catholics have now increased to twelve dozen.

Indeed, the congregation is growing so fast that provision has had to be made for them in the heart of St. David's itself by the purchase of the former town hall and its conversion into a great little church. Even local non-conformist preachers have congratulated Fr. Francis on his new church, and indeed almost all the people of St. David's are proud of the new Catholic church in their midst.

But, of course, it's the usual story where a Parish Priest seeks to extend Christ's Kingdom on earth: Fr. Francis is faced with a debt of £5,000. On a previous occasion, when establishing a new Mass centre, he appealed through the Press to the Irish people, and met with a wonderful response. He knows that once more he will be assisted in the spreading of the Faith by the generous donations of the people of this county, some of whose children labour by his side for the conversion of Wales.

Fr. Francis, then, asks for the prayers and the alms of the Irish people. Every donation will be gratefully acknowledged; and benefactors' intentions will be prayed for every day by the Pass on St. Community at St. David's. Address: Fr. Francis, C.P., St. Non's, St. David's, Pembrokeshire.

N.F.A. NEWS

BORD NA MONA AND THE FARMERS' PROBLEMS

One aspect of bog development work which is sometimes overlooked is the effect of silting being carried along the rivers which drain the bogs.

particularly noticeable on the silty-laden rivers. Other farmers cannot avail of land reclamation grants because of this situation.

N.F.A. branches in Kildare Offaly, and Westmeath have been very much concerned with the problem in recent years. The matter is now the subject of a special investigation by the N.F.A. National Industrial Committee.

The latest annual report of Bord na Mona showed a very encouraging picture of development and progress on many fronts. The N.F.A. wholeheartedly welcomes this achievement but at the same time, insists that where farmers are affected, their point of view must be taken into account.

IMPORTS OF POLLARD AND WHEAT CRISES

Mr. T. Lynch, T.D., asked the Minister for Agriculture (a) the amount of pollard in tons imported in the country from 1st January, 1962 to the latest available date; (b) the countries of origin and (c) the analysis of each cargo.

Mr. Smith—Imports of wheat offals are subject to licensing control but no group of persons or companies have concessions in this regard. Details of the analysis of each cargo are not available.

Any particulars of imports of wheat offals since the 1st January, 1962, are in the form of a tabular statement. I propose with the permission of the Ceann Comhairle, to circulate it with the Official Report.

The following are the particulars—Imports of Wheat Offals (Jan.-Aug., 1962) (tons) U.S.S.R. 48,800. Argentina, 33,581; Algeria, 992; Poland, 202; Senegal, 200. Total 83,775.

Mr. Lynch—Is the Minister aware that a great deal of this so-called pollard had no feeding value whatever, on analysis.

Mr. Smith—I am not so aware.

Mr. T. Lynch—If the Minister is not so aware, will he take steps to ensure that his Department will see to it that analysis will be taken of all this pollard which may come into the country from this day forward?

Mr. Smith—We make a limited analysis but it is not sufficiently extensive to enable me to speak authoritatively on the subject. However, analysis has been made as between the imported offals and the offals produced at home. Although the basis for that analysis may not be entirely satisfactory, the results are there.

Mr. T. Lynch—Might I remind the Minister that only a few seconds ago he told me that no analysis was taken? Now he says there is analysis. If analysis is taken will the Minister make it available to the House.

Mr. Smith—Based on a limited check. If the Deputy asks me a question on the subject, I shall—

Mr. Lynch—The question is on the Order Paper. I am asking if the Minister will make the analysis available.

Mr. Lynch—I have given the Deputy the information available to me. If the Deputy wishes to have further information on this subject, he can contact An Foras Talairis who I understand have made an analysis of the imported and the home-produced offals.

Mr. Lynch—Would the Minister not consider it all the same—

An Ceann Comhairle—This is a matter of opinion, not question.

Mr. Sweetman—The Deputy asked the question—

An Ceann Comhairle—Several times.

Mr. T. Lynch—It is of some importance to the farmers who will buy this feeding stuff. The great majority of it consists of ground oat hulls which have no feeding value whatever.

World Ploughing Championship Test Match

At this year's National Ploughing Championships in Thurles a Test Match was held on Thursday, 8th November, to select the two competitors who will represent Ireland at the 11th World Ploughing Championships to be held in Cañon, Ontario, Canada.

Ten years ago he first World Ploughing contest was also held in Canada where there were only ten countries represented. At next year's contest it is expected there will be 23 countries represented—an indication of the importance and popularity of this now firmly established international contest.

The World Ploughing international competition gives a great opportunity to farmers and agriculturists from countries all over the world to meet and take part in a friendly contest and at the same time discuss the many problems which they have in common. The motto of the World Ploughing Organisation is "Fratres Ager Colat"—Let Peace cultivate the Fields—and this meeting of ploughmen from many countries provide an occasion to create better understanding between the participating nations while competing for the Esso Golden Plough.

World Ploughing Championships are sponsored by Esso and at a dinner given on Thursday, 8th November, at Thurles, by the Directors of Esso Petroleum Company (Ireland) Limited, the Minister for Agriculture, Mr. P. Smith, announced the names of the two competitors who will represent Ireland next year in Canada—Mr. Michael Muldowney, Grove, Co. Kilkenny and Mr. William Murphy, Frarstown House, Talaght, Co. Dublin. In the course of his speech at the dinner, Mr. J. H. Donovan, Director, Esso Petroleum Company (Ireland) Limited said: "We welcome these competitors whose performance yesterday placed them in line for today's test. All dealt with difficult conditions in the manner of champions. It is regrettable that only two can be selected to compete for the Esso Golden Plough and the World Championship. However, we, in Esso, look upon this Championship—and indeed the National event too—not as a contest for individual supremacy, but as a spur to national progress. Our sponsorship of the World Event is designed to ensure that ploughmen from all parts of the world gain experience and benefit from their association with the best operators of other nations.

"If they learn—as we know the Irish representatives have learned—of better styles and more productive methods, our purpose is well served. In addition, they bring the honour of the World Championship to Ireland, our men will act as an example to other Irish farmers and help to further agricultural progress."

A deputation from Cork Corporation met Dr. C. S. Andrews, Chairman, C.I.E., and officers of the Board at Kingsbridge today (Thursday) in connection with the future of the Cork/Yougha line.

Dr. Andrews informed the deputation that an examination of the line seemed to indicate that the cost of providing alternative road services in respect of peak traffic would exceed the cost of continuing the rail services.

The Board will come to its final decision within a few weeks but in these circumstances the probability is that the line will be continued for freight and Sunday excursion services.

The deputation, which was led by the Lord Mayor, Ald. Sean Casey, T.D., consisted of Mr. S. Barrett, T.D.; Senator A. Healy; Ald. S. Allen; Col. E. Sturley; and Mr. W. McEvilly, City Manager.

She was a general favourite in Dungarvan for her outstanding qualities; a true Irish wife and mother and a most charitable person. The greatest of true and sincere sympathy is extended to her family on their loss.

Her remains were removed on Monday evening to St. Mary's Parish Church, Dungarvan, followed by a very large cortege consisting of all sections of the community who had travelled from far and near to be present, and were blessed and received into the Church by Rev. Fr. D. Byrne, C.C., assisted by Very Rev. Fr. P. Farrell, P.P., Ballyduff.

Requiem Mass was celebrated for the happy repose of her soul and the interment took place in the adjoining family plot. Rev. Fr. D. Byrne, C.C., assisted by Very Rev. Fr. P. Farrell, P.P., Rev. Fr. D. McGrath, Lisfennel and Rev. Fr. J. Murphy, C.C., imparted the final absolution at the graveside.

Large sheaves of spiritual tributes were received by deceased's family.

The chief mourners were: James, Dungarvan, Patrick, Dublin (sons); Mrs. K. Kelly, Callan (daughter); James Walsh, Curradoon, Ballynamutt (brother); Mrs. C. Henderson, Waterford (sister); and a large circle of nephews and nieces, and grandchildren; Mrs. James Clancy, Mrs. Patrick Clancy, (Dublin), (daughters-in-law); John Kelly, Callan (son-in-law).

(Funeral arrangements were carried out by Messrs. James Kiely and Sons, Dungarvan.)

Novel Junior Football Final on Sunday

HURLERS ATTEMPT TO WIN FIRST LEAGUE POINTS

NOT even the failure of last Sunday's final to live up to expectations, will deter football followers from returning to Dungarvan's Fraher Field on Sunday next for the County junior final between Ring and Newtown. At Waterford the senior hurlers endeavour to regain some of the ground lost at Limerick when they meet up and coming Carlow in the National League.

Important though that latter game undoubtedly is, in most quarters the junior final is regarded as the game of the day. As with last Sunday's final, this meeting of Ring and Newtown at this stage in the championship is unique in the history of the rival clubs. Thus unusual interest has been created in the tie, and for one expects the game to compensate greatly for the disappointments of Sunday last.

Already this year Ballyduan have brought hurling honours to the Newtown parish and now confidence is high that the second leg of the historic double will be recorded at Ring's expense.

Nor is that confidence without concrete foundation. While scoring many impressive victories on their way to the Eastern final, it was in their 1-7 to 0-4 defeat of Tramore in the Divisional decider that they stamped them as a side well capable of "going the distance".

SIDE ALREADY SELECTED

Further proof of their confidence is surely the fact that their side has been selected for over a week now. Their camp is injury free and club Secretary Willie Leahan, although not over optimistic, has, I think, little doubt about the outcome.

The defence is strong, particularly the half-line of Tony Kirwan (capt.), John Hubbard and Joe Harney. Middlefielders Phil Dee and John Regan have mastered all opposition to date and forwards Bally Foley, the 'Issie' and Whelan will not be like many chances.

Since their affiliation to the Association in 1897, the Club based on two occasions but have been going strong since 1940. To date they have contested six county finals against Keshcannon, Blickeys (twice), Keshcannon, Ardmore and Cappoquin.

O PAOLAIN OFF

News from the Gaeltacht Camp is of a mixed variety. Eamonn O Paolain cannot make the trip from England and his absence will be sorely felt. As against that, however, Bobby Curran returns to the side and is expected to lead their attack. Ring's is a glorious championship tradition and since their runaway victory over Valley Rovers in the Western final, have prepared intensively for Sunday's game. During that Divisional campaign, they were never seriously tested, and though the Newtown opposition is of a vastly superior quality there is no despondency or doubt amongst followers as to where the honours will finally lie.

Nick Graves is again expected to guard their net and a defence revolving around Sylvester Murray, Mossy Keane, Tom Curran and Mick Neary will not be easily outwitted.

Especially strong at midfield where Pat Harty and Liam Meagher operate with such distinction, the Western champions will look to this part to carve the openings for towards Johnny Joe Harty, Donal Murgrave and company.

The form of both finalists has been so impressive that I would not dare attempt a forecast. Certain it is that it will be a closely fought struggle and equally certain is that whichever side triumphs, the county will have worthy junior champions.

The Newtown team is:—D. Hassett, Pat Dee, J. Walsh, J. Lee, T. Kirwan (capt.), J. Hubbard, J. Harney, Sam Dee, John Regan, B. Foley, J. Whelan, P. O'Brien, D. Hassett, A. Kirwan, S. Hassett, Subs.—M. Scully, J. Gosselin, A. Harney, R. Gearty, R. Gavin, J. Kelly, J. Kelly.

NO CHANGE ON HURLING TEAM

Despite the tanning suffered on Sunday last, the selectors make no change for the home game against Carlow in the National Hurling League at Waterford.

A replacement will, however, have to be found for Jimmy Byrne, who is travelling to contest with U.C.C. Joe Harney has been mentioned as the most likely candidate to fill the vacancy but Harney will be assisting Newtown in the junior football final and will not be available.

That defeat in Limerick on Sunday last was nothing short of disastrous and only a sweeping victory over Carlow will suffice to restore some of the lost prestige.

"But the Leinster men, come to the clubs intacta with a splendid reputation. Already they have beaten Cork in the League and are anxious to maintain their unbeaten record. Waterford, of course, cannot afford further lapses. They have already left themselves with a harder than expected task to win group honours and in those circumstances, I expect them to collect the points."

UNION CHIEF'S PLEA TO CO. COUNCIL

WHILE he knew and fully understood the grave responsibilities of the County Councillors, he would submit that their responsibility to their Council staff should also be borne in mind and if they (staff) should be paid as decent a wage as that of comparable employment.

This was stated by Mr. Harold O'Sullivan, President of the Irish Local Government Officials' Union, when a deputation came before Monday's County Council meeting regarding the retrospective date for payment of salary increases to certain members of the Council's staff.

Mr. O'Sullivan, who incidentally is a former official of Waterford County Council, said this claim was based on negotiations in 1960 and 1961. The Union met the City and County Managers' Association and after negotiations they reached agreement. They subsequently met the Minister for Local Government, Mr. Neil Blaney and went into the whole question of increases with them and he agreed to sanction August 1st, 1960, as the date of retrospective for these increases—if put to him by the Local Authority. The various county councils everywhere in the country applied the increase from August 1st, 1960, except Waterford. Even in Waterford City the increase was paid.

GRAVE RESPONSIBILITIES

Mr. O'Sullivan added: The decision of your Council not to give the increase later than April 1st, 1961, does not bring me here in a critical attitude. I know the grave responsibilities of the County Council and I fully understand them. But I submit that the responsibilities to the staff must also be borne in mind. The burden of the rates is heavy and I agree it is time that the Government considered other ways of funding Local Authority. But the staffs should be paid as decent a wage as that of comparable employment.

We continued Mr. O'Sullivan, are anxious to co-operate with the County Council and to foster good relations. All I'm asking for your staff is what every other Council in Ireland has got and that is not an unreasonable request.

Replying to Cdr. Madden, the Chairman (Mr. Charles Curran) said the Minister refused retrospective later than April 1st, 1961, in their case. Mr. O'Sullivan said the Minister considered that matters such as that were for the elected representatives to decide and he would not interfere with them. Mr. Blaney said he would sanction retrospective to August 1st, 1960 if put to him by the County Council's and he would do so now also in this case.

SHOULD BE A HEADLINE

Deputy Kyne said he would like to propose that they grant the request to the officials of the Local Government Union. Had this gone to the Labour Court, he said, they would have to abide by its decision. The Union depended on the County Council's generosity, as they did not want to go through the machinery of the Labour Court. He thought that the fact that all other Coun-

KILL MAKE FOOTBALL HISTORY

There is a proverb that says everything comes to them that wait. And for Kill those many years of waiting and disappointment came to a glorious and welcome end on Sunday last when they captured their first ever senior football championship at Dungarvan.

Carlow showed by their defeat of Cork that they have fully matured in a hurling sense, and will prove anything but a push-over for the Deise men.

Sunday next presents the West with one of its few remaining hopes of taking a county title this year, when Ring meet Newtown in the junior football final.

As with last Sunday's senior decider, this pairing is a novel one in the extreme, but it is hoped that spectators will be treated to a far superior brand of football than was served up in last Sunday's tie.

For Newtown, this is a golden opportunity of making it a junior double. Already the hurlers (Ba'ydurn) have brought county honours to the parish, and thirteen of the successful side will be attempting to complete the "grand slam" on Sunday.

Ring, of course, will refute any such suggestions. They have seldom trained with such dedication, and with a clean sheet from injuries are supremely confident of the outcome.

Elsewhere in this issue a more detailed preview of the final will be given.

PRIMARY FOOTBALL FINAL

Also scheduled for Dungarvan on Sunday next is the Western Primary football final between Clashmore and the Brickeys.

Cashmore have long been the ante-post favourites to take this title, and although forced to field without centre-back Ned McGrath on Sunday, followers still look to the O'Rourkes, Mick Baker and Tommy McGrath to carry the day.

But Brickeys in their defeat of Dungarvan on Sunday last, impressed, and if their attack, brilliantly led by Paud Donoghue, can be well serviced they could well capture the crown.

The game which acted as a curtain raiser to the senior final was a razor affair, and two players from each side received marching orders. Referee Mick White's handling of the game however left a lot to be desired, and many of his decisions met with unfavourable comment from both sides.

At home Dungarvan suffered most by the enforced departures. Brickeys were undoubtedly the better side. After facing the first-half breeze they led 3-1 to 1-2 a half-time and although adding only 1-2 to their tally in the second-half were never in danger of relinquishing the lead.

The whys, wherefores, its merits and might have been that have long constituted part of Waterford's hurling make-up. They took them all, both mar and ball, and allowed them down the field.

At centre-field there was sterling stuff. Mick Kennedy and Noel Power. And the men from Aglish must have thought they were playing Reginald's Tower.

Pat Duggan you would have to see, Fintonaire and Guiry, too, Whistler Flynn, Mick Regan and Joe Tibbs.

Tom McGrath, as substitute, did come on. And I'm sure you will all agree, if one should get a county medal, No better man than he.

The Geraldines strove might and main. To swing the trend of play, but a score of fourteen points to eight.

KILL CAPTURE FIRST SENIOR CROWN

Disappointingly Dull Football Final

KILL - 1-11 GERALDINES - 2-2

YEARS of fruitless endeavour and, continuous championship disappointments, were finally bridged on Sunday last when Kill laid low the hoodoo that had hitherto plagued their greatest efforts and by their resounding 1-11 to 2-2 victory over Geraldines, created history by taking their first senior football crown.

But if the fifteen heroes clad in green carved a special niche for themselves in the annals of Kill history, this decider that had the County in a state of pre-match tenderhooks, fizzled out into the greatest anticlimax of this or any other year.

Truthfully, and without the slightest exaggeration I would classify this final as the poorest I have yet witnessed at Dungarvan's Fraher field. The result was an equitable one, but so substandard was this Aglish challenge that their integrity as Western football ambassadors could honestly be questioned.

In view of the Geraldines utter ineptness, a true assessment of Kill's worth in this final would be impossible. When dominating the exchanges almost completely, they moved the ball intelligently and looked a highly competent side—endowed with sufficient skill at any rate to meet the demands of this insipid and lifeless decider.

Although playing into a strong breeze Geraldines mounted the first real attack and after 'Stylo' Roordan had been fouled Patsy Kenneally failed badly from the resultant close-in free.

Eight minutes had elapsed before full-forward Michael Regan gave Kill the lead with a point and within the space of a further two minutes Martin Kennedy coolly pointed a brace of frees. Four minutes later Kill were six points up when Noel Power free was misfired by a Geraldine defender and Joe Tibbs was left with the comparatively simple task of tapping the ball to the net.

Disheartened beyond imagination, Geraldines failed to shake off the despondency that was undoubtedly crippling their efforts. The winners continued to pile up the scores and before the interval Regan (2), Paddy Duggan (2) and Kennedy (free) gave them a near unassailable eleven point lead.

Within minutes of the restart Regan and Kenneally exchanged points but like scores by Noel Power (free) and Duggan in the 6th and 9th minutes, saw the first of the record attendance file prematurely towards the exits.

Yet, it is to the Geraldines credit that they found it within their resources and finally wrest from the winners the role of dictators. After twelve minutes a 'Stylo' Roordan centre was fouled in the square and although goalkeeper Nick Whelan partially saved Patsy Kenneally's kick, Kenneally gained possession from the rebound and crashed the ball to the net.

Three minutes later Kenneally pointed a close-in free and sustained pressure was put on the goalkeepers. Physically stronger, they utilised this advantage to the limit and as the game progressed, gradually wore down the lighter Dungarvan side.

During the course of the game, two players from each side were sent to the line by referee Mick Whyte.

Whereas Brickeys caught and kicked first time all through, the losers continuously attempted to over-see the ball and invariably landed themselves in trouble against uncompromising opposition.

When the Blues failed to make use of a strong first-half breeze it was obvious they were fighting a losing battle. Within minutes of the start, Paud Donoghue had a Brickey goal and although a Tommy Dalton point and a great goal by Mick Fitzgerald gave Dungarvan the lead for the first and only time, Brickeys made it a short-lived advantage, as Jack Cooney calmly belted goal number two to the losers net.

Tommy Greaney and Tony Mounain exchanged points before Donoghue and Fitzgerald made their departure. Soon after J. Woods and Pat Foley followed suit and just on half-time Brickeys made it 3-1 to 1-2 with another goal by Paud Donoghue.

Sean Lewis and Tommy Dalton exchanged major scores on the restart but Brickeys soon got completely on top and made victory secure with a brace of points by Michael Spratt (the last from a free).

ALL D'ONOGHUE FULL-LINE Jim Gee had a comparatively easy afternoon in the winners' goal and there was no passing the all-Donoghue full-line of B.J. Tom (white on) and Jack J.M. and Michael Spratt gave them a decided pull at mid-field and often found time to move dangerously into attack in search of scores.

WRECKED HAVOC Full forward Paud Donoghue wreaked havoc in the first-half unit. Dungarvan mentors switched Johnny Mahony on him after the change over. Jack Cooney, Tom Greaney and S. Fitzgerald formed a good half forward line while corner men Foley and Walsh gave Donoghue good assistance.

DUNGARVAN'S BEST Brickey Rangers—J. Gee, B. Donoghue, T. Donoghue, J. Donoghue, V. Glavin, J. Walsh, P. Gee, J. Spratt, M. Spratt, J. Cooney, T. Greaney, S. Fitzgerald, P. Foley, P. Donoghue, J. Walsh.

Tommy woods at right-half back was the star of the losing fifteen but John Woods and Mick Fitzgerald (in their short stay) also shone.

Johnny Mahony when moved from attack to full-back, proved the ideal foil to Paud Donoghue and of the remainder, Mikeen Lyons, Tolly Quailly Woods and Tommy Dalton were best.

Brickey Rangers—J. Gee, B. Donoghue, T. Donoghue, J. Donoghue, V. Glavin, J. Walsh, P. Gee, J. Spratt, M. Spratt, J. Cooney, T. Greaney, S. Fitzgerald, P. Foley, P. Donoghue, J. Walsh.

seer at its best, Monty Guiry provided the openings in the half-line while flying wingers Paddy Duggan and Paddy Fintonaire picked off the points.

Full-forward Mick Regan played a roving commission from the full-forward berth, to perfection and had three points to his credit. Youthful Joe Tibbs with the shrewdness of one many years his senior, scored his side's goal while Mick Flynn, though failing to get amongst the scorers was always dangerous. Nor can substitute Tom McGrath be forgotten and after a score of years has earned his well-deserved championship medal.

Kennedy at mid-field, Tobin tried hard all through, and came strongly into the game in the second-half, but so merited was Grady that it came as no surprise when selectors replaced him before the close.

Literally starved of the ball for so long, the Aglish forwards were given scant opportunity to achieve anything. Full-forward Patsy Kenneally fought a lone battle in the full-line, and he also could be singled out of the sextet.

Scorers for Kill were: J. Tibbs (1-0), M. Kennedy, M. Regan, P. Duggan (0-3 each), P. Fintonaire and N. Power (0-1 each).

Patsy Kenneally scored 1-2 for Geraldines, while their remaining goal came from a free.

Kill—N. Whelan, M. Kirwan (capt.), T. Kirwan, M. Hayes, G. Mooney, T. Mooney, A. Lannan, N. Power, M. Kennedy, P. Duggan, M. Guiry, P. Fintonaire, M. Flynn, M. Regan, J. Tibbs, Sub., T. McGrath for Hayes.

Geraldines: T. Connell; M. Hallahan, B. Ronayne, W. Cooney, M. Downing, J. Davis, N. Merton, M. Tobin, J. Grady, J. J. Landers, T. 'Stylo' Roordan, W. J. Teavey, J. Merton, P. Kenneally, T. Merton (capt.), Subs., J. Kelleher for Ronayne; B. Downing for Landers; P. Kiey for Grady.

Referee: Con Crowley (Mt. Sion).

BEATEN AT MID-FIELD Against my pre-match prediction, Johnny Grady and Michael Tobin were unable to cope with Power and Kennedy.

Disappointed Despite Ryan's actual loss, his defeat was a psychological disadvantage to the Geraldine side. Put that apart, they fared poorly, and failed miserably to produce even the slightest semblance of the dazzling form that earlier claimed Andrew, Taobh A. Gleanna and Brickeys as their championship victors.

Tom Connell made no serious blunders in goal, and Ned Merton, substitute Jim Kelleher and Billy Cro'ry were best in an oft-times harassed defence.

Surprise Defeat For Dungarvan Brickey Rangers 4-3, Dungarvan 2-2

IN a game that was occasionally marred by outbursts of fisticuffs, Brickey Rangers surprisingly beat a highly-rated Dungarvan side on Sunday and duly qualified for the Western Primary football final against Clashmore on Sunday next.

But if the Rangers unexpectedly halted the confident march of the Blues none can deny them the right to a place in the Divisional decider. Physically stronger, they utilised this advantage to the limit and as the game progressed, gradually wore down the lighter Dungarvan side.

During the course of the game, two players from each side were sent to the line by referee Mick Whyte.

Whereas Brickeys caught and kicked first time all through, the losers continuously attempted to over-see the ball and invariably landed themselves in trouble against uncompromising opposition.

THE BOYS OF KILL

The month of November, the west was wet. The Kill boys to Dungarvan were in a fine way.

And they did finely vow they would beat the mighty Aglish men, and the Conway Cup take home.

In goal stood Nicky Whelan. A great little man was he. In front, the Kirwans and Mick Hayes.

Were as cool as they could be. The Mooneys in the half-line and Akey Lannen, too; they took them all, both mar and ball, and allowed them down the field.

At centre-field there was sterling stuff. Mick Kennedy and Noel Power. And the men from Aglish must have thought they were playing Reginald's Tower.
