Medical Cards Advocated For Old Age Pensioners

AUTHORITY TO APPOINT ACCOUNTANT

By 13 votes to 2 Waterford Health Authority at its monthly meeting on Monday last passed a motion by Mr. W. Kennally that the post of Accountant to the Authority be created at the salary scale approved by the Minister.

Mr. W. T. Walsh said the post would not be an additional one and would entail no extra expense.

Mr. Charles Curran seconded the motion.

Mr. T. Lannon proposed and Mr. N. Walsh seconded that the post be not created.

The voting was: For—Messrs. Kennally, Curran, Dower, Foley, Cahill, Galgey, Madden, Power, Gallagher, Hamilton, Browne, Griffin, Collins (13). Against—T. Lannon and N. Walsh.

AT a meeting of Waterford Health Authority on Monday last a motion by Mr. John Fahey "that Medical Cards be given to non-contributory Old Age Pensioners and Widows Pensioners" was unanimously passed and a recommendation to that effect will now be made.

Mr. Fahey said at a previous meeting he had made complaints about the manner in which representations made by members of the Health Authority. Officials visited him and he put all his complaints before them and they were convinced that these complaints were justified. His representations were not getting proper attention.

Old Age Pensioners are being refused Medical Cards, said Mr. Fahey. I believe however, that at those qualifying for non-contributory old age pensions and Widows Pensions should be given a Medical Card.

VERY COMPLETE

Old Age Pension investigations he said, were very complete.

work at a considerable transport cost. In the time they were living in, no members of a family were contributing more than would keep them. He felt that Old-Age Pensioners were entitled to get consideration and he felt they should pass the motion. He also added that old people were likely to need medical cards most.

INQUEST ON BALLINAMULT GIRL ADJOURNED

AN inquest on 17-year-old Theresa Burke, Clonegale, Ballinamult, who was fatally injured on November 15th, when struck by a motor car, was opened and adjourned sine die before Dr. Daniel Healy and a jury at Dungarvan, on Thursday last.

Mr. Maurice Noonan, Gatekeeper, at Dungarvan District Hospital, said on Thursday, 15 November, he was on duty at the gate lodge at 8.10 p.m. He saw the deceased Catherine Theresa Burke pass through the gateway. She nodded to him in salute. He knew her well as she was employed on the domestic staff in the hospital. As far as he could see she was in good health and spirits when she passed.

Witness said that about 3 or four minutes later there was a knock on the window of his lodge. As a result of what he was told he went to the street outside and saw the deceased in a sitting position on the roadway injured on the opposite side. She was about 20 yards from the Dungarvan side of the entrance to the County Home. She appeared to be unconscious and injured. He saw no car where the girl was.

He then assisted in taking the girl into the District Hospital. On the following day he saw the dead body of Miss Burke in the hospital morgue, and identified it to Dr. John McNamara for the purpose of performing a post mortem examination.

Dr. M. K. Cusack, Medical Practitioner, Dungarvan, said he remembered the night of November 15th when he examined an injured girl in the District Hospital at about 8.30 p.m. She was the deceased. She was unconscious and in a state of profound shock. She had an extensive wound on the left forehead and temporal regions and fractures of the left leg.

She was so shocked that he decided to carry out no further examination. A short time later anti-shock treatment was given to her. She died on the following morning. Her condition and injuries were consistent with her being recently involved in a collision with a motor vehicle.

Dr. John McNamara, M.O. Ardmore, said on November 16th, he performed a post mortem examination on the body of the deceased at the District Hospital. He found superficial injuries including a deep laceration of the left temple and superficial lacerations on the right side of the face and forehead. The injuries, he said, would be consistent with the deceased being struck by a motor vehicle. In his opinion the cause of death was due to the multiple injuries sustained by the deceased.

Sergeant Morgan Hayes gave evidence of visiting the District Hospital on November 16th where he saw the dead girl's body.

At this stage Supt. M. Costello asked for an adjournment as the question of criminal proceedings were being considered.

Dr. Healy said in view of the Superintendent's request he would do so. He then expressed deepest sympathy with the parents and family of the deceased on their tragic loss.

Mr. Michael Tynan, on behalf of the jury, Suot. Costello, on behalf of the Authorities and Dr. McNamara were also associated with the expression of sympathy.

Mr. E. P. King, Sol., who appeared for the girl's parents, thanked them for their sympathetic expressions.

COUNTY HOME URGENTLY IN NEED OF FIRE ESCAPE

On the proposition of Mr. Norman Walsh, the monthly meeting of Waterford Health Authority, decided to request the Dept. of Health to expedite the building of a fire escape at the County Home, Dungarvan.

At Monday's meeting Mr. Walsh said it was a matter of urgency. If a fire broke out, the patients on the top floor could be burned to a cinder. They could not let that happen and it as their duty to do something about it and very quickly.

The Secretary (Mr. N. A. Hynes) said they worried about it themselves.

Mr. Walsh's proposal was carried unanimously.

Farmers Talk it Over Together

A symposium, under the auspices of the County Executive Committee of Macra na Feirme was held at Dungarvan Technical School on Friday night last, at which the County C.E.O. presided. The subject for discussion by guest speakers and a panel of farmers drawn from the surrounding districts was Modern Trends in Livestock Housing.

The farmers' panel members acquitted themselves well in dealing with the very varied and highly interesting and important questions which were put to them from the large audience of farmers who attended from the surrounding districts. This active participation by the audience ensured the success of a most educational and highly interesting programme.

Mr. Michael Tynan, on behalf of the jury, Suot. Costello, on behalf of the Authorities and Dr. McNamara were also associated with the expression of sympathy.

Mr. E. P. King, Sol., who appeared for the girl's parents, thanked them for their sympathetic expressions.

LOCAL BOYS TO BOX IN CORK CHAMPIONSHIPS

On Sunday night next two Dungarvan brothers will endeavour to carry off a double in the Cork Junior boxing championships. They are Nicholas and Peter Power of Cusham, both of whom are now attached to a Cork City Club.

Both are outstanding playing members of the Kilgobnet G.A.A. Club and were on the side that won a first-ever county title for the parish last year.

Despite the lack of training facilities in and around Dungarvan, both are quietly confident of capturing titles. When Both are brilliant amateurs at their respective weights and knowing the capabilities of these brothers we feel sure they will do themselves and their home county proud on Sunday.

ALL OUT DRIVE FOR CIVIL DEFENCE

As well as planning for their first annual dinner and for a suitable ceremonial distribution of certificates for first-aid to those who successfully completed the Red Cross Course, the County Civil Defence Authorities, under Civil Defence Officer, Mr. Thomas O'Donoghue, B.E., Dungarvan, have a full-scale intensive recruiting programme under way at the moment, with the full approval of Church and State, for this vital service.

The nucleus of this force for the county has been trained and District Wardens have been appointed to the nineteen areas into which the county has been divided. Currently, post-wardens are being appointed to fill the six divisions of the Warden districts, a further division by six later, will bring the total of small areas into which the county will be divided to some six hundred and eighty-four patrol areas, which will roughly be the equivalent of a townland in the rural area or a street in a town.

Two of the latest appointments as District Wardens in the county area are Waterford Health Authority accounts officer Mr. Philip Mongey for Tramore, and National School teacher, Mr. Sean Mullins, Killea, for the Woodstown area.

Away to Dublin headquarters for a further briefing in the latest techniques this week went County Council Engineer Mr. T. O'Donoghue, B.E., who is in charge of the civil defence arrangements for the county districts.

The authorities this week had a word of praise and thanks to the "Dungarvan Observer" for its fine coverage in news and pictures of Civil Defence affairs in this county.

WATERFORD COUNTY EXECUTIVE NEW DISPENSARY RESIDENCE FOR N.F.A. ANNUAL DINNER CLASHMORE

The following is the reply of N.F.A. President, Mr. Rickard Deasy, to the "Toast of the N.F.A." at the annual dinner of the Waterford Co. Executive:

This toast to the National Farmers' Association must inevitably make us reflect on the achievements and future development of the Association. It is not my intention tonight to recite our achievements, nor to examine the areas of our work in which we have not yet reached our goal. It is enough to say that at every level of the Association — Branch, County Executive and National Council — there is, I believe, a deep awareness of the truly colossal task that still remains to be done. Any huge undertaking, if you have to face it without help and machinery, can be a depressing prospect for any group.

It is perfectly true that such undertakings can be faced even in these circumstances if there is an absolute determination to overcome every obstacle, however great it may seem.

I know we have within the Association just that spirit and that in consequence we can with confidence take a closer look at the immediate future.

The Association has now reached a stage in its growth where our most urgent need, just as in any industrial undertaking, is one of rationalisation and re-equipment, so that our organisation is fully geared to function effectively and worthily in its place, side by side with its counterpart national organisations in the new Europe. What does this entail? You might say, for example, we need more Economists in Central Office who would be able to give us adequate economic briefing and ammunition so that we can fight our corner well on behalf of Irish Agriculture, both at home and abroad. We might say we need a Central Office which will tell us what to do, and on again you might say we will need a Central Office which will do what we tell it and do nothing until we tell it what to do.

All these ideas and methods are opening to examination, and each may contain some element worth serious consideration. What cannot be disputed is that the fundamental strength of the Association lies in the organisation of Branches and Co. Executives.

Very shortly we will be asking every county to make a fresh assessment of its potential in membership and finance and to state its plans for the development of the Association at county level, and then in the light of its own achievements in the past and its potential in the future, voluntarily to adopt a realistic target and couple with this a pledge, to the Association as a whole, of a minimum achievement in its own county yearly.

In the light of these targets and pledges the whole Association must budget and lay its plans for the future to see what work we can immediately undertake and what work we must regretfully forego. Everything depends on the counties. It is they who must in the final analysis decide what is possible and what is necessary, and what is necessary, and having taken their decision, each must as a full member of our 26-County N.F.A. team, play its full part in the game ahead.

In the Dark!

Mid-way through last Monday's meeting of Waterford Health Authority in Dungarvan Courthouse, the light went out and the Secretary (Mr. Hynes) had to read some documents with the aid of lighted matches.

In a letter to the Waterford Health Authority, read at last Monday's meeting, Dr. Murray, Dispensary Doctor for Clashmore, stated that his dispensary residence was now in an appalling condition and unfit for human habitation. Finally it was decided by 11 votes to 6 to build him a new residence.

Dr. Murray also stated in his letter that he did not want the Clashmore dispensary area altered in any way. Regarding his house he wanted to know when something would be done. Five years ago it was condemned and he would have to get accommodation for his family in Youghal for the coming winter.

Mr. John Fahey said it was a shocking report on a house on which they had spent so much money. Mr. P. Cahill said if they built one for Clashmore, they would have to do likewise in Kilmeehan.

Mr. J. Quirk—Must we give him a house? Mr. J. A. Hynes, Secretary, said legally they didn't have to provide a doctor with a house. But in the conditions of Dr. Murray's employment they had to provide him with one.

Mr. Milo Galgey—He has one. Mr. Fahey said they didn't build houses for their engineers and they shouldn't build them for doctors. They were well enough paid to build houses for themselves. £2,000 was already spent on repairing the one in question and one would imagine it would be more lasting.

Mr. Galgey—I will supply him with a house do we charge him rent? Mr. Hynes (Secretary)—He is already paying rent. It is a maximum of £100 a year.

Mr. Fahey—I propose we do not build him one. Mr. W. Foran said the house cost them £2,000 and another £2,000 to repair it. Were they now going to throw that £4,000 down the drain? Mr. Hynes said it was intended to sell the house and the eleven acres of land with it.

Mr. W. Kenneally (Chairman) said there would be no loss to the Board. Mr. Norman Walsh said Mr. Fahey's proposal might lead them into legal proceedings. They had to provide Dr. Murray with a dispensary residence.

Mr. Fahey—He has one. Mr. W. Dower said the conditions of the present residence were very bad due to dry rot. Mr. Charles Curran said the condition was due to second-hand materials that had been put into it. The doctor had had a severe distressing fire. The ceiling had fallen in and he had to send his children away to a boarding school.

A proposal to build the house was then put to the meeting and passed by the 11-6 vote. Messrs. Lannon, Curran, Dower, Madden, Power, Ken-

CHAMPIONS RELINQUISH CROWN

Erin's Own's First Since '47

Erin's Own 5-7; Mt. Slon 1-14
 Twice in the past three years Mount Slon's championship monopoly came perilously near being snatched by their city rivals Erin's Own. But perseverance had its due reward for the challengers on Sunday last when they ended Slon's nine-year reign as Daise champions after a replayed final that all the complimentary adjectives one could muster from a dictionary would not adequately pay tribute to.

This replay rang down the curtain on a campaign that has been featured by an unusually high quota of shock results and what a glorious finale it turned out to be, as a near record attendance, was at times held spell-bound by the splendour and quality of the hurling served up.

U.D.C. MEETING
 As a mark of respect to the late Paddy Walsh, Rent Collector, the monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council was adjourned for 15 minutes on Friday night.

A motion by Colr. Lannon that they rescind a resolution passed at a previous meeting to lay a sewer at Friar's Walk was adjourned after discussion.

"THE MESSAGE OF FATIMA"
 The initial performances of "The Message of Fatima" on Tuesday and Wednesday nights last, by the pupils of the Presentation Convent Schools, Dungarvan, were outstanding successes before packed audiences. Superb acting, colourful lighting effects and beautiful choral singing were indeed a treat and received well deserved tributes from patrons who travelled from far and near to enjoy this talent-filled spectacle. This is a show which can be confidently recommended to all for sheer enjoyment and the community of the Presentation Convent are to be congratulated on the excellent performance of their gifted pupils especially that of the kids who took the leading parts of Lucia, Jacinta and Francisco.

The remaining performances on to-night (Thursday), tomorrow night (Friday), and the final performance on Sunday night next should also draw capacity adult houses. The kids of every age are being catered for by a matinee at 3 p.m. to-day (Thursday).

 Congratulations to Miss Gre'ta Power, Baymount, Dungarvan, whose good greyhound, 'Know How' won the Tipperary Cup at Kilsheelan last Thursday beating the pride of Tipperary, "Simply Terrific" in the final and knocking out neighbour Joe Stephenson's "On the Beam" in the semi-final.

An excellent account of the guilds activities during the year was given by Miss Mary Mooney. The financial report was read by Miss Mary Curran. The next meeting will be held in the National School, on December 4th, at 7.30 p.m.

DEPUTY KYNE ON THE SOCIAL WELFARE ESTIMATE Deputy Kyne, speaking on the Social Welfare Estimate, said it was usual for the Minister to reply to Labour Party demands for increased benefits by stating the economy of the country could not afford any more. In connection with that statement, said Deputy Kyne, I suggest that the figures for Tax revenue versus social Welfare benefits and the percentage of benefits paid show a steady decline of the percentage of Social Welfare compared to Tax revenue collected. In between the year 1958 and 1962 Tax revenue rose by £32 millions, but benefits only went up by less than £2 millions. It was quite clear that the Social assistance groups were not getting all the country could afford to give to them.

Not only that, but I suggest, said Deputy Kyne, that the increased contributions paid by the workers not only pay for the contributory benefits increases but leave a handsome sum to the benefit of the Government. Many other Governments also gain from the contributory scheme. Take the case of an old age pensioner who was increased from 30 shillings per week to £2 per week. If he had been in receipt of a Special Allowance as an I.R.A. medal holder he was cut in his allowance by as much as his pension was increased by thus saving money for the Dept. of Defence. If he had any home assistance to supplement his O.A.P. of 30/-, he lost that when his pension went up to £2. In many cases the persons getting the contributory O.A.P. were worse off after the increase than before it was granted. All this economy by cutting free turf, blind allowances, I.R.A. allowances and Home Assistance gave the Government money back that was contributed by the workers in the form of increased contributions. How then could the Minister claim that increased Social Welfare benefits could not be afforded by the Government.

The catch cry of Fianna Fail that the 2/6 increase given last August was just as much as a Labour Minister gave in the Inter-Party time can easily be debunked when one examines what can be bought now for 2/6 as against what 2/6 could purchase in 1957. The cost of living index shows clearly the truth of claiming that the increase given last August had any comparison in value to that of 1957.

I have heard, said Deputy Kyne, statements by the Taoiseach and other Ministers that entry into the Common Market would break down the Border. Is this likely to happen while Social Welfare benefits remain at their low level here. In N. Ireland, a husband and wife will receive, if unemployed, £4-15-6 per week, plus a rental allowance of £1 per week. If they would get £2-2-6 if living in an Urban area or £1-14-6 in a rural area and no rent allowance in either case. Be the Nationalist or Unionist, the Northern worker is not going to vote himself to nearly half of what he gets at present.

One matter I would draw to the Ministers attention is a complaint I received recently that Irish Nationals sailing on British ships are not entitled to receive Workman's Compensation if hurt in the course of their work as sailors. If this is true then thousands of our men have no protection whatsoever and it is the Ministers duty to have the matter examined and rectified. I am satisfied, said Deputy Kyne, that the British shipowners are only too anxious to pay the compensation if the Minister makes it possible for them to do so.

The Seagulls will be on the wing again With the opening of the winter amusements season many rural dramatic groups in the county are planning their programmes. Currently checking over plays and sketches for one or two suitable to add to their extensive repertoire are the Bonmahon amateur group 'The Seagulls' who, led by Mr. Dick Fleming, shortly expect to have a complete programme ready to take on tour. This seaside group from mid-Waterford area had a very successful season last year when they played to large audiences on their home ground in Kilmacthomas Stradbally and Ballinroad among other venues. For this season the group has been reorganised, and with the addition of new talent, will be all set for another successful run.

Kilmacthomas News

A 'Hamperette' of Christmas Assortment has been won by much-esteemed Miss Rita Crowley, of Ballydwan, Bonmahon, in a fashion test of skill sponsored by a Metropolitan Sunday newspaper, and the likeable young lady is to be congratulated on her success.

Holidaying at her parental home these days is placidly-dispositioned Miss Anne Curran, who is a pupil of a training school for nurses at a leading general hospital in Liverpool. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Curran (farmer), Garran-turton, Kilmacthomas, she is in radiant health and spirits, and is enjoying every moment of her stay.

At Ardkreen General Hospital Waterford, occurred the death of Mr. Patrick (Paddy) Galvin Carroll's Cross, Kilmacthomas following a comparatively short indisposition and at a moderately advanced age, he had been removed from his district a well-beloved neighbour.

The late Mr. Galvin was a man of many fine characteristics. He was honest and helpful and a firm favourite with the extremely large number of friends and acquaintances he deservedly enjoyed. Deep and widespread sympathy is extended to his sisters and brothers—some of whom are in the home and some in the U.S.A.—in their bereavement.

A large and representative attendance accompanied the removal of the remains to the Parish Church, Newtown, where the coffin was received and blessed by Very Rev. F. Power, P.P., do.

Subsequent to the celebration of Requiem Mass in the sacristy on Monday morning of this week, the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery in the presence of another large and representative attendance of relatives, friends and sympathisers from over a wide area. The respected local pastor again officiated at the graveside.

Numerous Mass cards, telegrams and letters conveying expressions of condolence were received.

Bantraich na Tuaithe—In debt to the Kilmacthomas Guild, I.C.A., for the subscription: 'Our best wishes go to Mrs. P. O'Sullivan, N.T., of Mullinahona, Co. Tipperary, on her appointment as Principal of Ballydoonel National School Mullinahona. She was a very valuable member of our guild since she came as teacher Newtown N.S. three years ago. TOURANEENA I.C.A. GUILD The usual monthly meeting of the Touraneena I.C.A. held recently in the schoolhouse, was well attended. The President—Miss M. O'Keefe, welcomed all present including a number of new members. A very interesting talk was given by Miss Mary Coffey (home on holidays from the U.S.) on beauty, culture and hairstyling. The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, 11th December.

WEDDING BELLS At St. Mary's Church, Touraneena, on Tuesday last, the marriage was solemnised between Mr. David Halley, son of Mrs. Katherine Halley and the late Mr. Paul Halley, Crough-cooney, Ballinamult, and Miss Joan Moloney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Moloney, Biantis, Ballinamult. The ceremony, with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing, was performed by Very Rev. Fr. Walsh, P.P., assisted by Rev. Fr. Mulcahy, C.C., and Rev. Fr. Walsh, C.C., Fournisewater.

Given away by her brother Thomas, the bride was attractively attired in a blue terylene dress with harmonising accessories. The matron of honour, Mrs. Mary Condon, was similarly attired in grey. Mr. Patrick Halley, brother of the groom, was best man. The reception, attended by a large number of guests, was held at the O'Connell Hotel, Clonmel, after which the happy pair left on their honeymoon, which is being spent touring. We wish the newly-weds every good wish for their future success and happiness.

LATE MR. DECLAN FINN We regret to announce the death of a well known member of the community in the person of Mr. Declan Finn, of O'Brien, Youghal, which took place at Youghal Cottage Hospital on Monday last after a short period of illness. A member of an old established Youghal family, Mr. Finn was one of the old time javeys. He was a favourite with all classes and is survived by his three sons and three daughters to whom sincere sympathy is extended.

The remains were removed to the Parish Church and the funeral, followed by a large and representative cortege, took place to North Abbey Cemetery.

FIRE ALARMS On Thursday night of last week at 8.30, the Youghal Brigade were called to a fire at Harbour View West. The cause was first noticed by a neighbour Mr. P. McSweeney who forced open the door of the house occupied by an elderly man Mr. Gould, who was found to be asleep. He was rescued by Mr. Sweeney, who then summoned the Brigade who, after some time, had the outbreak under control. The damage to the house and furniture is estimated at about £100. Were it not for the plucky and timely action of Mr. McSweeney the fire might have had more tragic results.

There was another alert on Sunday night at 9.15, when it was reported that a night watchman's hut at the Coursing Field at Clashanoneagh, which is being laid out for the local annual coursing meeting on December 5th, was on fire. On arrival, the brigade found the hut to be well alight and in a short time was completely destroyed with all contents. The brigade concentrated their efforts in preventing the fire from spreading to the bare enclosure nearby. The damage is estimated at £30.

YOUGHAL WANT BOAT SHELTER The Youghal Fishermen's Association have, for many years, been agitating for the erection of a cock or shelter for their fishing boats during bad weather, and with little or no success. Department Officers and P.D. Deputies have visited Youghal on many occasions, but there has been no progress in the matter.

The absence of this matter is a serious matter for all boat owners in view of the recent losses and damage to crafts during the recent N.E. gale, when one trawler was a complete loss.

In the coming week, T.D.'s are to be again asked to come to Youghal with the object of devising ways and means to have this much-needed shelter erected with the least possible delay. The Fishermen's Association is backed up by the Harbour Commissioners, Youghal Boat Club and Sea Angling Club.

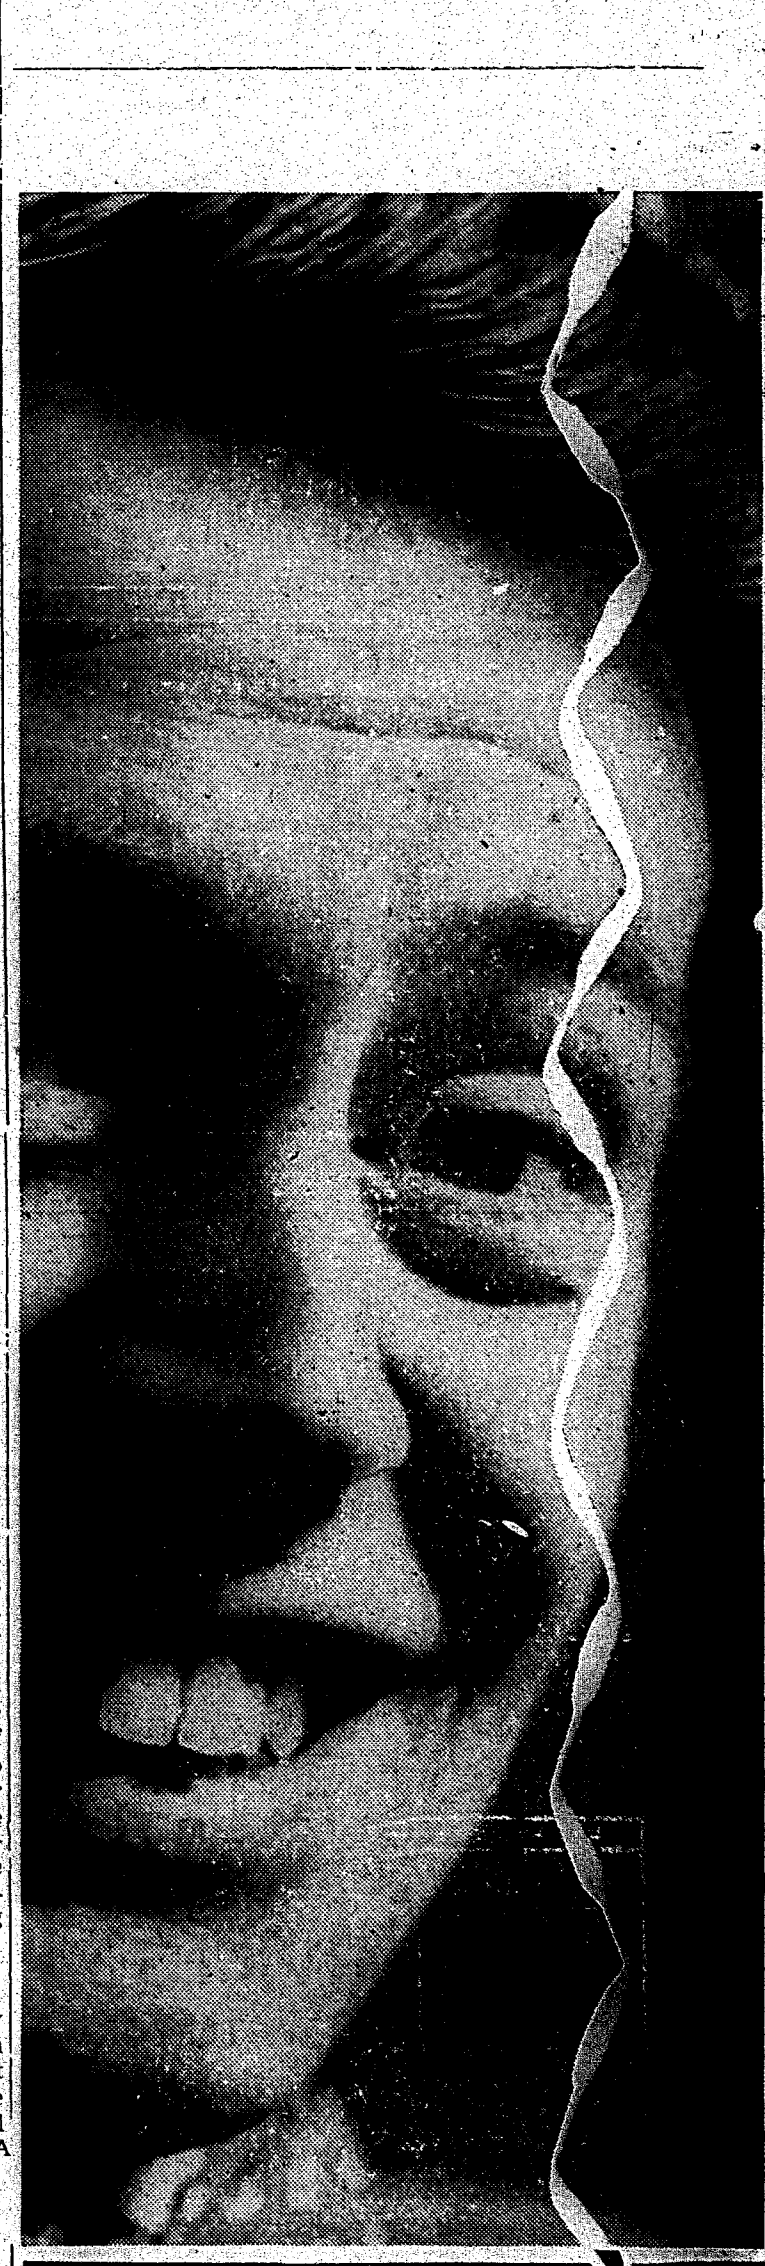

EAST CORK JUNIOR FOOTBALL FINAL By defeating Glanmire by six points on Sunday last Cobh qualified to meet Youghal at Castleparty in the final of the East Cork junior football championship (Division B). A close and interesting game anticipated.

POPULAR GARDA SERGT. RETIRES After forty years service in the Garda Síochána, Sgt. A. J. Beirne has retired, having reached the age limit. A native of Ballinacorney, Co. Leitrim, he joined the force in 1922, and came to Cork with the first contingent. Later he served for seven years in Midleton, and in 1958 he was transferred to the Kishavullen / Castletownroche district. In his early days he served with the 2nd Batt. Sth. Leitrim Brigade in the fight for Irish Independence. He is a keen G.A.A. enthusiast and in his younger days played football with Eoin's Hope, Dublin. He now resides in Youghal with his family.

WFT. KNOWN HOTEL CHANGES HANDS One of the most popular hotels in Youghal, which was built some 70 years ago, was recently sold to a Georgian family by the owner, Miss Annie Meade. This Hotel, 'The Youghal', is next door to the Atlantic Hotel, situated at 'The Quay' and the take-over is to take place on December 1st, as a going concern. Mrs. Meade, who is retiring, carries with her the best wishes of the townspeople, and the many visitors who had the pleasure of her acquaintance.

TALLOW NOTES

ACCIDENT
Two young local residents had a narrow escape from injury on Saturday evening last, when the car of which they were the occupiers was in collision with a C.I.E. lorry at Rosacelle, about one mile from Talloow. The lorry, which was stationary at the time, was being loaded with beet on the roadside at about 7.30 p.m. The car was proceeding in the direction of Parkdota Cross, and in attempting to pass over the lorry, to which a trailer was attached, collided with it. Another car proceeding in the Talloow direction was also involved. The driver and other occupiers of the car escaped injury, but the car was extensively damaged.

DEATH OF MRS. CATHERINE MCCARTHY
It is with deep regret we record the death of Mrs. Catherine McCarthy, Killeagh, which had even occurred at her residence last weekend. Deceased was relict of the late Florence McCarthy and was a lady of many admirable qualities. She was held in high esteem by a large circle of friends who deeply regret her death.

The remains, accompanied by a large cortege, were removed to St. Patrick's Church, Inch, and were received and blessed by Rev. Fr. Slatery, C.C. Inch. The interment took place in Inch Cemetery in the presence of a large concourse of mourners. Very Rev. Canon Casey, P.P., Killeagh, and Rev. Fr. Slatery, C.C. officiated. Her bereaved sister and other relatives much sympathy is extended on their great loss.

SHAMROCKS HURLING AND FOOTBALL CLUB A.G.M.
The annual general meeting of Shamrock's hurling and football club, which was billed for Monday night of last week, was not held. It will now be held on Sunday next, December 2nd, at 2.30 p.m. The reason for its not being held on the late appointed date is that some of the players and committee are employed on night work at Youghal and therefore could not attend. All members and intending members are requested to attend on Sunday.

MACRA DANCE
Lismore branch of Macra-na-Faerie held their annual dance in the Arch Ballroom on Sunday night. There was a good attendance. All arrangements were in the hands of a very energetic committee and a very enjoyable night was had by all present. Pat McNamara and his orchestra supplied a very lively programme of dance music.

TALLOW I.C.A.
At a recent meeting of Talloow I.C.A. Guild, Mrs. D. Doyle (President) congratulated Mrs. M. Hickey, Rosebowen, on getting second place in County Waterford in the National Brown Bread baking competition. Miss E. Hartigan, West Street, was also wished a pleasant week at An Griannan. The highlight of the meeting was a film show by Bord-na-Mona. Rev. Canon Foster, Rector, Talloow, was guest at the meeting.

The following are some of the "better than ever" Christmas and New Year attractions:

WEST WATERFORD NEWS

CLASHMORE CHAMPIONS
Clashmore team made G.A.A. history on Sunday last by winning the Primary Football championship at the first attempt. The new champions gave very impressive display all through the competition and played a clean, open football which reminded one of the performances of the great Clashmore teams of the past. The win caused great jubilation in the Clashmore area. It is interesting to note that Clashmore last won a championship (S.F.) in 1925.

PAROCHIAL CARNIVAL
On Sunday next, a monster carnival in aid of Parochial Funds, will open at Piltown Centre. All types of games and attractions will be provided including nightly dancing. The amusements are being provided by Messrs. Perks and McDonald.

The programme included the all-Ireland senior hurling final of 1959, '61, '62, the Coronation of Pope Pius XI and Pius XII; Dungarvan Fleadh Ceol, and "Mise Eire." Mr. Sean O'Sullivan, U.D.C., thanked all who supported the show.

MUNTI NA TIRE
The recent emphasis on the parish as the basis of social and economic activities seems to focus attention on the aims of Muntir na Tire, which organisation was founded by the late Canon Hayes, for the purpose of fostering co-operative effort in rural area and thus improving the lot of all who live on the land.

It is of interest that Muntir na Tire held its first Rural Week in Ardmore in 1957. The 3rd and 4th (then) President, Mr. J. J. O'Connell, (then) Treasurer, General Richard Mulcahy, Lord Fitzmaurice, Rev. Fr. Lucey (now Bishop of Cork), Dom Winoc O.S.B., etc.

MAYOR VISITS CLASHMORE
On Saturday last the Mayor of Waterford (Colr. A. Griffin) paid a brief visit to Clashmore. He visited a number of places of interest in the area, including Youghal Bridge.

POPULAR GARDA TRANSFERRED
The recent transfer from Villiers'own of Garda Denis Hassett has occasioned deep regret in the area, where he was very popular. A native of Co. Clare, Garda Hassett is a most efficient and courteous officer of the peace. He succeeded at Villierstown by

Late Mr. Thomas Hackett
CASEVILLE, DUNGARVAN

The death bell tolled once again in Dungarvan recently, announcing the death of Mr. Thomas (Tommy) Hackett, which took place on Tuesday night, 20th November, at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan. He had been ill for some time and had reached an advanced age. He was a well-known horse dealer and a very keen judge of a good animal. He travelled to all the fairs all over Ireland and he was most upright man in all his dealings, and was a member of a very old Dungarvan family, which resided in years gone by in South Terrace. He was a wonderful card player and attended card drives all over the town in his earlier days.

The removal of his remains took place on Wednesday evening to St. Mary's Parish Church, followed by a most representative cortege and were blessed and received by Rev. Fr. J. Murphy, C.C. Requiem Mass was celebrated on Thursday morning for the repose of his soul and the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery. Rev. Fr. J. Murphy, C.C., imparted the final absolution at the graveside. A large concourse were present to pray for their departed friend and to sympathise with his nearest and dearest. The chief mourners: Jerome, Seamus and Thomas, England Noel, Caseyville, Dungarvan; Mrs. Eileen O'Mahoney, Caseyville (daughter); and a large circle of grandchildren. (Undertaking by J. Kiely and Sons, Dungarvan.)

Garda M. Fallon.

CLASHMORE PRIEST APPOINTED P.P.
Very Rev. Den's McGrath, who has been appointed Parish Priest of Killeghin, is a native of Clashmore, where he is very popular and highly respected by all sections of the community. A most zealous and saintly priest, he is a prominent member of the P.T.A.A., and established branches in the different parishes in which he served. A member of a well known family, he is uncle of Dr. Michael Mulaney, H.S.W., and cousin of Rev. M. McGrath, S.J.

THE WEST WATERFORDS

This popular pack met at Piltown Cross on Saturday last, when a big field turned out. Conditions were favourable and some good runs were secured. A feature of the meet was the big number of lady riders. Amongst those present was Mr. Harry Miles, who served as whip with the pack for many years.

APPEAL FOR STUDENTS
A final appeal is made for more students for the woodwork classes at Clashmore. Public representatives went to great trouble to secure these classes for the area and it is unfortunate that they are not being availed of by more students. Most areas would readily grasp the opportunity of learning woodwork and building.

DISMISSAL NOTICES WITHDRAWN
The Secretary Waterford Co. Council has informed Mr. C. Curran, M.C.C., that dismissal notices issued to roadworkers in Aeshish area have been withdrawn and that the men concerned have been re-employed on work at Grange and that absent has been provided for them morning and evening.

LATE MRS. E. KIELY

N.F.A. Calls For Government Recognition In B.T.E. Effort

The N.F.A. feels personally involved in the B.T.E. Scheme for which it has promised its full support. As a farmers' organization, however, its first loyalty is to its members and it is duty bound to point out any unbearable hardship which might be imposed by Government legislation. This it has done in the past many times. With particular reference to the present working of the B.T.E. Scheme, the National Council of the N.F.A. at its meeting last week, called for Government recognition of the efforts of those farmers who over the last number of years have fallen in with Department wishes. It now appears that many dairy farmers at considerable cost and inconvenience to themselves have tried to clear their herds but will now be "pipped at the post."

The next General Conference of the International Federation of Agricultural Producers (I.F.A.P.) of which the N.F.A. is a member, will be held in Ireland in the second half of next May. This decision was taken at the recent I.F.A.P. Executive Committee meeting in Paris. It was agreed by Executive Committee members that major items to be discussed at the I.F.A.P. conference will include a review of the progress made along the lines of I.F.A.P.'s Food Farm Policy. Consideration will also be given to the principles of international trade in agricultural products among high income countries and with developing countries. The means of balancing supply and demand in surplus commodity sectors is included on the agenda as well as the utilization of productive capacity for food aid and adjustment of national production to available outlets, domestic and foreign.

At the conference, commodity consultation will be arranged involving representatives of national commodity groups and marketing boards as well as representatives of member organizations. Each commodity will review the world situation and outlook, discuss the application of principles of international trade and explore the possibility of international arrangements. Conclusions and recommendations of the commodity groups will be submitted by I.F.A.P.'s Policy Committee for discussion and action at the conference. Individual earnings to be increased in E.C. Addressing farmers in Co. Cavan, recently, the Economic Advisor to N.F.A., Dr. L. Smith had this to say: "During the 1930's every country in the world including Ireland, built up tariff barriers for the protection of industry. Irish farmers felt this when they could not sell their cattle and milk was 3d. per gallon. After the war attempts were made to remove these tariffs and to free trade. We had our trade agreements in 1938 and 1948 with the British which were designed to give us free entry to their market on pretty equal terms with their farmers. In return we have them entry to our industrial market with preferential tariffs. But things did not work out as expected. "The E.E.C. is progressing so well, that it has speeded up the coming into force of the Common Market and hopes to have full free trade in industrial products and a full managed market for agriculture by the 31st January, 1969. Instead of 1972, as was originally proposed. The reason why the N.F.A. has recommended our joining the Common Market is because it promises, for farmers, a fair standard of living particularly by increasing the individual earnings of persons engaged in agriculture. It also aims at stabilising markets and increasing productivity, while aiming at the same time to insure reasonable prices to consumers. But if the prospects for agricultural products are good in the Common Market we may be sure that no one is going to hand us a present. Our success will depend on giving consumers what they want in the minimum cost to ourselves. "Red meat is the only commodity, the demand for which, judging by present trends, will grow faster than supply in Europe. The present store trade exists mainly to take advantage of British deficiency payment subsidies. When these subsidies stop—and the Common Market countries are demanding that they stop immediately on British entry—the reason for our store trade will not be as great as now. In such circumstances it will probably pay us better to sell our cattle on the hoof. "Referring to milk an increase in the price should be given as part of our effort to make ready for the Common Market and the strict examination of organisation in our milk processing industry should be undertaken. It was also pointed out that due to the low prices for agricultural products in the past, Irish farmers are under equipped having less than one-third of the amount of capital invested per acre than farmers in other countries. Our competitors are pouring capital on to their farms. Irish farmers must do the same if they are to reap the full reward from the new conditions under which they will be working when they join the Community."

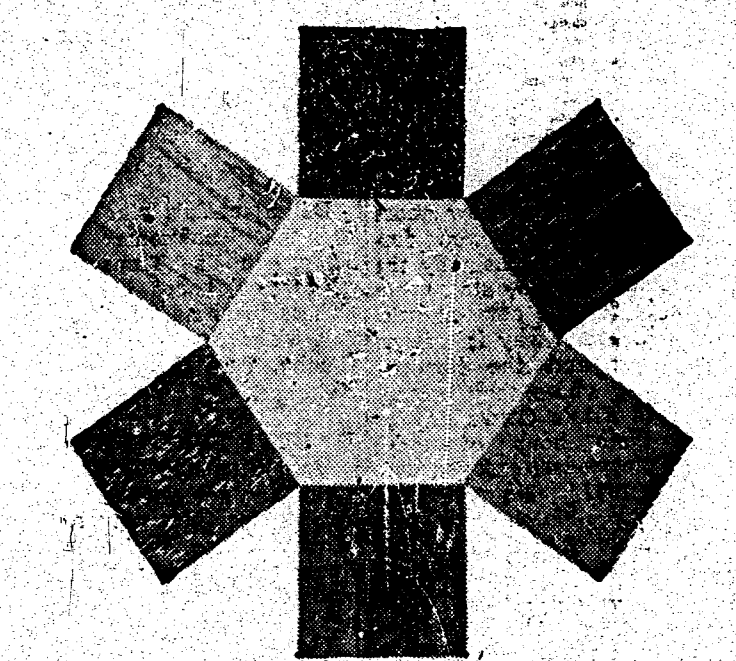

in all parishes. County representatives promised to support this junior section of Macra na Feirme to the best of their ability. Lottery.—Members throughout the county are taking the National Lottery with great gusto. This is a welcome sign because it shows their appreciation of the object for which it is intended. Special Meeting.—A special meeting of the National Council is being called for December 13th, 1962, at which future policy and organisational financial matters will be discussed in detail.

SIONS NINE-YEAR REIGN HAS ENDED

A glorious and spectacular nine-year championship reign came to a sensational ending on Sunday last, when, before an attendance estimated at 10,000, Mt. Sion relinquished their senior hurling crown to their greatest rivals Erin's Own.

Walsh Park has seldom staged as vibrant or thrilling a game as these city clubs served up in a really memorable final. It was a replay that surpassed even the splendour of the drawn game—and that is certainly praise enough for any encounter.

The day was an ideal one for hurling, with not a puff of breeze to hamper or spoil either side. And how those finalists accepted the good fortune bestowed on them by the weatherman, as they strove unsparringly for the coveted title.

Yes, in every way it was an epic final, and the honours justly rest where they belong. This was Erin's Own's day of days, their hour of long-ought glory—last enjoyed way back in 1947. No, even the exciting pre-match blow that robbed them of mid-fielder Joe Conlon, could deprive them of a victory that was achieved in a manner that by any standards was the hall-mark of a really great side.

With the exception of the opening minutes, when Mick Finianly pointed, Erin's Own were never in arrears. Their power-hous hurling, to which all sectors contributed regally, had Mount Sion floundering, and their 3-6 to 0-6 interval deal was a true reflection of the superiority they exerted.

For twenty minutes of the second-half the challengers lost not an inch in so far as the score-board was concerned, and with only ten minutes remaining, still led by nine points—4-1 to 0-0.

But like the masterful champions they have always been, Sion struck back with an admirable vengeance. But every defence who spared neither muscles nor their opponents in endeavouring to clear their lines.

The hurling was brilliantly spectacular, as a tussle followed counter-attack, but the Erin's Own defence stood defiantly firm, and ensured a Ballytuckie home for the championship crown after a fifteen year absence.

While Erin's Own can justly rejoice at having attained the highest status in the county, one cannot overlook Mount Sion's performance even in defeat.

For nine long years they have been at the forefront with only an occasional worthwhile challenge to their supremacy. Had they made it ten in a row on Sunday last they would have made Deise history, as only Erin's Own and themselves can boast of having won nine successive titles.

But beaten though they were their hurling was, as always characterised by the classical stickwork that has given them an enviable reputation throughout the country. They fought to the end to save their title, and after so lengthy a memory relinquished it in a fitting manner.

CLASHMORE BACK IN LIMELIGHT

While the hurling decider captivated all at Walsh Park on Sunday, western followers reaped added satisfaction from Clashmore's magnificent performance in beating Portlaw in the primary football county final.

Thus, to the west Waterford parish goes the honour of bringing to the Division its first county title of the year. And as they swept to a convincing 1-10 to 0-4 victory that was reminiscent of some great Clashmore teams of the past, they were winning a county title for the first time since 1925.

On Sunday, Portlaw had no answer to their brilliant football they were confronted with. To their credit they never gave up trying, but honest endeavour was but tissue paper resistance against the best side to have won out this grade since its inauguration. On this form the westerners will make a bold bid in the junior grade in '63.

GERALDINES AND FOURMILEWATER WIN

Geraldines got off to a winning but unimpressive start in the winter league (junior hurling) when they were hard pressed to score a 2-6 to 1-2 victory over Cathal Brugha.

At Cappoquin, western champions Fourmilewater, fielding a near full-strength side, got a rare fright from Ballinacree, and were somewhat fortunate to score a one-point victory.

The Ballymac side's greater craft and experience probably swung the game in their favour in the end, but on this showing it is going to be a difficult task to adequately replace Billy Grant, Liam Ryan and Johnny Kiely, who have retired.

Ballinacree's star performer was newcomer Walter Thompson, a Tipperary-born garda now based in Cappagh. Others to shine for them were Jim Maher in goal, Paddy McCarth, Tom Browne and Jim Keirher.

NEXT SUNDAY'S GAMES

Both Ring and Newtown are given another chance to make amends for their poor showing in the drawn junior football final, when the replay takes place at Dungarvan on Sunday next.

The first meeting was a real climax and will only be remembered for the unportsmanlike scenes that took place during and after the game.

Personally, I believe both are capable of much better things and I expect a far superior brand of football to be displayed on Sunday. Should both reproduce the form of the respective Divisional finals, then it could be a tremendous decider between two evenly matched sides.

The outcome? In a decider of this nature, a freakish twist of fate could well decide the issue. From the evidence of the drawn game Newtown might look a slightly better proposition, but as I said, it could go either way.

AT WATERFORD

Cappoquin—star-studded by the presence of so many established ex-seniors, travel confidently to Waterford on Sunday to play Portlaw in the Primary Hurling final.

The Easterners have already failed to Western opposition in the football final of this grade and will be anxious to atone for that lapse on Sunday.

But such has been Cappoquin's form right through this campaign, that one finds it exceedingly difficult to see them beaten. The vital sectors are filled by players of vast experience and the writer has implicit faith in their ability to bring back the title.

JUNIOR REPLAY THE HIGHLIGHT

Cappoquin Can Take Primary Title

ALREADY the Gaelic year at club level has ended in most Southern Counties and on Sunday next Waterford's '62 championship list will be completed with the deciding of two finals at Dungarvan and Waterford. The former venue stages the second and in all probability final episode in the Ring-Newtown junior football saga, while at Walsh Park, Waterford, Cappoquin and Portlaw try conclusions in an attractive primary hurling decider.

Although the drawn game between Ring and Newtown was unanimously voted the worst final in the grade for years, the Fraher field is certain to be the mecca for quite a sizeable hosting for the replay. The form of the finalists was simply too bad to be true that day, and with both out to redeem tarnished reputations, it could well prove to be an exciting final.

That first meeting unfortunately helped little to boost the standard of the game in the county. It was frequently marred by unnecessary flare-ups and it is to be hoped that they will not be given a repetition on Sunday. At the time of penning these notes I have no knowledge of the official in charge, but should exchanges become heated stern and immediate action is vital, otherwise a re-occurrence would be a strong likelihood.

That neither side produced anything near their best form the first day is a generally accepted fact. Yet it is clearly obvious that they are very evenly matched finalists. Newtown's toughness more than any thing else is their trump card, while Ring in contrast will look to their speed and more polished approach to see them through. FEW CHANGES EXPECTED

Although the actual lineouts have not yet been announced, few changes are expected on either side. Newtown may field as they finished the last day, which would mean that Peter

Kenny would be included in attack. Kenny proved a decided acquisition when introduced from the substitute bench in the second-half of the drawn game, and his inclusion would add scoring strength to a department that is not on a par with the remainder of the side.

RING AWAIT NEWS FROM ENGLAND

Ring followers are anxiously awaiting news from England based Eamon O Faolan. The former county star couldn't return home for the drawn game and without him Ring looked a very mediocre side indeed. Again Faolan has been contacted and requested to make the trip, and on his availability or non-availability could well hinge the outcome.

Undoubtedly, the Gaeltacht followers contend that Pat and Tommy Joe Hartly will never be as substituted as in the drawn game, and will on this occasion exploit any weaknesses that may be apparent in Newtown's defence.

The easterners can of course counter-act this contention with their own particular well-founded theories.

OUTCOME UNCERTAIN

The writer, however, remains in a quandary as to how the game will go. If Faolan can play, he may well tip the scales in Ring's favour. If not, John Hubbard could inspire a Newtown victory. Truly I'm lost in turmoil of uncertainty.

CAPPOQUIN OR PORTLAW? Already Clashmore have set an inspiring example in the primary grade by capturing county football honours at Portlaw's expense. And now Cappoquin's hurlers—on the same pitch and against the same opposition, are given an opportunity of completing a western 'primary' double, on Sunday.

While little is known of Portlaw's potential in these parts, Cappoquin travel to the city with a reputation rarely enjoyed by any club. With the exception of St. Mary's and Dungarvan, both of whom proved worthy opposition, they have swept aside all other challenges in contemptuous fashion. In doing so they have continuously displayed a brand hurling far superior than is generally produced in this grade. The side is back-boned by several ex-seniors—all occupying key positions, and those that do not qualify under that category, have all proved themselves hurlers of more than average ability.

THEIR DEFENCE

Paddy Mason is a safe call baire, and the full-line of the three Jummy's—Arrigan, Meskill and Lacey, will ensure him ample coverage. M. Lacey's hurling form needs no build up from me, and as pivot in defence will be flanked by Michael Gallagher and Andy O'Keefe—a trio that could hold their own in any senior company.

At centre-field they are represented by the experienced Roger O'Shea and Ger Mason, and it will take a top-class pairing to master them.

TIME STANDS STILL FOR ENGLISH

Paddy English, the veteran for whom time stands still, will again marshal attacking operations from the '40.' This fifty five years young wonder, must surely be the game's longest serving member, and for his sake alone, the Cornerstone side will not spare themselves to carry off the trophy.

Billy Conway has to date been a prolific goal-scorer, and with Paddy Foley, Vincent O'Connor and Dickie Joe Mason, will keep Portlaw's defence at full stretch.

To western followers, Portlaw are an unknown quantity, but to come undefeated through their division suggests they are a side of promise. Their failure on Sunday to Clashmore in the football decider, will only increase their determination to exact compensation, and Cappoquin can be prepared for a hard hour.

CAPPOQUIN FANCIED

But dedicated though they may be to the task on hand, I doubt if they can beat these splendid western champions. They have strength and experience where most needed, and it is with the utmost confidence that I predict a Cornerstone victory.

First Title in 37 Years Clashmore 1-10 Portlaw 0-4

CLASHMORE, producing a delightful brand of open and attractive football scored a most convincing 9-point victory over Portlaw in the Primary county final at Waterford on Sunday last.

By their victory, Clashmore earned for the parish its first title in 37 years—their last success at the ultimate stage being in the senior final of 1925. They also became the first Western team to bring a title to the Division this year, an honour that was richly deserved.

Right through this championship, Clashmore have earned a reputation for playing quality football, but in this 'acid test', they surpassed anything produced in the earlier rounds.

Each and every score from Clav was the result of precision movements, instigated in defence and finished off by a sextet of accurate forwards. Repeatedly they tore holes in Portlaw's defence and as score followed score with consummate ease the big attendance was thrilled by the standard of their play.

Portlaw to their credit tried everything to carry the day. Their ceaseless work was praiseworthy but they were powerless to counter-act classy and polished opposition.

Basically this was a team victory and a splendid one at that. There wasn't a weak link in any sector and so well did all fifteen acquit themselves that it would be grossly unfair to single out any one for special mention.

No doubt they will be a force to be reckoned with in the junior grade next year. They possess football ability in abundance and the experience gained in this championship success will surely make them one of the football attractions in 1963.

JOE HARNEY (Ucstown)

Kenny proved a decided acquisition when introduced from the substitute bench in the second-half of the drawn game, and his inclusion would add scoring strength to a department that is not on a par with the remainder of the side.

RING AWAIT NEWS FROM ENGLAND

Ring followers are anxiously awaiting news from England based Eamon O Faolan. The former county star couldn't return home for the drawn game and without him Ring looked a very mediocre side indeed.
