NEW TV SERVICE DEPARTMENT

To maintain the Service to the public for which this firm is renowned, in addition to our normal industrial and domestic electrical repair departments, we are now very pleased to announce the opening of our new Television Service Depot.

Television is a very exact science, therefore, we felt that speedy efficient service demanded separate workshops and stores for spare parts, Tubes etc. together with specially trained personnel. Mr. W. Smith who is a fully qualified TV engineer now joins our staff as head of our new department.

We could speak at length about technicalities to make an impression but what really matters is Service. We modestly say we have the best service backed by the technical resources and the ability of our QUALIFIED ENGINEERS.

Kilmacthomas News

Girl's Burial—Settlement of a £300 claim by Bridget Kiersey, a minor of Union Road, Kilmacthomas, was approved by the Waterford Circuit Court last week. The plaintiff, a domestic servant, put a metal skewer into an electric kettle when plugging in a kettle and received a deep burn on her right hand.

Mahonise Playgroup will not miss the presentation of J. B. McCarthy's 2-act comedy, titled Old Acquaintance. The play will be staged by the recently formed Kilmacthomas Dramatic Society in the local Rainbow Hall shortly.

A Great Wave of public sympathy goes out to well-liked Mr. William Behan, Kilmacthomas, on the death of his good wife (nee Devine), which sad event occurred while she was a patient and still in her thirties at Ardkeen General Hospital, Waterford, on Tuesday of last week, 19th ult. (Feast of St. Gabriels, M.), leaving a family of eight young children bereft of their mother.

There was a big concourse of neighbours at the removal of her remains to the Parish Church, Clonea-Power, where they were received by the Rev. M. O'Brien, C.C., Rathgorman. Interment took place in the adjoining cemetery on Thursday (after Requiem Mass), and Fr. O'Brien officiated at the graveside. May she rest in peace.

Also on the Feast of St. Gibbons, M. (19th ult.) happened the death of Mrs. Mary (Minnie) Fitzgerald, Coolubrid, Kilmacthomas. She breathed her last in St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan, following a period of falling health and at the age of 86 years. Sprung from a good old Kilmacthomas Catholic family stock—the Mayes—she was a firm favourite with everyone who knew her, and will long be remembered for her cheerfulness, kindness, helpfulness and humility. Relict of Mr. John Fitzgerald, who was accidentally killed about fifty-four years ago, whilst he was engaged with others at the work of erecting the bridge spanning the River Tay, less than 100 yards east of Kilmacthomas National School. Almost two years ago, her eldest son—Mr. John Fitzgerald, The Gen. Seafield, Bonmahon—died at Ardkeen General Hospital, and she is survived by: Mrs. Mal Power, London; Mrs. Kathleen Walsh, Fitzgerald, Tee, Dungarvan; Mrs. Leta Hanigan, Millbrook, Tee, Kilmacthomas (daughters); Mr. Thomas Fitzgerald, Watford, England; Mr. James Fitzgerald, do; Mr. William Fitzgerald, Coolubrid (sons); her grandchildren, and the Maye and Troy families, Kilmacthomas (nieces and nephews).

Followed by an immense motor cortege, the remains were removed on Wednesday evening to St. Anne's Church, Ballyaneen, where the coffin was received and blessed by the Rev. P. Power, C.C., co. After the offering of two Requiem Masses on Thursday, which was mortally of Mrs. Fitzgerald, was conveyed to, and laid in her last resting place in the adjoining cemetery. Very Rev. D. Power, P.P., Stradbally, officiated at the graveside, assisted by Fr. Power, C.C., Ballyaneen, and there was another large and representative attendance of mourners and sympathisers. Many Mass cards and messages of condolence were received. R.I.P.

The Great Call was answered on Thursday week, 21st ult. (Feast of St. Páin, C.) by a grand type of neighbour as one could hope to happen on, in the person of Mr. James Veale, Carrick Road, Leamybrien, a notably honest and upright man, a loyal member of the Mother Church, a sound Nationalist and a genuinely enthusiastic supporter of gaelic games and pastimes. Born at Bonmahon in 1872, he came to Leamybrien full in the flush of his manhood's early prime, when he took up a position in the creamery established there by the then flourishing general business firm of Messrs. Richard Watts & Co. Ltd., Bonmahon. He was predeceased by his estimable wife, who was a sister of the late Mr. Paddy McGrath, Leamybrien. And deceased was father of Mr. Patrick Veale, Leamybrien; Messrs. Thomas and Michael Veale, Carrick Road, do., and Mrs. Mary Donovan, wife of Mr. Patrick Donovan, Knocknacullen, Leamybrien.

Past and present members of Kilmacthomas G.A.A. Club were included in the enormous attendance at the removal of the remains from the residence on Friday evening to St. Brigid's Parish Church, Kilmacthomas, where the casket was received and blessed by Very Rev. Fr. James Harty, P.P., do.

Requiem Mass for the eternal welfare of the soul departed was said in the sacred edifice on Saturday, preceding the interment, which was made in the adjoining cemetery, in the presence of an assembly that again bore unmistakable evidence of the veneration in which the late Mr. Veale was held.

The closing absolution at the graveside was given by the respected pastor, Archdeacon Deo raibh a nam. (Irish-American papers will please copy.)

Belonging by Birth to the Grange-Ardmore side of West Waterford, was Mrs. Bridget Keating (nee Hickey), Kilmacthomas, who passed peacefully away at her residence on Thursday of last week, 21st ult. (Feast of St. Páin, C.), and the sad event caused deep regret to an expansive circle of relatives and intimate friends up and down the Decies. Widow of the late Mr. Richard Keating, Garry and tillage farmer, Kilmacthomas, a most gracious and charitable lady, she was beloved mother of: Mother Felicitas, F.C.J., Laurel Hill, Limerick; Mother Loreta, F.C.J., Rhode Island, U.S.A.; and Mother Monica, F.C.J., Buncoaly, Wexford, to whom and the other members of her much-esteemed family, sympathy in full measure is extended in their tribulation.

A cortege of imposing dimensions and very representative accompanied the removal of the remains on Friday evening to the Parish Church, Clonea-Power, where the coffin was rested overnight on a catafalque before the high altar.

Solemn Requiem High Mass (preceded by the Office for the Dead) was celebrated at 10.30 a.m. on Saturday, and the interment was made immediately afterwards in the adjoining cemetery, in the presence of a huge hosting of relatives, friends and sympathisers. All of the clergy in attendance at the obsequies again officiated at the graveside.

Sheaves of spiritual bouquets and telegrams and letters conveying expressions of condolence were received. At a h-anam, a losa Dilis, dean trocaire.

Mrs. Ann Marie Doherty, widow, Main Street, Tramore, who has died following a protracted illness, was mother of Fr. Michael O'Doherty, C.C., Stradbally (now on a five-year Mission in Peru), and the parishoners of the Cove Village and district sincerely sympathise with his reverence, for whom they have a great grath (children and adults alike).

New Edition of Holy Childhood Prayer Book

The new edition of this popular children's prayer book by Venerable Archdeacon MacMahon, P.P., V.F., Author of Nazareth, A Liturgical Catechism, etc., contains revisions which bring it up to date. The illustrations of the Mass are now in colour and the paper used is of high-class quality. The number of bindings which have also been re-designed are reduced to six.

This liturgical prayer book is specially designed for the modern child, and contains all the essential prayers and devotions to suit children between the ages of 8-16 years. In addition, "Holy Childhood" contains a fully explanatory section dealing with the Church's liturgical year, with special prayers for each season and important days.

"Holy Childhood" will train children to take an active part in the Mass, and lead them to an understanding of the feasts and seasons of the Church's Year.

LATE MR. WILLIAM MAHER CLONMEL

The death took place on Monday, February 18th, at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan, of William Maher, after a rather long duration of illness. He was not only well known in the Clonmel area, but also a well-liked person in Dungarvan, where he made many friends during his hospital term. We extend our deepest sympathy to his niece, who resides in the Clonmel district.

His remains were removed to Loughcutt Cemetery, New Inn, on Wednesday, 20th February, where the interment took place in the family plot. The curate from the parish of New Inn imparted the final absolution at the graveside. (Funeral arrangements by James Kiely and Sons, Shandon, Dungarvan.)

LATE JOHN AHEARNE KNOCKMAUN, DUNGARVAN

The unexpected death of John Ahearne took place at the residence of his parents on Tuesday night, February 19th, after a very short illness, but fortified by the Rites of Holy Church. We extend our deepest and sincerest sympathy to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Ahearne, and also to his brothers and sisters on this very sad occasion.

His remains were removed on Wednesday evening to Ballynameela Church, followed by a huge cortege and were blessed and received by Rev. Fr. E. Tobin, C.C., assisted by Very Rev. Fr. T. Conboy, O.S.A., Dublin (cousin) and Fr. Butler, O.S.A., Dungarvan. Requiem Masses were celebrated on Thursday morning for the eternal repose of his gentle soul and the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery. Very Rev. Fr. M. Hackett, P.P., assisted by Rev. Fr. T. Nugent, C.C., and Rev. Fr. E. Tobin, C.C., officiated at the graveside. Another very large and sympathetic concourse were present to pay their last respects and to sympathise with his nearest and dearest. Large sheaves of Mass cards were received by his parents, brothers and sisters. (Funeral arrangements by James Kiely and Sons, Shandon, Dungarvan.)

LATE MR. PATK. HEHIR MITCHELL ST., DUNGARVAN

The unexpected death of Patrick (Paddy) Hehir occurred at his residence Mitchell Street, on Tuesday morning, February 19th. He was a most popular and well-liked person for his outstanding qualities of gentleness and kindness and for his most jovial disposition. He was one of the pioneers of the motor and garage business in Dungarvan and in later years he conducted a large hackney business and in his retirement he carried on a most progressive cycle trade at Mitchell Street.

We would like to be associated with the many hundreds of sympathisers who have expressed their sorrow to his wife and family on this very sad occasion. His remains were removed on Wednesday evening to St. Mary's Parish Church followed by a huge cortege, consisting of all sections of the community and were blessed and received by Rev. Fr. W. Power, C.C.

Requiem Mass was celebrated on Thursday morning for the eternal repose of his soul, and the interment took place later in the day in the adjoining cemetery. His four sons acted as pall-bearers. Rev. Fr. W. Power, C.C., imparted the final absolution at the graveside and recited the prayers of requiem. A very large and impressive concourse were present to pay their last respects.

Large sheaves of Mass cards, telegrams and letters of sympathy were received by his wife and family. Death Aboard Burning Vessel Inquest Hears of Efforts to Save Couple

AT an inquest on Friday on Captain Wm. Lambeck (50) and his 35 year-old wife, Erna, who lost their lives on board the m.v. "Greta", following an explosion while berthed in Dungarvan Quay in the early hours of Thursday morning, Feb. 21, a verdict in accordance with the medical evidence that death was due in both cases to asphyxia caused by inhaled smoke and lack of oxygen, was returned by the jury.

During the inquest the packet Courthouse heard the evidence of crew members who tried to smash open an office door in an effort to rescue the trapped victims in the smoke-filled apartment.

Others told how they heard the couple screaming frantically for help while first mate Luke Pinkster told of how, when the office door was eventually smashed open, he called to the victims to grasp his extended hands, but there was no reply.

The Captain's wife was 35 on the day of the tragedy. Dr. Patrick O'Connell, Medical Practitioner, Dungarvan, said he remembered the morning of February 21st, when he was called to the scene of a fire at Davitt's Quay, Dungarvan, where there was a fire outbreak on the vessel "Greta" berthed there.

The bodies of the Captain and his wife Erna were still in their quarters. He examined both bodies when they were removed from the cabin. Both were fully clothed, and they did not appear to bear any outward injuries except some slight abrasions on their wrists. They were post-mortem. They seemed to be dead only a short time.

On Thursday 21st he performed a post-mortem examination on the bodies at the morgue of the County Hospital, Dungarvan. He was assisted by Dr. M. K. Cusack. The bodies were identified by the boat's second engineer Nicol van Accellen.

SKIN REMOVED The Captain was a man of about 50 years. He was a well built, healthy man. On the outside he had superficial burns on the right side of his body, extending from his head down to his right knee. The skin was removed from some points. He had abrasions on his nose and forehead and there was congestion of his eyes, and signs of smoke and soot in his nostrils. The abrasions on the nose were ante-mortem and could have been caused by a fall. When he opened the body there were signs of smoke and soot inside his air passages, down into his lungs. There was also gross congestion of his lungs. The cause of death was due to asphyxia due to inhaled smoke and lack of oxygen and were consistent with being trapped in a burning room.

Dr. O'Connell said he also performed a post-mortem on the body of Mrs. Lambeck. She appeared a normal healthy woman. Externally, there were superficial burns on the left side of the body down to the left ankle. There were burns on the left arm also. There was a small burn on the right side of the chin. The skin was removed in parts. There was congestion of the eyes, and smoke and soot in the nostrils.

SMOKE AND SOOT IN LUNGS Dr. O'Connell said he also carried out a post-mortem on the inside and there was smoke and soot extending down into the lungs. There was gross congestion of the lungs. The cause of death was also asphyxia due to inhaled smoke and lack of oxygen. It also would be consistent with being trapped in a burning room.

Joop Reynga (17), a native of Holland, deckhand on the "Greta", said they arrived in Dungarvan about 2 p.m. on the 20th. Capt. Wilhelm Lambeck was in charge. His wife was a so on board. At about 7 p.m. he went for a walk and returned to the boat at 10 p.m. He was in bed when the Captain came on the boat at 10.50. He came into his room and said "Good night." He noticed nothing strange about the Captain. He did not impress when going to bed as he had a job to do at 1 a.m. SAW A GLARE he was awakened by Teun Kaptein, who said there was a fire on the ship. "I looked out the window, he said, and saw a glare on the port side. I ran on deck and when I was near the Captain's quarters I heard a voice shouting for help inside the Captain's Office. The office door was locked and I got an axe and tried to break down the door. I succeeded in breaking a hole in the door and smoke gushed out, and hampered my rescue efforts. The voice continued calling for help for about five minutes.

I went to the dance hall for the other crew members and got a man to call the fire brigade. Mr. Reynga said while he was breaking the office door, the port hole nearest the door on the starboard side was broken from inside. The fire brigade arrived about 10 minutes later.

Just before he left the ship to get help he heard a fairly loud explosion from the Captain's quarters, and saw pieces of wood projecting through the hole in the kitchen door. Teun Kaptein, whose evidence was entirely in Dutch, and interpreted by Lucas Pinkster, said he was a deck hand on board the "Greta". He was in his bunk writing a letter at 11.45. He saw the Captain after 11.30 in the crew's kitchen, peeling potatoes. It could be that he was going to cook chips.

At about 12 mid-night he saw a light on the port side. After that he heard a noise and thought it was someone stepping aboard. He looked again and saw a bigger glare. "GET ME OUT" "I then ran upstairs," he said, and saw flames coming from the Captain's quarters on the port side. I then aroused Joop Reynga the other deck hand. With him I tried to force the office door open and I heard the Captain shouting "get me out, get me out." I broke all the windows on the star-board side, but could not force an entry.

Lukas Pinkster (24), a native of Holland, said he was first mate on the M.V. Greta the property of a Mr. Schakenbroek, a native of Groningen, a county in Holland. He (witness) joined the boat on February 16th and sailed from Antwerp to Dungarvan, arriving here on 20th February. On board during the voyage were Capt. Lambeck and his wife, and four crew members, and himself.

At about 7.30 on the 20th he left the boat and went into town. Capt. Lambeck and his wife were then on board and in good spirits. They were a very happy couple. He did not see the Captain or his wife alive after that. The Captain had made arrangements to move the boat further down the quay after that. It was his job to move it.

With that purpose in view he went towards the boat at 12.40 a.m. When he reached the quay, he saw flames coming from the Captain's quarters in the vicinity of the kitchen. At that time there was no fire on the star-board side of Capt. Lambeck's quarters. He went to the office door where he saw deck-hand Teun Kaptein trying to break down the door with an axe.

HEARD SOMEONE SCREAMING "I heard someone screaming inside," he said. "I took the axe myself and tried to break the door. It is a very strong door with steel bars. There was a lot of smoke coming through the hole which hampered my efforts. I could only stay there for a short period. I extended my hand through the door and shouted to the trapped people to grab my hand. There was no response. Lucas said the office door was locked and the Captain had the key. There was no spare key. The first engineer tried to get into the engine room to start an auxiliary engine that would pour water on the deck but could not get in with the smoke. They broke all the windows but the smoke prevented them from getting in.

He believed the fire started in the kitchen which contained a gas cooker fed from a cylinder in a steel box which could only be reached from the outside. The cylinder was intact after the fire. He later saw the bodies of the Captain and his wife being removed from the office door. He would have escaped through the windows in the saloon and got through.

Nicol Van Accellen said he was second engineer on the "Greta". At 9 p.m. on the 20th he got permission from Capt. Lambeck to go ashore. At 10 p.m. he returned again and left between 10.30 and 10.55. Before he left he spoke to the Captain and his wife. The Captain told him to be back in time to move the ship at 1 a.m.

He then went to the dance in the Town Hall and left about 1 a.m. People in the street told him there was a fire in the ship. When he reached the quay he saw the fire in the sitting room and bedroom but could not enter because of the heat and smoke. He heard no screams.

John Kauerman (28), a native of Swallowe, Holland, said he was chief engineer on the "Greta". He was on board until 10.15 on the night of the tragedy, when he left for the dance. He spoke to the captain and his wife before he left. They were quite normal.

He was in the dance hall at 12.40 a.m. when told his ship was on fire. He went immediately to the ship and saw the Captain's quarters were on fire, especially at the port side. He tried to get into the engine room to get the pumps going but was prevented by smoke. He then tried to extinguish the fire with a portable extinguisher.

When the fire brigade arrived he saw the body of the captain's wife lying on the office floor. He could not see the captain as there was too much smoke.

The keys he said, were normally kept on the keyboard in the entrance to the quarters. He found them on the floor after the fire had been extinguished underneath where they were normally kept. He saw the gas tap after the fire and there was no smell of gas from it. From this he concluded it was turned off. A wire container for cooking chips was also found nearby. He saw the refrigerator and the ice-box had blown out the door of the fridge. That, he said, would have caused an explosion.

Mr. William Cotter, Abbey-side, a member of the Dungarvan Fire Brigade, said at 12.50 a.m. on February 21, he responded to a fire siren call and arrived at the scene at 1 a.m. The fire on the port side was blazing fiercely. He succeeded in breaking in the office door. Inside he found the two bodies. She was nearest the door and the Captain a few feet further back. Both appeared to be dead. All the Captain's apartment except the office was destroyed by the fire.

He hoped to move the bodies on to the deck. Sgt. Morgan Hayes, Dungarvan, said he carried out investigations into the fire. All the Captain's quarters were damaged. The kitchen showed greatest evidence of fire destruction.

He took possession of the gas cylinder and it was practically empty of gas. He found charred remains of what appeared to be potato chips. Both upper and lower doors of the refrigerator appeared to have been blown outwards.

Garda D. Hallissey, Dungarvan, said about 12 midnight on Feb. 20, he was walking at Davitt's Quay. He noticed the vessel "Greta". There were lights on in the Captain's quarters and the engine room. Everything was normal.

The owner of the ship, Mr. Jurgan Schokenbroek, said he took Capt. Lambeck into his employment on 7th January last as captain of the m.v. "Greta". Having returned the verdict, the Coroner, Dr. Daniel Healy, said it was a tragic and unfortunate case, and expressed deep sympathy with the relatives on their great loss.

Mr. L. F. Lanigan, Solicitor, half of Waterford Co. Council, Supt. Costello, on behalf of the Authorities. Mr. J. DeLany, foreman of the jury. Mr. T. McGrath, on behalf of Dungarvan Co-op. Creameries Ltd. Dr. P. O'Connell and Mr. Samuel Morris, Vice-Consul, of the Netherlands in this area, were also associated with the expressions of sympathy.

The jury members were: J. Delaney (foreman); N. Casey, J. Ducey, D. Walsh, G. Bullin, B. Begley, M. Tynan, J. Cantillon.

THEIR LAST SAD JOURNEY Shortly after 12 noon on Saturday the remains of Capt. and Mrs. Lambeck began the first stage of their last sad journey home. As the lead-lined caskets were carried by members of Dungarvan Creameries from the tiny hospital morgue, the two hearses motored into position for their slow drive to the waiting "Greta" in the quay.

The hearse bearing the remains of Capt. Lambeck led the cortege and his coffin was draped in the Dutch flag. Members of Dungarvan Urban Council formed a guard of honour.

All along the route to the quayside the streets were thronged by mourning on-lookers. The volume of cars rapidly increased as the sad spectacle went on its way and as the hearses moved into the Square many people knelt in prayer.

At the quayside several hundred people were gathered to meet the remains. Silently men, women and children stood as the caskets were put on the "Greta's" deck by the ship's brane.

Then shortly after 4 p.m. at full tide, the "Greta" carrying its dead captain and his wife, set out on the sixty-hour voyage to Holland. Again the quayside was thronged for a final adieu.

Included amongst the attendance at the funeral were Deputy T. A. Kynne, Chairman, and members of Dungarvan Urban Council; Mr. Tim McGrath, representing Dungarvan Creamery; and Mr. Samuel Morris Vice-Consul of the Netherlands in the Waterford area, and Mr. Jurgan Schokenbroek, owner of the "Greta".

Bilingualism Defended by Experts

At the first annual dinner of "urann Gaelach Iar-Deise, in the Omonn Hotel, last Thursday night, Padraig Tyers said there were still people amongst us who talked about the revival of Irish and yet seemed to have little understanding of its vital importance to the country. "We are tired of hearing them tell us of the damage which the teaching of Irish is doing to our children, of the over-emphasis placed on the language in our present system and the extent to which the study of Irish in the school interferes with modern language teaching.

"The most vociferous amongst those people is as far as we can gather, (those who themselves made no study of the language question and so can hardly be accepted as being in a position to speak with authority. Let us look at what expert educationalists (and here I don't mean Irish Educationalists) have to say. These experts have stated specifically that bilingualism in the Primary Schools is the best basis for the teaching of foreign languages in the Secondary Schools.

"In April last, an International Conference was held in Hamburg under the auspices of UNESCO and was attended by Educationalists from all over the globe. The purpose of the Conference was to investigate the teaching of a second language in Primary Schools. The unanimous verdict was that teaching young children a second language is practicable and educationally valuable for all children, not just those specially gifted. Then again last Summer, an educational congress was held in Leeds, jointly by the Nuffield Foundation and the Leeds Educational Committee. Mr. George Taylor, Chief Educational Officer in Leeds, said only a small minority of Grammar School pupils leave school able to use a modern language as a means of communication. The proper way to remedy it was the teaching of a second language in Primary Schools. Experiments have also proved that the presence of children of less than average intelligence in the class was of little importance." "Then said Mr. Tyers, whose advice we are to follow—that of the distracted mother of six who writes to the Sunday newspaper or that of expert educationalists all over the world who have made a deep study of the question with no particular reference to Irish.

WEDDING BELLS MORETISSEY-LYNCH The wedding took place, with Nuptial Mass and Papa Blessing at Ballinacree Parish Church between Mr. Thomas Morrissey son of Mr and Mrs. John Morrissey, Curra-cohe, Cappoquin and Miss Eileen Lynch, Ardmore daughter of Mr. James Lynch and of the late Mrs. J. Lynch. Rcv. Fr. T. Nugent, C.C., Ballinacree officiated assisted by Very Rev. Fr. P. Farrell, P.P., Ballyduff. The best man was Mr. Wm. Morrissey brother of the bridegroom and the bridesmaid was Miss Joan Lynch sister of the bride.

The bride wore a white brocade dress with matching accessories. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Devonshire Arms Hotel, Dungarvan. The honeymoon is being spent on tour of Ireland.

ADJOURNED Judge Fawcitt adjourned to next session in Dungarvan, a workman's compensation claim for £4,100 a week brought by Patrick McGrath, Knocknagranga, Kilmacthomas against Mto Wash, The Mill, Kilmac.

Dungarvan Hunt Ball Over 400 couples attended the Dungarvan Harriers' Hunt Ball at the Town Hall on Monday night. As time goes on this annual event becomes increasingly popular just as the other functions held by this very popular club.

Touraneena News

HOME FROM AUSTRALIA After spending a number of years in Australia, Mr. John Brennan, Knockboy, is now enjoying holidays amongst his relatives and friends in his native Touraneena.

SYMPATHY

To the bereaved widow and family of the late Mr. Nicholas Power, Glenlickey, Grange, whose regretted death took place at Ardkeen Hospital, on Tuesday of last week, and to his sister Mrs. Ed. Cullinane, Lackendarra, and other relatives in Touraneena, we extend our sincerest sympathy.

WEDDING BELLS

The marriage was solemnised at St. Mary's Church, Touraneena, on Saturday of last week, between Mr. William (Bill) Nugent, Churchquarter, Modeligo, Cappagh, and Miss Hannah Loneragan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Loneragan, Lackendarra, Ballinamult. The ceremony, which was solemnised with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing was performed by Very Rev. Fr. Walshe, P.P., Touraneena, assisted by Very Rev. Fr. Halley, P.P., Modeligo.

The best man was Mr. James Nugent (brother of the groom) and the bride was attended by her sister Miss Mary Loneragan. The reception, attended by upwards of eighty guests, was held at Ocean View Hotel, Clonea, after which the happy couple left for their honeymoon which is being spent touring. We wish the happy pair every success and happiness in the years ahead.

LATE JOHN KEANE. KNOCKBOY

The grim reaper—death—has taken yet another of St. John's noted Gaelic speakers. John Keane of Knockboy, who has gone to his eternal reward. Born and reared within a stone's throw of the ancient and historic graveyard of Knockboy, where he now sleeps his last sleep, he had a long and interesting life. He was a member of the Gaelic League and a great collector of his stories and legends, which have been collected and recorded. The late Pairing O'Meara paid tribute to him in his fine volume of folklore "Seanchas St. John's". His intimate knowledge of family burial plots in Knockboy was frequently availed of by people from a considerable distance where both kin and kin have long been buried beneath those grassy mounds.

During the War of Independence he played his part as a volunteer in the 7th Battalion and his coffin was draped in the tricolour as a tribute from his former comrades. May he rest in peace.

TOURANEENA I.C.A. GUILD

There was a good attendance at the February meeting of the Touraneena I.C.A. Miss Marie O'Keefe presided.

A most interesting and intellectual talk on "Health Education" was delivered by Miss R. Ryan.

TOURANEENA MACRA QUESTION TIME

Dungarvan emerged worthy winners of the team prize and the individual prize also went to a member of the Dungarvan team—Mr. Michael Dunford, Bohadon.

Very Rev. Fr. Walshe, P.P., who presented the cups, congratulated the winners on their brilliant performance.

LATE MR. MICHAEL KIELY, COHERNALEAGUE

YOUGHAL NOTES

HIGH WATER WEEK ENDING 9th MARCH

Table with 3 columns: Day, Morning, Evening. Rows for Sunday through Saturday.

SALMON FISHING SEASON

The last three days of last week saw salmon fishing by nets at its very worst when amongst all the boats in Youghal only two salmon were taken. This is said to be due to the snow water in the river and harbour when it is believed that salmon will not leave the bottom where conditions are more healthy. The same applied to upriver fishermen. Ardmore and Knockadoon. On the opening day last week there was a fair scattering of fish all round. On Monday this week there was an improvement when some 40 salmon were landed at Youghal quays, one boat taking nine fish. There was a stiff fresh S.E. wind on Tuesday which should make an improvement in the catches. However, only a few boats were able to operate their nets as the gale was too severe.

SEVERE SOUTH EAST GALE

A bitterly cold south east gale lashed the Youghal sea front on Monday and Tuesday of this week with a 13' spring tide. The promenade got a very severe pounding of mountainous waves and the green park was flooded to a depth of several feet. The residents at the Coast Guard Station suffered most when their gardens which had been recently planted were flooded by Monday morning's tide. The garden attached to the Green Park Hotel had several feet of water. On Ash Wednesday last year the Park wall facted south and east were blown down by a strong S.E. gale. The Co. Council carried out some repairs at the south side but the wall facing the east, said to be the liability of the Board of Works, was rebuilt although it has been examined on a few occasions by the Board's engineers. Consequently the adjoining gardens are flooded again and will be useless for replanting this year. Residents on the Mall, Market and Grattan Streets were more fortunate as the tide on Tuesday did not come any further than the roadway. The higher tides for the year are listed for the last weeks of March and April.

FIRE BRIGADE KEPT BUSY

Since the commencement of the year the Youghal Fire Brigade answered no less than 13 fire alarms. On Wednesday last they were called to an outbreak at Dove's Fish and Chip premises in the South Main St. where during rendering of fats, the urn overflowed and became ignited. The members of the Brigade, under second officer Loughlin, although hampered by dense smoke, had the outbreak well in hand after one hour. On Sunday they dealt effectively with a gorse fire on the Youghal-Dungarvan road on the Power farm near Ardmore Cross. On Tuesday of this week they were called to a fire at Irwin's residence in Ashe Street where a chimney with a defective flue was dealt with in a matter of half an hour.

YOUGHAL BOY'S TRAGIC DEATH

Rehar. Landers, seven years old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Landers of Knockmeal, Youghal, was knocked down on Friday night last by a passing motor car at Cantillon's Cross about 2 miles from Youghal. After receiving medical attention he was removed to Youghal Cottage Hospital and later to the Bon Secour Hospital in Cork where he died on Saturday morning. The deceased had alighted from the Cork-Youghal bus with his mother on return from a shopping visit to Cork. With a new toy in his hand he ran across to his father at the opposite side of the road and was struck by a car travelling in the Killeagh direction. At the Youghal Hospital he received the Sacrament of Confirmation from Very Rev. Canon Sheehan, P.P., and the Last Sacraments from Rev. D. O'Connell, C.C. His tragic death cast a gloom over the locality where his family are well known. Richard was the eldest of a family of three and an only son. Deepest sympathy is extended to the members of the bereaved family in their great sorrow.

THE LATE MR. JOHN WALSH

We regret to announce the death of a well-known member of the community in the person of Mr. John Walsh, of Ballyvergan, Youghal, which took place recently at the Cottage Hospital, Youghal after a short period of illness. The remains were removed to St. Ili's Church, Gortree, from where the funeral, both large and representative took place to Clonriprist Cemetery. The chief mourners were Mrs. B. Walsh (widow), Mr. R. Walsh (son), the Whelan, O'Brien and Walsh families (relatives). Very Rev. Canon Sheehan, P.P. officiated at the graveside, assisted by Rev. D. O'Connell, C.C. and Rev. E. G. Dwyer, C.C.

CLAMPING DOWN ON FISH POACHERS

In order to make it more difficult to dispose of illegally caught salmon from March 1st next it will be an offence to buy salmon or trout unless the purchaser is (1) the holder of a salmon dealers or exporter's licence or his duly authorised agent; (2) buying for use in his own home; (3) buying for use in his catering premises from the holders of a salmon dealer's licence or from a fisherman who gives a written statement containing his name and stating that the fish is of his own lawful capture. A person convicted of such an offence will be liable to a fine not exceeding 100 in all.

CHOIR AND ALTAR BOYS' PARTY

As an appreciation for services rendered throughout the year by the Altar Boys and the members of the juvenile choir (boys and girls) the Parish Priest, Very Rev. Canon Sheehan arranged for a party to be held last week at the Park View Hotel.

Over 100 children attended the party and the guests in addition to Canon Sheehan, were Rev. D. O'Connell, C.C., Rev. E. G. Dwyer, C.C., Rev. Bro. A. O'Connell, Rev. Bro. F. Dumbhey, Rev. Bro. A. Carroll, Miss M. Crowley, organist; Mr. W. Shanahan, Mr. P. Whelan and Mr. J. V. Hallissey. Following the party, all present proceeded to the League of the Cross Hall for a picture Show which brought a most enjoyable afternoon to a close.

BOWL PLAYING TOURNAMENT FINAL

The long awaited Bowl playing tournament final is due to take place at Frognore, Youghal on Sunday March 3rd at 2.30 p.m. The finalists being J. Murphy, of Newtown and S. Twohig of Killeagh, versus J. Dalton of Clashmore and L. Ryan of Old Parish. This final of the tournament should show bowling at its best as the finalists are well known for their ability in this form of sport. In addition, to the cups presented by Powers of Waterford and Smthwicks of Kilkenny, there is a cash prize of 20. A very large crowd is expected at Frognore and the throw-offs at 2.30 sharp.

Urban Council Adjourns

As a mark of respect to the late William Kelly, father of Colr. Nicholas A. Kelly, the monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council, due to be held on Friday night last, was adjourned. The adjournment was proposed by Colr. J. McCarty and seconded by Colr. T. Lee. Senator Jack Butler said it was only a short time ago since they proposed another vote of sympathy to Colr. Kelly on the death of his wife. The late William Kelly was a great friend of his, and he was sorry at his death.

The other Council members and Mr. B. White, Acting Town Clerk were also associated with the expressions of sympathy. The Chairman (Deputy man) on the death of his wife, LISMORE CRICKET CLUB A.G.M.

Lismore Cricket Club held their annual general meeting on Monday night week last in St. Carthage's Hall. The meeting was attended by a large gathering and proved very satisfactory.

To commence the meeting, the Treasurer (Mr. Gough) read his report for last season, in which he stated the club to be in a very strong position financially. Mr. Gough then went on to thank the members for their assistance in raising funds during the year, and for making the annual coffee such a success.

The Treasurer's report having been adopted, Mr. Endersean read the Secretary report which was as follows: The year 1962 was a pleasant one with a good number of matches, though bad weather robbed us of several games. It was a year, however, of no great achievement—the Cork Wanderers beating us in the second round of the Irish Junior Cup.

During the season, our players struck good form, particularly T. Endersean, P. Hudson (who has unfortunately gone from us), J. Crotty, J. Crowley, A. P. Harris and B. Harris and P. Feeney and P. Scanlon. Our junior players played very well indeed and I would like to particularly mention P. Pollard and T. Sullivan. They won a very nice cup which I hope is only the beginning of many more trophies.

Also we are very pleased to welcome Mr. Albertini back from America and we hope he will find it possible to have a few games with us.

We must soon start rolling the wicket, which will require a lot of it after the cattle breaking in during the winter. The railings too will have to be repaired during the season. It was the generosity of Mr. Albertini which enabled us to purchase a new mower. Col. O'Brien also gave us excellent assistance during the season. We are indebted also to all who allowed us the use of their cars.

I would like to thank all those who helped in cutting the field, preparing the wickets and making the tea etc. and finally I would like to thank the members of the Committee for their help and co-operation during the year.

Lismore was honoured last year in having the Junior Inter-provincial between Munster and Leinster played here. It was a so great honour to club that Trevor Endersean was again selected on the Munster team.

In conclusion, may I wish you all a very successful season for 1963.

Following the Secretary's report, the election of officers took place, the results being as follows: President, Mr. W. B. Albertini; Vice-Presidents, Messrs. Shane Jameson and Frank Kennedy; Captain, T. Jameson; Chairman, Col. O'Brien; Vice-Chairman, Mr. James Campion; Secretary, Mr. Jack Feeney; Treasurer, Mr. M. V. Gough; Captain, Mr. J. Crotty; Vice-Captain, Mr. Jim Crowley; Selection Committee: J. Crotty, J. Crowley, Col. O'Brien.

Committee: Col. O'Brien, M. V. Gough, J. Feeney, T. J. Endersean, J. Campion, J. Crotty, M. Crowley, J. Crowley, P. Feeney, P. Scanlon, T. Sullivan.

In conclusion, the Chairman (Col. O'Brien) thanked all for attending and also spoke concerning the preparation of the pitch for the coming season. The new railing, which was erected last season on two sides of the pitch, was a credit to those who gave their time to erect it, and he hoped that it would be completed this season. He also congratulated the Minor XI on their winning the Collins Cup. It was decided to run a minor team this year also and a meeting for those will be called shortly.

DEPUTY ORMOND IN THE DAIL

Deputy Ormond asked the Minister for Local Government, Mr. J. J. O'Connell, to introduce a Clean Air Bill with a view to the protection of health and property against smoke and industrial waste discharged into the air.

The Minister replied that the Local Government (Sanitary Services) Act, 1926, contains a provision for the control of atmospheric pollution in its various forms.

Deputy Ormond asked the Minister for Finance if it was his intention to make provision for an increase in disability pensions and special allowances for Old IRA in the coming Budget.

The Minister replied that at this stage it would not be possible to indicate the provisions of the Budget for the coming financial year.

Deputy Ormond asked the Minister for Lands if he was aware of the complaint of the Bessie Fast and Ballyhack fishermen's Association, Co. Waterford, that big trawlers operating above a line on the River Suir to the detriment of the white fish beds in the river; and if so, if he will take steps to afford protection against this practice?

The Minister replied that any such complaint should be brought to the notice of the local Garda Síochána immediately in an apparent infringement of the relevant by-laws is detected so that effective action can be taken.

Deputy Ormond asked the Minister for Industry and Commerce if he would have the possibility of the development of copper and other valuable minerals in the districts of Waterford and Mahon Valley, County Waterford, explored.

The Minister replied that the principal known mineral occurrences of Comeraugh and the Mahon Valley districts are copper and small amounts of other minerals. The accessible mineral was, however, removed during mining operations in the last century and any development of the mines would depend on the successful outcome of further exploration. Prospecting has been carried out in the area over the past two years under prospecting licences which I granted to Bonhamon Copper Mines Ltd.

WEST WATERFORD NOTES

YOUGHAL'S BRIDGES

The new prestressed bridge over the Blackwater near Youghal, is the third to be erected over the river at that point.

The first bridge, a timber structure which cost £18,300, was opened to public traffic on 21st January, 1932. It was the property of Youghal Bridge Commissioners and was a toll bridge. This structure was found to be unsafe in 1933 as "the main timber works decayed" and the question of replacing it was considered. In 1937, the building of a new bridge was considered, and in the following year it was decided to proceed with the work. The cost was £29,500, of which Cork was to pay 53% and Waterford 47%.

This structure of iron was built in 1938-39 and served the public until January of this year, when the new prestressed bridge was opened to traffic.

SALMON FISHING

There has been some improvement in this area recently. A further improvement in weather conditions is expected to result in still more fish being caught.

ON THE LAND

Ploughing in preparation for spring sowing is proceeding satisfactorily in this area and despite the rather late start, caused by adverse weather, an increased acreage is expected. Big quantities of lime are being applied this year and this will result in improved crop yields.

SYMPATHY

Cashmore F.F. Cumann tendered sympathy to the relatives of the late Patrick Roche, West Waterford, Comhairle Ceantair also offered sympathy.

INSPECTION OF MARES

The annual inspection of mares for the purpose of awarding nominations, was recently held at Cashmore. The Judge commented on the high quality of the animals presented.

LATE CAPTAIN WILHEM A. LAMBECK AND LATE MRS. ERNA C. LAMBECK

The victims of the tragedy which occurred on Wednesday night, 20th February, were removed from the District Hospital Mortuary on Saturday, February 23rd, in their leaden sealed caskets, to Davitt's Quay. The casket of the late Capt. W. A. Lambeck was draped in the flag of the Netherlands, and was borne in number one hearse, and was followed by the second hearse carrying the remains of his wife Mrs. Erna C. Lambeck. The funeral was followed by a huge cortege, which included the members of the Dungarvan Urban Council. Business was suspended as the cortege proceeded through the streets of the town en route to the vessel M.V. Greta, where the late Captain and his wife met their end. Sadness and sympathy was expressed by the very many hundreds who lined the quayside as the caskets were hoisted on to the forward deck of his vessel, which he had captained on its arrival to Dungarvan. A decade of the rosary was recited by the huge concourse.

The vessel lifted her anchors at four o'clock and set sail on her long sad voyage to Holland where the interment took place on Wednesday.

PRESENTATION OF MEDALS AT BALLYDUFF

Very Rev. Fr. P. Farrell, P.P., presented the trophies to the victorious Ballyduff mid-teams at a ceil in St. Michael's Hall. In making the presentation, Fr. Farrell said that he was saddened at the thought of the inroads emigration had made in the Club. They had lost some of their brightest stars to England and America. Some drastic remedies must be taken, he said, to prevent the draining of the very life-blood of our nation.

SYMPATHY

We wish to extend our sympathy to the Landers family, Knockmore, on their recent tragic bereavement.

Waterford Men's Association (London)

An extraordinary general meeting (which was called for at the annual general meeting) was held at the Irish Centre, Camden Town, on Saturday, February 9. There was a large attendance of members present.

At the outset, the Chairman, Col. Ted Flynn, addressed the meeting and said that at this meeting he would be resigning as Chairman, due to advice of his medical officer. He thanked all members present for their presence and said that he would still be a loyal member of the Association. After his address the Hon. Secretary read the Chairman's resignation and said that he asked Ted to consider the question but it was of no avail. He pointed out that Ted was Chairman since 1957 and had seen the Association grow in strength. Many years of service and asked him to continue in office.

Having vacated the chair, the Vice-Chairman, Willie Barron, took over as Chairman and having said tribute to Ted Flynn's work he called for nominations. The following were nominated: Willie Barron, Walter Smith and Tommy O'Regan. As the result of secret ballot, Willie Barron was elected chairman. As Willie was vice-chairman, that office then became vacant. Nominations were called for and on a secret ballot, Willie Stafford was elected.

There were three candidates for vice-chairman.

The Chairman and Vice-Chairman thanked the members for the honour and called for a vote of thanks for Ted Flynn. On the proposal of Tommy O'Regan, Col. Ted Flynn was elected Hon. Vice-President of the Association as a tribute to his work. The proposal was unanimously adopted.

ANNUAL DINNER DANCE

The meeting then decided where the annual dinner-dance would be held and on a vote the venue selected was the Grosvenor Ballroom, 111, Leinster Road, London N19. The date, Thursday, Nov. 7th. The questions of guests and price to be left to the committee. The other venues being Hammermith Town Hall, Brixton Town Hall, Brixton Town Hall and Messrs. Lyons W.I.

ANNUAL RAFFLE

The members decided that a raffle should be held to help with the annual coffee as this is one of the sources of income at the moment, due to the unemployment problem, there is a heavy call on the finances. It is hoped that all our friends will support the raffle as in previous years. Tickets will be at book of 6 for 2/6.

ST. PATRICK'S EVE

A chicken dinner and dance will be held at the Irish Centre on Saturday 16th March. As space is limited only 80 people can be seated. We would like to thank all those who have sent for tickets and to point out that all tickets have been sold but all orders to the raffle can be held from the Hon. Sec. of Irish Centre, N.W.1. Admission 3/6.

The Chairman and Hon. Sec. will, in conjunction with the county associations, meet his Excellency, The Irish Ambassador, Mr. C. Cremin. This is the first occasion His Excellency will meet all county chairmen and members of the Executive Committee. The meeting will be held on Wednesday 20th Feb. at the Irish Centre.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY PARADE

All members are invited to be asked to take part in the parade on St. Patrick's Day, Friday, 1st March. The parade will leave Horse Guards Parade at 2 p.m. and end at 11.30 as previously stated and will march to Westminster Cathedral for services. A parade will be held on Friday, 8th April at the Grosvenor Ballroom in aid of the association. It is hoped to have a full house at this dance as this ballroom, recently rebuilt, is one of the finest in London. Admission 3/6 for dancing.

The Committee at its meeting proposed a vote of sympathy to Mrs. Jim Cahill on the recent death of her father and to the relatives of Mrs. Jim Young, late of the Irish Embassy and to the relatives of Mr. James McCoy who died in Dublin and was a former vice-president of the Council of County Associations and a member of the Armagh Association.

MEMBERSHIP

At the annual general meeting held in November last, it was decided to increase membership fee to 7/6 per year due to increased cost of postage and stationery. We would urge all members to try and enrol new members. All members are welcome as 10 names should be sent to the Hon. Sec. At the moment we are called on to help newly arrived Waterford people and it is only through income from membership fees and details revenue is obtained.

not translate this knowledge into nationwide prosperous activity unless they get a new deal in milk prices. This deputation has resulted from pressure within the ranks by men who are anxious to get on with the job but who at present feel stymied in their efforts. N.F.A. dairy-men are calling for: (a) An immediate increase in the basic price of milk. (b) Incentives in the form of bonus payments for the production of quality milk. (c) Adequate financial assistance to enable them to participate in the reorganisation and development of the dairy industry at the production level. (d) Encouragement and support in their desire to expand our livestock industry which in the context of free trade will become more basically important to our National Economy. The Minister promised that he and his staff would examine minutely the points raised and the documentary evidence presented by the deputation. Farmers expect an improvement in the present situation in time for this season's milk.

By understanding what lies ahead and by being united in our approach we can formulate wise and constructive policies for the future.

These points were made by Mr. Richard Dray, President N.F.A., when speaking in Sligo last week. Within these two organisations, the N.F.A., small farmers are enabled to perform for themselves the vital jobs which have to be done before Irish agriculture can break the fetters which have restrained it for so long, but as a first step we have got to have a central organisation working in co-operation with other groups, to weld farmers into an economic force strong enough to insist on their rights. Only in this way can we ensure that national agricultural policy will be framed and implemented so as to provide social and economic justice for the farm families, and to include those of the agricultural workers who together make up 40% of our population. Through their own professional organisation (the N.F.A.) small farmers are being given a stimulus to take an interest in their own economic and technical advancement to encourage them to set up co-operatives and other marketing arrangements, which is the only way in which we can ensure of providing ourselves with economic units large enough to compete in the modern world. Next, and in some ways the most important, the N.F.A. provides small farmers with a service of economic information and a forum in which farmers, in the light of the information made available and with the help of the best economic and technical advice can get a full objective picture of the problems that face them of the competition they are likely to meet in the future from their brother farmers abroad, and a full picture of all developments in farming the world over.

By understanding what lies ahead and by being united in our approach we can formulate wise and constructive policies for the future.

Gaelic Jottings

FOOTBALLERS FAIL AGAIN

A national football league campaign that is best forgotten by Waterford followers, ended on a disconsolate note on Sunday last when they were beaten 4-4 to 0-9 by Limerick.

It was perhaps Waterford's poorest showing in the league and that is criticism indeed. Limerick were far from being a great side, yet it never failed a maximum effort on their part to collect the valueless points.

Despite playing against the breeze in the first-half, Limerick dominated the exchanges, and when they led 2-1 to 0-5 at the break, it was all too obvious that defeat would be the lot of the visitors.

Just what has gone wrong with present-day Waterford football? Only last year the county won sectional honours in the league, and subsequently fulfilled that promise in the championship when they gave Kerry a testing time in the Munster semi-final.

Since then, however, it has been practically a succession of defeats by counties generally acknowledged as the "inferiors" of the code. And the greatest blow of all is that seven-point defeat by Limerick—a county that does not even consider itself fit to participate in the championship.

Between now and championship time the new selection committee faces the unenviable task of unearthing the personnel that will again place Waterford on the football map. In the few months at their disposal, every likely prospect will have to be "tried in" if they are to entertain any hopes of beating Cork in the first round in Fermoy.

HURLERS MEET TIPP IN CHALLENGE

The postponed senior hurling challenge between Tipperary and Waterford has been rescheduled for Walsh Park on Sunday next. The postponement has not diminished the interest of either county, and both are availing of this opportunity of a full-scale try-out before the vital games that lie ahead. Both are as near to full strength as circumstances will allow and the expected big crowd should be rewarded with a truly thrilling hour's hurling.

The composition of the Deise side is along similar lines to recent outings, and it would appear as though mentors are expected to rely on Sunday's selection for future ties, should they succeed in overcoming the challenge of the all-Ireland champions.

Goalkeeper Ned Power is again protected by regular fulls, Cunningham, Flynn and Byrne. Martin Morrissey again reverts to the pivotal berth, flanked by play anywhere Larry Guinan and Jim Irish.

Joe Condon's selection at midfield was of course automatic, and now young Tony Cummins is given his big chance to vindicate the wisdom of mentors in naming him as Condon's partner. As proved against Dublin Cummins has plenty of hurling ability, and Sunday could well see him stake his claim to permanency.

The attack contains no surprises, and the return of Phil Grimes to the left corner is welcomed in all quarters. Charlie Ware captain's flank and between them is converted full-forward John Barron, who repeatedly outwitted Mick Maher in their Oireachtas duel.

Tipperary are apparently in a very serious vein about this game and are fielding a team that would do them justice in a championship encounter.

Roger Mooney is again in goal, with the teal-like phalanx of John Doyle, Mick Maher and Kieran Carey in front of him. Tony Wall, as expected, is at centre-back with Mick Burns and Mick Murphy on either side of him. Their midfield is an all-English one, with Theo being partnered by Wexford-born Sean English, who is now resident in Roscrea.

Like the Munster selectors, their Tipperary counterparts have opted for Liam Devaney in the full-back of the attack. This time, however, on the fringe of the Square, versatile Donie Nealon finds himself back in the right corner, while new captain Sean McLoughlin completes the three-some.

The date line is also their full championship one—Jimmy Doyle, Mackey McKenna and Killeenues Tom Ryan, and their Deise opposites will have to be on their toes for the entire game.

It is but reasonable to expect quality fare from such top-class exponents, and in view of the razor keen rivalry that exists between them, it is expected to be a challenge in name only.

WATERFORD-WEXFORD GAME ON MARCH 24th

At a meeting of Central Council, Dublin on Saturday the Waterford-Wexford league game was fixed to Waterford on March 24th. In the event of a day-off involving both counties, March 21st was designated for the play-off.

The re-fixed game was originally to have been played on February 10th, but Wexford firms refused to fulfil the arrangement despite an ultimatum by Central Council that the game would have to be played.

DUNGARVAN A.G.M.

The Dungarvan Hurling and Football Club will hold their annual general meeting on Saturday night next at 8 p.m. in the National and Commercial Club.

Ardmore May Reverse Championship Result

Ring Make Senior Debut

Competitive games at Club level in the county which have been at a complete standstill since the official pre-Christmas closedown, go into full swing again on Sunday when a two-game Phelan Cup programme should draw a big crowd to Dungarvan's Fraher Field.

Ring make their senior debut when they meet Stradbally at 2.15 followed by the game of the day—that between arch rivals Geraldines and Ardmore.

When these sides met in last year's championship the Aglishs scored a sensational and unexpected victory. Their first time tactics completely upset the rhythm of Ardmore's football machine and paved the way for a merited win.

It goes without saying that similar tactics will be Geraldine's forte on Sunday. Can they then repeat their championship success and quell the belief in other quarters that they have shot their bolt? It all adds up to an intriguing struggle.

Geraldine's will, of course, be without their brightest star, Roger Ryan, who has not played with them since their championship victory over the Blackkeys. There can be no gainsaying the fact that Ryan's loss is a serious blow and greatly impairs the attacking effectiveness of the side.

Nov. 15 remains to be seen whether or not they can still challenge strongly in major competitions without Ryan. In Peter Keeneally they have an inspiring captain and one who believes that Geraldines are still a force to be reckoned with. Keeneally will spearhead the attack that is so likely to contain sore-creeps in Terry Merrin, Jim Joe Landers and Steve Riordan.

Geraldines possess one of the most uncompromising defenses in the county. They go in for none of the K.I.S.s attached to the game and all six can be expected to mark closely on Sunday.

'Ferdie' Connel will fill his customary goalkeeping berth and Jim Davis, Billy Croft, Benny Boland and Ned Merrin will pose a problem even for the Ardmore attackers.

The snail's pace of their play over last year's unexpected defeat are having nothing to do with the fact that they will be fielding at full strength which means the inclusion of county stars Tommy Power and Eddie Moxey. While geared for a tough struggle they are nevertheless confident of advancing to the second round.

Whatever the outcome, it should be a severe fought, and in which good football may be limited. As matters stand it is expected to be a tough battle to make a definite forecast, but believing that Ardmore possess the more potent attack it is felt for them to register a narrow victory.

Just how good is the Ring side that would county junior honours at the end of last year. That and other pressing questions regarding the Gaelic side may well be answered on Sunday when they meet Stradbally in the Phelan Cup.

Right now despite having

JIMMY POWER, the live-wire Glen Rovers Secretary

The annual general meeting of the Glen Rovers hurling club was held recently and was attended by a large number of members and intending members which augurs well for the club in the coming year.

The following officers were elected: President, William Barry; Chairman, Jack Houligan; Vice-Chairman, John Prendergast; Treasurer, Michael Barry; Secretary, Jimmy Power; Committee: John J. Hite, George Roche, Tom Mehan, James Moloney, Mattie Power. Selection Committee: Sean Cashman, Jack Donohue, Tom Mehan, Mollie Gorman, Jimmy Power. Hurling Captain, Mollie Gorman; Vice-Captain, John Barry.

As debutantes in the higher grades, Ring will need to see go all out to make a favourable impression.

They will be without Eanna O'Faolain—now back in England and possibly one of two others of their title-winning Hoeyveer, after Sunday we may be a little more enlightened as to their possible future in senior ranks.

Stradbally provide stern opposition, despite their lamentable championship form against K.I.L. They still can call on outstanding players like Tom Walsh, Pierce, Eugene and Mollie Casey, Paddy Power, Tom Foy and John Fennell, who will back-bone the Red challenge on Sunday.

CROSS-COUNTRY AT DUNGARVAN

The county senior and youths cross-country championships will be held over the Kiossera course near Dungarvan on next Sunday.

In the senior event teamholders Dunhill will be defending their title but can expect strong challenges from Waterford, Lismore and St. Mary's (Dungarvan).

The youths' championship should also be closely contested with current champions Lismore again challenging strongly.

Tom Foley (St. Mary's) who was runner-up for the individual award last year is again in the field and could go one better this time. Other strongly fancied Dungarvan runners are Arthur Sheehan, Michael Kelly, Val Curran and Joe Sheehan.

TRIBUTE TO TOWN CLERK

To mark the occasion of his transfer from Town Clerk to Traffic Assistant on a Transfer Radio was made to Mr. J. H. Howlett, Town Clerk, Dungarvan, on behalf of his colleagues of Waterford County Council on Wednesday. He takes up his new post on Friday.

At Tuesday's Urban Council meeting tributes were paid to Mr. Howlett by the Council members. The Chairman, Deputy A. Kynel and Mr. Howlett was an excellent official and most cooperative in every way. Besides being a good Town Clerk he was also a good citizen. As Secretary of the Local Development Association he did tremendous work and had got a new factory for the town.

All the other members were associated with the Chairman's remarks.
