COUNCIL FAIL TO STRIKE RATE

DRAME IN DUNGARVAN HARBOUR

Proton action by the captain of a Dutch motor vessel... The ship came into the harbour on the rising tide... The port anchor was immediately dropped to check the ship but as she swung around she struck the jetty knocking several feet of it into the sea... The D.V. is from DeLuz, which is the home port of the m.v. Greta, which left Dungarvan last week with the captain and his wife who lost their lives in a collision on the ship.

INJURED IN COLLISION

MICHAEL F. KELLEHER (22) Cappagh, was removed to Dungarvan District Hospital on Wednesday morning with a severe leg injury when his motor-cycle was in collision with a trailer attached to a motor car... The accident occurred at about 9 a.m. at Kish just on the outskirts of the town... At the hospital this morning his condition was stated to be comfortable... We wish Michael a speedy recovery.

Stalemate After Three Hours Discussion

ROUND ONE in the grim battle to keep down the rates in the County resulted in a "no decision" at last Monday's Estimates meeting of Waterford County Council. For three hours the members discussed a truly perilous position before

Confronting the members is a request for a rate increase of 5/11½ over the current year's figure, which if passed would give at rate of 51/5.72d. in the £.

In his report Mr. Moynihan said the estimated expenses for the local financial year ending March 31st, 1964, provided for expenditure from revenue totalling £1,229,926. The demand from the Health Services was £27,712 (an increase of £25,273 over the current figure), while the cost of clearing the snow was £12,000 not provided for in the Estimates.

MAMMOTH TASK At the outset of Monday's meeting the Chairman, Col. Charles Curran, said they were again faced with the mammoth and unenviable task of considering the annual estimates and performing the statutory duty of striking a rate. As in the case of all other county councils the estimates showed a sharp increase. The main reasons for the increase were (1) Supplementary Estimates necessitated largely by circumstances outside the control of the Council; (2) Salary and wage increases; (3) Increased demand for Health Services; (4) Demands by all sections of the public for new services and for an extension of existing ones; (5) Increases in cost of living services; (6) Further increases in the value of money.

INUNDATED WITH REQUESTS During the past year they were inundated with requests from all sections of the Community for more water supplies, roads, bus services, public lighting and many other very desirable but extremely costly amenities. Other public bodies in the county had a similar experience. Had they accepted all the requests an increase of over 8% would have been required. Consequently the Council and other public bodies concerned were obliged to refuse many of the demands. Col. Curran went on to mention that the full impact of the 8th round of salary increases, now commonly known as the "status increases" is reflected in the estimates for the first time. In his humble opinion this round of increases was entirely unjustified except in the case of those on the lower salary scale. It has imposed a considerable strain on the finances of all Local Authorities, has created financial chaos at national level, has seriously retarded national expansion and further depressed the standard of living of the weaker sections of the community.

Mr. D. J. Coughlan said if they, representing the farmers, had no case to make, they should not be present at the meeting. If they had a case, then the Council should be allowed to alter the position. Since 1953 income tax had increased by 20%; food had gone up by 16.3%; while the prices they got for their commodities had dropped. Therefore the farmer was losing at the time it was obvious the rates position was due to the Health Charges and Main Roads and they should be levied as a national charge. It was unjust to have them levied on the Local Authorities. Waterford's rate averaged over £12 per head while the nearest rate to them was only £9 per head. If they could not keep the rates in control they should take other steps.

Mr. Coughlan said he had a proposal for the Council to make a substantial contribution to the County Council for the costs of clearing the snow, was passed unanimously. A deputation from the N.F.A. headed by Mr. D. J. Coughlan, Mr. E. Cunningham and Mr. Eamonn Cheasty appealed to the members to keep down the rates.

IMMORAL Mr. Cunningham said he was pleased that the Council appreciated the position of the farming ratepayers. They were back at a deputation this year, as they were worried about the difficulty in controlling a similar deputation as last year. The level of taxation through the rates for agriculture was immoral and scandalous. About three or four years ago they made the point that they thought it would be good business for the Council to employ business consultants to find and use more efficient and economic methods in running the Council's business. Apparently nothing had been done about this. The farmer organisations in the County he said, had employed consultants with very good results, and now the N.F.A. did likewise, and so will get results. He felt the Council were slipping in this respect.

Mr. Cheasty said that last year when the threat of a rate increase was facing the people due to water schemes, there was a big turn out against it. If there was a similar turn out this year, it would not have been an ordinary march through the streets of Dungarvan.

adjoining to Saturday next when round two will take place. During Monday's three hour session they succeeded in reducing the Manager's estimate by £900, representing a mere reduction of three-farthings.

HALT WILL HAVE TO BE MADE "A halt will have to come," he said, "but if things are allowed to drift any further, when the hat does come, it will come in a very ugly manner. The only way to draw attention to the matter is to let the appropriate Departments and Ministers see that they will have to finance schemes and adopt more economic means of running them. In Waterford we are paying in some cases twice as much per head in rates as other counties and the time is coming when we—as other people will have to make a stand. We, as farmers, also deplore the attitude of some last year, who accused us of taking the road-workers as a means of bludgeoning the Council, and that we wanted the roadworkers sacked. That was not so.

Mr. D. J. Coughlan said if they, representing the farmers, had no case to make, they should not be present at the meeting. SALMON NET FISHING

The month of February this year must definitely be termed as the best opening month of the salmon season for a great number of years. The opening week was fairly good and even in the third week when there was a great falling off in the catches, the final week's catches were excellent, not alone as regards the number of fish taken, but also the quality. For the same period in 1962 catches were very poor, the average weight being 7 lbs., and the average for the past month was 12 lbs. Last week some of the boats in Youghal took as many as 50 salmon for the five days.

The improvement is seemingly all around, as there are good reports from the fishermen up river and at Ardmore and Knockadon.

The closing price last week was 7/9 per lb. which was maintained on the opening days of the present week.

On Monday and Tuesday last conditions were very favourable with a strong southerly breeze. The best boat on Monday landed eleven salmon and 10 on Tuesday, while a few odd boats fared rather badly.

JUNIOR BOWLING FINAL
On Sunday last the Youghal Bowling Club staged the final of their Junior Tournament at Frimcore Cross. Despite the fog and rain earlier in the day the number of onlookers was the largest seen there for many years as a thrilling final was expected.

The final was a duel actually between Cork and Waterford. J. Murphy of Newtown and S. Twohig of Killeash versus J. Dalton of Clashmore and L. Ryan of Old Parish.

At the start, the Cork pair were favourites as they had disposed of fancied opponents in their passage to the final. After the first shot by Dalton it looked as if the favourites were to be defeated, as Dalton raised a bowl of odds.

This they held to the New Line Cross, when Murphy got a magnificent shot to reduce the odds to a mere 50 yards. Another good shot by Twohig and the two pairs were actually level again. It was then a case of shot for shot for the next mile when Murphy again came to the fore with a great stroke and as a result of a poor effort by Ryan, the favourites were leading by two bowls of odds. Dalton and Ryan did their utmost without avail to reduce this lead, but their opponents played well to hold their lead passing the line.

In presenting the Power & Smithwick Cups with cash prizes of £20, Mr. J. Kirk, President, paid tribute to the activities of the Bowling Club and its officers for the manner in which the tournament was run. He also thanked those who had taken part in the tournament and for the great number of spectators who rallied for the final throw. He concluded by saying that bowling was again coming back to its place in Youghal and the surrounding district as the original entry for the tournament was 90.

WEST WATERFORD NOTES

LATE MR. R. CORBETT
We regret to announce the death, which occurred following a brief illness, and at a moderately advanced age, of Mr. Robert Corbett, Kinsalebeg. A member of a well known family, deceased was popular amongst all sections of the community. Of a quiet and retiring disposition, deceased was a great lover of nature.

To his bereaved wife, son and relatives sympathy is extended.

The funeral to Pittown cemetery was of large and representative proportions. Rev. M. J. Russell, C.C. officiated.

G.A.A. DRIVE
A 45 drive, in aid of local G.A.A., will be held at Clashmore on next Sunday night. It is hoped that it will receive generous public support.

FULL EMPLOYMENT
Big numbers of young men and women from this area are in remunerative employment in Youghal factories, which have proved a great boon to the locality. Local schemes also provide employment.

YOUNG BOYS' DEATH
Sympathy is extended to Mr. Con Downey, Ardmore, on the recent sad death in London of his little nephew, Master Martin C. Kilmurray. A poignant feature of the tragedy is that deceased was an only child.

YOUGHAL CARPETS

The orders received at the Youghal Carpets Stand at the 1963 Carpet Exhibition at Earl's Court, London, which was held last week, included those from firms in Germany, Channel Islands and Kuwait.

YOUGHAL COASTAL WORKS

Senator Liam Aherne of Dungourney has been notified by the Minister for Local Government that while the proposals of the Youghal U.D. Council for the repair of the sea wall at the Green Park and redevelopment of the park itself were accepted in principle certain revisions suggested by the Office of Public Works had to be considered. Further drawings, setting out clearly the exact works contemplated, etc., had now been received by the Department of Local Government and are being at present examined.

PROPOSED NEW CORK/ YOUGHAL ROADWAY

The proposed new road from Cork to Youghal at present under the consideration of Engineers of the Cork Co. Council will, it is reported, meet with very stiff opposition from residents of Carrigrohilly and Midleton, if this proposed roadway will by-pass by Carrigrohilly and Midleton. A deputation consisting of business people from Carrigrohilly attended a meeting of the Co. Council Road Advisory Committee held in Midleton and strongly opposed the by-passing of that village, which would be detrimental to the business there. Mr. M. J. Corry, T.D., who presided, told the members of the deputation that every consideration would be given to the points raised by the members, who would be acquainted with any decisions made by the County Council and before they would be put into effect.

NOTES CAPPOQUIN

LATE REV. D. MORRISSEY

We announce with regret the death of Rev. David Morrissey, which took place at Littlehampton, Sussex, on 27th February, after a half-century, he had ministered as chaplain to the Franciscan Convent. He was a native of Coolacreeva, in the parish of Affane and was a member of a well known family. He was ordained in St. Sulpice's Parish in 1907 and ministered for some years in Mauritius before becoming chaplain to the Franciscan Community in Littlehampton.

GAELIC LEAGUE

Coming promotions by the members of the Gaelic League include a lecture on Child Art to be given by Tomás O'Cuinn, Cork. Prizes will be given for drawings sent in by school children. The date will be announced later. There is also to be a symposium at which a panel of four will answer questions on aspects of national culture. Either Irish or English may be used by the questioners.

The Jumble Sale, promoted by the local Guild of the I.C.A. and held on Sunday, was very generously patronised and varied selection of goods on view had ready buyers. The welcome addition to the Guild funds will be used to make donations to the many deserving charities which are being helped by the association.

BOWLING

J. J. Power beat M. Geary, R. O'Shea beat P. Walsh and P. Conroy beat J. McCarthy, in scores bowled on Sunday and thus qualified for the second round of the Cup Tournament.

"THE NEW GOSSOON"

On to-night (Friday) at the Desmond Cinema and on Sunday night at St. Mary's Hall the Affane Players will stage "The New Gossoon". We confidently recommend this production. Particulars are given in our advertising columns.

LATE MISS MARY CURRAN

MONAGOUGH, OLD PARISH

The sad event of the death of Miss Mary Curran occurred at the residence of her nephew Monagoush, on Wednesday evening, February 27th, after a rather short duration of illness but at the fulness of years. She was a most popular member of the community for her outstanding qualities of charity and gentle retiring disposition. She was a lady of the highest degree and her passing will leave a vacancy very hard to replace.

We would like to extend our deepest sympathy to her brother Maurice Curran, Mitchell Street, and also to her nephew Martin Curran, Monagoush; to her niece Mrs. Joan Bailey, Mitchell Street, and to all her relatives on this very sad occasion.

Her removal took place on Thursday evening to Old Parish Church followed by a large and impressive cortege and were blessed and received into the Church by Very Rev. Fr. O'Donnell, P.P., assisted by Rev. Fr. V. de Paor, C.C.

Requiem Masses were celebrated for the happy and eternal repose of her gentle soul, and interment took place in the adjoining family plot. Another large concourse of relatives, friends and neighbours were present. Very Rev. Fr. O'Donnell, P.P., assisted by Rev. Fr. V. de Paor, C.C., officiated at the graveside.

Large shelves of Mass cards were received.

(Funeral arrangements were by James Kiely and Sons, Shandon, Dungarvan.)

LATE MISS DELIA POWER

ST. GAVAN'S TCE. DUNGARVAN

The Great Call was answered on Thursday morning, 28th February, at the residence of Mrs. Dalton, of Mrs. Delia Power (nee Terry). She had been ill for some time, but had reached the allotted span. She had spent the greater part of her life in the U.S. and had returned to her native land to see her days. She had made numerous friends since her return by her charming manner.

May she rest in eternal bliss. The removal of the remains took place on Thursday evening to St. Mary's Parish Church, Dungarvan followed by a most representative cortege and were blessed and received by Rev. Fr. D. Byrne, C.C., assisted by Rev. Fr. J. Murphy, C.C.

Requiem Mass was offered on Friday morning for the eternal repose of her soul, and the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery. Another large concourse were present to pay their respects. Rev. Fr. D. Byrne, C.C., assisted by Rev. Fr. J. Murphy, C.C., imparted the final absolution and recited the prayers of Requiem at the graveside.

Funeral arrangements were by James Kiely and Sons, Shandon, Dungarvan.

KILMAC' NOTES

In Connection With the "45" card drive under the auspices of Killorossary branch of Maera na Feirme—1st and 2nd rounds played on Friday of this week.

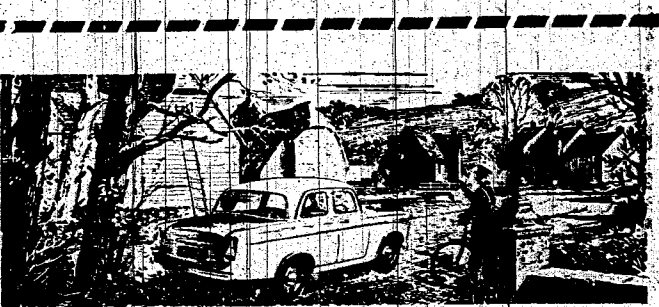

Kindly note that the finals will be decided in Leamington Hall on Friday night of next week.

As Advertised in this Copy, Messrs. Edmond Spratt and Son, M.I.A.A., Auctioneers and Valuers, Dungarvan and Youghal, are offering for immediate sale by private treaty two extensive residential roadside dairy and tillage farms in the parish of Killorossary. Full particulars are provided in the advert, respecting each, so please peruse.

Sponsored by John Mitchell's (Fews) G.A.A. Club was the district's successful monster card drive, decided in the Rainbow Hall, Kilmachthomas on Sunday night last. Miss Marcella Kirwan of Keafota, Kilmachthomas, and Mr. Paddy Garvey, Tramore, were winners of what certainly was the best event of its kind ever conducted locally, and well here's warm congratulations both on their fine win.

Have it that the Rev. F. Hopkins, S.T.L., Diocesan Inspector has paid his annual visit to all of the Catholic schools in this part of the Diocese and examined the pupils of each on their knowledge of Christian doctrine.

Great Headway is being made by the farmers on both sides of the Mahon in their tillage preparations, and all seem to be allotting as big an acreage as they had last year for the crops they aim to raise in their respective holdings this year.

Dungarvan Sea-Angling Club

At the last committee meeting of above on Tuesday 26th February, the accent was again on publicity and accommodation.

Mr. Hugh Stoker, the well-known correspondent for the British publication "Angling Times" expects to spend an angling holiday in Dungarvan in late July. As a result, we hope that a good account on sea angling around Dungarvan may result.

ACCOMMODATION FOR VISITORS

As the tourist season approaches, the problem of accommodation again comes into prominence. This season, just as last, Mrs. J. Bailey, Mitchel St., Dungarvan has agreed to act as Accommodation Secretary.

It is suggested that all those who intend to provide accommodation for visitors this season get in touch with Mrs. Bailey, giving her a list of beds, etc. available.

Of course if those with accommodation available could get together and discuss the problems associated with catering, etc., so much the better. Think about it.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY

As the feast of St. Patrick is being celebrated this year on Monday, March 18th, the Annual Cuirn Cheoil, sponsored by the Past Pupils' Union of St. Augustine's, is being held also on that day. This year they are fortunate in having once again in Dungarvan the Gael Linn Cabaret, which will include well-known Radio and Television personalities. As a special attraction, the P.P.U. have invited the All-Ireland Champion Mummer from Dungeer, Co. Wexford. This form of entertainment is completely unknown to the people of the Decies. The tradition of mumming in Co. Wexford goes back for centuries and is thought to have had its origin in Wales. The set consists of 12 step-dancers each of whom represents a character in Irish history, headed by a captain. The dancing, the recitations, the striking of "swords", together with the music, all combine to make a very attractive and lively form of entertainment. The set is at present giving exhibitions in London. On Sunday, March 17th, the P.P.U. are sponsoring the production of "Mungo's Mansion" (a three-act play by Walter Macken) by the Kilgobnet Dramatic Society. This talented group have already produced "The Country Boy" and "Give" among other plays. The producer is E. O'Farrell, C.C., and the proceeds are in aid of their parochial funds. A short variety concert will follow. On Monday there will be a matinee for the concert. The programme will differ substantially from the night concert. Booking for both nights is with Bernard Walsh, the Square. For particulars see adv.

Irish Association for the Blind

It is announced by the Irish Association for the Blind that "The Novena of Grace," by the Rev. Robert Carbery, S.J., as revealed by St. Francis Xavier to Father Mastriani of the Society of Jesus, has been published in Braille by the Association.

The Irish Association for the Blind is indebted to Very Rev. C. Scanzler, S.J., "Irish Messenger" Office, for his kind permission to publish this famous Novena of St. Francis Xavier in Braille. Arrangements have been made by the Association for the distribution of the new Braille publication in many parts of the world.

COMPUTERS FOR E.S.B.

The E.S.B. has placed an order for two 1401 IBM Computers. These models, which will be in full operation in 1964, will replace the IBM 650 Computer which has been in use since 1959.

In addition to handling the 4 million accounts and 4 million receipts which the Board issues each year, the new Computers will maintain stores and sales records and calculate wages and salaries including P.A.Y.E. deductions. They will also deal with costings and will provide the large volume of statistical information required for efficient management.

The E.S.B. was the first large organisation in Ireland to adopt a fully mechanised system of accounting procedure and the rapid expansion in electricity demand necessitates this extension of the system to meet the present needs and the anticipated growth.

The E.S.B. system has attracted considerable attention not only in Ireland, but also abroad and many accountants from overseas have visited Dublin to inspect the installation.

The Youths Race will be run over three miles, and great hopes are pinned on Lismore boys, Michael Barry and Michael Whelan for a Deise victory.

The starting time is three o'clock and admission is 2/6d. Incidentally, beautiful programmes will be on sale at sixpence each, giving full particulars of teams and race, and many interesting items regarding Lismore and surrounding areas.

Lismore Notes

LATE MISS M. MONTAYNE It is with deep and sincere regret we record the death of Miss Margaret Montayne, Chaplin Street, Lismore, which sad event occurred in Ardkeen Hospital, Waterford, recently.

The deceased lady was a native of Knockmore and had resided in Lismore with the past couple of years, during which time she made many friends here. She will be sadly missed by all, but especially by her sorrowing relatives and friends, to whom we tender our deepest sympathy.

The remains were removed to St. Carthage's Church and were received and blessed by Very Rev. Canon Dunphy, C.C. and Rev. Fr. Sattery, C.C.

Requiem Mass was celebrated for the repose of her soul, on Thursday morning in St. Mary's Church, and the burial took place in the adjoining cemetery immediately afterwards.

LOCAL GIRLS WIN MUSICAL SCHOLARSHIPS Congratulations are extended to four young girls in Lismore, on gaining musical scholarships for piano playing examination for which was held in the Victoria Hotel, Cork, recently.

The four lucky girls are the Misses Laura and Margaret O'Sullivan, Parks Rd., Elix Moore Main St., and Catherine O'Keefe, Deerpark, S.M.A. SUPERIOR HOME ON HOLIDAYS

At present spending a holiday at his home at 13 Park Road, Lismore, is Rev. Fr. Michael Walsh, S.M.A. Fr. Walsh, who has spent a total of eight years in Nigeria, has been for the past number of years in Manchester, where he is Superior of two of the Society's Colleges.

Incidentally, when Fr. Walsh was seeking a building some years ago to convert into a college, Queen Elizabeth offered one free, but due to economical reasons the wonderful offer was gratefully declined.

We take this opportunity to wish Fr. Walsh a most enjoyable holiday.

DEATH OF MR. JAMES KEATING It is with deep and sincere regret we record the death of Mr. James Keating, which sad event occurred at his residence, Ballysaggart, Lismore, on Tuesday last, February 26th.

The deceased gentleman who had reached a wonderful age and had enjoyed great health, was a favourite with both young and old. A keen follower of all sports and particularly Gaelic football, he for many years formed the Ballysaggart colours with great distinction in his younger days.

Deepest sympathy is extended to all his relatives and friends on their sad loss.

The remains were removed to St. Mary's Church, Ballysaggart, on Wednesday evening and were received and blessed by Very Rev. Canon Dunphy, P.P., assisted by Rev. Fr. Quaid, C.C. and Rev. Fr. Sattery, C.C.

Requiem Mass was offered for the repose of his soul, on Thursday morning in St. Mary's Church, and the burial took place in the adjoining cemetery immediately afterwards.

WUNSTER CROSS-COUNTRY CHAMPIONSHIPS The greatest athletic event to be staged in Lismore for a long time, will be held at the Castle Farm venue on Sunday next, March 10th, when the Munster Cross-Country championships will be held. It is indeed a great honour for the local Athletic Club to be bestowed with this big event, and during the past week or so the very hard working members have been going to great pains to have the course in perfect order, and weather permitting, they should be fittingly rewarded by "big fields" and a record attendance.

Though the Youths Championship will hold a lot of interest for Lismore, as some of the local runners are included in the Waterford team, undoubtedly the big attraction will be the senior championship. Entries have been received from all the counties in the province. Particular interest, of course, will be sought on this year's Calver award winner in athletics—Sean O'Sullivan, Toucalulla, who last Sunday retained his Limerick title in stylish fashion, and is a sore competitor of All-Ireland senior champion, as well as holding many other relative titles and records. He will start favourably for the year, and it is hoped he can expand on his previous success.

White Wolf, M. O'Donoghue and W. F. Shine, while Walter Ferdy's hopes will be pinned on county champion Fintan Walsh and Mick White, but whoever wins this year's title, it should prove a battle royal.

The Youths Race will be run over three miles, and great hopes are pinned on Lismore boys, Michael Barry and Michael Whelan for a Deise victory.

NFA HITS OUT AT MILK PRICES

Profound dissatisfaction with the Minister for Agriculture's attitude to the case presented to him last week by the N.F.A. on behalf of Irish milk producers was expressed by the National Council, which met in N.F.A. House, Dublin, recently. The case presented was based on the need for an immediate increase in the price of milk in order to revitalise and expand our dairy and livestock industries.

The Minister agreed that an excellent case had been made for an expansion in livestock which is our biggest earner of foreign currency, and the principal means by which raw materials are imported for other industries. He further agreed that the best way to bring about this expansion was by an increase in the price of milk. Yet he refused such an increase!

No, even the Government can refute the evidence which shows that the income of the individual dairy farmer is less today than it was ten years ago. Unlike other sectors of commerce, no compensation has been given to agriculture for the considerable increase in costs (more than 30%) as a result of its being in a more depressed state than ever. The Minister's statements and actions would seem to indicate that he is completely unaware of this.

The Minister for Agriculture has consistently shown an unimaginative approach and a lack of appreciation of the aspirations of Irish farmers. His ineffectiveness within the Government is responsible for the stagnation within the industry for which he is answerable.

His Leader, An Taoisach, has been taking in a dynamic and optimistic way about the future. In contrast, the Minister for Agriculture, though charged with the duties of Ireland's basic industry, seems incapable of dealing with the problems involved, and he has failed to give the lead in Agriculture which his colleagues have shown in their respective Departments.

Council members were unanimous in saying that farmers in their counties will not accept "no" for an answer to their just claims where milk prices are concerned, and in view of the dissatisfaction throughout the country on the way this question is being handled by the Minister and his Department, they decided to reconvene the National Action Committee.

Urban dwellers do not realise the enormity of the rate burden, particularly in the West of Ireland, whereas an example in Mayo, the estimate is 68/10d. an increase of 13/10d. Productivity is directly related not only to the will and the ability of the person involved, but also to the facilities at his disposal. For small farmers such facilities are non-existent. The obstacles become greater annually, while their ability and will are being depressed by every new burden.

Higher output in agriculture demands more and more buildings, particularly on small farms where housing is at present inadequate to maintain even the present output. The twenty year remission of rates on new or improved farm buildings must be extended for a further period.

ANOTHER VICTORY OVER CHAMPIONS

For the second successive time since last year's Munster final, Waterford proved the masters of all-Ireland champions Tipperary, when, on Sunday last, they beat the championship holders 4-6 to 3-6 in a thrilling challenge at Walsh Park.

True it is that little significance could be attached to the game, but the manner in which both sides went about their task, made it clear to the rather disappointing attendance that neither relished the thought of tasting defeat.

Tipperary were short only Tony Wall, of their original selection. Walsh's centre-back berth was filled by Holycross veteran, John Doyle & Loneragan — a newcomer from Mocarkey — took over from Doyle at right full back.

Waterford were also handicapped by the late defections of Ned Power and Jim Irish, who were replaced by Percy Flynn and John McGrath respectively.

Right through a spell-binding hour the outcome was in perilous doubt. On no fewer than four occasions the sides were level, and the lead interchanged hands with a frequency that had spectators on tenterhooks with excitement.

But the justice of the result cannot be disputed. In victory Waterford produced irrefutable proof that they remain one of the foremost combinations in the land. Tipperary, as always, proved extremely difficult to master, and it augurs well for Waterford's future that they could again record a merited victory over the champions.

Star of the game was undoubtedly left-full back Jimmy Byrne, whose immaculate defensive hurling rendered Catev award winner Donie Nealon powerless.

Byrne, however, was only a star amongst stars. This was a splendid team effort by the Decies, a repetition of which should be good enough to enable them to make up lost ground in the league.

Tipperary must also be feeling quite pleased with their performance. Inactive since before Xmas, their display undeniably their undoubted potential, and they will again be a force in both league and championship.

VITAL LEAGUE GAME WITH CORK

Fresh from that heartening victory over Tipperary, Waterford hurries embark on a vital mission on Sunday next — a trip to the Athletic Grounds to play the Leesiders in a game of immense importance to them.

Cork's league hopes have already been dealt a knockout blow as a result of defeats by Carbury and Wexford, but for Waterford, whose solitary setback was against Limerick, the game will mean success or failure for their league efforts.

In fact it is imperative that they overcome this Cork obstacle. Their remaining game is at home to unbeaten Wexford on March 24th, so it is of paramount importance that they win on Sunday.

Even though Cork's league aspirations have been blighted, they can be expected to strive unsparringly to upset Waterford's apple-cart. With little or nothing to lose they will go in to the fray with rare abandon and on home ground will be a serious threat.

Decies have beating of Leesiders

THE Athletic Grounds, Cork, has never been a happy hunting ground for visiting teams, particularly when the Leesiders themselves provide the opposition. But on Sunday next Waterford's hurlers, though mindful of the threat that Cork can become when in their own domain, travel to enemy territory confident that they can keep alive their National League hopes with a victory over the 'Red Devils'.

It is in every sense of the word a mammoth task for Waterford. But just as assuredly as it will be a close affair, I have every confidence in the county's ability to pull it off.

While Cork have lost their chance of figuring in the league's final shake-up, a Waterford win is of paramount importance to their own title aspirations. Victory would leave them in with a great opportunity of appearing in the May decider, while defeat would eliminate such prospects and would also turn their forthcoming clash with unbeaten Wexford into one of those insignificant fixtures.

DEFEAT NEVER RELISHED It would of course be the height of folly to suggest or expect Cork to treat this game lightly. True the incentive to succeed is hardly as great for them as it is for Waterford, but they have never relished on any occasion by Corkmen. They have reshuffled their side for Sunday's hitherto problem sectors, and have been considerably bolstered up by the introduction of promising newcomers, and all in all they await with roiling optimism their chance of snuffing the Decies men.

Back onto the Cork team after a lengthy absence comes Glen Rovers club-man Mick McCarthy who takes over the vital centre-back role. Rugged

THE AGELESS RING In attack the ageless, ever-dangerous Ring is the problem of Austin Flynn, Newcomers to the sector John O'Halloran and Bill Carroll will be sampling Waterford hurling for the first time and greatest danger to the Decies defence is likely to come from Ring. Terry Kelly and Patsy Harte.

RESOUNDING SUCCESS Waterford's try-out against Tipp. of Sunday last proved a resounding success and should be of incalculable benefit to them now. Against the All-Ireland champions they revealed their true form and it is difficult to visualise them being beaten if they play as well against the Cork men.

Naturally selectors were hesitant about making changes in the side following that highly-rated display. In fact the only alteration in the personnel of that team — Jim Irish who unavoidably missed Sunday's game for John McGrath, well though the latter filled the breach, the selection of Irish is welcomed and general feeling is that his return will strengthen the defence.

Percy Flynn who took over from Ned Power against L.P.O. is retained in goal and while personally my choice would be the experienced Power, Flynn

FULL STRENGTH DEFENCE

With Irish back, the defence is at full strength, comprised of six seasoned and dependable defenders. Full-backs Cunningham, Flynn, and the brilliant Jimmy Byrne at out-hurl, Carroll, Ring and Sheehan, while half-backs Gurnan, Morrissey and Irish can hold the key to victory.

Cork's half-line of attack contains two danger men in Harte and Kelly and should the Decies half-backs nullify the efforts of this pair their victory foundations will be well and truly laid.

With each additional outing the new midfield partnership of Joe Condon and Tony Cummins seems to gain in hurling stature. They completely mastered Tipp's Tipperary Sean English in the challenge — credentials which indicate they will have a reasonably pronounced advantage over Cork's Pat Fitzgerald and Tom Corbett.

STRIKING IMPRESSION On paper at least, Waterford's scoring department makes a striking impression. All six are excellent hurlers, with each possessing opportunities in abundance.

Back at his very best, Tom Cheasty has revitalised the half-line. Ceaseless in his efforts and foraging with outstanding success, he can take and make scores. Frankie Walsh can also pick off the vital points while Fennelly is playing better presently than at any other time in a great career.

John Barron is proving to be a prolific scoring full-forward; Phil Gimes yet remains a danger area and his due with Jimmy Brohan should be intruiging while for Charlie Ware, Sunday could well be the acid test.

Given a dry lively sod, this game could well turn out to be a classic. Cork will stubbornly attempt to word off defeat, and their lies the assurance that a rip-roaring encounter lies in store for intending attenders.

DEISE VICTORY? The outcome, however, being of such importance to Waterford, makes it impossible to predict other than a Deise victory. As I see it, Cork will pin their hopes largely on the scoring potential of Ring, Harte and Kelly.

But through the medium of Messrs. Flynn, Irish and Morrissey I believe their activities will be curtailed. With this trio subdued, Cork's scoring weaver, will be seriously blighted and Waterford's own attackers can run up sufficient scores to give them victory.

PHIL GRIMES should have an intriguing duel with Jimmy Brohan.

Stradbally's Easy Win

Stradbally 4-4; Ring 0-4

The score-line gave a true indication of the ease with which Stradbally advanced a stage further in the Phelan Cup at Ring's expense in the Fraher Field on Sunday last. They completely outclassed their more inexperienced opponents and to use a racing phrase won "pulling up".

Yet, despite the weakness of the opposition, Stradbally's display was undoubtedly their best for quite a considerable time. Drastic changes made since their championship defeat last year seem to have moulded them into a far more formidable side and could well go a long distance in this competition.

Ring must be said never looked senior standard. The absence of a couple of regulars accounts to some extent for their poor showing, but cannot be offered as a complete alibi. Early on they displayed distinct promise and early points seemed to indicate a good performance by them. But their efforts of the opening minutes only flattered to deceive and as the game progressed the Reds dominance became even more pronounced.

After Ring had shot those early brace of points Stradbally gradually took control and when Billy Barry slammed a great drive off an upright
