Now that Dun Garbhan is entered in the Glor na Gael competition it is expected that more and more Irish will be used in the daily lives of the people. LATE THOMAS J. STONE

"St. Hilary's" Tournore, Dungarvan

We regret to announce the death of Thomas J. Stone which sad event occurred suddenly on Monday last at his residence "St. Hilary's", Tournore, Dungarvan, to the inexpressible grief of his wife, sons and daughters.

Deceased was a well-known sportsman and bred and raced some outstanding greyhounds. Among the trophies and events he won were the Trigo Cup in Dunmore Park, Be-fest, in 1931; the first Grand National at Harold's Cross; the first Easter Cup at Shebourne Park with Mooncoin Captain. He won the open stake at Mooncoin twice. In 1947 Knockroe Pine won the 32-dog trial stake at the Sevenhouses and that same dog won the open stake at Mooncoin and the Waterford Testimonial Stakes at Kilmahon Park the following year. His last good one was Hilary's Pride, winner of many races on Youghal Track and beaten in the semi-final of the 1954 Deise Cup by Snow Thrills. His name was always synonymous with good ones either on the coursing field or track.

In 1938 he took over the management of Harold's Cross Stadium in Dublin and during his time there introduced handicap racing, a form of racing which packed the enclosures but made grazing extremely difficult. On his resignation from that post owing to health reasons to take up the less strenuous work of rearing and racing dogs, this type of racing, of which he was an expert, was discontinued. He was also instrumental in introducing the famous McKee-Scott hare on the Dublin tracks.

He was a member of the Dungarvan Coursing Club in the capacity of Press steward.

In latter years he published a booklet on the breeding and racing of greyhounds entitled "The Coursing and Tracking" which proved immensely popular among greyhound men. His many sporting articles in these columns were also well received. He also contributed articles on the industry in this country to magazines in other countries.

The remains were removed to Ballinroad Church on Tuesday evening followed by a large cortege and were received and buried at the Church gates by Rev. Fr. Walsh, C.C., assisted by Very Rev. Fr. Roche, P.P. Following Requiem Masses on Wednesday morning the remains were interred in the adjoining cemetery again in the presence of a large gathering.

The chief mourners were: Mrs. Stone (wife); Thomas F. and John K. Dublin (sons); Mrs. P. J. Lynch and Mrs. D. Byrne (daughters); John Stone and Patrick Stone, Portlaw (brothers); P. J. Lynch and Dermot Byrne (sons-in-law); Mrs. T. F. Stone; Mrs. J. K. Stone (daughters-in-law); nephews, nieces and grandchildren. (Undertaking by James Kiely and Sons, Dungarvan.)

THEY BAKED THE BEST BREAD

Two 15-year-old girls shared the honour in the schools section of the National Wholesome Bread Baking competition held at Dungarvan Technical School. They were Madge Dee Deelish, who secured first place and Helen Donlon, Kill, who came second.

The E.S.B. is running this inter-schools Co. cookery competition in co-operation with the Department of Education and vocational education committee committees. Girls between 12 and 18 years are eligible.

Competitions to choose a school winner are being held in each school which has a domestic economy class and an electric cooker.

Madge Dee, Dungarvan winner, will represent her school in the county final and will have an opportunity of competing for a fine Perpetual County Shield presented by the General Electric Company of Ireland. The winner of the county final will compete for a national award at the finals of the national wholesome breadbaking competition in November.

LOCAL RIDER'S BRILLIANT SUCCESS

Highlight of the United Hunt Club's annual point-to-point Races at Ballindenisk, Co. Cork, (held last week) was the Watt Memorial Cup, which was won by Sports Final, admirably piloted by Mr. P. Kiely, Lisfeneil, Dungarvan, whose magnificent 4-year-old mount's first ever race the keenly contested event was.

Sports Final is the property of genial Mr. Michael Lenihan, Ballinabarrigue, Kilmacthomas, a member of a sterling Waterfordian sporting farming family, notably successful breeder and exhibitor of top-grade equine animals at the leading Irish shows.

Mr. Lenihan was accompanied at the meeting by his brother, Mr. John Lenihan and their first cousin, Mr. Tom Lenihan of Garranturton, Kilmac, a regular trio of mounted followers of the Waterford Hounds, and between them they have annexed several trophies at point-to-point and agricultural shows.

Waterford Deputation Visits Minister

Last week a Waterford Co. Council deputation met the Minister for Local Government, Mr. N. T. Blaney, in connection with Road Grants and discussed the proposed Brickey Drainage Scheme with the Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Finance, Mr. D. O'Malley.

The members of the deputation were: Messrs. C. Curran, Chairman; J. Fahy, M. Morrissey, Solic.; M. Hart; T. Lannon, J. G. Dowling, Co. Secretary, and J. D. Hally, B.E. Co. Engineer. The deputation were accompanied by Messrs. T. A. Kyne, T.D.; S. Ormrod, T.D., and Senator J. Butler. A number of farmers from the Brickey area accompanied the deputation to Mr. O'Malley.

PRESENTATION TO LOCAL ATHLETE

Rev. Bro. Looney, Dungarvan C.B.S. presenting the trophy to Michael Kelly of the local Athletic Club after winning the youths race sponsored by his own club recently. Michael has chalked up many fine successes of late and on Sunday last won the County cross-country championship at Lismore. Only a few short months ago he took up this testing sport and on the evidence of his form to date, could well develop into one of the country's best cross-country runners.

Local Man will Lead Congo Troops

A Dungarvan man will command the latest detachment of the Irish Army to join the United Nations forces in the Congo. He is Lieutenant-Col. Patrick J. Dempsey, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. D. Dempsey, Shandon Farm, Dungarvan, and brother of the well-known local family members, and he has been appointed to the overseas service post by the Government.

Another local man who will command troops of the Irish Army with the new Congo force is Commandant John Ahearne, Glendog, Cappagh, who will serve with the Irish military under Colonel Dempsey.

Ring Drama Group Won Munster Trophy

The Ring Gaelic Drama Group Aisteoirí na Rinne won the Munster Trophy with their one-act play "Nemissá" at Fells Dramatúchta na Mumhan in Malinow recently. Members of the cast of the prize-winning play were: Gíe Ní Fhola, Seamus de Facide, Parthólaon Breathnach. The play was produced by its author Rev. Fr. Victor de Paor, C.C., Ring. The group will represent Munster Gaeltachta at the Oireachtas Drama Festival. Adjudicator Donal O'Donnabháin commenting on the performance of the Ring group said that their settings, simple and effective showed new ideas, and was a refreshing breakaway from the usual pattern.

"Their speaking," he said, "had no jerkiness, and was being a group coming from such a traditional Gaelic strong hold as Rinne."

At the conclusion Rev. Fr. De Paor, on behalf of the group, received the trophy from Pádraig O'Ceallaigh, Uachtaran D. na Mumhan and received a nomination for his play group to Fells Dramatúchta Naistinn.

The Sacrament of Confirmation will be administered in St. Patrick's Church, Portlaw, (Portlaw and Ballycuff parish) on Thursday, May 9th, at 7 p.m.; at St. Anne's Church, Ballyaneen (Stradbally, Ballyaneen and Faha), Tuesday, May 14th, at 11 a.m.; at St. Anne's Church Feus (Kilrossanty and Feus), Tuesday, May 14th, 4.30 p.m.; at the Church of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, K.C. (Newtown, Kilmachomas, Kill and Saen), Thursday, May 16th, 7 p.m.; and at the Parish Church, Dunhill (Dunhill and Fenoo), Monday, 20th May, 4.30 p.m.

Considerable interest was centred in the Rings Competition for which the genial gentleman who organised the sporting affair—Mr. Pat Cahill, M.C.C., Adamstown, Kilmeeaden—donated a magnificent silver cup and replicas. Several teams representative of centres between the Mahon, and the Suir, participated, and keen contests proved the order of the tournament, the final of which has just been decided at Fenoo and the teams engaged in it were Bonmahon (Hayes) and Dunhill (Harney's). A good-sized gathering eyed and enjoyed the exciting encounter provided by these groups. With the odd game in three to their credit, the Bonmahon representation emerged winners of the sterling struggle. Mr. Cahill presented the captain of the successful side with their trophies amidst much applause. It is confidently expected that not less than a dozen teams will be taking part in the competition next year. A credit to Mr. Cahill for sponsoring this annual tourney.

Fianna Fail.—Mr. R. B. Noble presided at a specially convened meeting of the East Waterford Comhairle Ceannair, at which there was representation by ten Cumann delegates which included an octogenarian in the person of Mr. James Doherty, of Cheekpoint, a remarkably hale and hearty four-score-year young neighbour, bless him. Present also were Messrs. S. Ormond, T.D., R. Walsh, M.C.C. and P. Hogan (of Leamybrien) Hon. Secretary, Co. Executive and Financial Secretary.

The Chairman in welcoming Mr. Hogan paid a glowing tribute to his work as Financial Secretary, as he was wholly responsible, and it was due to his activities that the organisation in the constituency was in such a healthy position today. A number of the delegates joined with the chairman in the tribute.

Mr. Hogan, in reply, stated he was very grateful to the delegates for the kind sentiments expressed by them, but went on Mr. Hogan, it is an obligation to congratulate the members of the organisation in the constituency who ably assisted me to enhance the financial position, particularly the non-stop draw which was held last year. As the draw proved so successful, I have decided to launch another one, and I am quite sanguine that I will again get the co-operation of the members. Prior to the adjournment, the delegates conveyed their best wishes to Ald. Wm. Kenneally, ex-T.D., Waterford, for a speedy and complete recovery from his present indisposition.

The First and Second Rounds of the "30" drive sponsored by Stradbally G.A.A. Club (prize money on offer totals £40) were decided in the Boys' National School, Stradbally, on Sunday night last, and the capital conducted competition afforded pronounced pleasure to a large assembly of friendly and pleasant patrons, all of whom were present. See advertisement for venue, date and hour fixed for the final round of this splendidly supported drive.

Betrothment.—The engagement is announced between Mr. Thomas Kelleher, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Kelleher, St. Christopher's, Montserrat, Park, Cork, and Miss Jill Fahavan, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Fahavan, Glenhouse, Portlaw, Co. Waterford.

Some Fall in 90 Years.—Figures furnished in the initial volume of the 1961 census compiled by the Central Statistics Office, show that between 1871 and 1961 the population of Waterford City and County fell from 123,310 to 71,439 (a drop of 51,871 persons).

Kilmac Branch of Macra na Feirme sponsored the Co. Final of the Question Time Competition decided in Spring Valley Hall, Bonmahon, on Wednesday night, 3rd inst., with Mr. Peter Murphy functioning as Guest Question Master. The test was enjoyed by a big crowd whose reception of the finalists was greatly appreciated by both teams (winners and losers alike).

Look out for advt. agent Kilmac's Macra na Feirme Branch's 15th annual dance coming off shortly and for which "The M. Foley" Combo has been booked to discourse the music.

At The Annual General Meeting of the Kilmachomas Development Association, Very Rev. Fr. Raphael Power, P.P., Newtown, was re-elected President, and Mr. R. J. (Dick) Casey was re-elected Hon. Treasurer. The appointment of a Chairman was deferred for the present, and Mrs. M. Murphy was appointed Hon. Secretary. Correspondence received included a letter from Mr. Percy Kirwan, regretting his inability to attend, and accompanying same was a handsome cheque to help towards clearing some of the expenses entailed in the carrying out of a series of repairs and renovations to the local Temperance Hall (A most laudable undertaking, undoubtedly, and it is generally expected that the good ahead Association will have the welcome work under way in the near future). Of course any voluntary assistance rendered to bring the needed improvements to the Temperance Hall on a creditable conclusion without undue delay will be very much appreciated.

A Bumper House in Spring Valley Hall, Bonmahon, last Sunday night, thoroughly enjoyed every feature of the fine programme of entertainment, given by Kilmachomas Camairias Ceoltori players, who, at the conclusion of their grand treat, were applauded to the echo.

Engagement.—The engagement has been announced between Sheila, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Power, Kilmeeaden, Kilmachomas and Francis (Frank) eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McGrath, Shaubally, Kilmeeaden.

Amiable Mrs. J. Gough, of Ballyduirn, Kilmachomas, is to be congratulated on her good luck in winning £25 in the Pontara Pools.

Following a period of failing health and at the allotted span, Mrs. Annie Coffey (nee Walsh, native of Waterford City), ex-N.T., Ard-na-Greine, Kilmachomas, died at her residence on Friday night of yesterday, 29th ult. (Feast of St. Jonas and Barachasius). Widow of the late Mr. Martin Coffey, shopkeeper, Kilmachomas, she taught at Newtown National School a good many years before retiring approximately a decade of annuus ago, and the loss and esteem of children and parents.

A large and representative cortege accompanied the removal of the remains on Saturday evening to the Parish Church, Newtown, where they were received by Very Rev. R. Power, P.P., do., and Rev. M. Wall, C.C., Kilmachomas. Immediately after the 11 o'clock Mass in the sacred edifice on Sunday, interment was made in the adjoining cemetery amidst every manifestation of sorrow. Fr. Wall, C.C., gave the closing absolution at the graveside, attended by Very Rev. Fr. Power, P.P. A large array of Mass cards and messages of condolence were received. R.I.P.

An illness of somewhat protracted duration preceded the passing of Mr. Patrick Stewart Ballykilmeeaden, Kill, Kilmachomas, at his home on Saturday, 30th ult., (Feast of St. John Cimacus), and it was with deep regret that the relatives, neighbours and friends learned of the sad event. Deceased was a well-known and esteemed veteran of the First World War, in which campaign he was attached to a unit of the British Army and was severely wounded in action just prior to the cessation of hostilities. A familiar figure in the sporting life of the Barony of Middlethird, he is survived by his wife and family, with whom wholehearted sympathy is widespread in their bereavement and loss.

All sections of the community were represented in the attendance at the removal of the remains on Sunday evening to the Church of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel, Kill, where the coffin was received and blessed by Rev. L. Walsh, C.C. Do. There was an equally representative assembly when the funeral took place for interment in the adjoining cemetery after Requiem Mass on Monday, Fr. Walsh again officiated at the graveside. May he rest in peace.

Late Nurse Kathleen M. Cotter (Kilrossanty and New Cross Hospital, London)—Mass cards received, in addition to those already published were from: Dee family, Carrigeragh, Pat and Mrs. Keating, Kilmachomas; Pat Barron, Bellahene; Sr. Margaret Mary, Presentation Convent, Dungarvan.

Letter of sympathy was received from Mrs. Marten, New York (nee Eileen Cleary, native of Kilrossanty). Late Mark A. Kieley, Ballinabanogue.—Additional Mass card and letter of sympathy from Barrons, Stradbally Rd., Kilmachomas; Mass Cara from Joe and Catherine Flynn, Foxe's Castle.

Mass cards: Fitzgerald family, Knockan; Tom and M. Morrissey and Pat Boland, Faha.

Mid-Waterford Lady's Demise.—Unobtrusive, retiring, modest and diffident about her own merits was gentle and charitable Mrs. Barry, wife of the well-esteemed Mr. James Barry Garrahallish. Kilmachomas, who breathed her last at her residence on Monday 1st inst. (Feast of St. Hugh), subsequent to a span of failing health and at a moderately advanced age.

Sprung from a grand old Catholic farming family, this dear departed neighbour was a shining type, and her life was the outward expression of a beautiful mind and soul; those privileged in Mrs. Barry's friendship could say of her that she was truly a most exemplary member of the Mother Church and a loving and devoted wife and parent.

Sympathy with her grief-stricken spouse, sons, daughters and relatives is widespread.

A cortege of imposing dimensions and most representative, accompanied the removal of the remains on Tuesday evening to St. Anne's Church, Feus, where the coffin was rested overnight.

Next day, immediately after the celebration of Solemn Requiem High Mass (preceded by the Office for the Dead), the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery, in the presence of another immense gathering of mourners and sympathisers. All of the priests present at the obsequies again officiated at the graveside.

A number of beautiful floral wreaths were placed on the grave, and sheaves of spiritual bouquets and messages of condolence were received. R.I.P.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

CONFIRMATION

In the presence of a very large congregation, about one hundred children from the schools of the parishes of Cappoquin and Modeligo were, on Tuesday, confirmed by Most Rev. Dr. J. Ahearne, Bishop of Cloyne. Expanding to the congregation that his presence was due to the illness of Most Rev. Dr. Conboy, he asked for prayers for Dr. Cahalan, especially on the 4th inst., which would be the 20th anniversary of his consecration to the Episcopate of Waterford and Lismore. His Lordship, speaking to the candidates for Confirmation, explained the significance of the Sacrament they were about to receive.

The clergy present included: Very Rev. J. Kenneally, P.P.; Very Rev. J. Halv, P.P., Modeligo; Rev. C. Daly, C.C., do.; Rev. M. O'Meara, C.C., and Rev. R. Keane. Also in attendance were: Rev. Fathers Foxe and Denny of the Redemptorist Order. The choir for the occasion was conducted by Mr. B. Breen, with Miss Mullins at the organ.

His presence alone should ensure a capacity audience. Details re date, etc., will be given in our next issue.

It was arranged to change the date of the monthly meeting from the 1st to the 2nd Tuesday of the month.

ARMAGH PLAY FOR RING
Féile Dramatíochta na Rinne will this year for the first time have an entry from the Six Counties. This annual festival which has a habit of breaking records will, this year, have the distinction of having performed at it plays from all four Provinces. This surely is a record for any regional drama festival.

Making the long journey to perform their newly written play this year, will be the Christian Brothers' Players from Armagh. They will perform "An Coltach Orga" which was written specially for them by their teacher, Lorcan O'Riain a native of Tipperary. The play, which is a musical one, has a cast of over 20. This youthful drama group have for a number of years won major awards at Northern festivals as well as being successful at Féile Dramatíochta na Scol in Dublin. Plans are at present being made to give these Gaelic enthusiasts from "Occupied" Ireland a rousing welcome both in Dungarvan and Ring. The arrangements are in the capable hands of Domhnall O'Connell, the popular and efficient secretary of this highly successful annual festle.

Incidentally the Christian Brothers' Players from Armagh had the honour last year of performing their award-winning play in the Abbey Theatre in Dublin while the Abbey Players were on holiday. It is not yet known whether they will be similarly honoured this year.

Letter to the Editor

TO THE EDITOR

Sir—Once again that seemingly succulent bone of contention that from time to time has been dangled in front of ratepayers by public representatives, has hit the headlines. I refer, of course, to the controversial Priory House. Certainly it seems it's not going to be utilized for the purpose it was originally acquired but why not convert this gracious and stately old home into a few self-contained flats. It is ideally situated and boasts a flat protected roof and fire escape so essential in this type of accommodation. The present owners, having their own skilled labour and equipment should be in a position to carry out the necessary modifications economically. In Dungarvan where the housing position is so acute—as reflected in the fabulous prices being paid for house property—many families, including mine, would be delighted to rent same, thereby converting this "propaganda" piece of property into a paying proposition. To conclude, it is rumoured a super mart convert are interested and local business concerns would be dealt a severe blow if this materialised. —Is m.se.

KOSANGAS AGAIN REDUCED

It will be welcome news to Irish housewives and to the farming community that Kosangas is again being reduced in price. From April 1st, the cost of Kosangas comes down by 6d. to only 17/- per 25lb. refill cylinder.

This further reduction is yet another stage in the Kosangas "success story". More and more housewives both in town and country districts are using more and more Kosangas—for cooking water heating and other domestic chores. More and more farming families are using Kosangas, both in the farmhouse and on the farm. More and more enthusiastic Kosangas users are recommending Kosangas to their friends and are persuading them to make use of its many advantages.

Because of this increased consumption, Kosangas has been able to effect economies in production and distribution costs. As is the usual Kosangas policy, these savings have been passed directly to the consumer. So, in effect, Kosangas users have themselves reduced the price of Kosangas, to the benefit of their own pockets. They have helped to bring down living costs in homes and farms throughout Ireland.

This new reduction places Kosangas within the reach of even the smallest home.

LATE MRS. M. DOWER

Youghal Road, Dungarvan

The death occurred on Monday, April 1st, at her residence, Youghal Rd., Dungarvan, of Mrs. Margaret Dower. She was the wife of Michael Dower and was a most popular lady well known for her retiring and gentle disposition, and a member of a wide-respected mid-Waterford family.

We wish to express our most sincere and deepest sympathy to her daughter Mrs. Madge O'Brien who resides in England, and also to James Dower, Youghal Road, on their very great loss.

The remains were removed on Monday evening to St. Mary's Parish Church followed by a large cortege and were buried and received by Rev. Fr. W. Foxe, C.C.

Requiem Mass was celebrated on Tuesday morning for the repose of her gentle soul. The interment took place in the day at Kilmobnet Cemetery, Rev. Fr. Farrell, C.C., Kilmobnet officiated at the graveside and recited the prayers of Requiem.

Large sheaves of spiritual tributes were received by her relatives.

(Funeral arrangements by Kieley and Sons, Dungarvan.)

Colr. Criticises Dispensary Delay

At a recent meeting of Waterford Health Authority, M. J. Fahey said there was an unacceptably long delay in the erection of a two-roomed dispensary in the Nire. It was approved of over three years ago and would cost only £1,000. He had raised the matter at the February meeting but there was no mention of it in the minutes of the present meeting.

Mr. Fahey said he would continue to raise the matter until work commenced. He was being told it would start at every meeting but nothing had been done.

Mr. J. A. Hayes (Secretary) said that an architect had been appointed and they were waiting for the plans.

Mr. T. Lannon said the appointment of architects for small jobs such as this would have to stop. The present trend seemed to be to get in as many of these people as they could and then get the money from the people to pay for them. There was no sense at all to it.

Active Chairman Mr. Norman Walsh said he agreed entirely with Mr. Lannon. It was ridiculous employing architects for small jobs.

Mr. Fahey—I think it a disgraceful position.

Late Mrs. Ellen Ryan

In connection with the death of Mrs. Ellen Ryan, Knockakeash, Ballymacarthy, the following tributes were received: Floral wreaths—Her loving sons and daughters 2; loving daughter, Eileen, Dermot and family.

Further Extension of Time on Pig Grading Regulation

N.F.A. NEWS

Prior to and since the introduction of the new grading system applicable to pigs the National Pigs Committee have been in close contact with the Department of Agriculture and with pig producers throughout the country in connection with these proposed changes.

As stated in correspondence with the Department the Committee pointed out (a) That there is clear evidence in the reduction of pig numbers; (b) The retention of grade L does not add in any appreciable way to a burden on the Exchequer; (c) That the abolition of this grade would reduce still further at a critical period the income of small farmers engaged in pig production.

We are pleased to report that resulting from repeated representations in this connection the Department has agreed to a further extension of time. We quote as follows from a letter received from the Department of Agriculture on 27th March 1963:—

"During the period of three months which commenced on 7th January 1963, a minimum price of 223/- per cwt. dead-weight was payable for pigs purchased at bacon factories which were found to be ineligible for Grade A solely by reason of the fact that their length measurement fell short of 775 millimetres.

"It has now been decided that this arrangement will continue for a further period of three months after 31st April next."

The Committee appreciate this gesture on the part of the Minister and his Department and the committee and pig producers will use the interim period provided to the best possible advantage of the industry.

POULTRY PRODUCTION

For most farm crops climatic conditions, soils, etc., play a very important part in the success or failure. Not so, however, for the production of poultry. If of course we leave out what is a very obvious advantage in production, the supply of cheap food.

We mention that point because it is becoming increasingly obvious particularly when we think of export markets, we realise that countries that would not consider production of poultry in the normal way because of climatic conditions

Late Augustine Beresford

SKEGHCRINE, ABBEYSIDE, DUNGARVAN
The unexpected death of Augustine Beresford occurred after a very short duration of illness at the District Hospital, Dungarvan on Friday, March 22nd. He was a member of a very respectable and widely-known County Waterford family.

We would like to express our deepest sympathy to his relatives on this very sad occasion. His remains were removed on Friday evening to Garranbane Church, followed by a large cortege of relatives, friends and neighbours and were blessed and received by the Very Rev. Fr. J. Roche, P.P.

Requiem Mass was celebrated on Saturday morning for the eternal repose of his soul and his coffin was placed in the family vault, Very Rev. Fr. J. Roche, P.P., officiated at the graveside. Another most representative concourse were present to pay their respects. (Undertaking was by James Kieley and Sons, Dungarvan.)

organisation and development of the dairy industry at the product end; (c) Encouragement and support in their desire to expand our livestock industry, which in the context of freer trade will become ever more basically important to our National Economy.

The Minister said in referring to our plan for an expansion of the industry: "We are a common ground." In May 1962 the N.F.A. met the Taoiseach and Minister for Agriculture and strongly impressed upon them the need for a new deal for the dairy industry. The Taoiseach at that time expressed his own concern that something be done and promised to re-examine the matter when the report of the Survey Team became available.

As early as 13th March 1958 when the N.F.A. met the Taoiseach in an effort to obtain an increase in the dairy farmers' income the organisation has never relaxed in its efforts to obtain an increase in the price of milk. An increase we may add which is more than justified on any basis of examination. The facts indeed show that since 1953 the price of milk supplied by farmers to the creameries has only increased by 1d. per gal. on. Dairy farmers look to the N.F.A. to convince the Government of the need for a new deal for dairy farmers. We intend to keep our trust to the milk men.

RISE IN RATES PROBLEM

Industrial workers wave the flag of "strike" at the first signs of any check on falling to meet demands and results are usually forthcoming immediately.

Why then have our Government been so reluctant to accept the demands of primary producers when all the evidence shows that taxation in the form of rates on agricultural land is unjustified. The demands of farmers on rates as put by the National Rates amongst those points are:—

1. That health charges should be borne by the National Exchequer.
2. Complete re-rating on the first £20 land valuation.
Farmers are and always have been willing to bear their fair share of the taxation of the country, but the imposition of health charges on rural rates is basically wrong and creates undue hardship on people already over-loaded.

Complete re-rating on agricultural land up to £20 valuation may appear wrong to some people, especially town dwellers who are paying rates on buildings with no relief whatever. It should be remembered however that farmers also pay the full rates on buildings, but as well they are paying rates on agricultural land whether or not even a subsistence income is forthcoming.

The industrial worker and other pay income tax on earned income but the farmer pays tax in the form of rates whether or not his income justifies it. That is the fundamental issue and if we are sincere in our desire to assist small farmers and of reduction of taxation a first step should be to remove penal taxes. The recent farm survey has shown that the vast majority of our smaller farmers and of reducing emigration a first step should be to remove penal taxes. The recent farm survey has shown that the vast majority of our smaller farmers are existing on much less than average subsistence allowance.

Our government have the power to remove these taxes and should take steps to do so immediately. On the 21st February 1963 the representatives of the Association met the Minister for Agriculture and called for: (a) An immediate increase in the basic price of milk; (b) Incentives in the form of bonus payments for the production of quality milk; (c) Adequate financial assistance to enable them to participate in the month of May of this year. 16 farmers it is indeed an honour for Ireland to have been selected as the venue for this conference. Many city people still believe that farmers in particular belong to the narrow minded segment of our respective national societies. You often hear or read that farmers fail to look further than their own farm gate. Those who criticise farmers usually feel happy that they themselves are more objective and thus a better part of our society.

Many to such criticism is that the mentality and philosophy of farmers and farm leaders in a growing number of countries is quite different from the picture in the minds of many who criticise them.

Men and women from forty-two countries as far apart as Japan, New Zealand, Australia, Korea, India, Ghana, Rhodesia, Algeria, Canada, the U.S. and Mexico (and all West European countries) will have travelled round the world to attend the thirteenth annual conference of the International Federation of Agricultural Producers. The National Farmers Association of Ireland will act as host to the world's parliament of farmers. It is indeed an honour for Ireland to have been selected as the venue for this conference. Many city people still believe that farmers in particular belong to the narrow minded segment of our respective national societies. You often hear or read that farmers fail to look further than their own farm gate. Those who criticise farmers usually feel happy that they themselves are more objective and thus a better part of our society.

YET ANOTHER GLORIOUS ACHIEVEMENT

Without fear of contradiction it can be unbiasedly stated that Waterford, by their hurling achievements in recent weeks have established themselves as the number one exponents of the game at the present time.

Now they have earned the undeniable right to meet Galway in the semi-final at Croke Park on Sunday next. En route to this encounter they have left in their wake a trail of vanquished opposition and have repeatedly averted peril by stupendous second-half rallies that are as over-powering as they are inspiring.

But never was the unquenchable spirit of this Deise side seen to such advantage as in the closing minutes of Sunday's action-packed thriller. When all seemed lost, they performed the "impossible" as they did: waves of attacks swept Wexford as if in a most contemptuous fashion.

Impressive as were their other victories in recent weeks, they must all take something of a back seat in comparison to Sunday's wonderful showing. It was a thrilling game that demanded only the best from both Waterford and Wexford.

Right now they are equipped with all the essentials that go into the making of a top-class side. Whatever the circumstances they can vary their style accordingly and it is this uncanny knack of adapting themselves to any particular style that makes them a force to be seriously reckoned with.

Against gallant Wexford, whose display left them no caste in defeat, Waterford's strength was exposed in fine fashion. This Slaneyside challenge was of a standard that would have been adequate to deal with most opposition, yet the task of halting the onward victorious Deise march was fractionally beyond them.

What other County could possibly have turned a goal deficit into a goal victory with less than a minute left for play? It was truly an incredible fight-back that deserved the success it received.

On Sunday next the Tribesmen from the West will attempt to succeed where so many others have failed when they cross camans with the Deise men in Croke Park: the League semi-final. One can never rule out the element of surprise but should Waterford repeat their form of Sunday last, neither Galway nor anyone else will end their sequence of success.

Why was Cunningham overlooked? For longer now than I care to remember, Dungarvan's Tom Cunningham has been one of Waterford's most outstanding and versatile performers.

Whether adopted as a defensive or attacking role he has seldom failed to distinguish himself or vindicate the men who selected him for any particular position.

But yet, despite his versatility and countless other qualities he has for some inexplicable reason been overlooked by Gaelic selectors when attached to the Dublin team.

In most after-match accounts of an event in which Waterford have participated Cunningham fails to receive the recognition that his efforts deserve.

In recent weeks the Dungarvan man has been seen at his brilliant best in League games against Cork and Wexford (twice). On the first occasion against the latter he was the elusive "Hopper" McGrath who has repeatedly cut-witted some of the game's greatest defences.

While some members of the Sunday's attack were playing below par, Cunningham's display in general was so impressive that selectors, not surprisingly, decided to leave well enough alone.

At last, the six defenders now on duty form a really solid defensive screen. Centre-back Martin O'Morrissey is proving a rock-like figure around whom this great protecting wall is built. The sextet have also introduced that vital touch of legitimate toughness and allied to their undoubted skill are proving too formidable for the best of the attack.

While conceding to the fact that as every eye forms its own beauty, so also shall each individual form his own opinion, so masterful was Cunningham on Sunday last and so dependable was his ever-ready move against the same opposition the previous Sunday that I refuse to believe that he has possibly gone and faded.

While this outstanding Deise man clearly remains unperturbed about it all, I at any rate cannot let the occasion pass without comment. His prowess as a player and sportsman on the field cannot be disputed—despite the attitude of certain members of the Press in turning the blind eye to it.

Countless were the memorable incidents that made this such a splendid encounter. But just as the good wine came last, so too did the real tension charged moments of this game.

Times before teams have performed less effectively than Waterford did on Sunday and yet won, but against this brilliantly equipped Deise side even gallant Wexford could not summon up sufficient reserves to "ward" off defeat.

There was unanimous satisfaction throughout the County when it was learned that Tom Cheasty had been recalled to the Munster team for the Rialta Cup replay against Leinster on Easter Sunday. Cheasty has been chosen at centre-forward where he will again be opposed by Wexford's Billy Rackard. Joe Condon and Jimmy Byrne retain their places and Frankie Walsh is still included among the substitutes.

SARGENT CUP GAME POSTPONED

The Sargent Cup game fixed for Dungarvan on Sunday next between Abbeyville and Cappoquin has been postponed.

Hurlers can overcome Galway

ONLY one hour's hurling separates Waterford from a place in the National League final on May 5th. That hour, in which Galway will be their opponents, is scheduled for Croke Park on Sunday next and unless form goes completely haywire then it is unlikely that the men of the West will perform a giant-killing act.

Several League victories over Cork and Wexford and a win in a play-off against the Slaneysiders on Sunday have boosted Waterford's hurling morale to new heights. Years of experience has moulded the present side into an extremely forceful one that must make them self-appointed favourites to carry off their first League pennant.

Not that they can afford complacency on Sunday next. Galway, outside of that they are have little to lose and everything to gain and under such circumstances will not spare themselves—or others in their efforts to bring a surprise.

The benefits accrued from recent games should stand to Waterford on Sunday. They are superbly fit for this time of the year and Galway may find it expecting if not over-exposed to play the pace with them for the hour.

While some members of the Sunday's attack were playing below par, Cunningham's display in general was so impressive that selectors, not surprisingly, decided to leave well enough alone.

WEXFORD PIPPED IN THRILLER

Waterford 2-7, Wexford 1-7

DARE anyone suggest that hurling is a dying sport or that its present day standard is declining after this pulsating encounter at Nowlan Park, Kilkenny, on Sunday last. It was a game waged with all the fervour and intensity of a championship combat and the 15,000 spectators who saw Waterford snatch a dramatic last minute victory are not likely to forget the thrills and feats of artistry and skillfulness that emanated so frequently from the game.

Countless were the memorable incidents that made this such a splendid encounter. But just as the good wine came last, so too did the real tension charged moments of this game.

Well, when it mattered most, but once again Frankie Walsh failed to measure up to requirements.

NOLAN, WEXFORD'S HERO

Wexford's hero was undoubtedly their "cul baire" Pat Nolan. Time and again he brought down the house and saved his net on many occasions.

Their defence need shoulder none of the blame for defeat as all six turned in top-rate performances. Phil Wilson and Martin Lynch fared well at midfield but in an attack that over-all fared badly, only Jimmy O'Brien and "Hopper" McGrath (early on) looked the part.

THE PLAY

Now briefly for the story of the scores. Simon Lambert gave Wexford the lead with a sixth minute point and "Hopper" McGrath added a second with a glorious effort after seven minutes. Phil Grimes whistled frees in the 13th, 16th and 25th minutes, left Waterford leading by the minimum of margins at the break.

Fate struck them a cruel blow within seconds of the restart when a 60-yard free by Harry O'Connor wound up in the net. Completely on top at this stage the Slaneysiders tackled on valuable points by McGrath and Jimmy O'Brien.

In the 9th minute Seamus Power scored Waterford's first goal. Cheasty started the movement and placed Fanelly who returned pointed to Power who added the vital finishing touches. Harry O'Connor pointed a Wexford free and Grimes and Wheeler exchanged like scores.

Again Grimes pointed a free in the 24th minute and two minutes later Frankie Walsh equalised. Jim Erlich scored what looked like being the winning point from a free two minutes from time but in a glorious finish Power's goal & Grimes pointed free sent Waterford triumphantly on their challenge for League honours.

GERALDINES TAKE WINTER LEAGUE TITLE

In a very exciting junior hurling winter league final at Dungarvan on Sunday, last Geraldines scored a narrow but well deserved victory over Ardmore—2-6 to 2-2.

There was never more than a couple of points separating the sides and the issue was in the balance up to the final whistle. Such was the close nature of the hurling that there was little room for being spectacular.

As at the final whistle Geraldines had a one point interval lead 1-3 to 1-2. It was an advantage that they well deserved and despite all Ardmore's second half efforts, the Agglishers brilliantly retained their slight but decisive lead.

Western Board Secretary, M. Seamus O'Brien was a very capable referee.
