CELEBRATES SILVER JUBILEE OF ORDINATION
 Father Michael F. Ahearne, Pastor of Bessie's Sacrament Parish, Ontario, Canada, will celebrate the Silver Jubilee of his ordination to the priesthood on Tuesday, 14th May.
 Father Ahearne was born in Cappoquin. He received his high school education at the Christian Brothers' School, Lismore. His philosophical studies were made at Mount Melaney Seminary in his native town. In September 1934 he entered St. John's Seminary, Waterford, to commence the study of theology. Of the Feast of Corpus Christi, June 16th, 1938, he was ordained to the priesthood by Most Rev. Jeremiah Kilmaree, Bishop of Waterford.

TWO WEEKS TOUR OF HOLLAND AND SWITZERLAND
 Two Bord na Mona officials who are concerned with apprentice training have begun a two-week study tour of work shops and training schools in Holland and Switzerland. The tour, which is believed to be the first of its kind undertaken by an individual Irish company, will take in visits to some of the largest industrial centres of the two countries, including the world famous Verolme Dockyard at Rotterdam.
 The visits have been arranged with the co-operation of a Ceard Chomhairle. The Bord na Mona representatives are Mr. Fergus Barron and Mr. Anthony Keenan. As well as visiting workshops to watch operations on the job, they hope to have discussions with education officials in both countries.
 Before the two men flew from Dublin Airport to Amsterdam a Bord na Mona spokesman said: "Holland and Switzerland have what are generally considered to be some of the best organized apprentice training schemes in Europe. In Holland, Mr. Barron and Mr. Keenan will be concerned mainly with mechanical engineering, while in Switzerland, the emphasis will be on the electrical side."
 "Few Irish companies can match the scale of apprentice training on the Continent. In Holland, for instance, some firms are large enough to have completely self-contained schools for apprentices which in addition to on-the-job training, look after the theoretical instruction that in Ireland is given in vocational schools."

ST. PATRICK'S (WYOMING) FIRST PASTOR
 Just come to hand, has the beautiful "Dedication Day" Brochure of St. Patrick's Parish Church and School in the Diocese of Cheyenne, Wyoming. The Bishop of Cheyenne, Most Rev. Hubert M. Newell, D.D., has appointed none other than our good friend Very Rev. Jas. J. Power, of deep-rooted Cionea and Glendalligan, Kilrossanty family stock, to St. Patrick's first Pastor.
 Here is what the Brochure says of Fr. Power: —
 "It is particularly appropriate that Fr. James J. Power, who was born on the South coast of Ireland, has been appointed by Bishop Newell to be Pastor of St. Patrick's, the church honouring the patron saint of the Emerald Isle."
 Ordained in 1939 at St. John's College in Waterford, Father Power left Ireland the same year for the United States and Sheridan, where he became assistant pastor of Holy Name Church. In 1940 he was transferred to Rock Springs as assistant pastor of Our Lady of Sorrows Church. Fr. Power's next assignment was pastor at St. Thomas Church in Monarch, a post he held until 1944. He next assumed the pastorate of St. Matthew's Church in Gillette where he built a new church in 1951. He became the pastor of St. John the Baptist Church in Buffalo in 1954 and in January of this year was named pastor of St. Patrick's in Casper.

Summoned for Sale of Easter Lilies

ONE DEFENDANT FINED £5

FOUR Dungarvan business men appeared at the local District Court on Wednesday in connection with the selling of "Easter Lilies" on April 14th last. They were all given the P.O.A. but a fifth defendant, Thomas Freyne, Mary St., Dungarvan was fined a total of £5 on four charges concerning the same offence. Freyne did not appear in Court and was not legally represented.

The other defendants were Adrian McGarry and Thomas Ryan, Main Street; John O'Flynn and Michael Landers, The Square.

They were charged with (1) That they did act as collectors in an unauthorised collection; (2) that they were concerned in the holding of a collection for which no permit was in force; (3) that they used a collection box for collecting money on which was not displayed in legible form the name of the object for the benefit of which the collection was being held.

Freyne was similarly charged and was also charged with holding a collection as well as being concerned with the holding of a collection.

Garda J. Winters gave evidence of taking away the boxes containing Easter Lilies from the premises of Messrs. O'Flynn, Ryan and McGarry. A. the defendants admitted to him that they did not know they were committing an offence. There was 1/- in the box at Mr. Ryan's and 2/5 in the box at Mr. Landers.

Sergt. Morgan Hayes said he visited McGarry and seized the box containing the emblems. It contained only 1/-.
 The defendant told him he knew nothing about a permit. Mr. Freyne had called and asked him to take a box and he did so.

Justice Skinner said he believed the first four mentioned defendants acted ignorantly. They put the boxes on display and were not aware of any offence.
 Dr. Coughlan (State Solicitor) said if the defendants were allowed to say they did not know about the offence, it would be impossible to prosecute under the act at all.

Judge Skinner — I am aware of that. I will convict them under Section 8 of the Act and apply the P.O.A.
 Giving evidence in the case against Thomas Freyne, Sergt. M. Hayes said the defendant had boxes with emblems displayed in the window. He asked him if he had a permit and he replied that he knew it was an offence to collect on the public street but did not know it was wrong to do so in a private place. The box contained 2/6.

Mr. Adrian McGarry gave evidence that Freyne called to him and gave him a collection box.
 Mr. John O'Flynn also gave evidence of Freyne giving him the box.
 Judge Skinner fined the defendant £2 on the first charge and £1 on each of the other three charges.
 He fixed recognisances in the event of an appeal.

LOCAL YOUTH GETS P.O.A.
 "How could one so small go so far" remarked Justice I. B. Skinner, at Dungarvan District Court on Wednesday when an 11 1/2 year old boy was charged with a number of larceny charges.
 Included in the list of offences was the larceny of £89.13 from Messrs. Cowards Iron-foundry.
 Supt. McC. Costello said another boy who was involved in the robbery of Cowards has already been sent away to Colmest Industrial School at Lismore District Court. £73.13 of the money from the Iron Foundry had been recovered.
 Mr. A. R. Farrell, Solr., defending, said the boy was one of a family of 15, the eldest of whom was only 20. He had never been in trouble before.
 Applying the P.O.A. the Justice warned the youth that if he came before him again he would be sent away.

SEQUEL TO ACCIDENT AT ABBEYSIDE

An accident between a motor-cycle and a car near the level crossing in Abbeyside on December 2nd last had a sequel at Dungarvan Court on Wednesday when Sean Dunphy, 15 Pearse Square, Waterford, driver of the car was fined 10/- with 5/6 expenses. The P.O.A. was applied against the motor cyclist, James Cotter, Ballykerogue, Stradbally.

Garda W. Giblin said on the date of the accident he visited the scene. A man was lying on the roadside and some distance away his motor-cycle was on the ground. A car was also stopped ahead of him facing Dungarvan. The man lying on the road was one of the defendants, James Cotter and he was badly injured. He (witness) spoke to him but he was not able to reply. They then got an ambulance and he was removed.

Garda O'Callaghan said the width of the road at the point of the accident was 35 feet. The front fork of the motor-cycle was damaged.
 Garra Freney said he took a statement from Cotter. Cotter said he was 21 years of age and on the day of the accident he was driving his motor-cycle into Dungarvan. Thos. Gough, Ballykerogue, was a pillion passenger. He was driving on a straight stretch and doing about 25 miles an hour. There was a black car about 9 or 10 yards ahead of him going in the same direction. It suddenly pulled into the left side and stopped without giving any indication. He ran into it.

The pillion passenger, Thos. Gough, said the car in front of them was in the centre of the road. Just at the level crossing it pulled into the left side and stopped without giving any indication.
 Mr. A. R. Farrell, solr., defending Cotter, said there was no evidence of his client driving in a dangerous manner.
 Judge Skinner said he had suffered enough and he would give him the P.O.A.

FINED 10/-
 Giving evidence on the charges against the second defendant, Mr. Dunphy, Garda Giblin said he spoke to him after the accident and he said as he approached the gate he slowed down and was pulling up when he thought he saw in the mirror a motor-cycle behind giving wobbles out of it. The brake lights were not working in the defendant's car.
 James Cotter said the car was doing about 10 or 15 miles an hour at the level crossing. It swerved to the left and stopped without giving an indication. His motor cycle crashed into it and his leg was fractured.
 Mr. J. Gough, (Solr. for Dunphy) — I put it to you that you were travelling fast and could not pull up.
 Witness — I was not travelling fast.
 Judge Skinner convicted Dunphy for failing to give a signal and fined him 10/-. He applied the P.O.A. on a charge of careless driving.

18-Year-Old Girl on Larceny Charge
 Eighteen-year-old Ceia Flanagan, Ballymacmaigue, Dungarvan, pleaded guilty at Dungarvan District Court on Wednesday to stealing a lady's coat at Cionea on April 14th value £8. She also pleaded guilty to the larceny of a purse valued 10/-, a power pack £1 and 8/-, cash on the same occasion.
 Supt. Costello, prosecuting, said the defendant had been in England where she had not a very good record. This was her first offence here. She stole the articles during a dance in Cionea but handed over the coat to Guard Winters when he called.
 Judge Skinner adjourned the case for two months to see if she paid back the balance of £1.18.0 and how she would behave.

Ardmore for Tidy Friary Boys—Old and New—Gather on Sunday

The announcement that Ardmore has entered for the Tidy Towns Competition has aroused much interest in the area and there is no doubt but that the decision has met with general approval. At a recent public meeting held there several speakers referred to its natural beauty and general attractiveness. This alone is not enough however to win an award. Much remains to be done and it is evident that the local committee will leave nothing undone to carry out the necessary improvements. If anything is to be achieved it is essential that every citizen must co-operate fully in the laudable effort to put Ardmore on the map.
 N.B.—We are informed that the following improvements are necessary: better road surfaces, improvement of approach roads, removal of eye-sore, more flowers and shrubs, brighter buildings, cleaner streets. With full co-operation of local committee, Co. Council and citizens all these improvements can be carried out with minimum of delay.

Thirteen Guilds Met for Federation Conference

Delegates from thirteen guilds throughout the county attended the meeting held at Woodstown, of the Waterford County Federation of the Irish Countrywomen's Association. The recently-elected President, Mrs. N. Twomey, presided and the Gaultier guild were hosts and delivered an address of welcome to the visiting members.
 Mrs. F. Maher, Ballinacree Guild, was elected vice-president. Among the important items discussed, at a long and very interesting meeting, were Adult Education, which also included three Triennial Conference of the Associated Countrywomen of the World (A.C.W.W.) which will be held in Ireland in 1965. It is anticipated that some one thousand five hundred foreign delegates will attend.

The President told the members that Miss V. Bond, Home Economics Adviser, would visit the county for a two week period giving lectures and demonstrations at centres in east and west. The Adviser will also visit homes in the lecture district to give practical on-the-spot advice to those interested.
 Congratulations were extended to the Ring Guild on winning the County Shield in the Eleanora Gibbon trophy competition for one-act plays; and Tramore Guild was also congratulated on winning the Jubilee Cup in the inter-Federation competition for public speaking.

Dainty Dishes and Tasty Tit-Bits

Following on the success of the recent series held in Dungarvan and in response to many requests, Domestic Science Instructresses, Misses Gile Foley, Ring, Claire Veale, Cappoquin, and Mary O'Meara, Dungarvan, are currently planning a cookery demonstration course to be held at Cappoquin and Tramore.
 Housewives will be shown the techniques for planning, preparing, cooking and serving of attractive four-course luncheons, with two-way recipes which are adaptable for tasty teas, and printed copies of the special recipes will be distributed to all those attending the demonstrations, next week at Tramore on the following week in Cappoquin.

A Matter for Local Health Authority

For the past few months, we notice a section of the side of the road on the east of Fr. Twomey's Well, being turned into a common dump. With the advent of the warm weather it is a matter that needs immediate attention from the local Health Authority. This irresponsible dumping of refuse show a great lack of civic spirit on the part of those concerned.

DEPUTY KYNE CONDEMNS THE BUDGET

Speaking in the Dail on the Budget on Tuesday, April 30th, Deputy Kyne said that the Budget was a clever one in so far as it's two main sources of raising money were so vague as to the way and who should foot the bill, were not clearly indicated.

The Corporation Profit Tax increase was vague and uncertain as to its respective date of commencement while the Turn Over Tax was so confusing that experienced journalists dealing with it in the following day's papers made the error of stating that such items as cigs, beer, petrol, spirits, etc., would not be increased. As they now freely admitted, not only will these traditional items of taxation be increased, but almost every item that goes to make up the cost of living index will go up, including such essentials as bread, butter, tea, sugar, and all articles of clothing.

However, the people are now becoming wiser and the sugar coating of the Social Welfare increases have begun to melt away and the unpalatable cake of increased cost of living has been left for the ordinary man and his family to chew upon, and digest. The delay in introducing the taxes until November was not because the Government could not have the time to establish the necessary machinery to collect the tax, but because there was a by-election in a Dublin constituency and they hoped to have this over before the public would discover how false was the Government spokesmen's statements that the shopkeepers would carry the increase.

It would be only when the taxes came into effect that the public could judge how much the Budget affected the cost of living and how little the increase in the Children's Allowance compensated them for the three and a half million pounds the Government were going to take out of their pockets each year extra by way of the two and a half per cent increase in goods and services. The Labour Party welcome any increase in Social Welfare benefits not only for the fact that they will in some way mitigate against the increases, but once established they will never be taken back by any other Government. It means but one other step to achieving the Labour policy of giving to the Social Welfare group benefits that would permit them to live in ordinary comfort instead of being forced to exist as they have to at present on inadequate scales of benefit.

The Government have challenged the opposition to state when they would tax give the increases in the Social Welfare that they claim should be paid. The fixing of benefits and taxes is the Government's task but the Labour Party make no secret of it they would support a tax on any luxury articles such as cigarettes, spirits and other commodities which, although desirable from the point of giving pleasure are not essential to the upkeep of the man and his family. A tax on such would yield enough to give the increases demanded without effecting the cost of living.

Before so doing, the Labour Party would have to be assured all the money raised by these taxes would go to the Social Welfare group.

The Turn Over Tax is completely against Labour Party policy of providing cheap food for the worker and his family. They have made it clear to successive Governments that they would demand this as the cost of getting Labour support. They believe that essentials such as bread, butter, tea and sugar as well as other essentials for the ordinary family should be subsidised if necessary. Under this Budget all those must be increased in price unless the shopkeepers pay the tax themselves.

If there is any section of the public who will be mulct under this Budget outside of the ordinary man it is the small shopkeeper in rural Ireland. In big cities such as Dublin and Cork these shopkeepers are organised and can fix a scale of increases to be passed on to the public. In rural areas such is not the case. One shopkeeper may charge on one thing and his neighbor on another. The result will be a different price everywhere. Not only will the shopkeeper have to keep books at his own expense and pay tax on the turn over as shown on the books, whether or not he has been paid for his goods sold, but he will have these very books used against him to get from him increased income tax again each year.

The organised workers will be able through their Unions to seek increased wages to set off against the increases to come but those on fixed incomes such as pensioners and those living on annuities or incomes from investments will feel the full impact. But workers employed in any job to which the Government have a right to sanction increases such as the Civil Service, Local Authority employees and others like the Garda and Army will find that the pay pause foreshadowed by the White Paper issued a short time ago will be rigidly enforced. Even organised workers who will have to go to the Labour Court for a verdict will find that the views of the Government against any wage increases will have a direct bearing on the Courts recommendations.

Had the Government thought of the effect of the new tax on local rates? Due to the increased cost of all the materials used by County Councils, Health Authorities in the running of hospitals, etc., it must be clear that this year's estimates will have to be the subject of a supplementary estimate to carry on from November next or if not the authorities must incur overdraft which will give an increase in next year's rate demand.

The Minister for Finance should ask his colleagues the Ministers for Health and Social Welfare to issue instructions to Local Authorities that the small increases granted under the Budget would not be taken away by reductions in Home Assistance and Blind Allowances as had happened in the past. Any new increases to be given to the Contributory Groups would have to be met by increased contributions from the workers and employers and will cost only a relatively small amount to the Government.

On the question of unemployment, Deputy Kyne went on to say that the overall result of Government policy from 1958 to 1962 was a net decrease of 14,000 workers employed here. Even in the very latest return, the unemployed figures showed an increase over last year and the previous year of about 4,000 and 5,000 respectively. Add to this an admitted emigration figure of 20,000 per year over that period and we can see what the position would be if emigration was not there to solve our unemployment problem.

This had been called the Turn Over Budget. Well, said Deputy Kyne, I hope that will prove to be true. I hope it will mean that the workers will at least be assured that it is time they turned over from voting Fianna Fail to now voting for their own people, the Labour Party.

"OUTSIDERS"

Bryan MacManon has written many fine plays, articles, stories and pamphlets and has made a positive contribution to English Literature. Now this great man has written a new pamphlet entitled "Outsiders and the Irish Language." This has cut the legs under many false arguments against the Language.

In the weeks ahead I hope to publish some of this pamphlet but in the meantime you can buy it for 6d. at most newsagents in Dungarvan.

This is one excerpt which I cannot help writing here: "Recently, young Europeans have rioted in the streets, not for guns or butter, but simply because, rightly or wrongly, they considered that the privileges of their native language had been infringed."

"Here in Ireland our young people are not asked to throw up barricades in defence of Gaelic: All they are asked to do is to cherish it as the ancestral tongue of our people and to speak even a little of it in every conversation."

"The shopkeeper who says 'Go raibín maith agat!' to a customer is doing something worthwhile for the national ideal."

LARCENY CASE AGAINST YOUTH ADJOURNED

Charges of breaking and entering the dwelling house of James Kieley, Knockateemore, and stealing a jacket, and also being in possession of other articles reasonably known to be stolen, were adjourned for six weeks against a 16-year-old youth, of no fixed abode, at Dungarvan District Court on Wednesday.

Serjt. J. Browne said when arrested the defendant at first denied stealing the jacket but later admitted it. In March he broke into a premises in Dungarvan, and took suits of clothes. He was involved with another boy who was sentenced at Tipperary Court. The present defendant, however, was given a chance.

Supt. Costello - He got a chance the last time and did not avail of it. He is a menace. Serjt. Browne said the defendant travelled around Waterford County and East Cork. Judge Skinner said he would adjourn the case for six months to see how he behaved.

DROMANA FINED A FIVER

Patrick Buckley, Droimna, Waterstown, was fined £5 for £1 expenses for having no driving licence or certificate of insurance at Kilsheel, Cappagh, on 28th January. Judge Skinner at Wednesday's Dungarvan District Court. Patrick Harrington, Kilsheel, Cappagh, was given the P.O.A. for driving an unlicensed car on April 11. It was stated that he had since taxed the car.

SALMON FISHING STORM DAMAGED WALL

During the close of last week and the opening days of this week catches of salmon by nets and weirs have been very poor indeed. While many of the boats had no salmon especially on the 15th, the best in Youghal was accounted for only a few fish last week. The salmon now in its 14th week has so far been the best for many years and some of the boats having passed the 200 mark which is indeed an achievement. The price paid last year was 7s per lb.

RETREAT FOR WOMEN.

A retreat conducted by two Vincentian Fathers will open for the women of the parish of Youghal on Sunday next at the Parish Church commencing at 7 o'clock. Morning Mass will be at 9 o'clock and evening devotions at 7.30. The Retreat for the women of the parish will be open on Sunday week, May 19th.

CONFIRMATION AND FIRST HOLY COMMUNION.

At Youghal Parish church on Monday May 20th His Lordship Most Rev. D. Ahern, Bishop of Cloyne will confirm 280 school boys and girls. On the following Saturday 180 children will receive their First Holy Communion at the Parish Church.

EAST CORK FOOD PROCESSING PLANT

It is learned that the people of East Cork have contributed the £30,000 which is required for the erection of a food processing plant in the district. So far there is no information where the factory is to be built and this decision is completely in the hands of the Sugar Company's Engineers. The area selected must be in a position to guarantee one million gallons of water per day to the plant.

STORM DAMAGED WALL

At a recent meeting of the Cork County Council the County Manager stated that the storm of March 1962 caused damage in the Green Park, Youghal, to the extent of £7,000 and that the Urban Council was doing its best to effect repairs. A proposal was before the Minister for an amenity grant and as soon as the plans are approved and sanctioned the work will proceed. A certain amount of the work is already done in order to guard against any possible erosion. In this matter a deputation from the Youghal U.D. Council appeared before the Co. Council and the Chairman gave an assurance that they would do all in their power to press the case of Youghal. It is hoped that an 80% grant will be made available for this purpose.

BOUNDARY WALL

Recently a deputation from residents on the Mall met the officers and some members of the Urban Council and signified approval of the removal of the Mall wall facing the roadway on certain conditions. The two main ones being the raising of the outer wall by at least four feet and the building up of the gap at the south side of the Life Boat Flood water passed by spring tides with Southerly or South East wind. The conditions were discussed at a recent Council meeting when it was agreed to approve of the conditions laid down by the residents of that district. The wall is to be examined by members of the U.D.C. and the Town Engineer, Mr. J. O'Regan, B.E. on Wednesday, May 15th.

STOLEN SALMON NETS.

Despite intense Garda activities in Youghal and surrounding district the three fully mounted nylon nets valued at £40 which were stolen recently from the Redbarn stand have not been located.

DISTINGUISHED YOUGHAL MAN.

Mr. Sean Devine, now resident in Dublin, has been promoted to his executive office of Department of Post and Telegraphs. He is son of Patrick and the late Mrs. Devine of Kilsheel Road, Youghal. He was educated in the local C.B.S. and entered the Civil Service in 1953 as a junior executive officer.

COUNCIL VACANCY TO BE FILLED

The seat on the Urban Council now vacant due to the resignation of Mr. Sean P. Davy, B.E. is to be filled by co-optation at next meeting. This was a decision of the Council at its last meeting.

C.B.R. VISIT MT. LEINSTER

The three directors of Dungarvan's outstanding Television company, C.B.R. - Sean Casey, Severin Baumann and Paddy Riordan recently visited the Telefilm Eireann transmitter at Mount Leinster.

They were taken on an extensive tour of the station by the engineer in charge. The complex system of the entire transmitter was explained to them in detail - something which C.B.R. hope to pass on for the benefit of their customers.

LATE MR. M.L. RYAN

ABBESIDE

By the death of Michael Ryan, Abbeside, another popular resident has been removed from our midst. Deceased was brother of the late Mrs. J. J. Morrissey, 88 O'Connell Street, and uncle of Rev. J. F. Morrissey, C.P., Messrs. Liam and M. V. (Vincent) Morrissey, well known business men, to whom much sympathy is extended in their bereavement.

The funeral will be a large and impressive one, to be held from the Holy Trinity, St. Mary's Parish Church on Monday evening and leaving Requiem Masses on Tuesday and Wednesday morning. Arrangements were made in the afternoon cemetery in the presence of a large gathering.

FARMERS INFURIATED BY BUDGET "N-gative, destructive," "ex-termination of rural popula-tion" were some of the terms used at a meeting of the National Council of N.F.A., held in Dublin last week in a dis-cussion of the Budget. County Representatives said that farmers in this country are incensed by the Govern-ment's attitude to agriculture as indicated in the Budget. Not only must the Government be accused of insincerity and lack of leadership towards this our major industry, but also of pursuing a policy the result of which will be the further de-pression of agriculture. Dr. Ryan made a major issue of the 1d. per gallon recently given to Irish milk producers but conveniently ignored the other part of the N.F.A. de-mand that there should be complete de-rating of the first £20 P.L.V. on agricultural land. It is evident that addi-tional costs to be borne by farm-ers as a result of the Budget will more than cancel out any concession on milk. There his manoeuvre was blatantly inconsistent in light of his remark that "the whole community would share in im-proved national income" and his Teaseach's recent state-ment that "in conditions now revealing the responsibility that he (the farmer) does share in a total progress restr-ict on the Government and has to be met through the Budget." This is a Budget which must inevitably speed up the de-population of the rural areas, by adding several million tons of pounds to the costs of small farmers who constitute 70% of our rural community. Council members were par-ticularly infuriated by the con-tinued use of misleading figures given as state aid to agriculture which include such things as grants to industry, grants to educational social services, etc. Members also took grave ex-ception to the fact that this so-called aid to agriculture is al-ways high-lighted while actual aid to industry is seldom if ever mentioned. The National Council in-structed the Acting Committee to prepare for vigorous and de-termined action to ensure a new deal for agriculture. BEEF RESEARCH PLANS Australia: Research into beef processing and market qualities is to be undertaken in 1963/64 in Australia where funds to be allocated for cattle and beef research will be more than £470,000 in the coming finan-cial year. Grants for research are allocated to projects in such fields as pasture and fodders, beef cattle husbandry, diseases and pests, economics of marketing and survey and extension. Studies on the costs of more intensive land development for beef cattle production and critical appraisal of the returns obtained from several current management procedures is also receiving the support of the Australian Cattle and Beef Re-search Committee. Britain: The British Milk Marketing Board is negotiating for a 20-acre site in Bristol on which a large unit will be set up for testing calves produced by Friesian, Hereford and Aberdeen-Angus A.I. bulls. This would make possible the first serious attempt at selec-tion for efficient birth rate and carcass quality on a national scale. The Boards Director pointed out last week that there could be a difference of 2 cwt. in the weights of calves from different Friesian bulls by the time they were a year old. Results on Charolais: Preliminary reports on Charolais calves indicate that calves pro-duced by Charolais bulls from Ayrshire and Friesian cows are heavier than those produced by Herefords and Aberdeen-Angus bulls. Many Charolais calves, however, have presented breed-ers with a problem. It appears that they have an hereditary aversion to artificial feeding - normally they suck. Because of this many refuse to drink from buckets and their weight gain is slow. ISLE OF MAN TO FORE The Isle of Man is to be con-gratulated on the fact that Bru-cellosis has been virtually era-dicated from its cattle and of its new measure to make sure that it does not reappear. Henceforth imported cattle will be subjected to stricter con-ditions. LATEST GOVERNMENT MOVE WILL COST FARMERS £1-MILLION From the 1st June a new levy is to be imposed on dairy farm-ers. From that date a deduc-tion of .375 pence per gallon will be made by all creameries from the monthly cheque. The dairymen's livelihood hinges upon this cheque. His ability to improve his holdings, in-crease his efficiency and raise his standard of living is large-ly dependent on it. This move so shortly after the small increase of 1d. per gallon is widely regarded as "a belt in the midriff."

The N.F.A. is alarmed at the possible consequences of this move. Last week its National Council pointed out the many cracks dealt to agriculture by the Budget. It said publicly and in no uncertain terms that present Government Policy is hypocritical where the well-being of small farmers (and they are the majority) are con-cerned. This latest move which will cost farmers almost £1-million is really the last straw. Besides reducing farmers' in-come, which is at subsistence level only, it will be taken by farmers as a slur on their ef-forts to better their lot. It will also be regarded as a further proof of the Government's lack of concern for the well-being of our rural population. Central Office has been inundated with telephone calls and letters from irate farmers calling for immediate action. The National Dairy Committee is grievously upset by this retrograde step by the Govern-ment and it has decided to call a meeting to study the full im-plications of it and to seek redress on behalf of Irish Dairy farmers. VOLUNTARY HEALTH INSURANCE The N.F.A. Group Scheme of Voluntary Health Insurance continues to arouse consider-able interest among our mem-bers. The annual renewal date of the Scheme is approaching once again and members will be receiving instructions by post regarding payment of their subscriptions. The new and more flexible unit system which was intro-duced by the Voluntary Health Insurance Board over the end of last year will come into operation for members of the N.F.A. Group Scheme as from the renewal date. Under this system it is possible for mem-bers to relate their insurance cover more closely to their in-dividual requirements. Any members wishing to have fur-ther changes in their registra-tion, such as a change in the number of insurance units or the addition of a new depend-ent, should notify the Volun-tary Health Insurance Board accordingly before the 17th May. N.F.A. members who have not joined the Voluntary Health Insurance Scheme but who are thinking of doing so, would be well advised to send in their applications now. Ap-plications received after the 17th May cannot be added to the list of Group Members for the current year, and such ap-plications will not be entitled to the special concession whereby the 12-week waiting period (during which the new member is not entitled to claim benefit) will commence on the 1st June although the subscrip-tions do not have to be paid until the 1st July. The above-mentioned dates do not affect anyone who is al-ready a member of the N.F.A. Group Scheme and they should await instructions from the Voluntary Health Insurance Board before paying their subscrip-tions. They should of course notify any changes of registration as already men-tioned. TURNOVER TAX AND THE FARMER Arising from a discussion be-tween the Department of Finan-ce and the N.F.A., the N.F.A. has been given an assurance that it is not the intention of the Government that the turn-over tax shall apply to agricul-tural machinery or to basic raw materials purchased by farmers for further production. Further discussions are to be held on the methods of imple-menting this intention.

GLORIOUS DECIES BEST IN EPIC Hurlers Capture First League Pennant

WATERFORD - - - 2-15 TIPPERARY - - - 4-7

NEVER has Croke Park witnessed anything like the unforgettable splendour and superlative hurling served up by Waterford and Tipperary in the National Hurling League (Home) final on Sunday

And from this hurling inferno emerged Waterford gloriously triumphant by 2-15 to 4-7, fittingly crowned League champions for the first time in the County's long and illustrious history. It was a truly absorbing decider, punctuated by deeds of valour and classical camán craft that held spellbound the frenzied humans so fortunate enough to have been present. Such were the fluctuating fortunes that even those without affinity to either side lost all sense of neutrality as the battle waged to its thrilling end.

Since the commencement of the golden era of the present Deise side back in 1896, many memorable hurling exhibitions have been given by them. Off hand, I can recall the All-Ireland's of '37 and '59 but without hesitation I would rate Sunday's display as the greatest they have ever served up. Their fanatical dedication to the mammoth task on hand literally obliterated the Tipperary wall of resistance in the tense closing minutes when victory was so dramatically engineered.

ERUPTED
At the sound of the final whistle the great stadium erupted as a wave of Waterford jubilation swept over the historic sward. Once again Tipperary had been forced to bend the knee; the barrier that had stood so often defied the strongest league efforts had at last been bridged, and all past failures were rightly forgotten in this their hour of glory.

Truly the honours belong where they now rest. Tipperary whose gallantry and periodical brilliance played so splendid a part in making this game the classic it undoubtedly was, will I am sure, be first to concede that the better team won. At crucial periods they held a lead that looked good enough to carry the day and it was far from a disgrace to eventually succumb before a side that hurred with as devastating a fury as Waterford did. However, they can consider themselves a trifle fortunate to have suffered only a two points defeat as the scoreboard hardly gives an equitable indication of the over-all trend of the game.

PANIC SIGNALS
From an early stage Premier County mentors began to flout the panic signals. Positional switches were made with rapidity and frequency, that was baffling and throughout the second half one found it physically impossible to accurately trace what lineout the champions had resorted to. Never can I recall a Tipp side undergoing such a reshuffling during any one game but it was doubtless a necessary for agitated mentors.

On the evidence of this display, a third All-Ireland title seems well within the Deise men's capabilities. They are a better equipped side than 1959—a man that John Doyle and even at this premature stage they must be installed favourites for the major competition. On Sunday they wisely opted to play Tipp. at their own game. They pulled first time on every ball, contested the exchanges as though their very lives depended on it and sorely harassed the Tipp men, whenever they gained possession, showing scant respect for their own personal safety.

PREVALENT
From the moment referee Jerry Fitzgerald set the game in motion the electric-charged atmosphere was prevalent. Tipperary, aided by a strong breeze were immediately storming the Waterford posts and when they jumped into a five point lead within four minutes thoughts turned to yet another unaccountable Deise collapse. Countless were the thrills and goalmouth incidents that last before 27,468 enthralled spectators. No words of mine, no adjectives, however praiseworthy, that one could conjure even from the most dogmatic dictionary, could possibly pay tribute to a final that will go down on record as the greatest ever.

was, I believe, the most complete display I have ever seen from a Waterford team in any grade. It will be recalled when many of their championship victories are blurred in memory—the day when the Tipperary "myth" was shattered into fragments. But while the groom of defeat still shrouds the Premier County, consolation lies in the knowledge that they also contributed regally to this spine-tling final. True the passing years now weigh heavily on the shoulders of some of their most noted stars but they still retain the nucleus of a good team. They also had their chances of success. Yet while coming so close to victory it would have been a gross miscarriage of justice had they deprived the Deices of the laurels.

TIPP'S EARLY LEAD
The game was scarcely a minute old when Jimmy Doyle opened Tipp's account with a point from a free. Two minutes later Devanney added a second and with a further minute Percy Flynn saved a Doyle "special" but the rushing McLoughlin finished it to the net. Grimes made Waterford's opening score when he pointed a fifth minute free, and seconds later Tom Cheasty left a trail of defenders foundering in his wake to add number two. In the 12th minute Grimes again, pointed a free and almost immediately it took a wonderful save by Roger Mounsey to prevent Cheasty goaling.

GOAL FROM 85 YARDS FREE
Then on the quarter hour Mick Burns had the first of his long range scores—a point from a seventy, Waterford replied with a Frankie Walsh minor after Cheasty had completed the spadework and only two points separated the sides. Again Burns came to Tipperary's aid and his fabulous 85-yard free, went all the way to the Waterford net. Tom Ryan and McLoughlin added points, but indications by their defenders in the 26 and 28th minutes gave Grimes his opportunity to display his unerring accuracy from the place ball. Seconds before the break Devanney roving far outfield scored a spectacular point, leaving his 24 to 0-6 in their favour at the short whistle.

HEROES ALL
Now to the men whose efforts were rewardingly crowned in this hurling epic. While true it is that some Deise stalwarts left a more indelible imprint on the game than others, each and every blue and white clad gladiator pulled his weight in a memorable team triumph.

TONIC GOAL
Seconds after the restart, Waterford received the vital

THE VICTORY IN VERSE

The fifth day of May being the date of the year, Waterford and Tipperary in Croke Park did appear; It was the League final, both teams were all set, The ball was thrown in, the crowd started to fret.

Tipperary were eager to win we could see. When the citeng Jimmy Doyle had a point from a free; The lads didn't panic when Tipp led 1-2. With the scoreboard still blank for the White and the Blue, When the boys started moving what a treat was in store. They pegged back arrears to the minimum score; Then blonde Mickey Burns "Oh God bless his soul," Nearly ruined our game with a long distance goal.

Tipperary now hurried as real champions do. A goal of a lead which at half-time was two; Would Waterford panic and fall to their foes, "Lead them and win" as the old slogan goes.

The second-half opened at terrific pace, Barrow and Maher to the ball did they race. A flick of the wrist from Barrow to Grimes, The Suirside was ringing in go(a)lden chimes. All slogans forgotten these Blues were gone wild, Score followed score, yet Tipperary soldiered.

The men from the Deise with victory in sight, Were nearly caught rapping when Tipp started the fight. Jimmy Doyle was the scorer, a magnificent shot, Another by McLoughlin, had Waterford their lot? Not likely says Power as he sent over the bar, With another from Grimes who was surely our star.

Our hearts they were beating as only Gaelic hearts do, We were two points ahead when the long whistle blew; I thank all our heroes for making this day, For the people at home and the exiles away.

Gaelic Jottings
● CAPPOQUIN CRUSHED IN SARGENT CUP
For the second time in little over a week Abbeyside furnished definite proof that they will be quite a force in the championship when the crushed Cappoquin 7-9 to 1-1 in the Sargent Cup at Dungarvan on Tuesday night.

Not for some time has a village side played with such assurance and confidence, Cappoquin, it is true, offered but token resistance, yet one cannot use that to detract from Abbeyside's polished display.

● DUNGARVAN FOOTBALLERS ON THE MARCH
To all senior football champions of Tipperary I say, beware—Dungarvan are on the move and are really going to take stopping.

This year the Blues are getting down to business in earnest and training sessions and challenge games are being arranged. On Thursday night of last week they travelled to Kill to play the county champions, and after a very enjoyable game were only beaten 3-1 to 1-5.

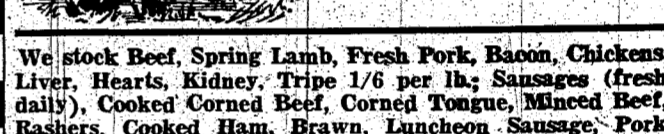

Dungarvan were short six of their best players including Tom Cunningham while Kill were missing only Michael Kirwan of their regulars. Throughout, the game was very evenly contested, and it was lack of fitness that told against Dungarvan in the end. Kill were best served by Ger. Monev, Martin Kennedy, M. Flynn, Noel Power and Paddy Duggan. For Dungarvan Eamonn McCarthy, John Woods, Jimmy Walsh, Martin Farrell (a real find) and John Moylean were outstanding.
