TECH. PLANS SUBMITTED

As ink CEO, Mr. J. Maher, has submitted his plans for the development of the Dungarvan Technical Institute. The plans, which are being submitted to the Department of Education, provide for the construction of a new building on the site of the old school. The building will be a two-story structure and will contain a lecture hall, a library, a laboratory, and a workshop. The estimated cost of the building is £100,000. Mr. Maher said that he had received a number of suggestions from the public and that he had taken these into account in his plans. He said that he was confident that the plans would be approved and that the building would be completed within a few years.

CHAMPION BALLAD SINGER

NIACLÁS TOIBÍN, An Rinn, who has won the All-Ireland Ballad singing competition at the Oireachtas for the past two years.

WILL ATTEND RURAL SCIENCE CONFERENCE

At last Tuesday's meeting of the Vocational Education Committee it was unanimously decided to send Mr. T. Maher, C.E.O., and Mr. D. Whelan to the Conference of Rural Science teachers in Dublin on May 30th and 31st.

Mr. Maher said the conference was for the purpose of discussing the various aspects of rural science. He would be able to arrange it so that their classes would not be affected during the two days.

Mr. F. X. O'Leary proposed that Mr. J. Fahey succeed to the chairmanship of the conference.

INSTRUCTRESS APPOINTED
On the proposal of Mr. John Fahey, seconded by Mr. Claire Griffin, Miss M. Hackett, Newmarket, was appointed as instructress in Domestic Economy at the meeting of the Vocational Education Committee. There were two appointments for the year. An increment of £19 was also approved for Miss Hackett. Mr. Fahey proposed that she be granted

WELSH PRIEST RETURNS THANKS

Dear Sir,
The readers of your paper are more than generous. Since my appeal for help was published they, and many others all over Ireland, have increased my appeal fund by over £1,000. Many people have written from the U.S. enclosing gifts.
Whenever a donor gives his name and address I send an acknowledgment. But there are many anonymous donors whom I cannot reach except through your columns. Will you please through this letter, let them know that I am mindful of their kindness? All benefactors are remembered in the prayers of my parish and in a special weekly Mass.

If any person has sent a gift and given his name but has not received an acknowledgment, will he please let me know? I have already come across one case of a letter going astray in the post.

We now have £2,675 towards our Church, including what has been saved over many years. But we need £20,000. I know that God will provide the other £17,325 in His own time, but meanwhile we must be able to wait until all the money is in before making a start on the building. Our diocese is already so heavily committed in its building programme that our Bishop has found it inadvisable to allow further loans to be raised.

It must be hard in Catholic Ireland for people to realize that a parish such as mine lies so near to their shores. It stretches thirty miles along the beautiful coastline of Cardigan-shire and Pembrokeshire, and extends inland an average of seven miles. In all that district I am the only priest. There was no permanent parish here until 1930, when a priest came to serve as chaplain to a newly founded Carmelite convent and care for the dozen or so Catholics in the district. The Church was once a shed. We have no Catholic school. Most days of the week I travel about the parish collecting children for catechism in the parish van, giving them their instruction in various centres—the Church, a farmhouse, a council house, and even in the van itself—and then drive them home.

The same van covers 65 miles every Sunday bringing parishioners to Mass. Where once there were only a dozen Catholics, we now have 180 coming to Mass. Very many of these are Irish, a good deal of whom work hard on the land. I am glad to say that they work hard to support their parish, but it is as much as they can do to make ends meet, as we have many expenses not usually encountered in Irish parishes, e.g. parish transport costs over £6 a week. And of the 180 who come to Mass, many are infants or children.

It would be impossible for them to raise £20,000 in addition to meeting the running expenses of the parish. That is why I have asked for the help of your readers. And that is why I am so touched by their generous response.

Until 1538, Cardigan was a place of pilgrimage. In that year the ancient shrine of Our Lady of the Taper was destroyed—one of the casualties of the Reformation. In the centuries following the Faith disappeared completely from the area. But in 1956 the shrine was restored once more, on a glorious day when thousands of Catholics thronged the town. Since then, pilgrims have begun to return. And since then, the parish has made untold progress. It is our hope that this progress will be crowned by the building of a beautiful new shrine Church, dedicated in honour of Our Lady of the Taper. And to all those who are helping to bring that day nearer, my parish, big in area though yet small in numbers, pledges its grateful remembrance.

Yours sincerely,
(Rev.) SEAMUS CUNNANE

Secrecy Criticised

WHY all the secrecy asked Mr. Norman Walsh, when Mr. T. F. Maher, C.E.O., said at Tuesday's Vocational Education meeting in Dungarvan that the Department had given him instructions to tell the members that all information given them regarding the travelling expenses of teachers was to be treated privately and confidentially.

Mr. Maher said there was a moral obligation on the members to keep that information confidential.
Mr. Norman Walsh said they were dealing with public money and why all the secrecy. He would make it clear that he would not keep it confidential if he did not want to.

Mr. Maher—That's your conscience.
Mr. J. Fahey said if the members wanted any information they were entitled to it.

Mr. Maher said it was not his decision. He was only passing on the Department's instructions.
Mr. Walsh—Give me one logical reason why the matter should be treated confidentially.
Mr. Maher—The instructions are that they be treated confidentially.
Mr. Walsh—Why then are the Press here to-day (the "Observer" was the only Waterford paper represented). This shielding is a absolutely ridiculous. If I want to pass this information on to a County Council colleague I will do so.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Sir,
"Pensman" in his belated reply in Dungarvan Leader of last week to my challenge as published on 20th April last, has again carefully avoided the point at issue. Instead he resorts to cheap cracks at "politicians" and "not liking anything red." These are the usual tricks of one who has no answer to an argument and who resorts to personalities in an endeavour to cover up his discomfort.
But let us not get away from the original challenge which was "Pensman" to indicate the specific cuts that could be made in the Estimate as put forward by the Co. Manager by showing the cuts to be made in each individual service as listed in the estimates. The total cuts to show a reduction of 18.8d. in the £. That was the challenge he continues to avoid answering beyond some vague generalities about the Town Hall should be able to pay for itself.

Last week's issue has a strange statement that he would not expect undone in one night all that had been passed over the last year. If so what was the point in stating that the members should be able to cut the rates estimated by an amount that would make them lower by 15 than the 1962-63 rate which would mean a cut of 18.8d. on this year's estimate.

I must apologise to the readers for breaking my promise not to continue this correspondence but "Pensman" has forced my hand. Thanking you in anticipation of publication,

T. A. KYNE, T.D.,
Chairman U.D.C.

DEPARTMENT REJECTS URBAN COUNCIL'S HOUSING PLANS

THE rejection by the Department of plans for future housing schemes in Dungarvan met with unanimous disapproval at last Friday's specially convened meeting of the local Urban Council.

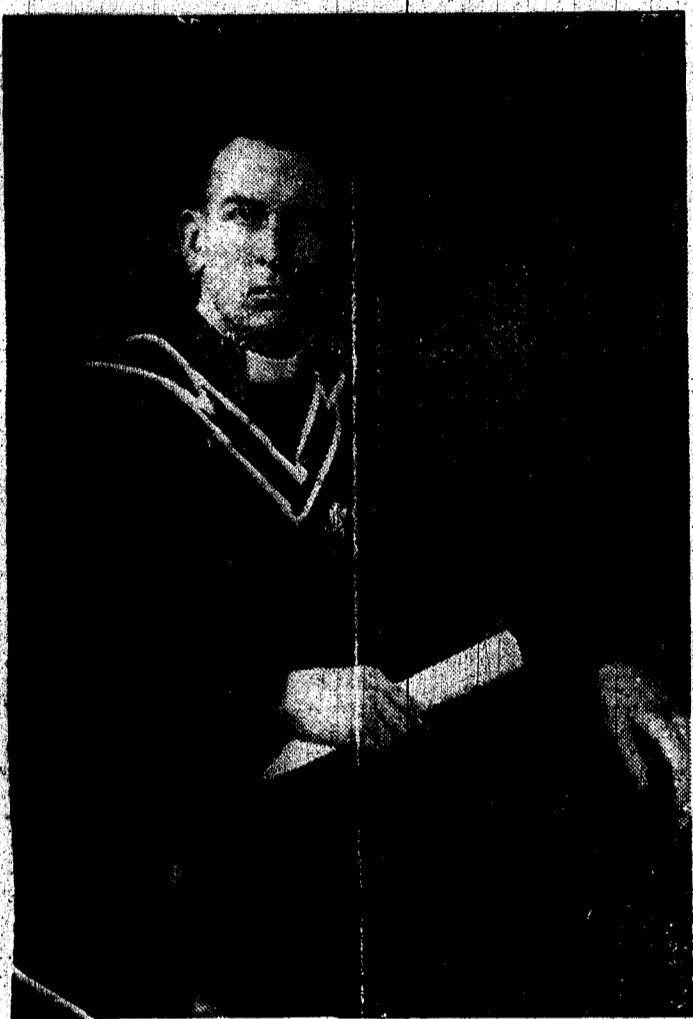

Acting Town Clerk (Mr. B. White) told the members that he had received a letter from the Department saying that the site at Boreenatra for the proposed six small type houses was inadequate. Also they felt that the site at Clooney Tee, should in their opinion be held for an open space. These Departmental instructions were "shot down" by all members present.

One Councillor said if the six houses proposed for Boreenatra had to be shifted they would lose a lot of their value as they would be so centrally situated in Boreenatra. Also the site at Clooney Terrace would be ideal to link up with Caseville and Michel Tee.

It was also pointed out that they were more familiar with conditions than the Department. Finally it was decided to send a deputation to put the Council's views before the Department. The deputation will be comprised of the Chairman, Deputy T. A. Kyne, Mr. P. Walsh B.E., Mr. B. White (Town Clerk) and Mr. B. Johnston (architect).

We take this opportunity of writing to express appreciation of the excellent support you are giving to our trademark in Dungarvan.

It is quite evident from the number of PAM sets you have sold that apart from the fact that your customers obviously find our products satisfactory, your own sales and after-sales service must be of the highest order.

May we conclude by thanking you for your continued support.

LOCAL LADY HITS MACRA HEADLINES We take the following cutting from a recent issue of a Donegal contemporary: A young girl who is really going places in the Macra na Feirme organisation is Miss Freda Donnelly, 13 Chord Rd., Drogheda, who was elected Vice-Chairman of the Executive Committee of that body when they held their annual general meeting in Dublin last week. A native of Dungarvan, Co. Waterford, Freda, who is poultry adviser to the firm of Messrs. Dougherty, of Anagassan, has been in Co. Louth for about two years now. A farmer's daughter, she was educated at the Convent of Mercy, Dungarvan, St. Martin's College, Navan, and at the Munster Institute, Cork. She is an enthusiastic Macra na Feirme member with which association she has been associated since it was founded. She acted in the capacity of secretary to the Termonfeckin branch of Macra na Feirme Executive. A member of the National Council since November, 1961, she was re-elected in the following year and was an executive member last year. Last year also she represented Macra na Feirme at the World Assembly of Youth in the Netherlands and on May 24th she will act as official judge at the International Poultry Competition at Balmoral Show. By the way Miss Donnelly is a member of the well-known Gwynn family—the daughter of Gwynn, being daughter of Mrs. B. Donnelly and the late Terence Donnelly of honoured memory.

LOCAL BOYS BEATEN TWICE IN RICE CUP

Dungarvan C.B.S. played two matches in the Rice Cup last week and on both occasions defeat was their portion. At first sight this might seem to be a sad blight on their hopes of retaining the trophy, but behind the dark clouds of disappointment their is nonetheless a liberal sprinkling of hope's silver lining.

The lads travelled to Carrick on Saturday last and played a game which they are trying to forget ever since. Playing with the wind in the first half they were slow to settle down and went about their work in half-hearted fashion. A five point lead at the interval wasn't nearly enough under the circumstances and when the local lads turned on the heat after the change of ends, they bored holes in the Dungarvan defence and ran out easy winners on the score Carrick, 6-2; Dungarvan, 2-3.

The match against Mount Son was entirely different. Played in Waish Park on Tuesday last, this was one of the more thrilling games ever seen in the competition. One prominent Mount Son (senior) hurler spoke for all when he said it had all the fervour of a Munster final. Giving away inches and pounds in almost every sector of the field, the Dungarvan boys hurled their hearts out and took a terrific amount of punishment in their stride. It was Son who made all the early running, but six heroic defenders held them at bay and the score at half-time was: Mt. Son, 0-1; Dungarvan, 2-0.

The home team piled on the pressure all through the second half and after five minutes had cut the margin to two points. Dungarvan scored a goal but Mt. Son had two more. Then Francis Woods came back to equalise. For fully fifteen minutes there was deadlock with both sides striving for the winning score. With half a minute to go, Son got it when a draw seemed certain. (Mt. Son, 4-1; Dungarvan, 3-1).

This was a very heartening display from the Dungarvan lads. Every man was a hero from Anselm Hayes in goal to Jim Nagle in the left corner-forward position. Every man in defence was a pillar of strength with Connie Murphy, Tommy Wall and Dec Butler outstanding. Diarmuid Flynn at midfield gave it all he had, while Michael Sheridan and Tommy Fitzgerald were very prominent in attack. On this form Dungarvan are going places, and the champions crown, which had begun to wobble dangerously, has now been steadied with a very firm hand.

Incidentally, a very warm word of thanks is due to those people (two of them ladies) who placed their cars at the disposal of the boys on Saturday last. It was a gesture very much appreciated by those who benefited; who knows, the encouragement it afforded may help in a big way to retain the Rice Cup!

HOW MANY WILL YOU HAVE TO CARRY TODAY?

On that confetti-strewn morning when you said you'd "love, honour and obey", we know you didn't include carrying heavy buckets of water every day. In this season of slim and feminine spring styles, it's not fair for a wife to be still in the unfashionable bucket parade when electricity will carry the equivalent of 400 of these buckets of water to your house for the price of that last cigarette he smoked. In the spring of 1963, no house should be without water on tap. The bucket is fast disappearing off the Irish road and good riddance to this time-consuming, back-breaking symbol of the past. Ask your E.S.B. representative for details of the E.S.B.'s Pump Advisory Service and avail of the Government and local Authority Grants to bring water to your home.

AND HERE IS THE SPECIALLY DESIGNED WATER HEATER FOR THE FARM KITCHEN...

A wonderful 10 gallon water heater that is easily installed under your draining board, and gives you all the hot water you need, automatically. Electric water heating costs less than a 1d. a gallon and that's very reasonable. Cash price £15 or convenient H.P. terms.

CO. COUNCIL MEETING ADJOURNED

As a mark of respect to the late Mr. Edmond Morrissey, brother of Col. Michael Morrissey, Tramore, the monthly meeting fixed for Dungarvan on Monday last was adjourned. Col. C. Curran (Chairman) who proposed the adjournment (which was seconded by Col. D. Madden) said it was customary to adjourn their meeting when Council members or their family were bereaved. He expressed sympathy with Col. Morrissey. Deputy T. A. Kyne said he wished to be associated with the expression of sympathy. He only heard of Mr. Morrissey's death that day. He agreed that they adjourn.

Col. R. Walsh, who also associated himself with the expression of sympathy to Col. Morrissey, proposed another vote of sympathy with Mr. Michael Barron, a former member of the Council, on behalf of his wife Col. M. Walsh.

The Chairman's words were as follows: "The expressions of sympathy were most touching."

Mr. S. J. Moynihan (County Manager) on behalf of the Council, expressed his sympathy with the bereaved family. The monthly meeting will be held on Monday (Friday) at 8 p.m.

ALL-IRELAND FINAL AT DUNGARVAN

Not since the death of Dick-Nickety, an Ireland final, has it been so long since the Fraher Field Dungarvan staged a national hurling final on Thursday next (Association) here, the county will revive memories of those by one occasion when they met in the Ardara, T. Chas. O'Brien's hurling club. The county of this hurling club is a goodly one, and it is a pleasure to have it here every year. The hurling is up to Harry Clap and under this that should be a classic between these famed counties.

Kilkenny will be appearing in their second defence of the title. Last year they beat the county 1-10 to 0-10. The county will be hoping to get a better result. They will have the services of several of the best players in the county, and they will be hoping to get a better result. In the semi-final they overcame a strong Galway challenge and qualified impressively for Thursday's final.

Cork also are in the final. In the semi-final they overcame a strong Galway challenge and qualified impressively for Thursday's final. Cork also are in the final. In the semi-final they overcame a strong Galway challenge and qualified impressively for Thursday's final.

Minor Hurlers for Munster Semi-final Waterford 9-6; Kerry 0-4

While the feebleness of the opposition provided by Kerry leaves one in a quandry as to Waterford's true potential, all present at Lismore, on Sunday last must have been well satisfied with the Deise boys' display in the first round of the minor hurling championship. At all times they showed a keenness and a determination to win, and their hurling was of a high standard. It was well to see that they were able to score a goal in the first half, and that they were able to score a goal in the first half, and that they were able to score a goal in the first half.

THE NEW MOON

People of Dungarvan and surrounding areas who enjoyed last year's production of 'The Merry Widow' will welcome this year's show 'The New Moon' by Seamus and Paul...

There is a chorus of over 70 voices and he is expected to be a success. Mr. Stanley Bowyer.

All the ladies costumes—150 in all—are being made by the Ladies Committee of the Society. Booking opened on 13th May, but music lovers in Dungarvan are making sure of not missing the show—by having already booked up places to see during the week of the show.

Music lovers from the show 'Waving Good-bye' came back to see 'The Merry Widow' as the 'Hearted Men'.

NEW FISH AND CHIP SHOP OPENED

As the proprietor is better known to his countless friends everywhere, has a similar business in Cappoquin, and he is a great sign of his flourishing business to see him sitting in Lismore. Fish and chips and sausages will be available for all at hours to suit everyone.

HEAVY DEBATE FOR RICE CUP TEAM

Lismore CBS Rice Cup team (under 14) made a very disastrous start to this year's competition when they were heavily defeated by Mount St. Vincent on Thursday of last week. They will have to show a big improvement if they have any hope of annexing the trophy.

LISMORE CASTLE AND GARDENS OPEN

By kind permission of the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire (at present spending their annual holidays in Lismore Castle), the beautiful and historic Lismore Castle and Gardens will be open to the general public on Monday (Saturday) May 18th from 2.30 to 6 p.m., and with weather permitting, a record crowd expected. Proceeds on this occasion will go to the families of Cook district's soldiers and sailors and a number of numerous side shows will be held to amuse both young and old. The tea will also be served on the grounds.

LEGION OF MARY ANNUAL OUTING

The junior members of Lismore Legion of Mary had their annual outing on last Sunday week when they visited Dublin and witnessed the league final. The young boys enjoyed themselves immensely and the wonderful game and Daise victory added much to their outing.

HOME FROM THE CONGO

Back to Lismore last week came Private John Ryan of Town Parks, after spending his second term of six months duty with the U.N. in the Congo. Johnny, who is one of the town's most popular young men, is looking very fit and well and he is looking forward to his third spell of duty in the 'land of the Equator'.

G.A.A. GAME NOT PLAYED

A big crowd had gathered at the Gaelic Field, Lismore, on Sunday evening last to witness the first round county championship (junior) game between Ardmore and Geraldines, when it was learned of the latter team's decision not to field out. However, the referee had no option but to give the match to Geraldines. Later it was learned that Ardmore had sought a postponement and it will be interesting to see how the Western Board will deal with this matter at the next meeting.

SOCCER: LISMORE'S EASY WIN

At the Castle Farm venue, Lismore, on Sunday last, Lismore Athletic scored a very easy victory over Killeagh F.C. in the long postponed semi-final of the intercounty league. The final score was 7-3 in favour of the home team.

Lismore captain Trevor Enderson winning the toss, elected to play against the very strong breeze and indeed many in the large attendance were very surprised to see them two up after fifteen minutes, despite the strong breeze. The first of their goals was scored by Ron Keating who cleverly flicked the ball past the Killeagh keeper, who had dropped the ball in attempting to clear. Shortly after Tommy Whelan playing at outside left, made it two. Following this Killeagh attacked strongly and five minutes later, the visitors forced the ball over the line from a melee in front of the goal. But straight from the kick-off the ball went to Chris Ryan and the Lismore winger made a mistake with a great shot from twenty yards and shortly before the interval Pat Scammon put Lismore in a very safe position with another goal. However, this score was nullified just on the stroke of half-time when Killeagh broke through to again narrow the gap.

On the resumption, Lismore with the wind behind them, completely outplayed the visitors and goals by Ron Keating and Tom Whelan put issue beyond all doubt. Five minutes from the end Killeagh closed the scoring when their centre-forward broke through and left goalkeeper Enderesen helpless with a bullet-like hot to the net.

Lismore play Fermoy on Sunday next in Fermoy in the final of this tournament, and on last Sunday's form they must be regarded as strong favourites to take home the trophies.

ROAD IMPROVEMENTS

The project undertaken by the Waterford Co. Council at Hickey's Cross, on the Cenneel, Dungarvan road is now nearing completion. The need for the removal of these dangerous bends has long been recognised and with the ever-increasing volume in traffic the new roadway will be a boon to all users.

N.F.A. YEARBOOK WELL RECEIVED

Bigger and more colourful than ever before is our 1963 Yearbook which came from the printers in time for the Spring Show. Comments so far have been very favourable indeed. As in earlier editions the centre section is devoted to committee reports, each one giving a brief account of the work done during the year. They answer the best way possible to the question: 'What is often put: what is being done at the moment? They do not tell of the routine work, the painstaking research, the planning and the day-to-day matters that had to be faced by the committee members during this period, but those with eyes to see and the ability to read between the lines the lessons are there to be learned. The third and last section is the compendium of valuable information on various subjects: notes on all forms of agricultural grasses as well as useful information on live oak milk, sows, and fertilisers. Comprehensive tables of weights and measures on imperial and metric units are included. There is also a detailed list of the personnel attached to the Department of Agriculture, Government Buildings, Dublin, and our own Central Office, National Council Members, county secretaries, organisers and committee members are also included. The Central Theme of this volume is 'Irish Agriculture since 1800'. Following a Foreword by Mr. Liam and a goodnight Message by Mr. P. Smith there are more than 150 pages devoted to this period in articles by economists, educationalists, historians and university professors—all experts in their own field. It is the first time that such a body of information has been put together. We believe our primary purpose in compiling this is to do a better service to Irish agriculture. Should its contents excite interest in our farmers should it prove informative, should it stimulate pride in those who turn the soil, and read it, want to know more, we have succeeded. Records of the earlier period are scattered and hard to come by. For that reason, well as others, the overall picture may appear cracked or unfindable in parts. If so, it is due, in no small measure to the fact that in trying to reconstruct this mosaic we have found that some pieces are still missing and every piece is a misrecognition in itself. Originally we had intended changing the central theme of this Yearbook to the hoped for, enlarged Common Market, of which we thought we would be a part. However, the new Recent European developments spoiled that. Despite this and because we are convinced that the utility of this material, in its nature, embrace us and theirs eventually, we have included in it's volume two articles dealing directly with it, another on O.E.C.D. and still another on the Freedom from Hunger Campaign by the Director General of F.A.O. Dr. N. R. Sen. The demand for our Yearbook increases every year so much so that our last edition was completely sold out within six months of publication. We have increased considerably the number of copies this year. It is likely that the demand for the 1963 edition will also be very heavy. Branch Secretaries are advised to place their orders immediately for copies. Printed at 4/- per copy they are available to members at 2/6d. (plus postage). This book is a must for all farmers and especially for all N.F.A. members. It is interesting, informative and a mine of information. The printing and binding make it a class job fit to grace the shelves of a library. LUCKY WINNERS Winners were declared last week in the N.F.A. National Lottery at which Mr. P. Smith, Minister for Agriculture, drew the first prize winning ticket and Mr. C. S. Stephaniades, Agricultural Attaché to the American Embassy, drew the remaining five. The Draw itself was an exciting event. The Farmers' Pavilion, R.D.S., Show Grounds, was packed to the doors and each winning ticket was greeted with an expression of satisfaction. Besides the Minister for Agriculture and Mr. C. S. Stephaniades many other notable people of Irish agricultural life were present. The winners were as follows: 1st prize winner: Mr. Liam Horgan, Surla, Swor Hannigan, Surla, Swor Swords Co. Dublin - 10 Days Free Holiday in Canada for Two, including air passage and visit to World Ploughing Championships at Caedra, Ontario, October 1963. 2nd prize winner: Mr. William Burke, Creganna, Oranmore, Co. Galway - David Brown 800 Tractor, 42.5 h.p., complete with live multi-speed 5.0, live hydraulics and implement depth control. 3rd prize winner: Mr. John Trench, Kiltacreevy, Clandalkin, Co. Dublin - 3 Furrow Tractor Plough. 4th prize winner: Mr. Kieran O'Hall, Broughall, Killoormac, O'Hall - Pedigree Heifer Cal. 5th prize winner: Mr. Richard A. Tobin, Glenbowser, Carrickduff, Co. Tipperary - A Cockerill. 6th prize winner: Templemore Branch, Co. Tipperary - Wolf Cub, 1-h.p. unit complete with sander, buffer, and grinding stone. DAIRY COMMITTEE PRESENTS LEVY A special meeting of the National Dairy Committee was convened last week, by direction of its Chairman, Mr. T. J. Maher, to consider implications of the recent levy of 375 pence per gallon on dairy farmers' milk. There is a tremendous amount of disquiet throughout the country as a result of this latest move to depress farmers' incomes. In some areas feeling is running very high on this matter, particularly since it followed the lamentable omission in the recent Budget, granting de-rating of the 2/10 P.L.V. on agricultural land. Irish farmers can easily appreciate the steps taken and the steps threatened by French farmers in their own interest. Many of them are calling on the Association to adopt a similar strategy in Ireland. As every second farmer complains, 'If I pay off in other countries it should pay off here, and anyway farmers just cannot develop their industry under the heavy sing number of 0.65 being laid against them.' The National Dairy Committee is more disturbed by the psychological effects of this recent rebuff to farmers than it is with the actual levy itself. The levy is bad, very bad, but its effects on farmers and the way in which it was done could easily prove disastrous to the very reaction of our primary industry. The Committee intends to submit information received by it to the National Action Committee in order that redress on a national scale might be achieved in the immediate future.

VALLEYS ADVANCE IN CHAMPIONSHIP

Once again Valley Rovers are back on the championship trail. At Dungarvan on Sunday last they brushed aside the challenge of Kilgobnet, and in doing so gave notice to all that they will not be easily halted in the west this year.

Strengthened as they are by some of the now defunct Ballymacarbery side, they showed impressively for long periods and none could deny them the right of success.

Playing with a strong first half breeze, the Valleys enjoyed a territorial advantage that was not however translated into maximum benefit. They ran up against a Kilgobnet side that stout-heartedly defied some of their best efforts and their 0-4 to 0-2 half-time lead was far from secure.

In fact one could be forgiven for entertaining visions of a shock result during that interval recess. The Valleys attack found the opposing defence in one of its most unyielding moods, while Kilgobnet's own forwards looked dangerous, even with their limited chances.

Surprisingly it was the Valleys who immediately took up the second-half running. Despite playing into the teeth of the wind, they proceeded to dictate the trend of the game and never allowed Kilgobnet to play their own brand of football.

Contrary to all expectations, the losers failed to instigate the rally that might have saved the game. Periodically they did show glimpses of their real form, but these sporadic efforts cut little ice against a side such as the Rovers. Gradually the Derrinbeg men increased their lead and were a safe six points ahead at the long whistle.

As so often in the past, the Valleys' outstanding player was Jimmy Hewitt. He looked a class above the rest and, for as seldom mastered during the hour. Others to impress for the winners were Kieran Ryan, Billy, Bobby and Eddie Hewitt, and Waterford and Munster player Mick Connolly.

WATERFORD V. TIPP AT CLONMEL

At the present time, a hurling clash between Waterford and Tipperary, be it championship or challenge, is sufficient to draw the crowds in huge numbers. And when the teams meet in Clonmel on Thursday night (Ascension Thursday, at 7.30 p.m.) the venue should be taxed to the limit.

Who can ever forget their league final meeting on May 5th, when Waterford emerged two point victors after a game that was unanimously rated the greatest to be ever staged at the Croke Park venue? Undisputedly, they are the tops playing the game today and this next chapter in a thrilling episode should be of the same quality of past meetings.

At the time of writing neither county has announced its team, but the Eire Og (Clonmel) Club, who are promoting the game have been assured that both will field their strongest possible sides. That in itself is a guarantee of hurling par excellence, in which the result may lie in the balance right up to the end of the hour.

MINOR FOOTBALLERS FACE CORK

With the minor hurlers having safely surmounted the first obstacle in the Munster championship race, it is now the turn of their football counterparts, who meet Cork at Walsh Park on Sunday next.

In latter years the Deise county has proved a match for the best in the province, and hopes are high that this year's side will prove no exception. The advantage of playing on home soil is certainly a major one, and should they start off on the right foot early on, the Leesiders could well taste defeat.

As yet the Waterford team has not been announced, but it has been assumed that the material at the disposal of the selectors is well up to standard.

Cork, who were deprived of a hat-trick of provincial championship successes by Kerry in last year's final, have their sights firmly set on regaining the title. They still have four of the '62 team, and around this quartet are building hopes for the current campaign.

Without knowledge of the Waterford lineup, forecasting the result is out of the question. Cork's side is a formidable one, and it will take nothing short of an all-out Deise effort to beat them.

KERRY DETHRONE LEAGUE CHAMPIONS

I was in Croke Park on Sunday last for the National Football League final, in which Kerry dethroned the holders Down by 0-9 to 1-5. Over 60,000 were crammed into the historic venue, and unfortunately witnessed an unsavoury game in which sportsmanship was dragged to a low ebb by players on both sides.

Fists flew with rare abandon in a degrading second-half, and the regrettable leniency of referee Peter McArdle (Louth) saved several from being admonished by marshals orders.

At one stage we were treated (or is that the word?) to a two-man "duel" between a Down defender and a Kerry forward on the ground, they rolled over and over, fists falling unceremoniously—yes, they were no more than cautioned.

Kerry let it be stated, were the worthiest of winners. They should in fact have won by a greater margin, as several of their efforts came back off the crossbar and upright in frustrating fashion.

Down, to my mind, adopted foolish tactics. They persisted in kicking the ball skywards, which only played into the hands of the high-flying Kerry men. The ruck with the guiding genius of Jim McCreehan, never functioned with individual effectiveness, and the individual efforts of teenager Brian Johns, one, were not enough to pierce a solid King'sdown rear-guard.

Compared to the hurling final the previous Sunday it was a somewhat disappointing game. But then again, if comparisons are to be made between future games and that unforgettable hurling decider many many disappointments lie ahead.

PHELAN CUP GAME POSTPONED

The Phelan Cup game between John Mitchel's and Ardmore, due to be played on Thursday night last, was postponed. No new date has been arranged for the game.

On next Thursday night (May 23rd), Dungarvan and Kilrossanty meet in the Phelan Cup. Both sides have been very impressive of late and the outcome should be close.

The Comeragh men, however, must be given a hesitant vote as Dungarvan may be without Tom Cunningham, who is expected to be playing with the county against Tipperary in Clonmel.

Juniors hold stage on Sunday ATTRACTIVE TIES AT CAPPOQUIN AND DUNGARVAN

WITH the enthusiasm created by the success of the County's hurlers now subsiding to something approaching normal proportion, the spotlight rest with the junior championships in the West on Sunday next. Dungarvan and Cappoquin are the selected venues — each housing triple attractions and more than one surprise result can be expected.

At Dungarvan, Ballymacarbury and Clashmore set the ball rolling at 2.15 in the junior football championship, followed by Fournilwater and Cappoquin in junior hurling. At 7.30 Stradbally meet newcomers St. Brigid's (Kilrossanty) in Primary football.

No less attractive is the programme scheduled for Cappoquin. Topping the list is the hurling clash between Kilgobnet and Ballyduff which precedes the Shamrocks-Kilrossanty tie, also in the hurling championship. Completing the three-game programme is the renewal of "old hurling as a game" — Talow and Lismore.

The football meeting of Clashmore and Ballymacarbury at the Fraher Field bids fair to be the game of the day. By junior standards both are amongst the top flight and many believe—and with justification—that the winners will go on to annex the Divisional crown.

In every sense it is a game of champions. Clashmore, the Primary title-holders, look in good fettle to make their mark in the higher grade and Ballymacarbury, the recently crowned Winter League winners, are certainly the operative word.

When beating Kilgobnet so convincingly, recently Ballymacarbury impressed immensely. They play very attractive football, with the emphasis on man-to-man movement. In the Hogan's, Johnny, Pakie and Thomas, Mick, Kiey, Tony Mansfield, Donal Whelan and John McGrath, they have the seawards backing a first-rate side.

Such was the impact, Clashmore left off the Primary football championship last year, that it was the aim of more than a few knowledgeable football men that they would be good enough to carry off the junior title. Now they are afforded the opportunity of going a long way towards vindicating that viewpoint.

On their day they are a delight to watch. Like their opponents of Sunday next they rely for the most part on the short passing game, exploiting to the limit their natural footballing ability. Evenly balanced that they are, one cannot help picking out the O'Rourkes, the McGath's, and Baker as their most polished performers.

It is a game to which I look forward with more than a grain of interest. It will be a battle of football skills between "two naturals", the outcome of which could go either way. Seldom has my mind been as open about any game, however, as it is the writer's belief that the best course of action is a "safety first" one. That is, why I am declining from giving a forecast.

CHAMPIONS DEFEND

Fournilwater, champions of the West for two successive years, set out in defence of their junior crown — also at Dungarvan on Sunday, when they meet last year's Primary champions Cappoquin.

Out Ballymacarbury way they are approaching this year's championship with a certain degree of trepidation. Their ranks have been badly hit by the decisions of Liam Ryan and Johnny Kiey to call it a day while the departure of star goalkeeper Liam McCarthy to England, has only added to their worries. Also gone from last year's side is left-half back Jim Ahearn, who has now declared for Colligan Rockies.

These defections are bound to have weakened the side, but to what extent remains to be seen. As always, Mick Connolly and Kieran Ryan will be looked to, to carry the brunt of their challenge, and they are likely to receive greatest assistance from Martin Berny and Tom Whishy. Tommy Heekey and Jimmy Hewitt.

What of Cappoquin? They will rely on most of the players that won the '62 Primary championship — spear-headed by such established stars as Mick and Jimmy Lacey, Roger O'Shea and Vincent O'Connor. While it is not at all beyond the bounds of possibility that the holders could relinquish their crown at the first defence, I never feel that they will master the Comeragh side. It may be close, too close in fact for Ballymacarbury comfort, but it is still a forecast of a Fournilwater victory.

ST. BRIGID'S MAKE DEBUT

St. Brigid's (Kilrossanty) make their debut against Stradbally in the Primary football championship at 7.30. Despite being newcomers, Bridgets have the tradition of a great parish behind them and they will not be beaten easily.

Candily, little is known of either side but if honest to goodness endeavour counts for anything, then it should be an enjoyable game.

AT CAPPOQUIN

Hurling completely dominates the three-game billing at Cappoquin and here pride of place surely goes to the meeting of Ballyduff and Kilgobnet.

In last year's championship, both went under to Fournilwater—Kilgobnet in the opening round, Ballyduff in the final. This year the Reds have mustered together what club members feel is their best side in years and confidence is high in their ability to go one better this year.

Star forward Mick Quigg is still "out of bounds" but even without him their attack possesses plenty of scoring power. Their defence is comprised of rugged, no nonsense individuals and revving around Kilgobnet at all have a man-sized task on hands—a task that will not be easily achieved. But outsiders though they may be, Kilgobnet are quietly confident of "going the trick". They have the added incentive of playing for their football defeat on Sunday last and outstanding championship battles they are, one can never overlook their prospects.

The decision of their great full-back line of Tom and Jim Drummy and Jim Hurley to retire is a grave blow but in goalkeeper Simon Hanley, Jim Dee, Roger McCarthy, Peter Power, Lar Tomas and Mark Cummins, they have men fit for the highest junior standard.

It is a game in which ground hurling will be the order of the day. QQQuara, re is not likely to be regarded as favourite. Kilgobnet will not be braced easily.

SHAMROCKS FANCED

Kilrossanty traditionally a football stronghold, turn to hurling on Sunday when they meet Shamrocks—one of the fancied ones in this year's championship races.

The Comeragh men are honest to goodness battlers, will strive valiantly to cause an upset, yet it is impossible to visualize them mastering the Ballyduff side so ably marshalled by Fraterick Corcoran and "Bazzo" Tobin.

TALOW OR LISMORE

The concluding game at Cappoquin (7.30) brings Talow and Lismore into opposition. In latter years both clubs have experienced a lean time of it and now by the luck of the draw one of them must make progress this year.

Emigration has deprived both of many outstanding players and little is known of their present worth. Handicapped as the writer is on that respect it is impossible to hazard a guess as to the likely outcome.

AT LISMORE

The only game arranged for Lismore is the Primary football championship, to be between St. Mary's (M. Melleray) and Geradines at 7.30. St. Mary's should be good enough to overcome the Agribro's second string.

TWO MONTHS FOR OFFENDERS

MONDAY night last was suspension night at the County Board meeting in Dungarvan. The six players who were sent off in the Colligan Rockies v. Bricky Rangers Sargent Cup game were each suspended for two months, while Mick Walsh (Brickies) is to be asked to appear before the next meeting of the Board.

The suspended players were Justin Spratt, Peter Ferncombe, Pat Curran and Jim Hartly (Brickies), Jim Cliffe and Paddy Walsh (Colligan). In his report of the game, referee Billy McGrath asked that his name be deleted until this "carry on" is cleared up by the County Board.

Melleray Make Winning Debut

Melleray Rovers ... 2-3; St. Brigid's ... 0-1.

Two teams making their debut in the Primary Football championship, clashed at Agribro on Sunday last, in the first round of the competition. Melleray Rovers emerging victorious over St. Brigid's (Kilrossanty) on the score 2-3 to 0-1.

Played on a rain-soaked surface, and with a chilling cross wind blowing, the game produced a standard of football far in excess of what was generally expected. Indeed, some of the footballers on view would do justice to a higher grade. On this display we may note the Rovers side as one to watch in the future rounds. Do not think, however, that this was a one-sided affair, far from it, for Brigid's, as befits all Kilrossanty sides, kept fighting gallantly to the final whistle.

Rovers deserved their win; they were in complete control for long periods and availed of most of their scoring chances, while the Brigid's lads seemed intent on trying to walk the ball through, a gambit not very successful against the decisive, quick tackling Melleray defence.

Coffey in the winners' goal was rarely seriously troubled while the full back line was most dependable; the half-back trio of Herbert, Stack and Gallagher was perhaps the strongest sector of the side, though the centre-field pairing was also well to the fore. In attack they had a diminutive and dynamic left half forward who got great assistance from Cremin and the O'Rourke brothers.

The losers had a strong full back line who conceded little. Quinlan was also seen to advantage, while their centre-forward did some clever things at times. The attack never moved smoothly as a unit, however, and here lay the main cause of their failure.

THE PLAY Rovers opened the scoring with a John McGrath point in the second minute and there followed a strong period of Rovers pressure, but it was not until the fourteenth minute that their midfield player unleashed a 25 yards unstoppable shot. At this stage the winners replaced O'Donnell by Mick O'Rourke. There was no further score to the interval.

Rovers appeared on the resumption with a further charge. Joe O'Rourke now taking over from McGrath and there was also numerous other positional switches. Brigid's attacked strongly, but the winners' defence repulsed their best efforts.

Con Cremin increased the winners tally with a point in the eight minute and it was not until the fifteenth minute that the losers obtained their only score, a point following a goal-mouth scramble.

The winners got a further minor two-minute later, and John O'Rourke with a goal, made the issue safe some seven minutes before referee Pat Kennelly blew the long whistle. The latter made a good job of refereeing a game which it seemed would boil over at times, due mainly to the over-enthusiasm of some of the players on both sides.

Michael Whelan was dangerous near goal. Abbeyside's outstanding performer was undoubtedly corner forward Phil Duggan. He ended up with a personal tally of 3-2 and it was fitting that he should get that last-second equaliser.

In attack were Pat Burke and Pat McGovern. Midfielders Pakie Hogan and Sean Fitzgerald were very prominent in the opening half but faded after the resumption. In defence Pad Flynn, Tommy Leahy, Tommy Doherty and Cyril Farrell were best.

Local Derby Ends "All Square"

Dungarvan 5-4, Abbeyside 4-7

ALL the fervour and rivalry that naturally exists between neighbouring parishes, was abundantly evident in the Primary Hurling Championship meeting between Abbeyside and Dungarvan at the Fraher Field on Tuesday night. At the end of a hectic hour the sides were as near to determining the outcome as they were before a ball was ever struck and a draw was a fitting result to an exciting game.

But few in the big attendance could have anticipated such an enthralling finish in the early stages.

Abbeyside, having won the toss, elected to play with a strong breeze in the opening half. Their midfielders Fitzgerald and Hogan laid on a narrative service for the forwards and as the O'Rourke defence cracked all too easily it looked odds on an Abbeyside victory.

Brilliantly led by Phil Duggan, the Village attack capitalised on the hesitancy and uncertainty of the Dungarvan defenders and an 11-point interval lead (4-3 to 1-1) looked sufficient to give them their passage to the second round.

But the transformation in the trend of the game in the second-half was as marked as it was unexpected. Undaunted by the formidability of their task, the Blues cast the very thought of defeat from their minds and each and every member of the side went about his duty with renewed vigour.

Their defence—so shaky before, now closed up the shutters; John Woods, hurling superlatively, dominated midfield and the attack finally found the measure of a resolute Village defence.

Early on the Blues defence was very jittery and gave far too much latitude to Abbeyside's opportunistic forwards. However, as with the remainder of the side they improved considerably in the second half with goalkeeper Jim Walsh particularly impressive.

Throughout that second-half the "Old Bone" attack moved menacingly. The wickets that set Eamon McCarthy to full-forward with Tommy Dalton on the 40' worked wonders with the sector, as their transfer to different territory, Mikeen Lyons struck some great balls in the half-line while diminutive
