COUNCIL PEEVED BY REPORT

A REPORT in last week's issue of "The Farmers' Journal" in connection with certain deputations which visited Dublin recently and which County Council Chairman, Mr. C. Curran, said he had been informed referred specifically to the Waterford County Council, was the centre-piece of discussion and criticism at last Friday's monthly meeting.

The "Journal's" reporter in his article headed "Was their Journey Necessary," stated: "In Dublin recently I met seven men on a mission. They were five County Councilors and two County Officials. They had got to Dublin under the broad description of 'a deputation' to ask a significant question of a Government Department. 'Being quite familiar with the background to their visit, I happen to know the matter could have been equally well cleared up by two letters. However at their meeting someone had said 'I think we ought to go up to Dublin and see about it. That would be the handiest way. The pleasing suggestion was quickly acted on and seven civic-minded men, under a cloak of anonymity, at a cost to the ratepayers of £15 per head for expenses through their journey wasn't necessary."

It will be recalled that a deputation from Waterford County Council visited Dublin recently over the proposed Brickey Drainage scheme. The Chairman (Col. Curran) said he had been told the report referred specifically to them. There were five Councilors and two officials on their deputation and besides casting reflection on them the report also cast reflection on the Minister and Parliamentary Secretary who received them. Col. John Drohan said it was a very mean statement. Besides, personal contact would have been much better than letters. Col. Milo Galgey said when they in Waterford kept up with the times and kept their roads

SNOW COST CO. COUNCIL £13,000

Excess expenditure of £5,500 for snow clearing during the crisis of a few months back was unanimously agreed to at last Friday's meeting of Waterford County Council.

In his report the County Engineer (Mr. J. D. Haily) said the total cost of the snow clearing was £13,217 10-4, but the net impact on the rates would only be £4,500. Col. H. R. Dowd—Arising out of that, had we any reply from the Department about our request for a considerable recoupment of the cost of snow clearing.

Col. Hartly said, that subject to correction, he thought Wicklow got a substantial grant for the same.

The Co. Manager said he doubted very much if that was the case.

WEDDING BELLS FINN - POWER

The wedding took place recently at St. Finbarr's South Church, Cork, of Mr. Sean Finn, son of Mrs. H. Finn, and the late Cornelius Finn, 57 O'Connell Street, Dungarvan, and Miss Nancy Power, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Power, 49 Quaker Road, Cork. The ceremony, with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing, was performed by Rev. P. Keating, C.C., St. Finbarr's South, assisted by Rev. T. Ahern, C.C., Cathedral, Waterford (cousin of the groom) and Fr. Dominic O.F.M., Cap., Rochestown, Cork. The matron of honour was Mrs. J. Power (sister-in-law of the bride) and the best man was Mr. Kevin Finn (brother of the groom). The reception was held at Victoria Hotel, Cork, and the honeymoon was spent touring the west coast. We wish Mr. and Mrs. Finn, who are very popular in their respective districts, many years of wedded bliss.

BEWARE OF THE MIGHTY MARK!

Purchase of Land by Foreigners Criticised

THE YANKS HAVE ALREADY TAKEN KILLARNEY, AND NOW THE MIGHTY MARK WILL DRIVE US OUT OF OUR OWN COUNTRY, SAID MR. MILO GALGEY, AT SATURDAY'S COMMITTEE OF AGRICULTURE MEETING, WHEN STRONGLY CONDEMNING THE CONTINUOUS PURCHASING OF IRISH LAND BY THE GERMANS.

He suggested that anyone not registered in the country as an Irishman or who was not an Irish Citizen should not be given grants. He knew of people who purchased Irish land and yet had never even seen the country. These foreigners were getting grants that they (Irish) should be given and were not. They should rest on the Government to stop all grants to non-Irish citizens. The Irish farmer of today was not in a position to fight £-s.-d., and he proposed they give the German purchasers no assistance. "Only the other day" he said, "they were bombing the stuffing out of us and we were not in the war at all."

Mr. George Heskin said he agreed with everything Mr. Galgey said. It was about time some brake was put on them. They were coming over from Germany buying farms and then getting Irish grants. Mr. James Quirke said most of the Germans were not prepared to farm in the country at all. They were only buying the land in case war broke out and they could then run over here. The Government should not subsidise them he added. Mr. Kieran O'Ryan said if was scarce. That would be a help towards solving the problem, he said.

Mr. Heskin said the Germans were buying the best of the land because the Irish farmer could not compete with them.

Mr. Hartly said it was wrong of the Government to give the same assistance to foreigners as to the Irish. The foreigner was also in the privileged position of having wealth at his back.

SPARK OFF ANOTHER WAR

Mr. Norman Walsh said that eventually the spark of another war would be Germany. The Berlin problem was not solved yet and it was for safety they were coming over here buying land. It was disheartening for Irishmen to go into open market and find that they could not compete with the foreigners. It was a very serious problem and one the Government should interest themselves in.

Mr. Quirke: I propose the Government make the extra purchase tax on foreigners 50% instead of 25%.

Mr. Galgey said in his area (Dunmore East) four farms had been purchased by non-nationals.

Mr. Quirke: The people of Ireland have fought very bitterly for the land of the country and I would not like that land to be bought now by Germans, Englishmen and other foreigners.

Finally it was decided to instruct the C.A.O. Mr. P. Conroy to send the Committee's views to the Department of Agriculture.

Mr. O'Ryan: It is about time the Irish farmer woke up too.

Mr. C. Curran asked if they had any idea as to the extent of the problem. Mr. Hartly said they should tackle the problem while it was in its infancy.

SHOULD BE A LIMIT

Mr. John Fahey (Chairman) said there should be a limit put on the amount of land any one person could buy, especially in this country where land

550 ACRES MAY BE PURCHASED FOR FORESTRY

Dail Deputies Michael J. Davern, and Sean Ormond, asked the Minister for Lands if he would acquire the estate of Michael Gough, Graigueavilla, Rathgorman, Carrick-on-Suir, Co. Tipperary, containing some 475 acres of suitable land for forestry and some 75 acres suitable for forest nurseries; and if, in view of the redundancy of some forestry workers in the area, will he take immediate steps to ensure that any redundant forestry workers in this locality will be continued in employment.

The Minister replied that the lands in question will be inspected shortly to determine whether they are suitable for forestry purposes. There is no redundancy at the State Forest in the area at present.

WHY THE DELAY?

At last Friday's meeting of Waterford County Council, Col. John Fahey asked if sanction had yet been got for the erection of rural cottages throughout the County.

Mr. E. J. Keyes, Housing Section, said the Department were requested yesterday (Thursday) to sanction the erection of 35 cottages—13 were readvertised and 3 by direct labour.

Col. J. Fahey—Isn't that an undue delay from the time the tenders were first read. The tenders were opened on April 19th. Yet they are only with the Department to-day. The people who tender for these cottages are fed-up of doing so.

Col. R. Walsh said the cottage scheme was one of urgency and he was not satisfied with the position at all.

Reply to Dep. Kyne on the Future of the Waterford County Railway Line

Deputy Kyne has received the following letter from the Minister for Transport and Power: A Chara. I am directed by Mr. Erskine Childers, T.D., Minister for Transport and Power, to refer to the Parliamentary Question which was tabled by you recently and discussed by the Ceann Comhairle regarding the future of the Fermoy-Dungarvan-Waterford branch rail line. The Minister has requested me to say that C.I.E. has as yet announced no decision as to the future of this branch rail line. You will recall that this branch line was one of 23 lines referred to by the Chairman of C.I.E. on the 27th June 1962, when he announced that a further study must be made to determine whether there would be a benefit in operating costs if road services were substituted for the rail services being provided on the branch lines in question. As you may know C.I.E. may not terminate a service unless at least two months before doing so it has published in Irish Official Gazette in the newspapers circulating in the area affected by the termination, notice of its intention to do so. — M.A.G. is meas.

E. P. O'BRIAIN, Rural Aire Office of the Minister for Transport and Power, Dublin.

Dep. Kyne on the Vote on Public Works

Speaking on the Vote for the Office of Public Works in the Dail on Tuesday, 14th May, Deputy Kyne expressed his appreciation of the courtesy of the Parliamentary Secretary, Deputy O'Malley, especially in regard to his reception, at very short notice recently, of a deputation concerning the Brickey Valley drainage scheme. Those on the deputation and myself would like to say that we are most grateful to the Parliamentary Secretary for the way he received them and listened to the points put forward by the deputation members.

I believe work is about to start on the scheme, said Deputy Kyne, but I would like to draw to the Parliamentary Secretary's attention once more to the suggestions put forward by the deputation to some extension of the scheme. I would like him to give the suggested extensions put forward by the deputation as favourable consideration as possible. We appreciate that the scheme that we are getting is excellent but the little extra sought would make it practically completely satisfactory.

Deputy Kyne went on to ask the Parliamentary Secretary if he would say in his reply to the deputation if there are any plans or proposals with his office from the Dept. of Posts and Telegraphs to erect a badly needed Post Office in Dungarvan. The present building is in a deplorable state said Deputy Kyne and I would like to know when it is expected the new building will start to be erected. In his reply Deputy O'Malley said the site for the new Post Office in Dungarvan has been selected by the Dept. and legal formalities in connection with its acquisition are in hand. Sketch plans of the new building are being prepared.

DUNGARVAN GUN CLUB

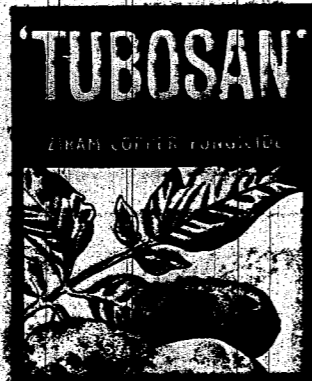

On Monday week last, 11th inst., a deputation from Co. Waterford was received in the Minister for Land's office, 24 Upper Merrion St. The four delegates were Messrs. F. Power, D. Shanahan, J. O'Donnell and P. J. Gordon. The meeting proved to be very keen and detailed. All aspects of game development, vermin control, etc., were gone into. The executives were very helpful and understanding and seemed very much impressed when we produced evidence of what we have been doing down this way during the past years. Every encouragement was given to continue the good work and for the first time we were given the green light on the all important question of finance. We can now embark on game development as it should be done and for every pound we spend we are assured of our grant on level terms with all other counties. In the man, however, it depends on local effort and it is up to all sportsmen to do their part. The Dungarvan Club has been doing its part and will continue to do so with renewed energy. On the following day, Tuesday, 12th inst., Mr. Gordon attended the annual general meeting of the National Game Council at 27 Earlsfort Terrace.

Council's Debt Balance

At Friday's County Council meeting in Dungarvan, County Accountant, Mr. F. J. O'Leary said the Council's present debt balance was £13,502-17-3. At the same time last year it was £16,889. The Chairman (Colr Curran) said those figures showed that their present financial position was not as bad as some people thought. Great credit was due to Mr. O'Leary, he said.

Roads a Credit to Engineering Staff

While members of Waterford County Council were discussing the Road Fund Grants for 1963/64 at the monthly meeting on Friday, the Chairman, Colr. C. Curran said that the roads of the County were a credit to the Engineering staff. In particular, he said, credit was due to Chief Assistant Engineer, Mr. Jerry Ormond who had been connected with the road works for so long.

£3000 Claim Against Co. Council SEQUEL TO BURNING AT GLENARD

THE case opened before Judge S. Mac D. Fawsitt at Dungarvan Circuit Court on Wednesday in which David Condon, Glenard, Old Parish, is the applicant in a criminal injury claim for £3,080 against Waterford County Council. Condon claims that on the night of January 4/5 last, a farm building, his property and its contents of hay, straw and farm equipment was maliciously burned.

After the day long hearing in which all witnesses for the applicant took the stand, Judge Fawsitt said there was a case to be met and adjourned further hearing until 2 p.m. this Thursday evening.

Mr. Clarke, S.C., who with Mr. F. Morris, B.L. (instructed by Farrell and Morrissey, Solicitors, Dungarvan) appeared for Condon, said the claim arose out of a serious burning on the night of January 4th/5th last at Hackettstown, in the Mine Head district. The 75-year-old building, had formerly been a dwelling house-um-stables and the cost of its reconstruction now was estimated at £720.

There was straw, hay and agricultural tools also on the premises when it was burned. The fire seemed to have taken place around the mid-night hour and was first observed between 12 and 1 a.m. Condon, who resided seven miles away in Hevick with his wife had been out there that Friday afternoon (January 4) at about 3 p.m. and he was gone to inspect his cattle. On his way back he called to Michael Hart's residence which was near the farm building. When he arrived home that evening he never left the house for the remainder of the night.

Mr. Clarke went on: "There is no question of Condon being there and throwing a lighted match on the building, nor is there any question of counting coupes having been there. In the loft there was hay and oatens sheafs and presumably they were the means by which the fire was set on fire. There was also a quantity of timber in the loft that was inflammable. The act must have been a malicious and very concealed one. The source of it has not been discovered to date and a person or persons could not be named. Mr. Clarke said it was not the first fire that occurred on the applicant's property. In November, 1961, there had been a burning of premises which Condon had had as his residence. They were unoccupied at the time as his mother was unwell and she stayed at her daughter's house. They could not point a finger of accusation at any person, but someone might want Condon to leave his lands or might want to get rid of him.

Mr. P. Walsh, B.E. (Town Engineer) Dungarvan, said he visited the burnt premises and carried out survey of them. It was an old building, probably built as an old coach house or servants quarters and was over seventy years old. The walls were reasonably sound. In his opinion the fire should have manifested itself within two or three hours as the hay in the loft was there for twelve months and would have been very dry. More than two-thirds of the roof was destroyed and his estimate of the cost to put it into its pre-fire condition would be £720.

Cross-examined by Mr. Lovatt-Dolan, B.L. (for the Co. Council) witness admitted that the timber in the structure had a good deal of wood worm. He could not say where the fire started in the building. Assuming that the property was set on fire at 4 p.m. on January 4th, and there was no hay or straw in it, he believed it would be burnt out in about twelve hours. Mr. Lovatt-Dolan—I must put it to you that this fire burned slowly and that it is unlikely that the building was burnt out in 2 1/2 to 3 hours. Mr. Walsh—I agree with you or that. Mr. David Condon (43) the applicant said he had been residing in Hevick for the past year and a half with his wife and children. He was married in 1958. The lands at Glenard were formerly owned by his father who died in 1942. He continued working on the lands and living in the residence with his mother until she died in 1961. During the period that she was unwell, they went to live with his sister and it was only three days previous to his mother's death that they got the news that the dwellinghouse at Glenard had been burned down. On Friday, January 4th last at 8 p.m. he went out there to see his cattle. He had to walk the seven miles from Hevick through the snow. He first called on Michael Hart's and then went on to look at his cattle. They were in the gable field adjoining the stables (farm building) but he did not go near the stables. The stables contained about one ton of hay and oatens sheafs, both being stored in the loft. They were there since 1961. There was also timber he had collected from the seashore there. The building was not on fire when he left for home about 4 p.m. He arrived back in Hevick between 6.30 and 7 p.m. and did not go out again that night.

The following day he turned again to the lands to collect turnips and see the cattle. As he approached he saw smoke in the distance but thought it was on Hart's land. He went to Hart's where he met Michael Hart's mother and Peter Cummins, Mr. Hart's son. Cummins had to him he saw smoke coming from the direction of the stables. Witness then ran to his land and saw smoke and flames coming from the roof of the stables. He ran back to Hart's and told them his building was on fire. He went to the Creamery and phoned the Brigade and the Garda. Prior to the 1959 burning, his boundary fences and those of Michael Hart's had also been burned. His intentions were to hold on to the lands at Glenard (43 acres, 30 of which were arable) and to return and live there. The residence that was burned there in 1959 was a double story, 12-roomed one, and at the fire there was nothing left of it but the four walls. He put in a claim for it but it was not paid with it.

Replying to Mr. Lovatt-Dolan, defending counsel, Mr. Condon said the stables were a considerable distance from the road and in an isolated place. However, portion of the roof could be seen for a distance of about 30 yards along the road. In 1961 he did not go to see the fire as his sister would not let him do so. Mr. Lovatt-Dolan—I was very strange of you not to go to the fire in your own house. Witness—My sister would not let me.

Judge Fawsitt told Mr. Condon that he was not obliged to answer any questions that might incriminate him.

Mr. Lovatt-Dolan—Did the Garda's visit you after the burning that night? Witness—Garda's Winters and Guard Neary.

Mr. Lovatt-Dolan—Did you tell Sergeant McLoughlin you did not go near the burning because you were too shocked. Witness—I could have said that.

Continuing his evidence, Mr. Condon said that in December, 1962, he told Mr. Hart he had grass on the ever-month system elsewhere. In general conversation Hart said he was short of grass and he (witness) told him he had some on his lands that would suit him. He told him also he would come over the following Friday (January 4th) and collect three of his cattle. Mr. Lovatt-Dolan—I suggest to you that it was you who said you would collect Hart's cattle and this suggestion of collecting the cattle was so that you could come down to your own place. Witness—No.

Mr. Condon said when he arrived at Hart's on the Friday and the cattle were not there he decided to go on down to look at his own.

In reply to further cross-examination, witness denies going near the stables that evening. He did not open the doors or even look in the windows. He did not even know if the stable doors were open or not. He was there about a quarter of an hour. He then went up to Hart's and told them the cattle were all right.

Mr. Lovatt-Dolan—When you went back to Hart's you told Mrs. Hart that you did not open the stable doors because the cattle would get into the habit of going in there. Why did you tell her that? Mr. Lovatt-Dolan went on to say that his submission was that the applicant, have to show that someone set fire to the building and also that he himself did not do so.

Judge Fawsitt said if a defence Counsel alleged that Condon set fire to his own property they would have to prove it. The trend of defence Counsel's cross examination was that they were alleging the applicant burnt his own place.

"If you, Mr. Lovatt-Dolan are to prove that, he said, you will require a lot more than oblique suggestion." Mr. Clarke, S.C. (for Condon) said if defence Counsel wished to establish a case against Condon, then the onus of proof was clearly on them (defence Counsel). They were entitled to put any question they like to his client and he was prepared to face all queries. If there was a case to be made against Condon he was prepared to meet it.

Resuming his evidence, Condon said he returned to the stables on Saturday evening (June 5th) to get turnips and see the cattle. The following day he made a statement to Sergeant Morgan Hayes, Dungarvan. Mr. Lovatt-Dolan said in that statement there was no mention of the applicant going for turnips. Cross-examined further, Condon said when he was passing Hackettstown Bridge on Saturday evening, Jan. 5th, he saw the smoke but thought it was coming from Hart's. He admitted that he failed to mention that in his statement to the Garda's.

Mr. Lovatt-Dolan—I suggest you did not see any smoke. Witness—I could not have said it to Mrs. Hart unless I saw it.

Mr. Lovatt-Dolan—I put it to you when you first saw Mr. Hart that Saturday morning you asked him did he see smoke down on your land, as though you expected the smoke to be there. Also when you saw the smoke why did you not go straight to your lands. I never for a moment thought it was my place that was on fire. The smoke was more in the direction of Hart's.

Condon denied mentioning specifically to Supt. Costello two men who bore malice against him and who could have been involved in the fire. Mr. Lovatt-Dolan—Supt. Costello will say in evidence that you specifically mentioned two men.

Witness—I did not. I could not have done so.

Mr. Lovatt-Dolan—Is there anyone in the entire neighbourhood who bears any malice against you. Witness—Not that I know of.

Mr. Lovatt-Dolan—I also put it to you that there was neither the quantity of hay or oatens straw in the loft that you said there was.

Witness—Yes, there was.

Mrs. Mary Condon, wife of the applicant, said on January

4th, her husband went to the field at Glenard and came back between 6.30 and 7 p.m. He was in the house all that night. He left the following day at about 2 p.m. to collect turnips for which he brought a bag. The first she heard of the fire was that evening when her husband returned home.

Mr. Lovatt-Dolan—Wasn't it unreasonable to ask your husband to go seven miles for turnips when he could have got 100 yards away. Mrs. Condon—I do not think so. The weather wasn't that bad.

Mr. Michael Hart said he was at home on Friday, January 4, when Condon called. He (Condon) then went down to see his own cattle and that was the last witness saw of him that day. The first he heard of the fire was when Peter Cummins told him on the Saturday morning.

To Mr. Lovatt-Dolan, Hart said it was Condon who suggested giving him grass for some of his cattle.

Sixteen year old Peter Cummins said on the occasion of the burning, he was on his Christmas holidays from school. On Saturday, January 5 he was loading turnips at Hart's at about 2 p.m. when he noticed smoke coming from Condon's stables. Shortly after Condon arrived and he heard Hart say to him "I think the stables are on fire."

John Crowley, Lighthouse-keeper at Mine Head Lighthouse, said he was on duty at 2 a.m. on January 5, at 6.30 a.m. he was coming down the tower when he saw a red glow coming from towards Condon's about a mile away. Visibility was not good and there were light snow showers on and off.

Mr. Teddy O'Flaherty, a neighbour of Condon's said he was in his yard at about 12 midnight on January 4 and had a view of the stables from his yards. Everything appeared normal there. About 11 a.m. next morning he noticed the roof of Condon's stables was down. He saw no smoke and thought the roof might have fallen in. At 2 p.m. he saw smoke and that was the first he knew of the burning.

Mr. James Barrow said he was returning from Nugent's public house with Paddy Roche at about 12.15 a.m. on January 4/5. He saw a red light out to sea but could not say what it was.

Mrs. Muriel Con, Helrick, said in September, 1962, she went to Condon's stables and spoke to the applicant. She was interested in a very old sword he had. She went up into the loft to see it, and she saw a big pile of hay there.

Mr. George Ashton, Fire Assessor from an inspection made by him he would say it was not an accidental fire.

Mr. A. R. Farrell, Solicitor, Dungarvan, said he received a cheque for his client in June, 1962, for the dwellinghouse fire the previous November.

That concluded the evidence for the applicant.

Addressing the Judge, Mr. Lovatt-Dolan applied for a direction on the grounds that the onus of proof was on the applicant. It was his duty to prove that the burning was malicious. The evidence of Mr. Hart was that when Condon came to him on Saturday, 5th, it was he (Condon) who asked was there any smoke and that showed he was expecting it. If that evidence was correct and true it would cast a doubt on Condon's case.

"The surprising part about it" said Mr. Lovatt-Dolan "is that the fire started within hours of Condon being there. Then he returned on Saturday and Condon's evidence, if accepted casts a doubt on the veracity of Condon's evidence. He asked to dismiss the claim.

Mr. Clarke, S.C. (for Condon) said the Council had a case to meet. It was a deliberate act of arson by a person of persons yet unknown. They had proved their case and unless the Co. Council could prove Condon did it they could not succeed. A decree for £720 with costs and expenses was given to applicant at Thursday's hearing.

On that confetti-strewn morning when you said you'd "love, honour and obey" we know you didn't include carrying heavy buckets of water every day.

In this season of slim and feminine spring styles, it's not fair for a wife to be still in the unfashionable bucket parade when electricity will carry the equivalent of 400 of these buckets of water to your house for the price of that last cigarette he smoked.

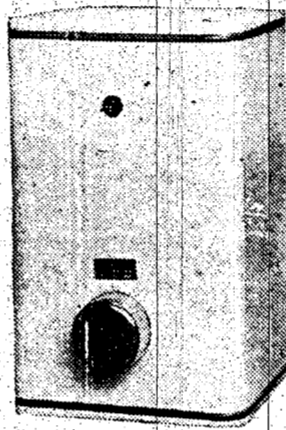

In the spring of 1963, no house should be without water on tap. The bucket is fast disappearing off the Irish road and good riddance to this time-consuming, back-breaking symbol of the past.

Ask your E.S.B. representative for details of the E.S.B.'s Pump Advisory Service and avail of the Government and local Authority Grants to bring water to your home.

NO CHANGE IN HOUSING COMMITTEE

By nine votes to six it was decided at last Friday's meeting of Waterford County Council that the matter appearing to be the most important of the Council as a whole and not by a sub-committee is that of housing.

Before the meeting was a proposal by Colr. J. Quirk seconded by Colr. T. A. Kyne that the housing sub-committee of the Council be reconstituted and shall comprise the following Council members: Colr. J. Fahy, F. Cahill, R. Walsh, W. Devereux, N. Walsh, T. A. Kyne, C. Curran and F. Roche.

The County Manager (Mr. S. J. Moynihan) said it was too late to make a matter to be dealt with by a special committee.

Chairman C. Curran said the housing sub-committee has no extra powers. They only prepare and make recommendations to the Co. Council.

Colr. Dowd—The original sub-committee lapsed.

Colr. Curran—It did not. Colr. Dowd—What then is the talk of reconstitution. Also so you consider it fair to have such a committee formed with only one member from West Waterford on it?

Colr. Curran—There was no outside done to any area.

Colr. M. Galgey said he would have no objections if they had the same Councilors as before, but why the changing?

Colr. G. Heskin—Why not have a special meeting on housing and have the members present and get finished with it?

Colr. Dowd—I am convinced it is a matter that should be dealt with by all members of the Council.

Deputy K. Neill—There were four from West Waterford on the proposed new committee and one as stated by Colr. Dowd.

Colr. Dowd—I should have a Lismore electoral area.

The Chairman said it was too late to make a matter to be dealt with by a special committee. There was absolute no question of preferential treatment.

A vote was taken and the following Councilors voted for a sub-committee: Colr. Harv. Drohan, Foran, O'Ryan, Dowd, Heine, Moynihan, N. Walsh, Galgey (9); Colr. Neill, Curran, Dowd, Kyne, Fahy, Roche, R. Walsh (6).

SALMON NET FISHING

Last week's salmon catches were still very poor up to the last day on Friday when there was a slight improvement with 47 boats in Youghal, 17 from the Ardmore and Ballinacorney fisheries. The boats were hampered by the work by the presence of banks who are responsible for the damage to the nets. The price last week ranged from 7/- to 1/6 per lb.

Some 60 children from the Presentation Convent School, Youghal left on Tuesday morning on a C.I.E. educational tour. The first call was at Mitchelstown where they were shown over the factory and farm of the Mitchelstown Creamery, and on their return home they visited Shanarril Airport. This is only one of the many tours that have been arranged for the present season.

WOMEN'S RETREAT ENDS

The week's retreat for the women of the Parish of St. Mary's Parish Church in the usual closing ceremonies with the imparting of the Papal Blessing. The retreat had been exceptionally well attended, both mornings and evenings and Rev. D. Corkery, C.M., and Rev. J. Carroll, C.M., who conducted the exercises congratulated them in the closing session in the manner in which they had attended and entered into the spirit of the Retreat.

MEN'S RETREAT

YOUGHAL TRACK OPENING

The work of installation of a new hare drive at the Youghal Greyhound Track is now well underway in addition to some major improvements. It will be open for trials on June 20th and the opening night for racing will be Tuesday, 2nd July, when the whole series of races will be sponsored.

It was first intended to open the track early in April, this year but it transpired that the hare mechanism suffered great damage by the very severe weather of last winter. An appeal was made for extra capital to greyhound owners in order to carry out improvements and there was a very good response. Shares in units of £5 are being offered and completed applications forms should be lodged with the Track Secretary, Mr. F. P. Harkham.

MALL WALL TO GO

At the last meeting of the Youghal U.D.C. a long discussion took place on the proposal to remove the Mall Wall opposite the Town Hall in accordance with the plan presented and approved by the residents. Mr. O'Gorman proposed and Mr. Lynch seconded an amendment that the wall be tapered at both ends for a distance of 25 yards. The amendment was defeated by six votes to two, and the original proposition was declared carried. It is understood that the demolition will not take place for some considerable time.

YOUGHAL PHONE SERVICE

Complaints of the 'disgraceful' phone service which the Department of Posts and Telegraphs is giving to Youghal were voiced by members at a recent meeting of the U.D. Council. It was pointed out that it was due to want of equipment and the complaints had no reflection on the Post Master and his staff. One Council member stated that he rang Dungarvan recently and he could have got there by car before he was connected. It was decided to discuss the matter with the Post Master before making a strong protest

Kilmacthomas News

The while representing this county in Dail Eireann he rarely missed a meeting of the Kilmacthomas Comhchele Dail (Constitutional Party) and was a notably non-indulgent, thrifty politician. R.I.P.

GREEN PARK SEA WALLS

The work of rebuilding the sea walls at the Green Park, which were badly damaged by the storm of Ash Wednesday last year, is now well ahead of schedule. The work is being carried out under the supervision of the local Town Engineer, Mr. J. O'Regan, B.E., Ass. County Engineer, and when completed, the local Urban Council hope to get a grant or the major portion of the cost.

THE ANNUAL MAY PROCESSION

In Kilmacthomas on last Sunday afternoon was an eloquent expression of devotion to Our Immaculate Lady Assumed into Heaven on the part of the faithful local children and adults alike. The procession, (atrocious weather caused its postponement from the previous Sunday) was one of the largest seen here for many years; it was formed up outside the Mercy Convent Chapel, and included the convent school children, Children of Mary, Legion of Mary, the Chapel Choir and men's and women's confraternities. Very Rev. R. Power, P.P., Newtown, and Rev. M. Wall, C.C., Kilmacthomas, were amongst the most attentive.

The processionists traversed the customary route, moving through the picturesque Convent grounds and on the journey, declamations of the Rosary were recited and appropriate hymns were sung.

On the return of the procession to the Chapel, Solemn Benediction was imparted by Fr. Wall, C.C., and sacred music and responses were rendered by the Choir, under Sr. M. Joseph, who presided at the organ.

Fianna Fail—At the specially convened meeting of the Ballyvaughan Cumann held last week-end, a number of the members present were appointed to take up subscriptions to the F.F. National Collection, outside the local church gates before and after Mass on tomorrow, Sunday (26th inst.).

In connection with the district's successful Silver Circle Draw in aid of the Mercy Convent School Improvement Fund, Stradbally, which was held some time ago, those concerned with same in the capacity of promoters were entertained by the Rev. Mother and Community on Monday, 20th inst.

Farmers Go Visiting Other Farms!

Many farmers from West Waterford members of the Tallow and the Ballynascree Macra na Feirme and National Farmers' Association branches, travelled this morning (Thursday) on an educational trip. They visited the Dairy Research Centre at Moorepark, Fermoy, in the morning and then travelled on to Herbertstown, Limerick, to inspect the Economic Test Farm there. They were guests of the agricultural institute.

Elaborate arrangements were made by the research staff at Moorepark for inspection of the work in progress on dairy husbandry, quality milk production, soil and fodder management, pig-fattening houses, intensive management, and various other aspects of research being conducted there.

At the model farm in Herbertstown, the Waterford farmers were shown the application of the research results under practical farming conditions.

PRIZES FOR GOOD COOKS

Miss Madge Dee, Deelish, received a cheque as first prize winner in the schools competition for wholesome bread-baking, and the runner-up, Miss Helen Donlon, Kill, received a cookery book prize. The prizes, awarded by the E.S.B., were presented at Dungarvan Technical School by the Acting Chief Executive Officer, Mr. Thomas F. Maher, B.Sc.

Quarante Ore

The devotion of the Forty Hours Adoration, which commenced at St. Mary's Parish Church, Dungarvan, after Solemn High Mass at 11.30 a.m., on Sunday, concluded on Tuesday morning with the celebration of High Mass.

HELD IN HOMELY AND HOSPITABLE FERRAS was the latest Co. Wickford Fleadh Ceoil at which the Kilmacthomas Juvenile Ceili Band, although competing in a test above their age group, gave so pleasing a performance that they were given a tremendous hand at the close of their contribution. The accordion section, confined to competitors under 14 years of age, was won by a member of this band, in the person of Master Gustav Carey, Bonmahon. Very high marks were scored in the solo accordion sector by Mr. Bernie Power, of the Mahon-strading Little town, who is trainer of the local Juvenile Ceili Band (which, incidentally, is set to participate at the Fleadh Ceoil coming off in Mitchelstown Co. Cork, during the coming month).

N.F.A. NEWS

POPE SENDS GREETINGS TO TO'BRAVY CONFERENCE

The following is the text of a telegram received at N.F.A. Central Office from His Holiness Pope John XXIII, conveying his greeting and imparting his blessing on the World Conference of Farmers to which the N.F.A. is acting as the host organisation. It was received through His Secretary of State Cardinal Cicognani and the Apostolic Nuncio to Ireland.

"Holy Father, gladly sends paternal greetings International Federation of Agricultural Producers Assembled General Conference, Bray, discussing subject dear to his pastoral heart, Plebe Divine guidance deliberations, Pontif cordially imparts organisers and assembled delegates, father Apostolic Blessing."

N.F.A. PRESIDENT WELCOMES WORLD FARM LEADERS

Speaking at the openingenary session of the 13th Conference of the International Federation of Agricultural Producers at which some 34 countries were represented, Mr. Richard Deasy, President N.F.A., expressed the welcome to all Irish farmers to the visiting delegates.

"As to the welcome—I am assured, we hope that you will find your short stay among us enjoyable, that you will be able to visit some of our farm families, to see something of our land, and to go home with a better understanding of the contribution in the field of industry as well as Agriculture which our own generation seeks to add to the achievement of former generations in the development of our country."

"As to the work of the Conference, you will appreciate that we ourselves in Ireland approach it from the standpoint of a national economy dependent in exceptional measure on agriculture. It is not only in our own interests that we regard this problem not as an economic matter but rather as something that lies at the very heart of the social and human problems of farm population the world over. While widespread actual starvation and hunger in many parts of the world exist, while considerable numbers of people are elsewhere, and while at the same time the world's primary products cannot obtain adequate prices and outlets for their production, we are entitled to say that one of the great social evils of our time has not yet been resolutely tackled."

"The work of I.F.A.P. and of the many inter-governmental agencies in the agricultural field has revealed the true dimensions of the global farm problem. The outlines of solutions which will tackle the cause rather than the effects are now becoming apparent. But in the view of my Association, the greatest danger that confronts world agriculture at the present time is that, recognising the gravity and causes of our ailment and having available to us a great fund of new knowledge about the cure, we may yet lack the courage to persevere with a treatment which may not be rapid, but must certainly be radical."

"The National Farmers' Association is very proud to be entrusted by I.F.A.P. with the organising of this Conference. Our country has not perhaps always enjoyed a reputation for peaceful and purely academic discussion. Nevertheless we can justly claim that in the past we have not shirked drastic remedies and that we have shown ourselves also since we achieved control of our own affairs ready to play our part in international agreements on many subjects.

"It is therefore, our earnest hope that here in Bray this Conference will find an atmosphere in which the world's primary producers can have a constructive discussion resulting in making a real and immediate advance towards our common end, namely, the raising of the social and economic standards of the agricultural sector everywhere. My Association believes that we as farmers and farm leaders, with our more in-depth understanding of our social and human implications behind the cold statistics, must now by our own efforts make real progress towards our target, otherwise the advance of industrial progress with the impact of technical progress in agriculture itself will, acting together, still further exacerbate the problems of farm populations everywhere."

"My Association believes further, that if farmers themselves cannot make progress in formulating outlines of policy acceptable to the world's farmers, then there is little hope that Governments would succeed where we to fail—but we cannot fail."

N.F.A. WILL HAVE TO PRESS FOR RADICAL REASSESSMENT TO BRITISH TRADE AGREEMENT

The National Farmers' Association recently considered the statement by the President of the British Board of Trade, Mr. Frederick Eroll, that the United Kingdom has given a firm undertaking to Denmark to suspend the 15% per cent. levied on Danish butter entering the U.K. The annual value of this concession, based on the present Danish quota, exceeds £14m. Such a concession must inevitably improve the overall competitive position on Danish dairy products. It can be applied to subsidise further Danish dairy exports to the U.K. or to other markets. Following as it does similar concessions given to Denmark on butter and cheese and in the light of the discriminatory quantity restrictions now placed for example on our butter exports to the U.K., the Association cannot but regard this as one more step in the continuous process by which the mutually advantageous reciprocal trade agreements are being whittled away unilaterally by Britain to the decided disadvantage of Irish farmers. The counterpart of the preferences formerly accorded to Irish agricultural exports to the U.K. has been the preferential treatment extended to Irish imports of British industrial goods. Per head of population we continue to import more than £40 worth of British industrial products—more than twice the corresponding Danish figure. On this basis Ireland is the second highest importer of British industrial goods in the world. We have continuously maintained our tariff concessions on imports of industrial goods from the U.K.

This latest unilateral concession by the United Kingdom to one of our principal agricultural competitors has therefore raise fundamental doubts about the entire future of our trading relationship with the U.K. The National Farmers' Association therefore expects that the British Government will put before the Irish Government in the very near future concrete proposals to re-establish the traditional position of Irish agriculture on the United Kingdom market. Should such proposals not be forthcoming the Association will have no alternative but to press for an immediate and radical reassessment of the entire field of Irish external trade.

N.F.A. WELCOMES PROGRESSIVE STEP BY GOVERNMENT

The N.F.A. welcomes the action of the Department of Agriculture in securing the appointment of Dr. Stephen McDonagh, as Agricultural Counsellor to the Irish Embassy in Washington, as a constructive step to improve the position of our agricultural exports. Our Association has continuously pressed for the creation of such appointments. Now that the first step has been taken in this direction we must hope that it will be followed up as soon as possible by further appointments of the same kind. This is a progressive development and we wish it every success.

LATE JOHN BOWE, CURRABAHA

By the death this week of John Bowe, Currabaha, Kilgobnet has lost one of its greatest Gaelic sons in the Club's halcyon days—the late twenties and early thirties. John was a star among stars, an outstanding footballer, and above all, a gentleman both on and off the field.

When his playing days were over, he continued to give his entire support to the club to whom he gave such splendid service. Whenever the men in green and white played, he was always with them, ready and willing to give his advice when needed. He was also a top-class handballer.

Now he is gone from us but his memory lives on. Whilst there is a Kilgobnet, John Bowe will not be forgotten, by the parish he loved so well. Ar dheis De go raib an am. Kilgobnet team beaten in the Co. junior football final at Waterford by O'Rourke's by a point.

Fr. Hickey, C.C. Grange-moekler, and Fr. Pat Tobin, Army Chaplain, now in Germany, then a clerical student, played a big part in Kilgobnet's success that year, but both had returned to College and were not available for the final.

Besides the late John Bowe, Larry Boland and Mikie Power have also gone to their eternal reward.

By the way the officers of the 1931 club were: the late Fr. Lynch, C.C. President; the late Pats Coughlan, Hon. Treasurer, and secretary was Mr. Martin Kelly.

On final day the teams were played around the field by Kilgobnet Fife and Drum Band.

KILGOBINET MAKE CHAMPIONSHIP EXIT

The championship hopes of Kilgobnet's junior hurlers were blown sky high at Cappoquin on Sunday last when they went under to Ballyduff Upper by 3-5 to 1 in the first round.

But if this result was in accordance with general opinion, the losers have only themselves to blame for defeat. In both halves they had by far the better of the outfield exchanges—the net result being a marked territorial advantage.

But, putting it clearly and bluntly, Kilgobnet didn't possess a forward worthy of the name. For a start they employed foolhardy tactics that failed against a defence that didn't take too kindly to fancy forwards who attempted to literally walk the ball to the net and this blatant over-usage cost them dearly in the end.

However, while Ballyduff had not nearly as many opportunities as the losers, they at least made use of those that came their way. Unlike Kilgobnet, they relied on four first-time pulling that is so characteristic of all Ballyduff sides, and it is this non-sensical approach allied to admirable opportunism that earned them their passage to the second round.

In victory they hardly produced an individual who shined over all others in the role of honour. Instead they relied on a team effort with each sector pulling its weight.

Not so with Kilgobnet. Their challenge was spearheaded by a limited few—notably full-back Mark Cummins, who was surely the finest defender afield, Roger McCarthy, Jim Dee, Peter Power and Lat Cummins.

EMMETTS SURPRISE DUNGARVAN

Emmetts, unfancied even by many of their own supporters, created a first-class surprise in the Primary Football Championship on Friday night when scoring a 1-2 to 0-4 victory over Dungarvan at the Fraher Field.

And while it would be unjust to deny the Colliers their credit for unleashing the form book, this was a defeat created and executed by Dungarvan themselves.

During the game chances to have won any twice over were squandered by forwards who simply couldn't find the scoring range. True there were times when lady luck smiled radiantly on the winner's defence, but this does not excuse the pathetic scoring efforts of the Blues attack.

Playing with a stiffish half breeze, Emmetts made full use of this advantage to win over leading 1-2 to 0-1. However that lead could have been cut to the minimum had not a Dungarvan forward shot wide of a gaping goal shortly before the interval.

On the change over it became a question of whether or not the winner's defence could hold out. The Blues piled on the pressure but for all their attacking could only notch three points.

For Emmetts Sean Brown and Jim Ahearn were outstanding in a defence that was sorely over-worked at times. O'hears to star for them were Tom Byrnes and Teddy Coughlan.

Dungarvan must surely be still bemoaning their attacking lapses. All six forwards were guilty of 'squandering' and Mikeen Lyons was best in the sector.

At mid-field Tommy Woods and John Moylan were both impressive while Paddy Lannon, Martin Farrell and Jack Cane were best in defence.

MITCHELS TROUNCE ARDMORE

If there is a better footballing side in the county to-day than John Mitchels, I personally have yet to see it. At Dungarvan on Monday night they gave a classy display of high-grade football when inflicting a 2-12 to 0-3 defeat on Ardmore in the Phean Cup.

In fact it was the most complete display given by any side at the venue for a considerable time and it is going to take a really good combination to halt them in the championship this year.

Contra to what the score-line may suggest, Ardmore played none too badly. But against well-drilled opposition whose every co-ordinated movement bore a purpose, they had little answer to, they were quite clearly out of their depth. Leading 1-3 to 0-3 at half-time the Mitchels really went to town in the second half. Defence linked up perfectly with attack, and as scores resulted from precision movements, one could not help believing that here was a team that is surely destined for honours in the near future.

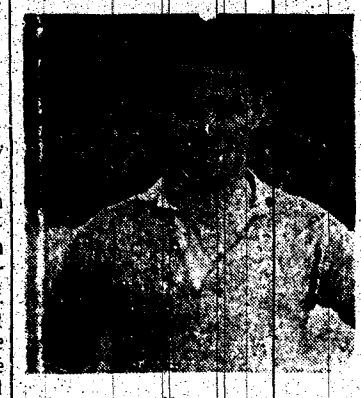

Such was the flawlessness of this display that one finds it difficult to single out any one member of the team. However, newcomer Sean Power, making his debut in competitive competition with the club was a distinct success and looked capable of posting a free from any angle.

Ardmore played as well as they were let by rampant opponents. For half an hour they were in the game with a reasonable chance but thereafter were over-run by the power-packed football of the Mitchels.

KILROSSANTY FANCIED

To-morrow (Friday) night at the Fraher Field, Dungarvan, Dungarvan meet Kilrossanty in the Phean Cup and these great rivals should serve up an enterprising hour's football.

Kilrossanty make no secret of the fact that this year they are going to regain the coveted championship trophy, last held in 1961. Despite the famous Veteran Kilrossanty star, JIMMY POWER, in action against the Old Boro' tonight (Friday).

(or is it infamous) pit they believe they are now stronger than ever and hope to vindicate that contention at Dungarvan's expense to-morrow night.

All the 'old' brigade—Matty Loneragan, Sean O'Monide, Jimmy Power, Mick Donlon and Jimmy Maher will be on duty as well as the Walsh's—Tom (2) and Noel and newcomer Liam O'Brien. By any standards it is a formidable line-out and they must start favourites to advance.

The Blues, however, remain unperturbed in their role of outsiders. This year, and with some justification, club members believe they will make quite an impact on the football scene. That view was strengthened by a top class display recently against county champions Kill, and no longer can they be regarded as a "push-over" by any club.

That they possess the right material is I think an established fact. They have in Tom Cunningham, their inspiring leader, and to my mind still the finest footballer in the county. There is also Eamonn McCarthy, John Woods, Martin Farrell and Liam O'Donnell who can hold their own in any company. The absence of Paddy Ryan and Jim Byrne weakens the side somewhat but the Comeragh men can be prepared for a tough battle.

SUNDAY'S 'PRIMARY' GAMES

At the time of writing he only games (to my knowledge) arranged for Sunday are in the Primary hurling championship at Cappoquin and Lismore. The Cornerstone venue brings Kilgobnet and Glenmore Rovers into opposition, while Tourist and Tallow meet at Lsmore.

Neither game is really appealing—all four being "long shots" to win out the championship.

For Kilgobnet it is their best opportunity of winning a title this year but it is doubtful if Johnny Hanley and company can overcome the Rovers.

Little is known of either Tourist or Tallow in this grade and not for the first time must we adopt a "wait and see" attitude.

FOURMILEWATER OUST CAPPOQUIN

Having successfully weathered an opening half in which they played like anything but champions, Fourmilewater advanced a stage further towards retaining their Divisional Junior hurling title at the expense of Cappoquin at Dungarvan on Sunday.

Played in a torrential down-pour throughout, the standard of hurling left a lot to be desired and on this display it is more than a possibility that new champions will be crowned this year. Without four of last year's side, the holders looked but a pale shadow of the '61 and '62 combinations and it was only the brilliance of a certain few that carried them through their 4-8 to 4-3 victory.

To say Cappoquin disappointed would be a gross understatement. Their side was comprised of players, the most of whom had vast experience in senior ranks but they seldom displayed the brand of hurling one expected from them and their championship exit was a tame one indeed.

In the opening half they had the better of matters with the title-holders and although their interval lead was only a slender point, they looked capable at that stage of winning.

But without any apparent reason they fell away in dismal fashion on the resumption. The Ballymac side gained the undisputed initiative for the first time in the game and once they regained the lead there was little danger to their crown.

They were best served by Kieran Ryan, Thomas, Benny and Martin Walsh, Billy Grant (who has postponed retirement), Austin Bignon and Jimmy and Eddie Hewitt. Mick Conolly who started at centre forward made no impression on Andy O'Keefe and only showed occasional flashes of his true form when switched to defence in the second half.

For Cappoquin, centre-back, Andy O'Keefe was their out-sider adding payer. At mid-field Ger Mason was a dominating figure but in a weak attack half-forwards Vincent O'Connor and Eddie Fraher were best.

DUNGARVAN COLLECTION

On next Saturday the Dungarvan G.A.A. Club will hold its collection in the town. The club is not in a very good financial position and those that can afford it are asked to subscribe generously. The collectors will be Tom Cunningham and Terry Dalton.

WHERE WERE THE NETS

On Sunday last the Fraher Field (Dungarvan) was in the pink of condition for the junior championship games. It was indeed a credit to the men responsible. One fault, however—where were the goal nets.

On a few occasions during the hurling game it was exceedingly difficult to determine whether the Ball had gone over or under the bar.

Ballinacourty's Slender Victory

Ballinacourty 1-5, Clashmore 2-1

CLASHMORE, Primary football champions of 1962, had a brief and uneventful stay in this year's junior football championship when they made a first-round exit against Ballinacourty on Sunday last.

For a game that was so confidently expected to provide an hour of classic fare, it was a somewhat disappointing tie, somewhat as it was by incessant rain, both sides obviously did not relish the conditions and only in the closing quarter when both strove valiantly to gain a decisive advantage were we treated to anything like the standard we had come to expect from those much-vaunted participants.

In a game in which the scoring was so close, it is but natural for the losers to have a variety of "might have been" at their disposal. But if they were a grudge unforgotten not to have earned another chance at least, few can deny the winners the merits of their success. They trailed for most of the hour but stubbornly refused to acknowledge defeat, and to use a racing phrase, "got up on the post."

As I saw it, the real difference between otherwise well-matched teams, was in the respective attacks. In this respect the losers had their "Achilles heel" upfront and a disorganised and unimpressive forward division looked completely incapable of nothing match-winning scores.

The Ballinacourty attack was also far from flawless, but at least it contained a few forwards with the ability to pick off the scores had mattered.

The opening half saw Clashmore display their best football of the year—at the end of which they led 1-1 to 0-3. And when they rumbled home goal number two within five minutes of the restart they looked a safe bet for the second round.

But to my mind they then made the fatal blunder of relying on all-out defence. Content with a four point lead they back-pedalled towards their own citadel and discarded the proven contention that attack is the sign-post to victory.

Gradually Ballinacourty gained undisputed ascendancy. At last they seemed to find "their touch" and when a well-executed goal made it all square, the writing was clearly on the wall for the primary title-holders. The winners continued to pile on the pressure and it came as no surprise when Tony Mansfield lofted over the winning point, less than three minutes from time. Clashmore opened the scoring with a point after five minutes, but almost immediately Johnny Hogan balanced with a like score. Six minutes later Tony Mansfield pointed a Ballinacourty free but with a minute to go when Roche slammed home a goal following a defensive blunder. Again Mansfield obliged with a 'Courtly free and at the short, while they were led 1-1 to 0-3.

Clashmore's goal five minutes after the restart proved to be their only score of the half. Thereafter it was all Ballinacourty and a point by Mansfield and a point by Johnny Hogan again levelled matters. They continued to bombard the losers' goal in relentless fashion until Mansfield pointed the all-important free 21 minutes from time.

In the winners' defence, Mick Kiely gave a superb display at full-back while John McGrath and Tony Mansfield were also to the fore.

When on top in the second-half both midfielders Danny Barry and Pakie Hogan piled their forwards with a plentiful supply of the ball.

Up front Johnny Hogan was very dangerous and was his side's top scorer with 1-1. He got greatest assistance from Denis Flynn and Donal Whelan.

Clashmore's stars were in defence where centre-back Tom McGrath and veteran Ned Ormonde were superlative all through. McGrath fielded and kicked impeccably at all times while Ormonde never erred once during the hour.

Pat O'Rourke had a good hour at midfield where for long periods he fought a lone battle. The attack was devoid of all constructive ideas and only Roche and occasionally Liam O'Rourke "looked the part."

Ballinacourty—T. Hogan, J. Hayes, M. Kiely, P. Murray, T. Mansfield, J. McGrath, P. Wall, D. Barry, P. Hogan, D. Flynn, J. Eisteat, T. McCarthy, P. McGovern, D. Whelan, J. Hogan.

Clashmore—J. Hurton, P. McGrath, J. McGrath, N. Ormonde, P. J. McGrath, T. McGrath, J. Power, P. O'Rourke, N. McGrath, L. O'Rourke, M. Baker, P. White, F. Mansfield, D. McGrath, J. Roche.

Sub.—O. O'Rourke for Mansfield.

Dungarvan Hurling League

Sunday next brings the semi-finals of the hurling league arranged by the Dungarvan Club. Sean McGrath's team will be in action against P. J. Rossiter's team at 11.00 a.m. Both sides here have good hurlers in abundance. Pick of the first team are L. Qually, M. Donnelly, E. Keyes and S. Franklin, whilst providing opposition to them will be J. Cummins, M. Tobin, J. French and of course P. J. Rossiter. Both sides are rather evenly matched, but on the score of greater endeavour Sean McGrath's side may just deserve to win.

The other semi-final brings Pat Walsh's team and that of Michael Fraher together. At first sight it looks like a win for the first named, but if ladies like Anthony Sandford, K. Fleming, John Egan and Noel Dwyer strike best form, then an upset here would not come as any great surprise. However, they will have plenty to contend with in S. Murphy, S. Reilly, Andy Fitzgerald and Connie Murphy.

This is a medal tournament and the final should be ready for Sunday week. Already the competition has produced some sparkling hurling and benefits resulting from it should be really felt in inter-club competition before long.

Abbeyside Juvenile Football League

Six teams participated in the Abbeyside juvenile F. League during the last few weeks. The final was played on Sunday night at the Abbeyside Sportsfield between Connie Kelliher's team and Brian O'Connor's team.

This final was played in steady rain which made good football impossible. It proved however, to be an exciting game between two grand teams and was keenly contested over the whole hour. The final scores were: Kelliher's team: 3-3; O'Connor's team, 1-0.

Out-standing for the winners were Connie Kelliher, Pat McGovern, C. French, N. Cashin, V. Tobin, R. Castwell, M. Veale, P. Brett, and the Fraher brothers. For the losers, Larry Ciffe had a great game and got good assistance from Brian O'Connor, G. Fives, M. Fives, J. Landers and M. Kiely.

Scores for the C. Kelliher side were: P. McGovern (2-0), J. Fraher (1-0), C. French (0-1), B. Fraher (0-1), C. Kelliher (0-1), J. Landers was the scorer (1-0) for the B. O'Connor team.

An autographed copy of the Gaelic games annual was presented to the winning captain. This book was autographed by the complete Waterford team and subs. and selectors who represented the county in the National Hurling League. Meanwhile the Abbeyside juvenile hurling league is moving along nicely, leading up to the final which will be played at the Abbeyside pitch.

LATE MR. JOHN BOWE

Currabaha, Dungarvan

Deep regret was felt at the announcement on Monday last of the death of John Bowe, Currabaha, which took place at Ardkene Hospital, Waterford, after a brief illness and fully fortified by the Rite of Holy Church. A devout and loyal member of his Church, his friendly disposition won him the admiration and respect of all who had the pleasure of knowing him. A member of an old Kilgobnet family, he was for many years played with the Kilgobnet football team together with his brothers Jamie and Tom, who represented their county in all grades. A founder member of the Kilgobnet Dramatic Society, he took an active interest in the Society since its formation in 1945. He played a leading role in the Society's production, "Troubled Bachelors" which won the De La Salle Cup in Waterford Drama Festival 1947 and was awarded a certificate of merit for his performance in that play.

He was a well-known and esteemed figure in the farming community and sincere sympathy is extended to his bereaved relatives by their sad loss.

Striking public tribute was paid to the late John Bowe when the remains accompanied by an extremely large and representative attendance were removed to Kilgobnet Church on Tuesday evening where they were received and blessed by Rev. M. Farrell C.C. assisted by Very Rev. D. McGrath, P.P. and Rev. J. Hickey, C.C. Grangemoekler. Interment took place in the adjoining cemetery on Wednesday morning after Requiem Masses and again in the presence of a huge attendance.

The final prayers at the graveside were recited by Rev. M. Farrell C.C. assisted by Very Rev. D. McGrath.

As a special tribute from the Kilgobnet football Club who he served so well, a club jersey was placed on the coffin. He is survived by his sister Mary, brothers Tom and James, (Australia), nieces Maura, Ann, Fidelma and nephew Jimmy.

Lismore No Match for Impressive Tallow

Tallow 2-5, Lismore 0-1

Though the score might suggest a rather one-sided affair, this first round game of the junior championship played at the Sportsfield, Cappoquin, on Sunday evening 7.30 last was from it as it was only in the last quarter that Tallow got the vital winning scores. Though the hurling itself was not great owing to the very greasy conditions, nevertheless the fair-sized attendance was well compensated by the way the players went about their task and by some brilliant individual displays.

From the throw-in Tallow attacked strongly but great defensive play by the Lismore goalies and backs kept them at bay and it was not until the sixth minute that they took the lead when centre-forward John Daly tapped over a nice point and it turned out this score proved to be the only first half score.

Ned Power in Tallow's goal was brilliant. Tony Doyle equaled for Lismore but then Tallow went ahead to win well.

Outstanding for Tallow were Ned Power, Roger Ryan, Tom Mulcahy, Eddie Cunningham and John Daly, while Lismore's best were Mce. Hickey (brilliant in goal), Liam Sullivan, Tom McGrath, Tom Cahill, John Flynn.

St. Mary's primary hurlers joined their football counterparts, Mellera Rovers in the second round of the championship when they bested Geraldines at Lismore on Sunday.

For thirty minutes or more it looked as if Geraldines would spring a surprise but the experience of the Mellera men told in the end.

St. Mary's led at the interval by 2-0 to 1-1. On the resumption Aglish levelled up but were unable to hold the strong finishing St. Mary's in the closing stages.
