Alleged Preferential Treatment

"WHERE IS THE FACTORY NOW?"

Where is the factory now asked Mr. W. Foran, Director of Mr. Fay's Health Authority meeting when referring to the land sold to Dungarvan Urban Council to take the County Home for a factory site.

The Co. Manager, Mr. Moynihan, said the Urban Council had their own plans.

APPROVED

The sale of a house and grounds in Ardmore (formerly used as a D.S.O. residence) to a local National School teacher Mr. John Cashman for £1011-10-0 was unanimously agreed to.

Mr. F. P. Mongey (Acting Secretary) said the residence was a verified in the "Irish Independent," "Press" and "Cork Examiner."

LATE MISS H. MANAHAN

Congress Villas, Dungarvan. The death occurred at the District Hospital, Dungarvan, on Sunday, May 26th, after a rather short duration of illness, but at the fullness of years, of Miss Hanora Manahan, Congress Villas. She was a very popular person in the Dungarvan district where she had resided all her long life, and was a most industrious and hard-working housewife. Her passing breaks yet another link with Dungarvan's older generation of the "old stock" of the town.

We would like to extend our deepest sympathy to her relatives on this very sad occasion. Her remains were removed on Monday evening to St. Mary's Parish Church followed by a large and most representative college and were blessed and received by Rev. Fr. J. Murphy, C.C.

Requiem Mass was celebrated on Tuesday morning for the eternal repose of her soul and the interment took place later in the day in the old church cemetery, where another large concourse, consisting of friends and relatives were present to pay their final respects to their departed friend and neighbour. Rev. Fr. J. Murphy, C.C., officiated at the graveside. Mr. J. Kieley and Sons had charge of funeral arrangements.

ISSUING OF MEDICAL CARDS CRITICISED

AN allegation was made at last Monday's meeting of Waterford Health Authority that representations made by a Dail Deputy for a Medical Card for a Ballinacmult lady got preferential treatment to a similar representation made by a member of the County Council.

The complaint was raised by Mr. John Fahey on behalf of County Council colleague, Mr. Sean Whelan. Mr. Fahey said that Mr. Whelan made representations to have a medical card issued to a woman in his area. That representation was not successful. Later Deputy T. A. Kyne was successful in his representation for the same person and Mr. Whelan believed Deputy Kyne had got preferential treatment to him.

I am informed, said Mr. Fahey, that no change took place in the applicants' circumstances between the time of the two representations were made. We must have to lay emphasis on that statement of Mr. Whelan as a neighbour of the applicant. While I am a member of this Authority I will always do my best to see that justice is done.

When Acting Chairman, Mr. Norman Walsh asked Mr. R. Doyle, Chief Home Assistance Officer, if he had any observations to make on the matter, Mr. Doyle was not compelled to do so in the case of an individual and would do so at his own peril.

Mr. Michael Morrissey said that in fairness to both sides it must be stated that an applicant's circumstances could change within a fortnight. Mr. Doyle might not be in a position to have given a medical card on the first occasion. Mr. Moynihan said if any minor changes were made, he would get the information he wanted.

Mr. W. Foran said a very serious charge had been made by Mr. Fahey and he believed the matter should be threshed out. He saw no reason why they should hide and cloak anything. There should be no

They's Try for Music Prize

Off to Mullingar, County Westmeath, on Sunday next, will go a bus-load of children from Ballymacarbery and district.

They are the members of the Ballymacarbery Cell Band and their supporters. The band is competing in the juvenile cell band section of the all-Ireland Festival of traditional music. Travelling with the group will be the band's director Rev. Fr. J. Bracken, C.C.

Despite the fact that they will face competition from the cream of the country's cell band talent, these musical youngsters of the Ballymacarbery cell band—who have already won a considerable number of prizes in competitions—are full of confidence in their ability to rate a good mark from the adjudicators.

Manager Outlines History of Prory House CLINICAL SITE NOT DECIDED

IN the unavoidable absence of Mr Tom Lannon, an item on last Monday's agenda of the Waterford Health Authority meeting, regarding the proposed new clinic at Dungarvan, was adjourned to the next monthly meeting.

Mr. Charles Curran said he had been asked by Mr. Lannon, who had particular interest in the matter to have it discussed at a loss of understanding that decision.

Mr. Moynihan continued: "The Minister agreed after inspection by his Departmental officers that Prory House was suitable from all aspects for a clinic and said that he would be glad to have the reasons of the Local Authority for their change of plans and also what alternative plans they had in mind."

The County Manager said that following this, a proposal by Mr. Michael Harty, seconded by Mr. Charles Curran that they reply to the Department saying the premises were suitable was defeated at a County Council meeting. A further proposal by Deputy T. A. Kyne and seconded by Deputy S. O'Riordan that they go ahead with the selling of Prory House was also defeated. Mr. Curran then proposed that a County Health Clinic be established at the County Home. The Chairman ruled that out of order and it was not put to the meeting. Then in March, '57, a notice of motion at a Council meeting to sell the premises was again defeated.

Mr. Moynihan said the matter had dragged on and on since and no decision has been made. The plans are now ready for Prory House and it was now up to the Health Authority to decide whether or not to go ahead.

When Mr. Michael Morrissey asked the Manager a question relating to Prory House, the Chairman (Mr. N. Walsh) ordered "next business." It is either Chairman or I'm not chairman, he said.

The discussion then ended. A Monday's meeting of Waterford Health Authority it was decided to instal oil-fired central heating at the County Home and District Hospital.

HISTORY OF PRORY HOUSE

The County Manager then outlined the history of Prory House. On July 19th, 1956, the County Council passed a resolution that Prory House be offered for sale. This resolution was carried by 12 votes to 6.

The following were the members of the County Council at the time: Mr. P. Browne (6); Against—C. Curran, W. Dower, J. Fahey, J. Quirk, N. Walsh, D. Madden, M. Morrissey, A. Hamilton (6).

Dungarvan a cost of £10,000. This resolution will be sent to the Department for approval.

Mr. F. P. Mongey, Acting Secretary, said the installation of central heating would be £10,000 as against £4,600 for storage heaters.

County Manager Mr. S. J. Moynihan said that while the installation of central heating was dearer, there would be no comparison between the running costs thereafter.

Mr. Mongey said he believed that if central heating was decided on, the Department would insist on turf being used.

Mr. J. Griffin said they should ask the Department for permission to have oil-fired central heating as it was the most economic one. He proposed oil-fired central heating.

Mr. P. Browne seconded.

Mr. Milo Galgey said they should get a more detailed account of the oil and turf costs before making a decision.

Mr. T. Gallagher said he visited Dungarvan hospital not so long ago and the wastage of turf that he saw there would make him very chary about using turf there again.

Finally Mr. Griffin's proposal was put to the meeting and unanimously passed.

NOTICE TO OWNERS OF LAND IN COUNTY WATERFORD
Local Government (Sanitary Services) Act, 1948
The attention of owners of land is drawn to Section 34 of the above-mentioned Act, which prevents the use of land for camping in the County of Waterford without the Owner first having a Licence for such use.
In this respect the Landowner's attention is drawn to the following definitions:
(1) Land which is the site of a temporary dwelling and all land which is within 100 yards of the site and of which the occupier is the occupier of the site shall be land used for camping.
(2) The Owner of Land which is not let shall be deemed to be the occupier thereof.
(3) The expression "temporary Dwelling" means any (a) tent or (b) van or other conveyance (whether on wheels or not), or (c) shed, hut or similar structure or (d) vessel on inland waters, used for human habitation or constructed or adapted for such use.
In their own interests owners of land in County Waterford are advised to communicate with the Secretary of the County Council before using or allowing the use of their land for camping. Failure to comply with this requirement may result in the prosecution of the offender and the subsequent removal of the temporary dwelling.

Tourin and Cappoquin Advance to Second Round

At the Gaelic Field, Lismore on Sunday last under ideal weather conditions and before a fair-sized attendance, Tourin Primary hurlers and Cappoquin junior footballers advanced to the second round of the championships when they both scored easy victories over Talow and Ballyduff respectively.

Tourin 6-8; Talow 1-3 Tourin hurlers making their initial appearance in the Primary grade, scored a very easy victory over Talow in a very poor game. Talow, who the Sunday before fielded and beat Lismore in the junior championships, were never in the game but indeed great credit is due to them to be able to field two teams. Tourin, on the other hand, fielded a sprong team and from the time their burly full-forward Steve Seaton opened their scoring with a goal in the second minute they were never really troubled and at the interval enjoyed a 5-4 to 1-2 lead.

On the resumption, the game really faded as Tourin contented with their big lead 'rested on their oars' and Talow could make no impression. Outstanding for Tourin, who with more training could make a strong challenge for the Western crown were Steve Seaton, the 'Dooneys', Ollie Wilkinson, Jimmy O'Gorman, Tom Regan while Talow's best were Bertie Healy, Noel

Cappoquin 2-6; Ballyduff 0-1

Cappoquin junior footballers reared something of a mild surprise when they easily accounted for a strong Ballyduff fifteen in a very hard and sometimes over-robust game and on Sunday's form they should indeed give a very good game to Valley Rovers in the second round. Playing against the breeze in the first half, Cappoquin led at the interval on the score of 2-4 to 0-1 and aided with the strong wind in the second half, they really dominated the game and it was only some great work by the Ballyduff defence that kept their tally down. Outstanding for the winners were G. Doherty, Ger. Meehan, the Fishers, Mickey O'Connor and G. Lane, while Ballyduff's best were Mick Mahony, Dave Barry, Dave Feevey and Ger. Hickey.

TO PLAY TIPPERARY

Waterford S.F. team to play Tipperary in Commel on Wednesday 5th June at 8 P.M. S. Ormonde (Kilrossanty), N. Walsh (Stradally), E. Moore (St. Doonagh's), M. Tobin (Gorainey), T. Power (St. Deran's), J. N. Q.B. (Tra-More), M. Conolly (V.Rs.), R. Corcoran (Mitche's), M. Kennedy (Kil), P. Duggan (Kil), M. Gairy (Kil), T. Harty (Ring), M. Regan (Kil), F. O'Brien (Mount Sion), T. Kirwan (Mitche's).

Exhibition of Books

The Exhibition of Modern Geography Books sponsored by the Association of Geography Teachers of Ireland, in cooperation with the County Library Service, which has aroused so much interest throughout Co. Waterford, will be on display at the County Library H.Q., Lismore, from Wednesday, 5th June to Saturday 8th June, both days free.

It is to be hoped that teachers, students and all interested in the subject will take this opportunity of viewing the books. The latest works on geography, both as a subject and from a teaching angle are included and cover both primary and secondary courses. To add to the interest of the Exhibition, the Book of Kells and the Book of Lismore will also be displayed.

Hours of the display are as follows: Wednesday 9.30 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Thursday 9.30 to 5 p.m. to 9 p.m.; Friday 9.30 to 5 p.m.; Saturday 9.30 to 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. to 9 p.m.

EASY FOR KILROSSANTY

Kilrossanty advanced a single pointer in this year's Phelan Cup when scoring a decisive 12 points victory over Dungarvan at the Phelan Field on Friday night last. It was a thoroughly disappointing game for the fair-sized attendance and the standard of football seldom reached the goal heights.

Except for the opening ten minutes when Dungarvan proved more than a match for the Comberghmen, the game was devoid of all real interest. Depleted though their wire—they lacked the services of their regulars, Dungarvan's display was nevertheless quite cause for concern and Kilrossanty were not called on to perform any notable feats to assure victory.

The Old Bohossie was seen at best advantage in the first half when playing against a fresh breeze. They are remarkably well to hold Kilrossanty to four points (0-6 to 0-2), and a housing ground half seemed certain.

The losers, however, only failed to receive an when Kilrossanty turned on the power after the resumption they were completely overrun. The winners attack in which newcomers Florio, shone found little difficulty in amassing their impressive tally and before a well-beaten team long before the end.

Best in the waters of the water Mary Legeran, Jimmcen Power and Nge. Walsh, Tom Flynn gave his usual impressive display at midfield while newcomer Rioran stole all the honours in attack.

On an outclassing Dungarvan side Eamonn McConne, John Woods, Jimmy Walsh, Jack Canney and Pat Curran were best.

RICE CUP Opponents - Dungarvan CBS (holders) above, who defeated Lismore (below) at Dungarvan last week

This is Dungarvan's first victory in the competition to date having been beaten away by Carrick and Mount Sion. They confidently expect to reverse those results when they meet these sides at home.

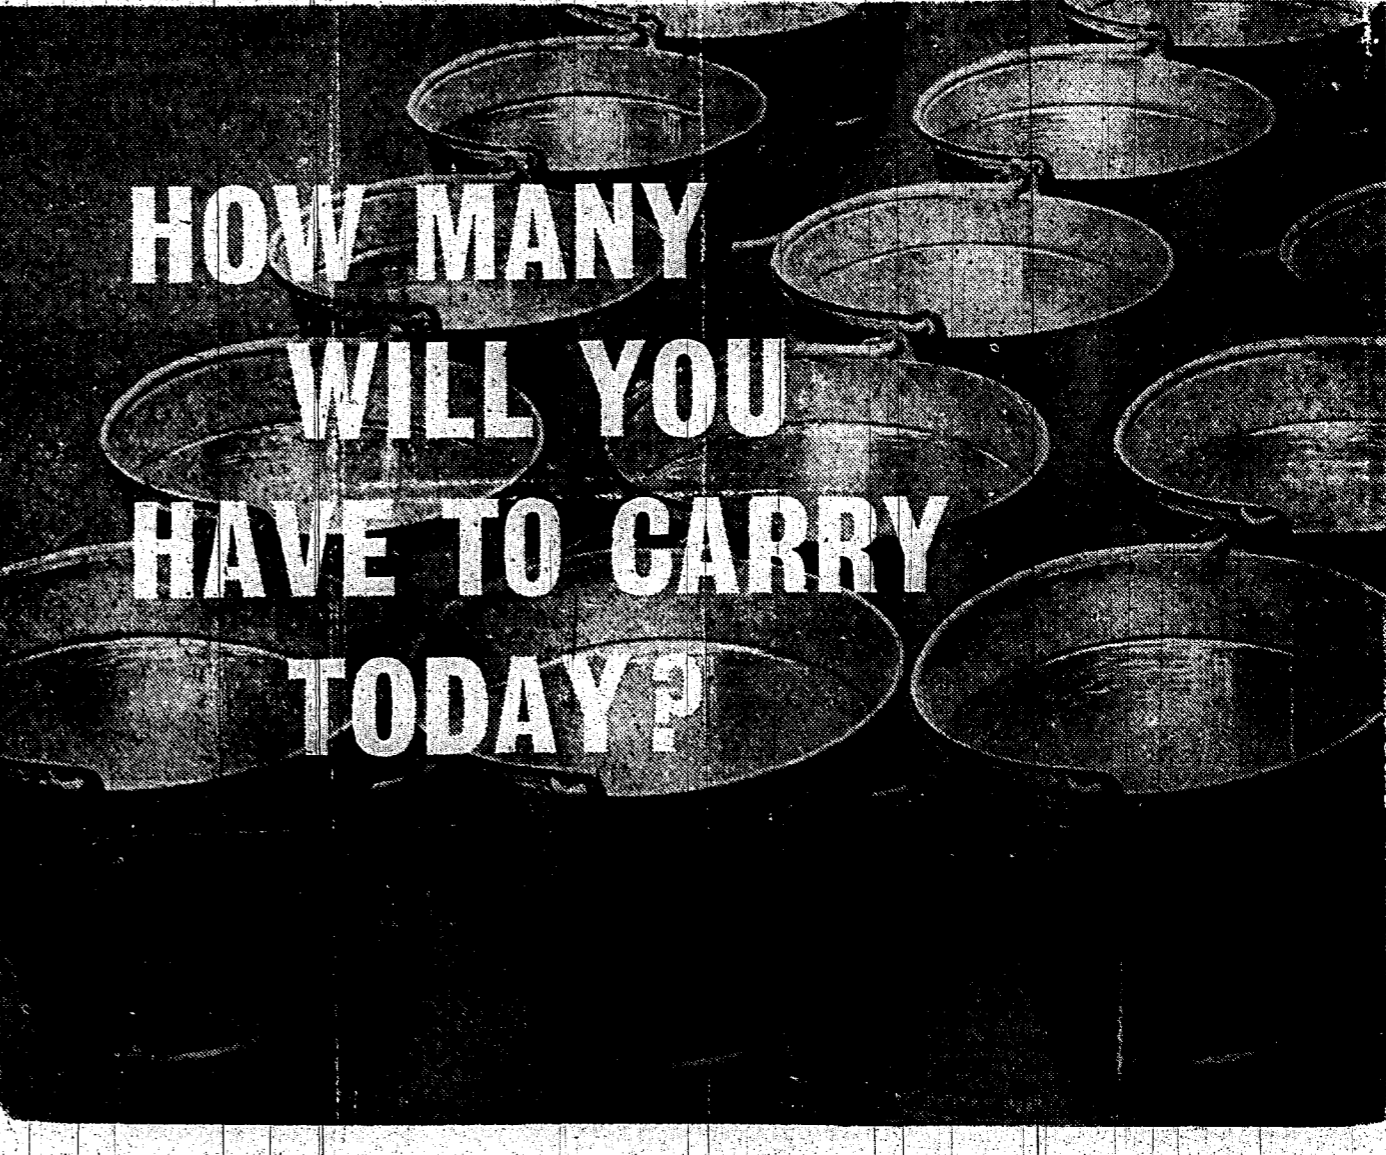

Rice Cup DUNGARVAN FACE CONFIDENT CARRICK

On to-morrow (Friday) night at 8 p.m. Carrick-on-Suir C.B.S. travel to Dungarvan to play the local boys in the Rice Cup. This looks to be a very attractive fixture and with the Dungarvan lads running into top form at the moment, home supporters should have plenty to shout about.

It will be recalled that in the first meeting between these sides, Carrick had a rather comfortable win over their more fancied rivals. Since then they have had two very creditable outings and they have every confidence that they can repeat their success to-morrow. This confidence is largely based on the composition of their team. Very strong down the centre they have some extremely useful performers, and the midfield "diamond" will take some watching.

On their first home showing against Lismore recently, Dungarvan were never in trouble and it will be interesting to see how they fare against tougher opposition. Four of last year's winning team are back with us now—John Murphy, John Clancy, Diamond Flynn and Michael Keys and they form the backbone of the side. It is interesting to note that three of them fill the same positions as last year, midfielder D. Flynn being the only one-man on. Generally speaking, they are a much smaller side than last year's, but they can be no doubting their hurling ability.

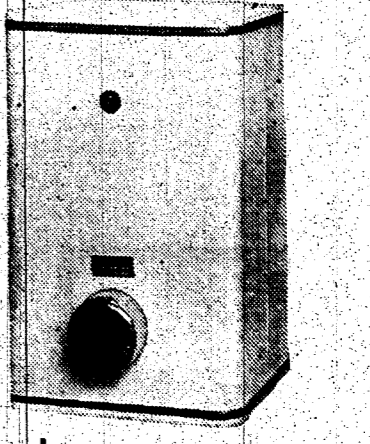

If they can maintain an even tempo for the full 50 minutes and not allow their rivals to take over command at or after the interval, then they should fetch a much important score to mark another victory. The result may hinge on the home full forward line, how even as at times they can be brilliant, but on other occasions they are positively poor. Let's hope they can find their true form for this important game.

HOW MANY WILL YOU HAVE TO CARRY TODAY? AND HERE IS THE SPECIALLY DESIGNED WATER HEATER FOR THE FARM KITCHEN...

On that confetti-strewn morning when you said you'd 'love, honour and obey'... we know you didn't include carrying heavy buckets of water every day. In this season of slim and feminine spring styles, it's not fair for a wife to be still in the unfashionable bucket parade when electricity will carry the equivalent of 400 of these buckets of water to your house for the price of that last cigarette he smoked.

A wonderful 10 gallon water heater that is easily installed under your draining board, and gives you all the hot water you need, automatically. Electric water heating costs less than a jd. a gallon and that's very reasonable. Cash price £15 or convenient H.P. terms.

DEPUTY ORMOND IN THE DAIL

COLLECTING OF PENSIONS
Deputy Ormonde asked the Minister for Social Welfare whether in view of the inconvenience of old age pensioners who live some distance from the office of payment, he will arrange to have their pension sent by post to those who desire this facility.

The Minister replied that an old age pensioner who is unable to attend personally at a Post Office may appoint another person to collect his pension for him. It is considered that this arrangement is adequate to meet the cases of pensioners who find it difficult to go to a Post Office.

PROPOSED HOUSING SCHEME FOR CHECKPOINT
Deputy Ormonde asked the Minister for Local Government about the proposed housing scheme for Checkpoint, County Wick.

The Minister replied that a proposal by Waterford County Council for the acceptance of a grant for the erection of 10 houses at Checkpoint was received in his Department on 8th March. Certain information requested of the housing authority on the 11th March last is being examined by the relevant departments for this scheme has not, however, been received. The housing authority has again been requested to furnish this information.

Successful Claim by Helvick Man

£720 DECREE GIVEN AGAINST COUNTY COUNCIL

DAVID CONDON, Helvick, Dungarvan, was given a decree for £720 with costs and expenses by Judge S. Mac D. Fawsitt, at Dungarvan Circuit Court on Thursday last, in his malicious injury claim against Waterford County Council. Condon's claim was for £3,080 for the alleged malicious burning of a farm building, his property at Glenard, Old Parish and its contents of hay, straw and farm equipment on the night of Jan. 4th/5th last.

The case opened at the Wednesday sittings when evidence for the applicant was concluded (this was reported fully in last week's issue). On Thursday, the case for the defence began but lasted only an hour and a half when Judge Fawsitt gave his decision.

At Thursday's hearing, Mr. J. Veale said he was looking out his bedroom window at about 9.30 p.m. on January 4th when he saw a blaze in full strength. To him it looked as though the stables were on fire.

Mr. F. Morris, B.L. (for applicant)—Do you know your wife in a statement, said the light, she saw that night might have been a tawdry at sea. Witness admitted that he had a controversy with his wife about what it was. He also admitted that when he first saw the light, he thought it was a lighthouse.

Mr. Martin Curran, O.D. Parish said he was going to his own place at about 4.30 p.m. on January 4th when he saw David Condon at Balthamona Cross.

NOT ON GOOD TERMS
Replying to Mr. Morris, witness said he was not on very good terms with Condon. He had occasion to have him summoned once and he (Condon) was fined £5 and bound to the peace.

Mr. Patrick Roche said he was working with Mr. Curran on his farm. When he finished work at 6 p.m. on the evening of January 4th, he went home and later went to Nugent's public house. He left with Jim Barron and Paddy Hennessy after closing time. On his way home he saw a big glare of light down towards the sea and about less than a mile away he could not see if the light was at the sea or on the sea. The light was dead in line with Condon's stables.

The following morning at about 10 a.m. he was leaving sheep out when saw the roof of Condon's stables. There was also a small smouldering of smoke.

Mr. Thomas Tobin, O.D. Parish, said on Friday, January 4, he was working in his haggard after dinner when he saw a man's siding with cattle on Condon's lands. He did not know the man.

Mr. J. F. English, second fire officer to Waterford County Council, said he attended the fire on Saturday, January 5th. The north part of the building was completely burned out and a quarter of the roof on the other portion. In his opinion the fire was burning a considerable length of time—between 12 and 24 hours.

Mr. Morris—You could be wrong in that.

Mr. English—I do not think so.

Mr. Morris—Mr. Condon gave you all the help he could at the fire.

Mr. English—Yes, he was very helpful.

Supt. Moe Costello, Dungarvan, said he attended the scene of the fire on Saturday, January 5th at 4.45. The fire brigade was already in attendance. Some beams were still afloat and members of the brigade removed them. He saw Condon there and had a short discussion with him about the fire. Condon called him away and said he wanted to speak to him. He discussed the fire and also said it was a confidential conversation.

MENTIONED TWO MEN
Supt. Costello went on: "Condon mentioned the names of two men likely to have burned his building, and also mentioned the name of one man who he was not on speaking terms with, and had had legal proceedings with. He told me he had no proof whatsoever that these men did it and said he would not have said it only for my benefit. I thought he looked a bit scared."

A very thorough investigation was made but we have not found a definite culprit. I investigated the two men mentioned by Condon but I am satisfied they did not do it, and I am also satisfied that the other people in the area did not do it.

Judge Fawsitt—By giving you all this information wasn't Mr. Condon being helpful?

Supt. Costello—I do not think so.

To Mr. Morris, witness said there had been four cases of arson in the locality of Grange (6 or 7 miles from Old Parish) Dungarvan 2½ years ago there had been two cases of burnings between August '52 and August '59. Since he came to in the Ring area.

Sergt. Morgan Hayes, Dungarvan, said he was acting Sergeant in Ring at the time of the fire and assisted in the investigations into it. When he visited the scene on January 7, he found no evidence of hay at all. There was some evidence of straw.

On January 6th, Condon made a statement to him saying that on January 5th he went to Glenard at about 2 p.m.

Mr. Morris said it had never been put to his client that he did it but if his statement to Sergt. Hayes was being introduced to establish that Condon was responsible for the burning he would object to it. Judge Fawsitt said the evidence was that the hand of man did it, and the result of the County Council's case was that Mr. Condon himself did it. If this line continued he would adjourn the hearing and allow the criminal issue to be tried.

Mr. Lovati-Dolan, B.L. (for the County Council) said Condon had brought this case himself. The Co. Council did not invite him to do so.

Judge Fawsitt ruled out evidence of the conversation between Sergt. Hayes and Condon as being for the purpose of a prosecution that he interviewed him.

Sergt. P. Mulroy, Ring, said with a group of Gardaí he carried out a search of the debris at Condon's on Feb. 2nd. He found traces of straw and chaff at the northern end. On Feb. 7 he carried out a search of the remaining debris and found a considerable quantity of chaff but no evidence of burned hay.

Detective Officer Foran, Waterford, said he went to Ring to carry out an investigation on January 30th. He had a discussion with Condon at the Garda station.

Mr. Morris—I object to that discussion being given in evidence.

WOULD NOT ALLOW IT
Witness said Condon agreed at his request to go to the station. He had an open mind about it at that time but admitted there were some suspects.

Judge Fawsitt said he would not allow the discussion to be used in evidence.

Mr. Lovati-Dolan, defence counsel, said it was preposterous to exclude such evidence. Making his submissions, he said it was not the Co. Council's case that Condon burned the place himself but they were entitled to criticize his evidence and to show that it was not reliable. Part of Condon's duty was to prove that he did not do it if his claim was to succeed.

Mr. Lovati-Dolan said the applicant had perjured himself in the box and was a liar. The case boiled down to whether it was a neighbour, or himself who set the place on fire.

A doubt existed, he said, and if his Lordship had that doubt he would have to dismiss the claim.

DISGRACEFUL
Mr. Morris (for Condon) said

Kilmacthomas News

Bereavement.—Many expressions of sincere sympathy have been tendered to the family of Mrs. Quilty, Grenada, near Carroll's Cross, Kilmacthomas, on the death of her much esteemed first cousin, the late Mr. John Bove, Curragh Dungarvan, which sad event was chronicled in last week's issue of this paper.

Sincere Regret was occasioned among the members of an expansive friend circle by the death of Balagoua (Lembyria)-born Mrs. Kieley (nee Kivan) which happened at the home of her niece, Mrs. Michael Prendergast, Keeloun, Kilmacthomas, following a period of failing health and at the age of 80 years. The dear departed lady was of a striking disposition and her courtesy, industry and geniality gained for her many lasting friendships. There was a large and respectful attendance at the removal of the remains to St. Bridget's Parish Church, Kilmacthomas, where the coffin was received and blessed by Very Rev. J. Harty, P.P., do.

Subsequent to the celebration of Requiem Masses the next day, interment was made in the adjoining cemetery amidst a very manifestation of sympathy. Rev. M. Barron, C.C., Kilrossanty, assisted by Fr. Harty, P.P., officiated at the graveside.

Sheaves of spiritual bouquets and messages of condolence were received. R.I.P.

Sympathy is further extended to the family of Mrs. R. Wade, Bonmahon, in her bereavement, and loss caused by the death (at his residence in England last week) of her first son, the late Colonel G. H. Coike.

All Prosperity and Happiness to well and popularly known Mr. Richard Prendergast (elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Prendergast, Kilmacthomas, and Miss Breda O'Callaghan (daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. O'Callaghan, Midleton), whose marriage was solemnised with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing at the Church of St. Mary of the Angels, Ballsbridge, London, W.2, on Saturday of yesterday at 9.30 a.m.

In the Parish Church of All Saints, Newtown, on Sunday, 26th inst., was opened the first week of a fortnight's Mission in the parish of Newtown, Kilmacthomas and Kil. Priests of the Redemption. Orders are conducting the series of special religious services. The spacious parish church is thronged for the morning Masses and lectures, and for the evening sermons and devotions, and indications are not lacking that record numbers of the people of Newtown and Kilmacthomas will approach the altar and receive Holy Communion on every Sunday.

Over the coming week the good Missionary Fathers will be engaged in the Church of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, Kill, where the "call of the Mission bell" seems sure to be heeded: right readily and well by the inhabitants of that part of the parish.

Bantraich na Tuaithe.—I.C.A. delegates attending this week's special course at An Grianan, Termonfeckin, Co. Louth, sponsored and organised by the above organisation, include very esteemed: Mrs. M. Murphy, St. Anne's, Kilmacthomas, who is representing the most recently established and oldest Guild thereof here in the Mahon-straddling little town.

A valued playing member of the John McEneaney's football club, Fews, is Mr. Maurice O'Sullivan, Whitestown, Cionea, Power, who, early this week, received a cheque for £5, a prize he won on Friday of last week in the St. Vincent's Pools (Dublin) Daily Dip. Incidentally, following a short spell under treatment for an indisposition, he was recently discharged from and well from Ardkeen General Hospital, Waterford, and is now in radiant health and spirits, out and about daily to the great joy of his many friends and admirers in his native town.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Murphy (farmer), Graigshoneen, Kilmacthomas, is Miss Lilian Murphy, S.R.N., a recent departure from this side to Canada, where she joined her sister, Miss Breda Murphy, S.R.N., who is expected to visit the homeland within the ambit of the present month.

From the Metropolis, holidaying at her parental abode, these days is charmingly manifested Miss Jacqueline Langan, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Langan, Seafield, Kilmacthomas. Looking very fit and well, she is a past pupil of Colaiste Mhuire, Dungarvan, and Rainsgrange Rural Science College.

It is learned that at least three of the pupils of St. Anne's National School, Seafield, Kilmacthomas, will be among the number of entrants taking part in the duly advertised Entrance Scholarship Examination, 1963, to be held at St. Augustine's College,

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

REGATTA

Preparations for the annual Regatta, which will be held on June 21st, are proceeding apace. This year Cappoquin will for the first time have a national championship race, which will be for junior eights. An addition to the programme will be senior and junior curling races which are being included at the request of many clubs who are anxious that this branch of the sport be developed. In between races there will be demonstrations of water-skiing in which locals and well-known exponents from Glway, Kilmacke and other centres will take part.

Creations of the home club are a sailing training and an encouraging prospect for the future of the club is the presence of a large number of newcomers who are being broken in by the captain and vice-captains. Of interest to members has been the appointment of Mr. Jim Brady, as Captain to the Committee in control of championship fixtures.

FIRE

An outbreak of fire which occurred in Unlace's Restaurant, Main Street, in the early hours of Monday morning was effectively dealt with by the local fire-fighting unit, who were quickly on the scene. Using foam spray, on the fire, which had originated in a cooker, it was speedily got under control. The cooking apparatus was destroyed but furniture and fittings escaped damage.

For the convenience of those making the Pilgrimage to Knock Shrine on June 9th Mass will be celebrated in the church at 6.30 a.m.

ON ARMY PILGRIMAGE TO LOURDES

A member of the British contingent of the Army Pilgrimage to Lourdes shrine was Flight Cadet Denis Daly, R.A.F. College, Carrivell. He is son of Commandant D. Daly of the Curragh and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Sargeant.

LATE MRS. M. O'FARRELL

To an esteemed resident, Mr. William O'Farrell, sympathy is extended on the loss he has suffered through the death of his mother, Mrs. Mary O'Farrell (née Condelaine), which took place in Dungarvan Hospital on Sunday morning.

The deceased lady was in her 84th year. She was a well-known and much esteemed person. The remains were removed to Cappoquin Church on Sunday evening and on Monday the interment took place in Lismore. There was a large and representative attendance at the obsequies.

The chief mourners included William, Joseph and Michael (sons); and Margara, (daughter).

Mountain Climbing on Galteemore

The annual climb of Galteemore (3,018 ft.), takes place next Sunday, 2nd June. The north side from the Glen of Aherow is steepest but affords wonderful views passing Liskea Dhiheen in which tradition says the serpent was imprisoned by St. Patrick. The object is to encourage more people to actively participate in outdoor recreation. Each person who reaches the top will receive the Barr Buadha na Binne Award. This is a very popular event with Waterford people.

Will Examine the Cooks and Needlewomen

Currently acting as Examiner for the Department of Education is Miss E. h. Beresford, Coonagour, Dungarvan, who was selected to conduct the practical examinations in Cookery and Needlework at vocational schools in Counties Offaly and Carlow. The examinations cover a period of three weeks.

She is a domestic economy instructor under the County Waterford Vocational Education Committee at Dungarvan Technical School.

N.F.A. NEWS

N.F.A. HAS MADE ITS MARK—B. W. BIESHEUVEL

"Our presence here to-day pays homage to Irish agriculture and to its enlightened leaders who had the wisdom to understand that national and international actions are the two faces of one coin. Unless nations create together the conditions for an orderly international marketing of agricultural produce every thing attempted at national level will be fruitless."

These words were spoken by the President of IFAP when addressing the delegates to the Conference. "This is and," he said, "is definitely outward-looking and its farmers have been among the first to grasp the meaning of contemporary developments. Ireland sits in the centre of the North Atlantic area—by far the largest producer of food on the globe—and many millions of sons and daughters have populated it and enriched lands overseas. Ireland therefore has many reasons for claiming the honour of playing host to this world convention of farmers and we had many reasons to come to her. The N.F.A. is not only one of our youngest members, it is also one of the most active; and the contributions made to IFAP's work by—Mr. Ricardo Deasy, Mr. Sean Healy and Mr. Louis Smith, have already made their mark. Without underplaying the valuable help given to Irish farmers by the Government and the national marketing boards we, as delegates of farmers organisation, will naturally be proud to see that the N.F.A. the vigorous central organisation of Irish agriculture, is playing a growing role in the promotion of these policies."

at this Conference of world farm leaders.

ANGLO-IRISH TRADE AGREEMENTS INADEQUATE

Commenting on the projected changes in British Agricultural Policy as outlined by Mr. Chris Soames, British Minister for Agriculture, the President of N.F.A., Mr. Ricardo Deasy, said these proposed changes are of vital importance to Irish farmers.

For many years British internal agricultural policy has determined the pattern and volume of production on Irish farms.

Mr. Soames' statement implies that further restrictions on the access of agricultural produce to the United Kingdom market. Such a move has hitherto been the counterpart of preferences which United Kingdom producers continue to enjoy on the Irish market. The proposed changes can only be regarded by Irish farmers as a further step in undermining a special trading relationship which has been built up over the years. The series of Anglo-Irish trade agreements which have succeeded one another since 1938 have operated to the advantage of British consumers at the expense of Irish farmers. In addition they have proved themselves inadequate instruments on which to base positive and dynamic policies such as well as agricultural for Ireland.

It must therefore be clearly understood that a decisive stage has now been reached in Anglo-Irish economic relations. Satisfactory long-term trade arrangements must now be found covering the entire range of agricultural exports.

If such arrangements cannot be reached with the United Kingdom they can and must be concluded elsewhere.

He went on to say that with in the Western complex of countries agricultural producers are still confronted with a situation where the continuing spectacular improvement in their productivity is rewarded by lower relative prices as inflationary pressures push non-farm prices to even higher levels. Meanwhile, non-farm incomes are rising so fast that any hope of achieving parity between the countryside and the city man recedes year after year.

He also pointed out that the agricultural economy cannot be left to the mercy of erratic production on heterogeneous farm units, and therefore it is necessary for Governments to organize markets. Governments should harmonize their national and international farm policies for the common good.

He quoted a comment made by the European Regional Committee of IFAP to trade negotiators. "The present systems of trade in agricultural commodities reflect the basic needs of governments in many countries to protect the earning opportunities and living standards of their farm populations; to satisfy basic food requirements; and to assure balanced economic growth. To attain these systems without dealing with the basic factors which prevent farmers from maintaining and improving their income position relative to other sectors of the economy is to attack the symptoms rather than the cause of the difficulties."

DAIRY FARMERS INFURIATED

Great unrest is evident among farmers throughout the country because of the two Government moves recently. This was the unanimous opinion at a meeting held in Limerick, and attended by N.F.A. members from all the Munster counties: Kilkenny and Galway.

Farmers are infuriated at the Government's decision to levy 875 pence per gallon on milk supplies by farmers to creameries as a result from the 1st June. They regard this levy as being particularly obnoxious remembering the loss made by the Government in granting a 1d. increase shortly before. The precedent for such was established before, when the Government reimbursed creameries and their farmers for the 1d. levy taken last May. Farmers are adamant that the very least the Government might do is to pay back the levy to them. Representation on their behalf has already been made by the N.F.A. for its return and farmers are upset by the delay. They await official notification of proposed Government action because they are certain that unless it comes about the whole dairy industry, with its many dependent sections of our economy will be in jeopardy.

"I have always found," he concluded, "a sincere desire to evolve more satisfactory structures of international farm organizations and I will not relax my efforts to bring about a fuller understanding among all those who are trying to work for a better future for farmers everywhere."

"We must maintain our united front of farmers, and working together, show that way to a brighter future where the men who live on the land can at last ensure of their well being and give the opportunity of raising new generations of countrymen to maintain the traditions of human and moral values to which we are all so deeply attached."

RE-ELECTED POLICY CHAIRMAN

One of the first sessions which took place after the opening of the IFAP General Conference in Bray, was that of Dr. Juan N. Greene to the chair of the all important Policy Committee (which is a committee composed of all conference delegates). He was first elected as chairman of this committee at the Conference in Dubrovnik, in 1961.

His re-election to this important post is a tribute to the way in which he discharged his arduous duties during his previous term of office.

In this position, he will be expected to steer discussion on the particular topics under review, give every delegation a fair hearing and see that resolutions are presented and carried so that constructive conclusions can be arrived at.

WATERFORD KILLARNEY

The Kerry County Board are breaking with tradition in a big way on Sunday next when instead of the annual Whit Sunday football challenge at Fitzgerald Stadium, Killarney, they are this year putting on a senior hurling game between Waterford and Wexford.

Even in a County as football-crazy as the Kingdom, the hurling prowess of both Waterford and Wexford is well known and appreciated, and there should be a bumper attendance for this novel if not unique occasion.

The Waterford mentors sat late on Tuesday night picking their team and eleven of the league final side are again on duty.

Gone are Percy Flynn, now replaced by Ned Power, Mick Dempsey who broke his hand playing for 'Sion' on Sunday night, Mick Flannelly (injured) and John Barron, who will be assisting his club De La Salle in the senior football championship.

Replacing the latter three are John Meaney, Fin an O'Brien and Charlie Ware, all of whom are on the brink of permanent injury on the side.

It is gratifying to see Ned Power back between the posts. In Clonmel last week he gave a great goal-keeping display and his return is I think, all for the better.

The defence remains unaltered—and rightly so. Those six backs are the sheet anchor of the side and it will take all the wiles of the Wexford attack to make any impression on them.

With Dempsey injured, John Meaney was the obvious partner for Joe Condon, and it is hoped he takes full advantage of this further opportunity of "playing himself" on to the team.

Due to the unavoidable absence of Mick Flannelly and John Barron, the attack has now been reshuffled. Fin an O'Brien takes over from 'Finn' in the half-line while Seamus

NED POWER . . . recalled to goal for Sunday's tilt with Wexford.

Power is now full-forward with Charlie Ware taking over the vacancy created by Power's transfer at top of the right.

Wexford are also fielding at full strength and if Kerry spectators are treated to anything like the fare served up by these same counties in the National League, then this Whit Sunday Tourney will have been a marked success.

Waterford will travel to Killarney on Sunday morning, returning on Monday night.

The team is: N. Power, T. Cunningham, A. Flynn, J. Byrne, L. Guinan, M. O'Morrissey, J. Irish, J. Condon, J. Meaney, Fin an O'Brien, Tom Chessty, F. Walsh, C. Ware, S. Power, P. Grimes.

Subs—J. Kirwan, P. Flynn, J. McGrath, P. Walsh, C. Cummings.

MITCHELS CAN MASTER DE LA SALLE

John Mitchels, regarded by many as favourite to supplant Kil as senior football champions this year, take the first step towards that treasured title on Sunday next when they meet De La Salle at Walsh Park, Waterford, in the opening round.

Mindful of the fact that the championship is no bed of providing shock results, I nevertheless cannot see a Mitchels falling at this initial obstacle. They are the form team and unless greatly affected by complacency they are my confident choice for the second round.

When beating Ardmore recently they played delightfully open, methodical and attractive football and looked a team of all talents. In defence they possess high-flying solid individuals notably Pete Gough, Wally Connors, Michael Kirwan and Seamus Kenny.

In the centre of the field they have a tireless pairing in Rogie Connors and Noel Kirwan, both abundantly equipped with footballing ability—a partnership unlikely to be subverted by De La Salle.

The advent of newcomer Sean Power has worked wonders with the attack. Off trees he is deadly accurate and De La Salle will pay dearly for any indiscretions near goal, Billy Kirwan at full is as elusive as ever while the opportunism of Tommy Kirwan invariably makes him worth a goal or two.

Not since '58 when they won the title have De La Salle had a worthwhile run in the championship. Their present side will not fail for want of endeavour, but I doubt if the best efforts of John Barron, Noel Dalton, Sonny Walsh and Denis Corcoran will be good enough to beat Mitchels.

NEXT SUNDAY'S PRIMARY CHAMPIONSHIPS

The championship programme for Sunday next is by normal standards an unenticing one with only Primary games listed at Dungarvan and Cappoquin. At the Fraher Field, greatest interest will centre round the football meeting of Kilmurry and Stradbally while Faha and Lismore will meet in a football clash which was postponed on Sunday last, complete "the card" at the venue.

Such is the keenness of the Stradbally-Kilmurry rivalry that any meeting between them, irrespective even of the grade, is almost certain to provide "fireworks". They invariably bring out the best in each other and in keeping with all clashes of these clubs, it should be a closely fought one on Sunday.

Faha, whose second year this is in championship football, after a long lay off, are hoping for a lengthy and successful run in this year's campaign. They have prepared diligently for Sunday's game and are confident of beating Lismore.

To date the Cathedral town club have met with little success. Already their junior hurlers have been beaten by Talow, and they will be hoping for a better fate on Sunday. Little is known of either side outside their own immediate areas and forecasting the outcome is a near impossibility.

AT CAPPOQUIN

The junior hurling winter (now inappropriate) league continues at Cappoquin with the meeting of Geraldines and Colligan Rockies.

Out Aglish way they make no secret of their belief that they will annex the Divisional and County titles this year. On Sunday they will be without Paddy Kenneally (injured) but are still confident of victory.

The Rockies, backed by several regarded seniors are at present a formidable junior force. On Thursday last they inflicted a crushing 14-5 to 0-3 defeat on Brickey Rangers in the Primary championship—a result that truly emphasises the good material at their disposal.

However, I stand by Geraldines to prevail even without Kenneally—they still look a powerfully equipped side and may just succeed in overcoming the Rockies challenge. The second game at the Corbinstown venue is between Kilgobnet and Tourin in Primary football. The former have tasted defeat in every grade that they participate in this year and Sunday offers them their last remaining hope of a championship success in '63.

Their prospects, however, of ending that losing sequence are far from good and it is the writer's view that Tourin, led by the Doocoes and Jimmy and Johnny Gorman will march on with something to spare.

Also listed for Cappoquin on Sunday is the Ballinacourty-Ballyvauff tie—also in Primary football, with the former fancied to advance.

AGLISH TOURNAMENT FINAL

The final of the senior football tournament, sponsored by Geraldines has been fixed for Aglish on Friday night week, June 7th at 7.30.

GERALDINE STAR INJURED

Paddy Kenneally, one of Geraldines most accomplished players and present occupant of the full-forward berth can-

PADDY KENNEALLY (Geraldines)

The County's senior football team will be out of action for six to eight weeks.

While training in Aglish on Wednesday night, of last week he badly injured his ankle and following an X-ray was found to have fractured a bone. The foot was encased in plaster on Monday last so it can be taken as definite that he will miss the first round championship game against Ardmore on June 16th.

Incidentally Roger Ryan is presently at home from England and is expected to be available for that June 16th meeting with Ardmore.

LOCAL DERBY FOR WORTHY CAUSE

To-morrow night (Friday) Dungarvan and Abbeyside meet in a senior hurling challenge at the Fraher field. It is however, a challenge with a difference as the entire proceeds go towards defraying medical costs of an Abbeyside juvenile hurler who recently spent four weeks in Arkeen with an injured knee.

Both clubs are availing of this opportunity of a full-scale pre-championship outing, and the strongest possible teams will be on duty.

This year the Villagers are expected to make a bold and determined bid in the premier competition. They have mustered together a side that by my reckoning is the best for years and on Friday night I expect them to fully vindicate that assessment.

Their defence is particularly strong, with Austin Flynn, John McGrath and Mick Kiely—all of whom are intercounty representatives—the key men. Up front the side also contains its quota of stars and men like Donal Whelan, Johnny Hogan, Tony Mansfield and Liam Enright are dangerous forwards.

What of Dungarvan? Right now it would appear that lean times are ahead. But these Old Boro hurlers have it in them to regain their status at the top and what better way of going about it than by beating the Villagers in this challenge. As yet it is not definite whether Tom Cunningham will be fit to play. He received a bad hand injury against Tipp in Clonmel last week but he hopes to be able to take his place in defence. Others on the casualty list are Jimmy Walsh and John Wood and the latter must be considered a doubtful starter.

While form favours an Abbeyside victory, Dungarvan are always at their best in a local derby and they can be expected to rise to the occasion. Finally at the game is for such a worthy cause it is hoped that followers of both clubs will help by their presence. They should be rewarded with a game of thrills.

BUS TO WATERFORD

John Mitchels Football Club will run a bus to Waterford on Sunday next in connection with the S.F.C. game Mitchels v. De La Salle leaving Mahon-bridge at 2.15 p.m. via Fews and Kilmacshannon Return fare

Abbeyside Win Thrilling Replay

ABBEYSIDE 1-6; DUNGARVAN 2-2

BEFORE Primary hurling champions are crowned in the West this year, it is, I think, logical to assume that there will be a few exciting and closely fought encounters waged. But with equal certainty do I say that none will surpass, in quality, excitement, tension and drama, the replayed first round between Abbeyside and Dungarvan at the Fraher Field on Tuesday night last. Into the second round by the minimum of margins go the Villagers, after belatedly edging out their Old Boro neighbours in sensational fashion.

It was a game so typical of all local "derbies." It was tough; it was uncompromising; it was an infuriating hour in which quarter was not given and in which none were foolish enough to ask for any. But above all it was fought out in a manly and sporting spirit that truly redounded to the credit of both clubs.

It was in fact a tie in which the only tragedy (if that is the appropriate word) was that there had to be a loser. So well did both teams play and so evenly matched were they in all sections of the field, that a draw would perhaps have been a fairer all-round result. For truly speaking neither side deserved to lose.

With that statement, however, let me hasten to add that no attempt is being made to take from Abbeyside's victory. They got off on the wrong foot when conceding a first minute goal; they were again led at a crucial period in the second-half, yet found sufficient reserves of energy, determination and hurling heart to storm their way to victory.

FORWARDS WEAK

Doubtless, Dungarvan fans will lay the blame for defeat at the doorstep of their forwards. And while criticism is rather out of place considering the thrilling nature of the game, it is their attacking sector that must shoulder the major portion of the blame for defeat. In the first half in particular when on top, they had chances aplenty to have built up a sizeable interval lead but instead found themselves trailing by 1-3 to 1-1 at the break.

In an effort to bolster up the sector, wholesale switches were made up front. But to no avail. They simply could not elude the tenacious village defence for the scores that could so easily have swung the game in their favour.

The Abbeyside forwards also—both collectively and individually, caught a tartar in Dungarvan's defence. They wisely attempted to open up the play at all times in their search for decisive scores.

OVER-SHADOWED

Thrilling as that first half had been, it was completely overshadowed by the second-half. For twelve long minutes Abbeyside hung tenaciously to their two-point lead, before a Dungarvan goal gave the Blues a slender, insecure point lead. Within minutes the sides were level and after both goals bore charmed lives, Dungarvan again hit the front by the slimmest of margins.

The closing ten minutes were agonising for both sides. It was painfully obvious that the slightest slip could prove a fatal one and neither of them were prepared to risk anything.

Then with only seven minutes left for play Abbeyside again regained equilibrium with a well-taken point. With baffling rapidity attack followed counter-attack but as the game ebbed to its entirely another draw seemed imminent.

WINNING POINT

In these dying moments the Villagers pined on the pressure to raise another flag in the eyes of defenders. First a "70" was skied out for a side-line cut; a dangerous centre was somehow scrambled to safety, and less than a sixty seconds were left when midfielder Sean Fitzgerald snapped up one of those desperate defensive clearances to fire over the match-winning point.

THE SCORING

The game got off to a tremendous start when full-forward Sean Power connected with a centre from Matty Walsh and the Old Boro were a goal up after only a minute's play. In the seventh minute, a 21 yards free by Pakie Hogan was saved but Hogan gained possession from the rebound to crash home an unsavable equaliser. Two minutes later Hogan pointed another close-in free but within seconds Matty Walsh again made it all square, with a long range point scored in effortless fashion. Despite numerous chances Dungarvan failed to raise another flag in this half and points by Hogan (free) and Duggan left them 1-3 to 1-1 ahead at the break.

For twelve minutes of the second half there wasn't a score recorded against either

LAST SUNDAY'S GAMES

PRIMARY GAMES AT CAPPOQUIN

In the first of three Waterford primary championship games at Cappoquin on Sunday, Cashmore accounted for the Nire far more comfortably than their four point winning margin suggests on the Clashmore 1-3; The Nire, 0-2. They led 1-0 to 0-2 at the half way stage and added a further three points without reply to qualify comfortably for the second round. The winners were best served by the Lenmons, Kenneally, O'Rourke and Hurton, while for the losers, Croity, O'Grady, Phelan and Kearney did well.

Cashmore: R. Dee, P. O'Neill, T. Lennon, W. Lennon, F. Kennedy, J. Flavin, P. O'Rourke, T. Roche, E. Lombard, P. Mulcahy, J. Lennon, P. Huron, M. McCarhy, T. Lennon, B. Sheehan.

The Nire: T. Brazil, J. Wall, J. Brazil, J. Wall, M. Wall, T. Croity, M. Wall, M. Comerford, P. Wall, J. Wall, J. Phelan, J. Kearney, J. McGrath, J. Croity. Referee: Mr. P. J. McGrath (Brickey Rangers).

WILL TAKE BEATING

Each and every man in the blue and gold jerseys puffed his weight in victory. Determination and a never-say-die spirit was the real forte and they are going to take some beating in this championship.

Pea'ar Wall who replaced the injured "Pats" Whelan in goal did an exceedingly good job while full backs Bernard Shields, Michael Hogan and Cyril Farrell literally "whipped" on everything.

Their half-line also played immaculately all through. Tommy Donovan never put a foot astray at right half; Paddy Flynn sealed up the centre most effectively while Tommy Leahy revelled in the toughness of the exchanges.

Nor can one overlook the great display given by young Pats when called in as a sub early in the game. His hurling belied his tender years and is obviously one for "future grooming".

Midfielders Pakie Hogan and Sean Fitzgerald played sterling hurling at periods and both got important scores.

Their forwards got little change from the Blues rear-guard but Rogie Cashin and Pat McGovern got in some useful work.

STARS WERE IN DEFENCE

Dungarvan's stars were in defence. Their goalkeeper Jim Walsh inspired confidence at all times and was faultless for the lone goal that beat him.

All three full-backs gave magnificent performances. Jimmy Walsh played a real captain's part and bottled out danger man Phil Duggan; Mick Fitzgerald repeatedly thundered out to effect relieving clearances and John Lyons, despite leg and head injuries never faltered.

At centre-half Johnny Mahoney gave a masterly display. He knuckled down to the task on hands from the very start but his mind the best hurler's field. At right-half Donal Whelan also turned in a faultless performance. Newcomer Matty Walsh made an impressive debut at midfield while John Woods until forced to retire with a head injury gave him good assistance.

The team's weaknesses were in attack, best of which was Mikeen Lyons, Rally and sub Eamon McCarthy.

Mr. Jimmy O'Gorman, Tourin handled the game excellently.

FINAL OF LOCAL LEAGUE ON SUNDAY

The final game of the day Ballysaggart defeated Kilgobnet in a game in which standard goalkeeping rather than brilliant forward play, contributed to the high goals total on both sides, the final score being: Ballysaggart, 7-2; Kilgobnet, 5-2. The standard was no high but the game was earnestly and very cleanly contested. Indeed the standard of sportsmanship in all three games was high.

Mr. R. J. Mason, Cappoquin, refereed.

Abbeyside Juvenile League

This league is going "great guns" at the moment, with eight teams battling bravely for supremacy. Last week Tommy Casey's team had a convincing win over Liam Waters' team. The final score of that match was: T. Casey's, 6-5; Liam Waters, 2-3.

On Saturday night last we saw the best game in the league so far. It produced some brilliant hurling and on this form Abbeyside should be able to hurl a very good juvenile team.

The game was played at a cracking pace throughout, and by this win D. Casey's team must be regarded favourites to win the league. The final score was: D. Casey's, 5-5; Tommy Casey's, 4-1.

Best for the Clancy team were: David Dee, Jimmy O'Dea, Tommy Mooney, Jimmy Needham, Dermot Clancy, Humphrey Kelliher and Paddy Cashin.

Outstanding for the Casey side were: Tommy Casey, Tom Flynn, Desmond Smith, Ian Mooney, B. Riordan and "Speedy" Cleary.

On Sunday night Brian O'Connor's team had an easy win over Liam Waters' side. The final score being: the O'Connor, 6-6; the Waters, 2-1.
