LISMORE HOTEL

Just completed after a renovation which seen the bar and lounge being changed into one of the latest and most upto date styles, the spacious porch and many other apartments getting a new look and design, is Lismore Hotel, regarded as one of the leading hotels in the south. When speaking recently to the proprietor, Manchester-born Mr. A. Boam in his new look hotel, he remarked that already it was proving a great year, and added that if the present good weather continued it should prove a record season. And indeed, no one deserves better luck than this great business-man, who has gone so much to bring visitors and holidaymakers to Lismore. Incidentally, it is also worth noting that all the improvement work to the hotel was carried out by local tradesmen. The woodwork was done by Seamus Power and the painting by Michael Bransfield.

HOW MANY WILL YOU HAVE TO CARRY TODAY?

On that confetti-strewn morning when you said you'd "love, honour and obey", we know you didn't include carrying heavy buckets of water every day. In this season of slim and feminine spring styles, it's not fair for a wife to be still in the unfashionable bucket parade when electricity will carry the equivalent of 400 of these buckets of water to your house for the price of that last cigarette he smoked. In the spring of 1963, no house should be without water on tap. The bucket is fast disappearing off the Irish road and good riddance to this time-consuming, back-breaking symbol of the past. Ask your H.S.B. representative for details of the E.S.B.'s Pump Advisory Service and avail of the Government and local Authority Grants to bring water to your home.

AND HERE IS THE SPECIALLY DESIGNED WATER HEATER FOR THE FARM KITCHEN...

A wonderful 10 gallon water heater that is easily installed under your draining board, and gives you all the hot water you need, automatically. Electric water heating costs less than a 4d. a gallon and that's very reasonable. Cash price £15 or convenient H.P. terms.

Nire
The death of Mrs. Alice Fahy, late of the Nire, took place in St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan, on Tuesday, June 4th. She had reached an advanced age. Late Maurice Flynn
MAIN STREET

The people of Dungarvan and surrounding districts were shocked to hear of the unexpected death of Mr. Maurice (Monnie) Casey which occurred unexpectedly at his residence, Main Street, Dungarvan, on Saturday last.
Aged 72 years, the late Mr. Casey was one of nature's gentlemen and was deservedly popular with all sections of the community.
For many years he carried on a successful hardware business from which he retired only a few years ago, and which is now being carried on by his son John.
The repairs were removed to St. Mary's Parish Church on Sunday evening followed by a large and representative cortege, testifying to the high esteem in which deceased was held.
The burial took place in the adjoining cemetery on Monday in the presence of another large cortege. Rev. J. Murphy, officiated at the graveside.
Deepest sympathy is extended to his wife Mrs. M. Casey, his son, John; his daughter, Mrs. A. Nicholson; Mrs. J. Casey (daughter-in-law) and Mr. A. Nicholson (son-in-law).

To illustrate this point further, a pump failure took place at approximately 9 p.m. on 3rd June. This fault was apparently not discovered by the Council staff until approximately 8 a.m. the following morning when it was rectified.
This problem would be solved by introducing a proper alarm system to alert the Council staff responsible, in order to rectify the fault, whilst an extension could be wired to the Creamery for the information of Creamery management.
I remain,
Yours faithfully,
J. FOLEY,
General Manager.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Sir
As the Manager of a concern which pays considerable rates I was most perturbed to read the account in the local Press of the meeting of the Dungarvan Urban Council, at which the matter of the failure of the water supply was discussed.
In reply to allegations against the management of the Creamery made by the Chairman at that meeting it is my duty to point out that there IS an alarm system established in the Creamery. This system operates when

SYMPATHY
At a special meeting of the Sea Angling Club on Saturday night a vote of sympathy was passed to Messrs John Casey and A. Nicholson on their recent bereavement.

WEDDING BELLS
The wedding took place at St. Mary's Parish Church, Dungarvan on Saturday June 1st between Mr. Martin Foley, son of the late Mrs. and Mrs. Patrick Foley, Ballynourty, and Miss Rose Murray, daughter of Mr. B. and the late Mrs. May Murray, L. Main St., Dungarvan.
The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Murphy C.C.
Mr. Eugene McCarthy was best man and Miss Eileen Hayes acted as bridesmaid. The reception was held in the Park House.

the water level in our own header tank reaches a low level and is activated almost daily when the water pressure decreases owing to peak usage in Dungarvan. We have an auxiliary supply which will tide us over a short period of low pressure from the mains but the alarm at the Creamery can not differentiate between low pressure and pump failure.
In the event of the main supply pumps failing our auxiliary supply is not sufficient to meet the demands made on it; therefore unless an immediate warning is given when the pumps fail it is impossible to prevent harm coming to the product or plant owing to the effects of overheating. I suggest that our own alarm system which alerts Management to decreases in the mains pressure ought to cover management responsibilities.
With due respects to the Chairman I feel that his comments regarding alarm systems might well have been directed at the Council Staff responsible. The existing Council alarm system seems to rest entirely on chance. I quote from the local Press account: "The contractors foreman, who was there at the time notified that it had stopped but he did not have the key and drove into town. On the way he ran out of petrol. In the meantime the Contractor came along and he came straight into town and notified the Creamery, he then came to my house, said Mr. Walsh and I went out. I would ask your readers to judge for themselves whether this is the calibre of organisation for which the ratepayer foots the bill."
To illustrate this point further, a pump failure took place at approximately 9 p.m. on 3rd June. This fault was apparently not discovered by the Council staff until approximately 8 a.m. the following morning when it was rectified.
This problem would be solved by introducing a proper alarm system to alert the Council staff responsible, in order to rectify the fault, whilst an extension could be wired to the Creamery for the information of Creamery management.
I remain,
Yours faithfully,
J. FOLEY,
General Manager.

N.F.A. NEWS Turkey Report at Last

TURKEY REPORT AT LAST
The recent report of the Poultry Production Council on turkey marketing comes at the end of a lengthy period of investigation which dates back to the special Marketing Advisory Committee which commenced in 1957.

Producers generally have been patient and certainly if we are to revive and develop a very important industry particularly where small farmers are concerned the powers that be must now take positive action.
Turkey numbers which were 1,626,000 in 1953, fell to 871,700 in 1962. Exports were worth £2.5m. in 1953, while in 1962 they earned only £350,000.

These drops in numbers and value were caused in part by the large increase in turkey production in Britain coupled with the development there of over-ready birds. Further demand for such turkeys at the year round is likely to continue and it is to be regretted that we never made the most of the opportunities afforded us in this field. Indeed, the Report says that "in the absence of the steady production of over-ready turkeys in the country for export, our turkey export trade will almost certainly disappear. This must not be allowed to happen."

The Poultry Production Council admits that the failure on the part of producers has been due to "the lack of any assurance as to the price which will be obtainable at the time of marketing and therefore of any incentive to improve methods. We have high quality strains in the country and therefore it is fair to conclude that the present state of this industry is due to the breakdown and unimaginative approach at the marketing end. The N.F.A. Poultry Committee agrees that one of the first steps should be the promotion of early-patched poulters from licensed hatcheries and welcomes the suggestion of a variable subsidy to speed this development in the hope that there would be increased turkey production in the early part of the year. Processing firms must be ready to enter in the advance arrangements with producers and capital must be provided on credit for the purchase of poulters and feed. An over-all Association is suggested in the Report but we in the N.F.A. have repeatedly called for a Poultry and Eggs Board with adequate representation of all interests. The sooner this is brought into being the sooner will we be getting prices.

Producers will rally behind any positive action that is being taken provided that they are assured of an air deal. Past experience in other endeavours shows that our farmers are capable of organised production and marketing. Their National Association will back them in any group effort and we expect a new approach on a co-operative footing, on the part of processors and exporters in the interests of all. We note with pleasure one of the concluding sentences in the Report which said that "there will, of course, continue to be scope for small scale production of turkeys by the traditional method to cater for the demands of the home trade, and it is hoped for the export of fresh birds."

URGENT MATTERS RELATING TO THE DAIRY INDUSTRY WERE DISCUSSED WEEK AT A MEETING OF THE SUB-COMMITTEE OF THE N.F.A. LIQUID MILK GROUP. ON SEVERAL PROBLEMS INVESTIGATIONS HAVE BEEN STARTED AND INFORMATION IS BEING GATHERED IN ORDER THAT A HARD AND FAST CASE CAN BE PRESENTED ON BEHALF OF LIQUID MILK PRODUCERS.

There is considerable dissatisfaction for example at the difference in price being paid to the producers and that paid by the consumer. It is felt that there is ample room in this gap in prices for an increase to producers. Members stated in no uncertain terms that ample allowance is not being made to them for the high cost of milk production during the winter months. Little or no recognition has been given to increases which must be borne by farmers in labour, utensils, food stuffs, transport, etc.

Some of those present expressed the opinion that there was not sufficient supervision of dairies and they asked the N.F.A. Liquid Milk Committee to investigate the possibility of bringing supervisory regulations in dairies more into line with those presently being practised in Creameries throughout the country. GRASS-SEED POSITION UNSATISFACTORY

Prospects for this year's grass-seed sales, from the growers' point of view, were discussed at a meeting held last week between representatives of the N.F.A. County Committee of Agriculture, and the Irish Grass-Seed Cleaners Association. According to the last named body the prospects for grass-seed were very poor due to existing surpluses at national and international levels. They claimed that they were not in a position to state what price would be paid to farmers for this year's crop.

This leaves the farmers concerned on the horns of a dilemma. Unless a satisfactory price is assured, then they will not know whether to cut for hay or for seed. The disappointing growth of grass in many areas seems to indicate a scarcity of fodder next winter and for this reason alone farmers would be more than ready to cut for hay unless a fair return is guaranteed to them in seed prices. Members of the Irish Grass Seed Cleaners also pointed out that only the best quality would be in demand anyway.

FRUIT PRICES FIXED
The annual meeting between N.F.A. Fruit Committee and the Irish Jam Manufacturers Association to agree on prices for the coming season was held this week. After long discussions the following prices were offered by the Jam Manufacturers: Strawberries, 93/4d per cwt. delivered depot (pugged) and 79/4d per cwt. delivered factory (un-pugged). Raspberries, 121/4d per cwt. delivered factory or on farm; Blackcurrants, 149/4d per cwt. delivered, factory or on farm; Gooseberries, 80/- per cwt. ex-farm. The fruit growers said that they were not willing to accept less than 89/- per cwt. for Strawberries and the final offer of the Jam Manufacturers was recommended at a future meeting of the committee. This is in the light of weather conditions to the point of depressing fields on the market price in Britain increases more than present indications. The prices at present offered compare with last year's prices as follows: Strawberries increased by 5/10d. per cwt.; Raspberries unchanged; Blackcurrants, reduction of 18/8d. per cwt.

There was no fixed price for Gooseberries last year, but prices varying from 75/- to 84/- prevailed. The world market for Strawberries and Raspberries is much more buoyant than it has been in recent years. Growers will recall that in 1960 the price for Strawberries was cut from 98/- to 84/- largely on account of a depression in world prices. Costs have increased considerably since 1958 and there is a widespread feeling that it would not be unreasonable to return to that year's prices. On the other hand Blackcurrants are in over supply. This follows the imposition of a tax on soft drinks in Britain and a consequent decline of consumption of Blackcurrant juice. At the moment the crop prospects are fairly good and it is to be hoped therefore that this year growers will not suffer unduly from reduced prices. The Sugar Company growers will continue to be paid on the former basis, that is a basic price for Strawberries 70/- per cwt. (pugged); Raspberries, 85/- per cwt.; Blackcurrants, 104/- per cwt. A bonus of half the profit realised on sale is subsequently added to this price. 1960 and '61 Strawberries growers got a bonus of 3/- per cwt. but this was down to 3/6 last year. Growers generally expected that the buoyant demand for Strawberries would have resulted in a higher bonus last year. It is understood that due to the late sales, the 1962 bonus for Blackcurrants has not yet been decided. NATIONAL PLAN BEING PREPARED
The plan for Economic expansion for the rest of this decade is being prepared by the Government. This is the second such plan and it will proceed in two stages according to an Taoiseach, Mr. Sean Lemass. In the course of the next few weeks the first part will be published. This will contain an assessment of the conditions—national and international—which we are likely to meet in the years immediately ahead.

economic and social aims must be combined with a comprehensive programme. It is to be noted that the social aspects of the problems ahead are to be the "end product" of Economic achievement. This is something that the N.F.A. has always emphasised. The social implications of solving agricultural problems are more important and more deserving of immediate attention than any other industry. DE-HORNING PAYS:
Farmers should remember that hornless stock invariably makes more money than horned animals of comparable quality. It is highly desirable therefore, that all calves should be dehorned. Horned cattle require more space in railway wagons, on board ships, and in feeding yards. They are more liable to injury in transit and as everyone knows are a major cause of bulging and damage to carcasses with resultant downgrading and All calves both bull and heifer which are not intended for breeding purposes should be dehorned before the second or seventh day of age. The best method is by rubbing the tip of each horn alternately with a stick of caustic potash until a slight trace of blood appears. Care should be taken to avoid wetting the surrounding skin.

CRUSHING DEFEAT WAS NOT SURPRISING

The shattering 2-14 to 2-1 defeat inflicted by Cork on the Deise footballers in the senior championship at Fermoy, on Sunday last, occasioned little or no surprise throughout this County.

For Waterford, this game, important though it undoubtedly was, meant nothing more than the fulfilment of a fixture. Their preparation for this game was practically nil thanks to the negligence of the County Board, who completely overlooked their claims for training and match-practice. Indeed the side was not selected until late last week and some players knew of their selection only 24-hours before the game.

Surely to goodness the Waterford County Board could have treated the footballers in a better and more courteous manner. Instead of calling them together at a suitable venue for training sessions they belatedly named a team and then sent them to Fermoy, totally unprepared to tackle the might of Cork. The County's big ball men deserve the utmost co-operation of those in authority but instead they are being cold-shouldered and overlooked and yet are expected to work miracles in the championship.

The game itself was so one-sided that many of the big sized attendance were streaming through the second half. At the interval the Leesiders were "home and dried" when leading by 1-10 to 0-1 and it was only in the final six minutes that Waterford scored their brace of goals.

UNDERSTRENGTH HURLERS NARROWLY

For the second successive Sunday Waterford wound up at the losing end of a hurling challenge when Cork beat them 4-12 to 3-10 at Fermoy on Sunday night.

But lest there may be an air of despondency following this Cork defeat, let me assure readers that Waterford, minus seven regulars distinguished themselves creditably and only lost the initiative at the game in the final five minutes. Also the goals that decided the issue came when Percy Flynn had replaced Ned Power who in all probability would have been equal to the efforts of Richie Browne and Christy Ring.

While Waterford, understrength that they were, treated the game strictly as a challenge, the Leesiders' approach was of an entirely different nature. They contested every ball as though the championship was at stake and on several occasions some of their players stepped well outside the bounds of sportsmanship. Several Deise men were on the receiving end of uncalculated attacks and worst of all Frankie Walsh was laid low after a third attempt by a Cork defender "to fell him."

It was a pity that this otherwise exciting challenge had to be marred by these incidents. Without fear or favour it can be stated that Waterford blankly refused to join issue with their opponents in that unadvised and hurried in sportsmanlike fashion right to the end.

When one considers that Waterford fielded without Jimmy Byrne, Larry Guinan and Martin Morrissey in defence, Mick Dempsey and Phil Grimes and Mick Flannely in attack the merits of their display can be really gauged. They dictated the trend of the game for three-quarters of an hour and on the run of play were worth at least a division of the spoils.

Their outstanding performers were goalkeeper Ned Power (until replaced), Austin Flynn, Tom Cunningham, Tony Mansfield who scored 2-3, Frankie Walsh and John Barron.

Cork are certainly determined make this their year. They hit hard and often and their Munster semi-final clash with Tipperary is going to be a grinding, enduring and rugged one.

On Sunday their best performers were Seanie O'Brien in goal; defenders Doolan and Jerry O'Sullivan and Paddy Barry, Richie Browne and Patsy Harte in attack.

KILROSSANTY OPEN CHAMPIONSHIP CAMPAIGN

Even at this premature stage there are many who believe that the luck of this year's football draw will mean an all-Kilrossanty final between John Mitchell's and the wearers of the green and gold. Already the Mitchells have advanced to the second round and on Sunday night next (7.30 p.m.) Kilrossanty will be endeavouring to do likewise when they meet the group team Eire Og at Walsh Park, Waterford.

Kilrossanty endowed with such a splendid championship tradition, must start favourites but Eire Og will be by no means outclassed and one cannot rule out the possibility of a shock result.

Be that as it may, the Comragh men optimistically face this year's championship campaign. Their Phelan Cup form suggests they are blending effectively at the right time, and should they reproduce the football displayed in the second-half against Dungarvan in their recent Phelan Cup tie, then it is doubtful if we will be provided with a shock result.

Eire Og however, despite the magnitude of their task are not over-awed by Kilrossanty's great tradition. Comragh's juniors, comprised of the juniors from Newown, Ballyduff and Rathspargue, they are certainly well equipped in football material and even without former inter-county star John Hubbard are quietly confident of ascending the county at large.

Nevertheless, I firmly stand by Kilrossanty to put aside the challenge of this "combo" side. Their defence, brilliantly marshalled by Jimineen Power, Matty Loneragan, Sean Ormonde and Jimmy Maher is soundness personified while their own forwards—particularly Tom Flynn and Riordan, should be good enough to obtain the scores that would book them their passage to the second round.

STRADBALLY FANCIED

Hope spring eternal for all championship aspirants and when Stradbally and Gaultier meet in the only other first round game on Sunday evening—also at Waterford, both will be hoping for a memorable start to the most coveted of all campaigns.

While Stradbally's record over the past few years has been the more impressive, neither of Sunday's rivals have proved themselves to be exactly models of consistency. Their tendency to turn in indifferent displays is unfathomable and this first round game could go either way.

That Stradbally possess the "right stuff" is beyond question. In T. Walsh, T. Foley, P. Power, Terry and Jimmy Guiry, Ken Murphy, Jimmy Mansfield and teenager Pat Clancy they have the nucleus of a good side and should they hit it off then I can visualise them qualifying for a tilt at the fancied John Mitchels.

Gaultier's championship efforts have to date met with little success. But this year, more determined than ever they hope to make worthwhile progress. Their fanatical enthusiasm and undoubted ability leaves them in with a great chance of victory on Sunday and they cannot be written off by a long shot.

Yet the Reds are my choice to prevail. Experience is on their side and although the issue should be very close indeed they may be on the right side of a slender winning margin.

WESTERN CHAMPIONSHIPS PROGRESS

Slowly but surely the Western championships in all grades move nearer completion. During the coming week several games are down for decision with one of two shock results not unlikely.

On Sunday Ballinacorney meet Ballyduff in Primary Hurling at Cappoquin and even without star-forward Michael Kelleher (injured) Ballinacorney should win with something to spare.

The only Primary football game on Sunday brings Tallow and Affane into action at Lisimore and the former are given the vote in what should be a closely-contested game.

On Tuesday night three championship ties are listed, the first of which will be the local derby between Dungar-van and Abbeyside in juvenile hurling at the Fraher field.

Both clubs are reputed to have exceptionally strong teams this year and it is more than a possibility that the winners "will go the distance."

The remaining Tuesday night games are in the minor football championship in which Stradbally and Cappoquin are likely to meet. Ballyduff and St. Carthage's (Lismore) at Aghish and Cappoquin respectively.

HURLING PANEL TO BE NAMED TO-NIGHT

The panel of players to go into training for the senior hurling championship semi-final against Limerick on July 7th will be picked to-night (Thursday). Incidentally, this game against the Shannonsiders will be played in Cork.

On the previous Sunday (June 30th) Tipperary and Cork met in the other semi-final at Limerick.

BENEFIT GAME AT KILMACHTHOMAS

A senior football challenge game for a very worthy cause will take place on the newly acquired Gaelic pitch in Kilmachthomas on Friday of next week, June 21st, between John Mitchels and Mour, Sion.

Both clubs will field a full strength and if they play their normal brand of open, attractive football the game should be a classic.

GERALDINES-ARMORE GAME POSTPONED

Because of the Corpus Christi Procession in Dungarvan, the senior football championship game between Geraldines and Armore fixed for Fraher Field on Sunday next has been postponed to the following Sunday.

CELL ON SUNDAY NIGHT

As can be seen from our "Local Happenings" columns the local Wolfe Tone Bicentenary Committee are holding a cell in the Town Hall, Dungarvan on Sunday night next.

The committee, honouring a great Irish patriot, deserve the support of all and a big attendance is expected.

AGLISH TOURNEY FINAL

Geraldines confirmed their championship superiority of last year over Brickeys Rangers when defeating them by a solitary point in the Aglish tournament final at Aglish on Friday night last.

But, unfortunately this game was badly marred by over-robustness and frequent bouts of fist-cuffs that were totally uncalculated for. One Aglish player was removed to hospital and over-all the standard of sportsmanship was disastrously low.

Decies Fail in fiery Challenge

CORK - 4-12 WATERFORD - 3-10

THE phrase "fire and brimstone" has been frequently used adjectively in the after accounts of hurling encounters in recent months. And how appropriate it is to describe last Sunday night's senior hurling challenge at Fermoy in which Cork scored a five points victory over an understrength Deise side.

The bite and needle that characterised the exchanges were of a championship nature. Cork in particular, were earnestly dedicated to their task and the game might well have been a Province decider so far as they were concerned. From the opening whistle the Leesiders made their intentions clear to all and sundry. For them victory was imperative and they were not too concerned about the manner in which it was achieved.

During the hour many of their players resorted to untidy acts that contravened with all the laws of sportsmanship and some of them can consider themselves very fortunate not to have viewed the closing stages from the sidelines.

Waterford, on the other hand, accepted the whole affair for what it was—a challenge, the result of which bore little significance. They fielded without seven of their League friends and their performance on the whole was entirely satisfactory.

Footballers Heavily Defeated

CORK 2-14 WATERFORD 2-1

SELDOM has the picturesque Fermoy venue been the setting for so complete an annihilation as on Sunday last when Waterford's footballers, to no one's surprise, bowed ingratiously from this year's senior championship. Their conquerors, Cork, cruised in trouble-free fashion to yet another Munster decider but with their potential as yet of an untested nature.

The more one was to elaborate on this sad spectacle, the clearer would become the all too many shortcomings of this Waterford side. They were played in all sectors from first to last and can consider themselves fortunate that their defeat was no heavier.

They tried hard, that much at least is to their credit. But endeavour alone had little effect as the challenge of a dog to a lion, and the host of Deise supporters must have been as dispirited as the team itself was disoriented.

But if criticism is to be levelled, then it is the County Board who must shoulder much of the blame for this football catastrophe. The Board didn't even bother to send out a team to arrange training sessions for the team, but sent them unprepared into enemy territory—a task they had as much chance of accomplishing under such circumstances as the proverbial snowball in Hades.

The Leesiders, by far the superior side, gained possession from practically every aerial duel into the bargain, they skillfully exploited the all-round physical advantage and won "in an absolute manner."

An indication of just how one-sided the game really was, is the fact that Waterford secured their brace of goals inside the final six minutes, when quite obviously, Cork were satisfied with their afternoon's work. Those goals had merely the effect of putting a slightly more respectable appearance on the score-board at least from a Deise viewpoint.

The foundation work for Cork's sweeping victory was well and truly completed in the opening half. They turned their overwhelming territorial advantage into a highly profitable one and unassailably led by 1-10 to 0-1 at the interval.

Waterford experienced cruel bad luck within minutes of the restart when Paddy Duggan placed Tommy Kirwan only for the Mitchels' man to see his crashing drive rebound off an upright with the Cork goalkeeper beaten to the goal. They immediately forced two fruitless fifties and thereafter their challenge petered out leaving Cork undisputed masters.

Agonisingly they laid siege to Waterford's goal, emphatically, emphasising the differential in football ability. With remarkable ease they went into a 2-14 to 0-1 lead with more than half the spectators filing homewards.

Then in the closing six minutes came Waterford's goals. The first was scored by Tommy Kirwan and a minute from time substitute Paddy Walsh was on hand to fist to the net after the Cork goal had been misjudged a high centre.

Clearly Waterford football needs complete remodeling. Sunday's side never moved or played as a unit, and their individualism only continuously got them into trouble.

So poor was the Deise opposition, the Cork must be regarded as something of an unknown quantity. They looked world beaters on occasions on Sunday but it would be wisest to reserve a verdict on them until more formidable opposition is encountered.

Their defence was never seriously tested but Timmy Callaghan, Mick Bohane and Johnny Flynn cleared effortlessly anything that came their way.

At midfield, Con Sullivan and Eric Ryan kept their forwards almost continuously in the attack. They outplayed a variety of Waterford midfield pairings and were undoubtedly the architects of victory.

Their attack thrived on the perfect service and all six started.

What of Waterford? Truthfully their challenge was a feeble one and a shattering defeat was eminent from an early stage.

Goalkeeper Sean Ormonde never put a foot wrong all through but in an over-run defence only Tom Walsh, Mick Connolly and John O'Brien emerged with reputations unimpaired.

As expected Waterford were always relying on a midfield. Little went right for Martin Kennedy but Freddie O'Brien tried gallantly if unavailingly. The forwards were literally starved for long periods but always found the high-flying Cork defenders too powerful for them. Of the sextet Tommy Kirwan and Jimmy Hewitt were best.

Scorers for Cork were: N. Coughlan (1-2), E. Ryan (1-1), C. O'Sullivan and J. J. Murphy (0-4), N. O'Halloran (0-2) and C. O'Sullivan (0-1).

Waterford's marksmen were Tommy Kirwan and P. Walsh (1-0) each, Patsy Murray (0-1), Cork—R. Cawley, E. Moynihan, T. O'Callaghan, E. Egan, O'Mahony, M. Bohane, J. O'Flynn, C. O'Sullivan (urban), Eric Ryan, J. Clifford, N. O'Halloran, C. O'Sullivan (Midleton), Eamonn Ryan, E. Coughlan, J. Murphy, Sub.—T. O'Leary for O'Sullivan (Midleton).

Waterford—S. Ormonde, T. Walsh, E. Mooney, M. Kirwan, T. Power, J. O'Brien, M. Connolly; F. O'Brien, M. Kennedy; P. Duggan, J. J. Hewitt, T. J. Henry, T. Kirwan, T. Walsh, P. Murray, Sub.—P. Walsh for P. Duggan; A. Hallissey for P. Murray.

Referee—D. O'Connell, Tipperary.

Waterford refused to be submerged in this Leeseide avalanche and with only five minutes remaining were back on level terms thanks to a three-point lead at the three-quarter stage.

But Waterford refused to be submerged in this Leeseide avalanche and with only five minutes remaining were back on level terms thanks to a three-point lead at the three-quarter stage.

Cork, however, quickly regained their lead with a Richie Browne goal and almost immediately Ring minus his hufey kicked the full past Percy Flynn who had replaced Ned Power. Again Waterford surged upfield and Charlie Ware had the final say with a well-taken point.

For the Leesiders Seanie O'Brien kept a splendid goal, and Jerry O'Sullivan, Jimmy Brohan and Phil Duggan shone in defence. Their "Achilles heel" was mid-field where Noel Gallagher and John Young never hit it off.

The retail of Barry and O'Shea could be termed a success and both figured prominently amongst the scorers. Patsy Harte gave another impressive display but "Ringey" came off second best in his duels with Austin Flynn.

Even without Jimmy Byrne, Martin Oge and Larry Guinan the Deise defence acquitted itself well. Ned Power, until replaced, was at his superlative best and old reliable Cunningham, Flynn and Irish never conceded an inch.

Experimental though the midfield pairing of Mick Gaffney and John Kirwan was, they proved themselves a far more effective partnership than Cork's and both gave highly promising displays.

Star of the attack was undoubtedly newcomer Tony Mansfield. The Abbeyside man gave no less a defender than Pat Fitzgerald, the run-around and wound up with a personal tally of 2-3.

The impressive Tom Cheasty on the 40' raised panic signals in the Cork defence whenever he gained possession and Frankie Walsh and John Barron, also succeeded successfully.

Scorers for Cork were: R. Browne (2-1), P. Barry (1-1), P. Harte (0-4), C. Ring (1-0), C. O'Shea (0-3), J. Young (0-2), T. Corbett (0-1). Waterford's marksmen were: T. Mansfield (2-3), T. Cheasty (1-2), F. Walsh (0-3), C. Ware (0-2).
