HITCH IN NEW TECH. SCHOOL BUILDING PLANS

THE proposed new Technical School for KilmacThomas was again discussed at last Tuesday's meeting of the Waterford Vocational Educational Committee when it was decided to arrange a meeting between their own architect and the Department's architect to consider further the plans for the school.

In a letter from the Department it was stated that the plans provided for a general assembly with an area of 650 square feet. The Committee's architect would have an area of 800 square feet for the same purpose. The increase in size of that classroom would be partitioned into two smaller rooms as against the Department's one large room. The Department's plans were approved. They were prepared to consider the increased accommodation provided by the committee's architect.

Mr. C. Griffin said the plans of the school in general were good.

Mr. Norman Walsh said he should refer the matter back to their own architect and let him discuss it with the Department of Education.

Mr. John Fahey said it was struck him very forcibly that it was ridiculous for them having to employ an architect to draw up plans for a school at all. The Department could have sent down a professional to them and a rough estimate of the cost of the building and the plans adopted would be the Appointed General Manager of D.L.C.

The Board of the Dickens Leather Company Ltd., Dungarvan, announce the appointment of Mr. Denis P. O'Brien, B.Sc., A.R.I.C., as General Manager. Mr. O'Brien was previously Assistant General Manager of the Company from 1958 to 1959, when he joined W. J. Leary Ltd. as Manager of her Leeds factory. He is well known in the leather trade both in Ireland and Great Britain, and was for several years Production and Works Chemist at a Carrick-on-Suir leather factory. Mr. O'Brien was educated at C.B.S. Templemore, County Tipperary, and University College, Dublin, where he graduated as B.Sc. (Hons.) in 1945. He takes up his new appointment on 1st July.

Great Honour for Aglish Man

NEW PERMANENT INSTRUCTOR FOR COUNTY

JAMES A. Fenton, Tinniscart, Aglish, and Maurice C. McCarthy, Macroom, Co. Cork, were unanimously approved as Permanent Agricultural Instructors in the county, at last Saturday's Committee of Agriculture Meeting in Dungarvan. Both were recommended by the Local Appointments Commission.

Mr. P. Conroy (C.A.O.) said Mr. McCarthy was a B.Agr. Sc. and was a Temporary Instructor in Co. Cork since 1960. Mr. Fenton, also a B.Agr. Sc., was at present in a temporary capacity in county Waterford. He also possessed a competent knowledge of Irish.

Mr. Charles Curran proposed and George Heskin seconded Mr. McCarthy's appointment. Mr. Fenton was proposed by Mr. Michael Hart.

Mr. Conroy suggested that Mr. McCarthy fill the vacancy in the Comel area and that he establish his headquarters in Comel. He also suggested that Mr. Fenton be left in the Dungarvan area where he was presently working very successfully.

The C.A.O. added that another instructor would be coming shortly for the Ardmore, Clashmore and Cappoquin area.

Mr. Curran said that the latter area was very interested in having an instructor and hoped it would not be long before one was appointed.

LOCAL MEN FINED

Denis Egan, King Street, Abbeyside, and Michael O'Leary, Murphy Place, do., were both charged with being drunk and disorderly on the public street at Dungarvan District Court.

Garda W. Giblin said on April 28 last, both defendants were drunk and fighting at Lt. Main Street. They then went down a laneway and when he followed them, they were both wrestling on the ground. He took Egan to the Station.

Garda Giblin said that since the summons had been served O'Leary approached him on the quay and used threatening words to him.

Judge Skinner fined Egan 10/- O'Leary, £1.

Patrick Casey, Killy's Cross, Ring, was also fined 10/- for being drunk and disorderly at Mary Street, Dungarvan on May 12th. Garda P. Murphy prosecuted.

WEDDING BELLS

Mr. MARTIN GALVIN, Ballyhussa, KilmacThomas, and Miss ESTHER (ESSIE) MAGUIRE, Leamybrien, who were married at Fews Parish Church recently.

ENGAGED

This engagement is announced between John, eldest son of Mr. Sean O'Connell, N.T., TD., and Mrs. O'Connell, KilmacThomas, and Mrs. Maura, only daughter of Mr. P. O'Neil, N.T., and Mrs. O'Neil, O'Connell, Abbeyside, Dungarvan.

Sean is KilmacThomas's footballer and is also the captain of the inter-county side.

Panel of Part-Time Teachers

At a meeting of the Waterford Vocational Education Committee, The C.E.O. (Mr. T. P. Maher) told the members he had made out a panel of part-time teachers that could be used in an emergency.

Mr. Maher said he had had a discussion with the Department Inspector who suggested to have this panel appointed and approved.

The Committee unanimously approved of the panel.

DUNGARVAN BROTHERS ORDAINED

The feast of Corpus Christi must have been the happiest day in the lives of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Curran, Grattan Square, Dungarvan, when their two sons, Jim and Michael, were ordained to the priesthood at the Cathedral, Waterford, by Most Rev. Dr. Cohalan, Bishop of Waterford and Lismore. They celebrated their first Masses at the Parish Church on Friday morning in the presence of a large circle of friends and general public. To both these popular Dungarvan priests we wish ad multos annos in the vineyard of the Lord.

"WATERFORD LAGGING IN VOCATIONAL EDUCATION"

-Says Mr. Curran

While the Annual Vocational Education Congress in Ballybunion last week was an outstanding success, it was clear from observations that Vocational Education was more advanced in other Counties than in Waterford.

This was stated by Mr. Charles Curran (a delegate at the Congress) at a recent meeting in Dungarvan.

Mr. Curran said it was also clear that there will be an increased demand for Vocational Education in the country in the future.

Right Rev. Dean Barron (Waterford City) was re-elected to the Standing Committee which was a great tribute to Waterford County and City.

On the lighter side, he said, Mr. Fahey and their C.E.O., Mr. Maher, won trophies in golf competitions at the Congress.

Mr. John Fahey said he had little to add to Mr. Curran's report. He thanked the C.E.O. for the wonderful way he had looked after them at the Congress. No C.E.O. looked after his delegates as well as Mr. Maher did.

Mr. Curran said there was great co-operation between the delegates and the C.E.O. They also had the pleasure of meeting their former C.E.O., Mr. Denis Cullinane.

Mr. Maher said he was deeply grateful to the Committee for sending him to the Congress, at which he learned quite a lot.

To Mr. Norman Walsh he said what they were lacking in most of all was equipment. They had equipment in use since 1937 and it was out of date. That was the headache they had.

Mr. Curran said there was wonderful enthusiasm for Vocational Education in the rural areas of North Kerry. Their knowledge amazed him.

Sale of Johnstown House and Lands

Johnstown House, Cappagh, and 52 acres, has been sold in trust to Mr. Peter Mackey Auctioneer, Clonea, Dungarvan for the sum of £7,200 and fees. J. F. Williams & Son, Soers, had carriage of sale and Mr. P. F. Quirk, Gladstone Street, Comel, was the auctioneer who conducted the sale.

Found Guilty of Stealing Cycle

This boy is a menace in the area and is looking to be sent away, said Justice L. B. Skinner, at Dungarvan District Court on Wednesday week last when William O'Leary, no fixed abode, pleaded not guilty to the larceny of a bicycle valued £8 the property of John Tutty Congress Villas, Dungarvan, on April 28th last, at Killongford.

Judge Skinner adjourned the case until the September Court when he said he would deal with the defendant.

John Tutty said he cycled to the Hill Climb at about 3 p.m. on Sunday, April 28th. He left his bicycle beside the ditch. When he returned later the bicycle was gone. He gave no permission to take it. He saw it again when a Mr. Costigan brought it to him.

Replying to Mr. E. P. King, Solr. (defending) witness said he did not report the matter to the gardai. When he got the bicycle back, the brakes were gone and it had got rusty.

Mr. John Tutty Senr. (father of the previous witness) said on April 28th he gave a loan of his bicycle to his son to go to the Hill Climb. He returned home at 8.30 p.m. and said it had been taken. Some time later, a boy named Costigan brought in the bicycle.

Mr. James Costigan, 15 Cathal Brugha Pl., Dungarvan, said he was in a licensed premises at 3.30 p.m. on Saturday, May 11th, when Patrick O'Leary (father of the defendant) asked him to buy a bicycle. His reason for selling the bicycle was because his son wanted the money to pay a fine of £2-11-0. He gave O'Leary £1-5-0 for it.

Witness said the following morning his youngest son said he thought the bicycle was John Tutty's. He gave it to his son to bring to Tutty to see if he could identify it, which he did.

Sgt. M. Hayes said he interviewed the defendant who said he was camped at Two-Mile-bridge when he saw the bicycle in the river. He took it out and told his father he did a day's work with a farmer for the bicycle. He sold it to Mr. Costigan for 25/-.

Judge Skinner said he would convict him.

Inspector Kelly said at Tipperary District Court in March O'Leary was given the P.O.A. for house-breaking and larceny. Then at Dungarvan District Court in March he pleaded guilty to a larceny charge. That case was adjourned for six months to see how he would behave.

Judge Skinner said he could not let him loose around the country collecting trifles. This boy was going to keep at it and was a menace in the area. He was looking to be sent away.

When it was pointed out that the defendant would not be sixteen until July, Judge Skinner said he could not be sent to St. Patrick's until he was sixteen. If he was to be sent to Daingean it could not be for less than two years.

Judge Skinner said he would deal with the case at the September Court when the defendant could be sent away for six months to St. Patrick's. He also ordered the defendant to pay back 25/- to Mr. Costigan.

A charge against Patrick O'Leary, also of no fixed abode, and father of the previous defendant, of receiving the bicycle known to be unlawfully obtained, was dismissed.

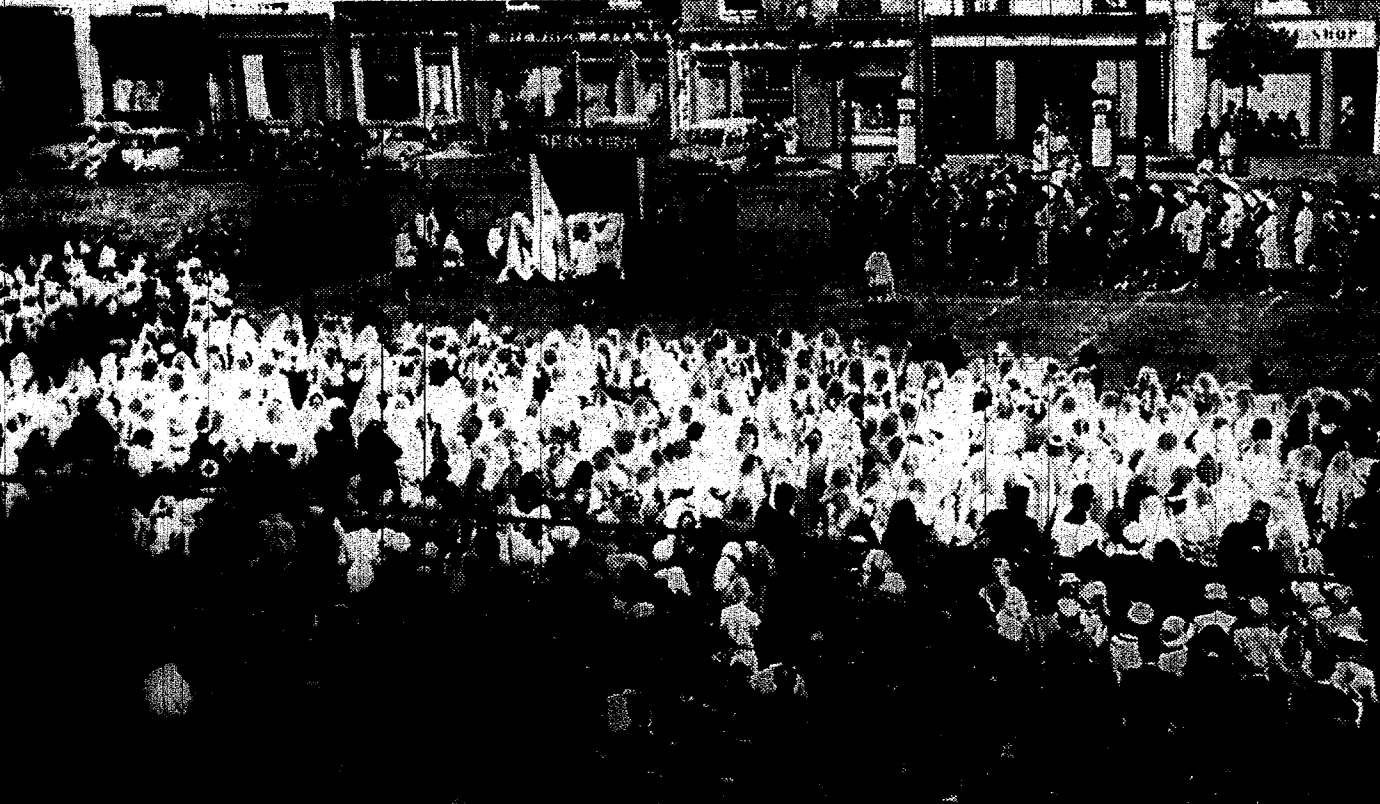

The defendant said he went with his son to Mr. Costigan and sold the bicycle for 25/-. His son had told him he got it from a farmer for a day's work. He never got a half-penny for the sale of the bicycle. He was never in Court before and was a married man with 10 children.

Cross-examined by Inspector B. P. Kelly, witness said he saw the bicycle with his son for 3 or 4 days. He rode it once.

Judge Skinner: You have a very good record, but your son is very lithe-fingered and I would be very suspicious of anything that comes into his possession.

He dismissed the charge there was no evidence to convict.

Dungarvan's Homage

Dungarvan's Annual Corpus Christi Procession held through the streets of the town on Sunday last was the best attended ever. The Sacred Monstrance was carried by Ven. Archdeacon Power, P.P., assisted by newly-ordained Frs. Jim and Michael Curran, Dungarvan. Members of the Garda formed a guard of honour beside the Canopy. The sacred music was rendered by Dungarvan Brass and Reed Band. Our top picture shows the impressive scene during Benediction on the Square, while below, section of the C.B.S. boys who participated in the Procession.

SALMON NET FISHING

Now with only five weeks to go before the close of the 1963 net season, people have not appeared in great numbers as far, but net men are compensated by the fact that there are a good many salmon been taken with a scattering of peals. The salmon are still of the good quality all over the district, somewhat similar to the Scotch variety. Last week catches in Youghal were fairly good, but upriver fish are said to be scarce even with the drift nets. So far net fishermen have had a very good season on the whole and it is hoped that the people will make their appearance shortly.

ANGLING COMPETITION

On Wednesday of last week in unfavourable weather for bay fishing the Youghal Seanglers Association held their second open sea angling competition when 32 anglers completed. The Island Trophy, presented by Mr. W. K. Nolan, for the heaviest catch was won by Mr. A. Lupton with 255 lbs. The 'Backwater' Hatchery Trophy for the greatest number of Bass in the May and June competitions resulted in a tie between Messrs. H. Sweetnam, F. Snowden and E. Farrell, the latter winning on the toss of a coin. Mr. Farrell also won the prize for the heaviest fish landed, a 6 lb. bass. The prize for the second heaviest catch went to Mr. A. Watson, with 185 pounds. The next competition will be held on Sunday, July 7th, from 2.30 to 6.30, the main trophy being the Moby Dick Cup, presented by Col. P. J. Linnahan.

HOMAGE TO CHRIST OUR KING

On Sunday last, under ideal weather conditions, Youghal held its 65th annual Procession of the Blessed Sacrament, and was one of the largest ever seen in the town. Preparations for this wonderful annual event were manifold and lengthy. Business houses, private houses and public buildings, not alone en route but all over the town were bedecked with papal colours and bunting and altars and shrines were erected in honour of Christ Our King. Long before the time appointed to move, crowds lined the principal routes.

At 3 p.m. the Procession moved off from the Parish Church in all its solemnity and colour and as it wound its way via De Valera St. to the Main Street, the Rosary was recited and hymns sung. Sacred music was supplied by the North Abbey Pipe Band and the 80 strong Christian Bros. Flageolet Band, under its conductor, Rev. Bro. Cordial. In relay the Canopy was borne by members of the St. Vincent De Paul Society, C.Y.M.S., Fishermen's Association and an F.C.A. Guard of Honour under Sergt P. Power, marched with bayonets fixed, on both sides of the canopy.

On arrival at the Memorial Park, Solemn Benediction was imparted by Very Rev. Canon Sheehan, P.P. Youghal, assisted by Rev. R. Morgan, C.C., and Rev. A. Supple, C.C., English Missions.

Following Benediction, the Procession reformed and returned to the Parish Church where it was brought to a close after a final Benediction, when the entire congregation, both inside and outside the Church joined in the singing of 'Faith of Our Fathers.' Miss Mary Crowley, A.L.C.M., presided at the organ.

LATE MR. M. O'HALLORAN

Deep regret was occasioned at the announcement last week of the death of a well known member of the community in the person of Mr. M. O'Halloran, of North Main Street, Youghal, which took place with tragic suddenness. The deceased, in his early fifties, was a member of an old and esteemed Youghal family, being employed as a local postman since his youth and was a universal favourite with all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance. His passing in the prime of life is deeply regretted and deepest sympathy is extended to his bereaved widow and family in their great sorrow.

The remains were removed to the Parish Church where Requiem Mass was celebrated for the repose of his soul, and the funeral, which was both large and representative, took place to North Abbey Cemetery.

The chief mourners were: Mrs. N. O'Halloran (widow); Messrs. Desmond, Kevin and Keiran O'Halloran (sons); Mrs. D. Linton, Misses Angela, Brenda, Deirdre, Fionnuala, Maeve and Emer O'Halloran (daughters); Mr. James O'Halloran (brother); Mrs. T. Ahern and Mrs. J. Lawlor (sisters); Mr. D. Linton (son-in-law); Messrs. T. Ahern, J. Lawlor, Denis and Patrick Desmond (brothers-in-law); Mrs. J. O'Halloran, Mrs. M. Cuffe and Mrs. K. Mansfield (sisters-in-law); James, William, Eamon and John O'Halloran, Richard, Hugh and James Ahern, Sean and Fin-ton Lawlor, Ann and Catherine O'Halloran, Mrs. M. Callinan, Mary Ahern, Siobhan, Mary, Angela Marilyn Lawlor (nephews and nieces).

Very Rev. Canon Sheehan, P.P. Youghal, officiated, assisted by Very Rev. R. De Basc, P.P. Corduff, Rev. C. O'Connell, C.C., Rev. E. G. Dwyer, C.C. Youghal and Rev. P. Ciancy, C.C. Cork.

LATE MRS. A. L. SUPPLE

We regret to announce the death of Mrs. Annie Louise Supple, which took place recently at her residence Emmet Place, Youghal, after a short period of illness. The deceased lady was a popular figure in the town of her adoption, being wife of Mr. William Supple, N.T., mother of Rev. A. J. Supple, P.P. Cosham, and Rev. D. Supple, P.P. Bristol. She was sister of Mr. D. P. O'Connell of Galveston, Texas, and Rev. A. L. O'Connell of El Paso, Texas. After Solemn Requiem Mass at the Parish Church on Friday last the funeral, followed by a large and very representative cortege and very representative cortege took place to North Abbey Cemetery.

HIGH RAILS FARES PROTEST

At a recent meeting of the Cork Corporation, strong protest was made against the fare charged by rail from Cork to Youghal on Sundays, being 9/2 for adults and 4/7 for children and it was agreed that Dall Donnell and Senators be asked to take the matter up with Dr. Andrews of C.I.E.

NEW GARDA STATION

The site for the erection of the new garda station at South Abbey Youghal, is being prepared and work proper is expected to start within a week or two. In addition to the station, two houses for the two

Sgts. will also be erected on the same site.

CHOIR VISIT YOUGHAL

At the Parish Church on Sunday last for the 12 noon Mass and evening devotions, parishioners were very much impressed with the singing of the Mallow all-male choir under the baton of a Patrician Brother. This was indeed a treat for Youghal have a high regard for their own juvenile choir under the baton of Rev. Brother Cordial. This choir is a credit to its coach.

Lismore Notes

DEATH OF MRS. H. PRENDERGAST

It is with deep and sincere regret we record the death of Mrs. Helena Prendergast, Bridane, Lismore, which sad event occurred at Ardkreen Hospital, Waterford, on Tuesday of last week, June 11th. The deceased lady, who had reached a very good age and enjoyed perfect health up to a short time before her death, was possessed of a very quiet and friendly manner, which made her a very popular figure with both young and old. She will sadly missed by all, but more especially by her sorrowing relatives and friends, to whom we tender our deepest sympathy. The remains were removed to St. Carthage's Church on Wednesday and were received and blessed by Very Rev. Canon Dunphy, P.P., V.F., assisted by Rev. Fr. Queally, C.C., and Rev. Fr. Slattery, C.C., and the burial took place after the second Mass on Thursday (feast of Corpus Christi) to the local cemetery, the same clergy officiating at the graveside. Large and representative corteges attended both funeral and burial.

LISMORE ARE COUNTY CHAMPIONS

At the Sports Field, Cappoquin, on Thursday last, Lismore branch of Maera na Feirme, won the Co. Championship for the best farm tasks team. The event, which was sponsored by the Co. Executive proved a great success and attracted a record number of twelve teams and for the Lismore branch it was indeed a great win as they had not put in any practise for the various events, and the winning members of the team: Mrs. M. Byrne, Messrs. Billy and Alex Heskin, are indeed to be congratulated on their great display. We join with the rest of the county in wishing them the best of luck when representing Waterford in the Munster final, which will be held in Cork shortly.

CONDOLENCE

We tender our deepest sympathy to Mrs. M. Doocey, Deerpark, Lismore, on the death of her mother, Mrs. O'Brien, which sad event occurred recently at her residence in Dungarvan.

CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION

Through streets gaily bedecked with flags, spiritual emblems and bunting, the annual Eucharistic Procession was held in Lismore on Sunday last in very fine weather and was attended by a very large congregation. The Procession followed the same route as in previous years, starting from St. Carthage's Church and stopping at the C.B.S. for Benediction, imparted by Very Rev. Canon Dunphy, P.P., V.F., who also carried the Sacred Host in the Procession, assisted by Rev. Fr. Slattery, C.C. The Procession then reformed and went back to the church, where Solemn Benediction was again imparted.

LISMORE SPORTS

Lismore Athletic Club are at present making plans for the annual open sports, which will be held this year on the 21st July, at the Gaelic Field, Lismore. These sports, which always prove very successful, are expected this year to even surpass all other years, and indeed so pleased have been the Munster Council with the great work being done for athletics by the Lismore Club, that they have granted them a date this year in July which we feel confident will also add to the success of the sports. Full details will be given in this column later.

HOW MANY WILL YOU HAVE TO CARRY TODAY?

On that confetti-strewn morning when you said you'd "love, honour and obey", we know you didn't include carrying heavy buckets of water every day. In this season of slim and feminine spring styles, it's not fair for a wife to be still in the unfashionable bucket parade when electricity will carry the equivalent of 400 of these buckets of water to your house for the price of that last cigarette he smoked. In the spring of 1963, no house should be without water on tap. The bucket is fast disappearing off the Irish road and good riddance to this time-consuming, back-breaking symbol of the past. Ask your E.S.B. representative for details of the E.S.B.'s Pump Advisory Service and avail of the Government and local Authority Grants to bring water to your home.

AND HERE IS THE SPECIALLY DESIGNED WATER HEATER FOR THE FARM KITCHEN...

A wonderful 10 gallon water heater that is easily installed under your draining board, and gives you all the hot water you need, automatically. Electric water heating costs less than a jd. a gallon and that's very reasonable. Cash price £15 or convenient H.P. terms.

Council Meeting Adjourned as Mark of Respect

As a mark of respect to the late Holy Father, Pope John XXIII, the monthly meeting of Waterford County Council arranged for Monday last was adjourned.

Proposing the adjournment, the Chairman, Col. Charles Curran, said that since their last meeting the world had suffered a tragic loss by the death of Pope John XXIII. He was a great and good man who preached purity, charity and humility. He thought it right to adjourn as a mark of respect. The County Secretary and himself arranged to have messages of sympathy sent to the Papi Nuncio and Dr. Cohan, Bishop of Waterford and Lismore.

Col. Norman Walsh said it was with the deepest regret that he seconded Col. Curran's proposal. During his all too short reign Pope John did more than any other pontiff. He showed them by example how they should live together irrespective of class, colour or creed, but above all he showed them how to die.

"He will be remembered," he said, for convening the Vatican Council and for his Encyclicals but he will be remembered above all for his humanity, simplicity and humility. God bless and grant his noble soul eternal rest.

Deputy Kynne said the late Pope would always go down as Pope John the good.

Col. Milo Galexy said Pope John was a great Churchman and Statesman and if the other statesmen followed his example what a wonderful world they would be living in to-day.

Col. M. Hartly said the future statesmen had got from Pope John a guiding light for their decisions for all time.

The other Councillors present were also associated with the expressions of sympathy.

Mr. J. G. Dowling, Co. Secretary on behalf of the County Manager, the Council staff and on his own behalf, joined in the expressions of sympathy.

Mr. Dowling also read a letter from the Bishop of Waterford and Lismore, Dr. Cohan, thanking the Council for their resolution of sympathy.

Resolutions of sympathy were extended to Mrs. Baston and family on the death of Vin Baston.

Col. Curran described Vin as an outstanding sportsman who contributed so much to the game in the county.

Other resolutions of sympathy were also extended to the following: Mrs. Subbs, Waterford, whose husband was drowned in Tramore; Deputy T. Lynch on the death of his mother; the Casey family; Dungarvan on the death of Mollie Casey; and to John Attridge, Stephen St., Dungarvan, on the death of his mother.

MACRA ACTIVITIES

The excellent entry from clubs is a clear indication that this competition, is going to stimulate interest in Macra as a Farm and its aims. This was stated by Mr. Pierce Casey, Chairman Waterford Co. Executive at the conclusion of the Farm Tasks competition which was held in Cappoquin, on 8th/9th evening, June 13th.

Being present at the competitions one can only endorse the Chairman's words. In seeing the members of nine clubs perform set tasks with a high degree of efficiency, it will be realised that Macra is achieving its objectives, namely, the increasing of agricultural productivity, the promotion of a good standard of living and the improvement of the welfare of the rural population in general.

To achieve these aims it is obvious that the first objective must be the promotion of the technical and managerial aspect of agricultural life in all its facets. With competition very keen and a high standard of efficiency, realised by all teams, Cappoquin and Lismore, contested the final, from which the latter emerged victorious. The members of the winning team were: Mrs. M. Byrne, Messrs. W. Linsen and A. Heekin. Congratulations to them and we wish them the best of luck in the Munster Summer Show.

FOOTBALL MATCH The County Executive also sponsored a football match in conjunction with the above. In a game that produced a very high standard of football, a Macra selection defeated the Cappoquin team. Mr. W. Dooney refereed.

A very enjoyable dance followed at the Boathouse, during which the presentation of prizes took place. The Chairman thanked all who helped to make the evening a success and in particular the Sheil Co. who sponsored the Farm Tasks competition.

BIG MATCHES FOR RICE CUP TEAM

These certainly are busy days for the Dungarvan C.B.S. Rice Cup team. At 8 p.m. this (Friday) evening they line out against Carrick in the semi-final on Sunday they play host to the attractive Cork team, Na Pearsaigh had they going well they will play the final of the Rice Cup next week.

A huge following of supporters is expected to make the trip to Carrick this evening. Dungarvan would seem to have the edge in this match but then anything can happen in schoolboy hurling, so that those who remain at home will be keeping their fingers crossed as they wait for the news. The lack of the draw ordained that Carrick should be the venue—perhaps that same luck will smile kindly on the Dungarvan side should they reach the final.

Come what may in Carrick there is certainly a very attractive programme lined up for the Brothers' Field on Sunday. Possibly the best juvenile combination in the country, Na Pearsaigh will bring the teams to play the locals in under twelve and under fourteen. These Cork lads never fail to produce hurling of a very high order and were very much shocked last year when they were beaten in the under twelve game. They reckon that this year they have their best ever under 14 team. Michael McCarthy captains the side as well as leading the attack and there are many who say that this lad's future is very bright in the hurling world. Paul Buckley, Jim Fitzgerald and Eddie Hogan are others of note up front and the home side have been warned to take particular note of John O'Leary in the half-back line. If the visitors are anywhere near as good as their predecessors, then it is almost impossible to forecast anything but a Cork victory here. Dungarvan's fighting qualities are highly respected, however and these same qualities could see them turn the tables on their more fancied rivals.

Also on the agenda is the under-twelve game. Both teams here are in the experimental stages and it is quite possible that one or other could have a runaway win. The Dungarvan team should be pretty strong and with Anselm Hayes, Martin Sandford and Kieran Quinn to steady it up the home side could start off with a win here.

Anyhow, it should all be wonderful entertainment and we see good games we won't be very worried about the results. This annual event has acquired a grand reputation for tip-top fitness—there is every indication that Sunday's games will measure up to those of the past few years.

LOCAL HAPPINGS

GOLF CLUB (Ladies Branch) Grandard Foursomes (final)—Mrs. F. Hill (23) and Miss M. Burke (28) beat Mrs. M. K. Cusack (19) and Mrs. J. O'Keefe (25).

CHARGED WITH LARCENY OF £40

Miss Margaret Barrett, Barnastook, pleaded guilty in the Dungarvan District Court on Wednesday last to the larceny of £40, the property of Daniel Moore, also of Barnastook, between April 1st and May 7th last.

Inspector B. P. Kelly said the defendant resided in Barnastook with her brother-in-law Patrick Moore and her uncle Danie Moore.

While here she learned that Danie Moore had money kept in his room. When she got the key of his room in the kitchen and took £20 which she spent on household goods.

On a second occasion she took another £20 and went to England where she lost all the money at a race meeting. The £40 amount had since been recovered and there were no previous convictions.

Judge Skinner said in view of her good record he would apply the P.O.A. She was a

C. B. S. STREET LEAGUES

While the Rice Cup team has captured most of the glamour in schoolboy hurling lately, the streets leagues have not been neglected either and competition for the highly-prized Corn Ul Loinnigh in the semi-final division is as keen as ever. Only two matches remain to be decided before the semi-final stage is reached and so a run-down through the teams at this stage would not be out of order.

Mitchel Street are champions and intend to keep the cup for at least another year. They are powered by four stalwarts from the school team—Connie Murphy (capt.), John Clancy, Phil Dugan and Martin Sandford. Their hopes do not rest here alone, however, for they also have outstanding performers in Michael Flynn, Michael Dunford, Michael Clancy and Joe Cleary. Up to last week they pointed proudly to their hundred per cent record, a record however which was rudely shattered by a very determined Shandon team.

Like the Mitchels, Shandon also have four of the Rice Cup team in their ranks. Captained by Darruid Flynn, they took to Jim Nagle, Michael Sheridan and Dec Butler to pave the way to victory. Beaten dramatically in last year's wonderful final, they are determined to exact sweet revenge in the current competition—a task which is definitely not beyond their abilities. Other heroes in their side include Kieran Keyes, Larry Sheridan, Paddy O'Brien and Brendan Corcoran. This is a team to be watched.

Not so long ago, Caseville was known in the C.B.S. as "the home of champions." Looking at them when the competition started this year, one would be forgiven for doubting this, but of late they have shown tremendous improvement and are now a force to be reckoned with. Francis Woods skips the side and Anselm Hayes, Eddie Sheehan, Charlie McAlister and Patsy Mahoney are others who will make life tough for any opposition.

And what of Dun Thuaidh? A couple of evenings' hard training might be all that is needed to turn this into a really good side. Certainly they have excellent material and add Jimmy Kiely, Pat Tutty, Donald Donovan and Henry Walsh would be welcome on any team. Added to these they have other grand hurlers in John Power and Joseph Phelan. What a pity they don't put a little more effort into the job. How about it lads?

Pick the winner? Not likely, for this competition is wide open. Many are of the opinion that the trophy will wind up in Shandon or in Mitchel St. For may money, however, Caseville are in there with an excellent chance and with one big advantage—they never give up. Like true champions, they refuse to die and whoever beats them will have taken a big step to winning Corn Ul Loinnigh for 1963.

SIXTEEN SCHOLARSHIPS AWARDED

At last Saturday's meeting of Co. Waterford Committee of Agriculture, the C.A.O., Mr. P. Conroy, told the members that he had received word from the Minister for Agriculture stating that no interest free loan for stock losses was available.

This loan he said was not considered necessary as losses were available.

DEPLORED ATTITUDE The Committee also unanimously passed a resolution deploring the attitude of the Department of Agriculture in restricting the money offered for developing fruit and vegetable schemes in Rinn na Gaetach'a.

Mr. N. Walsh said as a result of that Dept. decision, he sincerely hoped they would not pay a penny out of the Committee's funds until they got a final decision on it. He would not be a party to the Committee standing guarantor for the Schemes.

SYMPATHY Mr. George Heskin proposed a vote of sympathy to Mrs. Maher.

On the death of her husband Richard, Mr. Maher, he said, had been a very prominent figure in agriculture in west Waterford.

LAND PURCHASING Before the conclusion of the Meeting, Mr. M. G. Galey thanked the Committee for bringing to the notice of the important needs of the county by their views about the leasing of Irish land by the Germans.

Mr. N. Walsh said they had a very good discussion on it at their last meeting.

Old Boro' Juveniles Win Local Derby

DUNGARVAN 7-1; ABBEYSIDE 2-2

DESPITE A NONE TOO CONFIDENT START, DUNGARVAN LEFT NO DOUBT IN THE MINDS OF SPECTATORS AS TO THE EXTENT OF THEIR OVER-ALL SUPERIORITY WHEN DECISIVELY BEATING ABBEYSIDE IN THE JUVENILE HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP AT THE FRAHER FIELD ON TUESDAY NIGHT.

The Blues on this form are obviously going to take a great beating. Each and every member of the side is a natural hurler and all sectors seem well equipped. Once they settled down they displayed a cool, methodical and highly effective brand of hurling and were the worthiest of winners at the end.

VILLIERS OPEN SCORING. Playing with a strong breeze they attacked relentlessly from the start. But it was Abbeyside who provided shock number one when in their first real attack corner-back John Egan deflected the ball into his own net.

At this stage Dungarvan sent Joe Curran in to replace John French and immediately signalled his entry with a great goal. Connie Kelleher replied with an Abbeyside point and at the break Dungarvan led 4-0 to 1-2.

Considering the force of the breeze it was far from being a secure lead and prospects of a closely fought second-half were bright.

"SWAN SONG". An Abbeyside goal four minutes after the restart really set the game going and left the Blues only a precarious four points to the good. But instead of acting as a spur to greater and intensified efforts, this score proved to be the losers war song. Dungarvan's defence closed the shutters and their midfielders Anthony Sandford and Sean Franklin took over complete control.

On occasions only the stout-heartedness of Abbeyside's defence and brilliance of keeper Neesham kept Dungarvan's score within normal proportions. Sandford sent a thirty yards free direct to the net; Sean Daly and Joe Curran added like scores and just before the end Eamon Keyes set seal to a great victory with a point.

SAFE GOALKEEPER. For the winners Michael Donnelly was safe in goal and was fronted by solid fullbacks in Egan, Walsh and Dwyer. Mickey Fraher was the star of the half-time and received good assistance from Sean Daly and Sean Murphy.

The powder hurling of midfielders Sandford and Franklin ensured a decisive rule in this sector. Sandford was perhaps the best hurler on view while Franklin was a stylish and effective partner for him. Once the forwards found their feet they were very dangerous. Kevin Fleming had the stive of a Tom Cheasty and his only fault was his inclination to lift the ball. His fankers Keyes and Reilly did an amount of hurling and needed careful watching.

Michael Norris and Joe Curran who between them scored five goals were best in the field. Full-forward John French never ceased trying while on and it was only when Sean McGrath reverted to defence that he showed his real form.

MARVELOUS SAVES. For Abbeyside, none played better than diminutive goalkeeper Jimmy Neesham. He made some marvelous saves during the game and prevented an even heavier defeat. Left full-back Larry Cliffe was another to play superbly while no blame can be attached to Brian O'Connor, Connie Kelleher, John O'Dea and Paul Conroy.

Dungarvan—M. Donnelly; J. Egan, P. Walsh, N. Dwyer, M. Fraher, S. Daly, S. Murphy; A. Sandford, S. Franklin; E. Keyes, K. Fleming, J. Reilly; M. Norris, J. French, S. McGrath. Sub.—J. Curran for French.

Abbeyside—J. Neesham; N. Murray, B. O'Connor, T. Mooney, T. Casey, L. Waters, L. Cliffe, C. Kelleher, M. Walsh, D. Ciancy, J. O'Dea, T. Flynn; P. Conroy, M. McGrath, M. Veale. Referee—E. Cunningham (Tallow).

VILLIERSTOWN MAN FINED £5

Jeremiah J. Cotter, Villierstown, Cappoquin, was fined £5 at Dungarvan District Court on Wednesday week last for allowing a motorcycle owned by him to be driven by John Morrissey also of Villierstown without insurance or a driving licence. Morrissey was also charged with having no driving licence or insurance. He was fined 10/- on the latter charge and received the P.O.A. for having no driving licence. Neither defendant was legally represented.

LATE MICHAEL CONNORS

Knockmeal, Ballinacult. The death occurred on June 13th. Feast of Corpus Christi of Michael Connors, Knockmeal, at Ardkern General Hospital, Waterford at a comparatively early age but after a duration of illness.

He was a very well-known and most popular man in the Ballinacult area.—R.I.P.

His remains were removed on Friday evening to Touraree Church followed by a very large cortege and were buried and received by Very Rev. P. Walsh, P.P.

Interment took place later in the adjoining cemetery. (J. Kieley & Sons had charge of funeral arrangements).

LATE MRS. H. PRENDERGAST

Bridane, Lismore. The death of Mrs. Helena Prendergast, Bridane, Lismore, occurred in Ardkern Hospital on Tuesday, 11th inst. She had reached her 85th birthday and nee Heffernan, was a well-known figure in the district and was held in high regard and esteem. To her sons, daughter and other relatives sympathy goes in their bereavement. The remains were removed on Wednesday evening to St. Carthage's, Lismore, and were received by Very Rev. T. Canon Dunphy, P.P. and Rev. D. Slattery, C.C., who also officiated at the burial in the New Cemetery on the following day. There was a very large and representative attendance at the obsequies. The chief mourners were Patrick, Bridane; John Poulbaha; M. Ballyhane (sons); Mrs. N. Dooney, Kilmacarriga (daughter), nephews, nieces, grandchildren etc. (Funeral arrangements by A. Walsh & Sons, Cappoquin).

COOLNASMEAR I.C.A.

Coolnasmear I.C.A. Guild had a most enjoyable evening on Thursday June 6th last, when they were guests of Waterford Four Mills. After being through the Mills and shown the various stages in the manufacture of flour, they were entertained to tea at the Majestic Hotel, Tramore, which was followed by a most interesting lecture on cake making, at which questions were asked and answered to everybody's satisfaction.

At the end of our very pleasant visit, a vote of thanks was proposed to the manager and staff by our president, Mrs. Walsh and seconded by Mrs. Byrne.

WEST WATERFORD NOTES

SEWERAGE SCHEME BEGINS

Work has begun on the new Sewerage Scheme at Clashmore. In addition to providing the area with an important amenity, the Scheme will give good employment in the district.

WEL KNOWN FAMILY BEREAVED

Mrs. Anne Louisa Supple, Emmet Place, Youghal, who died recently, was wife of Mr. William Supple, N.T., who was principal teacher in Clashmore N.S. for about thirty years. She was mother of Very Rev. A. Supple, P.P., Corsham and Very Rev. D. Supple, P.P., Bristol, and sister of Rt. Rev. Mr. D. P. O'Connell, Texas, and Very Rev. A. L. O'Connell, do. To her bereaved husband and family deep sympathy is extended.

HOME FROM U.S.A.

On holidays in Clashmore at present are Mr. and Mrs. John Durkin, Boston, U.S.A. Mr. Durkin, who is a former officer of the Irish Army, is a native of Co. Mayo, whilst Mrs. Durkin (nee Joyce) is a member of a well known Clashmore family.

CLASHMORE MAN INJURED

While traveling to work at Clonmel, on his motor cycle on Friday morning last, a young Clashmore man crashed into a bunch of cattle at Moleigo and received injuries which necessitated his removal to Dungarvan hospital. Fortunately the injuries were not of a serious nature. A pillion rider escaped being hurt.

IMPROVED BUS SERVICE

This area now has a new improved tri-weekly bus service and it is welcomed by the local people. Every Tuesday, Friday and Saturday a bus travels from Dungarvan to Youghal twice daily, via Aglish, Villierstown and Clashmore.

LATE MRS. DOWNING

We regret to announce the death, which occurred rather unexpectedly, of Mrs. Antra Downing, Co. Aglish. A member of a well known family, she was wife of Mr. Maurice Downing, to whom deepest sympathy is extended.

AGLISH MAN'S APPOINTMENT

Congratulations are extended to Mr. Austin Fenton, B.A. Ag. Ag. Ag. on his appointment as Permanent Agricultural Instructor in his native county by the Dept. of Agriculture. Mr. Fenton has served in a temporary capacity for the past few years and has proved himself to be an instructor of exceptional merit.

HOME FROM ENGLAND

On a motoring holiday in this country at present are Mr. Thomas Colfer, formerly of Dublin, and his wife, formerly Miss B. Barry, Clashmore.

SHEEP-DOG TRIALS AT DUNGARVAN

There were entries from the major sheep-shearing counties for the Sheep Dog Trials which were organised by the Dungarvan Show Society, and held on Thursday last. The previous year the trials and show-jumping were held as part of the show, but owing to their growing importance, it was decided to devote a full day for them this year.

Nicholas Walsh, Comeragh, won the Comeragh Cup with his dog Sam, in the confined competition. Waterford's oldest sheep dog trainer, John Kett (88) of Ballintlea, Kilmarsanty failed to win for the third year running when his four-year-old colie narrowly missed the first hurdle on the run up. W. T. Handbridge of Wicklow won the Open Competition with his dog Mist, and Norman Deacon of Currignone, got third and fourth places.

Curragh: One of the World's Finest Racecourses

DEVELOPMENT BY IRISH SWEEPS DERBY

When Edward the Twelfth, Earl of Derby and Sir Charles Embury toiled a coin one Spring morning in the year 1780 to decide whose name should be given to a new horse race, his Lordship, who would scarcely have dreamed that his name would be given to the most prestigious horse race of the season in every country.

Derby Day has become something of a national holiday in Ireland, a day which holds such a place and is no exception in Ireland.

Wherever the Derby takes place, a great gathering of people in the morning and there is all the fun of the fair, including roughabouts, swings, chair-dances, bumper cars, shooting galleries and various side-shows, while added colour comes from the presence of excited and fortune tellers and tipsters in hoarse raiment.

In its early days the Epsom Derby was dominated by the aristocracy, and the reigning Prince of Wales became the first royal winner when he rode with Sir Thomas (1780). Pride of place amongst the royal racehorse owners must, however, go to Edward VII. As the Prince of Wales he notched two successes with Pessimon (1893) and Diamond Jubilee (1900) while the victory of Mincou (1909) supplied the first triumph for a ruling monarch.

The great Houses did not always carry the day, however, and the two wins of the notorious prize fighter, Mr. Gully, proved the truth of the axiom: all men being equal on and under the turf.

The notion of an Irish Derby was first put forward a century ago. Irish racing was going through a lean spell and the Turf Authorities felt the need of a new feature to arouse public interest. First run in 1866 the event gradually established itself, but due to factors of population and prize money it remained of little importance compared to the Epsom Derby.

Up to last year the Stakes has been comparatively small. 'Boss' Croker's Orby supplanted his Epsom Derby triumph with a win in the Irish equivalent; Joe McGrath, Windsor Slippers, the earliest Irish Derby winner in living memory, was debarred by the War from proving his quality in England; while Bright News finished ahead of the Epsom Derby winner Airborne when they met at Ascot in the Autumn of 1946.

The Irish Derby has always been the premier race of the season, and what it lacked in pageantry it made up for in excitement and proportionately more in ease than in the Derbies of other countries.

The Curragh, where the race takes place, has a colourful history whose racing association dates back more than 2,000 years to the time when chariot races were one of the major attractions of the great Aonach Taithean.

Tradition has it that, in the 5th century St. Bridget, patroness of Ireland, having sought unsuccessfully for a gift of land from the local chieftain on which to build a convent, said that she would content herself with as much ground as her cloak would cover. He agreed to this and when she laid it down it expanded until it had covered the entire Curragh plain. The nearby town of Kildare (Cill Dara or Church of the Oak to this day stands as a memorial to St. Bridget's Monastic foundation.

Racing is no the only sport associated with The Curragh. One of the most notable boxing matches ever held in this country took place here in 1815 when the mighty Dan Donnelly knocked out the English champion, George Cooper, in what has since been known as Donnelly's Hollow. Dan Donnelly's footprints have been preserved for posterity while his fossilised arm is one of the major attractions of a Kilkullen Hostel.

The Curragh also boasts two golf courses, a fox covert that is 'drawn' by the 'Killing' Killdare; its hares are hunted by the Naas Harriers. Its motor racing is famous and it provides the base for a major military establishment with barracks, munitions dumps and a rifle range on which the Army Shooting Championships are staged.

The fame of The Curragh has for many years been enhanced by the great racing establishments and stud farms which encircle it, names such as J. J. Parkinson, Hubert less time than taken by them on a normal race day.

Part of the record crowd was siphoned off by the numerous special race-trains, as The Curragh is one of the relatively few major European racecourses which possesses a railway-station directly opposite the entrance gates.

The congested car parks posed a very different picture to that which greeted war-time racegoers. This was reflected in the speed of arrival, cars (many operated by gas production) numbered only a handful and many ancient types of transport were pressed into service from public and private cars to funeral coaches and ambulances.

Since time immemorial The Curragh has been a common and much loved by owners and the famous plain have had grazing rights of considerable value. In order to ensure a satisfactory growth of grass it was clearly necessary to fence in the entire course. By their voluntary surrender, without compensation, of rights to graze thousands of sheep local land-holders removed the last major obstacle to the production of a racecourse worthy to pay host to the world's best horses.

The remaining high-sholders have been an area for grazing than hitherto.

The Curragh was the site for his bloodstock breeding when he launched out some forty years ago as an historic one and a stream of celebrated horses and sires bred by him have fired the fame of The Curragh all over the world.

The Aga Khan, grandfather of Karim the present holder of the title, also supported the Irish Derby and won the race on four occasions, his winners being of better than average class notably Dastur and Turkhan.

However, so long as the prize fund remained moderate the prospects of the Irish Derby by ever attracting a really international field were remote. Then came the appearance of the 'Irish Hospitals' Sweepstakes on the scene. As their project grew and achieved world-wide participation, the Irish Sweep found itself faced with growing organisational problems.

Mr. Joseph McGrath, head of the Sweepstakes Organisation, was at a loss for a solution until he conceived the notion of holding the traditional mid-summer Sweep on the Irish Derby at the end of the month of June. This proposal was accepted by the Irish Turf Club and the Racing Board.

It was necessary to enlarge the race substantially in order to elevate its status and ensure that the Field would be of such high quality that the winner would earn the highest prestige and command the maximum prize value.

The Irish Hospitals' Sweepstakes made a contribution of £30,000 to the race which sum is the highest on record put up by the Sponsor of any race.

The event was renamed the Irish Sweeps Derby and when the conditions for the inaugural running were published in the summer of 1960, it was found to be replete with travelling allowances and breeders' bonuses, all in line with modern thinking which has characterised the Irish Racing Authority.

The world record of 627 entries paid tribute by Owners and Trainers to the lay-out and fairness of The Curragh racecourse.

It was at this juncture that the implications of the project became apparent to the Racing Authority. With all its long tradition The Curragh still lacked many of the essentials to cope with a bumper crowd. Accommodation was limited for both horses and people while the communications system was totally inadequate.

There were so many interests involved that the creation of a Co-ordinating Committee was a logical development. The first problem to be faced concerned Stands accommodation, Catering facilities and Water Supply. During the Winter preceding the race the Stands capacity was more than doubled, the catering capacity planned for many more thousands and bore-holes were sunk for water.

The question of car parks presented little difficulty as there is an abundance of open land adjacent to the Course. Nevertheless, access to the Course for the many thousands pouring in from all directions was a major problem solved only by Senior Officers, Motorists Organisations, the Transport Authority and other Bodies concerned.

Last year, these traffic arrangements were so planned that despite a crowd that was more than treble the previous record, the vast majority of motorists discovered to their pleasant surprise that they got to and from the Curragh in

TALLOW NOTES

CORRUS CHRISTI PROCESSIONS

The annual procession in honour of the Blessed Sacrament was held at Tallow on Sunday. The day was beautifully fine and a big crowd attended. The Procession formed by the Carmelite Convent and led by the Children of Mary, followed by the Schoolchildren and men and women's confraternities, proceeded through the Main St., Barrick St. to the Holy Year Grove where Benediction was imparted by Rev. Fr. M. Condon, C.C., assisted by Rev. Fr. F. Lucey, C.C., after which the Procession returned to the Church of the Immaculate Conception where Benediction was again imparted. The route of the procession was beautifully decorated with flags and bunting and altars were erected by some residents outside their doors.

A Knockanore, the Procession was held on Sunday evening at 7.30. The route was from the Church of the Sacred Heart to Knockanore Church and back to the Schoolgrounds, where Benediction was imparted from a specially erected altar. The Blessed Sacrament was carried under canopy by Rev. Fr. M. Power, P.P. Knockanore, assisted by Rev. Fr. S. Nugent, C.C., Glendine. The route was decorated and there was a big attendance.

DEATH OF MRS. M. COUGHLAN

The death took place at her residence Glendalough, Tallow, on Tuesday last week, of Mrs. Margaret Coughlan, Deceased, a native of Inch, Killeagh and came from a well-known and highly respected family. She was sister of the late Prof. Treacy.

A lady of many estimable virtues, not the least of which was her great charity, her death is deeply regretted.

The remains, accompanied by a large cortege were removed to the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Tallow, on Wednesday evening, 12th June, and the interment took place on the Feast of Corpus Christi, following 11 a.m. Mass, Rev. Fr. M. Condon, C.C., Tallow, assisted by Rev. Fr. F. Lucey, C.C., officiated.

The chief mourners were: Mr. John Coughlan (son); Mrs. J. Hannon and Mrs. M. O'Meara (daughters); Mr. T. Treacy (brother); Miss Eileen Hannon and Mr. James Hannon (grandchildren); Mr. James Hannon (son-in-law).

TALLOW BOYS WIN LEAGUE FINAL

Scenes of jubilation were seen in Tallow on Wednesday night on the arrival back in town of the victorious senior school league football team who, earlier in the evening had defeated Ballyduff in the Avonmore School League final at Lismore. The team paraded the town and a bonfire blazed at the Square. What made their win more meritorious is the fact that while Tallow had only school from which to draw a team, Ballyduff had three.

The game was a hectic one from the start, and up to half-time it looked as if Ballyduff would be the winners when they led 1-0 to 1-0. On the run-over the Tallow lads made their effort and notched up 2 goals and a point to which the village lads replied with 2 points, to leave the final score: Tallow, 4-1; Ballyduff, 1-6. The Tallow team have the medals won outright as this victory was their second.

RETURNED TO U.S.

Messrs. Michael and Noel Murphy who arrived by air from the United States to attend the obsequies of their mother the late Mrs. M. Murphy, Ballyhamlet, Tallow, returned to the U.S. on Monday.

OLDEST RESIDENT DIES

The death of Mr. Richard Mansfield, Newport, Knockanore, removes the oldest resident in the district. The late Mr. Mansfield who was aged 99 years, was a well known and extremely popular member of the agricultural community as was evidenced by the large and representative cortege that accompanied the remains to the Church of the Sacred Heart, Knockanore and at the interment in the local cemetery. To his son, daughters and relatives much sympathy is extended. Very Rev. Fr. M. Power, P.P., Knockanore and Rev. Fr. Sean Nugent, C.C., Glendine, officiated at the graveside.

LATE MRS. WM. MARKLEY

Clogheen, Ballynacarbry

In the list of Mass cards published last week in connection with death of above deceased, the following name was inadvertently omitted: John Walsh, Dublin.

Kilmacthomas News

Taking Place To-day (Saturday), 22nd inst., in Kilmacthomas, is the Jubilee Sale, sponsored by the I.C.A. Guild in aid of K. (Temperance) Parochial Hall, Renovation Fund. Useful articles for children, adults, and the home on offer at the sale.

Betrothal.—The engagement is announced and the marriage will take place in the Holy Cross Church, Tramore, on 30th July, between Daniel J. son of Mrs. Margaret Nolan and the late Mr. Paik Nolan, John St., New Ross, and Eileen T., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John O'Donovan, N.T.s., Keatfoun, Kilmacthomas.

Have It that the popularly established Bonmahon Darts Club are holding a dance in the local Spring Valley Hall on tomorrow (Sunday) night.

With the familiar sea-tipped village's very well known and liked sporting businessman at the helm, Mr. Tom Hayes, the affair is sure to be thoroughly enjoyed by all in attendance.

Late Mrs. A. Coffey.—Following a brief indisposition and a moderately advanced age, the late Mrs. Alice Coffey (nee Foley), wife of Mr. Thomas Coffey, building contractor, Fahaleira, Kilmacthomas, passed away shortly after her admission to Ardkeen General Hospital, Waterford, for treatment. An exemplary Catholic, her demise is deeply regretted and sincere sympathy is extended to her grief-stricken husband, mother, sisters and other relatives in their tribulation.

The remains were removed to the Parish Church, Clonect, Power, where the coffin was rested overnight on a catafalque before the high altar. Subsequent to the celebration of Requiem Mass yesterday evening (15th inst.), interment was made in the adjoining cemetery amidst every manifestation of profound sorrow.

The respected local pastor, Very Rev. J. McGrath, P.P., officiated at the graveside. Mary Mass cards and messages of condolence were received.

Late Mrs. E. Fower.—A well-acquainted and highly esteemed Limerick-born lady, in the person of Mrs. Elizabeth (Lily) Power (nee Blake) widow, Sear, Walsh Pl., Kilmacthomas, passed away at her residence in the fullness of her years. She had been in failing health for some time past, and was pre-deceased several years ago by her popular husband, the late Mr. Piery Power, who was longed by birth to the Barony of Upper Third.

The possessor of many appealing traits of character, cultured and courteous, Mrs. Power was blessed with a beautiful singing voice and she was a valued member of the local Convent Chapel choir for a long period.

A happy-dispositioned person, her presence will be sadly missed in the town of her adoption. With her bereaved daughters, sons and brothers whole-hearted sympathy is widespread.

Striking public tributes to her memory were paid when the remains were removed on last Saturday evening to Rathgormack Church, and again when interment was made in the adjoining cemetery on Sunday (16th inst.) at 11 o'clock. The attendance on both occasions being exceedingly large and representative.

A number of floral wreaths were placed on the grave, and several spiritual bouquets and telegrams and letters conveying expressions of sympathy were received.—R.I.P.

Late Mrs. Margaret Lynch (nee Caulfield), widow Michael St., Waterford.—This well-beloved lady was mother of Aid. Teddy Lynch, T.D., auctioneer and valuer, Glendine, Lower Grange, Waterford. At her obsequies which took place at Ballycullen, the immense attendance included: Mr. Sean Ormond, T.D., Kilmacthomas; Mr. D. Shanahan, 60, and Mr. T. Power, Clonect, Waterford.

Requiescent.—At both the 8.30 and 11 o'clock Masses in St. Anne's Church, Ballyaneen on Sunday last, prayers were asked for the repose of the soul of Paul Cappin, who died last week and who was a former resident of The Glebe, Bormahon.

Mitchelstown Fleadh Chol. A specially chartered bus will convey the members of the Kilmacthomas Comhaltas Ceoltairi Band to Mitchelstown, Co. Cork, tomorrow (Sunday), 23rd inst., when they will participate in the above, and it is confidently expected that they will annex additional musical honours, performing both individually and collectively. Good luck to the go-ahead group.

Kilmac (Temperance) Parochial Hall.—Kilmacthomas friends and well-wishers of the town—be they at home or away from the Mohon-straddling little town—should support the 20-week Silver Circle Draw sponsored to raise funds to renovate the above building as a meeting place and recreation for the local people—particularly for the young people.

A modest 1/- per person per week means but the outlay of a mere £1 for the full period of the Draw, in which anyone who wishes to become a promoter will be sent a card for 20 members on application to any of the following: Rev. Michael Wall, C.C., Kilmacthomas; Mr. Percy Kirwan, do.; Mr. Sean Ormond, T.D., do.

Late Thomas Cunningham

COOLROE, MODELIGO

The death of Mr. Thomas Cunningham, Coolroe, Modeligo, which took place on Monday, 3rd inst., has removed a well-known and popular member of the farming community. He was held in much esteem and regard and his passing is much regretted. The remains were removed to Modeligo Church on Tuesday evening and were received by Very Rev. J. Holly, P.P., and Rev. C. Daly, C.C. Following Requiem High Mass the interment took place on Wednesday morning in the adjoining cemetery. The very large attendance at the obsequies was a true reflection of public sympathy. The chief mourners included: Mrs. Mary Cunningham (widow); Thomas, Waterford; Stephen, Coolroe; Michael, London; Willie, Coolroe (sons); Mrs. T. Kehoe, Dublin; Mrs. T. Kehoe, do.; Nellie, Coolroe; Kathleen, S.R.N., Essex (daughters); S. M. Ehma, Corvent of Mercy, Sussex; M. Cunningham, Cork; Mrs. J. Walsh, Curradoon; Mrs. N. Walsh, Bournmouth (sisters); M. N.F.A. NEWS

WEST CORK SURVEY

The Survey of West Cork, published last week by the Agricultural Institute, should prove an eye opener to many. While blame for the present unsatisfactory position of the majority of farms in this particular area can be apportioned to this one or that, there can be no doubt but that, in urgent, problems confronting the farmers in this and similar areas, indeed, the existence of magnitude of these problems reflects the absence of worthwhile National planning, where small farmers in congested or less developed areas are concerned.

It is shocking to think that only fourteen of the forty-three farmers of under 30 acres examined in the Survey had a total output of over £100. Such a state of affairs easily explains the high rate of emigration and the general malaise common in such areas.

The N.F.A. has always regarded the case of the small farmer as being critically important to the whole economy. It has often presented this case to the relevant authorities and it is to be hoped that many of its recommendations will be put into effect, now that the small farmer is being spotlighted. Our Farm Structures Committee has tried to come to grips with these problems in a realistic way and it will continue to harass, inform, and help those dealing with this matter.

The average family farmer income in the years 1955/56/57 for 15 to 30 acre group of farms was only £270, while the average figure for the whole country was £346. As our President Mr. Richard Deasy pointed out last winter there can be only two solutions:

(a)—Either we engage realistically in a radical plan for agricultural development and expansion or we face the problem of displacing food numbers and our farmers. Our objective must be to give ourselves an agricultural set-up which, taken with our natural productive advantages, can enable us to compete effectively with the agriculture set-up of any other country.

(b)—This cannot be done except by Government leadership and of this in the field of agriculture we have had, since the inception of the State only feeble glimpses. In recent months we have looked especially for a real economic plan and positive leadership for Irish agriculture, and so far we have not seen it.

ELIMINATES MANUAL WORK
A new system, the first of its kind in the United Kingdom has been adopted by Tassagh Creamery, County Antrim. The new milk system of the creamery will entirely eliminate manual work in the reception of up to 15,000 gallons of milk a day.

MUS PAYS

mus pay, frequently excluded us from competing in Continental markets which we could otherwise develop. "Again, take early potatoes. We have a considerable potential in West Cork and other suitable areas for the expansion and development of our early potato trade. But in such a highly seasonal trade speed is almost more important than cost, if we are to exploit the potential market in the United Kingdom. There is little doubt that our present transport deficiencies in this regard are one of the principal limiting factors in developing this trade."

There is in N.F.A. hold that the planning of transport services is of necessity an integral part of the planning necessary for the economic expansion of Irish agriculture. "The above is a quotation of an article by Mr. R. Deasy in 'Administration'."

NOT ENOUGH PROGENY TESTING

According to the recent annual Report on the Accredited Pig Herd Scheme, there are at least 39 accredited herds in the county of which 26 are Large White Herds and 13 Landrace. A condition of participation in the scheme is that at least 40% of the pigs weaned in a herd must be sold to a bacon factory where the carcasses are specially graded. A notable improvement has been achieved in carcass length and the average for pigs slaughtered from the accredited herds has shown an increase from 804 mm. to 807 mm.

After the end of the first year the age-at-lambing requirement of the scheme was reduced from 210 days to 200 days. The objects of the scheme are to ensure a consistently improving standard of pigs for breeding so as to raise the general level of bacon carcasses coming from commercial herds. The principal means of achieving this aim is through the Premium Bred Scheme operated by county committees of agriculturists and it is hoped to confine the selection of premium blood to accredited herds from the beginning of the 1964 season.

Farmers while welcoming the progress being made to improve our bacon are still not satisfied that enough has been done. It is deplorable that in 1963 there still is not more Progeny Testing Stations in operation. For years now the N.F.A. National Progeny Committee have advocated for a minimum of three such stations, one in Cork (which is a operation one outside Dublin (which focuses now is in the process of being built) and one in the West. Until this is carried out here cannot be real progress in pig breeding.

CHAFOLLAIS AND POILED HEREFORDS ON TRIAL
Breeding trials with the Chafollais and Poiled Hereford bulls imported from the United States and Canada by the Department of Agriculture are about to begin.

This marks another achievement by the N.F.A. which, for years now has pressed for the importation of animals from abroad under the strictest precautionary regulations of course—for trial purposes, in order to improve our meat trade and put us on the best footing possible vis-a-vis our competitors elsewhere in the world. The bulls will be held at Abbotstown, Co. Dublin, and semen will be supplied to the nine Commercial A.I. Stations throughout the country. All calves born from the Chafollais and Poiled Hereford inseminations will be ear-tagged, and the owners of the cows concerned will be expected to give prompt notification of the births to their A.I. stations. This is important to secure the proper identification of the calves. It will also enable a sufficient number of calves to be purchased from tests against other beef breeds and crossed so as to show their co-operative qualities as beef-producing animals.

WHEAT REFUND

A refund of £2-10-0 being the amount paid by farmers who appealed to the Central Wheat Laboratory should have been paid by now to those who wheat mix with maize requirements. If they have not received this refund they should take the matter up immediately with the Mill in question. FARMERS SHOULD HELP AFForestation

According to Mr. O'Mearain, the Minister for Lands and the Gaeltacht, we are carrying out in relation to our population, the biggest tree-planting in the whole of Western Europe, but to maintain a target of 25,000 acres of planting a year, we need a planable reserve of 75,000 acres. The reserve position was still unsatisfactory and continues to give rise to management problems at many forest centres. The Minister also said that the Irish climate was very suitable for afforestation because I gave a rate of growth twice as high as other countries such as Norway. With the aid of Borl's Famine forstists would be obtained as a tourist attraction and a local amenity in the near future. A great deal could be done by private individuals and we make a special plea to farmers to plant shelter-beds where possible and also to plant waste corners and fields which over a number of years will more than repay the labour and costs involved.

APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP OF E.E.C.

In the Dail last week, the Taoiseach repeated a statement he had made in the previous month that "whether it may be in two, three or four years, there is virtual certainty that at some time before the end of this decade membership of the E.E.C. will be open for us and we intend to acquire it."

KILROSSANTY'S MAGNIFICENT VICTORY

It is a long and rugged road that leads to the senior football championship final. But should Kilrossanty proceed to serve up the immaculate brand of football that so completely overpowered Eire Oge in the first round at Waterford on Sunday last, then they are unlikely to encounter many arduous tasks en route to the decider.

Considering that the championship is as yet only in its infancy, that may sound a brash statement while showing little regard for the remaining contenders. But so superbly did Kilrossanty perform their overwhelming 3-13 to 1-1 victory on Sunday, that it is going to be a mammoth task to prevent them qualifying for the final.

This was the Comeragh men at their scintillating best. Their fielding was as in their tradition, safe and sure, while brilliantly constructive movements were almost invariably rounded off for scores. There was a sureness and confidence about their play that stamped them as a really good club side and it was with a consummate ease that they brushed aside the challenge of the combined junior of Newtown, Ballyduff and Rathgormack.

Truly it was a Kilrossanty team without a weakness. Each and every sector of the side proved superior to their opponents who scarcely raised a gallop for the entire hour.

Almost from the word "go" Kilrossanty jumped into a lead like reindeer. With the passage of time they steadily increased that advantage and with only seconds left in the game led 3-13 to 0-1. It was with practically the last kick of the match that Eire Oge notched their lone goal, as goalkeeper Sean Ormonde made little or no effort to save it.

So well did the Comeragh side perform that it would be an injustice to some to single out individuals for special mention. All acquitted themselves splendidly and made it a top class team triumph.

Eire Oge, depleted to a certain extent by the absence of three injured regulars, were clearly out of their depth. They tried all they knew but their best efforts were not sufficient to ward off a crushing defeat.

● STRADBALLY MUST TRY AGAIN

Stradbally's senior football championship march was halted temporarily at Walsh Park, Waterford, on Sunday when Gaultier held them to a 1-6 all draw in the opening round.

It was an exciting game, punctuated by many bright passages of football and a draw was a fitting over-all result.

Stradbally may, of course, argue—and with some justification that they were a trifle unfortunate not to prevail. During the game they struck the cross-bar and upright and on both occasions were deprived of certain scores.

Yet for all that Gaultier deserved another chance. They were slow to settle down and this was something that Stradbally failed to fully capitalise on. For most of the hour they trailed in arrears and their enthusiasm and never-say-die spirit gained them equilibrium in the final minutes.

But spirited though Gaultier were frankly a little disappointed by their effort, the Reds were frankly a little disappointing. Without stylish Ken Murphy they were not the potent force expected and a vast improvement is necessary if they are to entertain much hope of further progress.

● WESTERN CHAMPIONSHIPS AT VARIOUS VENUES

While the senior football championship games at Dungarvan will attract greatest interest on Sunday next there are also several attractive Western Board fixtures down for decision.

Cappoquin stages a two-game programme, highlight of which should be the primary hurling clash between Tourin and Clashmore.

The former, backed by men who have already established themselves in a higher grade, are bent on taking the Divisional title this year.

Clashmore, now that their junior footballers have severed all connection with the championship, have an added incentive to win but gallantly though they will undoubtedly try, it is doubtful if they can master the experienced Tourin men.

The remaining game at the venue is the minor football championship meeting between Ballinacree and Master McTear's in which the former are fancied to prevail.

AT LISMORE

There should be a real battle royal at Lismore between St. Mary's (Mt. Mellery) and Glenmore Rovers in Primary hurling.

Last year St. Mary's reached the Western final, only falling narrowly to Cappoquin, after a thrilling decider. Determined to go one better this year, Mary's left no stone unturned towards achieving that goal.

The Rovers, are equally bent on victory and this year are reputed to have one of their best ever teams.

It will be a tough unrelenting struggle with no quarter being given or asked. But while mindful of Glenmore's true potential, I still give St. Mary's the vote.

● LOCAL DERBY TO-NIGHT

All is set for to-night's (Thursday) minor hurling championship "show-down" between Abbeyside and Dungarvan at the Fraher Field.

The Cornerstone side will not hear of defeat and led by county minor John O'Brien must be given a confident vote to advance.

Abbeyside, where minor hurling title hopes are higher than ever this year, meet St. Laurence's (Foumieuwater) at Dungarvan at 7.30 p.m. on Sunday.

The net result of these games is that Waterford's injury problem is now a grave one, with no less than half a dozen regulars effected in some way or another.

At last Monday night's meeting of the County Board Eamonn Cheasty's proposal that they NOT play Kilkenny was surprisingly beaten and so the League champions already showing signs of stress and strain must face the task to the Marble City. "Ere now they were literally "burnt out" by championship time and as a result of similar procedure, and what happened before can surely happen again.

● FACILE MINOR VICTORY FOR CAPPOQUIN

Cappoquin serve notice to the West that they will be strong championship contenders this year with an impressive but facile 8-6 to nil minor football victory over Lismore in the first round on Tuesday night.

The winners never experienced an anxious moment during the game and scored almost at will throughout. At the interval they led by 4-3 and without over-exerting themselves added a similar tally in the second half.

While all fifteen played well for the winners, particularly impressive were Vincent O'Connor, Seamus McMahon, Frank Whe'lan, John M'kea, John O'Brien and Bertie Geary.

Lismore were never in the game with a chance and only sporadically succeeded in mounting worthwhile attacks.

They were best served by Tommy Hekey at full-back, midfielder Davy, Tommy Heffernan and Buckley.

● MINOR HURLING CHALLENGE

In preparation for their Munster semi-final engagement against Limerick on July 7th, Waterford's minor hurlers play Kilkenny in a challenge to-morrow (Friday) night.

The Nonesiders have been All-Irish champions for the past three years and are all set to establish a record "four-in-a-row". Waterford are sending their probable championship side and it should be a real trial of strength for the Deise side.

● TO PLAY KILKENNY

Despite strong objections by Eamonn Cheasty (Ballyduff) it was decided to play Kilkenny in an S.H. tournament on Tuesday June 25th. Fortunately this will be their last game before the next Board meeting.

● REFEE ASKED TO APPEAR

No definite decision was taken regarding the report of referee Billy McGrath on the Coligan Rocks-Brickey Rangers Sargent Cup game in which Mick Walsh (Brickeys) is alleged to have abused Mr. McGrath after the game.

It will be recalled that at the County Board meeting following that game, six players in all were suspended (four from Brickeys and two from Coligan). A decision on Walsh was deferred to Monday night's meeting to enable Walsh to appear and face the charges.

At Monday night's meeting however Walsh denied all allegations and it was decided to ask the referee to appear before the next Board meeting.

● SUNDAY'S SENIOR GAMES AT DUNGARVAN

It is extremely doubtful if two first round senior football

Ardmore may beat injury-hit Geraldines —Brickeys also fancied

NOT to the writer's recollection has the Western portion of the Deise county awaited any first round championship games with such painful patience as the two-game senior football programme scheduled for Dungarvan on Sunday next. The die is cast, the chips are down, and the Fraher Field is ready to stage what may well be the most vibrating games of the entire championship campaign.

Brickey Rangers and Emmetts, Ardmore and Geraldines . . . these are the pairings — four dedicated title-chasing outfits each imbued with the same purpose—that of procuring tickets to the second round.

While both games undoubtedly command a luring appeal, the "show-piece" of the afternoon is the Geraldines-Ardmore clash. There is certain to be a "needie" prevalent in the exchanges, but it is to be hoped that sportsmanship will not go out of bounds.

● SENIOR HURLERS AGAIN IN ACTION

Is there to be any rest for Waterford's senior hurlers. Since the League final they have been continuously pressed into action in tournament and challenge games ad ow they have to travel to Nowlan Park on Tuesday night next to play Kilkenny.

JIM CULLEN (Ardmore)

temp, to employ similar tactics on Sunday but whether or not they can again do so successfully is at this stage entirely a matter for conjecture.

MISSING STALWARTS

But as Geraldines wind up their intensive preparations, they do so in the despondent knowledge that they must enter the fray without a trio of stalwarts. Paddy Kenneally, Ned Mernon and Larry Lee.

Kenneally broke a bone in the ankle while training and then followed further adversity when Mernon received serious injury in a tournament final against Brickeys.

Nor were their troubles as yet at an end. On Sunday night last Lee became victim number three when he wrenched his knee in training and will not be fit in time.

What then are their chances of victory, burdened as they are by these serious defections? None realise more than the men at the helm that their task has by these circumstances become all the more formidable. But their confidence has not been lessened one iota and their determination to overcome all the odds is best described as fanatical.

● FACILE MINOR VICTORY FOR CAPPOQUIN

But Ardmore have vowed that they will not succumb before this Gaelic challenge and contend that "Peadar" is the point to victory over Sunday's opponents in this year's Phelan Cup and add with confidence that they will vanquish the Aglishers.

Surely then, this background is in itself the foundation for a battle royal.

While Geraldines must field below strength on their credit side is the availability of Roger Ryan. Ryan was the "villain of the piece" in the corresponding game last year and if given any great leeway could win the game off his own boot.

Without Mernon their defence is deprived of one of its key figures. However, centre-back Jim Davis and full-back Billy Cronin and "Bunny" Ryan will not be easily outwitted.

Larry Lee would have been a likely partner for Johnny Grady at midfield and to try and fathom selectorial deliberations concerning this sector would be sheer guesswork.

Many would like to see Ryan drafted to midfield but to my mind it would merely be a case of robbing Peter to pay Paul. Ryan is the schemer-in-chief in attack and with the exuberant "Siy'o" Riordan and opportunist Willie Treacy will not waste many chances.

● FACILE MINOR VICTORY FOR CAPPOQUIN

What of Ardmore? Their defence revolving around county stars Eddie Mooney, and Tommy Power is the sheet anchor of the side. In the middle Donal O'Brien and Pato Keely may carry the banner of battle while the danger men in attack will undoubtedly be Fin Halahan, John Joe Carlton and Jim Cullen.

Were Geraldines capable of fielding at full strength they would be my fancy to succeed. But admit that though their termination is, I cannot close my eyes to the "vacuum" cause by their absence. All three were vital cogs in the Aglish wheel and gallantly though they will try, my vote for what it's worth goes to Ardmore.

BRICKEYS OR EMMETTS?

After their championship failures of the past few years, there are many who believe that Brickeys are simply not destined to win the coveted title. But undaunted they set out—as so often before, on the road to that first-ever crown, anxious to break through the barrier that has so irritatingly taunted them for so long.

On Sunday their opponents are Emmetts—perhaps their keepest present-day rivals. The Coligan men make no secret of the fact that hurling is their first love but will not spare themselves in an effort to shock the Rangers.

When last the sides met in the Phelan Cup some weeks past, the Brickeys, despite being very much understrength scored a slender but deserved two-point victory. This going on that form they must start favourites again on Sunday.

However, they would be wise to remember that the championship and Phelan Cup are poles apart in importance and Emmetts invariably reserve their best form for the big occasion.

Welcome news for Brickey supporters is that Patsy Donnelly will again take his place in defence. This great-hearted defender could well be the inspiration of his side and few soft scores will be conceded by him and his co-defenders.

Dungarvan-based Garda Andy Hallissey will be their key figure at midfield and duels around the centre could well be the highlight of the game.

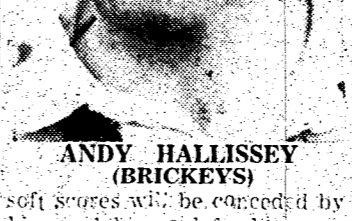

Their attack will benefit considerably by the return of Justin Spear and Pat Curran. Both can make or take scores. Willie John Woods and Willie Terry will also occupy berths in the "scoring department."

From enquiries I learned that Emmetts will not commence their side until shortly before the game. Our sides may be but there is a que air of confidence among players that they will set the championship off to a shock start.

On paper at least the Brickeys may appear to be the better balanced side. But for all that Emmetts possess the individuals—notably Dick and Jimmy Tolan, Garry Quinnan, Jack Kie'ly, Cyril Power, Colm Barron and Ted Coughlan to make them travel every inch of the way.

These great ravs have the happy knack of bringing the best out of each other. Now with the championship at stake, both will redouble their efforts and the issue could be much closer than many expect.

Yes, Brickeys are my choice, but let me catch any ideas of a one-sided victory for them. Emmetts are tough battlers not eas overcome and if there is to be a shock result on Sunday's Dungarvan programme, I feel they will be the ones to provide it.
