Brother and Sister Lose Lives INVOLVED IN TRAGIC CRASH

PAUL VI

Former Archbishop of Milan Cardinal Giovanni Battista Montini, was elected Pope at the Conclave in Rome on last Friday to succeed the late Pope John XXIII. The newly elected pontiff has taken the name Paul VI.

TRAGEDY stalked the Cappagh area on Wednesday morning when a brother and sister were involved in a collision with a Volkswagen car, from which they received fatal injuries.

They were Maura (11) and Noel (8) Cliffe children of Mr and Mrs James Cliffe, of Carrowgarraff, Cappagh.

Kilkenny. Maura died at 5 a.m. this Thursday morning without regaining consciousness. There are five others in the family.

The funerals of both brother and sister will leave the District Hospital this evening (Thursday) for Modeligo.

The accident occurred at about 9 a.m. which the children, together with their other sisters, Nora (9) and Margaret (5) were cycling to Modeligo National School. Maura and Noel were on one bicycle and Nora and Margaret on another.

The car, which was driven by Michael Fitzgerald, Glen Upper, Modeligo, was going in the opposite direction to the children and the accident happened on a bend near the Kenry homestead in Modeligo.

The two injured children were rushed to the District Hospital, Dungarvan, in an unconscious condition. Noel was then removed by ambulance to Dublin but died in Priory House Crux to be Solved?

ONCE again Priory House, Dungarvan, which one member said had poisoned public life in Waterford, was the centre-piece of a fiery and heated discussion at last Monday's meeting of Waterford Health Authority.

When the item on the agenda—"proposed new clinic at Dungarvan," came up for discussion Mr. Charles Curran said he was satisfied that any further discussion on Priory House would only cause further ill-feeling. For seven long years it had poisoned public life in Waterford and some of the present members who were not in the Board of Assistance when first the whole affair started were now being brought into this bitter dispute.

Mr. Lannon initiated the matter, continued Mr. Curran and I am concerned for public life over this issue. I intend to put a notice of motion at the next meeting which I hope and believe will settle it satisfactorily. I now ask you Mr. Chairman, to adjourn it to the next meeting.

The Chairman (Mr. Norman Walsh) said he knew what Mr. Curran had in mind and he believed with all-round co-operation and goodwill they could bring the matter of Priory House to a happy ending.

Mr. M. Morrissey—Why not discuss it now in the interests of the people of Dungarvan.
Mr. Tom Lannon said it was funny to see Mr. Morrissey so worried about Priory House. If he was so worried about it, why did he ever vote for the purchase of it.
"The man that would spend one penny to do anything on Priory House would want to be mad," he said. "No wonder we have a turn over tax with this kind of thing going on. If they keep going as they are there will be six turn-over taxes. The people are being fleeced today. The members of this Health Authority visited Priory House and they can stand up here and say what it is like."

"The County Manager says we will have to suggest to the Department, alternative sites if Priory House is rejected. What alternative site did he give the Department, when £1,000 of public money went on the place next to the Dungarvan Court-house. Where do they think the money is being got from, Gooseberry bushes?"

Mr. Morrissey said he was sent by the County Council to ask if the Augustinians were interested. They were not and he came back and voted on that information.

Mr. N. Walsh said they hoped Mr. Curran's proposal for the next meeting would bring the unhappy story to a happy ending. He felt the less said about Priory House during the next few months the better.

Mr. S. J. Moynihan (Manager)—Why, why, Mr. Chairman?
Mr. Lannon—You, Mr. Moynihan, must have an awful neck, to stand up here and say anything about Priory House.

Mr. Curran—I would ask you not to develop the matter further for the sake of public life in Waterford.
Mr. Lannon—Sure public life in this country is rotten.
Mr. Moynihan—What Mr. Lannon says only reflects on himself.
Mr. Lannon—Didn't your people buy Priory House? If we had right people running the country I know where you would be.
Mr. Moynihan—Mr. Chairman, I...
Chairman—We'll have no more discussion on it. I rule that. They would have Mr. Curran's proposal for the next meeting when it was hoped to settle the matter finally.
He then read a letter from the Abbesside Branch of the Labour Party asking them to erect a clinic in the centre of the town.

MOTION DEFERRED AS LEGAL ADVICE SOUGHT

A NOTICE OF MOTION in the name of Mr. W. Collins at last Monday's meeting of Waterford Health Authority asking that the resolution standing whereby applications for salary increases can only be dealt with at the Annual Estimates meeting, be rescinded, was deferred by the Acting Chairman, Mr. Norman Walsh, until they obtain legal advice on the matter.

Speaking against Mr. Collins' motion, Mr. Tom Lannon said if the existing motion was defeated they would have a stampede for increases. These increases were being given to well paid people and they had three men in the County in the £20 a week bracket doing what one man could do. The Manager (Mr. S. J. Moynihan) said they had 3 health inspectors in the County and three in the City. He did not think three in the County was too many. The Department would not have agreed to less.

Too big a responsibility for him to take. He would get legal advice on it and adjourn it to the next meeting.

Mr. J. Power—You know the chairmanship procedure and you should not have to get legal advice.
Mr. Milo Galgey said one half of the house said one thing and another half said different. He felt the Chairman was placed in the position where he could not make a decision.
Mr. Walsh then adjourned the matter and promised the members he would have the legal adviser's decision for the next meeting.

Mr. Lannon—The Department would agree to anything. Could you produce a diary of the work of these three health inspectors for the last month? You're supposed to be the boss.
Mr. Moynihan—I've seen the results of their work.
Mr. Galgey said the whole system was wrong. Poor people on relief years ago were still on it. Then they had poor people who did do a day's work and deserved to be poor. But the man that took off his coat and worked never had a thing out of the country. The whole thing was a complete farce.

Mr. Lannon said they spent £1,000,000 last year, of which £300,000 was for salaries.

Mr. R. Walsh—I suppose it all comes from the ratepayer's pocket.
Mr. Charles Curran said if a similar motion as presented now by Mr. Collins was already defeated he submitted that a notice of motion in less than a further 6 months would not be valid.
The Manager said the present meeting was never before any meeting.

Mr. Curran—Was there ever a vote taken to rescind the existing resolution that increases be only considered at the one meeting in the year, i.e., the Estimates' meeting? It all hinges on that.

Mr. J. A. Hynes (Secretary) said a motion to rescind the existing one was defeated at their meeting on May 27th last.
Mr. Curran—I suggest then that the resolution before us is out of order and cannot be considered until six months from May 27th.
Mr. Walsh said it was

Lismore Notes

ACCIDENT
As a result of an accident between a cyclist and a motor car which occurred at the Monument, Lismore, on Wednesday of last week. The cyclist, Miss Margaret O'Sullivan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John O'Sullivan, Parks Rd., Lismore, is being treated in Ardkeen Hospital, Waterford for a broken leg. We wish her a very speedy recovery to full health again.

WEEKLY DANCE
Owing to unforeseen circumstances, last week's dance, due to be held in the Town Hall, Lismore, was postponed. But good news is that (tonight's) Friday's dance will be definitely held, when once again a large crowd is expected.

C.B.S. BAND OUTING
On Sunday last, the members of the now very popular Lismore C.B.S. Band "The Happy Wanderers," went on their first tour together. The outing, which took them to Co. Kerry, where they visited Killarney and also included the famous Ring of Kerry, proved to be a very popular one, and a wonderful day was had by all.

BEST WISHES FOR RECOVERY
It was with deep regret that his friends learned of the sudden illness of Mr. William Lineen, Ballylin, Lismore. However, we are glad to relate that this popular insurance representative, better known as Billy, is progressing favourably, and we soon hope to see him out again amongst his countless friends.

CARNIVAL IN AID OF SCHOOL BUILDING FUND
Plans are at present being made by the very energetic committee in charge for the second annual carnival in aid of the Lismore Presentation Convent School Building Fund, due to be held in the Convent Grounds from Sunday July 14th to 17th (inc.). This event, which was held for the first time last year, and proved to be a most successful venture, will again this year be highlighted by "all the fun of the fair," and with such added attractions as a Baby Show, Fancy Dress Hurling match, Crazy Football game, Children's Shorts, Donkeys Rides, etc., it should even surpass last year's carnival. We feel confident it will get the support it so richly deserves. Further particulars will be given in our later issues.

LOCAL CRICKETER HITS A CENTURY

In the first round of the Irish Junior Cup, played at Lismore on Sunday last in adverse weather conditions, the home side put up a great show against Bohemians and ran up a score of 255 (all out) before rain stopped play. Lismore lost the toss and were put into bat. Jim Crowley and Trevor Endersegh opened the innings and this partnership remained intact for over ninety minutes before the latter was l.b.w. A. Harris then joined Crowley and the score went to 100 before Harris was caught.

Three Lismore wickets then fell quickly before P. Feeney joined the bang-in-form Crowley, and gradually, between them they brought the score to 200, before Feeney was caught. Again, a few quick wickets fell, but the side was again arrested by P. Pollard who joined Crowley and the score rose 248 before Crowley ended his supreme run. M. Gough was Pollard's partner then and they brought the score to 255 before the innings closed when Pollard was caught.

Late Mrs. Catherine Tobin
KILBRIEN LOWER

In connection with the death of the late Mrs. Catherine Tobin, Kilbrien Lower, the following Mass cards were received:

Labour Court Hears All Set for School Employees' Claim League Finals

DLC Workers Seek 30/- Rise

THE Labour Court sat in Dungarvan on Wednesday to investigate a claim by approximately 180 workers employed by the Dickens Leather Co. Ltd., Dungarvan for an increase of 30/- a week on the basic wages.

On the 8th. March, 1963 we made an application for a wage increase of 30/- per week on basic wage, plus time and one half for overtime and a quarter for shift work.

The 12/9 increase was reduced to a true increase of 9/8d. weekly, as the workers had always enjoyed a bonus at Christmas from the time the factory started in 1936.

town. The Company argue that they should not be asked to pay a higher rate than other employers of the town, but the only other Manufacturers (Dungarvan Co-Op. Creamery) in the town operate a non-contributory pension scheme and a sick pay scheme for their employees which the employees of the Dickens Leather Co. do not enjoy.

A conference was held between the Company and the Union on the 19th April, 1963 and an offer of 7/6d. was made on basic, plus time and one quarter for the first two hours overtime daily and time and one half thereafter.

We then applied to the Labour Court and a Conciliation Conference was held on the 6th June 1963. No progress was made as the Company refused to increase their offer on basic.

We maintain that all overtime should be at time and one half as it has been time and one quarter for the past thirty years or more.

In any case, the Company offer of time and one half after the first two hours daily means nothing, as the law lays down a maximum of two hours per day overtime.

1/10d to £3.4.6d. per week. overall average in factory is £2.20 per week.

Feelings are running high among the membership, who have requested sanction from the General Executive Council to serve notice of strike action.

We therefore ask the Court to recommend a decent increase on basic wage with time and one half for all overtime and time and one quarter for shift workers.

Mr. J. O'Connell, Assistant Secretary of the Federated Union of Employers, said— This claim was based on the increase in the cost of living since the last wage increase and for the purpose of bringing the workers in line with other workers on the eight round of wage increases.

A direct conference was held on 19th April at which certain offers were made, but which were later rejected. The Union then requested the intervention of the Court and a Conciliation Conference was held on 6th June.

Shift workers are paid at

The biggest little finals in West Waterford are down for decision this week-end when the deciding matches in the C.B.S. leagues will take place.

The present overtime rate is time and a quarter. The Shift differential is time and one eighth.

We should however, point out to the Court that the company, from the beginning of negotiations has shown quite clearly that it was prepared to consider an amount which would bring the incomes for workers in the Dickens Leather Company, i.e. in other Tanneries.

To this end, at the Conference held on 19th April an offer of 7/6 per week was made, retro. to April. This was subsequently rejected.

In this context it is entirely irrelevant to state that any increase is being conceded at a time when this Company can ill afford to concede any claim at all.

To sum up, we should like to say that from the opening stages of these negotiations, the company, despite the anxiety caused by its recent financial set-back has attempted to evaluate each claim in the light of what was fair and reasonable, and have, where necessary, indicated their willingness to make adjustments where called for.

Mr. J. O'Connell, Assistant Secretary of the Federated Union of Employers, said— This claim was based on the increase in the cost of living since the last wage increase and for the purpose of bringing the workers in line with other workers on the eight round of wage increases.

The third and last final, that is the under 14 division will be played on Sunday at 8 p.m. Here again, Mitchels and Shandon are in opposition and this game hangs very delicately in the balance.

But Mitchels will fight every inch of the way. Connie Murphy and John Clancy are two hard and often brilliant defenders.

Come what may it should be a rousing struggle. The sides have met twice before and the honours are even, a win each. Now the chips are down and all is set for the final showdown.

Only one thing is certain—Dungarvan hurling should reap a rich harvest in the years ahead.

Ardmore Advance in Dreary Encounter

ARDMORE 1-7; GERALDINES 0-1

SELDOM if ever can Geraldines have made such an auspicious start to a senior football championship campaign as at Dungarvan on Sunday last, when Ardmore inflicted a nine points defeat on them in a lifeless, lack-lustre first-round game. Long before the end many of the big attendance were filing their way homewards, sorely disappointed and sadly disillusioned, at a game that promised so much and gave so little.

Pre-match speculation and expectancy strongly indicated a rip-roaring incident packed game. But these expectations, not for the first time, proved unduly optimistic, as Ardmore literally ambled their way to comfortable victory.

Fortunately, however, the game was not marred to any great extent by untidy incidents. There were some flare-ups, but thankfully only proved isolated ones and both teams conducted themselves well in the circumstances.

But the standard of football that prevailed throughout was simply in keeping with the miserable conditions. The frequent showers that made the ball greasy and heavy was not a help, but this cannot be accepted in toto as an alibi for the negative type of football that was served up.

BETTER TEAM

That Ardmore were the better side is surely beyond question. Except for the early moments of the game and periodically in the second half, there was little danger to their superiority and even they themselves must have been a little amazed at the simplicity of their task.

As I suspected, even before a ball was kicked in this game, the loss of Paddy Kenneally, Ned Mernon and Larry Lee was too great a handicap for Geraldines. No one could question their zealousness without results and Eddie Mooney and his co-defenders weathered this brief Aglish storm. Only twelve minutes of the half remained when Carlton had a further point from a free and before the end Pender and Mattie Mulcahy made their victory a thoroughly decisive one with further points.

EFFECTIVE

Only in spasms was the winners' defence subjected to serious pressure and then it did its work effectively. As always full-back Eddie Mooney was a tower of strength, ably supported by tenacious flankers in Donal O'Brien and Noel Power.

VITAL SCORE

At that stage despite playing against the breeze, they were seen at their best and it was only a point scored against the run of play that separated the sides. Then came the score that completely changed the trend of the game.

Jim Cullen gained possession little more than ten yards from the Aglish goal but a feeble drive straight at goalkeeper "Ferdie" Connell amazingly slipped through the keepers fingers and to the consternation of all Aglishers, wound up in the back of the net.

That goal, coming as it did, when Geraldines looked capable of making a real game of it, undoubtedly sounded their death knell for their championship hopes for another year. Through the unerring free-taking of John Joe Carlton they quickly stretched their lead and when they led 1-4 to nil at the short whistle, the Aglish goosed looked well and truly cooked.

For a few brief second-half minutes the game sprung to life and within seconds of the restart 'Stylo' Riordan placed Roger Ryan for their side's solitary score. Twice in as many minutes Riordan again jinked his way through only to be halted by defensive indiscretions that mysteriously went unpunished.

But with this lamentable failure to add to their tally, the Aglishers quickly and assuredly faded from the picture. The closing quarter was all Ardmore, save for spasmodic Geraldine raids, and by the end of the hour, the game had been completely drained of its interest.

Needless to say, followers of the losers will contend that with a full-strength side the outcome would have been reversed. None appreciates more than the writer the extensive weakening caused by their absentees but with equal conviction I believe that Ardmore would still have survived had they encountered an Aglish team with all its "big guns."

NOT GREAT

Even in victory the seaiders were far from great but they had sufficient in reserve to meet the demands of Sunday game. But now that this major obstacle has been safely jumped, I at any rate, expect them to be a vastly different kettle of fish when next they face Dungarvan in the second round.

Now is the time for all good things.

THE SCORE

Ardmore had first advantage of the breeze but it was Geraldines who took up the early running. Ryan was narrowly off target with a close-in free and a great individual effort by 'Stylo' Riordan met with a similar fate.

Exactly seven minutes had elapsed before Ardmore staged their first attack of note, and when an Aglish defender fouled, John Joe Carlton brilliantly pointed the free from an acute angle. Six minutes later Jim Cullen scored his fortuitous goal, and the winners were already on the high road to victory, when Carlton again pointed a free.

Geraldines tried desperately hard to regain the initiative and only the alertness of Ardmore keeper John Colbert and palpably poor finishing power by their own forwards prevented them from wiping out their deficit. In the twentieth minute Carlton once more obliged from a free and Pat Pender closed the first-half scoring with a glorious point in the 26th minute.

LONE POINT

Straight from the restart Geraldines went over on the offensive and a move initiated by Riordan was finished off for a point by Ryan. For five continuous minutes they laid siege to Ardmore's goal, but

Death of Nonagenarian It is with deep regret that her many friends in both Counties of Cork and Waterford will have heard the death in her 92nd year of Mrs Elizabeth Jane O'Donovan which took place at her residence, The Moorings, Youghal on Saturday last. Of an old Youghal seafaring family the late Mrs O'Donovan was widow of the late Capt. Patrick Donovan, and proprietress of the well known Monatrea Hotel until her retirement some thirty years ago. The deceased who had reached a grand old age enjoyed perfect health up to a short time ago, was possessed of a very quiet and friendly manner which made her the most popular figure with all sections of the community. To her four daughters and two sons sincere sympathy is extended in their loss. The remains were removed to St. Mary's Parish Church on Sunday last and the funeral followed by a large and very represented cortege took place on Monday after Solemn Requiem Mass at 11 a.m.

Late Mr. E. Millerick The death took place on Sunday last after a prolonged period of illness of a well known figure in the town in the person of Mr. Ed. Millerick ex N.T. of Cross Street, Youghal. Up to the time of his retirement over twenty years ago the late Mr. Millerick was principal teacher at Gortree Schools and was a universal favourite, a fluent Irish speaker and ardent supporter of all G.A.A. games. The remains were removed to the Parish Church from where the funeral followed by a large cortege took place to North Abbey Cemetery. Deepest sympathy is extended to the members of his family.

The late Mrs. B. Redmond... On Sunday last the death took place unexpectedly of Mrs Bridget Redmond at her residence 136 North Main Street, Youghal. Of an old and highly esteemed Youghal family the deceased was in impaired health for some time. She is survived by her two sons Very Rev. J. Redmond P.P. Auckland, New Zealand, and of Mr. Michael Redmond, proprietor of the Strand Garage, and her daughter Miss Maisie Redmond to whom deepest sympathy is extended in their sorrow. The remains were removed to St. Mary's Parish Church from where the funeral both large and representative took place on Tuesday at 4 p.m. The 8 o'clock Mass at the parish church was offered for that morning for the repose of her soul.

Youghal Athletes. At Tracton Novice Sports on Sunday last the well known Martin Maher of Youghal was the winner of the one and two mile races while his club mate John Arnott was second in the two mile event.

Record Sea Trout. While salmon fishing in Youghal harbour last week a local fisherman Mr. John Murphy landed a 12 lb sea-trout from his nets. This he carried with him as Curate at Meelin the best wishes of the people of Youghal.

Youghal Man's Appointment. Congatulation to Mr. Ed. B. O'Connor, son of Mr and Mrs Ed. O'Connor of Wesley Place, Youghal on his appointment to Office Manager of the Irish Tyre and Rubber Service, Dublin. Educated at Youghal C.B.S. Mr O'Connor prior to this appointment was with Nat. Ross of Cork and worked on the office staff at Youghal Carpets.

SALMON FISHING. With only four and a half weeks left the 1963 salmon season must be regarded at this stage as the most successful season for many years. Last week there was an improvement in the numbers of grilse taken in addition to salmon of excellent quality. This week there was a much greater improvement when on Monday morning one boat in the Coole for about three hours landed 30 grilse and 7 heavy salmon, while another boat in the Boy accounted for 15 grilse. Usually in fine weather little or no fishing is done in the harbour but owing to rough season and an overdo of weeds these two boats confined themselves to the harbour that morning. Netting upriver is said to be improving of late but catches in the weirs are said to be poor.

Kilmacthomas News CAPPOQUIN NOTES

Ten Runners faced the starter in the sixth and concluding event—the Belrath Handicap, £500 (five furlongs)—at the Phoenix Park Race meeting last weekend. Darrigle, a 3-year-old, won by a neck and 2 1/2 lengths in 58.8 secs. at the handsome odds of 100 to 7 against. Trained at the Curragh by Dawson, he is owned by Mr. T. G. (Tom) Flahavan, Glenhouse, Portlaoise.

Pupils of the Mercy Convent School, Kilmacthomas, and the National School, Newtown, experienced a most enjoyable educational outing by specially chartered C.I.E. bus to the Metropolis, where they visited many of the principal places of interest. Lunch and tea were partaken of by the party. Teachers accompanied the children and all have pleasant memories of the trip.

Mrs. L. D. Martin, Coum Tay, Comeragh, Leamybrien, Co. Waterford, and Miss Margaret Whittaker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Whittaker, Greenbanks, Ballinlough, Co. Cork.

Pleasant to Publish that the bumper Jubilee Sale which Kilmac Guild I.C.A. brought off last Saturday evening proved an unqualified success. The proceeds will be devoted towards defraying some of the expenses incurred in renovating Kilmacthomas (Temperance) Parochial Hall—a welcome work, which is proceeding apace.

Incidentally, the pronouncedly progressive local I.C.A. Guild will shortly be holding a Fancy Dress Show for the children of the Mahon-straddling town and its surroundings, and the tickets are now on sale and are being readily bought by approvers.

REGATTA

The Regatta held on Friday was an unqualified success from every point of view. Entries were numerous, competition keen and close finishes were a feature of the racing. When allowance is made for the fact that it was a working day, the attendance was quite satisfactory. Commendable, too, was the running of the fixture to schedule and the absence of long delays between the races added much to the pleasure of the occasion. In "cover" given to the Regatta by Metropolitan and other papers, favourable mention was made of the manner in which the fixture was run.

The highlight of the programme was the Junior Eight Championship—the first ever championship to be dowed on the Blackwater. For this important event the observer representing the central body, the I.A.R.U., was Mr. R. Donagan, Lee Club, Cork. He expressed himself completely satisfied with the preparations made locally for the event.

The victory of the home club's Second Senior Four gave much pleasure to supporters of the "Dark Blue" and resounding cheers greeted their success against the Garda in a tensely exciting finish. The crew members were: J. McGrath, J. Mason, J. Murray, W. M. Loughlin (stk.), P. Cunningham (cox).

The trophies were formally presented by Lady Keane at the conclusion of racing.

The customary Regatta dance attracted a very large attendance and with a splendid musical programme contributed by the popular Bride-siders Showband, the function was most enjoyable.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations are extended to the local minor hurling team who defeated Fourmile-water on Sunday last, at Dungarvan.

TOURIN TEAM'S SUCCESS

Tourin had an easy win in their primary hurling game against Clashmore, played on Sunday. Without being unduly extended, they led 45 to 10 at half-time. The final score was 76 to 21.

SODALITY EXCURSION

The annual excursion of the members of the Sodality of Mary will take place on next Sunday. The venue will be Courtown Harbour and buses leave here at 9 o'clock.

For Ordinary Branch Production of the concern to which he is attached since 1951, well and a popularly known Mr. Edmund Dunphy, Carrigahilla, Stradbally, New Ireland Assurance Co. agent, gained third place in all Ireland, and to mark the splendid achievement he was presented with a cheque by the Divisional Inspector, Mr. J. C. Blake, who warmly congratulated him on results so eminently distinguished for ability.

Sympathy in full measure is extended to the daughters, sons, sister and brothers of the late Mrs. Alice McGrath (nee Flynn), Glenstown, Clonea-Power, on the death at Arkeen Hospital, Waterford—of that gentle and noble neighbour, to the memory of whose death a grand tribute of public respect was paid at the removal of the remains to the Parish Church, Clonea-Power, and again at the interment, which was made in the adjoining cemetery the next day. May she rest in peace.

To The Great Regret of his sisters, brothers and relatives and many friends on both sides of the Channel, the death occurred on Tuesday last week, 18th inst. (East of St. Ephraim) at King Edward VII Hospital, Windsor, Berkshire, England, of a worthy member of a much esteemed Kilmacthomas family in the person of Mr. John C. Stack (late Chef, Victoria Hotel, Cork, and Capital Hotel, Windsor), son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. Stack, Mahon View.

Occupied until quite recently by Major R. W. Wade and his life's partner was The Mill House, Ballyaneen, Kilmacthomas, in which a Mrs. Ross (Co. Wexford)-born lady and her spouse are now in residence.

The white domiciled there, Major and Mrs. Wade bred and exhibited a number of domestic birds through the medium of which they secured several trophies at the leading Munster and Leinster agricultural shows (in the poultry section at each such event), and the estimable couple were on the best of terms with all and sundry in the locality.

John Mitchels v. Mt. Sion

—These senior football teams met out in opposition at the Gaelic Field, Kilmacthomas, at 8 p.m. on Friday, 21st inst. Their meeting was arranged in aid of a laudable local purpose and, though the evening was not favoured by reasonably fine weather conditions, the sides played a fast, nippy game and good sportsmanship was to the fore from the throw-in blast to the final whistle, when the John Mitchels emerged triumphant from the tussle by a clear margin of six points.

Gratulations go to Miss Joanne Kinsella (aged 8 years) Darrigle, Portlaoise, on her having been listed among the winners of the ten one-pound note prizes offered for the best entries to a children's competition conducted by a Dublin Sunday newspaper.

IN U.S.A.

The death has occurred in the U.S.A. of Mr. Patrick Moloney, a native of Aghlish. To his bereaved relatives deep sympathy is extended.

ARMED GARDIA OFFICER

One of the senior garda officers in charge of security arrangements for President Kennedy's visit is Chief Supt. John Lincoln, a native of Ardmore. Two of his brothers are members of the garda force.

ON HOLIDAYS

On a visit to his native Aghlish from the U.S. at present is Mr. Michael Riordan, and his many friends are pleased to see him fit and well and wish him an enjoyable holiday. He is younger brother of Mr. Thomas ("Stylo") Riordan the well known footballer and hurler.

Miss Margaret Trihey, who is a member of the nursing staff of a Brighton hospital, has completed an enjoyable holiday in her native Clashmore, where she is very popular.

THAT WINCH AGAIN

About four years ago, Waterford Co. Council agreed to provide a boat winch at Ardmore and to put up 75 per cent of the cost. Unfortunately, the winch, so necessary to local boat owners, has not yet been erected, due to unforeseen difficulties about the type to be provided. For obvious reasons, the Council will not agree to take responsibility for an electric winch. An early solution to the problem is called for as the matter has been too long drawn out already.

* GERALDINES CAN MAKE AMENDS

The first of the Western junior hurling semi-finals takes place at Lismore on Sunday next when Geraldines and Shamrocks meet in a game that should provide spectators with an exciting hour's hurling.

The complete collapse of their senior footballers on Sunday last, has only made the Aglishers all the more determined to atone to some extent for that defeat. They are fit and eager for the fray and even if regarded as underdogs are quietly confident of mastering Shamrocks.

As against Ardmore their injury problems are grave. Paddy Kenneally and Larry Lee are still unfit while Mike Hallahan joins them after last Sunday. Roger Ryan will also be an absentee as he returned to England on Tuesday night last. Shamrocks are in the happy position of having their full muster of players at their disposal. By junior standards they are one of the most stylish teams in the championship and it will take a super Geraldines effort to beat them.

Against Kilrossanty in the previous round, shamrocks enjoyed extraordinary luck. They were led for all but three minutes of the hour and only pulled the game out of the fire in the dying moments. After that fortuitous escape many believe this will be Shamrocks year. Certainly if perseverance counts for anything, then success would not be out of place for Frankie Corcoran and his men.

Because of the crop of injuries presently plaguing Geraldines, general opinion readily favours Shamrocks. But as proved, so emphatically by Kilrossanty, the north Tallow side can be knocked off their game and against all predictions, I believe Geraldines, handicapped though they may be will qualify for the decider.

* TIPP SHOULD BEAT RING-LESS CORK

The eyes of Munster Gael-dom will turn towards the Ennis Road ground Limerick on Sunday next for the pealing hurling semi-final between Tipperary and Cork. These counties, with decades of razor-keen rivalry behind them; invariably bring out the best in each other and the sparks are certain to fly in what should be a heated hurling cauldron.

There has never been quarter given or asked by either of these Counties when in direct championship opposition. And certain it is that neither of them will be in generous "give-away" mood on Sunday. Locked together with nineteen All-Ireland lands each, Tip on Sunday will be seeking to go a step closer towards winning their fourth successive Munster title—a record presently held by Cork.

The announcement of the Cork team on Tuesday night set the entire hurling world talking. Missing from the first fifteen was Mr. Hurling himself—Christy Ring, who we are told has been omitted from the side at his own request. It is indeed a rarity to see Ring's household name missing from a Leaside line-out in the championship, but it is also significant that mentors have included him in the list of substitutes, and it is a near certainty that he will be called into action before the game has run its course.

At the time of writing the Tipp team has not been selected but few changes are expected from their defeated League final side. Gone from the panel is Wexford-born Sean English, and it would appear that the "foreigner" is being made the scapegoat for "native" failings.

Despite the question marks that must be placed beside many of Cork's chosen fifteen, Tipp can rest assured that they will experience no problem on Sunday. The champions are my choice to prevail but only after weathering what is certain to be a vibrating Cork challenge.

* GREAT HONOUR FOR SEAMUS POWER

A great honour has been conferred on Mount Sion's Seamus Power by the Munster Council who have chosen him to referee next Sunday's Munster hurling semi-final between Tipperary and Cork in Limerick.

Whilst no stranger to the refereeing game, this is Seamus' first big "assignment" and if he handles it

LATE JOHN FLYNN

The Colligan Rockies and Emmetts G.A.A. Clubs lost one of its noblest sons last weekend with the lamented passing of John Flynn. John, who had only seen nineteen summers, died in a Dublin hospital on Saturday morning after a brief illness.

For the past few years he gave loyal service to his club and was an outstanding figure on their junior hurling and football sides. The Colligan Club and county at large is all the poorer for his tragic passing.

His sportsmanship on the field of play was perhaps the greatest feature of his character and to the writer's knowledge, he never indulged in foul or dirty play.

His funeral to Touraneena Parish Church on Saturday night was attended by many G.A.A. dignitaries in the County. The coffin, which was draped in the black and amber of the Colligan Club, was carried by John's teammates, with whom he had shared in so many games.

The senior football championship game between Emmetts and Brickeys due to be played in Dungarvan on Sunday last was postponed as a mark of respect.

with the same proficiency that marks his own hurling, then I feel sure there will be all-round satisfaction after the game.

* TOM CHEASTY SUSPENDED

Waterford's championship hopes received a shattering set-back over the week end when Tom Cheasty was sent off in the Ballyduff-Dunhill junior football championship replay on Sunday.

The exchanges were at all times of an over-robust nature and referee Con Crowley saw fit to send four players to the line.

Cheasty is now under automatic suspension and will not be available for the semi-final against Limerick on Sunday week.

Presently there is much speculation in the County as to the term of suspension that will be imposed on him. The minimum for being sent off for fighting is two months which would also rule him out of the Munster final (assuming that Limerick will be defeated). The minimum suspension for "rough play" is one month, so much will depend on the report of referee Crowley when it is being considered by the Board.

* NEXT SUNDAY'S SENIOR GAMES

While the senior hurling championship has yet to get under way, the football campaign has been progressing steadily over the past few weeks. On Sunday next at Dungarvan two further first round games are down for decision, when Brickeys and Kill take on Emmetts and Ring respectively.

The Brickeys-Emmetts game postponed on Sunday last because of tragic and unfortunate circumstances, is now the "centre of attraction" on Sunday's programme and should attract a big attendance to the Fraher Field.

The second game, that between Ring and Kill is a clash of champions. Kill, the reigning title-holders defend their crown against the '62 junior king-pins, with form strongly suggesting a Kill victory.

GERALDINES OBJECT

GERALDINES have lodged an objection against Ardmore who defeated them in the first round of the senior football championship on Sunday last.

The objection, I believe, is against Ardmore's Mattie Mulcahy, who Geraldines claim was suspended for six months at last Thursday night's meeting of the Western Board.

The objection will be heard at the next meeting of the County Board in Dungarvan.

side, Waterford were crushed by Kilkenny in a senior hurling challenge game at Nowlan Park on Tuesday night. The final score of 9-10 to 4-5 clearly underlines the superiority of the Nonesiders who to use a racing parlance won "pulling-up."

While the game was of little importance, Waterford's form has been a little disturbing of late. In this latest outing they looked slow and sluggish while the defence was as porous as a sieve.

Even when playing with a strong first-half breeze the Deise men could not claim all-round equality and Kilkenny were not flattered by their 3-5 to 2-3 interval lead.

On the change-over the homesters proceeded to "go to town" and they piled up the scores was remarkable ease.

Waterford's outstanding performer was again the veteran Grimes who capped a brilliant display by scoring 3-3. The attack sorely felt the absence of Cheasty and without him never moved with customary confidence.

The defence was fooled at ease against lites Tom Cunningham and Jim Irish emerged with any honours.

Kilkenny's scorers were: T. Walsh (4-1), B. Dwyer (2-1), S. Clohesy (1-3), O. Gough (1-1), S. Cleere (1-0), J. McGovern (0-2), T. O'Connell and T. Kelly (0-1) each. Philly Grimes with 3-3 was Waterford's top scorer. Their other marksmen were Tony Mansfield (1-0), M. O. Morrissey and John Kirwan (0-1) each.

AUTHORITY AGREE TO CREATE ADDITIONAL POST

A proposal to create two additional whole-time permanent posts of Assistant Medical Officers was defeated by 11 votes to five at last Monday's meeting of Waterford Health Authority. By a similar vote a further proposal to create one such post was carried.

The Co. Manager said the Minister for Health had made an order with effect from May 20th that the City Medical Officer, Dr. Maune replace Dr. Michael O'Farrell (who has retired) as Chief Medical Officer for Waterford Health Authority.

He (Co. Manager) was satisfied that it was not possible for Dr. K. Murphy to carry out all the necessary medical duties and the appointment of an extra assistant medical officer was essential if the Health Authority services were to be performed as hitherto.

Mr. T. Lannon said they had 92 schools in the county and it was terrible if one doctor could not do them for 12 months. If three doctors were not able to run the County there was something wrong.

The Manager said they wanted to create two posts but it would only mean one extra appointment.

Mr. Griffin—it takes two men to replace an old man of 65.

Manager—That is not so. Mr. Lannon—I know one doctor is sufficient. The people of this country are being held up to ransom.

Mr. Collins then proposed and Mr. Morrissey seconded that the two posts be created at a salary of £1350 x £57 to £1635 per annum.

The Manager said half of the salary was recoverable from the Department.

Mr. Collins' proposal was defeated 11 to 5.

The voting was for: Collins, Morrissey, Madden, Power, Browne (5); against, Lannon, Curran, Dower, Fahy, Foran, Quirke, N. Walsh, Cahill, Galgey, Gallagher, Griffin.

The Manager said he did not see how the Department would agree to a decision like that.

Mr. Collins said it was a very bad day when they voted against the creation of the two posts.

Mr. J. Griffin then proposed and Mr. C. Curran seconded that one additional post be created and this was carried 11-5. The same eleven who voted against the first proposal now voted for Mr. Griffin's.

ATTRACTIVE DOUBLE-BILL AT DUNGARVAN

Kill and Brickeys Fancied on Sunday

REIGNING champions Kill step out in defence of their senior football title at Dungarvan on Sunday next, when they encounter the challenge of last year's junior title-holders, Ring, in a game that can be appropriately described as a battle of champions. The second senior tie on the programme—also in the football championship—is the Brickeys-Emmetts clash which was postponed on Sunday last under such tragic circumstances.

To-date all the games in the football championship have "gone according to plan." But sooner or later a favourite will almost definitely become a "cropper," and followers of Ring and Emmetts, the under-dogs on Sunday, are fervently hoping that this week-end will witness the fall of the mighty.

But indications are that Kill will make a bold and determined effort to hang on to their title which was won for the first time in the club's history last November. In challenge games they seem to have lost none of last year's sparkle, while the crushing defeat they inflicted on Gaultier in a Phelan Cup tie a few weeks back, to my mind, clearly blue-printed just how formidable a side they will be again this year.

Nor is there likely to be any complacency on their part on Sunday. They have trained diligently for this eagerly-anticipated challenge, and will field a full-strength side.

A glance at the personnel of their defence and one will readily appreciate the head-aches confronting the Ring attack. The full-line in which Michael and Tom Kirwan are dominant figures, is as good as any in the county and afford goalkeeper Nick Whealan excellent cover.

The outer line of defence is equally effective. Built around centre-back Tom Mooney and flanked by Achill Lannon and G. E. Mooney, they have proved an impassible wall-work on occasions and such are the fielding qualities of all three, that Ring would benefit more profitably by keeping the ball as low as possible.

But where I expect this game to be really won is at midfield and here I cannot see Ring providing the answer to Kill's Martin Kennedy and Noel Power.

Going on the assumption that Ring's defence will be at full stretch in trying to cope with what I expect to be a lucrative "service" to the champions attack, it is difficult to visualise such as Monty Guiry, Paddy Duggan, Mick Flynn and Joe Tibbs being contained for the full hour.

What then are Ring's chances of causing an upset? Personally, I fail to see how they can curb Kill's towering midfielders, who to my mind will be responsible for seeing the holders into the second round.

But I have had to eat my words before and should I be forced to do so again then Ring can be hailed as worthy giant-killers.

Their senior experience to date amounts to little more than a Phelan Cup appearance in which they were heavily defeated. But even that failure, nor the magnitude of their task on Sunday, diminishes their enthusiasm and the issue could be much closer than is generally expected.

In an effort to strengthen midfield, inter-county star, Tommy Joe Hartly is likely to be named as Liam Meagher's partner. Centre-back Sylvester Murray will be their key man in defence, while Tom Curran and Jim and Pat Hartly are not likely to concede many soft scores. But where the side is surely weakest is up front, and unless there is considerable improvement from last year, Tommy McGrath may find himself ploughing a lone furrow.

While a Ring victory would perhaps be the most popular result, it is exceedingly difficult to see the holders being dethroned. They have power aplenty in defence and attack while their men in the middle—Power and Kennedy should create the openings for Larry and company to pile up a winning tally.

IT'S STILL THE BRICKEYS Despite the week's postponement of the Brickeys-Emmetts game, interest has not waned in the least and there should be a dour and unrelenting hour before victors can be named.

In last week's issue I dealt in detail with the respective sides and since nothing has changed in the interim, there is little point in running the rule over the players again. Emmetts, like Ring, will be the outsiders, but proved when running the Rangers to a couple of points in the Phelan Cup that it would be tantamount to football suicide to treat their challenge lightly.

Many of the Brickey men are now going long in the tooth and such stalwart veterans as Patsy Donnelly can hardly waste another year if they are to capture a championship medal.

Knowing then that for some of the side this will probably be their final fling, the Brickeys incentive to safely put over their first-round obstacle should spur them to victory.

Emmetts, it goes without saying, will not allow sentiment to blur their efforts. But nevertheless, the Rangers are the form team and they are my fancy to join John Mitchels and Ardmore in the second round.

Abbeyside Minors Advance to Semi-Final

ABBEYSIDE 4-10; DUNGARVAN 2-3

ABBEYSIDE, whose sights are firmly trained on the Divisional and County Minor Hurling titles this year, advanced to the Western semi-final on Thursday of last week when recording a deserved and impressive victory over Dungarvan in a very exciting game.

The winners, physically stronger, were the better all-round equipped side and even if somewhat flattered by so big a winning margin, there was no doubting their superiority. They took the lead within a minute of the start and were never subsequently headed during the game.

Be that as it may, the scoring differential between the teams does less than justice to Dungarvan, who made the Abbeysiders travel every inch of the way. Fielding no less than ten of their all-conquering juvenile team, they acquitted themselves very well against top-class opposition, and lost no caste in defeat.

The standard of the hurling was exceptionally high throughout while few are likely to forget the individual displays of Abbeyside's Pat Enright and Dungarvan's midfielder Tom Crowley.

TREMENDOUS START

The winners got off to a tremendous start with a first minute goal and five minutes later Tom Crowley opened Dungarvan's account with a point. Connie Kelleher and Rogie Cashin had Abbeyside points and at the end of the opening quarter Crowley Crowley lofted over his second minor.

Abbeyside then hit a golden patch with 2-1 in less than three minutes. The first of the goals came from a mealee and within a minute Mick Power belted home the second. Midfielders Michael Kelly and John Coleman added points and two minutes before the break Connie Kelleher made it 4-4 to 0-2 when he goalied from a mealee.

As in the opening half, Abbeyside struck fast and furiously on the resumption with points by Mick Brett and Cashin.

Dungarvan, their task now a hopeless one, refused to acknowledge the inevitable. They swarmed to the attack and P. J. Rossiter cracked home their first goal after nine minutes, John Coleman replied with an Abbeyside point but the Blues again hit back with another goal by Mickey Fraher. Mick Power and Johnny Reilly exchanged points but the winners had the last say with points by Power and Coleman.

ENRIGHT OUTSTANDING While Abbeyside had many outstanding individuals, none shone quite as brightly as left-half Pat Enright. His was a polished display of defensive hurling at its best, and his long raking deliveries repeatedly turned defence into attack. Others to shine in a solid defence were Tom Foley (Tom Donovan and Bernard Shields).

Their midfielders, Michael Kelly and John Coley struck some great balls at midfield and both figured amongst the scorers.

The real danger men in attack were Mick Power and Connie Kelleher, while Mick Brett and Jimmy O'Dea also had their moments.

CROWLEY'S DISPLAY

Viewing with Pat Enright for the honour of man of the match was Dungarvan's midfielder Tom Crowley. He out-hurled every opponent pitted against him and his hurling bore a distinctive touch of class.

In their over-worked defence Pat Walsh, Sean McGrath, Johnny Egan and M. Tobin never yielded ground while goalkeeper Michael Donnelly gave a wonderful display between the posts.

While Crowley was the dominating midfielder on view he got great assistance from Anthony Sandford and trying Joe Cummins, Mickey in an attack that never ceased Fraher and Joe Curran were best.

Abbeyside—M. Cliffe, B. Shields, T. Donovan, J. Flynn, J. Power, T. Foley, P. Enright, M. Kelly, A. Sandford, R. Cashin, M. Power, M. Brett, C. Kelleher, A. Duggan, J. O'Dea, Dungarvan—M. Donnelly, J. Egan, P. Walsh, S. Murphy, P. J. Rossiter, S. McGrath, M. Tobin, T. Crowley, A. Sandford, T. Quilty, J. Cummins, J. Reilly, J. Curran, K. Fleming, M. Fraher. Referee—E.
