'PARKING SIGNS NECESSARY' SAYS COUNCIL MEMBER

IN order to facilitate the public, parking signs were very necessary in Dungarvan, said Colr. RICHARD WALSH, at last Friday's meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council. Before the meeting was a notice of motion by Colr. Walsh asking that recommendations be sent to the Garda Commissioner in respect of parking regulations in the town.

Colr. Walsh said at the last meeting he asked why the parking signs were taken down in Main Street and O'Connell Street and he was told that they had not passed the necessary bye-law. They were a great boon to the town when in operation and in order to facilitate the public they were very necessary. When they had them erected first they had deputations from the traders saying the Guards were too strict. They passed those views on to the Garda Authorities and they eased off a bit.

But the real offenders, said Mr. Walsh, were the traders themselves. They left their own cars parked where there were "No Parking" signs. They were being unfair and Main Street and O'Connell Street thoroughfares were needlessly blocked by their own cars. This should be brought to the notice of these people and they should be asked to cooperate.

Referring to the speed limit signs erected on the outskirts of town, Colr. Walsh said they may be Council Council responsibility but the Urban Council were not even consulted about them. They were entitled to some little say in it and he felt obliged to say that if they had been consulted some of them would not have been erected in such stupid positions. The sign on the Youghal Road was a typical example of where one should not be. The road there was about 62 feet wide with a footpath at either side, giving a total width of about eighty feet. He felt that sign should be 300 yards nearer town. The ones placed on Coolagh road were all right but the New Linn ones were also too far out.

Colr. Walsh went on to say that the Stop sign at the Youghal Road was also on the wrong side and there had very nearly been a couple of accidents there as a result. If a conference was brought about between the Garda Authorities and the Council they could usefully discuss it. Such a conference was badly needed to straighten out these things.

Acting Town Clerk Mr. B. White said the proper procedure would be to ask the Chief Supt. of the Garda and the local traders to meet the Council members and discuss it.

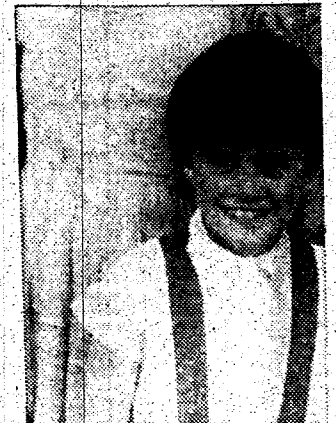

The Chairman (Deputy Kyrre) said that with co-operation it should work well for all concerned. Presently parking arrangements in Main Street were bad and they were working well when the signs were up. Finally it was decided to hold a special meeting of the Council to discuss the matter. The Chief Supt. of the Garda, the Co. Engineer, Mr. J. D. Hally and the local traders will be asked to attend.

TRAGIC DEATHS OF BROTHER AND SISTER

Late Muara and Noel Cliffe

CARROWGARREFF, CAPPAGH

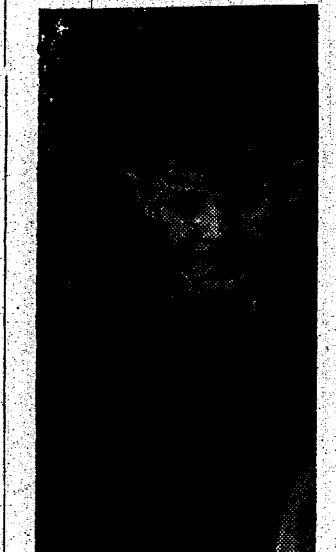

The funerals of Miss Maura Cliffe, and her brother Patrick Noel Cliffe, Carrowgarreff Cappagh, took place on Thursday, 27th June, from the District Hospital, Dungarvan, to Modeligo Church, followed by a huge cortege. The coffins of the brother and sister were placed side by side in the hearse in procession to the Church, and were blessed and received by Very Rev. Fr. Hally, P.P., assisted by Rev. Fr. C. Daly, C.C. Very

MAIRE

Rev. Fr. D. McGrath, P.P., Kilgobinet, Rev. Fr. N. McCarthy, English Mission and choir of O.S.A. Fathers. Requiem Masses were celebrated on Friday morning and the interments took place in the adjoining cemetery. A guard of honour consisting of their fellow pupils of the Modeligo School lined each side of the path on the route to the grave and each carrying some floral tribute.

The final absolution at the graveside was given by Very Rev. Fr. Hally, P.P., assisted by Very Rev. Fr. D. McGrath, P.P., Kilgobinet, Rev. Fr. C. Daly, C.C., Modeligo, and Rev. Fr. Farrell, C.C., Kilgobinet.

and the interments were made in the one grave amid manifestation of very great sorrow and sympathy from the huge concourse who were present to pay their final respects and to sympathise with the parents, brothers and sisters on their very great loss.

Sheaves of spiritual tributes, telegrams, floral wreaths and letters of sympathy were received by their relatives.

J. Kely adn Sons had charge of funeral arrangements.

INQUEST ON YOUNG VICTIMS ADJOURNED

THE inquest was opened and adjourned in Dungarvan on Wednesday before Dr. Daniel Healy, Coroner for West Waterford, on Mary and Noel Cliffe, Carrowgarreff, Cappagh, who were tragically killed when in collision with a Volkswagen car at at Modeligo on Wednesday of last week.

Mr. James Cliffe, Carrowgarreff, Cappagh, father of the deceased children, said Mary was 10 years and 10 months, and Patrick Noel 8 1/2 years. He saw them alive last Wednesday, 26th, when they were getting ready for school. They were in their normal good health.

About 11.10 a.m. he heard from Fr. Daly, Modeligo, that they had been in an accident. He went to Dungarvan District Hospital and saw both his children alive but injured.

On 27th June he saw the dead bodies of both of them in the hospital. Dr. Brendan McCarthy, Medical Practitioner, Dungarvan, said he was called to the scene of the accident at Carrowgarreff, on June 26th and arrived there about 9.30 a.m. The two injured children were on the roadside. Mary was unconscious and had a large laceration about five inches long on the front region of the scalp. She had lesser injuries on the left knee. There was a good deal of blood lost from the scalp wound. He conveyed her immediately to Dungarvan Hospital.

EXTENSIVE FRACTURE Noel had an extensive compound fracture of the vault of the skull, extending into the base and there was an obvious loss of cerebral spinal fluid from both ears. He was deeply unconscious and shocked. He arranged with Fr. Daly to have him conveyed to hospital.

The extent of the injuries would suggest that both of them were struck rather than having fallen. He attended to both subsequently in the hospital. He got Noel admitted as an emergency to the Richmond Hospital, Dublin, and he was conveyed by ambulance. But he died on the way at Kilkenny. Mary was treated for laceration of the scalp and her condition at that time was satisfactory. But her condition then deteriorated and her temperature rose and she died at 5 a.m. on Thursday 27th.

Nurse Johanna T. O'Donoghue, Knockaun, Dungarvan, said she was employed at the County Home, Dungarvan. At approximately 1.30 p.m. on June 26th she was detailed to go in an ambulance to the Richmond Hospital with the injured boy, Noel Cliffe. She travelled in the rear of the ambulance with him.

PULSE STOPPED Nurse O'Donoghue went on: About 3 p.m. as we entered Kilkenny I noticed the boy's breathing changed and the breathing and pulse stopped. The ambulance stopped and I examined the boy. We then went to Kilkenny where we met a Dr. Roche and he said the boy was dead. We brought the dead body back to Dungarvan hospital that evening. On the 27th June she pointed out the dead body of Noel to Dr. Cusack. Miss Eileen Cahill, a ward attendant at the District Hospital, Dungarvan, said she saw the two dead bodies on June 27th and pointed them out to Dr. Cusack. Dr. M. K. Cusack said he performed post mortem examinations on both bodies on June 27th at the District Hospital, Dungarvan. Mary's body was that of a well developed girl of eleven. Rigor mortis was present. There was a vertical wound on the forehead and extended into the scalp. It was about five inches long. There were minor wounds on the left knee and right arm, and abrasions on both legs. There was a small amount of subdural haemorrhage inside the skull covering both cerebral hemispheres. The whole of the brain substances was oedematous. There was no fracture of the skull. In his opinion death was caused by damage to the brain stem and shock.

Witness also carried out the post mortem examination on Noel, and rigor mortis was present. There were abrasions of the forehead, left side of the face, left knee and inner side of both ankles. There was an extensive and comminuted fracture of both parietal bones, causing damage to the underlying brain. In his opinion death was due to shock and damage to the brain substance, caused by the fractured bones and haemorrhage into the brain.

Sergeant Michael Deasy, Cappagh, said on June 26th he viewed the dead body of Noel Cliffe at Dungarvan. The following day he viewed the body of Mary Cliffe at the morgue of the hospital. At this stage Inspector E. Kennedy applied for an adjournment as criminal proceedings were being considered.

CORONER'S SYMPATHY Having granted the adjournment, Dr. Healy, Coroner, said he would like to convey to the relatives his sincere sympathy on their terrible tragedy. The loss of two children was an awful blow to the parents.

Mr. A. R. Farrell, Solr., representing Mr. Michael Fitzgerald, Glen Upper, Modeligo, driver of the car involved in the collision said his client had asked him to offer sincere and deep sympathy to the parents. He (Mr. Fitzgerald) fully realized the shock and tragedy for the parents and he would like them to know that he also suffered a great shock. While not responsible for the deaths in any way, he witnessed them, and it left a deep impression on him that he would have for the rest of his life. Inspector Kennedy on be-

The Diamond Jubilee of the Rev. Fr. Thomas Canon Kearney, native of Grasha, Ballymacarry, was celebrated by the Canon, assisted by Rev. Fr. A. Reen, Wislaw and Rev. Fr. J. Ashe, Sacred Heart Church, Bellshill. In his sermon, Bishop Scanlan praised the canon for the great work he had done during the 34 years he had spent in the parish and for the memories he had left behind in Camuslang, Blackwood and Paisley. He concluded the sermon by the Canon's health and good fortune. Canon Kearney who is in his ninety-third year, was ordained in June, 1903, and became Parish Priest of Wislaw in 1929.

FELICITATIONS
Felicitations are cordially extended to Mr. James Coffey, Scint, Ballinamult, and to Miss Kathleen Dunne, Ballinagullee, Ballinamult on the occasion of their marriage which took place at St. Mary's Church, Touraneena on last week.

The ceremony with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing, was performed by Rev. Fr. Mulcahy, C.C. Touraneena. Mrs. Joan Coffey, sister of the bride, was Matron of Honour, and Mr. Jeremiah Coffey, brother of the groom was best man. The reception was held at the Ormonde Hotel, Clonmel, and the honeymoon was spent in Dublin.

WEDDING BELLS
The marriage took place at St. Mary's Parish Church, Cahir, Co. Tipperary, of Mr. Noel Flynn, B.Agr., Sc., son of Colonel and Mrs. J. Flynn, "St. Joseph's," Saval Park Gardens, Dalkey, Dublin, and Miss Ann Murray, S.R.N., S.C.N., youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Murray, Toureigh, Ballymacarry.

The ceremony, with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing, was performed by Rev. J. Walsh, C.C., Fourmilewater, assisted by Rev. J. Bracken, C.C., do.

Miss Margaret Ryan, Dublin (cousin of the bride) was in attendance as bridesmaid and Mrs. M. Fahy (sister of the bride) was Matron of Honour.

Capt. James Flynn, brother of the groom, was best man. The groomsmen were Lieut. J. Murphy and the ushers were Mr. Frank Flynn and Mr. Jas. Nolan. The reception was held in the Galtee Hotel, Cahir, where a large number of guests were entertained, after which the newly-weds left for Scotland on their honeymoon. They bring with them the very best wishes of their large circle of friends for their future success and happiness.

Kill and Brickeys Advance

Brickey Rangers 1-8 Emmetts 2-0
Kill 2-11, Ring 1-0

AS form so very definitely indicated, Kill and Brickey Rangers surmounted their first round hurdles in the senior football championship before a surprisingly sparse attendance at Dungarvan on Sunday last. The champions, Kill, were never extended by senior debutantes Ring, but the Rangers experienced many anxious moments before disposing of Emmetts.

Of the two, the latter game was by far the more interesting. For a long period a first-class surprise seemed in store and it was only in the closing stages that the Brickeys translated their territorial advantage into match-winning scores. Throughout the opening half the Brickeys were very much on top of the field but their attack met with stubborn defensive resistance while their own very apparent shortcomings in the sector ensured that their half-time tally would be a paltry one.

Twice during those opening thirty minutes Emmetts succeeded in launching menacing raids and twice these well-executed movements were climaxed by vital goals. Thus entirely against the run of play the Colligan men led by 2-0 to 0-3 at the half-time stage.

Sporadic though Emmetts first-half raids were, the Brickey defence was nevertheless shown up in poor light during that period and it was fortunate for them that Emmetts did not provide them with "maximum employment".

The second-half was an exact replica of the first. Brickeys—their team altered, almost to the point of confusion, attacked incessantly. But for quarter of an hour the scores were coming slowly and it was only in the final quarter that Brickeys displayed any semblance of the football they are so obviously capable of.

Overall, however, it was a discouraging Brickey performance. Emmetts had grit and determination in abundance but fell far short in other qualifications. Yet the Rangers' championship prospects were in real jeopardy for more than half the game. In the winners' defence which was never over-taxed, their half-line of John Woods, Patsy Donnelly and Mick Walsh were best. Donnelly was rock solid at centre-half and Walsh and Woods flamboyant.

Andy Hallissey's fielding at midfield was excellent and with Frankie Coney were well on top in the sector.

Undoubtedly the greatest weaknesses are in attack. On Sunday the forwards got enough scoring chances to have won the game twice over but inexplicably frittered them away. Their full-forward trio in particular were "way off target," and greatest danger stemmed from their half-forwards Justin Spratt, Mick Farrell and Willie Terry.

Emmetts had real stars in a defence which played heroically at times in keeping their lines intact. Paddy Fitzgerald was sound in goal and Garry Quinlan, Cyril Power and Jack Kiely defended stoutly.

Jim Ahearne was the better of their midfielders in an attack that was left in isolation for long periods. Colm Bannon, Paddy Walsh and Jimmy Tobin were best.

Brickey Rangers—P. Donoghue, B. Spratt, P. Ferncombe, P. Spratt, J. Woods, P. Donnelly, M. Walsh, A. Hallissey, F. Coney, W. Terry, M. Farrell, J. Spratt, K. Walsh, P. Murray, P. Curran, Subs.—M. Spratt for K. Walsh; J. Walsh for Murray.

Emmetts—P. Fitzgerald, C. Power, G. Quinlan, C. Dower, F. Tobin, J. Kiely, S. Bröwne, J. Ahearne, D. Tobin; C. Bannon, P. Walsh, T. Coughlan; M. Walsh, J. Cliffe, J. Tobin, Subs.—M. Flynn for Dower, D. Lennihan for Coughlan.

RING OUTCLASSED
While few could honestly have envisaged the dethronement of champions, the complete and utter failure of Ring to even remotely extend Kill must have been a major disappointment to those present.

It was all too easy for the champions, who monopolised practically all sectors and one felt that had they so desired they could have compiled an even more substantial winning margin. Ring, in this their senior championship debut, looked poor by standards. If anything they have deteriorated since their junior triumph and never looked likely to extend or worry the title holders.

When Kill led 1-6 to 1-0 at the interval after having faced the breeze, the issue could be said to have well and truly resolved itself. On the change over the champions showed little inclination to pile on the agony and without exerting themselves added a further 1-5 to their tally.

During this half Ring were continuously on the defensive and their failure to raise a flag clearly underlined how extensively they were outplayed.

The winners' defence had a relaxed afternoon but Tom and Michael Kirwan and Tom Mooney dealt capably with the little that came their way.

As anticipated, Martin Kennedy and Noel Power ruled the roost at midfield while Monty Gurr, Paddy Duggan and Joe Tibbs did practically as they liked in attack.

Ring held stalwart defenders in Sylvester Murray, Pat Harty and Tom Curran; Mick Geraghty played soundly at midfield and T. Harty, L. Meagher and Mossy Keane tried hard up front.

Kill—J. Kearnes, M. Heeney, T. Kirwan, M. Hayes, M. Kirwan, T. Mooney, G. Mooney, M. Kennedy, N. Power, P. Duggan, M. Guiry, B. Finnucane, J. Tibbs, M. Regan, M. Flynn.

Ring—N. Graves, T. White, T. Curran, S. Kiely, P. Harty, S. Murray, J. Harty, T. McGrath, M. Geraghty, P. Curran, P. J. Harty, M. Terry, R. Curran, L. Meagher, M. Keane, Subs.—J. McGrath for T. McGrath; D. Musgrave for P. Curran; B. Murray for Terry.

Con Crowley (Mount Sion) refereed both games.

NO SURPRISES AT DUNGARVAN

The senior football championship, now well in full swing, has yet to provide us with a shock result. On Sunday last at Dungarvan the two first-round games ran true to form with Kill and Brickey Rangers advancing at the expense of Ring and Emmetts respectively.

The Kill-Ring game was too one-sided to be of any real interest. The holders experienced a trouble-free passage and the 2-11 to 1-0 final score-line gives a fair indication of the footballing differential between the sides.

While few could honestly have envisaged a Ring victory, their "game exit" must have been a great disappointment to their supporters. From the moment they fell into arrears they seemed content to accept defeat as inevitable and had "thrown in the towel" long before the end.

The Brickeys-Emmetts game was a far more evenly contested affair, and Brickeys were hard-pressed to record their five-point victory.

Emmetts went about their task in workmanlike fashion from the start, and led for long periods in the game. But eventually the Rangers were down the "pace-makers" and were worthy winners at the end of a hard-fought, but scrupulously fair game.

COUNCIL DEFER DECISION

Because of the absence of the town engineer, Mr. P. Walsh, a final decision on the proposed extension of Abbey-side sewerage scheme was deferred at last Friday's meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council.

At the outset, the Town Clerk, Mr. B. White, read a letter from the Department of Local Government stating that as the development of Friar's Walk had now taken place it was considered desirable to extend the sewer and they had no objection to it. The sewer itself would cost only £2,000 but the total cost would be £4,958 due to necessary rock excavation.

The report of the Urban Engineer (Mr. Walsh) stated that he recommended having the sewer and also that the remaining portion of Abbey-side not yet provided for by drainage be considered for a new drainage scheme as it was considered undesirable that such a big number of houses continue to drain into septic tanks. Also the absence of drainage retarded development in one of the most residential areas of Dungarvan.

Deputy Kyne said he felt it was not possible to discuss it further without the Engineer being present. He said this whole affair started from an application by Edmond O'Brien and Sons, Contractors, for the sewer to be laid.

Colr. Tom Lannon said this application from one man would cost them about £5,000. Colr. R. Walsh said there was a 60 per cent grant.

Colr. Lannon—It's very hard on poor people to pay their way to-day. Now one man asks for £5,000 and poor old age pensioners and widows are being threatened with eviction.

Colr. Walsh—We must also consider the development of the town.

Colr. Lannon—I am not objecting to developing this town. This arose due to the stopping of the water in off the main road.

Colr. Walsh said if the site was developed and houses built there, a sewer would have to be laid.

Council Again Say 'No' To Engineers

IT was most invidious to take seven men out of the entire country and treat them one way while all the others were being treated another way, said Mr. J. D. HALLY, County Engineer at Monday's County Council meeting when a letter was read from the Dept. of Local Government requesting the Council's views and observations on an appeal by the Chief Assistant and six Assistant Engineers for retrospective payment of a salary increase.

Increases were granted to the Engineers concerned as from April 1st, 1961, but they sought to have them made retrospective to August 1st, 1960.

Colr. T. Lannon said this matter came before them previous to this and what views did they give? They refused it because they felt the engineers were well paid already. They got their increases and now they wanted a year's back money.

"Did he not refer a previous letter back to us also," asked Mr. Lannon. "This is the second appeal. We had a previous letter from the same Minister and we dealt with it."

The Chairman (Colr. Charles Curran) said there was no question of a vote on it again to-day.

Colr. Lannon said they turned this appeal down before and members were canvassed about it.

The Co. Engineer (Mr. Hally) said the increase was granted to the engineering staff from April 1st, 1961. Their appeal was against the Council's decision rejecting retrospective to August 1st, 1960.

ENTITLED TO IT

Deputy T. A. Kyne said his view was the same as always. The post of the engineering staff in Ireland got it from August, '60. Their engineers were equally entitled to be paid it. Unless they did so they could not expect to get applicants for engineering posts in the county. He was in favour of granting it.

Colr. Lannon—If that very valuable staff left their jobs there would be a thousand looking for them.

Colr. Curran—There is a regret of engineers in the country at the moment.

Colr. Lannon—I was talking to engineers outside this country and they were very anxious to get home.

Colr. Madden—I agree with Deputy Kyne.

The Co. Manager (Mr. S. J. Moynihan) said what Colr. Lannon said was not borne out by the engineering staffs in the country. The County Engineers of Cork and Laois the only ones in Ireland not to get it.

Deputy Kyne—I have an amendment that we agree to give the retrospective.

Colr. M. Morrissey seconded.

The Chairman said this vote was nothing more than an expression of sympathy.

Deputy Kyne's amendment was then put to the meeting and defeated by eleven votes to six. The voting was—For: Colrs. Kyne, Drohan, Roche, Kenneally, Madden, Morrissey (6); Against: Colrs. Curran, Dover, Harty, Lannon, Whelan, O'Ryan, Quirke, N. Walsh, Cahill, Gaigey, R. Walsh (11).

Colr. Lannon's proposal was subsequently taken and passed also by an eleven-six vote.

Colr. J. Quirke then asked how many members had left the room before a vote was taken.

Secretary—Five.

Colr. Quirke—They can get away very handy.

Colr. M. Gaigey said some members walked out of the meeting. Was it because they were fed up with the proceedings?

Chairman—We have no control over that.

Colr. O'Ryan said he hoped they had heard the last of Colr. F. Roche—They are the Engineer's appeals.

advertised for assistant engineers and could not get any.

WELL PAID

Colr. Lannon—They are all well paid. They got their increase and I propose we write to the Minister and tell him they are well paid and we have no intention of giving them more.

Colr. O'Ryan—I second that.

The Chairman said the members were irritated and annoyed by this coming up so often. It was all very embarrassing.

Mr. Hally (Co. Engineer)—It is most invidious to take seven men out of the entire country and treat them one way while all the others are being treated another way.

Colr. Lannon—We are putting loads on the backs of people who cannot carry them.

The Co. Manager said every County Council in the country had given it.

The Chairman said £477 was involved in the appeal.

Colr. F. Roche—They are the Engineer's appeals.

Second bridesmaid was Miss Phyllis Carroll, Dublin. The best man was Mr. Michael Murphy, brother of the bride, and groomsmen were Mr. Dominic Murphy and Mr. Fr. Boylan, Army Chaplain.

The ceremony, with Nuptial Mass, was performed by Rev. Fr. Boylan, Army Chaplain. Given away by her father, the bride wore a full length dress of french lace with

UNANIMOUSLY RE-ELECTED

Mr. T. A. Kyne T.D. (Lab.) was unanimously re-elected Chairman of Dungarvan Urban Council at the Council's annual meeting on Friday night last.

Colr. John McCarthy said he had great pleasure in proposing Deputy Kyne for another term of office. He had given great service to the Council and they could not have a better nominee for the chair.

Colr. T. Lee seconded. Having declared himself re-elected, Deputy Kyne said he greatly appreciated the members. His duties were confidence shown in him by not too onerous but he would endeavour to carry them out to the best of his ability and in as fair and impartial a manner as possible. With the help and co-operation of the members he would do his best for the town and the ratepayers.

Colr. Walsh's re-election was proposed by Senator J. Eutler and seconded by Deputy Kyne.

Colr. Walsh also thanked the members for unanimously re-elected him.

YOUGHAL NOTES

HIGHWATER WEEK ENDING 13th JULY

Table with 2 columns: Morning, Evening. Rows: Sunday (6.49, 7.11), Monday (7.27, 8.31), Tuesday (8.06, 8.31), Wednesday (8.45, 9.11), Thursday (9.27, 9.54), Friday (10.11, 10.42), Saturday (11.02, 11.35)

SALMON NET FISHING

The salmon and grise season still continues to be excellent and we are pleased to report that all over the district peale or grise have made their appearance in large numbers, as well as good quality salmon.

Last week the best boat in Youghal accounted for 105 fish and other boats ranged that figure down to 45.

Catches upriver by drift and snags are very good but the draft nets so far are not doing as well as expected. Still, they have three and a half weeks to go before the close of the season for netting. The season for rods remains open until 30th September. Last week's price to fishermen was: salmon, 4/6 and grise, 3/.

On the opening day this week two boats accounted for 83 peale and all fishermen are concentrating on fishing in the bay as in fine weather usually in June, fishing in the harbour is useless.

U.D.C.'S NEW CHAIRMAN AND VICE-CHAIRMAN

At the annual meeting of the Youghal U.D.C., presided over by Mr. E. P. Lynch, Vice-Chairman, Mr. Gordon Good (Youghal Traders) was unanimously elected Chairman on the proposition of Mr. Linehan, seconded by Mr. Lupton. There were two nominations for the Vice-Chairmanship, Mr. Lynch (outgoing) and Mr. W. Lupton, the latter being elected on the casting vote of the Chairman. The voting was for Lupton, Messrs. Linehan, Hennessy, Lupton and the Chairman (4); For Lynch, Messrs. O'Gorman, Hickey, Sullivan, Lynch (4).

Messrs. Good and Lupton returned thanks for their election and Mr. Lynch thanked his colleagues who had supported him for the vice-chair, which he had held for the past 30 years.

YOUGHAL'S GREAT CYCLIST

The local U.D. Council at its last meeting, paid a well deserved tribute to Martin Meagher of Tallow Street, Youghal, in his recent magnificent achievement when he took his first ever senior national cycle title at Blarney Sports. This week he will meet all the crack trackers when he takes part in the Three Miles Cycle Championship of Ireland, and for which he is a hot favourite. We wish him every good luck for the remainder of the season.

INDIAN TEA DEMONSTRATION

The Tea Council of Ireland, Harcourt Street, Dublin, applied to the U.D. Council and received permission to park a demonstration unit on August 20th and 21st along the sea-front and market place.

with the object of telling the public about Indian Tea industry. This is purely a good will tour and not a form of advertising.

THUNDER STORM

On Monday for about four hours, Youghal, like many other places, was battered by thunder showers. Lightning put two E.S.B. transformers out of action, one at Clonpriest and the other at Boolá where the town's water supply is located, but it did not affect the supply to town. In Clonpriest some few farms were without electricity until Tuesday morning. The peals of thunder were quite deafening at times.

After the storm the sky was overcast, the temperature was high and the river was like a mill pond.

THE POPE'S CORONATION

The Youghal U.D. Council on the proposition of Mr. Good (Chairman) seconded by Mr. Lynch, proposed best and sincere wishes to His Holiness Pope Paul VI. on the occasion of his Coronation, with the ardent hope that he may have a long, happy and fruitful reign.

ASSOCIATION OF MUNICIPAL AUTHORITIES

Amongst the resolutions to be submitted by the U.D. Council for discussion at the coming Conference of the Association of Municipal Authorities is one of great importance, i.e. that all health charges should be made a national charge rather than a charge on the municipal rate.

FIRE ALARM

At 9.30 on Monday morning last the Youghal Fire Brigade under first officer Michael Poche, were alerted to a fire at the Green Park Hotel where it was found that a pan of boiling fat had overflowed in the kitchen of the hotel. In a short space of time the Brigade had the outbreak under control and little or no damage was caused.

HOME ON HOLIDAYS

Very Rev. Canon O'Hanlon, P.P., of Portsmouth, has been home on holidays for some weeks past, when he stayed with his sister Mrs. Willie Hyde at Redbarn, Youghal. A Youghalman, Canon O'Hanlon is brother of Miss O'Hanlon, Chemist, Youghal and Mr. Jerry O'Hanlon of Dysert. He is a keen fisherman, both ashore and afloat.

NEW BOAT LAUNCHED

For some months, two members of the Christian Brothers Community, Brothers Lennon and Dunphy, assisted by Mr. Roddy N.T., have been building a 21 foot boat, and after final touches last week she was launched. According to some of the experts she is said to be a grand craft and the builders are to be congratulated.

ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. J. Walsh, National Bank House, Dungarvan, have pleasure in announcing the engagement of their only daughter, Valerie, to Jim, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Fitz-Gibbon, Mill Street, Tullow, Co. Carlow.

RECEPTION CEREMONY AT CARRIGLEA CONVENT

A very impressive ceremony took place at Carriglea Convent, Dungarvan, on Thursday last, when two young aspirants were received into the Novitiate of the Congregation. Rt. Rev. Mgr. Barron officiated at the Ceremony and Very Rev. R. Keane, Waterford was Master of Ceremonies. Holy Mass was celebrated by Very Rev. N. McCarthy, P.P., Gloucestershire (uncle of one of the postulants) and a very touching sermon was preached by the Rev. J. J. Murphy, C.S.S.R., who conducted the Spiritual Retreat preparatory to the Ceremony. Present in the choir were: Rev. Fr. Coffey, O.S.A., Dungarvan; Rev. F. Cassin, P.P., Castlecomer; Rev. P. Flavin, P.P., Glenstal; Rev. W. Power, C.C., Dungarvan; Rev. J. Boylce, C.C., St. John's, Waterford; Rev. F. Condon.

Rev. Mother Roumegoux, Superior General of the Congregation, was present at the Ceremony and a large attendance of friends and relatives filled the beautiful chapel.

The new Novices are: Sr. Anne O'Mahony, Kilmore, Tallow and Sr. Anne McCarthy, Churchquarter, Mallow. After the Reception, the young Sisters spent a busy day with their parents and relatives who had come to Carriglea for the happy occasion.

The Convent at Carriglea was founded in 1901. The Sisters run a private hospital for the treatment of nervous and mental disorders. In 1959 a Institute was opened at Carriglea where young girls aspiring to the religious life, complete their Secondary Education. In 1960 the Irish Novitiate was officially opened at this Convent by His Lordship, Most Rev. Cohehan, Bishop of Waterford and Lismore.

LATE MR. PATK. O'NEILL

St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan, and Fermoy

The death occurred at St. Joseph's Hospital, on Wednesday, June 26th after a rather lengthy illness. He was a friend of the staff and members of the Hospital. May the light of Heaven shine on his soul.

His remains were removed on Wednesday evening to St. Mary's Parish Church and were blessed and received by Rev. W. Power, C.C.

Requiem Mass was offered up for his soul on Thursday morning and interment took place in the adjoining cemetery. Rev. Fr. W. Power, C.C. imparted the final absolution at the graveside.

J. Kiely and Sons had charge of funeral arrangements.

LATE MRS. BGT. CAREY

It is with much regret that we record the death of Miss Bridget Carey, Gates, Old Parish, Dungarvan, which occurred recently at the Bon Sauveur Nursing Home, Carriglea, after a rather protracted illness, borne with true courage and resignation. Deceased lady, who had reached an advanced age, was a member of a popular and widely-esteemed family. She possessed a kind and gentle nature and a most courteous disposition. She will be sadly missed by her many friends, but especially by her sorrowing brothers and sister, nephews and nieces, to whom we extend our deepest sympathy in their great sorrow.

The remains were removed to St. Mary's Parish Church, Old Parish followed by a huge and impressive cortege, consisting of all sections of the community. The coffin was received and blessed by Rev. V. Power, C.C. assisted by Rev. Fr. Flavin, Chaplain Bon Sauveur Convent, Carriglea.

Requiem Masses were celebrated for the eternal repose of her soul on the following morning and the interment took place in the adjoining family plot. Very Rev. J. O'Donnell, P.P., imparted the final absolution and recited the prayers at the graveside. Another large and most representative concourse were present to pay their final respects. Many Mass cards, telegrams, floral wreaths and letters of sympathy were received by her family.

The chief mourners were: Daniel Carey, Old Parish; John Carey, Kilmachthomas (brothers); Mrs. Hannah Carey, London (sister); Mrs. D. Carey, Mrs. J. Carey (sisters-in-law); nephews and nieces, etc.

Funeral arrangements were by John Phelan, Dungarvan.

Late Mr. Michael Supple

Grange, Ardmore. The sad event of the death of Michael Supple occurred at the District Hospital, Dungarvan, on Sunday afternoon, June 30th, after a very short illness but fortified by the Rites of Holy Church. The deceased acted as sexton at Grange Chapel for many years and was most courteous. He was a man who had served his country in the fight for freedom.

His remains were removed on Monday evening followed by a large cortege to Grange Church and were blessed and received by Very Rev. Fr. Cahill, P.P. His coffin was draped in the Tricolour. Following Requiem Mass, on Tuesday morning the interment was made in the Old Churchyard cemetery. Very Rev. Fr. Cahill, P.P., officiated at the graveside.

The chief mourners were: Wm. Supple, Ballinamona, and Declan Supple, Grange (brothers).

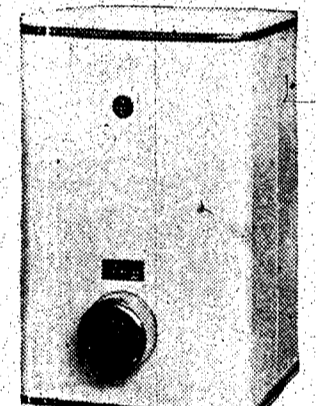

J. Kiely and Sons had charge of funeral arrangements.

COUNCIL WILL INDUSTRIAL CONSULTANTS

BY twelve votes to six it was decided at Monday's meeting of Waterford County Council to employ Industrial Consultants at a cost of £6,500 to investigate all sections of the Council. The net impact on the rates will be 6d. approximately.

The Chairman (Colr. Curran) said this question first came before them seven years ago when it was mooted by Colr. Wm. Dower, but it was only at the Estimates meeting of 1961 that the Co. Engineer, Mr. J. D. Hally, put forward such a proposal. It took a man of great courage to do it and Mr. Hally deserved every credit.

Colr. M. Galgey said he did not agree. The Co. Engineer had his house in order and what the Consultants might say might suit him—more machinery and less men.

Mr. Hally said the consultants would not just wave a magic wand and there would be immediate reductions for the ratepayers. But there would be certain points the members would have to consider as a result of the investigations made. He wanted those who carried out the investigations to have a completely free hand and he felt that they stood to gain by having those investigations carried out. Their fees would be £6,500 which represented £400 or £500 a year interest and he thought they could at least save that much.

Deputy Kyns said that some firms employed consultants and found them very costly. Colr. Hartly—Would they cover only the Engineering section?

Mr. Hally—No. Every section except the Health Services.

Colr. Curran—The Health Authority is a statutory body. Colr. Hartly—I think the £6,500 should cover all, including Health.

Colr. W. Foran said they would be foolish as a Council to employ them. They had seen colossal amounts of the ratepayers' money being squandered on roads and thrown down the drain. It was a ridiculous and scandalous policy to have operating in the county.

Mr. Hally—The road policy is not at issue here. Colr. Foran—You need not employ consultants to see where the money is being squandered in this country.

Colr. J. Quirkie said he was not prepared to support employing them. They would cost £6,500 and would work hand in hand with the officials.

The Chairman said he felt they could not go back at this stage. If they did the public would misinterpret it.

Colr. Galgey said the working man was the only one that could be affected. Mr. G. Heskin said the consultants had proved their efficiency elsewhere and they should employ them.

Colr. F. Roche said the only people they could remove were the men down low.

Colr. R. Walsh said it was very foolish to try and anticipate the Consultants' decision.

Colr. Michael Morrissey said his view was that a little bit of tightening up from the County Engineer's end would be sufficient.

Colr. Curran said the whole country was watching their decision.

Colr. Norman Walsh said he would not support it because he believed that they, constituted as they were, had not sufficient powers to carry out recommendations of the Consultants. Also the Health Services which were costing the county over 19/- were not included. They were the two very potent reasons why he would not vote to employ them.

Colr. Hartly proposed that they make definite enquiries to all public bodies in the country and get their views.

Mr. Hally said the amount of money involved was one per cent of the annual budget.

Colr. Dowd proposed and Colr. Heskin seconded that they employ them and it was carried 12-6.

The voting was: For—Colrs Curran, Dower, Hartly, Kyns, Whelan, Drohan, Ryan, Dowd, Heskin, Cahill, Galgey, R. Walsh (12). Against—Colrs Foran, Roche, Quirkie, N. Walsh, Madden, Morrissey (6).

N.F.A. NEWS
Council Deplores Tax on Agricultural Co-ops.

The N.F.A. National Council at its June Meeting in Dublin deplored the proposals published in the Finance Bill to tax Agricultural Co-operative Societies. The Council stated that this was a step aimed at a further deliberate reduction in farmers' income.

This was regarded as a selective tax which would worsen the position of small farmers who join together to combat the marketing situation.

The proposal to tax the new Development Co-operative Societies, whereas privately-owned Development units are not taxed, was strongly opposed. Indeed, the Bill as it was drafted, would it was felt, tax any new development of co-operation—so necessary to small farmers.

Particularly in the case of the tax on the case of wholesale dealings in some dairy products, eggs, poultry and meat, whereas other operations in which co-operatives have traditionally been engaged, such as grain, wool, fruit and vegetables, etc., were to be taxed.

The Minister for Finance has already said that he expects to get little revenue from the tax. The N.F.A. Council was gravely concerned that the new tax would be a deadly blow to the further development of agricultural co-operatives. The Council recommended that the inquiry of this Bill be brought to the attention of the Minister for Finance, in order that the proposals might be further considered in view of their serious implications for small farmer co-operatives.

REPORT ON SWEDISH VISIT

The N.F.A. Cereal Chemist, Gabriel Corr, has returned from his Swedish visit armed with facts and figures on wheat testing and wheat marketing in that country. While this information is being processed into a comprehensive report for our National Grain Committee, he presents the following preliminary account of his investigations:

"The main purpose of my visit to Sweden was to learn of some of the recent technical advances in wheat testing in that country. The climatic and other conditions for the growing of wheat in Sweden are somewhat similar to those in Ireland. Besides, the maximum use is made of native wheat in flour manufacture there. Thus it is evident that the information obtained should be of practical importance in this country where a technical programme for wheat testing and marketing is under way."

"Quite a considerable part of my time in Sweden was spent with Mr. H. Harold Perren at the laboratory there to the late Mr. Hagberg who with himself was responsible for the development of the falling number method (Hagberg Test) as we now know it. Mr. Perren has recently returned from the U.S.A. where his paper on the new falling number method for wheat testing was received with enthusiastic interest at the Annual Congress of the American Association of Cereal Chemists in Minneapolis. He is also Chairman of the study group concerned with Alpha-amylase activity attached to the International Association of Cereal Chemists. He was most helpful in all his discussions with me and spared no effort to put every facility in his laboratory at my disposal. He has a very clear understanding of our wheat testing problems in this country which he considers are similar to those of Sweden on which he had been working for more than twenty years."

"Another man who did much to make my trip to Sweden a success was Mr. Andersson who is attached to the cereals section of the S.L.R. (Swedish Farmers Selling and Purchasing Association). He provided me with first hand information on wheat marketing in his country and also arranged for me to visit some of the 'arrest grain stores, intake points, and flour mills in Sweden."

"Towards the end of my visit I went to Skanska, a large farming province in Southern Sweden. Here I was received by Mr. Patterson of the S.L.C. (The Farms Co-op. Association of Skanska) who arranged visits for me to the Swedish Research Centre, and the large central wheat laboratory for the Provinces of Skanska in Eslov. In this laboratory alone it was estimated that a total of some 12,000 protein tests are carried out each harvest.

It is intended that at a later date a more comprehensive account of my visit will be available. In general I feel it can be said that quite a valuable amount of experience has been gained which it is hoped can be used in the future development of wheat marketing in this country."

RURAL WATER SUPPLIES SYMPOSIUM

N.F.A. was represented by Mr. T. Finegan of the National Industrial & Transport Committee at a symposium on Rural Water Supplies at the Marlow Hall, Tipperary on the 21st June. The symposium, under the auspices of Muintir na Tire, was opened by the Minister for Local Government, who made some important announcements regarding improved aid for group schemes.

The main points from the Minister's speech are included elsewhere in this issue.

Speaking as personal representative of the President of N.F.A., Mr. Finegan welcomed the opportunity of emphasizing the importance of the Association's firm belief in the necessity for good water supplies in all rural homes. He pointed out that, in addition to recognising the importance of domestic water supplies, the N.F.A. is very conscious of the extent to which improvements in methods of agricultural production depend on the existence of adequate supplies of water around the farm and farmyard.

Milk production immediately springs to mind as a sector of our agricultural industry which is particularly dependent on good farm water supplies. The question of improving milk quality involves discussion of adequate reward for the producer, among other things. It can be said, however, that the need for a rapid up-grading of our milk quality adds a sense of urgency to the rural water supplies drive.

We welcome the extra grants for group schemes, and the new straightforward arrangements in regard to lump sum grants for those schemes.

We would prefer to await further clarification of the proposed alterations as between the Departments of Agriculture and Local Government before commenting fully but we are glad of the assurance that, in any event, the proposal will not throw any added burden on local rates.

The Minister's emphasis on individual and group effort is indeed heartening to us in N.F.A. and we join with him in hoping for an expansion of activity in the private sector.

For a number of reasons, we have always favoured this approach rather than the Local Authority approach, or in other words, the Regional Scheme. Our policy was based on a careful opinion poll of our County Executives which disclosed that only in two counties in the whole country were farmers in favour of regional schemes, and only on a limited scale at that. There was unanimous opposition to any burden being placed on the rates.

In fact our members found considerable difficulty in seeing any reason at all for regional schemes. In this opinion they were naturally influenced by the satisfactory experience of farmers with the private grant schemes. They knew of the ready availability of plentiful and wholesome water supplies for those schemes—even in certain areas where it was formerly considered impossible to find water. Another important consideration is the completely new situation created by the spread of rural electrification which greatly facilitates the provision of pumping equipment for private water supplies.

It is a sound principle of public administration that public authorities should not undertake activities which individuals or groups can perform better. There is also the point that if people get a water supply in an active manner through their own efforts, they will have much more regard for it and will be spurred on to more constructive efforts. We in N.F.A. have been particularly impressed by the views of people who were directly associated with the organising of group schemes, on the sociological aspects of this form of development. Successful group schemes can be regarded as a starting point for further ventures in community development and co-operative activities of many types.

The N.F.A. renews its appeal for a realistic approach to the overall cost of tackling the rural water supply problem. Let us agree on methods of co-operation between all interests concerned which will enable us to get piped water as quickly, as efficiently and as economically as possible into every rural home in Ireland.

There are many qualities required by a worthwhile voluntary officer. John has most of these, while he excels in the most important of all—sincerity. Over the years people sometimes differed with him, argued with him, but never questioned his sincerity and all are proud to be called friends of his.

To try and list his achievements, the bodies he has functioned on at national level, the committee he has chaired, the schemes he has fathered or fostered would be high impossible. We will not try to do so. What we are attempting to do is simply this: to pay a small tribute to one of the most outstanding men throughout the length and breadth of Ireland for the many years of selfless work that he put into building up farmer solidarity in Ireland. Never one to seek recognition or praise, he was thrust into the limelight by his civic spirit and willingness to accept responsibility after responsibility through his inherent worth.

The fact that he was defeated in the recent election for Vice-President for Comaught proves above all else the success of his teaching, i.e. that the N.F.A. is genuinely democratic; that anyone can reach the top; that change is good; that the Association is bigger than anyone in Ireland. Few could or would accept defeat in the many ways he did.

During the next two years, until the next Vice-President Election, we confidently expect to hear much about John's activities at local level. Within his native 3rd biggest in Ireland, we know that he will spearhead the drive for consolidation and 100 per cent membership of the Association in this area. His voice will continue to demand the respect due to it. Full use will continue to be made of his talent.

In appreciation of the work he has done for Irish agriculture the N.F.A. National Council at its June meeting, unanimously decided with acclamation to make him an Honorary Life Member of the Association, an honour accorded to only two others in its history. Few are more worthy of this distinction which brings with it an opportunity for a man of his calibre to continue to influence national policy even at the highest level.

As from 1st July 1963, domestic water supplies and sewerage grants will be a matter for the Department of Local Government. The Department of Agriculture's scheme of grants for domestic water supplies will cease to operate from that date, apart from completion of work already on hands.

Grants will now be available to every household installing a private scheme where the expenditure exceeds £10, irrespective of availability of public schemes.

Grants will be payable for connections with public mains and sewers, irrespective of distance.

State and county council grants will jointly account for two-thirds of the cost and one-third will be borne by the applicants. The total maximum grant for individual installations will be £100 for water supply and £50 for sewerage.

There will be no additional charge on the rates due to the termination of the Department of Agriculture scheme (the cost of which is met wholly from State funds). County Councils will get a subvention from State funds to recoup the amount of supplementary water supply grants to farmers.

There will be an extra grant of £20 per house for group schemes, bringing the total grant to £120 per house.

Group schemes grants will be payable in total, rather than in individual grants to each applicant. Provision is also made for payment of the grants by instalments as required from time to time.

Credit facilities for group schemes are being implied. (See N.F.A. comments elsewhere in this issue).

TRIBUTE TO GOING VICE-PRESIDENT

People prepared to give freely of their time and energy in a voluntary capacity are rare. Those prepared to give of their best over a long period are still rarer. Their work within the community cannot be measured because there are no limits to the influence for good that they have on the people they meet and work with. One such person is John Callanan who for years, with the ranks of Macra na Feirme distinguished himself as a hard intelligent worker, and later, from the inception of the N.F.A. showed himself to be 'head and shoulders above most men in endeavouring to better the lot of small farmers and agriculture generally.

Looking Very Fit and Well is Very Rev. Fr. Michael Flynn, P.P., Rochdale, Lancashire; England, who, on Thursday evening of last week wound up a fortnight's holiday break, while away here in his homeland, previously revisited by him in 1954.

His reverence is son of well-known Mrs. Hannah Flynn (nee Connolly) and the late Mr. Patrick (Pat) Flynn, Killerguile, Clonea-Power.

Having read a brilliant collegiate course of studies at St. John's College, Waterford, he received his ordination in Waterford Cathedral thirty-one years ago, and since then he is labouring with remarkable success on the English mission.

After taking up his appointment as pastor of Rochdale he quickly won the hearts and the confidence of his parishioners, and the beautiful church, school and house, he was instrumental in having effected at a cost of more than £170,000, bear striking testimony to his unflinching zeal and assiduous devotion to the holy cause which he has espoused. Incidentally, the first Missa Cantata celebrated by his reverence in the newly-built sacred edifice (dedicated to the Most Sacred Heart), was broadcast by the B.B.C.

Fr. Flynn, who was delighted to find his good mother hale and hearty, is brother of Messrs. Willie Flynn, Killerguile, and Pat Flynn, Rathgormack, and two of his five sisters are nuns.

The lovable ecclesiastic's charm of manner is as universal as is his influence for good and for that better feeling between man and man which we could ill afford to do without.

Passing of Esteemed Lady.—A very esteemed and highly respected resident of this region passed away on Monday of last week, 24th ult. (Feast of St. John Baptist), following a comparatively short indisposition and at the allotted hour, she was Mrs. Margaret Halley, Ballyristeen, Bonmahon, widow of the late Mr. Walter Halley, whose associations with the agricultural life of the area were distinctly honourable.

A lady of many very charming traits of character, Mrs. Halley (nee Power) possessed those outstanding gifts of heart and mind which had marked the careers of her forbears for generations. Though quiet, unassuming and even retiring of disposition, she was extremely charitable and never failed to offer a helping hand to those whom she believed to be genuinely in need of assistance. She will be long remembered, too, in the locality where she resided since her marriage for the fine neighbourly qualities which she invariably displayed. The dear departed one is deeply and deservedly regretted by her sorrowing sons, daughters, sisters, relatives and many warm friends within and beyond the confines of her natal county, with whom whole-hearted sympathy is widespread in their bereavement and loss.

An unusually large and representative cortege accompanied the removal of the remains from the residence to the Church of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, Kill, where the casket was received and blessed by the Rev. L. Walsh, C.C.

On the next day (Wednesday), immediately after the celebration of Solemn Requiem Mass (preceded by the Office for the Dead), interment was made in the adjoining cemetery amidst every manifestation of sorrow. All of the priests present at the obsequies again officiated at the graveside.

An immense array of spiritual bouquets and messages of condolence were received, and a number of beautiful floral tributes were placed on the grave. R.I.P.

In the Death of Garda James Gallagher. Stradbally, which sad event happened at Ardkeen Hospital, Waterford, on Tuesday of last week, 25th ult. (Feast of St. William Ab.), the people of the Cove Village where he was stationed over the past two decades of years (approximately), mourn with genuine regret the demise of an unreservedly trusted guardian of the peace, unfailingly courteous, considerate and helpful, and their sympathy in full measure goes out to his grief-stricken wife, sons and daughters on the loss of a sterling spouse and parent.

Both the removal of the remains to St. Michael Parish Church, Athy, Co. Kildare, and the funeral to St. Michael's cemetery on the following date (after Requiem Mass) formed an impressive display of public esteem and regret.

A large array of Mass cards and messages of condolence were received. R.I.P.

As Advertised, Messrs. Edmond Spratt and Son, M.I.A.A., auctioneers and valuers, Dungarvan, are instructed by Mr. Thomas Brett, who is retiring from business to offer for immediate sale by private treaty, his interest in his licensed freehold premises, residence, stores, enclosed yard and accommodation lands at Ballylaneen, Kilmacthomas (vacant possession).

Motoring Mishaps.—Over the week-end a motor cyclist was in collision with a car at Ballyhussa, Kilmacthomas, and was removed to a Waterford City hospital for treatment, the impact having inflicted painful injuries.

Whilst motoring by Leamybrien on Sunday last, Dr. H. Shelly, Waterford, became involved in an accident, which resulted in his sustaining injuries which necessitated his being rushed to a city hospital for attention.

Master Finian Murphy, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Murphy, St. Anne's Tce., Kilmacthomas, was playing with other children in the vicinity of his home yesterday week-end, when he had the misfortune to accidentally sustain a fractured leg. He was quickly conveyed to Ardkeen Hospital, where he is since undergoing treatment.

Noted.—The engagement has been announced between Mr. Michael McGrath, "St. Ita's", Rathcoole, Co. Dublin, son of Mrs. McGrath and the late Mr. Michael McGrath, Touraine, Lismore, Co. Waterford, and Miss Nora Harney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Harney, Graigarush, Kilmacthomas.

Belonging by Birth to Ballyhussa, Kilmacthomas, is Mrs. M. A. Harney (nee Kenny), of Endsleigh Villas, Priest's Rd., Tramore, was anxiously awaiting the result of the Irish Sweeps Derby as she flew home across the Atlantic, on Saturday last—the day of the big race—after a 3-months stay in Delaware, U.S.A., where she was the guest of her son, Rev. Fr. Peter Harney, C.C., who ministers his sacred duties in a parish out there.

Widow of the late Mr. Nicholas Harney, Tramore, Mrs. Harney is mother of a family of nine and well though Fraco (the horse, she failed to reach a place, it was taken with stoical good grace by the gracious lady.

At the Annual Stock-Judging Fixture under the auspices of Kilmacthomas Branch, Macra na Feirme, twelve teams competed and the combination that emerged victorious from the competition hailed from Cappoquin. Best ladies team came from the Old Cornerstone Town too. Held in conjunction with the fixture was a camogie match between Kilmacthomas and Stradbally; it was played before not less than three-hundred spectators and when the long whistle went the visiting team were but two points in arrears. Medals were presented to the triumphant home team at the pronouncedly pleasurable social held later in the local Rainbow Hall.

Pleasant to Publish that, now under way is the 20-week Silver Circle Draw in aid of the Kilmacthomas (Temperance) Parochial Hall Renovation Fund; that the Committee in charge procured an appreciable number of enthusiastic promoters; and that the laudable project promises to put out on the markedly successful side.

Late Mrs. Margaret Halley, of Ballyristeen, Bonmahon, was mother of Mr. John Halley, do.; Mr. Nicholas Halley, Newtown, Annestown; Mr. Walter Halley, M.R.C.V.S., Roscommon; Mrs. J. Power, Carrigeen, Kilmacthomas; Miss E. Halley, Public Health Department, Waterford; Mrs. T. Scully, Dublin; Mrs. V. Lawlor, do.; and Miss Mary Halley, Clonmel. She was sister of Mrs. T. Hennebery, Tramore; Mrs. J. McNamara, Manor St., Waterford; Mrs. M. Ward, Corbally, do.; Mrs. A. Connors, Clonskaine, Dungarvan, and the late Mr. Patrick (Pat) Power, Castlequarter, Leamybrien (and Kilrossanty).

Late Garda James Gallagher, a native of Drumshambo, Co. Leitrim, who had served in Kilkenny City and Freshford, Co. Kilkenny, before being transferred to the Cove Village of Stradbally in 1945, took a prominent part in the struggle for freedom, being attached to the North Leitrin I.R.A. He joined the Garda in 1924 and since 1959, he conducted a one-man sub-station in Stradbally. Surviving him are his wife, Mrs. K. Gallagher, his sons, Messrs. Seamus Gallagher, N.T., Nias, E. Quane, Gallagher, N.T., and Leo Gallagher, London; and his daughters, Sr. Crescentia, Sacred Heart Convent, London; Mrs. K. Hogan, do.; Miss Mildred Gallagher, do.; and Miss Cecily Gallagher, Dublin.

TALLOW NOTES

SILVER JUBILEE OF MARRIAGE
We congratulate Mr. and Mrs. James Turley, Ballynoe, who recently celebrated the 25th anniversary of their wedding. Mrs. Turley, before her marriage was Miss Kathleen Ryan, Tallow.

SHAMROCKS EASY VICTORY
In the second round of the junior hurling championship played at Lismore on Sunday last Shamrocks beat Geraldines 1-11 to 0-2. The game opened at a fast pace with Shamrocks attacking, but Geraldines held them up to the 16th minute of play, when Tommy Geary got the ball and in a neat stroke sent it over the bar to open the scoring. The same player had a succession of points in the following 14 minutes of the first half, which left the half-time score: Shamrocks, 0-7; Geraldines, 0-1.

On the resumption Shamrocks kept up the pressure and added a goal and a point per Johnny McGrath and John Joe Murphy and John Nicholson had 3 points between them to which the Aglish men replied with only a point.

Best for Shamrocks were: B. Tobin, M. Tobin, G. McGrath, F. Corcoran, P. Allen, M. Keane, J. Foley, J. McGrath, and J. Nicholson.

The Aglish men were best served by "Stylo" Riordan, M. Downing and goalie D. Crofty who brought off some wonderful saves.

Shamrocks: B. Geary; B. O'Keefe; J. Callaghan; J. Nicholson; M. Keane; P. Allen; F. Corcoran; B. Tobin; J. Foley; J. J. Murphy; M. Tobin; G. McGrath; John Nicholson; John McGrath; T. Geary; Geraldines: B. Crofty; B.

Ronayne, M. Mernin, M. Downing; J. Hallahan, T. Riordan, J. Landers; J. O'Grady, P. Kiely; M. Tobin; W. Treacy, M. Smith; J. Langan, J. J. Landers, Sub., D. O'Neill for W. Treacy.

"Wallie" Ducey, Tourin, refereed the game in a very impartial manner.

F.F. MEETING
The annual general meeting of Lismore Conhairle Ceann-tair Fianna Fail was held at Lismore Hotel on Monday night, July 1st. There was a good attendance. Mr. M. O'Gorman presided. Also present were Sen. W. Ryan, Killfeacle, Co. Tipperary (representing Mr. M. Davern, T.D., who was unable to be present); Mr. J. Quirk, M.C.C.; Mr. Denis Montayne, M.C.C.

TALLOW FAIR
Tallow monthly fair, held on Friday, June 28th, was one of the biggest for some time. Cattle prices showed a rise from £6 to £9 per head, and a ready clearance was effected.

DEATH OF MR. PADDY JOYCE
We regret to record the death of Mr. Patrick Joyce, Strancally Knockanore, which occurred at Dungarvan Hospital on Monday. Deceased was a member of an old and highly esteemed family and was most popular. Of a kind and gentle nature he had many friends who deeply mourn his death.

The remains were removed to the Church of the Sacred Heart, Knockanore and the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery.

To his sister, nephews, nieces and relative, much sympathy is extended. Very Rev. Fr. M. Power, P.P., Knockanore, officiated at the graveside.

PRESIDENT KENNEDY VISITS LISMORE

Last week, Ireland was greatly honoured by the visit of President Kennedy, and on Friday morning last at 11.50 approximately, it was Lismore's turn to welcome this great man. Yes, John F. Kennedy visited Lismore! and though he did not land in Lismore, nevertheless, he was to be seen quite plainly as the helicopter in which he was travelling skimmed the rooftops, waving to the huge crowd which had gathered on the streets below. The President then circled Lismore a few times before moving on to Lismore Castle for a holiday some fifteen years ago and indeed in all probability it was the memory of that holiday that brought him over Lismore last week.

MACRA NA FEIRME FIELD EVENING

All roads lead to Lismore (tonight) Friday, July 5th, where the local branch of Macra na Feirme are holding their annual field evening, at the Castle Farm Yard. This event, which always proves very popular, is again expected to live up to past field evenings this year and the very energetic committee of the local branch, are assuring everyone of a good night's entertainment. As well as the stockjudging there will be numerous side shows to amuse both young and old.

The dance, run in conjunction with the field evening, will be held in the Town Hall on the same night and promises to be a lively affair. Music will be supplied by Pat Irwin and his showband who will be making their first appearance at Lismore.

CONGRATULATIONS

Our heartiest congratulations are extended to Mr. Joe Whelan, Town Parks, Lismore on winning the massive Kilmore Cup for angling at Ballduff on Friday night last. Though the night was not a very good one for fishing, nevertheless, Joe showed great skill and we wish him many more successes.

LISMORE A.F.C. SWEPESTAKE

The Swepestake on the Irish Derby, sponsored by the Lismore Association football Club was an unqualified success, and the officers of the club wish to thank all who helped in any way to make it so. A particular word of thanks is due to the shopkeepers who displayed our cards, our friends in the county and outside and last but by no means least, our exiles, who helped in no small way to make it such a success.

The prizewinners were: 1st horse—Mr. J. Whelan, Town Parks, Lismore; 2nd horse—Mr. M. Madden, Main St., do.; 3rd horse—Miss E. Quane, Rathely Rd., Fermoy, Co. Cork.

GRAND DANCE

As can be seen in our advertising columns, a grand dance will be held in the town hall, Lismore, on Tuesday

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

SODALITY OUTING
The annual outing of the members of the Sodality of Mary, took place on Sunday, when some eighty ladies travelled by bus to Courtown Harbour. The party stopped at Emmiscorthy for lunch, subsequently visiting the civic museum there. En route to Gorey the ladies had the pleasure of seeing the wonders of Titania's Palace, the famous creation of Sir Neville Wilkinson. The afternoon was spent in Courtown Harbour. Fine sunny weather favoured the trip.

PROFESSIONAL DISTINCTION

To Doctor J. B. Meade of the Staff of the North Infirmary, Cork, we offer congratulations on his success in the Primary Fellowship Examination of the Royal College of Surgeons. He is younger son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Meade, Church Street, Cappoquin.

BOWLING

In a second round Tournament score bowled on Thursday evening, P. Herr was successful against M. Murray.

TOURIN

SCHOASTIC SUCCESS
We record with pleasure the success of Vincent O'Connor, who has passed his First Year Examination in Engineering in University College Cork. He is prominent in local football and hurling circles.

G.A.A.

The Minor Hurling Championship game between Ballinacree and Lismore, played here on Sunday evening, was a very close affair. Victory went to Ballinacree by a 3-1 score.

GONE TO U.S.A.

On last Saturday, Miss Rose Lonergan left Shannon Airport for New York. She was one of the town's most popular ladies and actively associated with the tennis and camogie clubs. Every local good cause had in her, too, a genuine helper. Her departure is regretted not only by her many friends in her native town but also by the residents of the Park area, Killeagh.

where she taught for many years.

JUVENILE FOOTBALL
The very few spectators who watched Friday afternoon's juvenile league match between teams from the Lynn Boys' School and Mount Mellerau N.S. were rewarded by an entertaining and exciting game. To judge by the standard of football from both teams, the future of the game is assured in the district.

The Mellerau boys opened in great style and dominated play all through the first half which ended with the score: Mt. Mellerau, 2-1; Cappoquin, 0-0.

Following positional changes, Cappoquin showed much improvement on the resumption and a goal by John Murray proved a tonic for the side. This was followed by another goal and two points in quick succession. Mellerau had a goal in reply to leave them with a lead of two points in the closing minutes.

Cappoquin threw everything they had into their attempts to get the all-important goal. The boys from the mountain stood firm and it looked as if the honours would be theirs. With seconds to go, however, Michael Hackett secured possession and, dodging several tackles, sent the ball to the net, for what proved to be the winning score. The final whistle went after the kick-out, leaving the score, Cappoquin, 3-2; Mt. Mellerau, 3-1.

Cappoquin were represented by: B. Scanlan (capt.), J. Quann, M. Brady, M. McCarthy, R. Brennan, D. Connolly, J. Millea, P. Morrissey, T. Meskill, J. Murray, M. Hackett, F. McCarthy, W. Gambon, T. Morrissey.

WEEKLY DANCES

Don't forget the weekly Wednesday night dance sponsored by the Lawn Tennis Club in the Boatshouse. Dancing 8-12. Admission: 2/6.

WEST WATERFORD NOTES

CLASHMORE SEWERAGE SCHEME
Work on this scheme is now under way. The employment, which it is providing in the locality, is welcomed.

SALMON FISHING

The salmon fishing season, now drawing to a close in this area, has been fairly successful. Good catches of peale are also reported.

ON THE LAND

Despite late sowings all crops are well advanced in these parts. Granted a continuation of favourable conditions good yields are expected.

CONDITION OF ROADS

Despite good work in recent years, some roads in this area are in a rather bad condition and it is understandable that the users are outspoken about the position. Practically all these roads are on the 5-year plan and in the course of the next two or three years will be surfaced.

ON HOLIDAY

Quite a number of people from the U.S.A. and Britain are home on holidays in this area at present. All are enjoying the visit to the homeland despite the gloomy weather conditions of recent weeks.

FLOODING RELIEVER

For the past few years, the main road near Piltown church has been subjected to considerable flooding and this caused much inconvenience to persons attending the church. The County Council have done a big job on the road and no further flooding is expected to occur at this spot.

APPLICATION FOR WATER SUPPLY

An application has been made to the Co. Council for an extension of the Ardmore Water supply to the Monea area. A big number of families are interested and it is hoped that their application will be successful.

TIPUNDER STORM

A severe thunder storm broke over this area on Sunday evening last. It was accompanied by torrential rain.

WATERFORD TO QUALIFY

But Issue will be Close

WHILE the road that leads to Croke Park on All-Ireland final day has this year been shortened somewhat for Waterford's hurlers, it is nevertheless strewn with formidable barriers. And when the County faces Limerick in the Provincial semi-final at Cork on Sunday next, they will be confronted by foemen worthy of the proud green jerseys they wear.

By all reasonable reckoning Waterford must be installed the ante-post favourites. Their glorious League achievements are there for all to see and admire, including the humbling of the All-Ireland finalists of '62, Tipp, and Wexford. But forewarned is forearmed and the writer must strongly stress that these exuberant Shannonsiders will be no push-over on Sunday.

Had the game been played within a month of their history-making League triumph I would have little hesitation in plumping for a decisive Deise victory. But time and circumstances have altered that viewpoint not a little, and it is now a Countywide belief that if Limerick are mastered then the side will go on to record its third All-Ireland success.

The absence of Tom Cheasty, presently under suspension, is a grievous blow to Waterford's hopes. Never in his great career has he been seen to such devastating advantage as in the past few months, and the entire rhythm of the attack will be impaired as a result. His absence is a catastrophe as great as "Hamlet without the Prince."

GUINAN DOUBTFUL Also perturbing is the news that Larry Guinan's hand injury, sustained in a club game against Bennettsbridge has not responded too well to treatment. The Mount Sion man at this stage must be considered a doubtful starter and should he fail to come under starter's orders, his replacement is likely to be former Kilkenny star Mickey Walsh who significantly enough has been drafted on to the list of subs. But despite the discomforting knowledge that unfortunate circumstances deprive them from fielding their strongest side, the morale of the Deise men has not been lessened. Training sessions, under the astute guidance of John Keane have met with dedicated response and there is no such thing as half measures for this vital tie. Already the Oireachtas Cup rests on a Waterford side-board; the League trophy is to all intents and purposes on its journey to a similar destination, and now remains the most coveted prize of all to be won. To do so, Sunday's assignment must be crowned with success.

BY JOHN A. MURPHY

It is a task in every sense of the word in which the exalted role of favouritism will be meaningless once referee Pat Cronin, of Cork, sets the game in motion.

LIMERICK PREPARED Limerick are this year geared for one of their greatest assaults ever on a Munster title. Not since 1956 have they appeared in the Southern decider, while their last success was gained in the previous year's final. Since then they have twice met and failed to Waterford in championship encounters—'57 and '61, and needless to say are more than anxious to avoid a hat-trick of defeats on Sunday.

On the brighter side for them is their superlative League display against Sunday's opponents at the Ennis Road ground last November. On that sultry afternoon the Shannonsiders played hurling out of the top drawer and looked a team of all talents when scoring a 7-6 to 3-3 victory.

On Sunday Waterford will have no fewer than fourteen of that team on duty (provided Guinan declares fit). Odd man out is of course Cheasty whose berth on the '40 is now taken by John Barron. Charlie Ware has been recalled to fill the vacancy created by the transfer of the versatile Barron from the fringe of the square.

McDONAGH AN ABSENTEE At the time of writing the Shannonsiders line-out is not to hand but a definite non-starter is star defender, John McDonagh. Ordered off against Galway in the opening round, McDonagh's suspension expires on Saturday night but injury deprives him from taking his usual place in defence.

McDonagh's likely replacement is Mick Heelan, while goalkeeper Jim Hogan, defenders Seamus Quaid, Kevin Long and Tom McGarry will give little away. P. J. Keane and Pat Hartnett seem the obvious mid-field choice while their attack revolving around Mick Tynan, Eamonn Carey, Bernie Hartigan and Paddy Cobbe is, on paper at least, a potentially dangerous sector.

SELECTORS HAVE DONE WELL

Under difficult circumstances Deise selectors have selected their best possible side. As so often before, Dame Fortune has chosen to frown on them but consolation lies in the fact that those hurlers are at their best when adversity strikes. For the goalkeeping job, Ned Power must have been an automatic choice. He is in sparkling form right now and Power at his best has few peers.

Tom Cunningham, the solid and dependable campaigner, Austin Flynn and Jimmy Byrne the stylists, form a full-back line that would do any county justice.

HALF-BACK POWER

Martin O'Gormley, pivot of this great rearguard is hurling majestically of late, and there seems little doubt about his turning in another blinder on Sunday. Jim Lynch has fully matured into a top class half-back and should Larry Guinan be given the "O.K." he can visualise the Limerick men facing a mammoth ordeal in trying to cut passageways to goal.

Mick Dempsey, another "casualty" during the past few weeks, has reported one hundred per cent fit, but it will take a supreme effort by Joe Condon and himself to gain mastery at midfield. However, assuming that even will at least enjoy an even share of the exchanges, Limerick may find to their cost that equality in the sector is sufficient, in view of the undoubted solidity of the Deise defensive screen.

CHEASTL WILL BE MISSED No one can overlook the weakening of the attack, caused by Cheasty's enforced lay off. The unorthodox but effective Ballyduff man will be sorely missed and scores will be harder to "come by" without his beneficial distribution.

John Barron has now been

MITCHELS TAKE CORN UI LOINGSIG IN THRILLING FINAL

Misceálaig 4-2; Seandún 2-1 Mitchel Street have done it again! For the second year running they have inscribed their name on the beautiful Corn Uí Loingsigh, and if there were any doubts about their success last year, there can be no quibbling with the result last week. They were undoubtedly the better side, though Seandún would scarcely have been flattered with a few goals to spare at half-time. Many will say that Seandún threw the game away in that first-half and true enough they had most of the play and wasted some golden chances in front of goal. Yet they could only manage parity in the matter of scores, and when the champions settled down in the second period there was no doubting their worth.

Connie Murphy played a captain's part in this victory and the other three "big guns" on the side, John Clancy, Philip Duggan and Martin Sandford played very prominent parts also. But it was the "little" men of the team, I think, who really won the game.

Michael Donohue, John Gough, Michael Clancy, M. Flynn and Michael Dunford, not so well known perhaps, but each one pulling his weight and holding up his end in fine style. How often, for instance did young Donohue "hook" danger man Diarmuid Flynn, and how often did M. Dunford and Brian Steele come away with the ball when all seemed lost. This was indeed a team victory and every man can feel proud of his part in it. Others to impress throughout the game were Buddy Power, a reliable goalie, Nicky Kiely and Vinny Mahoney.

Mitchels were best but Shandon were unfortunate. In a final the lucky "breaks" are vital and Shandon never had them. Did ever a man try harder than captain Dermot Flynn? But things were just not going his way last Sunday night and try as he might, nothing went according to plan. Diarmuid has had better game but he placed as leader of the attack but it will come as no surprise if Philly Grimes is given the "bush telegraph" to operate in that area before the game is very old. Fortunately Frankie Walsh seems to have re-discovered his "59 touch" while Mick Flannely has only to reproduce current form to satisfy.

As I see it, the full line of attack is the only real suspect one on the side. Charlie Ware must be considered a debatable choice and Seamus Power though still a danger is hardly the man of yore.

Grimes to my mind is the man likely to cause Limerick greatest trouble and wherever selectorial decisions may post him to, he should prove Limerick's enemy.

WATERFORD TO WIN ?

Next to the intricate and delicate job of "picking the winner" the Shannonsiders are likely to set a cracking pace and I fully expect them to play their part in what should be a thrilling struggle. But Waterford remain my choice and I expect their power at half-back and midfield to be good enough to get there in a photo finish.

never gave a match so much for so little in return as he did in the final. Jim Nagle took most of the honours... a fearless battler with a terrific drive, and even Jim must have wondered why so many of his efforts boomeranged against him. With M. Sheridan and Dec. Butler it was the same old story, heart-breaking effort and meagre results. Most successful perhaps was "Fisher" Whelan, a glutton for work and a terror in defence. This was his finest hour. Paddy O'Brien was good in goal and Pat Barron with Brendan Corcoran never shirked a tackle. Up front the two Sheridans, Michael and Larry were always prominent, Tommy Donovan battled gamely and Killian Keyes was completely out of luck with some fine efforts.

Mitchels drew first blood when Philip Duggan goaled after ten minutes. M. Sheridan equalised but for Shandon soon after but Nicky Kiely edged the champions in front with a minor. Play was fast and furious midway through the opening half and for long time there was deadlock as defences dominated, but Diarmuid Flynn shot the equaliser for Shandon from a free five minutes from the interval. The score at half-time was Mitchels 1-1 Shandon 1-1.

The winners piled on the pressure on the restart and Philip Duggan shot a goal and a point inside five minutes. Martin Sandford increased the lead with another green flag but Jim Nagle raised hopes of a come-back with a really brilliant goal. These hopes were dashed however, when Martin Sandford had the last word with a fine goal for Mitchels.

Amid scenes of great jubilation the victorious team were presented with the trophies. Rev. Fr. Byrne introduced the donor of the magnificent Cup, Mr. Paddy Lynch. Fr. Byrne paid an eloquent and fitting tribute to Mr. Lynch whom he described as a onehundred per cent Gael, always ready and eager for any scheme to further advance the games. Mr. Lynch referred to the pleasure he had received from watching the lads in action, and paid a tribute to the brothers who coached the boys and organised the competitions. He then presented the Corn Uí Loingsigh to Connie Murphy and the enthusiastic cheering for hours afterwards was proof enough of the joy of the victors.

And so another season has ended at the Brothers The Rice Cup was lost but the games go on and next year another crop of eager youngsters will step in to take the places of those who have moved on. Many people share in the success up at the school but a special word is due to the people of the town who have always supported the games so enthusiastically.

MITCHELS... Winners of Corn Uí Loingsigh. L. to r. (front row) L. Duggan and J. Houlahan; (middle) B. Power, J. Gough, L. Sandford, C. Murphy (capt.), V. Mahoney, D. Kiely, T. Dunford and M. Flynn; (back) P. Power, M. Clancy, A. Barron, B. Steele, J. Clancy, J. Cleary, P. Duggan, M. Sandford, M. Donohue, N. Kiely.

HURLERS FACE RESURGENT LIMERICK The Athletic Grounds Cork on Sunday next will be the mecca for all Deise Gaels, when the county meets a resurgent Limerick in the semi-final of the Munster senior hurling championship.

Form undeniably points to a Waterford victory. But just as emphatically that self same guide—if one can accept it as such—is a very fickle "creature" indeed more so when the coveted championship is at stake. Thus it should be with a considerable degree of caution that Waterford embark on this precarious mission to the Leeside venue. Limerick, let us stress, will be no push-over, and indeed the Shannonsiders are supremely confident about upsetting the general consensus of opinion.

The loss of indefatigable centre-forward Tom Cheasty is bound to have certain repercussions. In an effort to overcome this crisis, efforts have now placed John Barron on the forty with Charlie Ware recalled as full-forward, flanked by Sion club-mates Power and Gimes. Astute as a leader as Barron can be, he does not possess Cheasty's penetrative powers, and the latter's absence will allow the Limerick defence to breathe a little easier.

Not for many years has such a forceful wave of optimism swept the Shannonside county as at present. They pleasingly point to an overwhelming league victory over the Deise men last November, and are unflinching in their belief that they will repeat the dose on Sunday.

As already stated, Waterford, even without Cheasty, must be regarded as favourites. But the non-appearance of the Ballyduff star only tends to make it an open affair, and a battle royal may well be waged before Tipperary's opponents are known in the final on July 28th.

CHAMPIONS FAIL TO IMPRESS

The writer chose Limerick as the venue on Sunday last, where expectancies never materialised as Tipperary defeated Cork in a lack-lustre and thrill-less senior hurling semi-final.

The title-holders fully deserved to qualify for their fourth successive provincial decider, and their 4-7 to 1-11 victory was in no way flattering to the superiority they expected. But not for some considerable time past has a Tipperary side looked so thoroughly unimpressive, and it is the general feeling that vast improvement is imperative if they are to retain their laurels this year. Their immediate needs are greatest in defence, where full-backs Mick Maher and Kieran Carey and half-back Mick Murphy are far from satisfactory. Maher's form in particular is giving justifiable cause for concern in the frontward, adopting a roving commission, could well cause havoc against him.

It can be truly said that I have never seen a weaker Cork team on championship duty. They had their individual stars, but these were greatly outnumbered by "passengers," and their unbalanced side seldom looked capable of bringing off a surprise victory.

They had the morale-boosting tonic of a quick goal by the recalled Paddy Barry, but once Tipp. opened their account with a "Mackey McKenna goal, the holders seldom looked in any great danger.

But over-all it was a bitterly disappointing semi-final for the 30,000 odd attendance. The "bite," so characteristic a feature of Cork-Tipp. Clashes, was conspicuous only by its absence, and only in brief spasms were we treated to the quality hurling we had so confidently expected.

SHAMROCK'S SWEEP TO VICTORY

Shamrocks marched convincingly a step closer to annexing the Western Junior hurling title, when beating Geraldines 1-11 to 0-2 at Lismore on Sunday last.

This was a polished display by the winners, a repetition of which will make them an exceedingly difficult side to beat. Strong in all sectors, they have the brilliance of a dozen individuals to add to their all-round potency, and Geraldines, despite all their efforts were fighting a losing battle for most of the game.

BALLYDUFF MINORS WELL ON TOP

After a very even-matched first half, Ballyduff assumed complete control on the change-over and ran out easy 3-2 to nil winners against Dungarvan in the minor football championship at Cappoquin on Friday night.

Dungarvan—their side comprised mostly of members of their juvenile side, gave as good as they got in the opening half and were only a point in arrears at the interval.

Put a quick goal after the interval set Ballyduff on the road to victory, and they were never subsequently in danger.

OLD BORO JUVENILES WIN

scored a clear-cut victory over Ring in the football championship at the Fraher Field on Monday night.

The local boys were complete masters from the start and their victory was as easily achieved as scores suggest. Their performers were Gerry Crowley, Sean Murphy, Kevin Fleming, Tom Murphy and Sean Daly.

Ring offered only token resistance and it is impossible to assess Dungarvan's true worth on this one game.

MINORS ALSO IN ACTION

While the senior game is the major attraction in Cork on Sunday, early arrivals at the ground should see a thrilling minor championship game between the same counties. Limerick invariably turn out top-class minor teams while this year Waterford are reported to have their best team in a long time.

I find it difficult to understand, however, how the Waterford selectors have overlooked Abbeyside's Pat Enright. To my way of thinking he is the best under-eighteen half-back in the West and well worth his place on Sunday. But strange are the ways of selectors and here's hoping the minors will record the first leg of a double on Sunday.
