F.F. members fail to vote for colleague

MR. Michael Harty (F.G.) was elected Chairman of Waterford Committee of Agriculture at the annual meeting on Saturday last. He defeated the outgoing candidate Mr. John Fahey (F.F.) by 6 votes to five. A surprising and unusual feature of the election was that two Fianna Fail members, Mr. H. R. Dowd and Mr. K. O'Ryan, abstained from voting. Mr. J. Quirke (F.F.) was unanimously re-elected Vice-Chairman.

At the outset Mr. Quirke proposed that Mr. Fahey be re-elected. Mr. Sean Whelan seconded.

Col. H. R. Dowd, proposing Mr. Quirke, said he was sure that the present Chairman would be the first to second that.

Mr. Quirke said he could have been elected four years ago but would not take it. He was now a little deaf and a Chairman would want to hear everything. He would not stand now.

Mr. G. Heskin proposed Mr. Harty and Mr. N. Walsh seconded.

Mr. Milo Galgey said it was all a wrangle between some members. As far as he could see it was a case of one party putting up one man and another party putting up another. He proposed Mr. Richard Walsh, but failed to get a second.

Mr. Norman Walsh: The whole thing is very embarrassing.

The vote was then taken and resulted as follows: For Harty—Dowd, Foran, Heskin N. Walsh, R. Walsh, Harty (6); For Fahey—Curran, Whelan, Drohan, Quirke, Fahey (5).

Mr. Dowd, Mr. O'Ryan (both F.F.) and Mr. Galgey, abstained from voting.

Mr. Fahey said he had great pleasure in declaring Mr. Harty elected. He thanked the members for the wonderful co-operation they had given him and he considered it a pleasure to have been their chairman.

He also thanked the staff whose co-operation made his task an easy one, and the members of the Press for the excellent coverage given to their meetings.

Returning thanks, Mr. Harty said Mr. Fahey had given magnificent service and it would be his ambition to follow in his way. He personally had also received excellent co-operation from the C.A.O., Mr. Conroy and his staff.

Mr. N. Walsh said as the second of Mr. Harty he had no notion of showing antagonism towards Mr. Fahey who had been an excellent Chairman.

Mr. G. Heskin said Mr. Fahey gave great service while in the chair.

Mr. Galgey said when party politics ruled it was a case of the party with the biggest representation having their nominee elected.

Mr. W. Foran said there would be no democracy in the country if they hadn't party politics.

Mr. C. Curran then proposed Mr. Quirke for the Vice-Chairmanship and Mr. Dowd seconded.

HAS PRIORY HOUSE SAGA ENDED? Authority at last decide to sell

TOM TAKES THE "LONG WALK"

Congratulations to Mr. Tom McHugh, N.T., Garranbane, on being selected by the Federations of Tanners and Curriers of Ireland, last week, to walk from Cork to Dublin, spread over a three-week period, August 1st to 21st, when he receives £100 at the completion of the journey.

The purpose of this walk is to display the qualities of Irish shoe leather and to focus attention on the joys of walking.

Tom, who was selected from over 200 applicants, was a former Old Boro. County and Munster College footballer and is brother of Noel and Maurice.

HAS the controversy that has raged for so many years over Priory House at last been brought to its long awaited end? At last Monday's meeting of Waterford Health Authority a motion by Mr. Charles Curran "that they get rid of it" and that a suitable public clinic be built in Dungarvan, was carried by 12 votes to 5. It is of course subject to the sanction of the Department of Health.

Monday's discussion on it was a long and heated one, in which the County Manager, Mr. S. J. Moynihan and Mr. Tom Lannon were the prominent figures.

When moving his motion, Mr. Curran, said he would like it discussed in a calm atmosphere. It was going on now for a number of years and it had caused a great deal of ill-feeling. He was perfectly satisfied that Priory House would never be approved as a clinic and he proposed that they get rid of it and start from scratch again.

Mr. T. Lannon seconded the motion and said that the matter came before the County Council some years ago and fizzled out.

Mr. Lannon said the point was that it was not a suitable building for a clinic and the money that would spend a penny on it would want to have his head examined.

Mr. W. Foran asked if they had an alternative site.

GOING ON FOR YEARS

The Manager said the matter had been going on for years. The County Council purchased it and have agreed to adopt it as a clinic and the Department. The contractor has been asked to prepare contract documents and if they started all over again it would take years of preparation.

"Do you think the Health Authority should agree to that?" he asked. "It is suitable for the people and it is central. I think it would be very bad precedent now to start all over again. For years and years it has been unfair to the children of the town to have no public clinic. Possibly many children have been afflicted with diseases as a result of not having a clinic in the town. The Health Authority is bound to provide one in this town of over 5,000."

Mr. Lannon—I do not think you are worried about the children of the town. You are worried only about yourself. Mr. Moynihan—That's what you think.

Mr. Lannon—If you were worried about the children's health you would have built a proper clinic. The technique in public life is not bad today. You are worried about yourself only. The poor people in this town are being treated badly by the Manager and the officials. Priory House should not have been purchased. It was rotten from the first day.

Mr. J. Quirke said the doctors originally passed it fit for a clinic and if the officials were quick enough to finish the job the people would be going into it today.

The Manager said there were constant notices of motion coming up at the County Council meetings about it and that was the reason for the hold-up. The Officials could not be blamed for that.

There was constant pressure from some members of the County Council to have it held up.

Mr. Quirke said the alternative of building the clinic next to the Courthouse would cost £50,000.

Mr. W. Dowd said he did not think there was any need to build one. The County Hospital was a very suitable place to have a clinic.

Mr. J. Griffin said the mere remoteness of the County Hospital was against its suitability as a clinic. A child welfare clinic was needed as central as possible.

He was disturbed to hear the Manager say that if they turned to no profit the preliminary work done on Priory House there would be a very long delay before they had a new clinic. If that was so it would have to be remedied immediately.

He did not know where the blame lay as regards Priory House but he thought they should forget about it. He had a feeling a sale might show that its purchase first day was not an unwise move from the property value viewpoint.

"WE SHOULD GET RID OF IT"

"I think that we should get rid of this contentious matter and proceed with all speed towards providing a new central clinic," he said. This is in no way to be regarded as a censure of the officials, but for the sake of harmony we should get rid of this matter.

Mr. W. Collins said he did know the the viewpoint of the members that inspected Priory House was that it was in a deplorable condition and wreaking with fungus or dry rot and unfit as a clinic.

The Manager said that before it was put up for sale, they would have to get the approval of the Dept. of Health.

The Chairman (Mr. W. Kenneally) said that by selling it they might get as much or even more than was paid for it.

The Manager said they should at least get an engineer's opinion on the place now.

Mr. Lannon—Why should we waste money getting an engineer's opinion. We have a valuable opinion too. You would think it was a palace that was in question.

The Manager said the section of the Act regarding the selling of it would have to be read out.

Mr. Lannon—All you're here for is either to stop this motion or for salary increases.

Manager—If there is a loss accruing out of the sale of Priory House, those that voted for selling it will be responsible.

Mr. Lannon—You are a great man on the law when it suits you but we lose 97% of the law actions involving the County Council and the Health Authority.

Manager—I am bound to bring to your notice the laws relating to this matter. That is all I want to do.

Mr. Lannon—He's trying to scare us.

Manager—I am not. The Secretary, Mr. J. A. Hynes, then read out the act.

Mr. Lannon said they were not taking an illegal action. The Minister would have to approve it.

Mr. Griffin—This Act refers to reserved functions. Is Priory House reserved to the Manager.

Manager—No.

Mr. Curran's proposal to sell Priory House was then put to the meeting and passed (subject to the Dept's sanction).

The voting was: For—Messrs. Curran, Lannon, Dowd, Fahey, N. Walsh, Cahill, Galgey, Kenneally, Gallagher Browne, Griffin, Collins (12).

Against—Messrs. Foran, Roche, Quirke, Madden Power (5).

KILMATHOMAS NOTES

Worthy Member of a highly respected family that first saw the light here in the Mahon-straddling little town, is Mr. John Kiely, who is Consulting Engineer to the British Government in Africa. Sean, as he is familiarly known, and his English-born wife Chrissy, who is at present on holidays with him are visiting the local sites.

All Prosperity and happiness to Miss Joan Power (daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Power, Kealfoun, Kilmathomas) and Mr. William Murphy, Portarlinton, who were married in the Parish Church, Tramore, where the ceremony (with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing) was performed by Rev. Fr. Virgilius Power, New York, U.S.A. (uncle of the bride). The reception was held in the Grand Hotel, Tramore, from where the happy couple afterwards set forth for Jersey Island on their honeymoon, and they were given a great send-off.

Progress—Good to learn that amicable Mrs. D. Kirwan, Main Street, Kilmathomas, is about to open a Ladies Hair-Dressing Salon (trading under the name of Lou).

Holidaying in Bonmahon these days is Co. Cork-born Dr. W. P. Tierney, M.O., Graignamannagh, Co. Kil-

TALLOW NOTES

DEATH OF MRS. MARY AHERNE

We regret to record the death of Mrs. Mary Aherne, Mogeely, Conna, which occurred at the Bon Secour Hospital, Cork, on Friday, 19th July, after a brief illness and at an early age. Deceased was a native of Ballyduff Upper and was a lady much admired for her many amiable qualities. She was held in high regard by a large circle of friends and acquaintances, and her demise is deeply regretted.

The remains, accompanied by a huge cortege, were removed to St. Catherine's Church, Conna, on Saturday evening. And the funeral took place to Ballynoe Cemetery on Sunday. Very Rev. Fr. Ryan, P.P., Conna, Rev. Fr. Finn, C.C., do., and Rev. Fr. Higgins, C.C., Ballynoe, officiated.

The chief mourners were: Mr. William Aherne (husband); Messrs. John and William Aherne (sons); Mrs. J. Aherne (daughter-in-law).

TALLOW LIBRARY NEWS

A large change of book-stocks has just been carried out at Tallow branch library, with a view to giving the widest choice to all sections.

All interested in becoming members should apply during the above-mentioned hours to Mrs. M. Sheehan, Convent St. Branch Librarian.

SHAMROCKS PRIMARY TEAM LOSE

The Shamrocks primary hurling team suffered a severe defeat by Ring at Cappoquin on Sunday. They were no match for the speedier and more experienced Ring side.

TALLOW LAWN TENNIS CLUB

Tallow Lawn Tennis Club travelled to Dungarvan on Sunday last for a friendly tournament game with the local Club.

I.C.A. OUTING

Tallow Guild of the I.C.A. went on their annual outing last week. Upwards of thirty members travelled by bus. The first stop was Tramore and from there to Waterford city. At the latter place they were shown over Waterford Flour Mills by the Manager and were treated to tea. The party later dined at Breen's Hotel. The outing was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

GAME POSTPONED

The Tallow v. Fourmilewater junior hurling championship game, billed for Cappoquin on Sunday last, was postponed owing to the Waterford county senior goalie Ned Power being engaged with the local team. With the Munster senior hurling championship final on Sunday next, the chance could not be taken that Ned might get injured.

HOME FROM ENGLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Nicholson and child will arrive from England this weekend to spend a holiday here. Mr. Nicholson is son of Mr. T. Nicholson, Tircullen, Tallow. His wife is a native of Rathmore, Co. Kerry. Mr. Nicholson is employed as bus driver with the City of Birmingham Transport Co.

IN HOSPITAL

Mr. Michael Keane, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. Keane, Ballymote, is at present in the Dungarvan District Hospital. A

SALMON SEASON

The season for capture of salmon by weirs and all types of nets will close at midnight on Wednesday next, 31st July. While the grilse were not as numerous as last year for the final month, still it is expected that when final figures are available the season will be classed as being one of the best for a number of years as far as the quality of salmon and grilse is concerned. Salmon are averaging over 11 lb. and grilse over 6 lb.

Last week catches all round with the exception of Knockadoon, were exceptionally good although net men were hampered in their operations by the seaweed menace. Last week's price to net men was salmon, 5/- and grilse, 3/6. The most last week in Youghal accounted for 122 fish.

YOUGHAL REGATTA REVIVAL

Since the filming of "Moby Dick" in 1954 Youghal did not have such a large gathering as on Sunday last for the Regatta and Fireworks display. After a lapse of over 20 years this event proved very successful despite the dull and foggy weather, and the number of spectators was beyond all expectations. Great credit is due to the energetic committee responsible for the organising and running of the event. The Mall and all quays were packed to capacity.

Results:—Four Oar Salmon Yawls, winner, M. Buttiner and crew; Double-Scull Pleasure—O. O'Connell and F. Beirne; Salmon Yawl (outboard motors)—D. O'Keefe; School Boys Pair Oared race—O'Connell and P. Beirne; 16 ft. Yacht Race—No. 5 of the Dungarvan Harbour Club (the other competitors failing to complete the course due to lack of wind); Ladies' two oared race—E. O'Riordan and Clare Collins; Pleasure Boats (Outboard Motors)—C. Roddy; Eight Oar Outriggers—Fermoy Boat Club; Pleasure Boats (inboard motor)—C. Watkins; Men's Open swimming race (100 yds.)—D. Murphy; Boy's swimming race (under 16)—Oliver O'Connell; Girl's Swimming race (under 16)—Clare O'Connell; Pig and Po'e—P. Kelly.

In between the events there were water skiing demonstrations by Colonel Grubb of Clogheen and Mr. Michael most popular young man and a playing member of Shamrocks hurling team. We wish him a speedy recovery.

ON HOLIDAY FROM U.S.

Recent visitors from the United States to these parts were Mr. and Mrs. M. Healy. Mr. Healy is a native of Macroom, Co. Cork, whilst his wife was, before her marriage Miss M. Nugent, Ballysaggart, Lismore. During their stay they will visit many places of interest. We wish them a pleasant holiday.

Sargent of Cappoquin. A musical recital was given on the river by the Christian Brothers piano accordion and flagolet band of 80 members. The local lifeboat under coxswain Dick Hickey cruised the harbour during the regatta. In the Market Dock the Cork Red Cross gave a wonderful display of lifesaving. The prizes were presented by Very Rev. C. Canon Sheenan, P.P., Youghal, Mr. Gerald Gallagher acted as judge and Mr. Liam St. John Devlin as starter. That evening at 10.30 there was a magnificent display of fireworks from the Ferryport that proved to be a great attraction.

PRETTY WEDDING

The wedding took place last week at the University Church, Cork, of Mr. Daniel Dineen, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Dineen, of Cappagh, and Miss Catherine Cronin, N.T., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Cronin of Castletownroche. The ceremony with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing was performed by Rev. J. Cronin, C.C. (brother of the bride) assisted by Rev. D. Reidy, C.C., Youghal (cousin of the bride), Rev. P. Dineen, C.C., Castletownroche, Rev. Fr. Halley, P.P., Modeligo; Rev. C. O'Sullivan, C.C., Youghal and Rev. Fr. Verling, C.C., Ballyhooley. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a full length gown of Swiss flamenco brocade with a sweeping train and carried a bouquet of red roses. The bridesmaids her two sisters Misses Sileen and Margaret Cronin who wore dresses of elfin and Flamenco brocade and they carried bouquets of cream roses. Mr. Frank Mulcahy was bestman, groomsmen Mr. Thomas O'Shea and Messrs. Austin Fenton and Denis Cronin acted as ushers at the Church. Miss Mary Crowley, Youghal, presided at the organ. The bride is well-known in Youghal being a National Teacher at Gortree Schools. After a reception at the Metropolitan Hotel, Cork, the happy couple left for their honeymoon to be spent in Jersey.

HOME ON HOLIDAY

Following a well-deserved holiday in Youghal with her family Rev. Mother Ambrose (Cox) returned last week to Kesh, Co. Londonderry. After a short stay there she will leave for Makeni where the Sisters of St. Joseph opened a foundation in 1956 and where they are now opening a new secondary school. Rev. Mother Ambrose is the youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Cox of Anmount, Upper Strand, Youghal, and formerly of Middleton.

NEW TROPHY FOR YOUGHAL TRACK

Last week during the interval in racing at Youghal Greyhound Track, Mr. J. W. O'Callaghan, Cork Area Manager of Messrs. Guinness & Co. presented Mr. Donald Sweeney, the well-known Chairman of the Track Committee with a handsome new trophy for the track's feature event, the Blackwater Cup and in doing so said it was the first time his company had done anything for greyhound racing. They had much pleasure in presenting the trophy to the Youghal track and wished it every success. The feature of the night was the hat-trick for the well-known Pungourney trainer, Jerry Townsend who won the 3rd 4th and 5th races with Kerogue Patsy, Rosy All Over and Flying Dream.

FEWER CORK VISITORS

Of the large crowd of visitors to Youghal on Sunday last very few came from Cork city due to the prohibitive fare of 9/2. Over 1000 travelled from Mallow and were facilitated by being able to hear Mass at the Church of Our Lady of Lourdes which is close to the Railway Station.

SITE FOR EAST CORK FOOD PLANT

It is learned that the site for the new fruit and vegetable processing factory of the Irish Sugar Company will be at the old Flour Mills at Avonmore, Mill Road, Middleton. The work of reconstruction and conversion is said to commence in about two months time. Recently over 200 persons were interviewed at Middleton for the position of trainees when ten were selected, all from East Cork, who are to train as operatives at the Company's factories at Mallow, Tuam, Carlow and Thurles. It is expected that the new factory will be in full operation within twelve months.

ORDINATION

Rev. Raymond Thomas Power, O.Carm., was raised to the priesthood at Holy Cross College, Clonliffe, Dublin, on Sunday last by his Grace Most Rev. John C. McQuaid, D.D., Archbishop of Dublin and Primate of Ireland. Fr. Power, a Youghal man is son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Power, of Clock Gate, Youghal, and received his earlier education at the Youghal Christian Bros. Schools. He celebrated his first Mass at the Presentation Chapel, Youghal, after which the reception was held at the Green Park Hotel.

DUNGARVAN CIRCUIT COURT

JUDGE SEAN MAC D.

FAWSITT upheld a claim by John J. Watson, 8 Coast Guard Station, Youghal, for damages for trespass against Thos. Cummins, Ballyvooney Stradbally, at Tuesday's Circuit Court sittings in Dungarvan. He dismissed a counter claim by Cummins, seeking an injunction to give him a right of way through the plaintiffs lands at Ballyvooney.

Mr. Sean Brosnan, B.L. (for Watson, said the defendant (Cummins) was seeking a declaration entitling him to a right of way over Watson's land. The plaintiff got the land from his uncle in 1960. In 1954 his uncle gave up the lands and let the grazing of them to the defendant. The defendant has been trespassing on the field which he alleges is a right of way.

Mr. John J. Watson (44) said he purchased the lands from his uncle in 1960 for £1,500. In May, 1960 (before he purchased the land) he had a discussion with the defendant about the right of way. He also discussed the alleged right-of-way with his uncle. Mr. Morris B.L. (for Cummins) said it seemed that if Cummins did not get the right of way his field would be useless to him. The plaintiff had land all round this field and this was why he would not give the defendant the right of way. His client would say in evidence that he got several razor blades when taking down a gap that was put up to prevent him going across the right of way.

The plaintiff said he would swear that he never put razor blades in the gap. A Mr. Power put up the gap and he gave him no orders to use razor blades.

Mrs. Kathleen Watson, wife of the plaintiff said she was present in 1960 when a conversation took place between her husband and the defendant. Cummins said he would never have taken land only for he had the use of the right of way. The defendant (Mr. Thomas Cummins) said he got his land from his uncle (Mr. James Cummins). His land was bordered on two sides by Watsons land; on a third side by the sea and on a fourth side by a boreen which you could not pass up with machinery. His earliest recollection of the right-of-way being used was the early 1930's. He never got permission to use the right of way and it was only in April 1962 that Watson put up a gap. He removed it and in doing so found safety blades (produced in Court) and glass.

Cross-examined by Mr. Brosnan (for the plaintiff) witness denied ever offering James Power £2,000 for the lands now owned by Watson. He did not know that Mr. Power was anxious that Watson should have the land rather than himself. He did not remember any discussion taking place in Watson's house about the right-of-way.

Mr. James Christopher (78) said he lived near the lands in dispute. He knew James Power who once owned them. He knew the defendant's uncle and he used the right-of-way around 1920. He (James Cummins senr.) got the use of the right of way from James Power. He had told him that. Mr. Brosnan—I am suggesting this was put into your head. Witness—By whom? Mr. Brosnan—I do not know but by somebody. Witness—I did not come here to-day to take a false oath.

He admitted he was asked by the defendant to give evidence. He was not told by plaintiff costs and expenses. Mr. Wm. O'Donnell, B.E., said he visited the land. Machinery could not possibly be brought in to clear it for such a purpose would cost at a minimum £300.

Mr. Morris said it seemed from the evidence that permission was given in 1920 to use the right of way.

Judge Fawsitt said the defendant had failed to satisfy him that he was entitled to the relief of the right of way. He gave a decree for 1/- and gave an injunction restraining the defendant from trespass. He also allowed the plaintiff costs an d expenses and dismissed the defendant's counter-claim. He allowed a stay on the event of an appeal.

Mr. Brosnan B.L. (instructed by J. F. Williams, Solrs. Dungarvan) was for the plaintiff. Mr. F. Morris, B.L. (instructed by E. A. Ryan & Co. Solrs. Dungarvan) was for the defendant.

FOREIGN LAND-BUYERS AGAIN CRITICISED

It was very wrong if a foreigner with inflated capital could come in and dump milk on the market, and put local farmers out of business. This was stated at last Saturday's Committee of Agriculture meeting by Mr. Richard Walsh, when for the second time in recent months the buying of Irish land by foreigners was condemned.

Mr. Walsh said there was not a moral justified case for foreigners to buy up the land of Ireland, while farmers sons were emigrating. There was a very serious in his area (Passage East) and if developed, their Committee might have to take a line of action—which he hoped would side with the small farmer.

"A German," he said, "has bought a very substantial farm on the outskirts of Waterford and intends to go into liquid milk production. This is already over-supplied in Waterford and it will be very wrong if a foreigner with inflated capital can come in and dump milk on this market, and put others out of business. He has gone to the Department of Agriculture and was told he would get the same co-operation as the Irish."

"But if he is given any advantages we will have to take a very serious view of it. It is time for the people to put their foot down. I would like this Committee to send a resolution to the Minister saying we do not approve of this happening."

Mr. Dowd: There is only one man worse than the foreigner who buys Irish land and that is the man that sells it to him.

Mr. Galgey said the Minister

Council Extend Sympathy

At last Saturday's meeting of Waterford Committee of Agriculture, Mr. Michael Hart proposed a vote of sympathy to the relatives of the late Johnny Ryan, Park Tee, Dungarvan. The late Mr. Ryan, he said, had given great service to the County Council.

Votes of sympathy were also extended to the Clancy family, Castle Farm, Ballyduff and the Ryan family, Coole, Ballysaggart, on their recent bereavements.

Local Man's Appeal Dismissed

HE would not tolerate assaults on Gardai in dance hall when they were trying to keep the peace, said Judge Sean Mac D. Fawcitt at Dungarvan Circuit Court on Tuesday when dismissing an appeal by John McCarthy (22) Cathal Brugha Place, Dungarvan, against the six month prison sentence imposed on him at the District Court on July 10th.

Dr. R. Counahan, prosecuting for the Attorney General, said the appellant was appealing against the jail sentence imposed on him for assaulting Garda P. Feeney in the local dance hall on July 6th.

RECEIVED SEVERE BLOWS

Garda Peter J. Feeney said as the result of a report he went with Sgt. Hayes to a dance in Dungarvan Town Hall at about 12.30 a.m. on July 5th-6th. He saw a row taking place in which the appellant and a Michael McCarthy and Patrick Costigan were involved. He approached Michael McCarthy and received several blows on the face and body from him. In an effort to arrest Michael McCarthy he was dragged and pushed by the appellant. He was pushed from the dancing compound on to the street.

To Mr. F. Morris, B.L. (for appellant) witness said Michael McCarthy and Costigan were the ring-leaders that night.

Mr. Morris—Both Michael McCarthy and Patrick Costigan had long records. This boy (John McCarthy) has only been in trouble once, and that was a few years ago.

Dr. Counahan said the appellant was convicted on December 14th, 1955, of stealing two identification plates. He was given the benefit of the P.O.A.

DANCING ON FLOOR

The Appellant (John McCarthy) said he was employed in England this year. He came home on three weeks holidays and was to go back one week after the incident. He was at home on the night of the row at 11.30 when his mother asked him to go down the town for his brother Michael. He went into the dance hall and saw Michael dancing on the floor, with Patrick Costigan. He asked Michael was he going home.

To Judge Fawcitt, witness said he paid 3/- going into the dance.

Continuing he said he saw a Garda in civilian clothes holding his brother. He did not then know he was a Guard. He (witness) caught him and pushed him back. Two Guards then caught his brother. They (McCarthy's) each got six months at the District Court.

Mr. Morris, B.L.—If you get a chance what will you do?

Witness—I will go back to England to work. I have a brother there and I can live with him. I want to apologise to the people running the dance.

Dr. Counahan (to appellant) Did you see two Guards in uniform?

Dr. Counahan—And you assaulted Garda Feeney who was in uniform.

Judge Fawcitt said everyone paid good money to go to the dance to enjoy themselves and what did they get? A fracas.

Mrs. McCarthy, mother of the appellant said her son John was at home the night of the dance. She sent him out to look for her other son Michael. In the dance hall John hit Michael a few bells and told him to go home. Michael hit him back. John was regularly employed in England.

HARSH

Mr. Morris said the other two involved in the row were bad characters and the appellant felt it was harsh on him to get the same sentence as them. He asked the Justice to take into account that he (John McCarthy) was in bad company that night. It was too severe to give him six months hard labour and he would ask to give him the opportunity of going back to England to give him a suspensory sentence.

BIG ROW

Judge Fawcitt said he was satisfied Garda Feeney was assaulted. During this hearing he could not help remarking about people going to a dance to enjoy themselves and what they had seen was a big row with three men fighting. A Guard was assaulted and dragged in the course of his duties.

This man, he said, has already stolen identification plates and got the P.O.A. when he ought to have realised he committed an offence. I will not tolerate assaults in dance halls on Guards, when they are trying to keep the peace. The six months sentence stands. Take him away.

Dr. R. Counahan, State Solicitor, was for the Attorney General.

Mr. F. Morris, B.L., instructed by E. A. Ryan & Co. Solicitors, Dungarvan, appeared for the appellant.

Lismore Notes

DEATH OF MR. PATRICK RYAN

It is with deep and sincere regret we record the death of Mr. Patrick Ryan, Coole, Ballysaggart, which sad event occurred at Lismore District Hospital on Thursday morning last July 18th. Deceased, gentleman, who was more popularly known to his friends as "Pad," enjoyed perfect health up to a short time ago and his passing at a comparatively young age, has been regretted by all. He was a prominent member of the farming community and was held in the highest esteem by all who knew him and to his sorrowing relatives and friends we tender our deepest sympathy on their great loss.

The remains were removed to St. Mary's Church, Ballysaggart, on Thursday evening and were received and blessed by Rev. Fr. Quaealy, C.C., Lismore, assisted by Rev. Fr. Quaealy, C.C., Lismore and the burial took place in the adjoining cemetery on Thursday morning following Requiem Mass, which was offered for the happy repose of his soul. The same clergy also officiated at the graveside. Large numbers of sympathisers attended both funeral and burial.

DEPUTY DAVERN IN THE DAIL

Deputy M. J. Davern asked the Minister for Lands if he was aware that certain persons in South Tipperary are purchasing large tracts of land from capital not derived out of agricultural activity, and are creating vast ranches, despite the efforts of the Land Commission to bring about an equal distribution of land in the constituency, and thus give an opportunity to young men to earn a livelihood in their own country; and if he would, by legislation or otherwise, limit the number of acres any person can hold.

The Minister replied that if the Deputy would be good enough to furnish additional information, including particulars of the land concerned, to enable the persons referred to in the first part of the question to be identified, he would ask the Land Commission to have enquiries made in the matter.

CONGRATULATIONS

Our hearty congratulations are extended to Mr. Sean Wronjhan, N.T., B.A., Parks Rd., Lismore, who received his H.Dip.Sc. recently at University College, Cork. Mr. Wronjhan is attached to Mt. Mellervav National School is one of the most popular persons in the area and is a prominent playing member of St. Mary's hurling and football clubs.

OPEN TO PUBLIC

By kind permission of the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire, Lismore Castle and Gardens will be open to the public from 2.30 to 6 p.m. on Sunday next, 28th July, in aid of the Lismore District Nursing Association.

DEATH OF MR. JOHN LYONS

The death occurred at Dungarvan Hospital on Tuesday last week, 16th July, of Mr. John Lyons, Logea, Ballysaggart. The deceased gentleman who had reached a very old age, was a member of the farming community. He was a favourite with both young and old and his passing has caused much regret. He

WEST WATERFORD NOTES

DEATH OF MRS. M. DOOCEY

The death occurred last week of Mrs. Margaret Doocey Kilgibriel, Clashmore. A member of a well known family, deceased was a very popular member of the community and her passing has caused deep and widespread regret, while much sympathy is extended to her husband and family and other relatives.

The funeral to Clashmore cemetery was of large and representative proportions. Fr. M. J. Russell, C.C., officiating.

LATE MR. T. COUGHLIN

Deep and widespread regret has been occasioned by the death of Mr. Thomas Coughlin, Coolbogh, Clashmore. A popular and respected member of the farming community, deceased was known for his many amiable characteristics. To his bereaved family sincere sympathy is extended.

The funeral to Clashmore Cemetery was one of the largest, and most representative ever seen in the area and included mourners from many parts of west Waterford and east Cork as well as several public representatives. Rev. M. J. Russell, C.C., Clashmore officiated, assisted by Very Rev. D. McGrath, P.P., Kilgobinet.

POPULAR PRIEST TRANSFERRED

The recent transfer of Rev. J. Griffin, C.C., has occasioned much regret in the combined parishes of Ardmore and Grange, where he proved such a zealous and devoted priest and was very popular. He was actively associated with every movement for the spiritual and temporal betterment of the people and was chairman of the local G.A.A. Club and Development Association. His numerous friends join in wishing him well in his new sphere of duty.

AGRICULTURAL APPOINTMENT

The decision to appoint an Agricultural Instructor for the Aghish-Ardmore and Clashmore area, will be welcomed by all concerned. Since the position was vacated by Mr. J. Curran, B.Agr.Sc. about two years ago, the area has been without a full time instructor and was served by Mr. J. A. Fenton, B.Agr.Sc., who also had to cover the Dungarvan area.

O.A.P. MEETING

A meeting of Youghal No. 2 (Rural) O.A.P. Committee, was held at Clashmore recently. Mr. J. Cass presided and other members present were Messrs. T. Bagge, D. Lehane, J. Veale, J. Curran, C. Curran, M.C.C., P. Cummins, ham and Mrs. Foley (Clerk). One claimant was granted a weekly pension of 32/6, another 17/6 per week while a third claim was refused.

LOCAL MEN SECURE POSTS

Congratulations are extended to Messrs. John J. O'Mahoney, Clashmore and William Lenane, Grange, on their appointment to the staff of Cork Health Authority. Both young men are very popular in this area and their many friends join in wishing them success.

CLASHMORE WOMAN'S DEATH

We regret to announce the death of Miss Bridget O'Brien Clashmore, deceased, who was noted for her kindness and many admirable qualities, was very popular among all sections of the community, who mourn her passing. Her bereaved brother and other relatives have been the recipients of much sympathy.

The funeral to the old cemetery, Clashmore, was attended by a very large gathering of mourners. Rev. M. J. Russell, C.C., officiated, assisted by Very Rev. D. McGrath, P.P., Kilgobinet.

ARDMORE "PATTERN"

The annual "Pattern" in commemoration of St. Declan patron of the area, has been in progress in Ardmore this week. Each evening devotees of the Saint were to be seen performing the "rounds" amidst the ruins of the old cathedral and visiting St. Declan's Holy Well nearby.

THE HOLY WELL

According to Cavan Power's "Life of St. Declan," the Holy Well at Ardmore was that used by the Saint and his monks and was blessed by him a short time before his death. This was towards the end of the 5th century and since then the well has been known as "St. Declan's Holy Well."

AGLISH F.F. CUMANN

A meeting of above was held on Saturday night last and several matters concerning the welfare of the area were discussed. The meeting was addressed by Mr. John Fahey, M.C.C.

ON HOLIDAY

Enjoying a holiday in his native Clashmore at present is Mr. John Ronayne, who is accompanied by his wife and family. Mr. Ronayne, who is a former well known Gaelic footballer, is an official of London transport.

News

DONATIONS TO CHARITY

Among charitable bodies to receive donations, recently from the I.C.A. Guild are: The Institute for Mentally Handicapped children; Waterford Institute for the Blind, Dublin, and Campaign against Hunger. Receipts from these bodies were on view at the last meeting. To raise further funds for the Campaign Against Hunger the guild members will hold a raffle in the near future.

ROWING

Our own men (senior four) rowing in the Ladies' Plate at Limerick Regatta on Saturday afternoon defeated won much praise for their spirited bid for honours against the famous Lady Elizabeth Boat Club four. Participating in the event were seven of the country's leading crews. From the outset it was obvious that the race lay between our oarsmen and the ex-Trinity crew, as both contested the lead. At the half-way stage Cappoquin took the lead which they held until the Dublin crew went ahead three feet from the winning post. It was the closest and most exciting finish in a splendid day's rowing.

Competing in the first heat of the senior eight championship the "dark blues" did not qualify.

HURLING PROMOTION

Next month, on a date yet to be fixed, a challenge match between the county senior hurling teams of Cork and Waterford will take place here. As is easy to understand the date of the match will not be fixed until the Munster final has been played. The local club's field renovation fund will benefit from the gate receipts.

G.A.A. RESULTS

Played here on Sunday last was the primary hurling game in which Ring beat Shamrocks 10-4 to 3-3.

The minor football game, Ballinacoola v. Colligan, fixed for here on Monday evening was not played as Colligan failed to field out. The match consequently goes to Ballinacoola who advance to the next round.

MID-WEEK DANCES

The promoters of the mid-week dances in the Boat House regret that owing to the unavoidable absence of the band, last Wednesday's session had to be abandoned. The dances will continue to be held regularly.

ON ANNUAL HOLIDAYS

Very Rev. Canon Thomas Kearney, P.P., St. Ignatius's, Wishaw, Scotland, who recently celebrated the Diamond Jubilee of his ordination, is now enjoying his annual holidays in his native Glasha, Ballymacarby.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations are extended to Mr. Jeremiah Coffey, Scart, Ballinacool, and Miss Margaret Condon, Ballymacarby, on the occasion of their marriage, which took place at the Cathedral, Waterford, on Tuesday of last week.

RETURNED TO ENGLAND

Mr. Pat McCarthy who flew home to attend the funeral of his father, the late Mr. John McCarthy, Skeehens, Ballymacarby, has returned to London to resume work.

F.C.A. NEWS

Members of the Ballymacarby F.C.A. Unit are now undergoing a two weeks training course at the summer camp.

WON GAELIC SCHOLARSHIP

Congratulations to Miss Cait Cotter, Packendarra, Ballinacool, who was amongst the list of pupils of the Dungarvan Technical School to be awarded Gaelic Scholarships.

CROSS-CHANNEL VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Howell are currently spending holidays at Mr. Howell's parental home at Bleantis, Ballinacool.

Holidaying amongst their relatives and friends in Touraneena and Ballymacarby are Mr. and Mrs. James Heaphy. They are accompanied by Mrs. Heaphy's brother Michael Walsh, Skeehens, Ballymacarby.

Mr. Fahey Questions Prices of Potatoes

SPEAKING at last Saturday's meeting of Waterford Committee of Agriculture, Mr. John Fahey said something was wrong where the marketing of early potatoes in Ballinacourt was concerned.

"The purchaser is not getting a fair deal," he said. "Potatoes were being sold at £11 to £15 a ton in Ballinacourt, while they were being sold at 5/- a stone in Clonmel. It is shocking to see such a difference in price. The growers are not getting a proper return and the consumer is paying through the nose. Something should be done to improve the market."

Mr. R. Walsh said he could not agree with Mr. Fahey. Last year there was a potato famine on the continent and now the price of them had collapsed all round.

Mr. W. Foran, the position as Mr. Fahey described it is correct.

Mr. G. Heskin: It is all a question of supply and demand.

Mr. Galgey said potatoes in Dunmore could be sold at any price. The consumer today could pick and choose. "It the consumer wanted 'good material'." Some people thought they had nothing to do but stick them in the ground and then sell them off. If you had good potatoes you could get any price for them.

Mr. R. Walsh said it was no use producing unless there was a market.

Mr. Fahey said the point he was making was that they would have a market if the people in towns could buy them at a reasonable price.

The discussion then ended.

FARM WALK FOR BANK OFFICIALS

On Tuesday, a large party of Banking officials from the South East was conducted on a farm walk in Co. Waterford by Agronomists from Goulding Fertilisers Ltd. Thirty Managers and representatives from most of the Irish Banks attended and they were very interested in viewing progress on a medium sized farm which was purchased four years ago and on which credit facilities had been used to develop it to a high degree of efficiency.

The party was welcomed by Mr. Kevin O'Kelly, Chief Agronomist to Gouldings, who drew attention to the need for and good uses to which credit can be applied on a developing farm where a well planned system is in operation. The economy of the farm which was viewed depends on creamery milk production with pigkeeping as a second enterprise. Mr. J. J. Kissane, the Goulding Agronomist for the Waterford area showed how a high yielding herd could be maintained on grass alone by the use of properly managed pastures and silage facilities for winter feeding. They were interested in seeing how pig fattening was integrated with dairying which supplied skim milk for feeding back to the pigs after the cream was retained for butter making.

The banking officials showed a keen interest in the general layout of the farm, but they were particularly interested in gaining information on costings and long-term planning. Mr. P. J. Conroy, C.A.O., Co. Waterford Committee of Agriculture, who was present, was thanked by Mr. O'Kelly for the co-operation of his staff who helped in planning the farm walk. Branch Managers from the following banks attended: Bank of Ireland, National Provincial, Munster and Leinster, Hibernian, and Ulster.

DEPUTY DAVERN IN THE DAIL

Deputy M. J. Davern asked the Minister for Agriculture if he was aware of the growing demand for an auxiliary creamery, or separating station at Ballysaggart, Lismore, Co. Waterford; and if, in view of the very severe charges made on dairy farmers for conveyance of their milk to the creamery, he will have a suitable auxiliary creamery built in the area.

The Minister replied that when this matter was investigated two years ago by the Irish Agricultural Organisation Society it appeared that the arrangements for the cartage of milk from the Ballysaggart area to existing creameries were reasonably satisfactory. It is of course open to the dairy farmers of the area to ask the I.A.O.S. to review the position again.

N.F.A. NEWS President's Address to A.G.M.

"SUBSTANTIAL steps forward towards the goal of a cohesive system of farmer organisation in Ireland were made during the past year by our Association," said Mr. R. Deasy, President at the annual General Meeting, held recently. However, there is as yet no clearly defined government agricultural policy, no development plan for agriculture as the dominant partner in our national economy. Present and past Government caution has ruled the day.

"At home," he said, "we have had a further decisive growth in membership. This has enabled us to take significant steps forward in strengthening our staff on the lines indicated by our Management Consultants, who completed their assignment during the past year.

"We have been fortunate in securing the services of Mr. Patrick Harnett, M.R.C.V.S., the former Director of Veterinary Services in the Department of Agriculture, who recently joined us as Livestock Consultant. We have also been able to appoint a qualified Chief Accountant who will join us next month, and we have been able to agree, after intensive search, on the selection of a Chief Organiser to take up duty very shortly.

"All these developments have been founded on the growth of our membership. In another home field too it is possible to record progress. We are all happy that it has proved possible in recent months to arrive at satisfactory arrangements with the Agricultural Association of Ireland and the Leinster Milk Producers. We welcome them sincerely."

N.F.A. Backs Macra na Feirme.—Referring to Macra na Feirme, he said, "I would like to pay a tribute to the work of Macra na Feirme in the training and education of youth. In every sense we regard their work in the educational field as complementary to our own in the economic field. We are glad to hear of Macra's progress and we trust that this will mean that numbers of young farmers who with the stimulation and leadership training provided by their membership of Macra will gradually become available for service in economic agricultural activities. As we see it, a constant inflow of new, trained potential leaders into N.F.A. is necessary, but it is to us a matter of equal necessity that each individual should choose for himself the economic organisation to which he can with conviction devote himself in the years ahead.

"In this spirit I feel that we must, as between N.F.A. and Macra, renew our understanding of one another. N.F.A. should do everything within our power actively to assist the progress of Macra na Feirme.

Irish Farmers' Journal.—"We have been able to cement the old informal ties which linked N.F.A. and the Irish Farmers' Journal into a formal relationship, founded on a common basic philosophy towards the development of Irish Agriculture. In welcoming this new arrangement as something which strengthens the cause of agricultural progress and offers great possibilities for the future, I would like to reiterate to the part played by the Chairman of the Board of the Journal, Mr. J. Mooney, and also by the Directors of the Irish Farmers' Journal which made this agreement possible."

Enormous Uncertainties.—He expressed his thanks to Committee Members and to the Staff for their work during the year and pointed out that "the work of the Committee reveals in almost every instance the uncertainties of Government agricultural policy. It is apparent that there is as yet no clearly defined Government agricultural policy, even for the key commodities of livestock, dairy products and cereals.

Three Great Tasks.—"The third great immediate task," he concluded, "is essentially 'ecumenical' in character. This is already under way. These then are the tasks we face. To undertake them we have a continuously expanding membership, we have a loyal and devoted staff who have given us another year of unstinted and loyal service. "We have the encouragement of an expanding circle of friends, and above all, we have an intangible but valuable asset in the growing volume of thought outside the Association, which is coming to accept our view that only with planned agricultural expansion in balance with the growth of the rest of the economy can we secure the future of Ireland."

Irish Milk for Pakistan.—250 tons of full cream milk powder has been sent to East Pakistan. It will be used to relieve victims of the recent cyclone there and is being made available under the World Food Programme. As contributors to this Programme we have pledged £214,000 in commodities and £86,000 in cash. The delivery of this powder is in answer to an urgent call from the Pakistan Government. Common Market.—Last week the Council of Ministers of E.E.C. agreed in Brussels on procedure on future contacts between the Six and Britain. Henceforth a meeting will take place every three months at Ministerial level within the framework of the Western European Union. Rust-Proofing.—A new chemical rust-proofing coating has been announced in England. The surface to be protected is wire-brushed and freed of grease and dirt, but any firmly attached rust need not be removed. The surface can even be wet. It is then brushed or sprayed on and forms a suitable base for any paint. Pipes treated ten years ago in an experiment, still show no signs of rust. Herefords for Russia.—275 pure bred hereford cattle have been bought in Canada by the Soviet Union. In Ireland we have some outstanding stock and one cannot help wondering whether an energetic approach by parties concerned could not help reduce the present unsatisfactory balance of trade between us and that country.

Land Sales to Non-Nationals.—"We require also an income balance in which farm family income keeps pace with the income increases of the other sectors. "Again, while it is true that we have as a Government concept 45 acres of good land as the standard of a viable holding, we have not yet as a country developed this into a policy which tells us how we raise some 20,000 holdings from under 30 acres to the target figure. Nor have we in this context faced objectively to the control of sales of agricultural land to non-nationals, which, when the truth is fully revealed, may well be found to run as high as 10 - 12,000 acres.

"Caution has therefore ruled the day without either a sufficient examination of the long term ill-effects to our economy of undiluted caution in the sphere of Irish agricultural development, or the benefits to the whole economy if by economic planning, sound organisation, imaginative processing and marketing we can replace caution and stagnation by ordered agricultural expansion.

"This criticism will inevitably be misinterpreted as applying only to the outlook on agriculture of the present government. Let me therefore emphasise that it applies also to former governments, and let me add that neither of the principal opposition parties of Ireland have so far produced anything in the way of an agricultural plan which appears to me to measure up to the requirements of the Irish agricultural problem."

TIPPERARY SEEK REVENGE But Waterford are Taken to Win Fifth Title

EVEN hurling followers without affinity to either Waterford or Tipp. are being gripped in the fever that is rampaging the country in those remaining few days prior to Sunday's Munster final at Limerick. Never can I recall a decider to have captivated all Gaeldom to such a phenomenal extent and a huge influx is expected to the Shannonside City for what may well prove the classic of our hurling year.

Truly there are no greater rivals in the game to-day than Sunday's finalists. Over the past nine months they have twice adorned national headquarters with a brand of skilful hurling artistry that entitles them to stand aloof from all other Counties and now with the coveted Provincial title at stake, coupled with the glittering incentive of a direct entry to the All-Ireland final, one can hardly be accused of over-optimism in predicting a thrilling and pulsating game.

It is as champions — and worthy ones — that Tipp. enters the fray on Sunday. For three long years they have been "monarchs of all they survey" in the south, and should victory be theirs on this occasion, they will have equalled Cork's long-standing record of four titles in a row. Since 1860 they have been models of championship consistency brushing aside with consummate ease the majority of challengers.

But if their record and tradition is emphatic proof of their all-round potency, they are far from being unbeatable. In fact while opinion is sharply divided on the likely outcome Waterford are justifiably entitled to take on the role of favourites. Since their inexplicable dismissal in last year's Munster final, they have gone from strength to strength and the significance of their Oireachtas and League final victories over Tipp. cannot be overlooked.

What of their record and tradition is emphatic proof of their all-round potency, they are far from being unbeatable. Since their inexplicable dismissal in last year's Munster final, they have gone from strength to strength and the significance of their Oireachtas and League final victories over Tipp. cannot be overlooked.

Tipperary will of course, claim that since that May meeting of the sides, they have strengthened considerably by the "advent" of ex-county minor Larry Kiely. Kiely proved in challenge games, and particularly against Cork in the championship that he is an excellent forward and a decided acquisition.

The Glengoleman is now placed on the "forty" with Devaney as "full" and McKenna at top of the right. There is however, considerable doubt about Kiely's availability on Sunday. Injured in the game against Cork, he has been able to participate in only light training sessions, and on Friday night last "broke down" in Thurles. He is still receiving medical treatment and it is as yet not known if he will be able to play. Doubtless, not satisfied with their league final team, they have made other personnel and positional switches. Onto the side at left half-back comes Moycarkey's Pat Ryan in place of the demoted M. Murphy. Ryan earns recognition on the strength of some outstanding games with his club, and this championship debutant faces quite an ordeal in the person of Mick Flannelly.

Donie Nealon's versatility now sends him to midfield to partner Theo English while Jimmy Doyle, Tom Ryan, Sean McLoughlin and Devaney are again the occupants of their League final berths.

CHEASTY'S RETURN As expected, Waterford make only one change from the side that finished the hour against Limerick in the semi-final. Back after his enforced absence comes the indomitable Tom Cheasty to the exclusion of Charlie Ware, with Countyies and now with the coveted Provincial title at stake, coupled with the glittering incentive of a direct entry to the All-Ireland final, one can hardly be accused of over-optimism in predicting a thrilling and pulsating game.

TOM CHEASTY ... in a key duel with Tony Wall.

ney will pose a major problem and the Abbeysider must be at peak form to curb the Borrisaleigh stylist. Against Limerick the usually reliable Byrne was at logger-heads with his stick, but believing that his lapse was only of a temporary nature, he should have the measure of Mackey McKenna, for whom the substitute bench must be looking ominously nearer.

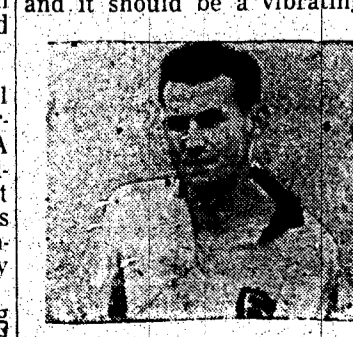

The Waterford half-backs are at present proving a frustrating barrier for all attacks. Tipperary will depend to a major degree on their much vaunted half-forward trio of Doyle, Kiely (if fit) and Ryan, and it should be a battle royal between themselves and Guinan, Morrissey and Irish. In their clashes to-date, Irish has had something of an Indian sign on Jimmy Doyle while it is difficult to see Guinan being beaten by Tom Ryan. Morrissey, like his flankers has been hitting "the high spots," but in Kiely — should he be given the "O.K." he will be confronted by a far better opponent than McKenna.

SUSPECT As I see it, the Waterford midfield is still suspect, and on paper at least Tipp's Theo English and Nealon look superior to the all-Erin's Own pairing of Joe Condon and John Meaney. That Condon, however, can more than hold his own, I have no doubt, and if Meaney gives a repetition of his semi-final display then there may be little in it hereabouts.

Up front the Deise attack is laden with scoring power. Cheasty, if given free way, could well create havoc and despite the headaches he may cause Wall and his co-defenders, his unselfish distribution to his wing-men, Flannelly and Frankie Walsh, is also of incalculable benefit. In the full line, the ageless Philly Grimes, playing greater hurling than ever before, will be Waterford's trump card. To John Doyle falls the assignment of subduing him and it should be a vibrating

What then does Sunday's appealing decider hold? Both Counties are oozing with confidence and not even the word defeat is being contemplated by either. That the issue will hang in perilous doubt right up to the final whistle is — on the evidence of the May league final, the only certainty that seems to prevail. Few can deny that Tipp's title is in real jeopardy but even being mindful of Waterford's undoubted potential, the champions, in keeping with their exalted role of holders, will offer mammoth resistance in defence of their crown.

However, Waterford, with Cheasty returning to spearhead one of the greatest score-getting attacks in the game, are my choice. It is the writer's belief that the Deise half-backs can cut to a minimum the threat from the Top, half-forward trio, while Cheasty, Grimes, Walsh and Power should sufficiently outwire their "opposites" to ensure a Waterford Kilkenny final in Sept. 1st.

FRANKIE WALSH ... his return to form is welcomed.

et that will require whole-time attention. Doyle in particular has been a disappointment this year. He is long overdue a blinder and followers of the blue and gold will be fervently hoping that Sunday will be the day.

KEY QUARTETTE But the more a scrutineer the respective line-outs, the firmer is my belief that four men held the key to victory

REVENGE What of Tipp? Well, I can say from personal knowledge that they do not deny the magnitude of Waterford's challenge. They are blood-thirsty for revenge and anxiously await the game to erase the memories of those Oireachtas and League defeats.

They have, I believe, a mid-field pairing of Theo English and Donie Nealon that could stand up sides with the best. And if Jimmy Doyle and Tom Ryan have been off-colour of late, they are potentially dangerous members of a sextet that will require whole-time attention.

WATERFORD GET THE VOTE But it is my honest viewpoint that what the Ballyduff man did in Croke Park he should be able to do at the Ennis Road. His superiority may not be as clear-cut but going on the basis that he will have a definite edge, my vote goes to Waterford in what I expect to be a final par excellence.

NEED POWER ... again entrusted with the net-minding job.

FOOTBALLERS WERE GALLANT IN DEFEAT Despite their galaxy of "senior personalities" Cork received a rare fright before defeating a gallant Deise side in the under twenty-one football championship at Lismore on Sunday night.

At the end of a hard-fought and at times exciting game 4 points separated the sides, and had lady luck smiled more favourably on a few second-half Waterford efforts, there could well have been a sensational result.

Nevertheless, the overall performance of the team was most gratifying and if kept together should form the nucleus of a side that could take the County out of the football doldrums in the near future.

Thereafter the forwards also foolishly persisted in going for goals, with points there for the taking. This policy was inexplicably pursued right to the end—the net result of which is they have now severed all connections with the championship.

Waterford undoubtedly "created their own defeat in the opening half. In the first ten minutes at least three golden opportunities of goals were frittered away, any of which if successful could well have changed the entire trend of the game.

PHIL GRIMES ... now playing better than ever.

The quartette are Phil Grimes and Tom Cheasty on the one side and John Doyle and Tony Wall on the other. More so, the Wall-Cheasty set-to, and if the Tipp man even divides the spoils, then Waterford could be deprived of their fifth Munster title.

● LIMERICK HERE WE COME

As I write both Tipperary and Waterford have wound up training for Sunday's Munster Hurling Final at Limerick. Weeks of intensive pre-match preparations have geared both these great rivals for a mighty onslaught on the coveted provincial crown and a crowd that should tax the Ennis Road venue to the limit is expected for a game that has all Gaeldom agog with expectancy.

Tipperary, the holders will be endeavouring to equal Cork's long-standing record of four titles in a row. In Munster championship hurling they have not suffered defeat since '59, when coincidentally enough the men of the Deise were their conquerors.

And yet, despite their imposing record within the confines of their own province, they will, if anything be regarded as slight outsiders on Sunday. That position—surely in itself a compliment to Waterford's hurling status, is no doubt due to the Deies all conquering displays in arduous Oireachtas and League campaigns. In both these glory competitions they met and defeated the All-Ireland champions and in a manner that hallmarks them as one of the best, if not the best, sides in the game.

What then does Sunday's appealing decider hold? Both Counties are oozing with confidence and not even the word defeat is being contemplated by either. That the issue will hang in perilous doubt right up to the final whistle is — on the evidence of the May league final, the only certainty that seems to prevail.
