Dept. Warns Council about Main Roads

A LETTER from the Department of Local Government read at Monday's meeting of the Waterford County Council stated that if the work, which was proposed for main roads in the County by the County Engineer, Mr. J. D. Hally, was not carried out the roads would continue to deteriorate rapidly leading to the loss of the resources in them in the past.

But despite this, the recommendation of Mr. Hally that the Council spend £17,000 (half of which will be recouped from the Government) on main roads in excess of the amount provided in the estimates, was defeated by nine votes to five. The letter from the Department stated: "The Minister is advised that the restoration work which the County Engineer has proposed to undertake in the current year is urgently necessary. A realistic restoration programme on the lines recommended by the County Engineer, can do much to avoid loss and expense. The execution of the work of this nature out of maintenance funds is a common feature in other counties."

"In the circumstances of the case," the letter states, "the Minister would be prepared to accept the reduced provision for County roads made by the Council in the current year, provided the overall rates provision for ordinary road work for main and county roads is maintained, as a minimum, at the 1962/63 level. This is the minimum provision which will be accepted as qualifying for full grants allocated to the Council in the current year. The Council, should, however, have regard to the advice of the County Engineer concerning the need for increasing the provision over last year's level in view of the urgency of the need for undertaking a realistic programme for the preservation of main roads which are showing signs of deterioration. It is also desirable that the provision for surface dressing of main roads should be increased."

Mr. Hally said the condition of the roads (main) throughout the county was going to deteriorate if they were not maintained. If the roads did not get attention they were going to deteriorate with the heavy traffic using them. They were costing the ratepayers £20,000 a year at present.

Colr. J. Quirk said there was a large number of roads throughout the county which were in a shocking condition while the main roads were being kept perfect. Until the ordinary roads were looked after he would not vote to spend more money on main roads.

Mr. Hally — There is a greater demand on main roads. On an economic basis you can justify expenditure on main roads.

Colr. Curran proposed that they inform the Minister that they had no further observations to make on the matter.

Colr. K. O'Ryan seconded. A proposal by Deputy Kyne that they grant the retrospective payment from Aug. 1st 1960 was ruled out of order by the Chairman.

Colr. Curran's proposal was carried by six votes to five.

The voting was as follows:— For—Colrs. Curran, Dower, Fahey, Foran, Ryan, Quirk; Against—Colrs. Kyne, Drohan, Roche, Montayne, Kenneally.

person in the country. The ordinary simple community were very perturbed about it. The Co. Secretary Mr. J. G. Dowling said there was a lot to be lost in grants if the additional expenditure was not agreed to.

Chairman — There is no occasion in the world to pass this supplementary estimate.

Deputy Kyne's proposal, seconded by Colr. F. Roche that they agree to the additional expenditure of £17,000, was then put to the meeting and defeated 9-5.

The voting was: For—Colrs. Kyne, Roche, Cahill, Kenneally, Madden (5).

Against — Colrs. Curran, Dower, Drohan, Fahey, Foran, O'Ryan, Montayne, Quirk, Galgey (9).

Ba bhreá an fear é Tom mar a thugai de ghnáth air ba chaoín, cneasta an fear é. Chónaigh sé na Rinn ar feadh a shaoil agus ón uair a bhí sé ina ghasún timpeall sé bliana déag, bhí sé ag obair sa stór, sa Rinn. Ba bhreá leat bualadh isteach sa tsíopa chuige mar dá mbeadh buairt nó brón ort scaipeadh sé ar an bpaiste é lena chuid comhrá agus a chuid grinn.

GREANN

Fear mór grinn abea é. D'éisteadh sé amuigh fén sneachta le scéal greannmhar agus dhéanadh sé gáire, bréa, croíuil ag a dheireadh. Lean an tréith seo é go lá a bhais mar agus é ar leaba a bháis si an cheist a chuir sé ar sheanchara leis ná "an bhfuil an scéal grinn agat."

Bhí teanga bhreá Gaelige aige agus sean-fhocla agus cora cainte go flúirseach. Is mó uair é ag díospóireacht fé cheart agus mi-cheart focail nó leagan cainte. Bhí na hamhráin go maith leis aige agus ní raibh aon rud is mó a thaitneadh leis ná amhráin na nGael.

Engineers' Back Money

"NOTHING TO SAY"

— Council Members

ONCE again the controversial matter of retrospective payment of salary increases to the engineering staff of Waterford County Council has been raised. At last Monday's meeting of the Council a letter was read from the Dept. of Local Government requesting any further observations by the Council on the matter.

It will be recalled that increases were granted to the Council Engineers from April 1st, 1961. Increases were also granted to the Administrative and Clerical staffs, but were eventually backdated to August 1st, 1960. Despite appeals by the Engineers, the Council refused to grant them a similar retrospective, and they subsequently appealed to the Minister. He then referred it back to the Council, but they refused to alter their decision. The Engineers then again appealed to the Minister.

The Dept's letter (read at Monday's meeting) stated: "The Minister has considered the Council's resolution, but desires to point out that the Council at its meeting on the 13th February, 1963 re-examined the question of the awards of salary increases to its administrative and Clerical staffs, with effect from April 1st, 1961, and decided that the award should go back to August 1st, 1960. The decision therefore of the Council not to grant similar retrospective to the Engineers could give the impression that they were being treated less favourably than the Council's staff generally, without justification. The increase was also granted to all other County Councils from Aug. 1st, 1960, so they are the only ones that have not got it. Full retrospective is approximately £457."

"The Minister feels that the decision of the Council is difficult to justify and that there would appear to be reasonable grounds for upholding the appeals made by the Engineers. Before determining the appeals, however, the Council is invited to consider it again and submit any further observations they may have."

Colr. Charles Curran (Chairman) said they should inform the Minister that they had no further observations to make on the matter.

Deo. T. A. Kyne said the Minister had more or less indicated that he would give it. They might as well get the credit for it as he. Colr. Curran proposed that they inform the Minister that they had no further observations to make on the matter. Colr. K. O'Ryan seconded. A proposal by Deputy Kyne that they grant the retrospective payment from Aug. 1st 1960 was ruled out of order by the Chairman. Colr. Curran's proposal was carried by six votes to five. The voting was as follows:— For—Colrs. Curran, Dower, Fahey, Foran, Ryan, Quirk; Against—Colrs. Kyne, Drohan, Roche, Montayne, Kenneally.

COURTESY, EFFICIENCY AND GOOD SERVICE ASSURED

Late Mrs. Hannah Cooney
CARRIGROE, DUNGARVAN

The sad event of the death of Mrs. Hannah Cooney, Carrigroe, Dungarvan, occurred during the early hours of Saturday morning, August 31st, at the District Hospital, Dungarvan, after a duration of protracted illness, and at an early age. She was wife of Edward Cooney and a member of a very well-known Kilgreaney, Cappagh, family. Her charming manner won for her legions of friends. She was a loving wife and a good mother. We wish to extend to her husband, young family, sisters and brothers our deepest sympathy on this very sad occasion.

The removal of the remains took place on Saturday evening to St. Mary's Parish Church, Dungarvan, followed by a huge cortege and were blessed and received by Rev. Fr. D. Byrne, C.C., assisted by Rev. Fr. T. Cooney, O.S.A., John's Lane, Dublin, Rev. Fr. J. Kiely, O.S.A., and Rev. Fr. Graec, O.S.A., Dungarvan.

The last Mass on Sunday was celebrated for the happy repose of her gentle soul and the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery. Rev. Fr. T. Cooney, O.S.A., Dublin (brother-in-law) officiated at the graveside, and imparted the final absolution, assisted by Rev. Fr. D. Byrne, C.C., Rev. Fr. W. Power, C.C., Rev. Fr. Butler, O.S.A., Dungarvan and Rev. Fr. B. B. O'Meara, O.S.A., John's Lane, Dublin. Another very large and most representative concourse were present to pay their respects and to sympathize with her nearest and dearest.

Large sheaves of Mass cards, telegrams and letters of sympathy were received by her relatives.

The chief mourners were — Edward (husband), Jack and Jim (sons), Eleanor (daughter), Lee, New York; Declan, Kilgreaney, and Patrick, do. (brothers); Sr. M. Stanislaus, France; Margaret, Dungarvan; Mrs. E. Curran, Kilmacross; Mrs. D. Landers, Kilmacross (sisters); nephews, nieces, etc.

(Funeral arrangements by J. Kiely & Sons.)

KILMAGTHOMAS NOTES

Keepers of honey-bees in this area have had one of their worst seasons ever. Due to the fact that at the peak period the "busy winged workers" were compelled through wet weather to remain in their hives, when normally they would be garnering the means to make up a rich harvest from clover, heather, etc., in full bloom.

Prize-winners in yesterday's Pontana Pools included Miss Dunne of Ballyvadd, Kilmacthomas. "More" luck to the estimable lady.

Blackberries are being picked on both sides of the Mahon, but the number of people collecting same is on the small side as this fruit of the bramble tree ripened later than usual and it is not a copious crop.

The Very Best Wishes of their numerous friends for a long and happy life are extended to Miss Ann Walsh, Kilmacthomas, and Mr. John Joyce, C.S. Monastereven, whose marriage was solemnised on Wednesday of this week

(11th inst., Feast of St. Protus and Myacim) at St. Mary's Church, Haddington Road, Dublin. The reception was held at North Coast Hotel, Portmarnock.

Fourth Son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Murphy, St. Anne's Tce., Kilmacthomas, is Master Sean Murphy, a pupil of C.B.S. Dungarvan, who, following his success in the recent Leaving Certificate Examination, has been called to a teachers' training college in the Metropolis.

Saw Senior Hurling Final.—Fourteen years have elapsed since Mr. Martin Power, son of Mrs. Margaret Power and the late Mr. Patrick Power, Kiely's Cross (Grange, west Waterford) emigrated to the U.S., where he positioned himself in New York City, and in a comparatively short time was a familiar figure in G.A.A. circles there. He revisited his mother, sisters and brothers at this side of the Atlantic in 1952. Some few years later he became the spouse of a New York-born lady whose grand-parents had hailed from Freshford, Co. Kilkenny, and he and his amiable life's partner are now blessed with a family of three children (a girl and two boys).

Mr. and Mrs. Power and family were among the 150 passengers a jet plane landed at Shannon Airport about a week before the enactment of the All-Ireland hurling final.

By the way, his dear departed father was a native of historic Kilmossanty parish, and Martin's many connections there to-day include his brother Mr. Thomas (Tom) Power, Towney's Cross, Leamybrien, and his first-cousin, Mr. John Brohan, P.C., M.C.C., Knockey-an Lower, do.

Approximately a year ago, Mr. Tony O'Donnell, eldest son of likeable Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O'Donnell, Currahaha West Kilmacthomas, emigrated to New York City. Now home on holidays, he is in radiant health and spirits, and is thoroughly enjoying his stay among his multitude of well-wishers in this section of the Deise country, for which he harbours a great grudge.

Sponsored by Messrs. Goulding Fertilizers Ltd., was the Meera na Feirme National Grass Production Competition, at which Mrs. Janet Helliers, of Ballyshunock, Kilmacthomas, was awarded a certificate of proficiency in grassland farming. The Taoiseach, Mr. Sean Lemass, officiated at the presentation of prizes in the Shelbourne Hotel Ballroom, Dublin, on Tuesday week, 3rd inst.

DEATH OF MR. GEORGE P. HELY, M.P.S.I.
In the early hours of Sunday morning, the death took place at his home of Mr. George P. Hely, M.P.S.I., whose passing has removed one of the town's most prominent and popular personalities. He was in his seventieth year and from boyhood had associated himself with any movements for the betterment of the town. He was a great lover of sport and particularly devoted to coursing. He was a founder member of the local club of which he was president for many years. Through his connection with the sport he made friends all over the country and was a familiar figure at the leading meetings and tracks. Proof of the popularity of the deceased and of regret in his passing was shown by the huge attendance when the remains were removed to the parish church on Sunday evening. They were received by Very Rev. J. Kennelly, P.P., and Rev. M. Olden.

There was a crowded congregation at High Mass on Monday morning when Rev. M. Olden was celebrant. Rev. P. Flavin, deacon, and Rev. D. Slattery, sub-deacon. There were twelve priests in the choir. The interment took place in Old Affane. A mile long cortege followed the remains to the cemetery. Prayers at the graveside were recited by Very Rev. J. Kennelly, P.P., and other clergy present included, Very Rev. T. Canon Dunphy, P.P., V.F., Lismore; Rev. Fr. J. Ryan, V.F., Lismore; Rev. D. Byrne, Rev. M. Aherne, Rev. D. Slattery and Rev. M. Olden.

to the study of local folklore, history, place names, etc. The making of a parish map will also be undertaken.

BLOOD TRANSFUSION SERVICE
Representatives from the Cork depot will be in attendance at the Vocational School next Tuesday night, from 7.30 to 9.00. So, blood donors, please take note.

Lismore Notes

DEATH OF MISS E. DOHERTY
It is with deep and sincere regret we record the death of Miss Eileen Doherty, Church Street, Lismore, which sad event occurred at her residence on Monday evening of last week, 2nd September. The deceased lady, who had reached an advanced age, was possessed of a very quiet and cheerful manner. She will be sadly missed by all, but more especially by her sorrowing relatives, to whom we tender our deepest sympathy.

The remains were removed to St. Carthage's Church on Tuesday evening and were received and blessed by Very Rev. Canon Dunphy, P.P., V.F., assisted by Rev. Fr. Quailly, C.C., and Rev. Fr. Slattery, C.C., and the burial took place on Wednesday to the local cemetery, the same clergy officiating at the graveside.

Large numbers of sympathisers attended both funeral and burial.

WEDDING BELLS—RYAN—NUGENT

The wedding took place at St. Carthage's Cathedral, Lismore, of Mr. Kevin Ryan, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ryan, The Grange, Tallow, and Miss Joan Nugent, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Nugent, South Mall, Lismore. The ceremony, with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing, was performed by Rev. P. Beecher, cousin of the groom, assisted by Very Rev. T. Canon Dunphy, P.P., V.F., Lismore; Rev. Fr. J. Ryan, cousin of the groom; Rev. Fr. M. Condon, C.C., Tallow and Rev. Fr. D. Slattery, C.C., Lismore.

The bestman was Mr. Francis Ryan (brother of the groom) and the bridesmaids were the Misses Mary and Noreen Nugent (sisters of the bride). The groomsmen were Mr. Patrick Burke, and the ushers were Mr. Cornelius Ryan (brother of the groom) and Mr. John Kenefick (cousin of the bride).

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a full length gown of white embossed satin; with nylon tulle veil, held in place by a crystal tiara and carried a bouquet of red carnations and fern, while the bridesmaids wore full length gowns of lime green and peach, neu-de-soil with matching head-dresses and carried bouquets of mixed sweet pea and ferns. Mr. Stanley Bowyer, Waterford, presided at the organ, and the soloists during the Mass were the groom's father Mr. Frank Ryan and his sister Mrs. Moira Roche.

The reception was held at the Metropole Hotel, Cork, and the honeymoon is being spent in Jersey and Paris.

L.C.A. NOTES
After the summer recess, meeting of the Lismore I.C.A. will be held at Lismore Hotel, on Monday night next, 18th September, at 8 p.m. is also tendered to Mrs. E. Wall, Main Street, Lismore, on the death of her brother, Mr. G. Hely, which sad event occurred at his residence Main St., Cappoquin, on Sunday last.

POPULAR LOCAL GIRL CHOSEN AS HOLIDAY PRINCESS

Our heartiest congratulations are extended to Miss Charlotte Murphy, Fern Villa, Lismore, on her recent election as 1963 Holiday Princess of Butlin's Holiday Camp, Mosney, Co. Meath. "Cherry" as she is more popularly known to her many friends in Lismore and Dublin, where she is a bank official, is eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Murphy, Fern Villa, Lismore, and her selection as Holiday Princess from a very large number of contestants, has been received with great joy by her many friends.

CONGRATULATIONS TO "MISS ROSEBUD"

ABBEYSIDE AND PORTLAW FOR TOURNAMENT FINAL

The semi-finals of the Casey Cup (a beautiful trophy, presented by Kilmacthomas business man Mr. Dick Casey) were played on Sunday last in Kilmacthomas, with Abbeyside and Portlaw advancing to the final, which will be played in the near future.

Kilmacthomas — 0;
Abbeyside United — 1;

Abbeyside won the opening game by the only score of the game, which came midway through the second-half. Inside left Frank Barry chased a long ball down the middle and neatly headed past the Kilmacthomas keeper Battye.

This was a game which the home team could and should have won. They enjoyed a large territorial advantage right through the game, but bad finishing coupled with some hard luck (two shots rebounding off the woodwork in the first half) cost them a place in the final.

All credit to Abbeyside, however for getting through. Their backs, though always under severe pressure, never wilted, and gave the Kilmacthomas forward line no time to play their usual game.

Best for Abbeyside were McGovern (goals), Whelan and Mulvihill (backs) and forwards Barry and Duggan.

Impressive for Kilmacthomas were left full John Whelan, centre-half Pat Flynn and right-half Roy Battye. Sandford was the most impressive of the forwards.

Portlaw, 6; Carrick, 2.

Portlaw turned in a very impressive display in whipping Rock Rovers (Carrick) to the tune of 6-2. Leading 4-1 after only twenty minutes, Portlaw were content to take things easy for the remainder of the game and still managed to add two more goals to their tally in the second-half.

Carrick tried hard all through but sadly lacked the leadership of centre-forward Tom Gough, who now plays with Waterford in League of Ireland football. Portlaw opened their account after only five minutes, but almost immediately Carrick equalised. In a ten minute golden spell shortly after Portlaw slammed home three more goals and from then on the result was a formality. Portlaw tacked on two more goals in the second half and Carrick added one.

SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS

At Monday's meeting of the Waterford County Council, it was announced that John F. Ahearn, Arkkeen Lodge, Waterford; Patrick D. Walsh, Abbeyside, Dungarvan, and T. Murphy, Mofeligo, won university scholarships tenable at University College Cork, and valued at £225 a year. It was also announced that Patrick O'Grady, Scraban, Kilmacthomas, a farmer's son, had been awarded an agricultural scholarship.

YOUGHAL NOTES

HIGHWATER WEEK ENDING 21st SEPT.

	Morning	Evening
Sunday	4.27	4.56
Monday	5.16	5.42
Tuesday	5.57	6.22
Wednesday	6.36	6.58
Thursday	7.11	7.32
Friday	7.43	8.03
Saturday	8.15	8.34

SCHOLARSHIP WINNER
As a result of the high place obtained in the Co. Cork Scholarship scheme examination, Master Liam Motherway, son of Mr. John Motherway, P.C. and Mrs. Motherway, N.T., of Park, Youghal, has been awarded a scholarship value £350. He is at present attending St. Colman's College, Fermoy, and received his early education at Youghal Christian Brothers School.

CONGRATULATIONS
Hearty congratulations to Dr. Paul Beausang, formerly of North Main St., Youghal, whose daughter has successfully completed a course at the Rochester University.

VANDALISM AT YOUGHAL
For some time vandals have been very quiet in the town, but recently they have started activities again. On this occasion, a newly erected sign opposite a hotel on the Upper Strand was removed and planted on a hedge in front of one of the houses on the promenade. This was a heavy operation and therefore could not be attributed to small boys.

TOTE AT YOUGHAL TRACK
On the occasion of the final of the Blackwater Cup at Youghal Track, which was won by Mr. E. Montayne's "Rich Relation" the nominator Mr. John Connery of North Main Street, Youghal, was the holder of a 2/- forecast ticket which paid 6/9-16-0 on the tote, being the highest dividend since it was opened. In addition, as nominated £25.

HARVESTING
Due to almost continuous rain, a great deal of corn has been lodged and the land is so soft as to render the use of combines in some parts almost impossible. This is indeed very serious and local farmers are taking every advantage of the new fine days in between.

YOUGHAL U.D. COUNCIL
At a recent meeting of the U.D. Council, Youghal Horticultural Society were congratulated for their very successful show recently, and for encouraging the Council tenants to grow flowers. The members directed that the houses and gardens attached be inspected every three months.

SYMPATHY
The U.D. Council have expressed sympathy with Miss Dora Crowley, Gibraltar Tee, Youghal, on the death of her mother, with Mrs. Flavin, Strand Street, on the death of her sister, and with the family and relatives of the late Capt. John P. Twohig, formerly of the Mall.

RATES EXEMPTION
The Council agreed to forward for discussion at the forthcoming Conference of the Association of Municipal Authorities a motion to seek for exemption from rates for waterworks, buildings and underground water mains. The Council members were of the opinion that they should be exempt in this respect like the E.S.B. The Conference is to be held in Skibbereen from Sept. 24th to 26th (inclusive).

TIDY TOWNS MARKS, 1963
Board Faillte furnished details of the Tidy Towns Competition concerning Youghal, when the town scored 39 points in 1959; 48 in 1960; 53 in 1961, and 57 in '63.

The adjudicators reported that Youghal is still pre-occupied with reconstruction work following severe storm damage. In considering what has been done in other directions due allowance must be made for the great storm damage. The seafront looks well, but is marred by the number and variety of temporary dwellings at Claycastle, and also where the sea front joins the main Cork road.

There is a considerable amount of litter to be seen on the front. As the eastern end of the railing between the high road and sea front need to be replaced. Fly posting at this spot should be discouraged.

The observations concluded: "There are obvious evidences of efforts by the community and the local authority to keep up its standard of appearance and improve wherever possible."

The Council congratulated Midleton for doing so well in the smaller township class, from 1,500 to 3,000 population.

Late Mrs. Ryta Fraher, S.R.N.
SCART, BALLINAMULT
The death took place at her residence in Scart, Ballinamult, on Wednesday, Sept. 11th, of Mrs. Rita Fraher. She had been ill for only a few days and her death caused profound shock in the area.

For 43 long years she served as a Maternity Nurse, giving loyal service to all who required her help. She was an exemplary citizen in every way and a kind and gentle mother. Her sudden and unexpected death will be deeply felt by all those who knew her. She was known to this charitable lady.

The remains were removed to Kibbrien Church on Thursday, Sept. 12th, followed by one of the largest and most representative corteges ever seen in the district. They were received by Very Rev. Fr. McGrath, P.P., assisted by Rev. Fr. Farrell, C.C., Rev. Fr. Liddane, C.C. and Rev. Fr. Power, O.S.A.

The burial took place on Friday morning, 13th, in the adjoining cemetery following Requiem Masses.

Another large concourse was present. The officiating clergy at the graveside were: Very Rev. Fr. McGrath, P.P.; Rev. Fr. Farrell, C.C.; Rev. Fr. Liddane, C.C.; Rev. Fr. Power, O.S.A. and Rev. W. Hallinan, C.C. Cathedral, Waterford.

The chief mourners were: Daniel, Jackie, Paddy and Liam, Scart (sons); Sr. M. Eugene, Bon Secour, Cork; Mrs. Leo Cote, U.S.; Mrs. John Gannon, U.S.; Alice and Lena Scart (daughters); Michael Kett, U.S.; John Kett, Dungarvan (brothers); Mrs. Stasia Curran, U.S.; Mrs. Catherine Barron, U.S.; and Mrs. Delia Markley, do. (sisters), nephews and nieces etc.

(Funeral arrangements by J. Phelan, Square, Dungarvan.)

AN APPRECIATION
A very gentle soul passed to Eternal reward with the death of Mrs. Rita Fraher, on the 11th September, 1963. This lovable and generous mother of eleven children had served her people faithfully for 44 years as a midwife. She was the last surviving appointee of the Old Board of Guardians. She took over duty as a midwife from her mother, Mrs. Kett, who had also served as midwife in her native county for many years.

Rita Fraher served when there was no motor car, hardly a bicycle and certainly no travelling expenses. Rural Ireland was more thickly populated and very large families were then the usual a.d. not the phenomenal. She set out on foot or in a pony and trap, winding her way over the mountain paths and very poor roads at all hours of the day and night, in all weather, to answer the call for help to bring another child into the world. Many and many times she brought, not only herself, but clothes for the baby and clean linen for the bed and turf for the fire.

She belonged to that group of women who were responsible for the safe delivery of nearly 80% of live births. There were few Nursing Homes then. Babies were born in their own homes. Such pioneers as she laid the foundation of the present day Health Services. May we, who serve on after her, try to be worthy of her and her kind. No matter how complex and no matter how impersonal the huge machinery of a State Health Service may become, I hope that we, as nurses, will always remember that a person in need is a creature of God, with a soul and body, and at all times deserving of our service, given generously, with dignity and humility. May she rest in peace.

Gaultier were never Extended Referee Struck in Robust Game

In recent weeks the standard of sportsmanship particularly in the Western Division has sunk to a deplorably low level. But perhaps the worst display of misconduct for a long time was given last Sunday at the Fraher Field, Dungarvan, in the replayed first round senior football championship game between Gaultier and Stradbally. The referee, Sean Power (John Mitchell's) saw fit to send two players to the line, one of whom tore his report from his hand and then struck him savagely in the face.

Earlier in the game a Stradbally defender was sent off for an uncalled-for attack on a Gaultier forward and the abuse hurled at the referee during the course of the game was no credit to the players concerned. Indeed so heated did the exchanges become at one stage during the game that the referee would have been justified in calling it off altogether.

Stradbally, undoubtedly the major culprit, ended the game with only thirteen men and can consider themselves more than fortunate not to have been numerically weakened to an even more substantial degree.

While the exchanges from the very outset were of a robust nature, the game went without a serious incident until a minute before the interval. Then Gaultier's Ned Flynn was inexplicably "downed" by Tom Walsh and referee Power rightly ordered him off. Unfortunately this action merely tended to add fuel to fire and thereafter one could expect a flare-up at the slightest provocation.

Eleven minutes before the end Jimmy Mansfield was caught red-handed striking an opponent and again the referee issued marching orders. But in a violent display of temper, Mansfield tore his report sheet and then openly struck him across the face. The official in charge to my mind did an excellent job of a tension-packed game, yet was the victim of unwarranted misdemeanours that deserved fullest punishment.

LITTLE TO ENTHUSE OVER
So one-sided was the game itself, that spectators were given little to enthuse over throughout the hour. In fact, so vastly superior were Gaultier that one found it exceedingly difficult to understand how the sides ever finished level on the first occasion. Even when playing against the breeze in the first half, the winners dictated the trend of the game, and when they led 0-5 to 0-1 at the break the issue had to all intents and purposes resolved itself.

With forceful impact these expectations materialised. Playing against a side greatly weakened by the enforced departure of Tom Walsh, Gaultier proceeded to run riot and long before the end the only thing that remained in doubt was their eventual winning margin.

Even allowing for the weakness of the opposition, Gaultier greatly impressed by their overwhelming victory. Their defence is comprised of six excellent fielders, that could well contain the most menacing attacks. Up front their forwards were able to afford the luxury of 21 wides but proved conclusively that they also are potentially dangerous.

And what of Stradbally? Never can I recall the Reds to bow out so ingratiously from the championship. At an early stage it was blatantly obvious they were fighting on uphill battle. Beaten in practically every section, they were but a pale shadow of the team that figured in the drawn game. True they were forced to field below full strength and included amongst their absentees were such stalwarts as Ken Murphy and Dick Gough.

But not even the void caused by the defections of this pair can be offered as an alibi for their pathetic showing. Even the experienced members of the side failed to come up to expectations.

ASSERTED SUPERIORITY
The story of the scores is a story of undisputed Gaultier supremacy. From the opening minutes they asserted a definite superiority and after four minutes, deservedly, took the lead with a point. Three minutes later only a glorious one-handed save by goalkeeper Jim Power prevented the Stradbally net from falling. Then in the thirteenth minute the Reds had their only score of the game—a point by Jimmy Mansfield. Ned Flynn quickly replied with a like score for the winners and before the interval added further minors by John Martin and Bertie McNamara (2).

Backed by a strong second-half breeze, the winners literally annihilated their outclassed opposition. Despite missing a hatful of scores they scored with an apparent ease and long before the end the crowd were filing disappointedly homewards.

In an eminently sound backline Noel McNulty, Mick Morrissey and Tony Cummins were really outstanding. Their midfielders John Martin and Willie Lodge were seldom mastered and gave their forwards a liberal supply of the ball.

As already stated, the forwards combined brilliantly and some of their scores were masterly. Half-forwards Mick Cullen and Tom Flynn had veritable field days while nearer goal Mark Dingley and Bertie McNamara were always dangerous.

Unquestionably Stradbally's outstanding performer was Tom Foley. For half an hour he played a storming game at full-back and when moved out-field continued to play a blinder. Billy Barry never ceased trying.

The charge, to which the two defendants present pleaded guilty, alleged that they broke into the private premises of M. J. Keane & Co., and stole the cigarettes.

Mr. A. R. Farrell, who appeared for the eldest of the defendants in Court, said he had only been in court once before, and that was two years ago. He had been working since and his mother was horrified when she heard her son was charged.

Judge Skinner applied the P.O.A. Dealing with the other defendant, the Justice said that although only 13 years of age, he already had charges of house-breaking and larceny against him.

He adjourned the case for 3 months to see how he would behave, and added: "If he does the slightest thing wrong in the meantime he will be sent away."

ing at mid-field but got little support from a surprisingly off-form John Hearn.

Their forwards were starved for long periods and of the set-back teenagers Tom Cunningham and Pat Clancy were best.

Councillor Denies Colleagues Allegations

Colr. J. Fahy, at last Monday's meeting of the Waterford Co. Council in Dungarvan, complained about allegations made against him by Colr. K. O'Ryan concerning the removal of a bend on a roadway at Knockluna, outside Clonmel.

Colr. Fahy said at a meeting held recently and attended by three members of the County Council and himself, Colr. O'Ryan made allegations that he (Mr. Fahy) was responsible for holding up work on the removal of the bend by the Co. Council at Knockluna, near Clonmel. Colr. O'Ryan stated that he (Colr. Fahy) had approached the Co. Engineer and held up the work.

"I would like it to be known," said Colr. Fahy, "that I was responsible for the starting of this work and I did not stop it at any time. I am as anxious as anybody else that this work should be removed as soon as possible. The allegation could not be further from the truth."

Mr. J. Hally (Co. Engineer) said the work was halted because he had difficulty in obtaining land from a farmer. The land-owner refused to give the land to the Co. Council.

Colr. O'Ryan said he was informed by a member of Dail Eireann that Colr. Fahy was responsible for holding up the work. A man may smile and be a villain, "I repeat," he said, "Colr. Fahy was responsible and my allegation was correct. Mr. Fahy said there was no urgency with it."

Colr. Fahy said he was satisfied with the Co. Engineer's statement.

SILVER WEDDING ANNIVERSARY
Congratulations to Paddy and Mrs. Langan, Abbeyside, who have just celebrated their silver wedding anniversary. We wish them many more years of happiness.

National League Venues
At Monday's meeting of Waterford County Board, venues were decided on for Waterford's home national league fixtures. At the outset, Mr. Charles Ware senior, proposed that the hurling games be played in the east and the football ties in the west. Mr. S. Grant seconded.

Mr. Dick McAllister proposed the direct opposite. Mr. Nicholas McGrath seconded.

Finally, after lengthy discussion, the following venues were decided on: National Hurling League—v. Carlow, at Waterford; v. Wexford at Waterford (passed on a 17-14 vote). National Football League v. Tipperary at Cappoquin; v. Limerick, at Dungarvan.

Tallow Deputation to Co. Council

A five-man deputation from the Tallow area of County Waterford was received by the members of the Waterford County Council at their meeting in Dungarvan yesterday, when they complained about the condition of a roadway leading to the racecourse at Tallow.

Mr. J. Quirk, who introduced the deputation, said the people of the area thought that the roadway was on the five-year road improvement plan, but it was not. There was a mistake made somewhere. The roadway was a mile and a half long and part of it was repaired about six years ago.

Mr. J. Hally (County Engineer) said he would examine the matter and have a report on it for the next meeting of the Council.

APPRECIATION OF SAFE DRIVING

Thirty-three Waterford Co. Council drivers were, at the monthly meeting of the Waterford County Council in Dungarvan, on Monday, presented with certificates for safe driving over the past four years by the Chairman, Mr. Charles Curran.

Making the presentations, Mr. Curran condemned the slaughter which was occurring on roads throughout Ireland. Every week there were people being killed by lorries and cars and by people who were driving while drunk.

"These men, employed by the County Council," he said, "have reflected great credit on themselves and on the Co. Council in the manner in which they have conducted themselves on the roads during the past four years. The drivers have set a wonderful head-line for other users of the road."

Ald. T. A. Kyne, T.D., said the small number of drivers who did not receive certificates were involved in only minor accidents which did not involve personal injury to anybody.

Mr. J. Hally (County Engineer) said he hoped that many of the drivers would be on the list next year for silver medals for five years accident-free driving.

Those to receive certificates were: J. Brown, M. Butler, J. Houlihan, E. Giblin, E. Morrissey, J. Shanahan, D. Whelan, N. Bluet, E. Burke, P. Coleman, J. Cunningham, A. Dunne, P. Dee, J. Fahy, M. Flynn, J. Grady, A. Grant, J. Hehir, M. Keane, A. Kenneally, W. Kennedy, J. Landers, J. Longan, W. Meehan, J. Wilworth, B. Malone, J. Regan, R. Ryan, K. Sheehan, J. Terry, P. Breen, A. Drohan and T. O'Connor.

They were given the remainder of the day off by the Co. Manager, Mr. S. J. Moynihan.

WEST WATERFORD NOTES

THE HARVEST
Despite unfavourable conditions, harvesting operations are well advanced in this area. Yields are reasonably satisfactory.

ON HOLIDAY
Spending a holiday in his native Clashmore at present is Mr. William McGirtin. Mr. McGirtin's six brothers are leading gaelic footballers.

TIDY TOWNS
It is hoped that Clashmore will be an entrant for next year's competition. A public meeting to discuss the matter will be held in the near future.

ROADS
The County Engineer has addressed the following letter to Mr. C. Curran, M.C.C.:

"Re Roads: With reference to your letter on the above subject, I am arranging to have the roads at Ballyvandon and Coolbagh, Tinniscart attended to. With regard to the Kilmeady road: this is a very difficult road to maintain, because of the steep hill at both ends. Heavy rains undo our repeated tar patching work. I am arranging to have it tar patched again in near future and to have the loose stones complained of on the Toorwood removed.

"With regard to roads at Creggs and Ballycurran, both these will be rolled and sealed in the current year."

Following further representations it is understood that the County Engineer has agreed to do a major job on the Kilmeady road at Kinsalebeg.

Millions of Gallons of Whiskey under Dublin City

Millions of gallons of Irish whiskey stored under the City of Dublin—under the Distillery itself, under streets, railway stations, shops and factories. Millions of gallons dating back to the Second World War in sherry casks, plain casks, of every size—Butts, Hogsheds, Quarter Casks and Puncheons. These are the stocks in the warehouses of the Dublin Distillery of John Jameson & Son Limited, distillers of the best known Irish whiskey throughout the world.

Recently Jameson's took a party of newspapermen around some of their warehouses to see something of the art of maturing whiskey, and also show them the stocks of old whiskey which they are now making available in order to market the first time in Ireland since the foundation of the company in 1780. Up till now the Company has only supplied its whiskey in casks; the smallest quantity which has ever left Jameson's in this country has been a keg of nine gallons. This method of marketing has proved entirely satisfactory; however, the Company has now decided to market Distillery-bottled whiskey itself to meet modern demands.

The whiskey which Jameson's will soon be bottling will be a combination of ten years and older whiskeys. This will offer to the public a whiskey of consistent quality and exceptional smoothness achieved through long years of maturing.

Most people are aware that whiskey becomes smoother the longer it is matured, but few are aware how much skill and experience there is in the art of maturing whiskey. Firstly, the nature of the warehouse itself is an important factor. Over the years Jameson's have selected those warehouses which produce the most perfect results. The question of humidity is very interesting. Some of the Jameson warehouses are dry and some are wet, and each type has its own part to play. The nature of the wood of each cask is also important. Freshly emptied sherry casks, carefully chosen, and plain oak casks each lend their own particular flavour. Different sized casks also play their part, some maturing quicker than others.

We appreciated these different characteristics when we visited the warehouses. Firstly we went to alpin's Row warehouse, where many thousands of casks of Jameson whiskey are maturing. This is a wet warehouse. Not only is it wet, it is very wet, and it stretches from Arden's Street Station to Seville Place and beyond, underneath the arches of the railway. We were told that the exceedingly damp nature of this warehouse contributes much to the smooth favour of John Jameson whiskey.

From Hatton's Row we were taken by private coach to Anne Street warehouse, which occupies an old brewery building, and visited one of its many floors. This is a dry warehouse, and here during the years of maturing the whiskey retains strength but loses much of its volume through evaporation. In Halpin's Row on the other hand the whiskey, we were told, tends to lose strength but retain volume. The interesting fact is that oak casks are essential for maturing whiskey because of their capacity to "breathe." In the wet warehouse moisture from the atmosphere is drawn into the cask, whereas in the dry warehouse whiskey is drawn from the cask into the dry atmosphere.

After being shown around the dry warehouse we were on our way again to Bow Street where the Company has twelve warehouses under the Distillery buildings varying in type from wet to dry. We were shown one of the No. 2 Warehouses and saw many casks dating back to 1945, and some even earlier. These are the ones that will be blended with whiskey of ten years or more from other warehouses prior to bottling this autumn.

During our tour we saw whiskeys which are maturing in sherry casks—these casks which came to this country from Spain with sherry in them. This wood, inorganic during its journey with sherry, imparts to the whiskey its own distinctive flavour. Coopers, the men who make

ADVERTISING "CAMPAIGN OF THE YEAR" FOR IRELAND.

The day of the week formed the theme for an advertising campaign with which Brindley Advertising Ltd. have won for their clients Reg. Armstrong Motors and N.S.U. Prinz the distinction of "Campaign of the Year." This nomination is made annually by the British advertising magazine "World Press News" in their survey of advertising in this country. The winning campaign is discussed at length in their latest edition and referred to as "a striking series of advertisements with excellent continuity."

The currently running campaign has been appearing in the national daily paper provincial newspapers and magazines. It is based on an adaptation of the traditional children's rhyme "Monday's child is fair of face" and is composed of seven separate advertisements illustrating the Prinz as a car for every day of the week. Each advertisement appears on the day of the week after which it is named, highlighting one particular aspect of the Prinz 4. Basically a press campaign, it was however backed up by cinema and television advertising of a complementary nature which was to prolong the effect of the Press advertisements by frequently repeating their headlines.

Reg. Armstrong Motors Ltd. was the first firm outside Germany to be entrusted with assembly of the N.S.U. Prinz 4 which now hold top selling position in the 800 c.c. bracket on the Irish market.

New Plan to Finance Education

It was announced in Dublin during the week that Foster Finance Ltd., Industrial Bankers will sponsor an Education Plan. This offers a convenient way of financing educational costs out of income by regular instalments spread over the Academic Year (s). In particular, it spreads the load of heavy annual or periodic (term) payments which for most people, fall due at the most awkward times of the year.

The facilities offered by the Scheme extend to University, Seminary and Boarding School fees and to all forms of higher education, the cost of which can best be met by regular monthly payments as opposed to large lump-sum payments.

Foster Finance Ltd. is a wholly owned subsidiary of the Bank of Ireland / Hibernian Bank Group. It was formed in December, 1960, for the purpose of functioning as an independent Finance Company, whilst at the same time facilitating the Bank's customers with additional services.

Foster Finance Ltd. engages in providing Hire Purchase facilities for the purchase of cars, trucks, tractors, agricultural and industrial plant and equipment and in addition provides book discounting facilities for traders who carry on their own hire purchase, and for smaller finance companies.

The Company also provides short term loans repayable on an instalment basis for projects such as the erection of hay barns, installation of milking parlours and the provision of trade stocking facilities. The Educational Plan is seen as a natural extension to this form of service.

New Fire Station For Dungarvan!

Dungarvan may have a new fire station. For at the monthly meeting of the County Council held in Dungarvan on Monday last, a letter from the Waterford Chief Fire Officer recommended that a new station be built.

But after discussing the matter for almost a half an hour the members decided to adjourn their decision for one month.

Mr. J. G. Dowling (County Secretary) said the chief fire officer had recommended that a new station be built at a cost of about £12,000 on a site of 2 rood, 34 perches, owned by the Dungarvan Urban Council, to be purchased at a price of £200 per acre.

In reply to Colr. J. Quirke, the County Engineer, Mr. J. Hally, said the present station was not properly located and the facilities in it were not up to the mark.

Ald. T. A. Kyne, T.D., said the fire brigade in Dungarvan had given an excellent service. Anything the members could do to improve the service should be done.

Colr. M. Gahey said he saw the members of the Tramway

FOURMILEWATER FOR ANOTHER FINAL

Fourmilewater, Divisional junior hurling champions for the past two years, qualified for yet another final at Cappoquin on Sunday last, when decisively and impressively beating Tallow. The final scoreline of 4-10 to 0-3 in no way flatters the holders, who, on this showing will take a deal of beating in the decider.

Many contended that Sunday last would herald the end of the champions two-year reign. But, contrary to that belief the Ballymac side pulled out all the stops, and proved beyond all doubt that they still remain a force in junior ranks. In qualifying for their third successive final they have proved themselves models of consistency, and the entire division is eagerly awaiting their final showdown with Shamrocks, on September 29th.

Tallow were, candidly, a little disappointing on Sunday. They never reproduced the brand of hurling that carried them thus far in the championship, and were seldom in the game with a chance of dethroning the holders. They had Ned Power between the posts, but he was obviously still greatly handicapped by his all-Ireland final injury and understandably was not at his best.

Star of the winning side was youthful goalkeeper Tom Brazil who made a series of superb saves during the hour. Liam Ryan, who was called out of retirement for the game, was a pillar of strength at full back, while centre half Tom Walsh was another to play an outstanding role.

Kieran Ryan and Mick Connolly were well on top at mid-field, the former having much the better of the duel with Roger Ryan. Their attack capitalised on practically every opportunity, with Billy Grant, Jimmy Hewitt and Austin Barron being particularly outstanding.

TOURIN GO MARCHING ON

On the evidence of their displays to-date, it is extremely doubtful if Tourin will be beaten in this year's primary hurling championship. At Cappoquin on Sunday last they completely outplayed St. Mary's to qualify for the semi-final of the western division.

At the end of the hour they had sixteen points to spare—6-3 to 1-2, a margin that was in no way flattering to the overall superiority. They are tough, in fact very tough, but allied to this toughness is unmistakable hurling skill that should be sufficient to carry them to the county final at least.

Sunday's game was one in which there was no quarter given or asked by either side. Tourin, however, set the pace from the start and once they jumped into an early lead, seldom looked like being overhauled. One ugly incident however married the game in which referee Mossie McGrath of Dungarvan was threatened by several players.

ATTRACTIVE SENIOR GAMES AT DUNGARVAN ON SUNDAY

The Fraher field, Dungarvan is the venue for a very attractive two-game senior programme on Sunday next. Highlight of the afternoon may well be the football meeting of Kill and Kilrossanty. Both these sides are strongly fancied in many quarters and their meeting on Sunday promises to be one of the highlights of our football year.

Following their superlative display in the recent Phelan Cup final against John Mitchell's Kill are entitled to start favourites on Sunday. On their day they are unbeatable in the county and if they overcome this Kilrossanty challenge they will be well on their way to a second successive county title.

It is doubtful, however, if they could be confronted with a more formidable obstacle. The Comeragh men have long been acknowledged as the greatest championship battlers of all, and they will not surrender easily to the holders. It all adds up to a tremendous battle that I will survey in detail elsewhere in this issue.

The second game brings the senior hurlers of Abbeyside and Ballyduff into opposition. Rumours have been circulating all week that the Cheasty-led brigade would not field, but at the time of writing the Villagers have received no confirmation of a walk-over.

COUNTY FINAL REPEAT AT WATERFORD

The greatest crowd-puller of all however, should be at Walsh Park, Waterford, for the meeting of Erin's Own and Mount Sion. Last year it will be recalled that long-reigning champions Sion were dethroned after a thrilling replay. Now the Monastery men are thirsting for revenge, and on form at least, are the general fancy to prevail.

Both sides are bristling with big names, boasting between them ten of the men chosen for the all-Ireland, against Kilrossanty. The rivalry between the teams is razor-keen and it all adds up to a thrilling hour's hurling. While accepting that in a game such as this the issue could go either way, I must root in with those that favour a Mt. Sion victory.

DUNGARVAN RECEIVE WALK-OVER

Dungarvan have received a walk-over from Cappoquin in the senior hurling championship. The game was due to be played at the Cornerstone venue on Sunday. Dungarvan now meet the winners of the Mt. Sion - Erin's Own game. No venue has yet been decided for the game.

STRADBALLY PLAYERS SUSPENDED

At a meeting of Waterford County Board in Dungarvan on Monday night, four Stradbally players were suspended as a result of the report of referee Sean Power on the Gaultier-Stradbally senior football championship. They were: Jimmy Mansfield (2 years); Tom Walsh (one year); Terry Guiry (one year); and Jimmy Guiry (one year). A full report of the meeting will be given in another part of this issue.

BUS TO WATERFORD

On Sunday next, a bus will leave the Square, Dungarvan, for Waterford, in connection with the senior hurling championship game Erin's Own v. Mount Sion, leaving at 2 p.m. Bus returning immediately after game. Seats bookable in advance at N. Casey's, The Square.

KILROSSANTY FOOTBALL CLUB

A bus will leave Kilmacathomas at 1.30 p.m. via McGrath's Cross, Mahon Bridge, Leamybrien, to Dungarvan in connection with the senior football match, Kill v. Kilrossanty, on Sunday next, 15th September. Return fare, 4/-.

Kilrossanty Face The

Champions ABBEYSIDE CAN MASTER BALLYDUFF

DUNGARVAN'S Fraher Field will surely house its biggest attendance of the year on Sunday next when two of the most attractive championship fixtures conceivable are down for decision. In the opening game, Ballyduff, led by County stalwart, Tom Cheasty, meet the battle-hardened campaigners of Abbeyside, while football title-holders Kill put their crown on offer against history-steeped Kilrossanty in a game that has caught the imagination of the entire County.

Seldom can even a county final command the interest being displayed in this meeting of big-ball giants. Both are strong championship fancies; both have trained as never before and above all both are supremely confident of the outcome. It is a game best described as a forecaster's dilemma but that should set a new standard in Deise football.

After years of vain striving Kill eventually broke through the championship barrier twelve months ago. Since then they have worn the mantle of champions with distinction and when dismissing with contemptuous ease the challenge of John Mitchell's in the recent Phelan Cup final conclusively proved that they are as formidable a force as ever. In that decider they gave as classical a display as the Dungarvan venue has ever witnessed, and a repetition on Sunday would really put it up to the Comeragh men. In their only championship game to-date they encountered little difficulty in disposing of Ring. But it was their apparent effortless dismissal of Mitchell's that made them the favourites to retain their laurels for another year. The feeling in their camp is that if this hurdle is overcome they will have gone the major part of the way towards the retention of their crown.

Kilrossanty are of course, the greatest of championship battlers. Their name is a storied one that will always be linked with the coveted competition. Down through the years, they have repeatedly hit the headlines by their championship feats, and the enthusiasm is as high today as when Patsy Walsh and his legendary colleagues brought the title to the parish for the first time.

In fact, Sunday's team will be one of the fittest ever to leave Kilrossanty. For two weeks past they have trained assiduously, aided by the lights of cars when darkness fell. That is one game that I would dearly love to by-pass forecasting. Full well I realise that the issue could go either way and there may not be more than a point or two between them at the end. Hesitatingly I give the vote to the holders, but should Kilrossanty come out on top it will occasion no surprise to the writer.

Warrant Issued

When William O'Leary, no fixed abode, failed to appear at Dungarvan District Court, on Wednesday, on a charge of stealing a bicycle, the property of John Tutty, Congress Villas, Justice L. B. Skinner issued a bench warrant for his arrest.

The receipts of last Sunday's championship games at Cappoquin totalled £103.18.0. This figure it is believed is a record for a junior fixture in the West.

is undoubtedly the defence. Goalkeeper Thomas Hogan can be very good, while the full-line of John Browne, Austin Flynn and Ned Moore are as good as the best.

Centre-half Mick Kiely has the unenviable task of keeping Tom Cheasty in check and the duel between them should be one of the highlights of the game.

The constitution of their mid-field and forward sectors will present selectors with their greatest headaches. However, Tony Mansfield and Willie Redmond will be included up front and will make the going hot for Ballyduff's defence. An absentee will be Johnny Hogan, presently on the unavailable list.

Their towering midfielders Martin Kennedy and Noel Power can be unbeatable, and if Tom Walsh and Tom Flynn can divide the honours with them we could well witness a reversal of the form book.

This scoring power of Kill attack needs no elaboration by me. Monty Guiry, Paddy Duggan, Mike Flynn and Paddy Finucane are hardly the kind of forwards to frit away many chances and the opposing defence can be prepared for a busy hour.

Kilrossanty are not likely to name a side until later in the week, although most of the positions practically pick themselves. The experienced Sean Ormonde is an automatic goal-keeping choice while Noel Casey is the current fancy to partner Jimmy Maher and Matty Lonergan in the full-back line.

Tom Moloney will almost certainly occupy the pivotal post with Tony Baldwin flanking him on one side. Rumours that the evergreen Jimmy Power might not be available can now be scotched and this shilling fight in their solid marshalling figure in their solid rearguard.

As already stated, the onus of mastering Kennedy and Power rests with Tom Walsh (Glendalligan) and Tom Flynn. The latter can be expected to hold his own at least and if given proper support by Walsh could share the spoils in the sector.

The attack will be without Mick Pender but he will be included in the subs. and may be called on before the hour has run its course. Another veteran Jimmy Whyte, may lead the attack and with Nedeon Lonergan, newcomer Riordan and Noel Walsh will present the greatest danger to the Kill defence.

But on the resumption, Ardmore slowly but surely regained the initiative. Within seconds of the throw-in they had their deficit cut to a solitary point, and were soon enjoying equilibrium. Their forwards, particularly Jim Rooney began to find loop-holes in a tiring

It goes without saying that Tom Cheasty will be Ballyduff's key man. If he is held the entire side is thrown out of gear; thus one can readily appreciate the responsibility facing Mick Kiely.

Cheasty can inspire any side and if given a deal of leeway could well prove the form book wrong. Be that as it may I have firm faith in Abbeyside's ability to pull it off. Unlike Ballyduff, they have top-class performers in several sectors and it is this better-all-round distribution of talent that may underline the difference between victory and defeat.

That is why I expect the Villagers to advance a step nearer to highest honours.

ARDMORE WIN IN SECOND HALF

ARDMORE 1-10 DUNGARVAN 0-6

DUNGARVAN'S senior football championship aspirations were shattered for another year at the Fraher Field on Sunday last when Ardmore deservedly beat them by a seven point margin in the second round. For almost three-quarters of the game there was little between the sides, but on "the run-in" the losers were found badly wanting and Ardmore coasted to a relatively easy victory.

Except for the closing stages when the winners got well on top, the game was productive of several phases of top-class football. Both teams played the game in a sporting manner and made the task of referee Tony Mansfield a simple one.

Throughout the opening half, when they had the assistance of the breeze, Dungarvan enjoyed a marked territorial advantage. Their mid-fielders Tom Cunningham and Martin Farrell were complete masters of the game, and only the solidity of their defenders averted peril on several occasions. Yet, for all their outfield superiority, they could manage only a wto-point lead at the break.

The Blues, however, underwent a disastrous start when conceding a first minute goal that should never have been. The ball only trickled to the net and gave Ardmore the confidence they needed to face that trying opening thirty minutes.

Thereafter, Dungarvan assumed complete control and their all-round superiority was far more clear-cut than the interval score of 0-6 to 1-1 suggests.

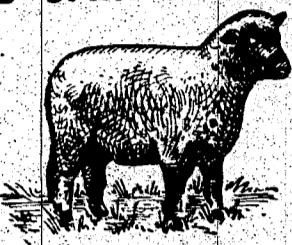

But on the resumption, Ardmore slowly but surely regained the initiative. Within seconds of the throw-in they had their deficit cut to a solitary point, and were soon enjoying equilibrium. Their forwards, particularly Jim Rooney began to find loop-holes in a tiring

AS a result of the report of referee Sean Power on the Gaultier-Stradbally senior football championship game, four playing members of the Stradbally team were suspended at a meeting of the County Board on Monday night.

In his report, Mr. Power stated that during the game he had to send two Stradbally players off. He had his report sheet torn by one of them and was also struck in the face by the same player.

Those suspended were: Jimmy Mansfield (2 years); Tom Walsh (1 year); Terry Guiry (1 year); and Jimmy Guiry (1 year).

ARDMORE PLAYER SUSPENDED

Mattie Mulcahy, the well-known Ardmore senior footballer was suspended for six months as a result of incidents during a primary hurling game between Ardmore and Geraldines last April.

MICHAEL KIRWAN (KILL)

surely is an indication of the seriousness of the present Comeragh standard-bearers, and the guarantee of a rip-roaring set-to with the champions.

It is as outsiders that they enter Sunday's fray. For Kilrossanty that is an almost unique rarity, but such has been Kill's unoverlookable consistency that the challenger's must be given the role of outsiders. Yet this in no way perturbs the green-and-gold brigade, and there is hardly a man among them who does not believe they can perform an act of dethronement.

There has not as yet been any announcements of teams, but with both camps more or less relying on the tried and trusted few starting changes are expected.
