Committee will seek grant of £1,000

When the C.E.O. Mr. T. F. Maher told last Tuesday's meeting of the Vocational Educational Committee that £1,000 was needed for building construction equipment— which would be over the amount provided in the estimates, Mr. C. Curran said if they had to put up that money they would be faced with a steep increase in the rates next year.

Mr. Maher said they were at rock bottom as regards equipment. They hoped to get a full £1,000 grant from the Department for the equipment.

Mr. Curran said what he was afraid of was that if the Dept. did not put up the full money they would have to put up the rest.

Mr. Maher asked the committee to sanction it and they could then ask the Dept. for the full grant.

Mr. N. Walsh said he could not believe they would get money so easy from the Department. They must live within their means, he said, and they could not get this £1,000 within their limit. If they purchased the equipment it would be excess expenditure.

Mr. Curran: Will you assure us that if we pass this £1,000 and the Dept. do not give us a full grant, that we can alter our decision.

Mr. Walsh: If we can get £1,000 as easy as the C.E.O. thinks the Dept. officers should not be in their jobs.

Finally it was decided to take the first step of applying to the Dept. for permission to get tenders for the supplying of the equipment.

Wedding Bells

Miss Mary O'Regan, Georgestown, Kill, and Mr. Con Twomey, Jamestown Road, Finglas, Dublin, who were married in Newtown Parish Church

DUNGARVAN DRAMATIC CLUB

The Dungarvan Dramatic Club has chosen the comedy "Dear Delinquent" by Jack Poppell for its production early in January, 1964. The Club has decided to devote the entire net proceeds of this play to the Dungarvan Christian Brothers Building Fund. Over the 23 years of its existence the Club has been very generous to many charities, both national and local, but this is the first time that the club has donated the entire proceeds to any fund or charity. The committee was influenced in its decision by the fact that the local C.B.S. have a huge target for its building fund and also that the local community has never before appealed to Dungarvan people for funds.

PERMISSION GRANTED TO ATTEND OIREACHTAS

On the proposal of Mr. Norman Walsh, seconded by Mr. F. X. O'Leary, permission was given to Mr. P. O'Flanagan, Cappoquin, to attend the Oireachtas in Dublin this month, at Tuesday's meeting of the Waterford Vocational Education Committee.

COAL TENDER ACCEPTED

The tender of Messrs. A. Moloney & Sons, Dungarvan, for the supply of 20 ton of coal was accepted. The quotation was £8 per ton. The only other tender received was one of £8-5-0 per ton.

Mr. T. Maher (C.E.O.) said a similar quotation was accepted from Messrs. Moloney's last year, and added that the quality of the coal was very good.

BU'S TO WATERFORD

A bus for Waterford, will leave Leamybrien via Mahon Bridge, Fews and Kilmacthomas, on Sunday next. Departure at 1.30 p.m. 5/- return.

Extra Equipment for Techs.

At last Tuesday's meeting had 33 Secretarial students. he said, and only 20 typewriters and they had to break the class into two. They needed them very badly.

CIRCULAR SAW PURCHASED

On the proposal of Mr. J. Butler it was agreed to purchase two Multico 12" circular saws at a total cost of £24-15-0. They will be used in Cappoquin and Portlaoise.

Mr. Maher said they had got £700 extra for grants from the Dept. this year, and they had the money to pay for these items.

Mr. Charles Curran said if there was any question of having a supplementary estimate next year as a result of this he would be against it.

The C.E.O. said that would definitely in Tramore. They do not arise.

NEW TYPE WRITERS

The committee also decided to purchase two new type writers at a cost of £4412-6 each, and one other model that had only been used for demonstration purposes, at a cost of £25.

In reply to Mr. N. Walsh, the C.E.O. said they were pleased in Dungarvan, more so in Cappoquin, and very definitely in Tramore. They do not arise.

YOUGHAL INQUEST

Sitting without a jury at the Courthouse, Youghal, over the week-end, Coroner W. St. Clair Rice, solicitor, held an inquest touching the death of Mr. Edmund Keane, M.Sc., Finbarr House, Upper Strand, Youghal, whose remains were found floating in the sea near the Lighthouse, Youghal, on Sept. 29th last.

Dr. Sean Keane, son of the deceased, gave evidence of identification, and Dr. E. T. Riordan in his evidence stated that from his examination of the remains he was satisfied that the deceased died, not from drowning, but the appearances were compatible with a heart attack which caused him to fall into the sea.

The Coroner recorded a verdict in accordance with the medical evidence and expressed his sympathy with the deceased's wife and family.

Mr. J. N. R. Macnamara, Solicitor, who represented the widow and next-of-kin of the deceased joined in the expression of sympathy and thanked the Coroner, also Sergt. McCarthy and Garda McNulty for their kindness and consideration to deceased's family.

Aglish Girl Weds in Boston

A Nuptial Mass in St. Clement's Church, Somerville, Boston, Mass., recently united in matrimony Miss Breda Cotter, daughter of Mrs. Catherine Cotter, of Somerville, and the late Mr. Thomas Cotter, of Aglish, Cappoquin, Co. Waterford, to Mr. John Patrick O'Malley, jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John O'Malley of Jamaica Plain, Boston, formerly of Co. Mayo and Co. Clare. Right Rev. Monsignor Robert Barry officiated at the double ring ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her cousin, Mr. Michael F. Irwin, a native of Youghal. She wore a gown of ivory peau de soie appliqued, embroidered with Irish Point Lace and seeded pearls and with a court train. For her headpiece she chose a tapered crown of seed pearls and crystals with a bouffant veil of silk illusion. She carried a Prayer Book decorated with white orchid, stephanitis and ivy. Miss Betty Cotter, sister of the bride served as maid of honour. Dressed in an Aqua gown of taffeta and chiffon, she carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Misses Helen, Alicia and Margaret Cotter sisters of the bride were bridesmaids. They wore raspberry pink gowns of taffeta and chiffon, and carried bouquets of sprayed actual carnations. Mr. Thomas O'Malley, brother of the bridegroom was best man and the ushers were Messrs. Paul O'Malley, brother of the groom, Henry Mullhern and Richard Murphy, cousins of the groom. The bride's mother was dressed in a blue gown of taffeta and chiffon with matching accessories. 300 guests attended the reception immediately following the ceremony at Logan Post in Somerville. The couple spent two weeks in Florida on their honeymoon.

MR. STEPHEN CURRAN, Glenmore, Dungarvan, and MISS HANORA O'LEARY Whiddy, Bantry, who were married in St. Patrick's Church, Cork.

Waterford Brilliant In Defeat of Clare

WATERFORD 4-7; Clare 0-2

WHAT a wonderful start to the National Football League campaign by unpredictable Waterford. At Lahinch on Sunday last, they gloriously achieved the unexpected by trouncing a fancied Clare side to the tune of seventeen points in their opening game of the competition.

Touraneena News

TOURIST COUNCIL A.G.M.
Mrs. K. O'Ryan, M.C., Knockalshen, Ballymacarby, and Mr. H.O'Dowd, M.C.C., Lismore, represented the Waterford County Council at the first annual general meeting of the Waterford Tourist Council held on Wednesday night, Oct. 2nd, at Waterford.

REGRETTED DEATH

The death took place at the Cottage Hospital, Clonmel, on Thursday of last week, of Mr. P. Parry (Percy) Mulcahy, O'Connell Street, Clonmel.

The deceased who was in his middle fifties was a member of a highly respected Nire Valley farming family — the Mulcahys of Kilkenny and as an extensive farmer and cattle dealer, himself, he was well and popularly known throughout the county. Following Requiem Office and High Mass in S. Peter and Paul's Church on Friday morning, the funeral took place to Touraneena Cemetery where interment was made in the family burial plot.

To his sister, nephews and nieces much sympathy is extended.

SYMPATHY

Since sympathy is extended to the brother, nephews, nieces and other relatives of the late Mr. Daniel Frater, whose death took place at his home, Bleantis, Ballinacult, on Wednesday of last week, R.I.P., sympathy is also extended to the relatives of the late Mr. Thomas Hickey, Barra-ree, Ballinacult, whose death took place on Thursday, October 3rd, R.I.P.

abilities. But the adoption of a youthful policy by the selectors had outstanding results in this its initial test and on this form the County seems well equipped to again capture sectional honours.

On Sunday Clare had no answer to the brilliant teamwork of the Deise men. They clicked throughout as a unit and many of their scores were the result of movements in which all sectors of the side participated. In Clare strove valiantly to offset this marked Deise superiority but their best efforts were simply not good enough against a team that looked winners from start to finish.

With a commanding grip at mid-field where Martin Kennedy and Tom Walsh mastered a succession of different pairings, Waterford took control from the very start. Even facing the stiff breeze which handicapped them and when they led by 1-4 to 0-2 at half-time a Clare victory was no more than a remote possibility.

After the change over the Banner County was subjected to complete football humiliation. The scene of combat was almost static in the Clare half, where the lively Waterford forwards found gaping loop-holes in the home defence. During that second half they added a further 3-3 to their total without a solitary reply from the outclassed Claremen.

For a team that carried so little confidence with it, the Deise side gave an exceptionally fine performance. Quite a lot was expected from this much vaunted Clare side but they had little say in the footballing lesson that was handed out to them on Sunday.

Despite the absence of Mick Kirwan and Eddie Mooney from the full-back line, the sector was in no way weakened, so splendidly did their replacements, Paddy Carlton and Mark Dingley perform. Together, with Mick Tobin, they lorded it over the opposition and debutant goalkeeper Paddy Crotty got very little to do.

The half-line of Pat Harty, Mick Connolly and Michael Kirwan (Micheal) was also in complete command of every situation and the dangerous Clare half-forwards were never in the game.

But if the defence was soundness personified, it was the midfielders that really stole the show. Martin Kennedy gave a magnificent exhibition of fielding and kicking while Tom Walsh staked strong claims for permanency with a who'shearted and effective display.

Support served by the men behind them, the attack hasn't been seen to such advantage for a long time. All six were ever dangerous with Monty Guiry, sub. Tommy Kirwan, Jimmy Hewitt and Tommy Joe Harty particularly to the fore. On an outclassed Clare side Tommy Martin, P. J. Kennedy, Martin Quailly, Richie Payne and C. Daly were best.

Waterford scorers were: M. Guiry (1-3), T. Kirwan (2-0), T. J. Harty (1-0), J. Hewitt (0-2), M. Connolly and T. Walsh (0-1 each), Clare: R. Payne and C. Daly (0-1 each).

Waterford—P. Crotty; P. Carlton, M. Dingley, M. Tobin, P. Harty, M. Connolly, M. Kirwan, M. Kennedy, T. Walsh; P. Duggan, M. Guiry, T. Riordan; J. Hewitt, T. J. Harty, J. Martin, Sub.—T. Kirwan for T. Riordan.

Clare—J. Anglim, T. Mangan, P. J. Kennedy, M. Molloy, J. Taylor, M. Quailly, T. Murphy, E. Cotter, M. O'Leary, R. Payne, A. Howley, M. Haugh, C. Daly, G. McGinnion, J. Cleary.

Subs.—A. Twomey for Haugh, and J. O'Brien for Howley.

Referee—P. Silke (Limerick)

WEST WATERFORD NOTES

NEW INSTRUCTOR
Mr. J. J. O'Ryan, B.Agr.Sc., has taken up duty as permanent Agricultural Instructor in this area. Mr. O'Ryan, who is a native of Co. Kilkenny, will reside at Ardmore and we join in extending to him a hearty welcome.

GRYHOUND SUCCESS
Congratulations are extended to Mr. A. Fenton, Aglish, on the success of his dog in the final of the Shagreen Cup. Mr. Fenton is an all round sportsman.

BEEF CAMPAIGN
The beef campaign is now in full swing in this area. Deliveries are being made via Yougal Station.

RETURNED FROM HOLIDAY
Following an extended holiday in this country Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O'Shaughnessy and family have returned to London. Mr. O'Shaughnessy is a native of Galway while his wife (nee Foley) is a member of a well-known Graigue (Aglish) family.

LOCAL CLASSES
The attendance at the bi-weekly classes in building construction at Clashmore centre has shown a very welcome improvement. If the classes are to be continued it is important this improvement should be maintained. Mr. Gerard Whelan is the instructor.

Classes in the Winter Farm School will commence in the near future and a good attendance is also hoped for.

CHURCH RENOVATION
The renovation of Aglish Parish Church is now well advanced. The work is being done by Mr. W. O'Shea, Contractor.

SPEED LIMITS
Speed limit regulations are in force in Ardmore and Clash-

more villages and are being observed by the vast majority of motorists. It is hoped that the small minority who do not observe the regulations will now do so and thus contribute to road safety and the preservation of human life.

TIDY TOWNS
In this year's Tidy Towns competition, Ardmore, on its first attempt, secured 60 marks out of a possible 100. The local committee have studied the Bord Fáilte report on the competition and hope to do much better next year.

Miss Lourdes Favin, Clashmore, and Miss Kathleen McGrath, do. recently left for England where they will complete their secondary education at a well-known residential college. Both young girls are very popular in the area.

LAND DIVISION
At a recent meeting of the local F.F. organisation the question of Land Division in the Ardmore area was discussed. This land was acquired by the L.L.C. some years ago.

MACRA ACTIVITIES
A meeting of representatives of the county was held in Dunganarvan on Tuesday night, Oct. 1st. The meeting was assembled to draw up a new educational system for the rural community. It was presided over by Mr. Pierce Asy, Chairman of the Co. Executive. In his opening speech, Mr. Casey said that competitions sponsored by Macra had been education only for the minority.

They tended to expose the lack of education for the many. The emphasis on these competitions created a trend towards social activity, consequently reducing the importance of education.

"This situation was in complete contrast to the aims of Macra," he continued. "It was a situation that arose despite the fact that leaders at local and county level had realised that education was the main objective. They realised only too well that the introduction of an educational programme would lead to a reduction of membership in local clubs."

Mr. Maher (Acting C.E.O.) outlined the facilities available to young farmers and stated that the Vocational Education Committee was stretched to the limit of its resources trying to provide the necessary services.

Rev. C. Daly, C.C. Modeligo, said that in modern farming education was necessary from a vocational point of view. Big changes were coming and youth should be prepared for the new system of farming. He also called for more business like co-operation amongst farmers.

The representatives of the fourteen organisations present all gave their views and all were unanimous that Macra is at present, too competition-minded and something more practical must be done. With this end in view another meeting was called for the 15th Oct. at Lawlor's Hotel, Dunganarvan.

CAPPOQUIN ANNUAL DANCE
News has come from the popular and efficient secretary from Cappoquin, Mary Noonan, that her club will hold their annual dance at the Boathouse, Cappoquin, on unday, Oct. 20.

TALLOW NOTES

DEATH OF MISS B. PRENDERGAST
We regret to record the death of Mrs. Bridget Prendergast, Chapel Street, which sad event occurred at her residence on Thursday, 3rd October, after a rather protracted illness and at a fairly advanced age. Deceased was a member of a very old Tallow family and was a widow of the late Neallus Prendergast, who served in World War 1, and who died shortly after the armistice from the effects of service in that war. The late Mrs. Prendergast was a highly estimable lady and was held in high regard by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. Her death is deeply regretted over a wide area.

The remains, accompanied by a large and representative cortege, were removed to the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Tallow, on Thursday evening and were blessed and received by Rev. Fr. M. Condon C.C., Tallow, assisted by Rev. Fr. F. Lucey, C.C. do.

Requiem Masses were celebrated on Friday and Saturday morning for the happy repose of her soul, and the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery on Saturday afternoon in the presence of a large gathering of friends and sympathisers. Rev. Fr. Condon C.C. and Rev. Fr. Lucey, C.C., again officiated.

To her nephews, nieces and other relatives we extend our deepest sympathy.

OLD I.R.A. MAN'S DEATH
The death occurred at Our Lady of Lourdes Hospital, Midleton, on 2nd October, of Mr. John (Jack) Hegarty, a member of the 4th Battalion, Cork No. 1 rigade, Old I.R.A. A native of Inch, Killeagh, he joined the Volunteers at an early age and took part in many actions against British Forces. His home in the secluded valley of Inch, about six miles from Tallow, was the meeting place of many prominent members of the Republican Movement. He was the holder of a service medal and pension for his services during that period of Irish history. He was latterly employed as Sheep

Dipping Inspector under Cork County Council.

The remains were removed to St. Patrick's Church, Inch. The coffin, which was draped with the tri-colour, was borne from the hearse into the church by Old I.R.A. comrades of his. The funeral took place to Knockanore Cemetery. Connaught was both large and representative. A guard of honour of Old I.R.A. veterans rendered military honours.

SYMPATHY
We wish to extend our sympathy to Mr. James Tobin, Janeville, Tallow, Mrs. D. Geary, The Paddock, do., and Miss Mary Tobin, Tirucullen, do., on the death of their aunt which occurred recently in the United States. The deceased visited Ireland a few years ago.

TALLOW FOOT BEAGLE CLUB
Tallow foot beagle club held their opening meeting of the season at Tallow on Sunday. Though the day was not conducive to good hunting, a fairly large crowd enjoyed a good day's sport.

Mr. T. Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Kelly, Knockanore left for England recently where he will take up employment. A most popular young man, we wish him the best of luck across Channel.

TALLOW MACRA DANCE
Tallow branch of Macra na Feirme held their annual dance in the Arch Ballroom on Sunday night. There was a good attendance and all enjoyed a grand night's dancing to the music of Billy Kenrick and his Orchestra, Clonmel.

LIGHT OUTSIDE KILWATERMOY CHURCH STILL MISSING
Some time ago Waterford County Council sanctioned a light outside the Church of the Holy Cross, Kilwatermoy. So far it has not been installed and the parishioners are asking why? Now that the dark evenings are moving in, and with Devotions being held in the church, an exterior light is an urgent necessity. Let us hope that this matter will be attended to without further delay.

His remains were removed on Friday evening to Kilbrien followed by a huge and impressive cortege and was blessed and received by Rev. M. Farrell, C.C., Kilgobinet, assisted by Rev. Fr. D. McGrath, P.P., Rev. Fr. Bracken, C.C., Fourmilewater, and Rev. Fr. M. O'Gorman, C.C., St. John's, Waterford (cousin).

Requiem Masses were celebrated on Saturday morning for the repose of his soul and interment took place in the adjoining cemetery. Another large concourse was present to pay their respects.

Rev. Fr. Farrell, C.C., assisted by Rev. Fr. D. McGrath, P.P., officiated at the graveside and recited the prayers for the dead. Large numbers of Mass cards were received by his relatives.

The chief mourners were: Mrs. K. Hickey c/o Thos. Nugent, Grattan Square, Dunganarvan (sister); Sr. M. Roch, Good Shepherd Convent, Limerick; Sr. M. Colette, Good Shepherd Convent, Cork; Mrs. John Harrington, Barraree; Mrs. Pat. Crotty, Scart; Mrs. Thos. Nugent, Dunganarvan; Mrs. Patrick O'Gorman, Glasha, Ballymacarby.

(J. Kiely and Sons had charge of funeral arrangements).

Wexford for Oireachtas Final

Waterford Squander Countless Chances

WEXFORD 1-8; WATERFORD 1-7
A well-nigh perfect demonstration of how a game should NOT be won was given by Waterford at New Ross on Sunday last when surrendering their year-old Oireachtas trophy by gallantly going under to Wexford in a generally drab and disappointing semi-final.

Whenever this game will be recalled the questions asked will not be how Wexford won but rather how the Deise managed to lose. For without casting reflection on the Slaneiders in any way this was a game that Waterford should have won by the proverbial street. They dominated in practically every sector of the field, but when it came to the all important art of finishing off skilfully executed moves they failed lamentably.

TWELVE WIDES
This inexcusable squandering was particularly prevalent in the opening thirty minutes, when no fewer than twelve overs of worthless value were recorded. Many of these misses had to be seen to be really believed, as more often than not it looked easier to score than to squander.

Neville rolling back waves of Deise attacks. Phil Wilson was the better of their midfielders, and in an attack that was left in isolation for long periods, Paul Lynch, Hopper McGrath and Jimmy O'Brien were the stars.

DEFENCE NOT TO BLAME
The Waterford defence can detach itself from all blame. They contained the opposing attack and allowed them precious few opportunities and Percy Flynn had a comparatively easy afternoon in goal.

IMPROVED
On the change over the standard of the hurling improved as Wexford made their efforts to step up on a very much below par first-half display. Soon equilibrium was restored and at the three-quarter mark they were still firmly in scoring deadlock.

Then however Wexford struck what proved to be the decisive blows. Paul Lynch tapped over a point that gave them a flattering lead, and thirteen minutes from time the same player was fortuitously on hand to crash home their only goal of the hour. Hopper McGrath pointed a close in free, and Waterford, now five points in arrears made whole sale switches.

Barron reverted from attack to defence. Meaney replaced the injured Irish and took over as John Kirwan's mid-field partner, with Larry Guinan again taking over in the outer line of defence.

Grimes, now on the "40" had a 21 yards free scooped away by a wall of defenders, only for Martin Morrissey to collect the partial clearance and point. Mercilessly they bombarded the Wexford defence, but gallantly though the home defenders performed, only sheer incompetence when it came to score-taking deprived Waterford of a decisive victory.

Five minutes from time the long sought major was obtained by Meaney, to leave but a stroke of the ball between them. Even in those closing moments the game could so very easily have been won, but match winning scores continued to go abegging.

FRUSTRATING
It was without doubt as frustrating a defeat as the team has ever suffered. Never have they been so erratically afflicted, for which they paid so dearly.

All credit of course to Wexford who with far fewer chances still managed to qualify for a tilt with Tipperary on Sunday week.

Their defence was superb, with Dan Quigley, Billy Rackard, Ned Wheeler and Tom WANTED: Farmer's son, aged 15 or 16, as porter, indoor. Apply: Lawlor's Hotel, Dungarvan.

Clearly the midfield worries are not yet solved. John Kirwan was a big success and is likely to make the grade, but Larry Guinan was all at sea in the area and was rightly switched to defence in the second-half.

The attack alone must shoulder full responsibility for defeat. Mick Flannelly and Frankie Walsh when called from the substitute bench, tried all they knew to penetrate the home defence, but got little or no support from their subdued colleagues.

THE REFEREE
One cannot let the occasion pass without referring to the refereeing by Pat Johnstone of Kilkenny. Many of his decisions in favour of Wexford were weird ones to say the least and to cap a most unsatisfactory performance, he ended the proceedings with over a minute left for play.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT - FRAHER.—The sons, daughters, brothers, sisters and relatives of the late Rita Fraher, Scart, Ballinacult, County Waterford, wish to thank very sincerely all those who sympathised with them in their recent sad bereavement; those who sent Mass cards, telegrams and letters of sympathy. Also, those who attended removal of remains, Masses and funeral. Trusting this will be accepted by all in grateful acknowledgment. The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass will be offered for their intentions.

IN MEMORIAM
HICKEY—(1st Anniversary)—In sad and loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. Bridget Hickey, Barracree, who died on the 10th of October, 1962. On whose soul Sweet Jesus have mercy. 5th PILGRIMAGE TO LOURDES

FR. FLAVIN BLESSES THE POLIO PATIENTS

V. Rev. T. Power and Fr. W. Callanan lead the Procession

A SECTION OF THE DIOCESAN PROCESSION

THE Fifth Annual Waterford and Lismore Pilgrimage to Lourdes took place from Sept. 28th to Oct. 5th. Included on the Pilgrimage were forty-five invalids from all over the Diocese.

On Sunday, Sept. 29th, the advance party of brancardiers, nurses, handmaids and ordinary pilgrims arrived in Lourdes. Very Rev. T. Power, P.P. St. Patrick's Waterford, Rev. J. Murphy, C.C. Carrickbeg, and Rev. P. Flavin, Carriglea accompanied them. During the day the party joined in the pilgrimage exercises, especially in the Procession of the Most Blessed Sacrament and Blessing of the Sick. At 8.30 p.m. they took part in the Torchlight Procession and singing of The Lourdes Hymn.

On Monday 30th Sept., the special pilgrimage Mass was celebrated in the Chapel of the Most Blessed Sacrament, Basilica of St. Pius X at 7.30 a.m. As on the previous day, the pilgrims joined in the Procession of the Most Blessed Sacrament and Blessing of the Sick. At night they joined in the Torchlight Procession and the singing of the Lourdes Hymn.

Tuesday, October 1st was a memorable day for the Pilgrims. Right Rev. Mons. Jean Viscaro, Rector of The Sacred Sacrament of Our Lady of Lourdes, gave them the greatest honour in charging them with the ordering and staffing of the Procession of the Most Blessed Sacrament and the Blessing of the Sick at 4.30 p.m. This entailed the provision of five priests and fifteen laymen for the sacred duty. It was a gesture of affection by Monsignor Viscaro, and one more of his many proofs of esteem for Waterford and Lismore pilgrimages at Lourdes during the four years of the existence of their Hospitality of Our Lady of Lourdes. The officiating clergy were: Very Rev. T. Power, P.P. St. Patrick's, Waterford (formerly P.P. of Kilgobnet), Rev. W. Callanan, Bishop's Secretary, Waterford and Rev. P. Flavin, Carriglea Convent. Members of the pilgrimage from Dungarvan and Ring can be seen in the accompanying photos. A deeply moving moment was when, during the Procession, the Most Blessed Sacrament entered the Asile to the special word of the Polio Pilgrimage. Here, the officiating priest went to each bed of the 25 patients so that the Divine Physician could bless them. The prayers in English during the Blessing of the Sick on Rosary Square were recited by V. Rev. P. McGiverney, Adm. Athlone, a priest member of the Waterford pilgrimage.

At the Torchlight Procession that night the Rosary was said at the Grotto and the Waterford and Lismore Lantern was borne at the head of the procession by Mr. E. Enright, Chief Brancardier of the Pilgrimage. He was accompanied by Rev. W. Callanan and Rev. P. Flavin.

At 11 o'clock in the Basilica of the Immaculate Conception, Rev. W. Callanan conducted the Holy Hour and afterwards said Mass at the High Altar. Other priests, members of the pilgrimage said Mass at side altars. All the pilgrims received Holy Communion and they were joined by many Irish people also on pilgrimage to Lourdes.

The Pilgrimage Mass in the Grotto on Wednesday, 2nd October at 9.30 a.m. was offered for the intentions of His Lordship, the Bishop of Waterford and Lismore, and for the welfare of the flock entrusted to him.

The Invalids Arrive

On Wednesday 2nd October, the invalids arrived by plane, 45 in number (4 from Dungarvan) accompanied by Drs. O'Brien-Moran and John Phelan, Medical Officers of the Pilgrimage. Nurse Mary Sheedy, matron of the Hospitality of Our Lady of Lourdes, Nurses Henneby and Keating, brancardiers Mark Jacob and John Power and Fr. Francis Hopkins, Chaplain of the Invalids, Everyday until Saturday 5th, our invalids' aided by their devoted doctors, nurses, handmaids and brancardiers followed faithfully the sick pilgrims' day. This began with early Mass and Holy Communion at the Grotto with breakfast afterwards in the open air. At 9 a.m. our invalids were taken to the Grotto and then to the Baths. At 11 a.m. they took lunch either in the diningroom of the Asile or in the open air under the chestnut trees in front of the Asile. Between 12.30 - 1.30 they rested and received visitors. At 2 p.m. they were taken by their nurses, handmaids and brancardiers to the Grotto and to the Baths. During the bathing of the sick fervent prayers were said by the priests and people. At 4 p.m. the invalids were ranged in two lines under the chestnut trees at both sides of Rosary Square. There they awaited with their fellow invalids from many countries the Solemn Blessing of the Sick and Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament. At 5.30 p.m. they were taken back to the Asile where they dined at 6 p.m. At 7 p.m. after night prayers recited by their chaplain, Fr. Hopkins, they slept after their long and inspiring day.

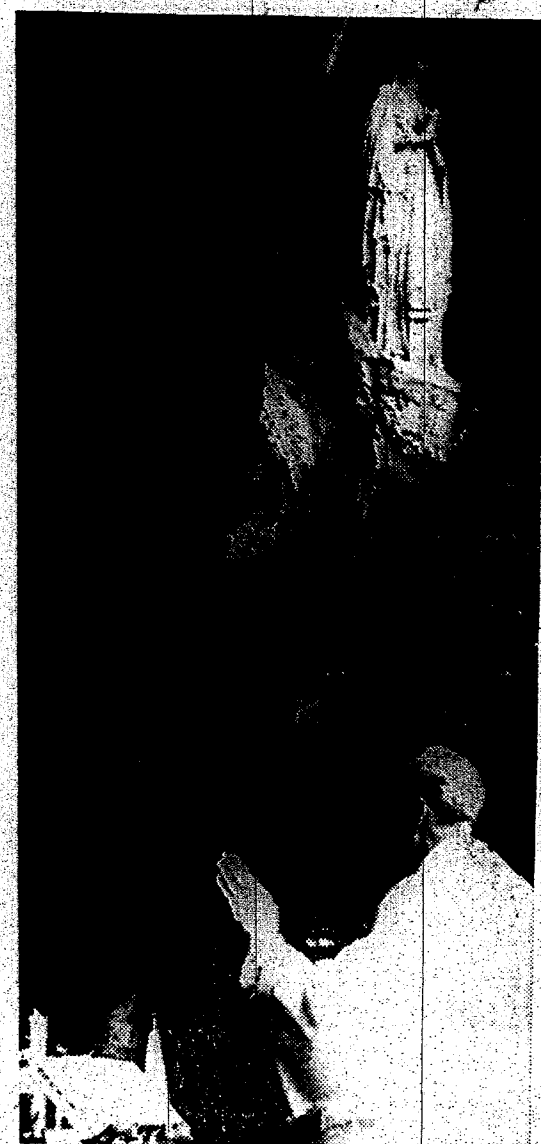

On Saturday morning, 5th October at 7.30, Rev. Fr. Hopkins celebrated Mass at the open altar of St. Bernadette, Rosary Square. All the invalids and ordinary pilgrims attended and received Holy Communion. Afterwards the pilgrimage photograph was taken on the steps of the Rosary Basilica (reproduction on front page). Saturday night came all too quickly, and after early Mass celebrated by Rev. Fr. Hopkins on Sunday morning the plane left Lourdes airport at 9 a.m. and reached Dublin at noon.

The ordinary pilgrims were privileged on Thursday, Oct. 3rd, to make the Stations of the Cross under the leadership of Rev. Fr. Hopkins. Holy Mass was celebrated at the XII Station. At the exit from the Way of the Cross, the pilgrims gathered around the famous Celtic Cross which was 'sculptured' by the late Wm. Gaffney of Waterford and presented to Lourdes by the Irish National Pilgrimage of 1913, led by the late Cardinal Logue, Archbishop of Armagh. There the pilgrims prayed fervently for their friends, clerical and lay, at home. It was consoling to think that the diocese in which Wm. Gaffney lived and worked was in Lourdes on official pilgrimage fifty years after his masterpiece was erected at Our Lady's Shrine.

In the brilliant sunshine of Saturday, Oct. 5th, the invalids were taken to the Grotto at 1.30 p.m. The ordinary pilgrims assembled at the Statue of the Crowned Virgin, Rosary Square, and led by the priest pilgrims they walked to the Grotto reciting the Rosary and singing hymns. At the Grotto, Rev. Fr. Hopkins addressed the pilgrims and briefly but effectively he expressed the thoughts in the minds of all at that solemn moment. It was the moment of farewell to Our Lady's Shrine: it was a time of gratitude for all She had done for us during our stay; it was a time of resolution for the days ahead when we resumed our ordinary daily tasks.

On Saturday night at 11 o.m. we joined with an English pilgrimage for the Holy Hour in the Basilica of the Immaculate Conception. At midnight Mass was celebrated by the priest pilgrims and Holy Communion was received by all. A last farewell at the Grotto and we were on the bus to the airport. We flew at 3.15 a.m. and reached Dublin at 6.30 a.m. After breakfast we rested and awaited the arrival of the invalids' plane. Members of the Dublin Red Cross, who had on the outward journey transferred our invalids from Kinesbride to Collinstown, now awaited their return and brought our invalids to Kingsbridge. Here they had dinner and were comfortably settled in their places on the special train. We left at 3 o'clock and reached Waterford at 5.30. There was a joyous reunion of pilgrims, relatives and friends.

The fifth Diocesan Pilgrimage to Lourdes had reached a happy conclusion. Our Lady had truly watched over them from Waterford to Lourdes and home.

It is hoped to discuss in these columns various aspects of a pilgrimage to Lourdes. In the meantime readers who are interested might like to read an officially approved guide book to Lourdes, 'Going to Lourdes' by Rev. J. A. Shields (Dublin, C. J. Fallon, Ltd.). This is also the official pilgrimage manual of the Waterford and Lismore Diocesan Pilgrimage.

The nurses who took part in the pilgrimage and gave their unstinted services in care of the sick were:

Nurses Mary Sheedy, matron of the Hospitality of Our Lady of Lourdes; Barry (A.), Keating (B.), Keating (C.), Henneby, Smyth, Burke, Barry (P.), McGrath, Lloyd and Dea-Moloney.

In conclusion we wish to express our deep gratitude to Fr. Lacroix, one of the official photographers in the Domain of Our Lady of Lourdes, and official photographer to the Waterford and Lismore Diocesan Pilgrimage for his generous permission to reproduce these photographs of the Diocesan Pilgrimage.

KILMAGTHOMAS NOTES

Looking Very Fit and Well is Rev. Fr. John Meaney, who has just spent portion of his latest periodical holiday-break from his missionary labours in the Philippine Islands at Carrigeady, Bonmahon, where he was the guest of his aunt, Mrs. N. McGrath, widow and farmer, as amiable and thoughtful a neighbour as one could hope to happen on. His reverence is a first cousin of well and popularly known Mr. Michael McGrath, Carrigeady, and Miss Margaret McGrath, do.

Gracious and Worthy Member of a much esteemed family in his native parish of Cinea and Rathmore is Very Rev. Michael Power, P.P., Knockmore and Glendine, whose multitude of Mid-Waterford friends and well-wishers join with his parishioners in praying that he will make as speedy and complete recovery from his present indisposition.

A Warm Favourite with everyone who had the pleasure of knowing her, passed away on Tuesday, 1st inst., in the person of Mrs. Corriegan (relict of Mr. Patrick Corriegan), Mahon-bridge, Kilmacthomas and with her well-liked sons and daughters whose sympathy is widespread in their sad bereavement and loss.

There was a large and representative attendance at the removal of the remains to St. Anne's Church, Fewis, and again at the interment, which was made in the adjoining cemetery subsequent to the celebration of Requiem Mass. Rev. M. Barron, C.C., Kilsenty, officiated at the graveside.

A number of floral wreaths were placed on the grave and many Mass cards and messages of condolence were received.

Kilmacthomas-born Garda Thoms Flynn has taken up duty in New Ross where he replaces Garda Dan Ducey who has been transferred to the town of Wexford.

Mr. Paul Peter Capelli, of 9 St. James' Close, Pangbourne, Berkshire, England, formerly of the Glebe, Bonmahon, who died on June 12th last, left estate in Great Britain valued at £52,261 gross; £49,952 net value (duty paid £15,534).

Probate has been granted to Mr. Michael H. Keogh, of New Bern House, Pangbourne, the sole executor.

Mr. Capelli's father, Giovanni, came from Italy to Bonmahon, to supervise the working of the copper mines there and married a local lady, Miss Katherine Keene.

The late Mr. Capelli was a most exemplary member of the Mother Church, R.I.P.

Thomas O'Brien, a 17-year-old employee of Irish Tanners Ltd., Portlaw, sustained serious injuries when he was thrown from his motor-cycle after it had collided with a pole as he was entering the grounds of the Tannery on Wednesday, 2nd inst. O'Brien, who resides at Ballyhussa, was removed in unconscious condition to Ardkeen General Hospital, Waterford, where his condition on the following day was stated to be comfortable.

Not Only deeply regretted by her husband, son, sister (r. Maria, Jersey City, U.S.A.), daughter-in-law and grandchildren is the death of Mrs. Ellen Power, which occurred on Wednesday of last week, 2nd inst., at her son's residence Munsboro', Clonea-Power, but the sad event is felt by her many intimate friends as a deep personal loss. In her presence gloom was impossible. Her cheerful manner invariably elevated the mood of her company. Behind her debonair disposition there was a fine mind—highly cultivated and she maintained a strong respect for the traditional way of life and her values and sympathies were well founded.

She will be remembered as a delightful, kind and lovable neighbour, blessed with many Christian virtues; the most striking of which was her charity towards her fellow-travellers in this "vale of tears". An immense concourse of mourners and sympathisers accompanied the remains to Clonea-Power Parish Church on Thursday evening, and Office and High Mass on Friday morning preceded the interment, which took place in the adjoining cemetery amidst every manifestation of profound sorrow.

All the priests present at the obsequies again officiated at the graveside. Sheaves of spiritual bouquets and messages conveying expressions of condolence were received.—R.I.P.

A Big Crowd from over a wide area patronised the dance in the Rainbow Hall, Kilmacthomas on Sunday night last under the auspices of the Wind-up Social Club and the evening was greatly enjoyed by all in attendance. Dancing was from 9 to 2 a.m. and a special feature was the excellent selection of music delivered by Billy Murphy and his Dixielanders.

All praise to the popular promoting body on having provided so pleasurable and successful a function.

Another Beet Season has arrived again and reports to hand indicate that the crop is well up to the standard of previous years, despite the prevalence of disease in the early stages of growth.

Residents of the neighbouring seaboardside saw abnormally high tides over yesterday-end. Such tides happen at or near the new and full moon and they are known as Spring tides.

Noted—The Department of spent touring Ireland.

Agriculture estimates that the warble fly causes £200,000 damage to hides in this country each year. Farmers also suffer considerable direct losses, as cattle affected with warble fly give a reduced milk yield (up to 25% drop in production) and show a serious falling off in liveweight gain.

These losses, the Department advises, can be eliminated by dressing cattle between now and December 1st with Ruclena 25E or Dyvon in Oil. Only one application is necessary, unlike the older preparations, which required repeated dressings over a long period.

Evening Mass—On the evening of Friday 4th inst. Mass was celebrated in the Cathedral of the Most Holy Trinity, Waterford, at 7.30. Holy Communion was given during the Mass. Confessions were heard at 7 o'clock that evening.

In future, there will be an evening Mass in the Cathedral on the first Friday of every month.

Mr. Patrick Ormond, Goods Agent, C.I.S. Station, Waterford, who is on annual leave from Corus Impair Firearm, is a brother to Mr. Sean Ormond, T.D., Kilmacthomas, and Mr. Jerry Ormond, B.E., Dungarvan.

We Tender our deepest sympathy to Ellen M. McCarthy, on the death of her uncle, William Walsh, Graignagour, Ballymacarby, Clonmel.

WEDDING BELLS

The marriage took place at St. Carthage's Cathedral, Lismore, of Mr. Matthew Power, youngest son of Mr. James Power and the late Mrs. Power, Maureen Russell, S.R.N., S.C.M., Glounthane, Lismore, and Miss youngest daughter of Mrs. A. Russell and the late Mr. M. Russell, Fern Villa, Lismore. The ceremony, with Nuptial Mass and Papal blessing was performed by Very Rev. T. Canan Dunshy, P.P., V.F., Lismore, assisted by Rev. Fr. O'Sullivan, Youghal. Best man was Captain John Power, Kilsade, brother of the groom and the matron of honour was Mrs. P. Morrissey, sister of the bride. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. Michael Russell, wore a ballet length gown of white embroidered brocade with mandarin collar and shoulder length veil and carried a bouquet of red carnations and maidenhair fern while the matron of honour wore a blue ensemble with matching head-dress and carried a bouquet of sweet pea. The reception was held at the Galtee Hotel, Cahir, and the honeymoon is being spent touring Ireland.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

GOOD NEWS.
It is with much pleasure that we announce that the provision to a swimming pool so long talked of and hoped for has become a reality and that in the course of some days work on the project will begin. Some few months ago the Rowing Club committee gave serious consideration to the provision of a pool and tentatively marked out a site in the Club-house. Paying an unexpected and welcome visit to the Club on Saturday was the President, Mr. C. O. Stanley and he was warm in his approval of the project and contributed a substantial sum towards the cost. His generous action means that work on the pool can start without delay. It is hoped that with the support of the public the pool will be open at the beginning of next summer. There has been a general welcome for the news that this desirable amenity is being provided.

AWARD FOR STATION
Cappoquin Railway Station figures in the recently published list of awards by Bord Fuite in the national competition. It is gratifying to record that down through the years since the inauguration of the competition for stations, awards have been made to Cappoquin. Congratulations to stationmaster Mr. Frank Doyle and his staff on maintaining the high standard set by his predecessors in the station.

RESIDENT BEREAVED
Mr. David Smyth, who died on the 1st inst. at his home, St. Patrick's Place, Mallow, was brother of local resident, Mr. John S. Smyth, Main Street. To him and the members of his family, sympathy is extended in their bereavement.

DIED IN U.S.A.
News has reached here of the death in New York of Mrs. N.

Cronin, wife of Mr. Thomas Cronin of Bawnfoin.

DIED IN ENGLAND
The death took place in England of Mrs. Agnes Wood (nee Foley). She was a native of Ballinwilling.

At the monthly meeting of the local guild it was unanimously decided that aid be given to two worthy causes, namely, the "Freedom from Hunger Campaign" and the sending of an invalid to Lourdes. For the first named it was arranged to sponsor a raffle. To aid the other good cause it was unanimously decided to invite subscriptions from those interested. Mr. Norman Walsh, M.C.C., has kindly consented to act as treasurer to the fund.

LATE MR. L. HALLAHAN

The death of Mr. Laurence Hallahan, of Adlish, which took place at his home on Friday, 4th inst., has removed a well-known and popular figure. He was an extensive and progressive farmer whose many good qualities earned him general esteem and regard. The remains were removed to Aglish Church on Saturday evening and the burial took place on the following day in the adjoining cemetery. Very Rev. M. J. Hackett, P.P., and Rev. E. Tobin, C.C. officiating. The very large and representative attendance on both occasions reflected public sorrow and sympathy.

The chief mourners were Julia (widow), Pierce and Laurence, Aglish, Edward, B.S.C., Manorbarron, Walter London (sons), Joan, Bogner Regis, Ha. Brown, Bromley (daughters); Patrick Hallahan, Waterford (brother); Mrs. T. O'Keefe, U.S.A.; Agnes Hallahan, Youghal (sisters). (Funeral arrangements by A. Walsh and Sons, Cappoquin).

CIVIL DEFENCE TRAINING
At a recent meeting of the Urban Council a letter was read from the Cork County Council as follows: "The Council will shortly be commencing training classes for Civil Defence volunteers in the Youghal area and a meeting to promote recruitment and general further civil defence in the Youghal area will be held in the Town Hall. I shall be glad if you would bring the matter to the notice of the members of the Council and I would be grateful if the Chairman and other members would attend and give this meeting your support.

The Chairman, Mr. Good, said he would like to commend this meeting to the public. None of us want to look on the gloomy side but it is the duty of every citizen to support Civil Defence.

The recruitment meeting was held at the Town Hall on Thursday when the Hall was filled to capacity and according to reports there were a large number of men and women volunteers.

BALLYCOTTON SEA ANGLING
Although a large number of sea anglers travelled to Ballycotton for the last of the present series of sea angling, the event had to be called off due to a heavy sea fog. It has been fixed for next Sunday commencing at 11.30 a.m. and the weigh-in is at 6 p.m.

HONOUR FOR YOUGHAL LADY
Congratulations to Miss Ann Russell of North Abbey Motor Works, Youghal, who was recently chosen from a large number of entries as the Cork County winner of Miss Holiday 1963 at the carnival confan.

test at Majorca Ballroom. The prize for the ultimate winner is a free 15-day tour of Rome, Capri and Naples. Miss Russell is employed as decorator and assistant designer at Priory Ceramic Ltd., Youghal. Aged 20 years she is one of a family of eight.

EXPORT DEMANDS FOR YOUGHAL PRODUCTS
Plans to increase export orders were fulfilled for Youghal pottery "Priory Ceramics Ltd." when Mr. B. A. Brady few to New York for the purpose of directing the marketing activities of the firm. He was accompanied by other Irish industrialists on a special flight arranged by the Federation of Irish Industries. They are at present viewing the high class Irish products at the "Trade of Ireland" promotion at the Fifth Avenue Store of Lord and Taylor, New York.

NEW SCHOOL FOR YOUGHAL
According to a recent announcement, by Very Rev. Canon Sheehan, P.P., the provision of addition school accommodation has been envisaged due to the increase in the population of Youghal. The present Technical School at Church Street is overcrowded for a number of years and unable to accommodate those who sought enrolment. It would appear that a completely new school much larger than the present one will be erected provided a suitable site in the town is available. Rumour has picked many such site but it is understood that a site has not yet been agreed on.

CONGRATULATIONS
Congratulations to Mr. Leonard De La Cour, of McCurtainstown, Youghal, on his winning a £500 scholarship to Irish Shipping Ltd. He received his early education at the Youghal Christian Brothers Schools after which he attended the local Vocational School. He is son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas De La Cour and is a noted athlete and G.A.A. fan.

N.F.A. NEWS Accounts And The Farmer

In the past it has been the general practice of farmers to keep an account of their farming activities but that can hardly be said of the farmer of today who is fact learning the value of keeping records. Records help farmers to plan ahead and enable them to put their farms on a sounder and firmer footing.

HOW ONE SETS ABOUT THIS WORK
It can be said that the type of records which can be used by a farmer will depend on the kind of farming engaged in. Simple records can be prepared in consultation with the local agricultural adviser.

WHAT WORK IS INVOLVED
This will mainly depend on the size of the farm and whether he is engaged in mixed farming or specialises in one or more branches of agriculture.

BENEFITS TO BE OBTAINED
These are many and extremely important and not only for the businessman but also for the farmer, for farming is a business.

By studying his own records a farmer will ascertain whether his farm has in fact incurred a loss or realised a profit. This will make it clear whether he is working on the right lines or not.

It is generally accepted that if a farmer studies his records he will be in a better position to make decisions towards the end of the year.

Resolutions on the question of the price of ware potatoes were received from Counties Monaghan and Meath, where generally the price offered to producers is below the cost of production.

It was agreed that an early opening of the Starch and Alcohol would do much to relieve the glut in particular areas. It was also suggested that the question of demanding a fixed minimum price in relation to the cost of production should be considered very seriously and incorporated in the "New Deal" document.

One of the essentials of a good branch and in fact a very important one in developing a good organisation is to ensure that all members are adequately informed of exactly what the organisation is doing.

Brickeys Can Shock Mount Sion

MITCHELS AND VALLEYS ALSO FANGIED

GAELIC JOTTINGS

● A DEFEAT THAT SHOULD NEVER HAVE BEEN

How galling it must have been for the mere handful of Waterford supporters in the 7,000 attendance at New Ross on Sunday last as they watched frustratingly the countless feasible scoring chances that were squandered in the Oireachtas semi-final against Wexford. The score-line will forever tell of a Wexford victory by 1-8 to 1-7 but concealed behind it all is the vast superiority exerted outfield by the Deise men, only to have it abused by the inaccuracies of a surprisingly off-colour attack.

For truth to tell, this was a game that Waterford should have won by a comfortable margin. Everywhere except on the all-important scoreboard were they the masters, and it was only through sheer inexplicably poor marksmanship that they failed to qualify for the decider against Tipp on Sunday week.

In the opening half they shot no fewer than twelve wides against Wexford's three and at the interval led by only a solitary point—0-4 to 0-3. The second half saw them well on top territorially that is, but that dominance never looked likely to be translated into match-winning scores and at the end they paid the maximum penalty for their scoring misdemeanours.

Defeat naturally enough, has come as a major disappointment to followers, yet this Waterford display has much to recommend itself by. Most of the supposedly veterans again turned in storming performances while new midfielder John Kirwan possesses all the necessities to make the grade. It would be the height of folly of course, to suggest that the team's ills have been cured, as quite obviously all is not yet well at midfield and in attack. Defects in these sectors give an unbalanced look to the side, but should solutions be found for these headache spots it will not be long before the Munster champions return to the winning trail.

● FOOTBALLERS CONFOUND CRITICS

Well, contrary to all expectations, the County's footballers have done it again. They travelled to Lahinch on Sunday last to play a highly fancied Clare side, given little chance by the critics, myself included, but confounded everyone by scoring a resounding 4-8 to 0-2 victory in the National League.

● FOOTBALL DOMINATES

SUNDAY'S PROGRAMME

Sunday next should provide patrons with a feast of football thrills at the various venues throughout the County. At Dungarvan, Brickey Rangers and Mount Sion do battle in the second round, while at Walsh Park, Waterford, John Mitchels and Gaultier are also engaged in second round combat, a game that could prove the best of the day.

At Lismore we have the Divisional final between the holder Valley Rovers and Ballinacourty in which the outcome looks as open as the proverbial barn door.

All three venues should draw the crowds in huge numbers, and if Sion, Mitchels and the Valleys are the fancied ones, it will, occasion no surprise to the writer should one or more of these teams fall by the wayside.

Elsewhere in this issue I will preview in detail these intriguing games and attempt the hazardous task of naming a trio of winners.

● TRAMORE AND STRADBALLY TAKE COUNT TITLES

Despite the appalling weather conditions prevailing on Sunday last, a good attendance turned up for the juvenile and minor county finals at the Fraher Field. Unexpectedly, however, neither final produced the expected thrills, and Stradbally and Tramore found little difficulty in annexing the trophies.

Tramore were far too slick for Abbeyside in the minor final while Stradbally's juvenile victory was as easily gained as the 3-5 to 1-2 scoreline suggests.

● WEDDING BELLS FOR PROMINENT GAELS

Wedding bells sounded for two well-known Gaels on Wednesday, namely Tommy Power, the Ardmore, Waterford, and Munster footballer, and John Browne, who is a prominent playing member of the Ballinacourty Club.

The writer extends through these columns best wishes to both in their married lives.

● JOHNNY QUARRY FOR NEW YORK PARTY?

Whilst the complete New York party to travel to Ireland off the National hurling league final on October 27th has not yet been announced, it is expected to include former Dungarvan star Johnny Quarry. From all reports Johnny is playing top-class hurling at the moment and it will only be a well deserved honour if he is chosen to make the trip.

JOHNNY QUARRY

MICK O'FARRELL, Brickeys

on Sunday.

Whilst neither club has announced a definite team, both are certain to be as near to full

THE meeting of old rivals Brickey Rangers and Mount Sion at Dungarvan, a clash of footballing purists John Mitchels and Gaultier at Waterford, and the meeting of Valley Rovers and Ballinacourty in the Western junior football final at Lismore, are the highlights of a most attractive football programme scheduled for Sunday.

Undoubtedly the Brickeys-Sion tie is the most appealing game of the three. Whenever these teams come in direct contact there is a guarantee of thrills aplenty and this latest episode in their "footballing feud" should lure a huge attendance to the Fraher Field.

As matters stand, Mount Sion are the only club left with a chance of carrying off the senior double this year. Few can oppose them directly in the hurling championship, while the general consensus of opinion is that if Kill are to be dethroned their conquerors will be the Monasterymen.

Not unnaturally, the Brickeys will scoff at the very thought of such a suggestion. They have undoubtedly been the unlucky ones over the years, and it is inevitable that success should come at some stage. Whether or not Sunday will be the commencement of a campaign that will be climaxed by ultimate victory is at this premature stage a matter for conjecture, but the general feeling amongst supporters is that if ever they are to crash through the championship barrier, this must be the year.

Yet reports from the camp suggest that training has not been as intensive as it might have been. In fact, if my information is correct, Bushy Park has yet to see a full mustering of players on any one night. Against a side of superb fitness of Sion this could well be fatal, but somehow I believe the Rangers will come prepared strength as possible.

The Rangers, however, will be without their solid defender "Wick" Walsh, presently out of bounds. But Walsh apart, the defence is sure to be along normal lines, with Patsy Donnelly, Bill and Pat Spratt and

FRANKIE WALSH (Sion)

Peter Ferncombe the key-men. Time it is said stands still for no man, and while Donnelly has on many occasions rocked that belief with sterling displays, this must surely be his last chance to win that coveted county medal. That, in itself should be the much-needed stimulus for him and his colleagues to carve out victory.

Garda Andy Hallissey, now based in Waterford, is being brought back for the game and seems certain to occupy one of the mid-field berths. But it is up front that the side's problems are likely to arise. Mick Farrell, Justin Spratt and Patsy Murray are a trio of really dangerous forwards, but much will depend on the support they receive from the remainder of their colleagues in attack.

Mount Sion make no secret of the fact that they intend to utilize Sunday as a stepping stone to higher achievements. Their sights are firmly set on the elusive double, and on Sunday they will look to such as Larry Guinan, Seamus Power, Mick Flannelly, Frankie Walsh and company to instigate their victory.

The game has all the ingredients for a thriller and it is unlikely that more than a point or two will separate them at the finish. Sion, if only for their superior fitness will be the general fancy, but believing that the Brickeys have it in them to pull out something extra on this occasion, I give them the vote to qualify narrowly for the semi-final.

A CLASSIC IN STORE?
If the Dungarvan venue is

DICKIE ROCHE (Sion)

likely to draw the biggest attendance on Sunday, the game of the day could well be the meeting of Gaultier and Mitchels at Waterford. Both play the same attractive brand of open football, and given a dry sod it should be a classic hour's football.

It will be recalled that Mitchels in their first year in existence made an auspicious debut last year, but since have not been quite as brilliant. When recently going under heavily to Kill in the Phelan Cup final they looked like a side that had gone over the top. Sunday should prove beyond all doubt whether this lapse was of a temporary or permanent nature.

For Sunday's game they will be without Dob Long, now in America, while Wally Connors will be vacating his full back berth to take over at mid-field. In fact it was their full back line more than any other sector that cost them so heavy a defeat against Kill, and I would not be surprised if the entire line was altered.

The manner in which Gaultier demolished Stradbally in the opening round has made everyone sit up and take notice. Against the Reds they looked a team of all talents, and Mitchel's will have to be at their very best if they hope to progress further in the campaign. Their defence and mid-field is more than adequate, and if Dingle & Co. hit it off in attack, the Mitchel's defenders can be prepared for a busy afternoon.

It judged on their form against Stradbally then the odds lie heavily in favour of Gaultier. But it is difficult to ever imagine Mitchels playing as poorly again as they did against Kill, and going on the assumption that they have left their bad spell behind them, I take Mitchels to advance, if only by the slenderest of margins.

yet another western junior football title, will be firm favourites to beat Ballinacourty in the final at Lismore. Over the years the Valleys had a wonderful record in this grade in the west, and there is every confidence in the camp that another title will be annexed on Sunday.

They have accounted for every opposition with consummate ease on their way to this decider, and with Mick Connolly and Kieran Ryan included in their line-out they are an even better equipped outfit than last year. Add to the power of this Ballymac pair such stalwarts as Jimmy Hewitt, his brothers, Billy, Bobby and Eddie, John Joe Nugent, Oliver Nugent, Noel Walsh and Billy Atcheson, and one can readily gauge the real potency of the Derrinlaun brigade.

Against such powerful opposition what can Ballinacourty offer? Outsiders they may be, but it would be the height of folly to rule out their chances completely. On their day they can be a match for the best and there is a quite confidence amongst players and mentors alike that the form book will be upset at the Castle Farm venue.

Their chances, however, are not helped by the news that star defender Mick Kiely will be an absentee. Kiely is still hampered by a hand injury received in the hurling championship against Ballygunner and he will be sorely missed in a defence that is certain to be taxed to the limit.

As stated, the form book points unmistakably towards Rovers victory, and while having the utmost respect for 'Courty's challenge, I doubt if they have the all round power to overcome the Valleys.
