HARRIERS' OPENING MEET

In a background of sylvan beauty members of the Dungarvan Harriers Hunt move off along the Military Road from their Opening Meet at Ballycoe Cross.

International Golfers For Dungarvan

One of the most attractive fixtures ever arranged by the Dungarvan Golf Club will be played on next Sunday week, 17th November, when the University College Dublin Golfing Society's team will be the guests of the local club. The visitors will include Dr. David Sheehan, a member of this year's British and Irish Walker Cup team and prominent Irish international golfer for the past few seasons.

In 1962 Dr. Sheehan achieved one of his outstanding successes when he won the Jays

Pro-Am Tournament at Royal Dublin Golf Club from a star-studded field of world-wide amateur and professional golfers, a feat not accomplished by any amateur player since the days of the famous Bobby Jones of the U.S. in 1928. Mr. Jimmy Bowen of Cork, a member of the Irish international selection of 1961 will play for the local side and his singles match with David Sheehan will be the highlight of the day's golf.

Another Irish international of 1963 on the U.C.D. team is Mr. Eric O'Brien, who, this summer won his way through to the final of the Irish Close Championship at Killarney when he was narrowly beaten by the formidable Joe Carr on the 35th green.

Further details of the fixture will appear in next week's edition of this newspaper. In the meantime members are asked to refer to the Notice Boards in the Locker Rooms for special announcements.

LATE MISS M. HANRAHAN

CAHERBRACK

The death of Miss Margaret Hanrahan, of Caherbrack, B. Inimmit, took place in St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan, on Saturday, 2nd inst. Her passing has removed a member of one of the oldest families in the district and a most esteemed lady. A long and representative cortege followed the remains to Touraneena Church, on Sunday and there was also a huge attendance at the interment in the adjoining cemetery on Monday. Very Rev. P. Walsh, P.P., and Rev. J. Mulcahy, C.C., officiated at the obsequies.

The chief mourners included James (brother); Mrs. A. Nolan, Miss Kathleen Hanrahan (sisters). (Funeral arrangements by A. Walsh and Sons, Cappoquin.)

ABRUPT ENDING TO TOWN HALL SHOW

Because of repeated interruptions from a small section of the audience at the rear of the hall, Paul Goldin, world famous master of the sixth sense, was forced to suspend his amazing act at Dungarvan Town Hall, on Wednesday night.

The show which since its commencement on Monday night has been attracting capacity attendances, was well under way on Wednesday night when the interruptions started. Those responsible stamped on the floor, passed what they considered to be "witty" remarks, and in general disgracefully misbehaved themselves.

Mr. Goldin pleaded with them to refrain from spoiling the show for everyone else. But the interruptions continued, making it impossible for him to carry on his act. Turning to the audience he said he would have to discontinue his performance. He had been on the stage for over two hours, he said, but had a lot more to show the audience had he been given the opportunity to do so. "I have never come across such impoliteness in any hall before," he added.

It is all too seldom that the people of Dungarvan are given the opportunity of seeing such an outstanding artist as Paul Goldin perform in person. Is it not a pity then that a small section of the general public could not behave while he was on stage.

We are sorry that Mr. Goldin did not want to suspend the show as he did, but in the circumstances he was left with no option. In fact he was to be admired in his stand against this sheer vandalism.

On behalf of the townspeople we feel obliged to apologise to Mr. Goldin, and are sure that his show will attract large and attentive audiences for the remainder of the week in town.

Incidentally we understand that after finishing up in Dungarvan on Sunday night, Mr. Goldin will fly to Milan for a four night stand.

WEDDING BELLS

LATE JAMES MURPHY

CUSH, GRANGE, ARDMORE

The Great Call was answered on the evening of Friday, November 1st (Feast of All Saints), by James Murphy, of Cush, Grange, Ardmore, at Ariskeen General Hospital, after a period of protracted illness and at the early age of fifty-six years, and leaves a wife and young family to mourn his sad loss. Jimmy, as he was better known to his many friends, was a member of a very widely known Glenmore family. He was a all-round athlete in his youth and and family. May he rest in peace.

His remains were removed from the hospital mortuary on Saturday evening, followed by a huge cortege consisting of all sections of the community, who had travelled from near and far to be present, to St. Mary's Parish Church, Dungarvan and were blessed and received by Rev. Fr. J. Murphy, C.C.

The last Mass on Sunday morning was celebrated for the happy and eternal repose of his soul, and after which interment took place in the adjoining family plot. There was again a very large concourse present. Rev. Fr. Byrne, C.C., presided by Rev. Fr. Flavin, Chaplain, Carriglea Convent, and Rev. Fr. V. de Paor, C.C., Ring, officiated and imparted the final absolution at the graveside amid manifestation of great sorrow from the attendance.

Large sheaves of Mass cards, telegrams and letters of sympathy were received by his relatives.

The chief mourners were: Mrs. Jean Murphy (widow); Sr. M. Perpetual Succour, Convent of Mercy, Waterford; Miss Phyllis Murphy, Cush, Grange (daughters); Paul Murphy, England; Brendan Murphy, Cush-Grange (sons); William, Glenmore; Thomas, England; John Grange, Patrick Fahy, Ring, Nicholas, Chicago (brothers); Mrs. Mary Casey, Waterford; Mrs. E. Merchant, London; Mrs. W. Brazil, Gloucester; Aglish (sisters). (Funeral arrangements by J. Riordan and Sons, Dungarvan.)

LATE JAMES MURPHY

a very well known gaelic footballer, playing with the Dungarvan club.

We wish to express our deepest sympathy to his wife

HARDSHIP TO BLIND PENSIONERS, Etc.

The following resolution adopted by the Youghal Council: "That in view of the very severe hardship imposed by Section 20 of the Social Welfare Act of 1960 on recipients of blind pensions and widow contributory pensions, and we call on the Minister for Social Welfare for its immediate revocation."

WATER IMPROVEMENT SCHEME

Nine tenders have been received for the new water supply improvement in the town as the original contractor declined to proceed with the scheme, and without disclosing the amounts same were referred to the consultant with the recommendation to accept the local tender.

NEW HOUSES OPENED

In the presence of a large gathering of the townspeople, the official opening of the new 24 houses recently tenanted at Dominic Collin's Place, was performed by Very Rev. Canon Sheehan, P.P., Youghal and the attendance included the Chairman, members and officers of the Urban Council.

DEVELOPMENT OF '98 PARK

The horticultural portion of the '98 Park suffered very much damage as a result of the freak sea storm of Ash Wednesday last year. The local Horticultural Society are to help in any matter pertaining to horticultural development in the town. With this object in view an officer from ord Falte is to visit Youghal in the near future to advise on the best ways and means. It is suggested that improvements made, be made not alone in the '98 Park but the southern approaches to the town and the Dominic Collin's housing estate is to have special attention. The co-operation of the Society is a very welcome and kindly gesture through its Chairman Mr. Brendan Quinn.

BOWL PLAYING

TOURNAMENT FINAL
In the presence of about 500 spectators the final of the double grade tournament took place on Sunday last at Frogmore. The participants were: M. O'Donoghue (Youghal) and J. P. Walsh (Old Parish) versus Thomas Grey and L. O'Keefe both of Clashmore. O'Donoghue and Walsh served to win and they were more reliable than their opponents and more consistently accurate. The runners-up fought all the way but without avail. There were a few defective shots by all four, but nothing more than the number ordinarily seen in such finals. The winners, with great ovation, received from Mr. Barry (representing Irish Ales) a Harp Lager Cup and £7 each, while the runners-up got £3-10-0 each.

A consolation tournament for a set of medals and cash also took place and after a very close score D. Lyons and M. O'Regan were winners with J. Keilly and E. Goggin runners-up.

SPRING TIDES

The highest tides of the year came up from Friday last to Monday and with the exception of some flooding in the lower portion of Catherine Street, there was very little anywhere else in the town. The promenade got a great pounding of waves as did the new wall at the Green Park, which is now almost completed. The water came up the sewers into the streets but no damage was reported. The few boats that remain in the harbour were hauled up for safety early last week.

The next high tides around the 14 feet mark will take place the last day of November and December 1st and 2nd.

LATE MRS. E. McSWEENEY

Deep regret was felt at the announcement of the death of a well known member of the community, in the person of Mrs. Eleanor McSweeney, at her residence, Catherine Street Youghal, after a comparatively short period of illness. A native of Derry, the deceased was wife of Mr. William McSweeney, late manager of the Munster and Leinster Bank, and daughter of the late Mr. John Harbison, solicitor, Mahersfelt, Co. Derry. She deservedly enjoyed much esteem and respect in the town of her adoption and is sadly missed by her husband and two daughters, to whom very sincere sympathy is extended in their sorrow.

The remains were removed to St. Mary's Parish Church, where solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated on Wednesday morning and the funeral took place that evening to North Abbey Cemetery, followed by a very large and representative cortege.

YOUGHAL LIFE BOAT CREW CONGRATULATED

At a recent meeting of the Urban Council the Chairman Mr. Good tendered hearty congratulations to Coxswain Dick Hickey and the crew of the Youghal Life-Boat for their great seamanship when they rescued two members of the French trawler in Ardmore bay under very severe weather conditions. The Council also congratulated their former Town Clerk, Mr. R. B. Haslem, on his appointment as secretary to the Limerick Co. Council.

DANGEROUS FOOTPATHS

Recently the matter of dangerous footpaths was discussed by the Urban Council and it is good news to hear that something is to be done about them in the near future, as certainly the path Mill Road, parts of the North Main Street and West Street, are in bad conditions and dangerous to

MEN'S CONFRATERNITY

The monthly meeting of the men's branch of the Sacred Heart Confraternity, will be held on this (Friday) evening at 7.30 p.m. in St. Carthage's Church.

DEATH OF MR. J. BROWN

It is with deep and sincere regret we record the death of Mr. James Brown, Fern Ville, Lismore, which sad event occurred at his residence on Friday last, November 1st, after a rather short duration of illness.

As the deceased was more popularly known to his many friends everywhere, was a most prominent figure in west Waterford and throughout his life he carried on a flourishing printing business in his native town, and was in his youth prominent in many sports, particularly golf and hockey. He was also a life long member of the Lismore Race Committee. He will be sadly missed by all but more especially by his sorrowing relatives to whom we tender our most sincere sympathy.

The remains were removed to St. Carthage's Church (Church of Ireland), on Friday evening, and the burial took place on Saturday in the adjoining cemetery. The burial service was read by Rev. Gilbert Hayes, Dean of Lismore.

TOURIN G.A.A. CEILI

A roads lead to the Town Hall, Lismore tonight (Friday) where Tourin hurling and football club are holding a grand ceili. This year has already been marked as one of the most successful in the history of the club, and on Sunday next they travel to Dungarvan where they are hoping to carry off the western primary hurling championship. This game incidentally, will bring the club's number of games this year to twelve, and only on one occasion have they been on the losing end. But with this great run of successes has been coming their way, they're funds however have been getting lower, and that is why we appeal on behalf of this great hearted club for a "full house" in the Town Hall, Lismore, on Friday night and, as well as supporting a worthy cause, you are assured of a great night's dancing, with the very popular Happy Wanderers Ceili band supplying the music. Dancing: 8-1. Admission, 4/-.

SKODA SUCCESSES

GAELIC JOTTINGS

HURLERS TRAVEL TO CROKE PARK

Exactly a week after winning their first ever national hurling league title, the Deise men are being called upon for the defence of that crown at Croke Park on Sunday next against Dublin side that must be rated with the utmost respect.

many disagreed with the regard decision that allowed them compete in this grade, and to date, with the exception of the semi-final against Ballinacorney, they have brushed aside all opposition with contemptuous ease.

That side, is powered by such seasoned stalwarts as Dick Tom and Wally Dooney, John and Jimmy O'Gorman, Neil Colliender and Tom Fives. For Fives, in particular, Sunday will be a red-letter day. One of a family that has given wonderful service to the Tourin club, Tom will be endeavouring to win a medal in a third different grade on Sunday.

As an up and coming youngster he was a member of side that won the junior championship in 1941, and nine years later he started in the senior ranks. He has never to be forgotten senior triumph over Mount Sion.

Not surprisingly, the defence is unaltered from the one that started against the New Yorkers. John McGrath has been retained at left half-back as there seemed to be little justification for replacing him in the second half at Newry Park.

John Kirwan is again preferred as a midfielder where he was outplayed by John Meade in the last season's county jersey.

Despite his magnificent performance when transferred to Abbeyside on Sunday last, Mick Farnalley has—doubtless, out of necessity, been placed on the forty with Connors and Frankie Walsh as his flankers.

With such potent opposition as Wexford and Limerick in the same section any slip up could have disastrous consequences. The County must guard itself against complacency on Sunday as the Metropolitanians have the uncanny knack of recently achieving the unexpected.

The Waterford team is: E. Power, T. Cunningham, A. Finn, M. Morrissey, L. Guinness, J. Byrne, J. McGrath, J. McInerney, J. Kirwan, V. O'Connor, M. Flannelly, F. Walsh, S. Power, J. Barron, P. Grimes, Subs.—P. Flynn, M. Walsh, C. O'Brien, C. O'Brien.

While the senior football championship semi-final is the rare event at Dungarvan on Sunday next, early comers should be well rewarded with a thrilling hour's hurling between Tourin and Abbeyside in the West in Primary final.

At a meeting of the County Board in Dungarvan on Monday night last, the following championship fixtures were agreed:

At Waterford, on Sunday, Nov. 17th, the senior hurling semi-final, Ballygunner v. Dumbill; junior hurling final, De La Salle v. Fourmilewater. Senior hurling final at Waterford on December 1st.

The second semi-final between Mount Sion and Duncormin will be played at the Frater Field on Sunday, Nov. 17th.

The senior football final will be played at Dungarvan on Nov. 24th. The junior football final between the Valley Rovers and Framore will act as a curtain raiser to the senior final.

CHAMPIONS CAN QUALIFY

But Ardmore are Quietly Confident

THE second senior football championship is scheduled for Dungarvan on Sunday next when two of the classiest footballing sides in the county, Kill and Ardmore, meet

Not since the latter stages of the 1961 championship have Kill suffered defeat in a major competition. Oddly enough their conquerors on that occasion were Ardmore who were then in their first year in senior ranks. Since then Kill have proceeded to mop up all opposition in the County and they are already regarded as certainties in some parts to retain a title they won for the first time last year.

But Ardmore remain unperturbed by outside opinion, and are quietly confident that what they did two years ago they can do again on Sunday. They have trained assiduously for this tilt with the champions and believe that if this barrier is surmounted they will become titleholders for the first time.

But despite this dedication and enthusiasm Kill remain firm favourites. If anything they are a more potent side than twelve months ago and appear to possess the collective and individual brilliance to qualify for another decider.

In battling their way to the semi-final stage, Ardmore have had trouble free passages against Geraldines, and Dungarvan. That latter game has heralded in a rather lengthy period of inactivity, and it remains to be seen whether or not they will show any ill effects as a result.

When dispising of Kilrossanty in the second round Kill overcame who they rated as their biggest threat, and will not hear of the thought of relinquishing their title. Contrary to rumour they will field at full strength and candidly I doubt if Ardmore have the material to counter act the champions big guns.

When speaking to an Ardmore selector last week, he expressed the viewpoint that if they checked the Kill half-forward trip, the issue would swing in their favour. But I refuse to accept that the champions eggs are all stacked in the one basket, and brilliantly though defenders Tommy Power, Eddie Mooney, Paddy Carleton and Donal O'Brien can be expected to perform with their usual brilliance, I doubt if they can do sufficient to stave off defeat.

reason to alter that opinion. Experience, lies heavily in their favour and it is this craft

Two players ordered off in that game, Mick O'Farrell (Briceys) and Tommy Kirwan (Mitchels) were both suspended for one month.

The Cheasty Case CHAIRMAN STOOD BY RULES

“THE CHEASTY CASE” which has aroused such widespread interest throughout the county was briefly discussed at a meeting of the County Board in Dungarvan on Monday night last.

Mr. Jim Cullen (Ardmore) asked the Chairman (Mr. Jamie Moloney, N.T.) if he had any comment to make on a television statement and rumours circulating throughout the county. In a television interview he said it was stated that 20 other players from the county had attended the same dance as the offence for which a three months suspension was imposed.

The Vice-Chairman (Mr. Nicholas McGrath) said if the discussion continued he would have certain things to say. The Chairman said there was a sub-committee in the county and two players were reported to him in writing as having attended a dance promoted by a city soccer club. He followed the instructions of the rules and notified the County Secretary who in turn notified the secretaries of the clubs of which the players were members.

“I received a notification,” he said, “and took it in good faith and acted accordingly. I thought there would be no more trouble about it but it seems there has been a lot of ballyhoos about it since. When I received the report I had to get referring to the rules.” Referring to the television interview in which Tom Cheasty was interviewed, by De Hennessey, Mr. Moloney said he believed it was introduced by the County Secretary of the Central County Board, Mr. S. O. Strohman, and that the information was passed into the press by the future.

Mr. Dick McAllister (Briceys Rangers) said Tom Cheasty was an idol in the county and now they were sitting on his head. Mr. Moloney then ruled further discussion on the matter out of order saying they might have something more to say about it at a later date.

Although normally we ally to the business of the guild, ways treat July and August as On Tuesday, 22nd October holiday months, this year we welcomed gladly an invitation held a jumbo sale and sale of tallow from the Villierstown home and farm products, on the guild to join them in a special 20th August. The attendees in their new hall. We danced was good, but the financial moved ourselves very good result was not up to the much and we went home full of spirit. I previous years of envy and admiration for the property of apples and vegetables work that most have gone in for this. These commend to the building of this fine ties always command a ready sale. As do home made jams, cakes, etc.

On Friday, 25th October we were very pleased to welcome the members of the Villiers-Town Guild to our meeting. When we had a demonstration on the making of lamp shades. The demonstrators were Mrs. Theresa Guiry and her assistant Miss O'Sullivan, both of the well known firm of "Yeasanti Shades." A vote of thanks was prepared by Mrs. O'Keefe and seconded by Mrs. McInerney. A raffle was held and was won by Mrs. Power, after which an enjoyable tea was served. The meeting then adjourned.

On Wednesday, 30th October we had been invited to the "Briens Tour," which was held by the Yeasanti Guild, but owing to appalling weather conditions, only two of our members were brave enough to go.

At a meeting of the County Board in Dungarvan on Monday night, the senior hurlers were congratulated on winning the National hurling league for the first time.

The Chairman said the team played with all their old spirit and the players brought great honour to the County.

N.F.A. NEWS
N.F.A. Wants Brucellosis Scheme

The disease known as Brucellosis or Contagious Abortion is a major cause of loss to our dairy industry. The same applies in other countries, for example in the U.S.A. in 1947 the loss was estimated at £35 million while in Britain in 1950 it was estimated at £16 million. There is this difference between us and them, however, most of them are a great deal more advanced in methods of control than we are. For years now the N.F.A. has been working for a comprehensive scheme to deal with this problem. Its Livestock Committee has made a detailed study of this disease in several countries. It has examined the various methods adopted for its eradication and a long appendix dealing with the whole subject is to be found in the Livestock Group Report mentioned in these pages recently. The scheme is to be financed from cattle and their products to men. The disease in man—Undulant Fever, may be fever, or a more chronic insidious disease with frequent relapses. Transmission is affected by the consumption of infected milk or milk products, or by contact with infected animals or infected milk. Thus, the incidence is highest amongst farmers, stockmen, butchers and abattoir workers, housewives and veterinarians. Pasture and water are also sources of infection. The disease is not only a danger to human health but also to the urban areas (40% of the total in the Republic of Ireland) will continue to drink largely raw milk. While vaccination will effectively control clinical disease in the cattle population, it does not prevent cows from becoming infected with virulent strains of the organism which localize in the udder and are excreted in the milk. Many countries have therefore embarked on eradication programmes as the only effective means of safeguarding the health of the community from Brucellosis and at the same time relieving the cattle industry of a costly burden. The disease has been eradicated in Denmark (1959); Norway (1944); Sweden (1956); and Finland (1956). It is in the final stages of eradication in the U.S.A. and Canada. A scheme has been started by Northern Ireland and a Calfhood Vaccination Scheme, as a preliminary to eradication, has been introduced in Britain. The consideration which impelled other countries to eradicate Brucellosis from their national herds apply with equal force to Ireland. The great progress made by the Bovine Tuberculosis Eradication Scheme has created a climate of opinion where the general feasibility and desirability of eradication of animal disease is now accepted by the agricultural community. Farmers proved under the B.T.E. Scheme that they are capable of doing a good job in a short period if given some backing. The first step in attacking Brucellosis must be the controlled and rational use of S.19 vaccine. Adult cattle vaccinated with S.19 will react positively to the diagnostic tests used in eradication and will be indistinguishable from naturally infected cases. Calves vaccinated between 4 and 8 months of age are in the vast majority of cases negative to these tests. The immunity following calving vaccination is equal to that following adult vaccination. It persists for the life of the animal and is not improved by re-vaccination. It is essential therefore that vaccination should be restricted to animals in this age group. Vaccinated animals should be identified by tag or other means and a Register of vaccinated animals kept. An initial Survey of churn samples would indicate which herds were most likely to be infected and provide a means of assessing the incidence of the disease in various areas of the country, and reactor cows should be purchased for slaughter. At the same time a register of Brucellosis-free herds could and should be compiled. The N.F.A. is more anxious now than ever before that a comprehensive scheme should be launched in Ireland without delay. On the 3rd September it wrote to the Department of Agriculture enclosing copies of the Report of the N.F.A. National Health & Disease Subcommittee and asking for a meeting with Officials of the Warble Fly continues to expand. Each day sees a growing number of letters from all over the country asking for help in promoting local group schemes. The increasing amount of activity in this field shows conclusively that farmers are willing to play their part in any national programme if properly represented to them. County Committees of Agriculture have offered the services of their Advisory Staff to many instances. Veterinary Surgeons are wholeheartedly behind this campaign and are doing an extraordinary amount of work free of cost. The drug manufacturers continue to cooperate with us while private individuals and firms—in increasing numbers—have demonstrated their interest in a practical way. Many of them have given hard-core grants for schemes in specific counties that might be made available to farmers at reduced costs. During the last few days Donegal, Leitrim, and Fermanagh have each received a cheque for £500 to help develop a three county scheme embracing some 25,000 cattle in counties Kildare, Wick and Dublin. Reports have reached us of N.F.A. branches in many counties who have initiated campaigns against the Warble Fly and there is every possibility that the trade in the Co. Wick and the Co. Wick Co-operative Societies, and elsewhere will now be able to help them as best they can. The prices are bound to harden.

PAYMENTS TO BE MADE FOR A NUMBER OF YEARS
A fortnight ago an announcement was made saying that a £15 payment would be made to farmers for additional calves/heifers kept by them during the coming years. No details were given at the time. Last week a notice from the Dept. of Agriculture said that 'The purpose of the new scheme is to provide a special incentive to farmers to increase the production during the 1960's so as to attain the target set in the Second Programme for Economic Expansion, that is an increase in the annual output of cattle from 1,065 head in 1962 to 1,500,000 in 1970.' Under the new scheme, there will be a grant of £15 to farmers for each additional heifer kept by them above their normal cow-herd replacement. The grants will be payable after these additional heifers have calved. Payments will be made in 1964 on increases in herds made in this way over the 1963 level, which is available from the Bovine Tuberculosis Eradication Scheme records in 1965 on increases over 1964 and so on for a number of years.

FIRM STAND BY KILKENNY FARMERS
Farmers in Kilkenny have taken a strong stand on the question of rates and they know that they have the full moral support on their neighbouring counties and the thousands who marched through Limerick recently. Kilkenny farmers are paying at last year's rate and have refused to pay the increase of 2/4 in the £. The Co. Council came time relieving the cattle industry of a costly burden. The disease has been eradicated in Denmark (1959); Norway (1944); Sweden (1956); and Finland (1956). It is in the final stages of eradication in the U.S.A. and Canada. A scheme has been started by Northern Ireland and a Calfhood Vaccination Scheme, as a preliminary to eradication, has been introduced in Britain.

GRANTS AND LOANS FOR BUILDINGS
Referring to the new housing programme announced last week by the Minister for Local Government, the President of the N.F.A. Mr. Rickard Deasy, said that this step was a welcome one and very much in line with N.F.A. policy. It was good to see that the graded system of payments gave more to the smaller farmers. It would be unfortunate, however, if by building new houses or reconstructing old ones that the rates should be increased after seven years to a point where they would act as a mistletoe around the necks of small farmers. It was now up to the Department of Agriculture to do something similar towards increasing farm income. Under the new programme grants will be increased by 50% for the building of houses for farmers under £25 valuation, while graded grant increases will be made to farmers up to £45 valuation. The maximum housing loan available to supplement Local Government and State grants is being increased from £200 to £500. The loans will be available for new dwelling houses and for reconstruction work. The loans will be repayable by long-term annuity under the Land Acts consolidated with the applicants' existing land annuity. The interest will be related to the prevailing Government borrowing rate. In addition, local authorities will be asked to make supplementary grants to the maximum extent.

JOIN THE N.F.A. WAR ON WARBLE FLY
The N.F.A. campaign against Warble Fly is a national effort for its eradication. In order to further the campaign and bring home to all farmers the need for immediate action the N.F.A. has decided to carry out a public campaign through the medium of television during this month. The central theme of this campaign is that every farmer should take to heart the N.F.A. War on the Warble Fly Committee. The present Potato Marketing Company is responsible only for export and has no authority whatever to deal with internal marketing. Potato production has many advantages in small farms and for this reason it warrants immediate attention. Shipments of such potatoes are now being made and there is every possibility that the trade in the Co. Wick and the Co. Wick Co-operative Societies, and elsewhere will now be able to help them as best they can. The prices are bound to harden.

LATE MISS MGT. MOORE

Murphy Place, Abbeyside
The death occurred at the residence of Mrs. Beatty, Murphy Place, Abbeyside, of Miss Margaret Moore, which was her place of residence on Friday, November 1st (Feast of All Saints), after a very short illness, but at the fulness of years. She was a most likable person and a wonderful favourite in the village, where she was better known. A deeply religious person, she was most charitable and kindly. Her remains were reposed on Saturday evening to Abbeyside Church, followed by a large cortege and were blessed and carried by Rev. Fr. M. Walsh, C.C., assisted by Very Rev. J. Roche, P.P., Abbeyside.

Requiem Masses were offered on Sunday morning and the funeral took place on Sunday afternoon to Ballinroad Cemetery, where the interment took place. Very Rev. J. Roche, P.P., assisted by Rev. Fr. M. Walsh, C.C., and Rev. Fr. O'Shaughnessy, O.S.A., Dungarvan officiated. (Funeral arrangements by J. Kiely and Sons, Dungarvan.)

CLONMEL PIG MARKET

At Clonmel Pig Market, conducted by Messrs. Stokes & Quirk, Ltd., there were 1,417 pigs on offer, at last Tuesday week's market. Rates for Bacon pigs, fat sows, porkers and strong pigs remained unchanged from the previous market. Smaller pigs, however, were most difficult to clear even at lowest rates. Ruling prices: Bacon Pigs, 165/- to 176/- per cwt. l.w.; Porkers, 164/- to 173/-, do.; Fat Sows, 100/- to 105/-, do.; Strong Store Pigs, 1/6 to 1/8 lb.; Medium Store Pigs, 1/7 to 1/9 lb.; Bonhams, 1/7 to 1/10 lb.; Sows and Litters, £38 to £45 each; Spring Sows, £18-5-0 to £27 each. The next market will be held on Tuesday next, 12th November.

TALLOW NOTES

LATE MR. J. FEENEY

We regret to record the unexpected death of Mr. Jeremiah Feeney, Coolowen, which sad event took place on Monday, 28th October. Mr. Feeney had been to Cobh on the previous day to see his daughter off to America, having spent a twelve months holiday at the home of her parents. On his return home he was taken suddenly ill and was attended and received the last rites of the Church.

Evidence as to the popularity in which deceased was held was amply borne out by the large number that attended the funeral to the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Tallow, on Tuesday evening, where the remains were received and blessed by Rev. M. Condon, C.C., assisted by Rev. F. Lucey, C.C., and also at the burial which took place at Clonsilla in the family burial plot on the following day.

To the members of deceased's family we tender our sincere sympathy. The chief mourners were: Mrs. Bridgid Feeney (widow); Patrick (son); Peg, U.S.A. (daughter).

OFF THE DANGER LIST

We are happy to say that Thomas Delaney, fourteen-year old son of John and Mrs. Delaney, Berack Street, who sustained severe head injuries when he fell from his bicycle recently is now out of danger and making satisfactory progress.

TALLOW MACRA NA FEIRIE A.G.M.

Tallow Macra na Feirme held their annual general meeting at the Temperance Hall, on Friday, 25th October. There was a very large attendance, including some new members.

The outgoing Chairman, Mr. Kevin Ryan appealed to members to take a greater interest in the club's activities during the coming year.

The outgoing Secretary, Miss M. Cotter, N.T., reviewed at length the business of the club during the past year. The outgoing Treasurer, Mr. D. Boucher, in his annual report, said that the club was in an excellent financial position.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Very Rev. William Conon Flynn, P.P.; Vice Presidents, Rev. M. Condon, C.C., Rev. F. Lucey, C.C., Misses T. J. Roche and M. J. Beecher; Chairman, Mr. Noel O'Riordan; Vice-Chairman, Mr. Kevin Ryan; Hon. Sec., Miss Mary Cotter, N.T.; Hon. Treasurer, Mr. Michael Cotter. Delegates to the Co. Executive: Messrs. Noel O'Riordan, Kevin Ryan and Eamon Power, N.T. Press Reporter, Liam O'Brien.

WATERFORD'S WIN

Congratulations to the Waterford team on their great win at Nowlan Park, Kilkenny, on Sunday, where they beat the New Yorkers. Very many sporting fans in Waterford would not begrudge the exiles a win as they were a real sporting fifteen, which was proved at the end of the game by the exchange of perseys, which, no doubt, will be treasured souvenirs of both teams for many years to come.

Here in Tallow the result was a real tonic to the boys of the National School, whose principal teacher, Ned Power, turned in one of his greatest hours between the Waterford posts, and who leaves no stone unturned to bring out the best in his boys, both in the classroom and on the gaelic field.

In the past Tallow made a grand contribution to the game of hurling and when some of our "old fellows" go back in memory and think of great players from Dungarvan to Waterford City such as "Fox" and Tom Greany, Charlie Jack and Jim Ware, Johnnie Fanning, Andy Fleming, "Fed" Browne, and numbers of others, we cannot but link up the names of our own stalwarts, such as Bob, Noel and Pat Condon, Pa and Bill Sheahan, Mick and Sonny Curley, Tom Burke (R.I.P.), Mick Mulcahy (R.I.P.), to mention only a few. With the guidance of the few who are left, let us hope that in the not too distant future, Tallow will once again take its place with the best.

Kilmacthomas Notes

Late Mr. Dr. Power—Worthy member of one of the most highly respected and best connected families in the parish of Clonea and Rathgorman, Clonea, was Mr. David Power, business manager, Kilmacthomas, who died a holy and happy death on Tuesday, 29th and near and far regret was felt at the passing of a genuine Gaelic sportsman.

Being young by birth to Kiltergute, Clonea, the late "Davy" Power was a man of great personal charm and intensely religious. Positioned in the Mahon-straddling town since his mid-teen-time, he was a valued member of the local Convent Choir for the greater part of his life. His first made his appearance in the sporting world in the purely Celtic code as a Clonea player of well above average ability, for a very long he was chiefly instrumental in organising the establishment of an active hurling club in Kilmacthomas, and he was the brilliant forward on his team—the speedy, stylish, junior combination that emerged unbeaten from the county championship competition in their grade in 1920. Davy later figured on Waterford inter-county senior representations and many considered his accurate stickwork and intelligent line of procedure helped to improve the skill and speed of then provincial teams. His departure hence has left a void not to be easily replaced.

Every family in the town was represented in the attendance at the removal of the remains to the Convent Chapel, where the coffin was received and blessed by the Rev. M. Wall, C.C., Kilmacthomas.

On Thursday morning at 10.30 o'clock Solemn Office and Requiem Mass were sung. Very Rev. Father Ailbe, O.F.M. Guardian, Kilmac, Co. Dublin (nephew of the deceased), being the celebrant of the Mass. Venerable Archbishop David Power, P.P., V.F., Dungarvan (cousin) presiding.

The funeral took place afterwards to the cemetery adjoining the Parish Church, Clonea, where all that was mortal of David Power was laid to rest in the presence of an immense gathering of relatives, friends and sympathisers. Very Rev. Fr. Ailbe, O.F.M., performed the last rites at the graveside, assisted by Fr. Ryan, C.C., Rathgorman. Sheaves of spiritual bouquets and telegrams and letters conveying expressions of condolence, were received.

May his soul find eternal repose in the heavenly home. To his immediate surviving relatives—three brothers and five sisters (including Sr. David, Bury, Lancs., England, who recently celebrated the Golden Jubilee of her Reception); nephews and nieces (two of whom are nuns) we tender our sincere sympathy, and know that at least in part, they will be consoled by the fact that he breathed his last in peace with his Maker at the allotted span, and in the bosom of the region for which he had harboured a great glad deep down in his true Irish heart.—R.I.P.

Late Mr. J. Walsh.—The death of Mr. John Walsh, Ballinabogue, Kilmacthomas, which occurred unexpectedly at his residence on Wednesday of yesterday, 30th ult. (Feast of St. Alphonsus Rodriguez, S.J. C.), marks a voidance in the ranks of the farming community which it will be hard to fill. Sprung from a good old stock in the parish of Clonea and Rathgorman, he was one of a family with numerous connections in his home county and in Tipperary.

Johnny Walsh, as he was affectionately hailed, was, indeed, a beautiful example of what a truly Catholic Irish husband and parent should be, and the devoted wife (nee Baldwin), sons and daughters, he has left greatly mourn their loss. They have lost a spouse and father noted for his whole-hearted unselfishness where their welfare was concerned. His unerring judgement in the matter of livestock was all of a geniality of spirit which made him a welcome neighbour everywhere. Because of his many kindly acts, he was most popular and much esteemed by all who knew him.

All through his sixty or so years, Johnny never lost his patient, lovable disposition. In him the native games and pastimes had a staunch supporter, peace to his gentle soul.

On Thursday evening the remains were removed to St. Anne's Church, Ballinaneen, where they were received by the Rev. P. Power, C.C., do. There was a large gathering of parishioners who joined Fr. Power in the recitation of prayers for the repose of the soul of deceased.

Subsequent to the celebration of Requiem Mass at 11 o'clock on All Saints Day, the interment took place in the family burial ground in the adjoining cemetery, before an attendance of imposing dimensions. Fr.

Power, C.C., gave the closing absolution at the graveside. An extremely large array of spiritual bouquets and messages of condolence were received.—R.I.P.

Late Mr. M. Fitzgerald.—Following a period of falling health and in the fulness of his years, Mr. Michael Fitzgerald, Ballinabogue, Kilmacthomas, breathed his last at his home on Thursday, 31st inst. (Feast of St. Quinctinus, M.) He was a member of the British Army during world war I. Affable, estute, thrifty, his suavity of manner and readiness in emergencies raised him in the esteem and popularity of the parish. Predeceased by his wife about two years ago, unfeigned sympathy will be tendered to children and grandchildren in their affliction.

A big concourse of neighbours accompanied the removal of the remains, on Friday afternoon to St. Anne's Church, Ballinaneen, where the casket was received and blessed by the Rev. P. Power, C.C., do.

After Requiem Mass on Saturday, interment was made in the adjoining necropolis, and the attendance thereat was such as paid a last eloquent public tribute to the memory of the deceased.—R.I.P.

Incidentally, Touraneena (west Waterford)-born Very Rev. Fr. David Power, P.P., Clashmore and Kinsalebeg, who has been appointed a Canon of the Cathedral Chapter of the Diocese of Waterford and Lismore, is a brother of Sr. M. Benignus, Convent of Mercy, Kilmacthomas (a religious whose great qualities of mind and heart are evidenced in her maternal interest and that spirit of enterprise which was such as paid a last eloquent public tribute to the memory of the deceased.—R.I.P.)

Urbane and Unassuming Mr. William (Willie) Crowde, St. Anne's, Kilmacthomas, is at present a patient in Ardkeen General Hospital, Waterford, and it is fervently hoped he will make a speedy and complete recovery from his ailment.

Student Nurse at Liverpool hospital is Miss Anne Curran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John (Jack) Curran (farmer), Garranthurton, Kilmacthomas; she is at present visiting her god parents, and the estimable young lady is looking very fit and well.

The "30" Card Drive (prize money, £100) launched to further and swell the funds on hands to eliminate expenses incurred in renovating, repairing and refurbishing the Parochial Hall, Kilmacthomas, is, it is learned, receiving an appreciable measure of support in parts beyond the town and immediate surroundings, where it is going very well. On the last Sunday night of the month the final rounds will be played in Kilmac.

WON £10 Mr. Dannie Fraher, Bleantis Ballinacult, was the lucky winner of £10 (first prize) in last week's Coolinsneer Parochial Non-Stop draw.

WEDDING BELLS The very best wishes of their large circle of relatives and friends for their future success and happiness, will be extended to Mr. John Cullinan, son of Mrs. and the late Mr. Michael Cullinan, Lackendarra, Ballinacult, and Miss Norah Ring, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Ring, Crowhill, Mount Meleary, Cappoquin, on the occasion of their marriage, which took place, at Aifann Church, on Wednesday, 30th October. The ceremony was solemnised with Nuptial Mass and Pappal Blessing. The best man was Mr. Thomas Moloney and the bridesmaid was Miss Nellie Ryan.

Upwards of seventy guests attended the reception at the home of the bride's parents. Later the happy pair left on their honeymoon, which was spent touring.

LATE MRS. ANNIE DROHAN

Moynauvaud, Stradbally

We regret to announce the death of Mrs. Annie Drohan, of Moynauvaud, Stradbally, which took place on last Monday evening, November 4th, after a brief illness. The deceased was a well known personality and was the possessor of many outstanding qualities, in particular, gentleness and charity. She was always willing to succour those in distress. Prior to her marriage she was a member of a well known family, being Annie White, of Mocharud, Dungarvan.

She was shortly predeceased by her husband the late Walter Drohan and her son Walter (Junn.) and by her sister, Sr. M. Abigail of the Sisters of Charity of St. Paul the Apostle, Kilmac, Co. Limerick. She was an excellent Catholic and was noted for her support in any Catholic cause. She was sister of Very Rev. Fr. Thomas White, O.S.A., Prior, Drogheda.

Her passing is deeply regretted by a large number of relatives and friends throughout the Diocese.

The remains were received at the Church of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross, Stradbally, on Tuesday, by her brother, Rev. Fr. White, assisted by Very Rev. Fr. T. Power, P.P., Stradbally, Rev. M. Fennell, C.C., do., Very Rev. Fr. F. Madden, O.S.A., Prior, Dungarvan, Very Rev. Fr. J. C. Butler, O.S.A., Dungarvan, and Rev. Fr. R. O'Shaughnessy, O.S.A., do.

On Wednesday Masses were celebrated at 10, 10.30 and 11 a.m. for the eternal repose of her soul after which her remains were laid to rest in the family plot in the adjoining cemetery. Clergy present were Very Rev. Fr. Thomas White, O.S.A., Very Rev. Fr. Power, P.P., Stradbally, Rev. M. Fennell, C.C., do., Very Rev. Fr. Butler, O.S.A., Dungarvan, Rev. Fr. R. O'Shaughnessy, O.S.A., do., Very Rev. Fr. O'Leary, O.S.A., Prior, Cork, Very Rev. Fr. Browne, O.S.A., Prior New Ross, Very Rev. Fr. Cooper, O.S.A., Prior, Callan, Rev. Fr. Brennan, O.S.A., New Ross, Rev. Fr. Hickey, O.S.A., Cork and Rev. Fr. Sheehan, O.S.A., Nigeria.

The chief mourners were: Mrs. J. Watson (daughter); John, Patrick, Thomas and James (sons); Very Rev. Fr. Thomas White, O.S.A. and James White, Kilmac (brothers); Mary White (sister); John Watson (son-in-law); Julie and Ann Watson (grandchildren); Thomas Drohan, Ballycunnery (brother-in-law); Mrs. J. J. White and Mrs. James White, Mrs. K. Galvin, Curraheen (sisters-in-law); Mrs. J. Walsh, Kilmac (Mrs. T. Byrne, Modeligo, Ita, Pearl and John White, Moynauvaud (nieces and nephews).

The multi-million British Electrical group—The General Electric Company Ltd.—announced to-day plans to proceed immediately with a substantial expansion of its manufacturing interests in Ireland.

Speaking in Dublin, recently, Mr. C. F. Richards, a Director of the parent Company and Chairman of its Irish subsidiary, said that a 15-acre site at Dundalk is already being prepared for the erection of a 100,000 sq. ft. factory, due to be completed in June, 1964. The total cost of this development is estimated at £750,000.

This project is the happy outcome of discussions with the Minister for Industry and Commerce initiated earlier this year by Mr. M. F. McCourt, President of the Federation of Irish Industries and Managing Director of G.E.C. of Ireland Limited.

Mr. Richards added that the Company's present works at Dunleer are working to capacity and are totally inadequate even for its present needs. The demand for the Company's products shows a continuous and satisfactory increase and reports are now running at the highest level in its history.

The Irish Company's close association with the Domestic Appliance, Radio and Television interest of the parent Company foretell the purpose of this new expansion. Mr. Richards paid tribute to the quality and competitiveness of its Irish production, which he claims adequately matches Continental performance.

The General Electric Co. of Ireland Limited currently employs a mixed labour force of 1,250 and the new production facilities now being provided will add substantially to this payroll.

WATERFORD'S FIRST EVER LEAGUE TITLE

Yanks Beaten in Fiery Replay

WATERFORD 3-10 NEW YORK 1-10

THE National Hurling League pennant which has so tantalisingly evaded the County since its inauguration, finally became Deise property for a twelve months duration at least, when they defeated New York in a fiery replay at Kilkenny on last Sunday. It may not have measured up to the all-round excellence of the drawn game but in a furious combat in which quarter was neither given nor asked, there were many sustained passages of quality hurling.

The Yanks, as expected, threw everything they possessed into the game in an effort to take the title across the Atlantic. Even in defeat they enhanced further their reputation as being the best American side to visit these shores, but even they themselves will readily concede that the laurels were appropriately apportioned at Nowlan Park on Sunday.

When Waterford eventually overcame their early uncertainty and indecisiveness they revealed some of their power of score, and were undisputed masters at the end of time. A re-arrangement of their forces necessitated by early New York superiority, had the desired results, as all players involved in the general move about played decisive parts in their hard-fought victory.

EXACT REPLICAS
The pattern of the opening quarter was an exact replica of the corresponding period of the drawn tie. New York, setting indications of being the adroitest of the field, gave indication of being the adroitest of a complete Deise rout. They opened their account after two minutes and by the 20th minute had translated their marked outfield advantage into a deservedly commanding eight favour points lead.

It was through the medium of sheer vintage hurling that for breaking the New Yorkers

MATCH-WINNING SWITCHES

Then it was that the match-winning switches were made. Grimes was brought from the corner to the forty; Flannally took over at midfield; a sector that was ruled almost without challenge by New Yorkers Hennessy and Keating; and John Kirwan took over from Grimes at top of the left.

Without delay the non-lashed Flannally began to swing the issue in Waterford's favour, commanding eight favour points lead.

It was through the medium of sheer vintage hurling that for breaking the New Yorkers stranglehold on the game, and thanks in the main to his tireless efforts they retired at the break enjoying equilibrium.

But if Waterford asserted mastery in the second half, it was nevertheless a dour and unrelenting struggle for survival. They took the lead for the first time in the eight minutes of that second moiety, and though never subsequently relinquishing it were called upon to withstand furious New York onslaughts in the dying minutes.

As they strived valiantly to pierce the Deise defence for the scores that might have matched belated victory for them, the cat-like Ned Power in goal surpassed anything he has achieved in the past. Through-out the game his goal keeping display was among the most thrilling highlights, and his uncanny judgment in those last crucial seconds capped one of his finest hours in the county jersey.

NOT ALL IT SHOULD HAVE BEEN
The start. They had quick points by Kirby and Ryall before Kirby crashed home the only goal in the fifth minute. Continuing to dictate the trend of the game they added a further brace of points and only superlative saves by Ned Power prevented them from falling further in arrears.

Then in the 9th minute, Grimes opened his side's account with a pointed free. But back came the Yanks, and after Power had again thwarted good efforts by Brendan Kelleher and Joe Carey, Stephen Ryall put them further ahead with a point. Then came the maze march of Deise switches, and Barron blazed wide from five yards in the 16th minute. Again the unerring Ryall pointed a free after twenty minutes, but two minutes later Waterford were back in the game when a '70' by J. Byrne went untouched to the net. Flannally placed Grimes for a point in the 25th minute and Kirwan and Donovan exchanged points before Waterford drew level with a goal by Seamus Power and a point by Meaney. Both coming seconds from the interval.

Within a minute of the restart Kirby edged the Yanks in front with another point, but almost immediately, Barron equalised with a shot that could have ended up in the net. In the eighth minute, Flannally gave them the lead for the first time and half a minute later, John Kirwan met a ball on the half volley and from over 40 yds out sent it whizzing past a groping Ken Croke. Meaney stretched their lead to five points after ten minutes, but Ryall negated at the three-quarter stage. Meaney and Kirby exchanged points, but minors by Kirwan and Frankie Walsh put the issue beyond doubt.

FLAN THE STAR
Coming down to individual performances the role of honour must surely be headed by the diminutive Mick Flannally who gave one of the greatest displays of his career. His advent at midfield changed the entire trend of the game and despite being the target for some rough house treatment, outshouted all who directly opposed him. Little behind Flannally was goalkeeper Ned Power who on countless occasions "brought down the house" with near miraculous saves. This was Power at his brilliant best and he must have been a frustrating barrier for the New York forwards. In a full-back line that yielded precious little, Tom Cunningham and Austin Flynn were seldom beaten. Cunningham turned the tables in no uncertain manner in his duel with Pat Kirby who caused havoc in the drawn tie, while on the second successive Sunday, Austin Flynn was confronted with different full forwards in each half.

Jimmy Byrne, back to his best, was a steadying influence in the half line of defence. Larry Guinan, who was repeatedly in the wars, has had better games, but newcomer John McGrath was very prominent until injured in the second half.

Not until Flannally's arrival to the sector could they claim more than equality at midfield. But Meaney, when transferred there in the second-half played an absolute blinder, while Kirwan fitted in very well in the interval.

The evergreen Grimes without achieving the same success of the previous Sunday was a constant source of worry to the American defence and invariably attracted the attentions of two defenders. Seamus Power took his goal in expert style, but Frankie Walsh and John Barron met with little success against their opposite numbers.

For New York, deputy goalkeeper Ken Croke made some fine saves but quite obviously was not in the same class as Donal O'Brien.

Their defence lost little caste in defeat, with Mike Sweeney (until he retired injured), Johnny Murphy, Pat Dowling and Christy Connell outstanding.

Once again their midfield partnership of Brendan Hennessy and Jerry Keating was in the top bracket, and Stephen Ryall, Joe Carey and Pat Kirby were best-in an attack that was inclined to be too individualistic.

THE SCORING

As in the drawn game, New York set about their task in a business-like manner from the first time in the eight minutes of that second moiety, and though never subsequently relinquishing it were called upon to withstand furious New York onslaughts in the dying minutes.

As they strived valiantly to pierce the Deise defence for the scores that might have matched belated victory for them, the cat-like Ned Power in goal surpassed anything he has achieved in the past. # Tourin's Hours of Glory

Of this team which scored a thrilling victory over Mount Sion on the score 3-7 to 2-5, played at Walsh Park, Waterford on the 20th September, 1950, three will be doing duty again on Sunday next when Tourin contest the Western Primary Hurling final against Abbeyside. This trio who have given great service to Waterford and Tourin are Tom Fives and the Dooney brothers, Dick and Tom.

Our Bottom picture shows the Tourin team which captured the Waterford Junior hurling championship in 1941, and it is interesting to note that this was the first ever Tourin hurling team and in this team the spirit was born, that was later to carry the wearers of the red and white to many thrilling victories. Back Row (l. to. r) Mick Neville, Moss Landers, Jimmy O'Donnell, Johnny McGrath, Mick Landers, John O'Donoghue, Eamon Sweeney, Tom Whelan, Donnacha Murray, Bill Griffin, Jack Fives. Front row: Ca Murray, Dave Landers, Tom Fives, Micky Murray, Johnny McCarthy, John O'Keefe, Mickey O'Donnell, Jim Griffin.

It is now twenty-two years since the Tourin hurling and football clubs were founded. Since then they have contested two senior hurling titles, winning one against Mt. Sion and they have also won the junior hurling championship as well as winning the county junior football title and numerous tournament games. When they line-out against Abbeyside on Sunday next they will have on their side one man who has been inked with those teams since 1941. That is the incomparable Tom Fives, now in the twilight of a great career, which has seen county recognition in junior and senior football as well as junior and senior hurling. Tom, one of the great playing members of the great Fives brothers, is as keen to win a title on Sunday as he was twenty-two years ago and indeed his presence as well as the Dooney brothers should prove a great asset to Tourin on Sunday.

One cannot but come to the decision that the Vigilance Committee did single out Tom Cheasty.
