The Irish Controversy

Letters to the Editor

Dear Sir,
In his reply to my letter of 11/11/63, Mr. Charles Curran stated in last week's issue that £200,000,000 has been spent on the Irish revival since the foundation of the State. That figure is completely incorrect (40 times larger than the actual sum, in fact). I inquired from a number of Government Departments about the figure and I got the following reply from the Government Information Bureau: "It is being spent on Irish in the year 1963/64, compared with about £500,000 in 1961/62. We expect more details on the matter when the report of the Commission on the restoration of Irish is published."

Now we have two versions of the spending; a statement from Mr. Curran, giving the figure as £200,000,000 and the Government Information Bureau, telling us that the actual sum is not yet available. Which is correct?

Incidentally, the above contents of the Information Bureau letter is a translation from the Irish and Mr. Curran can inspect the original Irish version in the office of this paper if he wishes.

In a letter, which I received from Comhail Naisiunta na Gaeltache, the Gaeltacht Department estimate for 1963/64 is given as £581,650. This money is used for house-building grants and various other purposes including grants to Gaeltarra Eireann, which gives employment to hundreds of young men and women who would otherwise have to emigrate.

This letter also states that an unofficial figure on the total State expenditure so far on Irish could safely be said to be around £5,000,000. This is 40 times smaller than Mr. Curran's figure. Furthermore, I don't think Mr. Curran should give figures unless he is prepared to state his sources of information.

Although I pointed out in my first letter, that there is no such thing as "Irish teachers" today, as they teach a number of other subjects, Mr. Curran makes no effort to correct his statement regarding them. He also states that the Vocational teachers (who taught Irish) had considerable difficulty in securing pupils for their classes. I take it that the position refers to night classes, as there is no shortage of pupils for day classes in Irish. In a further reference to this subject, he stated that he thought "it was a bit of a joke to continue to employ three full-time 'Irish' teachers."

In another part of his letter he states that "Vocational Education in County Waterford was efficiently administered, long before my arrival on the scene." Those two statements seem to contradict each other. Let me hasten to add that I have no doubt about the efficient administration of Vocational Education in the County. My only complaint would be the lack of schools.

This is not the only instance of self-contradiction in Mr. Curran's letter, however. In one place he stated "that there was less Irish spoken today than was spoken thirty years ago." He goes on then to state that "Irish is being extensively used in the F.C.A. and other organisations." Certainly these two statements are contradictory.

As regards his allegation about the commercialisation of Irish and my challenge of £10 (going to any charitable organisation) to prove this, he makes a very weak case indeed. His reference to the commercialisation of the affairs of the now defunct Ardmore Irish College is so lacking in detail that I have nothing to do but to say that he is incorrect and my case is just as strong against as his is for. My challenge goes out again and I am firmly convinced that Mr. Curran cannot prove any case of the commercialisation of Irish in Co. Waterford.

Mr. Curran invites me to submit views to the Vocational Committee. Why should I? Indeed why should I when the Vocational teachers, who are directly concerned, are refused representation on the Committee, even as observers with no voting power.

I would like to remind Mr. Curran, that I am not a mouthpiece, as he infers in his letter, for anybody, and least of all a mouthpiece for "disgruntled cranks" whoever they may be.

His remarks about the people of Waterford being a patient people amuses me. Is he trying to infer that I have wronged the people or did they wrong me? Or I'm not a public representative or responsible for public spending, why should Mr. Curran threaten me with the people's impatience?

I notice that Mr. Curran states that he is too busy to reply to my six point challenge but I also notice that he has replied to two of them. I think I have shown him quite clearly in this letter that those replies are complete failures. What has happened in the case of the other four points?

In conclusion I thank you most kindly Mr. Editor, for the space you have allotted to my letters. To finish, I must add that I do not intend to intrude on your space for a good while again. If Mr. Curran does not keep to the original points at issue I have no further interest in the matter. Mise le dea-fheimh.

dreds who deplored the hypocrisy and insincerity with which officialdom has treated the language and the public are not willing to play their game further. Before Padraig Mac Piarais asked the people to learn Irish he first went to An Gaeltacht and learned it himself. How many of our officials and public representatives spend a holiday in "An Gaeltacht."

Let us concede a point however. A new approach is needed, but it is far easier to look for a scapegoat than to shape a scheme for Gaelicising na Deise. One would expect Mr. O Cuirrin to put forward a few suggestions. With the growth of more and more rural clubs and organisations in each parish, Irish classes and indeed other vocational classes have suffered. A new organisational approach is now demanded and I would imagine that Mr. O Cuirrin may have made suggestions to the public bodies of which he is a member, as to the changes needed. I'm sure Irish teachers will be glad to co-operate in every way.

Is mise le meas,
PADRAIG O FIANNUSA

C.B.S. Past Pupils Union

On Friday, 28th November, a meeting of past pupils of Dungarvan C.B.S. was held in the Teachers Club, 36, Parnell Sq., Dublin.

It was decided to form a Past Pupils Union - such union to include all former pupils of the school who are not now resident in Dungarvan or immediate surrounding areas.

The following Committee was appointed: Chairman, Mr. P. O'Donnell; Hon. Secretary, Paul R. Goode; 84, Celtic Park Avenue, Whitehall, Dublin 9; Hon. Treasurer, Capt. P. J. Rebealsch; Other members: Rev. Fr. Nesson, O.F.M.; Capt. P. Donnelly, P. Ahern, Capt. J. Draper, Sean Hennebery, D. Cullinane, J. Dalton.

The immediate main objects of the Committee will be to: (a) procure as many members as possible; and (b) investigate ways and means of helping in the drive for funds towards the cost of the new school building project.

The Chairman, Mr. O'Donnell, extended a welcome to the Superior, Bro. R. D. O'Heigeartaigh and to Messrs. L. Comerford and D. Whelan, who travelled specially from Dungarvan to attend the meeting.

Bro. O'Heigeartaigh addressed the meeting, giving full details of commitments of the Community. He also gave an up-to-date account of progress on the fund campaign in Dungarvan. He added that he depended a great deal on the generosity of the past pupils to help bridge the gap between the local effort and the ultimate target.

Mr. O'Donnell, on behalf of the newly formed union, pledged the full support of the members and said that every effort would be made by the Committee to make a worthwhile contribution to the fund.

He proposed to those present to contact other ex-pupils and make them aware of the formation of the Past Pupils Union.

Any past pupils who wish to become members of the Union should contact the Hon. Secretary, Mr. Paul R. Goode, 84, Celtic Park Avenue, Whitehall, Dublin 9.

HIGH TIDES AND GALES

Commenting on Saturday night last, Youghal was lashed with spring tides backed by strong easterly winds and despite the force of the winds there was very little flooding in the low lying areas from the tides. The wind went right around on Tuesday morning when the tide was at its highest and residents were again spared the ordeal of river flood. However, the heavy rains were responsible for flooding of lands around the district especially at the south side of the town and as a result dog racing was called off for two nights.

CHRISTMAS LIGHTING

In addition to the usual multi-coloured lights for Christmas the Youghal Traders Association have gone to additional expense in providing some 140 Japanese style lanterns for the lighting effect this year. These lanterns, which are coned shape and 64 feet in height, mounted on iron brackets. The work of erecting the brackets on business houses in the two main streets is almost completed and it is proposed that the lanterns will be erected and wired by the E.S.B. early next week. This new system of lighting should have a very colourful effect.

MEMBER OF LIFE-BOAT CREW HONOURED

The presentation was made at the Fishery Office, 11 The Mall, Youghal, in the presence of Mr. Dick Hickey, Life Boat Coxswain, and Mr. W. LATE MICHAEL KEANE

Springtown, Dungarvan

It is our sad duty to record the death of Michael Keane, late of Springtown, Dungarvan, which occurred on Thursday night, November 28th, at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan, after a duration of protracted illness, but at a comparatively early age. He was a native of Ardmore, but after his marriage he came to reside at Springtown, where he farmed for his livelihood and reared a family of outstanding ability. He had been a true Irish Catholic and a loyal member of the men's branch of the Sacred Heart Confraternity attached to the Parish Church, Dungarvan.

May his gentle soul rest in peace. We extend our deepest sympathy to his sons, daughter and sister on this sad occasion.

His remains were removed on Friday evening to St. Mary's Parish Church, followed by a very large and most representative cortege, and were buried and received by Rev. Fr. J. Murphy, C.C., assisted by Rev. Fr. Denis McGrath, C.C., Lisfenagh.

Before the commencement of play, the home club called for two minutes silence as a mark of respect to the late President-Kennedy. The next game will be at home to Linehan's Bar, Youghal.

TOURIN ARE COUNTY CHAMPIONS

Heartiest congratulations are extended to Tourin Primary hurlers on their narrow but well-deserved victory over Butlerstown in the county final, played at Walsh Park, Waterford, on Sunday last.

The game, now regarded as the greatest primary final to date, was played under ideal weather conditions and before a fine crowd, a great percentage of whom had travelled all the way from the west and though the many followers of the red and white present enjoyed the thrills and spills of

Disase

A new technique for "screening" a large number of different compounds has helped British scientists to produce a highly active drug, Betnovate, for the treatment of skin disorders. Tests, which were carried out using more than 50 compounds, showed that of all the products examined Betnovate had the greatest activity when applied to human skin.

The preparation contains betamethasone 17-valerate, a new steroid discovered by Glaxo research scientists and developed specially for application to the skin. The product was featured on the Glaxo stand at the London Medical Exhibition recently.

In assessing steroid compounds for topical use there has always been a need for preliminary screening that would correlate with actual use in dermatology but none of the several tests previously devised was really satisfactory. Glaxo developed a new skin-testing method of testing, discovered by a doctor at a London hospital for skin diseases, that gave a reliable indication of clinical activity which would otherwise have taken a long time to confirm. The technique involves the application of minute amounts of anti-inflammatory steroids to the human skin to produce easily recognisable areas of vasoconstriction (a narrowing of blood vessels) which are a valuable guide to their clinical effect.

Glaxo's promising laboratory findings were followed by trials carried out on several hundred patients in a number of important dermatological centres in Britain. As a result of this work, Betnovate proved outstanding, clinically, in the speed and intensity of its action, notably in the treatment of psoriasis. Because of its greater activity, Betnovate, which is substantially lower in price than most of the newer topical steroid preparations, can produce swifter and more decisive responses, characteristics which can achieve a significant saving both in cost and in treatment time.

The Betnovate range of preparations includes ointment, cream and lotion. Neomycin can be added for use when infection is present or suspected.

Swans for the past few years have made their winter quarters in Youghal harbour in great numbers, and last week they made an imposing sight at Dunne's Park, when they numbered 57. They are being well cared for by the residents and especially by the children. Recently one of the flock took a walk in the Main Street and showed no concern for the traffic, although he held it up for a short while.

CHRISTMAS SHOPPING SCHEME

The Youghal Traders Association will again hold its annual Shopping Festival this year. The officers, backed by a "growth" and energetic Committee have now completed the final arrangements for the Festival due to commence on Monday next. In previous years there was a prize scheme, the total prize money being £120. This has been changed this year.

The new scheme which received general approval, is as follows: A £5 daily draw covering from Monday, Dec. 9 to the 13, to take place on Friday 13. The second draw, covering from Sat. Dec. 14 to Friday 20, to take place on the latter date and the final draw for a Transistor set or £15 for tickets issued from December 21 to Dec. 24, to take place on Monday, Dec. 30. Tickets for the draws will be available to every purchaser of goods to the value of five shillings, as and from Monday next. Shops are now fully decorated and stocked with all classes of seasonal goods which are most attractive to suit all pockets.

HOLY HOUR

Tonight Friday being the first Friday night of the month Holy Hour and evening devotions will be held in St. Charles's Church at 7.30 p.m.

DEATH OF MR. J. CLANCEY

The death occurred at Lisamore District Hospital on Tuesday last week, November 26th, of Mr. John Clancey, Ballyharina, Lisamore. The deceased gentleman, who had reached a good age, was possessed of a very quiet and friendly manner which made him a favourite with both young and old. He will be sadly missed by all, but more especially by his sorrowing relatives, to whom we tender our deepest sympathy.

The remains were removed to St. Carthage's Church, on Wednesday evening and were received and blessed by Very Rev. Canon Dunphy, P.P., V.F., assisted by Rev. Fr. Queally, C.C., and Rev. Fr. Slattery, C.C., and the burial took place in the adjoining cemetery on Thursday, the same clergy officiating at the graveside. Large numbers of sympathisers attended both funeral and burial.

DAIRY NEWS

Maddens Dart Team had a good win over Dave Tobin's team Ballyduff at the home premises on Friday night last, winning all three games. Jim Lineen won the first on x15. Sean Cashman won the second on x2 and the third game was won by Mick Crowley (the best of 8 games) on x1. The highest score of the night was got by John Tobin, Ballyduff with 100.

Before the commencement of play, the home club called for two minutes silence as a mark of respect to the late President-Kennedy. The next game will be at home to Linehan's Bar, Youghal.

TOURIN ARE COUNTY CHAMPIONS

Heartiest congratulations are extended to Tourin Primary hurlers on their narrow but well-deserved victory over Butlerstown in the county final, played at Walsh Park, Waterford, on Sunday last.

The game, now regarded as the greatest primary final to date, was played under ideal weather conditions and before a fine crowd, a great percentage of whom had travelled all the way from the west and though the many followers of the red and white present enjoyed the thrills and spills of the senior semi-final, nevertheless they were in a way relieved when the final whistle blew, because now the time was at hand for their own heroes to prove their worth. Meanwhile in the Tourin dressing room the excitement was almost unbearable. Here was a team that had married glory through the west now getting ready for the final battle. Indeed, for the greater portion of the team it was truly a trying time because not alone had more than half of them never played in a county final, but they never had even in fact struck a ball in Walsh Park. However, these fears were practically lost in the excitement and cheers given to skipper Bob McGrath and his boys when they made their way onto the field.

Then there was the usual preliminaries associated with a county final to go through before the game started. However, it is not my duty to describe the play that followed, but who can ever forget the first half when our now great heroes never seemed to get going, but, nevertheless, finished level on the scoreboard at the interval. And now the second-half: well that was a half that will always be proudly remembered by every follower of Tourin. Two points down in as many minutes, they battled back and notched score after score, and with ten minutes to go had gained a seven-point lead.

However, Butlerstown were not yet finished and in a great late rally notched a goal to leave only four points between them. But Tourin held out and were again on the attack when the final whistle blew.

We will not go into details about individual members of the team now, but starting next week, Le Conaigh De, we will give you the pen pictures of this great team.

Letter to the Editor DISEASE FOUND IN MILK — M.O.H.

Dear Sir, Mrs. Costelloe and the Irish Housewives Association obviously believe that action speaks louder than words—but protests and marches are not enough in themselves.

OUT of 15 samples of loose milk taken by him, 13 were unaccountably bad and dangerous. Dr. P. B. O'Meara, County M.O.H., told North Tipperary Co. Council.

lois, said Dr. O'Meara, who was speaking in support of a motion that two additional part-time veterinary instructors be appointed.

The Turnover Tax, which is in effect a sales tax, could be abolished and income tax could be greatly reduced if not abolished if an Ombudsman were appointed to represent taxpayers' interests at national and local levels—this office to act as a watchdog where the spending of public monies is concerned; curtailing Government expenditure on wild extravagant schemes such as the £7,000,000 Arklow fertilizer plant. King size embassies abroad, the Avoca mines fiasco etc.; substituting a purchase tax on non-essentials—only if absolutely required; holding a sworn inquiry into the Irish fiscal, credit and monetary systems—and the tax system. None of our political parties will sponsor these suggestions to bring sanity into our tax system.

FOURMILEWATER AND AUGHAVOULMANE OPEN COURSLING CLUB
The final of the Bridge Cup took place on Sunday last and was won by Bill Ryan's "Blackies Equal" who beat Roger McCarthy's "Knockaun Boy."

Dr. O'Meara said the position was that milk being sold loose was not safe, and he would not stand for it. "That milk, if it goes to the pasteurisation plant, would not past any test," he said.

SLEATOR CUP
The draw for the above event is as follows: P. Condons. "Heartys Choures" v. Mrs. Fitzpatrick's "Fannys Fancy" v. G. J. Mannions "Tooracra Lady" v. M. Franklins "Ballymacart Fire" v. M. Healy's "Follow Again" v. W. Keebles "Parkhouse Sukie" v. J. Powers "Look and Pleasure" v. B. Brodericks "Move in Solar" v. J. Moores "Knockwaggon Sunset" v. M. Franklins "Slievnamon Jewel" v. L. O'Donnells "Mitchels Pride" v. Mrs. Fitzpatrick's "Foresight Lass" v. B. Ryans "Blackies Equal" v. T. Grady's "Lay-By-Lass" v. R. McCarthy's "Knockaun Boy" v. S. Franklins "Congress Cutlet."

A Chara. I would be grateful if you would print the following in your next issue.

Mr. P. de Buttleir, Assistant Co. Manager, said he had been pressed by the Department to send in returns and he appealed to the Council to think seriously of the kind of milk and meat that was going to the people.

We are in the midst of great changes in terms of local, national and international development and new politico-economic techniques are needed to cope with them—we must get under way now, the beginnings of the new alternative to old political alliances and allegiances. The Christian Democratic Movement of Ireland has already begun in Dublin North-East.

This was done in the normal way, but I may add that nobody connected with the College gained financially.

Affane Fancied in Primary Final

While none can deny that the senior final is the major attraction at Dungarvan, on Sunday next, considerable interest is being aroused by the meeting of Affane and Fenor in the primary decider which acts at the very attractive curtain raiser.

At the start of the year even the staunchest of Affane followers could hardly have thought in terms of a county championship title. But those dreams are to-day on the brink of reality, and it is going to take a tremendous effort on the part of the easterners to deprive them of highest honours.

Tourin have already set a glorious example for all other western standard-bearers by capturing the primary hurling title. They proved conclusively that the west is sufficiently strong to make a lasting impact on these championships, and I remain steadfast in my conviction that what Tourin accomplished Affane are also capable of doing.

over a side that boasted of several ex-seniors the winners displayed possession of the type of material so very necessary to annex a county title. Fenor travel to the Old Boys' on Sunday shrouded by an air of confidence that is evident to all and sundry. Like Affane they have proved too potent an outfit for all opposition this far, and led by their captain and star defender John Beresford will not hear of defeat.

The westerners have had the benefit of three week intensive training for this game and expect to field a full strength side. Tom Scanlon one of the links in a strong half-back line has recovered from rib injuries sustained in the game with the Brickeys and is certain to take his place beside Paddy McGrath and Danny Coughlan. Behind this trio full back John Healy has proved himself the pillar of the rear-guard and if Fenor persist in floating in high balls they could learn to their cost what an excellent fielder Healy is. Flanking him to capture the crown.

Making ends meet

Making ends meet is never easy, but, for the Crocodile Bird it seems positively perilous. It lives on the parasites which infest the rough hide of the reptile and, for the more venturesome birds, dainty morsels can be picked from between the razor-sharp teeth. When basking in the warm sun the crocodile keeps its jaws open to accommodate its bird friends, but, sometimes when overcome by the heat, the mighty jaws close with a snap and it is doubtful whether the crocodile sheds any tears.

NOTES

DEATH OF MR. P. ORMOND, POULBATHA
The death of Mr. Philip Ormond, Poulbatha, Modeligo, which took place on Tuesday, 26th November, at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan. A man of many fine qualities, upright and industrious, his death at the early age of thirty-five has caused widespread and deep sorrow. To his brother, sisters and other relatives goes the sympathy of their many friends and neighbours in their very great loss. The remains were removed to McLeis's church on Wednesday evening and were received by Very Rev. J. Hally, P.P., and Rev. C. Daly, C.C. On the following morning, after Solemn Requiem High Mass (celebrant, Very Rev. J. Hally), the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery. Fathers Hally and Daly officiating. Public sympathy was reflected in the very large attendance at the obsequies. The immediate relatives are: Jeremiah (brother); Sister M. Joan, Convent of Mercy, Herbertstown, North Queensland; Mrs. Alice Duggan, Toor, Cappoquin; Mrs. P. McCarthy, Sholing, Southampton; Mrs. J. Lyons, Australia (sister). (Funeral arrangements by A. Walsh & Sons, Cappoquin.)

We direct the attention of readers to advt. in another column under this heading. It is from Messrs. Burke & Mulkeen who for some time have been engaged in this area and have given every satisfaction.

COURSING
Coursing opened with a flourish at Cappoquin on Sunday last, when the local club held their first trials of the season on their beautifully laid out grounds at Affane. The lovely green sward never looked better, and everything was in perfect order, reflecting great credit on the efficient and hard working committee. A very large number of owners, turned up for trials and were treated to a grand evening's coursing. Stout-running hares and testing trials were the order of the day and most of those who came, even from long distances remained to the end enthralled by the excellent and quality of the fare provided. Great credit is due to Mr. Paddy Morrissey, who is in charge of the maintenance and training of the hares. Trials will be held every Sunday from 1 p.m., and patrons are advised to come early.

IRISH SWEEPS DERBY, Third Renewal

The remains arrived at the Church of the Sacred Heart, Knockanore, on Thursday, November 28th, and the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery, on Friday, in the presence of a large gathering of friends and sympathisers. FAT CATTLE FOR EXPORT

It was announced about a month ago by the Department of Agriculture that from 1st January 1964 fat cattle exported to Britain for immediate slaughter must have passed their last tuberculin test.

It appears that confusion has arisen in the minds of some farmers and exporters and the Department wishes to make it clear that the regulation does not mean that only attested fat cattle may be exported. Attested cattle may, of course, be sent to Britain for immediate slaughter, but non-attested cattle which have passed their last tuberculin test and bear an ear-tag to show it, may also be shipped provided they are going direct to one of the designated slaughterhouses in that country.

Arrangements which have existed since March, 1960, allowed cattle which had not been tested or had not passed the test to be exported to Britain for immediate slaughter at designated slaughterhouses, of which there are about 150. This year, the numbers of such cattle being exported have been small and all have been from the non-attested area of the south. Herd-testing and reactor removal in these counties have now progressed to the point where there are adequate numbers of fat cattle which have passed the test to allow exports to be maintained. These exports are all conducted through southern ports as Dublin cattle market and port are closed to all but attested cattle.

RECEIVED SEVERE HAND INJURIES

Mr. Patrick McGrath, Moorehill, Tallow is in Ardkeen Hospital, with severe injuries to two fingers of his left hand, sustained when a billhook he was using in the course of his employment with Moorehill Estate, slipped, lacerating the little and index fingers. He was conveyed to Ardkeen Hospital where we learn that the tops of both fingers had to be amputated. A most popular and highly respected young man, we join with his many friends in wishing him a speedy recovery.

VARIETY CONCERT AT BALLYDUFF
The variety concert held in St. Michael's Hall, Ballyduff, under the auspices of the Rosminian Fathers, was a huge success. The Fathers desire to thank all who helped to make the concert a success.

KILWATERMOY HALL
The new Parochial Hall at Kilwatemoy is now nearly completed. The roofing has been done and the interior work is proceeding. It is expected that the hall will be open for Christmas.

LICENSED PREMISES FOR SALE
The old established licensed premises known as the 'Sycamore Inn', Knockanore, is on the market for sale by private treaty. Renovated some years ago by the present owner Mr. Pat O'Shea, a native of Dungarvan, it enjoyed a lucrative trade.

SYMPATHY
We extend our deepest sympathy to the relatives of Mr. John Murphy, Youghal, whose regretted death occurred last week.

IN HOSPITAL
We wish a speedy recovery to the following local patients in hospital: Mr. Patrick Flynn, Barrack Street and Mr. John Hogan (in Ardkeen) and Mr. W. Murphy and Mr. Denis Lyons (in Dungarvan District Hospital).

FLOODING
Severe flooding of low lying land along the valley of the Bride and Blackwater has taken place following the heavy rains of November. Beet growers are finding it very difficult to remove their beet from the fields, as they are all waterlogged.

OLD FOLKS DANCE
The Old Folks dance held in St. Michael's Hall, Ballyduff, was again a huge success this year. Since it began some years ago, this annual event is eagerly looked forward to by the old folks of the village and surrounding areas. They recapture some of the joys of their youth and really let themselves go. The music was by the Dolphin Orchestra and a sumptuous supper was served.

LISMORE NOTES

SOCCER XI LOSE

In a most entertaining game at the Castle Grounds on Sunday last, Youghal defeated Lismore by the odd goal in five, but were somewhat lucky to do so as a draw would have been a fairer result.

Lismore went ahead in the early stages with a goal from Tom Sullivan (penalty) and the same player scored Lismore's second later on in the game. Youghal replied with goals from J. Murphy (2) and M. Kenneally (penalty). Lismore gave a much improved display than that against Pike Rovers, in a recent tie.

Outstanding for the home team were Tom and John Sullivan and Patschke in the backs while in the forward line those to catch the eye were de Carbonnel, Kusgens and T. Whelan. Best for Youghal were Brian and Bransfield in the backs and Murphy, Kelleher and Kenneally were the pick of the forwards.

Sunday next will be a red-letter day in the history of the Lismore Club when for the first time ever an outside team has been admitted to the Cork County League and this team is Lismore. Pike Rovers are the visitors for the opening game and the locals will need to be on top of their form to come out on top against these worthy opponents. The game will commence at 2.30 p.m.

45 CARD DRIVE
Due to so many first rounds being played in the Lismore Athletic Club 45 Drive, it was found impossible to play the final rounds in the Town Hall on Sunday night last, and it is now expected that the drive will be concluded on Sunday week, December 15. Just a reminder to all card players that the final rounds of the Glen Rovers 45 Drive will definitely be played in St. Carthage's Hall, on Sunday night next, December 8th, commencing at 8 p.m.

N.F.A. NEWS Kilkenny Rates Protest

The Minister for Local Government's statement last week is an insult to the farmers of Co. Kilkenny and is loaded with untruths. These falsehoods are:

(1)—We are not a subversive organisation. We fully recognise the State. We withhold an increase in rates because we consider the extra rate burden to be unjust taxation. We are registering this protest in one of the few ways open to us. This is no more subversive than a strike by sub-postmasters or a strike by E.S.B. workers. We would add that we have taken a line of action which will create no inconvenience or hardship for other sectors of the community.

(2)—We can state dogmatically that the majority of farmers in the county are registering this protest. (3)—We are also definite that no leader of the N.F.A. in the county has paid the increase in rates and we challenge the Minister to name any such leader, implied in his statement. (4)—Kilkenny farmers are definitely being asked to pay more rates this year than they were in 1957/58.

As farmers we particularly resent the suggestion that Kilkenny farmers have been selected to act as guinea pigs.

The decision was made by ourselves and no outside source was necessary to tell us of our inability to pay increased rates. We particularly resent the suggestion that we are an illegal or subversive body. The N.F.A. in Kilkenny is a constructive Organisation working for the good of that county and we are guided by "Mater et Magistra" which tells us "The fundamental principle of a system of taxation based on justice and equity is that the burdens be proportioned to the capacity of the people contributing." We ask our farmers not to be misled by the Minister and his inaccuracies.

Note—This protest arises from the resolution adopted unanimously by Kilkenny Co. Executive N.F.A. early this year: "That we the farmers of Kilkenny cannot pay any increases in rates over the 1962 level unless we get a substantial increase in our income, particularly from milk and sheep, to enable us to pay the first £20 valuation on the agricultural land in our holdings."

The above press release was issued on behalf of Kilkenny County Executive N.F.A. by Mr. James Bergin, Chairman. The year ahead is likely to be a very important one in the development of our Association. Extra commitments are being taken on at national level weekly. Most of these are coming about because of demands at local level. Many jobs are being forced upon us through international circumstances. Pressure of work like this, is a good thing, because it shows that our Association is growing in stature and importance.

An effort is being made to cope with everything but no matter what is done at Central Office, success will always depend ultimately on the loyalty of individual members and the efficiency of branches and county executives. During the coming months every county executive and branch should take a close look at itself, and make an all-out effort to bring about any improvements necessary. From a circular recently sent out to county secretaries we quote the following points for the consideration of all: 1.—That if an Organising Committee is not already functioning, that one be appointed immediately. This committee should include the treasurer, who should keep the committee informed each month of the financial progress of branches. 2.—That a propaganda leaflet be prepared locally to suit the needs of the individual county. This should be submitted to Central Office as soon as possible to ensure co-ordination. The leaflet would be of value in the organising campaign.

3.—Should it be considered desirable to appoint a county organiser or secretary, that such a proposal should first be discussed with Central Office in view of the need to study the financial implications, and the need within the framework of a long-term plan which is being submitted to the National Executive for consideration. 4.—That the need for branches to make meeting more interesting by arranging lectures, discussions, etc. (Within the framework of the agreement with Macra na Feirme) be stressed, and that the Organising Committee concern itself with this matter. CONTROLLING DISEASE Animal disease costs Irish farmers millions of pounds per annum. A couple of weeks ago we quoted extracts from a recent N.F.A. Health and Disease Sub-Committee Report. Below we reproduce three further extracts for our readers information.

Kilmacomas Notes

A Dozen Teams participated in a highly interesting Question Time competition competition sponsored by Windgap (South Kilkenny) Branch, Macra na Feirme, and from same Kilmacomas emerged winners with 39 points—2 points ahead of their nearest rivals. Threesticks (South Kilkenny), Mr. William Cooke B.A.G.R., Sec. Kilmacow (do.) was compere, and Mr. Larry O'Shea, Windgap, scorekeeper. Congratulations are offered to Mr. Michael Kirwan, Kilmacomas, and Miss Sadie Kinsella, Rockenham, Ferrybank, on their engagement. Mr. Kirwan is a member of the Irish Armed Forces which has just returned from the Congo, and Miss Kinsella is attached to the staff of Messrs. John Tyler and Sons, Ltd., The Quay, Waterford.

In Connection With the "30" card drive in aid of Kilmacomas Parochial Hall funds, the winners of the well-supported event were Messrs. M. Norris, Newtown, and B. Mansfield, do., each of whom received £20. Miss Mary Hubbard, Scrahan, and Messrs. John O'Regan, Georgetown, Denis Behan, Kilnagrange; Michael Butler, Rathmeaden; James Fitzgerald, Moonmeane, and William Whelan, Knockturney, got £10 each, being the runners-up. The Committee in charge are truly thankful to those who took part (winners and losers alike) in the social competition.

A Waterford Co. and City Infirmary Patient recently discharged fit and well is well and popularly known Mr. Willie Crowdie, St. Anne's Tee, Kilmacomas. Hospitalised these days are meritoriously much-esteemed Messrs. Dick Joy, The Square, Kilmacomas, and Dick Walsh, St. Anne's Tee, do. A quickly-get-well wish is earnestly extended to both. Have It that Miss Kathleen Cleary, pupil of Colaiste Mhuire, Convent, Convent of Mercy, Dungarvan, has been called to the Civil Service, Dublin. Every best wish to the happy-dispositioned talented young lady, who is third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Cleary, Bonmahon (neighbours deservedly held in the highest regard).

Barely A Week's Illness preceded the death of Mr. John (Jack) Foley, Coolfin, Potlraw which happened at Ardkeen General Hospital, Waterford, on Monday, 25th ult. (Feast of St. Catherine, V. M.) Born in Carrick-on-Suir in 1896, Jack was a keen supporter of the purely Celtic code, and in his earlier years was a hurler of considerable merit and played on Tipperary county, inter-county competitions on several occasions. During the fight for Irish Freedom, he saw much active service as a member of South Tipperary Brigade, I.R.A., under Comdt. Sean Treacy. In 1927 he took up residence in Potlraw, where he was positioned at the local Tannery in the capacity of watchman. Blessed with many admirable qualities of head and heart, he was a great favourite with all and sundry in the Clodiagh-caressed town of his adoption. Pre-deceased some years since by his good wife, he is survived by a family of three sons and three daughters, to whom and his grandchildren, brother and other relatives, wholehearted sympathy is tendered. An immense concourse of mourners and sympathisers accompanied the removal of the remains to St. Patrick's Parish Church, Potlraw, where the coffin (draped with the tricolour) was received and blessed by Rev. J. Griffin, C.C., do. After Requiem Mass on Wednesday morning, interment was made in the adjoining cemetery amidst every manifestation of sorrow. Fr. Griffin gave the closing absolution at the graveside. Numerous Mass cards and messages of condolence were received. —R.I.P.

As Advertised—In aid of Kilmacomas Feus Building Fund is the Monster "30" Card Drive (winners: £60; runners-up, £40), the first rounds of which were played at Leamybrien on Friday night of yesterday and at Feus on Sunday night, and the final rounds will be decided in the Rainbow Hall, Kilmacomas, on tomorrow (Sunday), 8th inst. The Deapest and most heartfelt sympathy goes forth to the nearest and dearest of Miss Bridget Wall, Fahá, Kilmacomas, who passed away at her home on Tuesday, 26th ult. (Feast of St. Silvester, 1963). Quiet and retiring in manner, the deceased was an esteemed personality, and by her departure hence the people of the district have lost a helpful, genuine friend. A big concourse of neighbours attended at the removal of the remains to the Parish Church, Stradbally, where the coffin was rested overnight on a catafalque before the high altar. Two Requiem Masses for the repose of her soul were offered on Thursday morning of last week, and immediately afterwards the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery, Rev. M. Fennell, C.C., Stradbally, officiated at the graveside, assisted by Very Rev. D. Power, P.P., do. —R.I.P. Silver Circle Draw No. 2 organised by the Parochial Hall, Kilmacomas Committee, is facing the third weekly draw of its 20 week course (at 1/- per week); it is being well patronised, and the promoting body are ever so grateful to all availing of this opportunity towards raising the amount essential to clear off the remainder of the expenses incurred in renovating, repairing and refurnishing the Hall (now an ideal recreation centre for the men and boys of the town and surroundings). Ballydun-Newton Social Club's nineteenth annual dance brought a great gathering of light fantastic lovers to the Rainbow Hall, Kilmacomas, on the first night of this week. Dancing was from 9 p.m. until 2 a.m. and gaiety was the keynote all the way, the music being most pleasingly rendered by the Cossacks Showband (Thurles). ● THE 'GUNNERS MAKE NO MISTAKE

Despite a determined challenge by Dunhill, Ballygunner qualified for their first ever senior hurling championship final when having seven points to spare over their country rivals at Walsh Park on Sunday last. They now meet Mount Sion in the decider on Sunday week.

It was an uncompromising game in which the exchanges threatened to get out of hand on several occasions and had it not been for the stern warnings of referee Dickie Roche (Mount Sion) it might well have got out of hand.

The final scoreline of 3-5 to 0-7 indicates a definite Ballygunner supremacy, but fails to underline the extent of Dunhill's change which kept them in the game with a chance for most of the hour.

Dunhill had first advantage of the strong breeze and jumped into an early lead with a point by Sean Connolly. With Billy Dunphy and Monty Guiry rampant at midfield they continued to hold the balance of power, and only lamentable forward finish denied them a pretty healthy lead.

Not so with Ballygunner however. With far fewer chances they managed to utilise them to the hilt, and somewhat flatteringly led by 1-4 to 0-2 at the interval.

But what a tremendous battle the losers put up in a thrilling third quarter. They hit the 'Gunners with a legitimate fury that had them reeling and when points by Regan and Dunphy cut their deficit to a solitary goal the issue was really in the melting pot. Five minutes later there was only two points between the sides and with Dunhill enjoying an unmistakable advantage there seemed to be an assurance of a grandstand finish.

Then came the deciding score of the game. A centre by Jim Phelan that looked harmless in the extreme, was amazingly misjudged by Dunhill goalkeeper Power and wound up in the net. That goal sounded the death-knell for Dunhill and a further goal by Letter Troy set the seal on their fate.

Outstanding in a strong Ballygunner defence was goalkeeper Pat Flynn, Paudie Casey, Tommy Hearne and Paddy Sullivan. Tony Cummins and Jim Phelan were up against it at midfield and in an attack that made most of their chances Vinny Connors, Billy Howlett and John Warren were best.

Dunhill, though naturally disappointed by defeat put up a gallant effort that might have been better rewarded had they possessed a more penetrating set of forwards.

In defence centre-back Tom Allen can lay justifiable claims for the honour of the best hurler afield and he was well supported by Joe Tibbs and Tim Allen.

Monty Guiry and Billy Dunphy tried valiantly all through at midfield and are in no way to blame for defeat.

On the shoulders of the forwards, however, must rest the major share of the responsibilities for their side's fate. They had chances aplenty, particularly in the opening half to put themselves in a far more advantageous position towards the goal but inexplicably squandered them. Of the sextet, Sean Connolly and John Murphy were the best but they never got adequate assistance from the remainder of their colleagues.

● SENIOR FINAL ON SUNDAY WEEK

Because of the refusal of Ballygunner to play the county hurling final on Sunday next (the original date) the game will now be played on Sunday, December 15.

● FOURMILEWATER'S BIG CHANCE ON SUNDAY

The junior hurling final between Fourmilewater and De La Salle, which was originally to have been played three Sundays ago will now take place at Walsh Park, Waterford, on Sunday next.

Having gone into the respective finalists in detail prior to the first occasion of the postponement of which was entirely due to the unkindness of the weatherman, there is little point in repeating the procedure again.

However my view that the game should be a thrilling one remains unaltered, as does my contention that Fourmilewater must have an excellent chance of making amends for the failures of the past two years.

Their key men in defence may be Tom Walsh and Liam Ryan, while much will also depend on the display of Tom Brazil.

The midfielders, Kieran Ryan and Mick Connolly however may determine whether it will be a matter of success or failure, and believing they can overcome whatever opposition may be pitted against them I give the vote to the allymac' side to carry home the laurels.

THE 1963 senior football final, postponed under the most tragic circumstances, will now take place at the Fraher Field, Dungarvan, on Sunday next and quite obviously the scene is set for a pulsating battle between the reigning champions Kill and challengers Brickey Rangers. At the Having previewed the game in such detail on the first occasion makes it almost an impossibility to adopt a new trend of thought now. The contestants are the same; form remains as before and the writer's belief that this time the Rangers will lay the hoodoo that has haunted and plagued them thus far, has not diminished one whit in the interim.

As though to make assurance doubly sure on the score of fitness both sides have used the extra time to the best possible advantage. The preparations were resumed with deadly earnestness and the superb fitness of the sides adds further to the belief that it will be a thrillingly fast decider.

Since the postponement, I have spoken with players and mentors from both camps and from none could I detect the slightest doubt as to how the game would go. This measure of supreme confidence adds an appeal and glamour to the game and if there is more than a point or two separating the rivals at the end of the hour none will be more surprised than "yours truly."

SPRATT WILL BE AN ABSENTEE

Prior to the original date, it was definitely known that the risk of repetition I say it may well be a decider that will set quite a headline for many years to come and the very uniqueness of the pairing makes it a game that is understandably "a must" for all followers of the code in the County.

and defensive positions remain unaltered but Mick Farrell and John Sheehan now form the new midfield partnership.

The placing of Farrell at midfield is no doubt made in the hope that he can match the brilliance of Kill's Kennedy and Power. Much will depend on the assistance he receives from Sheehan and if the new pairing can even obtain a 50% share of the play they will have set the victory wheels in motion.

With Farrell now on the half-way line, the skipper of the side Andy Hallisey takes over on the "40" while the vacancy caused by Pat Spratt's absence will be filled by Tom Foley.

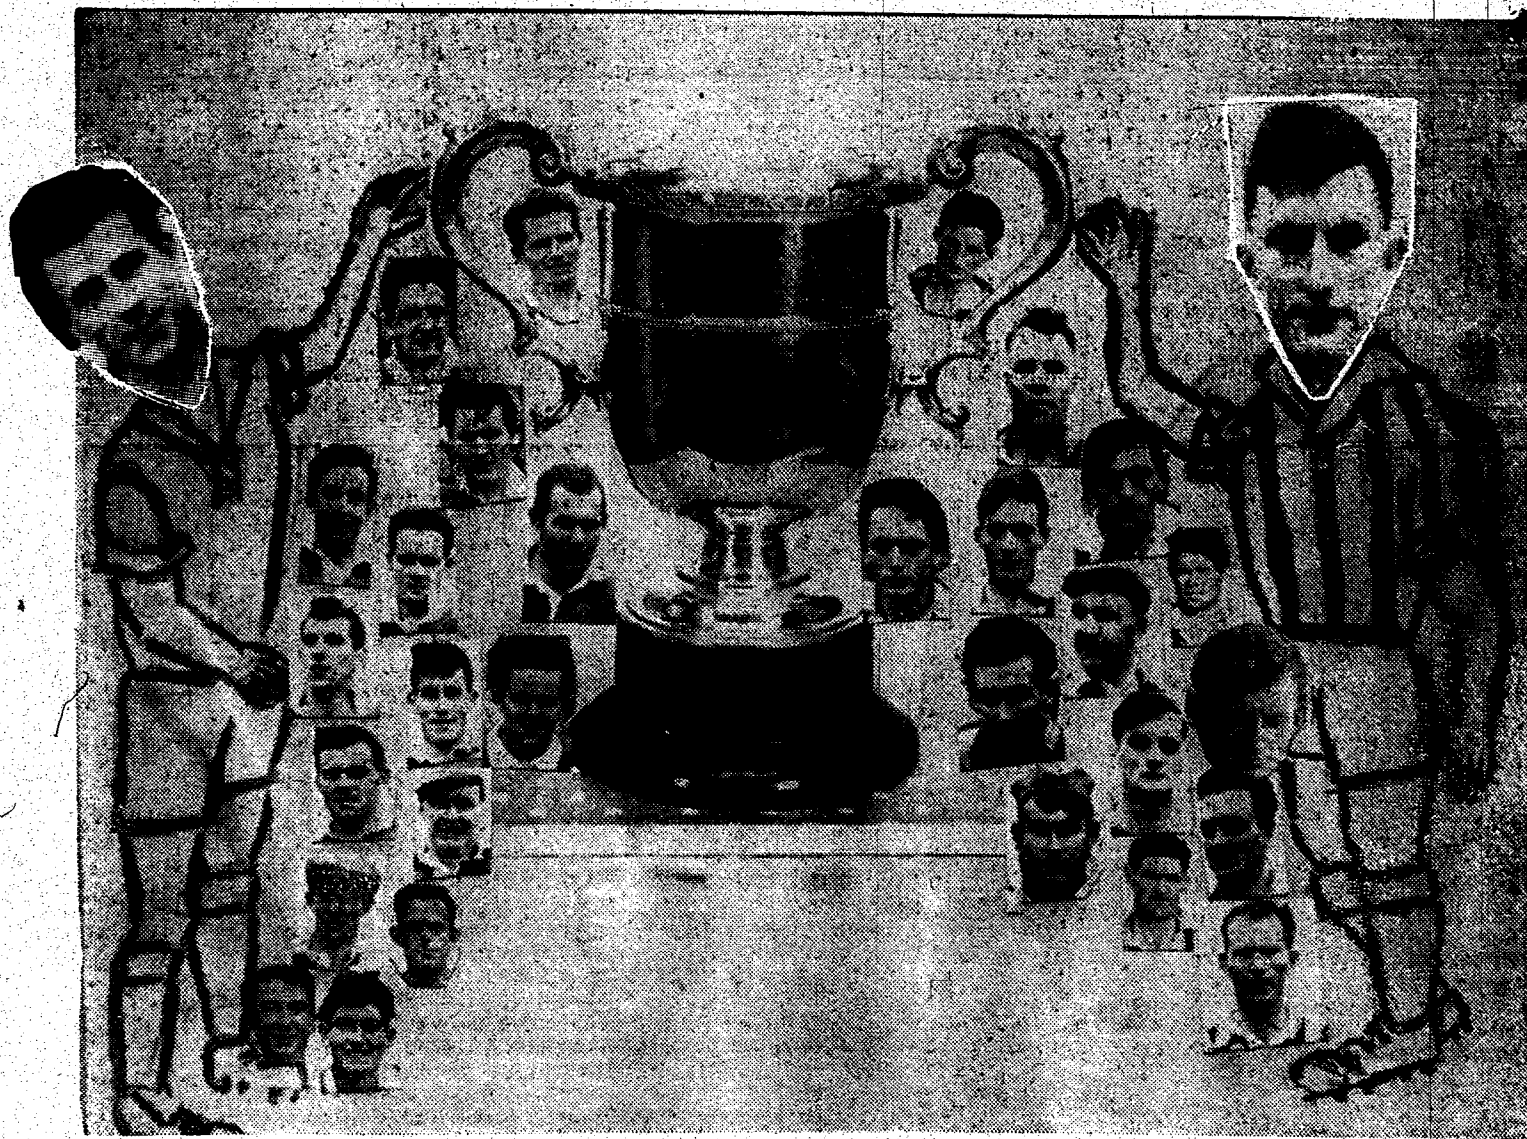

LAST CHANCE

This, as I said before, is probably the last chance such Brickey veterans as Patsy Donnelly will have of winning a coveted senior medal. It is little short of a crying shame that such a loyal and gifted footballer as Patsy should end his career without capturing the one trophy that obviously means so much to him. No doubt Patsy himself realises that Sunday may well be a

KIRWAN INJURED

Nor are Kill without their troubles. Inter-county star Mick Kirwan is afflicted by a shoulder injury and he too is a non-starter. As yet, a decision has not been made as to his replacement but the corner forward position (for which Kirwan would have been chosen) will now be filled by either Paddy Finucane or Terry Guiry.

The Brickey side is the same as chosen before the postponement was announced. This means that the goalkeeping

Tourin's Glorious Victory

TOURIN 4-5 BUTLERSTOWN 2-7

HAIL the hurling heroes of Tourin. As so confidently predicted in our detailed preview in last week's issue they became Primary champions of the County for the first time when defeating Butlerstown in a memorable final at Walsh Park, Waterford on Sunday last. It was a decider that had to be won the hard way but never once were the champions found wanting in what was surely one of their greatest hours.

Irrespective of one's affiliations, it was a final that will rank among the best in the grade to date. It was highlighted by several passages of hurling that would do justice to a higher grade, and by individual performances that were simply a treat to watch.

Above all it was an hour of fluctuating fortunes with the lead inter-changing and the issue in real doubt all the way. But at the end it was the gallant Westerners who held the all-important lead, and by doing so confirmed my contention of their being the best side to be crowned champions in this grade.

But all credit to Butlerstown for putting up such a wonderful performance against class opposition. Depending as they were on individualism rather than all-round team strength and thriving on this adversity they produced their finest performance of the hour. Urged on by the brilliance of defenders Tom Fives and Tom Doocey, the entire team seemed to enjoy a new lease of life. As they launched wave after wave of attacks it was only inevitable that the Butlerstown defence would crack if not merely the fulfillment of expectations when they piled on the match-winning scores.

Entering the closing stages they were seven points to the good, a lead however, which the losers tried valiantly to wipe out. A well taken goal reduced the margin to four points, and it took all the defensive qualities of the winners to prevent their citadel falling again.

But at the end it was Tourin, gloriously triumphant, and back on the hurling role of honour after thirteen years of frustration and disappointment.

In victory all fifteen played their parts, but I'm sure I'll be forgiven if I single out centre back Tom Fives for special mention. Here was the veteran with over a score of hurling years behind him, turning in a performance that simply belied his passing years. He completely sealed up the centre of the field and his astute positional sense always found him in the right place at the appropriate time. Yes, without doubt, Tom was Tourin's man of the match.

It would of course be ingenuous to overlook the wonderful assistance he got from his other defensive colleagues. Goalkeeper Frank McGrath never put a foot astray, while Tom Sullivan, Wally and particularly Tom Doocey covered themselves in glory.

If Fives was the dominating figure in the half-line, he was backed up to perfection by tireless workers in Johnny Gorman and Ollie Wilkinson. Midfield was the troublesome sector, but both Jimmy Gorman and Tommy Regan, who formed the partnership, did invaluable work at crucial periods.

The half-line of attack was confronted by Butlerstown's strongest sector, yet all three fared creditably. Dick Doocey had some hectic clashes with John Kirwan, and with John
