Bridge Street—Dungarvan

Opening of New Kiladangan Bridge

A new bridge expanding the river Colligan at Kiladangan, Dungarvan, was officially blessed and opened in a brief but impressive ceremony on Monday last. Venerable Archdeacon David Power, P.P., Dungarvan, performed the blessing whilst the customary cutting of the tape to mark the official opening was carried out by Mr. Charles Curran, Chairman of Waterford County Council.

The bridge which took a year to complete, was constructed at a cost of £29,500 by Messrs. T. J. Hegarty and Sons, Contractors, Midleton. The consultants were Messrs. H. N. Walsh and Partners, Sunday's Well, Cork.

In blessing the magnificent new structure, Ven. Archdeacon Power, P.P., said it would be of immense benefit to the people of the country in general. He referred to road users who were inclined to abuse the roads and said the cause of many accidents was lack of knowledge on the rules of the roads. He appealed to all to avoid negligence and wished all who passed over the new bridge God's Blessing.

In declaring the bridge open, Mr. Curran said it was a magnificent effort on the part of those responsible and congratulated the contractors, consultants and resident engineer, Mr. Haugh, Mr. J. D. Hally, Co. Engineer and his staff and last but not least the workers themselves.

At a luncheon afterwards in the Devonshire Arms Hotel given jointly by the Contractor and the Consultants, Mr. Curran again congratulated those concerned with the structure and stated it would add considerably to the beauty of the countryside.

Messrs. Hegarty's, he said, were no strangers in County Waterford, and everything they did was excellent. He also thanked the resident engineer, Mr. Haugh, whom he described as an excellent official, the engineering staff of the County Council, Archdeacon Power for blessing the bridge and the workers.

Paying special tribute to the Press, he said the relations between the public representatives and the members of the Press could not be better. Only for the Press they could not present to the people the public schemes that were being undertaken by the Council.

The roads of the county were the best in the country and there was great thanks due to Mr. Hally and his predecessors. They had found in Mr. Hally, an excellent official, a dedicated man and his idea of the ideal public citizen. The same could be said of the other engineers.

Mr. Curran went on: "This new bridge will help tourism, and I am glad to state that the new Regional Tourist Board has taken a great interest in County Waterford where they have great potentialities. I appeal to the people to support the big tourist drive that will be getting under way. Next to Agriculture, Tourism is our most important industry and the public should give its full support."

Continuing, Mr. Curran said he had received a letter from the Minister for Local Government that morning pointing out the serious position regarding road accidents. The Minister stated that the position had worsened over the last two months. Statistics showed that during the past decade 3,000 had been killed on the roads, and 50,000 injured. In January and February last year, 34 were killed and 540 injured, whilst in the corresponding months this year 52 were killed and 611 injured. He appealed to people to drive more carefully and added that if this trend continued several people presently alive would die because of road accidents.

Concluding, Mr. Curran thanked the hosts, Messrs. Hegarty and Walsh for their hospitality and also thanked the hotel staff for the excellence of the meal they had served.

Mr. J. G. Dowling represented

COUNTY COUNCIL CHAIRMAN, MR. CHARLES CURRAN, OFFICIALLY OPENS KILADANGAN BRIDGE

County Manager S. J. Moynihan said he wished to endorse the remarks of Mr. Curran. He thanked the Contractor and the Consultants for their hospitality and the Archdeacon for blessing the bridge. He also paid tribute to the engineers concerned and all who teamed to make it such a splendid bridge. He paid a special word of thanks to the Minister for Local Government for giving them a 75% grant towards the over cost of the work.

This new bridge, he said, marks another milestone on this historic military road. In 1796 the Irish Parliament passed an act establishing Commissioners to maintain the road and two supervisors were also appointed at a salary of £22 a year. They had to take the oath to do their duty honourably. This the opening of this new bridge was as he had said "another milestone on a very historic road."

County Engineer, Mr. J. D. Hally said that from their point of view the three essential things were present for this job, good consultants, a good contractor, and a good resident engineer. The work was expected to be completed from beginning to end.

Mr. Malachy Walsh of M/s. H. N. Walsh and Partners, Consultants, said it was a great honour for them to be entrusted with the designing of the bridge. When it was finished it gave them a sense of achievement and satisfaction. This was their third "assignment" in county Waterford and he hoped they would have more to come in the years ahead. He then thanked Mr. Hally from whom they got instant co-operation, which was of immense help to them. He would also like to thank the Contractors, M/s. Hegarty & Sons on the completion of their first major road bridge and on the manner in which they carried out the work. He also congratulated Mr. Corbett and Mr. Hunt of that firm, and the resident engineer, Mr. Haugh on the way he carried out his duties. He wished him every success in his future career, which he knew would be a very successful one.

Mr. Walsh went on to pay tribute to the Co. Manager, Co. Secretary and the other council officials.

Mr. Jack Flynn, Kiladangan, congratulated all concerned with the work, but especially Mr. Hally, who was responsible for the artistic work on the bridge.

Mr. Walsh of the Consulting Firm then made a presentation of Waterford Cut Glass to the County Council Chairman Mr. Curran, as a memento of the occasion.

Replying, Mr. Curran said the gift was most unexpected but one which he would treasure for the rest of his life. He thanked the Co. Council members for attending the function and added that in the Co. Councilors they had a body of men that the county could be proud of. They put the interest of the people above politics and were totally dedicated to the people they represented. The public should show greater appreciation for the services they were providing. He expressed the hope that M/s. Hegarty's and Walsh's would be with them again.

Colr. M. Harty, speaking in Irish said he was very glad to say that the public would get the utmost benefit from the new bridge. He wished God's blessings on all connected with the work.

Colr. Norman Walsh, Vice-Chairman of the Co. Council, said it was his great pleasure to be associated with the vote of congratulations to M/s. Hegarty's and Walsh, and congratulated all concerned on the efficiency and the expeditious manner in which the work was carried out. Although some schemes were too ambiguous, this occasion was one in which it was a case of money well spent. The completion of the bridge linked the cities of Waterford and Cork with western towns like Cappoquin, Lismore and Tallow and he hoped it would mean increased benefit to these towns. For that reason alone he welcomed the opening of the bridge.

Finally the function came to an end with a most enjoyable "sing song," which proved a fitting finale to a momentous occasion.

Gala Week for Dungarvan this Year

A very well attended meeting of the various organisations in the town was held in the Cornhouse, Dungarvan, on Monday night last to consider the possibility of holding a Gala Week in the town during the coming summer.

A committee comprised of representatives of the various associations was set up to co-ordinate the activities of the bodies concerned with Tourism in the town. The following officers were also elected: Chairman, Mr. James Foley; vice-do., Mr. P. Breen; Hon. Treas., Mr. P. Murphy; Hon. Secretary, Mr. P. J. Doyle.

During Monday night's meeting which lasted two hours, the clubs present indicated what they would do during Gala Week. Incidentally, it is intended at this stage to hold this seven-day event around horse show week in Dungarvan.

The following clubs were represented at the meeting: Sea Angling Club; Boat Association; Sailing Club; Athletic Club; I.C.A.; Ceoltas Ceoilire Eireann (Dungarvan Branch); Choral Society; Tennis Club; Gun Club; Historical Society; Abbesside Pattern Committee; and Dungarvan Pipe Band.

The Ceoltas representative said they would be staging Fleadh Ceol na nDeise in August and would provide one night's entertainment. The Choral Society said they would be glad to put on an open-air musical performance. The Tennis Club indicated their willingness to stage tournaments.

A letter was read from the Irish Amateur Swimming Association saying that they would be prepared to consider putting on Diving Exhibitions and Water Polo and Ballet.

The Gun Club said they would put on a Clay Pidgeon Shoot, whilst the Abbesside Pattern asked that the Gala Week coincide with their Annual Pattern.

Mrs. Hallahan said she would put on open-air dancing and the Dungarvan Cell band also offered their services.

Mr. Con Roche said he had contacted the Cork Aero Club with a view to providing an Aero display, and Mr. Roche is also trying to arrange wrestling competitions and cart races.

The meeting strongly urged the townspeople to decorate their premises for the event.

The Committee will also consider at a future date, collecting a fee of £1 from the business houses and hotels of the town, whilst it has also been suggested to have a Personal Registration fee of 5/-.

Mr. P. Breen, Waterford, Chairman of the new Waterford Regional Tourist Council was unavoidably absent from the meeting, at which representatives from outside areas including Cappoquin, Lismore, Tallow, Clashmore and Ardmore were present. The possibility of forming a Western Regional Tourist Council was discussed but the meeting seemed to be against this idea. The other centres, however, already mentioned will consider forming their own Tourist Associations and joining the Waterford Tourist Council.

Now that it has been definitely decided to hold the Gala Week we hope the townspeople will respond in fitting manner. It will undoubtedly be of immense benefit to the Old Boro' and a dedicated and unified effort should be forthcoming. It will, of course, entail tremendous organising, but the newly formed committee is comprised of men who will not spare anything to ensure the success of this most enterprising venture.

Late Mrs. D. Delany

Deep and widespread regret has been occasioned by the death of Mrs. Delia Delany, which occurred at her residence at Strandside North, Abbesside, on St. Patrick's Day. The deceased, who was a most charming and popular lady, had endured a protracted illness, but yet her demise at a comparatively young age, has come as a great shock to the community.

She is survived by her husband, Mr. James Delany, well-known local business man, and three daughters Mrs. Maura Creed, Dungarvan; Mrs. G. Queally, do.; and Miss Patty Delany, Dublin, to whom sincere sympathy is extended.

A full obituary will appear in next week's issue.

WEST WATERFORD NEWS

NEED FOR HOUSES
There is a great need for new cottages in this area. About two years ago new cottages were approved as follows—Aglis 2; Clashmore 2; Grange 3; Piltown 3. The two houses at Aglis are at present being built but so far it has not been possible to secure contractors for the cottages at the other centres.

Several applications have been received for new cottages in the Clashmore area and steps are being taken to acquire a site. We are informed that all the applications are being considered by the County M.O.H. and that in due course his recommendations will be submitted to the Co. Council's Housing Committee for consideration.

G.A.A.
At Clashmore venue on Sunday last, Ardmore met the local team in the J.H. winter league and an interesting game ensued. The first half was evenly contested but after the turn over the visitors' experience proved a decisive factor and they won by a fairly comfortable margin. The game was played in a clean sporting manner. Mr. W. Fitzgerald, Cappoquin, was a capable referee.

CLASHMORE GIRL'S SUCCESS
Congratulations to Miss Elizabeth Ronayne, Coolbagh, Clashmore, on her recent appointment to the Civil Service following a competitive examination. Miss Ronayne, who is eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ronayne, was educated at Clashmore N.S. and Presentation Convent Secondary School, Youghal.

CLASHMORE GYMKHANA
A big gymkhana will be held at Clashmore on Sunday, 12th April. It is being sponsored by the local Harrier Club and some of the best show riders in the South of Ireland will compete.

OUTSTANDING FOOTALLERS
Prominent on the Waterford S.F. team recently are Messrs. P. Carleton, Ardmore and M. Tobin, Aglis. Paddy Carleton was educated at St. Augustine's College, Dungarvan, and is now studying law in Cork. Michael Tobin was also educated at St. Augustine's and is now a progressive farmer. It is of interest to note that both are members of the F.C.A.

RECRUITS
The F.C.A. units at Aglis, Ardmore and Clashmore are understrength and in urgent need of recruits. Some recruits were secured at each centre recently but more are needed. Young men should welcome this opportunity of serving their country in the armed forces and of wearing the national uniform—a uniform which is respected and honoured all over the world.

In addition to receiving a military training, members of the force get instruction in civics, first aid etc and receive annual gratuity and pay during annual training. This year's summer camp is at Crosshaven.

Officers elected were: — Chairman, Pat Kiely, Crenagh; vice-do., John Keating, Ballynabogue; treas., James Quinlan, Rathgormack; Andrew Coughlan, do.; Secretary, Wm. Lenihan.

Delegates to Dail Chomhairle Cheannairde, Secretary, Chairman and Vice-Chairman.

Addressing the gathering Deputy Sean Ormonde said: "Agricultural output is now at a record high level but we can do a lot better still. There is a great future for the farmer with the know-how and who is prepared to work. In the past few years, there have been dramatic examples of this. It is just as important to modernise farming as to modernise industry."

"Fianna Fail has accepted that our agriculture must be based on the unity of the family farm. Small farmers get precisely the same help as large ones, while in addition they benefit from the guaranteed prices for milk and pigs, a form of State support which is specially adapted to their needs."

"There can be no doubt whatever that the living standards of farmers have improved in the last 8 years. At the same time, Fianna Fail who are now investing twice as much in agriculture as the last Coalition gave to farmers, plan to raise these living standards much higher still."

"One of the main aims of the Fianna Fail Government has been to improve living standards on small farms. With this end in view the great rural electrification scheme was started by Fianna Fail in 1948. Now that this is almost completed, a new drive

A LITTLE BUNCH OF SHAMROCK
Grandma, here's a present, And it came a distance, too, It's a little bunch of shamrocks And it came addressed to you. Yes! all the way from Ireland, And a card here mentions more They were gathered round your birthplace, On the banks of Avonmore.

From Ireland do you tell me? Ah! darling is it true? Acushla, let me feel them, And I'll know 'twas there they grew.

Yet I can scarcely believe it, Is it really what you say? For Ireland is my birthplace, Ireland, far away.

I'm old, and stiff and feeble, And in darkness, "God be praised, Yet Katie, how it stirs me, How my poor old heart is raised;

To feel them here beside me, From the soil that gave me birth, The very clay of Ireland, Let me kiss the holy earth.

These pretty little shamrocks, I can see them, well I know, And they bring me back the eyesight, Of the happy long ago.

And gleaming through the darkness, From the soil that gave me birth, The very clay of Ireland, Let me kiss the holy earth.

"Fanna Fail knows that the only solution is to provide alternative employment in rural areas. This explains the successful drive to encourage new industries in rural areas. We have to expand these in the next few years."

"With the same end in view the Fianna Fail Government has allotted large sums for tourist development in different parts of the country. The great success of this function was due in no small measure to the untiring efforts of Mr. and Mrs. O'Keefe, helped by several teen-age girls still on holidays from school."

On the 17th January, Miss Ann Roche was welcomed by the members, at their annual general meeting. The following officers were elected: President Miss Linda Coughlan; vice-do., Mrs. Marie Sheehan; Secretary Miss Marie Mullaney; Treasurer, Mrs. Power; Press Correspondent and Delegate to the Federation, Miss M. J. Russell.

The monthly meeting for February was held on the 21st inst. A representative of the E.S.B. attended and gave a very interesting lecture on "lighting in the home." He pointed out the necessity for adequate and properly placed electric points so that the strain on the eyes can be reduced to a minimum. An enjoyable tea was afterwards served by the hostesses, and after which the meeting ended.

At the March meeting, held last Wednesday, 11th inst., Mrs. Mernin of Villierstown, gave a demonstration of making articles from rushes. She began by discussing the preparations necessary before starting a basket, which she didn't of course have time to finish.

"One of the most important developments of recent years is the processing of vegetables which Comhlucht Siuicire Eireann is being encouraged to develop. This scheme will provide a market for all kinds of horticultural produce and this will be of special help to the small man."

"The 'flight from the land' is a problem which faces every country in the world, except the most primitive. In many countries—France and the United States, for example—the position is far worse than here. Even in Denmark around 15,000 leave the land every year."

FOREST FIRES — WARNING TO FARMERS

Spring is the period of greatest fire danger in a forest

It is illegal to burn vegetation growing within one mile of a wood or plantation without giving at least 7 days notice to the owner and to the Sergeant-in-Charge of the nearest Garda station.

Offenders are liable to prosecution and to payment of compensation for any damage caused.

Farmers who intend to carry out moor burnings this year within one mile of State plantations are therefore warned in their own interests to give advance notice to the Forester-in-Charge and to the Gardaí.

Foresters will co-operate to the fullest possible extent to ensure that such burning may be carried out without damage to plantations.

Issued by the Department of Lands (Forestry Division).

DUNGARVAN MINOR FOOTBALL LEAGUES

Two football games were played last Sunday in the Dungarvan Club's leagues for minors and juveniles. Michael Fraher's team completed a double over Pat Walsh's team, whilst Sean McGrath's side reversed their hurling defeat when they had a narrow win over the team captained by Kevin Fleming.

The games provided plenty of good hard football and a few more matches of this type should see the lads in good trim when the championships get under way. There is no scarcity of talent or enthusiasm and hopes are bright for good progress in the months ahead.

Two further games are listed for next Sunday, one in hurling and the other in football. The latter game will go on first at 11 a.m. when teams captained by Pat Walsh and Sean McGrath respectively, will be in opposition. Both teams here will be seeking their first brace of points and the struggle to obtain them should be an absorbing one.

The hurling match will see Michael Fraher's team in action against Kevin Fleming's and this promises to be a battle royal. This game is timed for 11.45 a.m. Each captain will note the time of starting and so ensure that the games go on at the times appointed.

LATE MISS M. LEHANE

The death occurred on Monday of last week in an English hospital of Miss Mary Lehane, late of Glencairn Post Office. The deceased lady, who was a member of a most highly respected family, had been ill for only a very short period and her untimely death at a comparatively young age has been received with much regret. She will be sadly missed by her many relatives and friends and much sympathy is extended to her family.

The remains were removed to St. Carthage's Church, Lismore on Thursday evening via Cork Airport and were received and blessed by Very Rev. Canon Dunphy P.P., V.F., assisted by Rev. Fr. Quailly, C.C. and Rev. Fr. Slatery, C.C. and the burial took place in St. Carthage's Cemetery on Friday, following Requiem Masses.

YOUGHAL VOCATIONAL SCHOOL

There is nothing definite in regard to the proposed new vocational school for Youghal. The Chief Executive Officer of the Vocational Committee informed the Cork Co. Council that nothing definite was done about Youghal at yet. It was a moot point whether a new school should be built or two additional practical workrooms be added to the existing school.

SALMON NET FISHING

Despite the fact that Youghal had many days of favourable S.E. winds last week, there was still no improvement in the catches of salmon. In fact it was far below the catch for the previous week. Several

YOUGHAL HARBOUR ACTIVITY

Since his appointment some months ago as Harbour Master for Youghal, Capt. Patk. J. Walsh has left no stone unturned to improve the harbour generally, and the clearing and preparation of berths to facilitate shipping. Capt. Pat Walsh returned to his native Youghal after 23 years at sea. He commenced his career with the schooners Camboro and William Ashburne, regular callers to Youghal in the late thirties. He later went into steam, spending four years with the British Tanker Co. He then studied for his "officer ticket" and finally obtained his "masters ticket" in 1953. His first command was the M.S. Dunavon, owned by the Loch-Wilson line, after which he spent nine years with the Crescent Line of London, as master, apart from a period as river pilot to the Rangoon Pilot Service. Since he took up duty in Youghal he has made extensive sounds of the Youghal Harbour and Wharfrage.

Since Christmas, six coasters have arrived in Youghal to discharge cargoes for Mogeely Creamery and cotton for Blackwater Cottons Ltd. He has many proposals for the betterment of the harbour and believes that in the very near future, ships up to 15,000 tons (deadweight) could berth safely in the port.

YOUGHAL MAN'S WIN

Congratulations to Mr. Jim McGrath of Friar Street, Youghal, an employee of Blackwater Cottons Ltd., Youghal, who had the highest score (132 points) last week in the Ciste na Banbín Teo and won £500.

Letter to the Editor CAPPOQUIN TALLOW GAMES

The Editor "Observer"

A Chera,

In connection with your report of Estimates Meeting of Waterford County Council I wish to refer to the following: "Mr. Curran said that the reductions he had in mind would not vitally affect any service. He proposed that £3,000 be taken off the estimate of £6,000 for cottages. Mr. J. D. Hally (Co. Engineer) said that £3,000 would not be enough for housing." This necessarily condensed report of what transpired is capable of being misunderstood and of giving the impression that I proposed a drastic cut in an important public service.

What I actually proposed was the provision of revenue for repairs to cottages not listed for vesting, be reduced by £3,000.

A sum of £40,000, has been provided by means of loan for repairs to cottages listed for vesting (most cottages are listed for vesting). The provision of this sum was approved by the Council on my recommendation and on the advice of the County Manager and the effect of the decision is that sufficient money is now available for the first time to pursue an intensive cottage repair programme for two years without any undue burden on the rates. To finance a similar programme out of revenue would represent an annual charge on rates of about 1/6 in the £.

With regard to the demand for a reduction in the cost of the public service, rather than as an effective reduction.

In any event, all my proposals representing economies and reductions of approximately £14,000, were rejected but some were later introduced by the County Manager, so I feel that at least I achieved something for the people of the Co. Waterford. It is mine to mess.

C. CURRAN, M.C.C. Their production of this fine N.B.—Substantial sums have also been provided for construction of new cottages as goes are assured of a pleasant evening's entertainment.

NOTES

LATE MR. M. J. MCCARTHY

Old friends here learned with deep regret of the death of Mr. Michael J. McCarthy, of Adare Villas, Highfield Ave., Cork, which took place on Thursday, 11th inst., in the Bon Secours Home. A native of Cappoquin, he was youngest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John McCarthy. He took up residence in Cork about thirty years ago and built up a flourishing business as a property agent and auctioneer. His passing at a comparatively early age has removed a gentleman of many fine qualities.

The remains were removed to the Church of the Immaculate Conception on Friday evening and the interment took place in St. Finbarr's Cemetery on the following day. Amongst the large number of mourners were many old friends from Cappoquin.

The chief mourners included: Mrs. E. McCarthy (widow); John, Michael, Joseph, James, Frederick (sons); Lillian and Helen (daughters); William and John (brothers), etc.

KILGIBINET PLAYERS

The Kilgibinet Players always favourite here, produced "The Man from Clare," before a large audience at the Desmond on Wednesday. The production was well received.

The Old Parish Players presented the new play by Morris Fitzgerald, at the New Hall, Ballymacarbery, on Sunday night, March 15th, entitled "Red Harvest." The hall held a capacity audience for the occasion. It was the first function held in the Hall, now newly completed. Very Rev. Fr. M. Power, P.P., Knockanora, in a short address, paid glowing tribute to Rev. Fr. Sean Nugent, C.C., Gallowin, who the Rev. speaker said was responsible almost entirely for the erection of the hall. He also complimented the people of the parish who gave unstinted time and labour in its erection. He welcomed the players to the Hall and hoped their efforts would be well received.

At the conclusion, Rev. Fr. Power, P.P., thanked all who helped to make the evening a success.

The N.F.A. calls for an intensification of efforts to achieve as early as possible the objective of full membership of the European Economic Community. A tougher line must be taken in Anglo-Irish Trade, and it is recommended—

(a) that an enlarged staff of specially trained experts in agricultural trade should be stationed in Irish Embassies abroad.

(b) that a direct and speedy liaison should be established between these Attaches and all existing and proposed Irish marketing Boards.

(c) that a co-ordinated export marketing drive for agricultural products should be undertaken by the Irish Marketing Boards in consultation with Coras Treachala Teo. and with the assistance of the expanding agricultural staff of the Department of External Affairs.

KILMAC' NOTES

Under the auspices of the progressive guild of Muinir na Tíre in the parish of Stradbally, Faha and Ballylaneen, a public meeting was held locally for the purpose of forming a Development Committee. It has been realised that Bonmahon has immense possibilities for the steadily increasing tourist trade to the Emerald Isle. Enthusiasm was the keynote of the meeting, which was largely attended.

An interesting talk on tourism and the working of An Bord Fáilte was given by Mr. P. Breen, Waterford and Tramore, a director of the recently established South-East Regional Tourism Organisation. The following committee was elected: Brigadier Gen. Atkins, Chairman; Mrs. Power, Dr. P. O'Callaghan, Mr. T. Buckley, Mr. J. Flahavan and Mr. T. Kennedy.

Sympathy in full measure is extended to very esteemed Mr. and Mrs. James Casey, Bonmahon, in their sad bereavement and loss occasioned by the death of their only daughter, who was in her twelfth year and all that was mortal of whom was interred in the family burial ground in Kill Cemetery on Wednesday of last week (after Requiem Mass).

Teams drawn from I.C.A. Guilds in the Decies participated in a verse-speaking competition held in the city one night last week. The contesting combinations all performed pleasingly and the standard was well above the average. Result of the interesting test reads: 1st, Tramore Guild; 2, Portlaoise; 3, Kilmacthomas; 4, Lismore Guild.

Kilmacthomas Branch N.F.A. has held its annual general meeting, at which officers chosen for the current year were: Chairman, Mr. D. J. Coughlan; vice, Mr. J. Shanahan; Hon. Treas., Mr. P. Heskin; Hon. Sec., Mr. P. Heskin; all of whom were also appointed Delegates to the Co. Executive.

A Big Crowd patronised and thoroughly appreciated every feature of the grand variety concert programme given in the Rainbow Hall, Kilmacthomas, on Sunday night last. Mr. Seamus Murphy functioned as emcee with conspicuous ability.

Davitt Brothers' Band discussed the music at the Dunhill and Fenor Macra na Feirme Club's annual dance in the Rainbow Hall, Kilmacthomas, on St. Patrick's night.

Kilmacthomas Hurling Club's "30" Card drive (£50 in prizes) will be decided in the local Rainbow Cinema on Monday night next, 23rd inst., and according to all the signs and tokens it will pan out appreciably successful.

FARM FAMILY INCOME

Resulting from this increase of £39m. in gross agricultural output the increase in total farm family income will be £40m. or roughly £200 on average per farm family by 1970. If prices are increased towards E.E.C. levels this income will be substantially greater.

In order to achieve this increase in income, the Capital Investment required per farm will be £1,500 on average, or £1,000 by the farmer and £500 by the State. This means an investment of £25 per acre on average, two-thirds by the farmer and one-third by the State; though the State's share of the investment will be much greater on the smaller farms and smaller on the bigger farms.

The increase in average farm family income between 1964 and 1970 represents at 36.6 increase in 1970 over the 1960 level. On the basis of present trend in wage in other sectors of the economy, this increase will do no more than keep agricultural incomes in step. Any closing of the gap between agricultural incomes and those in other sectors must come through increased price for farm products.

CO-OPERATIVES

The full development of Co-operative Societies is a basic principle of N.F.A. policy. The I.A.O.S. should be given an established position. All farmers trading with a Co-operative should be members contributing fairly to the capital requirements of the Society. The privileges of membership should be given only to members.

Farmers' subscriptions should be increased from £200 to £2,000 or one-twentieth of the subscribed capital.

Publicity for the co-operative ideal and education in the methods of co-operation are urgently required, with special emphasis at University level and in post-graduate courses for Co-operative Managers and Agricultural Advisers.

The development of co-operative pig producing units should be encouraged and farmers, working co-operatively, should be allowed by law to use jointly owned transport for haulage work.

In the Dairy Disposal Company area where a majority of farmers wish to set up a Co-operative, the transfer of creameries to them should be readily agreed.

MARKETING BOARDS

The most suitable system for the orderly marketing of agricultural produce is a Marketing Board system for each commodity. It can regulate quality standards and develop new and existing markets and at the same time instil confidence in the producers and processors. This confidence is a prerequisite for expansion.

To give the farmer adequate representation on Marketing Boards, at least half the places on each Board should be filled by farmers' representatives duly elected by a register of producers.

CAPITAL INVESTMENT

Capital investment during the seven years of the N.F.A. programme has been estimated as follows:

Dairying—Stock increased 24.8m.; £22.2m.; equipment, milking machines, coolers, etc. £10.5m.; extension to byre yard and drinking trough, etc. 7.2m. Total £64.7m.

Livestock—Stock increases 664.4m.; housing £18.9m.; water installation £9.4m. Total £91.7m.

Sheep—Stock increased 10.8m.; handling facilities £1.8. Total £12.6m.

Grassland—Fertilised and lime, £26.6m.; conservation of feeding stuff, machinery, hay-barns, etc., 6£37.0m. Total £63.6m.

Pigs—Stock increases £54. Buildings £11.6 m.; Total 17.0m.

Poultry, £4m.; grain, £1m.; potatoes, £1m.; horticulture 3.5m.; land project £49. Grand total £208.1m.

Of this sum—

(a) £202m. should be invested by the State—unaveraged by the farming community, an average of 29.6m. per annum.

Over the past seven years the increase in annual gross agricultural output in 1060-70 is estimated (at 1960 prices) at 89m. This represented a 46% increase in gross agricultural output between 1960 and 1970 which is an average growth rate of 3.9% and excludes any expansion which may take place in horticulture, potatoes, poultry and sugar beet.

Q. Can you tell me how much Nitrogen, Phosphate and Potash there is in a heap of well made F.Y.M. of approximately 30 loads and what compound manure would equal it?

A. The amount of plant nutrients in F.Y.M. varies considerably and is greatest in a firm heap of well rotted material where losses have been minimised under cover. Assuming a load of F.Y.M. weighs one ton, the heap of 30 loads would dress two statute acres at 15 tons per acre. This will supply approximately 100 units of N, 24 units P and 112 units of K. These nutrients are not immediately or completely available to the plant, but the physical value of F.Y.M. must be stressed. Unfortunately, much of the F.Y.M. throughout the country will not contain the above nutrient values as losses are considerable. There is no compound fertiliser that will give the exact amount of N, P, and K in the above ratio but generally speaking a 15-ton dressing of average F.Y.M. will replace about 3-4 cwts. of 8-6-16.

Q. I applied some Potassium Superphosphate 0-7-17 last October on grassland and now find that although the growth of grass is good, my sheep are not keen to graze it and prefer the turnips. Will the grass be better grazed in the next month or so?

A. You can certainly improve the palatability of the grass by applying 1-2 cwts. of Nitrogen now. The plant food increases the protein content of the grass which has a "sweet-

CO-OPERATION BRINGS WATER TO MIDLAND VILLAGE

A few months ago every housewife in the village and neighbourhood of Errill, near Rathdowney in Co. Louth, had the heartbreaking job each day of drawing water from the well in the village green. Now the water supply has been changed and 86 of the local housewives have run pipes to tap in their homes. Thanks to a co-operative water scheme organized and carried out by themselves.

It all started when a club was set up for the young men of the neighbourhood in an unused room at the old school at Errill. The ladies then took an interest and soon the club was the social venue for social and card drives. Because of the lack of sanitation it was not possible to hold dances and other functions but the club members solved the problem by installing a water supply pumped from a nearby river. The cost of this was worked out very reasonably because of the voluntary work of the members and a small Council grant.

Then over two years there was a more modest get a Co. Council water supply for the village. When this was found to be very low down the list of priorities the club members thought of what an organized effort had already achieved for their club in this respect. Would a similar effort on a bigger scale succeed in bringing water to Errill.

A meeting of those interested was called and not only did the residents of the village turn up at the meeting in full force but people living in the countryside all around came to show their interest in the construction of a reservoir with a capacity of 20,000 gallons on the top of a nearby hill. The water was to be pumped to this reservoir and fed to the houses by gravity through pipes. There was no difficulty involved in this and so water was supplied and the means of storing it were assured.

Now planning began in earnest. Maps were obtained and pipeline routes planned. A consultant engineer was commissioned to carry out a survey of the route. The representative of the piper firm was called to draw up a schedule of pipe sizes and costs. Liaison was established with Donoughmore Co-operative Society through whom the bulk of material for the scheme was purchased. A contractor was engaged to do all the excavating of the main trenches—over 10 miles in all—at a price under £100 a mile.

Besides this practical side of the planning there was a tremendous amount of paper work to be completed. As much of the cost of the scheme would be met by County Council and Local Government grants, there were many forms to be filled in—some instances a set of forms for each house. Getting that part of the business done involved the committee members in much calling on participants, explaining what they required and seeing that all the necessary particulars were given.

As the scheme now got really under way the material ordered began to flow in—pipes, tees, valves, taps, cocks

IRISH SWEEPS' DERBY 1964

Unraced Entrants: Challengers Potential

There is a growing air of expectancy abroad as the build-up for the 1964 Flat Racing season in England and Ireland reaches a crescendo. After one of the mildest winters of the century, reports from the major training quarters in both countries speak of teams being far more forward than is normally the case. In this respect the situation is vastly different to that pertaining twelve months ago and this fact cannot but exercise a major influence on the results of the Classic races including the Irish Sweeps Derby which promises to be the richest to date with between £80,000 and £70,000 in the prize fund.

Last season's crop of two-year-olds took a long time to recover from the winter hardships and a high percentage of those bred on Classic lines were restricted to one or two outings or did not race at all. A breakdown of the acceptors for the Sweeps Derby shows that 90 out of 325 (28%) trained in Ireland. England and France are still unraced at the commencement of their second season and it seems inevitable that several prime contenders will emerge from this division.

Of the first two winners of the Sweeps Derby, Tambourine II did not run at 2 years and Regusa started only once. When one splits the unraced division into countries one gets an interesting sidelight on the difference in emphasis between England and Ireland on the one hand and France on the other.

With the valuable co-operation of leading trainers in all three countries we have attempted to lift the veil on some of the more interesting unraced prospects and can shed some light on 'unknown' colts whose names could be household words by mid-summer.

Paddy Prendergast who won this event last year with Regusa has left a dozen in and six of these will be making their first track appearances in the course of the next two months. One of these, the very promising Anselmo (Aureole-Ardent) will carry the colours of Senior Steward of the Irish Turf Club, Lt. Colonel Rowley Byers, who acquired him some weeks ago from the executors of the late Cecil Bartlett.

A big future is forecast for Anselmo who will make his debut in the Pavers Navy Cut Stakes at the Phoenix Park on April 11th. The event is also the likely target for Mrs. Jim Mullion's Ardenode, a useful home-bred colt by Court Harwell, the first produce of that great race-mare Paddy's Sister. Mrs. Mullion's second Irish-trained entry, Minotaur (Acropolis-Red Cloak) a half-brother to her 1963 Irish 1,000 Guineas winner, Gazpacho, Stakes at the Phoenix Park will be seen out in the Aithboy first meeting of the year on March 28th.

Prendergast also entertains a high opinion about Mr. Lawrence Gelb's Diletante II (Sicambre-Barbizonnette) which he describes as "a very nice colt but one who needs to get some sun on his back." For that reason his debut may be deferred until the Wills Gold Flake Stakes at Leopardstown on May 9th. Diletante II at 12,000 guineas, was the top priced yearling sold at Deauville in 1962 and his dam is a half-sister to the good sire and Vincent O'Brien reports that though neither Mr. John McShain's Gatherer (Ballymoss-Coventry Girl) nor Mr. Townsend B. Martin's Johnny Appleseed (Mossborough-Vertige) has been seriously tried, neither has yet shown anything remarkable at home.

Michael Dawson though is very keen that another American owner, Mr. E. E. Dale Shaffer has got value for money in the 10,000 guinea colt, Horse Power (Alcide-Tion) whose early programme commences with the Fishery Plate at Naas on March 21st, and then takes in the Tetrarch Stakes at the Curragh on 22nd April. Horse Power showed a good measure of ability in his home gallops last year. Captain Cecil Boyd-Rochford describes Lady Zia Wernher's Soleil (Worden 11-Sonsa) as very backward but good actioned while Tip Top (Chamos-saire-Lady Grand) which Humphrey Cottrill trains for Mrs. Stanhope Joel is expected to emulate his 1961 Irish Derby winning brother, Your Highness, in his liking for firm ground. Tip Top will be seen out in the Spring Plate at Newbury on April 7th.

The Irish Sweeps Derby's International character annually becomes more pronounced. For instance Major H. E. n trains a Prince Chevalier colt, Prince of Norway for Mr. Charles Clore whose dam was an outstanding mare in Norway, winning seventeen races, including the Derby and the Gold Cup. Mr. C. W. Engelhard's Ozymandias (Doutelle-Statuette) is says R. F. Johnson Houghton, "a good mover who has developed into a very nice horse." Out of a half-sister to the St. Leger winner Aurelius, Azymandias makes his debut in the Coventry Stakes at Kempton on March 30th.

The top priced yearling sold in England in 1961 was St. George (Saint Crespin 11-Discipliner) a handsome half-brother to the 2,000 Guineas winner Martial bought by Mr. J. S. Gerber for 16,500. Sir Gordon Richards intends to give him his first taste of racing in the Wood Ditton Stakes at Newmarket next month. Willie Stephenson, who won the 1951 English Derby with Mr. Joseph McGrath's Arctic Prince, is well satisfied with the manner in which Mr. Joseph McGrath's filly Altosa (Alcide-Certosa) and Mr. G. V. Keeline's pair Drogvet and Wildmoss will prefer yielding ground but good going should be to the liking of Altosa whose half-brother Tuiyartos ran prominently in the 1960 2,000 Guineas and Derby.

American owner Mr. C. W. Engelhard has his racing interests spread all over the world. Apart from R. F. Johnson Houghton he also has horses in training in England with J. F. Waits and his Henley (Milesian-Jolly Boat) which made 490 guineas as a foal and 7,100 as a yearling in Dublin is "the best backward horse who should stay well." The many of the progeny of Milesian, he will probably need soft ground and his first outing has been fixed for Kempton Park on March 28th, when he contests the Ruth Wood Stakes.

Of all English Trainers, Harry Wragg has probably the best record in Irish Classics. Accordingly, his views must be heeded and his optimism about Mr. A. B. Askew's Atilla (Alcide-Festoon) and Mr. H. E. Bousher's 15,500 guinea purchase Nearchus (Never Say Die-Big Bear) is infectious. Atilla he describes as "a nice good looking rangey colt who will be suited by soft ground and who will appear towards the end of April." He adds the postscript "could be a real good colt. Split a pasture when about to run and win his first race last year."

Nearchus a big colt who likewise will require soft ground old but should make up into a good stayer. He may run at Sandown in mid-April. Turning to France, where the flat season is already under way, Charles Bartholomew Jr., intends to run both Madame Suzy Volterra's Francillus (Philius-La Francaise) and Mrs. Hugh Leggat's Benevolent (Major Portion-Marie Elizabeth) in that celebrated newcomers race the Prix Juigne at Longchamp on April 5th. These are reckoned amongst the pick of the unraced talent in this stable which is more than one hundred strong.

getting water. In a way it was not surprising in that region, especially in dry weather. Some people in fact had to draw water from wells over a mile away. At the meeting it was found that nearly 90 householders were anxious to participate and for convenience these were divided by location into six groups of houses. Two representatives were chosen from each group to serve on a committee under the chairmanship of Fr. S. Collier, the local curate. In Errill, water was what they wanted, so obviously they decided to look for a good source of water first. This course had a snag... the pump would cost money and if nothing came of it then there would be no grants from anyone to recoup the cost. To get over this difficulty, participants were levied for cash contributions—£20 per house from farmers and £8 per cottage. More than enough was collected this way to employ a well-boring contractor. Eventually water was reached at a rather deep level. The next major work was and eventually all the way from South Africa—the pump itself. One day late last summer, work on opening the trenches and laying the pipes connecting the pumphouse with the reservoir and the reservoir with the houses began. Immediately the planning began to pay dividends. The delegates from each area had the responsibility of getting voluntary workers to report for specific jobs as the trenches progressed through the area. It was important that these men could get their share of the work completed so that there was a minimum of interference with the normal course. Also having the correct material on the site for each particular branch off the main line and for every day's work the progress of the job was smooth and efficient.

So fast did the work proceed that within six weeks of turning the first sod for the pipe laying, not alone had many of the houses been connected to the mains, but grants in respect of 45 houses had been received by the committee.

The disused village pump in Errill still stands as a reminder of the bad old days of carrying water in buckets.

GAELIC JOTTINGS

UNLUCKY DEFEAT FOR MUNSTER HURLERS

After a none too spectacular opening half the Railway Cup hurling final at Croke Park on St. Patrick's day blossomed into a spine tingling hurling drama in which Leinster dethroned Munster by the minimum of margins—3-7 to 2-9.

But if Leinster deserve the highest praise for their tenacity in fighting back after being in arrears for so long, the score that gave them victory resulted from a free that to say the least of it was highly dubious.

As a Leinster forward sought possession some twenty yards or more from goal he appeared to be quite legitimately shouldered by John Doyle, but referee Clem Foley of Dublin awarded a Leinster free from which Eddie Keher shot the winning point. It is I think at this stage appropriate to criticise the Central Council for selecting a referee from either of the participating Provinces. This is, of course, in no way questioning the integrity of Tuesday's official, but one can never discount the frailties of human nature and it is unquestionably far better at all times to have a man from an outside Province in charge of all such games.

That much said, it was nevertheless a game that the Southerners quite conceivably could have won. Throughout the opening half they lorded it in practically all sectors, but weaknesses in attack cost them many scores. Of the sextet only Liam Devaney and Jimmy Doyle really shone, although Tom Cunningham also did an amount of work for which he has been given very little credit. Thus their half-time lead of a solitary point did less than justice to their overall superiority.

But even when facing the second-half breeze they continued to hold the whip hand if not to the same marked extent. With less than ten minutes remaining they held a three point lead that seemed sufficient to carry them through. Then Leinster got the decisive break and when a shot from Ned Wheeler appeared to be going wide but hit the butt of the upright Christy O'Brien was on hand to slam the ball to the net. The closing minutes were dramatised with exciting incidents as Munster twice fell in arrears only to equalise on each occasion and then came that final ill-fated (for Munster) free which Eddie Keher sent over for the winning point. But even in the dying moments Munster lost two glorious opportunities of making a replay necessary when Tom Cunningham was narrowly wide from a feasible scoring position and then Jerry O'Sullivan flung himself all alone in possession on the half-way line and failed to raise the ball and was eventually rebuffed by Phil Wilson.

Leinster's stars were goalkeeper Ollie Walsh, defenders Tom Neville, Dan Quigley, Seamus Cleere and Billy Rackard. Their midfielders Phil Wilson and Paddy Moran were outplayed in the opening thirty minutes but thundered on the scene thereafter.

In attack the Kilkenny sharp shooter, Eddie Keher, took the bulk of the honours. He wound up with 2-5 to his credit and got greatest assistance from Ned Wheeler, Fran Whelan and Christy O'Brien.

For Munster, goalkeeper Jim Hogan, was in no way to blame for defeat. In the full-line John Doyle and Austin Flynn were superb as were half-backs Tony Walsh (until he retired injured) and Pat Fitzgerald. The English and Jerry O'Sullivan were very prominent in the opening half but faded on the change over.

Up front the Tipp pair Jimmy Doyle and Liam Devaney were in devastating form whilst Tom Cunningham and to a lesser extent Pat Cronin caught the eye.

The big surprise of the Southern team was the selection of Tom Cunningham at centre-forward in place of the absent P. J. Keane. Prior to the game it appeared that the position rested between Mick Flannelly and Donie Nealon, but managers opted for the younger Cunningham and on the Railway Cup debut acquitted himself well.

The other Deise men met with mixed fortunes. At full back Austin Flynn was rock solid but neither Philly Grimes nor Jerry Guinan will have happy memories of the game. Grimes looked all at sea and could never get going whilst Jerry Guinan caught a real terror in Keher.

ABBEYSIDE UNIMPRESSIVE IN VICTORY

Abbeyside qualified for the final of the 1963 Sergeant Cup competition when defeating Colligan Rockies 1-7 to 1-1 at Dungarvan on last Sunday.

But for the small attendance present it was a very standard and boring hour that must have given little or no solace to Abbeyside mentors and supporters.

To be quite frank about it, this was one of Abbeyside's poorest displays for quite a considerable time. The opposition was the weakest they are likely to meet again for the coming year and yet they were reasonably hard pressed to carve out a six-point victory.

The first half belonged almost entirely to the Villagers and they led by 1-6 to nil at the interval. But this lead did not tell the real story of their superiority and the truth of the matter is that if they possessed a worthwhile forward set up their lead would have been a far more convincing one.

Then in the second half it was the Rockies that took up the running and they remained on the offensive for long periods. But the standard of play never improved and many of the attendance were filing homewards midway through this half.

Quite obviously the Villagers are not nearly as good as in former years and considerable improvement is imperative if they are to entertain any hope of taking the title. They were best served by P. Wall in goal, Austin Flynn, John McGrath, Ned Moore and J. Browne in defence, but from midfield on the side was literally weighed down with passengers and only Tony Mansfield, Donal Whelan and Johnny Hogan met with any success.

On a Colligan side that should go well in this year's junior championship, their stars were Paddy Fitzgerald, who gave a great goal-keeping display, Cyril Power, Christy Dower, Paddy Walsh and Colum Bannon.

BRICKYS WIN

In the preceding Winter junior hurling league Brickey Rangers scored decisively over old rivals Kilrossanty.

CAPOQUIN DEFEAT DUNGARVAN

In a specially inaugurated competition for teams beaten in the first round of last year's primary hurling championship, Cappoquin defeated Dungarvan by 3-4 to 2-1 at the Cappoquin Sportsfield on Sunday last.

It was a very exciting game between evenly matched sides and if the homesters just about deserved their victory Dungarvan have only themselves to blame for defeat.

After building up an early two goal lead apparent complacency crept in and by the interval Cappoquin had forged into a one point lead—2-2 to 2-1.

For twenty minutes after the restart Dungarvan encamped in the Cappoquin half but because of forward weaknesses lost many scores. A succession of 70's were forced without success and in the closing stages it was Cappoquin who notched the decisive match-winning scores.

Outstanding for the winners were Mick Lacey, Andy O'Keefe, Ger Mascan, Eddie Fraher, Roger O'Shea, goalkeeper Paddy Cahill and that ageless wonder Paddy English.

SUNDAY'S JUNIOR TRIALS AT DUNHILL

The following is the hurling panel to represent the West in the junior hurling trial at Dunhill on Sunday next: K. Ryan, T. Walsh, M. Walsh, M. Connolly (Fournilewater); W. Tobin, F. Corcoran, W. O'Keefe (Shamrocks); G. Mason, E. Fraher (Cappoquin); P. Fitzgerald, C. Power, C. Bannon (Colligan Rockies); J. Walsh (Dungarvan); J. Spratt (Brickey Rangers), Steve Scanlon and Jimmy Walsh; J. O'Connell (Ballyduff); M. P. McGrath (Affane); M. Coffey (St. Mary's).

The Water junior football side to play the East also at Dunhill is as follows: R. Hewitt (Valley Rovers); P. Carleton (Armore); J. Healy (Affane); M. Tobin (Geraldines); W. Acheson (Valley Rovers); M. Walsh (Brickey Rangers); M. Walsh (Kilrossanty); P. Cleary (Valley Rovers); T. Walsh (Kilrossanty); C. Bannon (Emmetts); E. Hewitt (Valley Rovers); J. Hogan (Bellinacorney). Subs.—O. Nugent (Valley Rovers); J. Cliffe (Emmetts); J. Ahearne (do.); J. Davis (Geraldines); N. Wall (Valley Rovers).

The other Deise men met with mixed fortunes. At full back Austin Flynn was rock solid but neither Philly Grimes nor Jerry Guinan will have happy memories of the game. Grimes looked all at sea and could never get going whilst Jerry Guinan caught a real terror in Keher.

Vital League Points at Stake

DIFFICULT TASK AT LIMERICK

DESPONDENT following League defeats by Dublin and Wexford, Waterford's hurlers trek the lengthy road to Limerick on Sunday next to play the homesters in a league tie of vital importance to both. It is to say the least a difficult and indeed unenviable assignment for the Deise men, and the County at large awaits the outcome more in hope than in confidence.

As matters stand the position in this section of the campaign is an intricate and intriguing one. Two teams must go forward to the semi-finals and already Wexford are guaranteed a place in the last four. But who will accompany them is anyone's guess at this stage.

Should Dublin perchance defeat Wexford at Gorey on Sunday next then the Limerick game will be reduced to a status of insignificance with nothing other than prestige value being the victor's lot. But on the presumption that the Slaneysiders will triumph and personally it is a confident presumption, then the Ennis road result will be of paramount importance.

If Dublin go down and Waterford prevail then a play off between these two and Limerick will be necessary. If Dublin fail and Limerick succeed then the Shanonsiders march on and if the results are visa versa then the Metro politans qualify for the penultimate stages of this league. Could anything be more intriguing, with three Counties battling for league survival?

Thus Sunday will finally decide whether the league pennant remains in the Deise for another year, and it is the writer's firm belief that if they can overcome the Shannon siders then they will be good enough to be amongst the remaining quartet.

But quite frankly their form to date has been most uninspiring and in that disconsoling hour against Wexford glaring weaknesses were evident in many sectors. This was particularly so of midfield and half-forward and further ef-orts to remedy these flaws are being made again on Sunday.

Gone from centre-field is Butlerstown's John Kirwan and the new partnership is formed by John Meaney and Ballygunner's Jas. Phelan. This is Phelan's baptism in Limerick, it goes without saying are fielding at full strength and are hoping that P. J. Keane, a St. Patrick's Day absentee from the Munster team will be available to take his place at midfield.

On their own ground the Shanonsiders are entitled to

JOHN O'BRIEN

LARRY GUINAN

As I stated prior to the Wexford game a good supply to the full-forward trio is essential if the points are to be won. Power and Barron are the main scoring units and if properly fed could well notch up the decisive scores.

FRANKIE WALSH

Limerick, it goes without saying are fielding at full strength and are hoping that P. J. Keane, a St. Patrick's Day absentee from the Munster team will be available to take his place at midfield.

On their own ground the Shanonsiders are entitled to start favourites and will concede the general fancy to prevail. Frankly I find it impossible to go for a definite Deise victory such has been their inconsistency of late and yet there can be no doubt but they have the ability to pull it off.

As already stated it is a vital hour for the Deise but should they rise to the occasion then they could upset the odds and gain semi-final entry by the back door entrance of a play off. Beyond that, however I am not prepared to go.

The Waterford team is—

P. Flynn (Ballygunner); T. Cunningham (Dungarvan); A. Flynn (Abbeyside); S. Walsh (De La Salle); L. Guinan (Mt. Sion); T. Hearne (Ballygunner); J. Byrne (Mt. Sion); J. Meaney (Erin's Own); J. Phelan (Ballygunner); M. Flannelly (Mount Sion); J. O'Brien (Tramore); F. Walsh (Mount Sion); S. Power (Mount Sion); J. Barron (De La Salle); P. Grimes (Mount Sion).

PHILLY GRIMES

the intercounty sphere and it is impossible to predict how the new pairing will hit it off.

In the half-line of attack Mick Flannelly again takes over the flank with John O'Brien and Frankie Walsh completing the line. The latter's retention is beyond justification. He has lamentably failed for longer than one cares to remember now and how he continues to enjoy selectional favouritism is beyond me. To my mind his selection is not a wise choice but if Walsh proves me wrong I will be the first to swallow my words.

In defence the only change is the introduction of Sonny Walsh in place of Martin O'Gorman at left corner back. Walsh, however, has all the essentials to make the grade and there should be no lessening of the unavoidably absent Morrissey.

Quite rightly, Pat Flynn is retained in goal whilst the full line of Cunningham, Flynn and Walsh I rate as being one of the side's best. There is no change in the outer phalanx and Guinan, Hearne and Byrne are deserving of the vote of confidence they have received.

One can only cross fingers concerning the performances of Meaney and Phelan. Vast improvement is drastically needed in this vital sector but whether or not the present pairing is capable of strengthening the weaknesses is nothing more than conjecture just now. Sunday alone will decide.

The question of market for milk and the price to be obtained in the event of amalgamation not taking place was foremost in the minds of many and Mr. Callanan told Mr. J. A. Walsh that marketing presented no problems, as demand was good but he was not in a position to say what the future price would be.

Mr. J. Meehan asked Mr.

Suppliers in Favour of 'Joining Up'

The proposed creamery amalgamation scheme in Co. Waterford was again in the news this week when milk suppliers to the Cappoquin Branch of the Knockmeal Operative Society met to consider the situation created by the rejection of the scheme by the Society Shareholders. All other creameries in the county have now agreed to join the new Society and at a meeting some weeks ago the Cappoquin suppliers voted overwhelmingly in favour of the proposal.

Mr. T. Murphy was again in the chair and on the platform with him were Messrs. M. Byrne and J. McGrath of the Management Committee of the Knockmeal Society, Mr. T. Callanan, General Manager of the Society and Mr. Brian Pearce, representing the suppliers. The meeting was also representative of suppliers from the Ballinacorney, Ballymacarby and Scart Branches.

The meeting needed the Chairman's appeal for a calm and thoughtful discussion of the problem and the proceedings throughout were restrained and constructive, but underlying them was the obvious determination of all present to fight their case for amalgamation with all the weapons at their disposal.

Mr. J. Wall said the difference between the present Knockmeal price and the price paid by the new co-operative was 1.3 pence in 1963. Mr. J. Wall said that the Cappoquin suppliers had produced the great per centage of Knockmeal's supply and could not now be denied the right to improve their lot. Mr. Pearce said that the shareholders who voted against the proposal were not milk suppliers. If Rathgormack Co-operative, a store business, was in favour of amalgamation why not Knockmeal?

Finally, the meeting supported unanimously the proposal of Mr. J. Wall that an extraordinary general meeting of the Society be sought to try and obtain a rescission of the shareholders' decision. Mr. Pearce said that if the decision was not reversed it should be made clear to the Ballinacorney Shareholders that the suppliers would leave Knockmeal, both as regards milk supply and store purchases. Mr. Pearce's proposition that the Management Committee be asked to receive a deputation from the meeting to explain their point of view was agreed to.
