Council Will Acquire Unfit Houses

Dungarvan Urban Council is said to have to search nearer town and the most suitable place to start would be the Scrammiens Lane area. The idea would be to acquire all the unfit houses and garages at Scrammiens Lane, for the purpose of clearing the area for a new housing site. This was unanimously decided on at last Friday's monthly meeting of the Council.

Mr. P. Doyle (Town Clerk) said to look for sites ahead and take the necessary steps to acquire the houses. It should be by agreement if possible, and if not, by the compulsory act. There was no use entering for Tidy Towns competitions with these sites there. They had a housing list of 88 people and they had to consider the additional demands that industry would bring. It was necessary to look to these areas for housing purposes. A member said the Scrammiens Lane area would be ideal for old people's houses.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

The death took place in Liverpool recently of Paddy Duggan, formerly of Bridgid's Tee, Dungarvan.

A member of one of the Old Bore's oldest and most respected families, Paddy joined the Navy in 1914 and served through the two world wars. In his young days he was an exceptionally fine hurler, and starred in many a game with the local club "Park Rangers."

He frequently returned home on holiday, and was last at home two years ago. He was 67.

He is survived by his sons Tony and Joe (Liverpool) daughter Patricia, (do); brothers Willie (London) and John ("Lord") Duggan, Dungarvan, and sisters Nora and Mary (London), and Mrs. Kate Walsh, Bridgid's Tee, Dungarvan, to whom sincere sympathy is extended.

SYMPATHY

Sincere sympathy is extended to Mr. Stephen O'Connor, General Manager, Dungarvan Co-Op. Creamery, on the tragic death of his brother in America, as a result of a car accident over the weekend.

Subsistence Increase For Members

HE preached economy, and now he would practice it, said Mr. Norman Walsh, at a meeting of Waterford Health Authority on Monday last, when proposing that no increase in subsistence allowances for members be given.

Before the meeting was a circular from the Minister outlining the proposed increases for members of local authorities. The letter stated: "The Minister has had under consideration the rates of travelling and subsistence allowances which may be made to members of local authorities in respect of their attendance at meetings and conferences, and he is satisfied that reasonable grounds exist for revisions of the allowances in some respects. The Minister, will accordingly, raise no objection to the payment by Local Authorities to their members of allowances not exceeding the scales set out in this letter. Effect may be given to the new allowances in respect of meetings, conferences, etc, which take place on or after the 1st April, 1964."

Mr. Walsh said he could not preach economy and vote for an increase for himself. When they got to the Health Authority meetings they were all after lunch, and if they did their business expeditiously they should be at home by tea-time.

They were only concerned with increased subsistence allowances, and he did not think there was any need for them on the Committee. He preached economy and now he would practice it. He proposed they do not grant the increase. He did not like to be like Dail Deputies and Senators, who disagreed on everything except increases for themselves.

A vote was then taken and it was decided by 9-4 to grant the increases.

Mr. W. Kenneally (Chairman) said any T.D. or Senator was not making a fortune from it.

Mr. J. A. Hynes (Secretary) said to grant the increases would cost the Health Authority about £250 a year.

Mr. W. Collins said to accept increases for subsistence would be accepting money under false pretences.

Mr. John Fahey said he would like to make it clear that they did not get a luncheon allowance.

Mr. Walsh said the increase in the subsistence allowance was from 4/6 to 15/.

The voting was: For—Messrs. Curran, Fahey, Roch Galsley, J. Power, Kenneally, Gallagher, P. Browne and J. Browne. Against—Messrs. P. Walsh, Morrissey, Griffin and Collins.

Pictures in centre are Mr. M. Morrisson, Cathal Brugha Place and Miss Rita Walsh, Congreg. Miss, after their recent wedding, with Mr. Joe Morrisson, bestman, Miss Bernice Walsh, bridesmaid, and child-attendant Miss Chris Walsh (niece of the bride).

MAI HIGGINS SAYS "THANK YOU"

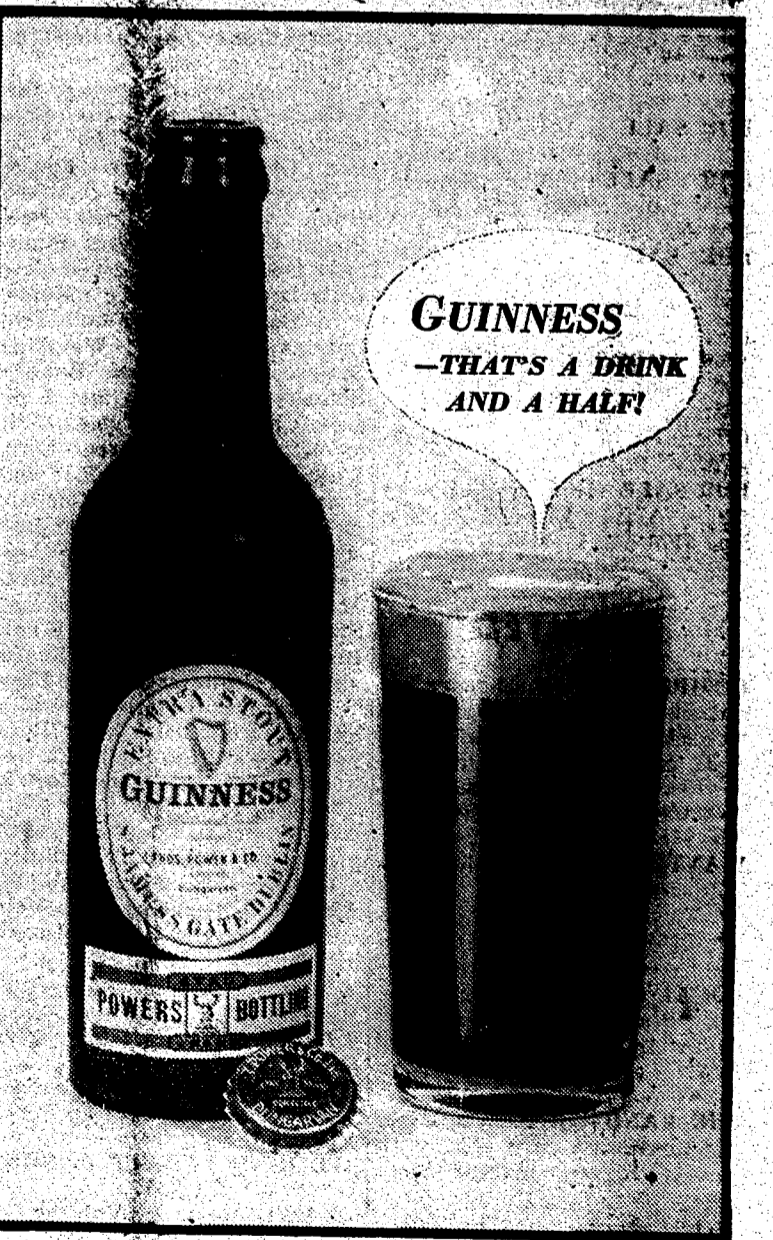

At last Friday's meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council, the Town Clerk, Mr. Doyle read a letter from Mrs. Mai Higgins, Dublin, and formerly Miss Mai Carew, of Dungarvan, thanking the Council for presenting the record of her song "Dungarvan My Home Town" to Mayor Daley, on his recent visit. It was a great honour for her to think that her song was worthy for such a presentation.

A Council member said Mrs. O'Higgins well deserved the honour. She did not forget would get a 50% grant for it from the Department.

Turkish Baths for Dungarvan?

Dungarvan Urban Council will discuss at a future date the possibilities of providing hot or Turkish baths in the town. At last Friday's meeting Colr. Walsh said he had thought about it.

A vote was then taken and it was decided by 9-4 to grant the increases.

The voting was: For—Messrs. Curran, Fahey, Roch, Galgey, J. Power, Kennelly, Gallagher, P. Browne and J. Browne. Against—Messrs. M. Walsh, Morrissey, Griffin and Collins.

D.L.C.'s REPLY TO COUNCIL

At the April meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council it was decided to request the Management of the Dickens Leather Factory to try to keep the walls of the street leading to the scarred area which they move much of their raw material, as clean as possible. The following is the reply from Mr. D. O'Brien, Manager of the factory, which was read at last Friday night's meeting of the Council:—

"We have, of course, looked into this matter as requested. On the other hand, I feel that I ought to mention that in our particular business, some of our by-products and even our basic raw materials, are a little bit unsightly. We ourselves have to put up with this matter everyday and we are very glad to do so, realising, as we do, the importance of the leather industry to us and to the town in general."

Members of the Council expressed the view that the reply did not suggest a whole lot of co-operation.

Dungarvan Urban Council will discuss at a future date the possibilities of providing hot or Turkish baths in the town. At last Friday's meeting Colr. Walsh said he had been asked about it during the week-end. The Town Clerk said they would get a 50% grant for it from the Department.

SALMON FISHING
 In the early part of last week catches were good by nets, especially the drift nets above Youghal Bridge, who had the best week since the season opened. The Upper Drags had somewhat poor catches for the week and there was an improvement in Ardmore and Knockadoon. Net men at Ballycotton are having a very lean time since the start of the season.

4TH SALMON LANDED AT YOUGHAL
 On Wednesday last, Messrs. Mick and David Murphy (brothers) landed eight salmon from the bay and one weighed 47 lbs. Large numbers collected on the quays to view this salmon which was a grand specimen. He measured 48 inches in length and had a 2 1/2 inch girth. He was a cock fish and his weight and measurements, together with scales from his shoulder were sent by the Clerk of the Fishery Conservators to the Department of Fisheries who will in turn report particulars of age, etc. In the press it was stated that his weight was an all time record, but this was incorrect, as in 1929, the late Jimmy Muckahy, with his crew, landed a 52 lb. salmon. Other heavy salmon landed in Youghal were 42lbs., 44lbs. and 49lbs.

THE FIRST GRISLE AT YOUGHAL
 The first grisle or peale was landed in Youghal on Monday of last week and weighed only 4 lbs. Since then, three others have been caught in Youghal. Fishermen have now bent on peale nets to their salmon nets and it is hoped that grisle will turn up as good as they did in 1962 when 27,204 were landed and 21,534 in 1963.

LATE MRS. M. McGRATH
 The death took place last week at the Cottage Hospital of Mrs. Mary (Minnie) McGrath, of Windmill Lane, Youghal, after a short period of illness. Of an old Youghal family, the deceased was relic of the late John McGrath.

CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION
 For the past week or more, residents are again busy decorating their houses for the annual Corpus Christi Procession through the town on Sunday next. The first public Procession of the Blessed Sacrament was held in Youghal in 1898 and since then only three had to be cancelled due to unfavourable weather conditions on the appointed Sunday.

FEWER PUPILS THIS YEAR
 At a meeting of Youghal Urban Vocational Committee, presided over by Very Rev. Canon Sheehan, P.P., the head-master Mr. Michael O'Driscoll reported that enrolments this year were up to standard, but night classes attendance was down by ten and day classes by five.

GREAT HONOUR FOR LOCAL LAW STUDENT
 The Solicitors Apprentices Debating Society, Dublin Buildings, Four Courts, Dublin has announced that P. J. Flavin, art class student, was awarded the Society's award for legal debates. It culminates a very successful year for the Dungarvan man, having already been awarded the medal of the Incorporated Law Society as best speaker of the year. Mr. Flavin is Editor of the Law Students Annual Publication, and is serving his apprenticeship with his father, Principal E. A. Ryan & Co., Solicitors, Dungarvan.

Lismore Notes

DEATH OF TERESA FOLEY, E.de.M.

It is with deep regret we record the death of Teresa Foley, Sundown, Lismore, relict of the late Patrick Foley, which occurred at her daughter's residence, on Thursday, May 21st, after a brief illness. Deceased lady was a prominent member of an old established Lismore family and sincere sympathy is extended to her sorrowing daughters and relatives.

The remains were removed to St. Carthage's Cathedral, Lismore, on Thursday evening, followed by a large cortege, and were received and blessed by Very Rev. Canon Dunphy, P.P., Lismore, assisted by Rev. Fr. Quailly, C.C., Rev. Fr. Slattery, C.C., and Rev. Fr. D. O'Byrne, C.C., St. Mary's, Dungarvan. Requiem Office and High Mass was celebrated for the repose of her soul, on Saturday morning at 10.30 a.m. Celebrant was Rev. Fr. Slattery, C.C. In the choir were: Very Rev. Fr. Kenneally, P.P., Cappoquin; Rev. Fr. O'Meara, C.C., do.; Rev. Fr. Quailly, C.C., Lismore. The interment took place afterwards in St. Carthage's Cemetery. Very Rev. Canon Dunphy, P.P., Rev. Fr. Slattery, C.C., Rev. Fr. Quailly, C.C., officiated at the graveside.

The chief mourners were: Eileen Foley, New Britain, Connecticut, U.S.A., Mrs. Peter O'Neill, Ballyhale, Co. Kilkenny, Mrs. Joseph Dooley, Chaple St., Lismore, Mrs. Denis O'Regan, Townparks, do. (daughters); Peter O'Neill, N.T., Joseph Dooley, Denis O'Regan (sons-in-law); Peter, Bernadette, Maureen, Padraig and Carmel O'Neill, Denis and Joseph O'Regan (grandchildren); also numerous cousins and relatives.

DEP. ORMONDE IN THE DAIL
CLASHMORE DISPENSARY
 Deputy Ormonde asked the Minister for Health the reason for the delay in building the dispensary at Clashmore, and when it is hoped that work will be undertaken.

The Minister replied that the provision of a new dispensary to serve the Clashmore Dispensary District is primarily a matter for the Waterford Health Authority. Some time ago the Minister's Department approved of the proposed purchase of a site at Clashmore for a new dispensary building, but progress was at first delayed pending a review by the Health Authorities of the boundaries of dispensary districts in the area. The Authority later decided to postpone this review and to proceed with the new dispensary at Clashmore. Since then, I understand that some delay has been experienced in completing the legal formalities for the acquisition of the site but it is expected that these formalities will soon be completed. As it is intended to plan the new building in accordance with a standard design recommended by the Department, there should be no undue delay in completing the planning and inviting tenders for the work.

FLAVIN ESTATE
 Deputy Ormonde asked the Minister for Lands when it is hoped to have the Flavin Estate, Ardmore divided amongst the deserving applicants in the area?

The Minister replied that arrangements for allocation of this 64 acre estate have not yet been completed but it is hoped that allotment will be feasible next spring.

STATE GRANTS FOR WATER
 Deputy Ormonde asked the Minister for Local Government if an ordinary weekly tenant of a council house, rural or town cottage type, is eligible for State Grants towards the provision of water and sewerage facilities, by either tapping council water mains where available or providing his own well or pump.

The Minister replied that the answer was in the affirmative.

LATE MISS MARY BARRY

BALLINGOWN
 The death of Miss Mary Barry, which took place in St. Otteran's Hospital, Waterford, on Tuesday, 19th inst., has caused much regret in her native district. The remains were removed to Aglish Church, on Tuesday evening and the burial took place in the adjoining cemetery on Wednesday morning after Requiem Mass. Rev. E. Nugent, C.C., officiated on both occasions. There was a large and representative attendance at the obsequies.

Waterford Best In GAELIC JOTTINGS Tournament Final

WATERFORD 6-9; WEXFORD 2-9

WATERFORD made a successful journey to New Ross on Sunday last where they defeated Wexford by a 4-goal margin in the final of the O'Kennedy Shield senior hurling tournament.

tried hard but was never on a par with the Deise men, Tom Neville, John Nolan, Phil Wilson and Jimmy O'Brien were best.

Scorers - Waterford: S. Power (3-1), M. Flannely (2-1), F. Walsh (1-0), T. Cheasty (0-3), J. O'Brien (0-2), F. O'Brien (0-1), S. Hearne (0-1), Wexford: P. Wilson (1-0), C. Dowdall (1-0), J. O'Brien (0-3), J. Ormonde (0-3), O. McGrath (0-1), S. Barron (0-1), P. Kennedy (0-1).

Sunday's game also marked the return of the "Prodigal" after his term of suspension. I refer of course to the Ballyduff star, Tom Cheasty, and he celebrated his re-appearance in the Waterford jersey with a sparkling display.

The Waterford defence was equal to most of the demands that befell them and there was particular satisfaction from Martin Og Morrissey's display at left-full back.

As already stated Cheasty's return meant the world of difference to the attack and he got excellent assistance from Seamus Power and Mick Flannely who between them and McGrath scored for 5-2 of the total score.

looked none the worse for his recent injury and struck up a very happy partnership with the improving Hearne.

The game itself was typical tournament fare and gave the small attendance little to enthuse over.

Waterford had distinctly the better of matters in the opening half and fully deserved their 4-3 to 1-7 interval lead. The Slaneysiders hit a purple patch immediately after the resumption and by

REVISED CHAMPIONSHIP DRAWS

A crowd that paid £72 to see a first round intermediate hurling game at Dungarvan, on Sunday last, witnessed instead an exhibition of bad sportsmanship that will leave a bad taste for a long time to come.

The participants were neighbouring rivals Tourin and Cappoquin, both of whom have lost a considerable amount of prestige as a result of the skirmishes that so disdainfully marred the game.

It was without exaggeration a game that at times was frightening to watch. Hurleys were used in a manner that would have made axes more appropriate, and whereas one player received considerable injury, for which he had to have hospital treatment, it is more than fortunate that many more were not similarly affected.

The game itself lasted 72 minutes—a situation brought about by repeated interruptions in play, whilst three players—two from Tourin and one from Cappoquin, received marching orders in the first half.

avoiding all scoring controversies in the future

FOOTBALLERS CRUSHED AT FERMOY

The heaviest defeat ever inflicted on a Waterford minor football team in the Munster championship was administered at Fermoys on Sunday last when Cork defeated them by 9-12 to 2-3.

In fact it is a scoreline that would make one search the record books, for rarely if ever can a county have run up such a fantastic total in this code in the championship.

By all accounts this Cork side is the best to represent the County for years and I have been told by several shrewd judges that Kerry will have to field something approaching a super team if they hope to retain their Provincial title this year.

DUNGARVAN MINOR LEAGUES CONTINUE

The minor hurling and football leagues presently being run by the Dungarvan Club continue on Sunday next at the C.B.S. field. The first game at 11 o'clock is in the hurling league and here Sean McGrath's team will be favourites to beat the side captained by Pat Walsh.

Immediately afterward a football league game will be staged in which a thrilling encounter is expected between Mickey Fraher's team and Kevin Fleming's team. Both sides are accepted as being the strongest in the league and the outcome may well decide the destination of league honours. It all adds up to a great game of football.

SUNDAY'S SARGENT CUP CLASH AT DUNGARVAN

Sunday next is a comparatively quiet day, although the Fraher Field should attract a good attendance for the meeting of Brickeys Rangers and Fourmilewater in this year's Sargent Cup competition. Because of the Corpus Christi Procession in the town the game will be played at 7.30 p.m.

Like the Valley Rovers last Sunday, this game will mark Fourmilewater's debut in competitive fare in the senior grade. Last year they surprised many by annexing county honours at the expense of a fancied De La Salle side and their performance should be indicative as to how they are likely to fare in the higher grade at their first attempt.

They hope to have a full strength side on duty on Sunday which means that Tom Walsh, that accomplished defender, will be making the journey from Dublin. The defence will, however, miss the services of Joe Burke, who last year assisted them when stationed as a Garda in Ballymacbray. In the interim he has been transferred and will not be seen in the blue jersey this year.

WHY NO NETS?

Once again we must draw attention to a most unsatisfactory position that is being allowed to exist at Dungarvan's Fraher Field. On Sunday last, as on previous occasions there were no nets on either goal and surely to goodness it is not too much to ask those responsible to see that this does not recur again.

Splendid nets are available and it certainly does not require a great deal of manpower to put them up for all championship encounters. I have seen many controversies arise in important games because no nets were provided and again on Sunday last a ball that was signalled wide was claimed as a goal by the Cappoquin forwards. Personally I would not give an opinion on that particular incident as I was some considerable distance from the goal, but if there was a net there, no dispute at all could have arisen.

So we appeal to those responsible not to allow a recurrence of this falling and then we can be certain of with something to spare.

DUNGARVAN C.B.S. CONTINUE TO SLAM RIVALS

Dungarvan C.B.S. seemed poised to take the Rice Cup—the blue ribbon of primary hurling in Co. Waterford. That is the only conclusion one can come to after having seen them trounce both Lismore and Mt. Sion, each within a few days of the other. And yet, events of other years should make one pause. Two years ago, when they last won the coveted trophy, they had careered through the competition, demolishing all-comers with ease. However, they were given a rare fright by Mt. Sion in the final and were very thankful to emerge narrow winners after a hectic hour's hurling. Last year when it seemed that qualifying for the final would be a mere formality, they were stopped dead in their tracks by a fighting Carrick side, which ended Dungarvan's interest in the competition. There's no telling in hurling—the more so when it comes to schoolboy hurling.

An early goal or two can upset the best of sides, while acting as a tremendous spur to their opponents, and luck has a very big bearing on many an outcome.

Be that as it may, there can be no denying the worth of Dungarvan C.B.S. Against Lismore they were good, but they really sparkled against the lads from Mt. Sion. Many refer to the tenacity with which they hunt every ball, and the fire they put into their general play and there is no doubt but that these are two of their more important qualities.

Other teams of other years have been better stylised, but none would match this present one for fighting spirit. Add to this the fact that three lads are hurling on the side for their third years and it will be seen that experience is another telling factor. Diarmuid Flynn, John Clancy and Connie Murphy are bidding fair to be the first lads to win a second Rice Cup medal. Nor are these three alone holding the side together, for every man on the team, from goalie Noel Fraher to bundle-of-energy Mossie Keane at corner-forward, is capable of doing a first-class job in his own position.

Johnny Beatty from Kilmachomas has proved to be a wonderful addition to the side and is an ideal partner for the non-stop Philip Duggan at midfield.

Eddie Sheehan and Martin Sandford are two very elusive half-forwards, while in the full line of attack Anselm Hayes and Jim Nagle have been bagging goals at a tremendous rate. All round, a really good team, but one that could quite easily fall into the deadly error of over-confidence.

At the moment the final games in the competition are not fully decided upon. Lismore and Mt. Sion will meet in the semi-final in Dungarvan, and the threequarter hour had completely wiped out their half time deficit.

Then it was, however, that Waterford showed their complete mastery. With an emphasis that bordered on the casual they proceeded to outplay the homesters and the attack spearheaded by a now rampant Cheasty put on a further 2-6 without a Wexford reply.

Waterford's hurling in that closing quarter was reminiscent of their palmy days. Even being mindful of the fact that the opposition was somewhat substandard, one could not but be impressed by Waterford's precision hurling and it might well be that their period of uncertainty is now behind them at the appropriate time.

Apart from the auspicious return of Cheasty the most pleasing aspect from a Waterford viewpoint was the exceptionally fine displays by the midfielders John Hearne and John O'Brien. The latter probably on next Saturday night, and the winners will meet Dungarvan in the final at a venue to be decided on the toss of a coin. A lot could depend on a lucky "call" here, for the local lads. Certainly it would be a real hard-luck story if they were to be beaten now, after such a tremendous campaign.

MT. SION FANGIED IN CAPPOQUIN SEMI-FINAL

SUCH was the success of the first semi-final in the Cappoquin Gold Medal tournament on Sunday night last that tremendous county wide interest is being taken in the second semi-final between Mount Sion and Blackrock on this coming Sunday evening (7.45 p.m.).

The ease with which Glen Rovers eventually overcame the Erin's Own challenge blue printed the strength of the Cork side and it will be interesting to see how Sunday's semi-finalists compare with the mighty Glen.

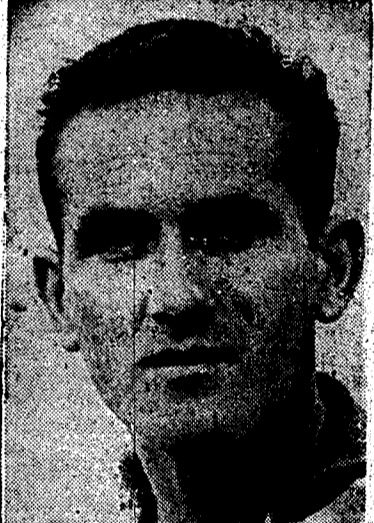

Mount Sion will, of course, be all out to prevent an all-Cork final and with the Monastery men rests the last hope of keeping the beautiful medals "at home." But it goes without saying that Rockies will be equally keen to qualify for a tilt at the Glen, who in recent years have thwarted many championship bids by Jimmy Brohan and his men.

Both clubs have furnished selections to John Fraher, and whilst Glen Rovers fielded without the Maestro last week, it can be taken as definite that both of Sunday's sides will be at full strength. Again a galaxy of stars will be in opposition which should help considerably swell what may well be a record attendance for the venue.

Mount Sion of course need no introduction to Deise followers. They have ruled the roost in Waterford hurling circles for more years than one cares to remember and are a tremendous drawing card wherever they play.

Their side is back boned by inter-county stars Martin Og Morrissey, Larry Guinan, Phil Grimes, Seamus Power, Frankie Walsh, Mick Flannely, Dickie Roche, whilst Mick Gallagher, Mickey Walsh, Michael Foley, Freddie and Fintan O'Brien have also worn the county jersey with distinction. It is a star-studded selection in the strictest sense of these words and it will take a mammoth Blackrock effort to beat them.

But it can be taken as definite that the Rockies will have geared themselves for Kennedy (Clonmel).

such an effort. They also can promise to be a thrilling game between two of the top club sides in the country, but my vote goes to Sion to make it a June final with the Glen. The following are the selections:

Mount Sion—Michael Foley, M. Walsh, T. Forristal, M. Gallagher, Jas. Phelan, Fintan O'Brien, M. Og Morrissey, L. Guinan, F. Walsh, S. Power, P. Grimes, Phil Fanning, Freddie O'Brien, J. Flavin, M. Flannely, B. Guinan, D. Roche.

Blackrock—J. Brohan, M. Cashman, T. O'Connell, M. Barry, J. O'Brien, C. O'Leary, M. Slye, J. Hayes, T. Kelly, T. Delaney, E. Burke, J. Bennett, J. O'Leary, J. Redmond, F. O'Mahoney, M. O'Flaherty, J. Dorney, T. Delea, E. Quirk, P. Boyd, D. Crowley.

The referee will be Cpl. T. Kennedy (Clonmel).

The Plan of New C.B.S. School

Tuesday next, 2nd June, will no doubt, be a red-letter day in Dungarvan C.B.S. annals, when at 10 a.m. Missa Cantata in honour of Rev. Bro. Rice, founder of the Order, will be offered up for the intentions of all contributing to the Building Fund. At 11 a.m. Ven. Archdeacon Power, P.P., will bless the new school site and turn the first sod.

ABBEYSIDE IN SECOND ROUND OF MARQUIS CUP

Abbeyside qualified for the semi-final of the Marquis of Waterford Cup, when defeating Maryville 4-3, in the second round, at Poleberry Park, Waterford, on Sunday last. Abbeyside had already won the first leg by 2-1 and go through to the last four on a 6-4 aggregate.

With Maryville rampant in the 1st half and leading 2-0 at half-time, it seemed Abbeyside's interest in the competition was gone. But, putting in a tremendous second-half, they netted four-times to the losers lone reply, of a goal by centre-forward Tommy Faulkner.

This was a hard game, played at an energy-sapping pace, and with both forward lines in great form, there were many goal-mouth thrills and seven good goals, to keep the crowd happy.

Despite playing with a stiff breeze, Abbeyside were continuing on the defensive in the first-half and with Maryville dominating the centre of the field, goalie John McGrath had a very busy time, and could not really be faulted for the two shots that beat in this half.

But inside right John Duggan gave Abbeyside the tonic goal they needed, when, almost straight from the kick-off on the change-over, he ran onto a beautiful pass from Frank Barry, who at this stage had moved to centre-forward, to score with a great shot.

This goal revitalised the whole Abbeyside team and ten minutes later the same player equalised for the visitors. However, Maryville were far from finished, and after 15 minutes again matched the lead. But Abbeyside refused to surrender and were again trying every trick they knew to get an equaliser. Fifteen minutes from time Tom Cowman cut in from the right and connected first-time with a low hard cross from the left wing, which shook the net.

Then with five minutes to go, Frank Barry, who had a tremendous second-half when moved to centre-forward, unleashed a drive which beat the keeper, but rebounded off an upright, but Tom Cowman was on hand to store again. Best on the Abbeyside team

Nevertheless lopsided, though the second-half exchanges were there was plenty to be admired in the quality of the fare served up by the Glen, and it is going to take a great effort by either Blackrock or Mount Sion to prevent them from capturing the valuable set of medals.

Scorers for the winners were: Bill Carroll (2-2); Patsy Harlé (1-3); M. Lane (1-1); A. Flynn and D. O'Brien (1-0 each), and J. Daly (0-1). Erin's Own replied per Charles, Ware and John Meaney (1-0 each); Peter McGovern (0-3); Tom Whelan and Tom Walsh (0-1 each).

UNDER-21 FOOTBALLERS FACE CLARE Sunday's Corpus Christi Procession in Dungarvan

As yet, Waterford have to win a first round Munster championship game this year. Already the Intermediate hurlers, and junior and minor footballers have fallen by the wayside at the initial hurdle, and on Sunday next the under 21 footballers will try to break that unwanted record when they meet Clare at Ennis.

The game was only arranged at a meeting of the Munster Council on Thursday of last week, and consequently the Deise mentors have had no time to get the panel together for any training sessions. The selected side, however, contains no less than ten of last year's successful brigade, whilst no less than seven of them are currently on the senior panel.

It is difficult, however, to place too much confidence in the team, when one remembers the pathetic display of the junior side against the Banner county at the same venue a few weeks ago. Two thirds of Sunday's side did duty on that occasion and nothing other than one hundred per cent improvement from them will suffice to overcome the Clare side.

And yet it is hard to believe that these established players could be so poor again, and I for one have reasonable good hopes of victory on Sunday. It is ironic that they should have to concede ground advantage again but nevertheless if they produce the form of which I know they are capable of, they can end the County's championship losing sequence.

The Waterford line-out for the game is:—

P. Crotty (Rathgormack) or F. Colbert (Ardmore); P. Carlton (Ardmore); W. O'Connor (John Michels), M. Tobin (Geraldines); Achill Lannon (Kill); Jer. Mooney (Kill); N. Walsh (Kilrossanty); J. O'Brien (Tramore); T. Riordan (Kilrossanty); B. Power (Tramore); J. Martin (Gaultier); M. Regan (Kill); J. Rooney (Ardmore); F. Moran (De La Salle); M. Power (Tramore)

Subs.—S. Healy (Affane), J. Moylan (Dungarvan), T. Dunne (Tramore); M. Power (De La Salle).

SUCCESSFUL BEET-SINGLING CHAMPIONSHIPS AT BALLINACOURTY

Splendid organisation featured the most successful South Munster Beet Singling championships held on the lands of Mr. Richard Morrissey, Ballinacourty, on Monday night last. The championships were staged under ideal conditions and the high standard attained by the entrants in all competitions helped to make them the best ever.

The open senior hoe title was won by former All-Ireland champion John Motherway of Shanagarry, Midleton, with a total of 74½ marks, just one mark more than John Beausang also of Shanagarry.

The open hand competition provided a very popular winner in local Ballinacourty man, Sean O'Brien. The confined event was won by James Meagher of Villierstown, with Affane man, Joseph Foley, taking runner-up prize.

The prizes were presented at a most enjoyable function later the Golf Clubhouse by Mr. M. Harly, Chairman of Waterford Committee of Agriculture.

Mr. Con Cogan, Mallow Sugar Factory, paid tribute to Ballinacourty, which he described as the home of the beet growing since 1926. Appropriately, he said, Cups for best growing had already been won by Dick Hanrahan, Ritchie Morrissey and Gusti Kieley, all from the Ballinacourty area. Special tribute was paid to Mr. Paddy Joe Dwan, Dungarvan representative on the B.G.A. and whose efforts played so important a role in making the championships the success they were.

Open Hoe, senior (Viking Cup)—1, John Motherway, Shanagarry; 2, John Beausang do.

Open Hoe Juvenile (Semac Cup)—1, John Motherway, Shanagarry; 2, John Beausang do.

Open Hand (Senior)—1, Sean O'Brien, Ballinacourty; 2, P. O'Donoghue, Riverstown, Co. Cork.

Confined Hoe Competition (Agricultural Limestone Cup)—1, James Meagher, Villierstown; 2, James Foley, Affane.

WATERFORD FOOTBALLERS ROUTED
 CORK 9-12
 WATERFORD ... 2-3.

No, it is not a hurling scoreline. It is in fact the result of last Sunday's minor football championship game, at Fermoy, in which Cork meted out football annihilation to a Waterford side that was outclassed in every sector and phase of the game.

The death took place at his residence, Mary Street, Dungarvan, on Wednesday, May 20th of Thomas Barry, one of the town's best known and respected citizens. His demise was most unexpected and came as a great shock to his large circle of friends and relatives.

Earlier that evening he attended the men's Mission at St. Mary's Parish Church, after which he retired to his room for a rest, where he passed to his eternal reward.

Tom, as he was affectionately known, had a most pleasing disposition and was unanimously popular with all sections of the community. He was a native of Kilmahanan, Co. Waterford but had resided in Dungarvan for many years.

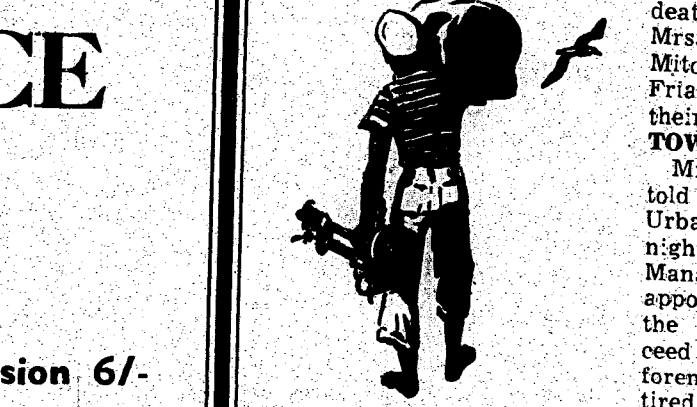

The remains were removed to St. Mary's Parish Church on Thursday evening, May 21st. Requiem Office and High Mass was celebrated for the happy repose of his soul by Rev. Fr. Byrne, C.C., Dungarvan, on Friday morning; deacon, Rev. Fr. Walsh, C.C., Abbeyside; sub-deacon Rev. Fr. Power, C.C.; do; chanters, Very Rev. J. Roche, P.P., Abbeyside, and Rev. Fr. Murphy, C.C., Dungarvan. Ven. Arch-deacon Power, P.P., presided.

The interment took place in the adjoining cemetery in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends.

The chief mourners were—Mrs. Annastasia Towler Barry (wife); Sheila Towler, Mrs. Jim Curran and Mrs. Hallahan (sisters-in-law); nephews, nieces, etc.

ABBEYSIDE DEFEAT BALLYDURN IN SARGENT CUP

Playing their best hurling for some time, Abbeyside defeated a strong Ballydurn selection in the quarter final of the current Sargent Cup at Kilmac-thomas on Wednesday night of this week. The game was sportingly contested and with the scoring close all through the game was enjoyed by a nice sized crowd. The final score was Abbeyside 2-8, Ballydurn 2-3.

Scorers for Abbeyside were E. Moore (1-2), D. Whelan (1-3), J. Hogan (0-1), P. Wall (0-1), T. Mansfield (0-1).

Ballydurn scorers were J. Harney (1-0), B. Foley (1-0) P. Dee (0-1), A. Kirwan (0-2). Referee—S. Murphy (Rathgormack).

When it was suggested to get an architect to inspect the area for a site, Mr. Norman Walsh asked what they wanted sending down architects for such a purpose. That would be further expense and they would be better off to send down three members of the Health Authority.

Mr. Collins said to let them offer an alternative before sending down anyone. Mr. Foran proposed they send three members of the Committee and the Health Authority's Engineer to inspect the sites.

Mr. J. Power seconded. Mr. Collins proposed an amendment that they write back to the Creamery asking them to recommend further sites.

Mr. Foran's proposal was then passed by 10 votes to 4. The Committee however, then decided to send four members and the following were selected: Messrs. P. Browne, Roche, Collins and Cahill.

LATE MICHAEL J. WHELAN

Fitzgerald Tee, Dungarvan. The death occurred of Mr. Michael Joseph Whelan, Fitzgerald Tee, Dungarvan, at the District Hospital, Dungarvan, on Friday, 22nd May. The remains were removed to Saint Mary's Parish Church, on Saturday, followed by a large cortege, the coffin was received and blessed by Rev. Fr. O'Byrne, C.C. Burial took place on Sunday immediately after Mass, with a large cortege in attendance. The Comodore and members of the Dungarvan Sailing Club acted as pallbearers at the funeral and burial.

The deceased, who was a well known shipwright and carpenter, spent 10 years at sea, and returned in 1934. He then took up employment at the glue factory where he spent 17 years. Mr. Whelan was the instructor appointed for the first boat building classes set up by Co. Waterford Vocational Education Committee following the foundation of the sailing club.

The chief mourners were: Mrs. Whelan (widow); John (son); Augustine (brother); Mrs. John Whelan (daughter-in-law); Michael and Susan (grandchildren).

N.F.A. Discuss Land Bill With Minister

A deputation from the N.F.A. met the Minister for Lands, Mr. O'Moran, and officials of his Department, on Wednesday, 20th May, to discuss the Land Bill and to clarify the points made by the Association in its memorandum of April 1st. In the course of a full and frank exchange of views, the existence of some areas of agreement between Government Policy and that of the N.F.A. were confirmed. In fact the deputation pointed out that the objectives mentioned by the Minister when opening the second stage debate on the Land Bill correspond to N.F.A. policy, namely: to raise the standard of living in small farms, to make the most efficient use of our available supply of land and to adjust the farm structure of Ireland to the requirements of the future.

Our representatives emphasized, however, that there is a growing sense of anxiety among farmers in regard to the precise measures which are set out in the Bill to implement these objectives. They draw attention to a number of ways in which the Bill could adversely affect progressive farmers with whom it may be assumed the Government and the Land Commission are not deliberately setting out to interfere. The Minister and his officials promised to give full consideration to the fears expressed by the N.F.A. about the danger of such undesirable side-effects and to look into the possibility of alleviating these fears by means of suitable measures which would still not restrict the basic objectives of the Bill as outlined above.

Discussions centred mainly on Sections 34 and 41 (which substantially weaken the defences against compulsory acquisition by requiring the owner to reside on or within 3 miles of all his land, and not to have offered it for sale in previous years), and Section 13 empowers the Land Commission to freeze all dealings in land for which the Land Commission have instituted acquisition proceedings or have simply served notice of inspection with a view to possible acquisition.

In regard to Section 12, which has recently been voted through on the Committee stage but will come up again at the Report Stage, the Minister assured the N.F.A. deputation that the control of subdivision and setting of land would not affect the concrete system at all. He stated the lettings for a period less than one year have always been outside the scope of the various Land Acts and will continue to be so.

RATES ON URBAN LAND
A resolution seeking the extension of rates relief, as outlined in the 1964 Budget, to urban districts was passed at a meeting in Dublin recently of the Municipal Authorities of Ireland.

Farmers in those areas have to bear with many disadvantages without themselves gaining many advantages. They are cut off from the County Advisory Schemes, and, as a rule, have to pay more for labour. If farmers in these areas were to receive the same concessions as others it would cost the Government very little extra and yet it would do away with a lot of dissatisfaction now rampant throughout the country.

The N.F.A. has repeatedly striven to have this burden removed and a meeting with the Department of Local Government is to take place soon at which this point will be discussed once more.

STOCK CAN BE EASILY POISONED
Weeds are a menace. They reduce yields. They are unsightly. They can cause death.

Members of the N.F.A. and all farmers are asked to co-operate in the eradication of noxious weeds which are thistle, ragwort, dock and common barberry. On no account should the first three be allowed to form seed because besides destroying ones own land they can also destroy one's neighbours land.

It should be remembered that selective weed-killers may render Ragwort (also known as Ragwee, Barnwee, Bookalambwee, and Bulksinn), palatable. The poisoning effect is cumulative and the cause not always obvious. Incidentally, hay of silage containing a big proportion of ragwort is particularly dangerous to cattle or horses.

Common barberry is scheduled as a noxious weed because

THREE SENT OFF AS TOURIN WIN

Game Marred By Disgraceful Incidents

Tourin 4-7 Cappoquin 4-6

MANY times in recent years Dungarvan's Fraher field has been the scene of hard fought and uncompromising hurling encounters. But it is doubtful if this illustrious venue has ever staged so gory and distasteful a spectacle as on Sunday when neighbouring rivals Tourin and Cappoquin clashed... and this is the operative word, in the opening round of the Intermediate hurling championship. In all, the game went 12 minutes over its allotted sixty minutes span and such was the ferocity with which hurleys were used that on several occasions the referee would have been more than justified had he called a premature halt to the proceedings.

The opening half in particular was marred by incidents that would have discredited a less civilised race. Scarcely five minutes had elapsed when the ugliest flare up of all took place involving more than half the players, and from which Cappoquin's Mick Lacey received marching orders. But almost instantaneously, Lacey was felled by a flying hurley, and with his face a mask of blood, was carried to the line. This incident lasted fully five minutes, and it was only after minutes of persuasion that another Cornerstone defender resumed after apparently walking off the field.

The game had scarcely been restarted when Tourin were also reduced to 14 men. Jimmy Gorman was the alleged offender in a "set-to" with Roger O'Shea, but from the Press seat at any rate he appeared to be more the offended one, and consequently I believe it was a harsh decision to send him to the line. Nor did this action bring about a cooling of tempers, and in the 26th minute, Ollie Wilkinson was also compelled to "sit it out" on the sideline. Fortunately, tempers did subside somewhat in the second half, yet there was always that unmistakable bite in the exchanges, with the likelihood of further trouble ever apparent. It would be impossible to blame any side more than the other, such was the willingness of so many to mix it. But this I do say, it was sportsmanship at the lowest level, for which neither side can be given any credit.

It was fortunate too that

Tommy Barry's point less than three minutes from time gave us outright winners. I and my other Press colleagues at the game had Cappoquin leading 2-4 to 2-1 at the interval, but the referee because of what I accept was a genuine error, had the Cornerstone men leading by only 2-3 to 2-2 at the break. Thus had the sides ended level by my tally, which was undoubtedly the correct one, the referee would have had Tour-the controversial verdict.

DESERVED WINNERS

Whilst Cappoquin followers will forever contend that was a game literally thrown out the door, Tourin were, I believe, the worthiest of winners. True the Cappoquin forwards failed to turn to profitable account many second-half chances, but analysing the game on the whole, the laurels rest truly where they belong. For more than half the game they had a man less than the opposition—a handicap that to me looked tantamount to certain defeat.

But during that interval recess the Tourin mentors made the switches that dramatically turned the game in their favour. They placed Dick Doocey at centre-back, where he proceeded to lord it over all-comers, whilst the introduction of veterans Tom Fives and Bob McGrath transformed and revitalised the side in general. But crammed into the final ten-minute period were the hurling highlights of the game. Thrice in the final minutes, the losers were awarded frees from scoring distances, but inexplicably failed to tap over the point that by everyones tally (except the referee) would have given them a draw. Be that as it may, and at the risk of repetition I stand by contention that Tourin's triumph was a meritorious one. From fewer chances they notched a winning tally, and overcame the almost crippling disadvantage of battling for so long with a man less.

THE SCORING

Cappoquin opened in sensational fashion, and in their first real attack, Billy Conway capitalised on a defensive blunder by Wally Doocey and smashed the ball past Frank McGrath from close range. Then followed that best forgotten fighting episode, and when play was resumed "Blondie" Barry slammed home the equalising goal.

Points by Conway (free) and Mickey Fraher restored the Cappoquin lead which Eddie Fraher strengthened with a well-taken goal in the 20th minute. Two minutes later Steve Scanlon sent a 21-yard free all the way to the Cappoquin net, and the same player placed his brother J. J. for a fine point in the 25th minute. Seconds later the Tourin skipper Ollie Wilkinson was sent off, and before the end of a rancour-ridden half lasting 37 minutes, Maurice Kelleher and Tom Lonergan tacked on points to give the Cornerstone men a three-point interval lead. Even so optimistic Tourin supporters that interval position must have given little cause for elation. But under strength though they were, they rose to the occasion in splendid fashion to carve out a slender victory in a thrilling finish. And it was ironic that both teams should serve up such fine hurling towards the close. During that period the needle remained but at least the sheer treachery of the first half had departed, and the huge crowd was treated to some fine passages of hurling.

Within two minutes of the restart Dick Doocey lofted over a point from a free, and in the sixth minute came the best score of the game when Steve Scanlon soled right through before parting to the unmarked Bob McGrath who had come on as a sub., and Bob fired an unstoppable drive past John Donoghue. Points by Dick Doocey (free) and a point by Mickey Fraher in the 14th minute reduced their arrears. Two minutes later they jumped into the lead again when a ball came back off the Tourin upright and Eddie Fraher was on hand to slip it home. But within seconds the green flag was waving at the other end when John Joe Scanlon goaled from a melee.

Thus the see-saw struggle for supremacy continued. A Bob McGrath point put a clear goal between the sides, but Paddy Fraher goal in the 18th minute left it all square again. Amidst ever-mounting excitement, John O'Brien and Dick Doocey exchanged minors, but with less than three minutes remaining Tommy Barry lofted over the point that ensured Tourin of their place in the second round.

In victory Tourin had many outstanding performers. Goalkeeper Frank McGrath had no chance with the shots that beat him, and brought off many splendid saves. When it mattered most the defence closed all roads to goal, although highly prone to concede frees that might well have spelt defeat for them.

Their rearranged defensive set-up was the more impressive, as both Dick Doocey and Tom Fives brought an unmitigable touch of solidarity to the sector. In the full time Tom Sullivan and the Dooceys Wally and Tom defended stoutly whilst Johnny Gorman gave a top-class display at left half-back.

Tommy Regan was a tireless midfielder, but Jimmy Gorman made too early a departure to have judgment passed on him.

Up front Steve Scanlon and substitute Bob McGrath took the major share of the honours. Scanlon was the creator of most of his side's scores, and was a constant thorn to the Cappoquin defence. McGrath improved considerably the scoring power of the sector, and his goal and a point were an invaluable contribution to victory.

Nor can one forget Tommy Barry and John Joe Scanlon in the half-line both of whom notched decisive scores, the former being the hero of the hour, by his belated winning point.

ARRIGAN WAS CAPPOQUIN'S STAR

What of Cappoquin? For long periods they looked good enough to win, but were eventually worn down by the sterner Tourin men.

In diminutive corner back Jimmy Arrigan, however they had the best hurler on view, and he gave an impeccable display throughout.

The last minute withdrawal of Mickey O'Connor must have had its detrimental repercussions on the defence, in which the only others to impress were John O'Brien and Billy McCarthy.

Their midfielders Roger O'Shea and Ger Mason had their moments of supremacy, yet I have seen both perform much better on other occasions.

The attack certainly got little latitude from the close marking Tourin defence, but Billy Conway and the Fraher brothers Paddy, Mickey and Eddie always looked capable of notching up scores. The latter in particular had a fine game and his prodigious side-line cuts highlighted a fine display.
