Dungarvan's Annual Corpus Christi Procession was held through the streets of the town on Sunday last and was favoured with ideal weather conditions. For the occasion, the town presented a most edifying spectacle and numbers that marched in the Procession constituted a record. The Sacred Host was borne by our beloved Parish Priest, Ven. Archdeacon David Power, P.P., V.F., who celebrated Benediction at the temporary Altars at the Square and at the Church gates. The sacred music was rendered by Dungarvan Brass and Reed Band under the leadership of Michael A. Hennebery. Our picture above shows the Garda Siochana led by Supt. Fanning who formed the guard of honour.

Housing Position in the County

Lack of Contractors Cause of Delay

LACK of contractors was the major reason for the delay in the erection of cottages in County Waterford, the County Engineer, Mr. J. D. Hally told the members of the County Council at a special meeting on Monday last. Whilst one-third of the building problem was in hand, he added, the overall position could be better.

At the outset the Chairman Mr. Charles Curran said the housing position in the county was far from satisfactory, and this meeting had been called to discuss the position.

Mr. Hally said they had 161 applicants on the approved housing list. They had sites acquired for a total of 122 houses leaving a balance of 39. They had advertised for tradesmen and builders labourers, but only one tradesman replied. The position with regard to tradesmen was difficult, and the one man that replied to their advertisement said he would require more than the standard rate. The yard work was a very poor reflection on their advertisement for contractors, but they had some contractors working for them at present and they (Council) would give them any other cottages they would be prepared to take. The position could be a lot better. They had one-third of the problem in hand, however, and he hoped they would continue to improve it. It was possible that both their present contractors would extend their contracts.

Replying to Mr. Norman Walsh Mr. Hally said the biggest problem was to get contractors. The legal formalities were completed in 90 sites, and they would even accept contracts whereby the County Council would supply the material, and the Contractor the labour.

Mr. John Drohan said he and Mr. Hall had succeeded in getting a site in Fees, but were disappointed in Kilmacthomas.

Mr. Hally said Kilmacthomas was one of the places they had failed to get a site.

Mr. Drohan said there was a possible site, but it was unsuitable at present because there was a piggyery nearby.

Mr. Hally said the acquiring of sites was a problem, but not as big a one as getting contractors.

Mr. Curran said the Dept. could not escape criticism either for the delay.

Replying to Mr. K. O'Ryan, the Co. Engineer said they had sent plans to the Dept. for the erection of four cottages at Deep Park, Ballymacarby. There were 8 people, however, looking for houses in the Ballymacarby area, and two or three of them objected going into Deep Park.

Mr. Curran: Is red-tape at local level impeding progress?

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

DEATH OF MISS E. PRENDERGAST

We record with regret the death of Miss Ellen Prendergast, which took place following a brief illness, on Saturday morning, 30th May. She resided at Glenaffla and was a member of a well-known Mt. Mearney family. Her passing at a comparatively early age of forty-two years, has occasioned much grief and sympathy goes to her mothers, brothers and sisters in their bereavement.

On Saturday evening the remains were removed to Cappoquin Parish Church and the burial took place in St. Declan's Cemetery, on Sunday morning. Very Rev. J. Kenneally, P.P., and Rev. M. O'Meara, C.C., officiated on both occasions. Public sympathy was shown by the very large attendance at the obsequies.

The chief mourners included: Mrs. Ellen Prendergast (mother); James, William, and Matthew (brothers); Sr. Mary Dominic, Bon Saviour Convent, Carrigea; Mrs. W. Dunne, Newcastletown; Mrs. Galagher Mrs. J. O'Neill, Chicago; Miss Margaret Prendergast (sisters).

DEATH OF MR. E. A. WYLEY

The death of Mr. E. A. Wyley which occurred suddenly on May 31st, at Conway's Hotel (where he had resided for many years) has caused much sorrow in the town and district where he was so well and favourably known.

During his long period of residence in Cappoquin he made many friends who will miss a kindly amiable gentleman. He was a secondary teacher by profession and spent some years on the staff of Mount Mel'ray Seminary before taking up a post in Tralee. When he retired in 1955 he came to live in Cappoquin.

The large attendance, when the remains were removed to the parish church, included many members of public bodies and former teacher associates. Very Rev. J. Kenneally, P.P., and Rev. M. O'Meara, C.C., received the remains. On Tuesday morning there was Requiem Mass and in the afternoon the funeral left for burial in Tramore.

Sympathy in their bereavement goes to his brothers, sister and other relatives.

CONDOLLENCE

Sympathy goes to Mrs. P. Arrigan and the members of her family on the death of her sister, Mrs. A. O'Rourke, which occurred in Wexford.

EUCCHARISTIC PROCESSION

The annual Eucharistic Procession took place on Sunday in very fine weather. The route lay from the parish church and Benediction was celebrated at a temporary altar on the Square, again at the terrace in the Convent grounds and at the conclusion of the ceremonies in the parish church.

The Blessed Sacrament was borne by Rev. M. O'Meara, C.C., and members of the civic guards formed a Guard of Honour. Music was provided by the brass band and hymns were sung by the parish choir. The procession route was lavishly decorated with religious emblems of bunting, while streams of bunting stretched from side to side of the streets.

AMERICAN VISITOR

After an absence from his native land of fifty years, Mr. Walter Regan has just concluded a visit here. During the period of his stay he renewed acquaintanceship with many of the companions of his youth. ### SALMON SEASON

The salmon season by net is now in its fifth month and so far must be recorded as a poor season on the whole. Some crews have done exceptionally well indeed but they are very few as the majority have had a very lean four months hasty fishing in extremely nasty weather. What salmon have been taken for the past month are of good quality and a far superior than those taken in the opening months of February and March. The drift nets above Youghal Bridge are said to be doing well for the past few weeks as the draft nets. Up to last month rods in the freshwater area did well, but it is believed that salmon in this portion of the river are conspicuous by their absence. The grise have shown up in small numbers so far and are on the heavy side, weighing 6 and 7 lbs.

Last week in Youghal catches were not as good as the previous weeks, and on Monday and Tuesday, boats could not operate in the bad weather due to the severe north easterly gale and torrential rains.

HOMAGE TO CHRIST OUR KING

Under ideal weather conditions on Sunday last, Youghal held its 67th Annual Procession of the Blessed Sacrament and it was one of the largest ever seen in the town. Preparations for the wonderful event were manifold and lengthy. Business and private houses, not alone en route, but all over the town were decked with papal colours and bunting, altars and shrines were erected; and coloured streamers were strung across the street in honour of Christ the King. At 3 p.m., the Procession moved off from the Parish Church in all its solemnity and splendour and as it wended its way via De Valera Street, to North Main St., the Rosary was recited and hymns were sung. Sacred music was supplied by the North Abbey Pipe Band and the Christian Bros. Flageolet band. The Blessed Sacrament was borne by the Parish Priest, Very Rev. D. Canon Sheehan, assisted by Very Rev. Canon O'Hanlon, P.P., of Aldershot and Rev. D. P. Noonan, C.C., of U.S.A. In relays the canopy was borne by members of the St. Vincent de Paul Society, C.Y.M.S. Society, Fishermen's Association and I.T. & G.W. Union. An F.C.A. Guard of Honour, under Sergeant Major Patrick Power, marched at both sides of the canopy.

On arrival at the '98 Memorial Park Seminary, Benediction was imparted and again on the return journey at the Parish Church, Miss Mary Crowley, A.L.C.M., presided at the organ at both the park and the church. The Procession was brought to a close after Benediction when the entire congregation inside and outside the church joined in the singing of "Faith of Our Fathers."

Other clergy in attendance were: Rev. D. O'Connell, C.C.; Rev. E. G. O'Dwyer, C.C.; Rev. D. Egan, P.P., Australian Missions; Rev. D. O'Sullivan, C.C., St. Raphael's; Rev. D. Reidy, C.C.; Rev. D. Gould, C.C., and Rev. J. O'Mahony, C.C.

ROAD GRANT OF £990

Youghal Urban Council have been notified by the Department of Public Health that the urban roads improvement grant for Youghal for 1964/65 will be £990. With the approval of the Engineer, Mr. J. O'Regan, B.E., it was decided to use the grant in the Mall area and Cork Hill area, where necessary.

TIDY TOWNS COMPETITION

Youghal is making an all out effort this year to capture a prize in the Tidy Towns Competition. There are 343 entries this year or 29 more than last year. The main feature is the entry of all large towns, with 100% entry in the categories covering centres with populations from 3,000 to 25,000 people. Once again Cork heads the list with 64 competitors. Donegal is second with 23, closely followed by Tipperary, with 22 and Clare and Galway each have 20. Adjudication will continue until mid-August.

YOUGHAL SHOW BUNGALOW

On Saturday afternoon last an attractive timber chalet erected by Messrs. Morris & Buttiner, local building contractors, at McPadden's Drive Inn, South Main St., was officially opened by the Chairman of the Urban Council, Mr. R. Good in the presence of a large gathering.

The sections of the building are prefabricated by G.W.I. Ltd. of Sligo. All timber is pre-treated against dry rot, wood worm, etc. There are at present eight standard models with one two or three bedrooms, lounge, kitchen and bathroom. The structures are very economical in price, a little over half the cost of conventional methods. Included in the price of the buildings is an attractive set of coloured fibreglass sanitary goods, including luxury bath, pedestal washstand basin and sink and drainer unit complete with kitchen cabinet and wall cupboard. Mr. Good, declaring the chalet open, said that while it would have a long life span, it could be erected and completed in one week, thus solving the problem of providing more houses for the housing authorities throughout the country. He wished M/s. Morris and Buttiner every success in their venture with G.W.I. Ltd.

During the week large crowds have viewed the chalet which is attracting a great deal of attention locally.

COUNCIL'S VOTES OF SYMPATHY

At a meeting of Waterford County Council on Monday, Mr. Norman Walsh proposed a vote of sympathy to the relatives of Professor Wyley, Cappoquin, who had died unexpectedly that morning. His death had come as a great shock to all.

The Chairman, Mr. Curran, proposed a vote of sympathy to the relatives of the two men who lost their lives in the drowning tragedy in Tramore on Saturday. Mr. Curran said it was an appalling tragedy and he wished to convey the Council's sympathy to the grief stricken relatives.

Mr. Michael Harty proposed a vote of sympathy to the family of the late Mr. J. J. Lynch, Manager of Mitchelstown Creamery, and Mr. D. Montayne proposed a vote of sympathy to the Lyons family, Glendine on their recent bereavement.

The County Secretary, Mr. J. G. Dowling, on behalf of the County Manager and Staff, was associated with the expressions of sympathy.

SUCCESSFUL LOCAL SISTERS

Congratulations to the Misses Joan and Ann Noonan, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Noonan, 50 Congress Villas, Dungarvan, who passed the Preliminary Book-Keeping Examination at Presentation Convent, Dungarvan.

BALLINACOURTY ADVANCE IN J.F.C.

BALLINACOURTY 1-6; TALLOW 1-4.

After trailing by 1-3 to 0-2 at half time, and facing what seemed certain defeat, Ballinacourty turned in a magnificent second-half performance that overwhelmed a bewildered Tallow side, and gave them a deserved 2 point advantage at the end of their first round junior football championship game at Lismore on Wednesday night.

But all through the first half few could have given much hope for their chances. Admittedly they were playing against the breeze, but so superior was the Tallow side, inspired by centre-forward Ned Power, that their four point interval lead looked sufficient in the circumstances.

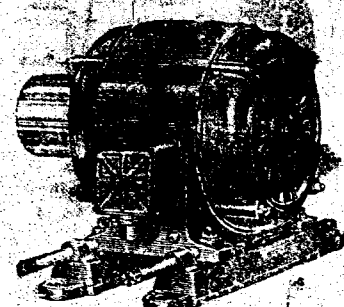

What a transformation the second half brought, however. The Enright brothers, Pat and Liam, took complete control of midfield, and the forwards proceeded to outwit the Tallow defence almost at will. A great goal by Pat Burke put them on the road to victory, and thereafter there was no holding them.

It was a cruel twist of fate for Tallow that they should suffer defeat after dictating the exchanges for the entire first-half. But try as they might they could not contain the sustained second-half pressure that was showered on them, and the best efforts of Ned Power, John Lyons and company were not good enough to stave off defeat.

In a Ballinacourty defence that showed a marked improvement in the second-half, none played better than Sean O'Brien, Bernard Shields and Liam Waters. The Enright brothers took control at midfield at the crucial period, whilst up front the honours must rest with Pat Burke whose goal was the decisive score of the game, and Johnny McCarthy.

Fourmilewater Outclass Depleted Brickeys

FOURMILEWATER ... 9-12; BRICKEY RANGERS ... 1-1. The scoreline speaks for itself. Fourmilewater, back in senior ranks, had a most facile and one-sided victory over a depleted Brickey Rangers side in this first round Sargent Cup game at Dungarvan on Sunday night last.

But if the game was expected to provide rival supporters with a fortnight to their first round meeting in the championship they were quickly disillusioned, as the composition of the Brickey lineup was little more than one of the make shift variety, and one would be doing less than justice to both sides to accept the result on its face value. Apparently there was a misunderstanding amongst Brickey players about the game, and

Abbeyside United Late Mrs. Anne Lelia Dower, Tyone, Nenagh may Qualify for "Marquis" Final

NOT since the Club was founded several years ago, has Abbeyside Utd. experienced so successful a period as at present. Already they have captured the Casey Perpetual trophy, and on Sunday next meet Southend in the semi-final of the Marquis of Waterford Cup, at Ozer Park (7.15)

Southend are generally accepted as the best side in the 3rd Division—a view they vindicated by winning that championship this year. However on the two occasions the sides have met this season the spoils have been divided with one victory each. Thus, one can expect an exciting and closely fought game before Bolton's opponents are known in the final.

Southend will start slight favourites, but if Utd.'s half-backs can control the game as they have been doing of late, their speedy and dangerous forwards may well get enough goals to ensure them of a place in yet another final.

Deputy's Speech at Mayoral Welcome Praised

The speech of welcome made by Deputy T. A. Kyne on the occasion of the recent visit of Richard J. Daley, Mayor of Chicago, to Dungarvan, was complementarily referred to at last Monday's special meeting of the County Council.

Mr. Mito Galgey said everyone connected with the function should be congratulated. They did, however, get the best hurler on the ditch quite often, but they should ignore them. Mr. Curran said he had heard no criticism at all. He wished to congratulate Mr. P. Doyle, who was very courteous and saw that everything went off without error. Also, their own Co. Secretary, Mr. Doyle.

Revival of Local Swimming Club

There was a very large attendance at the Town Hall, Dungarvan, on Tuesday night last when a meeting was held to re-form the local swimming club.

The following officers and committee have been elected: President, S. J. Murnaghan; Chairman, T. Lewis; Vice-pres., P. Keenan; Hon. Sec., J. B. Hanlon; Treas., M. C. Neill; committee—Messrs. T. Tipp. Win Title in LOCAL HAPPENINGS New York

Meanwhile hot favourites Tipperary are enjoying the splendour of New York and its World Fair. As expected, they defeated the Yanks in the League final on Sunday last, thus giving John Doyle his tenth league medal, a record that only he himself may ever surpass.

At half-time they led by a nine point margin, and with little over quarter of an hour remaining were a clear fifteen points to the good. Then came new York's amazing fight back and a golden 90 seconds spell in which they scored three goals gave them the encouragement they so badly needed. They continued to pound a none-too-steady Premier County defence and with only five minutes left took a two point lead.

But recovering like true champions, Tipp. ended the hour in a blaze of glory. Jimmy Doyle balanced scores with a brace of points and then Larry Kiely clinched victory with a goal and point.

Star of the side was Jimmy Doyle who ended the hour top scorer with 2-7. New York's best was Stephen Ryall who had five points to his credit.

He spoke in glowing terms of the order; the members of which gave so unselfishly of their time and talent that all might have the benefit of a full education. Referring to the proposed new school, he congratulated the Superior, Rev. Bro. R. D. Hearty on his initiative in the matter and assured him that the people of Dungarvan and surrounding district would not be found wanting in generosity.

Mr. R. Walsh deputised for the Chairman of the Urban Council who was absent on official business. Mr. Walsh endorsed what the Archdeacon had said and wished to be associated with the tribute on behalf of the people of Dungarvan. Also present amongst the large gathering were Messrs. P. Murphy, E. J. Keyes and M. Curran representing the Building Fund Committee; Mr. J. Moloney, Architect; Rev. Bro. D. Dowd, Superior. Lis-

 SAYS 'THANK YOU'

The following letter was read at last week's meeting of the Dungarvan Urban Council from R. A. Walsh, Vice-Chairman, which stated:—

"As special aide-de-camp to the Mayor of Chicago during his recent visit, I have been requested by the Mayor, Richard J. Daley, and Mrs. Daley, to convey to you, personally, and through you, to the Council members, the Council staff and the people of Dungarvan, their sincere appreciation and thanks for the great reception which they were accorded on their first visit to the home of their ancestors.

"Mayor Daley and his staff assured me that they would be only too delighted to do anything in their power to promote in any way the interests of the town and locality.

 ROAD GRANT

At last Monday's special meeting of Waterford County Council, Mr. Michael Harty asked if they had received any reply from the Dept. in connection with their resolution of protest against the decision to reduce the County Road grant.

The County roads were being neglected, he said, and it was blamed for this The ratepayers contribution had increased, but the Department's had decreased. That was very wrong, and they should protest again about it.

The Chairman said they had already made their protest and there was nothing else they could do.

LATE JEREMIAH COTTER

COOLGORMAC, DUNGARVAN

It is with deep regret we record the death of Jeremiah (Jerry) Cotter, which occurred on Friday evening, May 20th, at the District Hospital, Dungarvan, after a very short illness. He was a very well-known and popular person and his retiring disposition won for him very many friends in the Coolgormac area and also in his native Dromore district.

We wish to extend our deepest sympathy to his widow's young family, brothers and sister, on their very great loss and at so early an age. His removal took place on Saturday evening to a quiet Church followed by a huge and most impressive cortege, and were blessed and received by Rev. Fr. E. Tobin, C.C. Ass't, assisted by Rev. Fr. P. Favin, Chaplain, Carriglea Convent.

Requiem Mass was celebrated on Sunday morning for the happy and eternal repose of his soul and the interment took place in the adjoining family plot. Another very large cortege, consisting of all sections of the community were present to pay their last respects to the dear departed one. Rev. Fr. Tobin, C.C. officiated at the graveside and imparted the final absolution, and many large sheaves of spiritual tributes were received by his relatives.

The chief mourners were: Mrs. Peggy Cotter (widow); Noel Cotter (son); Elizabeth, Mary, Margaret, Nora, Ann, Geraldine (daughters); Laurence, Michael, Patrick, John, Dromore (brothers); Margaret Cotter, Dromore; Mrs. Nora Fraser, U.S.A.; Mrs. Catherine Fitzner, D.P. (sisters). Funeral arrangements were by James Kieley & Sons, Shannon.

Legal Aid Scheme Under Consideration

The N.F.A. Industrial & Transport Committee has asked the National Council of the Association to consider the possibility of establishing a special fund which would be used in the defence of farmers in court cases where the outcome would create an important precedent from the point of view of farmers in general. This proposal will undoubtedly require very careful study before any final decision is taken but it is certainly worthy of very serious consideration.

A number of cases have been brought to the notice of the N.F.A. in which legal action was taken against farmers and in which the outcome was most unfavourable from the farmers' point of view. This is bad enough from the point of view of the individual farmer directly involved but the danger is that such cases may well be regarded as precedents which would be used against farmers in future cases of a somewhat similar nature.

Direct participation by N.F.A. in legal proceedings would be a completely new departure for the Association, but there are indications that quite a number of our members would welcome and be prepared to pay for the establishment of this type of service. One of the principal decisions to be made is on the question of financing this service. If it is decided to proceed with the idea it is likely that branches and county executives would be invited to contribute to a special fund.

DISCUSSIONS ON GREEN BOOK CONTINUE

The pre-Budget discussions on these aspects of the N.F.A. "Green Book" which were a matter for Budgetary action are now being followed up by discussions between the various N.F.A. National Committees and the Government Departments concerned (principally the Department of Agriculture) on the longer term aspects of the N.F.A. Seven Year plan.

Some of those meeting have already taken place and final arrangements ranging the remainder of the timetable are at present being worked out between the N.F.A. and the Government. In view of the many far reaching proposals in the N.F.A. document which have to be dealt with in the discussions it is quite evident that the coming weeks will be a very busy period for the Association.

STANDARD SPECIFICATION FOR BARBED WIRE

The Institute for Industrial Research and Standards with the approval of the Minister for Industry & Commerce has just issued a standard specification for galvanised barbed wire. The specification sets out the various requirements which the manufacturers must comply with in order to be entitled to claim that their product is up to the required standard. The N.F.A. was represented on the

BALLYDUFF GYMKHANA

Ballyduff Gymkhana will be held on Sunday, 14th June. It is now sixteen years since the last Gymkhana was held at Ballyduff. Gymkhanas in the past were most successful events in this area, and it is pleasing to hear that this great form of sport is being revived.

From reports to hand, the number of entries is expected to be very large. Under the (begs of the local guild of Muintir na Tire, the community spirit of the parish is very high, and I am sure that the members of the Gymkhana Committee will go all out to make this event an outstanding success. The Fermoy Confraternity Band and Reed band will attend.

A Gymkhana dance will be held in St. Michael's Hall, Ballyduff, on Sunday night, June 14th, with the Bridesiders Showband providing the music. For further particulars see advertisement in this issue.

The N.F.A. Industrial & Transport Committee has asked the Institute for Industrial Research and Standards to formulate this specification.

From now on purchasers of barbed wire will have the right to request the manufacturer to furnish a certificate that the barbed wire has been made in all respects in accordance with the requirements of the Irish Standard Specification. Copies of the specification can be purchased from the Institute whose address is: The Industrial Research Centre, Ballymun Road, Dublin 9.

REGIONAL DEVELOPMENT CENTRES

The N.F.A. was represented at a Seminar on Regional Development Centres, which was held in Limerick under the auspices of the Institute of Public Administration, from May 28th-30th, 1964.

The programme included a visit to the Shannon Industrial Estate; a lecture on Development Centres and Irish Economic Expansion by Mr. Garret Fitzgerald, Managing Director, Economist Intelligence Unit of Ireland; a paper on Development Centres in Scotland by Mr. P. M. Smith, Economic Adviser to the Scottish Development Industrial and Social Development in English New Towns by Mr. E. E. H. Cate, Chief Finance Officer, Commission for New Towns; and a paper on Regional Development in Northern Ireland by Mr. Cecil Newman, Town Planning Institute (Northern Branch).

In convening this Conference the Institute of Public Administration stated that the problem in Ireland is similar to that in Britain and Western Europe, namely, lopsided development concentrated in particular areas. The solution—creating development centres—brings up a number of questions, in what conditions do such centres thrive, what is

TOURANEENA NOTES

I.C.A. MEETING

Miss Chrissie Barron presided at the monthly meeting of the Touraneena I.C.A. Guild held in the Schoolhouse, on Tuesday, 12th May.

The president and other members of the Guild who travelled to Ballymacarby recently to the first group meeting between Touraneena, Ballymacarby and Nire, gave a lengthy report on same.

It was decided at the meeting to request the C.E.O., Dungarvan to consider the formation of a Domestic Economy Class in Touraneena for an Autumn term. It was further agreed to hold a social in the schoolhouse on Friday night, June 5th and to engage the "Heather Bell Trio" cell band to supply the music.

Ballymacarby will be represented in the Telefis Eireann programme "Ceolta Tire" on Wednesday night next, June 10th, at 8.05.

It is expected that the Minister for Education—who has been invited to attend on this auspicious occasion—will be present for the opening ceremony.

CONFIRMATION

their sphere of influence; should such centres be created in Ireland and if so, what factors should govern their location and size.

As the N.F.A. has pointed out in the "Green Book" no solution to the economic problem of underdeveloped areas in this country is practical without agricultural expansion. We recognise at the same time that no practical solution can be anticipated through agricultural development alone and we favour planned development in afforestation, tourism and in such industrial activities as may be practical.

We attach the greatest importance to community involvement in development projects. We feel that the County Development Teams have an important part to play in this connection and in addition, we are of the opinion that a special section of the new Institute of Planning be given the priority task of planning one or more pilot areas on the understanding that no consideration of the time required for survey or planning will be allowed to postpone action on the basic improvements in agriculture which we have set out in the "Green Book." Each proposed pilot area should be large enough to include at least one centre for prospective industrial development.

Question—I often lose young pigs after purchase, with bowel oedema. How can I prevent this happening?

Answer—Swine Oedema is caused by infection by one of the strains of E. coli which, although normally resident in the intestines, becomes roused to intense activity by a change of food or even of environment, or more often, a combination of the two. Veterinary surgeons can now obtain and give injections for both the cure and prevention of oedema, but just the same, all changes in the feeding should be made very gradually, and the foods given in a sloppy condition, and of a laxative nature. A very simple means of prevention is the keeping of a heap of small coal in the corner of the house.

Q—Each year slugs and snails eat off most of the shoots of my dahlias and other flowers. Could you please advise me how to save the plants this season?

A—A poison bait which attracts slugs and snails can be prepared by mixing 1oz. finely powdered metaldehyde with 3 lb. bran. Moisten the bran slightly after mixing and then place it in small heaps of about a teaspoonful near the plants, and in places where the pests hide, such as the base of a wall or a hedge. Protect the bait from rain with pieces of slate, board or the like placed over it, but allowing the pests easy access.

Q—Could you please recommend suitable manuring for a newly laid down field of grass to produce a sward for grazing in pig sows?

A—Your grass seed mixture for grazing pigs should contain some Chicory Meadow Fescue and some clover. In this case a medium nitrogen compound such as 4-7-14 would be suitable at the rate of 3-4 cwt. per statute acre. During the summer the grass should be topped with a mower to prevent stems and seed heads forming, and so encourage the development of a good, thick sward.

Q—What is the manurial value of poultry manure?

A—This varies with the type of birds and the food fed. As an approximate guide, 1 ton of fresh poultry manure is equivalent to 1-1/2 cwt. Sulphate of Ammonia, 1 cwt. Superphosphate and 1/6 cwt. Muriate of Potash. If the manure is mixed with wood shavings or straw, these figures need to be adjusted. Poultry manure is suitable sward.

SALMON FISHING IMPROVES

There was a distinct improvement in salmon fishing last week on the lower reaches of the Backwater and along the coast from Ferrypoint to Ardmore. All boats reported good catches.

FIRST COMMUNION

The children of Clashmore parish recently received their first Holy Communion. All were tastily attired for the solemn occasion.

POPULAR NURSE ON HOLIDAY

Miss Mary C. Veale, S.R.N., is at present enjoying a prolonged holiday in her native Clashmore. Miss Veale has travelled extensively and spent some time in the U.S.A. and Canada.

HARRIERS SOCIAL

The recent Kinsalebeg Clashmore Harriers Club social was a great success. There was a large attendance and the function proved very enjoyable.

NEW GARDA SERGT.

Sergt. D. Hurley, Sigo, has been appointed sergt. in charge of Villierstown garda station. He succeeds Sergt. D. O'Keefe, who was transferred to Dublin.

COAST EROSION

We have repeatedly drawn attention in this column to the problem of coast erosion in the Ardmore area and to the fact that each winter, large tracts of valuable land are lost to the sea. Now, at last, something positive is being done to rectify the matter and the County Council have provided a sum of £3,000 to erect a barrier against the inroads of the Atlantic.

ARDSALLAGH QUAY

At a recent meeting of Waterford Co. Council, Mr. W. Dower, M.C.C., referred to the necessity for providing improved facilities at Ardsallagh Quay and he was assured by the Engineer that the matter would be attended to.

"DECLAN OF ARDMORE"

The recent statement of a well known lecturer and historian that "Declan of Ardmore was no saint" came as a shock to the people of the Ardmore area, where the name of Declan is revered and spoken of with respect. It should be pointed out that it has never been claimed that Declan, who is reputed to have founded a monastery, is a canonised saint, but it is accepted that he was a very holy man. It is explained that in the early times, each area had its holy man, who was generally described as "a saint." It was only in comparatively recent times that the actual canonisation of saints was introduced, and, no doubt, there are many uncanonised saints.

THE F.C.A.

Local units of the above got some recruits recently, but more are needed to bring the Force up to strength. This year's summer camp will be held at Crosshaven, Co. Cork.

IDEAL HOMES EXHIBITION

Some members of Clashmore I.C.A. recently paid a visit to the Cork Ideal Homes Exhibition. They were much impressed by all they saw.

Kilmacthomas Notes

Mr. Michael Wallis, President of the Irish Seed Trade Assoc. and Director of Townsend-Flahavan Seeds, Kilmacthomas, was one of the even Irish representatives in attendance at the International Seed Trade Convention held in Venice. More than 1,200 people from various countries were present at this week-long Convention.

Nice Note that the very esteemed Kilrossanty and Waterford inter-county footballers, John Ormond, was the recipient of a presentation of magnificent Waterford Crystal. Mr. Ormond is to be congratulated on his new appointment with the Irish Pigs and Bacon Commission. During his two years connection with the Sui-veined city's concern, John was a great favourite with both the directors and staff colleagues.

Included in the latest group that participated in the passing out parade at the Templemore G.S. Depot, Co. Tipperary, was Garda Patrick Flynn, and he has been assigned to the town of Wexford. He is son of highly respected Mr. and Mrs. Geoffrey Flynn, Kilmacthomas, and brother of Garda Thomas Flynn, New Ross.

The Engagement is announced between Mr. Patrick O'Neill, 44 Patrick Street, Waterford, and Miss Margaret Harney, daughter of Mrs. Agnes Harney, "Endleigh Villas," Tramore, and the late Mr. Nicholas Harney, do.

By the way, the bride-to-be is sister of Very Rev. Fr. Peter Harney, a pastor who ministers a populous parish in the U.S., and her mother (nee Jennyn) belongs by birth to Ballyhussa, Kilmacthomas.

Every best wish to the betrothed couple.

Obituary. - Naturally, sincerely and completely kind and understanding was Mrs. Catherine Kitty Flahavan (nee O'Donnell), beloved wife of Mr. (Nicholas (Nick) Flahavan, Rathmeaden, Kilmacthomas. Following a comparatively short indisposition and at a moderately advanced age, her death occurred at St. Stephen's Hospital, Glanmire, Cork, on Saturday, 30th ult. (Feast of B.V.M.) Those who had the pleasure of knowing her need no words to remind them of her beautiful and likeable personality. They can understand in some small way what her loss means. With her grief-stricken husband and relatives, whole-hearted sympathy is widespread.

A cortege of imposing dimensions accompanied the removal of the remains from Glanmire (via Fermoy and Cappoquin) on Sunday evening to St. Anne's Church, Fews, where they were received by Very Rev. J. Harty, P.P., Kilrossanty and Rev. M. Barron, C.C., do.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Tory Top Road, Cork. Dear Sir, Mr. Pat Fanning has many durable qualities, but his tenacity in debate is perhaps the outstanding one. With Pat it is surely a case of "my country right or wrong; my granny drunk or sober."

At the Munster G.A.A. Convention last March, he delivered a prolonged and stinging speech in defence of the Ban. He appealed then for a return to the nebulous past all along the line. A Dublin correspondent writing in the Waterford press a couple of weeks later, tore Mr. Fanning's case to shreds and finished up by challenging him to come out and defend his case in his own backyard. But Pat refused to be drawn. I assumed then that Mr. Fanning's teeth had been finally drawn where the Ban was concerned.

Imagine my surprise at the Munster championship match at Nenagh on Sunday to see Mr. Fanning's Munster Convention speech reproduced word for word in the match Programme. The Programme also carried a photograph of the late Paddy O'Caolmh. I couldn't help thinking that the interests of the G.A.A. would have been much better served had Mr. O'Caolmh's forward-looking anti-Ban report to the last Congress been reproduced in the Nenagh programme instead of Mr. Fanning's backward-looking and reactionary speech.

But it is a good thing that the Ireland of today has matured to reject the appeals of those who would like to perpetuate the feuds and the hatreds of the past. We had a wholesome example of this maturity here in Cork recently in the Rosse-Barry episode. Yours, P. McCARTHY.

Immediately after the celebration of Office and High Mass in the sacred edifice on Monday, interment was made in the adjoining cemetery, in the presence of another immense attendance. All the priests present at the obsequies officiated at the graveside. Sheaves of spiritual bouquets and messages of condolence were received. Peace to the gentle soul departed.

National Farmers' Association. - On Wednesday of last week the members of Stradbally and Ballynaneen Branch N.F.A. held their annual outing. They travelled to Moorpark, Fermoy and enjoyed every moment of the excursion. They certainly journeyed over excellent roads through most exquisite scenery.

Positioned in the Sister Isle is Col. Sydney Bull, owner of Mill House, Ballynaneen; the general Englishman is well pleased with his two-storied residence and garden on the right bank of the Mahon. The other day looking very fit and well, he wound up his latest periodical visit to his holding here.

All Prosperity and happiness to Mr. John Linnhan, Ballynabanogue, Kilmacthomas, and Miss Breda Nugent, Feddons, Rathgarrick, whose marriage was solemnised (with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing) at the Parish Church, Rathgarrick, on Wednesday, 3rd inst. (Feast of St. Kevin). The pair, who are deservedly held in the highest regard, are members of two of Co. Waterford's front rank farming families.

On Sunday last, the faithful of the parish of Newtown, Kilmacthomas and Kill assembled in very large numbers at the Parish Church of All Saints, Newtown, for the annual Corpus Christi procession in honour of the Sacred Heart. From the sacred edifice, at 7 o'clock p.m. the procession - in which the resected local actor, Very Rev. R. Power, P.P., carried the Monstrance - moved through the tastily decorated street to the village cross, about-turning there and wending back to starting point, halting on the way, while Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament was imparted from a temporary altar in the National School grounds. When the processionists returned to the church, Benediction was again given, bringing the strikingly impressive display of homage to a close.

Home from the Great Western Republic is Miss Sheila O'Reilly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick O'Reilly, Main St., Kilmacthomas. She is a radiographer and during her stay in Uncle Sam's clime underwent an additional course at her calling.

ANNUAL CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION

The people of Lismore and surrounding districts turned out in their hundreds on Sunday last for the annual Corpus Christi procession in honour of the Blessed Sacrament. Though the sky was overcast, the day was really warm and this helped in a big way to bring out a record crowd.

The route, which was the same as in former years, was gaily decorated with bunting and flags, while numerous religious objects were also on display. The Blessed Sacrament was carried by Very Rev. Canon Dunphy, P.P., V.F., assisted by Rev. Fr. Quailly, C.C., and Rev. Fr. Slatery, C.C., and Benediction was imparted at the Christian Brothers school, and was again imparted on return to St. Carthage's Church.

DEATH OF MRS. M. CUNNINGHAM

The death took place (suddenly) at her residence Ballinacree, Ballyduff, of Mrs. Margaret Cunningham. Deceased was a highly respected lady and her death came as a great shock to her host of friends. The remains, accompanied by a large cortege, were removed to St. Michael's Church and the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery. To her bereaved husband and family we extend our deepest sympathy in their sorrow and loss.

No Claim to Infallibility But Geraldines Cannot Be Discounted

This week I feel obliged to reply briefly to a letter I received on Saturday last from Mr. William Lenihan, Secretary of the Newtown and Ballyduff G.A.A. clubs. Apparently Mr. Lenihan has taken it upon himself to defend Mr. John Mansfield (Ballyduff) the referee who officiated at the recent Tourin-Cappoquin championship game at Dungarvan. Not that I believe for one moment that any defence was necessary, and in fact on the contrary the man in question is to be congratulated for handling the game at all.

But in his letter, Mr. Lenihan says the referee is disgusted with my report, not of the match in particular, but of my reference to an error in the scoring made by Mr. Mansfield.

Mr. Lenihan then takes the appropriate extract from my report: "Thus has the sides ended level by my tally, which was undoubtedly the correct one, the referee would have had Tourin ahead by two points, and even had Cappoquin won by a point, they would have still lost by the referee's reckoning."

Might I point out to Mr. Lenihan that I stated also in my report that I accepted his error as a genuine one. But there can be no doubt but that a mistake in the scoring was made by Mr. Mansfield, and the entire attendance will, I'm sure, readily vouch for that.

Then somewhat sarcastically Mr. Lenihan asks the question: "Do we pressmen think ye are infallible?" My only reply to that is: "Surely no goodness no wondrous powers of infallibility are required for a journalist or journalists to keep a correct tally of a game."

Mr. Lenihan also adds that in his opinion my preview to the game was in itself an entitlement to the teams to "have at it." I wonder if he conveniently overlooked my introduction when I stressed the hope that "the sparks" would be legitimate ones.

He says the referee has stated that he also can distinguish a green from a white flag, and can read and write. Those admissions I accept in their entirety, but they still do not alter the fact that a first half error in the scoring was made. And to have mentioned that undeniable truth was hardly being unfair to the referee.

P.S.—Incidentally, Mr. Lenihan states in his letter that the referee believes the only mistake he made was to referee the game in the first place, and also that as long as he lives he will never forget the filthy language used.

UNDoubtedly the highlight of next Sunday's championship programme is the Intermediate hurling meeting of Kilgobinet and Geraldines at Dungarvan. At Cappoquin a two-game junior bill is listed in which Dungarvan and Colligan Rockies oppose Valley Rovers and Clashmore respectively. Both games are sure to evoke interest in certain quarters but it is the hurling encounter at the Fraher Field that captures greatest imagination and which promises a stirring battle between two of the most fancied sides in this now intriguing championship race.

Already the championship has been reduced to five teams, with Shamrocks and Tourin awaiting to do battle in one semi-final, whilst Ballyduff stand by eagerly preparing for a tilt with Sunday's winners. Understandably followers of all five teams will pour forth a variety of sound reasons why their own sides will ultimately prevail, but it seems the general consensus of opinion that the winners of this Geraldines-Kilgobinet tie will have to be very seriously reckoned with.

Whereas Sunday marks Geraldines debut in this campaign, Kilgobinet have already claimed superiority over arch-rivals Colligan Rockies in the most emphatic manner imaginable. Prior to the game it was general belief, amongst which was included the writer, that the Rockies would be that little more experienced, and consequently I based on those grounds that the Rockies would triumph. But displaying a brand of hurling that I have not hitherto seen from them, the green and white jerseyed brigade surpassed the expectations of even their most ardent supporters and truly looked potential champions during most stages of the game.

Since then, however, reports from the Kilgobinet camp have not been quite what I expected them to be. If what I have been told is correct then the training sessions have not met with the same response as when the Rockies provided the opposition, and I have no hesitation in saying that a repetition of that performance is essential if they are to entertain hopes of advancing along that rocky road towards championship glory.

GAELIC JOTTINGS

Mitchells Should Master De La Salle in Championship

The senior football championship commences on Sunday next, when John Mitchells and De La Salle set out in quest of a title currently held by Brickey Rangers. The game is scheduled for Walsh Park, Waterford which must now be regarded as something of a home venue for Mitchells and the Kilrossanty side must be strongly fancied to prevail.

Since Mitchells decided to go it alone they have proved themselves fit opposition for the best in the senior grade. And yet their efforts have not met with the deserved success and as yet the championship and Phelan Cups have somewhat tantalisingly evaded them. However, this year, they have already qualified for the Phelan Cup decider, and make no secret of their intentions to make this their year in the major competition.

They have been very active of late and greatly impressed when defeating Kill decisively in the semi-final of the 1963 Phelan Cup competition. On Tuesday night last they took on the rest of the county and although going under by five points shaped quite impressively.

Mitchells will field at full strength for the game, which means that Pete Gough returns after his term of suspension. Gough's younger brother, Tom, also appears to have matured considerably over the past twelve months and he too should be a decided acquisition. Add to these the names of such as the Kierwans, Billy, Tommy, Noel and Tony; Wally and Rogie Connors Seamus Kenny, Sam Anderson and ace marksman Sean Power and one can readily appreciate the strength of this team. In fact I firmly believe they will be stronger than ever this year and their assault on the trophy is certain to be a sustained one.

De La Salle went out at this stage of the championship last year to the same opposition, and gallantly though John Barron, Sanny Walsh, Noel Dalton, Denis Corcoran and company will try it is impossible to see them upsetting the Mitchells.

Waterford Play Wexford in Dungarvan

Dungarvan stages its first senior inter-county hurling game in over two years on Sunday week (June 14) when Waterford and Wexford meet in a tournament in aid of the C.B.S. new school building fund. This evening game will be an evening one starting at 7.45 p.m. Both counties have promised to send full strength selections which seems to ensure a great hour's hurling. A huge crowd is expected for the game proceeds of which are for so worthy a cause. In next week's issue when team selections will be available the game will be previewed in detail.

Kilgobinet the Choice

The Western Intermediate hurling championship continues at Dungarvan on Sunday when Kilgobinet and Geraldines meet in the quarter final. Elsewhere in this issue the game is previewed in detail, and it is sufficient to say in these columns that it should be a thrilling encounter between two of the remaining "big guns" in the title race. However, my fancy is for Kilgobinet, if only by a slender margin.

Hurlers Continue to Prepare

Quietly and without fuss the Waterford hurlers continue their preparations for the defence of their Munster senior crown. On June 28th they meet the winners of Sunday's Cork-Galway game and irrespective of whichever provides the opposition, the champions cannot expect an easy passage.

If Cork survive Sunday's tie the semi-final will in all probability be played in Thurles, whilst Limerick seems the likely venue if the Tribesmen provide the opposition.

Brickeys Fancied in Phelan Cup

The only Phelan Cup (1964) down for decision on Sunday is the meeting of county champions Brickey Rangers and Stradbally at 7.30.

Both teams have already been defeated in the early stages of last year's competition and as a result will be extra keen to retain interest in the current campaign. Normally the Brickeys would be expected to spare, but it is expected they will be somewhat below full strength, and will have to fight every inch of the way against what is certain to be a determined Stradbally team.

The Reds, although defeated

Footballers Fail Badly

Under 21 Munster Championship

NOT for a long time has a Waterford team made so inglorious an exit from the Munster championships as the Under 21 footballers, who failed to Clare in the opening round at Ennis on Sunday night last. At the end of an undistinguished hour they ignominiously trailed by an unflattering ten point margin, after turning in a display that was pathetic in the extreme.

Thus Waterford's deplorable championship record for '64 continues, but truth to tell, the ominous signs of defeat were ever so apparent after the opening quarter of this game.

In the opening half, Waterford played with the assistance of the breeze, and yet were lauded for Deise comfort. They did open the scoring with a pointed free by John Martin in the second minute, but thereafter were mostly on the defensive, and not surprisingly trailed by 0-6 to 0-2 at the interval.

On the restart, Waterford briefly looked like making a worthwhile game of it, but complete lack of thrust up front cost them possible scores, and the expected confidence that would have gone with them. Then the homesters regained the initiative, and with an ease that blue-printed their superiority, strode to victory.

All the excuses that one could concoct could not possibly make even partial amends for the feebleness of Waterford's display. It was of course somewhat disheartening that John O'Brien, Noel Walsh (over-age), Achill Lannon and Mick Regan should become last minute absentees, but even had they been available it is unlikely that the outcome would have been altered.

In fact it is surely a true criterion of how poorly the team performed when one considers that over the entire hour they failed to notch a solitary score from play. In particular this casts reflection more for Mason,

Thrilling Draw at Cappoquin

THE second semi-final in the Cappoquin Gold Medal tournament between Mount Sion and Blackrock, provided the big attendance with a thrilling hour's hurling at the Cornerstone venue on Sunday night last, and fittingly ended in a draw.

This was a game that had everything, and spectators must have revelled in it as the two evenly balanced sides manfully disputed supremacy right up to the thrill packed end. It is true that both sides in turn had golden opportunities of clinching victory at crucial stages, but so creditably did both perform that neither deserved to taste defeat, and the reply will certainly be eagerly awaited.

Mount Sion fielded without Phil Grimes and Frankie Walsh, but it was a tribute to the reserve material within the club that they could still hold the Rockies to a draw even without their services. Be that as it may, Grime's absence was particularly felt, and he might well have meant the difference between victory and having to face what is certain to be an exacting replay.

Over the hour the standard of hurling was well in keeping with the reputations of the participating semi-finalists, while the display of the inter-county men on duty with both teams highlighted a top-class encounter.

The Rockies, playing with the slight first-half breeze, enjoyed a slight territorial advantage, and just about served their three point interval lead.

But true to tradition, Sion hit back in decisive fashion after the restart. A rampant Seamus Power fired over three great points to balance the scores, and then hit the front with a goal by Danny Mahon. Undeterred, the battle for supremacy continued unabated, and a brace of minors by John Bennett and one by Tony Delea again restored equilibrium amidst ever-increasing tension.

Then two minutes from time Mount Sion were awarded a close-in free that Seamus Power duly pointed, and it of Tom Drumme, Mark Cummins and Eamon Byrnes.

But it is the half backs who have proved themselves the backbone of this defence. John Woods is playing top-class hurling and is flanked by the Power brothers, Nicholas and Peter, who possess all the qualities of first-rate defenders.

Although Anthony Hayes was replaced during the Colligan game, it was, I maintain, somewhat rash move, and I will be more than surprised if he does not team up again with the brilliant Michael Kelly.

The half forward trio of Tomas Cummins, Roger McCarthy and Larry Cummins are all capable of notching scores, but I feel sure the Aglish defenders will give that little extra attention to busting full orward Mick Keating who has proved such a prolific scorer for them in the past. Keating will most likely have as his flankers Bobby Buckley and Tommy Woods, both of whom will also require their quota of attention.

Should Kilgobinet be found wanting in the matter of fitting on this occasion, then they may well pay the full penalty. But somehow I find it difficult to imagine them not lasting the hour, and going on that presumption they are my choice to earn that semi-final tilt with Ballyduff. Let me add as a precaution, however, that knowing Geraldines as I do, and the championship tradition they enjoy, it will come as no major surprise
