Council Recommend Weekly Pay for Workers

BY 10 votes to 6 Waterford County Council decided at the monthly meeting on Monday last to recommend to the Co. Manager, Mr. S. J. Moynihan, that all road workers and workers in other grades who are presently paid fortnightly be paid weekly in future. To implement this recommendation it will cost a minimum of £1,000 a year extra, representing an increase of 1d. in the £ on the rates.

Mr. P. Cahill, who moved the motion, said it had come before the Council several times before.

Mr. Charles Curran (Chairman) suggested they adjourn the matter until they had received the report of the Industrial Consultants which would cover this matter.

Mr. Cahill said he would not agree to any adjournment. With supermarkets starting today the wives of these people could not go into these places to shop because they did not give credit. The men did not get paid until the Saturday post which in cases would be as late as 3.30. It was time something was done about it.

Mr. Curran said quite a number of the workers felt the fortnightly cheque was better. Mr. J. Fahey said he felt they were entitled to be paid weekly. Others in comparable employment were being paid weekly and to do so in this case would not cost so much. They had such a small number of workers they should pay them weekly. With the cut-price shops now in operation the housewife was anxious to have the money in her hand and for that reason alone the payments should be weekly. He had several requests made to him for this.

Mr. Norman Walsh said he was in favour of the motion, but it was the union's responsibility to look after the men and the union was in the best position to get the views of the workers on it. He did think the union should be given its true place in this matter.

Mr. M. Galgey said he believed the present system of paying the workers was wrong. It cost 5d. to send out each wage packet, and it would be far more economical to send them all to the ganger and let him give them out to the workers.

The County Engineer said he knew of abuses in that system before. He was not referring to County Waterford however.

Mr. Curran said they were living in a different kind of society to-day and he believed the Co. Engineer would give consideration to Mr. Galgey's suggestion.

The County Secretary, Mr. J. G. Dowling, said it would mean a minimum of an additional £1,000 a year to have weekly payments. This represented an increase of 1d. in the £ on the rates. The additional cost could go to £1,300, he added.

Mr. G. Heskin said it was ridiculous to go to this additional expense when the workers could budget their salaries so well.

The Co. Engineer said they should adjourn the matter until they had received the Industrial Consultants report.

Mr. M. Harty said they should appoint a sub-committee of three members in conjunction with the officials and discuss the matter. In that way he believed they could reach an agreement. He proposed that in all sincerity.

Mr. Curran said that was a reasonable request. They would of course have to free up to the fact that the weekly system of wage-paying was coming.

Dep. T. A. Kyne said he believed it was a Trade Union function and if the Union decided against weekly payment,

MR. JOHN FAHEY in favour of weekly payment.

what was there for the Council to do?
Mr. Heskin: Why should we interfere until we get recommendations from the Union?
An amendment proposed by Senator J. Butler, seconded by Deputy Kyne that they ask the Trade Union for its views on the matter was then put to the meeting and was defeated by 11 votes to 5.

A further amendment proposed by Mr. T. Lannon that they await the report of the Industrial Consultants was defeated 10-7 as was Mr. Harty's request for the forming of a sub-committee to consider the matter.

The motion in the name of Mr. Cahill and seconded by Mr. J. Fahey for the weekly payment of the wages was then put and passed by 10-6 vote.

The voting was: For—Cahill, Fahey, Butler, Dower, Kyne, Roche, Montayne, N. Walsh, Galgey, Madden (10); Against—Curran, Harty, Lannon, Foran, O'Ryan, Heskin.

WEDDING BELLS

BUCKLEY GEE

The marriage took place at Ballinacorney Church, of Mr. Sean Buckley, eldest son of Mr. John Buckley, Ballycappin, and Miss Addie Gee, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Gee, Ballintaylor, Dungarvan. The ceremony, with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing, was performed by Rev. E. Condon, cousin of the bride, assisted by Very Rev. D. Quinlan, P.P., Aglish, Very Rev. J. Hally, P.P., Modeligo, and Rev. J. Callenan, C.C., Carrick-on-Suir. The best man was Mr. Patrick Buckley, brother of the groom, and the matron of honour was Mrs. K. Flahavan, sister of the bride.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a ballet length gown of white, ornamented lace over satin, shoulder length veil held in place by a diamond tiara and carried a bouquet of red and white flowers. The groom wore a tuxedo and carried a bouquet of red and white flowers. The ceremony was held at 11.30 a.m. at the church. Reception was held at the Hotel, Clongue, and dancing was held at the Clongue Hotel, Clongue, during the evening.

DROMANA BRIDGE! To Repair or Not to Repair

"YEAR after year we have turned down requests to have roads repaired, for which ratepayers are paying money for, and now we are being asked to go into private property and take over a bridge and a road," said Mr. George Heskin at last Monday's meeting of the County Council when the question of repairing Dromana bridge came up for discussion.

Mr. Charles Curran (Chairman) said they had no concrete information as to the estimated cost of the work. He felt they should adjourn until the local Councillors of the area discussed and decided on a possible line of approach.

In a report the County Engineer, Mr. J. D. Hally, said he felt it was a matter that did not call for any action. If action must come, however, it should be from interested bodies such as Bord Fáilte or the Land Commission. He did not propose to carry out an examination of the bridge or submit an estimate for the repair work.

Mr. Heskin asked why they should repair a bridge that was going into a private estate. They were talking about wasting money, but this was utterly ridiculous. It was private property and he could not see why the ratepayers should have to pay for a new bridge.

Mr. Norman Walsh said it was a very important question for the people of Villierstown and Cappoquin as a new bridge would bring these places much closer to each other. It would also be a great asset to the business life of Cappoquin. No one else was going to do anything about it if the Council didn't. It would involve a lot of money and rather than confine the matter to the local councillors he believed it should be the responsibility of the whole council. It would involve a lot of money for the Council and the ratepayers and the Co. Engineer should give them an estimate of the cost. If they didn't get that they wouldn't know where they stood. Why they get that they could then come to a decision.

Mr. Heskin said that year after year they were turning down requests to have roads repaired, for which ratepayers were paying money and now they were being asked to go into private property and take over roads and bridges.

Mr. Walsh said they were dealing with ordinary farmers in this case and not a private estate. He did not want to have a false impression created.

Finally it was decided to await the County Engineer's estimate of the cost before arriving at a decision.

Council Discuss Condition of Graveyards

"NO LOCAL EFFORT" — Mr. Curran

WE owe it our dead to keep our graveyards clean, and if we do not do that we can hardly call ourselves Christians." So stated Mr. Norman Walsh at last Monday's meeting of Waterford County Council, during a discussion on a motion by Mr. John Fahey that they should have a survey made of the graveyards of the county.

At the outset, Mr. Fahey said the cleaning of graveyards particularly in the rural areas was not an easy job, yet he knew of one man in his locality who was being paid only £4 a year for the job. He believed that was too little as it had to be done twice a year and he now proposed that the amount be doubled.

Mr. F. Roche said he would support the motion on the condition that the graveyards be cleaned properly. He knew one near Portlaur that was a wilderness.

Mr. Charles Curran: There are others also in the same condition.
Mr. Fahey: Pay them a decent wage and see that they do their work properly. If not then dispense with them.
Mr. J. G. Dowling (County Secretary) then read a list of the salaries paid to graveyard caretakers in the county.

Mr. M. Galgey suggested that the list be circulated to the members and the motion could then be discussed at the next meeting.

Mr. Charles Curran (Chairman) said the tragedy of it was that no local effort was being made.

Mr. N. Walsh said he thought it was their first duty to their dead to keep their graveyards clean. It was sad to go into some of their rural graveyards and see them so neglected. If local groups were not prepared to do the work they should step in. There was

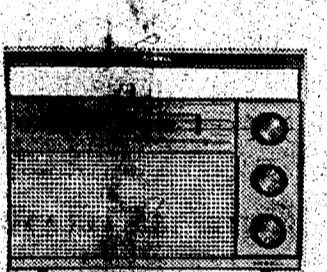

Germany the graveyards were a credit to these countries and if they did not do likewise they could hardly call themselves Christians.

Mr. Curran said 20 caretakers were involved totalling £177 a year. Some of them were earning as little as £3-7-2 a year.

It was finally decided to circulate the list of salaries to the members, and the matter will be discussed again at the next meeting of the Council.

Lismore Notes

WOMEN'S CONFRATERNITY
 The monthly meeting of the women's branch of the Sacred Heart Confraternity will be held on this (Friday) evening in St. Carthage's Church at 7.30 p.m.

DEATH OF MISS P. KELLY

It is with deep and sincere regret we record the death of Miss Patricia Kelly, Devonshire Cottages, Lismore, which sad event occurred at Ardkeen Hospital, Waterford on Monday morning last, July 13th. More popularly known as Patsy to her many friends everywhere, the deceased lady was possessed of a very quiet and cheerful manner, and her death at a young age has been received with much regret.

We extend our deepest sympathy to her sorrowing relatives. The remains were removed to St. Carthage's Church on Monday evening and were received and blessed by Very Rev. Canon Dunphy, P.P., V.F., assisted by Rev. Fr. Queally, C.C., and Rev. Fr. Slattery, C.C., and the burial took place in the adjoining cemetery on Wednesday, the same clergy officiating at the graveside. Large numbers of sympathisers attended both funeral and burial.

SUCCESSFUL MACRA FIELD EVENING

Though the weather conditions were most unsuitable, nevertheless, a record number of clubs were represented at the very successful Lismore Macra na Feirme field evening which was held at the Castle Farm on Friday last.

IMPORTANT MEETING

Just a reminder to all interested in the revival of Lismore G.O.F. Club, not to forget the important meeting due to be held on this (Friday) evening in Lismore Hotel at 8.30 p.m. G.A.A. GAMES

Lismore minor footballers made their exit from this year's championship when they went under to a more experienced and heavier Stradbally fifteen, at the Sportsfield, Cappoquin on Sunday last.

Local hurling team Ballysgart gave a very disappointing display at the Gaelic field Lismore on Sunday last, when they conceded a very easy victory to Shamrock's second string.

BANTRACT NA TUATHÉ—BALLINAVELLA GUILD

The mid-summer gathering of the above gathering was held recently and included visitors from Knockanore, Talow and neighbouring townlands. Madam Chairman extended a hearty welcome to all and gave a brief outline of the procedure of meetings, etc., and other I.C.A. activities.

Our guest speaker was Mr. P. O'Shea, B.Agr.Sc. He gave us a most interesting and instructive lecture on the definition and propagation of shrubs. Miss K. D. Barry proposed a vote of thanks to Mr. O'Shea and assured him that everyone gained much information from his lecture and appreciated his kindness in answering so many questions. Mrs. A. Dunne seconded. Mr. O'Shea suitably replied.

On show was a large display of handcrafts, etc., executed by members since the formation of the Guild. These included: rugs, embroidery, painting (local farmhouse and scenery), many articles in needlework, etc.

The social opened with music supplied by Messrs. T. Pittman, S. Mangán and T. McGrath. Songs were sung in Irish, English and German and were rendered by Miss M. Harrigan, Mrs. W. Hennessy, Miss M. Hayes, Mrs. E. Scully, Miss A. Hannigan, Miss P. O'Donnell, groups of school children, and Messrs. Tony McGrath and Seán Mangán. Community singing on "My Land," followed by the National Anthem, brought a most pleasant evening to a close.

TEACHER RESIGNING

A letter of resignation from Miss Claire Veale, Domestic economy teacher at Cappoquin technical school was read by the C.E.O., Mr. Rushe at the monthly meeting of the Vocational Education Committee. Miss Veale will be resigning on Sept. 17th, as she is getting married.

Mr. N. Walsh said that during her years in Cappoquin Miss Veale was very highly respected as a domestic economy teacher and her loss would be a great one. He wished her the best of luck and happiness in married life. The other members also extended best wishes to Miss Veale.

All roads will lead to groups will compete again in Nenagh on August 2nd and 3rd. Preparations are already well in hand for the 5th Annual Fleadh Rince, one of the most colourful and gay cultural events in Ireland's calendar. This year it comes to Munster for the first time.

The Fleadh Rince is a festival of adult ceilidh dancing sponsored by Cumann Rinceoirí na h-Eireann which has become an annual "must" for all lovers of ceilidh dancing from north, south, east and west. In former years, groups from England and Scotland competed, and it is expected that these

INCREMENTALS FOR TEACHERS

Incrementals totalling £407 were granted to eleven Vocational teachers at the Committee's monthly meeting on Tuesday. The C.E.O., Mr. Rushe said the incrementals would be given on October 1st next.

Mr. N. Walsh asked if these incrementals ever stopped.

Mr. J. Fahey: When the teachers reach the maximum.

Mr. Rushe said they had 17 teachers and already six of them had reached the maximum.

Deputy Kyne proposed the incrementals and Mr. J. Power seconded.

Colr. Alleges Scant Courtesy by Officials

Very little interest was being taken in what Councillors had to say about roads, and their requests were receiving scant courtesy by the Officials, said Mr. John Fahey at a meeting of Waterford County Council on Monday last.

Mr. Fahey said that a previous road meeting of the Council he asked that roads deleted from the road works scheme one year should be given priority on the following year's list. He had a particular road in mind that had been deleted from the list for three successive years, and it seemed to him that the Councillors were being ignored and were wasting their time.

The Co. Engineer Mr. J. D. Halley said for the past two years the Road Grant had been reduced and they had to delete some roads. It was by a decision of the Council that they deleted the road Mr. Fahey referred to.

Mr. Fahey asked why that particular road should be deleted three successive years, when he had been given an assurance that it would get priority.

Mr. Halley said they had not the money to include it on the list. They had to make cuts.

Mr. Fahey: Very little regard has been shown to the Co. Councillors in this matter. Our requests are receiving scant courtesy.

Mr. Halley denied any discourtesy being shown to the members in the matter.

It will be discussed again at the next meeting of the Council.

LATE AUSTIN NUGENT

Skibberine, Dungarvan
 We regret to announce the death of Austin Nugent, which sad event occurred on Sunday afternoon, July 5th, at the District Hospital, Dungarvan, after a short duration of illness. He was a well-known member of a very old Abbey-side family, and a most popular gentleman noted for his gentle and retiring disposition. The deceased was a most industrious farmer all his life, deeply religious and most charitable.

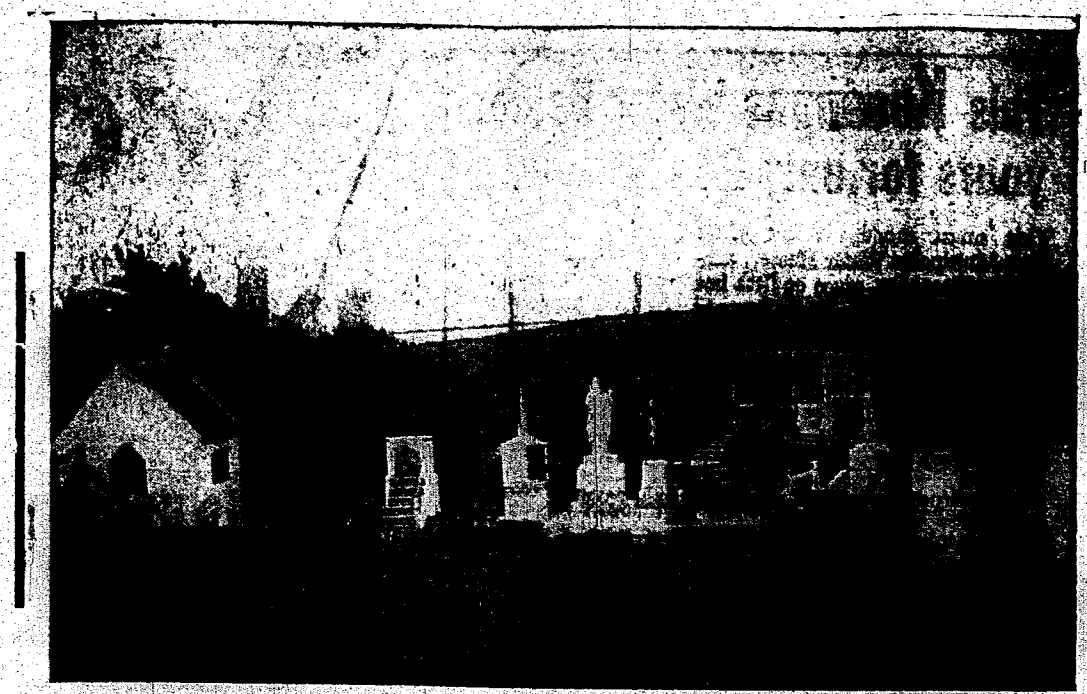

Our deepest condolence is extended to his sister, May, on her very great loss.

God grant him eternal rest. The removal of his remains took place on Monday evening, followed by a very large cortege, considering the inclement weather, to Abbey-side Church, and were blessed and received by Very Rev. J. Roche, P.P.

Requiem Masses were celebrated on Monday and Tuesday mornings for the intentions of his soul, and the interment took place on Tuesday in the adjoining family plot. Very Rev. J. Roche, P.P., imparted the final absolution at the graveside. Another large and representative concourse were present to pray for the departed and to sympathise with his heart-broken sister, on this very sad occasion.

Large masses of Mass cards were received. (Funeral arrangements were by J. Kiely & Sons, Shandon, Dungarvan.)

Large masses of Mass cards were received. (Funeral arrangements were by J. Kiely & Sons, Shandon, Dungarvan.)

New "Teacher-in-Charge" for Tallow

By six votes to five, Mr. Donal Whealan was appointed temporary teacher in charge at the new Technical School in Tallow, at last Tuesday's monthly meeting of the Vocational Committee. Mr. Whealan, who teaches in Cappoquin, defeated Mr. P. O'Fionnusa also of Cappoquin for the post.

Mr. Rushe (C.E.O.) said the Tallow school would have to be controlled from Cappoquin, leaving only Mr. Whealan and Mr. O'Fionnusa eligible for the post. He had carefully considered the position and recommended Mr. Whealan for the post.

Mr. N. Walsh proposed they adjourn it to give all the teachers a chance of applying for it.

Mr. Rushe said it would have to be either Mr. Whealan or Mr. O'Fionnusa. Mr. Whealan was chosen by six votes to five.

Motion on Press Attendance Ruled Out

A motion in the name of Mr. P. Cahill requesting that the Press be allowed attend all Housing Committee Meetings in future, was ruled out of order by the Chairman, Mr. Charles Curran, at last Monday's meeting of the Waterford County Council.

Mr. Curran said it was a very sticky motion and they should move very carefully on it. The only way to implement the motion would be to abolish the housing committee meetings. Meetings in committee could not be made public, as most personal and confidential matters were discussed at these meetings held in committee. In law the Press was not entitled to be at such meetings.

Mr. Cahill: What are we hiding? The Press never publish confidential matters.

Mr. Curran said their relations with the Press in the county were very good, but they could not allow them attend meetings that were being held in committee.

Mr. Walsh said the only way it could be done was to put forward a motion that all housing committee meetings be made County Council meetings.

Mr. Lannon said if the Press were present at these meetings they could ask them not to publish any confidential matters. The Press always acceded to such requests. He had never heard people's private affairs discussed whilst he has been attending County Council meetings.

Mr. Cahill said they had housing committee meetings during the past 3 years and the public did not know what was happening at them, because the Press were not in attendance.

Mr. Curran said he appreciated Mr. Cahill's viewpoint, but he would have to rule the motion out of order.

Ardmore Were Never Extended Three sent off in over-robust tie

ARDMORE 3-7; GERALDINES 0-6 JUST as they did twelve months ago, Ardmore scored a resounding first round victory over Geraldines in an over-robust championship clash at Dungarvan on Sunday last. The Aglishers seldom raised a gallop during the hour, which was marred by second half incidents that led to three players being issued with marching orders.

As a spectacle it was a most disappointing affair. Geraldines utterly failed to live up to expectations and although the winners were never hard pressed to prevail, they fell somewhat short of championship winning class. The standard of football was never above mediocracy whilst persistent usage of the whistle by referee John Mansfield didn't help matters. It is accepted of course that a certain degree of strictness was essential if matters were to remain in order, but for once I feel the official in charge over used the whistle particularly for minor indiscretions thus ruining out any worthwhile continuity of play. Unfortunately too, the second half produced only negative and spoiling football and tempers became too easily frayed. Geraldines ended the hour with only 13 players—less than the winners, although one or two other can consider themselves fortunate not to have been issued with marching orders also.

ARDMORE 3-7; GERALDINES 0-6 With two minutes of the restart Tom Hallahan fisted Ardmore's third goal and within minutes Kenneally and J. J. Carleton exchanged points from frees. In the 8th minute Jim Rooney added a further Ardmore point and almost immediately Geraldines were reduced to thirteen men when Mick Tobin was sent to the line. Further Ardmore minors by J. J. Carleton from close in frees put the issue beyond all doubt, but before the close Kenneally and Mick Carleton exchanged points. A minute from time Ardmore's Michael Reilly was ordered off following a bout of Estcouffis.

ARDMORE 3-7; GERALDINES 0-6 The opening half provided the best entertainment and I considered Geraldines somewhat unfortunate to be trailing by 2-2 to 0-4 at the break. However it is quite conceivable that their chances of victory deteriorated considerably less than sixty seconds before the short whistle when Tom Cotter was sent to the line. But it was the opening minutes of the second half which finally put the damper on the Geraldine challenge. Two minutes after the restart a J. J. Carleton free was fisted to the net by Thomas Hallahan, but almost immediately Stylo Riordan worked his way through the Ardmore defence only to see his full-blooded drive brilliantly saved by John Colbert. To all intents and purposes that put paid to Geraldines hopes and there was no disputing Ardmore's superiority for the remainder of the game. The game went eight scoreless minutes before Paddy Kenneally opened the scoring with an Aglish point from a free. But two minutes later came the first of Ardmore's fortuitous goals scored by midfielder Michael Reilly. From 20 yards Reilly's centre appeared to be going over for a point and goalkeeper Mick Kelleher made no attempt to save it but it dropped just under the crossbar and into the net. Points by Kenneally from frees in the 18th and 15th minutes levelled matters, but five minutes later Fin Hallahan restored the Ardmore lead with a point—a lead they never subsequently relinquished. In the 21st minute, Jim Rooney placed Mickey Carleton for another minor and in the 24th minute Fin Hallahan had the seaders second major which might also have been prevented. Just on the half-hour Kenneally pointed an Aglish free leaving the winners ahead by 2-2 to 0-4 at the interval. Referee—J. Mansfield (Newtown).

"Heading for a Disaster Day" - Mr. N. Walsh

He did not know where it would all end and they were heading for a real disaster some day, remarked Mr. Norman Walsh, at last Tuesday's Vocational Education meeting in Dungarvan when a new salary scale had been agreed to for the Male Clerk in Dungarvan.

DID NOT IMPRESS

As already stated this was an Ardmore side that failed to impress. They were more than equal to the demands on Sunday last but it is doubtful if that form would be good enough to carry a county title. John Colbert kept an excellent goal for them and in defence Eddie Mooney, Tommy and Noel Power and Paddy Carleton stood out.

Thanks to the energies exerted by Michael Reilly and J. J. Carleton they held the upper hand at midfield and up front Fin Hallahan, Jim Rooney, Mickey Carleton and Pat Pender were best. The Geraldines defence never inspired confidence and only Mick Tobin (until his enforced departure) and to a lesser extent Ned Merrin and Jim Kelleher emerged with any distinction.

Jim Davis and Jim Maher never got going at midfield and in an attack that failed to raise a solitary flag, from play during the hour only Paddy Kenneally and John Grady did anything of note. Ardmore—J. Colbert; J. Mulcahy, E. Mooney, N. Power; T. Power, P. Carleton, B. Hallahan; J. J. Carleton, M. Reilly; F. Hallahan, M. Carleton, J. Rooney; T. Hallahan, P. Pender, M. Colbert. Sub.—D. Linnane for M. Carleton. Geraldines—M. Kelleher; M. Downing, P. McCarthy, J. Kelleher; B. Downing, M. Tobin.

Late Garry Quinlan

(Colligan Rockies and Emmetts)

An Appreciation By JOHN A. MURPHY

On Sunday night last, Dungarvan's Fraher Field was coldy silent and deserted... a silence that in its own right was a tribute to the memory of the late Garry Quinlan, Knockree, Colligan, who tragically lost his life in a working accident on Wednesday of last week. For had not a cruel twist of fate ordained otherwise, Garry would have been donning the black and amber jersey of Emmetts against Ring in the senior football championship at the Dungarvan venue that night.

New Tallow Technical School

Tallow's new four-roomed technical school, formerly known as the Temperance Hall, will open on Monday, 7th September. This was stated by the C.E.O., Mr. J. Rushe, at last Tuesday's meeting of the Waterford Vocational Education Committee in Dungarvan. Mr. Rushe said a meeting took place in Tallow on June 26th, between Messrs. N. Walsh and D. Montayne representing the Vocational Committee and the Temperance Hall Committee headed by Rev. M. Con'non, C.C. The C.E.O. also attended.

Mr. N. Walsh (Acting Chairman) said £100 per annum was agreed to for rent and they would have the use of the four rooms and whatever furniture was there.

Mr. Rushe said they were paying £100 a year also in Tallow for a three-roomed school. The furniture that was available in Tallow would mean a considerable saving to the Committee. They had not received Departmental sanction yet, but he did not think there was any danger of their not getting it.

Mr. M. O'Donnell said the technical school would be a very big thing for the area. Mr. Walsh, on behalf of Mr. Montayne and himself, thanked the C.E.O. for all the work he had put into it and for the happy agreement that had been reached.

Parking on Youghal Bridge

The cars in Dungarvan were going mad and travelling at 70 m.p.h. in the speed limit zone, said Colr. T. Lannon at Monday's meeting of the Waterford Co. Council in Dungarvan.

But the Co. Engineer said "We cannot stop them from doing that." Mr. V. Galwey said the law was being enforced. Deputy Kynce—You break the speed limit and see do you get away with it. The matter was raised following the reading of a letter from the Asst. Commissioner of the Garda stating that all would be done to prevent obstructions being caused by cars parking on Youghal Bridge.

AN ROINN TALMHAIOCHTA
LAND PROJECT
New and Increased Grants and Improved Facilities

(1) New Scheme for Mountain Grazings
Under this new Scheme, entitled the Mountain Grazings (Supplementary Keep) Scheme, grants will be available for the fencing, limited reclamation, fertilising and seeding of mountain grazing for the purpose of providing additional "keep" at critical periods such as mating and lambing times of sheep or when keep from mountain grazings generally is inadequate. Under the Scheme mountain grazings will include lands at the foothills or near the mountains which are used in conjunction with mountain grazings.

- The grants provided are —
- (a) Fencing: A grant of three-fourths of the estimated cost of materials used (which must comply with minimum standards) subject to a maximum grant of ten shillings per perch of fencing or £9 per statute acre of land enclosed, whichever is the lesser.
 - (b) Limited Land Reclamation: A grant of two-thirds of the estimated cost of limited approved land reclamation works, consisting mainly of shallow surface drainage, subject to a maximum of £5 per acre.
 - (c) Surface Treatment and Fertilising: A grant of half the estimated cost of approved surface treatment such as seeding, liming and fertilising, subject to a maximum grant of £3 per acre in the first year and £1 per acre in the second year.

Grants for the works mentioned at (b) and (c) will not be provided unless the lands to be treated are adequately fenced. Fencing erected under the Scheme must be of the minimum standard required under the Land Project Scheme for the Fencing of Mountain Grazings.

(2) Existing Scheme for the Fencing of Mountain Grazings — Increased Grant
Grants under this Scheme are being increased from two-thirds to three-fourths of the cost of materials and the maximum grant per acre is being increased from £5 to £9. Grants available will, therefore, be three-fourths of the estimated cost of materials used (which must comply with specified minimum standards), subject to a maximum grant of 10/- per perch of fencing or £9 per acre of land enclosed, whichever is the lesser.

(3) Fertiliser Credit Scheme — Increased Facilities
A number of important changes which extend the facilities provided by the present Scheme and make it more attractive for the average farmer have been introduced. The revisions now introduced provide:

- (1) that the applicant can have as little as 10 acres of his holding treated at a time, provided that this area is at least one-third of all his agricultural lands;
- (2) that all holdings, whether subject to existing land annuity or not, may be dealt with under the scheme;
- (3) that nitrogenous fertilisers, in addition to ground limestone, phosphate and potash can now be applied under the Credit Scheme;
- (4) that lands already treated under the Scheme can again be dealt with, provided that the cost of previous treatment has been repaid and five years have elapsed since it was completed.

Application forms and fuller details of the terms and conditions of the new Schemes may be obtained from the Secretary, Department of Agriculture, Land Project, 14 Upper Merrion Street, Dublin 2, or from local Land Project Offices.

SALARY INCREASE £3,762 for Painting and Repairing FOR C.E.O.

On the proposal of Deputy T. A. Kyne, seconded by Mr. M. O'Donnell, the 12% National Wage increase was granted to the County C.E.O., Mr. J. Rushe, at last Tuesday's meeting of Waterford Vocational Education Committee.

Deputy Kyne said at the last meeting they granted the increase to all the Vocational Staff, with the exception of the C.E.O. He now proposed that the increase be granted to him.

Mr. N. Walsh (Acting Chairman) said he was in somewhat of an embarrassing position in view of the circumstances. However, he would have to be consistent. He opposed the increase at the last meeting and he would have to do likewise now. He doing this there was no question of personalities being involved. Mr. D. Montayne seconded.

Mr. Rushe (C.E.O.) said his present salary was £200 less than he would have had had he remained on in his teaching post in Co. Galway. Even by granting this increase he would still be down by £80 a year.

Mr. John Fahey said that was a ridiculous position. Mr. Rushe had far more responsibility as a C.E.O. than he would have as a head master. The entire position was ridiculous.

Deputy Kyne asked if Mr. Walsh would just dissent from the matter rather than propose a direct negative to him in view of the fact that the remainder of the staff had got it. He would not lose any honour by that.

Mr. Walsh said that under the circumstances he would agree to that.

Mr. Montayne also said he was prepared to dissent from it.

Mr. Rushe thanked the Committee for granting the increase, especially those who put forward the motion.

SYMPATHY

At last Tuesday's meeting of Waterford Vocational Education Committee, Mr. M. Hartly proposed a vote of sympathy to the relatives of the late Gerry Quinlan, Knockroe, Colligan, who lost his life in an accident last week.

The tender of Messrs. E. O'Brien and Sons, Abbeyside for £3,762-6-0 for the painting and repairing of Dungarvan Technical school was approved at last Tuesday's meeting of the Vocational Education Committee. The only other tender submitted was that of Vincent Burke, Dungarvan, which was for painting only and was £1,250.

Mr. J. Rushe (C.E.O.) said the tender of Messrs. O'Brien's was considerably below the committee's estimate.

The Committee's clerk of works, Mr. Gerald Whelan said they had not much of a choice in the matter really. They had only one tender for all the work and he thought they should accept it. It was a valid one in every way.

Mr. J. Fahey said in view of what Mr. Whelan had said he would propose that they accept the tender of Messrs. O'Brien's. Mr. C. Curran seconded.

The C.E.O. stated that Messrs. O'Brien's promised completion of the major part of the work for the opening of the school in September.

The Committee also decided to ask O'Brien's if they would consider employing Mr. Burke for the work.
TRAMORE SCHOOL
The Committee also decided to accept the tender of £18-6-6 submitted by James Fleming, Tramore House, Tramore, for the painting of the interior of Tramore Technical School.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

AN APPRECIATION

Dear Sir,
I would like, through the medium of your widely read newspaper, to express, on behalf of the old people of Dungarvan and myself, our grateful appreciation and sincere thanks to the "Friends of St. Martin's" who treated us to a never-to-be-forgotten outing to Ardmore. We all had a wonderful time. Wishing God's blessing on their good work.
Yours sincerely,
A GRATEFUL HOUSEWIFE.

Hot Drinks for School Children?

In general the principle of the motion was good, but it was not their function, said Mr. Charles Curran, at last Monday's meeting of Waterford County Council, when discussing a motion by Mr. P. Cahill: "That all children going to National rural schools be supplied with a hot cup of tea or milk for 4 months of the year."

Mr. Cahill said these children were leaving home at 8 a.m. and were not back until 3.30. Some of them had nothing but two cuts of bread.

It was unanimously decided to recommend to the Dept. that legislation be introduced whereby the implementation of the motion would be possible.

HOW TO APPLY ARTIFICIAL RESPIRATION BY MOUTH TO MOUTH METHOD IN FOUR EASY STAGES

Near-drowning and severe electric shock cause unconsciousness and a stoppage of breathing. The mouth-to-mouth method described here, can restore breathing and save a life. It is essential that it be started as soon as possible after recovering or discovering the victim. In the case of electric shock, power must be switched off before the victim is touched.

1st STEP

TILT HEAD BACK

In Step One, the victim is laid on his back with his head placed as far back as possible so that the neck is extended.

2nd STEP

INSERT THUMB IN MOUTH AND LIFT JAW

In Step Two, insert a thumb between the victim's teeth, grasping the lower jaw at the middle and lifting the lower jaw forcefully upwards so that the lower teeth are higher than the upper teeth.

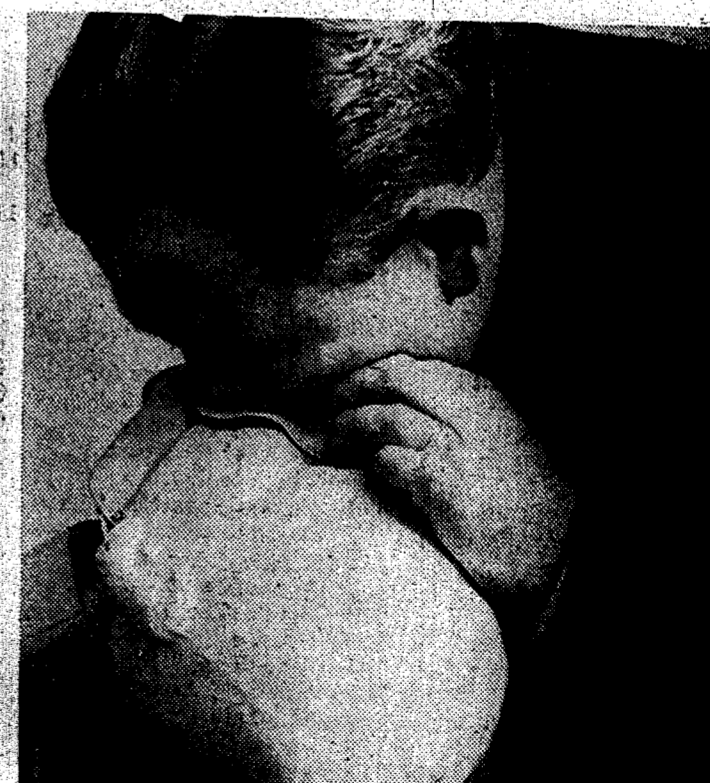

3rd STEP

PINCH THE NOSTRILS

In Step Three, close the victim's nose with the free hand.

4th STEP

BLOW INTO MOUTH 12 TIMES PER MINUTE

In Step Four, take a deep breath and place the mouth over the victim's mouth with airtight contact. Then blow into the victim's mouth, forcefully for adults, gently for children.

The victim's chest should be watched, and as soon as it rises, the blowing should be stopped and the operator's mouth quickly removed from the mouth of the victim, allowing the victim to exhale passively. If the chest does not rise, the support of the victim's head (Step 2) should be improved and the blowing done more forcefully. The cycle of inflation and exhalation should be repeated 12 times per minute for adults and 20 times per minute for infants and small children. Note that on an infant, the mouth should be placed over the child's mouth and nose. This method of artificial respiration is very suitable for treatment of the victims of electric shock or drowning. (The above photographs were taken using a demonstration model).

HELVICK HARBOUR NEEDS DREDGING
He believed that the harbour at Helvick was so bad that an approximate £12,000 to the lifeboat could not get out bring it to Helvick and back at low water, said Col. T. Mr. J. G. Dowling, Secretary, at Monday's meeting of the Waterford Co. Council Board of Works in which it was a discussion took place was stated that they had only on the proposed dredging of one dredger—a bucket type—and it was engaged in Dun-
The Co. Engineer (Mr. J. D. Laoghaire) at the moment. When it was finished there it would have to go for an overhaul as possible. He had sought a dredger in several places but was unsuccessful. There was one in Rosslare at the moment but it would cost to dredge the harbour as well as to overhaul it. The Co. Engineer said they would continue to seek a dredger to do the work.

From an initial study of the Programme, the following points emerged:
(a) The target now set for Agriculture has been stepped up on that set out in the outline of the programme published last August. This target increase is welcome and goes part of the way towards meeting the criticism contained in the N.F.A. Seven Year Plan for Agriculture, where a much higher target is called for.
(b) The notable lack of reference to the need for a more dynamic marketing structure is one of the weaknesses of the Programme. No lesson appears to have been learned from the achievements in the export

STATEMENT

SATISFACTION

It is a matter of satisfaction to the National Farmers' Association that the Second Programme for Economic Expansion contains a statement of Government agricultural policy far more comprehensive than anything which has hitherto appeared.

From an initial study of the Programme, the following points emerged:

(a) The target now set for Agriculture has been stepped up on that set out in the outline of the programme published last August. This target increase is welcome and goes part of the way towards meeting the criticism contained in the N.F.A. Seven Year Plan for Agriculture, where a much higher target is called for.

(b) The notable lack of reference to the need for a more dynamic marketing structure is one of the weaknesses of the Programme. No lesson appears to have been learned from the achievements in the export

MARKETING FIELD OF AN BORD BAINNE AND THE PIGS AND BACON COMMISSION, whose performance to-date shows the benefits that would accrue from better organisation in the marketing of other agricultural commodities, notably meat.

(c) The Programme goes to great length in emphasising State investment in agriculture, but little recognition has been given to the far greater investment required from farmers: The Programme does not show where the money is to come from for this investment apart from a very inadequate statement to the effect that "the Government will ensure that expansion in the productive use of agricultural credit is not held up for lack of funds." The N.F.A. Seven Year Plan shows that farmers will have to borrow extensively if the required expansion is to be achieved. The recent Agricultural Institute Report on the Herbertstown Test Farm indicates that N.F.A. estimate was conservative.

The N.F.A. awaits the "separate publication which will spell out our agricultural development programme in much more detail." (Mr. P. Smith on the Estimate for Agriculture), which is expected in the near future.

A welcome feature of the Programme is its flexibility which allows for the adaptation of promotional measures as the need arises, following the "periodic survey of the situation and prospects in all branches of agriculture... which is to be carried out (by the Government through the Annual Review) in consultation with the N.F.A."

DAIRY INDUSTRY ALL IMPORTANT

The importance of dairying in the national economy can be gauged from the fact that the output of dairy products from creameries, last year, was about £34m. When you add to that the fact that 110,000 farm families received approximately £28m. for the 330 odd million gallons of milk they supplied you begin to get the picture. If, in addition, you bear in mind that dairying is the basis of the largest single item of agricultural production (cattle which is also our largest foreign currency earner, and remember the contribution of skin milk to our pig and poultry industries, then you realise just how important dairying is in Ireland and the extent to which it is inter-related with other agricultural enterprises.

From published figures it would appear that, out of the 213,000 farms where cows are kept, there are less than ten thousand farms with over 17 cows each. 172,900 farmers keep less than seven cows. In other words, 75% of farmers who keep cows have less than seven cows.

There are roughly 6.6 creameries in the country employing over 4,000 people, in processing milk into butter, cheese, milk powder, etc., and in the trading operations they perform. When we add to that the contribution that dairying makes to employment in other enterprises, e.g. bacon factories, milking equipment manufacturers, fertilisers manufacturers, transport, and the entire livestock industry, we realise that dairying is the basis of a vast amount of employment and activity both on and off farms.

In the export field, dairying plays a very important role. Last year experts of dairy produce earned £16m. and our cattle, beef and pig exports to which dairying is basic, earned a further £70m. Dairying therefore, was responsible to a large extent for £86m. worth of exports in 1963. Dairying is the basis of 40% of our entire exports.

The Second Programme for Economic Expansion which aims to increase the output of cattle by almost half a million head per annum by 1970 recognises that the vast majority of the increase in output of calves must come from increasing the dairy herds. This is part of the important role that dairying will have to play in the years ahead. In producing the calves it will be supplying the raw material without which the targets cannot be achieved. It should be constantly borne in mind that without the increased numbers of calves coming forward to be fed to stores and beef for the export market, neither our agricultural or industrial targets can be achieved. The entire programme hangs together.

Increased cow numbers will automatically yield higher quantities of milk for processing. There will be increases in yields per cow also (estimates vary from an average of 60-90 gallons per cow) going into the processing pool. The increase in the throughput of milk will enable the processing to be done more efficiently (together with the rationalisation programme of the I.A.O.S.) The sceptic will say that increased quantities of dairy produce will earn foreign currency, but at a severe discount because of the Exchange support necessary to sell dairy products abroad.

Two points need to be made clear: the first, that in judging the value of exports from the dairy sector, the entire field of dairying, cattle and pigs needs to be considered, and without dairying you would not have cattle as we know them; the second part is that Exchange support is necessary in the present state of world markets, but it will not be necessary when we are members of the Common Market.

More cows, higher yielding cows, better quality milk, more efficient processing and marketing should be kept constantly in view.

WE CAN DISPENSE WITH PREJUDICES

The position in Ireland today is said Mr. Richard Deasy, President N.F.A., in Gurteen Agricultural College, Co. Tipperary, that while old and deeply felt convictions are rightly honoured and rightly maintained, we are gradually finding that we can dispense with prejudices; that we can work together in the essential job of building up our nation in the economic sense. This I submit is just as vital, just as appropriate to the demands of our age and just as spectacular a task as the more spectacular roles necessarily played by former generations in bringing about the political re-establishment of our state.

Again in a far wider field it is up to us to ensure that the conscience of mankind is awakened to demand effective action to banish hunger and starvation from the earth. The human race will face a heavy responsibility if history records as the main success of the 20th century the perfection of the mechanics of sending a man to the moon without at the same time being able to record real achievement towards eliminating the hunger which haunts two-thirds of the whole human race.

Small active and well informed Administration Committees would seem to be the best form of organisation, said Mr. Moloney. In addition the Committee must be prepared to establish effective liaison machinery with their members throughout the area.

He mentioned also that the continued existence of the Dairy Disposal Company is a challenge to the Irish Co-operative Movement. Dr. Knapp has recommended that the creameries operated by the Company should be transferred to Co-operative control but he has emphasised that such transfers should only be undertaken when there is evidence that the co-operative movement is prepared to re-organise itself and when it is clear that viable co-operatives can be formed to board the Dairy Disposal Board's creameries.

MEMBERS OF HIGHEST CALIBRE FOR CREAMERY

Speaking on the reorganisation which is taking place and which should take place within the cooperative framework in Ireland, Mr. Jim Moloney, Assistant Secretary I.A.O.S., said recently that if reorganisation leads to the emergence of larger co-operative units, as has been the case in County Waterford, then serious consideration must be given to ensuring persons of the highest calibre are available on the Committees of these Societies. The business of such Societies was preached on the life of Blessed Oliver.

SUCCESSFUL C.B.S. SPORTS

The results of the sports sponsored by the Youghal Christian Brothers, held recently at the Copperly G.A.A. field and which proved very successful, were: 100 yds sprint, C. O'Neill; 440 (under 10), C. O'Neill, 2nd, T. Kelly; 80 yds (under 12), Nick Nugent, 2, T. Cronin; Half-mile cycle, K. O'Halloran, 2, M. Cronin, 3, R. Anstron; High Jump, T. Kelly and 2, M. Cronin. All events were keenly contested and attracted large crowds in ideal weather conditions.

INCREASED RATE COLLECTION

Mr. F. Moloney, Town Clerk, informed the U.D. Council that the rate collection percentage for 1963/64 was 94.23%, as compared with 93.19% in the previous year. Rent percentage was 99.01%, as compared with 99.16% in 1962/63, and that the loss per house for 1963/64 was £10-3-7 and for the previous year amounted to £7-3-5. The members paid high tribute to their collector of rents and rates, Mr. Leo Whelan.

YOUGHAL LADY PROFESSED

Amongst the Sisters who received their First Profession at St. Joseph's Central Novitiate Convent of Mercy, Waterford, presided over by Rev. Fr. Mgr. Dean Barron, assisted by Rev. M. O'Farrell, C.C., Ballybricken was Sister Mary Bernard Muckley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Muckley, Jeweller of North Main Street, Youghal. This is the second member of the Muckley family to enter religion.

COUNCIL'S COMMITTEE VACANCY FILLED

As a tribute to our worthy pastor, Very Rev. Fr. Canon Sheehan, P.P., the Urban Council have unanimously elected him to fill the vacancy on the Council's Committee, formerly held by the late Mr. P. O'Gorman.

NEW COUNCIL HOUSES TO COST £25,000 EACH

At a recent meeting of the Youghal U.D. Council, presided over by the new Chairman, Mr. P. J. Linehan, the Town Clerk stated that the cost per house for the proposed new scheme of 40 houses was £2,055. A loan of £25,000 would have to be raised and the loan repayment would amount to £5,000 per annum.

YOUGHAL HURLERS BEATEN

In the Cloyne intermediate hurling tournament on Sunday last, Castletownroche beat Youghal in a hard fought struggle. For three-quarters of the game, the margin between the teams was very small, but in the last quarter, the winners forged ahead and finished with a 1-10 to 0-10 victory. The final score was Castletownroche, 7-2; Youghal, 3-2.

WEST WATERFORD NEWS

POPULAR BANKER HOME

Mr. Con Coughlan, Manager, Munster & Leinster Bank, Killinane, Co. Limerick, who is a member of a well known and popular Clashmore, recently paid a brief visit to his native district accompanied by his sister, Miss Greta Coughlan. Mr. Coughlan is brother of Sr. M. Doonan and nephew of Rev. Mother Francis, Presentation Convent, Dungarvan.

ARDMORE "PATTERN"

This time-honoured event will take place in the near future and using the octave devotees of St. Declan will visit the historic seaside centre in big numbers to perform the "rounds," and pray at the Holy Well, which is located to the east of the village, near the old cathedral ruins. In Ardmore and the surrounding area the name of St. Declan is much revered. It is generally accepted that he introduced the Faith to the district before the advent of St. Patrick to Ireland.

DROMANA BRIDGE

This bridge is expected to be in the news again soon and some interesting developments are expected. It will be recalled that when the Irish Land Commission acquired Dromana Estate some years ago, they took steps which resulted in the closing of the bridge to all traffic. This caused considerable hardship to local residents and there have been many protests.

VOCATIONAL CLASSES

Domestic economy classes will commence at Villierstown in the near future. The classes, which are being sponsored by the local I.C.A., will be conducted by the Co. Waterford Vocational Education Committee and are to be held in the local Hall.

HOME ON HOLIDAY

Miss Margaret Trihey, Coolbagg, Clashmore, has been on holiday in her native district for the past few weeks. A very popular young lady, she is attached to the nursing staff of a well known London hospital.

POPULAR JUBILARIAN

Very Rev. Peter Walsh, P.P., Touraneen, who recently celebrated the Golden Jubilee of his ordination to the priesthood, served for about thirteen years as a curate at Clashmore. We join in extending to him congratulations on this happy occasion.

POPULAR RESORT

Ardmore is becoming increasingly popular as a holiday resort and at present has a record number of visitors, including many from across Channel.

SALMON SEASON

We are very pleased to place on record the welcome news that the peale (grise) have come back again in very large numbers in the tidal portion of the district, where, it was thought for the past few weeks that the supply had completely faded out. With brisk southerly winds last week there was a marked improvement in catches, especially on Friday when all boats did well. On Monday of this week there were catches up to 30 and 40 and on Monday night and Tuesday morning the numbers increased when two boats landed 100 fish between them, while other accounted for 30 and 40, down to 20. On Monday in Ardmore it was reported that one boat landed 64 peale. So far they have not reached the river (tidal portion) where catches, although improved, could be far better.

In the freshwater area between Fermoy and Rathmore (Co. Kerry) they are being taken by rods in large numbers and rod anglers, both local and visitors anglers. The latter are loud in their praise of the very good catches. However, be the situation is said to be very poor due to the discoloration of the river, said to be due to sand and gravel washings.

The price to fishermen this week is 3/6 for peale and 5/- for salmon.

Should this big run of peale continue for the remaining two weeks of the net season, fishermen should be well pleased with the outcome of the season on the whole, despite the fact that salmon catches were not up to expectation.

CANON SHEEHAN CONGRATULATED

Congratulatory messages from all over the country are still being received by Very Rev. C. Canon Sheehan, P.P., Youghal, who recently celebrated his Golden Jubilee to the Priesthood. Recent messages were from: Mallow and Fermoy Urban District Councils; Youghal Old Age Pension Committee; Youghal Vocational Education Committee.

TALLOW NOTES

DEATH OF MR. THOMAS CASHMAN

We regret to record the death of Mr. Thomas Cashman Red Forge, Youghal, which occurred at St. Finbarr's Hospital, Cork, last week. Deceased, who was in his early sixties, had been ill for only two weeks. The late Mr. Cashman was for a number of years a Manager of Mr. T. P. Walsh's hardware store, Youghal. He later took over the family business at the Red Forge. He was brother of Mr. Michael Cashman, Youghal; Mr. James Cashman, N.T., Conna; Mr. John Cashman, N.T., Ardmore; Mr. Wm. Cashman, Cherrymount, Glendine; Mrs. J. Broderick, Youghal and Mrs. H. O'Mahony, Ballylavlin, Youghal.

The remains were removed to the Church of the Sacred Heart, Knockanore, and the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery, on Saturday, July 11th, following 10.30 a.m. Requiem Mass.

To his brothers, sisters and relatives much sympathy is extended.

SHAMROCKS ADVANCE IN CHAMPIONSHIP

Shamrocks junior string had a good win over Ballysaggart in the second round of the junior hurling championship, played at Lismore on Sunday last. Hero of the Shamrocks side was undoubtedly veteran Johnny McGrath who scored 4-4 on his side's total. The final score was Shamrocks, 7-7 Ballysaggart 1-1.

WON SCHOLARSHIP

Mr. Kieran Heffernan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Heffernan, has been awarded a scholarship by Waterford Co. Committee of Agriculture.

Kilmacthomas Notes

Aboard the Princess bus on Wednesday, 8th inst., the pupils of the Mercy Convent School, Stradbally, travelled to the Model County of Wexford on their Annual Educational tour. The outing proved pronouncedly pleasing and informative to the very bright, interested, cheerful young company, who were accompanied by their teachers.

All Prosperity and happiness to Mr. Andrew (Andy) Joy, The Square, Kilmacthomas, and Miss Joan Walsh, Killergulle, Clonea-Power, who were married last week in the Parish Church, Clonea-Power. The reception was held in Mahon Valley Guest House, Kilmacthomas, and was attended by an immense party of intimate friends and relatives of the happy couple (who were the recipients of a large array of serviceable and costly wedding presents).

Prize-winning entrants in the Irish step-dancing competitions held at Mooncoin not so many afternoons ago included the Misses Marion Griffin, Millbrook Tce., Kilmacthomas and Marion Connors, Faha, do.

Mr. Daniel O'Shea, "Gengarriff," Grange Park, Waterford, who died suddenly while on a picnic outing with his wife and family in Bonmahon, was born in Tralee, Co. Kerry; he had been a social welfare officer in Waterford since 1951. As a member of the I.R.A., he played an important part in the War of Independence.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by two sons, two daughters (including Sr. Mary Co.umba, Ursuline Convent, Waterford), two brothers and two sisters. To them and to the other relatives, much sympathy is offered.

Incidentally, the late Graigue (Stradbally)-born Mr. Patrick Whelan, aneighbour of magnificent physique who was affectionately known as "Haidsonne Pat," whom to meet in company was a distinctly enjoyable experience because of his genial and happy-humoured disposition—was uncle of Mr. Matthew Whelan, B.E., Cork Co. Council; Mr. Andrew Whelan, M.E., and Mr. Patrick Whelan, B.E., Dublin Corporation; Dr. Thomas Whelan, London; and Mr. John Keane, Balinaha, Kilmacthomas. He was first cousin of those brilliant Stradbally members of the medical profession, Surgeon Patrick Kiely and Surgeon John Kiely, both of whom are practising in Cork City. And he was first cousin of Mrs. T. Colley, Ballyowan, Kilmacthomas; Mr. David Kiely, Brennan, Stradbally; and Mr. Matthew Kiely, Lisfenell, Dungarvan.

Hymeneal Chimes.—The parish church of Yeur on the river Senne, near Amiens, France, was the setting on a recent date for the wedding of Lieut. Col. Poer O'Shea, C.M.G. of Gardemois, Kill, Kilmacthomas, to Mademoiselle Bernadette de Franceville, the bridegroom is eldest son of the late Mr. and Lady Gwendoline Poer O'Shea, and the bride is youngest daughter of the late M. Adolphe de Franceville and of Madame de Franceville, of Chateau de Yux, Somme.

Back from New York City, to where he emigrated in 1924, and here in his native Kilmacthomas on an extended holiday is Mr. James Whitty, a harrier of considerable merit in his mother's early prime—when he was fondly hailed in gaelic circles throughout the Decies as "Boherlahan."

WEDDING: O'BRIEN - HEGARTY

The marriage took place, with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing, at St. Patrick's Church, Bandon, of Mr. Michael O'Brien, eldest son of Mrs. Elizabeth and the late James O'Brien, Kilmore, Tallow, and Miss Marjorie Hegarty, eldest daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth and the late Jeremiah Hegarty, Currysreeda, Bandon, Co. Cork. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Fr. O'Donoghue, C.C., Bandon, assisted by Rev. Fr. Condon, C.C., Tallow. The bestman was Mr. Sean O'Brien B.Agr.Sc., and Mr. Patrick O'Brien was groomsmen.

The bridesmaids were the Misses Nora and Pauline Hegarty (sisters of the bride), Messrs. William O'Brien and Bartholomew Hegarty acted as ushers at the Church. Mrs. Downey presided at the organ.

The bride, who was given away by her brother, wore a full-length white gown of peau-de-soie, cut on classical lines and matching headress, and carried bouquet of white and pink carnations, interlocked with maiden-hair fern. The bridesmaids wore gowns of turquoise peau-de-soie, with matching accessories.

The reception was held at Coakleys Atlantic Hotel, Garretstown, and after which the happy couple left on their honeymoon.

LATE PATRICK COYNE

Moyn, Grange, Youghal

The unexpected death of Patrick Coyne occurred during the week ending July 11th, at the General Hospital, Ardara, after a very short illness, but fortified by the Rites of Holy Church and at an advanced age. The deceased was a most popular and industrious member of the farming community. He was a deeply religious and charitable man, which won for him very many life-long friends.

May we extend to his family our deepest and sincere sympathy at the passing of a good father. May he rest in peace.

The removal of his remains took place on Wednesday evening, followed by a huge cortege to Clashmore Church and were blessed and received by Rev. Canon D. Power, P.P., assisted by Rev. Fr. M. Russell, C.C.

Requiem Masses were celebrated on Thursday morning for the intentions of his soul, and the interment took place in the Old Cemetery, Clashmore. Another large and representative concourse were present. Rev. Fr. M. Russell, C.C., officiated at the graveside and imparted the final absolution.

The chief mourners were: Patrick, Michael and David Coyne (sons); Mrs. Bridget Lennane, Clashmore, Miss Mary Coyne, Carrickbeg (daughters).

Large sheaves of Mass cards were received by his family. (Funeral arrangements were by J. Kiely and Sons, Shandon, Dungarvan.)

LATE GERALD QUINLAN

Knockroe, Collegan

It is our sad duty to chronicle the death of Gerald (Garry) Quinlan, Knockroe, Collegan, which accidentally occurred during the course of his employment at Cashel, on Wednesday evening, July 8th. He was a very well-known young man and his popularity was country wide. He was a playing member of the Collegan Rockies G.A.A. Club of which he became a leading light by his true sportsmanship and comradeship.

We extend our deepest condolence to his heart-broken parents, brothers and sister, on their very great loss.

The removal of his remains took place on Thursday evening from Cashel Hospital, followed by a huge and most impressive cortege, consisting of all sections of the community, to Collegan Church and were blessed and received by Rev. M. Farrell, C.C., assisted by Very Rev. D. McGrath, P.P., Rev. T. Curran, Killeegan (Cousin), Rev. G. Brophy, Head Chaplain, Curragh, Rev. E. Condon, C.C., English Mission. A guard of honour, consisting of his club members, wearing armlets lined the route to the Church.

Requiem Masses were celebrated on Friday morning for the happy and eternal repose of his young and gentle soul, and the interment took place in the adjoining family plot, Collegan Rockies club members acted as pallbearers on both occasions. Another large concourse, consisting of army personnel and general public were present. Very Rev. D. McGrath, P.P., officiated at the graveside, assisted by Rev. M. Farrell, C.C., Rev. T. Curran, Rev. V. de Poir, C.C., Rng. and Rev. J. Hekey, C.C., Grangemockler. Large sheaves of spiritual and mortal tributes were received by his family.

The chief mourners were: Mr. and Mrs. Jack Quinlan, Knockroe (parents); Paddy Quinlan, Knockroe, Lt. Thos. Quinlan, Curragh Camp (brothers); Mrs. Thos. Butler, Balinamuck, Dungarvan (sister); Mr. Thomas Butler (brother-in-law).

(Funeral arrangements were by J. Kiely and Sons, Shandon, Dungarvan.)

Late Miss Bridget Hegarty

Glendine, Youghal

The death occurred during the early hours of Saturday morning, July 4th, at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan, after a short illness, of Miss Bridget Hegarty, Glendine, Youghal. The deceased was a most popular lady, especially in her native Glendine district. She won the admiration of the nursing staff and patients during her term of hospitalization.

We extend our deepest sympathy to her sister Hannah, on her very great loss.

The removal of her remains took place on Saturday evening to St. Mary's Parish Church, Dungarvan, and were blessed and received by Rev. Fr. W. Power, C.C.

The last Mass on Sunday morning was celebrated on Sunday morning for the intentions of her soul and the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery. A large concourse of friends and the general public were present. Rev. Fr. D. O'Brien, C.C., officiated and imparted the final absolution at the graveside.

(Funeral arrangements were by J. Kiely and Sons, Shandon, Dungarvan.)

BALLYGUNNER BEST IN FOUR ENCOUNTER

The standard of sportsmanship took a severe tumble at Dunhill on Sunday, when Ballygunner defeated Dunhill by 6-8 to 3-4 in the senior hurling championship. It was a game marred by frequent outbursts of temper, and on several occasions hurleys were dangerously used by players on both sides. Most serious incident of all followed when Ballygunner's Vin Connors went down injured and for a few terrifying minutes it looked as though someone would be seriously injured. Players joined in battle whilst some spectators also joined in. Overall, it was a sorry spectacle that certainly reflected no credit on those concerned.

Seldom throughout the hour were the Gunners in danger of defeat. They were the faster, fitter and more polished side, and they are going to take a deal of stopping in this championship. They led by 3-6 to 1-3 at the interval, and although Dunhill tried very hard to make up the leeway, there was never any disputing the Gunners' superiority.

Dunhill, from whom so much was expected, disappointed a great deal. The pace set by the youthful Gunners was too much for them, and the fact that they finished the hour with only 14 men, was not to their advantage.

Outstanding for the winners were Peadar Casey, Tommy and John Heame, Vin Connors (until he retired injured), Tony Cummins, Pat Flynn and T. Walsh.

For the losers, centreback Tom Allen gave a superb display of skilful hurling, and got greatest assistance from Billy Dunphy, Mick Whyte and Mick Regan.

MOUNT SION LUCKILY DEFEAT TRAMORE

Although outplayed territorially for most of the hour, Mt. Sion advanced to the second round of the senior football championship at the expense of Tramore at Waterford on Sunday last.

This was a fine exhibition of the code by teams opting for an open brand of football. Tramore, having their first game in senior ranks, put up a magnificent showing, and were most unfortunate to suffer defeat.

But one can only admire these Monastery men when it comes to the championship, irrespective of the code or grade. On Sunday they were really up against it in this spirited Tramore side, but their phenomenal craft, which has snatched victory for them in the past, again came to their rescue, and at the end of a thrilling game, Mt. Sion had three points to spare.

Mt. Sion's great ability, however, to turn vital chances into goals, was the deciding factor in their victory. Four times they landed the ball in the Tramore net, and the 4-3 to 1-9 result is surely indicative of how the encounter was waged territorially.

Best for Mount Sion were: Frankie Walsh, Seamus Power, Larry Guinan, Mick Flanagan, Freddie O'Brien and "Doc" Walsh.

Outstanding on a gallant Tramore side were Sean and Bernie Power, Liam Kelly, John Meehan and T. Dunne.

ABBEYSIDE FOR WESTERN FOOTBALL FINAL

After leading by 2-3 to 0-2 at the interval, Abbeyside coasted to a 4-7 to 0-3 win over Ballyduff in the western minor football championship semi-final at Cappoquin on Tuesday night.

This was yet another highly polished display by the Villagers, who must now be firm favourites to annex the divisional title at least.

There was never the slightest semblance of doubt as to how this game would go. Controlling the vital sectors from the very start, Abbeyside took on the role of dominators, and try as they might, Ballyduff could not stem the tide that flowed so rapidly against them. This was an Abbeyside team without blemish. In defence, the full line of Tommy Donovan, Bernard Shields and Joe Power, was rock solid, and John O'Rourke was unbeatable at centre-back. Pat Enright was superb at midfield, and in attack John Mahony and Michael Power took most of the honours.

NOW MEET IN HURLING SEMI-FINAL

On Tuesday night next, also at Cappoquin, the same clubs battle out the Divisional hurling semi-final, and this promises to be a battle royal. Ballyduff, be it remembered, are holders in this grade, and such has been the quality of their displays to-date that it can be stated with assurance that it will take a deal of hard hurling by any opposition if they are to dethrone these worthy champions. Some contend that the Reds are not as powerful now as 12 months ago, but those close to the team rebuke such a contention, and are confident of qualifying for yet another final.

The Villagers, however, remain supremely confident of completing the minor double over the Ballyduff opposition. Their team on paper at least looks an all-powerful one, and if anything, will start slight favourites.

Their defence in particular looks a really formidable one, powered as it is by Pat Enright, Bernard Shields and Tommy Donovan, all stars of the club's recent senior victory over Erin's Own. Elsewhere, the Villagers are also adequately served, and they are given the vote to shade what should be a thrill-packed semi-final.

DUNGARVAN JUVENILES SWEEP TO FINAL

Dungarvan's juvenile hurlers continue to brush aside every opposition. Last week at the Gaelic field, Dungarvan they trounced Abbeyside to the tune of 11-10 to 1-2 in the most unequal championship encounter between the clubs in any grade for some considerable time.

Even allowing for the fact that the Villagers were not nearly as good as in former years, there could be no mistaking the strength of this Old Boro' side, and, quite frankly, I cannot see them being stopped in the west this year.

KILROSSANTY MEET ARDMORE IN PHELAN CUP

Only senior game of the day on Sunday next is scheduled for Dungarvan at 8 p.m. where Kilrossanty and Ardmore meet in the semi-final of the 1964 Phelan Cup competition. Although John Mitchels have qualified for this decider and the entire county is abuzz at the prospects of an all-Kilrossanty final.

Ardmore however, bar the way and unless Kilrossanty show considerable improvement from their feeble championship showing against Gaultier, Ardmore could well shatter that dream. True, the seashiders were not very impressive against Geraldines on Sunday last but they were the better of the two in their most recent outing.

However, Kilrossanty can hardly be as poor again and with a tilt at Mitchels the prize, I expect them to put in an extra special effort. Believing that my vote goes to Kilrossanty but they may not have much to spare at the end of the hour.

WEEK-END WESTERN CHAMPIONSHIP FIXTURES

Two games are listed for Dungarvan on Sunday next. At 2.15 Ring meet Dungarvan in the junior football championship followed by the Winter (what a time to mention such a word) football league meeting of Cappoquin and Ballina courtly.

At Ballymacarbray, the Nire and Mount Mellera meet also in the junior football championship, whilst in the same championship at Cappoquin, Emmetts and Shamrocks oppose Geraldines and Old Parish respectively.

INTER-COUNTY CHALLENGE

Waterford under-21 team will play Cork's intermediate hurling team at Cappoquin, on Thursday evening, July 30th at 8 p.m.

CAPPOQUIN WIN

Cappoquin beat Aghlish-Villierstown in the West Waterford schools semi-final.

Brickeys Surrender Senior Crown

DETHRONED BY IMPRESSIVE VALLEYS

VALLEY ROVERS - 1-10; BRICKEY RANGERS - 0-4

REIGNING senior football champions, Brickey Rangers relinquished their title at Dungarvan's Fraher field on last Sunday when literally hammered into submission by junior titleholders Valley Rovers. After having waited for close on a lifetime to crash through the champion-ship barrier, few could possibly have envisaged the Rangers being dethroned so ignominiously, but not even the staunchest Brickey supporters can cavil in any way at the justice of the result.

As one watched the Rangers make their insipid exit it was difficult to believe that the majority of their players shared in the club's first senior success last December. But the indications of recent months that they no longer remained a serious force were substantiated to the point of bitter reality. Fielding without such stars as Patsy Donnelly and Bill Spratt didn't improve their chances in any way, but so clear-cut was the Valleys superiority that even the presence of this pair would not have averted championship elimination.

Without detracting from the merits of the Valleys victory, I doubt if I have ever seen as poor a Brickey side out duty in the county's major competition. Not one sector could be said to have emerged with reputation enhanced, and long before the end the majority of the side had resigned themselves to the fact that defeat was inevitable.

But if the plain and simple fact is that the Rovers were the better footballers, complete lack of fitness, went a long way towards explaining the decisiveness of the Brickey defeat. Quite obviously, the champions were an untrained and unfit team, and in fact it has been said by clubmen in authority that some of the players last trained for the county final against Kill.

BETTER SIDE NOW
In marked contrast, the Valleys seemed to possess endless reserves of energy, which stood them well as the hour wore on. At times they played delightful football that completely bewildered the Rangers, and I would now rate them a better side than when monopolising the west in the junior grade. The sheet anchor of the side is undoubtedly their half back line of Jimmy Hewitt, Mick Connolly and Billy Acheson—the best in the county today—and it was the brilliance of this trio that really broke the Brickey resistance. The Rangers made countless switches in their half forward set-up, but all to no avail, and had to content themselves with playing second best for the entire hour in the sector.

And yet for the opening quarter it looked as though the Brickeys would saunter to victory in this clash of champions. Capitalising on the slowness of the Valleys to get into their stride, they notched up four points without reply by the 15th minute, but that latter point proved to be their final score of the game. And that surely is indicative of the extent of the Valleys superiority for the remainder of the hour.

Except for sporadic excursions upfield, the scene of activity was confined to the Brickey half, and by the interval, the Derrinlaure men led by 1-3 to 0-4. Thereafter, the superb fitness of the winners told its own story, and the second moiety was little more than a procession for the Valleys. Without undue exertion, they complied their respectable final tally, and only twice during the half was goalkeeper Bobbie Hewitt called on to clear.

MOST FRUITFUL ERA
The Brickeys most fruitful era, was the opening quarter, and points by Patsy Murray (2), Farrell (free) and Hallisey gave them their clear four point advantage. But once the Valleys scored their lone goal in the 17th minute they never subsequently looked back. A centre by full-forward Liam Bradshaw was mishandled by Brickey goalkeeper Kevin Walsh and when he regained possession, was bundled into the net and still in possession of the ball. It was a goal that should never have been conceded, although in fairness to the Valleys it must be stated it did not materially affect the outcome. Points by Jim Cleary and Eddie Hewitt (2) gave the Valleys the lead for the first time, but just before the interval, Michael Spratt blazed wide of a yawning Derrinlaure goal, after the spade-work to a fine movement had been completed by his brother Justin.

Whatever hopes the Brickeys had of retrieving their now perilous position went by the board within ten minutes of the restart, when Eddie Hewitt pointed three frees and Jim Cleary tacked on one from play. With a nonchalance that merely underlined their supremacy the Valleys continued to dictate the game, and further minors by Eddie Hewitt (free) Sean Boland and Jim Cleary, put the final touches to a most impressive display.

HALF-BACK STARS

Whilst every man on the winning side played his part in victory, none contributed so greatly to the cause as the half back line of Jimmy Hewitt, Mick Connolly and Billy Acheson. I do not propose to single out any one of this trio, but between them they formed the rock on which so many Brickey attacks floundered.

Behind them the veteran Johnny Walsh was at his best, ably flanked by J. J. Hewitt and Christy Hallinan, whilst Bobbie Hewitt was the essence of soundness between the posts.

The part played by midfielders Kieran Ryan and Pat Cleary was invaluable. Ryan was a tower of strength throughout and brilliantly partnered by Cleary, the Dublin based garda, they gave their side a marked advantage in this vital sector.

Early on the forwards found it difficult to penetrate for scores, but once they opened their account, repeatedly outwitted the Brickey defence.

Eddie Hewitt was top scorer, his accuracy from placed balls highlighting a great display. Liam Bradshaw and J. J. Nugent completed a formidable full-line. Although Oliver Nugent failed to put his name on the list of scorers, he gave a superb performance, and gave a well nigh perfect exhibition of impeccable fielding. On his right Jim Cleary was a constant menace to the Brickey defence, whilst Sean Boland also had a memorable game.

SUBSTANDARD

What can one say of a Brickey side that was almost uniformly substandard.

Goalkeeper Kevin Walsh had a nightmarish game and never looked as good as his counterpart.

The defence often found itself in trouble against the Valleys feet-footed attackers, and only Wick Walsh, John Woods and Peadar Donoghue displayed anything approaching normal form.

The champions started with a Frankie Cooney - Mick Farrell midfield partnership, but neither was a success, and the sector was altered on several occasions without success.

Their meagre four point tally reflects the shortcomings of the attack, in which Patsy Murray and to a lesser extent Michael Spratt gained the only honours.

Valley Rovers: B. Hewitt; J. J. Hewitt; J. Walsh, C. Hallinan; B. Acheson, M. Connolly; J. Hewitt; K. Ryan, P. Cleary; J. Cleary, O. Nugent, S. Boland; J. J. Nugent, L. Bradshaw, E. Hewitt.

Brickey Rangers: K. Walsh; P. Donoghue, N. McGrath, P. Fernecombe; J. Woods, P. Kilgrew, M. Walsh, F. Cooney, M. Farrell, J. Spratt, A. Hallisey, M. Spratt; W. Terry, P. Murray, J. Spratt Subs: T. Foley for Cooney; Cooney for Justin Spratt.

Referee: Hugh Donnelly.
