Unfair Price For Strawberry Growers

COMMITTEE TO PROTEST

AT last Saturday's meeting of the County Committee of Agriculture in Dungarvan it was decided to strongly protest to the Irish Sugar Company at the price being paid to strawberry growers in the county.

The matter was raised by Mr. Michael Harty, who said the people of west Waterford who were growing tons of strawberries had no option but to plough back the berries in the ground, and put it in potatoes or barley. He could not see how the Dept. could encourage these people to grow fruit if they were not going to get a good market for their produce.

Mr. Harty went on: "In the Ring area the growers have sought the assistance of this committee as regards the growing of strawberries, and there is an excellent crop in the area this year. However, they are getting only 6d. a lb. for the berries. You would get more than sixpence for haws, blackberries or even stones, if you picked them off the ground. In the Wexford area the growers are getting more than sixpence a lb. for strawberries. We should make a very strong protest to the Irish Sugar Company about their prices. The growers were not made aware of the prices they were going to get when advised to grow the strawberries."

Mr. M. Galgey said the Committee should do all in its power to see that the growers get a good price for their produce. They should warn their growers, however, not to grow any more produce without first getting a contract price.

Mr. F. Conroy (C.A.O.) said the strawberries were growing for General Costelloe's scheme and he hoped he would be in Dungarvan in the near future when he would discuss the matter with him. He added that it would cost £50 approximately to pick a ton of strawberries.

Finally, a proposal by Mr. Harty, seconded by Mr. K. O'Regan, that they send a strong protest to the Irish Sugar Company about the price being paid by them to the county Waterford strawberry growers, was unanimously passed.

Plans Complete For Dungarvan Show

ON Thursday next (30th July) the year's the Dungarvan Agricultural Show where largest gathering of the agricultural prizes totalling more than £1,000 are to be community in the area will take place at won.

Founded in 1915 this Show is now run by the Dungarvan Show Society (membership of which is cheap and confers many benefits) has nearly doubled its prizes this year. The prizes for Show jumping, in the arena described by a winner. A similar amount is awarded to Class No. 2 (for huntress or huntress, 4 y.o. and upwards, to carry up to 13.7 lbs.).

The small hunter or huntress class (No. 3) carries a prize list of £16 (£10 to the winner). The other horse classes also have generous prize lists.

POULTRY, HORTICULTURE

There are generous prizes in these sections—also challenge cups and vouchers. The horticultural section particularly has been brought into line with modern practice in that all vegetables should not only be a delight to the eye but should be edible. For example, the catalogue states with regard to marrows that they should be "young, tender, shapely fruits of any colour." The days of the green, barge, balloon would appear to be numbered. It is to be hoped that rhubarb like walking sticks is also on the way out.

HOME PRODUCE AND CRAFTS

A look round the Home Produce marquee will doubtless give us "all a longing" taste the results of the housewives' endeavours and the crafts (which will be judged on 29th July, and some will Birdie Crowley carrying on all the arduous staff-work behind the scenes. For all the stewards, officials and ladies of the catering committee no praise is too high.

This year it is hoped to introduce a new feature to the Show—the institution of an Information Office with telephone communication to the main centres of activity, so that exhibitors may be directed without delay to the correct Show ring or marquee, lost children recovered and points of interest indicated to first-timers at the Show (of whom we hope there will be a great number).

All this is needed to make this year's Show a great success now that record entries have been received to match the increased prize money—is a fine day.

DELANY'S OF DUNGARVAN
FOR BETTER VALUE

MR. F. I. POWER, President

member of the Army Jumping team as "the best outside Dublin," are second in value only to the Show in the Metropolis. Other categories are also substantially higher than before and valuable Curs and Waterford Glass trophies are numerous.

SHOW JUMPING

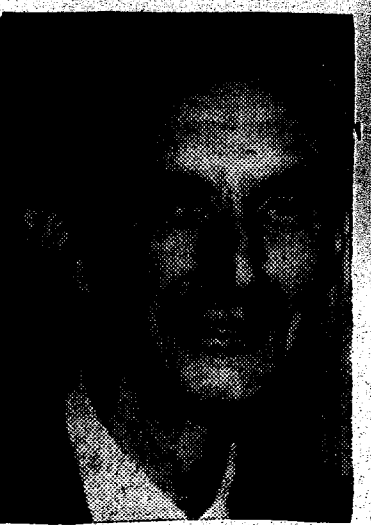

The Phoenix Beer Open championship jumping event (present joint holders, Capt. H. Freeman-Jackson and Mr. Tommy Wade) has a prize money of £155.00 (£60 for the winner and proportionate amounts down to 7th place). The Guinness Speed trophy has a prize of £41 and there are three other competitions. The Army Jumping Team will be at the Show (congratulations incidentally to Capt. Ringrose on his promotion) and many other famous names are expected. Tommy Wade (it is hoped he will be fit enough to attend), Capt. and Miss Freeman-Jackson, Diana Connolly Carew, Seamus Hayes and many others.

CATTLE

Apart from awards of silver medals, silver tankards, 10 tons of lime (delivered), the cattle section is awarding money prizes worth nearly £300. In no fewer than seven of the twenty-five classes, the first prize is £10.

HORSES

In this renowned horse rearing area it is not surprising that prizes are valuable and the competition severe. There are eighteen classes for horses and Class No. 1 (for hunter or huntress, 4-y.o. and upwards, to carry 13-7 and over) carries a prize list of £27 (£20 to the lucky to have dynamic men at the head of affairs. Much as the late Jack Lynch is missed (his brother, Tommy, is still a stalwart of the Show Society), the Society has its driving force in perfectionist President, Paul J. Power and Chairman Con Dempsey, with

Minister Sees Off Irish Food Donation

The Minister for Agriculture, Mr. P. Smith, T.D., saw a donation of food from Ireland under the World Food Programme leave Waterford on Wednesday last for Colombia. It consisted of 55 tons of full cream milk powder worth over £11,000 and manufactured by Dungarvan Co-Op. Creamery, and it will be used in a special nutritional programme for children and expectant mothers.

The World Food Programme was started on 1st January, 1963, for an experimental period of three years, with the main object of using food as an aid to stimulate economic and social development in needy countries.

The programme authorities recently stated that what has been achieved so far justifies a confident view of the future as the principle of many countries helping others by supplying food as an aid to development had gained wider acceptance. There are now 64 countries contributing food to 54 needy countries in which 131 single projects are in operation to promote economic and social progress.

VICTIMISATION ALLEGED Hardship on Helvick Fishermen

VICTIMISATION on the part of Bord lascaigh Mhara towards a Helvick fisherman, was alleged by Mr. Michael Harty at last Saturday's meeting of Waterford Committee of Agriculture.

Mr. Harty said Bord lascaigh came along and took the fishing boat from Mr. Nicholas Whelan. Helvick, leaving six married crew members for earning a shilling. It was a case of victimisation said Mr. Harty. In 1957, Mr. Whelan got a 54-foot long ringer from Bord lascaigh Mhara and spent several months in Galway training as a skipper. The crew consisted of five married men, and Mr. Whelan himself had eight in his family. On Friday, he said, Bord lascaigh Mhara confiscated the vessel for no apparent reason. Skipper Whelan never lapsed in his I.P. agreement to pay for the boat. In June he took the boat to Bantry to have it overhauled and repainted, and on Friday he received a letter stating that he would not get the vessel back any more.

Mr. J. Fahey (Chairman) said Mr. Whelan had a very good case and should see further about it. Mr. N. Walsh said they should do all in their power to see that Mr. Whelan got back his boat. Finally, on the proposal of Mr. Harty, seconded by Mr. N. Walsh, it was decided to send a protest to Bord lascaigh Mhara about the matter.

Appointments to N.F.A. National Committee

The following Waterford appointments to N.F.A. national committees have been announced: Dairy County Chairman, Edmund Cheasty (Kilmessid), serves his second year; Pigs—Tom Fives of Cappoquin, has distinguished himself as a leading Landrace breeder, having gained many awards in Dublin and elsewhere; Rates—D. J. Coghlan (Kilmacthomas) again returns to this important committee, to which he has contributed much advice in past years; Industrial and Transport—Brian Peardon, Co. Secretary (Lismore), is elected for his sixth year on this active committee which has largely contributed to the reduction in farm tractor taxation, the implementation of fertiliser and lime subsidies, and many other concessions which have saved the farmers of this county many thousands of pounds annually.

Farmers are reminded that the County Executive will have a stand at Dungarvan Show on 30th July, where they will be most welcome to discuss N.F.A. activities with a representative from Central Office and members of the Executive. If they have controversial questions and enquiries this will be a good opportunity to make contact with their organisation.

NEW YOUGHAL DEVELOPMENT

At a meeting of the Youghal U.D. Council, a letter was read from Messrs. J. H. North & Co. Estate Agents and Auctioneers Piccadilly, London, asking for information regarding local development in Youghal, stating that very considerable interest was now being shown by United Kingdom Developers and others from abroad in different potentialities of development in this county. The writers asked for guidance as to what new industries would be suitable, details of plans of road improvement, harbour developments, etc. The Town Clerk was directed to supply the required information and forward a copy of the brochure.

Free Holiday for Glasgow Couple

Some months ago, very shortly after the formation of the Company, the South-Eastern Regional Tourist Organisation, Ltd. (S.E.R.T.O.) received an enquiry from Mrs. Brannan, of 189, Trossachs St., Rutherglen, Glasgow, for information concerning holidays in the South-Eastern region. The Directors decided to mark the fact that Mrs. Brannan's enquiry was the first received by the Company, after its formation, by presenting her and her husband with a free holiday at any venue of their choice, within the region. Arrangements are now being concluded for the Brannans' holiday, and they have agreed to come to Framers for a fortnight in the beginning of August.

During their holiday, they will be taken on tours of various points of interest in the South-East. The Brannans will fly in to Dublin by Aer Lingus on Saturday, 1st August and will commence their South-Eastern Holiday on Sunday, 2nd August, when they arrive in Tramore.

SALMON FISHING

SALMON fishing catches of peale in Youghal and surrounding areas were better in the month of July, in the month when the peale practically faded out, it was thought that they would not return, but they did, both in great numbers and of good average weight. The largest catch last week was 55 fish (46 grise and 9 salmon) taken in Youghal, and on the opening day one boat in Ardmore landed 67 fish. The price last week, which did not change this week was grise 3/6 and salmon from 8/10 lbs. made 5/- per lb. The netting season will officially close at midnight on Friday next, July 31st; this will also apply to State weirs at Ballinacorney and Scart. Rod fishing will continue until 30th September. When the final returns for the season are available (usually in October) the season should prove to be a successful one as it is possible that the grise made up to some extent for the many weeks when the salmon were scarce. Rod anglers are said to have landed record catches for the past six weeks and there is a heavy run of grise from Youghal as far as Rathmore.

LATE MRS. MARY McBRIDE

Deep regret was felt at the announcement last week-end of the sad death of a well-known member of the community in the person of Mrs. Mary (Polly) McBride, of Tallow St., Youghal, which took place after a prolonged illness at the local Cottage Hospital. Her passing is deeply regretted and sincere sympathy is extended to her bereaved husband, sisters and relatives. The remains were removed to St. Mary's Parish Church where Solemn Requiem Mass was offered for the repose of her soul and the funeral which was large and representative took place to North Abbey Cemetery on Saturday last. The chief mourners were Mr. Philip McBride (husband), Mrs. Elizabeth Lyness and Miss Bridget Keating (sister), Messrs. W. P. Cooper, R. J. Cooper and W. J. Lyness (nephews); Miss A. Cooper (grand niece); Mr. Thomas Lyness (brother-in-law); Mrs. A. Diprose (sister-in-law); Mrs. R. J. Cooper, Mrs. Nora Sweeney and Mrs. Mary O'Connell (relatives and immediate friends).

Very Rev. Canon Sheehan, P.P., officiated at the graveside assisted by Rev. J. O'Mahony, C.C.; Rev. D. P. Noonan, Maynooth Missions to China; and Rev. Rd. O'Connor, C.C., English Missions.

Abbeyside for Western Minor Final

Abbeyside 5-8; Ballyduff 4-3 game let up after the interval, despite the fact that Abbeyside slowly began to assert notice-able superiority. The margin between them gradually became wider but even then one could not rule out the possibility of the champions hitting back for decisive scores. They did in fact launch a series of all-out attacks towards the close in an effort to prevent dethronement, but the evillagers now hurling with supreme confidence, were not to be denied and at the end of a thrill packed hour had become the worst of Western finalists.

For the winners, Brian O'Connor was a cool and reliable goalkeeper, whilst the full-line of Bernard Shields, Tommy Donovan and A. Dugan was positively superb. Wing halves Cosgrave and Kelleher never put a foot wrong but Pat Enright was valiantly for their place in the Divisional decider against Dungarvan the spectacle was an enthralling one for a frenzied and excited attendance.

The thrills were forthcoming almost from the start. Both sides contested every ball as though their very lives depended on the outcome and when the Villagers led by 2-3 to 2-1 after a top-class half hour's hurling it was anyone's game.

Nor did the tempo of the game let up after the interval. Joe Power, both at midfield and centre-back was a tower of strength and if Mick Brett was the hero in attack he was ably assisted by John Mahony, Mick Power and John O'Dea.

As already stated, Ballyduff lost no caste in defeat. Like good champions they put up a wonderful defence of their title and fought gallantly to

Gala Tug-o-War

The bitter end against slightly superior opponents.

In centre-back Baldwin they had one of the most accomplished hurlers afield and little behind him came full-back Kenneally. Mick Canles had a fine game at midfield and in an attack brilliantly led by county minor Liam Canning, others to impress were Fleming and Fraher.

Thus the stage is set for a local derby western final between Abbeyside and Dungarvan—another game that should provide spectators with a thrill packed hour. Certainly if it is nearly as good as Tuesday's semi-final there will be no grounds for disappointment.

The Dungarvan Gala Week Tug-o-War competition heats will be run off at Quann's all next week. The following are the fixtures:

Monday, July 27th, 8.30 p.m.: Lough Rovers v. Dungarvan Co-op. Team C: The Geese (P. Gordon) v. Ballyvoile.

NEW CHAIRMAN ELECTED

MR. JOHN FAHEY (F.F.) was elected Chairman of Waterford Committee of Agriculture at the annual meeting in Dungarvan, on Saturday last. He defeated the outgoing Chairman, Mr. Michael Harty (F.G.) by seven votes to six. Mr. Harty was unanimously elected Vice-Chairman.
 Mr. Norman Walsh, who proposed Mr. Harty for the Chair, said that Mr. Harty had proved himself an excellent chairman during the past twelve months, and as it was their last year in Office, he felt they should re-elect him unanimously. If Mr. Harty would be a grand tribute to him if he was returned unopposed. Since his election as Chairman, Mr. Harty had not missed one meeting.

 Mr. G. Heskin seconded. Mr. J. Drohan proposed Mr. Fahey and Mr. S. Whelan seconded.
 The voting was as follows: For Mr. Fahey—Messrs. Fahey, Curran, Whelan, Drohan, O'Ryan, Galgey, Montayne (7). For Mr. Harty—Messrs. Harty, Buyler, Dwyer, Foran, N. Walsh, Heskin (6).

Gala Week Opens on Sunday

Dungarvan will be en fête next week for the first ever Gala Week organised by a special committee to attract tourists to the town. A wonderful programme aimed at satisfying the tastes of everyone—man, woman and child—has been arranged and perfect planning should ensure the success of every event for the opening ceremonies at the Square at 12.30 p.m., on Sunday next to the final event on the following Sunday evening.
 The central committee, representative of practically every social and sporting group in the town has been hard at it for months laying plans and organising events. The programme has grown from a small beginning to its present imposing proportions and includes such breath-taking features as an Air Display and Sky Diving by members of the Irish Parachute Club, Go-Kart racing and a powerful Tug-O-war contest which has attracted almost 20 teams.

The undertaking has turned out to be one of the biggest of its kind ever attempted in Dungarvan and the cost of running it will go into thousands of pounds. Fortunately, however, the Committee has succeeded in securing several sponsors at local and national level to finance and award trophies for all the major events.
 All plans have now been finalised and the Gala Week has been publicised throughout the length and breadth of the land by Television, Press and posters and nothing that could possibly be done to entice visitors to the town has been overlooked. The welcome mat will be out for all and a hearty "cead mile failte" awaits everyone who heads for Dungarvan and for the week which should surpass all weeks.

Speaking at a Press Conference in Dublin on Tuesday night last (21st July), Mr. T. Kyne, T.D., Chairman, Dungarvan Urban District Council, said that the Gala Week would be to the advantage of the tourist industry in the area. "Dungarvan has many tourist attractions," he said, "including first-class facilities for sailing, angling and mountain climbing. Sporting amenities in the town include golf, tennis, hunting and shooting. And, of course, sandy beaches abound close to the town or within easy reach along the coastline to the East and West, while inland there is a beautiful variety of lovely river and woodland scenery. We hope our Gala Week programme will not only provide a festival week for everyone in the Dungarvan area, but will also serve to show the really wide range of holiday attractions available here." Continuing, he thanked all the firms and individuals who helped to make the Gala Week possible.
 The week's programme offers everything from aquatic events to whippet racing; from music and dancing to golf and tug-of-war competitions. After the official opening on Sunday, the first and most spectacular event of the week will be a flying and sky diving display provided by the Irish Parachute Association and sponsored by Beamish & Crawford in handing over a cheque for sponsorship of the event. Mr. John Pickard, marketing manager, Beamish & Crawford, said his firm was delighted to be associated with the Dungarvan Tourist Association in the venture. He was very impressed by the programme and he was sure the Gala Week would be a great success.

The air display will take place from 2 p.m. to 6 p.m., at O'Donnell's field, Youghal Rd. Special traffic arrangements have been made—including walkie-talkie control—and parking space has been provided for thousands of cars. The flying programme will include double parachute jumping, demonstration flying and spot jumping. Other opening day events are a major sailing competition, an open golf competition at Dungarvan Golf Club, go-kart racing, sponsored by Tyresoles Ltd., water-skiing and sailing and a band recital. The day will end with a festival Ball and the election of the Gala Week Beauty Queen in the Town Hall.

The Dublin press conference was attended by Mr. T. Kyne, T.D., Chairman, Dungarvan U.D.C.; Mr. J. D. Hally, Co. Engineer and chief steward, Dungarvan Gala Week; Mr. P. J. Breen, vice-Chairman, Dungarvan Tourist Association; Mr. P. Whelan, Finance and Advertising committee; Mrs. J. Bailey, Entertainment Committee; Mr. John Pickard, marketing manager, Beamish & Crawford; Mr. Erill Maher, chairman Irish Parachute Club; Mr. Tom Kellest, secretary Irish Sky Diving Club.

HOW TO APPLY ARTIFICIAL RESPIRATION BY MOUTH TO MOUTH METHOD IN FOUR EASY STAGES

Near-drowning and severe electric shock cause unconsciousness and a stoppage of breathing. The mouth-to-mouth method described here can restore breathing and save a life. It is essential that it be started as soon as possible after recovering or discovering the victim. In the case of electric shock, power must be switched-off before the victim is touched.

1st STEP

TILT HEAD BACK

In Step One, the victim is laid on his back with his head placed as far back as possible so that the neck is extended.

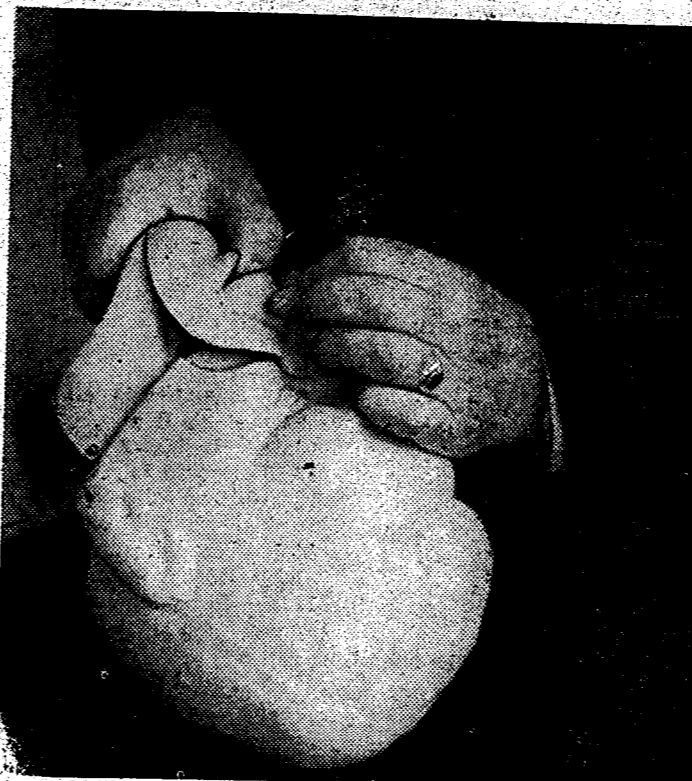

2nd STEP

INSERT THUMB IN MOUTH AND LIFT JAW

In Step Two, insert a thumb between the victim's teeth, grasping the lower jaw at the middle and lifting the lower jaw forcefully upwards so that the lower teeth are higher than the upper teeth.

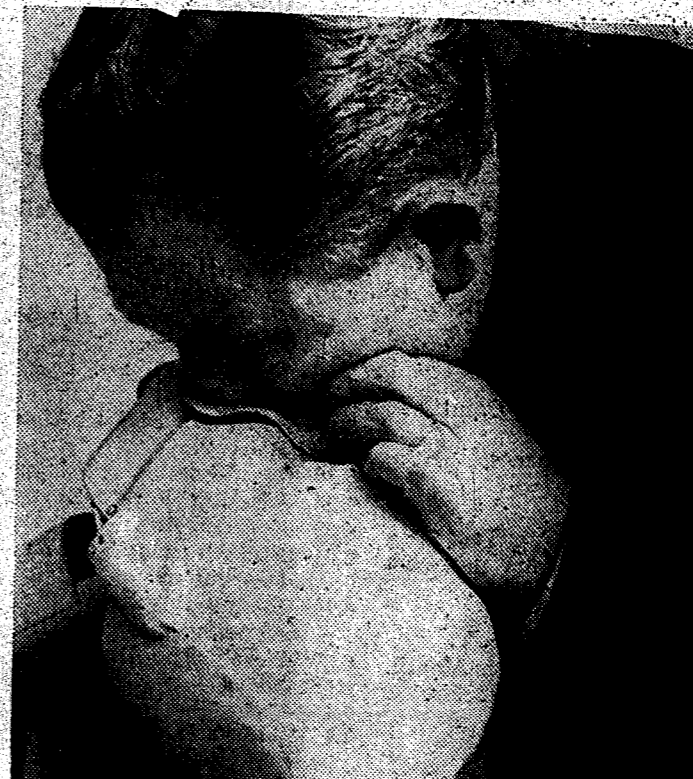

3rd STEP

PINCH THE NOSTRILS

In Step Three, close the victim's nose with the free hand.

4th STEP

BLOW INTO MOUTH 12 TIMES PER MINUTE

In Step Four, take a deep breath and place the mouth over the victim's mouth with airtight contact. Then blow into the victim's mouth, forcefully for adults, gently for children.

The victim's chest should be watched, and as soon as it rises, the blowing should be stopped and the operator's mouth quickly removed from the mouth of the victim, allowing the victim to exhale passively. If the chest does not rise, the support of the victim's head (Step 2) should be improved and the blowing done more forcefully. The cycle of inflation and exhalation should be repeated 12 times per minute for adults and 20 times per minute for infants and small children. Note that on an infant, the mouth should be placed over the child's mouth and nose. This method of artificial respiration is very suitable for treatment of the victims of electric shock or drowning. (The above photographs were taken using a demonstration model).

N.F.A. NEWS DIRECTOR OF F.A.O. VISITS N.F.A. HOUSE

The Director General of the Food and Agricultural Organization (F.A.O.) of the U.N., Dr. B. R. Sen, visited Ireland last week and called to N.F.A. House, where he was entertained as guest of honour at a reception. In welcoming him, Mr. Richard Deasy, President said that this visit would pave the way for fuller participation by the farming community in Ireland's contribution to the Freedom from Hunger Campaign.

Dr. Sen, in replying, said that he had been very impressed by Irish agriculture. He was pleased to meet Irish farmers because the future of F.A.O. depended largely on farmers. A presentation of a Commemorative paper-weight engraved with N.F.A. crest was made to Dr. Sen and a vase of Waterford Crystal was given to Mrs. Sen on behalf of the women farmers of Ireland.

GIVING SMALL FARMERS CONFIDENCE

Mr. J. Joyce, writing in the current issue of Bites, says that "an increase of 50% in pig production over the next 7 years is required if this country is to have a reasonable share of the pig meat market. Co-operative Societies can give the small farmer the confidence he needs to fulfil this programme. The lack of interest which the bacon factories down the years have shown in ensuring their supply of raw materials shows the necessity of better integration within the whole industry."

The new grants and facilities under the Land Project were discussed to-day at a meeting of the N.F.A. National Industrial & Transport Committee in Dublin. The Committee expressed approval of the improved grants for fencing, reclamation and surface treatment of mountain grazings. The development of mountain grazing is important because, as pointed out in the N.F.A. Green Book: (a) hill grazings could economically carry many more sheep; (b) mountain grazing rights are generally held by small farmers in marginal land areas and heavier stocking in the hills could significantly add to the incomes of such farmers.

Satisfaction was also expressed with the introduction of more flexible conditions under the Fertiliser Credit Scheme of the Department of Agriculture. On a number of points, the new scheme conforms to the recommendations put forward by the N.F.A. in the "Green Book."

The N.F.A. expects to have discussions with the Department of Agriculture at an early date on other proposals which the Association has submitted in relation to the Land Project: (a) long-term credit facilities for land reclamation work; (b) revision of land reclamation grants in light of increased costs; (c) development of closer liaison between the Land Project and the Advisory Services.

SPECIAL EXEMPTIONS FOR AGRICULTURAL TRACTORS

New regulations in regard to lights and traffic indicators on road vehicles came into operation on the 1st July, 1964. While the N.F.A. is disappointed that this type of concession has not been made applicable to the medium and long term loan schemes operated by the Corporation, nevertheless it appreciates that the Government has taken a very welcome step in introducing this provision into the Unsecured Loans Scheme. It is to be hoped that in the not too distant future the Government will take steps to have a similar type provision incorporated in the medium and long term schemes operated by the Corporation, especially where a farmer has borrowed for purposes such as farm building, drainage, reclamation, water supplies, etc., which show little or no return, that a breathing space of a few years before repayments commence is so urgently needed.

In the past the N.F.A. has often commented on the lack of information and publicity on the agricultural credit schemes operated by the Corporation. This situation is now to be remedied in the future in that the Corporation will intensify its publicity of farm credit and that the State will afford all possible facilities for this purpose. This is a step in the right direction.

THE VALUE OF MILK

Milk must be given pride of place among foods because it is the best all-round food for human consumption. During the early months of life, milk is the dominant food for the growing child and contains all the nutrients required, in the correct proportions, for growth and development.

If a child of one year is getting one pint of cow's milk a day (a satisfactory allowance) he will receive about one third of his caloric requirements from that source alone. The remaining calories will be provided by an ordinary mixed diet of the same quality as that of the rest of the family.

The death occurred in the District Hospital, Dungarvan, on Tuesday, 21st inst., of Mr. Denis Flanagan. He was 70 years of age and a native of Amphin, where he resided. He was for a long number of years employed as a gardener in Headboro'. A man of many estimable qualities, his passing is much regretted.

The remains were removed to the parish church on Wednesday and were received by Very Rev. J. Kennedy, P.P. The burial took place on Thursday in St. Declan's Cemetery, Rev. M. O'Meara, C.C., officiating. The surviving relatives include: Sr. Francis Xavier, Incarnate Word Convent, Ohio (sister); and John and James (brothers).

DEATH OF MRS. A. ORMONDE

Deep and widespread regret has been occasioned by the death of Mrs. Agnes Ormonde, Town Parks, Lismore, which sad event occurred at Ardkeen Hospital, Waterford, on Wednesday morning of last week, 15th July.

Relict of the late Richard (Dick) Ormonde, the deceased lady was a most popular figure, possessing a very quiet and friendly manner and numerous friends everywhere and will be sadly missed by all but more especially by her sorrowing relatives, to whom we tender our deepest sympathy.

The remains were removed on Wednesday evening to St. Catherine's Church, and were received and blessed by Very Rev. Canon Dunphy, P.P., V.F.F.S.S.C. and Rev. Fr. Satterly, C.C. and the burial took place on Thursday in St. Catherine's Cemetery, the same clergy officiating at the graveside.

Large and representative corteges, attended both funeral and burial.

MACRA FIELD DAY RESULTS

BEST WISHES FOR A SPEEDY RECOVERY

Two local tradesmen, Messrs. John Bennett, Ballysgarrett and James Stapleton, Chapel St., are at present undergoing medical treatment in Ardkeen Hospital, Waterford, for injuries received, when they fell from a high roof during the course of their work at Sapperstown, Tallow, on Tuesday of last week.

On enquiring at the hospital during the week, both men were reported to be progressing very favourably, and we join with their many friends everywhere in wishing both a very speedy recovery to full health again.

CASTLE AND GARDEN OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

By kind permission of the Duchess of Devonshire, the historic Lismore Castle and beautiful adjoining Garden will be open to the general public on Sunday next, 26th July.

Proceeds of takings on this occasion will go to the Lismore District Nursing Association, and with such a worthy cause seeking well deserved support, plus a chance to see this really lovely sight, a record crowd is indeed expected.

Opening time will be from 2.30 p.m. to 6 p.m. and tea with home made cakes will be served.

NO INCREASE FOR REACTORS

In a letter read from the Dept. read by the C.A.O., at last Saturday's meeting of the Waterford Co. Committee of Agriculture, it was stated that the Minister for Agriculture would not increase the price paid for reactors under the B.T.E. scheme since January 1st last. The letter also stated that the amount of compensation which had been paid in this respect was reasonable.

At a previous meeting of the committee it had been decided to protest to the Minister at the amount which had been paid for reactors under this scheme.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

SUNDAY'S REGATTA

We announce with pleasure that quite a good entry has been received for the Regatta and crews from Dublin, Cork, Limerick, Waterford, Carrow and Fermoy, will be competing on the occasion. There is also an entry from Glasgow, which will be represented by two crews from St. Aloysius Jesuit College. The Scottish crews will compete in the races confined to colleges. Also competing will be the leading crew of the season the Senior Eight of Old Collegians. This crew has had many successes notably their latest—the national championship.

"BLARNEY ROSE"

At the Boat House on Sunday night a large and interested crowd watched with interest the selection of the county finalists for the "Blarney Rose" competition. The following caught the adjudicators eyes and will appear in the national final to be held in Cove on 31st July: Miss Margaret Galaher, Kilmacthomas; Miss Joan Nugent, Modello; Miss Gertie Ryan, Ballymacarby; Miss Bernice Dooney, Co., and Miss Maura Purcell, Boola, Cappoquin. The Brideside Serenaders supplied the music for the occasion and are also engaged for the final. This great occasion will be televised.

LANGUAGE QUESTION

The campaign, during which signatures were sought for the national declaration regarding the language question, is now completed in the town and outlying districts. We learn that 750 signatures in favour of were received. This declaration of goodwill in favour of the language is considered very satisfactory.

LATE MR. D. FLANAGAN

LATE MR. PATRICK MCCARTHY

The death of Mr. Patrick (Pat) McCarthy, which took place at Southamton, England, early on Monday morning after a protracted illness, following a serious operation, was learned with feelings of deep regret, not only in his native Touraneena, but throughout west Waterford where he had many ties and many friends.

The deceased, who was only in his early thirties, was son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John McCarthy, Skeheens, Ballinmut, and nephew of the late Tom and Pat Keating, Comeragh, who gave their lives in the fight for Irish freedom.

Pat, as he was affectionately known, was a warm favourite with all inherently sincere, and one of the most lovable of companions, his hearty laugh and cheery greeting will be sadly missed by his large circle of friends, all of whom mourn his passing with a sense of deep personal loss.

To his grief-stricken wife and young family, his brothers, sisters, nieces, nephews and other relatives, we tender our deepest sympathy. R.I.P.

TO CELEBRATE MASS IN TOURANEENA

Rev. John Kiely, A.G.S.H., who was ordained in the Cathedral, Waterford, last month, will celebrate Mass, where his forebears joined in worship down the years, in St. Mary's Church, Touraneena, on Sunday next, 26th July.

TOURING THE "OLD COUNTRY"

Mr. Pat Keane, a native of Co. Mayo, who arrived a few weeks ago from the U.S. and who is now touring Ireland, paid a brief visit to his relatives in Scart, Ballinmut.

WEDDING BELLS

The marriage was solemnised recently in the Nire Church, of Mr. William Cronin, Cerihan, Clonmel, and Miss Margaret Wall, Tourane, Nire Valley.

Nuptial Mass was celebrated and Pupal Blessing imparted by Rev. Fr. Griffin, C.C., Touraneena. Miss Bridget Wall, sister of the bride, was in attendance as bridesmaid and Mr. Michael Cronin, brother of the groom, was best man.

The reception, which was attended by a large number of guests was held at Hearne's Hotel, Clonmel, and later the happy pair left on their honeymoon, touring.

SYMPATHY

Sincere sympathy is extended to the bereaved sons, daughter, brother and relatives of the late Mrs. Alice Mulcahy, whose death took place recently, at her home, Upper Ballymacarbery.

Following Requiem Office and High Mass at St. Laurence's Church, Fourmilewater, interment was made in the adjoining cemetery.

FOURMILEWATER AND AUGHAVOULMANE OPEN COURSING CLUB

The annual general meeting of the above club will be held on Saturday next, 25th inst., at 8.30 p.m., at the "Bridge House." The attendance of all members is requested.

WEST WATERFORD NEWS

ARDMORE "PATTERN"

Sunday next will be "Pattern" Day at Ardmore, and devotees of St. Declan will visit the historic seaside village to perform the traditional "Rounds." As St. Declan is reputed to have introduced the Christian Faith to West Waterford some years before the advent of St. Patrick, his name is held in great veneration in the area.

F.C.A. ON TEST

Some members of the local units of the above are included in the Platoon competing in the annual command competitions at Crosshaven. Four Waterford officers (Capt. S. Glanville, Lieut. E. Brennan, Lieut. D. O'Doherty and Lieut. C. Curran) are included in the Board conducting the tests at Limerick, Tralee and Lahinch.

FISHING

In this area the pease season has proved very successful. All boats have reported big hauls on the lower reaches of the Blackwater and along the coast.

AUSTRALIAN VISITOR

An interesting visitor to this area was Mrs. B. Mac Laren, of Melbourne, Australia. Mrs. Mac Laren, who is a direct descendant of John Phinott Curran (the well known Irish lawyer and patriot) was seeking relatives (Allen and Curran). She said she was particularly impressed by the kindness of the people, agricultural and industrial progress, the beautiful scenery and the quality of the roads ("best I have seen in any country").

HOUSING

The provision of cottages is one of the major problems in this area. Two new cottages have been completed at Aglish, but efforts to secure contractors for similar buildings at Clashmore, Grange and Kinsalebeg have so far been unsuccessful.

ANCIENT MONUMENT

The site of the Ogham stones at Dromore, A.G.S.H., was recently cleaned. This ancient monument is the only one of its kind in the district.

CLASHMORE MAN'S DEATH

The death has occurred of Mr. William Maher, Clashmore, Clashmore. Deceased was a member of a well known family and was popular amongst all sections of the community. His demise has occasioned deep regret and we join in extending sympathy to the bereaved family.

The funeral to Clashmore Cemetery was officiated by Very Rev. D. Canon Power, P.P., and Rev. M. J. Russell, C.C., officiated.

ABBEYSIDE MAN AWARDED £12,600

William Hayes, lorry driver, Sheare's Street, Abbeyside, was awarded £12,653 damages by a High Court jury in Dublin last Thursday, in his action against William Fennell, contractor Emmet St., Dungarvan, Michael Wade, contractor, St. Augustine's St., do., and James Cummins, contractor, Connolly Row, do., trading as The Dungarvan Sand and Gravel Co., Ltd.

Mr. Justice Teevan gave judgment for £11,834 for Mr. Hayes, £819 having been paid by way of workman's compensation. Mr. Hayes complained that on February 9, 1960, while he was delivering a load of gravel for the company to a customer at Ballysaggart, Lismore, the lorry, while turning a steep hill stalled or started backwards down the hill.

He had to jump from the cab and was crushed between a well and the lorry. He suffered very severe injuries to the lower part of the body. As a result, his left hip joint was completely stiff, there was a shortening of the limb, and he was disabled for any work, being scarcely able to walk.

Mr. Noel Peart, S.C.; Mr. J. A. D'Arcy, S.C., and Mr. Frederick Morris (instructed by Farrell & Morrissey) were for Mr. Hayes; Mr. Desmond Bell, S.C.; Mr. Kevin M. Kenny, S.C., and Mr. Edward Feby (instructed by Hickey and O'Reilly) were for the company.

OUR TOWN

Dungarvan may be but a spot on the map. Folks can tell you it is not a stop gap. Business is brisk, you can't take a nap. When pay day comes round, you'd get a nice rap.

The hides in our factory, are the shoes that we wear. Our hand-bags are fashioned, never you fear. Our men, and our boys are the pride of the Depes. Who said our machinery is not oiled at top gear?

The Sisters of Mercy is a school of renown. It's top of the list, and the pride of our town. Their mission of mercy is noted far and wide. And love in their hearts will forever abide.

The children are thought how to read and write. These music and dance for the first winter. Their fun and play can be heard far away. In the fisherman's boat, sailing round western bay.

There's a college for students, preparing the way. To love and serve, till the end of their day. At home and abroad, in sunshine and rain. Far away from the land of the sons of the Gael.

We have clubs and pubs, choral society and co-op. A few nights a week, you can go to a hop. Discovering "retiring" Dungarvan, oh dear! The time light has graced us, this many a year.

Take a walk to the Lookout, it's not very far. Tourists will enjoy our lovely Cluniger. It's a paradise of dreams, miles and miles of strand. And drink the joy of living beauty, sea and land.

You can hire a sail-boat, and cruise all the hours. It's refreshing and soothing, unlike dusty bus tours. We've golf course and tennis, gaic field and gardai shochanas. You can view the lovely mountain, known as Cam Shanain.

A cead mile failte are the words that we use. The Observer and Leader will give all the news. The visitor will remember the good days. Spent in lovely Dungarvan, so homely and gay.

The stranger is spell-bound, as he stands by the quay. Watching the sail-boats, with colours so gay. Like a swan in the evening, proudly riding the sea. And the curlews are calling, a farewell to me.

We've a factory for apples, that are checked by the score. With lots of pretty girls, from the Barrow to the Nore. We've a bank and a post office, and a public house. I salute you with pride, Dungarvan my home. (Composed by Mgt. Connery, Colman, Western Tea, Dungarvan.)

Try the ENTERPRISE... you will find it delightfully different and definitely Dungarvan's best house to bring your friends for a better drink - a Cup of Coffee, Snack, Grill, Sandwiches, Soup, Bovril, etc. The distinctive "ENTERPRISE" awaits you at Dungarvan. "THE ENTERPRISE" never varies... Try our famous "Irish Coffee."

LATE MRS. MARY COFFEY

Castletown, Ballymacarbery. The death occurred on Thursday night, July 14th, at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan, of Mrs. Mary Coffey, after a rather short duration of illness, but at the fulness of years, and fortified by Rites of Holy Church. Her passing has cast a gloom over the entire district of Ballymacarbery, where she was better and more popularly known.

The removal of the remains took place on Friday evening to Fourmilewater Church, followed by a large cortege, and were blessed and received by Rev. Fr. Walsh, C.C.

Requiem Office and High Mass was sung on Saturday morning for the intentions of her soul and the interment took place in the adjoining family plot, amid manifestation of a great sorrow from the very large concourse present. Rev. Fr. Walsh, C.C., officiated at the full choir of priests. Large sheaves of Mass cards were received by her family.

The chief mourners were: John Coffey, Castletown (son); Mrs. Mary Kerlin, 19 Albert St., Clonmel (daughter); Mrs. Mary Coffey (daughter-in-law); Mr. Thomas Kerlin (son-in-law). (Funeral arrangements were by James Kiely & Sons, Shannon, Dungarvan.)

THE SOUL OF MUSIC

With grace replete the spirit sweet
Of music best bestows:
It's ev'ry psalm pours healing balm
On mankind's griefs and woes.
Breathing the love of God above
(A boon of boons to bring),
It does assuage dark passion's rage
And soften sorrow's sting.
Unto wild birds it whispers words—
Words they voice far and near;
And you and I listen with joy,
For our hearts cherish cheer. — (G.C.K.)

Ring and Emmetts Clash in Senior Championship

The only senior championship game of the day on Sunday is the first round football meeting of Ring and Emmetts at the Fraher Field, Dungarvan. This game was originally fixed for last Sunday week but was postponed because of the regretted death of the Emmetts star Garry Quinlan.

When presenters of the game a fortnight ago I hinted a slight preference for Emmetts, but the tragic intervening circumstances alter the viewpoint somewhat now. Garry Quinlan was one of the pillars of the Colligan side and the team is definitely considerably weakened by his loss.

Both sides, however, are confident of advancing to the second round. Ring possess some of the better known names in Waterford football circles such as the Hartys, Tommy Joe, Pat and Jim, and Silvester Murray and it is this quartet who are expected to command greatest attention from the opposition. None of these are the only stars on the Gaelic side, however. Such in fact is not the case and men like Tom Whyte, Tommy McGrath, Liam Maher, and Mollie Keane are certain to make their presence felt. Regular full-back Tom Durran continues to be an absentee as he has not yet recovered fully from a broken leg.

Quite understandably Emmetts followers are perturbed over the loss of Garry Quinlan yet there is a detectable air of confidence in the parish. They will, I am told, strive harder than ever before in the light of prevailing circumstances and stalwarts like Paddy and Mick Walsh, Colum Bannon, Jack Keady, Dick Tobin and Cyril Power, will back-bone their challenge. As already stated intervening circumstances have altered my outlook on this game to some extent. It could be that Ring might just about shade the verdict.

John Mitchels Yarned in Phelan Cup

John Mitchels, who might well be termed the championship favourite, will endeavour to qualify for their first-ever Phelan Cup final when they meet Mount Sion in the semi-final of the '63 competition at Walsh Park, Waterford, on next Tuesday night.

Senior Champions Favourites

At a meeting of the County Board in Dungarvan on Monday night the following championship draws were made: S.F.—Dungarvan v. Mount Sion, at Dungarvan, August 9; John Mitchels v. Ardmore at Dungarvan, August 9; Valley Rovers v. Kill at Dungarvan, August 10th; Ring and Emmetts v. Kilrossanty, at Dungarvan, August 10th.

Old Rivals Clash at Limerick

There are no greater rivals in the game of hurling than Cork and Tipperary. Whenever they are destined to meet there is an air of expectancy and excitement and as the hurlers of these great counties await to do battle in the Munster senior final at Limerick on Sunday next the Southern Province is agog in anticipation of a battle royal. Tipp of course, are the firm favourites. Their record in recent months speaks for itself and the ease with which they have crushed every opposition has made many to ask the question are the Premier County hurlers really invincible. But with Cork providing the opposition in a Munster final the issue cannot be regarded as an open affair. These 'Red Devils' are a law unto themselves in a Provincial decider and now that the road of resurgence has been reached they will not hear of defeat. Back onto the team comes the veteran Paddy Barry and he renews acquaintances with the great John Doyle. In Cork it is believed that Barry will have a steady influence on his younger forward colleagues whilst his experience should undoubtedly be an asset in an encounter of such vital importance. I personally am one that believes Cork are in this game with quite a chance. But nevertheless I cannot go beyond a Tipp victory. They have what amounts to an embarrassing array of forward talent as proved by the omission of Liam Devaney and it is their imposing attacking set up that I expect will give the County its 27th Provincial title. The same counties meet in the minor decider at 2 p.m. and early comers should be well rewarded by these under eighteen stars. Incidentally intending travellers would be well advised to get to the Ennis Road grounds early, as the capacity of the ground seems sure to be taxed to the limit.

Under-21 Hurlers Prepare for Munster Final

In preparation for the Munster final against Tipperary at Walsh Park on Thursday night next, July 30th, Waterford's Under-21 hurlers have a final try-out at Cappoquin on Monday (Thursday) when they meet Cork's intermediate side. The Leodisers have already qualified for the Munster final in this grade and it will be most interesting to see how the Waterford boys fare against such stern opposition. The game is timed to start at 7.45.

Dunhill Man Suspended for Twelve Months

Arising out of the referee's report on the Ballygunner-Dunhill senior hurling championship game, Mick Whyte (Dunhill) was suspended for twelve months at a meeting of the County Board on Monday night. Whyte was sent off during the course of that game at Tramore.

Dungarvan Juveniles Trounce Fourmilewater

Just as they have done in all their games to date, Dungarvan's juvenile hurlers swamped Fourmilewater in the Western semi-final last week. This was yet another power-packed display by the Old Boro youngsters who have amassed what must amount to a record scoring total in their games. They now meet Lismore in the final.

Senior Championship Fixtures

At a meeting of the County Board in Dungarvan on Monday night the following championship draws were made: S.F.—Dungarvan v. Mount Sion, at Dungarvan, August 9; John Mitchels v. Ardmore at Dungarvan, August 9; Valley Rovers v. Kill at Dungarvan, August 10th; Ring and Emmetts v. Kilrossanty, at Dungarvan, August 10th. S.H.C.—Mount Sion v. Ballydurn, at Tramore, August 2nd; winners v. Ballygunner at Waterford, Sept. 13th. Brickery Rangers v. Abbeyside, at Dungarvan, August 23rd.

Gaeltacht Scholarships

Minor and juvenile players within the county may now obtain application forms for Gaeltacht scholarships for the month of August from the Co. Secretary, Deuglan Guid, Church Street, Dungarvan. An oral examination will be held in the C.Y.M.S., Dungarvan, and Mount Sion School, Waterford, on Wednesday, July 29th.

Lismore Juveniles for Western Final

Lismore juveniles qualified for the Western hurling final when scoring a thrilling one-point victory over Tallow at Cappoquin on Thursday night last. This was one of the most exciting juvenile games staged in the West for many a day, and both teams are to be congratulated on putting on such a feast of hurling thrills. Lismore can proudly rejoice in victory but it was a pity that there had to be a loser to such an enthralling game. By this there is no disparagement of Lismore's play intended but it was a pity that such a gallant defeat after putting up such a brave display. In the first defences on both sides ruled the roost and at the interval Tallow led by 0-1 to nil. But if that opening half had been an exciting one it paled into insignificance when compared with the spell-binding fare that followed. Lismore took control immediately following the resumption and jumped into a clear two-goal lead. But Tallow hit back and a goal and two points reduced their deficit to the minimum. Again Lismore surged upfield and scored an invaluable point and try as they might the Tallow boys could only notch one other point before the close. Outstanding in a great Lismore defence were Buckley, Geoghegan, Daly and Hyland,

Ardmore for Phelan Cup Final

Kilrossanty Shocked in Exciting Game

ARDMORE 1-5 KILROSSANTY 1-3 THE county wide hopes of a Kilrossanty- last. In a year of surprise and shock results, John Mitchels clash in the 1963 final of the Phelan Cup were dashed unceremoniously when the Comeragh men were mastered by Ardmore in the penultimate stage at the Fraher Field on Sunday Night.

For a change I can report a game that was punctuated by some excellent football and the all-round standard was higher than has been witnessed at the venue for some time. Both teams stepped up on their respective championship displays, although down Leamy-briewy way there are certain to be misgivings about the merits of their side's performance. Of late lack of adequate forward material has been Kilrossanty's greatest singular failing, and on Sunday this inadequacy cost them their place in the final.

Temporarily they had the greatest misfortune, such as in the opening half in particular when assisted by the breeze, many golden chances of scores were squandered. Throughout that first moiety the dominating Kilrossanty sector was the half back line in which Noel Walsh was positively superb, but in general the service from hereabouts was literally abused by an attack that seemed utterly incompetent when it came to the all important aspect of scoring.

Ardmore, let it be said, were a vastly superior side to the one that did duty against Geradines in the championship. At all times they moved with a purpose, and unlike the Kilrossanties were capable of picking off the match-winning points when the opportunities presented themselves.

Little Headway

Yet, for most of the first-half the odds seemed stacked in favour of a Kilrossanty victory. An early brace of points by centre-forward Tom Flynn, one from over fifty yards range and the second from an acute-angled free gave them a tonic start, and so little headway were the Seaside's making that it appeared highly probable that they could have the issue well and truly wrapped up by the interval. But then it was that the weaknesses in this sector became so glaringly blatant. First Nedeen Lonergan allowed himself to be dispossessed when a score seemed certain, and shortly afterwards two forwards collided as the ball flashed across a yawning goalmouth.

Following these lapses, however, Ardmore came much more into the picture, thanks in the main to the incredible degree of latitude afforded to their midfielders. John Joe Carlton and Donal Linnane, Jim Rooney, who was having a profitless time against Noel Walsh moved to the forty in a direct switch with Fin Hallahan, and it was Rooney who opened their account with a point.

Decisive Score

But the decisive score of the game came within seconds of the break, following sustained pressure in the Kilrossanty goalmouth. Twice in the space of seconds Matty Lonergan averted possible major scores by his timely interventions, but the Ardmore onslaughts were unrelenting and the ball was eventually 'scooped' to the net from eight yards by Pat Pender. Thus, after having trailed for practically the entire half Ardmore somewhat flatteringly turned over two points to the good.

Yet in this game of fluctuating fortunes the issue remained in doubt. True, the picture had been altered considerably by that Ardmore goal seconds before the break, yet it would have bordered on rashness to rule out Kilrossanty's chances altogether. In fact the Comeragh men, just as in the opening half, started with a flourish, and regained the lead when Colum Cunningham smashed the ball past a helpless John Colbert.

In the subsequent few minutes they peppered the Ardmore goal without results, and once the Seaside's regained the initiative Kilrossanty's cause was a lost one.

This victory, hard earned though it may have been, was fully deserved. Numerically they had fewer scoring chances than the losers, but overall, moved with more precision and method, and now that they have reached their first ever final in this competition, will be extremely difficult to beat. The only degree of satisfaction that Kilrossanty mentors can have derived from the game was that the team stepped up somewhat on their Gaultier showing. Frankly, however, it is a team that falls short of accepted Kilrossanty standards, and unless the quality of their attack is improved, can hold out precious little hope of regaining the championship crown.

Ardmore's Best

For the winners, John Colbert was confidently competent between the posts, and his brilliant full-length save in the first half was one of the features of the game. Their defence after a somewhat uneasy start, easily mastered the losers attack. Eddie Monee was a tower of strength at full-back, but the real heroes in the sector were winghalves Tommy Power and Bertie Hallahan. Midfielders J. J. Carlton and Donal Linnane thrived on the freedom they were allowed, although Carlton somewhat marred his performance by his needless agitating of opponents.

Up front, their forwards found the Comeragh backs in one of their uncompromising moods, yet Jim Rooney, Pat Pender and Fin Hallahan played decisive parts in victory.

No blame can be laid at the doorstep of the Comeragh defenders for this defeat. Left half Noel Walsh gave a flawless exhibition all through, with Matty Lonergan, Jimineen Power and Tony Baldwin little behind. But it is the attack above all other sectors that must shoulder the major share of the blame. Countless were the chances that went begging, and with the exception of Tom Flynn, whose class was always apparent, none gained much credit from the encounter.

Ardmore: J. Colbert; J. Mulcahy, E. Monee, N. Power; T. Power, P. Carlton, B. Hallahan; D. Linnane, J. J. Carlton; J. Rooney, B. Hallahan, A. Flavin; M. Colbert, P. Pender, T. Hallahan. Kilrossanty: S. Ormonde; T. Baldwin, M. Lonergan, T. Moloney; P. Walsh, P. Power, N. Walsh; T. Walsh, T. Riordan; N. Lonergan, T. Flynn, M. DeLaney; C. Cunningham, J. Whyte, W. Casey. Referee: M. Ballinacourty Advance in Winter League

Ballinacourty ... 3-5 Cappoquin ... 1-7

Once again Ballinacourty proved what a fine footballing side they can be when defeating a highly rated Cappoquin team in the Winter League competition at Dungarvan on Sunday last. It was a fully deserved success and such was the impressiveness of their display that one really found it difficult to believe (no underestimating the achievement of their conquerors Affane) that they made their championship exit at the very initial outing. This was a ding dong struggle for most of the way and it was only a brief but decisive scoring spree in the second half that put 'Courty into yet another final. They were trailing by a point in the tenth minute of the second half but in a golden five minute spell tackled on 2-1 and in doing so made certain of victory. But submerged though they were during the Ballinacourty scoring blitz, Cappoquin had it in them to fight back, and at the finish were hammering away in search of the scores that at the least might have prevented defeat. The first half was one of all round equilibrium and fittingly the sides were level—1-3 a piece at the break. Nor were the opening minutes of the second half to provide either side with any noticeable degree of superiority and by the tenth minute Cappoquin led by a solitary point—1-5 to 1-4. Then came those Ballinacourty scores, but in a grandstand finish Cappoquin reduced their deficit with two further minors. Outstanding in a resolute Ballinacourty defence were Nicholas Power, John McGrath and Mick Keady. John Eidead was in rare form at midfield and in attack Pat McGovern, Peter Power, Rogie Cahin and Tony Mansfield were always prominent. Although defeat was their lot, Cappoquin put up a great showing and certainly their championship hopes are bright on the evidence of their display. They were best served on Sunday by E. O'Doherty, John O'Brien and P. Murray in defence; Ger and Paddy Mason at midfield and M. Kelleher, Ed. Fraher and Mickey O'Connor in attack.

Ballinacourty—P. Wall, J. Hayes, M. Kiely, P. Barron; N. Power, J. McGrath, E. Shields; J. Power, J. Eidead, P. McGovern; P. Power, D. Barry, R. Cahin, J. Hogan, T. Mansfield. Cappoquin—M. Fraher, N. Mason, E. Doherty, J. Fraher; J. O'Brien, P. Murray, T. D. Coffey; G. Mason, P. Mason, P. Leavy, M. Kelleher, E. Fraher; V. O'Connor, M. O'Connor, J. Dohogue. Referee—Sean Power.

Dungarvan Easily Master Ring

DUNGARVAN — 4-7 RING — 1-2.

Dungarvan Advanced to the semi-final of the western junior football championship, when scoring a decisive 4-7 to 1-2 victory over an inexperienced Ring side at the Fraher field, on Sunday last.

The football never reached any great heights, but on the bright side there could be no disputing Dungarvan's superiority, and the Blues have undoubtedly the nucleus of a side that could make further progress in this grade. They included several regraded seniors and the experience of these was always in evidence against what was a very youthful Ring side.

The first half, during which the losers played with the breeze, was interesting enough, and Dungarvan just about deserved their 2-2 to 1-1 interval lead. Momentarily during this half, the Ring side led by a point, but before the close the winners got on top outfield and their forwards tacked on the scores that gave them their four-point interval lead.

On the change over, Dungarvan took almost complete control, and with Michael Woods causing havoc at full-forward their tally quickly mounted. Ring, however, continued to battle valiantly, and were unfortunate to miss a penalty. This incident did not of course affect the overall result, but had the spot-kick been converted, might have prevented so one-sided a finish. Walsh was very high throughout and it was a somewhat harsh decision by referee Sean Power when ordering off a player from each side, following a minor second half incident.

There were many stars on this well balanced Dungarvan side. Matty Hayes was very solid in goal, and Conor Curran, Tony Mountain and Paddy Lannon starred in defence. Tom Crowley and Brian Morrissey held the whip hand at midfield, and in a very lively attack Michael Woods, Jim Walsh and Christy Carlton were best.

Despite being a well beaten side at the finish, Ring need have no misgivings about their display. They were an exceptionally young side, and never gave up trying even when it was obvious they were fighting a losing battle.

They had one of the best footballers at field in midfielder P. Murray and others to play well for them were Tom Whyte, B. and T. Harty and T. Drohan.

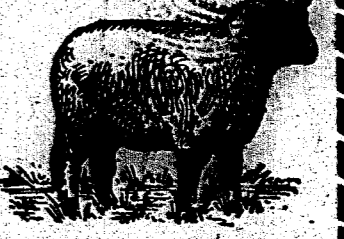

Dungarvan: M. Hayes; P. Lannon, N. Walsh, C. Curran; I. Hayes, E. Kiely, T. Mountain; T. Crowley, B. Morrissey; J. Walsh, K. Lannon, M. Tobin; C. Carlton, M. Woods, J. Murphy. Ring: M. Walsh; G. Curran, P. J. Curran; P. Whyte, T. Whyte, L. Walsh; P. Murray, B. Harty; B. Murray, T. Harty, T. Drohan; J. Walsh, J. McGrath, T. Kelly. Sub: J. Harty for Kelly. Referee: S. Power (John Mitchels).
