Health Authority Adjourned as Tribute to Chairman

As a mark of respect to the late Alderman Kenneally, Waterford Health Authority adjourned its monthly meeting on Friday. All the members and the County Council joined in paying tribute to a man who was described as an outstanding public representative.

Mr. Norman Walsh (Vice-Chairman) said this Authority had suffered a great loss by the death of their Chairman, Alderman Kenneally. Of all the local public bodies, he was more intimately connected with this Authority and formerly the Board of Public Assistance. He was their respected chairman for almost 25 years and was always re-elected unanimously. It was a mark of the esteem and respect that he was held in by his colleagues, irrespective of their political affiliations. They admired the manner in which he dealt with contentious matters. He (Mr. Walsh) had the privilege of being his vice-chairman for five years and during that time there existed between them a harmony, co-operation and goodwill.

Mr. Walsh said, "What he did not know about local administration was not worth knowing and his views were always eagerly sought after. He was a man of sound judgment and common sense and these two things were essential for a public life. He had been in the County Council for ten years, and he did so with outstanding success. He did not spare himself in the interests of his constituents. But we shall remember him best of all by his good nature and he never gave of himself. Public life in the city and county can't afford to lose a man of his calibre and the city and county is all the poorer by his death. I propose this meeting stand adjourned as a mark of respect."

Mr. P. Browne (Mayor of Waterford) said it was his sad duty to second that proposal. He knew the late Alderman Kenneally for nearly forty years and he never commented on others. He was an inspiration to all members and the filling of his vacancy would not be easily overcome. As Mayor of Waterford he wished to offer deepest sympathy to the Kenneally family and relatives.

Mr. J. Power said he had also known Alderman Kenneally for many years and he knew him as a peace-maker and loving man. They of the Health Authority would be all the poorer by his passing.

Gaelic Athletic Association and the old I.R.A., and his name was always very well written while. The city and county of Waterford would miss him because, unknown to most, he was a person who gave plenty of help to the poor and he did not want it publicised. To his family he sympathised in their very great loss.

Mr. W. Foran said the one outstanding tribute he would like to pay was to make reference to the amount of common-sense used by Ald. Kenneally. He was a true and gentle friend.

Mr. John Fahey said that no amount of words could express the loss they felt by Ald. Kenneally's death. He served the city and county well in Dail Eireann and on the County Council and other Public Bodies, but more so as chairman of the old Board of Assistance and the Health Authority. He was a kind and generous man and a great friend of the rich and poor.

Mr. T. Gallagher described him as a most inoffensive man who was a great loss to all public bodies.

Mr. Charles Curran said the late Ald. Kenneally had always shown great kindness to western patients in Waterford city hospitals.

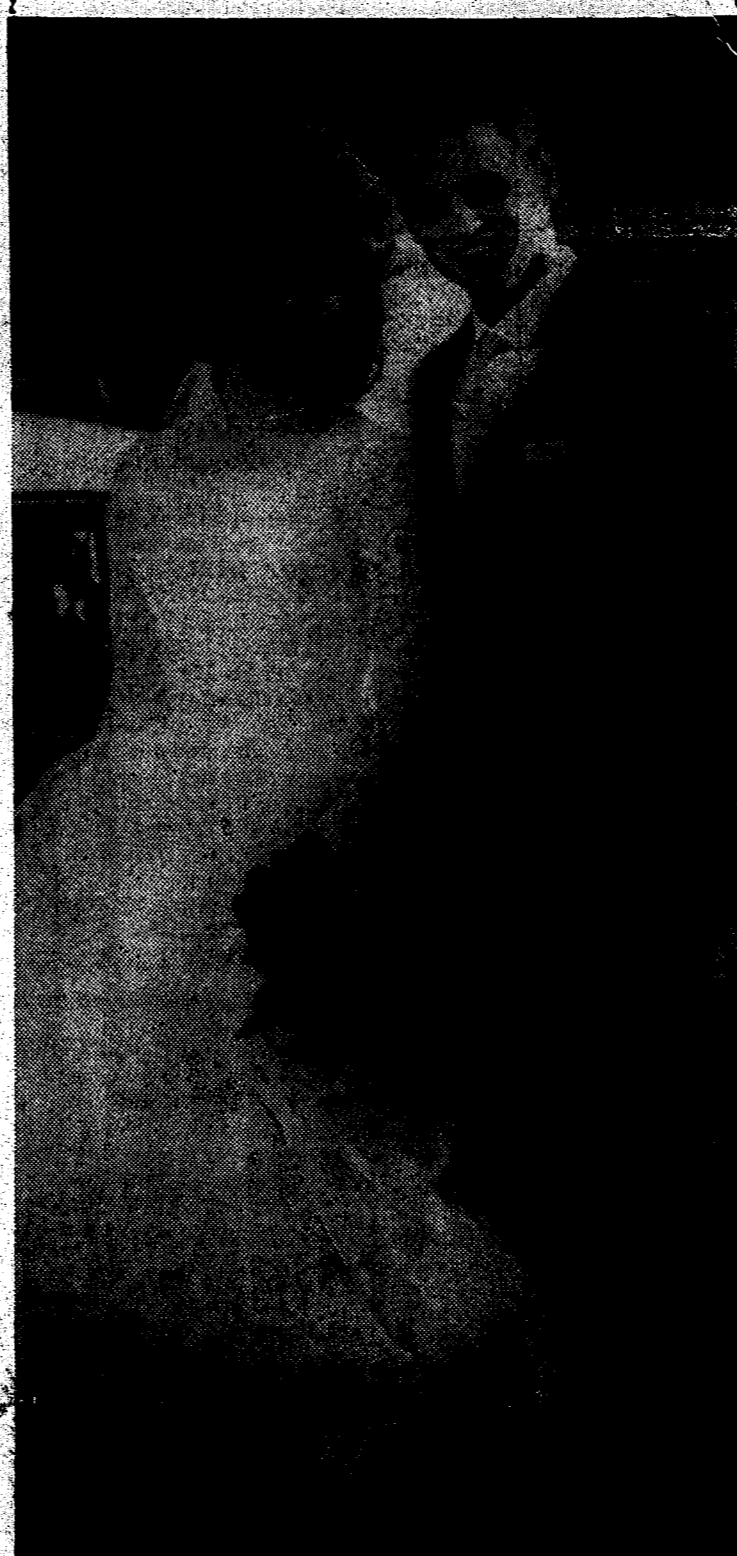

Mr. S. J. Moynihan (County Manager) joining in the expressions of sympathy, said the late Ald. Kenneally was an outstanding Public representative.

SYMPATHY TO COUNTY MANAGER
The members also passed a vote of sympathy to the County Manager, Mr. Moynihan, on the death of his brother, in the United States.

The vote of sympathy was proposed by Mr. C. Curran and seconded by Mr. J. Power.

Mr. J. A. Hynes, Secretary, on behalf of the staff and on his own behalf, was associated with both expressions of sympathy.

Council Will Not Sell Land

BY four votes to three it was decided at the monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council on Friday night last not to sell a fifteen foot wide strip of land at Shandon to Mr. Thomas Wade, Murphy Place, Abbeyside.

The Town Clerk (Mr. P. J. Doyle) said that when Mr. Wade applied to purchase the land he said it would be used to build a joinery shop. Under the new town planning act the Council would have control over these sites.

Colr. R. Walsh asked would they have any control if it was being used for something else.

Chairman (Deputy Kyne)—No. The Urban Council was not going to be a judge. It would be a bad day if that position ever existed.

Colr. Lannon then proposed and Senator J. Butler seconded that the land not be sold to Mr. Wade.

Colr. Richard Walsh described Mr. Wade as an enterprising man.

Colr. Lannon said that when Mr. Wade asked the Council for the land he said it was required for a specific purpose. But it was now being used for something else. If the site

Lack of Harbour Buoys Deplored

A letter from the Dungarvan Boat Association deploring the lack of channel buoys in Dungarvan Harbour, was read by the Town Clerk (Mr. P. J. Doyle) at the monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council on Friday night.

The letter stated that from Billinacourty lighthouse to the quay there were only two starboard and two port buoys. The letter also stated that with the increase in sea traffic in Dungarvan and the possibility of further industrial development extra buoys were needed to protect craft.

Mr. P. Walsh, Engineer, said that second-hand buoys cost between £275 and £475 each.

Colr. T. Lannon said that the Town Clerk should write to Guinness & Sons for a few of the containers and they would do the job properly.

The Town Clerk said that the Dungarvan Harbour Master had the same thing in mind.

This suggestion was unanimously agreed to.

ANGLING

With the exception of an odd few breaks in the tide this week, it would appear that the mackerel, which were more numerous than ever this year, have ceased on. Line anglers are said to be doing fairly well with tiddlers averaging about 1 1/2 lbs.; while the trawlers are having good hauls of flat fish. The Cork Anglers who operated from Youghal Bridge to Ferry Point on Sunday last had an ideal day for their outing, but the results in catches were very poor.

YOUGHAL FAMILY BEREAVED

On Thursday last Mr. Michael Roche, of New Road, Youghal, was notified that his brother Mr. Joseph Roche, was killed in a flying accident in Africa, and the news was received in Youghal, with very deep regret. The deceased was a well known surgeon before Northern Rhodesia. Born in Ballycotton in 1913, he received his early education at the local National School and the Franciscan College at Rochestown. At U.C.C. he read a brilliant course classes and took his M.A. degree with honours. He taught at M'Clintock Grammar School and Presentation College, Cork. On his return to college, to take up medicine, he took all examinations to final with honours, winning the Keane God Medal. Later, he volunteered for missionary work in Northern Rhodesia. Mr. Roche, who met his death while flying on a mission of mercy in an accident, was also a noted hurler and footballer. He captained the Fitzgibbon and S'gerson cup teams at U.C.C., winning medals with both teams.

He is survived by his brothers, Mr. J. P. Roche, New Jersey; Major D. R. Roche, Harriburg; Rev. Bro. Vergilius, Patrician Bros., Malrow; Mr. M. Roche, Youghal, and Mr. E. F. Roche, Cork.

MINOR HURLING TEAM CONGRATULATED

At a recent meeting of the Urban District Council, hearty congratulations were extended to the Cork County Board of the G.A.A. on winning the All-Ireland minor hurling title.

X-RAY UNIT SOUGHT

At a recent Urban Council meeting, Mr. Kevin Hennessy said they should try to get the x-ray unit to Youghal. "If we do not succeed in getting it at local level we should try and get it at national level." The suggestion was accepted by other members of the Council and the Town Clerk was then directed to communicate with the responsible body in connection with the matter.

ELECTION OF FISHERY CONSERVATORS

There was keen interest in the election of Conservators for the Tidal Division of Lismore No. 4 District during the week, when the last day for acceptance of voting papers was Thursday, October 1st. The counting of votes takes place on Friday, October 2nd and the result will be made known on Saturday. There are seven candidates for six seats, and the new Board, consisting of 12 elected members and nine ex-officials will have its first meeting on October 22, which will be an estimates meeting, and at which the Chairman and Vice-Chairman will come up for elections.

SUCCESSFUL PEALE SEASON

According to the returns of salmon and peale taken for the month of July, being the last month of the net season, the number of peale taken was 3,000, in excess of that for the corresponding period last year.

The recorded catches for that month were: 2,801 salmon of 28,718 lbs., and 18,316 grise of 104,475 lbs., of which 2,440 salmon (25,110 lbs.) and 17,073 peale (97,357 lbs.) were taken by nets. 422 salmon (2,107 lbs.) and 350 grise (1,808 lbs.) were taken by rods, while the balance of 139 salmon (1,439 lbs.) and 883 grise (4,909 lbs.) were taken by stake weirs. In addition, 300 sea-trout, weighing 500 lbs. were also taken.

The total recorded catch for the season will be available later in October, and which will show an increase in the number of peale and a decrease in the number of salmon, as compared with 1963.

TALLOW NOTES

IN HOSPITAL

We are sorry for the absence of the "Tallow Notes" from the "Observer" for the past three weeks, which was due to I being in hospital. I would like to thank the doctors and staff of Ankeren General Hospital for their great kindness and attention during my time as a patient there. May they long continue the good works.

WEDDING: CLYNCH, TOBIN
A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the Church of the Holy Cross, Kilmacree, on the 29th inst. between Mr. Francis Clynch, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Clynch, Dublin Rd., Navan, Co. Meath, and Miss Catherine Theresa Tobin, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Tobin and the late M. Chae. Tobin, Ballyhamlet, Tallow.

The ceremony, with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing, was performed by Very Rev. Fr. Michael Power, P.P., Knockanore, assisted by Rev. Fr. O'Meara, C.C., Cappoquin. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. James Tobin, wore a white full-length gown of embroidered brocade with a circular train, and shoulder-length veil, held in place with a coronet of white roses and carried a bouquet of red roses and maidenhair fern. Miss Mary Tobin, S.R.N., S.C.M., sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore a full length gown of pale green embroidered brocade. Her headpiece was a tiara of pearls and she carried a bouquet of white roses and maidenhair fern. The trainbearer Miss Colette Ahern (niece of the bride) wore a white frock with a braid of yellow roses in her hair and carried a posy of mixed roses.

Mr. Thomas Clynch, brother of the groom, was best man. The reception was held at the Imperial Hotel, Cork, and where upwards of sixty guests attended. Going away, the bride wore a Donegal tweed suit of black and white check, with astrachan collar, wide brimmed red hat and black accessories. The honeymoon being spent in Jersey Channel Islands.

Both bride and grooms were the recipients of many wedding gifts and congratulatory messages. We join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Clynch the best of luck and happiness in the married state.

The All-New Betram Mills, Circus Super Show

An entirely new concept has been evolved in the presentation of Betram Mills' Circus for the 1964 Tenting Season. The ingenious use of the latest lighting techniques combined with a stage as well as the traditional ring are just two items in this exciting new production.

To counter the impression that Circus is something primarily designed for children, this season's show, entitled "The Super Show," has been especially designed to attract the adult and the teenager. In the "Russian Roundabout" presentation, Russian dancing will be performed by a troupe of girls. In addition to a Cosack Riding Team.

As an introduction to the "Eastern Wonder" spectacle presented by the mysterious Li-Chang, ballet girls will perform an Eastern Temple Dance. To satisfy the popular demand, Horses, Elephants, Dogs and Chimpanzees will find their place in the programme as well as Tapes, the latter being presented in the new MILLS-TYPE stage without bars.

In all the acts, glamorous costumes have been created to give the whole show dazzling colour. The combined effects, expertly compounded, will give credence to the title "The Super Show."

Popular Clashmore Bar

Since it was opened last year O'Brien's Modern Bar, Clashmore, has become very popular and is patronised by a wide clientele. Its brightness and socious comforts and the quality of the drinks provided attract ever increasing patronage and to meet the demand the popular proprietor has decided to carry out further extensions. Full details will appear in our advt. columns later.

At a Committee meeting of the above, Mrs. V. Morrissey, South Tee, Dungarvan, was unanimously appointed Musical Director. It was decided that the next production would be a "Black and White Minster Show" in the Friary Hall, on Jan. 3rd, 4th and 4th, 1965. This will be a very more elaborate and more colourful version of the type of show that so caught the imagination of the public at the Park, during Ga.a Week.

The Superior of the Christian Brothers School, has again this year made a room available for rehearsal at the school and the Committee takes this opportunity of thanking him for his kindness now and in the past.

Practices will commence on Monday, October 5th at 8.15 p.m. Members and intending members please note.

Dungarvan Dramatic

Society A.G.M.

Mrs. M. Coward, Vice-President, presided at the annual general meeting of the above at the Devonshire Arms Hotel. Officers for the coming year were all returned unopposed.

Election of officers: President, Mr. M. B. Cullinan; vice-do., Mrs. M. Coward; Hon. Treas., Mr. P. O. Murchu; Hon. Secretary, L. A. Comerford. Committee: Mrs. E. Hockin, Miss R. Bulfin, Miss E. Hughes, Mr. J. Riordan, Mr. J. O'Keefe, Mr. M. Coward, Mr. V. Byrne.

The Hon. Secretary reported that owing to circumstances completely outside the club's control, it found itself this year without a room for rehearsals and despite efforts of the officers during the summer, alternate premises were not secured. It was decided that there would be an outing to Waterford to the Grand Opera Society's production of "La Traviata" during October.

"ANOGAL" NEW

WONDER RUST

PREVENTOR

PREVENTO

What is Rust? Rusting is caused by a chemical change of state when iron or steel comes in contact with air and moisture to form a new material like the original iron ore. It has been described as the "Industrial Cancer" — an industry in reverse. Its ravages are staggering. It costs Britain £600,000,000 and the U.S.A. £2,000,000,000 per year.

In Britain, the answer? In G.B. 50,000,000 gallons of paint are used to prevent rust. Rust is the used each year in a futile effort to prevent rust. Rust is the main reason for paint failure. Rust gnaws behind a normal paint finish and accelerates its breakdown. Paint does not prevent rust — it merely cloaks it for the time being.

What Does Prevent Rust? About ten years ago a team of British Industrial Scientists developed ANOGAL. This new wonder electro-chemical liquid metal has been proved to be the answer to all rust problems and it is now being used extensively in over 50 countries. Anodal consists of highly atomized anodic metal held in a plastic base and not only does it prevent rust, but it stops rust creep. It is now available on the Irish market and is already in great demand.

For details, see advertisements in this issue. N.B.—Users in this country include Dungarvan creameries, Cappoquin Bacon Factory, Balmers Clonmel, Seaford Fisheries, Youghal, Murray's, Builders, do.; Morris and Buttimer, Builders, do.; Harp Lager, Fords, Cork; Sextons, Dungarvan.

Received Message of Thanks from President

Colr. N. A. Kelly, a member of Dungarvan U.D.C., has received the following message from President De Valera:

"The kind message which I received from you during my recent illness was a source of encouragement to myself and my wife. I send you my heartfelt thanks."

DANCE IN TOWN HALL LATE MRS. MARY CATHERINE BARRY

A grand dance will be held in the Town Hall, Dungarvan, on Sunday night next with music by Dungarvan's own Royal Aces. Dancing is from 9-1. Admission 5/-. A great night assured.

The death took place at her residence in Rice's Street, Dungarvan, on Thursday, Sept. 24th, of Mrs. Mary Catherine Barry.

Deceased was a most kind and inoffensive woman who endeared herself to all classes. She had reached a ripe old age and her passing will be greatly regretted. She was a member of one of Dungarvan's oldest families and her kindness and unassuming manner were features of her exemplary character.

The remains were removed to St. Mary's Parish Church on Thursday evening, Sept. 24th and were received and blessed by Rev. Fr. J. Murphy, C.C., assisted by Rev. Fr. Dee, and Fr. O'Mahoney, O.S.A. The burial took place in the adjoining cemetery following Requiem Masses on Friday morning. Large and representative gatherings were present at both funeral and burial.

To her bereaved family, sympathy is extended. The chief mourners were: Mrs. Barry (son); Mrs. M. Barry (daughter); Mr. Thos. Barry (brother); Thos. Butler (son-in-law); Mrs. Thomas Barry (sister-in-law); nieces and nephews.

(Funeral arrangements by John Phelan, Dungarvan).

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

O'CONNOR—The wife, brothers, sisters and relatives of the late Michael O'Connor, Caseyville, Dungarvan, wish to return sincere thanks to all those who sympathised with them in their recent bereavement; sent Mass cards, telegrams and messages of sympathy, attended the removal of the remains, mass and burial, and those who helped in any way. They especially wish to thank the Sisters, Nursing staff and attendants at the District Hospital. They trust this will be accepted by all in grateful acknowledgment. The Holy Mass will be offered for their intentions.

DANCING NUMBERS LIMITED COLRS. CRITICISE NEGLECTED CONDITION OF PROTESTANT CHURCHYARD

At Friday's meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council it was stated that consequent on the decision of the District Justice to place a limit on the number of persons being admitted to the Town Hall for dances, the additional provision now applied to the letting of the hall for public dances: "The Committee or others using the hall should be responsible for ensuring that the maximum number admitted to the hall does not exceed 450."

Colr. R. Walsh said there were often 1,000 people in the building when it was covered with timber and felt and nothing ever happened. Now when it was impossible to burn the building the numbers were restricted.

Deputy Kyne said the Council could do nothing about the restriction made by the District Justice.

Before the meeting was an application by the newly formed Dungarvan Badminton Club for the use of the Town Hall at a specially reduced rate.

Deputy Kyne said the new club would not be able to pay the usual cost of the hall and he suggested it be given at a reduced rate.

The Sanitary Officer (Mr. Walsh) said that when a Badminton Club was started some years ago it was found necessary to have a covering on the floor to avoid an accident if someone fell.

The Town Clerk said that because of the decision of the District Justice to restrict the numbers provision would have to be made when the hall was being let.

Finally it was decided to let the hall to the Badminton Club at a specially reduced rate.

The neglected condition of the Protestant Churchyard in Dungarvan was criticised at a meeting of the Urban Council on Friday night last.

Colr. R. Walsh said he attended a funeral there recently and several people asked to have the place cleaned up.

The Chairman (Deputy Kyne) said it was private property and the Council could do nothing about it.

Mr. P. Walsh, Engineer, said the right-of-way through the churchyard had been cleaned up on several occasions.

Colr. T. Lee said it was unfair to people who came back to Dungarvan to visit graves to find the churchyard in this condition.

Deputy Kyne said it would cost money to clean up the church yard. The matter could be referred to the church.

Colr. Lee said the Council should send a few men to clean the place at Christmas time. The condition of the churchyard was not to be seen anywhere else in Ireland. They should be compelled to do it and if the Council had no function in the matter they had no business coming to meetings.

The Chairman said that if the County Manager was foolish enough to agree to clean the churchyard he would be surcharged by the Auditor.

WEST WATERFORD NOTES

POPULAR PRIEST TRANSFERRED

The announcement of the transfer of Rev. M. J. Russell, C.C., his occasional help in the combined parishes of Cashmore and P. town, where he is beloved by the people, because of his many outstanding qualities, his piety, zeal and unselfish devotion to duty. During his five year stay in Cashmore he devoted himself untiringly to the spiritual and temporal welfare of all sections of the community and took a special interest in the poor, the sick and the young. Of an extremely charitable nature, he was a good and kind friend to all and the people of the parish feel a sense of personal loss at his impending departure and join in sincere wishes for his well in his new sphere of duty.

POPULAR AGLISH CURATE'S TRANSFER

The transfer from Aglish to Cashmore, of Rev. Fr. Tobin, C.C., has caused much regret amongst the people of the former parish, who had grown to love him because of his many outstanding characteristics. During his period of duty in Aglish, he never spared himself in the spiritual and temporal welfare of the people. He took a special interest in the local G.A.A. Club. The people of Aglish parish most sincerely wish him well in his new post and the people of Cashmore bid him welcome.

NFV P.P.

Very Rev. Michael O'Donovan, who has been appointed P.P. of Kilmacthomas parish, is a native of Cashmore. For a number of years he had served as curate at T. more and prior to that was C.C. at Waterford Cathedral. He is nephew of the late Very Rev. J. O'Donovan, S.J.; the late Very Rev. R. O'Donovan, and the late Very Rev. D. O'Donovan, and cousin of Mr. J. O'Donovan, N.T., Kilmacthomas, and Dr. D. O'Donovan.

DEATH OF MR. J. LYNCH, CLASHMORE

The death occurred unexpectedly of Mr. James Lynch, Knockanersh, Clashmore. A member of one of the oldest and most respected families in the parish, he was a very prominent figure. He took a prominent part in the fight for independence and figured in a number of engagements including the famous P. town ambush and had many narrow escapes. He was a member of the F.F. organisation and served in the L.D.F. during the emergency. Until his retirement about twelve months ago he was a member of the staff of Youghal Carpets.

The funeral to Clashmore Cemetery was of large and impressive proportions. The coffin was draped in the tricolour and a number of his former comrades attended. Very Rev. D. Cronin Power, P.P., and Rev. M. J. Russell, C.C., officiated. Very Rev. W. Hyres, U.S.A., was also present.

SYMPATHY

Cashmore Fianna Fail Cummen tendered sympathy to the relatives of the late Mr. James Lynch.

CLEAN STREETS EFFORTS

As stated in this column last week, the streets of Aglish, Cashmore and Villerstown to be cleaned at regular intervals in future. Litter baskets are also to be provided at all these centres to encourage cleanliness and it is hoped that the public will co-operate in the anti-litter campaign. At present, despite the efforts of the public authorities, the streets of the villages mentioned are regularly strewn with litter and this is most unsightly and causes unfavourable comment amongst visitors. Parents, teachers, children and all citizens should now take positive steps to effect an improvement.

VILLERSTOWN DEPUTATION

A deputation from the Villerstown area was recently received by the Secretary of Waterford County Council and amongst the matters discussed were: water and sewerage, footpaths, dangerous bends, cleaning of village, litter bins, roads, Dromsna bridge, etc. The deputation, which was representative, was introduced by Mr. Sean Treacy, T.D.

HOME FROM ENGLAND

Enjoying a holiday in his native district at present is Mr. James Coffey, who is accompanied by his wife. Mr. Coffey who is eldest son of Mr. Michael Coffey, is foreman for a leading cross channel building firm. During the emergency he served in the Irish army, with rank of Sergt.

RECRUITS REQUIRED

Following the autumn re-serve F.C.A. parades in this area will be resumed next week. Recruits are required at all centres.

THE HARVEST

Harvesting operations have now been completed in this area. While the quality of the grain was generally satisfactory, yields were much less than last season. In most cases the drop in yields was in the region of 30%.

SUCCESSFUL CLASHMORE STUDENT

Congratulations are extended to Master James Flavin, Clashmore, on his success in Intermediate examination, in which he received honours. He is a pupil of Youghal C.B.S.

RIVER AT AGLISH

The Secretary, Waterford County Council, has addressed the following letter to Mr. C. Curran, M.C.C.:—
"The Cleaning River at Aglish Bridge, I refer your representations to the County Engineer regarding cleaning of above river, and in this connection I am to advise you that the Council would appear to have no authority to carry out any work in this case as no public health nuisance exists."

HIGH STANDARD AT DUNGARVAN SHEEP SALE

A NOTABLE feature of the annual show and sale sponsored by the Co. Waterford Sheep Breeders' Association in Dungarvan on 23rd September, was the very high standard of wool and the large number of clean sheep displayed.

Commenting on the standard of blackface mountain rams displayed at the show, Mr. W. R. Reedy, Deputy Inspector of the Dept. of Agriculture, said the general standard was high, but not quite up to the standard shown last year. The need for sheep to produce stock of high quality was very important from the point of view of the standing of Irish wool on the export market.

INCREASED ENTRY

There was an increase of almost 25% in entries over last year's figure. Buyers from the Department of Agriculture, as well as from a number of southern counties attended the sale. The Curraghmore Estate, Portlaw, the biggest sheepbreeders in Co. Waterford, won the supreme award of the show for the best shearing ram. They also carried off the second, third and fourth prize in the same section.

WILL RAISE LOAN TO PURCHASE LAND

At the monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council on Friday night last it was decided to raise a loan of £2,210 for the purchase of land at Abbeyside. The Town Clerk (Mr. Doye) said the matter came up at a previous meeting of the Council but had been deferred. It was proposed to purchase five acres of Nugent's fields at the rear of Murphy's Place. The cost of the land would be offset by money which the Council would receive for land which had been sold to the County Dept. of Agric. (20 gns.) for the erection of a fire station in the town.

Kilmacthomas News

Sports Club—The usual monthly meeting of the long summer vacation of the Kilmacthomas I.C.A. Guild was held in the Temperance Hall during the week. There was a large attendance of members present. Correspondence was dealt with, as well as a number of other matters.

A Number of natives were among the many Waterfordians who enjoyed themselves at the Dinner-Dance of the Waterfordians' Birmingham Association, held recently at the Sycamore Hotel. An outstanding social success—they eagerly look forward to the next one.

Kill Social Club will hold their annual dance on Sunday, October 24th. Miss A. Galvin, Ballyhussa, has returned to London after a long holiday.

Youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick O'Brien, of Ballyhussa, is Brendan, who was treated for injuries received when he became entangled in some barbed wire near his abode recently.

Mrs. Rossiter and family have returned home, having spent a pleasant holiday with her parents and only brother Noel, at Old Road, Kilmac.

By the way, the local I.C.A. Guild would welcome new members.

The Engagement has been announced between Mr. James Quilty, Nicholasstown, Moolin, and Phyllis Hassett, S.R.N., S.T.A., only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Hassett, Kilmacthomas.

Sympathy is expressed to Mr. Dan Barrett, Shopkeeper, Sq. Strabally, on the death of his beloved nephew, Rev. M. Ahearn, F. of St. Augustine's Church, Merriel, Oregon, U.S.A.

The Late Mrs. Mullane, of Ballymacarby, Waterford, who died at Ardkreen Hospital, was sister of Rev. Joseph Cerew, S.M.A., Lagos, Nigeria, who it will be recalled, gave some very interesting talks over Radio Eireann, some months ago.

Much sympathy is extended to his Reverence and members of the family.

Strawberry Growing—A meeting was held at the Court House, Kilmacthomas, on Thursday, September 24th, regarding the growing of this valuable crop of which many acres are required. Much interest is aroused locally.

Members of the Power family, St. Anne's Rd., arrived from England during their week.

Sealed tenders are invited for L.P.H.W. heating installation at Kilmacthomas National School, of which Very Rev. J. Harty, P.P., Kilmacthomas, is Manager. Fr. Harty has had a number of improvements carried out to the school and church, both of which are a great credit to him and the parishioners.

Glad to see Mr. Willie Coffey, Faha, fully recovered from his recent indisposition and back at work again.

The news of the death Miss Aileen Flavin, Kilmacthomas, was received with feelings of deep regret by the people of these parts. The sad event happened on Saturday morning last, after a very brief illness, at Ardkreen Hospital, Waterford. Deceased was a gentle, kind, well known and charming lady who was loved by those she came in contact with. She was also very charitable.

The remains were removed to the Mercy Cemetery, Kilmacthomas, on Sunday 27th Sept. Burial took place in the Portlaw Cemetery after Requiem Mass on Monday 28th. There was an immense concourse, representative of all lanes, on Monday next.

The October devotions commenced tonight, Friday, in the parish of Ballyanen-Strabally. Also, the customary St. Anne's devotions start at St. Anne's Ballycourse, representative of all lanes, on Monday next.

Deep and sincere sympathy is extended to her brothers, sisters, nephews and nieces. May her gentle soul find eternal happiness.

Fortified by the rites of holy church, Miss Eily Power, Ballymore, Co. Wick, died on Saturday, 20th Sept., at the Meath Hospital, Dublin. Deceased was an exemplary catholic mother and a very popular person. A good neighbour and ever ready to help those who were in need. She will be greatly missed by her family of six young children and her loving husband. Following Requiem Mass on Monday, deceased was laid to rest in the cemetery adjoining Clonsilla Church.

To her family we offer our most deep sympathy.

Visiting her parents' grave is Miss S. Walsh, N.T., of Mahonbridge, Kilmacthomas.

The many friends of Mrs. E. Power, Ballymore, wish her a speedy return to health and trust she will be out of hospital soon.

Visiting her sister Mrs. J. Walsh, Ballymore, is Mrs. Grandfield, of the United States of America. Mrs. Grandfield is a native of Kill, Co. Waterford.

GAELIC JOTTINGS

OUR FOOTBALL PROBLEMS—IS THERE A REMEDY?

Not since 1948 has a football crown in any grade been won by Waterford. Occasionally they have caused surprises, as Cork and Kerry will vouch for but for the most part the county has been but a chopping block for others. Is there any possible solution to the problem, or must Waterford continue to shroud itself in a football shadow.

There can be no denying the fact that it is undoubtedly the poor relation of hurling within the county and for years I believe the County Board is partially to blame. The footballers are never given the attention their hurling counterparts receive, yet it is the big ball exponent that swells the coffers of the governing Board year in year out.

Recently a well-known Gael in London circles called on me—Mick Morrissey, a native of Abbeyside—and we discussed at length this problem. Mick was of the firm belief that a step in the right direction would, as it were, be of a separate football Board and that would, as it were, be under the jurisdiction of the County Board. To my mind it is a most feasible suggestion and would undoubtedly improve the standard of the game in the county. A perfect example is Galway where such a position exists—and the results are certainly there for all to see.

I do not, of course, say that the setting up of this separate Board will turn Waterford's footballers into All-Ireland material overnight but I do believe as a long term policy it would be an outstanding success. Almost thirty years ago this paper again mooted this idea but apparently the suggestion fell on deaf ears. Having listened to Mick Morrissey tell of the advantages to be derived from it, I think it is worth a try at least.

At the moment the burden of the work is falling on the shoulders of Paul Lannon and a few others, but without the fullest co-operation their efforts are not meeting with success. Now is the time to attempt altering a rapidly deteriorating position. Immediate action from the appropriate quarters is necessary.

● ABBEYSIDE DEVELOP NEW PLAYING PITCH

Abbeyside is undoubtedly one of the most progressive clubs in the county. Some time ago club officials and members felt that a playing pitch of their own was an urgent want in the Village. Quite obviously it was a mammoth task entailing quite an amount of expense but these far seeing Villagers got down to work and procured a suitable field on the Waterford road and quite near the Village.

But now the big job of leveling off the pitch has begun and this week a bulldozer, two dumpers and a spreader have been engaged "on the job" which the Dungarvan Band and Gravel Company are carrying out.

Many clubs would have shuddered at the very thought of such a stupendous job of work, but Abbeyside greatly desired a playing pitch of their own and obstacles—no matter how great, would not stop them. When completed they will have a playing pitch suitable for their greatest needs and that in itself is a good thing for the future of Abbeyside hurling and football.

Abbeyside have set the pattern. Other clubs in similar circumstances would do well to follow in the Villagers footsteps.

Eddie Cunningham (Tallow) who was suspended some time ago following a Boardroom incident, was reinstated at the last meeting of the County Board having furnished an apology to the Chairman, Mr. J. Moloney.

It is good to see this popular Tallow man back in the Association again and incidentally he has been appointed to referee the Dungarvan-Abbeyside minor hurling second replay on Sunday next at the Fraher Field. He has also been instructed to play extra time should the teams again finish level at the end of the hour.

● ABBEYSIDE HURLERS PREPARE FOR SENIOR HURLING FINAL

Despite the fact that it is Mount Sion they face in the county senior hurling final on Sunday week at Dungarvan, there is no lack of confidence in the Abbeyside camp these days as they prepare for their tilt with the reigning champions.

Five nights a week they are at it at present with a full muster of players there for mustering of players at all sessions. They are determined to be fitter than ever before in their lives, and although rank outsiders in the eyes of most neutrals, are not discounting their own chances of upsetting the form book.

In next week's issue D.V. we will review this East-West decider in detail—the first final in which a Western team has been engaged for a number of years.

● REFEREES APPOINTED FOR SUNDAY'S GAMES

The following referees have been appointed to officiate at next Sunday's Western championship games: Mick Whyte (Fourmilewater) at the Affane-Cappoquin Intermediate football final at Cappoquin; Sean Power (John Mitchels) at the Brickeys-Dungarvan junior football tie, and Eddie Cunningham at the Dungarvan-Abbeyside minor hurling second replay.

● IT WAS GALWAY ALL THE WAY

For the fifth time in its illustrious history the magnificent Maguire Cup—symbol of football champions of Ireland, was borne over the Shannon to the County of the Tribesmen on Monday last.

Twenty-four hours earlier at Croke Park, before an attendance of 76,498, the maroon clad Galway men handed out a football lesson to Kerry, thus delaying for another year at least the Kingdom's celebration of their football "coming of age" with 21 All-Ireland titles.

It wasn't a classic final by any standards, but there was adequate compensation in watching those talented Galwegians literally play ducks and drakes with a bewildered, confused and thoroughly outclassed opposition. The Connaught champions were masters in the air and on the ground, and Kerry were indeed flattered to be only five points on the receiving end of an 0-15 to 0-10 final scoreline.

When John Donnellan won the toss and elected to play into the breeze, in the opening half, Galway had then taken the first step towards recovery of the "Siopa Maguire." For the first ten minutes the ball scarcely went into Galway defensive territory, whilst at the other end the accurate boot of a mesmerising Cyril Dunne had chalked up four invaluable points. The Kingdom did improve in that second quarter, yet Galway were excellent value for their 0-7 to 0-3 interval lead.

Kerry's brightest and most successful era came immediately after the restart, when for about the only time in the game they subjected the winners to severe pressure. First Pat Griffin tapped over a point, but then came two blatant misses that put paid to whatever chances they had of taking that 21st title. First Donie O'Sullivan shot wide from an unmarked position less than 20 yards from goal, and then Jo Jo Barrett muffed the shot almost straight at goalkeeper Johnny Geraghty from about eight yards range, and the ball was shoved out for a fruitless fifty.

Thereafter, the pattern was as before, with Galway playing a delightful brand of devastating football. Their forwards, plentifully supplied by the domineering men behind them, weaved laneways through a Kingdom defence answerless to it all.

The scoring gulf between the sides expanded and only belated and insignificant minors by Kerry saved them from an out and out drubbing. This Galway machine must be rated one of the most precision and "best oiled" to take highest honours for many a year. They were splendidly equipped defence-wise where John Donnellan was an inspiring captain and it was tragic indeed that in his hour of glory he should learn of his father's death which occurred during the interval.

At midfield Mick Garrett and Mick Reynolds were "monarchs of all they surveyed" and if Cyril Dunne was the scorer, in chief in attack, the Ballinacorney had five able and accomplished colleagues.

Kerry, in-keeping with their great reputation, accepted defeat like true sportsmen. But they seldom looked capable of matching football strides with Galway, and even they themselves will concede that they got off reasonably light

Minor Rivals Meet For Third Time STAGE SET FOR ANOTHER EPIC Football Title For Cappoquin?

ALTHOUGH the County championships take a respite on Sunday next the Western Division has a most attractive programme scheduled with appealing games at Dungarvan and Cappoquin. Unquestionably the game of the day is at the Fraher Field, Dungarvan, where the locals and Abbeyside meet for the third time to decide the destination of this year's Divisional minor hurling title. The Cornerstone venue stages another local derby between Cappoquin and Affane in the Divisional Intermediate football decider but whatever venue one chooses there should be ample reward forthcoming as both ties are likely to provide a feast of thrills.

Any place one goes in Dungarvan or Abbeyside these days there is only one topic of conversation—the minor hurling second replay. Such has been the splendour of the two undecided games to-date that few will want to miss this third meeting. On both occasions the Dungarvan boys snatched equilibrium with practically the final strokes of the game, but now more than a few believe that having been "let off the hook" twice, they will do the trick on this occasion.

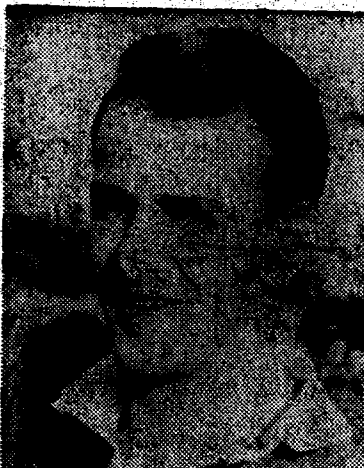

Certainly the experience gained from both games will be an invaluable asset to them. Nine of the side are juveniles and are bound to have matured in a hurling sense from these draw-puzzles. They are superbly fit, and if they lead at all entering the in a five point defeat. Their defence took a roasting for most of the hour and only goalkeeper Johnny Cullyoty, Denis O'Sullivan and Niall Sheehy emerged with distinction.

● BRICKEYS SHOULD ACCOUNT FOR DUNGARVAN

Whilst the minor hurling replay between Dungarvan and Abbeyside undoubtedly commands pride of place at the Fraher Field on Sunday next, the meeting of Dungarvan and the Brickeys in the junior football semi-final should also produce a rousing hour's entertainment. Brickeys are of course the form team and are strongly fancied to advance a stage further.

In fact this Brickey side is one that could very well "go the distance." They were most impressive when defeating Emmetts in a replay and backed by Richie Whelan, Fintan Gee, Pat Curran, John Sheehan, all with senior experience, look a formidable proposition indeed. Dungarvan received a first round bye from Valley Rovers and then trounced Ring in the second round. Since then, however, their senior side claimed many of the players that took part in that game, and replacements will have to be found for no fewer than eight of them. This I believe is too great a handicap, and consequently the Brickeys are given a confident vote to prevail.

Once again greatest trust will be placed on midfielder Pat Enright, who has done so much to carry his side to the Divisional decider. Enright is undoubtedly the key figure in this game and if reasonably held the odds will have swayed in Dungarvan's favour.

On paper at least, the Villagers attack looks a more formidable sextet than Dungarvan's, yet they have cut little or no ice against an uncompromising defence. Yet there are plenty of scores in "Ruby" Mahony, Mick Power, Mick Brett and Jimmy O'Dea, and the quartet will have to be closely watched.

After the first drawn game there were some who believed the replay might not live up to expectations. But these top class rivals put on an even more enthralling show and now the stage is set for the third and final episode in a championship saga to be remembered.

Whatever the grade, followers won't witness better fare than these minors are capable of serving up. The two hours played already will be recalled for many a day and if this third meeting is nearly as good, the expected record attendance for a minor game at the venue should be well satisfied.

It is impossible to state with any degree of certainty how this intriguing final will go. Abbeyside were my original choice and whilst they must still be the ever so slight favourites, Dungarvan have now become the fancy of many. But whatever the outcome it should be another spine-tlinging hour with only a score or two between them at the end of the hour.

FOOTBALL FINAL ALSO WIDE OPEN

The meeting of near neighbours and razor keen rivals, Cappoquin and Affane in the Western Intermediate football final should draw a host of followers to the Cornerstone venue. This is a unique pairing indeed in this grade and a thrilling hour's football seems assured before the 1964 Western champions are definitely known.

Affane have confounded everyone save their own partisan supporters by reaching the penultimate stage in their county championship bid. And it is surely a measure of their confidence on Sunday that they agreed to play the Cappoquin men "in their own back yard."

The Affaners were most impressive when taking the County Primary title last year, but few gave them a chance of first round survival in this year's championship when it became known that hot favourites Ballinacorney would provide the opposition. But even without their stalwart full-back John Healy they rose to the demanding occasion and scored a thrilling and deserved one-point victory. Against Kilmobey in the semi-final they were none too impressive, yet had a comfortable winning margin at the close. Cappoquin's credentials cannot be overlooked however, and the brilliance of their display when handing out a hammering to a highly rated Clashmore side gives a true indication of their worth.

For their midfielder Paddy Mason this will be an unusual decider, as he will be playing against former team mates. Last year he was one of Affane's key players in their Divisional and County successes but this year he decided to throw in his lot with his native town and now has the unique chance of winning football medals with different clubs in successive years.

Although Cappoquin have not yet picked their side I have been informed by a club official that it will be along expected lines.

They have outstanding footballers in Paddy, Mickey and Eddie Fraher, Mick Lacey, Ger. Mason, A. O'Keefe, Moe. Kelleher and these more than anyone else will be expected to create the victory openings.

Affane mentors announced their team early this week and as expected contains all the tried and trusted men. Pat Stapleton continues as Piersy Burtley's, goalkeeping successor and now that John Healy is back to his best form their full back worries have been solved. He is flanked by the experienced Sean Buckley, recovered fully from recent injury, and Tom Stapleton. Paddy McGrath continues as pivot of the defence flanked by Tom Scanlon and Danny Coughlan.

Now that Mason is no longer available Pat Denn is Paddy McGrath's new partner at midfield and up front the key men will undoubtedly be Eddie Shea, Bob Troy and the evergreen full-forward Jimmy McGrath.

This will undoubtedly be an uncompromising struggle in which quarter is likely to be neither given nor asked. The rivalry, as already stated is razor keen between them, and all the ingredients are there for a thriller. Opinion is sharply divided on the likely outcome and if Cappoquin will start favourites, Affane are displaying supreme confidence in venturing into "enemy territory" to decide the issue.

However, I am inclined to row in with those favouring a Cappoquin victory but certain it is that Affane will make them travel every inch of the way.

MICKEY LACEY... one of Cappoquin's key players.
