TECHNICAL SCHOOL CARETAKER

HURLING STAR APPOINTED

THE Waterford Vocational Education Committee discussed for over two hours on Tuesday the appointment of a full-time caretaker for Dungarvan Technical School. Before the Committee was a full and comprehensive report from a special sub-committee which had been set up to interview candidates and make a recommendation to the Committee. Mr. Norman Walsh, on behalf of the sub-committee, gave in order of merit the first seven candidates chosen by them. After much discussion the number six candidate was selected. The new appointment is Mr. John Kiely, Cathal Brugha Place, Dungarvan the former All-Ireland hurling star.

The C.E.O. (Mr. J. Rushe) said that at the last meeting of the Committee it was decided to appoint a sub-committee consisting of Mr. Norman Walsh, Deputy T. A. Kyrie with Mr. Walsh as chairman, and himself to interview candidates. The applicants were interviewed on Saturday last. Mr. Walsh said they met on Friday last from 10.30 a.m. to 5 p.m. There were sixteen applicants for the post but only thirteen turned up for interview. After a very thorough day's work they decided unanimously to recommend the appointment of John St. John (42) of Mary Street, Dungarvan.

The Chairman, Ven. Archdeacon Power, P.P., said it was a very important appointment and they wanted to get the best man.

Mr. Walsh said they did their duty honestly, objectively and openly and they named the candidates in their honest order of merit. The Chairman then congratulated the members of the sub-committee on a job excellently done.

Mr. Walsh then read out the names of the first seven candidates as decided unanimously by the sub-committee. They were: 1. John St. John, Dungarvan; 2. James Coffey, O'Leary's; 3. Patrick Flynn, Cooligh Rd., Abbeyside; 4. S. Donovan, Ring; 5. David Power, Congress Villas; 6. John Kiely, Cathal Brugha Place, Dungarvan; 7. Patrick O'Shea, Caseyville, do.

Mr. Walsh said that Deputy Kyrie, the C.E.O. and himself individually marked each candidate and they were unanimous in recommending St. John. He was a native of Thurles, was married to a Dungarvan girl and had two in family. He was presently unemployed and had been in the Defence Forces for 21 years.

WEDDING BELLS

BYRNE-MESKILL

The marriage took place at St. Mary's Church, Cappoquin, of Mr. Michael Byrne, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Byrne, Affane, Cappoquin, and Miss Christine Meskill, youngest daughter of Mr. Thomas Meskill, Castle Street, Cappoquin and the late Mrs. Catherine Meskill. The ceremony, with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing, was performed by Very Rev. J. Canon Kennelly, P.P., Cappoquin.

The best man was Mr. Joseph Byrne, brother of the groom, and the bridesmaid was Miss Nora Meskill, cousin of the bride.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a full length gown of lace and net over white satin, with matching coronet and full length veil and carried a bouquet of red roses with maiden-hair fern, while the bridesmaid wore a pink brocade frock with matching headdress and carried a bouquet of white roses. Miss E. Mullins, A.L.C.M., presided at the organ during the ceremony.

The reception was held at the Ocean View Hotel, Clones and the honeymoon is being spent touring the East of Ireland. Going away, the bride wore a tweed suit with matching accessories.

LOCAL VINTNERS' VISIT GUINNESS

The Licensed Vintners of Ring, Hannah and Thomas Abbeyside and the surrounding districts of Dungarvan, including Kilmacthomas spent a very pleasant day in Dublin on Tuesday last as guests of Arthur Guinness Son and Co. Ltd. Some time ago the firm took the Dungarvan Licensed traders on a similar trip.

On Tuesday morning two coaches left Dungarvan at 7 a.m. with the guests. A sumptuous breakfast with drinks was served on the train from Waterford. On arrival at Kingsbridge just after 11 a.m. the party was taken by coach to the St. James's Gate Brewery where coffee and biscuits and drinks were served. They were then divided into three groups of over twenty each and taken by guides on a tour of the factory which lasted roughly an hour and a half.

Lunch was then served consisting of: Melon; Minestrone; Chicken Maryland; Peas; Croquette Potatoes; Fruit Savarin; Coffee (and Guinness Stout, Harp Lager, Phoenix Ale or Fruit Squash). Mr. M. Kent, Kilmacthomas, on behalf of the guests, thanked Messrs. Guinness for the wonderful courtesy extended to them.

After lunch those who wanted to shop were brought to the centre of the city while another coach took the others on a sight-seeing tour, and the coaches had their parties at Kingsbridge to meet the 6.15 train to Waterford on which high tea and drinks were again served. At Waterford Station the coaches were waiting to take the guests to their respective destinations. It was a memorable day for those who travelled when the Irish saying "Bhi nua gacha biaidh agus seana gacha diaigha again" was never more appropriate.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. O'Connor, Abbeyside; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kiely, do.; Miss Mary Power, Clones; Mrs. Stack Main, St.; Mrs. Quill, The Pike; Thomas Sheridan, do.; Mr. and Mrs. W. Begley, Whitechurch; Mr. and Mrs. Walsh, Kilrossanty; Mary Murray, S. A. Murray,

TRAFFIC CONTROL AT PARISH CHURCH

At a recent Urban Council meeting, with Mr. P. Linehan in the Chair, the question of motor traffic via Chapel Lane to the Parish Church was again discussed, when it was pointed out that pedestrians going and coming from Sunday Mass are in danger with the increased traffic. It was finally decided to appoint a sub-committee to go into the matter and make their recommendations to the next Council meeting.

SYMPATHY TO THE LATE MRS. S. HURLEY, P.C.

The meeting of the Urban Council adjourned for a short period as a mark of respect to a former colleague, the late Mrs. Susan Hurley of Esplanade Hotel, Youghal.

BOUNDARY EXTENSION

The following notice of motion has been handed in by Col. Sean P. Daly, B.E.: "That the Minister for Local Government be requested to consider the boundary line of the Youghal Urban District, the Southern line to be extended to Ballyvergan East and the line on the northern side to be on the new eight inch pipe line to the reservoir as owners in that portion of the district get no sewer or water services." The notice of motion is to be considered at the next appropriate meeting of the Council.

YOUGHAL U.D.C. TENANTS' ASSOCIATION

The Urban Council considered a letter from the Hon. Secretary of the Council Tenants Association for permission to have its officers attend Council meetings, and the members present decided that if the members of this Association wish to attend meetings they should look for authority in the ballot boxes.

ROW OVER HURLING TEAMS

At Youghal District Court, before Mr. L. Skinner, D.J., John Hogan, Sarsfield's Tee, Youghal, was charged with (1) assaulting Thomas O'Brien, Killeagh, causing his actual bodily harm; (2) and on the same occasion assaulting Thomas Fitzgerald of Castledermot, Killeagh.

Supt. Clinton prosecuted and Mr. J. N. R. McNamara, Solr., was for the defendant. In evidence, O'Brien stated he met Hogan on the Strand and talked about the hurling match between Youghal and Killeagh. While an argument was in progress Fitzgerald came along and joined in the argument. Hogan got excited and butted Fitzgerald and O'Brien with his head. O'Brien stated that he was attended by Dr. Foy and as neither of them gave any provocation, he reported the matter to the Guards. The Superintendent then read a long list of previous convictions, and the Justice sentenced Hogan to three months on each charge, the sentences to run concurrently, and in the event of an appeal he fixed recognisances as £20 and two sureties of £10 each.

SERVING WITH U.S. ARMY

Kelleher, son of Mr. John Kelleher of Mary Street, Youghal, is at present serving in the United States Army at the Aberdeen Proving Ground, U.S. Private Kelleher who is 24, is now serving as chaplain's assistant in the Post Chapel Centre. On completion of six years at the seminary he decided to take a new look at the outside world before making his final decision. He was employed by the Cooke Travel & Banking Firm in New York just after he had been enrolled at Fordham University.

YOUGHAL CHURCH'S 500th ANNIVERSARY

On December 27th next, St. Mary's Church, Youghal, will celebrate its five hundred anniversary as a Collegiate Church. The present building, which was recently renovated, was built in 1220.

LATE MRS. F. YELLOP

Deep regret was occasioned at the announcement of the death on Monday last of Mrs. Frances Yellop of Windmill Hill, Youghal, which took place at the Youghal Cottage Hospital, after a prolonged period of illness. The late Mrs. Yellop (nee O'Sullivan) was a member of an old established Youghal family. She is survived by her husband Mr. James Yellop; her brother Mr. Ed. O'Sullivan and sister Mrs. D. Four Defendants on Dangerous Driving Charge

Charges of dangerous driving against Michael Morrisson, Youghal Road, Dungarvan; Thomas Crotty, Knockforen, Grangelawn, Waterford; Mrs. Geraldine Deasy, Cappagh, were dismissed by Judge Skinner at Dungarvan District Court on Wednesday. A fourth defendant who was similarly charged was convicted of careless driving and fined £1. He was John Kirwan, Cusheam, Dungarvan.

In evidence, Mr. Liam Morrissey said that at about 7 p.m. on July 27th last, he was driving his van to his farm at Ballymacnaghe, Collins. He saw several vehicles coming against him and the first one was his brother's van. He saw the driver of his brother's van waving him down and he (witness) slowed down well on his own side. The driver of his brother's van did likewise and had been signalling for at least fifty yards with his hand. When both vans were parked on opposite sides of the road there was room for two buses to pass. Michael Morrisson was driving his brother's van.

Mr. Vincent Morrissey, owner of the van said he was in the passenger seat and Morrisson was driving. He saw his brother Liam coming towards them in his vehicle. Morrisson put out his hand and waved down his brother. When they stopped they were about one and a half feet from the grass margin.

Replying to Mr. Farrell Solr., for Morrisson, witness said: "When I got out of my van, three lights behind the car proceeding them. He saw the van in front and the driver though calling some of the approaching vehicles. The car in front braked violently and they also put their car to a standstill. They heard a bump to the rear of their car and then saw the motor cyclist with a helmet being thrown on it. We then saw a man lying on the ground covered in blood. It was the motor cyclist and friends who knew him brought him into hospital.

Sergeant Michael Deasy, a member of the car driven by his wife, Mrs. Geraldine Deasy, also a defendant in the case said they were about three lengths behind the car proceeding them. He saw the van in front and the driver though calling some of the approaching vehicles. The car in front braked violently and they also put their car to a standstill. They heard a bump to the rear of their car and then saw the motor cyclist with a helmet being thrown

Abbeyside Hold Successful Social

ALMOST one hundred guests attended the successful Annual Dinner-Social of Abbeyside G.A.A. Club, in the Devonshire Arms Hotel, on Thursday night of last week. The many speakers congratulated the club's senior hurlers on their great championship bid of '64 and the hope was expressed that next year would see them realise their great ambition.

After the guests had enjoyed the superb four-course dinner, the Chairman of the Abbeyside club, Mr. Paddy Langan, welcomed all present. He then proposed the toast to the President of Ireland, Mr. Eamon De Valera.

Mr. Seamus O'Brien, Secretary of the Abbeyside G.A.A. Board, proposing the toast to the G.A.A., said that he would be talking to his club if he did not first of all congratulate the Abbeyside Club on the major part it had played in the Association over the past thirty years. Abbeyside had always been the strength and the club was going to strength to strength. He congratulated all responsible for this function as it gave them all the opportunity for meeting in a social atmosphere.

Mr. O'Brien continued: "For eighty years or more the G.A.A. has played a major part in shaping the pattern of the Irish way of life. This is the fifth generation of the G.A.A. and in each generation there are 70,000 players. Add to that figure the thousands of officials and the hundreds of thousands of followers and we get an idea of what the G.A.A. means in Ireland. There is scarcely a family in the country without some association with the G.A.A. and it is stronger now than at the beginning. We will never have an Ireland without the G.A.A."

Mr. Deane Goode, Secretary of the County Board replying to the toast of the G.A.A. first of all thanked the Chairman and Committee of the Abbeyside Club for inviting him to the function. He could go back a long time in the history of the G.A.A. and the Deane county had always played its part in upholding its principles. While he could not congratulate Abbeyside on winning any trophies this year, he would like to congratulate them on their great display in the county senior hurling final. Also the three great games against his own club Dungarvan in the minor grade.

Mr. Goode went on to say that Abbeyside as a unit of the G.A.A. had always played its part and he would like to say that the only qualification necessary for membership was allegiance to its National aspirations and to abide by its rules.

Mr. Tony Mansfield, proposing the toast to the Club, said that their club was an old one going back over forty years. They really came to the fore in 1960, when they won the county junior hurling title. Since then they had appeared in three county senior finals and nine semi-finals. Each year they field six teams and their sister club Ballinacourty fielded two more. They had now found their own playing pitch, which would become their home, and this was the stepping stone to further success. They did not win trophies this year, but they did the next best thing. They had three great games with Dungarvan in the minor championship and the senior hurlers were only narrowly defeated by Mount Sion in the county final. If the present spirit within the club was maintained they would realise their ambition within the next few years.

Replying to the toast to the Abbeyside Club, their Secretary, Mr. Phil Duggan, said their club had always been an active one from the very beginning and the Committees down through the years had kept the game alive. The club overcame many obstacles since its foundation in 1923, and the men of that period were responsible for putting the club on its feet.

"We on the Committee, he said, "depend on the players for making the club a success, as they are the vital men."

Wedding Bells—The marriage took place at Clonea-Power Church, on Saturday of yesterday, of Mr. James Quilty, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Quilty, Nicholas-town, Mooncoin, Co. Kilkenny, and Miss Phyllis Hassett, S.R.N., only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Hassett, Kilmacthomas.

The ceremony, with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing, was performed by Very Rev. J. Cahill, P.P., Clonea-Power, assisted by Very Rev. T. J. Clohossey, P.P., Moinecoin; Rev. A. O'Dwyer, C.C., Sieverue; Rev. T. O'Brien, C.C., Clonea-Power, and Rev. Fr. Lacey, C.C. Best man was Mr. Liam Quilty, Clogga, Mooncoin, brother of the groom, and the bride had as her attendant, her cousin, Miss Mary Walsh, Stradbally.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full-length frock of brocade, with chapel train and full-length veil, held in place by a tiara and carried a bouquet of mixed carnations, and maidenhair fern. Her assistant was attired in tangerine brocade, with matching accessories, and also carried a bouquet of mixed carnations. Mrs. McGrath, Carrick-on-Suir, presided at the organ, and played appropriate sacred music during the ceremony.

A reception for over eighty guests was subsequently held at the Hotel Minella, Clonmel, and Mr. and Mrs. Quilty later left for the honeymoon, which is being spent on a motoring tour.

The bridegroom is a well-known figure in farming and sporting circles and is also a prominent member of Mooncoin Macra na Feirme Branch. The bride comes of a very well known and popular Co. Waterford, farming family, and was trained for her profession, at Baggot Street Hospital, Dublin. She has been attached to the nursing staff of the Co. and City Infirmary, Waterford, for many years.

We wish them many years of happiness. The Ladies of Kilmacthomas Guild I.C.A. are busy with a "30" card drive to help "Conquer Cancer Campaign."

This certainly is a most worthy cause. £18 will be given in prizes and £1 to householders of winning ticket. Cards are 12/- and the finals will be held on November 27th. Do make sure of a card.

Delighted to see Mr. Sean Murphy, popular son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Murphy, St. Anne's, Kilmacthomas, back in Co. Waterford, where he is attached to the County Council Office, Dungarvan. Sean previously served in Co. Kilkenny in a similar capacity. Sunday night next, at the Rainbow Hall, Kilmacthomas, will see the 3rd Annual Dance, sponsored by Clonea Macra na Feirme. Another prize-winner (in music) was young master Tom Brown, Kilmacthomas. Mr. S. O'Brien, N.T. (a native of Stradbally) was among the group of members of the South Kilkenny Branch I.N.T.O., who held their annual dinner at the Grand Hotel, Tramore.

A Demonstration on Warble Treatment of cattle, was held on the farm of Mr. Thomas O'Shea, Faha, Kilmacthomas, during the week an dwas well attended.

Widespread Sympathy to Mrs. Walsh (Maternity Nurse) Sean Walsh's Pl., Kilmacthomas, on the death of her sister, Nurse Minnie Power, Stonehouse, Kilmadden, whose death took place at the County and City Infirmary, Waterford, on Friday of last week. Death of Mr. Timothy Dooley. His far-flung circle of friends learned with very sincere regret of the death, at an advanced age, of a very highly esteemed Ballyknock, Carrick-on-Suir gentleman, who had been in business in Kilmacthomas, for a long number of years and was beloved by all with whom he came in contact.

Son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Philip Dooley, Ballyknock, he leaves a son and sister to mourn his loss as well as a number of relatives. Rev. John Dooley, who died in Stradbally, many years ago, was uncle of the deceased.

Remains were removed from Belmont Hospital, Ferrybank, Waterford, on Monday, to the Convent Chapel, Kilmacthomas. Funeral took place after the celebration of Requiem Mass, on Tuesday, to the Friary Cemetery, Carrick-Beg for interment, R.I.P.

We regret to record the death of Mr. M. Veale, who died at St. Patrick's Hospital, Waterford. The remains were removed to Fews Church, where they were received and blessed by Rev. Fr. Barron, C.C. The interment took place after Requiem Mass, in the cemetery adjoining Fews Church. Sympathy is extended to his nearest and dearest.

Hearty Congratulations goes to Mrs. Paddy Tobin, Ballyogarty, Kilmacthomas, who was the lucky recipient of a prize in a recent "Quick Knit" Competition awarded by Sunbeam Woyley Ltd., Millfield, Cork. The panel of judges found it an exceptionally difficult task in naming the winners. Good luck, and may your nimble fingers bring much success to you in the future.

"Minister Playing Role of Pontious Pilot"

The Minister for Local Government was accused of consistently playing the role of "Pontious Pilot" in the matter of salary increases at a meeting of Waterford County Council in Dungarvan on Monday.

The discussion arose when the members of the Council were asked by the Minister to reconsider the rejection of salary increases for the Co. Library Staff.

Mr. J. G. Dowling (County Secretary) said that the applications for increases in salary for the Library Staff came before the Council on September 21st and had been rejected by nine votes to six. The Minister now asked them if they had any further observations to make on this occasion.

Fined on Fishing Charge

Edward Power, Co. Wick, was fined on a charge of fishing in the possession of a gaff in his possession at the river Colligan on August 30th last for the purpose of taking fish. He was fined £1 and ordered to pay £5.17.0 costs and 12/6 expenses. He pleaded not guilty to the charge.

Waterkeeper J. Doyle said he was on duty on the river on that date with Inspector Ryan. They saw a large number of salmon in a section of the river known as "Whelan's Pool." As they turned away from it they saw a man standing at a fence about fifty yards away. He had a gaff in his hand and he admitted that he intended taking fish.

Inspector Francis Ryan corroborated this evidence and added that the defendant made no bones about the fact that he was there to take fish.

The defendant, Edward Power said he was a farmer and had cows grazing near the river he went to see them that day as always and found that two of them had strayed. He went back home and got his sheep dog. The area near the river was overgrown so he looked for a stick which he would need to break down the bushes. He could not find any so he took the gaff along with him. When he found the cows he decided to have a look at Whelan's Pool to see if there were any fish in it. He saw the Inspector and the waterkeeper at the pool and had them under observation for about three or four minutes. If he was doing any harm he could have stepped away. He never said to the Inspector that he was there to get salmon.

N.F.A. NEWS SUCCESSION BILL

SUCCESSION BILL

The Incorporated Law Society of Ireland has expressed its alarm about a section of the Succession Bill. The section provides that where the estate of a dead person does not exceed £2,000 in value, the applicant for representation may deliver the prescribed particulars to the county registrar, or to an officer duly appointed by the Minister for transmission to the county registrar, setting forth the particulars of the assets.

BETTER PRICE FOR PIGS SOUGHT

An increase in the price of pigs was sought by representatives of the National Pigs Committee at a recent meeting with senior officers of the Department of Agriculture. Two observers from the I.C.M.S.A. were also present. The Department officers were told of the concern of the Committee that pig numbers were not increasing.

Dealing with grants for sow housing units, it was pointed out to the Department that a strong argument in favour of such units was one of encouragement to the small farmer to produce more bonhams; while there were adequate factory facilities, there was a definite scarcity of young pigs. At present, building costs, running as high as £100 per sow for an 8-10 sow unit, were prohibitive.

TRACTOR TRANSPORT

Great freedom in the use of agricultural tractors as transport vehicles has been sought by the Industrial and Transport Committee at a meeting with representatives of C.I.E. and the Department of Transport.

CONTINENTAL IMPORTS OF CATTLE AND SHEEP

The opening of the first quarantine station at Spike Island, in Ireland, last week, was welcomed by the N.F.A. as a significant step towards the improvement of livestock. This is the first time in memory that sheep and cattle have been imported from the Continent.

WAITING PERIOD

The controversial three-month waiting period in Britain for Irish sheep and sheep will be discussed at a meeting to be held within the next fortnight between the N.F.A. National Livestock Committee and representatives of the Ulster Farmers' Union.

NEED FOR CONTROL ON APPLE IMPORTS

Though this season was a fairly good one for the production of apples it for not much benefit to the grower. It was also a good production year in Britain with the result that British apples flooded the Irish market.

According to the terms of the Trade agreement with Britain, apples are allowed into this country on payment of a levy of 1d. per lb. In a season such as this an import duty of 1d. had little effect and consequently our market was flooded with the British commodity, selling at a very low price.

A meeting may now be sought with the Minister for Agriculture to discuss the control of imports of apples and also to ascertain Government policy on the future of home production.

PROMOTED

Garda Philip O'Meara, Ballynagarry, Roscrea, who has recently been promoted to the rank of Sergeant, is eldest son of Captain Jack O'Meara and Mrs. O'Meara, Knockboy, Ballynagarry.

CIVIL DEFENCE

Courses in Civil Defence training will commence at Tuamshingauna, on Thursday night, 12th November. In connection with above, our local M.O., Dr. O'Donovan, will give a series of lectures on "First Aid," in the schoolhouse every Thursday night, commencing at 8 o'clock.

DEALING WITH GRANTS FOR SOW HOUSING UNITS

The N.F.A. also pointed out that young boars which had been culled for breeding purposes could be accepted as bacon pigs if on examination at the factory they were found to be suitable.

If the international standards did not permit this, then at least facilities should be offered to the farmer to have such pigs cured for his own use.

THE INFORMATION RECEIVED SO FAR REVEALS

(a) The Ministers statement is correct in the vast majority of cases. (Two cases have been received where it is not true). (b) Farmers generally misinterpreted the Minister's statement to mean that (a) total rates, in other words on land and buildings, would be less than in 1956/57 or (b) total rates would be less than in 1963/64; (c) In the majority of the queries received, the method of calculating the abatements was not understood by the farmers.

NEW SEED

The new grass seed 'Orion' procured by the Department of Agriculture is not yet in sufficient supply to cover all needs, but it is confidently expected that when a general supply is available, many of the present problems will be eliminated. This seed is reputed to be of much better quality than that now in general use and it is hoped within a few years, as sufficient supplies become available, to have the entire production of grass seed grown under contract.

Mr. J. M. Quinn, Secretary to the National Grass-Seed Committee, says that when 'Orion' is readily available it will help to eliminate the importation of foreign grass-seeds.

According to Mr. Quinn: "At the moment we spend quite a bit on foreign pedigree grass-seed."

A commercial grass seed has been produced in counties Monaghan and Donegal for years past, but its quality has deteriorated considerably. When the new grass is in general supply all our requirements will be grown under contract. This will be a vast improvement on the old system where prices were negotiated for an 'unknown quantity'.

Mr. Richard Walsh said that personally, he did not approve of the method or present practice of co-option. It was not synonymous with democracy. He was not referring to the co-option of Mr. Kenneally, but in future he would propose that the man next in line on the election results be appointed.

Mr. Charles Curran said Mr. Walsh was not the only member thinking on these lines.

Mr. F. Roche said there was a snag in Mr. Walsh's suggestion. If the next candidate in line was a member of a different political party to the man who went out, naturally the members of that party would want a fellow partyman co-opted. If this was not carried out it would lead to a lot of dissension in the Council Chamber.

Mr. Curran said that he hoped the position would not arise again during the term of office of the Council.

Mr. John Fahey proposed that the members of the Trammore electoral area should serve on the deputation and after the discussions they could report back to the Council.

Mr. N. Walsh added that as matter stood at the moment, any deputation would be in the dark.

Mr. Charles Curran commented that the proposed extension of the borough boundary was a big issue.

On the proposal of Mr. J. Fahey and seconded by Mr. D. F. Madden, it was decided that the Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Mr. F. Roche and the members of the Trammore electoral area should meet representatives of the Corporation for discussions.

GAELIC JOTTINGS

Hurlers Successful Start To League Campaign BUT UNIMPRESSIVE AGAINST DUBLIN

WATERFORD HURLERS TRAVEL TO CARLOW

Having collected a valuable brace of league points on Sunday last, Waterford's hurlers travel to Dr. Cullen Park, Carlow on Sunday next in quest of another victory that would give them an unblemished record in the competition until it resumes again in the New Year. It is a game that Waterford will undoubtedly be confidently expected to win but they would be well advised to take nothing for granted against a side that has nothing to lose but everything in the world to gain.

MARTIN FLYNN... in action against Carlow.

Waterford, though victorious against the Metropolitans were not from impressive. In fact their form was a little more than disappointing in that game and considerable all round improvement for the many difficult encounters that lie ahead is needed. Obviously team mentors were not satisfied with last Sunday's display either and no fewer than five of that team have been dropped. There is also a positional switch in defence with Martin Og Morrissey reverting to his former centre back berth to the exclusion of Tommy Hearne.

The newcomers are Tom Allen (Dunhill), Mick Kiely (Abbeyside), Pat McGovern (Abbeyside), Vinny Connors and Frankie Walsh who was unavoidably absent against Dublin. Allen and Kiely flank Austin Flynn in a completely altered fullback line. Allen takes over from Tom Cunningham, who was well below his best whilst Mick Kiely is given a deserved chance in the corner where he takes over from Martin Og. Goalkeeper J. Power is rightly given another chance for well though Ned Power played well he replaced him on Sunday last the Barr's man proved he has the ability to make the grade.

As expected Larry Guinan and Jimmy Byrne retain their wing half berth but the pitching of Martin Og to the centre back to the complete satisfaction of Tommy Hearne was hardly generally expected. Although Liam Enright hadn't exactly a sparkling debut on Sunday last he nevertheless showed himself to be a player of promise and he is retained as partner to John Meany who on Sunday last gave a memorable display of power-packed hurling.

In attack John Barron and Mick Flannelly are continued absentees. Mick Regan is replaced by the returned Frankie Walsh whilst Abbeyside's Pat McGovern is preferred to John Flavin. McGovern is undoubtedly a fine club hurler and he could well make the grade at inter-county level. Sunday next it should help to decide Tom Cheasty is again on the forty and he was sufficiently impressive against Dublin to satisfy followers that he is running back into his best form.

The full-line is again spear-headed by Seamus Power, with Philly Grimes on his right and Vinny Connors on the left. Connors is a good choice and should add weight to a line that was not very impressive against the Mitros. Whilst expecting Waterford to win with something to spare, it will be more than interesting to see if the re-arranged side shows any all round improvement. Another brace of points would leave them in a happy state for the winter recess and this I expect them to accomplish readily.

The Waterford team is: Jim Power (St. Finbarr's); T. Allen (Dunhill); A. Flynn, M. Kiely (Abbeyside); L. Guinan, M. Og Morrissey, J. Byrne, J. Meany, L. Enright, P. McGovern (Abbeyside); T. Cheasty, F. Walsh, V. Connors (Ballygunner); S. Power, P. Grimes, Subs.—T. Cunningham, E. Power, J. Flavin, J. O'Brien, T. Hearne.

WESTERN JUNIOR FINAL AT DUNGARVAN

The Western junior hurling final is scheduled for Dungarvan on Sunday next between Ardmore and Abbeyside. The Seasideers have already suffered one major disappointment this year and are determined to atone to some extent for that set-back.

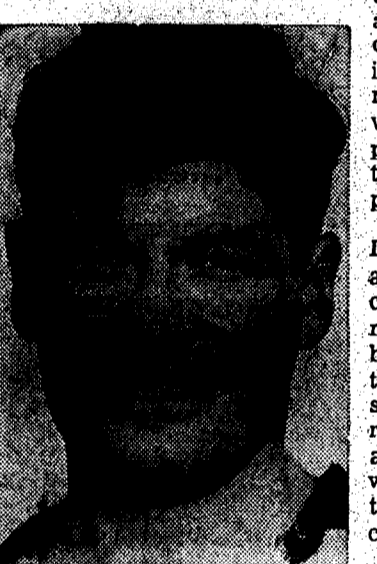

They boast of an exceptionally fine side by junior standards and in fact many believed yours truly amongst them that they were fortunate to be allowed to compete in this grade. They have out classed all opposition to date and the ease with which they disposed of Lismore and Affane in particular truly underlined their all round strength.

Abbeyside received a walk over from Brackies in last Sunday's semi-final and it is quite an achievement that their very young side could reach this stage of the Divisional championship. Phil Duggan, Pádraig Hogan and Pete Clancy are the key men on the side whilst several of this year's minor side will also be in action.

I confidently expect the Villagers to put up a stern battle but I cannot honestly visualise them defeating this very competent seaside combination and they are my confident choice to qualify for another county final.

GERALDINES SHOULD MASTER EMMETTS IN PHELAN CUP

Cappoquin stages an attractive Phelan Cup tie on Sunday next when Emmetts and Geraldines are in opposition in this year's competition.

JIM DAVIS (Geraldines)

Neither of these sides had a very distinguished championship run this year—Emmetts falling dismally to Kilross in the second round, and Geraldines being blitzed at the first hurdle by Ardmore. Consequently both are anxious to recoup lost prestige and Sunday's game should be an entertaining one. Neither club is at the time of writing sure of the material at their disposal and the teams will not be announced until shortly before the game. However, Geraldines will I believe prove the stronger of the two and they are given the vote to advance to the next round of the competition.

SHAMROCKS MASTER TOURIN

Shamrocks gained some measure of compensation for their championship defeat by Tourin when they scored a five-point victory—3-7 to 2-5 over them at Lismore on Sunday last. The game attracted only a small attendance but there was no disputing Shamrocks superiority on this occasion. They were well on top for most of the hour and had three goals disallowed as well.

Tourin, however, battled gamely and put in a very spirited finish but failed to catch the Knockanore side who well merited their victory.

WATERFORD 2-13 DUBLIN 3-8

WATERFORD'S opening game in the current National Hurling League campaign proved a fruitful one at Walsh Park on Sunday last when they overcame a surprisingly stiff Dublin challenge in a game that seldom reached any great heights. That Waterford achieved their main objective was gratifying in itself, but many problems face team mentors in the more exacting encounters in the months ahead.

It was a valuable brace of points that the Deise men deservedly won themselves on Sunday last, and a considerable help towards emerging from their section as either winners or runners-up—which is an assurance of a place in the league semi-finals next April. But one cannot close eyes to the shortcomings that were so obviously apparent in victory over the Metropolitans, shortcomings that must be remedied if the obstacles presented by Linrick and Wexford are to be overcome.

Dublin it is true played with admirable spirit but their understrength side was not a good one by any means. Waterford too were short some regulars but this cannot excuse in toto the insipidness of their all round performance. The defence was surprisingly vulnerable on occasions and except for one or two in attack the sector did not possess the expected penetrative power.

And yet it was a game Waterford should have won by a considerably more comfortable margin. At times they appeared to be almost nonchalantly strolling to victory in the second half but were rocked by Dublin scores towards the close and were hard pressed in the end to retain their slender and insecure two point margin.

Once again that disastrous Deise habit of slackening off at crucial periods almost had catastrophic results. As already stated they appeared to be over all winners entering the closing quarter but for some inexplicable reason reason slackened off and like a flash the metropolitans worked through for the scores that brought the imperiously close to a shock victory.

NEWCOMERS

For this game Waterford introduced newcomers and the selectorial gambit had mixed results. Goalkeeper Jim Power looked very cool between the posts and a series of fine first half saves suggests he could be a decided acquisition to the side. Liam Enright at midfield was good in patches and must not be discarded but the attacking pair Mick Regan and Mick

Murphy looked all at sea and never made the slightest impression. As a spectacle the game lacked many of the expected features. The hurling, except for brief passages, was mediocre and only when Dublin scored those belated scores to come within striking distance was enthusiasm whipped up in the large attendance.

Although it was Dublin who scored first with a point by Mick Bermingham, the first half in the main, belonged to Waterford. Several good chances were missed before Tom Cheasty levelled when he cut a 'groundier' from 30 yards over for a spectacular point. But within a minute Dublin had restored their lead with a minor by corner forward Brian Galvin.

Then it was that Waterford's grip on the game was lost and Dublin fought back in sensational style. Mick Bermingham crashed home a goal and almost immediately Pat Maycock tacked on a point. Guinan had a Deise point in the 22nd minute and two minutes later the fat was really in the fire when Galvin worked through for goal number three. That left only two points between the sides and the possibility of an upset was on the cards. Waterford however regained their composure and although they failed to add to their tally were in command again at the finish.

MEANEY'S GREAT GOAL

Then in the tenth minute Waterford took the lead for the first time—a lead which they lost only once for the remainder of the hour. Midfielder John Meaney snapped up the ball on the half-way line and after a dazzling solo run crashed the ball to the roof of the net for a great goal. Again Dublin hit back and a brace of points from frees by Bermingham had the sides level by the 18th minute. Enright and Bermingham exchanged minors before Grimes put Waterford ahead from a pointed free.

Then came a purple Deise patch. Cheasty worked his way through for another goal and Grimes, Flavin and Guinan had points in rapid succession. Shortly before the interval Christy Leaney replied with a Dublin minor and at the break Waterford unflatteringly led by 2-6 to 0-6. Dublin restarted in sensational fashion and less than a minute had elapsed when Galvin had the ball in the Waterford net. In attempting to save goalkeeper Jim Power was injured and was forced to retire and was replaced by an equally capable Ned Power.

Stung by this unexpected reverse Waterford hit back in decisive fashion and points by Grimes (3), Cheasty and Meaney gave them a commanding 2-11 to 1-6 lead entering the closing quarter. The Deise men were enjoying a marked superiority at this stage and Dublin's hitherto spirited challenge seemed to have been well and truly crushed.

Then it was that Waterford's grip on the game was lost and Dublin fought back in sensational style. Mick Bermingham crashed home a goal and almost immediately Pat Maycock tacked on a point. Guinan had a Deise point in the 22nd minute and two minutes later the fat was really in the fire when Galvin worked through for goal number three. That left only two points between the sides and the possibility of an upset was on the cards. Waterford however regained their composure and although they failed to add to their tally were in command again at the finish.

GOALKEEPERS SHONE

For the winners, new goalkeeper Jim Power passed his initial test with flying colours. He was cool and confident, got prodigious length into his clearances and looked a top flight keeper in every respect. He was unfortunate to have to retire within a minute of the restart with an injury but Ned Power who took over gave another top-rate display of net-minding. The full line of defence was far from good. Tom Cunningham caught a rare handful in flank left nothing to be desired. The midfield scene was dominated by a hurling stylist called John Meaney. Next to Guinan he was Waterford's big man; his polished hurling earning him justifiable acclaim from the crowd. His partner, Liam Enright made a reasonably good debut and I am glad to see the Abbeysider retained for next Sunday's game against Carlow.

GUINAN THE STAR

But the man of the match was unquestionably right half back Larry Guinan. This was a silencer for those who chose to write him off after his championship display against Cork; it was a performance on a par with anything he has ever given.

In the centre Tommy Tearne was good without being great but Jimmy Byrne on the left and Des Foley and the Boothman brothers, Bernie and Achill, put up a good performance in the circumstances. They made good use of limited chances although in truth to tell did not look capable at any stage of taking the valuable points away with them from Walsh Park.

They were brilliantly served by goalkeeper Jimmy Gray whose many fine saves were a feature of the game. In defence Des "Snitchie" Ferguson was a trojan worker and he got greatest assistance from Shay Lynch and Pat Maycock. Des McPartland was the better of their midfielders; and in attack corner forwards Mick Bermingham and Brian Galvin took the honours. Both were constant menaces and accounted for all but two points of their side's total between them.

DISAPPOINTING

The attack, however, was somewhat disappointing and amassed only 1-9 of the total. Add to this Grimes scores from pointed frees and it can be readily appreciated that the sector lacked adequate scoring power. There is, of course consolation in the knowledge that Frankie Walsh was an absentee, whilst Mick Flannelly and John Barron were also not considered because of injury and sickness.

Tom Cheasty on the forty was the best of the half line and although quiet for spasms notched the respectable tally of 1-2. John Flavin who replaced Frankie Walsh had a fairly good hour but newcomer Mick Regan of Dunhill was never in the picture.

The full line sadly lacked thrust. Mick Murphy and Seamus Power achieved little and both were held scoreless for the hour. Grimes was the best of the trio and though not the Grimes of old was again deadly accurate from frees. Dublin, fielding without Lar

Disgraceful Scenes at Junior Final

Fists and Boots Freely Used

RATHGORMACK 2-6; BALLYDUFF UPPER 0-3 THIS game at Walsh Park, Waterford, on Sunday was billed as the County Junior FOOTBALL final but instead it turned out to be one of the most disgraceful deciders ever witnessed on a Gaelic pitch. Actual football was limited to the very minimum and for most of the hour fists and boots predominated the scene.

It was a decider that will leave a sour taste for a long time to come. It dragged level and only extremely good fortune prevented someone from being seriously injured. In fairness to Rathgormack they showed considerable reluctance to engage in these bouts of fist-cuffs and other disgusting features and in defeat Ballyduff did little to enhance an already none too healthy a reputation. For referee Hugh Donnelly it was a nightmarish experience. When I spoke to him after the game he described the pitch as a battlefield and said it was the most bad tempered game he had ever officiated at. In the circumstances he did an excellent job, yet he had insulting abuse hurled at him during and after the game. With a quarter of an hour to go with Rathgormack literally "home and dried" the referee ordered Ballyduff's Joe Daly to the line and heaven alone knows how the game ever finished. As for the game itself, Rathgormack proved worthy winners. Except for the opening quarter they were well on top and their light but accurate forwards proved a rare handful for the Ballyduff rearguard. Yet it was Ballyduff who set the pace in the early stages and they quickly jumped into a two point lead. Rathgormack hit back for a point but soon afterwards restored their two point advantage. Then, however, the Eastern champions capitalised on some atrociously poor kicking out by the Ballyduff defenders and by the 17th minute had taken a lead they never relinquished thereafter. Then came the crowning blow for Ballyduff when they conceded an own goal and from that on it was an uphill battle for them. At the interval the winners led by 2-4 to 0-3 and they continued to enjoy the better of a tempestuous second half.

That second moiety was riddled with unsavoury incidents. I do not propose to go into detail about play or players for to do so too many reputations would have to be blemished. Suffice to say, Rathgormack deservedly took the honours in a final that will be remembered only for the untidy incidents that so distastefully marred it.

The recipe for Beef Casserole is Mrs. Moore's ... the cooking is by Kosangas

Recipe for Casserole of Beef: 1 lb. lean beef, 1 large onion, 1 carrot, 1 small turnip, Few sticks of celery, 1 tablespoon flour, 2 pt. stock (or water with beef extract cube added), Seasoning, 1 oz. butter or dripping. Instructions: Cut the meat into neat pieces and roll in the seasoned flour. Heat the butter in a frying pan; slice the onion and fry it quickly until brown. Put it into a casserole, then fry the meat quickly until brown and place it on top of the onion. Slice the other vegetables and put them on the meat. Pour in the stock. Brown the flour in the remaining fat in the pan, add enough water or stock to make it into a paste and cook until it thickens. Strain into the casserole and cook in a slow oven (Regulo 3 or 4) for at least 2 hours. It can be cooked on the hobplate by bringing quickly to the boil, then simmering very slowly for 2 hours. Two or three cloves added greatly improve the flavour. Serve plain boiled macaroni round the dish when serving.
