£282,000 Water Scheme For Modeligo

COUNCIL AGREES BY 12 VOTES TO 4

WATERFORD Co. Council has agreed in principle to a new Water Supply Scheme for Modeligo at an estimated cost of £282,000, and which will take six years to complete. But at last Monday's meeting of the Council, at which this decision was taken, the people of the county were rapped by the Chairman, Mr. Charles Curran, for an apparent lack of effort to provide their own private supplies.

Before the proposed Modeligo scheme was discussed, Mr. Curran said there was a tremendous demand for public water schemes in the county. But it was significant that the people of county Waterford had made no apparent effort to provide their own private supplies. Even recently, the Minister, speaking at a dinner, remarked that they were lagging behind in Waterford in the matter of Public Supplies and Group Schemes.

"The Public will have to make," said Mr. Curran, "that if these schemes are to be implemented, they will have to pay for them and that there will be a considerable increase in the rates." He added that the Modeligo Water Scheme was in effect, a regional scheme and would be a very expensive one.

Mr. Sean Whelan said the people in the Modeligo area were in a desperate plight for water, and he could not adequately stress the importance of water to them. They really needed it badly.

Mr. Richard Walsh said he appreciated the fact that the people needed water, but they should not embark on exorbitant schemes. The Council undertook schemes in the past that cost £2,000 a house and that was not economical. It was about time the people realised fully what these water schemes cost and if they were then prepared to pay them, that was alright.

Mr. M. Galgey said this water question was going to cost the Council a fantastic figure, but whilst water was a county charge the people of the entire county were entitled to water. Why should one section have water, he asked and not another, irrespective of the cost. He felt, however, that the domestic consumer was not charged enough.

Mr. J. D. Hally (County Engineer) said the cost of the proposed Modeligo scheme was estimated at £282,000, which was £540 per house. He added that there was very definitely a demand for water for agricultural purposes at the moment.

Mr. Curran said he believed £540 per house was a false figure. They should consider the fact that some houses in the area had private supplies and also that some people would not avail of the scheme.

Mr. Hally said from a survey made three years ago, of the 544 houses in the area, only 20 had private supplies. He did not know if that number had been greatly increased since.

Mr. Sean Whelan said that only a few private supplies had been installed since. They had a duty as a public body to provide water for these people. He proposed they adopt this Modeligo scheme. He was not anxious to spend the ratepayers' money more than any other Colr., but he believed this scheme was an absolute necessity.

Mr. Thomas A. Kyne, T.D., seconded.

Mr. Hally said the scheme would have to be broken down into units. He was thinking of carrying it out on a six year basis. They were 544 houses in the area representing about 2,500 people.

Mr. Norman Walsh said he thought it was vitally important to get an up to date survey on the demands for water in the area before they start the scheme. That would be a good business proposition.

Mr. H. R. Dowd said he believed it would be very much better to first of all have an up to date survey of the area carried out and then let the Council decide yes or no for the scheme. They should forget this "agreed in principle" business.

Mr. Kieran O'Ryan proposed and Mr. Norman Walsh seconded that they defer the matter until an up-to-date survey on the demand for water in the area was carried out.

That proposal was then put to the meeting and defeated by 10 votes to 6. The voting was: For—Messrs. Dowd, Hally, O'Ryan, Walsh, Walsh, Madden, Agalst—Messrs. Butler, Kyne, Whelan, Drohan, Fahey, Foran, Galgey, Morrissey, R. Walsh, Curran.

Mr. Whelan's proposal to adopt the scheme was then put and carried on a 12-4 vote.

WEDDING BELLS

MISS JOAN McGRATH and Mr. LIAM WHELAN, both of Cathal Brugha Place pictured after their wedding.

A very pretty wedding took place in St. Mary's Parish Church, Dungarvan, on Saturday, November 7th, between Mr. Liam Whelan only son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Whelan, 54 Cathal Brugha Place, Dungarvan and Miss Joan McGrath, also of Cathal Brugha Place.

The ceremony, together with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing, was performed by Rev. Fr. D. Byrne, C.C. The best man was Mr. Gerald Crotty, Congress Villas, and Miss June Whelan, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. The bridesmaids were Misses Ann Whelan and Mary Colbert, sister of the bride, who was radiantly attired in a Ballet length white satin frock with lace and carried a bouquet of red roses, was given away by Mr. Michael Whelan, Cathal Brugha Place, father of the groom.

The bridesmaid wore a lemon nylon dress with matching headpiece, whilst both flower girls wore pink nylon dresses with matching head-dresses.

The happy couple were the recipients of numerous and beautiful presents.

The reception was held in room, was bridesmaid. The bride, who was radiant-

To the newly weds we wish many years of wedded bliss.

Question of New Planning Section Deferred

WOULD MEAN SEVEN NEW POSTS

A decision regarding the implementation of the Local Government (Planning and Developing Act 1963) and the establishment of a new planning section to the County Council, was deferred again at the Council's special meeting in Dungarvan on Monday last. If the report of the County Engineer Mr. J. D. Hally in this matter is adopted, seven additional posts will have to be created and its impact on the rates will be an additional sixpence.

The proposal, which was deferred, was: "That we adopt the County Engineer's report regarding the implementation of the Local Government (Planning and Developing Act 1963) and that we approve of the establishment of a planning section and the creation of the following posts therefor: One Planner with the rank of Chief Assistant Co. Engineer; 1 Asst. Engineer; 1 Draughtsman; 1 Building Inspector; 1 Staff Officer; one Clerical Officer and one Clerk Typist. Mr. Milo Galgey said if they had their own man to do the necessary planning work for all projects and schemes in the county, it would be much more economical. The planning Authorities were getting a fee of 6d. in every £ and they were only interested in getting as much as they could out of every job. They had a planning authority employed for the Dummore Water Scheme and he would say that about £6,000 to £8,000 of wasted money was spent on it. Mr. Hally said that one of the main points, of this new planning act was Urban Development. Also to provide amenities on the whole, which for Waterford was a very important factor, and water facilities as they may be needed. Mr. Norman Walsh asked if all this would mean more encroachment on the rights of the people.

Mr. Hally: I suppose so. Mr. Walsh: In the not too distant future if we want to go to the toilet we will have to give notice of it. I do not know what the law makers are doing. The basic fact is that this new planning act is law and we will have to adopt it.

Mr. Hally: You have no objection. Mr. Galgey: What happens if we do not adopt it. Will we all be cleared out of office and the people from Dublin take over?

Mr. Hally: I do not know. I am not trying to ram this down your throats, but the number of qualified men for this work is limited.

He then went on to outline the additional staff that would be required to establish this planning section.

Mr. W. Foran said no one was more competent to build up a planning scheme for the county than their own engineers.

Mr. H. R. Dowd said they were trying to work on a rolls royce policy rather than a Henry Ford one.

When it was then decided to adjourn it to the next meeting, Mr. John Fahey asked: "What impact will this proposal, if carried, have on the rates for a year?"

Mr. Hally: An over-all total of sixpence.

DEATH

LYNCH (Ballyduff, Dungarvan), November 18th, at his residence. John J., deeply regretted by his sorrowing wife and family. R.I.P. Remains will be removed this Thursday evening, at 8 o'clock to St. Mary's Parish Church, Requiem Mass Friday at 10.30. Burial immediately afterwards in adjoining cemetery.

Telephone for Ballysaggart

On the proposal of Mr. H. R. Dowd, seconded by Mr. G. Heskin, it was unanimously agreed to erect a telephone kiosk at Ballysaggart Lismore. Mr. Dowd, at Monday's meeting of the County Council said this might be a small thing in a way, but it was a big thing for the people of Ballysaggart.

Mr. Charles Curran (Chairman) said this only went to show that only for the local representatives, the public would not get the services.

It has also been decided by the Council to have a public telephone in Ballysaggart Lismore.

Mr. Kieran O'Ryan said the people of this area had been seeking a public telephone for a long time and this would be welcome news indeed.

COLR. MICHAEL HARTY walked out of last Monday's meeting of Waterford County Council as a protest to a remark passed against him by Mr. Milo Galgey.

Mr. Galgey said that members came to meetings and stayed for one hour and then left. When they returned again they had the audacity to say they did not hear such a thing being discussed.

Mr. Michael Morrissey said there should be a rule that a member that can't stay for at least two hours should not be given travelling expenses.

Mr. Charles Curran (Chairman) said they couldn't do that. They had no control over members like that. It was something that should not be encouraged however, although they were all offenders.

Mr. Galgey: How many times have you been an offender Mr. Chairman? You could count them on one hand.

Mr. Harty, who had just returned to the meeting, said he had to leave the meeting earlier to see the housing Officials and Mr. Keyes.

Mr. Morrissey said that Colr. Harty was paid to stay here and he should have gone to see the Officials in his own time.

Mr. Harty: I went to see Mr. Keyes on a very important matter.

Mr. Galgey then passed the remark to which Mr. Harty took exception and in protest left the meeting.

6 PER CENT LOAN LAUNCHED

A NEW NATIONAL LOAN will open for subscription on Monday next, 23rd November. The loan will be for £20 million but £4 million of the stock is being allotted to certain life assurance offices and an application of £4 million of the stock is being made on behalf of funds under my control, said the Minister for Finance in the Dail on Wednesday. The balance of £12 million will be underwritten jointly by the bank and the Government.

The rate of interest will be 6 per cent per annum and the price £98½ per cent. The stock will be redeemed at par not later than 1990 and may be redeemed at any time from November, 1986. The yield to redemption on these terms is 28.3.0.

The usual provision is made in the prospectus whereby only 10 per cent of the purchase price need be paid on application, the remainder being paid in three further instalments spread over the period to the middle of January. Those subscribers who wish to pay the full amount on application next week, or to complete their subscription on 16th December, will be entitled to discount equivalent to an interest rate of 6 per cent per annum on the advance payments.

The tax privileges attached to recent National Loans are again included. Interest will be paid without deduction of income tax at source, but, of course, holders will, if ordinary resident in the State, be liable for whatever tax on the interest is appropriate to their respective incomes. Stock of the issue will be accepted at its nominal value as the equivalent of cash in satisfaction of death duties on properties of which it formed a part. The stock and the interest on it will be exempt from all Irish taxation, present and future, if owned by a person neither domiciled nor ordinarily resident in the State.

The issue is being made under the authority of the Appropriation Act, 1964, and other statutes. Both principal and interest will be a charge on the Central Fund. The attractive interest rate it carries, its status as a trustee security, the concession whereby it will be accepted in payment of death duties and substantial sinking fund allocations should ensure that the stock will always have a high market value. The Government stockbroker will be ready continuously to buy and sell reasonable amounts of stock, and this will help to maintain an active market on it.

Meeting of Glor na nGael

On Tuesday night next, 24th November, at 8.30 p.m., a public meeting will be held in Lawlor's Hotel, Dungarvan, for the purpose of entering the town in the 1964-65 Glor na nGael competition. It is hoped that a representative committee will be formed at the meeting, to take charge of the town's entry in the competition.

An Athlath B. O'Coibthaigh, O.S.A., Chairman of Cumann Gaelach Iar-Dheise will preside. Speakers can speak in English if they have not enough knowledge of Irish.

Late Mrs. Bridget Whelan

COOLAGEH RD., ARREYSIDE

Yet another link with the older generation of Dungarvan was broken with the passing of Mrs. Bridget Whelan, whose death occurred during the early hours of Sunday morning, November 15th, at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan, after an illness of some duration, but at an advanced age, and fortified by Rites of Holy Church. She was a member of a very old Dungarvan family, and was a most popular member of the community, for she was the possessor of some wonderful qualities, especially gentleness and a cheerful, happy disposition.

We extend our deepest sympathy to her relatives.

The removal of her remains took place on Sunday morning at St. Mary's Parish Church, Dungarvan, followed by a very large cortege, despite the inclement weather, and were buried at an advanced age, and fortified by Rites of Holy Church. She was a member of a very old Dungarvan family, and was a most popular member of the community, for she was the possessor of some wonderful qualities, especially gentleness and a cheerful, happy disposition.

A.G.M. of Dungarvan CAPPOQUIN Macra na Feirme NOTES

The annual general meeting of Dungarvan Macra na Feirme was held in Lawlor's Hotel on Saturday 31st October last. There was a good attendance of members and also a good number of new members.

The outgoing Chairman, Mr. Neil Hurley, presided. The minutes of the last annual general meeting were read by the Secretary and they were approved and signed.

Mr. Thomas Kieley, Hon. Treasurer, then submitted the statement of accounts. These showed that the Branch is in a good financial position.

The President, Mr. Patrick Morrissey then gave his annual report on the activities of the Branch during the year. He congratulated the members of the stockjudging teams, who did so well at the various stockjudging competition held in the county and in the neighbouring counties. He also congratulated the Branch on the way they ran the Branch Stockjudging at the Cattle Mart.

Finally, he wished the Branch every success for the coming year, and appealed to all members to try and rope in one new member each. He was delighted to see some new members at the meeting.

Mr. Neil Hurley then thanked everybody on their co-operation during his year of office as Chairman and wished the club every success under their new Chairman, Mr. Edmond Power.

Mr. Power then took over as Chairman and the election of the officers for the coming year took place. Mr. P. Morrissey was unanimously re-elected President. Mr. John Carroll was elected Vice-Chairman and will act as Chairman next year. The Vice-Presidents Messrs. Thomas Maher and Patk. Mooney were re-elected. Mr. T. Kieley was re-elected Hon. Treasurer. Hon. Secs. elected were: the Messrs Kathleen Kieley and Margaret Morrissey, Committee: Miss Madge O'Brien, Messrs. John Brett, Thomas Mooney, Thomas McCarthy, Niall Hurley, Michael Curran, J. Riordan.

The Chairman thanked all present for his election and asked the members for full co-operation during the year.

The annual dance will be held in the C.S.M. Ballroom, Clonsilla, on Sunday, 20th Dec.

INTERESTING LECTURE

"South Africa, its missionary, racial and social problems," was the title of a lecture given by Rev. J. G. Clifford at the Vocational School. The reverend lecturer, who has ministered for several years in the country, made a close study of the problems arising from its ethnic differences and his hearers had the benefit of his vast knowledge.

Fr. Clifford was introduced by Mr. S. Barton, who said that this was the first series of lectures being sponsored by the County Vocational Education Committee. Fr. Clifford outlined the historical and social background to the present state of affairs in South Africa and his description of "Apartheid" in operation proved most interesting and informative. From personal experience he gave many instances of the grave injustices which were typical of the system.

His personal experiences during his missionary work and the difficulties facing the Church because of the Apartheid laws were listened to with rapt attention.

At the lecturer's invitation, many questions came from the audience.

The vote of thanks was proposed by Mr. F. X. O'Leary and seconded by Mr. Norman Walsh, M.C.C., and was put to the audience by the Chairman.

LATE MRS. JOHANNA HALLINAN

Sincere sympathy is extended to the sons, daughter and relatives of the late Mrs. Johanna Hallinan (nee O'Meara) whose death took place at her home, at Aghavoulanne, Ballynmut, on Friday, November 13th.

The remains, accompanied by a very large cortege of relatives, friends and the general public, were removed to Newcastle Parish Church, on Saturday evening and following 11 o'clock Mass on Sunday, interment was made in the family burial plot in Mullough Abbey. On Monday morning Requiem Office and High Mass was offered up for the repose of her soul. R.I.P.

I.C.A.

A very interesting and instructional lecture "On the Nutrition of Foods," was given to the members of the Touraneena I.C.A. Guild, in the Schoolhouse, on Monday night 9th October. The lecture was followed by a short film show.

Members of the Nire and Ballymacarbury Guilds were also present. A raffle for a home-made cake was won by Mrs. M. Power, Knockboy.

Classes in Woodwork, Needlework, Choral singing and Drama, are now being held in Ballymacarbury.

SEANAS SCUA

On Saturday evening last, in the course of the second of his series of four talks on Seánas Ghaia, Mr. Padraig Tyres, deplored the decline of rural crafts, particularly that of the blacksmith. The forge, he recalled, was the centre of social intercourse for the men of the area, there amid the smoke and sparks, the news of the district the country and the world, was passed on with suitable comment.

One such forge (that at Crook Hill) was immortalised by the late Padraig O'Meara in his rollicking song "Ceardcha Micéil de h-Ordha."

A short distance from Slabh ghaia there lived a blacksmith whose wit and repartee have become proverbial. Mr. Tyres related just few of the many stories which are told about this wonderful character.

WEST WATERFORD NEWS

LATE MRS. E. RONAYNE CLASHMORE

The death occurred recently in Youghal Hospital, following a rather prolonged illness, and at an advanced age, of Mrs. Ellen Ronayne, Coolbagh, Clashmore. A member of one of the best known families in the area, deceased was a firm favourite and her demise has occasioned deep and sincere regret. We join in extending sympathy to her bereaved sons, daughters and other relatives.

The remains were removed to Clashmore Parish Church, and the accompanying cortege was of an extremely large and representative nature and included representatives of all sections of the community.

There was again a very large attendance, when the interment subsequently took place in the adjoining cemetery. Very Rev. Canon Power, P.P., Clashmore and Rev. Fr. Tobin, C.C., officiated.

DEATH OF MRS. M. SHANAHAN

We regret to announce the death, which occurred at an advanced age, of Mrs. Margaret Shanahan, Monaster, Kinsalebeg. Deceased, who was a member of a well known family, was very popular among all sections of the community and her passing has caused much regret.

Sympathy is extended to her bereaved family.

The remains were removed to P.K.own Church and the accompanying cortege was of large and representative proportions. There was again a large attendance at the funeral to Ardmore cemetery. Very Rev. Canon Power, P.P., Rev. Fr. Tobin, C.C., and Rev. Fr. Draper, C.C., officiated.

WEST WATERFORD HUNT

This popular pack met at Clashmore, when a fair-sized 'field' turned out to enjoy the day's sport. Conditions were favourable and a few good runs were secured. The pack was in charge of Capt. and Mrs. Morgan, Joint Masters.

FOOTPATHS AT CLASHMORE

About a year ago, when the new sewerage pipes were being laid, the footpath between Clashmore village and the local church was rooted up. Despite repeated requests by local members of the County Council and residents, the footpath has not yet been replaced and this is causing considerable inconvenience to pedestrians and others. It is hoped that the matter will be attended to without any further delay.

Afton Tournament

P. J. Carroll and Company, Limited, announced to-day that arrangements have been made with the Captain and Committee to hold the Carroll Sweet Afton Tournament at Cork Golf Club, Little Island, on the 16th - 18th July, 1965.

Full details concerning the conditions of the Tournament, the prize fund and other rules will be announced shortly.

Chemical Services Research Studentships

As important measure to promote research into animal diseases and livestock productivity has recently taken place with the establishment of two Chemical Services Studentships.

Chemical Services Ltd., a subsidiary of Arthur Guinness Son & Co. (Dublin) and Phillips-Duphar of Amsterdam, have made a grant to Mr. W. R. Nunn of the Dublin University Veterinary School to initiate research into the diseases of farm animals causing major economic loss in Ireland.

In the first place the fund is being used to endow two post-graduate studentships and provide research facilities so that in addition to valuable investigations being carried out there will be the opportunity for training young graduates in the field of research. The first two Chemical Services Research Students are being appointed immediately and it is intended that their investigations will begin early in '65.

At present it is understood that these are the first scholars of this nature in the veterinary field in this country that will enable young graduates to continue their work and training in Ireland. This grant by Chemical Services Ltd., is therefore, a major step in the acceptance that research in animal disease problems must be undertaken much more vigorously within this country as it is of vital importance to the Irish agricultural economy. It is also of importance because it will encourage the younger graduates to remain in Ireland and it is hoped that it may persuade workers from abroad to come to this country to carry out their research.

T.D. Takes Councillors To Task

Dear Sir, the following is a copy of a letter addressed to The Manager, Waterford Co. Council:—

My attention has been drawn to reports appearing in various newspapers, including the Dungarvan Observer, Dungarvan Leader, Waterford Star and Cork Examiner, in which reference is made in a most disparaging and irresponsible manner to the actions of "Dail Deputies" from outside the County.

Since I understand I am the Deputy referred to in these allegations, I should like to take this opportunity of making a few observations.

As you are no doubt aware, I am the duly Elected Representative for the Constituency of South Tipperary which includes the area of West Waterford, the people of this Constituency having elected me at the head of the poll in the General Election of 1961. It is this mandate which gives me the right and the duty to represent the needs, the hopes and the aspirations of all the people of this Constituency at all levels of public life.

Since my election I have endeavoured to discharge my duty with scrupulous regard for the needs of the people of West Waterford as much as the people of South Tipperary, and I have been working actively, diligently and enthusiastically for their welfare over the past three years. In this regard I visit regularly, all the important places in my Constituency, including Lismore, Tallow, Cappoquin, Villierstown, Ballymacarbury, Millstreet, etc., in the West Waterford area at the request of my branch members, thereby making myself available to the general public who may require my services as their elected Deputy. My services are widely available to the people of West Waterford, and their many and varied requests receive my prompt attention. The pledge which I gave to the people of West Waterford on seeking election is being honoured and will be honoured to the utmost of my ability despite the hostility and prejudice of certain members of Waterford County Council, who, according to recent press reports, have allowed their political prejudice to run riot by ignoring these facts, and blinding them to all sense of common courtesy, justice, truth or fair play. It was sheer audacity on their part to attempt to deny me and my Constituents the right of audience with Public Officials on Waterford County Council, whether by way of deputation or otherwise. This is a fundamental right vested in me as a Dail Deputy which I intend to exercise on behalf of my Constituents at all levels—local and national—and I alone will decide the manner and method of dealing with the affairs of my Constituents.

Mr. John Fahy tries to show a distinction between local Councillors and what he terms "outside T.D.'s." I can well understand his desire to try and "keep me out," but does he really forget the circumstances under which the people "put me in" and that includes the people of West Waterford. Let me remind him that with me and others, he contested the General Election of 1961, and the people gave him their answer in no uncertain terms. Outcome—John Fahy, Fianna Fail, 2,625 (Eliminated); Sean Treacy, Labour, 7,260 (Elected).

Why, then, should he seek to deny the will of the people or reflect in any way on the holder of an office to which he aspired and was rejected. I will let the people judge. But let Mr. Fahy and the other political opponents of mine on Waterford County Council realise fully that I will not be intimidated by them in the performance of my duties to the people of West Waterford. These gentlemen are so frightfully worried about all the work I am doing for the people of West Waterford that I take this opportunity to reinforce them with this knowledge—that henceforth I am determined to work even harder, still, for the welfare of these grand people who honoured me with their votes and reposed in me their full confidence.

The statement by the Chairman, Mr. C. Curran, that I was trying to claim credit for work done by others is nauseating in the extreme, so disgusting and unfounded an allegation that I had intended to treat it with the contempt it deserves. Suffice to say that judging by what I found to be the position in Villierstown (the reason for a recent deputation), I would have considerable difficulty, and so would anyone else, in finding this vaunted "work" in order to take credit for it. All my representations and agitation are in respect of problems "unresolved" and "unsatisfactory." In any case, the suggestion made by Colr. John Fahy and Colr. George Heskin, that the results of any Deputations by me should be made known to the County Councillors looks to the unbiased observer much more as though these Councillors wanted to benefit by my work rather than the other way around.

Further, the statement of Colr. Fahy that the money for "most projects" was provided by the County Council, and, therefore, "they should be allowed in on it," to use his own words, is simply not the case. A large proportion of the finance for Local Authority projects and services is provided by Central Government and as such the responsibility of Dail Deputies in particular. Accordingly, the people of West Waterford are perfectly entitled to choose any means they consider effective to make their need for Local Government Services known. This is their right as Rate payers and as tax payers, and a right which I will not allow to be fenced from them.

My attention has also been drawn to newspaper reports of a statement made by Mr. C. Curran, Chairman, at the most recent meeting of Waterford County Council in which he mentioned me by name in connection with the alleged visit of a County Council Official to a person (unnamed) in need of re-housing in the Glendine area, in which the Official is alleged to have told this unnamed person that he had been struck off the Housing List, and that he should write to Mr. Sean Treacy, T.D., to have his name restored to the list of approved applicants. Mr. Curran further stated that on an investigation carried out at his instigation it was found that the allegation was completely unfounded, and there was no person of the name mentioned being removed from the List. Last anyone should think, Mr. Curran was obviously trying to convey that I was in any way involved in the deplorable episode which he outlined. I must ask that you, as County Manager, be good enough to have a full and exhaustive enquiry carried out to ascertain the facts of this matter, and that I be furnished with a copy of the Report of your enquiries at the earliest opportunity.

It must have been clear to even a man of Mr. Curran's mentality that what was supposed to transpire between this unnamed tenant and unnamed Official did not involve me personally, and that I have no knowledge whatsoever of the sordid business he outlined—yet he deliberately drags my name into it.

Since Mr. Curran omitted to give the name of the alleged cottier concerned in this story, and obviously did not take adequate steps to ascertain the identity of the official involved before making his public statement, it must be obvious to everyone who read or heard of this article, that his sole purpose in mentioning my name was to do me harm and damage my reputation in the public mind. Since Mr. Curran's remarks constitute a grave reflection on me as a public representative, I must ask that, pending the outcome of the enquiry called for, you furnish me with the name of the alleged cottier and the alleged official, together with any further information to hand, so that I may take suitable steps to safeguard my good name and integrity, and properly repair the damage done to me by the utterance, publication and wide circulation of Mr. Curran's remarks.

In conclusion, I desire to avail of this opportunity to express my appreciation of the courtesy and co-operation extended to me by the officials of Waterford County Council and the Waterford Health Authority and look forward to the continuance of that close relationship and mutual co-operation in all matters appertaining to the welfare, happiness and prosperity of the Constituents I have the honour to represent and am intensely proud to serve with the power and influence at my disposal. Yours sincerely,
SEAN TRACY,
T.D., M.C.C., Alderman

MILK GRADING

An important public meeting, sponsored by the N.F.A. and Macra na Feirme, will be held at Piltown on Friday night, 27th November, to discuss the basic workings and objectives of the proposed milk grading system with its possible effect on the future of milk production. Two representatives of Waterford Co-operative Society will attend.

At Clashmore on Sunday last, the local team defeated Kinsalebeg in an intermediate football challenge game. There was a good attendance and the game was keenly contested.

MOTOR CYCLIST INJURED

When his motor cycle crashed on Sunday night last, at Youghal Bridge, Mr. James French, Shanacoole, received injuries. He was removed to hospital, where he is progressing satisfactorily.

WITH THE HARRIERS

The local Harriers had a good day's sport on Sunday last. One run took the chase over six miles.

Ardmore Take Title Abbeyside Trounce City Rivals in Style

ARDMORE 5-7; ABBEYSIDE 2-4

ARDMORE confirmed general belief at Dungarvan on Sunday last when they scored a most convincing four goal victory over gallant Abbeyside in the Western Junior hurling final. This Ardmore victory certainly left nothing to be desired and they must have high hopes of defeating St. Molleran's in next Sunday's County final also at the Fraher Field.

But if there was no disputing Ardmore's victory, the scoreline in their favour hardly does adequate justice to an Abbeyside fifteen that battled gamely after a disastrous start. The Seasideers were undoubtedly the superior side, but were certainly flattered by their twelve point winning margin.

Except for the opening quarter, the Villagers gave as good as they got, and their young side lost no caste in this defeat—inflicted on them by an Ardmore side that must stand an excellent chance of highest honours.

But it was during that first quarter that this Divisional decider was won and lost. During that moiety it appeared as though the winners would complete their victory almost effortlessly, they built up a match-winning lead of ten points. Thereafter, the Villagers enjoyed at least an equal share of the exchanges, although they seldom looked likely to wipe out their huge deficit.

The issue would, however, have been much closer if Abbeyside possessed a more potent attack. Early in the second half they laid siege to the winners goal, and at least three gilt edged chances of major scores were squandered. Having failed to capitalise on those chances, one could sense that the Villagers were about to shoot their bolt and it was Ardmore who were in dictatorial mood again at the final whistle.

But despite the scoring differential between the sides, the exchanges seldom lacked interest. The hurling was at times quite good, whilst several fine individual displays added to the tie as a spectacle.

Ardmore settled down to the immediate business on hands from the very start and only four minutes had elapsed when Austin Flavin tested home the first of their goals. Almost immediately they forced a "70" and Eddie Mooney doubled on the dropping ball and again the Abbeyside citadel had fallen. Fin Hallahan pointed and when Jim Rooney followed with a goal in the 15th minute it looked an absolute cake walk for them. But for the remainder of the half it was Abbeyside who took up the running and some good efforts did not receive the scoring reward they merited. Joe Flynn opened their account with a point but Rooney quickly neutralised it with a like score. Then the Villagers struck their first real blow when Austin Deasy goalled, but a point by Joe O'Brien just on the half hour gave Ardmore a 3-3 to 1-1 lead.

Straight from the restart the winners were thrown back on to desperate defence. Almost

TWO COUNTY FINALS ON SUNDAY

Two County finals, one in hurling and one in football are down for decision on Sunday next. The game of the day should be the Intermediate football decider at Waterford between Adane and Erin's Own and the Western Primary and Intermediate champions will endeavour to earn senior status for themselves next year.

At Dungarvan Ardmore meet St. Molleran's (Carrickbeg) in the junior hurling final and a closely fought and keenly contested decider is in the offing.

SARGENT CUP SEMI-FINAL AT DUNGARVAN

Abbeyside and Fourmilewater meet in a most attractive curtain raiser to the Junior hurling county final at Dungarvan on Sunday next. Their meeting is in the semi-final of this year's Sargent Cup competition and Abbeyside on their recent county final form must be considered odds on favourites to advance to the final.

Indeed it was doubtful for some time past if Fourmilewater would be fulfilling this fixture at all. There were doubts about their ability to field a team at all but a specially convened meeting of the club on Monday night last it was decided to go ahead and throw down the gauntlet to the Villagers. Outsiders they may be, but the writer at any rate expects to them to put up a good battle and they may not be that far behind at the final whistle.

The spirit of course is strong in the Village just now and they hope to field their full championship side on Sunday. They have material in abundance at their disposal and they can hardly be opposed in this tie.

But what a wonderful opportunity it is for the Ballymac side to reach their first competitive final since gaining entry to the senior grade. True the number of players available is limited but whilst Kieran Ryan, Mick Connolly, Benny, Martin and Tom Walsh Tom Brazil and Austin Barron form the nucleus of their side they are entitled to command respect.

Thus the Villagers are unlikely to be caught napping. They remain firm favourites to reach the final but be prepared for strong Fourmilewater resistance.

MEDALS FOR COUNTY FOOTBALLERS

The Waterford senior football teams that won sectional honours in two National football leagues in recent years will receive medals. The Co. Board received the medals recently and they will be presented to the appropriate players at a special function in the near future.

Incidentally Clare's defeat by Limerick on Sunday last means that Limerick are now the only unbeaten team in this section which means that Waterford must stand an excellent chance of emerging victorious from their group again. They play the Shannonsiders at an away venue early in the new year.

BALLINACOURTY CLUB A.G.M.

The Ballinacourty Football Club held their annual general meeting at the Parish Hall, Ballinacourty, on Tuesday, 10th November last.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Rev. Fr. Walsh, C.C.; Chairman, Mr. P. J. Dwane; Vice-Chairman, Mr. P. J. Morrissey; Secretary, Mr. T. Mansfield; Treasurer, Mr. P. Norris; Committee: Messrs. P. Daly, M. Foley, C. Meehan, T. McCarthy, D. Murray, J. Power, Sean O'Brien.

Selection Committees for 1965—Intermediate football: P. J. Dwane, P. J. Morrissey, T. Mansfield, J. McGrath (capt.). Junior football: P. J. Dwane, T. McCarthy, S. O'Brien, D. Murray, T. Mansfield.

ABBEYSIDE UTD. — 6; ST. JOSEPH'S — 1.

AT Clonea Park on Sunday last, Abbeyside Utd. secured a very valuable brace of points, in the league (Division 111), when defeating City rivals St. Joseph's rather easily. In fact after the first twenty minutes it was obvious that the home-sters were getting complete control, and by half-time had gone into a three-goal advantage.

From the start, Abbeyside were immediately on the offensive, and after ten minutes play, John Michael Duggan netted the opening score.

Joseph's came into the game briefly shortly afterwards and were awarded a penalty which was converted, to make it all square at 1 goal each.

The homesters again took up the running, however, and further scores by Frankie McGovern, John M. Duggan, and Michael Keohan put them in an unassailable position by half-time. The latter's goal was particularly brilliant, collecting the ball in his own penalty area, he forged his way right through the whole St. Joseph's defence, before sending an unstoppable shot to the roof of the net.

On the change-over, Abbeyside had the advantage of hill and wind, and were content to play it rather casual, and two further goals were added by centre-forward Peter Power. But at all times in this half they gave the impression they could add further to their tally if it was really necessary.

From the homesters point of view the result must have been satisfactory, but one must add that the opposition were very disappointing to say the least.

Goalkeeper McGrath had a quiet afternoon and hardly had a shot against him during the entire game. Fuls Mulvihill and Organ were conspicuous and dealt effectively with the wingers. Wing-half Mick Keohan and centre-half Mick Lyons were a tower of strength and completely dominated all through.

The five forwards were at all times dangerous and had the ball in the net five times between them. Most credit must be given to inside-right Duggan, who, as well as netting twice, played a real captain's part throughout the entire game and had a hand in some of the other goals as well.

A minute's silence was observed before the game, as a mark of respect to their regular full-back Paddy Whelan, whose grandmother had died that morning, and the home team wore black arm-bands.

Abbeyside: J. McGrath; B. Mulvihill, B. Organ; J. O'Brien, M. Lyons, M. Keohan; M. Brett, J. M. Duggan, P. Power, T. Cowman, F. McGovern.

CLONMEL PIG MARKET

An entry of 1,593 pigs were on offer at Tuesday's Clonmel Pig Market, including 150 Bacon Pigs which were cleared without difficulty at much increased prices. Fat Sows were in good demand at previous rates. Strong and Medium weight pigs were in fair demand.

Smaller pigs under 50 lbs. liveweight were most difficult to clear even at lowest rates. Producers who offer pigs in this weight range would seem to be in for a lean time until next February or March. Sows with litters and Springing Sows were in fair demand.

Ruling prices were: Bacon pigs (quality), 180/- to 186/- per cwt L.W.; Bacon pigs (seconds), 171/- to 176/- do.; Pork Pigs, 170/- to 175/- do.; Fat Sows, 82/- to 90/- do.; Strong Stores, 1/8 to 1/10 per lb.; Medium Stores, 1/9 to 1/11 per lb.; Bonhams, 1/7 to 1/9 per lb.; Sows with Litters (quality), £242-10-0 to £255 each; Sows with litters (seconds), £35 to £38 each; Springing Sows (quality), £25 to £26-10-0 each; Springing Sows (seconds), £20 to £24 each.

The next Clonmel Pig Market will be held on Tuesday, 1st December. Auctioneers: Messrs. Stokes & Quirk Ltd., M.T.A.A.

N.F.A. NEWS APPEAL BY N.F.A. PRESIDENT

An appeal to everyone not to say or do anything which might damage the atmosphere of goodwill which had recently been established between N.F.A. and I.C.M.S.A. was made last week by Mr. Rickard Deasy, President of the N.F.A.

The full text of the statement, which was made in Athlone in November 11th, is as follows: "I find it necessary to refer to negotiations in progress for many months between N.F.A. and I.C.M.S.A. regarding a close working arrangement between the two Associations in the interests of all Irish farmers. We were very hopeful that these negotiations could be brought to a successful conclusion. We are convinced that the position of all Irish farmers could be greatly strengthened by the conclusion of a satisfactory arrangement between the two Associations.

We were very surprised to learn from the I.C.M.S.A. Negotiating Team, at a joint meeting on November 10th, that the full three-part document which was considered by the N.F.A. National Council on November 6th, was not, in fact, put before the I.C.M.S.A. Council at its meeting on the same date. It was transferred at yesterday's meeting of the Negotiating Team that one vital section dealing with ten important points was not put before the I.C.M.S.A. National Council meeting. This was the section headed 'Further Points Arising from Previous N.F.A./I.C.M.S.A. Meetings to be Recommended to the Respective National Councils.'

The I.C.M.S.A. Negotiating Team finding themselves unable to agree to the proposals of N.F.A. National Council for the implementation of a vital section of this part of the document then withdrew. In the circumstances we are convinced that the cause of unity among Irish farmers would not be served at this stage by holding the N.F.A. Council meeting which was to have reached a final decision on the draft agreement. The Special Council meeting called for 13 November has therefore been postponed.

We appeal to everyone not to say anything which might damage the atmosphere of goodwill which has recently been established."

BUSY WEEK

Altogether it was a busy week for the President, Mr. Deasy. On Monday night in Monaghan he criticised the British Government for testing us, the Anglo-Irish trade agreements, and he then called on all members of N.F.A. to buy only Irish goods during the present difficulties.

At Nenagh on the following night he announced the details of the N.F.A. sponsored "Car for India" project.

Mr. Deasy was in Athlone on Wednesday for the N.F.A. meeting which was called to discuss the problems of the 5 to 40 acre farmer. It was he pointed out one of the achievements of N.F.A. that they had forced on the community, and on the Government, recognition of the problem of low incomes of these small farmers.

BRITISH MOVE CRITICISED

"I, for one, have no interest in economic agreements unless they are of long term duration and unless some new element can be introduced to convince me that they are likely to be fully observed in the future." This was stated by Mr. Deasy in his speech at the Annual Dinner of the Monaghan County Executive in Monaghan.

He said the imposition of the British levy of 15% was a clear example of a series of solemn Trade Agreements, solemnly executed and on the Irish side faithfully observed, being torn up overnight on the other side without the semblance of the prior consultation which was one of the provisions of the Trade Agreement themselves. "We fully appreciate the economic difficulties of the British Government and I feel certain that, properly approached, the Irish Government would have shown itself not unsympathetic or un-cooperative"—then I for one can see no sense in suggestions that because one set of Trade Agreements has been first of all whittled away to our disadvantage, and secondly broken in a particularly abrupt and ruthless manner, we should now renege on the broken instruments by some new agreement negotiated with the very people who broke the present ones.

"How in all sense can we base the future of our economy on sands that shift as readily as these? The N.F.A. has for years questioned the wisdom of putting all our export eggs into the British basket. In recent years we have been told first of all that our butter was not wanted. Now we are asked to send more. It is scarcely twelve months since we were being invited to participate in a gentleman's agreement designed to limit our meat and livestock exports to Britain, yet at this moment we are being told that important interests in Britain are demanding from us an immediate expansion in our meat and livestock exports. This to me appears the very apotheosis of S.O.P.-S.O.P. applied to trading relationships.

"Situations such as these must inevitably raise fundamental doubts on the wisdom of the proposition which has been advanced with greater frequency in recent months, and in which would otherwise be considerable economic merit, of integrating more closely the economies of these two islands."

BLY IRISH

Mr. Deasy said that the N.F.A. had indicated that it would support all reasonable remedial measures designed to safeguard the Irish balance of payments position. "We would like to pay tribute to the way in which all the most progressive elements of Irish industry, after the initial shock, have rejected a negative policy of retrenchment and the wholesale laying-off of workers, and have rather given obvious indications of their determination to go to it and seek out new markets. This is in the best spirit of the new Ireland of which we are all proud."

There was of course one obvious way in which Irish farmers and their wives could best Irish industry to-day. He called on all members to "Buy Irish." As far as the farm was concerned, we had a not inconsiderable range of good quality Irish farm machinery, much of it tested and approved by the Machinery Testing Station of An Foras Taluntais. Wherever there was a good Irish machine on the market, we should regard it as a duty to buy this rather than the imported article, and thus help to keep our own people in full employment in our own factories.

As far as the farm home was concerned, we were now fortunate in having a very wide range of high quality goods—clothing, food and home appliances. These we could buy. He would like to see this effort carried one stage further, and he would like to be sure that every prospective customer for non-essential items would examine his or her conscience closely—he felt many of us could contribute effectively to reducing the present import excess if for non-essential items we were to take the decision "If I cannot buy Irish, then for the moment I will use the money otherwise."

issued by Fr. Raymond Browne, C.C., National Chairman of Muintir na Tíre, on Thursday, Nov. 12th: "Having read in the papers that differences between N.F.A. and I.C.M.S.A. were not yet fully resolved, Muintir na Tíre explored the desirability of mediation to secure full agreement. "It is understood that the differences are not such that the intervention of a mediator is required."

Late Miss Johanna Lenane

Revere, Boston, and Mullinahorna, Ring

It is with deep regret we record the death of Miss Johanna Lenane, which sad event occurred during the early days of November, at Revere, Boston, after a rather short duration of illness, but at the allotted span. The deceased had spent most of her life in Boston, where she was a most popular lady, due to her many outstanding qualities which included gentleness of disposition and great charity.

A great gloom was cast over the Ring district when the news of her death became known, as she was also very popular in her native area.

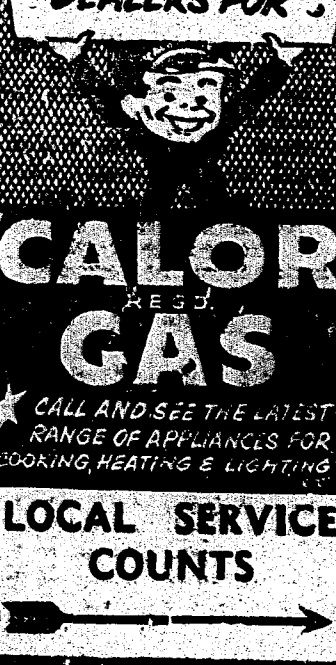

We extend our deepest sympathy to her brother, Jack Lenane, Mullinahorna, sister-in-law, Mrs. J. Lenane, and to her nephews and nieces, in this sad occasion.

Her remains were flown to Colington Airport on Thursday, November 12th, and were conveyed to Ring Church and were blessed and received by Rev. J. Kennedy, C.C. A large concourse of sympathisers was present.

Requiem Masses were celebrated on Friday morning for the happy and eternal repose of her gentle soul, and the interment took place in the adjoining family plot. Another large and representative concourse were present. Very Rev. J. O'Donnell, P.P., assisted by Rev. J. Kennedy, C.C., imparted the final absolution and recited the prayers of requiem at the graveside. Some beautiful floral wreaths were placed on the grave and large sheaves of Mass cards were received by her relatives.

(Funeral arrangements were carried out by James Kely & Sons, Dungarvan.)

Affane Can Make Football History

But Ardmore Face Fancied Mollerans

WESTERN loyalty will stand united on Sunday next, but interest will be divided between the Waterford and Dungarvan venues where Affane and Ardmore will endeavour to bring further County titles to the Division. The top game of the day is undoubtedly billed for Waterford where Affane and Erin's Own clash in the Intermediate football final. At Dungarvan there should be thrills aplenty also in the meeting of Ardmore and St. Molleran's in the junior hurling junior hurling honours this year, they will be outsiders when they face St Molleran's (Carrickbeg) in the county final at Dungarvan.

Molleran's have literally annihilated all opposition in the East this year including such fancied contenders as Forshaw, Dunhill and Tramore.

The are unfortunate to be without centre-back Tom O'Donnell, out of action through injury since defeating Dunhill. But they have an abundance of material and their big men are defenders Nicky Fitzgerald, Joe Walsh and goalkeeper Michael Gillman.

In attack their stars are Jim Norris, Mick Walsh and Kill football star Paddy Finnucane. Yes, make no mistake about it, Ardmore are up against it, and in Eastern circles it will be regarded as the biggest upset of the decade if Molleran's are beaten.

But Ardmore have already been beaten in one county final this year and they are determined not to go under in a second. They have plenty of the right material and if given the breaks could well upset the odds. The venture West is behind them in their exacting test. However, Mollerans are undoubtedly the form team and must, reluctantly be given the vote.

The football final is one that has aroused tremendous public interest. Neither Affane nor Erin's Own who do battle for the honours were given even the remotest hope at the start of the year, yet here they are on Sunday next battling for Intermediate glory and the senior status that automatically goes with it for next year.

Both clubs are more familiarly recognised as hurling strongholds but this year their football prowess has surpassed canam craft and right now these rivals are feverishly football conscious indeed.

For Affane, Sunday next marks what is probably their proudest day in G.A.A. history. Little over a year ago they were not even regarded as worthy championship contenders in the big ball code, but to-day they command the rightful respect of all rivals within the County. From the Primary grade they have built themselves into a force to be reckoned with and as I write are but one football hour away from participation in the '65 senior championship. What a phenomenal achievement that would be by one of the County's less glamorous clubs.

In fact it is almost two years now since these blue and gold Affaners have suffered a championship defeat in football. Last year saw them score victory after victory in the Primary championship and without undue difficulty annexed the Western and County crowns.

But so keen was the rivalry in the Intermediate championship that few gave them any hope of making much headway in the higher grade.

But how magnificently they have confounded those who so willingly disregarded them. In the opening round they ever display to defeat the Western favourites Ballinacourty by a point. Then came their tilt with neighbouring rivals, Cappoquin, at the latter's own venue and after a great game the sides ended on level terms. But in the replay at the same venue, Affane made no mistake, however, and their truly superlative display in that game left no doubts as to their real potential. In the Western final proper against the Bricks, they were not over impressive yet had a safe winning margin at the end.

For Sunday's vital encounter they have trained as never before. The specially rigged lights surrounding their training pitch has made it possible for them to go through their paces into the late night hours and the Easterners cannot expect to enjoy any advantage on the score of fitness.

Although they have not yet announced their side the general feeling amongst followers is that they will rely on the side that defeated the Bricks.

Between the posts they are very well served by Pat Stapleton and John Healy and Danny Coughlan are also likely to find Tom Scanlon, Paddy McGrath and Tom Stapleton in uncompromising mood.

But the more I preview this final the more convinced I am that it will be won and lost at midfield. Hereabouts Erin's Own are brilliantly served by John Meaney and Peter McGovern, the Carlow-born garda, who have mastered every opposition to date. Against them are pitted Pat Denn and Paddy McGrath and the duels between this quartet should be amongst the highlights of the hour. The Affane attack has the peculiarity of being good and bad in turn. On Sunday, the six forwards face their most exacting test so far, but if Jimmy McGrath, Eddie Shea and company get the right opportunities they will not squander them.

Erin's Own have not been terribly impressive in winning Eastern honours but feel that ground advantage will swing the issue in their favour. They narrowly defeated Fenor in the opening round and followed this up with victories over Newtown, and Dunhill in the Divisional final.

The are fortunate in having a top-class keeper in Michael Farrell and in defence Paddy Hanmigan, Joe Coady and Carlow man, Willie Walsh are the key men.

But it is to midfielders Peter McGovern and John Meaney that followers will look to for victory. This towering pair are fine footballers by any standards and if Affane can gain even an equal break in this sector I believe they can take the title.

In attack the Easterners seem to be best served by Joe Condon, Charlie Ware, Jimmy Burke and Peter Walsh. Whatever the outcome it promises to be a great battle. The sides are very evenly matched on paper at least and the issue seems certain to be a closely fought one.

The Easterners however, are banking almost completely on midfielders Meaney and McGovern and if Denn and McGrath rise to the occasion then the bonfires will be blazing in that country. Personally I believe this pair will be up to the demands of it all and for that reason I give Affane the vote to make

ARDMORE'S TASK
Impressive though Ardmore have been in winning Western

Waterford Had Little Difficulty

NOW HEAD GROUP SECTION

WATERFORD 6-10; CARLOW 1-7
WATERFORD'S unbeaten National Hurling League record remained intact on Sunday last when they successfully overcame the challenge of Carlow at the latter's venue and thereby joined Wexford at the top of their five team section. Many of the Leinster side's efforts were little short of feeble but there was a very noticeable improvement in Waterford's all-round display and hopes are high within the County that they will emerge as one of the League semi-finalists from their group.

The standard of hurling was not very high, principally because Carlow lacked finesse and skill but Waterford's second half display during which they turned on the heat, was more encouraging than anything we have seen from them for quite a while. This improvement was spiced off in the main by an exuberant Tom Cheasty who replaced Pat McGovern at the interval and injected new life into a sector that laboured for the opening thirty minutes.

That first half saw Carlow give of their best and during that half Waterford looked anything but a formidable hurling force. True the Deise men got off to flying start with a first minute goal by John Flavin, but soon they were on the receiving end of spirited Carlow hurling and three good points brought the homesters back to level terms. Then in the 20th minute a Frankie Walsh point restored the Waterford lead which they never subsequently lost. The rest by 3-2 to 0-5 at the interval — a scoreline, however that if anything flattered them somewhat.

But with the introduction of Cheasty on the restart, the Waterford team was a revitalised one in every respect. A hitherto somewhat sluggish defence tightened its grip considerably; midfield supremacy was won, due mainly to the great efforts of Liam Enright, whilst the attack spear-headed by the Ballyduff man became a far more potent

With almost consummate ease the scores were picked off and soon the sparse attendance began filing homewards, resigned to the fact that the homesters were booked for yet another heavy defeat. Waterford piled on the considerable tally of 3-8 during that half, in reply to Carlow's meagre and insufficient 1-2.

The Waterford team showed many changes from the original selection and was in fact something of an experimental fifteen. Larry Guinan, Phil Grimes and Seamus Power all cried off late in the week; Mick Flannelly and John Barron are still not available and Tom Cunningham finds himself temporary out of favour. But once again it was the old hands that did the bulk of the "damage" and it seems likely that most of the above named sextet will be back on duty for the stern after-Christmas engagements.

Once again new goalkeeper Jim Power was most impressive between the sticks. He showed expert anticipation and appears to possess most of the requirements for this onerous task. In the full line Austin Flynn showed a welcome return to his best form after his indifferent outing against Dublin whilst Dunhill's Tommy Allen was very solid in the right corner. Abbeyside's Mick Kiely was not at his best in the other corner but should not be discarded because of this one below par performance. Tommy Hearne, dropped for this game, but recalled because of last minute defences, gave a brilliant display at right half-back and is certainly going to be difficult to supplant now. Martin Og was a solid pivot and Jimmy Byrne hurled his usual polished game at left half. At midfield John Meaney again impressed but it was Liam Enright who stole the thunder hereabouts over the hour. The Abbeyside revealed his best form in this encounter and even allowing for the substandardness of the opposition showed distinct promise.

For half an hour the forwards made little headway and the sector as a whole cannot have given satisfaction. Cheasty for half an hour achieved more than others did in an hour and neither Pat McGovern, John O'Brien nor Charlie Ware made the grade. Frankie Walsh, Vinny Connors and John Flavin with Cheasty were best and accounted for the bulk of the scores. But this attacking sector is undoubtedly in need of "repair" and scores are unlikely to be obtained as easily against the Wexford and Limerick defences.

Carlow's best were goalkeeper Tom Murphy, Pat Somers, Willie Hogan and sub. Molling Morrissey.

Scorers for Waterford were F. Walsh (2-3); V. Connors (2-0); J. Flavin (2-0), T. Cheasty (0-4); J. O'Brien (0-2) and C. Ware (0-1), with L. Walsh (1-4), M. McGree (0-1), M. Morrissey (0-1) and T. Mitchell (0-1) replying for Carlow.

Waterford — J. Power; T. Allen, A. Flynn, M. Kiely; T. Hearne; M. Og Morrissey, J. Byrne; J. Meaney, L. Enright; P. McGovern, J. O'Brien, F. Walsh; V. Connors, C. Ware; J. Flavin, Sub. — T. Cheasty for McGovern.

Carlow — T. Murphy; P. O'Neill, P. Somers, S. Nolan; T. Coburn, M. O'Brien, J. Hickey; W. Hogan, T. Whelan; M. McGree; L. Walsh, P. O'Connell; J. Walsh, T. Walsh, T. Mitchell, Subs.—M. Morrissey (for O'Connell); P. Mullins (for T. Murphy). Referee—P. Maddocks (Wexford).

GAELIC JOTTINGS

GERALDINES ADVANCE IN PHELAN CUP

The Aglish Geraldines advanced a stage further in the current Phelan Cup competition on Sunday last when they scored a deserved and convincing 4-3 to 0-2 victory over Emmetts at Cappoquin.

It was a disappointing game for the small attendance as Emmetts never offered serious resistance and the Aglishers almost unchallenged stroled to victory. But if Emmetts were seldom in the game with a chance this was a very much improved Aglish performance and they may not be the push over many think in the next round against county champions Kiltassanty. Emmetts had to field very much below strength for this game and in fact had considerable difficulty in mustering a team for the game. Their makeshift fifteen could never claim equality with the opposition, and only Paddy Walsh, Cyril Power, Jack Kieley and Jim Cliffe prevented a complete rout.

WATERFORD - NEW YORKERS COMING IN 1965

The Waterford-New York team which made a successful tour of the County in 1964 intend to make a similar tour in July or August next. 1960 people are reported to be in a flight and already that the use has nearly been reached. Plans are continuing towards that goal.

Homely family cooking, or a splendid spread for special occasions—Kosangas always ensures beautifully cooked food, plus economy.

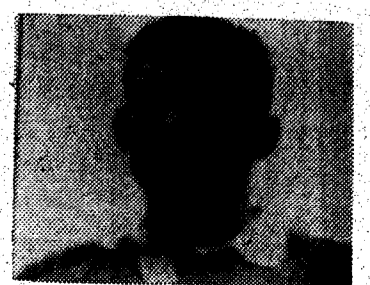

ROAST LAMB
2 1/2 lbs. loin or best and neck of lamb.
2 ozs. dripping.
Put dripping into roasting tin and place in oven at 350° for 10 minutes. Wipe over meat with damp cloth, place in tin and baste with hot fat. Cook, allowing 20 minutes per pound and 20 minutes over. Serve with mint sauce. If preferred lamb can be prepared by butcher in round shape and the centre filled with veal foremeat. Cook as above and add paper frills on the top of each cutlet before serving. Mint sauce, peas and new potatoes (when in season) make a nice accompaniment to this dish.

Because Kosangas cooks quicker, meals are ready sooner. And when dishes need slow cooking, turn down the Kosangas flame to a tiny 'bead'. Result—perfectly cooked food, with extra economy! Kosangas cooking is found in all the best run homes! It's proof of your clever housekeeping, when you change to modern cooking and water heating with Kosangas—Ireland's best and cheapest bottled gas.
